

Chapter 0007

“You both forget that she destroyed me first. I opened my heart to her. I gave up my whoring ways for her. I opened my pack to her, and she is trying to replace me with another alpha. Just like all the social climbing whore I slept with before her. She is trying to take everything from me. She came in here with all her money and took 60% of my business. Yes, she single-handedly turned them around, but I was there by her side and no one acknowledges that I worked just as hard as she did just because she had the money and power of the royals behind her. Yes, we all know she is pure-blooded, but that does not make her better than me. That does not give her the right to try to take my pack from me.” I yelled.

“So there you have it.” Beta James said. “All of this is about jealousy and wounded pride. You knew who Zell was before you mated her. You knew her full bloodline because we grew up with her family. You knew she was a child prodigy because we were there while she was growing up. You know she would have graduated earlier than 16 if her father permitted it. You were the one who declared she was your mate a full 2 years before she could have scented you. She blindly trusted you. You were there when she completed a 4-year degree in two years. You knew all of this going into your mateship. You wanted all of her skills and money when the pack was failing. Before she could verify that you were indeed her fated mate, you mated her, and she worked herself to the bone to give you the pack you wanted. You have the nerve to be angry and jealous because she did what you asked her to do. Kosta, I don’t know who you are anymore. You are not the male I grew up with.” Beta James said, then walked out of my office.

The gamma just looked at me.

“What gamma? Do you have something to say?” I asked through clenched teeth.

“I’m just going to leave you with a thought. Do you really think Prince Jerry or Alpha heir Zach are going to let this go? As close as that family is, I know that the only reason she is still here now is because she has not called them and let them know what has been happening. She has been protecting you from them. Somewhere inside of her, she is still hoping that you will come around and work things out with her. Alpha, please stop this before it is too late.” Gamma Tima says.

“Gamma, did you ever think that she has not said anything because she is protecting her plan with Alpha Richard? I will be going to see Alpha Richard tomorrow with Khalis. I will get to the bottom of this once and for all.” I said.

“Well, I see you have made up your mind and are prepared to see this through to the end, no matter how destructive the outcome may be. I just hope you don’t regret it because I have a feeling that what you break tomorrow will never be fixed again,” Gamma says and leaves my office.

I am now left alone with my thoughts. They both have valid points. Maybe I am being prideful. I can admit to being jealous of her power and ability, but that’s not it. Khalis has pointed out too many inconsistencies for me not to check this out. Of course, I am not going to just take Alpha Richard’s words. I will ask for concrete evidence.

“Kosta, I have a bad feeling about this. Are you sure we are doing the right thing? I feel like everything will change after tomorrow and not in a good way. Kosta, I know you can feel our mates’ emotions. They are ready to give up on us. One more thing could push them over the edge. I don’t want to lose them completely. I know you want to make them submit to us, but I don’t think that is going to happen.” Emil said.

“Emil, I am also feeling uneasy. I need to do this. I can feel Zell’s pain. I don’t want to hurt her, but I refuse to blindly follow the mate bond and allow some other alpha to take over the pack that has been in my family for generations. I refuse to allow her to stand above me in my own pack and challenge my authority. Who is she to say that I am not strong enough to hold this pack without her? I am an alpha male.”

Right now, I am tired and frustrated. I have not been sleeping much since Zell moved out of our room. I can tell she is not sleeping either. When she moved out, she had the omegas strip every trace of her out of the room. There was nothing of her left, not even a trace of her scent to help relax me. I felt her crying herself to sleep that first night. I wanted to go to her, but I can’t. I have to show her that I am the alpha of this pack. She needs to come to me if she wants me back. Emil doesn’t agree with everything I am doing, but I know deep down, he wants her to submit to us as well. We are alpha. We should be the strongest in our pack.

When I come back tomorrow, I will give her back the luna position, but I will let her know that we are not going to live as mates. I am only doing this because the pack needs her. She will have the title, but she will not be my equal. She will need to ask my permission to make major decisions. If I find out she really cheated on me, I will destroy her and be ready for her brother. I doubt the prince will get involved. If they can’t produce concrete evidence, then I will come back and see if we can rebuild a relationship under my terms. I know she loves me and I think she will take me any way she can get me. She will have to submit to me before anything happens with us. She will no longer be the alpha female of the pack. She will be the luna and subject to me. She will not be training and fighting anymore. Soon the rest of the pack will forget how big and strong she is. He will have to surrender all of her personal property to my control. I think after all of this, she will be willing to do all of that to be with me. I just have to stay the course.
