

Chapter 51 - Alpha Alexa

Alexa's POV

I stepped into the shower with my emotions running high. I could feel how sorry Colter was, and I wanted to forgive him and let him back in, but I just wasn't ready.

"Lex, be strong. Make him learn a lesson from this. We are strong and won't allow him to treat us this way. If he ever does it again, you leave him on his ass." Jade linked me.

"I agree, Lex. We should have kicked his ass when it happened." Storm linked next.

"Girls, I know, but the mate bond makes it hard. That's part of the reason we have it. So that when mistakes are made, they can be forgiven. Also, he is our other half, and he completes us. I am partially to blame. He asked me not to, and I did it anyway."

"Girl, it doesn't matter. He shouldn't have put his hands on us." Jade said.

I cut my link with them. I need to stop thinking about this. I had to meet with my new team, and I wasn't ready. I stepped out of the shower and dried my body, and wrapped a towel around my head. I walked out of the bathroom naked, and Colter was sitting on the bed waiting for me to get out. His eyes instantly went black as he took in my naked body.

I could see that he swallowed and went to say something, but his mouth opened and then closed and then opened again.

"You trying to catch flies with that thing?" I asked him with a cocked eyebrow.

"Um no, sorry." He said.

I pulled the towel off my head and threw it at him, and started to walk to the closet.

"What's this for?" he asked, catching the towel.

"To wipe your drool."

His face broke out in a smile, and I went to the closet and pulled out a pair of skinny jeans and found a white lacey thong and matching bra and a black crop top. I slipped my clothes on and found my tennis shoes and sock and got those on. I went back out, and Colter was in the shower

now. I walked in and grabbed my hairbrush and ran it through my hair, and then brushed my teeth.

By the time I was completely ready, Colter had gotten out of the shower and was about dressed as well. I went and sat on the bed and waited for him. His pine scent was always so strong after a shower. He walked over to me and held out his hand to me. I looked him up and down before reaching out and taking his hand. My hand erupted with tingles. The mate bond in full force and making it hard for me to stay mad.

“Princess you ready to meet this team?”

“Yes.” That was all I had for him.

We walked downstairs hand in hand, and when we got down there, people were running around everywhere. I am guessing it has to do with the new arrivals. We walked to the conference room where we were meeting them and when I opened the door they were already in there waiting for us.

Julian stood up and came over to us.

“These guys don’t say a whole lot. Well, they haven’t yet, but they just got here also.” Julian said.

I walked up to the head of the table and introduced us to them.

“Welcome and thank you guys for coming. I am Alpha Alexa; this is my mate Alpha Colter, and we are currently at Alpha Julian’s pack. I would like you to each introduce yourselves and please tell me what your expertise is in.”

“I am Jack, and I am the lead warrior at the Elite academy.”

“I am Joe, and I am a top warrior at the Elite academy.”

“I Phillip and I am also a top warrior at the Elite academy, and I am also an expert in weapons.”

“I am Emma, and I am an expert in computers and technology and also am a top female warrior.”

“Emma, I do believe that you and I will be working closely together to begin with as we have technology that needs looked at.” I told her.

“I am happy to get started on it whenever you would like.” She said back.

“Actually, right now would be great. If you want to come with me and the rest of you, can talk with Alpha Colter and continue to introduce yourself to him.” I announced to them.

Emma got up and followed me out of the room. We walked out of the room and headed for the room that was set up with all of the computer stuff we had. I opened the door for Emma, and I walked in behind her and closed the door.

"Emma, where you filled in on everything that is going on?" I asked her.

"We were briefed but I would prefer if you told me what is going on. It's always best to get directly from the source."

This girl was beautiful. She had long blonde like almost white hair and these bright green eyes that even I could get lost in. I've never been into girls, but I could be in to her. I shook my head to clear my thoughts and began telling her everything that had happened. By the time I was done, she had a horrified look on her face.

"I am so sorry that this happened to you, Alpha Alexa, but I am honored to be here helping you. Now let's get started on this computer." She said.

I opened the laptop and she began working and her fingers were flying over the keyboard. I've never seen anyone type that fast. After about ten minutes of work, she slammed her hands down on the table.

"Is everything ok? I asked her.

"No, they have some impossible security on here. Don't worry, though, I will get around it. I need to go get some of my equipment." She said as she stood up and walked out of the room. I got up and followed behind her.

We walked back to the conference room, and everyone was sitting there chatting. Emma walked over and got a giant bag on wheels, and headed back out.

"Emma, I will be right there. Go ahead and get started." I told her, and she just nodded at me and walked out of the room.

"OK, boys, I think the first thing we need to do is figure out what all is on the computer and if we can narrow down what all is going on and where Robert is."

"I agree. I was just filling them in on everything that has been going on, so they are completely up to speed." Colter said as he came to my side and kissed my head.

"Julian, have you heard anything from the trackers that you sent out?" I asked him.

"No, they are supposed to be back tonight or at least call and check in." He answered me.

"OK, I am going to go back and see how Emma is coming along." I turned and left the room while the boys continued to talk.

I walked back down the hall, and when I got to the room where Emma was working, I could hear her getting frustrated. I opened the door and closed it behind me and walked over to my chair, and sat down.

"How's it going?" I asked her.

"Well, it's not. Someone real smart set this shit up. Don't worry, I am smarter; it's just going to take me a few minutes." She said, not even looking up. Her fingers flew across the keyboard, doing who knows what.

I sat there watching her for a while when she finally pushed her chair back and looked up at me and smiled.

"See, I told you I am smarter." She said.

"That's great, but I don't know what you're talking about."

"I installed a program that will let us know when someone logs into the program that they are using for whatever they are doing, and once they do, we will be in."

"That's great! Take a look at what else we found and tell me what your thoughts are." I told her as I pointed out what I wanted her to look into.

She started to go through different things on the computer and read through things. I just sat there watching her.

"You need to get your mate and Alpha Julian in here now." She said, looking up at me.

"Colter, you need to come here and bring Julian with you." I mind linked him.

"We will be right there." He linked back.

I just sat there looking at her, waiting for her to say something, but she just kept quiet. It only took them about three minutes to get there.

"What did you girls find?" Colter asked as him and Julian came in.

"I am not sure Emma has been waiting for you guys to get here before saying anything." I said.

We all turned to her, and she pulled something up on the computer and clicked around for a minute.

"OK, this was something that was locked by them, but I got it open, and you can see there are dates, and besides the dates, there are coordinates. I think these are drop-off locations or pickup locations just from what you guys have said, but if you look here, this is a future date. I think something might go down here. I also think we are dealing with more than one Alpha and possibly multiple packs or people."

"Holy shit this is amazing. Good work, Emma." I said.

She turned and gave us a beaming smile. It was like a toothpaste commercial it was so perfect.

"Emma, can you get this all printed off, and maybe we can figure out a pattern, or look for missing people in those areas." Colter said.

"Yes, it will take a while to get these printed, but I will get started." She said as she got to work setting up a printer.

"Julian, we are going to need maps so we can start pinning these places on the map." Colter said, looking to him.

"I have Luca pulling them already." Julian said.

"Good, this date here is in two days, so we don't have a lot of time to figure this out." I said.

"I will have the kitchen bring up dinner where going to be here all night." Julian said.

"We also need a list of missing people and see if we can pinpoint where they are taking them and how far they are moving them too before they sell them," I said.

"Good idea." Colter said.

"Alright, let's go tell everyone what we have found and get things set up. It's going to be a long night." I said.

I turned to leave, but Colter grabbed my hand and pulled me to him. The other two left the room and let us have a private moment.

"Princess, you ok?" He asked me.

"I am fine. I just want to put a stop to all of this and kill Robert." I mumbled into his chest.

"You will princess, you are stronger and smarter than him." He said as he leaned down and kissed me.

I melted into him as much as I still wanted to be mad. We had bigger issues, and I needed his help. We just stood there kissing for a few minutes, and when I finally pulled back, he rested his head against my forehead while we caught our breath.

"Princess, I love you. We love you. Grey and I love you and Jade and Storm so much!" He said in a breathy wispher.

Did he really just say that? My heart was beating so fast I thought I might take flight. Both Jade and Storm were prancing around in my head as happy as can be.

"Tell him back." Jade yelled out.

"Now!" Storm piped in.

"Colter, we love you too, and we love Grey too."

He slammed his lips down to mine and pulled me up so that my legs wrapped around his waist and we kept kissing eaching.

We were so wrapped up in each other that we didn't hear someone come into the room with us, but them clearing their throat broke us out of our trance. I pulled my head away and found Luca and Emma staring at us.

"Sorry you guys, you're just needed in the other room, and Emma needs to keep printing." Luca said.

"Come on, princess."

Chapter 51

Chapter 52 - Alpha Alexa

Julian's POV

We were sitting there trying to locate people that were missing and pinning them on a map when we did. We also had the dates of when they were taken and the dates they were sold. Everyone was working hard when someone started knocking on the door.

"Come in," I yelled out and Nicki walked in pushing a tray of food.

The smell hit my nose and that is when I realized how hungry I was. My stomach rumbled really loud and several people turned to look at me. Nicki had people coming in behind her pushing trays of food as well. I got up and went over to her.

"How did you know we needed dinner?" I asked her while pulling her into my arms and giving her a kiss.

"I heard someone talking in the kitchen while I was walking by and decided I would help them."

“You’re amazing! Why don’t you stay with us and eat.” I grabbed her hand, and we went over and stood in line to fix our plates.

The table was full of maps so everyone made do on the floor eating. It was pretty quiet while everyone scarfed down their food.

“Baby, this is some of the best food ever. Both times you have cooked for me have been amazing. You can cook for me anytime.” I told her giving her one of the biggest smiles I could muster up.

After everyone was done eating, we piled the dishes up on the trays and I called for an Omega to come and get them.

“Nicki, do you have anything else going on?” Alexa asked.

“No, I was going to go back up to Julian's room.”

“Why don’t you stay? You have as many reasons as me to want Robert dead and caught and you know more about him and his nasty ways than anyone else.”

“I would love to help in any way I can,” Nicki answered.

“Come on, I will catch you up to speed.”

I walked Nicki over to the table and started to explain everything when the alarm bells started going on off. That’s when the mind links started to come in.

“Were under attack. Northeast border. Fifty wolves. Let's go.” I told everyone and then turned to Nicki.

“Nicki, stay here. I will send someone up with you.”

“I can stay said one of the guys from the academy.”

I just nodded at him, and we all took off running towards the front door. As soon as we were all outside, we all shifted. When Alexa shifted, I didn’t recognize her. Her wolf looked different but the same. Her coloring had the same colors but the opposite of what they were the last time I saw her. I would have to ask her later about it.

It didn’t take us long to get to where the fight was, and everyone sprang into action.

“Try to keep one alive and see if we can get information out of them.” I linked out to my pack.

Everyone was taking someone down but this time I didn’t see any more coming out of the woods like last time. I sent a mind link out to the trackers that were here to get out there and see if they could find anything.

It didn't take long to get this group of rouges fought off and retreating back for the ones that were alive, we had a few in custody. We all started to shift back but the rouges wouldn't. I tried to Alpha command them, but it didn't work on them because they weren't part of my pack.

"SHIFT NOW!" Alexa roared and anyone that was in wolf form shifted back and everyone bared their necks to her.

I walked over to her, and I could see that her eyes were a dark blue which was a new color that I had never seen before.

"Alexa?" I said her name trying to get her attention.

"No, I am her other wolf, Storm. Now get these rouges to your dungeon so we can question them later." She commanded and my warriors got to work.

We all started to attend to the wounded, but everything was pretty minor this go around. We got them back to the pack house and Nicki was waiting with a pile of clothes and first aid kits. I walked over to her and started helping her to hand out clothes. She grabbed the first aid kit and went to the wounded and started to clean their wounds, but their wolves would heal them pretty quickly.

"Thank you, baby, you have been amazing today." I kissed her.

"It's my pleasure, I enjoy doing all of this. What else can I help you with?" She asked me.

"Nothing, it's late everyone should get some sleep." She shook her head at me and grabbed my hand.

"Everyone let's get sleep and we can pick up where we left off in the morning. For all of our guests, I have an Omega for each of you to show you to your rooms." I yelled out to everyone.

They all shook their heads and started to head inside, and Nicki and I headed up to my room. Once we got up to my room, I told Nicki I was going to head into the shower and clean up before bed.

I walked into the bathroom and turned the hot water on and took off the shorts that I had slipped on when we got back to the pack house. I stepped under the hot water and let it wash away all the dirt and blood and just the whole day in general.

"You need to ask Nicki to be our Luna, do you see how perfect she is for us?" Zion linked me.

"I would love to. I just don't know if she would accept. It hasn't been very long, but I know I love her and your right she would make the perfect Luna." I linked him back.

"So, what are you waiting for we choose her as our chosen mate and Luna." Zion linked back.

"I don't want to scare her away. We have to give her time. She has been hurt." I told him.

He started to say something, but I felt a pair of hand wrap around my waist, and someone started to kiss my neck.

"What are you doing in here baby?" I turned and asked her.

Goddess, she was beautiful and perfect. Having her naked body pressed up against mine felt right.

"I thought you might want some company." She said as she started to kiss my chest.

"Baby you do that, and we are going to have to talk about what comes up?"

"Was that a cheesy way of telling me that your dick is getting hard?" She asked.

"Yes, it is. I can't help it. Your naked and pressed against me and you start kissing me and I would love nothing more than to bury myself in you, but we will wait until you are ready." I told her.

"What if I said I was ready. Something feels right and I am supposed to be by your side. Also, my wolf is getting a little strong. I can feel her a little more and when I am around you, I can feel her happiness."

I didn't want to talk anymore. I needed my lips on hers, so I started to lightly press them to hers and she opened up allowing me to slip my tongue into her mouth and started to trail my hands up and down her sides. She was letting out little moans and I could faintly smell her arousal.

"Angel, I want this, I really do but not in the shower. You deserve to be worshiped properly."

She stood on her tiptoes and lightly kissed my lips and then turned and walked out of the shower. I didn't waste any time and followed her out. She was quick to dry off and I did a fast once over with my towel and followed her out but didn't let her get very far before I grabbed her arm and spun her so she was facing me. I kissed her with so much passion and pushed her backward as I did until she hit my bed. I broke our kiss and pushed her down on the bed but pulled her down until her ass was hanging off the edge of the bed.

I gave her a wicked smile and dropped to my knees and spread her legs apart. I dove in like a man starved and couldn't get enough of her. I could feel her getting close and stopping what I was doing. She quickly shot up and gave me a not-so-nice look.

"Why did you stop?" She asked.

"Angel, I have a question before we go further."

"OK, what's up but just so you know you're kinda being a mood killer right now."

I started laughing. This was one of the many reasons I wanted to ask her.

"Will you be our chosen mate and our Luna? I know it hasn't been long but I love you and I want you by my side forever."

She had a blank look on her face. Crap did I do this too soon. I could see tears forming in her eyes but she still wasn't saying anything.

"Angel, you don't have to answer me. I am sorry this was too soon. Please let's forget it." I told her trying to get out of this.

She dropped her head down and I could see her starting to sob. I reached my hand under her chin and brought her face back up and kissed each tear that fell.

"I am sorry, you have misunderstood my tears. These are happy tears. I never thought I would find someone to love me after everything that happened. I love you too and I chose you."

I couldn't take it anymore and I slammed my lips to hers and pushed her back on the bed and we worked our way up the bed until we were at the top. She wrapped her legs around my waist and pulled me as close as I could be unless I entered her but that was next.

I broke our kiss and pulled my body back a little bit and lined myself up with her.

"Angel, are you sure about this?" I asked her.

"I have never been so sure about anything in my life."

I slowly started to push into her. She felt amazing. I continued to inch into her until I was all the way in and I slowly started to move back and forth. Her tits would bounce up and down with my thrust. I need to taste them as well. I leaned my head down and started to suck on one of her nipples and she instantly arched them up into my mouth further and moaned out.

"Angel, do you like your nipples played with?" I asked her as I started to roll it between my teeth.

"yyesss" she moaned out loudly.

I started to thrust into her hard but kept teasing her nipples as we went. Her moaning was getting more and more and she was meeting my thrust each time.

"I am going to mark you, Angel."

"Yes, I am going to cum, do it now." She screamed.

I leaned down and kissed her marking spot and called Xion forward and he elongated our canines out and just as she started to orgasm I sank my teeth into her. Her pussy started to squeeze around me and I couldn't hold back as my orgasm took over with my teeth still in her. As soon as I could I licked her wound so it would heal up quickly.

"Angel, are you ok?" I asked her. Her eyes were closed and she wasn't moving.

I didn't get a response from her at all, no matter how hard I tried.

"Zion, can you feel anything with her wolf?" I asked my wolf.

"No, I get nothing at all"

Shit, this was bad, so bad. What if I killed her? I mean she is still breathing but what if she doesn't wake up? I needed a doctor up here now. I sent a mind link to one of my pack doctors to come to my room right now.

Chapter 53 - Alpha Alexa

Colter's POV

"Come on Princess, let's go to our room and so we can shower and go to bed," I told her leaning in and kissing her head.

"I am showering alone." She said.

She slid her hand down my arm and took my hand and we headed to our room. We were both quiet on the way there. I could feel how exhausted she was through our bond.

"Princess, you go shower and I will wait out here," I told her as we walked into our room.

She headed directly for the bathroom, and I went to our little kitchen we had and found some water, and started to drink it down.

"Grey, have you talked with either Jade or Storm?" I asked my wolf.

"No, they really not talking to me right now. I am trying but they told me to get my shit together and that you need to as well. They are really mad about what we did." He linked back.

"I know and I don't blame them we screwed up, but we will make this up to her. We need to do something big."

“Ask her to marry you.”

“Don’t you think it’s a little soon? Plus, we have so much going on right now.”

“Just ask her, not that we have to marry her right now, just let her know that you are in this forever.”

I was deep in conversation and I didn’t hear her get out of the shower. She had come up behind me and wrapped her arms around my waist and laid her head against my back. I slowly turned so we were facing each other but she kept her head on my chest and her arms wrapped around me.

“Princess, I love you so much. I can’t imagine a life without you in it. I am truly sorry about everything that happened.” I told her.

“I know you are, but I need you to trust me. I am a strong capable woman, and I don’t need you by my side, but I want you by my side.”

“I know you are and that is one thing of the million things I love about you, and I do trust you. I trust you one hundred percent, but I am an Alpha, and we get jealous easily, were possessive and you belong to us.”

“Well, Mr. Alpha you forget that I am also an Alpha and I know that. I also want to apologize to you. I was also to blame. You asked me not to do it and I still did it. I should have respected your wishes and not spoken to him alone. Can we both just move on from it?” She asked.

“Yes, Princess, nothing would make me happier.”

“Great now Mr. Alpha go shower you stink!”

She stepped back and that’s when I realized she had put on one of my T-shirts. It was huge on her, but she looked so damn sexy in it. She started walking away from me and I couldn’t help but look at her legs as she did. They were long and toned and I wanted nothing more than to follow her and show her how much I liked what I saw but she was right, I did stink and needed a shower.

I got into the bathroom and turned the water on and stripped out of the shorts I was wearing and stepped under the hot water. The hot water felt amazing, but I needed to make this quick. I wanted to go just hold my mate and have her sleep in our arms. I washed as fast as I could and got out and dried off. I wrapped the towel around my waist and went out to get some underwear on. Once I found them in my bag, I slipped them on and went over to the bed, and saw Alexa asleep already. I crawled into bed with her, and she instantly rolled over to me and laid her head on my chest, and threw a leg and arm over me. It didn’t take long, and sleep consumed me as well.

I woke up to Alexa running her hands up and down my abs and chest.

“Colt, we need to get up and get breakfast. I need to meet Emma soon.” She said.

“Well, if you keep doing that, we won’t be leaving this room anytime soon.”

She pulled her hand away like something burned her and jumped out of bed and went into the bathroom. I got out of bed and went and got dressed and by the time I was dressed Alexa came out of the bathroom. I went in and brushed my teeth and walked out and found Alexa ready and waiting for me.

“Princess, are you ready?” I asked her.

“Yes, I am starving.”

“Well let's get some food in you then. We have another busy day.”

I grabbed her hand, and we walked out to the dining room. We got in line and fixed our plates and went and sat down at Julian's table, but he wasn't there yet. We sat down and started eating and about halfway through Luca showed up and didn't look like he had gotten any sleep.

“Sorry to interrupt but Alpha Alexa, Alpha Colter can you please come with me? Alpha Julian needs to speak with you.” Luca said.

“Yes, where is he?” Alexa asked.

“His office,” Luca told us.

We all got up and followed him to his office. Luca didn't knock but just walked in and Julian didn't look so good either.

“Julian, what's up man?” I asked him.

“I am not going to be able to help for a while.” He said.

“Why, what happened?” Alexa asked.

“Well, I marked Nicki last night and I took her as my chosen mate.”

“Oh Goddess, that is so exciting. I can't believe it. I am so happy for you.” Yelled Alexa.

“Wait, I am not done. When I marked her she went unconscious and has yet to wake up. I have had doctors looking at her all morning, but nobody knows anything.” Julian said.

“I am so sorry man. What can we do to help?” I asked him.

“Luca will keep the pack up and running while I try to figure out what is going on with Nicki. I just wanted to explain why I am not there to help. If you guys need anything, please let Luca know and I will stop in and check in with you guys.” Julian said.

He turned to leave and that’s when Alexa yelled at him to stop.

“Stop, wait. Jade wants to see her.” Alexa said.

“Why does she want to see her?” Julian asked.

“She says she might be able to help or get some answers.”

“OK I guess so,” Julian said.

We walked out of his office all feeling very confused.

“Princess, what is going on?” I linked her.

“I don’t know for sure. Jade is going crazy saying that she needs to see her. She won’t tell me.” Alexa linked back to me.

We got to his room, and he went in and walked over to his bed where Nicki was lying, and it looked like she was sleeping. Alexa walked over and grabbed her hand and closed her eyes. When she opened them, you could see that Jade had pushed forward. Her eyes were a lighter blue and glazed over. We both just sat there watching her. After a few minutes, she dropped her hand and turned to us.

“Princess, what is it? What is wrong?” I asked her as I walked over to her.

“I saw it all. I saw everything Robert did to her. He broke her and all but killed her wolf in the process. I knew it was bad but what he did is worse than we could have imagined.” She said.

“What did you do?” Julian asked.

“Apparently Jade can go through people's minds. I didn’t know it. She wanted to check on her. She will be ok, but Robert placed a spell on her so that she wouldn’t be able to recognize her true mate and that is what about killed her wolf.” Alexa explained.

“So, what is going on? Why is she sleeping?” Julian asked.

“Because you broke the spell, Julian,” Alexa said.

“Wait, are you saying that Julian is her mate?” I asked Alexa.

“Yes, he is. They are second-chance mates. I was able to reach her wolf. She is weak but better than before Julian broke the spell,” Alexa said with a big smile on her face.

“Princess, I think we need to leave these two alone,” I told her as I grabbed her hand and led her out of the room.

We walked to the conference room we had set up and found that everyone was there working already.

“Sorry, we’re late everyone. Julian will not be joining us today. We need to set up a plan for tomorrow as we have to leave tonight. Does anyone have any thoughts?” Alexa said.

“I think we should surround the area and just watch and see if we can figure out who is taking these people and then attack them after they get back to their pack.” One of the warriors said.

“I don’t think attacking an entire pack is a smart idea, but I do like the idea of watching,” I said.

We continued to discuss the options we had for tomorrow.

“Colt, I need to go check on Emma and see if she has come up with anything else on the computers,” Alexa said and then left the room.

We continued to run different ideas around, but couldn’t all agree on anything. It was now lunchtime and we all agreed to go and eat and come back so we could get a concrete plan in place. I walked over to the room that Alexa and Emma were in and walked in. They were both focused on the computer and didn’t hear me come into the room.

“Ladies, have you found anything new?” I asked them.

“Yes, actually we have. They have posted a new drop-off for Sunday. It seems to be every other day.” Alexa said.

“Why don’t you ladies stop for lunch and then Alexa, we need you to come back to the conference room so we can come up with a solid plan for tomorrow,” I told them.

They both got up and we walked down to the dining hall and fixed our plates. Lunch today was sandwiches and different salads and chips. Easy and quick and also good. We went over to the table with all of the people from the Academy and sat down to join them. There was light chit-chat throughout lunch and once everyone was done, we cleaned up our mess and went back to the conference room.

We were all just sitting down, and I was about to explain what plans we had come up with to Alexa when Julian walked in.

“How is she?” Alexa asked him.

“No change but I wanted to know what you guys came up with,” Julian said.

“We were just getting to that actually,” I told him.

I explained the different plans we had come up with and Alexa didn't really like any of them. Most of them included some type of attack because we wanted to stop them right now, but I think we need to play this a little smarter. I had a thought but wanted to see what Alexa had planned first.

"I think we need to watch this drop-off and see who is doing the drop-off and who is picking up. I think we need to split into two different groups and each group follows someone and then meet up and form a plan after that." Alexa said.

"I agree." Said, Julian.

"I agree as well, we don't have the manpower right now to attack a pack and besides we don't know that the whole pack is involved," I said.

"I also think we need to get the council involved when approaching a pack. We have also found that they have another drop-off on Sunday. If tomorrow goes well, I want to do the same on Sunday." Alexa said.

"I can send some warriors with you guys tomorrow," Julian said.

"No, I don't want to leave your pack open to attacks," I told Julian

"Why doesn't everyone take the rest of the day to do what you need to do. We will leave at ten tonight so we are in place early." Alexa said.

Everyone filed out of the room and I grabbed Alexa's hand and started leading her to our room.

"Come on Princess, I know exactly what I need to do right now," I said and wiggled my eyebrows at her.

Chapter 53

Chapter 54 - Alpha Alexa

Alexa's POV

Colter grabbed my hand and led me up to our room. He didn't say a word to me on the way up there, but I knew what his intentions were, and I was going to make him work for it. We made it to our room, and he opened the door for me, and I walked in but didn't make it far as he grabbed my arm and spun me to him, and smashed his lips to mine. I kissed him back with as much passion as I could. I would be lying if I said I didn't want him.

I pulled back and was gasping for air from that kiss. I could feel the wetness pooling in my panties already.

“Baby, I am going to shower alone,” I told him as I walked away.

“You just showered earlier today.” He whined at me.

“I know and I want to jump in there again,” I told him as I closed and locked the door.

I really didn't need to shower but he was going to be drooling by the time I was done with him. I prepared myself and finally opened the bathroom door completely naked. I had put on just a little bit of make-up and brushed my hair out and left it down. I also ran a razor over my body and put lotion on.

He didn't say a word but came over to me as quickly as he could and again started to kiss me and roam his hands over my body. I let him do that for a minute and he did have me turned on, but he was going to be watching me not doing anything else. I broke the kiss and walked over to the bed, and he followed me. As soon as I laid down, he crawled over the top of me.

“Nope, you aren't going to be crawling on top of me tonight,” I told him.

“What do you mean?” He said as he sat up.

I didn't answer him but ran my hands down to my tits and started to pinch my nipples and moan out a little. I continued to pinch my nipples with one hand while I spread my legs and ran my other hand to my pussy and separated my lips apart. I brought a leg up and pushed him back a little further so he could have a good view of everything.

I found my clit and started to rub it and you could instantly smell my arousal in the room. I was letting out little moans the more I rubbed. He started to move towards me again and I pushed my foot into him further.

“Let me help you with that Princess.” He growled out.

“No, I want you to just watch me right now.”

He got off the bed and took off all of his clothes and came back to the end of the bed and brought my foot up to his shoulder spreading my legs even further apart. I moved my hand down even further and inserted a finger into myself and let out a loud moan. I could feel him stroking himself.

“No don't touch yourself. This is my pleasure right now. If you're good I will take care of you next.” I told him. He just growled at me.

I continued my mission and started to rub my clit again. I could feel myself getting closer so I rubbed a little faster and applied more pressure.

“OOHH gooooodddd,” I screamed out as my orgasm took over. I sat there catching my breath and when I looked up, I could see Colt's eyes completely black and him not moving. I cleared my throat to get his attention.

“That was the hottest thing I have ever seen Princess.” He said.

“I am glad you thought so because if you ever pull another stunt like yesterday you will never see it again. I will walk away for good.” I told him as I sat up and when I was done, I licked my fingers off. I didn't know his eyes could get any black, but they did.

“I thought we were putting that behind us.” He said.

“We are, but you needed to know what would happen if it happened again,” I told him as I moved up to him and placed my lips to his.

I pushed him down on the bed and straddled his waist and continued to kiss him while he let me do what I wanted. I broke our kiss and pulled his hard cock up so that it was lined up with my hole and slowly lowered myself onto it. When I hit the bottom of him, I let out a loud moan.

I began to rock my hips back and forth slowly trying to savor every inch of him and there were plenty of inches to savor. I kept my pace slow for a while until I felt him getting close and then I stopped.

“Why did you stop?” He asked.

“Because I am not ready for you to be done,” I told him as I got off him.

I pulled him up so that he was behind me, and I got on down on my knees and elbows and it didn't take him long to figure out what I wanted.

“Fuck me hard Alpha,” I told him.

He needed no more encouragement as he slammed into me over and over again until I was cumming around his cock. The walls of my pussy tightening around him triggered his orgasm as well.

We both fell onto the bed breathlessly. He laid beside me, trailing his hand over my back.

“Princess, I loved that show you gave me, and I want to see it again soon, but I promise that I know what I would be missing, and I won't ever do anything like that again.” He told me.

“I am glad to hear that because I love you so much,” I told him.

“I love you too.”

We laid there and soon my eyes were getting heavy. He continued to rub my back until I fell asleep. I woke up to him telling me it was dinner time. We both got up and got dressed and headed downstairs. We got down there and fixed our plates and sat down and ate.

A few people from the Academy came in and ate with us as well.

“Alpha Alexa, have you always known you were an Alpha?” Jack asked.

“No, I actually didn’t know it until a few weeks ago,” I told him.

We continued to chat about random things and a little about our plan for tonight. Once we were done, we headed back up to our room.

“Princess, I need to call Mac and check in our pack,” Colt told me.

“OK, I am going to shower and clean up from earlier,” I told him as I headed into the shower.

“Girls, are you ready for tonight?” I linked both of my wolves.

“I am ready to taste some blood,” Storm said.

“We aren’t planning on killing anyone,” I told her back.

“I know but they all need to die.” She linked back.

“Jade, are you ready?”

“Yes, I want to see them dead as well,” Jade said.

I cut our link and finished washing and walked out of the bathroom in search of my clothes for tonight. I found some black skinny jeans and a black T-shirt and put those on along with my black boots. I walked back out to the bedroom and found Colter on the bed still on the phone. I went and sat beside him and waited for him to get off the phone. He finally hung up and pulled me onto his lap.

“What’s wrong?” I asked him as I ran my fingers through his hair.

“Mac is having a hard time. He has had a few issues with pack members and Aubree won’t talk to him. She won’t even leave her room. He feels like he is failing her because he can’t be with her right now. We are going to have to go back soon.” He said.

“It’s ok. We can head back on Monday and take everyone from the Academy with us and continue this from our pack. I would however like to send extra warriors to stay at Julian's pack in case they are attacked again.”

“Thank you, princess.” He said.

“For what?” I asked him.

“For going back home. I know you want to stay here to find Robert.”

“We will find him, whether we are here or at our pack. Now go shower we have to be back downstairs in a few hours.”

He took off for the shower and took his time in there. I lay on the bed thinking of the different scenarios that could play out tonight. He came back out a while later all ready to go and laid down beside me. I rolled over so I was laying on his chest.

“Penny for your thoughts?” He asked me.

“Just going over different scenarios in my head.”

He didn't answer me, and we both just laid there until it was time to go. We both got up and headed downstairs and found everyone down there. No one was talking, it was a very somber mood. We loaded into a couple of SUVs and drove to our drop-off point. Once there we had about a ten-mile hike.

“Alright everyone, you all know the plan and where to go. Stick with your group and if you get into trouble you need to mind link me.” I told everyone.

We headed out and got there around two AM. Everyone took their spots and we waited. We were concealed in some bushes. Everyone had to roll in the bushes and dirt to try and hide our scent. We had to be careful that they didn't catch our scent. We were far enough away that it would be hard but close enough that we could hear. We had to wait about four hours when I got a link from someone on the other team.

“Alpha, we have a male entering the area. He is a wolf. No one knows him. He is alone and doesn't smell rouge.” Phillip linked me.

I sent the link out the everyone, so they were all aware of it. About thirty minutes later we heard multiple people coming but couldn't see them yet.

“Beware everyone we have multiple people headed this way.” I linked out to everyone there.

Three men with guns showed up and had ten people with them. Both humans and wolves. The man in front of them walked to the single man to speak to him.

“Do you have payment for them?” He asked.

The single man took out an envelope and handed it over. The other man took the money out and counted it. He nodded his head at him and walked over to the ten people. They were all shackled together. He had a leash connected to the first one and pulled on it and everyone started to walk, and he handed them over to the other man.

“Here you go.” He said as he handed him the leash.

“OK, everyone you know what to do.” I mind-linked to everyone.

My group of people were going to be following the man who was taking the group of people. He took off in the same direction he came from, and we stayed back giving enough distance that he wouldn't hear us.

“Colt, he is alone, I think we should take him out.” I linked him.

“I don't know. What if he has more people with him or hiding in the area.” He linked back.

“I can't let him take those innocent people.” I linked back.

“OK, what's your plan?”

“I am going to get ahead of him and stop him and you guys come in from behind. If he attacks, I can take him. You guys get the people.” I told him.

“OK.”

I sent a link out to everyone with me about our plan and they all fell into place. I moved ahead of everyone and when they all said they were ready I stepped out in front of him. He stopped immediately and looked me up and down and gave me a disgusting smile.

“Little girl, you need to leave. This is no place for you.” He said to me.

“What are you doing with those people?” I asked him.

“That is none of your business. Now leave before I have to kill you.” He said.

“I said what are you doing with those people?” I put my Alpha command behind it, and he looked at me confused.

“Impossible.” He whispered to himself.

I let out a warning growl that I wasn't messing around and that he needed to answer me now.

“They were bought and are being taken to their new owner.” He said.

“Who is the new owner?” I asked using my Alpha command because I knew he wouldn't answer me.

“Alpha Robert.” He said.

I was seeing red now. I wanted to kill him, but he had too much valuable information.

“Well, you will all be coming with me now,” I told him.

“I don’t think so little girl. I warned you.” He said as he shifted and lunged at me.

I dodged his attack and shifted as well. He got up and came at me again while the people that were chained were screaming. I quickly got on his back and had him pinned down. He really was a crappy fighter. They should have sent someone smarter out here. Colter and everyone else came out of the woods. Colter had a big smile on his face as he came over to us. I was still holding down this wolf. He came over and took his shirt off and put his knee in the back of this wolf so I could shift back. I did so and he handed me his shirt.

“Shift back now,” I told him with my Alpha command, so he didn’t have a choice.

The rest of my team had gone to everyone that was shackled and were trying to calm them down so they could set them free. They were finally able to get a few of the wolves free and we used that to shackle the man that was taking them. The humans were panicking, and I couldn’t blame them.

“Everyone please calm down. We are not going to hurt you. We are going to get you to safety and then back to your families.” I told them. This seemed to help them calm down enough that we were able to free them from their shackles and we headed back to our SUVs. It took us a while to get there as the humans were slow going but we had to go at their pace.

We had finally made it to the SUVs, and they all looked exhausted.

“Does anyone have any injuries?” I asked them.

“Nothing serious.” Someone spoke up.

“OK, let’s get into the vehicles and we can leave. I have some food and water in there you can have.” I told them.

We all got loaded into two of the SUVs and took off. Colter was driving one and Joe was driving the other. We had left one SUV for everyone else to get home.

“Princess, you were a badass today. I am so proud of you.” Colt mind linked me.

Chapter 54

Chapter 55 - Alpha Alexa

Julian’s POV

I had had doctors coming and going since Nicki had been unconscious. When Alexa had come in to see her, I wasn't sure what she was going to do but when she dropped the bombshell of her having a spell placed on her. There was nothing I could do but wait now. I just hoped that when she did wake up, she would be ok.

I felt bad for not going and helping on this first mission, but I couldn't leave Nicki's side right now. She needed me and I needed her to be ok. It was late and everyone had left a few hours ago, so I crawled into bed and pulled Nicki to me and just held her. At some point, I fell asleep holding her.

I was woken up early in the morning by a mind link from Alexa.

"Julian, we will be back in about thirty minutes, and we have ten people that need to be seen by a doctor and we also have a prisoner." She said.

"What, I thought you were going to observe and find out where they were coming and going from?" I linked back.

"Well, we were but when I saw ten people, some human and some wolves chained together I couldn't let them go with them, I had to rescue them."

"OK, I will be waiting with doctors and warriors to take him to the cells with our other prisoners."

I cut our link and hugged Nicki tighter to me for a few more minutes. I didn't want to leave her, but I had to go help take care of this. I finally slipped out of bed and threw on some clothes and went downstairs. I placed links to several doctors to come and also Luca and our lead warriors. I went to the kitchen and grabbed some snacks and drinks. I am sure they are going to be hungry, and I don't want to wake anyone else up just yet. Just as I finished, I heard them pull in.

I walked out to the front porch as they were piling out from the cars. I walked over and started helping them out of the SUVs. Every one of them were looking at the ground and most were shaking. There were four women, four children, and two men. The two men were human and looked like they have had a few beatings. There was one woman who was a human, and she also had a few bruises. The rest were wolves including the children.

"Come inside, we have doctors waiting and I also have some food waiting," I told them.

"Luca, take the warriors and our prisoner here down to the dungeon and we will be down there soon. I want him alone in the first room." I told him.

They took off and we escorted the rest into the dining room so they could be seen by our doctors and get some food.

"Alexa, mind telling me what the hell happened?" I asked her.

“I told you I couldn’t leave them. Robert is behind all of this. We have to find him. One of the men said that they could be sold but we haven’t gotten more information yet.” She said.

“OK, let’s go talk with the wolves first and see what they know. The humans are going to be a little trickier. Now they know about us we have to figure out what to do.” I said.

The three humans were all sitting together away from the others who were wolves, so this made it easier. We walked over to the wolves first and sat down with them.

“Are you guys doing ok?” Alexa asked.

“Yes, we just want to go home.” One of them said.

“Where is home?” Alexa asked.

“Us three women and three of the children are all from Black Lakes Pack. The fourth child I am not sure. She hasn’t spoken since she was picked up.”

“Your Alpha is Alpha Jake. I know him and will go call him right now.” Colter said pulling his phone out.

“What is your name?” Alexa asked the girl that wasn’t talking.

The little girl didn’t say anything but ran straight to Alexa and threw her arms around Alexa’s legs and started crying. Alexa bent down and pulled the little girl into a hug trying to comfort her and when Alexa looked up her eyes were light blue again like when she went and saw Nicki.

I just stood there watching her and her eyes glazed over, and she wasn’t moving. I didn’t want to interrupt her, but it was a little creepy. Colter had come back over while she was doing this, and he started to talk but quickly stopped and just watched his mate. Her eyes finally lost that glazed look, and she stood up, but it seems that Jade is still present.

“She is a rouge and doesn’t have a home. Her mom was killed, and she is afraid we will kill her because of it.” Jade said.

She released her hold on Alexa and her eyes went back to their normal blue ones. She bent back down and hugged the girl whispering to her. The girl just shook her head yes at her. Alexa finally let the girl go and the girl went and sat at the table with the other wolves.

“What did you say to her?” I asked.

“I assured her that she would not be killed that what happened was not her fault and that I would help her find a family to love her. She will be coming back to our pack.” She said looking at Colter.

“What did you find out from Alpha Jake?” She asked.

“He said that they went missing a week ago and he is loading a van coming to get them right now. He will be here in about four hours.” Colter said.

“Good, let's get them some showers and clean clothes and they can rest until he gets here,” Alexa said.

I was about to respond when I was hit with the most amazing scent of cinnamon and coffee. Zion was howling in my head and then started screaming at me.

"Mate is here, mate is here!"

I could smell her and it was the most intoxicating thing ever. I slowly turned around and there stood the most amazing woman ever. My mate. My true mate. I took long strides toward her and when I got there, I swept her up into my arms and she started to giggle. It was like music to my ears. I knew I had made the right decision.

“Nicki, I can feel your wolf and also we are each other's, second chance mate,” I said before kissing her.

I finally pulled away and put her down on her feet and just stared at her.

“You’re awake, I can’t believe it. I am sorry I wasn’t with you.” I told her.

“It’s ok, we have a lot to talk about but what is going on here?” She asked.

“A lot. Alexa rescued some of the people that had been kidnapped and we were just getting them medical care and food. We still need to talk with the humans they took.” I told her.

“He really took humans?”

“Yes, he did.”

I pulled her to my side, and we walked back over to Alexa and Colter who were just smiling at us.

“Nicki, I am so happy to see you awake,” Alexa said.

“It’s great to be awake and to have my wolf back. It’s like when I first got her. It’s a little overwhelming.” She said.

“What are we going to do about the humans?” I asked.

“We need to know what they know first. Does anyone know a witch who could perform a spell that could erase their memories and then we can drop them in their hometown?” Alexa asked.

Did she just ask if we knew any witches? We don’t work with witches, and we don’t like them.

“No, I don’t. Do you?” I asked her back.

“I know that Robert had worked with them.” She said

She said it like it was no big deal. This was a huge deal. Wolves and witches didn’t get along and they don’t work together.

“Princess, what do you mean that Robert worked with them?” Colter asked.

“He had some that would come and go. I thought it was normal.” She said.

“No Princess not normal.” Colter said.

"Well, Mac brought in a witch when you were in the hospital and wouldn't wake up. Call him and see if his friend would help," Alexa said.

"I don't think that is a good idea. I don't know who it was and we can't risk anything right now," Colter said.

“Come on, let's talk with the humans and just see what they know first and then we can go from there,” I said.

We all got up and went over to the humans. They all kept their heads down and didn’t greet us.

“Please come with us, we would like to speak with you. We mean you no harm.” Alexa said.

They all stood up and the two men put the women between them. I had to give them credit at least they were trying to protect her. I could smell the fear rolling off them. We would have to convince them that we meant no harm for them to speak. We finally made it to my office, and I opened the door and we all shuffled in and went to the table.

“Please take a seat,” I told them.

They all sat down keeping their eyes down. I looked to Alexa to speak to them. She seemed to have a way with people.

“You guys can look at us. We really mean you no harm, we want to help you, but we need to know what you know first.” Alexa said.

They finally looked up to us and they were a sight for sore eyes.

“We don’t know much. This is my brother and my girlfriend. We were out on Friday night, and they tried to take just her but when we tried to stop them more of them came out and took us.” The bigger of the two boys said.

“Where did they take you?” Alexa asked.

“We don’t know we were blindfolded and then once we were at wherever they took us we were separated until their leader wanted to hurt me.” He said again.

“What do you mean he hurt you?” Alexa asked.

“Please don’t, I can’t hear someone say it.” The girl asked and started crying.

“No need I understand. What can you tell us?” Alexa asked.

“Just that whatever they are doing is not right. We wouldn’t have survived. They talked about experiments and which ones they wanted to try on different humans. He also talked about selling wolves to fund it.” He said.

“What do you know about the wolves?” Alexa asked.

“That you’re one of them. That some humans transform into them.” He said.

“OK, I think that is enough for now. Let me take you guys to a room and some fresh clothes. You are safe here.” I told them.

“Wait, I am sorry I didn’t get your name dear but would like to see a doctor and make sure that you have no untreated injuries from what was done to you?” Alexa asked.

“Yes.” Her boyfriend spoke up.

“No, I am really ok.” She said.

“Please baby I want you checked out.” He begged her.

“Come on dear, I will take you over,” Alexa told her.

She finally got up with Alexa and Nicki and they walked out the door. Maybe now I could get some more answers out of these boys.

“Do you guys want to tell me where you’re from?” I asked them.

“We are from Mountain City.” One of them said.

“Can you please tell us what the hell is going on, because we are really confused. What are you guys?” The other one asked.

“What has happened stays between us do you understand?” Colter said.

They both shook their heads in understanding.

“We are werewolves, and this is a pack. It is his pack. That is Alpha Julian, and I am Alpha Colter. I have another pack a few hours away.” Colter said.

“I knew it.” One of them shouted.

“Look the man who ordered you guys to be kidnapped is a bad person and we are trying to take him down, but for now, let's show you guys your rooms. I have three separate rooms for you guys, but later we would like to talk again,” I told them.

“No, my girlfriend will stay with me.”

“That is her choice and Alpha Alexa will talk to her about it. You will also have a guard outside your room. If you need anything just let them know and they will take care of it.” I told them.

We all got up and went to show them to their room. I had someone already get clothes for them and I would have some more food brought up but right now I wanted to go talk with the man down in the dungeon.

“Colt, want to come with me to the dungeon?” I asked him.

“Ya, I do, but I know that Alexa wants to come as well. So, we will have to wait.” He said.

Chapter 55

Chapter 56 - Alpha Alexa

Alexa's POV

Robert sure had made a mess of things. He was doing vile things that should never be done and we couldn't find him yet. I had walked the female human to the pack hospital even though she really didn't want to. I learned her name was Ashlee. We got there and I asked for a female doctor to look at her and they put her in a room to wait. I could feel her fear coming off her.

“Ashlee, it will be ok. I won't leave you if you don't want. We just want to make sure that you aren't seriously injured.” I told her.

“I am really ok, I just want to go home.” She said.

“You will soon I promise. Please just let our doctor check you out.”

There was a knock on the door and a female doctor walked in.

“Hello, I am Dr. Sara and I am here to look you over. Do you want to start by telling me what happened?” The doctor said.

Ashlee looked back and forth between the two of us but didn't say anything.

“Ashlee I can leave so you can talk freely with the doctor,” I told her and got up and headed to the door.

“Dr. Sara please tread lightly she is scared and some bad things happened to her.” I mind-linked her as soon as I was out the door.

I went to the chairs in the waiting room and sat down waiting. I took a deep breath and couldn't believe that we were able to help these people and get them freed.

“Girls you guys doing ok?” I mind-linked my wolves.

“We're good. Glad to get these guys to safety but I think we need to rethink Sunday's mission. They will be on high alert since we intercepted this one.” Jade said.

“I know we need to talk with Colter and Julian regarding that.” I linked back.

They didn't reply and went and laid down in the back of my mind. I continued to wait and as time went on, I felt myself getting sleepy. Finally, I saw the doctor walking out. I stood up and walked over to her to meet her.

“How is she, doctor?” I asked.

“She will be fine physically but emotionally she is going to struggle. She was raped and whoever did this tormented her with their wolf also. She is terrified and I am afraid that she is going to have some PTSD.” The doctor explained to me.

“Can I take her back to her boyfriend?” I asked her.

“Yes, she is getting dressed now. I gave her some sleeping pills so she could try and rest.”

“OK, thank you for your help with this.”

Ashlee walked out at that time and came over to me.

“Are you ready Ashlee?” I asked her.

She just nodded her head at me, and we walked back to the pack house in silence.

“Would you like your own room, or would you like to stay with your boyfriend?” I asked her.

“I will stay with Will, my boyfriend.”

I walked her back to Will's room and she threw the door open and then slammed it closed. I could hear her start to cry as soon as she was in there. She was strong because she held it in until she was away from us.

I walked to Julian's office to find him and Colter there. Colter was on the phone yelling and Julian was sitting at his desk going over things. Colter finally hung up the phone and came over to me and wrapped his arms around me. I could feel the anger through our mate bond. I am not sure what happened, but I was going to ask.

"Baby, what's wrong? I can feel your anger?" I asked him.

"Our pack was attacked tonight. We are going to have to go back as soon as everyone from the Academy gets back which should be soon." He said.

"Is everyone OK?"

"No, we have several injured and a few dead. It was Robert, he was there, and he knew we weren't there that's why he struck." Colter said.

"How did he know we weren't there?" I asked him.

"I don't know. We have an informant within our pack or this pack." He said looking at Julian.

"There was only one person here that was ever after Alexa and that was Christina and we killed her after she bugged our rooms and my office and was working with Robert," Julian said.

"What? When did you kill her? You never told me." I said.

"I did it after you left, and I never told anyone. She paid for her crimes." Julian explained.

"What about Lauren? She is now part of your pack, isn't she?" I asked Julian.

"She is but I don't think it was her. She has changed so much since she mated to Luca."

"Julian, I hope you're not wrong about this because I have a feeling about her," I said.

"Come on Princess, we need to pack our stuff," Colt said as he came and grabbed my hand.

We headed towards the stairs but didn't get far because the rest of the other team came through the front door.

"Alpha Alexa, we need to talk now," Emma said.

"Come on, let's go back to Julian's office and talk," I said.

We all headed back to Julian's office, and they linked the rest of the crew to meet us there. I knocked on Julian's door and waited for him to say come in, but it didn't come.

"Julian, where are you? The other team showed up and they need to talk now." I mind-linked him.

"Come in." He finally yelled out.

We all shuffled into his office and sat down at his table with a few standing and me sitting in Colter's lap.

"Emma, what happened?" I asked her.

"We followed the guys that made the drop. We followed them back to a warehouse. It's in the middle of nowhere and it's full of prisoners from what we could see. It's heavily guarded but when they opened a garage-like door you could see people and wolves in cages and chained down with silver. I don't know what they are doing but it's bad." Emma explained.

Nobody said a word for a few minutes while we took in the information she had provided.

"Alexa, Colter I think it's time to visit our prisoners," Julian said.

"Everyone please pack. We are moving this back to our pack. We were attacked and we need to be there for our pack." I told them.

"Alpha Julian, I am sure I can get some more warriors from the Academy to help you if you like," Joe said.

"Thank you that would be helpful because I'm sure we haven't seen the last of it," Julian said and then headed out the door.

We made it to the top of the stairs for the dungeon when Colter turned to me.

"Princess this can get a little bloody and you don't have to be a part of this." He said.

I closed my eyes and pulled Storm forward. I knew this is why I had her. She was made for this.

"Thanks, mate, but I will handle this," Storm said as she smiled at him and walked down the stairs.

Storm came to the first room and she could smell someone in there. She threw the door open and found the man we captured earlier. He was strapped down to a chair and had pissed himself in fear.

"What's your name mutt?" I asked

He didn't answer and kept his head down. The smell of his fear was overpowering the smell of his piss but they were both disgusting. I walked over to him and wrapped my hands around his throat and forced him to look at me.

"We can do this the easy way or the hard way. I don't mind either. So tell me your name." I told him in a low growl.

"Iiittts Sseth." He finally managed to mumble out.

"Ok Seth, tell me who do you work for?" I asked him.

"I can't they will kill me." He said.

"That's cute that you think I won't kill either," I told him with a smirk on my face.

"It's my Alpha, he made me do it."

"Who is your Alpha?"

"Alpha Brock, from the Redwoods pack."

I turned to Colt and Julian who looked confused.

"Do you guys know that pack?" I mind-linked them.

"No, I don't." Julian linked back.

"Me neither." Said, Colt.

"I think we need to keep him around for now for more information and bring him back to our pack for now." I linked both of them.

They both nodded their head at me and I turned back to this wolf.

"For now you will be spared. You will get a shower and some clean clothes only because we will be going to our pack and I don't want to smell you. So refrain from pissing yourself or you will ride in a trunk."

I turned around and walked out and both Colter and Julian followed me.

"Alexa, wait," Julian said and I turned around.

Storm was still in control.

"What is the deal? Your two wolves and ability to mind link anyone." He asked me.

"I am her other wolf Storm. I've always been with her but only push forward when needed. You will learn as time goes on." She said and then released control back to me.

"Sorry boys she is a fighter and likes to control everything," I told them.

"Princess I like it when you go Alpha and take over it's sexy as hell," Colter said as he came up to me and smashed his lips to mine.

"Seriously you two! Go pack your bags and do that at your own pack house." Julian said walking off.

We walked up to our room and started packing our bags. I sent a mind link to everyone coming with us that we were leaving in an hour and to be waiting.

We said our goodbyes and loaded the cars and took off. Colter and I were alone in his truck. He opened my door and I got in, while he went around to get in I scooted over to the middle. When he opened his door he just smiled at me and got in. He started the truck and we took off. We got on the road and headed home. It felt good to be going home. I leaned in and started kissing his neck.

"Princess, what are you doing? I'm driving." He asked me.

"You just focus on driving and let me do my thing," I told him with a wicked smile on my face.

I started to kiss his neck again and started rubbing my hand over his hardening cock over his pants. I undid the button and zipper and he lifted himself up so I could pull his pants down a little.

His erection sprang free and I licked my lips and started to stroke him a little.

"Baby, what are your plans exactly?" He asked me.

I didn't answer but brought my head down and licked the tip of his cock. He let out a moan. I ran my tongue over the top before wrapping my lips around him and diving as deep as I could considering he was driving.

"God baby I'm trying to drive." He said panting.

"And I'm trying to suck you off. I want to feel you shoot your cum in my mouth. So you drive and I will do what I want."

He didn't say anymore but let out a few soft moans and it didn't take him long before he moaned loudly and was filling my mouth with his cum.

"Holy fuck Alexa, nobody has ever done that and it was hot. If we didn't have people following us I would pull over." He said as soon as he caught his breath.

I helped him pull his pants up and did them back up. I put my seatbelt back on and snuggled up to him and drifted off to sleep.

Chapter 56

Chapter 57 - Alpha Alexa

Colter's POV

I have been driving for about three hours and Alexa promptly passed out after she gave me the most amazing blow job of my life. I couldn't stop thinking about it. I was hard this whole drive home.

We were almost home and I was lost in my thoughts about Alexa when I heard her start talking but it wasn't making sense.

"Dad please don't. He's my mate. The moon goddess wants us together." She had said and she had tears running down her face.

"Baby wake up," I said but she didn't wake up and started screaming.

"NNNOO don't do this." She screamed out.

I had pulled into the driveway and threw my truck in park and started to shake her awake.

Her eyes opened up and she threw herself into my arms and was sobbing.

"Come on baby let's get you to our room." We got out of the car and I carried her up to our room and sat on the couch with her in my lap.

"I am sorry. I have a reoccurring dream about the worst day of my life."

"It's ok Princess. You can talk to me about it if you want." I told her.

"I don't like talking about it."

I just sat there holding her and waited until she felt better. She finally got off my lap and held her arms out to me and pulled me up.

"Come on, we should have met with the pack already and helped our guests."

She takes my hand and we go downstairs. Mac is standing there talking with everyone from the Academy.

"Mac, did you get rooms ready for our guests?" I asked him.

"Alpha, Luna I've never been so happy to see you guys." He said with a big smile on his face.

"So do we have rooms ready?" I asked him again

"Yes sir."

"Ok, let's show them their rooms and then you and Liam meet me in my office so I can get you up to speed."

He nodded his head and started to gather Omegas to show them.

"Princess, are you coming with me?"

"I need to see Sloane first and then I will be there." She told me.

I leaned in and gave her a kiss and she took off. I am sure she had mind linked her and knew exactly where she was.

I headed to my office and found that Mac and Liam had finished the reports I needed from the attack we had. I was going through them when there was a knock at my door.

"Come in," I yelled out and both Mac and Liam walked in and took a seat in the chairs in front of my desk.

"Sir, do you want a rundown of the attack first?" Liam asked.

"No Mac already told me everything. I wanted to go over everything we know so far."

"It seems a lot has happened," Mac said.

I went into detail about everything that had happened and they both just kind of sat there listening with their mouths open. When I was done, they both just sat there staring at me.

"Where are we starting first?" Liam asked.

"Well, there is something else I want you guys to work on when you can. I will be doing the same. I don't want Alexa to know about it yet either."

"Of course, sir," Liam said.

"Seriously Liam you can call me Colter when it's just us," I told him.

“Anyway, Alexa has two wolves. I want to know if we can find anything on this. She doesn’t know who her father is, and I don’t know if it has something to do with that.” I told them.

“How does she have two wolves?” Liam asked.

“We don’t know she just showed up one day,” I explained.

“She showed up the day she killed her brother and mother, didn’t she?” Liam asked.

“Yes, and she is a little bloodthirsty and likes to kill when she needs to. She is also very bossy and very Alpha. It’s sexy as hell.” I said with a smile on my face.

“OK, we will get started on research, but do you have any suggestions on where to start?” Mac asked.

“I would start with the library, but please in your spare time. Mac, I want you to go spend time with your mate right now.”

He stood up and literally ran out the door yelling “thank you” as he slammed the door shut.

“Liam you do the same. I want everyone to take tonight off, and we will get started tomorrow.”

“Thank you. She is feeling neglected, but I think it’s the pregnancy hormones. Mac made sure I was home every night.”

He got up to leave but my office door opened and both girls walked in holding hands and smiling.

“Boys, you are taking us to dinner, we’re hungry and the baby wants some pasta,” Alexa said.

“How do you know this how?” I asked her.

“Because that is my niece in there and I know what she wants,” Alexa said cocking her hip out and placing her hand on it.

“Princess if you want some Italian food all you have to do is say so, you don’t have to use the baby as an excuse,” I told her smiling at her.

“Whatever, it’s all my niece.”

“Lex, we don’t know if it is a boy or a girl yet,” Sloane said.

“Don’t worry I know it’s a girl.” She said.

“Let’s get you two fed. Come on.” I told them getting up from my desk.

We went to dinner and had a great time. When we got back to the pack house and headed inside. I grabbed Alexa and threw her over my shoulder and ran up the stairs to our room. She was laughing the whole time. I threw her on the bed and pounced on her. I grabbed her hands and pinned them above her head and started kissing her neck.

“Princess, I think I owe you from your little stunt while I was driving.”

“Well, if you want to do the same to me as I did to you, I am ok with that.” She said smiling.

I reached down and undid the belt I had on and pulled it off and gave her a wicked smile.

“Now if memory serves me right, I was driving and couldn’t do anything. I couldn’t touch you or watch you. So, to make things fair, I think I will tie your hands up and blindfold you.” I told her as I wrapped the belt around her hands and tightened it down.

I connected my belt to my bed so she couldn't move her arms. I got off her and walked into my closet and grabbed the only I had to blindfold her with a tie. I wrapped it around her head and covered her eyes with it.

I released my claws and tore her shirt in half and then her bra.

"Hey, I like those." She whined at me.

"Baby I will buy you new ones tomorrow."

I started to kiss down her neck and pushed her shirt and bra to the side so that her tits were on display for me. I leaned down and ran my tongue over her nipple and then the other making them hard and pointy.

"If I recall I didn't tease you and just gave you what you wanted." She said in a breathy voice.

"What is it you want Alexa?"

"I want to feel your tongue on my pussy making me cum and then I want to feel your hard cock stretching me out and making me scream your name."

Goddess, could this woman be any more perfect? There was something about a woman who wasn't shy in bed and told you what she wanted.

I undid her pants and pulled them off and when she was just down to her underwear I shredded those with my claws also.

"Let me have a turn with mate." Grey linked me.

"I don't know how she would feel about that," I told him.

"Let me ask her." He said pushing forward.

"My beautiful mate, can I have a turn with you tonight?" He said as he bit down on her nipple.

She screamed out at first because of surprise but it quickly turned to moans. The more he bit the more she moaned.

"Grey is that you?" She asked.

"Yes, mate, and I promise I will do all you want and more if you just give me a chance."

He didn't let her answer because he bit down on her nipple again and started to rub his hand over her pussy. The harder he bit her the more she moaned.

"Does mate like a little pain and pleasure mixed?"

"Yes, mate. Please make me cum."

"Not yet mate, but I will."

He moved down her body and ran our tongue up her slit and dove into her pussy as if nothing had ever tasted so good. I could hear her screams getting louder and knew she was going to cum any second but Grey pulled away.

"Now mate I'm in charge here and I didn't tell you to cum yet. You must do as I say or your will be punished."

"Please fuck me. I need to feel you in me." She moaned out.

He wasn't ready for that he was going to make her beg for it. He went back to licking her and making her scream but every time she would get close he would change what he was doing.

"Please fuck me I need it. I need to feel you in me."

He didn't say anything but untied her hands and pulled her up and kissed her while moving her hands behind her back. He turned her around and pushed her head down and brought her ass up and then smacked it a few times.

I will admit it looked nice with our red handprint on it. Without warning, he shoved our cock into her and started to pound into her at an ungodly force but she seemed to love it.

"Please mate can I cum?"

"Yes mate good."

As soon as he said that she let herself go and let her orgasm take over. She must have had Grey worked up because he started to cum as well. He let out a loud howl as he did so.

He immediately gave me back control and went to the back of my head panting but very proud of himself.

I quickly untied her hands and took the blindfold off. When I looked into her eyes I found that it had been Jade present and not Alexa.

"Thank you for letting Grey out. I needed to mate with him. I haven't gotten that chance but we will be doing that again." She said and then released control back over to Alexa.

"Princess I think we got played by our wolves."

"You don't say!"

"Come on let's go clean up their mess."

After our shower, we crawled into and Alexa took up her usual spot on my me. The sparks that were flowing between us I would never get used to. It was such an amazing sensation. We both quickly fell asleep only to be woken up by pounding on the door at six am. I wasn't happy about whoever was on the other side of that door and it better be good. I got out of bed and found a pair of shorts and stormed over to the door.

"Baby, what are you doing?" Alexa said sleepily.

"Someone is banging on the door. Go back to sleep." I told her and she laid back down and closed her eyes.

I made it to the door and threw it open ready to kill whoever was on the other side.

"What!" I growled out.

"Sorry Sir but we found someone living on the pack lands and have brought them here. We tried to mind link you but got no reply." Liam said

"This couldn't wait until later," I asked

"Sir, I think they work for Robert and have been spying on us," Liam said.

"WHAT?" Alexa shouted and sat up.

I turned to her and she was naked and her tits were hanging out. I quickly turned to Liam who had covered his eyes.

"Alexa cover yourself," I yelled at her.

"Oops sorry." She said as she pulled the blanket over her.

"Where is this guy?" I asked Liam who had turned completely around.

"She is currently in the dungeon." He said.

"OK, I will be there down there in a few minutes. I will meet you down there."

He turned and left and I shut the door. As soon as the door was closed Alexa jumped up and went to the closet.

"Princess you don't have to go. You can go back to sleep."

"I'm not missing this. I want to talk to her and Storm is ready to take over." She said as she was pulling clothes out.

Chapter 57

Chapter 58 - Alpha Alexa

Alexa's POV

As soon as I heard those words that they had found someone, and they thought she had been helping Robert, I was wide awake. I had to talk to this girl. I got out of bed and ran to the closet to get dressed. I threw on some skinny jeans and a T-shirt and some shoes. Colter was working on getting dressed.

Once we were ready, we headed downstairs. It was still quiet throughout the pack house but there were some Omega's who were getting breakfast ready. It smelled great as we walked through the kitchen area and my stomach let out a loud growl.

"Someone hungry this morning?" Colter asked me.

"Yes, I am, but we need to talk to this wolf first."

We got to the dungeon and headed down the stairs and all the guards nodded their heads at us. I hated coming down here. It always smelled and it was cold and damp. I guess you don't want to be appeasing. The closer we got to the room this girl was screaming and crying.

"Did Liam start without us?" I asked Colter.

"I told him to start questioning her, but he isn't using any force."

Something felt off about this situation. Those weren't screams of fear for what Liam was asking but pain like she was hurt. I took off running and went into the torture room and Liam was standing in the back not doing anything but watching her.

She was young. Very young and she was so skinny. It looked like she hadn't been fed in weeks and she was filthy dirty, and you could see scars and old bruises covering her body.

Liam had her tied down to a chair like we would anyone else and she was trying to thrash around but couldn't move a lot because of the restraints.

"Storm, you want to help me with this girl?" I linked my wolf.

"This one I can't help. You need Jade for this." She linked back.

"Jade, can we help this girl?" I linked her.

"Of course." She said.

Jade pushed forward and I turned towards Colt and Liam.

"Please leave us." She told them.

"We are not leaving. This isn't safe." Colt said.

"Leave now," Jade said using her Alpha command.

Liam left immediately and you could see that Colt was fighting it.

"I am fine. I need to talk to this girl, and she isn't going to talk when there is a male in her presence. Wait outside the door." Jade explained.

"I will go but we will talk about this later." He said in a low voice that conveyed how unhappy he was.

I walked over to the girl who was still thrashing around and placed my hand on her face.

I started to dig through her mind and finally found what I was looking for. She wasn't helping she was taken by him. I continued to look through everything and some of the things that were done to her were unspeakable. I pulled back because something was happening to her. She was snarling like a wolf but was still human.

She kept screaming and it was getting louder. Suddenly her arm snapped and reformed.

"What's happening to me?" She asked between screams.

That's when it hit me. She was human and they injected her with venom and she was having her first shift.

"Get in here now," I yelled out to Colt and Liam.

Colt threw the door open looking at me with wild eyes thinking I was hurt.

"What's wrong?" He asked.

"She was human and they gave her wolf venom and she is having her first shift," I said as I started to untie her legs. Colt and Liam jumped in and started to get her untied. I lifted her out of the chair and laid her on the floor.

I laid down on the floor and tried to talk her through this. She was fighting it. I knew how bad this hurt we all did but she had to relax.

Jade started to rub her back and the girl slowly started to slow her screams. Her body started to morph again and she started screaming louder again but her feet and hands turned to paws and her face started to elongate and a snout was formed.

"That's it girl you can do it. Try to stay calm." We told her.

With one last scream, she had fully shifted and started to howl. I walked over to her and ran my hand through her fur.

"You are a beautiful wolf. Now let's get you back to your human form. Just imagine your body and what it looks like think about your hair your eyes even your fingers think about everything that makes you you." I told her.

It didn't take long and she was back to her human form laying on the ground curled in a ball naked. That's when I saw her back. She had been branded. The brand was Roberts's initials. I turned around and Colter and Liam were just staring at her.

"Someone give me their shirt."

Liam was quick to hand his over. I grabbed it and started to put it over her.

"Come on sweetie, let's go talk somewhere else," I told her.

I helped her to her feet and she looked petrified but took my hand and we walked out and I headed to Colter's office. We got there and I turned to Colter.

"Please let me talk to her alone first. Would you get her some food and some more clothes?"

He leaned in and kissed me and just walked away. We walked in the door and I took her over to the table.

"What is your name?" I asked her.

"Leah." She said.

"Ok Leah I know you are scared and confused and I will explain everything to you but can you tell me what happened."

"I was leaving a club two weeks ago and some guy threw me the back of a van and tied me up and took us to a warehouse." She started to explain.

"Where there other with you?" I asked her. I really wanted to know how many we were talking about.

"Yes many others. I didn't know them but we were tied up and if we spoke they hit us. Then they would inject them with something. We would scream because whatever they injected us with hurt so bad that we would pass out."

"Wolfsbane." I mumbled.

"The warehouse had dogs in cages and naked humans. No one was safe. He was horrible."

"Do you know who he was?" I asked her.

"No, but if I can have my bag I can show you."

"Do you know where it is?" I asked her.

"That man who brought me here has it."

Colter came walking in with food and clothes for her and when I looked back over to Leah you could see her fear of Colter. She had sunk down into her chair and was trying to make herself as small as possible.

"Leah he won't hurt you I promise."

She just shook her head but didn't move. Colt put the food on the table and handed me the clothes.

"Why don't we step out and you can get dressed and eat and then I can explain what happened to you."

I grabbed Colter's hand and we walked out of the room.

"We need to set up a meeting with Julian and get a plan formed to get into that warehouse. They have humans and are injecting them with wolf venom among other things. From what she said wolfsbane. She explained how bad it hurt and they would pass out."

"We will work on that while you help Leah."

I gave him a kiss and went back into the office and Leah had gotten dressed and was eating.

"Why don't I explain what happened and answer any questions you have."

I sat down and explained everything she needed to know and she just sat there staring at me like I had lost my mind. I was finally done.

"Is this why I can hear someone talking in my head?"

"Yes, that's your wolf. You can talk back to her. Just think what you want to say to her and she will hear it."

She just got a big smile on her face as she tried it.

"Why don't we get you a room and you can shower and maybe sleep a bit? And later we can go through your bag and you can show us what you have."

"That would be great."

I took her out of the office and found a room and let her know that I would check in on her in a few hours.

I walked back down to the dining hall and fixed a plate and went and sat down with Colt Mac Liam and Sloane.

"Everything ok?" Colter asked.

"It will be. What time is our call with Julian?"

"In two hours." He answered me.

"Can we all meet in an hour? I want to go over Somethings with you first."

The all nodded at me and we ate our breakfast.

"Princess is everything ok?" Colt mind linked me.

"Yes, it's time I explain my two wolves to them and you. I'm learning new things all the time." I linked him back.

We finished our breakfast and I pulled Colter into his office before everyone else. I pushed him down in his office chair and climbed into his lap.

"What are you doing baby?" He asked me.

"I just wanted to snuggle you for a few minutes before everyone showed up."

He didn't say anything else but wrapped his arms around me and just held me.

It wasn't long before someone was knocking at the door. He yelled come in and I went to stand but he just wrapped his arms around me tighter.

In walked everyone I asked to come. They walked over to the table and sat down. Colter stood up and walked with me in his arms and sat down with me in his lap.

"Whats up Lex?" Sloane asked me.

"I wanted to explain my two wolves to everyone. I am still learning new things but I do have two wolves and I always have but didn't know it until I killed my mother and brother. My wolf Storm is a little bloodthirsty and likes revenge. She only comes forward in those times. You all know my wolf, Jade. She is the opposite of Storm. She is more of the soft one and wants to take care of everyone." I explained.

Nobody said anything to me for a few minutes, they just sat there staring at me.

"Someone say something please?" I said feeling a little nervous about their lack of saying anything.

"I think it's amazing. I wish I had two wolves." Sloane finally said.

"Can you call either of them forward at any time?" Mac asked.

"Yes, but when we are in a situation they know which one knows needs to come forward," I explained.

"Can they do anything else?" Liam asked.

"They can go into people's minds and see their memories."

"So you can do that to anyone of us at any time?" Mac asked.

"No, it's only when needed. Like I did with Aubree."

"Do you have any other special powers?" Sloane asked

"I don't know. They don't tell me a lot about what they can do. They like to surprise me with that."

Everyone started laughing at that. This went better than I thought. I still needed to tell the council but I didn't know when I would do that. I was hoping to soon because I want to know more and I am hoping they know more.

"Luna Alexa, I was actually hoping you could talk to Aubree again for me. She won't talk to me or even let me in her room. She hasn't come out since we got here." Mac said.

"Don't call me Luna. Please just call me Alexa. I would love to talk to her. I can go up after our meeting with Julian."

Chapter 58

Chapter 59 - Alpha Alexa

Julian's POV

Everyone had left and we had gotten the wolves from Black Lake pack to a room and the other wolf went with Colter and Alexa. Alpha Jake should be here in a few hours. I intended to spend those hours with Nicki. She said she wanted to talk. I grabbed her hand and took her up to our room.

"Angel, I can't tell you how happy I am that you are my mate and that you are marked, and I can't wait to bear your mark, but what did you want to talk about?" Told her as soon as we were in our room.

She didn't say anything but took me to the couch and crawled in my lap and laid her head on my shoulder and breathed in my scent. I started to rub her back and waited for her to talk. It took her a few minutes, but she finally started.

"Julian, I want to see my parents. I haven't seen them since I left that day. I didn't tell them I was leaving, and they don't know what happened to me or that I am alive."

"They are now in Colter's pack. I can call him, and we can get their number, so we can call them. I can have them brought here if you want."

"You would do that?" She asked with tears in her eyes.

"I would do anything for you. What are their names?"

"Jim and Sara Blu."

I pulled out my phone and sent Colt a text message about getting their information and then shoved my phone into my pocket.

"Can you feel your wolf?" I asked her.

“I can feel her, but she hasn’t spoken to me yet. I’ve tried so many times, but I get nothing.”

“She will talk to you; I am sure of it.”

I felt my phone vibrate with a message and it was Colt. He was fast. He had a phone number for me.

“Angel, I have a phone number for you, whenever you are ready.”

“That was so fast. Can I borrow your phone?”

“Of course,” I told her as I got the number put in.

I handed her the phone and told her to hit send whenever she was ready and that I would give her some privacy. She crawled off my lap and sat next to me. Her hands were shaking, and she was holding her finger over the send button.

“Angel, I am going to go to my office. Take as much time as you need.” I kissed her head and got up and left the room.

I made it to my office and sat down to do some work, but my mind kept going to Nicki, and wondered if she was ok. I couldn’t sit here and do nothing so I decided I would go see how Luca did with the humans. He was supposed to explain everything to them. I wasn’t sure if we were going to be able to send them home but that was going to be the best thing for them.

I went downstairs and heard yelling coming from out back. I made my way down there and found a circle of people and one of the humans crying. When I got closer, I could see that Luca had someone pinned to the ground and he was fighting him trying to keep him held down.

“What is going on out here?” I yelled.

“He is mated to the human girl that is crying. Her boyfriend started a fight, but I stopped him before it could escalate but he won’t calm down.” Luca said.

“Mike calm down. We have some things we need to discuss. Go to my office and wait for me.” I told him using my Alpha command so he couldn’t start something.

Luca let him up and he glared at the boy and then turned and left towards the house. This was the last thing I needed right now.

“Luca take the two boys and explain a mate bond to them.”

They turned and left with him, and this left me with the girl. I didn’t even know her name.

“What is your name?” I asked her.

“Ashlee.” She said.

“Walk with me and I will explain some things to you.”

We took off walking around the house and headed for the gardens. I explained the mate bond and that for Mike it’s like love at first sight. After explaining everything to her she looked very confused.

“Do you have any questions?”

“So, you are saying that I am supposed to be with this guy and have no say in it.” She asked me.

“You can reject him.”

“What happens to him if I do that?”

“He may never find anyone else to love.”

“OH.”

“Did you feel anything when you met him?”

“I can’t stop thinking about him and my heart wants me to talk to him, but I have a boyfriend and I can’t just dump him. We have been together for a year now,”

“I understand that, but I think you owe it to yourself to at least have a conversation with him. No one is forcing you to do anything.”

“Let me take you to him and you guys can talk.”

I walked her to my office and when we walked in Mike was a wreck. He ran straight to her and pulled her into his arms and just breathed in her scent.

“Mike don’t scare her but she would like to have a conversation with you,” I told him and then left my office so they could have privacy.

I walked back downstairs and found a very upset Nicki walking through the house looking for me. As soon as she saw me, she ran to me and threw her arms around me, and started crying.

“Angel, what’s wrong? Why are you crying?”

I picked her up bridal style and carried her back up to our room while she just cried. I took her to our bed and laid down with her and just let her cry and tried to comfort her, but it was no use she was upset right now. I don't know how long she laid there crying but she finally fell asleep in my arms and I slowly started to drift off as well.

"Sir, Alpha Jake is here." Luca mind linked me, waking me up.

I kissed Nicki on the head and started to roll out of bed. Her arm shot out and pulled me back down.

"Where are you going?" She asked.

"Alpha Jake is here, I have to go meet him and discuss everything that has happened and return his people."

"I will go with you." She said getting up from bed.

"You don't have to. Stay here and rest."

"I don't want to be away from you right now."

She got up from bed and went into the bathroom and when she came out she looked a little better. Her face wasn't so red and she ran a brush through her hair. I grabbed her hand and we went downstairs. We got downstairs and saw Luca talking with Alpha Jake.

"Alpha Jake, so glad that you could make it so quickly," I said walking up to him and extending my hand to him to shake.

"Thank you for finding my missing pack members Alpha Julian. I have some very anxious people waiting for their families if we can get them."

Just as he finished saying that an Omega walked around the corner with their family members. People started screaming and running to their families. It was a joyous sight.

"Alpha Jake, if you would like to follow me we can go to my office and I can give you a rundown of what we know," I told him.

"Nicki we're going to my office," I told her as she was talking with the families that just got here.

She grabbed a hold of my hand and we walked to my office. We walked in and took a seat at my desk and pulled Nicki into my lap and Alpha Jake sat down in one of my chairs in front of my desk.

I explained everything I knew and Alpha Jake was just thankful to have his pack members back. They were going to stay the night and leave in the morning.

I had an Omega show him to a room and I took Nicki to our room.

"Angel, are you doing ok?" I asked her.

"I will be better when my mom gets here. She wants to come here. I hope that's ok?" She said sounding hesitant.

"Of course, She can come here. I will arrange it Colter tomorrow."

"Come on let's go to bed," I told her.

We both quickly fell asleep but it didn't last long for me as my phone started going off. I rolled over to see who it was and it was Colter. I groaned and got out of bed and went away from my bed so I didn't wake Nicki.

"Do you know what time it is?" I asked him.

"Sorry, but we need to have a conference call in the morning." He said to me.

"Why?"

"We found someone on our pack lands who escaped from the warehouse and she has information we need to share. We also need to get all of the facts straight and come up with a plan." He told me.

"Ok, what time?"

"Ten"

"Fine, talk then."

I hung up the phone and went back to bed. As soon as I crawled under the blanket Nicki rolled right back over to me and laid her head on my chest. Zion started purring as he was so happy to have her in our bed and wearing our mark. I closed my eyes and let the sparks between us lull me to sleep.

I woke up with a mind link from one of my warriors.

"Alpha sir, we have caught some scents near the eastern border. We can't find anyone but we have five different scents."

"Has anyone else caught any scents on patrol tonight?" I linked back.

"No sir."

"OK, keep me posted if you come across anything else, and be safe."

I cut my link with the warrior and let out a big sigh.

"What's wrong baby?" Nicki asked.

"Nothing angel."

"I want to ask you something," Nicki said as she sat up on her elbow and ran her hand up and down my chest and abs.

"Anything angel."

"I want to train and learn to fight. I can't be the Luna if I can't protect our pack."

"I think that is a fabulous idea but I don't ever want you fighting and please don't argue with me on it."

"I want to protect our pack. I can't do that if you don't let me out there."

"You can't. That is how I lost my first mate. She died trying to protect our pack and I can't lose you too, besides you can help protect everyone in the safe house."

"I am sorry. I still want to be trained."

"I will train you myself, angel."

She didn't say anything else but laid back down on my chest and continued to run her hands over my chest and abs and every time she went down my abs she would get a little lower until she reached the top of my underwear. I just laid there and let her do whatever she wanted. I was just enjoying her touch and the sparks that were running between us.

Chapter 59

Chapter 60 - Alpha Alexa

Colter's POV

We were all gathered in my office, and I dialed Julian's number waiting for him to answer. I still have Alexa sitting on my lap. She would sit here for the rest of her life if I had any say about it.

"Hello," Julian said as he answered his phone.

"Hey, Julian. Who do you have with you?" I asked him.

"I have Luca and Nicki with me, no one else."

“OK, perfect, we have Alexa, Mac, Liam, Sloane, and myself, and Alexa is going to be explaining what we have found out,” I told him.

“So we found another human by the pack lands well she isn’t human anymore.”

“What do you mean she isn’t human anymore?” Nicki asked.

“She shifted. They have injected her with wolf venom, and she escaped somehow before she shifted but started to shift not long after we found her.”

“Is she ok?” Nicki asked.

“She will be. She lived and is adjusting but she provided us with some valuable information. Robert is kidnapping people and turning them. He is also very violent and doesn’t care what happens. He is also kidnapping other wolves but we’re not sure why yet.”

“Well, the humans you left here have some complications. The female human is mated to one of my warriors but one of the male humans is her boyfriend. It’s gotten messy and I don’t know what I am going to do with them.” Julian said.

“What a shit show Robert has created. Does anyone know where his money was going?” I asked.

“No, but I am guessing to help fund this, well whatever it is he is doing,” Alexa answered.

“Alexa, what are you wanting to do?” Julian asked.

“I want to get everyone out of that warehouse. Robert is doing horrible things to them, and we have to rescue them before it gets worse. Julian, can you send a team out to scout it and find anything out on them?” Alexa asked.

“Yes, I will put some together and send them out today.”

“Thanks, ok next we need to find Robert. I know the girl that shifted said he wasn’t always there. I don’t know who else he is working with, but it wouldn’t surprise me if he is working with other supernatural beings.” Alexa said.

“Let me gather what I can about the warehouse and who is coming and going and then I will call you tomorrow with an update and we can form a plan,” Julian said.

I hung up the phone and we all sat around looking at each other. I didn’t really know what to do or say right now. I know we had a lot to do but there was just so much that it was a little overwhelming.

“OK everyone let's get back to our regular routines and we will meet again tomorrow to see what Julian has found out,” I announced.

Alexa turned to me and smiled. That smile would bring me to my knees every time.

“Princess, what do you have going on today?” I asked her as everyone left the room.

“Well, I really need to get a workout in and then I want to go and see our newest wolf. I want to make sure they are adjusting ok.”

“Want some company for your workout?” I asked her.

“If you’re my company then I always want company.”

She jumped off my lap and headed to the door. She was already dressed for the gym but I wasn’t so I would have to meet her there.

“Princess, I will meet you there. I have to change my clothes.”

We walked out of my office and she headed to the gym and I went to our room.

“Hey man, are you ever going to ask her to marry you?” Grey linked me.

“Yes I will but I don’t know that right now is the time. We need to take care of Robert first.” I replied back.

“OK, how about making her our Luna officially?” He asked me.

“I do need to do that soon.”

I cut my link with him since I was in our room and looking for workout clothes. I found a pair of gym shorts and shoes and skipped putting a shirt on and headed back down to the gym. I got down there and when I opened the door I was surprised by what I saw. Alexa and Emma were both in the gym and they were standing so close that it looked like Emma was about to kiss Alexa. I could see Emma’s eyes were black and I could smell both of their arousals.

“Am I interrupting something?” I asked as I walked back over.

“Sorry Alpha Colter. I was just leaving Emma said.” She quickly left the gym and I was just standing there staring at Alexa.

“What was that about?” I asked her.

“We were just talking about Robert and the warehouse.”

I stepped up to Alexa and I could hear how fast her heart was beating and knew that she was lying about that conversation. I could also smell her arousal. I leaned down and kissed her neck.

“Princess don’t lie to me. I’m basically a human lie detector.” I whispered to her and then continued kissing her neck.

She was letting out small moans and her arousal was getting stronger.

“So, princess what was that conversation about?” I asked her again.

“Did you know that Emma was Bi-sexual?” she finally said.

“No, I didn’t. Are you?” I asked her as I continued to kiss her.

“No but would you be mad if I said I was always a little curious.”

I pulled back from her and just stared into her eyes. I knew she was telling the truth and I also knew that she would never do anything to betray our bond.

“No baby I wouldn’t. I also know that you would never betray our bond. If your curious maybe, we can explore that option together.” I told her.

“Come on, we have a workout to get in.” She said and walked off.

I wasn’t going to get much of a workout done with my hard cock and visions of Alexa and Emma in my bed. I followed Alexa over to the treadmill and got on one and we started our run. After our run, we started sparring, which turned more into touching each other.

“Come on Princess, I have work to do and you wanted to talk to our newest wolf,” I told her.

“I know but this has been the worst and best workout ever.” She said with a smile on her face.

She was right, we didn’t get much of a workout in, but we did have a great time doing it. I grabbed her hand, and we went up to our room.

“Go shower and when you're done I will go with you,” I told her.

I went to our little mini fridge, grabbed some water and a snack, and waited for Alexa to return. It didn’t take her long and she was coming out of the shower wrapped in just a towel. Grey was trying to push forward to go have his way with her, but we really had a lot to do today and unfortunately, she wasn’t one of them right now. She came out of the closet fully clothed and walked over to me.

“Colt please just know what you saw with Emma was just a conversation and nothing more and it will never be anything more. I love you and you are the only person for me.”

“I know that princess and I love you too.”

“Can you answer me this? If that was a guy you would have killed him for even being that close to me but when a female does it, you are totally ok with it?” she asked, cocking an eyebrow at me.

“Well, what can I say I am a typical male and there is something hot about you and Emma together, and don’t worry baby I would be with you the entire time.”

“Your kind of a pig, you know that.”

“I know but I am your pig,” I said laughing.

She turned and left the room and I headed to the shower. After I quickly showered and dressed, I went to my office to start some paperwork. I don’t know how long I had been working but suddenly my office door was thrown open. I looked up with a murderous look on my face because nobody came in without knocking but then I saw Alexa and she is the only one who can do that.

“Princess, what’s wrong?” I asked.

“Our new wolf, her name is Leah. She stole things when she left and has them in her room. She had a ledger book and ID cards and keys. She has no clue what the keys are too because everyone uses their ID badge to get in and out and opens all the doors.” She said.

“What? That is great. We can use that. I think we need her to work with someone to get the layout of the building as soon as possible.” I told her.

“I agree. Do you have someone that can do that?”

“Yes, I will have them meet us in the conference room,” I told her.

“OK, I am going to go get her and we will meet you there.” She said and left my office.

I sent a mind link to Bart. He was a warrior but an amazing artist. He said he would be right there with his notepad and pencils. I walked down to the conference room and found Alexa and Leah in there going through her backpack and laying things out on the table. I walked over and looked at what they had and that’s when I saw one of the ID badges, it belonged to someone in my pack.

“Do you know this man?” I asked throwing the ID badge at them.

“He helps them, but I don’t know him. I know he wasn’t nice but none of them are.” Leah explained.

“Do you know him?” Alexa asked me

“Yes, he is a pack member. I didn’t know he had even left. I have to go I will be back. Bart will be here soon to help you get the warehouse layout.” I told them and then stormed out of the conference room.

I didn't know where he was or if he was even here still but I knew where his parents lived and they were going to talk to me. I got outside and stripped down and shifted into Grey and grabbed my clothes with my mouth and took off to his parent's house. I got there shifted back and threw my clothes on.

I walked to the front door and pounced on it. I could hear someone moving around inside and finally, the front door swung open.

"Alpha, what do we owe the surprise visit to?"

"Ben, we need to talk about your son."

"Please come in Alpha." He said and stepped aside and motioned for me to come in. I walked in and followed him to the living room and we sat on the couch.

"Alpha, I don't know where my son is. He was coming and going and now he has just been gone. He made a new friend and completely changed."

"Who is the new friend?" I asked him.

"I don't know who they are. They met in the city a few weeks ago." He said.

"Your son is involved in some shady business and I can't guarantee that his life will be spared. If he shows up here or you have any contact with him you or anyone in your family need to notify me immediately."

"Yes sir."

"Do you know of anyone else that got pulled into that?"

"Not that I am aware of."

"I will be in contact," I told him as I got up and headed out of the house.

I hated to be that person but he had to know that his son was making bad choices and depending on what he did when we caught him would determine his outcome but if I find out that he did anything to hurt anyone he wouldn't live. I headed back to the pack house to let Alexa know what I found out and see if they had made any progress in getting the layout of the warehouse.
