Chapter 101: Victory and choice (1)

“The battle was heated from the beginning, and blood and flesh splattered all over the gravel of the wilderness. Humans and these foreign races were natural enemies, and the best way to communicate with each other was through blades and blood.”

“The dog-headed man opposite Tang Zhen bared his yellow fangs and let out a low growl as he pounced at him. Compared to humans, the dog-headed man’s running speed was a bit faster. In the blink of an eye, he had already pounced in front of Tang Zhen.”

A short spear stabbed towards his chest. Tang Zhen dodged to the side and immediately exerted force from his waist. A battle sword wrapped in an extremely strong force ruthlessly slashed at the dog-headed man’s body.

“The dog-headed man let out a blood-curdling screech as his body convulsed violently. A terrifying wound appeared on his upper body, from his shoulder to his waist. The colorful objects fell to the ground with a crash.”

“Avoiding the splattering blood, Tang Zhen no longer paid attention to the dog-headed man who was definitely going to die. He raised his leg and kicked away a dog-headed man who was equipped to ambush a Holy Dragon City soldier. Hearing the crisp sound from its waist, it was likely that the dog-headed man’s lumbar spine had already been shattered.”

“From the corner of his eye, Tang Zhen saw a dog-headed man thrusting his spear at him. He turned around fiercely and kicked a fist-sized stone from the ground at the same time, accurately smashing it into the dog-headed man’s throat.”

“The stone broke the dog-headed man’s throat. It was in pain and was about to reach out to cover its neck, but Tang Zhen’s knife cut its head in half.”

“Tang Zhen attacked left and right within the dog-headed people. In an extremely short period of time, six dog-headed people were killed by him!”

The other parts of the battlefield were also locked in battle.

A few crossbow arrows streaked across the air and pierced deeply into the Kobold’s forehead. The sharp arrowhead ground the Kobold’s brain into pieces.

“Jimmy, who was half-kneeling on the ground, quickly put away the crossbow that he treasured. He didn’t even look at the dog-headed man that he had shot in the throat. He unsheathed his sword and beheaded the dog-headed man that was pouncing at him. The Ugly Dog head flew into the sky and fell to the ground with blood splashing everywhere.”

“kill! Tyson roared as he swung a new long-hilt mo sword, cutting all the kobolds in half. He had given his Cold Steel Katana to Lisa, and this one was just right for him.”

“Thousand Dragon brandished his two long and thin sabers, and he was as nimble as a butterfly. Every move he made was aimed at the Kobold’s vital points, and he was extremely agile. Most of the Kobold’s attacks were easily dodged by him.”

“Old Mike was indeed an old fox, and his fighting style was also cunning and insidious. At this time, he had already killed two houndhead men, and both of them had their balls kicked open by him during the battle.”

“The bone cat’s heart was filled with anger. He waved his sword madly and cut down a dog-headed man who had sneaked an attack on him. He would then curse, “” “”F * ck you, old ninth su!”” ”

“Su laojiu looked at the ferocious-looking Bone Cat and then glanced at the dog-headed man who had been chopped into pieces. His strong body shivered and he quickly stayed away from this guy, afraid that he would go crazy and cut people.”

“All of the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers were fighting bravely against the enemy. The defensive measures that Tang Zhen had spent a lot of money to build for them had played their role. When they faced the Kobold’s superficial attacks, they returned the favor with a fatal blow.”

“Tang Zhen had experienced battle time and time again. He had actually developed a trace of infatuation for this kind of life and death battle. He wildly waved the weapon in his hand. Although his attacks were completely irregular and were completely random, the killing intent that burst forth from his body caused one to be terrified.”

“He didn’t need to consider any techniques when fighting the low-level kobolds with his Level 3 strength. It was a head-on fight. With the heavy weapon and his abnormal strength, he had killed at least 20 kobolds in just a few minutes.”

“Killing, screaming, blood splattering, and corpses strewn all over the field.”

“The number of dog-headed people decreased as they were killed. In the end, a few Warriors surrounded a dog-headed person and cut it into eight pieces while it barked miserably.”

“Tang Zhen raised his blood-stained saber and swept it across the battlefield. However, he discovered that Qian Long was currently fighting with a kobold leader. From the looks of this kobold leader’s cultivation, it was most likely around Rank 2. No wonder Qian Long wasn’t able to kill it so quickly.”

“He took out his gun and fired a shot at the back of the kobold leader’s waist. The kobold leader stumbled, and Qian Long took the opportunity to kick it to the ground. He then pulled out his military knife, intending to cut its throat.”

“””Don’t kill him yet. Keep him for interrogation. This guy is the leader of the houndhead men, so he should know a lot of things.”” ”

“Thousand Dragon nodded and quickly took out a rope made of monster tendons from his waist, tying the kobold leader up tightly.”

“As Tai Seng laughed maniacally and swung his blade, beheading a dog-headed man, the battle had already come to an end. The ground was littered with the remains of the dog-headed men, and those who had not died were all covered in wounds and groaning non-stop while spitting out blood.”

“Tang Zhen glanced at Tyson, who gave him an understanding look and casually slashed at the neck of a dog-headed man with an abdomen injury. Jimmy and the other soldiers also raised their blood-dripping swords and slashed at the dog-headed men that were still alive.”

“Tang Zhen saw a dying dog-headed man struggling in pain. When it saw that he was staring at it, the dog-headed man immediately glared at Tang Zhen with a fierce gaze. It revealed its canine teeth and squinted its eyes, looking very ferocious.”

Tang Zhen sneered when he saw this. He pointed at the dog-headed man. The Wanderer who was in charge of leading the way immediately rushed forward and used The Golden Hammer he had just picked up from the dog-headed man to finish him off.

“Above them came the unpleasant cries of a flock of carrion birds. They kept circling around. Wherever these birds appeared in groups in the wilderness, it meant that there were piles of corpses on the ground.”

“He turned around and looked at the humans who were tied up by the kobolds. He realized that they didn’t seem to be happy about being rescued. Instead, they looked worried.”

“The monsters raised by the tribe had been killed by the houndhead men, and they had lost what they relied on to survive. Encountering such misfortune in the wilderness also meant that their path of survival had been cut off.”

“What should they do from now on? all the rescued Nomad tribesmen were at a loss. After seeing this scene, Tang Zhen had a slight realization in his heart. They were worried about their future, right?”

“The Holy Dragon city’s Warriors brandished their swords and gathered all the rescued nomad tribe Wanderers together, surrounding them. Seeing the fully armed Holy Dragon city’s Warriors with expressionless faces, the Nomad tribe Wanderers felt extremely uneasy.”

“Tang Zhen’s voice suddenly turned cold as his eyes swept across the tired and uneasy crowd. He spoke in a low voice that was not very loud but could be heard by everyone, “I’ll give you two choices. One, I’ll let you go, but I won’t care about your life or death. I won’t give you any protection.”

“The second is that if you follow me, you won’t have to worry about food and clothing. You’ll be protected by powerful martial forces, and all you have to do is contribute your strength and work hard for the construction of the city. If you perform well, you may even get the status of a resident of Lou city.””

“Tang Zhen, who was standing on a high spot, extended his hand and pointed at everyone. His tone was incomparably resolute, “Now, tell me your choice.””

“The people who were originally at a loss were stunned. However, their eyes gradually lit up. Soon, someone shouted to follow Tang Zhen. This shout was echoed by all the Wanderers.”

“In this world where human lives were as precious as grass, it was God’s blessing to have such a chance to make a choice. People would instinctively choose the side that was beneficial to them, and there was no need for them to worry about making this choice.”

Tang Zhen was secretly happy in his heart. There were nearly two hundred young and strong men and women who had become his subordinates. This meant that the Holy Dragon City was not far from becoming powerful.

Chapter 102: One needs to be ruthless if they want to dominate the world?

“Old Mike commanded the soldiers to clean up the battlefield, while the injured rested and treated their wounds. It was already a great victory for them to not lose a single soldier in this battle.”

“The morale of the victorious soldiers was high, and even the injured ones were full of smiles. They joked and laughed at each other.”

“Tang Zhen, accompanied by Qian Long and Tai Seng, walked to the front of the tied up dog-headed man and sized him up with a cold gaze. Due to being shot by Zhen Tang, the kobold leader had lost quite a bit of blood. However, this fellow’s vitality was very tenacious. Even at this moment, it was still constantly twisting its body, as if it was planning to escape.”

“Qian Long gave the dog-headed man a vicious kick, but his leg was almost bitten by the dog-headed man. The dog-headed man’s ferocity was evident. Tang Zhen naturally did not show any mercy when he saw that the dog-headed man was still not being obedient even at this moment. After Qian Long ruthlessly kicked him a few times, this fellow finally became obedient. However, his eyes were still filled with ferocity. At the same time, he used a strange tone to Mutter a few words.”

“Qian Long and Tai Seng were completely confused and couldn’t understand what the dog-headed man was saying. However, Tang Zhen, who had activated the [universal language translator], understood what the dog-headed man was saying.”

“Tang Zhen explained as he looked at the two people who had blank expressions, it’s scolding us, saying that we’ll be killed by their chief sooner or later, and then hung up to be dried meat!”

“Qian Long was enraged upon hearing this, and he kicked the dog-headed man again. However, the dog-headed man only laughed in disdain, as if he was mocking an animal.”

“Tang Zhen looked at the ferocious-looking dog-headed man and sneered in disdain. Then, under the astonished gazes of Tai Seng and his partner, he used the same language as the dog-headed man leader and said, you’re still so stubborn even when you’re about to die. Do you believe that I’ll ask someone to tie you up and let you watch your own flesh being cut into thin skin by a small knife? “” ”

“The dog-headed man leader, who originally had a ferocious expression, was immediately stunned when he heard this. He stared at Tang Zhen and was silent for a while before he asked, “” Human, you can actually speak our language? “” ”

“““It’s just some simple groans and barks, what’s so hard about it? Tell me about your tribe’s situation, or I’ll really cut you into a thousand pieces. Believe me, that feeling won’t be good!”” ”

Tang Zhen sarcastically replied when he heard this. He revealed a disdainful expression towards the foreign race’s simple and poor vocabulary.

The dog-headed man slightly narrowed his eyes when he heard this. He did not say anything. He only stubbornly straightened his body and looked at Tang Zhen without shifting his eyes.

“““Are you going to tell me or not? if you don’t tell me, I’m really going to make a move?”” ”

Tang Zhen asked. Killing intent was revealed in his eyes.

“human, don’t even think about it. Even if you kill me, I won’t reveal any information about our tribe. Just give up! ”

The kobold leader looked at Tang Zhen and sneered. There was a trace of contempt in his eyes. Could it be that this human who knew the Kobold language didn’t know that the kobolds would rather die than betray their master?

“Tang Zhen looked at the kobold leader’s eyes and seemed to have understood something. He helplessly said to Tyson,”“Let’s kill it, but don’t let it die too easily. Then we’ll return to the valley.”” ”

“After Tang Zhen finished speaking, he no longer looked at the kobold leader. Instead, he looked at the distant sky in a daze. ”

“A writhing sound came from behind him, followed by a painful groan. ”

“Qian Long walked over from the back. He wiped his blood-stained military knife and asked Tang Zhen, city Lord, the Kobold tribe should be nearby. Do you want me to go and investigate? ”” ”

“““I’ll handle this matter myself. You and Tai Seng have more important things to do.”” Tang Zhen thought for a while and said. Now that the undead race was wreaking havoc in this area, Holy Dragon City was able to get a temporary respite because of its hidden location and the gravel wasteland as a barrier. ”

“““However, this situation can’t last long. I estimate that very soon, there will be scattered undead. Holy Dragon City will definitely enter the undead’s sights. According to their style of destroying all living things, they will definitely not let Holy Dragon City go. Thus, a great battle is inevitable. ”

“Other than the corpse race, Black Rock City will also be our future enemy. If there’s a chance, I will destroy that place without hesitation, even if it means sacrificing the innocent citizens of Black Rock City. Otherwise, once Black Rock City has escaped from the corpse race’s crisis, they will definitely use all their strength to destroy Holy Dragon City, because they will not allow any other city to exist on this land. It will make them unable to sleep and eat in peace. ”

“I’ve been trying my best to avoid killing the human race because compared to the powerful foreign tribes, the human race is too miserable and pitiful. You can think that I’m too merciful, but in fact, I also think that I’m a soft-hearted person, especially when it comes to dealing with the human race. ”

“But now, as the city Lord of Holy Dragon City, I shoulder the lives of the city’s residents and their hopes for the future. So, I must be ruthless and unscrupulous in dealing with my enemies. Only in this way can Holy Dragon City stand tall!” ”

“After Tang Zhen finished speaking, he turned to look at Qian Long and then at Tai Seng, who had just walked over, and said in a low voice, “ “It’s time to use the firearms that I brought last time for training. With these weapons, I believe that Black Rock City will no longer have the power to fight us. We can even destroy it at any time. However, the main enemies in front of us are the undead race and the houndhead men. ”

“I have a premonition that although these firearms can make us invincible in this area, this world is too vast, and powerful opponents are everywhere. It’s very likely that at some point, these firearms won’t be able to harm the enemy, and the powerful cultivator battle teams will be the Masters of the battlefield. So, I want you to work hard to lead the qualified residents to cultivate. As for the cultivation resources, we can buy, Rob, or even steal them!” ”

“Tang Zhen sighed when he said this. He looked in the direction of Black Rock City and slowly said,” “In this aspect, the Black Rock City, an old city with thousands of years of history, has done a very good job. They do their best to cultivate talented children, allowing them to start cultivating from a young age, and also giving them generous rewards. We only saw how powerful the cultivators of Black Rock City were, but we did not see the price that Black Rock City had to pay!” ”

“Tang Zhen’s words made Qian Long and Tai Seng speechless. They could feel the existence of danger from Tang Zhen’s words. As a part of the Holy Dragon City, they were also secretly worried. ”

“so, if we want to protect and strengthen Holy Dragon City, we need all of our hard work. Can I rely on you? ” ”

Tang Zhen looked at his two capable subordinates and asked in a very solemn tone.

“Qian Long and Tai Seng exchanged a look and said in unison, “ “I won’t let down the city Lord!” ” ”

“Tang Zhen looked at the two of them and smiled. After which, he did not say anything else. Instead, he continued to stare at the sky in a daze. This was the first time he had carefully observed the sky of the tower world. He discovered that it was extremely high and extremely far away! ”

“Thanks to the barren gravel plain’s protection, there were very few monsters in the nearby area, so the team returned safely. ”

“As the Holy Dragon City was a level 1 city, the number of residents was limited to five hundred. These two hundred Wanderers who had just entered the valley could not enjoy the benefits of being a resident yet. Only by performing well would they be given the status of a resident when the city was upgraded to Level 2. ”

“They temporarily settled the Wanderers in the market that was being built in the valley and arranged for people to deliver food and water to them. They would rest there at night because there were no monsters in the valley except for the lake, so it was not dangerous to spend the night there. ”

“By the next morning, they would join the team building the valley and contribute to the Holy Dragon City.”

“After Tang Zhen returned to Lou Cheng, he went with Qian Long and Tai Seng to the place where the military fire was stored. He then picked out the different types of weapons and taught the two how to use them.”

Lou Cheng would pick out residents who had no talent for cultivation and train them on how to use these weapons. He would also form a team with guns as the main combat weapon and cold weapons as the auxiliary.

“As for the residents who were talented in cultivation, in addition to mastering the use of firearms and weapons, most of their energy was still focused on cultivation and improving their strength. Their main weapons were still swords, and firearms were only auxiliary.”

“After the residents in charge of the combat guards had mastered the simple operation of firearms and Tang Zhen had explored the location of the Kobold tribe, the Holy Dragon City would carry out an extermination operation on the Kobold tribe and completely wipe them out from this area!”

Chapter 103: Kobold Sentinels _1

“After Tang Zhen handed over the Holy Dragon city’s matters to everyone, he made some preparations and left the tower alone, heading to the place where he had killed the dog-headed man.”

“Although he could roughly confirm that the dog-headed people were nearby, the endless wilderness was simply too vast. There were countless strange and hidden places. It was not an easy task to find the dog-headed people’s camp.”

“Tang Zhen had a mysterious ability. Even if he encountered danger, he could easily escape. Therefore, he was the best person to Scout out the enemy’s situation. Moreover, ever since he came to the tower world, Tang Zhen’s range of activity was limited to the vicinity of Black Rock City. This time, he was also taking the opportunity to go out and take a look.”

“The greatest characteristic of the wilderness was its desolation. There was only one person walking alone in this vast world. This kind of lonely feeling almost caused one to collapse. Fortunately, there were many things in the wilderness that were extremely novel to Tang Zhen. It was able to offset the depression in his heart.”

“Due to him being alone, Tang Zhen’s speed was extremely fast. It did not take long for him to arrive at the location of the previous battle.”

“The blood that splattered on the gravel had long dried up, and the Kobold’s corpses had turned into piles of white bones, scattered everywhere. This was the credit of some scavenger monsters in the wilderness. They would not let go of anything on the corpses except for the White bones.”

“Tang Zhen stepped on the dog-headed man’s bone. After a crisp “”crack”” sound, it broke into two. Tang Zhen picked up the broken bone and took a look before casually throwing it to the side.”

“Tang Zhen pondered for a moment after sweeping his gaze around the surroundings. Then, he headed toward a hilly area in the distance.”

“The dog-headed people liked to live in caves. Most of their residences were located on slightly higher ground. They would then dig a cave and live in it. According to the Wanderers of the nomadic tribes, these dog-headed people were particularly fertile and had a particularly tenacious vitality. Often, it only took a few years for a small dog-headed tribe to rapidly expand into a large tribe.”

It was for this reason that the descendants of the dog-headed people would leave the tribe after they grew up. They would take the resources given by the family and then find a suitable land in the wilderness to live and reproduce.

“Tang Zhen suddenly thought of the founder of Black Rock City. After he became an adult, he led his subordinates to explore the wilderness before establishing Black Rock City. However, the difference between the two was that the founder of Black Rock City came out voluntarily to explore, while the descendants of the dog-headed people who were influential and powerful had to go out to explore.”

“It was precisely because of this habit that led to a large number of kobolds in the wilderness. Even though they had encountered countless crises of extinction, they could still rise again in a very short time. Although they were not the most powerful alien race in the world of loucheng, they were one of the most tenacious alien races.”

Tang Zhen was thinking about something as he walked. He was getting closer and closer to the hilly area.

“””Whoosh!”” ”

“A gust of wind blew over. Tang Zhen, who was thinking about something, suddenly recovered his senses and easily avoided the short spear that was attacking him.”

“A dog-like barking sound was emitted from a cluster of wild grass. Immediately after, two dog-headed people scuttled out from within. They bared their teeth and pounced towards Tang Zhen. Their eyes were as if they had seen a pile of delicious meat.”

“Tang Zhen coldly snorted. He closed the distance between him and the dog-headed people in a few steps. At the same time, he sent a flying kick, sweeping a dog-headed person four to five meters away. This kick landed on the dog-headed person’s waist, directly breaking its lumbar spine.”

The dog-headed man that had landed on the ground was half paralyzed. It scratched around with its hands and screamed in pain. Its voice was sharp and piercing.

“The other dog-headed man did not care about his injured companion. Instead, he raised his short spear and stabbed towards Tang Zhen’s lower abdomen. The sharp tip of the spear was only a few centimeters away from his body. At the same time, the dog-headed man’s ugly face revealed a sinister smile.”

“However, the expected scene of the short spear piercing into the human body did not happen. The black cloak actually blocked the short spear that had pierced through countless human bodies, and it could not move an inch.”

“The dog-headed man was stunned for a moment. Then, he picked up the short spear and stabbed it straight at Tang Zhen’s lower jaw.”

“Tang Zhen extended his hand and gently blocked the short spear that was coming at him. At the same time, he broke it into two pieces and ruthlessly inserted it into the dog-headed man’s head from top to bottom under the dog-headed man’s frightened eyes.”

Tang Zhen’s gaze shifted to the hilly area as he watched the Kobold softly fall. The Kobold tribe should be nearby since there were Sentinels lying in ambush here.

Tang Zhen slowly walked to the front of the dog-headed man whose lumbar spine had been broken. He used an ice-cold gaze to look at it as he listened to the filthy words that were continuously spewing out of its mouth.

“you damned human, I’m going to dig your heart out and eat it with the bitter grass powder. Then I’ll make your meat into jerky.”

Tang Zhen’s brows slightly furrowed when he heard the dog-headed man’s vicious curse.

“””Have you eaten a lot of people?”” ”

“The Kobold language that suddenly came out of Tang Zhen’s mouth stunned the Kobold for a moment. Then, it lay on the ground and laughed wildly. It laughed very happily.”

“””Of course, I’ve eaten a lot of human beings. Many times, we have to rely on human beings to survive the famine. You don’t know that I can eat in many ways, especially human cultivators like you. No matter if it’s bones or meat, they are all very chewy.”” ”

“Tang Zhen silently listened to the dog-headed man’s bragging. After a while, he stood up and turned around to kick the dog-headed man’s corpse that he had stabbed to death with his short spear.”

Tang Zhen squatted down and looked at the dog-headed man who was still talking nonsense. He took out his purple lightning short sword and cut off a piece of meat from the dog-headed man’s corpse. He picked it up from the purple lightning short sword and placed it in front of the dog-headed man.

“””You’ve eaten so many humans. Do you want to taste your own kind?”” ”

“The crazy-looking Kobold Sentry was stunned when he heard this. Immediately after, a hint of madness flashed in his eyes. He desperately stretched his head forward and tried to bite Tang Zhen’s calf.”

“Tang Zhen took a small step back to avoid the dog-headed man’s stinky mouth. After which, he chuckled as he grabbed the dog-headed man’s head and forcefully stuffed the piece of meat into his mouth. The dog-headed man struggled with all his might and emitted a “””Wu Wu”” sound. He refused to open his mouth no matter what.”

“””You were so happy just now, but when it was your turn to eat your companion, you refused. Unfortunately, it’s not your turn to make the decision now, you have to eat even if you don’t want to!”” ”

Tang Zhen coldly snorted. He used his sword to cut open the dog-headed man’s cheeks before stuffing an entire piece of meat inside.

“The piece of meat was about the size of two and a half fists. The dog-headed man did not want to eat it, but he could not spit it out. It was very uncomfortable to choke on it. He shook his head with blood in his mouth, and his eyes turned from madness to fear. ”

“eat, why aren’t you eating? why don’t you f*cking eat! ”

Tang Zhen growled and cut another two pieces and stuffed them into the dog’s mouth. He watched as the dog’s eyes rolled back and it was about to suffocate. Only then did he slowly calm the anger in his heart and took a small skull from the dog-headed man’s waist.

“Tang Zhen was certain that this was a child’s skull. Now, it was hung on the dog-headed man’s waist as an ornament. The fate of that child could be imagined. ”

“Tang Zhen stared at the skull’s Black eye sockets for a few times before he squatted down and buried it deep into the ground. After Tang Zhen got up, he no longer paid attention to the dying dog-headed man and activated the quantum stealth light curtain to continue moving forward. ”

“When he passed by the grass where the two dog-headed Sentinels were hiding, Tang Zhen saw a slanted cave on the ground. It must be the resting place of the dog-headed Sentinels. However, the scattered skulls around the cave made Tang Zhen feel that it was rather glaring. ”

“The weeds in the hilly area were slightly denser, but that was only relative to the gravel plain. As he got closer to the hills, there were more and more traces of dog-head man activity, but more of them were scattered bones. ”

“Tang Zhen’s eyes were filled with Fury when he saw this scene. However, as he gradually entered deeper into the hilly area, the fury in his eyes gradually dissipated. Replacing it was an irrefutable killing intent. ”

Chapter 104: _1: smashing the field and snatching the brain

Tang Zhen was currently standing on a high ground. The view here was very good. He was able to easily see the surrounding scenery from a high ground.

“Hundreds of kobolds were busy on a piece of flat land not far away. They seemed to be preparing for something. From time to time, the leader of the kobolds would bark and shout, making it very lively. ”

“Not far away, there was a huge pot with food being cooked inside. A human was stripped naked and lying on the ground. It was unknown whether he was Dead or Alive. Tang Zhen looked at the scattered bones around him and the oil that was constantly churning in the pot. The corner of his mouth twitched slightly. ”

“Tang Zhen slowly scanned the entire place. He discovered that there were many adjacent caves on the mound not far away. From time to time, there would be dog-headed people entering and exiting from them, carrying something. ”

“One of the caves was guarded by two particularly strong houndhead men with machetes on their waists and short Spears in their hands. They did not allow any houndhead men to approach, or they would punch and kick. ”

“Tang Zhen stared at the entrance of the cave for a while and determined that this was the treasure room of the dog-headed people. There were definitely precious resources brought by this tribe inside, and they could even be the building foundation and brain. ”

“The foundation that the kobolds used to build their city was different from that of humans. They did not come from the wild buildings, but were split from the foundation of the Kobold main city, which was called the sacred city. After these split foundations were upgraded through continuous sacrifices, they would split again and give them to the descendants of the Kobold nobles who had left the clan. ”

“The reason why the dog-headed people did this was that only this kind of building cornerstone that was split from the holy city’s cornerstone had the most suitable attribute for the dog-headed people, which was the enhancement of their reproductive ability. Only by giving birth and raising more would they be able to ensure that the dog-headed people would not be destroyed. ”

“Tang Zhen wasn’t interested in this kind of damnable foundation stone attribute. What he cared about was the brain pearls that were used as a sacrifice during the construction of the tower. This was because once the tower was built, the first sacrifice would require ten thousand brain pearls. Since he had encountered it, there was no reason for him not to take it. ”

“Moreover, Tang Zhen could also see that these dog-headed people were preparing for the construction of the tower. Looking at the progress, it was likely that they would be able to perform the sacrificial ceremony today. ”

“Tang Zhen secretly thought that it was such a coincidence. If these dog-headed people had successfully built their towers and the dog-headed people were to defend the city, the difficulty of the attack would increase greatly. It might even increase unnecessary casualties. This was definitely not a scene that Tang Zhen wanted to see. ”

“Right now, what he had to do was to wait and see. He would wait until the most critical moment to make a move. Thinking of this, Tang Zhen sat down on the ground and watched the group of dog-headed people busy with their work without saying a word. He sat there for several hours. ”

“When Tang Zhen saw a group of dog-headed people carrying a black stone platform and placing it in front of the hill while shouting, he knew that the time he had been waiting for had arrived. He hurriedly stood up and began to move his somewhat numb limbs. ”

“After taking out the purple lightning short sword, Tang Zhen began to slowly move downward. When he had reached the area that the map could cover, he stopped. ”

“He didn’t dare to get too close, because the quantum stealth light curtain couldn’t block sound and smell. If he got too close, he might be detected by these sensitive dog-headed people and discover his existence. ”

“At this moment, the dog-headed people began to gather together. There were at least a thousand of them, and more than half of them were short spear-wielding dog-headed Warriors. ”

“It didn’t take long for a tall Kobold, who was dressed much more exquisitely than the other kobolds, to slowly walk out of the cave. He came to the black stone platform under the worship of many kobolds.”

“Looking at the dog-headed man’s appearance, he should be the clan leader of this group of dog-headed people.”

“At this moment, the Kobold chieftain, who was standing in front of the stone platform, had a smug expression on his face. He was raising his hands up high and mumbling something. Tang Zhen could clearly hear through the translator that the prayer ceremony needed to be carried out before the construction of the tower was completed. Next, he would have to sacrifice his brain.”

“Sure enough, it didn’t take long for the Kobold chieftain to take out a foundation stone from his bosom and place it on the stone platform. He used a sharp knife to cut his finger and dripped his blood on it.”

“At the same time, ten dog-headed people walked out of the heavily guarded cave. Each of them carried a heavy leather bag and walked towards the black stone platform.”

“””Now, move!”” ”

“Tang Zhen immediately approached the kobolds. When he was only a dozen meters away from them, Tang Zhen took out two grenades from his storage space. He aimed one at the Kobold patriarch and the other at the kneeling Kobold. He threw them at the same time.”

“The grenade that appeared out of thin air smashed onto the ground, causing the kobolds to panic. The many guards around the Kobold patriarch reacted extremely quickly and immediately protected the patriarch. At the same time, they twitched their noses desperately and locked onto Tang Zhen’s position in an instant.”

“However, before they could do anything, the two grenades immediately exploded. The deafening sound was deafening, and the gathered kobolds let out miserable howls one after another.”

“The two grenades thrown by Tang Zhen had killed at least a dozen kobolds. Even one of the Kobold patriarch’s guards had been killed, and countless kobolds had been injured.”

“Seeing that the dog-headed people were in chaos, Tang Zhen did not hesitate at all. Like a gust of wind, he rushed in front of the ten dog-headed people who were carrying the leather bags and slashed his sword at the two arms of one of the dog-headed people who were tightly holding onto the leather bag.”

“The purple lightning short sword was too sharp. Even after Tang Zhen had cut off its arms, the dog-headed man still did not feel any pain. It only let out a painful howl when it saw that both its arms had been cut off.”

“Tang Zhen waved his hand and the leather bag, which was still tightly held by his two broken arms, was placed into his storage space.”

“When the other dog-headed people with leather bags saw this, they immediately turned around and ran into the cave with the leather bags on their backs. The rest of the dog-headed people also recovered from the chaos. They relied on their keen sense of smell and had already faintly locked onto Tang Zhen.”

One after another, they stood behind the dog-headed people with leather bags and tried to stop Tang Zhen from snatching. ”

“At this moment, the Kobold patriarch was also covering one of his bleeding eyes with his hand and roaring madly at his clansmen. Tang Zhen could clearly hear what he meant. He wanted to capture Tang Zhen at all costs. ”

“The Kobold guards beside the Kobold patriarch threw short Spears at Tang Zhen’s back. Tang Zhen, who saw this scene through the map, immediately dodged. As a result, after the short Spears passed Tang Zhen, they directly nailed several kobolds to the ground. ”

“The level of these dog-headed guards was around level two. The short Spears they threw were extremely lethal. Even though Tang Zhen had a black cloak to protect him, he still did not dare to be careless. ”

Tang Zhen couldn’t help but become anxious when he saw the dog-headed people with leather bags walking further and further away. He immediately took out his automatic rifle and fired wildly in front of him.

“The dense bullets caused the dog-headed people to fall in droves. However, following the dog-headed people’s leader’s roar, even more fearless dog-headed people immediately filled the path cleared by the bullets. They then fearlessly pounced toward Tang Zhen. ”

“Many ants could bite an elephant to death, not to mention that he was facing a group of extremely loyal, fierce, and crazy dog-headed people! ”

“When Tang Zhen saw that the situation was not good, he immediately activated his teleportation ability and escaped from the encirclement of the dog-headed people. He directly appeared in front of the dog-headed people who were carrying leather bags. ”

Shua shua shua!

“Tang Zhen swung his sword three times in a row, killing all the kobolds near him. At the same time, he kept the brains into his storage space. Now, Tang Zhen had already snatched four bags of brains, while the remaining six bags were carried by the six kobolds, each running in different directions. ”

“Tang Zhen cursed in his heart. These dog-headed people were actually so cunning. They even knew how to split up and escape. In this way, he could only chase after one of the dog-headed people while the other five would take the opportunity to escape. ”

“Although Tang Zhen was furious, he had no choice. He could only lock onto a dog-headed man and quickly chase after it. ”

“The process of the pursuit was not smooth sailing. Under the command of a few kobolds with an unusually sensitive sense of smell, short Spears were constantly shot at him. There were a few times when they almost pierced Tang Zhen’s face. It scared him so much that he doubled his speed before he could avoid those short Spears. ”

“However, this extreme speed consumed a lot of physical strength. When Tang Zhen took a great risk to kill the dog-headed man that he had locked onto, his physical strength was almost exhausted. ”

It would definitely be extremely dangerous if they continued to stay in this situation. Tang Zhen was a little reluctant as he glanced at the dog-headed people who were carrying leather bags on their backs. He then quickly retreated into the distance.

Chapter 105: pursuit and the giant tree

“Tang Zhen ran with great difficulty. He was out of breath, as if he was about to die. He remembered that the last time he ran in such a sorry state, it was because there were three corpse monster Centurions chasing behind him. They were all Level 4 monsters.”

“This time, the pursuers were the foreign kobolds. The highest level was only Level 2, but there were four to five hundred of them!”

“These dog-headed people’s eyes were all red, revealing an appearance that they wanted to bite Tang Zhen to death. They howled as they ran, and at the same time, they desperately threw the short Spears in their hands.”

“They did have a reason to hate Tang Zhen. After all, he had destroyed the extremely sacred sacrificial ceremony for the construction of the city, snatched the brains that were sacrificed during the construction of the city, and even killed many of their fellow dog-headed people.”

“No matter which point it was, it was enough for the vengeful dog-headed people to chase him to death.”

“The dog-headed people in the wilderness were very good at running. Many of the targets that they had locked onto were only captured and killed by the dog-headed people when they were exhausted from running. Now, they were using the same trick again, trying to run to Tang Zhen’s death.”

“Zhenkong Tang had the cultivation of a third level, but he was powerless in the face of hundreds of angry dog-headed people. After all, the so-called suppression of cultivation base was reflected in one-on-one combat. He could easily kill a level 2 dog-head man, but when faced with a group of Level 2 dog-head men, he could only run away.”

“Simply escaping wasn’t tang Zhen’s style. During this period of time, he used grenades and rifles to distract the enemy. He even used the black technology of the infrasonic application in his mobile phone. However, he was still unable to stop this group of dog-headed people who seemed to have contracted rabies and were willing to risk their lives.”

“And every time he turned around to attack, he would be hit by the short Spears. If he was just a little slower, he would be hit by the short Spears. Although the black cloak could block the penetration of the short Spears, it still hurt him.”

“During this period, several short Spears headed straight for Tang Zhen’s face. Tang Zhen was so frightened that he hurriedly dodged to avoid being disfigured. The dog-headed man also gradually discovered that the short Spears were unable to pierce through the black cloak. The next time they attacked, they coincidentally targeted his head at the same time. This made Tang Zhen not dare to stop and attack easily. ”

“He had thought of activating the teleportation to leave, but he seriously suspected that these lunatics would stay where they were until he appeared again. After all, he had encountered the same situation in the wild building of the undead race. ”

“That would be too passive. Tang Zhen did not wish to start chasing and fleeing again after he was teleported back. Therefore, he must think of a method. ”

“When he ran out of the dog-headed people’s lair, Tang Zhen did not observe the direction. Now, looking at the surrounding scenery, it seemed that he was getting further and further away from the Holy Dragon City. ”

“It was different from the gravel plain near the Holy Dragon City. This land seemed very fertile, but strangely, not a single blade of grass grew on it. Instead, it was full of all kinds of strange mushrooms. ”

“The tallest one among these mushrooms was actually more than ten meters tall, and its cap was as large as a roof. ”

“While Tang Zhen was running, he unintentionally kicked away a few large mushrooms that looked like vegetable buns. However, he choked on the yellow powder that had spattered out, causing him to cough continuously. His throat also felt an uncomfortable burning sensation. ”

“Tang Zhen, who had suffered a small loss, no longer dared to touch these mushrooms. Instead, he quickly took out a towel to cover his mouth and nose as he ran, trying his best to avoid these terrifying large mushrooms. ”

“The houndhead men at the back suffered a great loss. There were many of them, and from time to time, the houndhead men would kick the mushrooms that were filled with powder, causing them to burst into a series of coughs. When the coughs reached the sky above the houndhead men who were chasing after them, it was as if they had lit up a Beacon. The colorful mushroom powder that rose up was like billowing smoke. ”

Many of the dog-headed people who had the idea of tearing Tang Zhen apart alive finally began to fall behind one after another under the harassment of the mushroom powder.

“They squatted on the ground and coughed non-stop, as if they were about to cough out their lungs. The kobolds who coughed particularly violently even started to cough out blood foam. ”

“The powder landed on the sweaty houndhead men, immediately revealing its strange toxicity. Some of the houndhead men began to break out in red rashes, and the pain and itchiness were unbearable. The houndhead men scratched with their sharp claws until their skin and flesh were rolled up and they were drenched in blood, only then did they feel better. ”

The small mushroom directly reduced the number of dog-headed people chasing after Tang Zhen by a third. The effect was much stronger than the threat of death.

“After Tang Zhen inadvertently saw this scene, he immediately rejoiced in his heart. He took out a grenade from his storage space and did not need to stop and turn around to throw it. He only needed to casually throw it behind him. After which, the shock wave from the explosion would blow up a large pile of mushrooms. After which, a five-colored powder would scatter all over the sky. ”

“When the dog-headed people that were chasing after him saw this, they immediately used the most vicious words to continuously curse Tang Zhen. However, they had no choice but to stop in their tracks and think of a way to avoid this annoying mushroom powder. ”

“Tang Zhen saw that the effect of doing this was not bad, so he slightly slowed down. After catching his breath, he threw out a few more grenades in succession, exploding into a cloud of mushroom smoke. ”

“The dog-headed people were in a mess, and the scene was very chaotic. ”

“””Take off your clothes and give them to us. Then, you can go back!”” ”

“Tang Zhen quickly took a sip of water. He was rejoicing in his heart that he had finally found a way to get rid of this group of dog-headed people. However, he did not expect that a hoarse roar of a dog-headed person would suddenly come from the smoke. Not long after, nearly a hundred dog-headed people, who were wrapped up like mummies and only revealed a pair of blood-red eyes, rushed out and fiercely pounced towards Tang Zhen. ”

“This kind of powder was similarly stimulating to the eyes, causing the dog-headed people’s eyes to swell up. It was so painful that they wished they could gouge out their eyes. However, in order to make it easier to see Tang Zhen clearly, they still revealed their eyes and tried their best to widen them. ”

The hatred that was revealed in his eyes was practically tangible. This was because Tang Zhen was the first human that caused them to suffer such losses and turn into such a miserable state!

“A human who was only fit to be food had actually made them so miserable. Naturally, their killing intent was soaring! ”

“What Tang Zhen didn’t know was that the mushroom powder had severely reduced the dog-headed people’s sense of smell. They could only vaguely determine Tang Zhen’s location. If Tang Zhen ran a little further and hid, he could rely on the effect of the quantum invisibility light curtain to escape the pursuit of this group of dog-headed people. ”

“However, he had been chased by the dog-headed people all the way by their sense of smell. Even if he activated the quantum stealth light curtain, it was useless. Therefore, at this moment, when Tang Zhen saw the group of dog-headed people rushing out with red and swollen eyes, he was like a bird that was startled by the mere twang of a bow. He immediately ran away! ”

“The sound of running caused the group of dog-headed people, whose hearing was not affected, to immediately lock onto Tang Zhen’s position. All of them mustered all their strength to chase after him. At the same time, they wanted to habitually let out a roar. However, they sadly discovered that because of the poison of the mushroom powder, they were simply unable to let out a loud and clear howl. ”

“Tang Zhen, who had just managed to catch his breath, ran for a full half an hour before he once again felt the fatigue. He truly did not wish to continue running like this. He might as well teleport back to his original world. At the very most, he would just wait for his rest before running again. ”

“This thought flashed in Tang Zhen’s heart. He was just about to activate the teleportation when he suddenly discovered that there seemed to be a Lonely Mountain peak standing not far in front of him. When he took a closer look, Tang Zhen was shocked to discover that this was not a mountain peak at all. Instead, it was an incomparably huge rotten tree stump! ”

“This tree stump was at least several thousand meters tall, and this was the height after it was broken. Before it was broken, it was probably tall enough to reach the sky! ”

“Ever since Tang Zhen came to the world of loucheng, he had never seen a tree, which made him think that there were no trees in this world. Now that he finally saw a tree, he did not expect it to be so huge and only a stump was left. ”

“At the same time, Tang Zhen also faintly discovered that there seemed to be a huge tree hole under the tree stump. ”

Tang Zhen immediately dispelled the thought of teleporting. He took a deep breath and began to wildly run toward the huge tree stump that was like a mountain.

“The dog-headed people chasing behind him didn’t care where Tang Zhen was going. They only had one goal, and that was to capture Tang Zhen, peel his skin, and pull out his tendons. Then, they would make him into a pot of delicious human meat soup and drink it. Perhaps this was the only way to vent their anger and their clan leader. ”

“As they continued to run and chase, Tang Zhen and the dog-headed man pursuers finally arrived at the tree hole under the huge stump. ”

Chapter 106: The tree hole maze and the strange insects

Tang Zhen came to the stump of the mountain and looked up!

“This mountain-like stump had an extremely ancient aura. The trunk was as hard as a rock, and the peeled bark revealed mottled colors. The rest of the tree was covered in moss. ”

Tang Zhen lowered his head and looked at the huge tree hole in front of him that was over ten meters tall. It seemed to be extremely dark inside. He did not know what unknown danger was hidden inside. He turned his head and looked at the dog-headed people that were only a few dozen meters away from him. Tang Zhen no longer hesitated. He turned his head and directly entered the tree hole.

“When the dog-headed people chasing behind saw Tang Zhen enter the tree hole, they immediately left ten dog-headed people to guard the entrance. The rest of the dog-headed people also rushed into the tree hole like a swarm of bees. ”

The space inside the tree hole was extremely large. It was so large that it was inconceivable. It was different from the pitch-black darkness that Tang Zhen had imagined. The interior of the tree hole was filled with beautiful fluorescent things. It was unclear whether they were plants or animals. They slightly swayed their tentacle-like limbs and constantly scattered fluorescent dust into the dark tree hole.

Being in such a cave was like being in a fairy tale world!

Tang Zhen was not bewitched by this beautiful scene. Only the heavens knew if this powder was poisonous. It was better to be careful!

“He tied the towel tightly to his face and looked around. He found that there were countless tunnels inside the tree hole, as if they were gnawed out by giant worms. They were winding and led to unknown places.”

The dog-headed people behind him had already rushed in. Tang Zhen no longer hesitated. He randomly picked a hole and quickly entered it.

“The dog-headed people who were following closely behind did not see which passage Tang Zhen had entered. In addition, their sense of smell had lost its effect, and a strange smell filled the tree hole. The dog-headed people were at a loss for a moment. They had actually lost Tang Zhen!”

“For the dog-headed people who were good at tracking, this was a great humiliation!”

“After being defeated by Tang Zhen one after another, the leader of the dog-headed people was about to go crazy. It turned around in place for more than ten times and even stuck its nose to the ground to sniff for a long time. Finally, it roughly determined the direction in which Tang Zhen had escaped. However, what gave it a headache was that there were dozens of holes in the same direction. Only God knew which hole Tang Zhen had entered.”

“The kobold leader had no choice but to send a few kobolds to each cave. He didn’t hope to kill Tang Zhen. He only hoped that they could call out to him in time when they discovered him. This way, the kobolds nearby could rush over to help. No matter what, they had to get back the brain and Tang Zhen had to be brought back to be executed.”

“The kobold leader’s idea was good, but when the group of kobolds entered the tree hole, they realized that the inside of the tree hole was like a huge maze. Some of the passages overlapped, some were completely dead ends, and some had several forks as they walked.”

“It didn’t take long for the dog-headed people to lose their sense of direction. They began to frantically search for a path in the tunnel, but no matter how hard they tried, they couldn’t find the right direction.”

“Before the dog-headed people’s sense of smell recovered, they could only run around in this maze-like passage. Even if their sense of smell recovered, they might not be able to walk out of this maze-like passage.”

“Not long after, the hoarse screams of the kobolds could be faintly heard. It was unknown what they had encountered.”

“Tang Zhen slowly walked through the tunnel that was lit up by the fluorescent creatures. However, he did not relax his vigilance in the slightest. He had long discovered the strangeness of this tunnel. If he were to randomly scurry around, it was very likely that he would be lost in this tunnel and might not be able to exit it in his entire life.”

“Tang Zhen had the map teleportation ability and did not need to worry that he would not be able to charge out. At this moment, he felt sad for those stubborn dog-headed people chasing him. He believed that they would definitely be like headless flies, randomly running and bumping around in the tunnel, right? ”

“Tang Zhen used the [monster detector] to scan the fluorescent creatures that were growing on the tunnel. He discovered that they were not monsters. Tang Zhen heaved a sigh of relief after knowing the exact result. If these fluorescent creatures that were everywhere were also monsters, then even if he had the ability to fly in the sky and burrow into the ground, it would be difficult for him to avoid being disturbed. ”

“By relying on the heaven-defying function of the map, Tang Zhen could see all the passages within the displayed range and even the general scenery of the passages. ”

“With such an intuitive display, Tang Zhen began to distinguish the way forward from these giant worm-like holes. However, the range of his map was limited and the area of the withered tree stump was too large. He couldn’t determine which passage was the way out. ”

“Just as Tang Zhen was trying to find a clue from the chaotic passage, two dog-headed people that appeared within the range of the map attracted his attention. This was because these two dog-headed people were currently in danger. ”

“An earthworm-like red ringed worm suddenly emerged from the hole that was covered by the fluorescent creatures, and ruthlessly stabbed into the body of a dog-headed man. The dog-headed man who was attacked immediately stood still on the spot, as if a spell had been cast on him. ”

“The other dog-headed man saw that his companion had stopped and was about to ask, but he was also stabbed by a strange insect that suddenly appeared, and he froze on the spot. ”

More and more strange insects crawled out from the walls and stabbed into the dog-headed men’s bodies. It was as if the two dog-headed men were two marionettes that were controlled by the strange insects.

“The two houndhead men looked at each other and saw fear and panic in each other’s eyes. However, no matter how hard they tried, they couldn’t get out of their stiff state. ”

“Slowly, the dog-headed man felt that his body was full. Then, it felt as if something had been stuffed into his body, and the more it was stuffed, the more it felt. It even felt that its stomach was about to burst, and there seemed to be something in its throat that was about to come out. ”

“The two houndhead men couldn’t see their own bodies, but they could see their companion’s appearance. Then, they were horrified to find that their companion’s body was gradually expanding, and it seemed to be getting bigger and bigger! ”

The bellies of the two houndhead men seemed to have become as thin as cicada’s wings. One could even see the blood vessels on the skin and the intestines inside.

“Tang Zhen, who was observing the two kobolds through the map, saw the details of the entire process, causing his scalp to involuntarily turn numb. ”

“These worms seemed to have a strong numbing ability, but they could make their targets lose their ability to move immediately after being attacked. However, they were not planning to eat the kobolds, but were laying eggs inside their bodies!”

“After Tang Zhen saw the strange insect Pierce into the dog-headed man’s body, its body slowly wriggled. Round insect eggs the size of ping-pong balls were squeezed out from the body of the passage and continuously injected into the dog-headed man’s body. Every time seventeen or eighteen insect eggs were injected into the dog-headed man’s body, it would fall to the outer wall of the passage like a deflating balloon, as if it was completely dead.”

“However, there were more than 100 strange insects on the two dog-headed people’s bodies. Hence, an endless stream of insect eggs was injected into the two dog-headed people’s bodies. During this time, strange insects kept dying.”

“By the time all the strange insects had been injected with eggs, the two houndhead men had turned into two round balls. They could not move and fell to the ground, becoming the hotbeds for the hatching of strange insects!”

“A few strange insects with green skin slowly appeared. They swam near the head of the dog-headed man and inserted their tails into the dog-headed man’s throat. Then, they seemed to excrete something. However, the dog-headed man, who was originally dying, immediately became energetic after the green insect’s excrement entered his stomach.”

“The dog-headed people seemed to want to get up and run away, but their bodies, which had been deformed to an exaggerated extent, could not make any movements. They could only look at each other’s unrecognizable faces and feel the fear brought by the trembling and wriggling eggs in their bodies. They ate the excrement of the strange green insects to maintain their lives. Only when the eggs hatched and broke out of their bodies did the two dog-headed people have hope of being completely free!”

Tang Zhen took a deep breath as he looked at the two dog-headed people who wished they were dead. He took out the purple electric short sword and activated the [adjustable neurodevice type infrasonic wave generator] again. A wave of death swept out toward his path.

Chapter 107: The giant mutated tree maggot

This type of infrasonic weapon could be adjusted to a suitable frequency based on real-time monitoring data so that it could kill the target to the greatest extent.

“Tang Zhen continued to move forward along the tunnel. The originally quiet and beautiful fluorescent tunnel suddenly became restless. Countless strange red insects suddenly appeared in the tunnel. Up, down, left, and right were these strange red insects that were constantly waving their limbs. They were stimulated to the point of constantly struggling madly, as if they wanted to escape. However, due to the insect eggs in their abdomens, they were firmly stuck in the holes and could not move.”

“The strange insects that had no choice but to run became even crazier. They were like the tentacles of a group of monsters, tangling with each other with all their might. At the same time, a large amount of yellow-green liquid sprayed out from their heads, filling the tunnel with this disgusting mucus.”

The originally beautiful passage turned into a hellish scene in the blink of an eye.

“Tang Zhen used the [monster detector] and locked onto a red, strange insect that was struggling non-stop. Soon, a message popped up. ”

“[offspring of the mutated tree maggot of the mother tree (mother worm), a level one monster, a hybrid offspring of monsters. It usually feeds on fluorescent grass powder. After mating, it will sleep in the hole for up to 100 years. Its eggs will hatch in the body of the creature, and it will die immediately after laying eggs. [weakness: fear of the mother tree’s SAP, death upon contact.] ”

Tang Zhen looked at the information of the monster in front of him and roughly guessed the origin of this strange insect.

“The giant remaining stump was originally called the mother tree. Before it was broken, there were no tree maggots. However, after the mother tree died, the trunk gradually dried up and petrified, and the SAP also evaporated. The tree maggots, which were afraid of the SAP, occupied the place and continued to multiply and grow by killing creatures that entered the place. ”

“While Tang Zhen was thinking, these mutated tree maggots had already exhausted their last bit of strength. The impact of the infrasonic wave had damaged their fragile internal organs. At this moment, they were limply hanging on the tunnel, as if they would die at any moment. ”

“After making sure that there were no mutated tree maggots in front of him, Tang Zhen carefully avoided the mucus on the ground and continued to explore forward. When he passed by a large pile of mucus, his mind moved slightly. He waved his hand and took out a container from the storage space, storing the extremely paralyzing mucus. ”

“Tang Zhen walked and stopped along the way. As long as he found a hole near the fluorescent grass, he would not hesitate to use infrasonic waves to sweep it clean to ensure that he would not be sneak attacked by these mutated tree maggots. ”

“Tang Zhen walked and stopped along the way. He did not know how long he had walked for. Finally, he found a large blank area on the map. When he took a closer look, he realized that he had unknowingly walked to the top of the tree stump. ”

“Tang Zhen’s spirit was shaken. He immediately ran toward the exit. In the blink of an eye, his vision suddenly brightened. ”

“This was an extremely large field. The surroundings were filled with towering mother tree’s damaged branches, which surrounded the area like mountain peaks. Only the middle was a wide open space. However, Tang Zhen’s eyes slightly shrunk when he cast his gaze towards the center of the open space. ”

“He saw four to five tree maggots that had been enlarged countless times were dancing in the middle of the open space. Each of them was four to five meters thick and dozens of meters long. They seemed to have sensed Tang Zhen’s appearance as they waved their hands in his direction. Occasionally, sticky liquid would drip from their heads. ”

“From time to time, tree maggots would spew out mucus from their mouths. Compared to the paralyzing ability of the descendants of tree maggots, the ancestors of these maggots were more terrifying, because the mucus they spewed out was highly corrosive, and could easily burn big holes in the ground.”

“Perhaps it was because of the eggs in their abdomens, but these maggots were also unable to leave the holes of their hosts. They could only wave their limbs in vain, looking extremely ferocious and terrifying.”

“Tang Zhen’s eyes were fixed on these giant tree maggots. In a moment, the information of these giant tree maggots appeared in front of his eyes. [mother tree mutated maggot (fused as one), level five monster. Outer skin is extremely flexible. Originally a mother tree’s loose soil earthworm. After being infected by the monster, it mutated and fed on the mother tree’s trunk. Its weakness is in the center of its abdomen.]”

“It was obvious that the tunnels in the middle of the trunk were the work of these giant mutated tree maggots. For some unknown reason, their bodies had been fused together, turning them into a multi-headed monster!”

“It was just that this way, their combat strength had increased a bit, making them even more difficult to deal with.”

“Tang Zhen looked at the information of these mutated tree maggots and could not help but feel a headache. This was because these were the high-level monsters with the least threat he had seen so far. As long as one did not get close to their attack range, there would be no danger.”

“However, as long as he could kill this level five monster, he could easily advance to a level four cultivator. This kind of temptation was hard for Tang Zhen to give up.”

Tang Zhen stared at the mutated tree maggot for a while and fiercely gritted his teeth. ‘Wealth comes from danger. I’ll do it!’

“Thinking of this, Tang Zhen immediately took out his rifle and aimed at the tree maggot. He began to fire a test shot. As the crisp sound of the gunshot rang out, the bullets continuously hit the huge body of the tree maggot, but they did not cause any damage to it.”

“However, the tree maggot was extremely furious by Tang Zhen’s actions. It kept spitting corrosive liquid at him at a rapid speed. Tang Zhen quickly dodged when he saw this, so as to prevent this terrifying liquid from contaminating his body.”

“Seeing that the rifle’s attack was ineffective, Tang Zhen took out the RPG, hoping that this 40mm caliber weapon with a 300 – 400mm depth of penetration could kill the mutated tree maggot.”

“”BOOM!”” ”

The rocket shot toward the mutated tree maggot and landed on one of the parts of the maggot’s body in the blink of an eye. The violent explosion echoed throughout the whole dead tree Pile Valley.

“The hit mutated tree maggot couldn’t make a sound, but its violent writhing indicated that the rocket had hurt it. A huge wound appeared on its body, and mucus was slowly flowing out, mixed with pieces of internal organs. ”

“Tang Zhen’s eyes were fixed on the injured mutated tree maggot as he carefully observed its wound. After a while, his expression became serious because he could clearly see that the wound was healing rapidly! ”

“In fact, in just a few minutes, the wound caused by the rocket had completely healed. ”

“The mutated tree maggot, whose wound had recovered, hated Tang Zhen to the core. It frantically spat corrosive liquid at him, as if it was determined to completely corrode him into a residue. Tang Zhen had no choice but to retreat into the passage to hide. ”

What kind of monster was this? how could he kill it? Tang Zhen looked at the mutated tree maggot that was almost unkillable and felt slightly troubled in his heart.

“According to the [monster detector], the fatal spot of these mutated tree maggots was in the center of their abdomens. However, their abdomens were hidden in the holes where they were. If Tang Zhen wanted to attack, he had to find a way to get them out of the holes. ”

“However, the reason why Tang Zhen was able to attack the mutated tree maggot so easily was because it was stuck in the hole and couldn’t leave. Once the maggot regained its freedom, it would definitely chase after Tang Zhen crazily. Therefore, he must not let it leave through the hole. ”

“Tang Zhen thought hard. In the face of such a difficult mutated tree maggot, his heart beat a retreat. ”

“why don’t we leave this place for the time being and come back to deal with it after we find a way to deal with these tree maggots? yes, that’s it! ”

Zhen Tang was about to leave when the phone around his neck suddenly vibrated. He immediately stopped and turned to look at the mutated tree maggot.

“Gently stroking his violently vibrating phone, Tang Zhen looked at the mutated tree maggot that was still dancing crazily and muttered to himself, to be able to make my phone vibrate so violently, it’s obvious that there’s a great treasure on this mutated tree maggot. In that case, I’m definitely going to kill this Level 5 monster! ”

Chapter 108: outwit the mutated tree maggot

“This kind of mutated tree maggot had an extremely strong self-healing ability. It was impossible to kill it by force. At the very least, it was almost impossible with Tang Zhen’s current ability. ”

“The infrasonic weapon might be able to injure it, but it was impossible to kill it because it had an extremely strong recovery ability. ”

“The deathlight weapon could only deal a single blow, which could deal massive damage, but it was still unable to kill it. This was because it had extremely powerful recovery abilities.”

“As for guns, weapons, and flames, Tang Zhen didn’t even consider them. To this Level 5 monster, they were just like tickles.”

“If one wanted to kill such an abnormal monster, one had to injure its Foundation or find another way. Otherwise, if an accident were to occur and this monster escaped from the hole under his body, Tang Zhen did not believe that he would be able to escape in one piece from its pursuit.”

“Tang Zhen scratched his head and thought hard. His gaze inadvertently swept across a dead red strange insect on the ground. A thought flashed in his mind. A moment later, he stood up with a contemplative expression. He teleported back to his original world and headed straight for the store.”

“Half an hour later, Tang Zhen was teleported back. He got up and went straight down the tunnel.”

“Because the cleared passage was easy to recognize, Tang Zhen’s speed was very fast. It didn’t take long for five lost kobolds to appear on his map. They were running around in the passage.”

Tang Zhen’s face revealed a happy expression. He immediately identified the path that would allow him to approach the dog-headed people from the map and quickly approached it.

“The five houndhead men were looking around in panic. They had seven companions before, but after encountering the strange insect, two of them were strung up like marionettes. The five of them dodged in time and avoided the attack of the strange red insect.”

“The crazy and bold kobolds had been confused by the maze-like passage after entering it. Now that they had encountered the strange red insects, they were trembling with fear. The exhausted and hungry Kobold Warriors were starting to regret coming here.”

“However, they didn’t expect that a greater danger was yet to come.”

“Tang Zhen suddenly appeared behind these dog-headed people. Without waiting for them to react, a large number of three-inch steel nails stained with the strange red insect’s mucus was scattered over from all directions.”

“With Tang Zhen’s current cultivation, these three inch steel nails that he had just bought could be turned into killing weapons in his hands. However, his goal was not to kill these dog-headed people. Instead, he wanted to subdue and capture them.”

“Under Tang Zhen’s deliberate control of his strength, these steel nails only pierced an inch into the dog-headed people’s bodies before all the force was removed. At the same time, the red paralyzing mucus on the nails began to take effect, causing the five dog-headed people, who were covered in nails, to fall to the ground like statues.”

“Tang Zhen slowly walked over. He took a look at the dog-headed man, who was unable to even move his eyes. The dog-headed man could only shoot out flames of anger and fear from his eyes. He clicked his tongue and repeatedly praised, the paralyzing effect of the tree maggot’s mucus is surprisingly good. The dog-headed people who were still alive and kicking a moment ago have become five dead dogs. I must get more for backup later, and then paralyze all the puppies in the entire dog-headed people tribe!

“Tang Zhen deliberately used the dog-headed people’s language to speak. The five dog-headed people were so angry that their lungs were about to explode. However, they were unable to vent their anger. Only by looking at their trembling lips could they judge how much they wanted to bite Tang Zhen to death! ”

“After deliberately angering the dog-headed people, Tang Zhen tied the five of them up with a rope and placed it on his shoulder. He then quickly ran towards the empty space at the top of the tree stump. ”

“After reaching the top of the tree stump, Tang Zhen threw the five dog-headed people into the passage and poured a mouthful of the strange insect’s mucus into each of them. He then patted the dust off his body with relief and ran down again. ”

“After more than ten minutes, Tang Zhen returned once again. He carried three bloody dog-headed men that had been pierced by steel nails and threw them on the ground. He repeated the same trick and gulped down a mouthful of strange insect’s mucus one by one before leaving in a hurry. ”

“As time slowly passed, more and more kobolds were caught by Tang Zhen. When Tang Zhen returned for the last time, he dragged the kobold leader, who was covered in steel nails and had a bloody nose and a swollen face, and caught all the kobolds who were lucky enough to not die after entering the passage. ”

“The anger in Tang Zhen’s heart was finally vented out as he looked at the dog-headed people lying all over the tunnel. He was in a miserable state after being chased by this group of people earlier. Unfortunately, the tables had turned. Now that they were alone, he had completely annihilated them without any effort. ”

“f * ck, you’re crazy. You want to eat me and peel my skin. Now I want to see who’s going to be the one to peel whose skin? ” ”

Tang Zhen kicked the kobold leader beside him and asked with a teasing expression as he met its devouring gaze.

“When they met the kobold leader earlier, it actually dodged Tang Zhen’s steel nails and then scolded Tang Zhen. It then waved its short spear and wanted to die with Tang Zhen. ”

“Once the dog-headed people who didn’t care about their lives went crazy, their combat strength was indeed very terrifying. Unfortunately, their opponent was Tang Zhen. In the end, after a few rounds of fighting, the dog-headed man leader fell into Tang Zhen’s trap and was numbed to the ground by a bunch of steel nails. ”

Tang Zhen rode on the kobold leader’s body and gave it a beating before he dragged it back.

“After glancing at the dozens of dog-headed people who were at the mercy of others, Tang Zhen turned his eyes to the mutated tree maggot in the middle of the open space. He narrowed his eyes and pondered for a while, then picked up a dog-headed man in each hand and rushed towards the center of the open space. ”

“The mutated maggot sensed Zhen Tang’s arrival and immediately began to spit corrosive liquid. Zhen Tang dodged quickly while approaching the mutated maggot. When the mutated maggot’s body was at the edge of his range, he threw the two kobolds at the mutated maggot with a roar.”

“”Plop!”” ”

The two houndhead men smashed into the mutated tree maggot’s body and fell to the ground. Tang Zhen quickly retreated while observing the mutated tree maggot’s reaction.

“after feeling that it had been hit, the mutated tree maggot, which had no vision, immediately reacted. after confirming that it was two creatures with its special sensing ability, the mutated tree maggot hesitated for a moment. then, a few mutated tree maggots that were one inch thick reached out from the bottom of the giant mutated tree maggot and stabbed into the dog-headed man’s body.”

“Tang Zhen, who was observing this scene, felt joy in his heart. It seemed that his plan had already succeeded by half!”

“Through the [monster detector], Tang Zhen had already determined that these giant tree maggots that were constantly waving around were actually a whole entity. In other words, they were a monster. Then, the tiny tree maggots that were sticking out from under them should also be a part of their main body.”

“Looking at the movements of these tree maggots, it was clear that they were laying eggs in the dog-headed man’s body. According to the habits of tree maggots, once they finished laying eggs, they would immediately die!”

“Tang Zhen wanted to bet that this huge mutated maggot had the same characteristic and would die after laying its eggs. Perhaps it was because its descendants had blocked all the upstream passages, so the mutated maggot didn’t have the chance to lay eggs. Now that he had sent the dog-headed man to its door, it couldn’t wait to lay its eggs.”

“Such a huge tree maggot might have laid countless times more eggs than its offspring, but Tang Zhen had dozens of dog-headed people in his hands. He was not afraid that he would not be able to squeeze it dry!”

“The mutated tree maggot happily laid eggs in the dog-headed people’s bodies, like a pervert who had been abstinent for many years and suddenly got a beautiful woman. He vented his anger to his heart’s content, and the bodies of the two dog-headed people swelled up at a speed visible to the naked eye.”

“Tang Zhen didn’t dare to waste any more time. He immediately returned to the tunnel, picked up two more kobolds, and threw them in front of the tree maggots. It just so happened that the two kobolds from before had already expanded to their limits. The slender tree maggots immediately changed their target and stabbed their heads into the bodies of the kobolds that had just been thrown.”

“Tang Zhen kept repeating the actions of running, throwing the dog-headed man, then returning, and throwing the dog-headed man again. At the same time, he was also carefully observing the performance of the giant tree maggot. He found that when there were ten round kobolds lying on the ground, the giant mutated tree maggot was a little listless. When there were twenty, the mutated tree maggot was no longer willing to pay attention to him, and the range of its corrosive liquid was reduced by half. By the time the thirty kobolds laid eggs, the mutated tree maggot had become soft and weak, and it hung limply on the ground, taking up a large area. ”

“Tang Zhen was overjoyed when he saw this. He threw all the kobolds over in one breath. However, when he threw the last few kobolds, he tied the bodies of the kobolds with the high military explosives that Ivanov had gotten! ”

Chapter 109: Level 4 promotion and the skeleton treasure chest (1)

“When the last dog-headed man was injected with the egg, the giant mutated tree maggot was so weak that it was almost on the verge of death. It could be seen that even though it had become extremely huge after the mutation, it still couldn’t change the habits passed down in its blood. ”

“It was impossible for Tang Zhen to wait for the giant tree maggot to die naturally. If that happened, it would mean that all his efforts would be in vain. He had to take advantage of the moment when it was still breathing to kill it completely. Only then could he obtain the experience points to level up! ”

“According to the mutated tree maggot’s current state, Tang Zhen seemed to be able to move forward and kill it with his bare hands. However, out of careful consideration, Tang Zhen still chose to use explosives to open up a path. It was better to kill it directly. If it didn’t die from the explosion, he could also take the opportunity to kill it. ”

“Otherwise, if the mutated tree maggot still had the strength to make a dying blow, Tang Zhen would definitely suffer a great loss! ”

“As Tang Zhen gently pressed the button, an earth-shaking explosion suddenly sounded. The power of the high military explosives was extremely strong. A majestic wave of air spread in all directions. Smoke and dust billowed, and the Echo within the stump Valley did not stop for a long time. ”

Tang Zhen dodged the blast wave while observing the mutated tree maggot’s situation.

“The mutated tree maggot was indeed at the end of its life. It let the shock wave of the explosion tear its limbs into countless pieces, and its mucus and flesh flew all over the sky, but it did not struggle at all. ”

Tang Zhen’s heart tightened when he saw this. Could it be that the mutated tree maggot had already died before he detonated the explosives?

“Just as the doubt in his heart rose, an incomparably abundant energy filled his four limbs and hundred bones. The feeling of his cultivation increasing by one level was so obvious that it gave Tang Zhen the illusion that he could collapse a mountain with a single punch. It seemed like he had already advanced to rank 4! ”

Level four cultivation was already considered to be among the experts in the nearby area. Their strength was enough to crush 99% of the cultivators!

“Forcefully waving his fist, a happy smile appeared on the corner of Tang Zhen’s mouth. After the smoke and dust had slightly subsided, he immediately rushed straight to the center of the stump Valley. ”

“The tree stump Valley that had been swept clean by the wind had now become a mess. There were broken flesh and disgusting corrosive liquid everywhere, making the ground full of potholes. From time to time, broken dog-headed people’s corpses would appear. They looked broken beyond recognition, and their internal organs and white bug eggs were scattered on the ground. They were still slowly wriggling.”

The kobold leader had not been killed by the explosion. It was struggling with half of its body. The intestines that had been dragged far away had insect eggs attached to them. They also scattered with the blood.

“After seeing Tang Zhen, the kobold leader’s eyes seemed to be dazed for a moment. Then, he bared his sharp teeth and fiercely looked at Tang Zhen.”

“”Bang!”” ”

Tang Zhen slowly retracted his rifle. He looked at the kobold leader whose head had been blown off and shook his head without any expression.

“The place where the giant mutated tree maggot had been had become a big pit. The limbs of the mutated tree maggot on the ground had all been torn apart, revealing the remains of its abdomen.”

“This level five mutated tree maggot was extremely powerful and had an extremely strong self-healing ability. If Tang Zhen had not lured it to lay eggs according to its habits, which eventually led to its defensive capabilities declining to its limit, these explosives might have only been able to cause serious injuries to it. It would still have the ability to counterattack.”

“Tang Zhen looked at the big pit in front of him. The mutated tree maggot’s remaining limbs had long been shattered, but Tang Zhen could still clearly see that a slender chain was firmly locked below the mutated tree maggot’s abdomen, making it unable to move!”

“The chain was only as thick as a thumb, shining with an emerald green luster, not stained with any dirt, and looked very beautiful.”

Tang Zhen came to a sudden realization. No wonder the mutated maggot was unable to escape from the hole despite being so strong and the corrosive liquid it spat out was extremely abnormal. It was actually locked down by the chain.

“As soon as he thought about the power of the corrosive liquid spat out by the mutated tree maggot, Tang Zhen was sure that this chain was definitely not an ordinary item. Otherwise, it would be impossible to lock this mutated tree maggot because the mucus secreted by the mutated tree maggot was also highly corrosive. If an ordinary iron chain came into contact with it, it would quickly corrode and break.”

He could try to take the chains away later. He couldn’t miss such a good thing.

“Tang Zhen retracted his gaze from the chain and looked at the mutated tree maggot’s body. After seeing the chain and the information displayed by the monster detector, Tang Zhen guessed that there was more than one mutated tree maggot that was locked by the chain. However, as time went by, the bodies of the mutated tree maggots that secreted corrosive mucus began to merge after being trapped.

In the end, for some unknown reason, the mutated tree maggots combined into a multi-headed maggot, until today. ”

The phone’s vibration didn’t stop. Tang Zhen looked at the pile of mushy meat in the pit. He endured the rancid smell and carefully avoided the corrosive liquid before jumping in.

“Feeling that the item that caused the phone to vibrate was in the abdomen of the mutated tree maggot, Tang Zhen could only pinch his nose and take out a spear-shaped demon weapon from the storage space. He began to rummage through the mutated tree maggot’s stomach. ”

“With the stirring of the demon soldier’s spear, the mutated maggot’s intestines and the remaining eggs were stirred up, making Tang Zhen so disgusted that he almost vomited. ”

“It was impossible to search randomly. After all, the abdomen of the mutated maggot was more than ten meters in diameter, so it was easy to hide an item. Tang Zhen turned his head and took a deep breath. He then activated the infrared X-ray scan option in the [all-rounded data combat interface]. ”

“As the application was launched, the view in front of Tang Zhen immediately changed. At the same time, an eye-catching thing appeared in front of him. It was in the middle of the giant tree maggot’s abdomen. It seemed to be the reason why the phone was vibrating wildly. ”

“Since he had a target, the following matters were much easier to handle. Tang Zhen used the demon weapon spear to aim at that position and flicked a few times. He felt that his hand had become heavy. After confirming that it was that item, his arms fiercely clenched. ”

“”Hu” ”

“A half-meter square metal box was picked out by Tang Zhen from the wreckage of the mutated tree maggot and fell heavily to the ground. As soon as it came into contact with the air, the dirt on the box immediately slid to the ground as if it had been washed away, revealing the clean and bright Box body. ”

Tang Zhen kept his demon weapon spear and slowly walked forward to take a look.

The box had a beautiful and strange shape. It was made of a purple metal with golden stars in it. It felt like a young girl’s skin when one touched it. It was warm and comfortable.

“Tang Zhen took out an incomparably sharp purple lightning short sword and slashed at the box. However, he discovered that only an extremely shallow scratch was left behind. From this, one could see the toughness of this box. ”

There was a messy pattern on the top of the metal box. Tang Zhen looked at it for a while before he discovered that this pattern was actually a movable puzzle of a slide.

“The answer was obvious. If he wanted to open the box, he had to piece the sliding block on the box into a complete pattern. Otherwise, he would never be able to open the box. ”

“It was obviously very difficult to break such a tough box by external force, and it might also damage the items inside, so the only way was to restore the scattered puzzle pieces. ”

“Tang Zhen felt a headache as he looked at the messy patterns on the box. He was not good at this at all. If he were to crack it, who knew how long it would take? he might not be able to crack it in his entire life!”

“Tang Zhen shook his head and thought for a while. Then, he tentatively opened the application store to look for an application that could help him. After searching for a while, Tang Zhen finally found the application he needed in the entertainment option.”

“all-purpose entertainment game cracker. After activation, it can scan and analyze the content of all kinds of entertainment games (mainly chess and cards). It can be cracked instantly, and all your trump cards can be seen at a glance. You will be guaranteed to win every battle. You can also receive guidance tips at the same time. Download amount: 1000 gold coins.”

“The price of entertainment-related applications was generally not high. Even this kind of application, which could allow one to become rich after using it, only charged 1000 gold coins. Compared to those applications that easily cost hundreds of thousands of gold coins, it was simply cheap.”

“In the past, Tang Zhen might have felt heartache over spending 1000 gold coins, but now, Tang Zhen, who had just robbed a dog-headed man and had a small amount of savings, had already chosen to download and install it without hesitation.”

Chapter 110: The Secret History of the tree spirit tribe

“As the application was activated, Tang Zhen felt a light beam shoot out from his phone. After scanning the box, a bunch of words popped up in front of him.”

“[scan complete. Target is a sliding block game. To perfectly restore the original art, you need to move it 980 times. Do you want to start the tutorial?]”

“Tang Zhen selected the activation guide and immediately discovered that a pattern on the edge of the box was marked with a red light. Tang Zhen stretched out his hand and moved it a little. Immediately after, the second pattern was marked with a red light.”

“Tang Zhen only needed to move the slide according to the instructions and he would be able to perfectly restore it. With the help of this application, playing this puzzle game was really simple.”

“Tang Zhen’s speed became faster and faster as he moved the slide one step at a time. Not long after, he moved the last picture to its original position.”

“”Ka BA!”” ”

“A faint sound of metal contracting was heard, reminding Tang Zhen that he had successfully opened the box. However, Tang Zhen was not in a hurry to open the box. Instead, he was attracted by the scene in front of him and looked at it seriously.”

“The main body of the pattern was a huge tree that reached the sky and the earth. There was no doubt that it was the withered stump under his feet, the giant tree that was originally called the mother tree.”

“In the picture, the mother tree was luxuriant, and under its feet was a forest that stretched endlessly. It looked thriving, and everywhere was a green that was full of vitality. There were many creatures living on the mother tree. They were dressed in beautiful clothes and had exquisite looks, as if they were no different from humans. The only difference was that their ears were slightly pointed, similar to the elves that Tang Zhen had seen in movies.”

“From the images, these elegant creatures were living happily, but for some unknown reason, the mother tree withered and broke, these creatures disappeared, and the mother tree’s remains were occupied by strange insects.”

Perhaps he would be able to find the answer he needed in this box.

“Tang Zhen carefully went around to the back and opened the metal box. There was no abnormality. After going around to the front, Tang Zhen found that the box was actually filled with books bound with green leaves and a small purple gem Box.”

“after spending so much effort, I finally got a box of books. Hehe, it seems that the saying that knowledge is wealth is true everywhere!”

“Tang Zhen helplessly shook his head. He picked up a green leaf book and took a look. He could not help but let out an “eh” sound as the glow in his eyes grew brighter.”

“With the help of the [universal language translator], Tang Zhen could easily read and understand the contents of the book.”

“It turned out that the book had a very detailed introduction on how to use the mother tree’s power to cast a divine spell to promote the growth of plants. It also explained in detail how to sense the mother tree’s power, how to cast spells in the language of the tree spirits, how to strengthen and improve plants, and so on.”

Tang Zhen could not help but click his tongue in wonder when he saw this. He did not expect the mother tree to actually have such a magical ability. The race known as the tree spirit tribe that lived around the mother tree completely relied on the mother tree’s power to live without worry for food and clothing. It was a pity that the mother tree had been broken and destroyed. It was really a waste of good things.

“After putting down the book, Tang Zhen picked up another green leaf book and found that it was a secret book that introduced how to use the power of the mother tree to cultivate a powerful archery skill.”

“As Tang Zhen read on, he suddenly realized that many of the things recorded in these books could not be separated from the mother tree’s participation. It could be said that the mother tree was the root of everything. Once the mother tree was gone, the tree spirit tribe would become useless.”

“It was no wonder that after the mother tree was broken, the tree spirit clan disappeared completely. In Tang Zhen’s opinion, they were like the parasites of the mother tree. Without the skin, the hair could not attach itself. It was reasonable for them to decline and perish.”

“Therefore, the tree spirit tribe became and fell because of the mother tree. It was only because they were too dependent on the mother tree that this situation occurred. However, if a race other than the tree spirit tribe obtained the mother tree and used it reasonably, it would be a blessing instead of a disaster!”

“After roughly reading through these books, Tang Zhen’s gaze once again turned towards the small box that was placed alone. He mused for a moment before slowly opening the small box with an expectant mood.”

Tang Zhen had a guess in his heart. The answer would soon be revealed.

“The purple gem Box was opened, revealing the items inside. It was a multi-colored stone that was slowly floating in the air, a blood book that seemed to be made of human skin, and a gorgeous green ring.”

Tang Zhen’s heart wildly beat when he saw these three items. He extended his hand and picked up the human skin blood book to take a look.

“I’m the Lord of the mother tree Tower City, yuelang Feng. When you see this letter written in my skin, I believe you’ve killed the mutated tree maggot and obtained the wealth I left for the descendants of the tree spirit race.”

“My children and grandchildren, I am an incompetent city Lord. Our mother tree, Lou Cheng, has raised us for thousands of years, but in the end, it was destroyed and broken in my hands. So, the moment Lou Cheng’s mother tree was broken, I should have died to atone for my sins!”

“On the day the mother tree was broken, the monster, which had been eyeing the mother tree, took the opportunity to launch an attack on all the tree spirits. The tribesmen who had lost the protection of the mother tree were killed by the monster’s claws!”

“but I can’t die yet, because I have to kill the main culprits that caused the mother tree to break. Those mutated tree maggots, those damn demons, they gnawed off the roots of the mother tree and hollowed out the trunk, causing the mother tree to wither and break, implicating the innocent people.”

“So, I swallowed the forbidden medicine, and my strength instantly skyrocketed. However, I only had one month left to live, but to me, this was enough!”

“After that, I found the mutated tree maggots and subdued them after a bloody battle. However, when I realized that they were originally useful for loosening the soil on the roots of the mother tree, I suddenly realized that I was wrong.”

“In fact, I was not the only one who was wrong. The entire tree spirit race was wrong!”

“as time went by, we indulged in the protection of the mother tree tower, singing and dancing all day without having to worry about food and clothing. Unconsciously, we became extremely undisciplined. We only paid attention to poetry and dance, hated war and killing, and did not care about anything other than ourselves.”

“so, the monsters gradually invaded the roots of the mother tree. We didn’t know that the monsters infected the beneficial worms of the loose soil and turned them into mutated tree maggots. The most ridiculous thing is that we still didn't know that the mutated tree maggots had already eaten up the mother tree. ”

“We only know that on the day the mother tree is broken, there will be a grand ball! ”

“Therefore, the tree spirits deserved their miserable situation today, and they could not blame anyone!

“When I thought of this, I no longer had any reason to kill these mutated maggots. However, since they had made a mistake, they must atone for it. So I decided to let them guard the inheritance of the tree spirits, which was the foundation of the mother tree's Tower and the way to use the mother tree's power. ”

“in order to get the heritage treasure, you must pass through the trunk passage guarded by the descendants of the mutated tree maggots. They will attack any creature other than the tree spirit race. Also, I have tamed these giant mutated tree maggots. They will protect the heritage treasure. Once a tree spirit bloodline gets close, they will self-destruct and send the treasure to the tree spirit race. ”

This is a defensive measure that I've specially set up in order to wait for the arrival of the tree spirit bloodline so that I can rebuild the mother tree City and restore it to its former glory.

“it's a divine weapon of the tree spirit race, called the tree spirit chain. The spell to unlock it is the 'keep' and 'lock' in the tree spirit language. Every tree spirit can use it easily with the ring I left behind. ”

“By the time you read this letter, I would have already died. Please take this as a warning and don't repeat the same mistakes. ”

“Mother tree, city Lord of Lou city, yuelang peak, final stroke!”” ”

“Tang Zhen let out a long sigh of relief after seeing this. He slowly put away the will that yuelang Feng had written on his skin. Then, he picked up the ring from the inside and used the [universal language translator] to shout in the tree spirit language, “” take it! ”

“A green light flashed past. The tree spirit chain, which was tens of meters long after being unfurled, pounced towards Tang Zhen. At the same time, it rapidly shrank. In the end, it actually became circles of thin green lines that twined around the ring. ”

“After Tang Zhen touched the ring, he put away the brilliant cornerstone of the tower. According to the content of yuelang Peak's will, as long as this cornerstone was sacrificed and the tower was built, a mother tree could be cultivated again. ”

“In other words, the mother tree was a special building, and the tree spirits were the residents! ”
