Chapter Eighty-Five: Morning Delight

Phera POV:

Two Months Later

I woke up to the sensation of a warm tongue lapping at my core. Damon, my rugged, alpha lover was between my legs, his skilled tongue working its magic. I moaned softly, my body responding instinctively to his touch. Axel was at my side, his lips wrapped around my nipple, sucking and nibbling, sending jolts of pleasure straight to my core. Zane was on my other side, his teeth gently grazing my neck and lapping at his claim, his breath hot against my skin.

Fuck! Life was amazing. A girl could get used to waking up like this but then again this was a normal occurrence for us.

"Morning, Luna," Damon murmured against my flesh, his stubble scratching my inner thighs.

I could feel his smirk as he slid two fingers inside me, curling them just right.

"Good morning," I breathed, my voice husky with desire.

I reached out, running my fingers through Axel's dark locks, pulling him closer. Zane's hand snaked around my waist, his fingers finding my clit, rubbing it in slow, maddening circles.

"You're so wet, Sunflower," Zane growled in my ear, his voice sending shivers down my spine. "You like this, don't you?"

"Yes, alpha" I moaned, my hips bucking against Damon's fingers. "I want more. Please Alpha. I need your cocks"

Damon chuckled, his breath hot against my pussy. "Your wish is our command," he said, his voice low and seductive.

He pulled his fingers out of me, replacing them with his tongue. Axel moved up, capturing my lips in a searing kiss, his tongue tangling with mine. Zane continued his assault on my clit, his fingers moving faster, harder.

"Ohhh fuck, yes alpha. Please..please."

I was lost in a haze of pleasure, my body on fire. I could feel Damon's tongue delving deeper into me, his fingers spreading my ass cheeks apart. I moaned into Axel's mouth as Zane slipped a finger inside my ass, the intrusion sending a jolt of pleasure through me.

"You're so tight, sunflower. Fuck, even after having your alphas cock this ass and cunt are still fucking tight. Goddess bless me" Zane murmured, his finger moving in and out of me in time with Damon's tongue. "I can't wait to fuck this ass."

"Yes," I breathed, my body trembling with anticipation. "Fuck me. Make me yours."

Damon pulled away from me, his face glistening with my juices. He wiped his mouth with the back of his hand, his grey eyes dark with desire. "Get on your hands and knees, Luna," he ordered, his voice rough. "I want to see that sexy ass of yours bounce as I fuck you."

I did as I was told, my body shaking with need. I felt

Damon position himself behind me, his cock nudging at my entrance. I moaned as he pushed inside me, his thick cock filling me up completely. He started to move, his thrusts slow and deep. I could feel Zane's fingers still inside me, his thumb rubbing my clit as Damon fucked me.

"Oh, fuck," I moaned, my body on the verge of exploding. "Yes, yes, yes."

Axel moved in front of me, his cock in his hand. I opened my mouth, taking him in, my lips wrapping around his shaft. I sucked and licked, my moans vibrating against his cock. I could feel Damon's thrusts becoming harder, faster. Zane added another finger inside me, stretching me out.

"You're such a dirty girl, Luna," Damon growled, his hips slamming against mine. "You love being filled up, don't you?"

"Yes, alpha. Please give me more" I moaned when Axel popped his cock from my mouth so I could answer his brother, my body shaking with pleasure. "I love it. Fuck me harder. Please alpha."

Damon obliged, his thrusts becoming more frenzied. I could feel my orgasm building, my body tensing up. Zane's fingers moved faster, his thumb rubbing my clit harder. Axel's cock hit the back of my throat, making me gag.

"I'm going to cum," I screamed, my body convulsing as my orgasm hit me. I could feel Damon's cock twitching inside me, his hot cum filling me up. Axel's cock erupted in my mouth, his cum spilling down my throat. Zane's fingers continued to move inside me, prolonging my orgasm.

As we all came down from our high, we collapsed onto the bed, our bodies entwined. I could feel Damon's cum leaking out of me, Zane's fingers still inside me. Axel's cock was softening in my mouth, his cum coating my tongue.

"That was...amazing," I breathed, my body still trembling.

"You're amazing, Luna," Damon said, pulling me into his arms. "We're lucky to have you."

I smiled, my heart full. I was lucky to have them too. Rolling over I stretched out like a cat while my alphas looked down at me while standing over the mattress. I couldn't help but feel the love. It had been two months since everything had happened. Two months since everything went back to normal and we could finally be one and take care of Red Moon without the looming fear of Rex or Erickson. It had been a long journey but it was worth every minute as I gazed into my mates eyes and saw nothing but utter devotion and love.

"Morning Alphas." I purred

They all chuckled and one by one bent down to peck my lips.

"Good morning indeed, love." Axel said.

"Go on and take a shower, Luna. We don't want to be late for sentencing." Damon said as he pecked my lips and went to go change.

Uh yes today was the day Rex and Josh would meet their fate today. I had thought I killed the bastard but apparently the asshole was like mould. luckily the alpha king's elite team had captured him and he has been in the palace dungeon ever since. Not that he deserved to live this long but it was deemed by the alpha king that the asshole would stand trial because of the laws in place. He had guaranteed that it was just a formality and the bastard would be put to death and the day was finally here and as bad as that made me I would be in the frontline watching him get what he deserves.

"Come, Phera. Let's clean you up." Zane said, breaking me out of thought

I took his hand, my legs still shaky, and followed him to the shower. The warm water cascaded down my body, washing away the remnants of my previous encounters. Zane's eyes never left me, his gaze intense and filled with desire.

"You're so beautiful, sunflower," he whispered, his voice husky. He stepped closer, his body pressing against mine. I could feel his hardness against my stomach, and I couldn't help but reach down and stroke him.

"Zane," I moaned, my hand moving up and down his length. He groaned, his head falling back as the water continued to rain down on us.

"I need you, sunflower," he growled, his hands cupping my face as he crashed his lips against mine. Our tongues danced together, the taste of him driving me wild.

I sank to my knees, the water spraying against my back as I took him into my mouth. His hands tangled in my hair, guiding me as I sucked and licked. His moans echoed in the shower, his hips thrusting gently as he fucked my mouth.

"Sunflower, oh fuck, sunflower," he groaned, his hands tightening in my hair. I could taste his pre-cum, salty and sweet, and I knew he was close.

But he pulled away, lifting me up and spinning me around. He pressed me against the shower wall, his cock teasing my entrance. "I need to be inside you," he growled, his lips finding my neck.

"Yes, alpha. Fuck me," I moaned, my body aching for him. He thrust into me, filling me completely. I cried out, my nails digging into his shoulders as he began to move.

"You feel so good, sunflower," he groaned, his thrusts hard and deep. The water made our bodies slick, our skin sliding against each other as we moved together.

"Zane, oh God, alpha," I moaned, my body trembling as I felt myself getting closer. He reached down, his fingers finding my clit and rubbing in time with his thrusts.

"Cum for me, Luna," he commanded, his voice low and rough. And I did, my body convulsing around him as I screamed his name.

But Zane wasn't done yet. He pulled out, turning me around and pressing me against the wall. "I'm going to take you here, Phera," he growled, his finger teasing my ass.

"Yes, alpha. Please," I begged, my body still trembling from my orgasm. He pressed his cock against my entrance, pushing in slowly. I moaned, my body stretching to accommodate him.

"Fuck, alpha. You're so tight," he groaned, his hips thrusting slowly. He reached around, his fingers finding my clit again as he began to move faster.

"Zane, oh God, yes," I cried out, my body on fire. I could feel another orgasm building, my body trembling as Zane fucked me harder.

"Cum for me, sunflower," he growled, his fingers moving faster. And I did, my body convulsing around him as I screamed his name. Zane followed soon after, his body tensing as he filled me.

We stayed like that for a moment, our bodies slick and trembling. Zane pulled out, turning me around and pressing a soft kiss to my lips. "I love you, sunflower," he whispered.

"And I love you, my alpha," I replied, my heart full.
