

Alpha's Blind Luna, Chapter 29

"Whatever you're thinking, you might as well do it."

Bryan walked in and opened up the refrigerator. He poured some of the iced tea I made the other day into a glass.

"You've been staring at the phone for the past ten minutes. Just do it."

I nodded. It had been three months since the Gathering. Since I had spoken with my siblings. It had been gnawing at me a little that I hadn't called to check in. To see if Ty found his mate. To see if Maddie had found hers. I had thought about them a few times but so much happened it was forced to the back of my mind. I also didn't know if I was ready for it.

I picked up the phone and dialed Ty's cell number.

'Hello?'

I cleared my throat. "Hey Ty."

'Holy shit, Auri? Is that you?'

"Yeah. I just wanted to...check in."

It was nice to hear his voice. Bryan gave me a thumbs up as he sat at the kitchen bar with me.

'Checking in? You never check in while you're out working?'

I blinked, looking at Bryan confused. "Out working?"

'Yeah?' He now sounded as confused as I was. 'Mom and Dad said that you had already left for work. That you would be back in three months.'

Bryan burst out laughing. He slammed his hand down on the counter, holding his waist. I tried to not smile as I watched him.

'Auri, what's going on? Who's laughing in the background? Are you okay?'

"I'm fine Ty! Don't worry! It's just...I'm not working." I paused and took a breath.

"I found my mate."

'You what?! We thought you left early! You disappeared!'

"Yeah, and instead of thinking maybe she had found her mate, you all think that she went to work early."

I hushed Bryan, kicking him in the shin. " I did leave the ballroom fairly early but my mate tracked me down. He took me back to his pack and I've been here."

'Is that him in the background?'

I glared at Bryan. "No. That's our Beta."

'Wait. Who's your mate then?'

"Alpha Logan of Harvest Moon pack."

'Auri!' I heard a few loud sounds before a spoon or fork clattered to the floor on the other end of the phone. 'So that makes you ...'

"I am their Luna. The pack has been nothing but kind. They really feel like a family. It's different being connected to a pack. Good but different."

Ty whistled on the other end of the phone. 'I mean, I knew you would do better than all of us considering how strong you are. But Luna is fucking amazing.'

'Language Ty!'

I heard a female voice come over the line and I snickered. "Your mate?"

'Yeah. Her name is Christine. She's incredible, Auri. Though, her cooking isn't quite up to par.'

Bryan laughed and I could hear stomping.

'Who are you talking to?'

'Auri called.'

'Auri? You mean your half-sister Auri?'

'Yeah.'

'Invite her you dimwit. If she isn't working and won't be back.'

Ty sighed. 'Auri, Christine and I are expecting our first pup.'

My eyes widened. "You mean I'm gonna be an aunt?"

He chuckled. 'Yeah. We are having a baby shower. I would love for you to come if your Alpha lets you.'

I smiled. "I'll talk to him. I wouldn't want to miss it Ty. Really. Congratulations. I'm so excited for you."

He paused for a second. 'Mom and dad are gonna be so pissed.'

"What do you mean?"

'They've been...struggling. Dad got passed up again for a promotion at work. And mom, well, to drown her sorrows bought a shit ton of stuff. My dad nearly croaked when he looked at the amount. But she just said that it would be covered by your paycheck.'

"Oh. And that paycheck isn't coming because I never went to work."

"It's about time they learn some fucking discipline and respect." Bryan huffed out and I heard Ty laugh.

'He's not wrong.'

"How's Maddie doing?"

He sighed. 'She moved in with us about a month ago. It was closer to school but with you and I gone, apparently it wasn't great. We moved her in and she's actually been doing better in school now.'

"She didn't find her mate then?"

'No. But she's got time. She's still only fifteen.'

I chuckled. "Yeah, cause seventeen is so far off."

'Whatever Luna. You're nineteen and in charge of a pack.'

"Touché."

We laughed. 'In three weeks on the 16th. I'll call you to remind you. It would be great to see you.'

"Yeah. I'm glad your doing well. Tell Maddie I said hi."

'I will. And Auri?'

"Yeah?"

'You owe me a cake recipe.'

I laughed and Bryan growled. Knowing exactly which recipe I was talking about.

"That I do."

'I love you big sis.'

"Love you too little bro."

He chuckled and hung up the phone. I took a deep breath and set the phone down on the table. Bryan was looking at me curiously.

"You gonna actually tell Alpha?"

"Tell me what?"

Logan walked into the kitchen, setting his jacket down on the side table. He came over and wrapped his arms around me, burying his head into my neck and hair. I could feel him breathing me in and a rush of goose bumps ran over me.

"I called my half-brother." I felt him stiffen but I continued. "He's doing well with his new mate. Apparently, my parents think I'm still working and bringing home a paycheck in the next week."

He growled, lifting his head up. His arms tightened around me. "I knew that Alpha Leo was a snake. He didn't do shit. Probably gave them a bonus."

"Well, they are in for a rude awakening." Bryan chuckled.

"I'm gonna be an Aunt." I smiled and I felt Logan kiss my head.

"That's wonderful Auri!"

I paused. "Ty invited me to their baby shower. It's in a few weeks."

I held my breath as I waited for Logan to say something. I know he wasn't happy with my old pack. He wanted less to do with them than I did. But Ty was different. We had talked about my siblings and that I had nothing but good things to say about them but I knew Logan still blamed them for how I was treated.

"Do you want to go?"

I nodded.

"Then I guess we will be going together. Cause I'm not letting you out of my sight in the territory."

I beamed up at him and he shook his head. "Don't give me that face, Auri. Like I just made your night."

I chuckled. "Only if you're staying for dinner."

He groaned. "Well, now I have to." I gave him a swift kiss on the cheek and then got up. "I guess I better start on dinner. Bryan and I were gonna have cereal if you weren't gonna stay." I winked at Bryan.

"Is that what you two do while I'm gone?"

"You're always gone Alpha." Bryan huffed. "Leaving me and Auri to just clean up after the paperwork."

"Oh, she's Auri now? Not your Luna?"

I giggled at Logan raised his eyebrow at Bryan. "Of course Logan. We watch movies, swim, go for runs. If I didn't know any better, I would think I was dating Bryan." I turned as Bryan shot me a how-dare-you, a smile spreading across my face.

"Bryan, I think we need to have a chat." Logan's voice dropped an octave and I did my best not to giggle.

"Alpha, it's not like that. She just..."

"Just saying how much I enjoy Bryan's company. His great taste in music when we do karaoke. When we talk about the different missions I did as The Huntress." I had to bite my lip to not laugh.

"Fuck, Auri. Help me out here."

I turned around and Logan had him by his shirt, holding him up. His eyes were still an icy blue and a smile was failing to not make it on his face. But I made my way around the counter, coming up behind Logan. Snaking my arms around him, I unbuttoned his shirt and slipped my hands in. My fingers brushed against his bare skin and his grip on Bryan slacked.

I heard Logan's breath catch as his hands held my arms, slightly shaking.

"Bryan, I'm gonna give you a warning. You better make yourself scarce until dinner." Logan's words rumbled but before he finished Bran was already heading out the door.

Logan turned to me and I squeaked as he lifted me onto the island counter. He leaned down and kissed me on the lips, immediately putting his tongue in my mouth. His eyes closed as I wrapped my arms around his neck and kissed back, savoring him. Pulling me to him, my breasts pressed up against his abs.

There was a couple minutes of breathless kissing when he pulled away, his forehead leaned against mine.

"I love you Auri. I'm sorry I've been so busy."

I chuckled. "Logan, Bryan and I were only teasing."

"But it's true. Hector and Bryan are more involved in your life than I am and I hate the thought. I feel like I'm failing you as a mate."

"We don't have the luxury that other mates might have. We have to make sure that our family is safe and taken care of so they can enjoy their times with their mates." I smiled and cupped the side of his jaw. "It also won't always be this bad. We will get a break at some point. Maybe we can go on a vacation."

Logan laughed. "A vacation. Something I never thought I'd want. But when you say it, it's all I want."

I closed my eyes. Feeling the electricity racing through my body. His hands reached under my shirt and grabbed my hips. I felt his fingers brush against his skin. I bit back a moan.

"Auri, what do you think about having pups?" Logan's voice was quiet.

"I think once this rogue business is done, I would like to have pups with you. Start our family."

He looked at me, eyes staring into mine. "Really?"

I nodded, still biting down on my lip. I saw his eyes go down to my lips.

"Auri, I keep telling you. Don't bite your lips or I'll bite them for you."

I smiled and kissed him, biting his lip. He let his hands roam up my body and around the back. Unhooking my bra, his hand came back around and snaked under it. He cupped my breasts, letting his thumb brush over my nipples. My back arched into him as I let out a moan.

"I need you Auri." Logan's gravelly voice made the hair on my skin stand up.

"You have me." I said breathlessly still trying to comprehend that we were in the kitchen. In full view of all the windows.

He growled and pulled up my shirt and bra, tossing them to the side. I started to cover myself with my arms as he grabbed them and put them behind my back. One of his hands grabbed both my wrists, pinning them to my back and pushing me against him.

"Don't toy with me, Luna."

"Or what Alpha?"

He picked me up off the counter, spinning me around as I wrapped my legs around him. Logan pushed me against the wall behind, and I could hear a picture fall. But before I could place which one, he nipped my neck and I let out a gasp. Continuing to nip and brace me against the wall, I felt his cock rub up against my thigh. He was so hard I wondered how his pants weren't ripped open.

One of his hands moved and I heard his belt unbuckled. I knew he was free only when I felt his bare dick rub against me. I was still wearing some shorts. I liked these shorts and I would mourn their loss. Logan's hand grasped them, even looping in my underwear and in a yanking motion, I heard the fabric tear. The cool air from inside the kitchen bushed up against my butt and my nipples went hard.

"Well, hello!" Logan licked them as I blushed.

I gasped as he nibbled on one, then the other. "Logan!"

"Damn it, I can't wait."

He brought his head up and kissed me. As he did, he put both hands under my butt and adjusted me so his cock was at my entrance. Logan leaned into me, pushing me harder against the wall. I couldn't go anywhere as he slipped inside me. The fire was already raging in me and he slid in with no issue. He moaned against my lips, kissing me more passionately.

With one hand holding my ass up, and the other bracing against the wall, his hips bucked into me, creating the rhythmic pump. My breath was already coming out ragged. Only made worse by him nipping at my mark. I had never been this fast to feel the edge, the pleasure building faster than I could breath through.

"Logan!" My arms were wrapped around his neck moved to weave my fingers through his hair, grabbing tight as he pumped harder and faster in me.

"Auri." He groaned.

I let out a gasp as the pleasure released and I tightened around him. He was so surprised that his rhythm faltered and I felt him release inside me. He gasped and his forehead rested on my shoulder. I still held him tight, not wanting him to let go. Not wanting him to leave. I hadn't realized it but as I held him tight, I started to cry. He felt my shoulders shaking and he looked up, worry in his eyes.

"Love?"

I tried to smile but I was failing and I knew it. His eyes only show more worry. Finally, looked away from him, up at the ceiling.

"I don't want you to go." My chest was rising and falling. I focused on it, trying to stop the tears.

"Auri, I didn't..." Logan looked like he was at loss.

I shook my head. "Forget it. I'm just being selfish." It didn't help the tears to say the words out loud. It just made the mate bond hurt more.

"Shit." Logan wrapped his around me, pulling me to him and away from the wall. He held my head, holding me to him. "I'm sorry, my love."

I shook my head but he stopped it with his hand.

"No. I've been taking care of everyone but you. I'm sorry, Auri."

He let me cry for a few minutes against him before he started to walk, my legs still wrapped around him, into the side bathroom. It was a full bath right off the kitchen and Logan turned on the water for the shower. Waiting for it to warm up, he stepped in with the both of us. I gasp as his dick slid out and he held me under the rain of the shower. Tilting my head into the water, I let it wash over my tear soaked cheeks and down the rest of my body.

Logan reached over and grabbed some of the soap in this shower and lathered it up in his hands. I eyed him curiously as he started to rub my shoulders. He took his time, rubbing down every part of my body.

I bit back a moan as he crouched down and slipped his fingers between my lips, cleaning my pussy but he continued to my thigh as though he hadn't heard me. Once he washed my feet, I laughed as he put his face between my thighs.

"It's okay to tell me you miss me. It's okay to ask me to stay home. I don't want you to be afraid of talking to me." Logan spoke out from between my legs.

I smiled. "I'm not afraid Logan. I just know it's important that you take care of the pack as Alpha."

"I would throw it all away for you, never forget that."

My eyes widened as he looked down at him. His head still buried in my thighs. I ran my fingers through his hair.

"Back when I didn't know if you would come back home with me I thought about what I would do. I realized I would leave it all for you. If you weren't going back, neither was I. Because I couldn't lose you Auri. I can't breathe without you."

He nuzzled in further and I giggled. "I think you could manage without me."

His eyes shot to mine, showing their midnight blue. "Never say that Auri. Ever. I will protect you. And if I for some stupid fucking reason can't reach you, you will fight tooth and nail to come home to me. Do you hear me?"

I nodded, bending down and kissing his forehead. "I promise."

He sighed, burying his face back in my thighs, seemingly appeased by my promise. I smiled, running my fingers through his hair. Logan was the same for me. My body reacted every time he was near. The mate bond would send shooting pains if I was out of his presence for long periods of time. I didn't know how it felt for him, but I knew it effected him too. It was something I still couldn't fathom. That the moon goddess gave us something so strong to pull us together.

"I should make dinner now. Bryan would be sad if he came back to no dinner after you kicked him out."

He shook his head. His nose brushed against my clit and I yelped. Logan chuckled and I pulled his head up to look at me by his hair. He was smiling at me.

"Logan."

He pouted but gave my pussy one last lick before standing up. I shivered and slapped him on the shoulder. He laughed and kissed me.

"Alright love. You win. This time."
