Alpha's Surrogate Chapter 76

The pleasant evening breeze touched everyone's hearts and calmed their minds. Following the battle, the entire pack was discharged, so they could get ready for the dinner that they had been invited to later that evening.

That night, more people joined the Sirius Bright Pack in their celebration, the Blue Moon Pack, Ardara Moon Pack, and Vampire King Alfred. While the newlyweds were busy in their room enjoying their first night before dinner.

When all of the pack house's young leaders ran up the stairs to greet the new infant, Alpha Sawyer, Vampire King Alfred, and elder Stephen were drinking and conversing in the living room.

"We are grateful you forgot our bitter rivalry and accepted my granddaughter's wedding invitation, Alpha Sawyer" Stephen started the conversation while clinking his glass against the other man's.

"After a long time, I came to grips with my younger son, Lewis, crimes. It was a huge mistake for me to put so much faith in him. To be honest, it was difficult for me to comprehend that he had raped a girl, since this was not how we had raised him, nor did it adhere to the moral code that we tried to instill in him. It was upsetting and frustrating, but Maratha helped me to eventually accept the truth.

I realize it's late, but please accept my heartfelt apologies for what my son did to a female member of your family." Sawyer bowed slightly, remembering that Stephen was older than him and that he felt no shame in bowing before him.

"I understand how you feel, Alpha Sawyer. Everything is now in the past. Now we are relatives. Both of your daughters are my granddaughters-in-mates and they are fantastic Lunas and mates. From now on, we shall greet each other with smiles and hugs, strengthening our connection.

How can I forget that you saved Luna Kiara? If you hadn't done that, we would have lost a Luna and her unborn pup."

"Well, honestly I almost had a heart attack when I saw them falling. Thankfully, Vampire King Alfred was also there to save Adira," Sawyer smiled at King Alfred.

"It is great to see that someone can be grateful. Seeing someone in particular has forgotten to even say a thank you.

How rude," The King remarked dramatically, ignoring the old wolf.

“It would be more shameful if I said thank you’ to the uncle of my grandkids for his big heart. A mere thank you would lower your status as a King. Don’t you agree,” Stephen countered, earning narrowed eyes from Alfred. Again the old wolf was playing with words. Sawyer laughed a little as he witnessed the true nature of their friendship before he continued.

“It is my responsibility as a Father to protect my girls, and I did so. Elder Stephen, I couldn’t risk losing my beloved girls. To be honest, up until very recently I had mistreated Kiara for a variety of reasons. But now I want to atone for my actions. I don’t think that will happen overnight. With my love and care for the future, I am willing to work on building a good relationship with her so that we can create happy memories to replace the bad ones of the past.

I will make up for the years of love she missed” Sawyer promised. He had already talked to Kiara in private and apologized to her about everything. He had sensed some hesitation in his daughter’s mind, she had not responded to whether she had forgiven him or not. Sawyer realized he had to work hard to earn her trust. The old Alpha had chosen a difficult path, but he was not about to give up!

“That’s great to hear, Alpha Sawyer,” Xavier commented as he entered the living room with his twin.

“I have to admit that the changes in your attitude is unexpected,” he added. Having observed that Sawyer was not faking his statements, but was rather genuine. He’d already proven himself when he’d rescued Kiara.

“I’m curious as to what caused you to change your mind? What made you realize that you love Kiara in the same way you do your other children?,” Zander asked, picking up a cup of coffee for himself.

“Uh well, I admitted that Kiara as mine when the Alpha King claimed that she wasn’t my daughter, but it was Martha’s actions that first made me realize how wrong I had been. Martha’s comments and actions terrified me to the point that I feared I was going to lose her. My mate is not someone who should be messed with” the old Alpha explained, taking a deep breath as he remembered the day he feared that he would be rejected by Martha.

“I will give you this piece of advice. Don’t provoke your females, otherwise they will fvck with your heart,” he added while staring deep into the twins’ eyes conveying the level of danger in that matter.

“I agree. Don’t mess with your mates,” the elder Stephen concurred, causing the twins to nod as they intently followed the suggestions of the experienced elders who had been through many difficult times with their mates. Their bu*ttts were still red from the kicks they had received from their females.

“Ha” that was when an almighty chuckle filled everyone’s ears. Everyone’s eyes snapped to the man who had been sitting silently for a long time, as he listened to all the mated males.

“What is so funny?” Stephen narrowed his eyes on the Vampire King.

“I never had a female beside me in order to avoid all of this nonsense,” he pointed out, setting his glass on the table and leaning his shoulders back on the sofa.

“Really? So, who are those females that are always willing to spread their thighs for you at your Fort?” Xavier countered with a smirk.

“They are my se.x toys. I discard them like trash as soon as I fvck them. Relationships, love, attraction are all bullsh*it.

It is exactly like you are trying to capture the air in your hand.

I never let my heart get attached to any woman because they are just traitors! The ugliest thing in this world,” Alfred finished speaking, but his red eyes were a dark shade of blood red that let everyone know that his emotions were fluctuating while his anger was at its peak even though he was pretending to act casually.

“You sound like you have been in love with someone before,” Xavier commented, looking deep into Alfred’s eyes.

He immediately noticed the changes in them. A dead silence had spread over the living room, the tension started to arise in the air that was uncomfortable for everyone.

“I think we should let this topic go,” Stephen suggested, gesturing to Zander to change the topic as soon as possible.

Provoking Alfred was not good when it came to discussing love and relationships.

“Yes, we want to discuss a few more things about your territory, Alpha Sawyer,” Zander attracted everyone’s attention as he was holding some papers in his hand.

“What is this about?” Sawyer’s expression changed.

Nothing could be discussed about his territory since it no longer belonged to him following the battle and the documents he had signed with the twins months ago.

“We are returning your territory to you, Alpha Sawyer,” Xender handed over the papers to the older Alpha, who was surprised.

“Why?” He asked, checking the papers were real. Now territory was back in his hands!

“First of all, our territory is already more than enough for us to handle so we don’t need yours. We had taken it over because of the enmity between our packs, but now, as everything has been settled between us, then we don’t need the Ardara Moon Pack anymore. It is yours. Now you are the only Alpha of your pack” Zander explained, gesturing for his brother to continue.

“The second part is, we believe that you want to hand over your Alpha position to someone else. So for that, you have to hold the full authority of Alpha to do so. That is one of the reasons we are returning your territory and authority to you,” Xavier explained.

“But like I said last time, there is no way you can make your asshole son the Alpha of your pack, Alpha Sawyer,” Xavier added. Every time he mentioned Noah a bitter feeling came over his heart. They still could not believe that bastard was the brother of their mates. Sawyer took a deep breath before he decided to explain.

“Noah has not returned the pack for days, so he is unofficially banished from my pack. He has no place in my house after he tried to kill my Adira and Kiara. I had told him that there was no way I would declare him the next Alpha in this lifetime. I could not hand the title over to an evil traitorous criminal and expect him to watch over the lives of 300 people,” a low growl escaped from Sawyer’s chest when he talked about his evil son. Everyone nodded without saying a word, but Alfred c*d his brow.

“I used to think that you werewolves always passed your positions to your sons. I don’t know the backstory of what happened with your son, but I am curious as to who will take over your pack?”

Vampire King Alfred looked curious.

“Actually, it is a difficult decision for me. It is not just about passing my position to my son. The Alpha of the pack should be responsible, intelligent, flexible, powerful, and a person who holds Alpha blood in his veins. Otherwise, the pack will collapse in a blink of an eye, which is something that I can’t risk,” Sawyer explained.

“Hmm, sounds like a difficult task. Now where will you find someone that will fit all of the attributes you’ve just listed for your position?” The Vampire King pondered as everyone agreed. That was when everyone’s eyes turned to the young man who had entered the living room with some papers.

“Alpha, I have found a few wolves in our pack that helped Petra with her plan. Along with proof to back up the claims. I also wanted to inform you that I can make another dose of the herbal remedy for Luna Kiara, as I know you don’t want to take any risks with the pup. And on the way here I heard that Luna Adira’s baby but it is strange that the Doctor could tell the gender of the pups in her first month.

I find it odd because it is impossible to tell the gender right now. I suspect that Luna Adira's baby is growing faster than we thought and that her pup has also been blessed by the Moon Goddess!" Cole spewed out all the information in one breath.

His hand reached out for a glass of water that he placed back down after drinking it all in one go. He had been working all of this out without stopping.

"What's wrong?" Cole had a nervous smile when all the men in the room stared at him. Yes, he had forgotten that there were other respectful people besides the twins and he had just interrupted their conversation. He had also boldly drunk an entire glass of water. But was that the only reason they were giving him those intense looks?!

"Cole, come here son," Sawyer smiled, gesturing for him to sit beside him.

"Me?" He was stunned.

"Yes, come here.!"

Cole felt a chill in his bones. What was wrong? Why was he being called over like he was going to be beheaded? He was well aware of Alpha Sawyer's nature. In middle school, Alpha Sawyer used to come to visit Adira at the school. The Alpha had always appreciated their friendship and had liked the young Omega, but right now this situation seemed different.

While sitting beside the older Alpha, Cole received an unexpected smile from everyone. f* "k! This was definitely a trap!

"How can I help you, Alpha Sawyer" he kicked his nervousness away.

"Would you like to become the Alpha of my pack, Cole?"

"What?!" Cole's eyes grew larger. Alpha Sawyer was offering him the Alpha position!

"Umm, I am an Omega, Alpha Sawyer, he pointed out.

"Who the fvck is buying that lie?" Zander commented lazily. Cole looked at Xavier, suspecting that he had revealed his true identity as an Alpha.

"I never said a single word to anyone. Your actions are enough to tell anyone," Xavier immediately explained, before a misunderstanding arose.

"So what is your decision, Cole?" Alpha Sawyer asked politely, but he looked like he would scold him until his eyes bled if he refused.

"But why me?" He wondered. Sawyer had a son who deserved the position.

“Because you are perfect. I have known you from the beginning. You are a person worth trusting in my eyes, you care for your friends and people around you,” Sawyer explained in a calm tone. Cole looked at everyone for a few moments as he gave some thought on becoming an Alpha.

“Okay, I agree” he announced, bringing a big smile to Sawyer’s face.

“That’s great! Then you will be coming with me to my pack and accept my position as soon as possible. I will adopt you as my son,” the older wolf gave a big hug to his new son.

Cole blinked in surprise. fvck! It was really true that any second your life could change. The young wolf had gotten a Father, a pack, a position, and wealth!

“I will try my best and will never disappoint you, Alpha Sawyer,” Cole hugged Sawyer back. It was time for him to pay attention to his own life.

Everyone was satisfied with Sawyer’s decisions, even the Alpha sisters who had been standing near the door and heard everything.

Alpha’s Surrogate Chapter 77

The third floor of the pack house was filled with chatter, joking, laughing, and a baby cry.

“Now it is my turn!!!” Lena jumped up and down in place in excitement before she had the good fortune of being able to hold Jennifer’s baby girl in her arms.

Everyone had gathered in the Beta couple’s room to welcome their newborn. Kaiden had positioned himself beside his mate who was still laying on the bed while she was admiring their daughter. Jennifer was happy to see how her beautiful daughter was while she received love and attention from all of her parents’ closest friends.

“I want a pup, Lena,” Tyler murmured, almost reverently.

He kept his gaze fixed on his mate, who had never answered him when he mentioned children.

They had been mates for 2 years and were happy together but Lena did not want a pup anytime soon. Tyler had agreed to wait since he did not want to force his mate into pregnancy until she was ready. But when he saw Kaiden’s baby, his latent yearning to become a parent roared to life.

Tyler became heartbroken when Lena did not respond and refused to look at him. Instead she rested her hand tenderly on the newborn girl, who had just fallen asleep.

“Nevermind,” he muttered, trying to lessen the tension in the air that he had caused because of his words. He assured himself that he just needed to wait a few more months or years.

“I want a daughter” Lena said out of the blue.

“What?” Tyler c*d his brow watching her lift her eyes up to meet his.

“I want a beautiful princess for the two of us, Tyler” she smiled.

A huge smile spread across Tyler’s face as Lena finally agreed to have a pup with him. She jumped on him as he wrapped his arms around her body.

Yes, I hope our first pup will be a baby girl” he smiled, k!ssing her cheek softly. Jennifer and Kaiden give a thumbs up to Tyler who had successfully pursued his mate. Soon they too would also be expecting.

“Then I will be waiting for you to share the good news, Lena and Tyler” Kiara overheard their conversation when she entered the room. Lena blushed and nodded.

“How are you doing, Jennifer?” Kiara asked.

“I am fine, Luna,” Jennifer replied with a small smile.

“Luna!” the Gamma female, handed the pup over to Kiara as she was the only one who had not had a chance to hold her yet. The Doctor had suggested not to crowd the room and let Jen and the baby rest so every couple had been coming to visit the baby one by one. Adira and Zander were the first to come see Jennifer and the pup before Zander took Adira to their room for her check up. The Doctor had been waiting there for them.

Kiara smiled, having a new life in her arms most likely reminded her of the little life that she had been carrying in her belly.

“She is so beautiful,” she k!ssed the baby’s forehead while admiring her delicate features. She was a miniature version of Jennifer, but she had Kaiden’s nose. Kiara’s face lit up when she saw her little fingers. Xavier, who was standing behind his woman, smiled at the pup.

“Soon, we will be holding our sons in our arms like this,” he whispered into Kiara’s ear.

When the young Luna lifted her head to gaze at her smiling mate, she k!ssed him on the nose. Yes, they would soon have their lovely sons. The Alpha couple had been anticipating their sons’ arrival with bated breath. The Moon Goddess had blessed them with twins, who were due in a few months. Xavier and Kiara planned to keep their twins a secret until this evening, when everyone gathered together in the living room. Everyone was overjoyed to learn that they were going to have two new Princes.

“Yes” Kiara smiled, handing the pup over to him. The Alpha looked more excited and deliriously happy with the baby. Kiara could see a completely different side of Xavier that was adorable! The Alpha received a sudden kiss on his cheek from his mate. He was unaware of the reason behind the kiss but he leaned closer to Kiara.

“What?” She was confused as to why he put his cheek closer to her mouth.

“I want another one,” he pouted. The young woman giggled, kissing him once more. They spent some more time with Kaiden, Jennifer and their pup.

“What do you say, Doctor? Why did Adira experience discomfort in her belly?” Zander asked. The checkup was complete but the anxiety he had been feeling had only increased. But he was trying his best to remain calm because right now Adira’s hand was in his and he could tell that her emotions were all over the place.

“Everything is alright, Alpha. I can assure you that it was caused by tiredness and the sudden attack on the pack. Your twins are safe,” the Doctor smiled brightly, enjoying the surprised expressions on the Alpha and Luna’s faces.

“Twins?!” Zander and Adira exclaimed together.

“Yes. A daughter and a son,” the Doctor gave a bright smile. It was fortunate that he was chosen as Luna’s Doctor and could tell them this good news.

“Oh my Goddess!!” Adira placed her hand over her mouth to hold her scream. ear.

“Is it true?! We are going to have a daughter and son?”

Adira looked at her mate who was grinning from ear to ear.

“Yes.” Zander smiled with a nod. He was ready to start the next stage of his life with his mate. He spread his arms wide, letting her jump into his arms as they hugged each other.

“I am so so excited for our pups, Zander” she exclaimed. He nodded, his nose pressed against her neck. Zander had been concerned that what Orion had done to Adira would trigger her mind and cause her to withdraw from him, but his mate had proven to be a strong woman. She’d treated Orion’s remarks as if they were yesterday’s garbage, she’d tossed them away as soon as the war was done.

She was just concerned about Zander’s injuries. She’d tended his wounds after they returned from Jennifer’s room, even though he had told her that his wolf would help him recover swiftly. After spending some alone time, they began to fool before dinner until the Doctor knocked on the door, and now they had the wonderful news about their twins.

."Yes, I can't wait to have both of them in my arms. Our prince and princess," Zander replied, kissing his woman's head. He already knew how desperate she was to have a child but not once had they thought that they would be blessed with twins.

"Let's share this good news with everyone, Zander" she lifted her face up a little to look at her mate who readily agreed.

"Well, I don't think we need to go anywhere," the Alpha smiled, welcoming his brother and sister-in-mate who knocked on the door a few seconds later. He had heard their footsteps coming down the hall.

"Congratulations, Kiara and Xavier said together, hugging their siblings. Their wolf's hearing had clued them into the good news from afar.

"Thank you," Adira blushed, placing her hand over her belly.

"I did not know that you would also be having twins, Adira. A girl and a boy! This is awesome!" She exclaimed in sheer joy.

"Yes, we are also going to have twins. I had no idea our life was going to be so similar to each other. I mean we found our mates within a few months of each other and they turned out to be twins. Then we got pregnant and are having twins with only a few months difference. And I was so surprised when Cole claimed that my babies are also blessed! it just sounds like a great coincidence" Adira said and laughed with her sister who agreed with her right away.

"Yeah, let's tell Mom and Dad. I am sure they will be thrilled. Let's go to their room," Kiara suggested. Martha and Sawyer were staying for the night in the Sirius Bright Pack and getting ready for the night's party. Both laughing women turned to see their mates who had some unknown expression on their faces.

"What's wrong?" The sisters asked together.

"Nothing. We are going down stairs," The twins exited the room and looked back to make sure the woman stayed in the room.

"Don't you think our fates sound more planned than a mere coincidence?" Zander pointed out as they moved down the corridor.

"Yes, the girls haven't realized it but I feel like something odd is. "

“How are you doing, boys?” The twins’ ears were filled with the familiar voice of Alpha King Renard. Both of the old twin wolves stood in front of them with a smile.

“Uncle, you are finally here,” the King received a big hug from his Princes.

“We thought you were at the hospital. How is Jespen doing?” Xavier asked.

“His condition is stable. The Doctors were able to save him in time. He is no longer in imminent danger, so I decided to come see my family. I also learned of what Petra and Orion did. I am proud of the punishment you boys give to your adversaries. The Lincoln name should be feared across the world!” The King placed a hand on each of their shoulders with pride as in solidarity. Stephen smiled contentedly while admiring them.

“That means you can’t force us to accept your throne, Uncle. Jespen is still alive, and I believe he will obey you after this incident. You have a safe succession to your throne,” Zander pointed out, and Xavier quickly agreed.

“I know what you two are trying to say, Renard narrowed his eyes at them.

“Don’t worry, I will not force you two now. but I need to know how Jespen will act when he recovers completely,” the old Alpha King stated after taking a deep breath. Although that definitely did not mean that he would appoint Jespen King.

“I also learned that you lost your mate mark because you killed Petra’s wolf, Xavier. I was scared to hear this. Don’t repeat this mistake again, son. Don’t scare Luna Kiara again,” The King added.

“I understand, Uncle,” Xavier smiled.

“I have heard the Luna Adira is also pregnant.”

“Yes, we are having twins,” Zander explained.

“That’s wonderful! T overheard your boys’ conversation and your confusion over why your destinies are so similar,” King Renard arched his brows as he glanced at his brother to respond.

“Because you are twins, your fortunes will always be intertwined. I had honestly anticipated that you two would have the same mate, but that never happened’ Stephen began to speak.

“Then I discovered that only major events of your life would be intertwined. But you two are inseparable. If one of you is torn apart then the whole pack will be destroyed. That is the reason you two have to take over things together.

But I still don't have any idea why your mates' fate also appears to be intertwined Stephen explained, having given deep thought to his point. Luna Kiara and Luna Adira were still a mystery to people.

"It seems like it's my turn to become a hero," Alfred smirked, walking closer to the group. When he walked to them with his tall figure, he looked like a runway model! No one would say that he was a thousands years old evil vampire. He looked to be in his mid-thirties.

"Like usual your grandson is an as*sh0le, Renard. Thanks to him you could not come to visit me that day," the Vampire King vented his displeasure.

"Yes, I still want to know what you were going to tell me about Luna Adira and Luna Kiara," Renard said, attracting everyone's attention.

"What is all this about?" Xavier asked.

"Yeah, why are you talking about our mates?" Zander raised his brows.

"Boys, there is something that you need to know about your mates. Alfrad and I were researching it but too many things happened over the past couple of days. But I think Alfred found the answer this time," Renard explained and now all eyes were on the red eyed man.

"Okay, tell us."

"I invite all of you tomorrow to my Fort. You will not believe me, if I tell you like this so I will show you with proof" the Vampire King told them.

"Okay" they all agreed.

"Then I will take my leave first. I have some work to do" Alfred turned on his heels to leave but he left many questions in the twins' minds.

Later Renard and Stephen walked downstairs to join the feast. One by one everyone reached the feast until only Xavier and Kiara had not arrived.

Applying lipstick, Kiara fixed her dress then turned to leave the room. As soon as she switched off the lights and reached for the door she found Xavier standing in front of her. His green eyes shone like a diamond in the moonlight that filtered through the window.

"You scared me;" she said in a hush tone.

"You remember what I said about how I want you on my bed when I returned to the room, right?" The Alpha wrapped his arms around her waist pulling her closer to his chest.

"Yes," Kiara replied but her voice sounded like she moaned. His evil fingers had been coursing over her lower belly.

"Good, but I wanted to warn you that there will be punishments as well" he added. The young woman nodded, feeling heat build in her blood. The darkness had made his words and touch even more alluring.

She closed her eyes when their lips touched.

"Let's go, he coaxed, making the kiss short as he had to save it for later tonight. Kiara hooked her arm through her mate's while they walked downstairs then entered the living room where everyone was waiting for them.

"Don't cry. We will come to visit you soon;" Zander kissed his sister's forehead who was now in tears. She nodded and looked at her other brother. Everyone had gathered to say goodbye to Iris as it was time for her to leave with Alpha Harvey for the Blue Moon Pack.

"You're late brother" Iris complained to Xavier.

"Oh, my Princess come here" Xavier pulled her into a warm hug. She was so happy to have married Harvey but now she was crying like a baby at having to leave the only home she'd ever known.

"Zander and I will make sure that everyone comes visit you soon, Iris. I have also asked Alpha Harvey to bring you back for tomorrow's dinner so we will see you then." He promised pulling away from her as he cupped her face.

"Okay but I want all my favorite food" she pouted, holding back her tears. Everyone laughed when they heard her demand.

"Okay, I promise" Xavier kissed her forehead then handed her over to Harvey who was waiting patiently. They all walked into the garden and ate dinner together. After spending some time talking, everyone went to take a walk together.

"It is time to take a family photo!" Lena said, handing over a camera to one of the Omegas before she ran back to stand beside Tyler. In the first photos all the ladies were in front of their mates with their arms wrapped around their waists from behind. In the next one, everyone was standing beside their partner and was doing their own poses.

Harvey and Iris took many pictures with everyone. No one gave up the chance to take pictures with Jennifer's baby.

She and Kiaden had also joined them. Then it was couples picture time. Zander had been very busy teasing and molesting his mate in the name of photos. She was laughing and enjoying his attention.

Xavier had decided to take Kiara's photo with his phone.

They had forgotten the rest of the world and were busy with one another.

"Let's go over there. I want you to take my picture there," Kiara grabbed Xavier's hand, taking him over to a big tree.

But that was when she noticed something.

"Xavier," unhooked her arm and grabbed his hand.

"What?" he asked in confusion.

"Is that the watch that I bought on my first shopping trip, I thought it had disappeared that day?!" The young woman exclaimed, looking closely at the watch. She had been looking for it for a very long time as it was very expensive even though she had used her mate's card.

"I thought I lost it..." She murmured puzzled then they lifted her narrowed eyes at a very guilty Xavier who had refused to say a word.

"You stole it, didn't you?!" Kiara inquired sternly.

"I, the Alpha stole this watch? Hahaha..." The Alpha fake laughed in offense.

"Yes, you did," she replied, crossing her arms over her chest. Had he been hiding it this whole time, acting like he did not know anything? How cunning was this Alpha?

"It was for me so I took it, is that called theft?" Xavier defended himself.

"Yes, it is theft. Now give it to me" Kiara demanded.

Xavier's proud expression turned into an innocent one when she asked him to return it.

"Why? I love this watch, Kiara.." The Alpha whined like a child which melted his woman's heart. How could he act so cute? She would fall for him again and again.

"Really? You like it?" She bit her lip in excitement. She still believed that it was no better than his collection. Xavier took Kiara's hand in his and kissed it.

"I love everything that is related to you, Kiara," he said, decreasing the distance between them completely.

"I love this watch, even this air because it is coming to me after touching you, Kiara" he said, smiling down at his mate who was blushing at his confession. She felt her body leaning against the tree where she was supposed to pose for the photo but now her mate was leaning over her. She watched his lips touching her.

"You smell so good that I want to eat you, Kiara," Xavier whispered, nibbling her lower lip. She moaned and opened her mouth, allowing him to explore. Their tongues played with each other, turning the atmosphere hot around them.

Kiara felt wetness gather between her thighs. Xavier was easily provoked when the scent of her arousal hit his nose.

"Ahhh!" She bit her lips as she watched his hand entering under her top and massaging her breast.

"The elders will see us," she whispered, moaning when he rolled her nipple between his fingers.

"Let them see. I want to love my mate," Xavier said, slipping the fingers of his other hand under her panties.

"Fuck, you are so wet, Kiara," he teased, fingering her slowly but deep.

"Oh my fucking Goddess! Stop" she bit her lip harder to control her volume. The others were still only a short distance away even though they were busy themselves.

"Why? You are such a bad girl, Kiara. Getting wet for your mate in public?" Xavier teased, fingering her faster. Kiara was hardly able to control herself when he twisted his fingers and hit her sensitive spots.

"Tell me how bad of a girl you are Kiara. Then I will give you a fantastic orgasm," he cooed, watching her needy expression. Kiara wanted to cum so bad but he was playing with her.

"No, I am not a bad girl. It is just my hormones," she replied with a grin. There was no way she was going to admit it.

"Oh, if it is like that then I will play with your hormones today," Xavier pulled out his fingers and scooped her up into his arms. He started to take her inside the pack house.

"What are you doing, Xavier?" She exclaimed, wrapping her arms around his neck for support.

"Planning to make love to you, he replied, placing her on the bed. Kiara smiled, pulling him down to the bed with her. In the next second the Alpha was under his woman. Kiara pinned both of his hands to his sides, giving him an evil smile.

“What are you planning to do to me, you little vixen?”

Xavier acted like a poor innocent man who was being molested. His mouth was sealed by his mate as she kissed him harder. Xavier was gasping for air by the time she let go of his hands. His eyes traveled over her body when she threw her top away and reached out to unhook her bra.

“What are you doing?” Xavier asked this time full of surprise. Fuck! She was stripping herself in front of him and it was so sexy watching her do it. Kiara grinned as she took his cock inside her slowly.

“Today I am going to ride you,” she moaned, throwing her head back in pleasure but it hurt her too.

“Fuck!” Xavier groaned watching her do it. He flipped her over on the bed and kissed her lips.

“First let me fuck you and loosen you up a little. Then you can ride me as long as you want,” he said, moving inside her slowly. Kiara had forgotten everything but looking at him.

Again, he was only caring about her. He did not want her to hurt herself. Kiara cupped his face with a huge smile that stopped Xavier.

“Why do you love me so much, Xavier?” She asked, admiring him. Xavier put his hand over hers as he rubbed his cheek into her palm with a smile.

“Because you are my Kiara. I don’t need any reason for loving you,” he said. Kiara’s heart skipped a beat at his words.

“I love you, Xavier” she pulled him down for a hug.

“I love you too, Kiara.”

Alpha’s Surrogate Chapter 78

After traveling for hours, Kiara looked out of the window of the car at the big metal gate of the Vampire Fort. It was still Scary! Her previous memories from a few days ago when she had been here with Xavier were still fresh in her mind. She had enjoyed the road trip here again but this time Adira was with her. Both of the sisters were sitting in the back seat while their mates had been driving and in the passenger seat.

Kiara was sharing her stories and experience with her sister about the last time she had been to the vampire enclave. They had finally arrived and it was already evening.

The car stopped but before ladies could get out, the doors were opened for them by Alpha King Renard and elder Steven.

“Thank you!” they smiled at the old wolves. This kind of treatment was unexpected from them as one of them was the Alpha King and the other was their Grandpa and an elder.

But they were always respectful and polite towards females.

“You’re welcome. We have been waiting for you. Let’s go inside” Stephen smiled at them. The King and Stephen had arrived at the Fort about 20 minutes before the twins. The distance between the parking and the fort was quite a ways but the walking was enjoyable. Adira and Kiara had been talking a good deal again and were in the garden where exotic kinds of plants and flowers could be found. That was when Kiara stopped to adjust her sandal and was kidnapped!

Who was it? She was dragged a good distance away from everyone. The person had covered her mouth so that she could not shout. She had no intention of doing that. Her body was pushed against the nearby tree as the person caged her between his arms. She felt his hand cup her as*s.

“Oh, she gasped, not in fear but excitement.

“Who is this beauty that I have found in this kind of place?” Her kidnapper raised his eyebrows as he pressed his hard chest against her soft plump breasts. She felt her nipples hardening instantly but held herself back.

“Who is this wild man? Touching a noble lady so boldly?

Kiara asked, feeling his cock by her hip. Her kidnapper grinned and massaged her as*s.

“Noble ladies don’t bend over and display their round asses to wild men like me” he countered, watching her blushing face.

“I was displaying it to my mate. How would I know that I would be groped by a big hungry wolf?” She hissed.

“I took your actions as an invitation. Is it my fault?” He asked, slipping his hand under her short skirt. Kiara swallowed hard as she was totally turned on by his dirty talk and touch.

“Tell me. Is it my fault that I am so turned on by you, right now? Is it my fault that I get painfully hard when I see your goodies?”

Kiara bit her lower lip feeling so good when he touched her pussy through the fabric.
“No... it was entirely my mistake...!”

“So you accept that you lured me, right?” He whispered, teasing her clit.

“Ah... yes!!” She hissed, closing her legs as his finger had been rubbing her pussy as good.

“You like that?” He brushed his finger over it harder.

“Ohh... Ahh... yes!!! Please...” Kiara cried in pleasure.

“But what if your mate sees a noble lady like you with a wild man like me?” His finger slid her panties away as he entered her wet heat. Kiara’s entire body shivered as she swam in the pool of excitement. He’d inserted two fingers at once!

“AHH... OHHH. fvck! Then I will ask him to finger me faster and give me the best orgasm!” Kiara moaned, throwing her head back on the tree as he increased his speed.

“AHH!” As she moaned.

“SHHH, he placed his hand over her mouth before anyone that could still be close to enough to hear her moans.

“Xav... Xavier” Kiara cried out quietly. The Alpha immediately pulled his hand back and kissed her lips. fvck!

He didn’t have the heart to tease her anymore. Kissing her neck and breast, he twisted his fingers hitting her G spot before he made her release on the three fingers he had buried deep inside her.

“AHHHH...” she moaned into his mouth as he blocked her lips before she could make any noise.

“Ask me to fvck you, Kiara,” Kiara felt his soft kisses on her lower lip as she tried to catch her breath.

“Beg me!” He demanded, rubbing his aching cock against her belly.

“Zander!!”

“Xavier!!” Before Kiara could say a word, Stephen called for them.

“Ugh! That old man has no patience!” Xavier gritted his teeth, pulling away from Kiara. Kiara giggled, watching him adjusting his semi-hard beast.

"You just wait out here for me. I will be back after finishing this meeting with the Vampire King and the others," Xavier narrowed his eyes on her. He led her back to the group and realized that his brother was also coming out of the woods with Adira.

When they reached the Fort the Vampire King had joined Renard and Stephen. Their eyes were fixed on the couples but their silence was saying everything.

"Youth really can get turned on anywhere!" Stephen looked between his grandsons who had no shame in their eyes but girls felt bashful. They acted like they had not heard anything.

"We went to explore the garden," Zander replied lazily.

"Yeah, I was showing Kiara around," Xavier added.

"I hope you enjoyed the garden with your mates in this dead land, boys," Alfred rolled his eyes, gesturing for them to follow him.

"When will you be finished with the meeting?" Adira asked Zander.

"Soon. You can wait for me, look at the surroundings, or stay in the room. Don't go anywhere. I will be back as soon as I am done," Zander gave her a hug.

"Stay with Adira, Kiara. Don't go anywhere. Do you understand me?" He explained.

"Okay" she smiled, giving him a kiss before she watched him leave with his brother.

"So, what should we do?" Adira took a deep breath while watching Vampire king's trustable man Kane standing behind them. Because of a lost time incident he was ordered to guard the Lunas.

"Let's explore this place" Kiara suggested as Kane guided them around.

The twins followed the Vampire King to his study which was filled with old books. They took a look at their mates through the window to make sure they were safe.

"So what is it that you wanted to tell us about Adira and Kiara?" Xavier asked, leaning against the nearby wall.

"Xavier, do you remember the last time that you came to my Fort with Kiara I mentioned that I had seen her somewhere before?" Alfred asked.

"Yes, but she said she has never seen you and I believe she is not lying."

"Yes, she is not lying but there is something that you need to know. I am not the only one who thinks that I have met Kiara before.!"

“Alfred is correct. When I first met Adira and Kiara at the Sirius Bright Pack, I was sure that I had seen them somewhere before but I could not name the place,” Renard confirmed.

“Why does everyone say that they know Adira?” Zander c*d his brows.

“When our pack was attacked, one of the hybrids who was planning to kill Adira claimed that he had seen her before. Frida also mentioned a creepy f*cker who was searching for her in the city, holding her photo in his hand!”

“Yes, when I went to David’s wedding, his mate Luna Karina said that Kiara seemed very familiar. First I thought that it was all a misunderstanding but now this is becoming rather creepy,” Xavier exclaimed in displeasure.

“My Kiara never went anywhere other than school so how is it possible that so many people have seen her?”

“Yes, I agree. Adira used to attend festivals, events at other packs, and family functions but still she says that she had never met any of those people who say they have seen her,” Zander stated.

The Vampire King took a deep breath while placing a book on the table.

“Now you need to listen to me carefully as I am going to explain everything to you,” he said, opening the book and showing them the front page.

“This is the truth about your mates.”

“Why do these women look like Kiara and Adira?” They asked, looking at the King.

“They do not just look like them, they are them! Luna Kiara and Luna Adira were Wizard Princesses five hundred years ago!” Alfred revealed. The secret surprised everyone.

“fvck! Now I remember that I had read about these sisters in that old book and this was the reason that I felt like I had seen them somewhere!” Renard remarked, cursing his bad memory.

“What the fvck! Wizard Princesses? This is all nonsense!”

Xavier snapped, pushing the book away.

“I am not the least bit interested in hearing tales of rebirth. I believe that it is a coincidence that these women look like Kiara and Adira,” Zander said, refusing to look at the book anymore.

"I figured that you would not believe me, which was why I asked you to come here. As you can see this book is 500 years old. I did not write it. You can read about them if you don't believe me. They were sisters in their past life too. The descriptions of their beauty were spread all over the world.

People used to die so that they could catch a glimpse of them. They were feared by the wizard world as their father was a powerful man. These sisters made history with their intelligence and fighting skill that no one could forget. Your mates were witches!" Placing both of his hands on the table Alfred gave some of the important information to the twins as he looked deep into their surprised eyes.

"Oh my fvcking Goddess! It is real!" Stephen whose entire focus was on the book said while flipping through the pages.

"They are Luna Adira and Kiara!" He looked at his grandsons and pushed the book towards them. Not even wanting to, Xavier decided to look at it while Alfred kept talking.

"I did some research when I discovered that every wizard has to read about these legendary women. So everyone who has recognised them is surely a hybrid. Luna Karina that you mentioned is hybrid, Adira's attacker was hybrid too. Renard recognised them because as a King he has also read the books about other supernatural creatures. If you ask then how the hell I recognized them then I would like to tell you that I saw the sisters at an event 500 years ago. We just passed by each other but due to their beauty I still remember them," he explained to the twins.

"sh!! How is this possible?" Xavier growled reading about the powers that Kiara had. She looked so young and beautiful in those historical clothes.

"Do you really think that in the Wizard Temple that old wizard healed Luna Martha because they had a big heart?"

Alfred asked, attracting everyone's attention.

"Those wizards immediately recognized Adira as their Queen the day she would have stepped in the Temple but they wisely kept quiet. They are cunning! They treated Luna Martha because she was her mother in this life. But they had no idea that they were reborn as sisters this time too. Wizards don't overreact but they still consider her as their Queen," the King pointed out. That was when Zander remembered how respectfully that old priest had bowed to Adira. She had said that they acted like that all the time.

"Queen? Didn't you say they were Princesses," Xavier raised his doubts.

"Yes, but then they married and became Queens of the wizard world" everyone's mouth hung wide open at learning another secret.

"I know it is nonsense but my mind wants to believe this" Zander murmured, slamming his hand on the table as he read about Adira and Kiara being Queens in the book.

"You have to believe me and it is also one of the reason that their unborn baby is bless by Moon Goddess. I have one more piece of proof. I talked to Alpha Sawyer yesterday about Luna Adira's kidnapping as well," Zander's ears perked up when he heard that statement.

"How is Adira's kidnapping related to her past life?"

"I asked Alpha Sawyer every detail about the kidnapping and the kidnapper. He said that at that time his daughter was 16 years old. She was kidnapped on her way to the school. He said that the kidnapper was her teacher who he was never able to catch. When he entered that big mysterious house with his pack members, the kidnapper had disappeared!" He explained.

"What? How could anyone just disappear? That's impossible!" Xavier stated.

"It is possible because that man wasn't her teacher, it was the Wizard King who had taken on the appearance of her teacher."

"What? The Wizard King kidnapped Adira? Why would he do that?" Zander exclaimed.

"In reality she had two kidnappers, not one. There are two Wizard Kings. They are identical twins and absolutely insane! Kiara and Adira had been forced to marry them when those brothers had destroyed their Kingdom to get them. In reality the sisters' beauty was the reason their peaceful life was destroyed by those evil twins. They killed their entire family and forcefully married them. I don't know what happened after that but I learned that one day the sisters disappeared from the palace.

They even left their children behind, I believe they did it because the children were not out of love but a.buse and r.ape. The Wizard Kings tried to search like mad dogs for them but they could never find their wives. Their search is still going on to this day. Wizards don't age easily. They are immortal like me and that is what they are doing"

"Wait a minute! Do you want to say that the Wizard Kings recognized Adira and kidnapped her?" Zander asked.

"Yes, but the older brother had kidnapped her thinking that she was Kiara. Then he realized that he caught his younger brother's wife. His brother had already been searching for Adira so their work became easier. I think Adira never told them about Kiara so they did not know she had also been reborn. The younger Wizard King kept raping her in the name of love until she ran away and he lost her again.

I suspect the younger Wizard King is the man who is roaming everywhere holding Adira's photo. He is searching for her but Kiara is safe as they don't know about her yet" Alfred stated in one breath.

fvck! What a disgusting mess! Luna Adira was recognized by them and now they want her," Renard growled.

"No, they know about Kiara too" Zander said, looking at his brother who frowned.

"How?" Stephen asked as Vampire King's eyes also snapped to him.

"That man that had kidnapped Frida and inquired about Adira. Because of her confusion between Kiara and Adira's face, he found out that they were not one but two women.

He laughed and walked away. The Wizard Kings know about Kiara and Adira now he explained, clenching his fist. Xavier who had nearly lost his ability to think, knowing that his woman had been forced, ra*ped, and a.bused by wizard king, looked at the Vampire King with his furious eyes.

"So what they want now?"

"They want Kiara and Adira back. The elder brother is obsessed with Kiara and the younger brother is crazy for Adira. If he can ra*pe her when she was 16 then you have an inkling of what he willing to do to get her. I can see history repeating itself. The girls are in danger!"

"But I think that they still don't know where Kiara and Adira are. Otherwise they would have been taken away by the Wizard Kings" he explained looking into their eyes. Xavier and Zander walked back to the window and looked down at Kiara and Adira who were laughing at a flower that had a weird shape.

"I dont know if these stories are true or not but there is no fvckingg way anyone can take Adira from me! I will fvcking*g burn the entire wizard kingdom to the ground if I have to," Zander growled, trying to control his anger. He could not allow that crazy Wizard King to steal the smile that she had right now.

"Kiara is only mine! I will be the only one to have her in this life, I can break any limit and rules! No one can steal her from me" Xavier stated dangerously.

Stephen and Renard looked at each other worriedly. No one had any idea that these females belonged to the Wizard Kings. They were their wives in the past but now they were mates of Xavier and Zander! fvck! Both parties were crazy for these women.

But there was a small bit of relief that the Wizard Kings did not know Kiara and Adira's current ident!ty as mates of Xavier and Zander, which was still hidden! They did not know they were in the Sirius Bright Pack. There was a hope in the Alpha King and Stephen's heart that it was not the beginning of a new war between werewolves and wizards.

"AHH... who are you? Why are you keeping me captive?"

Noah yelled once again. His hands were tied behind his back as he knelt on the cold ground. The blind fold was removed from his eyes but the room was still dark. Even though he was an Alpha blood he was scared of the things that were happening with him. He had been kidnapped by some unknown people a few days ago and he could not return to the pack.

They had kept him caged all these days, now they had thrown him in here. That was when he noticed a tall handsome yet dangerous-looking man stepping out of the dark. He looked like he was from a rich royal family.

"Your life is in your own hands, you little dog. I will ask you a question and you will answer me honestly or your body would be buried alive in the ground where you are kneeling right now," the man warned. His voice was heavy, full of authority and anyone could tell that he did not like lies or beating around the bush.

"Okay" Noah nodded obediently as he was already in pain. His man had tortured him for days. He had noticed that a man with the same body build whose back was facing him was also in the room. Who was he?

"We will let you go if you tell us what you know about these women" he stated, pointing to the other side. Noah followed his finger and looked at the large yet old picture that was hanging on the wall. The other man who had still not shown his face, standing near the picture had pulled down the curtain.

"Adira and Kiara?" Noah replied in confusion. Why was their photo on the wall? And why the fvck did they looked like Queens?

"You know them?!" The man standing near the wall finally turned and walked closer to Noah with an excited expression on his face.

"Y... yes.." Noah replied, crawling back in fear. fk! He was scary when he crouched right in front of him, much too close to his face. He was twins with the other man! Who were they?

"What are their names again?" The other twin who looked like an older brother grinned.

"Kiara and Adira. They are my sisters," Noah replied, looking back and forth between the brothers.

"Where can we find them?" Noah got chills deep in his bones when he felt their evil intention. They seemed absolutely insane!

“Why?” He dared to ask but in a blink his neck was grabbed by the young twin he strangled Noah for his daring move.

“So that we could fvcking*g get our wives back, you dog!”

He yelled in his face. Noah felt a sharp pain in his scalp when the older twin nearly ripped his hair from his head.

“Now, you will tell me where they are..” he whispered into his ear, using his spell on Noah to cause him incredible amounts of pain. He cried in anguish before he screamed.

“The Sirius Bright Pack!” Noah’s head was ripped apart the second he confessed. His lifeless body collapsed to the ground.

“Hmmm.... Interesting.”

Alpha’s Surrogate Chapter 79

“What the hell have they been doing for two hours in that meeting?!” Adira gritted her teeth as she kicked a pebble out of her way. Waiting for someone while there was nothing to engage in was always difficult. They had already eaten the delicious food that the Vampire King had prepared for them, rested, and looked around the never-ending enclave, but it was all so tiring. None of the men had come out since they disappeared into the Fort.

“I swear I won’t even let Xavier enter the room later tonight,” Kiara agreed with the same annoyance. Venus had been whiny without Dean since he had left with the promise that he would be back soon.

The she-wolf had taken his words to her heart when he said that she should be waiting for him, then he would fvck her. His touch on her body and the way his hard c0ck had rubbed against her was something that she would never forget.

“Yeah, Zander will not like what I have planned for him!”

Adira kicked another pebble as far as she could. It hit a nearby tree. Her panties were still we.t, luckily there were no other wolves there to smell her ar0usal. She was more irritated because she hadn’t reached a satisfactory release before Stephen had called for them.

Zander’s tongue on her we*t core always felt so incredible that every second without him was t0rture for her and Isha. The pregnancy h0rmones had made her even more h0rny and needy for Zander and Evan.

“Ha,” that was when a soft, sexy laugh echoed in the deserted forest. The Alpha sisters turned to look at the vampire who had been acting as their bodyguard, following them everywhere.

“Haven’t you been our bodyguard for only half an hour?” Kiara indirectly asked Kane to leave them alone. Having a bloodsucker following them was kind of creepy, especially when he had not spoken a single word the entire time. He had been listening to them, even their stupid sisterly conversation, but this was the first time that they had gotten a reaction. It was probably because the vampire had predicted the poor condition of the almighty Alpha twins tonight.

They wouldn’t get a bed to sleep in. They would be blessed with only a blanket and a pillow. If Meow turned out to be the big heart kitty that she obviously was for the Alpha twins, then she would allow them to sleep in her room that night. Kane had pictured everything in his head which was what had caused him to laugh. Then he wore his cold expression again and spoke in a heavy tone.

“My lord asked me to guard the Lunas until they returned,” he explained, noticing that they rolled their eyes. The Vampire King was the one who was holding their mates’ hostage in a meeting. “But, I can lead both of you back to the Fort so that you can rest in your rooms,” he suggested.

“Thank you but the rooms in the Fort are so cold that I feel like I am sitting in the freezer, so I will let that proposal pass,” Adira declined his request politely.

“Yes, I am good with staying out here in nature even though there are not many living trees,” Kiara took a deep breath as she leaned against a tree until an unexpected movement began under their feet.

“What was that?” Kiara exclaimed in panic. Venus became active as she started to search the woods. The Fort was far away from their current location as they had ventured deep into the woods.

“An earthquake?” Adira said in alarm.

“We are under attack!” Kane’s statement surprised both of the women. He had taken up a fighting position, his long nails were out proving his intention to kill his enemies.

“What? Who would attack the vampires?” Adira questioned, noticing that Kane was mind-linking someone quickly.

“The Wizard Kings!” He replied, pulling both sisters behind him.

“Wizard Kings?” Kiara and Adira looked at each other in confusion. They had only heard that there were Wizards in this world but they had no knowledge about any Kings.

Kane's large body looked like a shield as the ground started to shake even more under their feet. Kiara and Adira looked around, finding more than a hundred vampires running towards them.

"I never thought I would bear witness to a war between wizards and vampires," Kiara muttered as she watched the wizard army and vampire army killing each other while both sisters moved closer to each other.

"But why are the wizards not using their powers and fighting like humans?" Adira asked while observing them closely. They looked like superhumans with great physical strength, but they never used their wizard powers.

"Our King has bound our land with his power for this kind of situation. Even if they are wizards they have to fight like us!" Kane's voice was full of pride.

"Why would wizards attack the vampire enclave?" Adira wondered out loud, earning Kane's surprised gaze.

"They are not here to attack us, we are just in the way.

They came here for you two,' he answered.

"What do you mean?" Kiara asked with a frown.

"Nothing," he lied, when he remembered that the King had mentioned not to tell the sisters about their meeting.

"Don't lie! Why have the wizards come for Kiara and I?"

She questioned, grabbing Kane's arm to stop him.

"I can't tell you." He tried again but this time Kiara also grabbed his arm.

"You need to tell us if you don't want your people to die.

If they are here for us, then we should know about it" Kiara pointed out, releasing his arm.

"I can't go against my King's order" he answered stubbornly. At that moment, a second blast went off. Kiara and Adira flinched when more than one vampire was injured by a powerful wizard's attack. Their numbers increased like insects, everyone's eyes were focused on the two sisters.

Their only aim was to approach Kiara and Adira.

fvck! Block the way!!!” Kane shouted to his men. He was like a Beta to Alfred and looked extremely dangerous in this state. He could not leave Adira and Kiara’s side as there was no one else to protect them.

“Let’s go back to the Fort. At least there I can leave you two with your mates,” he suggested, grabbing their arms to take them away quickly.

“No!” Adira and Kiara pushed his hands away.

“You will die!” He snapped, twisting one of the wizard’s necks who had successfully made it within attacking distance to them.

That is our own issue. First, tell us what you are hiding,” Kiara demanded.

“What the...” Kane was at the end of his patience, he killed two more wizards to release his pent-up frustration.

This was the first time he had to deal with she-wolves, he could tell that it was not easy to handle them.

“Obey me or I will have to use force!” He warned. If they so much as got a scratch on them before Alfred and the twins arrived, they were going to kill him.

“You can’t force us. We will fight you” Adira snapped as her claws came out in defense. She could not fully shift but there was no way she would let a vampire have his way right now. Kane let out a long-suffering sigh of irritation.

“I can just tell you that they are twins Wizard Kings. King Casimir and King Nolan...” he replied, noticing the change in their expressions. Suddenly, the color in their faces looked different and their eyes looked darker than before. What was going on? Out of nowhere, a storm built around them that was caused by the wizards. Kane looked up at the sky.

fvck! This is bad! They’re already here, he looked back at the sisters, who still looked different. King Casimir and King Nolan are here,” he growled. Just before he could grab the girls’ hands, the wizards increased in number. The shield that the vampires had created broke down.

“Don’t stand there. Attack!” Alfred’s voice echoed in their ears. The Vampire King arrived to protect his people. He looked in dangerous form. His royal overcoat was thrown to the wayside as he turned into the killing machine. Kane had no choice but to jump into the fight in order to protect the females behind him that looked like statues. Kiara and Adira were being attacked by more than four wizards who had smartly separated them.

Both of the sisters had felt their minds go blank and could not react to anything right away. They watched as their mates ran to them at lightning speed.

Adira was dragged away by a wizard but the Alpha kicked his head, knocking him down before he could take another step with her. The wizard died as his head slammed into a nearby rock.

“Adira,” Zander’s big hand pulled her out of the daze that she had been in for a couple of seconds.

“Why didn’t you answer my mind-links?’ He asked, cupping her cheeks. Adira finally blinked but her whole face was sweaty and her eyes large.

The men had finished their meeting and exited the Fort to take their mates back to the Sirius Bright Pack when they received news of the Wizard Kings’ attack. The Vampire King was furious to discover that his land was being attacked by wizards. But Zander and Xavier’s minds had been completely blown away when it had turned out to be true.

The Wizard Kings were after their mates. They had not waited even a second and attacked the vampire enclave to get the girls. The Alpha twins completed a distance that would normally take ten minutes to cross in two minutes to reach their women.

But right now, Adira’s current state was causing Zander to panic. He pulled her into his arms in an attempt to calm her.

She had been shivering and it seemed like she could not hear him.

“Kiara!!” Xavier yelled, attracting her attention. He was shirtless, his body was covered in blood. His green eyes had a hint of redness while his claws were dripping blood. The two wizards immediately let go of Kiara’s arms in fear when they saw a partially shifted Alpha that looked like the living embodiment of the Grim Reaper. They were not even given a chance to use their magic to attack the Alpha because Xavier’s speed was beyond their imagination. Xavier ripped one of their necks wide open, pushing him into the lap of death, the second wizard followed close behind him with a similar fate.

“Kiara,” Xavier growled, pulling his woman into his embrace. As soon as her chest slammed into his hard bare chest, she finally released the breath she had been holding.

“Are you okay?” He kissed her forehead then looked down to her face.

“What happened to you?” He asked, feeling the coldness of her body. It felt like she had been thrown into an ice river.

Her eyes were huge, as if she had seen a ghost. Was she in shock from the suddenness of the attack? Zander and Xavier exchanged glances, realizing that both the women were in the same condition.

“Adira, speak to me’ Zander cupped her cheeks, shaking her lightly. “What’s wrong? Tell me Baby!” He gazed deeper into her blue eyes but they remained like they were before.

Alpha King Renard and Elder Stephen had shielded their grandsons, not allowing any of the wizards to approach the couples.

“What happened to Luna Kiara and Luna Adira?”

Stephen asked, grabbing the hair of one of the wizards and ripping it out of his head before snapping his neck.

“I told them the Wizard Kings’ names and since then they have been like that,” Kane shot an apologetic look to Alfred and the others.

“Fvck! I think they..” Alfred could not complete his sentence before two deadly handsome men with evil auras stepped into the fight.

“Why don’t you give us our wives back?” Casimir said lazily to Xavier before his eyes shone while looking at the woman in his arms. “Long time no see. I hope you did not forget your husband, Baby.” His evil grin reached his eyes. Finally, he had found her.

“We meet again my love” Adira pulled away from Zander when she heard the voice of her kidnapper after so many years. Nolan took a deep breath when he saw her blue eyes that had been haunting his dreams for the last five millennia.

“Come here” Nolan smiled sweetly, which would have caused goosebumps to form on the skin of any other woman.

Alpha’s Surrogate Chapter 80

Xavier clenched his fist so that he could control Dean when King Casimir called Kiara, his wife and Baby. The king’s eyes were full of lust and his dirty desire for the female that he had been waiting for five hundred years for.

The story that the Vampire King had told about Casimir and Kiara back in the meeting room was true. His obsessive inclination to obtain her was proven by this sudden attack.

They did not have the patience to attack them while they were in the Sirius Bright Pack, so they attacked the female here at the enclave. Xavier felt like his heart was set on fire when he remembered how Kiara had been treated by the Wizard King in the past.

Casimir had been into a sadistic form of bm and had tortured Kiara when she had not accepted him. Normally, he would kill a female during this process but he wanted to keep her alive.

Then he had gotten her pregnant in less than a month with his continuous animalistic s*l abuse. He had turned her into his personal fuck toy that he used daily until she had a miscarriage but that hadn't slowed him down. He had gotten her pregnant again in a few weeks.

Xavier had spent his life without regret though he had a deep wound in his heart as he blamed himself for not being next to her when she suffered through all that pain and abuse.

He had not been with her when she needed him the most. He had not been there to save her even though she was the Wizard Princess and a powerful woman in her own right.

When Dean growled threateningly and tried to take over him, Xavier growled back at him. It was not time to shift. Even though the wizards could not use their magic, they were still suspicious of what was going on.

After all, why would they attack them here? He smelled a dirty rotten trap. Xavier decided to hold himself back for a few more minutes because right now he could not make any connection with Venus.

Kiara had been acting weird, which was far more concerning to him, She was not reacting to him at all.

That was when he noticed Casimir licking his lips and gesturing dirtily to his mate. Kiara remained still like before but Xavier lost his patience and was ready to pull his tongue out, wrap it around his neck until it ripped from his throat.

They did not plan to stop until Dean tore him in two, then threw the pieces in different directions.

"Kiara," Xavier panicked when Kiara let go of his hand out of blue and took a step towards Casimir. Dean's mind went blank and Xavier froze in place like he had been struck by lightning. His eyes looked at his empty hand as he watched her walk towards the wizard who had been impatiently waiting to devour Kiara. The Alpha felt like he had lost his mate, she had chosen Casimir over him. She had abandoned him.

"Adira," Zander held Adira's hand quickly, and was doing the same thing as Kiara, but Adira pulled her hand out of Zander's grip while looking at Nolan. Evan growled in his mind. She was walking back to her rapist. Did she not recognize him?! Did she not know he was their enemy and would separate her from her mate?

“Come here,” the wizard twins extended their hands to the Alpha sisters with wicked smiles that caused the Alpha twins to panic. Women seemed to be obeying the wizards like puppets. What the f*ck! A loud growl echoed through the woods emanating from Xavier’s chest.

“No, don’t go to him, Kiara!” Xavier yelled, holding on to Kiara’s waist and caging her in his arms. “She is mine. You shouldn’t even dare to dream about her, you old d!ckhead!”

He glared at Casimir. His mate had nearly fallen into that demented wizard’s clutches..

“She is not coming to you, f*cker!” Zander growled at Nolan, pulling Adira into his arms. Luckily, he could make a slight connection with Isha but it was still unclear.

Both Alpha wolves possessively caged their mates in their embrace, suspecting that these wizards had been playing with their women’s minds or using hypnosis to lure them in. That was the reason why the twins could not shift and attack them. If they shifted, it would give the Wizard Kings an opportunity to play dirty.

They were wizards after all, who knows what could happen if they were given the opportunity. They could disappear with the females or something? It was a risk that Xavier and Zander were not willing to play. Kiara and Adira move towards the Wizard Kings, increasing the insecurity in the Alphas’ hearts.

But what they hated was that the vampires were being dragged in this mess. It had never been their fight but they were still helping the werewolves. Alfred was absolutely furious. Even though they were powerful and killing the wizards, he was losing his people in equal measure to his foes. It was a huge loss for him. Kane was commanding the men.

While the Vampire King was too busy observing the story that was unfolding in front of his eyes. Something was wrong with these couples. They looked different. Alpha King Renard and Elder Stephen were also standing there in silence, realizing that these wizards can’t be defeated with strength. Kaira and Xavier had come to the same understanding as well. The wizards had been waiting for them to shift, before they started their real game, where Kiara and Adira would be taken from the werewolf world for forever.

Nolan and Casimir’s blood boiled when their hands were left empty and the girls were back in their mates’ arms.

” I really hoped to take my wife away without having to fight with you dogs, you know. But you are making things difficult for me!” Casimir glared at Xavier. “I swear you will not like getting to know me.” When he learned that Kiara had mated and was marked by the Alpha Prince Xavier, at first he wanted to kill Kiara as a punishment for giving herself to him.

But then he thought better of it as he had just barely found her again after 500 years of waiting. He had no patience left to wait for her to be reborn yet again. But if her so-called mate was in his way of obtaining her then he was wholeheartedly willing to remove him from the picture. After all, the Alpha had touched, fvckindg, and impregnated his wife!

He had stolen everything that was meant to belong to only Casimir! That was when he heard Xavier's chuckle.

"Getting our mates became impossible for you two when they were born in this life just for us! They are mated with us, they are no longer your wives," Xavier sneered, causing his brother to chuckle as well.

As usual, Zander was even better when provoking someone. He looked at Nolan up to down like he did not even deserve his attention and said, "And as long as you talk about fighting? I wonder if you misunderstood and think that you are walking out of this alive? F*cker, you need to wake up from your dream!" Zander spit bitterly while glaring at him. "For what you did to Adira in her present and past life, you will be paying that debt with your life!"

"Hmmm? Strange, I don't remember anything bad that I did with my Baby wife," Nolan said innocently, while bending down a little to make Adira smile like she was a little girl. "It is just my way of loving is different from others" he winked.

Even though he was a good distance away, he could enjoy her fearful eyes from the past that had yet to reappear. Was it because it had been so long and her brain had forgotten the terror that he had set in her mind? He chuckled in pleasure.

If that was the case, then he would gladly remind her of everything and make some new memories that she would never forget even in her next reincarnation.

"Am I right, brother?" Nolan asked Casimir, who laughed in agreement. He shifted his gaze to Kiara's chocolaty eyes that looked like a doe's eyes. She had gotten the same beauty, figure, and innocent yet rebellious eyes. Where she was standing was the only thing that he hated. She should be next to him.

"Yeah, we only murdered their family, stole their kingdom, publicly beheaded their father, broke their egos, loved them in our special way, and breed our heirs on them, that's all, Casimir recounted his crimes causally like they were everyday things.

"Correct. Then we had a little fight with our stubborn wives but we did not have any idea that their pouting afterward was going to last hundreds of years" Nolan scowled at his last words as he glared at Adira. He let his mask of control slip and allowed everyone to see his years of collected anger.

“Where were you all this time, Adira? You know how much I loved you, right?” He gritted his teeth, wanting to yank the hair right out of her scalp, make her scream, and enjoy her cries. He missed the past so much that he began to take a few steps closer to her.

“I really hate that you forgot about my love for you, Kiara!” Casimir’s expression darkened. He had already gotten closer to Kiara. Renard and Stephen became alert as they had no idea what exactly their twins had planned. Or why had they still not shifted?! Had they forgotten that their enemies were wizards? The Vampire King was also perplexed.

What exactly would happen now?

Xavier and Zander watched the Wizard Kings taking measured steps towards them. It was the first indication that the real fight was about to begin. No one moved as their claws lengthened, their bodies preparing to shift before Kiara and Adira moved away from their mates.

“How could I forget you, Nolan?”
