"You are pregnant!" Hannah gasps and I immediately snapped my head at the image on the monitor, I am with child. "Congratulations Anna!" She beamed, I was still recovering from the shock

"H-how? ". My mind was trying to process what was before me, my gaze was still at the monitor where my baby was appearing before me, there was a life growing inside me. How had I not noticed a slight bulge in my stomach?

"Anna, I know this is surprising, I am as surprised as you are, I can't even smell the baby on you, I think you should be three weeks far along and Alpha babies take five months to fully form"

"Five months?, I thought it was six"

"That is for other wolves, the Alpha babies are strong and they develop faster, Kaden would soon hear the child heartbeat as well but it is still odd that your scent has not changed" Hannah sniffed me "it hasn't changed , should I call the Alpha?"

"No!" I immediately responded, we were working on our relationship, now there was a baby, he would only care for me more because of the baby not because of he has grown feelings for me.

"No?" Hannah questions in confusion, she would not understand "why don't you want me to call him here, he deserves to know, he is Alpha and this is his child" she reasoned

It was more complicated than that, this was what Kaden wanted from me from the beginning, he did not want a mate he wanted a pup and he had made it clear two times before my shifting, I know things were different now but I was selfish, I wanted Kaden attention to be on me for a little while, it had been long since someone wanted me as a person, I will tell him about the child but not just now.

"I will tell him myself when I am ready".

"The Alpha will know even if you don't tell him" Hannah said.

"You said my scent has not changed maybe you can give me what you gave Gia for a while".

She stared at me crazily "Why don't you want him to know?" She asked.

"I am not ready" I simply replied, how can I tell her that I am greedy, I want this child but I want Kaden's attention for a while before the knowledge of the child comes into light

"You know this is wrong, this is one thing that will make the Alpha completely whole again and you are keeping it from him".

That was my problem, her exact statement was my fear, this child would make him feel whole again, it would complete him, it would mean that I was not enough. I dropped my head down and sighed deeply " I just need some time, maybe a week to get my head together and I will tell him" I compromised.

Hannah looked hesitant to my idea but she later agrees "Fine, one week you tell him, I will give you the mixture but when the time runs out and you don't tell him, I will stop giving you the mixture and I will tell him but that is if he has not sniffed it out by that time" she threatened.

"Thank you".

"I don't know why you are doing this, but I hope you figure things out soon" she leaves to get the mixture, she hands it over to me, the mixture was in a black small container, I opened it, it looked just like a regular body cream "You have to apply some now, I don't know why your scent has not changed but you don't want to risk anything" she instructed

"Thank you" I greeted, she simply nods as she walks out of the room, I scooped out of the mixture and rub it against my belly before lying back on the bed. That was how I spent the rest of my day, on the bed and with my thoughts, Hannah had not returned to the room again, I know she was disappointed but I could not help how I felt about the situation.

By six pm, Kaden was already here, thankfully I was already waiting by the steps for him, if he had caught me on the bed, he would have noticed that something was wrong.

He smiled at me and I smiled back "How was your day?" He asked.

"It was fine, a regular day" I let the lie roll out of my lips so easily that he did not doubt me, he took my hand into his and he led us to the dining halls, we eat dinner, he fed me as usual and then we were off to his house.

I peeled off my clothes from my body as I walked into the bathroom, the mixture was in my hand, I had managed to hide it inside my night gown, I take my time to stare at myself in the mirror of the bathroom, my hands went to my stomach and the bulge of my stomach was evident but not easily detectable, how had I not noticed this before, I caressed my belly softly as I looked at myself in the mirror, there was indeed a glow, my skin was better, I had put in weight and my black hair was looking more luscious.

I sigh deeply before tearing my eyes out of the reflection and into the bath tub. I closed my eyes as I relaxed into the warm water. Should I just tell him?, maybe nothing will change, he would hate me if later finds out that I had hid it from him.

Why do my life have to be so difficult?, why do I have to overthink everything?, if circumstances were normal I would have ran to Kaden's office with happiness the moment I had found out the truth. This is the same child I had threatened to destroy before it even had the chance to grow, it was here and it was growing inside of me and in four months and a week it would be out of me and I would be a mother.

Life has really changed, a month ago, I was still trapped in RedSand and now I was becoming a mother, Diana would be overjoyed when she finds out, I have not been able to reach her, I don't even have a phone, I haven't used one in three years and before now I have not seen the need for one.

I finally get out of the bath tub when I had soaked, washed and rinsed myself. I cleaned my body with the towel and applied the mixture to my belly once more, I put on my night gown hiding the mixture behind my feminine products in the cupboard beside the mirror before exiting the bathroom.

Kaden was already on the bed waiting for me. His hair looked damp, so I know he had taken his shower, as usual he is shirtless and it makes me feel frenzy and my arousal grows to my surprise, it was like I was seeing his toned chest for the first time, was the baby doing this to me.

He sensed my arousal as his eyes locked with mine "Come!" His voice comes out tough and I almost moaned. I took heavy steps to the bed as my heart rate picked up.

I lie down on my side of the bed and Kaden draws me closer "I understand if you don't want to have me in you but I will like to pleasure you" he said surprising me, I wanted him to have me again but I was scared he will call Freya's name again when he climaxed, but I wanted him to pleasure me, the heat in my core was growing.

"You can pleasure me" my voice comes out like a whisper but I am sure he heard me, he took that as a cue to descend on my lips, my core flamed right up.

"I find myself attracted to you everyday" he says against my lips before kissing me back, I let out a moan as he bites my lips.

He finally leaves my lips and goes to my neck devouring it like a starved man just like the first time. He gently removes my night gown and I am completely bare before him.

His eyes roams my body lustfully, he stops and his eyes lingers on my belly for a while and my heart rate rises, was he suspecting something?.

"You have gained weight" he commented and a bile in my throat rise "That is good Anna, when you decide to carry my pup, you will be strong" he added and the bile drops back and my heart relaxes, he doesn't suspect a thing yet.

I wanted to say something but the moment his fingers touched my vagina, I melted completely "You are wet" he slurred out, I had no idea I was even wet until he has said so, I feel a finger enter me and I let out a moan immediately as my back arched.

He kisses my lips as I moan and add another finger to it "You are fucking beautiful" he said and he begins pumping his fingers in and out at a steady speed and I moan lightly as the ecstasy builds, he quickens his pace pumping his fingers into my pussy so aggressively that I am a moaning mess.

"Fuck!" I cursed arching my back more, the pleasure was completely out of this world and it felt like I was ascending and descending at the same time, my eyes begins to roll and I know that I am close, and Kaden does not stop pumping in an out of me, the sloppy sounds caused by my fluid and his fingers could be heard in the room and the pressure builds inside of me and I screamed out when I reached my peak before collapsing on the bed, I feel vibrations and signals all over my body, and my breathing begins to steady, I look at Kaden and he has a satisfied grin on his face and it broke my heart at the truth I was keeping from him, he was happy that he pleases me.

He kisses me deeply "You are perfect Anna, I am sorry for making you feel otherwise in the past" he says as he gets up and enters the bathroom, I only stared at his retreating figure, exhausted and feeling guilty, he comes back with wipes and he pleases me up before disposing of the used wipes and he joins me back in bed, he wraps his arms around me and I am resting my head on his chest.

"What of you?" I ask, surely he must want some release, if I could not bring myself to tell him about his child maybe I could help him in finding his release.

He chuckles "I am fine, I am just glad that you are happy" he kisses my temple "Now go sleep, we will be going to the meadow tomorrow, I have something to show you"

"Show me?" I asked in anticipation, what was he planning?, what did he want to show me that was in the meadow?

"Just sleep, I will show you tomorrow, you get nothing this night" he responded and he closes his eyes, I stare at him briefly before turning away and I close my eyes, it must have been from the exhaustion that sleep engulfs me immediately.
