

Chapter 0010

I need to start getting this pack set up to run without me or my influence. I also need to get with Gamma Tima and give him a heads-up that I am leaving tomorrow. I hate it, but I'm going to have to Luna Command him not to say anything until I am gone. As much as I know him and Beta James loves me, they are still Kosta's friends. As much as Kosta is being an ass right now, I know he would not let me leave on my own, especially while I still have some influence over the ranked pack members. That's one of the reasons I'm calling Zach and Uncle Jerry to come get me. I purposely did not call my dad, because calling him would mean getting my mother involved and that would be opening a whole other can. My mother never wanted me to come to this pack at such a young age in the first place. I was supposed to spend the year that I came here with my grandparents in the pack that I was supposed to get when I turned 18. My grandfather set the pack up with my beta running the pack in my absence. Kosta didn't know about my other pack and now I am glad I never told him. He would have tried to gain control over it or would have been mad because that pack can only be run by my bloodline. I was holding it for my daughter. My son was supposed to become the alpha of this pack, but I guess the twins will be co-alfhas of my pack.

After I finished all the legal paperwork and transferred the rest of the pack assets back to Kosta's father's control, I linked Gamma Tima to meet with me.

"Hi, Luna, you wanted to see me?" Tima greeted me as he entered my study.

"Come on, Tima, let's not be so formal. Besides, I am no longer the luna of this pack." I say.

"Zell, you will always be my luna. I choose to believe that Alpha Kosta will get his head out of his ass soon. I know that he loves you. He is just having a tough time."

"Sorry Tima, we're going to have to agree to disagree on that one. Kosta has shown me how he really feels over the past month or actually, it has been longer than a month. I just hide it from everyone in the beginning until he started treating me badly in front of everyone. Let's not talk about Kosta. That's not why I called you here and seriously Tima, I would never put you in the middle of Kosta and myself and our mess of a mate bond or whatever it is that we have." I said.

"Ok, Zell. What's going on?" Tima asked.

"Well Tima, I have made up my mind to my family. Tim, I am pregnant, and this environment is not healthy for my pup. I will be calling my brother so he and my uncle Jerry can come and get me. I want to leave peacefully, without any issues from Kosta. I have not told Kosta about the pup and I don't want him to know at this time. I refuse to give him or Khalis any more ammunition to use against me. I'm not sure that my pup will be safe until I make it back home safely to my family. Now before you say that Kosta would not hurt me or my pup, no one thought he would turn against me so completely either. I just cannot take any chances with the safety of my pup." I say, letting the tears that I had been holding back fall.

"It's ok Zell. I understand. I will not say anything to anyone. It's sad that it has come to this, but I do agree that you are doing the best thing." Tima said.

"The other reason I called you was to let you know that everything Khalis is doing now has been planned out. She told me to my face the day I met with her in my office that she was going to replace me as Kosta's mate and luna. In fact, she graciously gave me a week to leave before she has Kosta kick me out of the pack. I thought she was making an idle threat, but that same night, Kosta stripped me of the luna position and started letting her act as the luna. He went as far as trying to lock me out of all our accounts. It's a good thing I was able to separate all of our accounts and block him from my personal money. He tried to take everything from me. If my family did not own the bank or I didn't keep my accounts separate, he would have succeeded." I said.
