Skylar was shocked to see Cassidy acting like that, she considered apologizing as Cassidy really looked like she had lost her mind compared to how she was moments ago. Eventually, Cassidy's hands dropped, and she pointed at Tobias. "What do you people want from me! Is death my only way out! Please don't come looking for me! Please! I have already quit!"

"Your life's not worth it." Tobias narrowed his eyes, cold and piercing. "No one's forcing you to do anything. You're the one who can't get over it."

From what he said, Skylar assumed that Tobias had seen Cassidy's naked body before this. Did he sleep with Cassidy?

On the other hand, Sandra also recognized Tobias because she saw him at a tendering event. Once was enough to leave a vivid impression. With Tobias' appearance, a lot of questions Sandra had on her mind finally made sense. How a newcomer like Skylar could snatch Avery's role from her and how quickly she gained fame. It's all because she has him backing her up!

Sandra instantly realized that she should restart the recording, so her hand slowly shifted towards her purse. Nevertheless, Skylar had sharp eyes, as she spotted her movement, and approached her. "Ms. Morrison, can I take a look at your purse? You've been fiddling with it ever since you arrived." She was quiet but exuded immense pressure. Sandra felt goosebumps from hearing that. "This is my belongings. You have no right to go through it."

Skylar snickered, proceeding to take off her ring and tossed it on her bed. "Oh my. I think I lost my ring. Where could it be? Maybe I should call the police. With only the four of us here, do you think they will search through that purse of yours?"

Just as Sandra was hesitating, Skylar seized the opportunity and took her purse away from her. A mini recorder!

She took a look at Cassidy, who was crouching on the floor. Her hands covered her head as she kept on mumbling. "It's not like this. Please don't come near me. I'm not like this."

So, Skylar played the recording and listened to their prior conversation.

After that, she dropped the recorder into Tobias' pocket, right in front of Sandra, before taking out her phone to record Cassidy's current condition.

"I'll keep the recorder for now. You'll get it back once the content is wiped. Ms.

Morrison,

this isn't the first time you did this, right? When Cassidy broke up a while ago, the boyfriend got into trouble because of a leaked voice recording. This happened every time broke up with someone. Maybe you should have joined the filming crew since you loved recording so much, Ms. Morrison. "

Cassidy

Sandra gulped. She felt like a clown who just got exposed. The awkwardness was so intense that she could barely breathe.

Tobias had his arms crossed with Cassidy crouching right by his legs, still mumbling the same things repeatedly.

Soon enough, Skylar got annoyed at the sight of the two women. "Take her back and get some rest. She must be exhausted by now. I don't think she'll be able to cry anymore tomorrow."

Sandra did not know why Cassidy turned insane when she saw Tobias, but she slowly picked Cassidy up and supported her back to her room.

After they left, the smile on Skylar's face gradually faded.

Tobias took out the recorder from his pocket and handed it to her. She said that she would return it after wiping the content. Nevertheless, she regretted her decision and snapped the recorder in half before throwing the SD card into the toilet.

"If you have anything to ask, feel free to shoot your questions." Tobias went and sat on the bed.

"Have you slept with Cassidy before? Why did she go crazy the moment she saw you?"

Skylar was sweating profusely during the brief moment where she waited for Tobias' answer. She knew he did not like to hide things, so he would never lie to her, even if it meant hurting her.

“Nope. I just met her a few times at some private gatherings.”
Skylar was relieved. She would be disgusted if Tobias slept with Cassidy, and she definitely would not be able to accept that fact.
Skylar knew it was unrealistic to assume that Tobias was still a virgin, but she could never tolerate him getting involved with people she hated.
With that out of the way, Skylar waited for Tobias to continue, but he remained silent.
“Is that all?” Skylar was puzzled at the abrupt stop of their conversation.
“I’m exhausted from a whole day of work. Can I rest for now?” Tobias gestured for her to get in bed. “Talking is very tiring too. Let’s continue tomorrow morning.”
Tobias realized that he had underestimated a woman’s nosiness when morning came. As soon as they woke up, Skylar continued hounding him, wanting to know more about the things between Cassidy and him.

Tobias did not get a good night’s sleep, so he was still dazed. “Cassidy is famous within the rich men’s circle. God knows how many men she slept with at this point. I reckon something happened along the way, and she was traumatized by it.”
Skylar recalled how Cassidy was last night. It looked like she got forced to do something against her will, and Skylar felt a little sympathy for her. What has she gone through?
“You men have no respect for women.” Her sense of justice welled up from within.
“You guys only want women to be your toys and have your way with them. Money can’t buy everything!”
Tobias was a little more awake by now. Skylar’s generalization of men made it sound like he committed some grave sins, even though he did nothing of the sort.
“I never thought of it that way,” he replied. “These things are usually consensual. Cassidy must have been desperate because she needed support. She wanted to gain fame, so she made that choice willingly. There’s no one to blame.”
Hearing that made Skylar realized that Cassidy was very popular a few years back. She landed roles after roles even though her acting skill was infamous. Despite that, she was selected as the main character on multiple occasions.

It was only recently when her popularity started going downhill that her mental health started deteriorating. She was always on the headlines for the most bizarre reasons. Just the other day, she was caught stealing in a shopping complex. All the proof was posted on the internet for the world to see, but her fans would always pop up and come up with excuses for her. They even requested an apology from the shopping complex for slandering her. Cassidy was the one at fault, but the shopping complex eventually caved in due to the pressure from the public and put up an announcement to publicly apologize to Cassidy. Skylar suddenly felt energized, so she asked Tobias to guarantee that he and Cassidy never had anything going on. Tobias did not want to entertain the childish notion, but he saw that Skylar was treating it seriously.

Therefore, he raised his hand and swore that there was nothing between him and Cassidy, adding, "My standard isn't that low."
"Well you wanted me, so your standard is mediocre at best."
Skylar said that so that she could bait out a compliment from Tobias so that he would tell her how great she was. However, Tobias actually agreed with her. "True enough. I definitely did not think things through when I made that decision. But it's too late to regret it. We've been together for so long now. I doubt anyone could replace you."
