

Gabriel's POV

↵

It's been 5 fucking weeks since Kade took Alex, 5 fucking torturous weeks without my other half. I can't eat, I can't sleep, I look like a fucking walking zombie. All I think about is having my mate back in my arms. Alexander has even stopped talking to me, he's been depressed ever since Alex went missing. All the leads we have had, only taken us to dead ends. It feels like she disappeared into thin air. I know she is alive because I can still feel the bond between them. She is always angry, only once I felt her scared. It's killing me slowly. My father had to go back a er a week, they needed him back in the Palace. But he calls every day still hoping she comes back.

"Gabriel, the Alphas are all in the conference room are you ready?"- Mark said.

"Yes let's go."-I said.

We made our way towards the conference room.

"Good a ernoon Alphas. As you all know my mate, Alexandra Silver, has been kidnapped by Kade, the son of the Vampire King. Yesterday we got another lead from our trackers. There's an abandoned castle deep in the forest of White River. "

"No onse your highness, but all the other leads were dead ends."- One of the Alphas said.

"I don't give a flying shit if all the leads end up being dead ends, I will look for my mate were ever this leads take me!"-I growled and the stupid Alpha cowered in his seat.

"How are we going to do this your highness?"-Alpha Archer asked. I wanted to rip his head o but he was the best trackers, I need him. ↵

"Mark do you have the construction plans of the castle?"-I asked.

"I do, here you go"-He said handing them to me and I spread them out on the table.

"As you can see. The castle is pretty big, we will have to create a distraction to be able to get in. I'm sure there are at least 600 or more vampires guarding the castle. We don't know exactly where Alex is, we will have to take as many warriors as we can because I'm sure that once we are there, they will call for back up and we need to be able to overpower them in numbers."

"So what's the attack plan?"-Archer asked.

"Alpha Benjamin, Alpha Lucas, and Alpha Derek will lead their warriors to the main entrance to create a distraction. Alpha Mark, Alpha Archer, and I will lead the second group of warriors and royal guards towards the back to get inside of the castle. Once we are in we will spread out and look for her. I need you to be aware that we might not come out of this alive, if any of you warriors decides to back down there is no problem. I understand that some of them have mates and pups to come back to."-I said. ↵

"It will be an honor to assist your highness on the search of our next Queen."-Alpha Benjamin said and all the other Alphas agreed. ↵

"Thank you. I will forever be grateful for the help you are all providing. We leave in 3 hours, we need to arrive before sunrise because that's when we will attack. Go spend this few hours with your mates and family."-I said.

Mark and I waited till everyone le the conference room and made our way towards his o ice.

"How's Leslie and the baby?"-I asked.

"Not good. Leslie is very depressed, she keeps blaming herself for what happened to Alex. Our pup is doing okay, but Les is on bed rest for a few weeks to makes sure everything is going how it's supposed to be"-Mark said. ↵

"Poor Leslie it's not her fault at all. I can't imagine the guilt she must be feeling plus adding the stress of her pregnancy. Let's hope we can bring my Alex home this time so Leslie can recover from this traumatic situation."-I said. I did feel bad for her, the poor girl couldn't even eat, all she did was cry. She couldn't even face me even when I told her I didn't blame her at all.

"I admire you, Gabriel. Honestly, I would have gone crazy if I was in your place, I don't even want to imagine what your going through."- Marks said sadly.

"I'm losing myself without her."-I said lowering my head.

"We will find her Gabriel."

"I really hope so man, I'm so close to losing my mind."-I said and he gave me a pat on the shoulder.

"Come on. We have to go get ready for tomorrow."

We were about to walk out of the room when we heard a strange noise behind us.

"Mate"- Alexander said. ↵

I quickly turned around, I felt like I was in a dream. There she was, my Alex standing in front of me covered in blood, another girl was holding her hand. She looked very similar to Alex, pale skin, grey almost white long hair but her eyes were blue. ↵

"Gabriel"-Alex said sounding more like a whisper.

"Oh goddess Alex!"-Mark gasped.

I ran towards her and she collapsed to the floor but thankfully I was able to catch her on time.

"We don't have time! She is losing a lot of blood. Kade injected her with wolfsbane, she isn't healing. We need to get her to the hospital before she dies."-The girl said. ↵

I stood up and ran to the pack hospital as fast as I could.

I ran inside the hospital and as soon as the doctors and nurses saw me they quickly brought a bed and took Alex to the operating room. I tried to get in but the doctors kicked me out.

Mark, James, Steph, and the pale girl came in running.

"Where is she?"-Stephanie asked.

"In the operating room."-I said.

"Who are you?"-I asked the girl.

"My name is Aadhira... Aadhira Silver"

"Silver? as in Alex's relative?"-James asked in shock.

"You can say that. Selene Silver, your moon goddess is my mother, and Demetrius Verlice the King of Vampires is my father"-Aadhira said.

"Holy shit you're a hybrid!"-Mark said. ↵

"Wait if you are Selenes daughter doesn't that mean like your really old?"-James asked and Steph smacked him in the head. Aadhira chuckled. ↵

"I am 753 years old. My father kidnapped me when I was a few months old and he hid me because he said I was an abomination to this world. I spent most of my life in a cell until I met Alex" ↵

"You're not an abomination. I'm a witch/werewolf hybrid. We hybrids are superior not abominations."-James said and took Aadhira by surprise. ↵

"Mark can you please call the Alphas, tell them to come here to the hospital. I want to tell them personally that Alex is back safe and thank them for all the help they have provided."-I said. Stephanie took Aadhira to get her cleaned. ↵

About 40 min later the 4 Alphas arrived.

"Prince Gabriel what happened?"-Alpha Benjamin asked.

"My mate is back."-I said and they stared at me in shock.

"How?"-Archer asked as he shi ed uncomfortably. What is wrong with him? ↵

"I can explain"-Aadhira said walking into the hospital.

" Mate"-Archer said leaving us in shock. Aadhira's eyes went wide. ↵

"Stay right where you are wolfie"-She said holding her arm up making Archer growl. Karma is a bitch a er all. ↵

Aadhira proceeded to explain how they planned to escape with the help of 3 other vampires that were in the same cells with them.

I was in shock the whole time. I can't believe how strong my mate is. I feel so fucking proud and lucky to have her as a mate.

"Your highness can I have a moment with you?"-The doctor said pulling my attention from the conversation. We walked towards his o ice and closed the door.

"How is she?"- I asked.

"She's stable, we managed to get out most of the wolfsbane from her system and stitch her wound. It's a matter of time until her wolf heals her completely. You can go in and see her now she is in the Alpha Room"-He said. ↵

"Thank you so much doctor."-I said.

"No problem. We also managed to save the babies, they are out of danger." ↵

I fucking froze!

"B-babies?"-I said in shock. ↵

" Pups"-Alexander said. ↵

"Yes, Alpha Moon is carrying twins. Congratulations."-He said smiling at me. I stood there in shock, with a tear rolling down my face. ↵

I'm gonna be a dad... ↵
