Chapter 51

Emery

It's so good to see my annoying former instructor once again; I can kiss her at the moment as she moves towards me to help me get this collar off. I can't wait to be able to talk with Kiki once again. I know it hasn't been that long but almost two days is longer than I ever want to go without her.

"Ha! Good luck getting it off...it's spelled." Colin sneers.

My former teacher snickers as she glances back at him, and then turns back to me. Waving her hand, she mumbles something and then there is a click, and the collar falls to the floor, barely missing my toes.

"How is that possible?" Colin watches, stunned.

"You're not a very good witch if you don't study every aspect, especially when a full moon is involved. Wards are useless at its peak..." Beatrice explains.

"But only blood from my mother's side works on opening it." He stammers.

"Again, useless at the moon's peak, but I'll let you in on a little secret... I'm your mother's older sister, so I would have opened it regardless."

We all gape at the witch's confession.

Her chuckle is an amusing one, "You all have a little drool hanging out. Shut your traps and let's go home. We can deal with him when we get back, but we must hurry."

My mates come to me, wrapping me in their warmth, almost squeezing the life from me but I let them have their fill. Once they begin to let up on their hold, I don't waste any more time and I teleport us back to our home, and back to our pack.

“Oh, my baby!” I’m mauled as soon as we appear back in the packhouse. My mom and Aunt Quinn, shoving my mates out of the way to hug and kiss me.

I giggle, “I missed you too, Mom, but can you please give me back to my mates? We haven’t had time together yet.”

“Oh my, I’m so sorry, but hey, they didn’t push you out of their vagina, so I have first dibs!” Leave it to my mother to state this in front of a room full of people.

A blanket is thrown around my shoulders and I look up to see my brother, Emmett, “Thank you.”

“Welcome back, sis.” He kisses my temple and then steps away as he very discreetly wipes his eyes.

All three of my mates begin to pull me from the room but my dad stops them, “What do you want me to do with him?”

“You will get the final say,” Decker states, “but for now, s put him in the cells.” let’

“Wait... his magic!” I call out when he begins to take him from the room,

My dad turns back and grins, “Already syphoned it. He was pretty powerful.”

“You would be to if you syphoned the magic from the fifty-two females in your harem each month.” I stare at Colin with such rage and all he does is smirk.

“Are you serious right now?” Asher asks, stunned.

“Yeah, and he planned on adding me to it as a breeder.” I growl.

Holden and Decker both reach out and grab Ash as he goes for my uncle, “You sick son of a bitch!”

“I am the son of a bitch and now you will have her wrath once she finds out that you have taken her only precious son.” He has the audacity to blow a kiss at me and my other father hauls of and decks him in the face, knocking him clean out.

“Thank you, daddy.” I go over and hug him.

He pulls me in tightly, “Nobody hurts our baby girl.”

Three sets of throats clear and I grin as I turn to look at my anxious mates. Looking at my parents, I sigh, “I guess that’s my cue. We will catch up later after my mates have their way with me first.” I giggle..

“Fucking gross!” Emmett gags, and both of my father’s growl.

My mother on the other hand, couldn’t be prouder, “That’s my girl!”

I go to my mates and let them pull me away from every- one who matters to me, but they matter more, so I go not only willingly but anxiously.

“We need you, Em...” Decker says in a low voice.

“We’ve missed our Luna and mate, so damn much...” Holden growls as he grips my hair.

“We are going to love you for a very long time tonight, Emery, so don’t plan on leaving this suite before morning.” Asher wraps his arm around my waist and pulls me to him.

With both Decker and Holden on each side and Ash in front, there is no escaping their hold, not that I want to, but their scent is driving me crazy. If they don’t do something soon, I’m going to have to take matters into my own hands.

Ash wraps his other hand around my neck, “Have you missed us mate?”

“You know I have....”

“Are you prepared to show us just how much?”

“I’ll do whatever it takes, Alpha, but you need to prove it as well.” I smile seductively.

“Oh, are you demanding that your three very strong Al-phas need to prove just how much we’ve missed you? You may regret it by the time we are done.”

“Do your worst, Alpha...” I’m dripping for them already and I can tell by the way Asher’s nostril’s flare that he can scent it.

He crashes his mouth against mine as I feel the blanket being ripped away from me. I'm moaning already just by the way their mouths feel against my skin. I'm burning up with desire, or so I'm thinking, but when all three pull away and stare down at me, wide-eyed, I feel as though something may be wrong. I'm beginning to pant heavy, and my arousal is tenfold.

"It's the full moon, she's going into heat." Holden states.

"I didn't think that would happen with her after her going into heat during our mating." Decker frowns.

"Who fucking knows anymore, we are so far from normal, it's hard to keep up. All that matters is that we please our Luna until it passes." Asher's words only make the flames within me burn hotter.

"Yes...please!"

"Tell us, Em... he didn't...?" Holden flinches, not being able to finish his question.

I shake my head, "No, a few gropes and he kissed me a couple of times, but it didn't go that far, thank the Goddess. You got there just when he was planning on going through with it. You guys saved me from that hell."

"Thank fuck!" Holden curses and then they all descend down on me.

They carry me to the bed and at this point, I'm so heated with desire, I don't know which one is doing what to my body at the moment. What I do know is that I'm not filled yet, and so I snake my own hand down and thrust two fingers into myself.

"Fuck, Em. As hot as this is to watch you fuck yourself, that isn't your job. You have three Alphas who will gladly do it for you." Decker grabs my hands, and they are held over my head. Asher, take our Luna first."

Suddenly, I'm filled with his girthy cock as he plunges into me over and over. I meet him thrust for thrust as the other two hold my upper body down. I find it hotter than hell as they restrain me this way. It's nothing like being restrained by Colin.

"More...please! I need so much more!" I beg my Alphas.

“You want more?” Holden growls, “Then come for Asher, so Decker and I can have you too. We will each knot you tonight, Luna, and reclaim what belongs to us before we take you once again all together.”

“Oh Goddess, hurry up...don't tease me!” I feel like a harlot at the moment, but I don't care. These are my mates, and I will always beg them to please me if need be. Besides, they love it when I act the little whore for them. I can't and I won't stop until this burning desire fizzles out.

Thank you so much for reading peeps! =)

Chapter 52

Decker

I wake up long before my brothers and Emery. As I near the kitchen on my way to start some coffee, I can already smell the delicious aroma and know that I'm not the first early riser of the day. Before I even enter, I know exactly who it is that beat me to the first cup of joe, even the second cup because both fathers-in-laws are sitting at the table when I enter.

“Good morning, you're up early.” I state as I make my way over to the coffee pot.

“We wanted to get an early head start on my dear brother.” Ledger smirks.

“What do you mean, a head start?” I lean against the counter and sip on the hot liquid.

“We were up until the wee hours, catching up, but apparently Colin can't hang. I spelled him so he could heal slowly over night, just so we could start all over this morning.”

“Why don't you just kill him? I mean, the torture is nice, I guess, but I'd rather just be rid of him.” These are my thoughts any way; not sure what the others think about it, though.

The former Beta sighs, "Your mother reminded us that we have to go through the Elder's first. We need to present the situation to them and hope that they grant us the power to decide for ourselves."

"Are you fucking serious? They will only end up saying no and sentencing him to a life in prison like they did with that Alpha that sat down there for years before he found a way to off himself. That should have been my mother's kill, not let him have the coward's way out!" I can't believe that we have to deal with the Elders on this!

"It may be different. Alpha Benjamin was one of us, a shifter, and an Alpha at that. Yes, he should have been executed for all the lives that he took in search of your mother, but the Elder's thought life in prison would be worse than death. Colin, he isn't a shifter, and because he is Ledger's blood, I'm hoping that they will take his plea into account." Spencer squeezes his mate's hand.

"I think it's time that the Queen and King get rid of the Elder's for that purpose. I feel that they have grown soft in their old age." I scowl.

"Your parents have tried, but they need so many packs to agree with them and each time they tried they were one, and then two packs short of getting the winning vote."

"What if my mates challenged him?" We all look towards the door where Emery stands, and I automatically turn and make her a cup of coffee too.

She comes over and reaches up to plant a kiss on my cheek after I hand her the mug, "Thank you, baby." She smiles and it instantly makes my day.

"You're welcome."

"What are you talking about, a challenge?" Ledger questions.

"Well, didn't Aunt Quinn challenge Holden's bio mom for Uncle Declan? Why can't my mates challenge Colin for me?"

"Because you are already ours, there is no challenge to be had." I hold her tighter against me.

"But Lila was Luna at the time, so technically the King was hers." My mate states and I hate to say it but she's right.

“Yeah, but I think your dad wants this fight.” I chuckle but Ledger shakes his head.

“It doesn’t matter how Colin dies, as long as he does, so he will never be a threat to my daughter again.” My father-in-law growls.

“Well, it’s settled then, my mates will challenge him, and they will remain in their human form.” Emery grins and looks up at me.

“I’m afraid that’s not going to happen.” Another new voice joins in on the conversation and all of our eyes fall on my mother, the Queen.

“Why can’t they challenge him?” My mate is quick to ask but I place my arm around her waist and pull her back against me to try and calm her because I can feel her anger begin to rise.

“Calm down, sweetheart,” mom tells her, “I only say that because I’ve been on a video call for the last hour with the Elders and even though one of them is against it, they are giving me permission to punish the bastard as I see fit. They don’t take kindly to incest apparently,” she scoffs, “So, I’m letting you handle this situation as you see fit, as long as that fucker dies, because he won’t be leaving this territory alive again.”

“Go Mom!” I fist pump the air and she smirks as she pours herself the last cup from the pot.

“You better make another pot; your brothers will be down shortly.” She starts to walk away.

“Nah, they will be asleep for a while yet.” I tell her, she should know this.

“Nope, I just screamed through the link for them to wake up.” She chuckles and walks back out of the room.

“You are an evil Queen, Mother!” I call after her and she responds with a witch’s cackle. We all have a good laugh and then I start a new pot of coffee as we wait for my brothers to arrive.

“Does it make me a bad person if I want to wait and call his mother here, so she can watch her sicko son die before we end her as well? I want to grab him by his balls and yank them out one at a time and then tear off his dick and feed it to him.”

We all just stand here staring at the woman who was once an innocent girl and who we now call our mate. Our hands, covering our own packages as we cross our legs. The former Beta just stands smiling at his daughter as she describes in detail what she wants to do to her sick uncle.

“I think you have been spending too much time around Quinn, haven’t you?” He asks his daughter.

She scrunches up her face in confusion, ‘Why do you say that?’

“How about you tell her what you just described to us and then ask her why I’m saying it.” He chuckles.

How come I have a feeling that there is a story behind that but it’s one that I don’t want to know. I pull my mate into my arms once more, “Babe, as much as I love your detail to making Colin’s death a painful one, can you think of another way to do it? I honestly don’t think I, or my brothers, will be able to stand by and watch it happen.”

My brothers both shake their heads at our mate, and she snickers, “Oh? Any particular reason why?”

“Oh Goddess, I think I’m going to be sick.” Asher runs from the room like a little pussy, looking for the nearest open bathroom.

“I was just thinking of the best way that would really gut his mother.” Em explains, “She made it known that he’s her spoiled baby and she had no qualms over hitting me and kick- ing me until I pissed all over myself while I was chained to the wall.” Her rage is heard through each word that she speaks, and I flinch when she describes her treatment from his moth- er.

“I love your tenacity in getting your revenge, baby girl, but you will have to remember that as soon as we get rid of Colin, we will have to take out the rest of the Shikari, otherwise, they will come for you again.” Ledger pushes some of his daughter’ s hair back behind her ear, “You four have great power together and I believe you will be able to strip every single one of them of their magic using Colin before we kill him.”

She looks at me and Holden and we both nod before her attention goes back to her father, “Alright then, we strip the Shikari once and for all, and then bring his mother here, so she can watch me rip his balls out.”

“Baby...” I flinch once more.

Our devious little mate chuckles and then pats me on the cheek, “Just kidding!” She winks and then walks out of the room with a spring to her step. 2

Chapter 53

Emery

I don't remember sweating this much whenever I practiced my magic back at school. Now, the sweat is just pouring down my face and I'm constantly wiping it away. Miss Beatrice stayed overnight wanting to get a practice in before me and my mates take on the tedious task of taking out a whole species, well, their magic anyway.

“Good, you're doing great, Emery. Actually, you're doing better than you ever did at school!” She cackles, “Must be those hottie mates of yours.”

“Oh Goddess, please don't ever refer to them as my hottie.

mates.” I chuckle.

“Why, afraid I will steal them from you?” The witch asks. deviously.

“Oh, hell no. It's just that the word hottie sounds so wrong coming out of your mouth.” I laugh this time.

“I hate to break it to you, Luna, but that word started back in my time, so I'm allowed to say it anytime I want. You young pups think that just because we are older, or how I like to refer to aging as, experienced, that we are not allowed to use certain words. Just so you know, your generation all sound hideous and lazy when you only use part of a word.”

“See, right there! It's whatever, not whatevs.” She shakes her head and I shrug.

“Let’s just agree to disagree.” I chuckle.

“Finally! We at least agree on something.”

“Can I ask you something, Miss Beatrice?”

“You can, but that doesn’t mean that I’m going to answer.” She grins.

“Is Colin really your nephew?”

She sighs sadly, “Unfortunately, yes.”

“What happened? Why did you leave? If you don’t mind me asking…”

She chuckles, “There really isn’t much to tell; I didn’t have the same beliefs that my father did, so as soon as I turned seventeen, which is the legal age with the Shikari, I made a run for it.”

“Made a run for it?” I ask.

“You made the comment about Colin’s harem did you not?”

My heart skips a beat, “Oh Goddess!”

Miss Beatrice nods, “My father planned on giving me to Marko, your grandfather. I actually babysat your father a few times when he was younger.”

“So, that’s why he sent me to you for training?” I think I start to understand but she shakes her head.

“I don’t think your father even remembers me from that time. He wasn’t quite a teenager when I left. My sister Layla, Colin’s mom, she was the apple of our father’s eye and she was so impatient for her seventeenth birthday because she wanted to be part of the harem. Layla is two years younger than me. It looks like she got what she wanted and even got a son out of it.”

“I am so sorry, Miss Beatrice.” I didn’t even realize that I had tears in my eyes until one tickled my cheek. “It’s funny how the Hunters label us, shifters, as abominations but they are the ones that are barbaric.”

“I can’t agree with you more, dear.”

“So, did you ever meet my grandmother, Brianna Gregory?” I’m intrigued to know all that I can.

“You know what? I think I may have seen her once. I remember being a young girl, maybe about six years old. I was playing with my dolls when Marko came through with a beautiful woman but he was telling her that she had to be very quiet, that they were only there long enough to pick something up and then he was taking her to their home. I remember her smiling at me when she saw me playing, and I smiled back. I never saw her again, though.”

I smile, “She and her mate will be coming later for supper. All three of my aunts and their mates with their children are visiting for a few days because it’s my grandmother’s birthday, so we are throwing a big feast here. Dad just told me before I came to train.”

“Oh, how wonderful! I should probably head back then, so I’m not in the way.” She states with a smile.

“No, I want you to stay and eat with us. You have done so much for me and my mates, and I would love for you to stay and join us with the rest of the family.” I bump her with my shoulder, “My Uncle Brent will be here as well, and he’s still a handsome man. I mean he’s older than you, and a widower, but still...” I wiggle my brows at her.

“Emery!” She gasps, “I am not looking for a man!”

“Alright, suit yourself. He misses his wife, Tara, and could use some female companionship. I just thought, you know...”

“No, I don’t know!” She chuckles, “But I would love to join, if nobody else minds.”

I hug her, “It starts in three hours, so don’t be late. My mates are calling me, so I’m going to go meet them.”

Miss Beatrice laughs, “Maybe you better tell yourself not to be late.” She winks at me and then she’s gone in a blink of an eye.

‘Hurry Kiki, they are catching up!’ I laugh as I command my wolf to go faster. We are the prey and as much as I would love nothing more than to let our mates win, I also want to make them work for what they are going to get from us, 'Lis- ten here you little hussy! I know you want them to have their way with us, but I want them to earn it. I feel that we are worth that much, anyway.'

'You're right! Hold on tight because I'm going to... ' Kiki skids to a halt as soon as Ghost magically appears right in front of us. Kiki squeals with laughter and turns but Blaze and Achilles is right there as well. 'Well, shit...'

'Way to go wolf!'

'Oh, shut it, human!' My wolf chuckles and then submits by going down to her stomach.

"Giving up so easily, Kiki?" Ghost chuckles.

"As Emery says, I'm a little hussy and can never get enough of you mates." My wolf flirts back.

"At least she knows her place..." Blaze jokes as they begin to circle around us.

'Oh, no he did not just say that!' Kiki links with me.

'I believe he did, you hussy.' I snicker and then suddenly, I' m jarred as Kiki takes off at a dead sprint, flying through the gap that our mates formed as they were circling us.

"Suckers!" she calls over her shoulder and then out of nowhere, we are rolling on the ground, laughing our asses off as Ghost tumbles with us. He's the quickest one, so he's al- ways the one to catch us.

We land on our backs as Ghost stands over us with his tongue hanging out of his mouth like a cute little puppy dog. Kiki reaches up and licks his face which then causes him to bite down on our scruff to show his dominance as our other mates finally saunter over.

"Oh, look at that, caught again." Blaze teases.

"Keep it up and you won't be getting any from me, mate!" Kiki warns even though we all know that it's an empty threat.

Ghost let's go of our neck and then gazes into Kiki's eyes, "Shift."

I'm suddenly now laying naked while being pinned down by a gigantic Dire wolf, “Ghost, please let Decker have control.”

“Give me a moment to feast my eyes on our beautiful mate first.” His wolf gives me his wolfish grin and I blush.

All of a sudden, Decker is over me and descending down. to take my mouth with his, “Mm...”

“Listen to her, she’s already feeling good.” Asher states as he kneels down beside us.

“Can’t you smell her?” Holden asks as he grips my legs and spreads them before taking what he wants from between them.

“We are due back at the pack house soon...” I pant and try to grind my pelvis into my mate’s face, but I’m held down by the other two.

“All in good time, Luna.” Asher takes a nipple into his mouth and sucks hard before letting go, “First, we are going to have our way with you. You won’t be leaving here until you have at least three orgasms, one from each of your mates.”

“Oh Goddess...”

“The Goddess can’t help you now, love.” Decker grins and goes for my other nipple.

Next thing I know, Holden is thrusting into me, and I cry out in ecstasy, my voice echoing through the forest for all to hear.

Thanks for reading! =)

Chapter 54

Emery

Being with my mates after this latest ordeal definitely puts everything into perspective. I can’t take for granted the time I have with them, and we definitely have to make the time to practice this whole Power of Four thing.

None of us want this responsibility, but we have it, and so we must own it. How hard can it be, right? I already know magic, so we really only need to figure out how it works with all four of us, but for now, there is a different kind of magic that we are working on, and I plan on enjoying it a little while longer.

“Oh Goddess...Holden!”

“You like that, baby?” He asks as he slams in deeply and then grinds himself, hitting just the right spot.

“Oh fuck...I’m going to come!” I warn but then he stops and chuckles.

“Not yet you’re not,” He grabs my wrists and pulls me up, so I’m now straddling his lap, “Decker wants into that ass, baby. Are you going to let him in?”

I glance over my shoulder and see that he’s stroking is very hard cock, and I lick my lips and nod, “Please...” I whimper.

Holden lays back onto the ground as Deck moves in behind me. My core throbs to have both of them inside of me, and then his fingers are there; Decker begins to prep my ass to take him. My lustful gaze meets Asher, and I automatically open my mouth for him. I feel like such a whore, being out in the open while being taken by three guys, but it’s natural for shifters. It doesn’t make it feel any less whorish, though, but I admit that it turns me on oh so nicely.

Asher’s cock fills my mouth as his hand tangles in my hair, “I’m going to control this, little wolf.”

I give a slight nod at my understanding, and I let him have his way. He goes in deep while Decker thrusts another finger into my ass and Holden lays below, watching it all as he waits.

“Fuck, Em, I love watching you get taken by my brothers,” the oldest brother states, “I never knew that I would enjoy my mate being taken by another, but damn...”

I whimper when I feel Decker add yet, another finger and I try to move but both Holden and Asher hold me in place for their brother, “Shh, be a good girl and let him prepare you, little wolf. He doesn't want to hurt you." Ash explains in a soft but demanding voice.

I feel it as Decker adds more spit for lube and soon, it starts feeling good and he really starts finger fucking my ass as he scissors his fingers to stretch it. I can't help the orgasm that hits. me, and my walls tighten around Holden, making him clench his jaw and hold his own orgasm off.

"Fuck me...will you hurry Deck! I don't know how much longer I can take this torture." He states while he watches my body get taken over by my climax.

With all of my holes stuffed full, I can barely move, so when my climax hits, it's a doozy, "MMPH...!!" My cries are muffled by Asher's cock, and he smirks down at me, loving every minute of it.

"That's it...you can come and scream all you want but nobody will hear you as long as my cock is deep in your throat." He thrusts a little, never pulling it all the way out, not until my orgasm is over and I'm no longer screaming.

"Are you ready, Luna?" Decker doesn't wait for my answer as he begins to press the tip of his cock against my hole.

A tear drips down, but it's not from pain or anything, it's from Ash's cock being so deep in my throat. He wipes it away for me and smiles, knowing exactly what it's from, "You look so beautiful right now, little wolf." He turns his attention behind me to watch his brother as he sinks all the way into my ass, "It feels like heaven, doesn't it, little bro?"

"Fuck yes!" Decker squeezes my hip as he says it and slowly begins to slide in and out, picking up the pace as soon as he knows that I'm good.

My moans tell them all they need to know, and they begin to thrust into me, all in sync with one another. I'm truly stuck between my three mates, and I couldn't be any happier. This is what I need every day of my life. I don't know when I turned into such a little nympho, but where my mates are concerned, I'll be whatever I need to be in order to please each one of them. I know they don't expect all of this from me every day, that's not how they are, and that is why I am so willing to go the distance and please them every chance I get. They are Alphas after all, and they have needs. As their Luna, it's my job to see to their every need, and I will do so with great pleasure...literally.

Holden thrusts from the bottom, while Decker thrusts from behind me. I'm so full but they both keep hitting that sweet spot deep inside. Their thrusts aren't hard, more sensual than anything, as they slowly build up my next climax. Asher keeps pace as he uses my mouth, and it doesn't take me long before I'm coming for them once again.

They all coax me and say sweet words to me as I'm climaxing but as soon as it's over, it's like a switch flip and the game changes. They begin to growl and thrust harder; they become animalistic and that's when I realize that they've let their wolves out to play.

'Kiki, you're up!' I pant and then let her come forward as she growls herself.

'You're too kind Em!'

The four of us must make quite a sight as we fuck in the middle of the forest. The critters have scattered, and the birds have flown away as we bite and snarl while getting down and dirty on the ground. Achilles, Ghost, and Blaze don't use kid gloves when it comes to fucking their mate. They are brutal lovers but always makes sure that they leave us wanting for nothing.

When the four of our wolves come together still in human form, I can feel all of it, and it's like an outer body experience. I'm blinded by white light as it feels like my body explodes into tiny pieces as a euphoric feeling crashes through me. I can't talk, I can barely breathe as we all come down from whatever this was.

"Holy shit! That was some of the best sex that we have had yet!" Asher states with a chuckle, "And I only had her mouth!"

"I think my dick is broken." Holden says from beneath me as we lay chest to chest.

"Are you okay, Em?" Decker asks softly as he pulls back some hair from my face.

All I can do is smile and nod, causing him to chuckle.

"We will take a few minutes to pull ourselves together and then we had better get going. We are already late and Mom's going to be pissed, never mind how Cici is going to be." Holden reminds us of the dinner party for my grandmother.

Dividing into pages now

My eyes snap open, “Oh shit! Mom’s going to be livid!” I try to move but I’m still stuck between brother number one and brother number three.

“No,” Decker holds me down, “We need to take a moment, that was some pretty intense sex, babe. Give your body some time to heal a bit.”

“Fine, but you are dealing with my mother then, Alpha.” I chuckle.

He smiles sweetly, “I will deal with anything for you, Luna; we all will.” He leans down and takes my lips briefly before he pulls out of me slowly.

As soon as he’s out, my body already starts rebelling as the emptiness, and Holden can tell. He snickers, “Don’t worry, little mate, we can fill you back up tonight.”

I’m then lifted off him by two sets of strong arms and held up by Decker while Asher throws a shirt over my head. Holden then shifts and they place me on his back, not wanting me to exert myself after being used the way I was, they are too sweet for their own good sometimes. I grip the soft fur of Achillies’s silver scruff and then we are off, headed back to the pack house where I know for a fact that there are two fuming mothers waiting on the pack’s Alphas and Luna to return.

Thank you so much for reading!

I know some are wanting more chapters when I update, and I try my best to do what I can with the time that I am working with, but I do have other responsibilities as well. My goal is to at least try and update 6 days a week for you. I appreciate all of you as my readers and thank you for supporting my work! =)

Chapter 55

Asher

To say that Mom and Cici were mad would be putting it mildly. I felt like a child once again when the two of them dragged all four of us into another room and began reaming us a new asshole. It doesn't matter that we are now the leaders of this pack; Mom is still Queen, and they are both our mothers, so yeah, we got an earful and a few threats made against us.

The four of us laugh as we get to the Alpha suite to freshen up before we go down to greet the guests. Mom is right, though, as the Alphas and Luna, we shouldn't have been so irresponsible, but damn, we have barely had any alone time together since the Alpha and Luna ceremony. We only wanted to take a break before the next wave hits. Why mom and Cici are even throwing this dinner party now, I'm not sure. I don't think they've thought it through, not with us holding the head Shikari in our cells and it is only a matter of time before the rest decide to attack at any moment.

"We've got this, Ash." Emery states when I voice this concern, "In case you have forgotten, my three aunts are pretty powerful witches as well. I think we can handle an attack, if they decide to come."

"I'm not sure that is going to matter to Colin's mother." We look over to see Holden holding onto the wall as his eyes are blank.

"Hold...is everything okay?" It always worries me when he gets his visions.

"I see a small army of men being led by no other than Colin's mother. Don't ask me how I know it's his mother because I've never seen her, but it's her."

"Holden?" Our mate goes to him.

"They are coming for us. I don't know exactly when but it's soon. We need to put up some kind of wards to trap them in our territory..."

"What? Why do we need to do that?" Decker asks.

"Because it's the only way that we can end them for sure. Our parents thought that we could do it while they were still on their own turf, but that's not true. We need to take down all the high ranks and their council members in order to demolish them. completely."

“Are you sure?” Emery looks confused by all of this, “The Moon Goddess never mentioned any of this.”

“Maybe not but she did say that we can defeat them and that’s all that matters.” Holden concentrates even more, “It seems as though they call the council because they can’t break your wards... that’s how we get the council here, to join in the fight. They need to try and break the wards and we must let them. As soon as that happens then we trap them inside and only then are we able to end them.”

“You are seeing all of this?” I ask him.

“Yes, it’s all right here in front of my eyes.” He states.

“Will it be dangerous to have all those witches trapped withing our territory? There are so many innocents.” Decker’s worried and I don’t really blame him, but our people have safe rooms for a reason and wards on their homes as well, which I remind him of this. “As long as everyone will be safe because I can’t allow for the enemy to be here if they are a danger to my people; I’d rather find another way.”

Holden comes out of his vision, “They are our people, Decker, and I trust my visions; there will be no danger to the innocents who are in their homes. There is always a chance with the warriors but even my vision showed none of our people dying. In fact, not even all the Shikari die. If what I’m understanding is correct, then only the council and the major players with the hunters are the ones whose lives are lost but they all will lose their magic.

“We need to talk to our parents about this, and the sooner we do it, the sooner we can enjoy the evening with my grandparents and the rest of my family.” Emery states.

Once we are all in agreement, we head down and pull all five into the library and explain everything. Of course, they are worried for the outcome, but after my brother retells his visions, they all feel better prepared for the situation once it arises. Now that we have it all out of the way and all we can do is wait, we head back out to the guests.

It's hard to believe that Brianna still looks so young and beautiful for a she-wolf in her sixties. I know I was just a baby when she came to live in our territories but from the stories that I've heard Ledger talk about, I'm glad that she was able to find a second chance mate; not all wolves do, but Brianna and Adam found theirs. Adam comes from my territory, and his first mate died in childbirth along with their pup.

The two found each other when the three packs decided to have a pack run on a full moon. Our parents wanted to integrate each individual pack back then since their sons would be taking over, so a couple times a year, they would run together, and it was on the first run that Brianna and Adam found one another. Of course, Adam adopted the girls right away and he's always been considered their father, and a damn good one too, he loves those girls as though they are his own flesh and blood.

As for Ledger's sisters, Jessie, Sasha, and Danika, they have all found their mates as well. Jessie and Sasha's mates were from the same pack, so they all live in the Blood Moon pack which belongs to Alpha Carson. His son is still too young to take over, so he has another five years yet as Alpha Danika, Ledger's youngest sister, is now Luna Danika, Alpha Easton's mate. Alpha Deke stepped down a few years back and the new mated couple took over. They are expecting their first pup in a few months. Alpha Easton is one of our biggest allies, it's to be expected, though, since he's family but still, he's a damn good Alpha just like his father was

It's great seeing family come together for times like this, life is too precious, as we have already been reminded these last few weeks. I sit back and watch everyone enjoying themselves, little ones running around, even teenagers sitting around with their faces in their cellphones. I look at my brothers and then I look at our beautiful mate, picturing her big with one of our pups, and my heart swells.

"What's that smile for, Alpha?" The object of my thoughts plops herself on my lap.

“Hm, I was actually thinking about you.” I wrap my arms around her and hold her to me.

“Oh? I suppose I was either on my back or on all fours?” She lifts a brow and I throw my head back and laugh.

“Oh, little wolf, you know me so well, but I was not thinking about me fucking you at the moment.”

“Wow, that may be the first!” She giggles.

“Actually, I was picturing you big with one of our pups. When do you think you will be ready to start popping some of them out for your Alphas?” I grin

She traces my bottom lip and smiles, “I would love nothing more. than to give all three of you your pups, but not until we have this Shikari business over with. Doesn’t mean we can’t have fun practicing, though.”

“Mm, a Luna after my own heart! I knew you were fated to me for a reason.” I crush my lips against hers and smell her arousal instantly. Groaning, I pull away reluctantly, so I don’t make it worse, “How long is this party?” I growl out

“At least a few more hours,” she leans in, so she can whisper in my ear, “But that doesn’t mean that we can’t sneak away for a few minutes.”

“Grrr...I’ll need more than a few minutes.” I scowl playfully and get another giggle from her.

She gets up off my lap, “I guess you will just have to be happy with what you can get!” She winks and then walks away, putting a little extra swing to her hips.

I readjust myself, “Fucking little tease...”

Chapter 56

Emery

“I feel so out of place here, Emery. I’m not family, I shouldn’t be here.” Miss Beatrice states from behind me.

I turn around and smile at the older woman and then hug her, “You have been my family for almost three years, Miss Beatrice...”

“Enough with the ‘Miss Beatrice’ then, just call me Bea,” she cuts me off, “If you are insisting that I stay then you must introduce me to everyone.”

Grinning, I link my arm through hers and I start making our way around the party. I’m honored to introduce my former instructor; she’s done so much for me and my mates and deserves to be recognized for it. It’s only when we are about halfway through when I hear a low growl and the word ‘Mate’ comes across the crowd.

Shockingly, it’s my uncle Brent that is standing there staring at my former instructor. I was hoping that they would hit it off, but I never imagined that he would have a second mate like his sister. I cover my mouth and chuckle.

“Wait, what does that mean? Why is that man staring at me, Emery?” Bea asks worriedly.

“Do you not feel anything towards him?”

“Huh? I mean, I am attracted to him, of course, he looks like a Greek God but...”

I burst out laughing, “Bea, you are his second chance mate!”

“What? Get out of here; he doesn’t want these old bones!” She scoffs and then notices that he is beelining his way right to us and turns her back to him, “Oh, my God, Emery...he’s coming over here!”

“Of course he is; he’s coming to collect his mate.” I chuckle at the look on her face.

“Look at me, Emery! I’m not even pretty at the moment! I just threw something on and barely put any make up on!” She runs her fingers through her dark hair with silver highlights.

“You look beautiful, Bea; I promise.” I try to reassure her.

“Hello, I don’t think we have been introduced yet.” I glance up at my uncle as he stands behind Bea, waiting for her to acknowledge him.

She turns slowly, “Hi, I’m Beatrice but my friends call me Bea.”

“Uncle Brent, this is my former instructor from the school I went to. She’s also been helping me and my mates out of the little situations that we seem to keep getting ourselves into.” I smile as I look back and forth between the two who are now just staring at one another, “Oh, I think Decker needs me; will you be okay here with Brent?” I ask Bea and all she does is wave me off.

“Yeah, yeah, I’m fine dear. Go do what you need to do.” I chuckle and then walk away, in search of one of my three Alphas.

I find all three of my mates, on the ground, under a pile of pups. I swear if I didn’t know any better I’d say that they were all still pups themselves only in full grown Alpha bodies. I remain where I am, smiling at the sight before me. All three brothers look so sweet as they smile and laugh with the kiddos, making fake monster noises and coming up onto their knees, causing the pups to tumble to the ground, laughing their little butts off.

I’m not sure what I did to deserve them as my mates but I will never take them for granted. I love each of them the same and yet differently but just as fiercely as the others. Instead of disturbing them, I slip away and make my way down into the cells. I’ve been wanting to come here all day, but kept getting distracted.

“Hello Luna...” The two guards greet me and I acknowledge them with a warm smile.

“Hello to you as well. Would one of you be so kind and escort me to the prisoner. I would like to have a word with him, and I doubt your Alphas would be happy if I went on my own.”

“Of course, Luna!” The bigger of the two steps in beside me and we continue down the steps to the cells.

“Has he given you any trouble?” I ask the guard.

“Not that he can but no, he’s been pretty quiet.”

“Hm, he probably doesn’t know what to do with himself now that he doesn’t have his magic.” I smirk as we walk down the lighted.

hall.

Since he’s pretty much human now, he’s kept in a reinforced glass cell, so we can see what he is doing at all times. The guard stands off to the side as I step up and study the man lying on the cot. He has it much better than I did that’s for sure.

“It doesn’t feel good, does it? Being locked up and away from your loved ones.” I speak loud enough, so he can hear me.

I hear his laughter first before he sits up and stares at me. It really is too bad that he’s psychotic because he’s a good-looking guy and could easily find someone good for him if only he had goodness in him.

“Couldn’t stay away from me, could you?” He licks his lips, “I much rather prefer you naked, Emery.”

Kiki growls, “It’s Luna to you, asshole!”

“Oh, did I hit a nerve on your wolf? I should have killed the bitch. when I had the chance.”

‘Just ignore him, Kiki. I just have a couple questions and then we will rejoin the party.’ I say soothingly.

‘Fine, but just know that if I get the chance, I’m going to be the one to tear his balls off.’

I chuckle inwardly, ‘It’s a deal.

I turn my attention back to my uncle, “Can you at least tell me why you thought that it would be a good idea to kidnap your own flesh and blood and plan to take her against her will, against fate?”

“I don’t need to answer that but I will tell you this...you would have been treated better than all of my whores.” He fucking winks at me and my stomach rolls.

“You are fucking sick; do you know that? I am so glad that you will never have the chance to hurt anyone ever again.” I sneer.

“Are you sure about that?”

“Oh, I am quite sure, Colin. The only time you will ever leave this cell is when you are going to your death.”

“Then do it already, and quit stalling.”

I grin smugly at him, “We are only waiting for your mother to arrive, so she can watch her precious son perish before we end her as well.”

He begins to laugh hysterically, “I find it funny that you think my mother will take my death laying down. She will bring the whole council down upon your territory!”

“Oh, we are counting on that.” I smirk one last time and leave him standing there, gawking at me. He’s thinking hard about what I’m saying and now it’s beginning to dawn on him that we may just have the upper hand and that we may just win this war. I mean, I’m no psychic or anything but I’m good about reading people, and I know I have the wheels turning in his head now.

The guard falls in beside me once more as we make our way up the steps; Colin is pounding on the glass as he calls out for me to come back. Fresh air hits me as we open the door to the outside. world only to find three big Alphas walking our way, all with frowns on their faces.

Asher is the first to say something, only it’s to the guards and not me, “Pass it on to the other guards on duty that their Luna is not to visit the prisoner without one of us present.”

“Excuse me?” I cock a brow, “Since when are you the boss of what I can and can’t do?”

“Since you became our Luna and are now under our protection. You will not put yourself in harm’s way ever again.” This coming from Holden this time and I put one hand on my hip as I point to him.

“I suggest you rethink your words, mate! I can take care of myself,” I turn towards Asher, “And if I want to go down and talk to a prisoner, then I will! I even took a guard with me because I knew you wouldn’t want me going by myself, but don’t ever say that I can’t see a prisoner.” I turn towards my last mate who has remained quiet and cock my brow at him.

Decker holds his hands up defensively and takes a step back. I point at him as I look at my other two mates, “I suggest you take some pointers from your younger brother because he’s the only one who seems to know how to keep his mouth shut.” I step up to Decker and press my lips to his briefly, “Thank you for not being such a hot head. Looks like you will be the only one getting lucky tonight.”

I turn and glare at my other two mates and then start to walk away, only to hear Holden and Ash growl at the youngest of the three, “Kiss ass!” I grin and just keep walking. ‘

Thank you so much for reading, peeps! =)

The Alpha Who Saved Me by Stacy Rush Chapter 207

“Do you not know our Luna?” I ask my brothers, “You seriously think that by telling her what she can and can’t do that she will easily submit? Had I known that the two of you were going to go all dominant on her, I would have warned you, so don’t be calling me a kiss ass just because I seem to know our Luna better.” After thinking about it a moment, I smile, “Actu- ally, call me kiss ass all you want because I will be the only one doing anything to her ass later.”

“Fuck you, Deck!” Ash goes to grab for me and I disap- pear, only to come up behind him and trip him up.

“Nice try, but you’re a little slow, big brother.” Just as he’s about to grab at me again, Dad calls the three of us over.

We all sprint over, "Yeah, what's up?"

He waits until all three of us are standing in front of him, "You know I love you boys, right?"

We all shake our heads and look at one another, "Yeah." We answer in unison.

"Good, so with that being said, if you don't grow the fuck up and act like Alphas, then I will strip you of your titles until you can act your ages."

All three of us duck our heads, "Yes, Dad." I say.

"Sorry, Dad." Holden pipes in.

"Our bad, we will be better." Asher states.

"Thank you. Now, I want you to go hang with your Beta's and Gamma's, oh, and while you're at it, figure out a Gamma for your territory, Ash. Now is a good time with the others here. Ian is over by Carter and Aspen, and I'll send Leera over to you."

"Yes, Dad." This time we are all in sync as we respond. Even though he isn't Alpha anymore, our father is still King and can still boss us around, ugh!

Emery comes over with Leera and we all begin discussing business when we should be enjoying the party, "You know, I feel safe enough having my favorite cousin and this girl here protecting me. I don't think we have a need for a third Gamma. If, in the future, something comes up and we think we need another, so be it."

"What do you think, Asher, it's your territory?" I ask my brother.

He studies our mate before responding; thinking really hard on how he should answer it after the little argument earlier, "If our Luna feels safe enough with only two, Gammas then we will keep it at two."

"Most Lunas only have one," Emery chuckles, "There is no need for so many, especially when I have my magic."

"So, are you saying that you only want one?" Holden asks confused.

“Nah, I like these two, so I will keep them around for a while.” She threads her arm through Leera’s as she winks at her cousin.

“Good, then it’s decided,” I state, “Now, let’s get back to the party and enjoy ourselves while we still can.”

I grab Emery’s hand and drag her away. Laughing, she does well with keeping up with my strides, “Slow down, Alpha! Where are you taking me?”

I don’t answer her as I drag her into the house and don’t stop until we are in an unused room at the far back of the pack house, nobody should bother us here. As soon as I close the door, I slam her against the wall and take her mouth. She’s wearing a summer dress for the occasion, so my hand goes right up it and into her panties where two of my fingers thrust up into her.

“Oh Goddess... yes!” she moans, “What are you doing, Al- pha?”

“I need to let off some steam and so I’m going to fuck my Luna, do you have a problem with that?”

“Uh huh...”

“Good, now shut up and take whatever I give to you.” I grin when I see the lust shine in her eyes.

“Oh, Alpha, it’s so hot when you talk like that!” I can smell her arousal right away.

I drag her over to the desk that sits close to the door and I bend her over, “Now keep quiet, so nobody will interrupt.” I thrust all the way into her and wait only a few seconds for her to adjust, and then I take her hard. I don’t know what’s come over me but I need to be inside of her right away, I couldn’t wait another moment. I know she will need to go with her fa- ther soon to go take care of the wards and there is no telling how long she will be.

When she starts crying out, I reach around and cover her mouth with my hand, so she doesn’t attract attention, “Naughty Luna, you can’t even obey your Alpha, can you?”

She shakes her head as she moans and I fuck her harder, making her come. Once she comes down, I pull out and then turn her around only this time I pin her to the wall by her throat but far from hurting her, “Tell me, Emery, what is it that you want?” I sprinkle kisses along her jaw.

“I just want you, Deck. Remember all those times growing up, when you caught me looking at you? I was always imaging you fucking me as my mate, and that’s exactly what I want you to do. I want you to take me, Decker, just like you were... and don’t hold back.”

Fuck, my cock is angry now after hearing her words, “I will try not to hurt you...”

“I can heal...”
