

Chapter 66

As soon as Celine ended her words, a Violet haze started appearing in front of them, and it wasn't long before the same witch in the beige dress appeared in front of everyone.

She didn't look pleased by being called like this. However, as soon as her gaze landed on Celine, she raised her brows before walking toward the wolf.

Meanwhile, the guy watching Athena for the past few days stood a few kilometers away from the pack on a tree as he tried to look at what was happening in the pack with his binoculars.

"What the hell? Is that my girl?" The guy looked at the wolf in amazement, who was tearing up the rogue wolves like she was dismantling some toys.

"You know you are lucky you didn't go to fight the pack with that redhead girl. I saved you," The guy looked down at a man, who was leaning on the tree leisurely.

"What do you see?" That man asked the guy, and the latter smiled.

"Pure bliss and beauty. My girl is so beautiful that I can't wait to have her. Once this war is over, we will make our move. And judging from how this war is going, I don't think it would be a hard thing to do. My girl has been angered to the point she changed into her wolf. It means her trust and love towards the pack is shaking," the guy chuckled at his observation.

"The more I see her fighting like this, the more I want her in my arms. Is that bad?"

"You are a psychopath. Only a person like you would be happy seeing a girl who is killing one of us," That man scoffed, and the guy smiled.

"I know, right? There is just something about this girl that makes me mad," the guy said, the smile on his face freezing when he saw a witch appearing out of nowhere.

"This is way more interesting than I had imagined. For the first time, a witch had been summoned in a werewolf fight," The guy whispered, and the man widened his eyes before looking up.

"A witch?"

"Yes, and not a normal one. I think it's from that sacred clan. The guy said, and the man sighed.

"Hmmm, I heard from someone that they saw Athena infiltrating their territories once. Does this girl have some technique of winning all the species? Recently she even got close to the vampire lord. The rogues who had gone to attack her said that it was the first time the vampire lord apologized to a werewolf, The man said.

"The rogues went to attack her?" The guy asked, confused and angered. "Yeah. It was kept a secret from you," the man said.

"What happened to you, my child?" Yaretsi placed her hand on Celine and closed her eyes, meddling with her memories of what happened in the past hour, and her whole body trembled in anger.

"What did you call me here for? Do you want me to burn all of them in the fire of hell?" Yaretsi asked, her gaze landing on Simon.

"I told you, we like this girl, and we won't bear it if something happens to her or you hurt her, don't we?" Yaretsi said before she raised her hand in the air, and the sky immediately started brewing with thunderstorms.

Everyone in the vicinity looked in the sky as the dangerous loud thunderclaps over the pack looked like they would burn everyone with lightning, making Simon look at Celine, who stood there with only one emotion in her eyes, pure hurt.

"Celine, you know that I love you and only you. I will make my pack understand why you didn't accept the pack bond so far and that you are ready to do it now. Please stop this," Simon started again, and Celine looked at Yaretsi.

"This is not why I have called you here, Miss Yaretsi. I want you to help Simon. His sister thinks that Simon killed her mate uselessly, and this is what is causing this big war. If you could clear things up by showing her some of the past, I would be really grateful," Celine bowed to Yaretsi, and the witch sighed.

Yaretsi could feel what kind of storm was brewing in Celine's mind, and she was still trying to help these ungrateful people.

"Fine. I will do it, but after that, I want you to give the power back to Athena. Let her deal with this herself. Don't interfere. You are an animal and will only think emotionally. She is a human who can use her mind too. Don't do anything that will make her hate you forever, Yaretsi said before patting Celine's snout, and the latter looked at everyone.

Her revenge and fun were still not over, but Yaretsi was done. She has done enough damage. Athena will already be devastated by what she has done so far. If she added more to it and hurt anyone she shouldn't,

Athena won't forgive her even when she was the one who wanted Celine to take over.

"I promise I will give the body back to Athena once this misunderstanding is cleared. If this war ends after that," Celine promised, and Simon breathed a sigh of relief.

If Celine gives the body back to Athena, the chances of making her explain the situation would be more.

"It is not allowed to meddle with other species like this, but since this is what Athena's wolf has wanted, and Arzoo wants too, I am doing this. I will show you the memories of Kaiden Knight and what happened that time in fast forward that led to that rogue attack. Only two people would be able to see it, so I am allowing Scarlett and Simon to see that along with you, Celine," Yaretsi said before she raised her palm and blew on it. A small screen appeared on the tree, high enough for both Scarlett and Simon to see, and they looked at it with wide eyes. These were indeed the memories of what happened years before in this pack.

---Memories---

"Kaiden, where are you going?" Scarlett asked her mate as she cooked dinner for them.

"Nothing. I will be back soon, honey. Can you also make that special chicken soup I love so much?" Kaiden kissed Scarlett's forehead.

"Okay. Don't be out too late. You know how things are in the pack these days, don't you? If Simon saw you in the forest again, he would accuse you of planning something against the pack again," Scarlett warned Kaiden, and the latter nodded before leaving.

Scarlett remembered this was the scene of the night before the night of the attack.

The scene changed, and the next scene of the forest played.

"Hey, Kaiden. What are you doing here? Don't you know that no one apart from the security is allowed to come this close to the borders at night?" Jason asked, and Kaiden shook his head.

"I just wanted a good smoke. Scarlett doesn't like it. Don't tell me you are going to tell this to your alpha too, like a loyal dog you are," Kaiden deliberately provoked Jason.

"Shut your mouth, Kaiden. We all know the only reason you are breathing right now is that you are Scarlett's mate. Let's not talk about the things you have done to put this pack in danger," Jason turned around and left to calm off his anger, and Kaiden used the perfect opportunity to sneak out of the pack. www.N\(s\)VE/WoRm.c0M

"What information have you brought?" Someone came out from behind the tree and the smirk on Kaiden's face immediately dropped.

"These are the blueprints of the pack. You have no idea how hard it was to get these from under my useless mate's nose," Kaiden said, and Scarlett's breath hitched.

"Useless or not, she is your mate. I know you are doing all this for money, but nothing is more valuable in this world than a mate. Even rogues believe that. Just because you work for the boss, don't jeopardize your relationship with that girl. It's advice from a person who lost his mate recently," The man said.

Scarlett's hands clenched as she looked at the memory.

"I wouldn't jeopardize my relationship, but it's not with my mate. It's with Jasmine. I only love her. The only reason I am playing this pretense mate, is that we have to avenge our parents' death from this Black Scar pack. I will make sure I write their end with my bare hands," Kaiden took out a cigar from his pocket and lit it.

"Their alpha is useless. Though Simon appears all tough, he is actually a wuss in front of his elder sister. Honestly speaking, it came as a blessing to be that girl's mate. Things have become pretty easy," Kaiden took a puff from his cigar.

"Stop acting like you are all that. Everyone is bound to fall in love with their mate sooner or later. Besides, I heard your mate is pregnant too.

Don't tell me you got that kid in her stomach out of hatred," the man asked, and Kaiden chuckled darkly.

"Let's say it was one of my tactics to loosen Simon's resolution of throwing me out of the pack. That girl is really stupid. Even she thinks I love her when honestly, I hate her and her entire family. You have no idea how hard it is to sleep beside her and not kill her in her sleep," Kaiden took another puff before throwing his cigar away.

"Anyway, I should leave. Tomorrow is the perfect day for this purpose. I have written all the notes in the note. Don't let these fall into anyone else's hands. Let's attack and get this over with. We all need a new home anyway, and this is the perfect place for that," Kaiden said before he sneaked back into the pack.

"Who were you talking to late at night?" Kaiden turned around in shock when he saw Fabian's pregnant mate walking around the forest with her w0rM.c0M huge belly.

"Excuse me?" Kaiden tried to play dumb.

"Stop acting, Kaiden. I heard you talking to someone just now. And don't try to deny it. A pregnant wolf's senses are the highest. Not to mention you reek of Cigars too. You just didn't go out to take a puff. So tell me, what are you planning," Fabian's mate tried again, and Kaiden scoffed. "You are mad," Kaiden left.

This was the exact thing that Fabian's mate had told Simon, and he had confronted Scarlett, but the latter denied everything to protect her mate.

Scarlett looked down at her hands in shame when she realized Fabian's mate was right.

Kaiden was indeed the one who allowed those rogues in the pack. He never loved her. Just like Simon had said, he was just using her for status to destroy the pack and avenge his parents' death.

The next memories played off the night of the attack when Scarlett invited everyone to her house for dinner to ease the tension between everyone. Kaiden was deliberately provoking everyone.

She bet he had never thought Simon would actually kill him. He must be thinking Scarlett would take action and kill Simon before he could do something, and then he will kill Scarlett.

"That's enough. I have seen enough. I understand everything now. Simon's words were true. I was so blinded by love that everything was right in front of me, but I never saw it. Please, stop. It hurts," Scarlett whimpered in pain as she screamed in agony.

She had been living with the good memories of her mate and for revenge. What was she supposed to do now that everything was a lie? She suffered and made everyone suffer with her for Kaiden's lies.

Seeing the girl breaking down and trembling with anxiety, Celine walked to her.

"Celine, I did my work. Don't forget what you promised. The war will w0rM.c0M stop now. Give the body back to Athena," Yaretsi said, and Celine raised her paws to caress Scarlett's head because she felt her pain. However, before her paws could even touch Scarlett, Simon, who thought Celine was going to hurt Scarlett, pushed Celine away, making her stumble back as Athena took over.

Athena was about to fall to the ground when Yaretsi used her powers and created a flower padding for Athena, but even before that, Andrew held Athena in his arms, pulling her close when he noticed how weak she was. "Are you okay?" Andrew hugged Athena close to his heart, and Simon looked up when he realized what he did.

"Athena, I didn't mean to -" Simon started, but Athena smiled softly, her eyes drooped.

"It's okay, Simon," she spoke before turning to Yaretsi.

"Yaretsi," Athena walked towards the witch.

"I would have hugged you, but I am not in the best condition to do so,"

Athena smiled, and Yaretsi rolled her eyes.

"Come here, you stupid girl," Yaretsi hugged Athena, and feeling the motherly hug, Athena sighed with contentment.

"You have no idea how happy I am that you called me in your time of need. I see my daughter in you, my child. I will always be grateful to help you. This time you called me, and Arzoo would throw a tantrum. Next time, call both of us," Yaretsi kissed Athena's forehead despite how dirty she was before vanishing into thin air.

"Is the war over?" Athena asked Andrew, and the latter could feel the tiredness in her voice.

But there was something more prominent than her tiredness. It was the feeling of hurt and betrayal. www.N\(s\)VE/WoRm.c0M

"I hope so," Andrew looked at Scarlett, and she nodded.

Athena was about to ask Andrew to take her home when suddenly a growl resounded in the area, and they saw Fabian running towards them in his wolf form.

"Mate!" Fabian growled, and Scarlett widened her eyes in shock.

"What the hell?" Simon asked, looking between his beta and Scarlett.

"This is bad. Scarlett is the one who killed Fabian's ex-mate and unborn child, and now she is his second-chance mate?" Andrew asked, and Athena sighed.

"It's their matter. Let's not interfere in it," Athena turned around.

"Athena, where are you going? The pack house is -" Andrew paused when he realized Athena didn't mean to go towards the pack house. She was going out of the pack deliberately.
