

Contract With Alpha Logan by Misha K

Chapter 179

Biancha POV

Alpha Logan and Luna Kylie were ecstatic and so was the entire family when they saw Toren's mark on me.

"I can't believe it!" Luna Kylie squealed. "Both my sons are mated!" She hugged me tightly as Toren watched us with fondness. Ever since he had marked me, he was relaxed. And so was 1. That urgent need to be with him all the time was met with. His mark was like I was carrying him with me everywhere I went.

"When you return, we are going to have celebrations for both of you," Kylie said with a grin. Alpha Logan was standing with Toren, watching us with a broad smile.

Layla and Astrid hugged me after that, both of them already talking about our future plans together. I blinked away the tears I had in my eyes for getting a family that was valuable in every term. They were all so loving and protective that I couldn't think of anyone else being in my family. The fact that I was Alpha Jax's daughter made me feel even better. At least I wasn't an abandoned child. And I would not be a rogue for all my life. All my tortures had come to an end.

My father was standing at the door, looking at me with hopeful eyes, his expression warm and welcoming. When my gaze met his, he looked at his watch, indicating that we had to leave fast. The River Creek pack was pretty far away from here, and we were going by road.

My reason to go alone with my father was that I wanted some time to explore my home after having stayed away from them for eight long years. Honestly, I was extremely excited to meet everyone.

Toren wrapped me in his arms and kissed the crown of my head. "I don't think I can stay without you." Then he lowered his voice and added, "You are gonna miss your favorite food."

Goddess. I smacked him on his chest and he laughed. It was true that his cum was enough for me for days because that was my true appetite. I ate food just to please others.

As soon as I reached the car, I saw Aiden waiting for me. He lifted his hand. "I guess you'll be needing this," he said as he handed me the bottle of potion. "I got it made for you again. Just be careful that you don't miss it."

I took a deep breath in. Aiden was such a caring wolf. "Thanks, Aiden," I said and hugged him.

He patted my back and whispered, "Your mate is growling at me. If you remain in this position even for a second more, he will rip my throat."

So just to tease Toren, I squeezed Aiden a little more and pulled away. Toren was immediately at my side, growling dangerously at Aiden. I burst out laughing as Aiden shook his head. "What's it with wolves and their mates?"

The journey to the River Creek pack was surprisingly smooth.

Alpha Jax stopped at various spots only so that I relaxed and ate food. He had come with four warriors and all of them looked at me with intrigue. We reached there by evening. It seemed my father had informed everyone about our arrival because I saw many men and women standing out of their houses, eagerly waiting for us. The moment our car rolled in the streets, they cheered for us and waved at me. I felt like a princess. Memories of my pack flooded, resulting in happy tears.

When we reached home, I saw Erin standing at the main door along with Mason, who was holding a pup in his hands. My throat choked seeing her. She looked lovelier, with her dark hair in a messy bun as always.

“Bianchaaaa!” Erin threw herself at me and I hugged her tightly. This time, I couldn’t stop my tears.

“Erin...” I murmured as I hid my head in the crook of her neck, smelling her familiar scent. How I missed her? I wish I could rewind the time, but things had to happen the way they happened. It was my destiny to meet Toren. Had I not been kidnapped by Marlin, maybe I wouldn’t have met Toren.

She pulled away and stood at arm’s length with her hands on my shoulders. “I missed you, little one.”

“I missed you too.”

She giggled through her tears, and holding my hand, she walked me in. “This is my husband, Mason,” she said. “And this is my pup, Ken.” Ken watched me cautiously with his big brown eyes. Gosh, he looked so much like his father.

The next few days went like a breeze. I reacquainted myself with everyone around me. But I met them only after I had downed the bottle of potion. I didn’t want any catastrophes happening in my pack. My father took me to the cabin where he met mother, and I noticed he had actually developed that place.

“It’s possible that she is alive,” he said, looking pensively at the forest. “And she may come back.” But the truth was, his bond had faded a lot. I could see how he was also withering, It was like he wanted to give it all up and stay in the cabin. Erin had told me he was planning on giving reins of the pack to Mason, and then retiring to this cabin. I could understand his emotions. Because I knew I was going to follow Toren to the Fade.

Speaking of Toren, he came to my pack on the fifth day.

“Baby, I can’t stay away from you!” he rasped. I was surprised that he had shifted into his wolf and ran halfway here. There were warriors with him, but they were in the cars.

Erin was suppressing her laughter as he hugged me. Naked.

Mason and my father welcomed Toren with open arms. It was like with my marriage they had formed an important alliance.

Two days later, we went back to my home in the Nord Pack. Over there, I saw Minnie and Ginny working in the horse stable. Is it bad to feel that was extremely satisfied seeing them so miserable? They bowed to me as I passed them with Toren out of fear. Both of them tried to talk to me, but ignored them.

Luna Kylie had organized a mega event for Kael, Toren and their mates. Our marriage ceremonies were held in the temple first, which was followed by a week-long celebration. Kael was appointed as the future Alpha of the Nord Pack while Toren was appointed as the future Alpha of the Nightbloom Pack and all the other packs that came under it.

After the celebrations were over, Luna Kylie and Alpha Logan asked whether I wanted to finish my high school.

“Yes. I would love to!” I clasped my hands as I exclaimed. Toren had his arm curled around my shoulder, watching me with a goofy grin.

And so I started my high school all over again. Luna Kylie made sure that I received Luna training during my time at high school, while Toren ensured I wore a shirt that always displayed his mark on me. “Those high school boys are bloody lunatics!” he reasoned. “And I don’t want to kill them.”
