

Chapter 51

Bianca heard about the fight at the cemetery and rushed to the site, afraid Alpha Simon would hurt Cole. She wanted to support Cole with her alpha wolf.

Bianca was still partially unaware that Athena was an Alpha by blood, and thus, she thought if she and Cole fought together, it would be two alphas against one alpha, Simon, and they would win.

She was sure Simon must've initiated the fight with Cole because of what happened in the past. However, when she reached the site, she was shocked to see the scene in front of her eyes.

Seeing Cole's wolf lunging at Simon as he bit his back, Athena's eyes widened. Her hands trembled for a second as a rush of heat traveled to her mind, consuming her entire body. Her eyes only saw red. Athena took a deep breath to calm her wolf before jumping into the air.

"Celine! Athena shouted, and Celine laughed hysterically.

"Hahaha, finally! Celine growled creepily, ready to bathe in the blood of her enemies who humiliated her human counterpart. She was finally getting a chance of avenging her humiliation.

Finally, it was her turn.

Celine didn't waste a second taking over Athena's body and giving her the powers.

"I will be in control!" Athena growled in her mind at Celine, who felt shocked at the energy she emitted at that moment.

"Athena, Celine whispered.

Celine couldn't believe Athena's will to protect everyone was taking over

Celine's bloodbath wish. www.novelspace.com

"Not now, Celine!" Athena took control of her wolf body before she raised her head in the air and released a howl that shook the ground of the packs, making everyone shake in their places for a second.

The vibrations of her growl and howl messed with the tectonic plates, making it look like an earthquake appeared, and seeing her actual white wolf that Athena never showed anyone. Cole's eyes widened in shock, and he wasn't the only one. All the wolves looked at the wolf in amazement as her alpha powers pressured them into bowing to her, and it was becoming hard to fight the energy.

Athena didn't waste any time and ran towards Simon before standing ahead of him like a lioness ready to fight for her lion.

Her golden eyes said only one thing.

"Try me,"

Bianca looked at the wolf in fear as she fell to the ground in shock. No match. She was no match for Athena. Is this the reason Cole was going mad for Athena? Well, if she would've been in his place, she would've done so too.

"How dare you, Cole! You want to attack Simon? Why don't you try me first?" Athena growled through her wolf, and everyone looked at Cole for any movement. The pack war would officially begin if he even moved an inch toward Athena,

Seeing Cole not moving anymore, Athena changed back into her human form, her eyes still blazing golden with anguish.

She walked to Cole directly, who had changed back into his human form, before she grabbed Cole's neck in a steel-like grip.

The white moon pack members growled at Athena in warning, and Simon turned to them with a glare, making everyone shut up.

Brandon, who noticed the whole scenario from a distance, gulped when he saw the two most dangerous alphas threatening their pack.

It doesn't take a fool to know if these guys had fought right now, their pack would've been annihilated without any reason.

"Athena! How dare you!" Cole's alpha wolf felt humiliated, and he pushed Athena away, making her fall, but if he thought she would stay down, then it was his mistake. www.novelspace.com

Athena could feel it too. Cole was exceptionally strong today. She stood and grabbed Cole's neck again before slamming him into the tree behind him.

"It was funny of you to think you could take Simon and me down," Athena smiled softly. "You see, I didn't even need to intervene. Simon is capable enough to take down all of you. However, this is my fight," Athena looked at Simon before turning back to Cole.

"Why are you doing this, Cole? For love? Or are you obsessed with my power? Let me tell you one thing straight. If I had met Simon at the same time as you and you hadn't rejected me, I would've still chosen Simon over you. Do you know why? Because he is a man of character," Athena dusted her hands, noticing the flicker of emotions in Cole's eyes.

"What kind of man are you? You had me, but you didn't want me. You wanted Bianca. And now when you have her, you want me back. Can't you make up your mind? You don't love me or her. You just love these powers, right? I will never come to you or love you. Simon will love me even when I am not powerful. What about you?" Athena looked straight into his eyes before stepping forward and grabbing his neck, lightly hited time.

Athena's words hurt Cole, and as much as Bianca hated Cole for going behind Athena again, she couldn't bear Athena insulting Cole. That's why she walked to them, ready to stop Athena.

"Athena, you leave his neck this -" Bianca couldn't even complete her words when Athena grabbed her neck instead, and with a jerk, she threw her away, making everyone gasp at how easily she lifted a person and threw her away when her other hand was pinning an alpha.

"Bianca!" Cole shouted in horror before looking at Athena, who looked like she was only seeing red. Though her words were calm and collected, her actions weren't. It looked like she had no control over herself.

It was true. Athena really hates him.

"Athena -" Cole started.

"How dare you bare your teeth at my man?!" Athena growled in his face, Celine taking over for a second, and Simon immediately knew she was getting out of control.

"Athena," Simon held her hand from behind, and Athena immediately started to calm down, leaning in his touch for a second.

Simon's love and affection were contagious and the hatred inside her was starting to melt, but she didn't want that to happen yet.

"I am speaking," Athena stared at Simon. Simon was more powerful than Athena and could control her quickly, but he respected her decision and let her talk. www.novelspace.com

Cole saw this interaction and thinned his lips. If he hadn't rejected Athena, she would've been standing with him and not against him.

"Athena, why are you doing this? Cole did nothing but loved you always, and you are grabbing his neck like this? Is this how you repay someone's feelings?" Bianca shouted before she stood with difficulty and limped to Athena.

"You stay out of it, Bianca. Are you in any position to teach me about emotions? You two are indeed well-suited. One tried to abduct me, and the other asked her father to ruin and kill me," Athena chuckled.

"However, this shall end today. You are talking about love. What kind of love? The same love who cheated on me humiliated me, took my parents away from me, rejected me, and threw me out of the pack without thinking twice about how I will live. Yeah, this is the kind of love I should repay, and I am exactly doing that," Athena smirked, and Celine urged her to end Cole by snapping his neck.

"Don't do it, please," Bianca felt worried for Cole, whose complexion was turning pale with each passing second, and fell to her knees to beg Athena. "I beg you," Bianca's heartbeats fastened, and Athena scoffed.

Cole noticed how Bianca was limping and hurt but was still trying to side with him, and his heart melted a little. Why was she trying to protect him? He has done nothing but disrespected in the past few days, even using her connections to get to Athena.

"You love him a lot, don't you? But Cole doesn't love you, no? First, he used you for your body and power, and now that he knows I am the strong one, he is becoming crazy for me," Athena smirked, her words slapping Cole in the face.

"Very well, let's end you then," Athena raised her hand, her nails elongating like sharp blades, and everyone widened their eyes.

Even Simon was shocked to see how long her nails went. Her transformation was really otherworldly. He has never seen an alpha warrior before, so this was new.

Throwing Cole away, Athena grabbed the back of Bianca's neck and pretended to raise her hand and plunge it into Bianca's stomach, making Bianca shut her eyes while Cole looked at her horrified, rushing to their side.

"Bianca!"

"Athena!" Cole growled in anger, afraid for Bianca, and pushed Bianca.

Everyone thought that Athena's nails would go through Cole's abdomen, but Bianca pushed him back and stood in front of Athena, ready to sacrifice herself for Cole.

Seeing them trying to sacrifice themselves for each other, Athena felt like her work was done here.

"You didn't know?" Athena asked Bianca, stopping only a cm away from her abdomen, making Bianca open her eyes when she didn't feel any pain.

"So you finally understood her importance when she almost gave your life for you?" Athena scoffed at Cole.

Simon was confused about what was going through Athena's head. Her wolf had lost control, and it must've taken every ounce of patience in Athena to not attack Cole and finish him off.

"She is pregnant," Athena said to Cole and turned to Simon.

"Are you okay?" She cupped his cheeks, and he didn't know if he should smile or scoff at her words.

Was he okay? He was shocked when she changed into her wolf. Simon knew what kind of threat she posed to everyone in this cemetery.

"W-what do you mean?" Bianca asked, shocked, and Athena half-turned to her.

"For a mother, you are too ignorant. It's good Celine caught in your baby's presence, or do you think you would be standing here alone, glaring at me? I can gouge your eyes this second, and no one here would be able to do anything," Athena's words were directed at Cole, and he gritted his teeth.

Even after using the substance, he was weaker than Athena's and Simon's energy, and reality hit him harder than he had expected.

Athena has changed. She was nothing like the girl she was before. The girl, who used to do anything for him, and as much as he hated to believe it,

Cole could see Athena would never like or come to him. Cole took a deep breath and looked at the girl in his arms who almost sacrificed her life without any second thought and felt guilty.

Athena was right. He brought Bianca into this, and he should take responsibility for it. The baby inside her stomach was his.

"I am sorry. It was wrong of me to even think of attacking Alpha Simon. Please forgive my pack and me. I assure you that you won't have any problem from our side from now on," Cole looked at Simon.

"I can see Athena is yours, and nothing I would do can change that. I hate to say it, but I really stooped too low, and I am sorry for that," Cole said before he picked Bianca in his arms.

"Please stay for lunch. We have arranged it," Cole nodded at Athena, too ashamed to look into her eyes..

"You already know where the pack house is. If you want to look around, you can. Your house is still like you left," Cole walked away.

Athena turned to Simon, who immediately pecked her lips.

"As much as I want to scold you for losing control and participating even when I clearly mentioned not to come, I am glad everything is solved."

Simon smiled and cupped her cheeks.

"I am proud of you," Simon said. www.novelspace.com

"I love you," Simon hugged her, and Athena took him to the pack house.

"Athena, you sit here. Let me get a few updates from Fabian," Simon said, and Athena nodded before looking at the pack house that was once her favorite place because her father used to be there almost all the time.

That's exactly how she started to get fascinated by Cole. Now that she looks back at the time, she can't help but sigh at her childishness. It appears Cole was more like a persistent crush for her than love, because the alpha gave her the responsibility of being with him.

"Thank you for sparing my life," Bianca's words brought Athena out of her thoughts, and she scoffed.

"Thanks for being pregnant. I don't think I would've been too happy after killing you. After all, Cole and your father are the ones who tried to hurt me directly. You were just the mind behind the games, no?" Athena raised her brows, and Bianca smiled helplessly. "I know you have many complaints and-".

"Woah, hold on a second. Don't act like we are all close, Bianca. And stop acting like a saint or my friend. Please spare me this drama. I might have spared your life, but don't mistake it for my foolishness. I have been tricked by you once when I thought you were my friend and was genuinely helping me throughout my tough time. Don't you dare try that again? We are not close, and make sure you don't cross paths with me too much," Athena stood from her place and walked to Bianca.

"My wolf senses evilness from miles away, and if she sensed your vile presence, let's say, it gets hard to control her. I am sure you won't be pregnant for the rest of your life, right? Be careful," Athena tilted her head, looking at Bianca maniacally, and the latter could feel that Athena was nothing like what she was before.

As they were talking, Cole was about to enter the house but stopped when he heard Athena's words and sighed.

She has gotten too cold. Is it what they call the effects of bad companionship? She is becoming just like Simon. Or was she always like this and treated him differently?

"Cole," Simon stopped Cole before he could enter the house.

"Alpha Simon?" Cole hesitated a little, still guilty of his attack earlier.

"Let me ask you two things, and I want the answers to them clearly without any maze, okay? I know you met with the lady boss of the rogues, who happens to be my sister. She wants to avenge the death of her mate and would do anything to attack," Simon's words shocked Cole.

He knew that the lady boss hated Simon and wanted him alive, but he had never guessed that the girl was mine other than Simon's sister.

"First, I want to know if you know where this scent-hiding drug is prepared, and second, what kind of drug you used a few minutes ago before attacking me. Don't try to deny it. I have seen you sparring before in the Alpha's tournament. Your wolf was strained too," Simon asked, and Cole looked at him, unsure.
