

Chapter 34

"Why would you say that? Did something happen?" Savannah asked, and Athena shrugged before walking ahead, not saying much.

"Anyway, how are things going with Alpha Simon and you? I can see he has marked you, but I heard from the pack doctor that your body rejected the pack bond. Is there a specified reason for it? Do you not want to become a pack member? Is it because of me? Do you hate our pack?" Savannah asked one after the other, and Athena scoffed.

"Savannah, I know you played a major part in why I would hate this pack, but don't give yourself so much credit. I don't hate this pack or anything like that, okay? Maybe I am just not ready with a pack bond," Athena took a deep breath.

"For me, a pack bond is not like a relationship anymore. It's a commitment. And after going through all the stuff with my prior pack just one and half months ago, I am being a bit cautious," Athena said, and Savannah hummed before catching up to Athena, who was moving a bit too fast for her.

"Will you be living in the pack occasionally? It would be great if you could. wWw.NovEℓWorM.com

This way, you will learn more about our pack. I know we have a reputation of being the scary pack in the world, but we treat our loved ones with great love," Savannah said, and Athena observed her from the corner of her eyes. 'I don't like how this girl is treating us; Celine murmured, and Athena understood what her wolf was talking about.

Though Athena knew Savannah only had good intentions, she felt like

Savannah was deliberately trying to make her feel like an outsider now, and it didn't go unnoticed by her wolf.

"Time will tell that. I have recently met my friend, Alpha Andrew. I honestly want to spend some time with him. I know Simon is my mate, but I have some duty to my friends too. I can't just leave Jake alone when he left our previous pack for my sake. Besides, it's not like Simon's love for me will change if I don't agree to become a pack member so soon. If that happens, I am better off without him," Athena smiled at Savannah before sighing. "How far are the pack borders?" Athena asked after some time.

"We are almost there. For someone who was just taking a walk, aren't you a bit too eager to reach the pack's borders?" Savannah chuckled, a bit uncomfortable about Athena's last comment. She was gazing at Athena out of the corner of her eyes, and it didn't go unnoticed by Athena, who thought she was suspecting her interest in the pack borders when she practically said she wouldn't be joining the pack so soon.

"Well, what can I say? I have always been interested in pack-related things. I trained hard to become a warrior, but who knew I was to become Luna,"

Athena smiled.

"Alpha Cole is really unlucky that he couldn't see your worth and let you go," Savannah sighed.

Hearing some shuffling from the nearby bushes, Savannah took out her dagger.

Seeing Athena walking carelessly, Savannah sighed before keeping her dagger inside. It might just be some small animal. It's probably because she has been serving too many rogues in the dungeons that she suspects a rogue is always there near her. Savannah shook her head.

However, as soon as she walked ahead, she saw a shining object coming out of the bushes, and before she could jump in to protect Athena and herself, the former took out her dagger swiftly before countering the knife. "Who is there?" Savannah asked as she neared the bushes. Right now wasn't the time to praise Athena's skills. She was a trained rogue.

'Savannah, where the hell are you? I told you to secure the east wings, didn't I? Why am I hearing about a rogue entry from there?' Fabian's angry voice echoed through the pack link, and seeing Savannah's ugly face, Athena could judge it was nothing good.

"Athena, we should go back to Simon's house. You shouldn't be roaming the forests now. There is a rogue invasion, and all the pack members will be alerted. Since you are also a rogue right now, they might attack you, despite the alpha's scent on you because many of them don't know you. They might count you among the rogues who invaded the territories, Savannah reasoned, and Athena nodded.

As Athena started running towards Simon's house, she saw a little girl coming out of her house and a large black wolf running towards her.

A rogue!

Judging from how he was targeting the little girl, it was clear what his intentions were. He wanted to hold her hostage.

'Well, not on my watch, Athena thought before she looked at Celine.

'You want me to do it?' Celine asked, mortified as if she didn't expect that. 'Or who? Who would become Luna here? Athena asked as she kept running towards the kid to save her.

'I am, but you can handle such small cases, can't you? He is just a single rogue, Celine yawned, without a care in the world, and Athena wondered if wolves, especially warrior alphas, were supposed to be this lazy as her wolf was.

Celine puts really too much trust in her, and she doesn't know if she should be proud of it or be afraid.

"Savannah, get the kid," Athena growled, and Savannah, who was about to attack the rogue, nodded and jumped in front of the kid to save her.

Covering the little girl's body with hers, Savannah took her out of the danger. If they weren't in an emergency, Athena would've complimented how smoothly Savannah did it. Though she has some attitude problems, Savannah was a good fighter, worthy of being in the pack. wWw.NovEℓWorM.com

Standing in between the rogue and Savannah, Athena looked up at the wolf before she closed her eyes, making her claws grow out immediately.

"You want a hostage? I am here," Athena said, and the rogue ran towards them, baring his teeth as he growled.

"Mamma!" The little girl cried, and Athena jumped towards the wolf, making it shake his head violently to get her off his back. Rolling on the ground, making Athena's body hit the rock with a jerk, the rogue growled Athena jumped on his back again before she quickly held his snout in place so he couldn't bite or injure her.

Fighting rogues in their wolf form when you are in your human form is way harder than fighting them in human form or with your own wolf.

However, since Celine made it clear she had no intentions of showing up. Athena took out her dagger before she raised it in the air and plunged straight through his head, making Savannah hide the little girl's face so that she doesn't see the gruesome scene. wWw.NovEℓWorM.com

If she had any doubts about why the moon goddess chose Athena for

Simon, Savannah's doubts were cleared when she saw Athena brutally killing the rogue. It felt like she had no humanity for a second.

"You okay?" Athena wiped the blood on her clothes as if it wasn't a big deal, and Savannah looked at her hand before nodding.

"First, drop the girl inside the house before we start walking to see the situation," Athena ordered.

However, as soon as she finished speaking, she heard a growl, loud and powerful enough to bring an earthquake with how it vibrated through the wWw.NovEℓWorM.com whole pack.

"I guess this is not a good sign?" Athena asked Savannah, and the latter looked at her, worried.

"Please don't tell me you ran away from home or Simon doesn't know anything," Savannah said.

"Wel.." Athena chuckled, not denying her words either, making the former widen her eyes.
