

Chapter 33

Seeing Simon sleeping peacefully, Athena stood from her place and walked to the window.

"What must Cole be doing? Would he really return to avenge as he had threatened?"She thought involuntarily.

Athena wasn't some creep thinking about the person who betrayed her and gave her the biggest humiliation of her life. It was all because of the fire burning inside of her that wants to see him equally humiliated.

Now it was very unlikely for her to feel like this. Athena was the type of girl who believed in letting go and enjoying life more than getting hung up on revenge.

Was it because Simon marked her, and she was a Luna now?Ww@.novelwóRm.c@M

Shaking her head to clear her thoughts, she leaned on the window before closing her eyes.

Even though she won't do anything to avenge her humiliation, it was also true that she needs to keep a lookout for Cole. The way he challenged and threatened Simon the last time he left, she has a bad feeling about it.

For as long as she has known Cole, he isn't the type of person who bluffs about things uselessly.

The main question was still there. How was Cole able to get over Simon's five-layer security of women? Even when he entered the room, she wasn't able to sense his actual presence until he showed up.

He was an alpha with a strong accent. So for him to be able to hide his accent, something bigger was going on inside his mind. And who was helping him in all this? And why would they help him to get her?

The fact that she is an alpha is known by a-few people only. Athena racked her brains before sighing and looking at Simon.

Taking a deep breath, Athena gazed at the sky with a smile.

Jumping down from the balcony, she walked to the forest towards the pack security. It's obvious she can't sleep because of the wolfsbane reaction and restlessness so she might as well see how things work here in this pack,no? "What are you doing here?"Athena heard the familiar voice.

"Taking a walk?" Athena asked, unsure since she didn't know if she was allowed to roam around the pack forests at this time.

Since her body reacted to the wolfsbane at the last moment, the pack bond was never established, and she was still a rogue with their alpha's claim legally.

"Alpha Simon has finally put his mark on you, I see," Savannah smiled, sensing Athena's uneasiness.

"Yeah. What are you doing here? Taking a walk?"Athena asked.

"No. I was on patrol today. It's a.. Uhhh... A punishment that I am goingWww.nóv@/Wórm.Cóm through because of bullying you," Savannah chuckled awkwardly, and Athena raised her brows.

Well, this was news to her. Athena has heard that Simon punished

Savannah for what she did to her, but she doesn't know the extent of it.

"I don't know why, but it doesn't make me uncomfortable to hear,"Athena commented honestly, and knowing how brutally honest Athena is always despite how it's going to affect the other person, Savannah laughed at her words.

"Of course, you are not. But don't be too happy about my miseries either,"

Savannah said as she started to walk with Athena.

"Do you want a tour of the pack? Since I need to do a few rounds and you are already walking, we can keep each other company,"Savannah offered. "Well, I was hoping to walk in peace to get some things sorted out in my head. However, since you are alone and forcing me to, I won't have a choice but to agree to it," Athena said, and Savannah nodded, amused.

"I am honored with your presence. I would love to show you around,"

Savannah played along before both grinned at each other.

"So, tell me something about yourself," Athena started the boring talk.

"Well, there is not much about me. All my life, I have been looking up to Simon, thinking about marrying him if he doesn't find a mate,"Savannah paused to look at Athena and added, "No offense,"

"None taken. I am cool as long as you keep your paws away now,"Athena replied. "Yup, my paws are only for me now. You don't have to worry about me.

Anyway, my parents died a couple of years ago when there was a brutal attack on the pack. I would've died too if not for Fabian's mate, who saved me by sacrificing herself. That's why I will be forever grateful to Fabian," Savannah sighed.

"I can be a bitch sometimes, and I agree with that. Nothing that I am proud of, but if you get to know me, I actually have a soft side for people I call mine,"Savannah added, but Athena's focus was on her previous lines.

"This war you are talking about is the same war when Simon's sister left, right?"Athena asked as they started jogging, and Savannah paused,

"How do you know?"She asked.

"Do you want me to say the obvious? Simon and Fabian told me, of course,"

Athena smiled, and Savannah hummed.

"Is that why Alpha Simon was growling in pain and anger yesterday? He told you about the saddest memories of his life,"Savannah said.

"What was her name again? It was something it's not coming to my mind,"

Athena pretended to forget about Simon's sister's name.

"Scarlett Scar. She was one of the most beautiful women I have seen in my life. With light brown eyes and red hair, she looked like a Disney Princess. It's a pity she turned out like that,"Savannah sighed.

"I guess, not everyone is meant to be a hero. I heard she might return to avenge what happened to her," Athena tested the waters.

If there was anyone near Simon, who could tell her everything without suspecting anything, it was Savannah. That's because she has been punished and probably doesn't know the truth about many things, like the recent rogue attacks that have a chance of involving Simon's past, which has made him keep it a secret.

Athena smiled inwardly at her plans before looking at Savannah with curiosity.

"There's a hard chance she would do it. We don't even know if she is alive. However, if she is, then anything can happen. She was way beyond furious when she left. If she really comes back for revenge, things will be really tough," Savannah turned around the corner towards the west side.

"What do you mean?" Athena asked, curious.

"She was strong, Athena. And by strong, I don't mean just normal fighting. She was intelligent, lethal, and like a warrior. Simon and Scarlett built this pack again from the scratches after our previous Alpha and Luna died.

Simon was young, and Scarlet was the one who reigned until Simon turned 16. She is a woman I would fear," Savannah said, and Athena hummed.

"So I need to prepare even more to become strong enough to protect my man,"Athena mumbled to herself, which Savannah couldn't catch.

"What did you say?"

"Nothing. I am just thinking if Simon would be okay with it. The rogue attacks are also increasing these days. There is a high chance the rogues are keeping a gaze at everyone in the pack and all our activities,"Athena said, shocking Savannah.
