Chapter 1181

1181 A way to trap the enemy

The rarer something was, the more precious it would be. Under different circumstances, a foundation stone of a building city, which was neither ordinary nor precious, was actually sold for an unexpected sky-high price!

Tang Zhen didn't know what the final outcome of the cultivators in this city was. However, it definitely wouldn't be good. This was because their enemies were even greedier and more terrifying than the cultivators in the city!

They had deliberately studied the secrets of the world of loucheng and had even spent a lot of money to snatch it. The price they offered was so high that it had far exceeded the value of a national-level loucheng!

How could such a stubborn and stubborn enemy not be terrifying?

In the past, due to the strength of Lou Cheng's cultivators and his domineering manner when he invaded the other world, Tang Zhen once thought that any living creature in any world would tremble in fear when facing Lou Cheng's cultivators. They would be completely destroyed after a futile resistance!

It could be said that plundering the world's origin source was far more terrifying than a massacre, because it almost cut off the vitality of the entire world!

It was only when his cultivation level increased and he understood more about the secrets of the world of loucheng that he suddenly realized that the strength of the world of loucheng was actually built on the foundation of internal competition, which was similar to the rearing of venomous insects, and the sacrifices that often occurred during the invasion.

Under the glorious appearance, there were actually many unknown sacrifices, blood, and tears, but very few people noticed them.

Over countless years, countless towers had been destroyed by the invasion. However, because of the cornerstone platform, it was extremely difficult to leave any traces outside the tower world. Therefore, the cultivators of loucheng never realized that some time before they were found, they had already set foot on the same land!

Not to mention that with the passage of time, many things had long been hidden in the rolling dust!

Even so, Tang Zhen did not think that the world of towers was very powerful. There were only a few towers that were destroyed in the battle. They were nothing.

It was only when the tribesmen appeared and dealt a heavy blow to the wilderness Warzone, even directly destroying the entire Warzone, that Tang Zhen realized that the seemingly powerful world of loucheng was actually already full of worries.

The world of loucheng might have already fallen from its peak and was on the path of decline.

However, for a powerful force, the path taken by the world of loucheng was full of thorns and bumps. Perhaps the dangers that Tang Zhen understood were just one of the challenges that had never stopped for a long time!

This group of mysterious cultivators had the same intention as the teroboros people, trying to get their hands on the world of loucheng. Other than the difference in power, the biggest difference between the two was that the former had successfully achieved this, while the latter was still in the stage of planning.

Would the spiritual ruins Warzone, which was being spied on by a group of powerful enemies, end up like the wilderness Warzone and be removed from the 3000 warzones?

The Holy Dragon City was in the midst of this conspiracy. How should they protect themselves and even take the opportunity to obtain enough benefits? this was the problem that Tang Zhen needed to consider at the moment!

Tang Zhen expressionlessly looked at the next item as he watched the tower's foundation stone being carefully kept into a bag by a mysterious cultivator. He already had some guesses about what it was.

The bidding for the second item officially began under the anticipation and urging of the cultivators.

Tang Zhen shook his head slightly when the answer to the riddle was revealed. His gaze became increasingly icy.

He had actually guessed the answer to the riddle, but it was precisely because of this that he felt even more disappointed.

It was a complete foundation stone platform. Its surface was covered with red moss-like wriggling objects, ensuring that it would not disintegrate and dissipate. The occasional flash of luster on it proved that it was still working.

Only God knew what kind of means these mysterious cultivators had used to actually be able to preserve the building's foundation and platform after destroying the city!

Tang Zhen suddenly felt a trace of boredom as he looked at the cornerstone platform that was being continuously fought over by all the cultivators. He did not want to look at it again in case he saw the goods that he did not want to see.

For example, the captured cultivators of loucheng could also be sold as goods.

After all, he was also a cultivator of loucheng. If he could only watch as other cultivators of loucheng were humiliated and sold while he couldn't help, it would be strange if he was in a good mood!

However, the target he was following had yet to leave, and the entrance was sealed. Therefore, Tang Zhen could only be patient and continue to wait.

In the end, after the cornerstone platform was sold, the following products began to become chaotic, and they no longer had any connection to the world of loucheng.

After half a day, the secret meeting finally came to an end. After the giant flaming face said to send the guests off, the cultivators stood up from their white bone chairs and walked out of the gloomy cave store.

Tang Zhen unhurriedly walked on the road and locked onto the mysterious cultivator through the map view. However, his heart was constantly pondering on how to take action in order to obtain the information he wanted from the other party.

Under normal circumstances, Tang Zhen would definitely take action and interrogate the target he was tracking after subduing him.

However, the problem was that he was now in the myriad world mall and was under constant surveillance. Furthermore, fighting was prohibited here. Once it happened, it would not be tolerated.

If Tang Zhen chose to take action, he would definitely attract the pursuit of the myriad world mall. Under such circumstances, the difficulty of Tang Zhen continuing to complete the mission would undoubtedly increase exponentially.

The mission issued by the spiritual ruins war zone this time could be said to be aimed at the myriad world mall. Putting aside other situations, the enemy that Tang Zhen needed to be most wary of was actually the myriad world mall!

It was obviously irrational to make a move and attract the attention of the myriad world mall.

However, if he were to give up an important source of information like this, Tang Zhen would be very unwilling. After all, this matter might be closely related to the future of the spirit ruins Battlefield.

After thinking for a moment, Tang Zhen suddenly asked through his phone, "Can you do something when the other party is crossing the dimensional barrier and send a simulation command to his waist token, sending him to a dimensional world that the myriad world mall does not monitor?"

And you have to ensure that I can enter and exit freely without being discovered by the myriad world mall?"

After hearing Zhen Tang's question, the phone's application immediately started to work and quickly gave Zhen Tang the answer he wanted.

the simulation command has been cracked and edited. You can send and activate the waist token of the designated target at any time. The required dimensional gap has been searched. It is similar to a gas environment. No shops have been built at the moment, and there are no monitoring methods. The conditions have been met!

Tang Zhen nodded and began to unhurriedly continue to follow the mysterious cultivators. When they were about to pass through the water curtain-like barrier and leave this place, he immediately issued an attack command to the mobile application.

When the mysterious cultivators entered the barrier, their waist tokens flashed slightly, but they did not notice anything unusual.

However, when they walked out of the barrier that connected the two different dimensional streets, they immediately felt that something was wrong. The scene in front of them was completely chaotic!

The air had disappeared and was replaced by a suffocating substance that was between gas and liquid. It filled every corner of their environment and was filled with high temperature and poison.

Lightning-like flashes appeared from time to time, but after the flashes disappeared, all that was left was darkness and a band of light that twisted like a Galaxy.

In such a harsh environment, there were some slender creatures that looked like fireflies swimming in the liquid in a hurry.

Looking around, there were no shops that could be seen everywhere in the myriad world mall. Instead, the ground was like a bottomless abyss, and there were rocks of various sizes floating around.

A feeling of weightlessness came over, making them unable to stand at all. Just as they wanted to stabilize their bodies, they felt an immense pressure assaulting them, making them fall continuously!

“Damn it, what the hell is this place?”

A mysterious cultivator growled, but his voice didn’t travel far. Instead, as he opened his mouth, the gas that had been compressed into a liquid state kept pouring into his nose!

Chapter 1182

1182 The mysterious cultivator’s situation

not good! We might have been tricked!

The blood-eyed leader was stunned when he realized that he was not familiar with the surroundings. He then used his spiritual power network to contact his companions.

everyone, be careful and stay alert. We’ll then look for the dimensional barrier to leave this place. The faster, the better!

After giving the order, the blood-eyed cultivator’s mind power spread out to the surroundings. However, after a certain distance, his mind power disappeared like a clay ox entering the sea.

This terrible environment had suppressed almost half of his strength. In a situation where he might be attacked by the enemy, this was definitely not good news!

however, since my strength is limited, I think the other party is not much better. We are just evenly matched. The only thing we need to confirm now is whether this is a man-made accident and how many enemies are there? ”

The blood-eyed cultivator’s body began to tremble when he realized that his mind power had been greatly restricted. A group of strange bugs gushed out of his robe and spread in all directions in this special environment.

At the same time, a dense number of tentacles emerged from his head and pushed his hood to the side. The tentacles seemed to be able to extend infinitely and quickly pierced into the bodies of the strange insects.

After being pierced by the blood-eyed cultivator’s tentacle, slivers of blood and unknown substances flowed out of his head and into the bodies of the bugs.

This liquid obviously had a special effect, because after it entered the insect’s body, it quickly evaporated like a boiling pot.

The bugs 'bodies expanded rapidly like balloons. In the blink of an eye, they had become the size of ten-year-old children. Each of them looked ferocious and waved their arms that were covered in sharp thorns and blades, protecting the blood-eyed cultivator.

With these insects as guards, the enemies within a twenty-meter radius of the blood-eyed cultivator would not be able to get close. Otherwise, they would be attacked like a storm!

It could be said that these insects were his clones. When necessary, they could even launch fierce attacks that only the main body could use. The price he had to pay was only a part of his blood essence and the life of an insect.

After the blood-eyed cultivator assumed a defensive posture, the other cultivators also used their own methods to guard themselves. Their methods were similar.

Compared to the fighting style of the cultivators in Loucheng, the means of these cultivators were undoubtedly more evil and mysterious. They were more keen on body transformation, so they looked like deformed monsters at this time.

With these defensive measures in place, the cultivators 'worries were somewhat alleviated, but they still looked around vigilantly for the missing entrance.

Unknowingly, the distance between them had increased, and their figures had become blurry.

Just as they were searching around but could not find anything, a faint figure slowly appeared and slowly approached them like a ghost.

With his appearance, several mysterious cultivators who were searching for the exit discovered at the same time that there seemed to be a faint spatial fluctuation not far in front of them. It seemed to be the dimensional barrier that they had been looking for!

After realizing this, they began to speed up, and the distance between them grew further and further.

A mysterious cultivator with a mouth, nose, and ears that were several times larger also followed the spatial fluctuations. However, after chasing for a distance, the faint spatial fluctuations suddenly disappeared, and he could not sense them no matter how hard he tried.

This situation made him extremely annoyed. If they couldn't find the exit, they would be trapped here forever. In this terrible environment, even a King level cultivator wouldn't be able to last long.

Just as he was about to continue looking for the exit, he felt the liquid around him shake slightly, as if something was following him.

The mysterious cultivator felt that something was wrong and turned his head slightly. He was shocked to find a figure standing quietly beside him. On the blurry face, only the corners of the mouth revealed a sinister smile.

Who knew when this black shadow had appeared, and had been following him silently?

The sudden danger made the mysterious cultivator's heart beat wildly. He subconsciously wanted to warn his companions, but at the same time, he raised a black palm reflexively and slapped the figure beside him.

At the same time as his palm attacked the enemy, the black palm suddenly split open, and a strange snake entangled by blood and flesh quickly slithered out.

The flesh snake was as fast as lightning, and it reached the shadow in an instant. It bit down with its sharp, poisonous fangs, and black gas spewed out of its mouth.

He didn't even need to guess to know that this was definitely a mist formed by a terrifying poison. Upon contact, one would either die or be injured!

"Pa!"

A soft sound rang out, and the attacked figure dissipated like a bubble, causing the strange snake's attack to miss.

A trace of fear flashed through the cultivator's eyes. Just as he was about to search for the enemy again, he felt a sharp pain in his shoulder. The arm that hid the strange snake had been cut off by a sharp blade.

Before the severed arm could fall to the ground, the flames that appeared on it had already burned it to ashes. The strange snake that was hiding within it tried to escape with all its might, but only its head was left. After flying a few meters away like a ball of fire, its head turned into ashes and scattered in all directions!

The wound of the cultivator who had his arm cut off squirmed and a tentacle quickly emerged to replace the lost arm. At the same time, it quickly approached the position of his companion.

There was a trace of fear in his eyes, and his nerves were in a tense state. A ball of black gas was wrapped around his intact palm, wriggling like a living thing.

However, even though he was on guard, it was still difficult for him to guard against the enemy's sneak attack. Another blade light flashed and cut off his legs at the same time.

The running cultivator stumbled and fell to the ground. Blood gushed out from his broken leg, but the blood soon stopped because two new legs, like tentacles, had wriggled out of the wound.

"Damn bastard, I'm going to kill you!"

The heavily injured mysterious cultivator was burning with anger. He stood up from the ground with the support of his tentacles and roared angrily at the surroundings. However, in this special environment, his voice was destined to not travel too far.

In fact, if it weren't for the fact that these cultivators had amazing strength and could survive for a short time in an environment where they couldn't breathe normally, they might have died of suffocation long ago!

Unless they were elevated to a higher level of life and could exist without oxygen, they would not be able to escape death in this special environment!

After suffering two consecutive heavy injuries and losing an arm and two legs, although they had been replaced by disgusting tentacles, it had consumed more than half of the energy accumulated in this cultivator's body. At this time, he could feel waves of fatigue constantly attacking him.

He knew that he was in a bad situation and that his combat power had been severely damaged. Therefore, the most important thing for this cultivator was to inform his companions and get help as soon as possible.

However, he was destined to be disappointed, because that ghostly figure actually reappeared. Only a sinister smile could be seen on the blurry face, and the gaze he gave him seemed to be filled with disdain.

“Who are you? what do you want?”

An indescribable fear rose in the mysterious cultivator’s heart. He used his spiritual power to send out a question, but unfortunately, he did not get any answer. Instead, he received another cold light.

The sharp saber was so fast that the mysterious cultivator didn’t have time to Dodge. His remaining arm was cut off!

“Ah, Yingluo.”

The mysterious cultivator’s expression was ferocious. He did not care about the injury on his broken arm at all. He just stared at the black shadow standing in front of him fiercely. After three attacks that he could not Dodge, he was sure that he was no match for the enemy.

However, this hateful guy could have killed him with one strike, but he didn’t do so. Instead, he used such a despicable method to torture his mind until he completely collapsed!

Chapter 1183

1183 The conspiracy of the Sorcerer world

Most of the time, fear came from the unknown, but more often, it was because of one’s own weakness. When faced with a powerful enemy that was impossible to defeat, the fear would erupt in an instant, until one completely collapsed!

Even if they could overcome their fear, it might not change anything, because the enemy would not show mercy.

Facing the ghostly figure and enduring the continuous attacks, the mysterious cultivator’s heart was filled with fear and despair after the panic and anger.

He had asked for help many times, but to no avail. He knew that his companion would definitely not come. Otherwise, the other party would not torture him so unscrupulously. Instead, they would kill him with a single slash!

He also knew that he had already become the other party’s plaything. When he would be killed would completely depend on the other party’s mood.

One strike, two strikes, three strikes

After enduring who knew how many attacks, he was already covered in injuries. The mutated exotic beast in his body couldn’t withstand the frequent healing of his body, and finally fell into a dormant state.

Without the mutated beast that could repair his body, blood began to flow out of the damaged wound. The wriggling tentacles all over his body also fell off in the Flash of the Blade.

With the last bit of strength in his body exhausted, the mysterious cultivator finally gave up resisting. He allowed his body to float up and down in the liquid gas like a leaf in an undercurrent.

After seeing this, the ghostly figure finally stopped its attack and slowly moved in front of the mysterious cultivator. It dragged him like a dead dog and slowly walked in a direction.

The blood-eyed cultivator realized that they had fallen into the enemy's trap once again when he realized that the spatial fluctuations in front of them had suddenly disappeared.

The other party was obviously planning to use this method to separate himself from his companions, and then use various means to defeat them one by one, until he finally subdued everyone!

He could imagine what his companions were going through, and he also realized that it might not be long before he would meet the person who was plotting against them.

His blood-red eyes flashed with a cold killing intent. He swore to himself that he would let the other party know the consequences of provoking him, even if this was not his territory!

He turned around and walked back the way he came. The insect clones around the blood-eyed cultivator were on guard for him. Any abnormal fluctuations could not escape their perception, making the sneak attack from the dark unable to succeed!

If the enemy wanted to ambush him, they would definitely pay a heavy price!

As a result, the enemy who had plotted against them did appear as he had expected. However, he did not choose to ambush them. Instead, he stood in the shadow in front of him, causing the insect avatar to be in a constant commotion.

The blood-eyed cultivator's heart sank when he saw the other party's unbridled behavior. The killing intent in his eyes grew stronger.

"Let me guess, have you been waiting for me for a long time?"

The enemy shrouded in the shadow spoke slowly. His voice was neither fast nor slow. Although the blood-eyed cultivator could not see his expression, he knew that he must be very proud.

Since he dared to face him like this, it meant that he had already taken care of his companion. As he was the strongest, he must be ranked last!

As expected, the other party's next words confirmed the blood-eyed cultivator's guess.

It took some time to deal with your companions, but fortunately, the problem has been solved. We can slowly get to know each other in the following time, and we don't have to worry about being disturbed by others!

After saying this, the figure stepped out of the darkness and revealed his true appearance.

Let me introduce myself. I'm Tang Zhen, from the spiritual ruins Warzone in the world of Loucheng. I'm the city Lord of a Loucheng!

Tang Zhen seemed to be very relaxed as he introduced himself in a leisurely tone. It was as if the blood-eyed cultivator in front of him was just an ordinary passerby and not a powerful cultivator from another world.

The blood-eyed cultivator's expression became increasingly solemn as he sensed the law aura that was overflowing from the other party's body. He did not think that Tang Zhen, who had a relaxed expression, was an easy person to get along with. Perhaps, this expression of his already indicated that everything was completely under his control.

you said you're cultivator Lou Cheng. What a coincidence. Not long ago, I just captured a cultivator Lou Cheng. Maybe he's one of your companions!

The blood-eyed cultivator spoke slowly. His voice was a little hoarse, as if iron sheets were rubbing against each other.

For the two of them, conversing in such a special environment was not too difficult.

Tang Zhen nodded and retracted his gaze from the insect's clone beside the blood-eyed cultivator. There was already a trace of coldness in his eyes as he looked at the other party. "In fact, this is also the reason why I have my eyes on you. What is the reason for you to attack the cultivators of loucheng?"

Is it because of your identity, Mr. Wizard?"

The blood-eyed cultivator sneered when he heard Tang Zhen's words. His tone carried a trace of ridicule as he said, "Since you already know my identity and background, isn't it unnecessary to explain why you attacked me?"

Tang Zhen nodded, "that's indeed the case. As far as I know, the Magus world has always been the main target of the loucheng world's invasion. It's reasonable for them to have grudges with each other."

But if you say that this is the reason why you chose to attack Lou Cheng, do you think I will believe you?"

Tang Zhen's tone contained a trace of ridicule. He knew that this was definitely not the real reason why the blood-eyed Magus had taken action. Instead, it was because there were even more secrets that no one knew.

that's the reason, of course. What else do you think? "

The blood-eyed Magus "tone was calm and emotionless, giving off the feeling of an ice sculpture.

"But your companion told me that you actually have another partner. It's because of him that you all appeared in the myriad world mall. After cultivator Lou Cheng appeared, you all will act according to the plan!

In other words, the mission this time was a scam from the beginning to the end. The purpose was to trick cultivator Lou Cheng to come here and then use the missions given by the platform to launch a series of attacks on the myriad world mall.

Regardless of whether cultivator Lou Cheng's operation is successful or not, you will find a way to tell the myriad world mall that these things were done by cultivator Lou Cheng, so that they will continue to accumulate hatred for the world of Lou Cheng.

After completing this step, you will still try to prevent the success of the mission and frame the myriad world mall again, right?

When the mission failed this time, the spiritual ruins Warzone would definitely upgrade the mission level again. At the same time, a large number of buildings would be sent to invade the myriad world mall. At that time, there would definitely be a bloody battle between the two sides.

In the face of the powerful myriad world mall, the invading loucheng may not have the upper hand and may even suffer a crushing defeat, which is exactly the result you want.

The Magus world can even take advantage of this war to invade the loucheng world, right?"

Tang Zhen unhurriedly explained his speculations. He did not care about the blood-eyed Magus, whose expression had changed drastically. However, the other party's reaction proved that these speculations of his were very likely to be consistent with the facts.

This group of people from the Sorcerer world was indeed planning a shocking conspiracy against the world of loucheng!

Chapter 1184

1184 Enough is enough (1)

The blood-eyed sorcerer shook his head as he looked at the cold-faced Tang Zhen.

He did not know the background of the cultivator opposite him, but just from the fact that he had just entered the myriad world mall, he had already figured out the plan that they had been planning for many years, which proved that he was definitely not a simple character.

This "not simple" did not only refer to Tang Zhen's cultivation, but also his terrifying methods that people could not anticipate!

The first thought that appeared in the blood-eyed Magus 'mind was to keep Tang Zhen here at all costs to prevent their many years of planning from being leaked. In this way, the losses that would be caused would be immeasurable.

However, when he realized where he was, he was shocked. He suddenly realized a very important question. How did the other party get them here?

After all, this was the myriad world mall. Other than the ruler, no one could change the rules here. This was almost a well-known fact.

However, looking at the environment they were in, it was clearly a world in a dimensional gap that no one knew about. Under normal circumstances, it was absolutely impossible for them to enter it, unless the controller had lured them here.

However, it was impossible for the controller of the huge myriad world mall to do such a thing, because he had not revealed his identity and intentions from the beginning to the end.

Otherwise, he would have been captured, interrogated, and executed for his act of framing and sowing discord between the world of Loucheng and the Myriad World Mall, which might have even brought about a war, instead of being thrown into the dimensional gap world like he was now!

In that case, there was only one explanation left, and that was that the other party had special means to exercise part of the authority of the controller of the Myriad World Mall!

The initiative had already been completely controlled by the other party, but he still wanted to kill the other party. This was almost delusional!

The Blood-eyed Magus was taken aback by the thought. It was not his first time in the Myriad World Mall, so he naturally knew how terrifying this behemoth was.

With uncountable wealth, they could come into contact with a large number of experts from other worlds. This allowed the Myriad World Mall to form a terrifying Army over a long period of time. Although it had never been officially revealed to the world, the cultivators that occasionally appeared from the mall were all terrifyingly powerful!

Comparing it to the world of Loucheng and the Sorcerer world, it was actually not much different. They were both at the level of Jiuwuba.

However, other than doing business, the Myriad World Mall had always been very low-key, so many cultivators did not know their true strength, so they did not pay much attention to it.

As for the forces that dared to plot against the Myriad World Mall, they had already collapsed, and not a single one of them had escaped!

It was for this reason that the Blood-eyed cultivator was shocked. It was undoubtedly a terrifying thing to be able to obtain part of the management rights of such a super force.

The Blood-eyed cultivator once again had doubts about Tang Zhen's origins. Compared to Tang Zhen's powerful strength, the authority he had in the merchant shop made the Blood-eyed cultivator even more shocked and jealous!

However, the Blood-eyed Magus did not know that Tang Zhen was only able to do this because he had exploited a loophole in the Myriad World Mall. He was still thousands of miles away from truly obtaining the authority of the Myriad World Mall!

The Blood-eyed Magus temporarily suppressed the killing intent and fear in his heart. He looked at Tang Zhen and shook his head. He said in a mocking tone, "What are you talking about? It's ridiculous!"

The reason why I attacked Lou Cheng's cultivators was because we had a grudge in the past. After seeing them by chance, I couldn't help but attack!

Regardless of whether Tang Zhen had truly grasped their plan or was planning to use these words to deceive and test them, the Blood-eyed Magus would deny it. Even if he died, he would not reveal their plan.

Otherwise, once the Myriad World Mall found out, they would face two powerful enemies, which would undoubtedly be a disaster for the Sorcerer world!

Seeing that the blood-eyed Magus refused to admit it, Tang Zhen only sneered but did not continue to question him.

The matter had developed to this point. Tang Zhen had already obtained the information he wanted. There was no need to continue the investigation. He didn't want to get too deep and attract unnecessary trouble.

In fact, after dealing with the blood-eyed cultivator's companions, Tang Zhen should have retreated. However, due to his curiosity about the Sorcerer's methods, he finally chose to meet the blood-eyed sorcerer.

According to the information he had obtained from his interrogation, when a wizard's cultivation reached level 10, their strength would also undergo a huge change, and they would be similar to the king-level cultivators of the loucheng world.

In the Magus world, Magi who were rank 10 and above were known as King Magi, and each of them was an Overlord of a region!

As for the blood-eyed sorcerer in front of him, he was an existence that surpassed the king of sorcerers and was known as a domain sorcerer. He was equivalent to the law King of the loucheng world!

If it was possible, he would have a fight with the other party to see who was stronger.

As for the origin of the blood-eyed Magus, Tang Zhen already had some understanding of it. He knew that he came from the fifth continental ring of the Magus world!

Unlike the three thousand battlefields of the loucheng world, the Sorcerer world existed around a planet full of mysterious energy. This planet was called "ancestral source" by the sorcerers. Rings of land surrounded this ancestral source planet. The sorcerers called it the continental ring, and countless creatures lived on it.

The mysterious cultivators who had participated in the secret auction before were actually all from the Sorcerer world. Even the shop owner was a sorcerer, but they were from different continental rings.

There was also competition between Magi. The relationship between many continental rings was very tense, and it was common to start wars to seize resources!

This conspiracy against the battle zone of the spirit ruins was only the behavior of the high-level Wizards of the fifth ring, and had nothing to do with the other rings!

it's fine if you don't admit it. I won't pursue this any further. I can even let you and your companions leave this place.

The blood-eyed Magus was slightly stunned when he heard Tang Zhen's words. However, a trace of doubt immediately appeared in his eyes. He did not think that Tang Zhen would be so easy to talk to. He might be hiding some unspeakable motives.

After seeing the blood-eyed Magus "expression, Tang Zhen coldly snorted and continued,"Of course, if you want to leave, you will have to pay a ransom. I'm not talking about the money you have, because it's not enough!"

“You can have your friends collect the ransom now. As for you, you need to stay here until I get the ransom. You have to fight with me!”

As soon as his voice fell, he saw a group of spirits wandering over from not far away. Several unconscious Wizards were dragged by them with chains and slowly stopped behind Tang Zhen.

The blood-eyed Magus frowned slightly when he saw this scene. However, his expression turned calm in the blink of an eye. He only used his cold eyes to look at Tang Zhen.

He casually pointed at an unconscious wizard. The mental energy that had seeped into the other party's mind was extracted and returned to Tang Zhen's body. Immediately after, the wizard let out a muffled groan and quickly woke up from his unconsciousness. At the same time, he began to struggle continuously.

“It's up to you to choose what to do. I just hope you won't do anything stupid!”

Tang Zhen warned as he swept a glance at the blood-eyed Magus.

The blood-eyed Magus did not pay any attention to Tang Zhen. Instead, he used his spiritual force to communicate with the Magus.

The face of the Magus who was bound by the chains twitched. After fiercely glaring at Tang Zhen, he finally helplessly nodded his head.

I can agree to your request. Now, please let my companion go. He will gather enough ransom, and I hope that you can keep your word!

The blood-eyed cultivator looked at Tang Zhen and said. However, for some unknown reason, the hostility in his eyes seemed to have subsided a lot.

Tang Zhen took a deep look at the blood-eyed cultivator and casually snapped his fingers. Immediately after, a shimmering ripple appeared out of thin air. When those spirits saw this, they exerted their strength at the same time and directly threw the shackled Magus inside. After that, the ripple disappeared.

alright, accompany me in a fight. Let me see how strong a domain Magus is.

Tang Zhen moved his fist, emitting a “ka ka” sound. His face was filled with anticipation.

Chapter 1185

1185 Comparing notes _1

The blood-eyed Magus was silent for a few seconds in the face of Tang Zhen's challenge before he slowly nodded his head.

At the same time, the insect clones controlled by the tentacles above his head howled in unison and gathered in front of the blood-eyed Magus, forming an impenetrable “human wall”!

As a clone of the blood-eyed Magus, these special insects were connected to his mind, and each of them could attack in his place.

When these insect clones launched their attacks at the same time, almost no opponent could block it!

As a domain Magus, the blood-eyed Magus "attack power was needless to say. Coupled with the Magus" mysterious means, the enemy was completely defeated without the need to launch a second attack!

At this moment, the blood-eyed Magus had already regarded Tang Zhen as the strongest enemy he had ever encountered. Therefore, he did not hold back when he attacked. He used an extremely fierce attack from the start, as if he wanted to kill Tang Zhen completely!

Poison mist, curse, decay, bewitchment spell

These attacks converged together, and the momentum was extremely shocking. The consequences would be unimaginable if one was hit by any one of these attacks. Even with Tang Zhen's powerful cultivation, he did not dare to say that he was not affected at all.

After all, the blood-eyed Magus "strength was similar to his, and the attack he had reserved would naturally not be simple. It would not be too much no matter how strange and powerful it was!

Although this was Tang Zhen's first battle with the blood-eyed Magus and he did not understand the techniques that the other party was most skilled in, out of respect for the enemy and the battle style that he had formed over a long time, he had already given his all to respond the moment the blood-eyed Magus made his move.

Therefore, when he saw the blood-eyed Magus 'concentrated attack, Tang Zhen did not show any panic except for feeling a trace of shock. He laughed and launched a counterattack.

Flames appeared out of thin air and completely wrapped around his body, blocking the blood-eyed Magus 'relentless attacks. In just a few breaths, the two of them had already exchanged more than ten blows, and neither of them could do anything to the other!

is this your ability? it seems that it's nothing much!

A trace of disdain flashed across Tang Zhen's face after he dodged another wave of attacks from the blood-eyed Magus. He gently waved his hand.

"If that's all you can do, then there's no need for us to continue fighting, because you're not my match at all!

It's a bit too much to regard you as my enemy!"

The sarcasm in his words was so obvious that the blood-eyed Magus could obviously hear it. He suppressed the anger in his heart and coldly glanced at Tang Zhen.

This was not a life-and-death battle. Only a fool would use all his trump cards. However, Tang Zhen was unscathed under his overwhelming attacks. This was indeed beyond the blood-eye Magus 'expectations.

It seemed that the strength of this cultivator from Lou Cheng was far beyond his expectations!

However, as a person who controlled countless sorcerers and had great power in the fifth continent ring, how could the blood-eyed sorcerer be willing to be reduced to a weakling in the eyes of his enemies?

“If you really want to see my methods, I will definitely do as you wish!”

The blood-eyed Magus coldly snorted. There was a faint crazed intent in his gaze as he looked at Tang Zhen.

“I can’t ask for more!”

Tang Zhen’s voice had just fallen when the blood-eyed Magus once again took the initiative to attack. A few of the insect clones that he controlled suddenly turned blood-red in color, and their entire bodies flickered with a faint light.

There was a crazed look in their eyes, as if all the blood-eye Sorcerer’s negative emotions were concentrated on a few insects, causing them to fall into a state of trying to destroy everything in an instant.

Violently twisting their bodies, these few blood-red insect clones howled. They actually forcefully tore off the tentacles that were connected to their bodies and attacked Tang Zhen with lightning speed.

“BOOM!”

One of the insect clones exploded and turned into countless threads that shot towards Tang Zhen’s location. It was like a huge fishing net that was trying to trap Tang Zhen within.

However, the flickering black light on the scattered fishing net was sufficient to prove that it was not as simple as entangling people. Tang Zhen believed that as long as he was wrapped by it, he would definitely be cut into countless pieces!

Just as one of the insect clones turned into a fishing net and tried to cover Tang Zhen, the other insect clone strangely stretched its body like a long noodle.

Its head disappeared in an instant. It seemed to have passed through space and disappeared without a trace. However, the remaining body was still extending limitlessly. Perhaps, in the next second, the head of this insect clone would pass through space and suddenly appear in front of Tang Zhen to launch an attack!

It was the same for the other few insect clones. Their attacks represented the blood-eyed Magus’ strongest killing move. After this kind of suicidal attack was launched in place of the blood-eyed Magus, the insect clones that had been cultivated with a huge amount of resources would be completely destroyed!

With the body mass of these insect clones, it was impossible for them to withstand two similar attacks.

Tang Zhen finally revealed a satisfied expression after seeing this crazy attack method. His body hurriedly retreated to avoid the fatal attacks of these insect clones. After which, he floated high in the air and wild and violent flames completely wrapped around him.

With his body as the center, a cloud of fire with a diameter of several hundred meters spread out, constantly emitting a terrifying aura, as if it could completely destroy the world at any time!

Tang Zhen, who was located in the middle of this flame cloud, appeared like a Heavenly Devil from the outer region, causing people to involuntarily choose to submit.

With a wave of his hands, the cloud of fire immediately surged. At the same time, vigorous figures surrounded by flames whizzed out of the sea of fire one after another!

It was a group of mighty and strong flaming Knights. They rode on warhorses made of flames and were wearing flaming armor. They held flaming spears in their hands and charged towards the blood-eyed Magus like a wave.

A terrifying aura spread from their bodies, as if any enemy who dared to stop them would be trampled into dust!

After Tang Zhen had completely mastered the fire-elemental laws, he already possessed the ability to use the power of the laws to create things. Not only could he create high-level magical creatures with intelligence that was no different from real living creatures, but he could also create simple magical creatures with simple intelligence. There was no upper limit to the number of simple magical creatures.

The difference between the two was that the higher the level and the more intelligent a magical creature was, the more power of laws it would need to consume!

A pure magical creature could not exist for a long time. As long as it lost the support of Tang Zhen's power of law, it would vanish in an instant. However, it was more than enough to be used in a short-term battle.

The flame Knight that appeared at this time was a simple magical creature. Although it did not have much intelligence, it could still cause terrifying damage to the enemy by relying on the help of the magical flames!

Moreover, other than the law flames themselves, these flame Knights also possessed the combat techniques that Tang Zhen had instilled into them. They could fight with the enemy in a similar manner and not just blindly charge!

As Tang Zhen's strength continued to increase, there would come a day when he would be able to release countless magical creatures with a wave of his hand and completely drown his enemies with an earth-shattering attack!

Chapter 1186

1186 Admit defeat (1)

The blood-eyed Sorcerer's heart trembled. After the flame Knight appeared, he immediately recognized the origin of this special creature.

The power of laws could imitate everything, but it was not. Although it could not exist for a long time, its power could not be underestimated!

Although there wasn't much of a difference between his cultivation and Tang Zhen's, this small gap was not something that could be measured. When they fought, it was even a completely unequal situation.

Moreover, due to the different cultivation systems, the blood-eyed sorcerers were unable to create magical creatures in batches like Tang Zhen. At most, they could only create a small number of magical elemental servants!

This was also one of the characteristics of the cultivators in Lou city. Even in terms of cultivation, they completely set a large-scale invasion as their goal and suppressed the enemy with numbers!

Looking at the cold eyes of the flame Knight hidden behind the helmet of the armor, the blood-eyed sorcerer did not dare to be careless. He drove his insect avatars to intercept with all his might, and various defensive means were used one after another.

The attacks from both sides collided in an instant, and the flood of flaming Knights crashed into the defensive wall set up by the insect's avatars. They began to disintegrate one after another, turning into meteors that returned to the cloud of flames and re-condensed.

As for the defensive wall built by the insect clones, they were constantly disintegrating under the flame Knight's fearless attacks. One by one, the insect clones were also reduced to ashes amidst screams!

In the face of such a fierce attack, the blood-eyed cultivator could only retreat continuously to avoid being affected by the law flames. However, if the current situation continued, it was only a matter of time before the blood-eyed cultivator was defeated by Tang Zhen.

However, at this moment, the space beside Tang Zhen suddenly split open. Immediately after, a malevolent insect's head rapidly rushed out. It dragged its long body as it shot straight towards the back of Tang Zhen's heart.

This ambushing insect was the one whose head had tunneled into the void earlier. As for the other half of its body, it was still somewhere far away and was still extending.

Looking at the posture of the insect clone, it was clearly going to directly penetrate Tang Zhen's body!

"Aooo!"

A low roar mixed with anger was heard. The instant the insect's clone launched a sneak attack, a huge and ferocious head suddenly extended out from the flame cloud behind Tang Zhen and bit the insect's neck.

The insect's clone let out a miserable howl and kept twisting its body in an attempt to break free, but it was to no avail.

"Ka-Chak, ka-Chak!"

A crisp sound was heard, and the neck of the insect's clone was bitten off. Then, the huge head shook slightly and swallowed the head of the insect clone. After chewing twice, black smoke came out of the corner of its mouth and looked at the blood-eyed Magus.

When its gaze fell on the insect clones, a trace of greed appeared in its huge eyes formed by flames. After hesitating for a few breaths, it actually twisted its body and struggled out of the flame cloud!

After it had completely left the flaming Cloud, what appeared in front of the blood-eyed Magus was a giant Flaming Dragon that was a hundred meters long. Its scales were all very vivid and lifelike. After circling in the air once, it flew towards the blood-eyed Magus.

Looking at the giant Flaming Dragon that was charging at him aggressively, how could the blood-eyed sorcerer not know that this was a magical creature with extremely high intelligence? therefore, he immediately had the intention to retreat.

The strength of these high-level magical creatures was at least on par with King-level cultivators, and sometimes they were even comparable to a magical King. With the increase in strength in the magical domain, their combat power was definitely not ordinary.

Even with the strength of the blood-eyed Magus, he could not guarantee that he would be able to defeat this kind of high-level magical creature that was almost unkillable. Unless he could kill Tang Zhen or escape, he could forget about getting rid of the entanglement of the fire Dragon.

“Stop! I admit defeat!”

Due to the increasingly disadvantageous situation, the blood-eyed Magus finally chose to give in and admit defeat, so as to avoid unnecessary losses.

In fact, he had already paid a painful price in the battle just now. He had lost almost two-thirds of the insect clones that he had painstakingly cultivated, which made the blood-eyed Magus 'heart ache so much that it was dripping blood.

This was not an ordinary insect. It was not easy to obtain it, and it was even more difficult to cultivate it. In the end, after a “spar” with Tang Zhen, more than half of his wealth had gone down the drain.

He didn't want to continue and let all of his insect clones die. If that happened, his combat power would fall to an unbearable level, and he would have to bear all kinds of risks!

The cruelty of the Sorcerer world was no less than that of the world of loucheng. Everything was for the sake of one's own interests. How could the blood-eyed sorcerer not understand this principle and put himself in danger?

Therefore, at the most critical moment, the blood-eyed Magus decisively chose to admit defeat.

As the blood-eyed Magus shouted this, the charging formation of the flame Knights came to an abrupt stop. They turned into streams of fire and flew back to the cloud of fire. As for the giant Flame Dragon, it let out an unwilling roar and circled in the air twice before entering the cloud of fire.

Tang Zhen gently waved his hand and slowly walked towards the blood-eyed Magus. The flame cloud behind him also seemed to collapse and shrink, quickly condensing into a tiny flame and flying into Tang Zhen's palm.

you just need to wait for the time being. As for when you can leave, it will depend on your companion's speed!

After throwing out these words, Tang Zhen coldly glanced at the blood-eyed Magus and completely disappeared in an instant.

After seeing Tang Zhen leave, the blood-eyed Magus secretly heaved a sigh of relief. A trace of fear flashed in his eyes.

Recalling the process of the fight just now, the blood-eyed Magus confirmed that he was not Tang Zhen's opponent at all. This was because Tang Zhen had not taken half a step closer to him from the beginning to the end. He used close-range attacks, which was the fighting method that cultivators in Loucheng city were most skilled in.

If Tang Zhen were to launch a close-range attack on him, in addition to the swift and fierce attack from earlier, it was likely that he would already be either dead or injured!

damn it, I've actually encountered such a troublesome enemy. I wonder if the plan can be carried out smoothly?"

A trace of ruthlessness appeared in the blood-eyed Magus' eyes when he thought of this. His killing intent towards Tang Zhen once again surfaced.

This mission had been planned for a long time, and the high-level Magi of the fifth continental ring had invested a lot of manpower and material resources. The purpose was naturally to obtain rich rewards by invading the world of Loucheng, so failure was absolutely not allowed.

Because if the plan failed, the fifth ring would suffer great losses, and the impact would not recover for hundreds of years. Especially when this happened, other enemies were likely to take advantage of the situation and launch a large-scale war against the fifth continent ring!

In order to prevent such an accident from happening, the blood-eyed Magus had to get rid of all unstable factors. Tang Zhen, who had suddenly appeared, was the biggest hidden danger in this plan!

However, the powerful strength that Tang Zhen had displayed, as well as his strange behavior after discovering the plan, had caused the blood-eyed Magus to be filled with fear and suspicion. He did not know what his next step should be.

Should he kill him at all costs, or should he use other means to temporarily stabilize him and wait until he figured out the other party's specific intentions before making a move?

The blood-eyed Magus pondered for a while and finally let out a soft sigh. He slowly sat cross-legged on a floating rock.

In fact, the most important thing at the moment was to leave this dimensional rift first and then think about what to do next.

He only hoped that Tang Zhen would keep his promise and let him leave after receiving the ransom.

The blood-eyed Magus had no other choice!

Chapter 1187

1187 Cultivator of the merchant shop

On one of the streets of the myriad world mall, tourists were streaming in. Most of them had extraordinary identities in their respective worlds, but in this mall, they were just ordinary tourists.

In a place where the tourists couldn't notice, two cultivators in special uniforms with concealed auras were standing. They looked vigilantly at the passing crowd and whispered a few words to each other from time to time.

On the back of the uniforms of the two cultivators, there was a pattern that seemed to come alive. It was the unique symbol of the myriad world mall!

Those who knew about the myriad world mall would be shocked to see these two cultivators, because they were the legendary cultivators from the mall who were elusive!

It was said that these cultivators from the city of trade were all extraordinary. Each of them had the strength to suppress a world and could be regarded as the top powerhouses in any world!

Besides, there were many rumors about the cultivators from Shang city. It was hard to tell the truth from the lies, but everyone knew the origin of the cultivators from Shang city!

After countless years of development, the reputation of the myriad world mall had long been well-known. There were legends about the myriad world mall among the cultivators and dignitaries of many worlds.

The reason why it was called a legend was that the cultivators and influential people who had the opportunity to come into contact with the myriad world mall and were teleported here were basically a small group of people at the top. Even if low-level cultivators had the opportunity to come into contact with it, the high teleportation fee was enough to make them flinch.

The Guardians of the teleportation array established in many worlds of the myriad world mall all adhered to the same principle. As long as they could not afford the teleportation fee, they would never allow the teleportation.

The reason for this was simple. Since they could not even afford the teleportation fee, what right did they have to trade in the myriad world mall, which had countless top-tier shops and all kinds of rare treasures?

One must know that even if you were the richest in the world, you might not be able to buy a single item you liked in the myriad world mall because you simply did not have enough money!

However, it was precisely because the myriad world mall gathered the rare treasures of countless worlds that as long as one could enter it and had enough money to buy the items they needed, the improvement of one's strength was definitely a certainty.

Unknowingly, the myriad world mall had become a Holy Land in the eyes of many cultivators from the other world. It seemed that as long as one could enter it, they would definitely soar to the sky when they came out!

It was a pity that the cost of the teleportation circle was too high, and it could not be paid in local currency. Instead, one could choose one or several items from the payment list provided by The Guardian, and after collecting the required amount, one could obtain the teleportation qualification.

However, none of these items were ordinary. Any one of them was enough to make people fight over it. However, there were several or even more than ten sets here!

Other than the top forces and aristocrats, very few people could do this. This also led to the strong becoming stronger. They used the benefits obtained from the myriad world mall to stabilize their rule!

Many low-level cultivators in the other world were indignant about this. They were not willing to see the opportunity in front of them be cut off because of a teleportation quota.

When they really couldn't fulfill the requirements of the teleportation array's Guardian, some cultivators from the other world even directly attacked the teleportation array's Guardian. However, no one had ever succeeded. They either died at the hands of the teleportation array's Guardian or were hunted down by the world's ruling class.

To be able to set up teleportation arrays in different worlds, the myriad world mall naturally had to have a good relationship with those in power. The means used were nothing more than coercion and temptation, which were simple but effective.

However, the myriad world mall did not completely turn away potential customers. Therefore, every once in a while, they would authorize the teleporter Guardian to issue a certain number of nameless teleportation cards. As long as one held such a teleportation card, they could be teleported to the myriad world mall for free on a designated day.

There was even a rumor that the top ten cultivators who held such a teleportation token had a great chance of being hired by the myriad world mall and becoming the cultivators they supported!

This was undoubtedly a great temptation. For those low-level cultivators who lived under the oppression of the big forces all day long and had almost no chance to make a name for themselves, this was undoubtedly the best opportunity for them to make a great leap!

Even the major forces that could obtain the right to teleport would make active preparations during this event. They would let their outstanding disciples participate in the competition and fight for the limited spots.

The reason why they did this was because they knew the secret behind it. They knew that the top ten cultivators who obtained the free teleportation token would have a chance to enter the myriad world mall and eventually become a cultivator of the myriad world mall!

The biggest benefit of becoming a cultivator of the myriad world mall was that he could get a recommendation opportunity to let a new shop that had been approved join the myriad world mall for a period of 100 years!

And as long as one had a shop in the myriad world mall, then as long as there were no accidents, just with the resources of the myriad world mall, one would become the Overlord of the world sooner or later!

This was one of the benefits that the myriad world mall gave to its cultivators. They could obtain unimaginable benefits from this alone, while the mall did not have to pay anything at all, because the shops in the mall were re-signed after a hundred years.

Of course, if one did not have enough strength, it would be impossible to obtain the right to rent a shop in the myriad world mall. Even if one had the strength, it would still be impossible. Therefore, the recommendation opportunity for a new cultivator of the myriad world mall was extremely important!

It was precisely because of the interests involved behind this that every time the myriad world mall distributed the teleportation cards, it would attract countless cultivators to try to compete for this extremely rare opportunity.

At that time, there would be a gathering of geniuses and countless experts. They would gather in the dimensional gap specially opened by the myriad world mall and start a bloody battle!

And the main targets of their struggle were precisely the 10 free teleportation tokens No. 1 to 10, which had a special meaning!

The battle would last for several days, and anyone who was caught up in it would be affected. Only the truly strong and those with great luck could kill their way out of countless enemies and successfully guard the teleportation token until the battle ended!

When the world of the dimensional gap reopens, those lucky ones who were covered in blood and murderous intent were destined to be remembered by everyone. Even if they were worthless before this, as long as they successfully obtained the top 10 teleportation tokens, they would be famous overnight!

Countless forces would try to win him over at all costs, hoping that after he became a cultivator of the Shang city, he would recommend them to get the management rights of the store.

As for the cultivators who died in the unknown dimensional gap and their bodies could not even be found, no one cared about them except for their families and friends.

As for the cultivators from the other world who had obtained ordinary teleportation tokens, they could use them as they didn't have a name. Therefore, they had to work hard to keep their teleportation tokens so that they wouldn't be robbed by others. Then, they would wait for the day of teleportation to come!

However, there were also people who chose to sell the teleportation token to obtain enough resources. This was because they knew very well that even if they entered the myriad world mall, it would be difficult to move without money. It would be better to cash it out directly!

There were actually quite a number of teleportation cards that were lost outside for various reasons, and the myriad world mall also recognized their effectiveness.

Because of this, every time a teleportation token appeared, it would inevitably lead to a bloody fight for it!

From this point, it could be seen that the rise of the myriad world mall was actually full of bloody killing. However, in many cases, they did not need to bear the crime of butchers, but could bring real butchers under their command to protect their inviolable interests.

When someone tried to do harm to the myriad world mall, these cultivators who had climbed out of mountains of corpses and seas of blood and had been trained by the myriad world mall with a lot of resources would let the enemy experience true despair!

Chapter 1188

1188 The enmity between the two major forces

The sudden appearance of the two cultivators from the mall was due to an unexpected situation.

Just a few hours ago, the Super biological artificial intelligence in charge of monitoring the mall suddenly issued a warning. Special energy fluctuations were detected in a certain Commercial Street, suspected to be sabotaging activities by enemies.

The four cultivators in charge of the safety of the commercial Street immediately set out. In less than ten minutes, they successfully arrived at the exact location where the special energy fluctuation was emitted.

This was an ordinary shop, but for some reason, it chose to close its doors, which was very abnormal.

Just as the cultivators from Shang city approached the suspicious spot, they were immediately attacked by unknown cultivators. They were ruthless and fierce, and the cultivators from Shang city suffered a great loss in the first exchange.

Three cultivators from Shang city were seriously injured. The remaining cultivator fought with all his might, but he could only watch the enemy escape in the chaos and disappear.

For such an unexpected situation, the myriad world mall had already come up with a way to deal with it. They immediately filtered out the waist tag numbers that had just stopped here one by one through the screening of the Super biological brain.

Through the serial number of these waist tokens, the myriad world mall easily locked onto the enemy's identity. Then, the hidden function of the waist token was immediately activated, and the wearer of the waist token was teleported into the dimensional gap prison.

As long as the enemy was sent to the forbidden land, the cultivators of the Shang city would have countless ways to make the enemy speak and find out who the mastermind was.

Even if the enemy knew about the hidden function of the waist tag and tried to turn it off and discard it, they would soon realize in despair that they were inside the huge city wall in the real world.

The cultivators stationed inside the city wall of the myriad world mall would capture him at the first moment, and the enemy would not be able to escape!

Compared to the myriad world mall in the dimensional gap, the real world was the base camp of the owner of the myriad world mall. However, because of the special means used, it was impossible to get close from the real world!

Even if the enemy wanted to launch an attack on the myriad world mall from the real world and break through the layers of defense to enter the city wall, they would find that it was just an open space!

As for the real headquarters of the myriad world mall, it had already been moved to a safe and hidden location when the danger occurred. It would only return after the crisis was over!

It could be said that the defense of the myriad world mall was impregnable. A small disturbance would not cause any damage to it at all. As for this kind of special situation where the base camp was moved and hidden, it had only happened a few times in the history of the myriad world mall.

After the battle, the enemies who participated in the attack were captured in less than five minutes by relying on powerful and efficient defense and security measures!

The myriad world mall would never show mercy to their enemies. Several cultivators from the mall who were good at interrogation entered the dimensional cage. In less than an hour, they had obtained the information they wanted.

The enemy that participated in this destruction came from the loucheng world, the damn place that the myriad world mall hated but could do nothing about!

This was not the first time the two sides had come into contact. The controller of the myriad world mall had forgotten when it started. Lou Cheng from the world of Lou Cheng had accidentally entered this world and directly launched an invasion of the myriad world mall!

The controller of the myriad world mall, who was attacked, was furious. He quickly gathered a large number of cultivators to counterattack. With the powerful cultivator battle team, they only used three days to defeat the invading city!

However, this invading tower was not simple either. It actually managed to send a message back to the tower world and was not destroyed by the hands of the myriad world mall.

After this incident, out of fear of the world of loucheng, the myriad world mall not only banned the opening of the dimensional rift connecting to the world of loucheng forever, but also completely blocked the plane coordinates, so that no enemy could bypass their surveillance and teleport to this world.

However, after seeing the shocking wealth of the myriad world mall, the cornerstone platform of the war zone, which had once participated in the invasion, began to issue missions to invade the myriad world mall and then teleport the cultivators in the city through various means.

The myriad world mall had collected information about the loucheng world through various means and knew that the other party was a terrifying war monster. Therefore, they did not want to have too much entanglement with it. However, they would also show no mercy to cultivators from the loucheng world who tried to destroy it.

The battle between the two sides continued for many years, until the cornerstone platform of the war zone finally gave up on this mission and turned to other worlds that could possibly reap rich rewards.

However, among the three thousand battlefields of the loucheng world, the cornerstone platform in each battlefield was extremely aggressive. They were searching for worlds that could be invaded at almost all times. As the myriad world mall had built many teleportation arrays, it was very easy for the cornerstone platform to discover and lock onto them!

Therefore, a similar scene played out again. Because of the myriad world mall, teleportation towers could not be sent to the new battle zone. They could only constantly send cultivators to investigate and try to open up new plane channels by force through runic magic circles.

At a certain point in time, five battlefields had issued missions to the myriad world mall at the same time, and intense battles occurred from time to time.

As for why the runic magic circle was chosen to be built inside the myriad world mall, it was because of the uniqueness of the myriad world mall. Only by building the coordinates inside could one really enter this world. Otherwise, the transmission channel would be affected by the special power and cause incredible deviations!

There was once a tower that suffered a great loss. Because of the misdirection of the plane channel established outside the myriad world mall, it was sent to a dangerous place. The entire tower did not even have the chance to return and was completely turned into dust.

However, it was almost impossible to build a runic magic circle inside the myriad world mall. Under the supervision of the Super biological smart-brain, the cultivators of Lou Cheng had never succeeded!

On the other hand, more and more cultivators from loucheng city who participated in the mission fell into the hands of the myriad world mall. No one knew what their final outcome would be.

As time passed, the conflict between the two sides became more and more intense. The cornerstone platform of the war zone, which had paid a painful price, became angry from embarrassment and began to include assassinating the upper echelons of the myriad world mall in the mission.

Tang Zhen, who was in the spirit ruins Warzone, had also experienced a similar process, which was why he had issued a similar mission!

The cultivators of the myriad world mall were not unfamiliar with the world of loucheng. They knew how dangerous it was, so they immediately took action, digging three feet deep to search for the cultivators of loucheng who were hiding.

Through the interrogation just now, the myriad world mall already knew the number of cultivators participating in the mission and began to investigate them one by one through the Super biological brain.

One by one, the cultivators of loucheng city were discovered and locked onto. Then, they were sent into the Dimensional Prison through the hidden function of the waist token. More than 70% of the cultivators of loucheng city were about to take action when they inexplicably fell into the hands of the enemy.

The cultivators of Lou Cheng who had not been captured by the myriad world mall were either still in the real world and were about to be hunted down by the cultivators of the mall, or they had not arrived at the myriad world mall at all for some special reason.

As one of the participants of the mission, Tang Zhen was also included in the list of people to be hunted down. However, when the Super biological brain confirmed that he had entered the myriad world mall and issued a hidden command to the waist tag he was wearing, it discovered that the waist tag did not respond at all!

This kind of unexpected situation immediately attracted the attention of the Super biological brain. The investigation and tracking of Tang Zhen was also rapidly launched at this moment. However, it was only at this moment that the cultivators in the mall discovered that the target they were pursuing had long disappeared!

Chapter 1189

1189 Reeling silk from cocoons (1)

Tang Zhen's bizarre disappearance surprised the cultivators from the Shang city who were chasing him.

Under normal circumstances, as long as the visitors who entered the myriad world mall left their waist tokens, they would be repelled by a special force field and directly appear on the giant city wall inside the mall. They would then be caught on the spot by the cultivators of the mall who had been waiting for a long time!

If the waist token never left the person's hand, then the visitor would never be able to leave the dimensional world where the myriad world mall was located. As long as they stayed inside the mall, they would be locked on by the Super creature's brain.

Even though the mall was incredibly large, there was still no place to hide!

In addition, if any other accidents happened to the tourists, the waist token would also report everything in real time. Nothing would be missed during this period.

However, Tang Zhen and the waist token he was wearing were like stones sinking into the ocean under this kind of strict surveillance. It was useless no matter how they tried to track him!

This was the first time such a special situation had happened. In addition, Tang Zhen's name was on the list of people to be arrested within a time limit. Therefore, the myriad world mall immediately sent elite cultivators to split up and search from the beginning to the end.

The first target to be investigated by the cultivators of the Shang city was the jellyfish store that Tang Zhen had visited before.

When the jellyfish shopkeeper saw more than ten cultivators from the mall with murderous looks on their faces appear in his shop, he was so scared that his whole body turned green. The electric current on the surface of his body continued to gather and explode, which represented extreme fear in his race.

These shop owners knew better than anyone how terrifying the cultivators of the Shang city were. Whenever this evil accomplice appeared, it meant that something bad was going to happen!

The jellyfish shop owner, who had always been doing business honestly, was worried. He really didn't know what he had done wrong to make these cultivators from the mall come to him.

After the cultivators from the Merchant City asked, the jellyfish shop owner recovered from his state of fear and explained the entire process of his contact with Tang Zhen without holding anything back.

After the inquiry was over and the cultivator confirmed that the jellyfish shopkeeper was not hiding anything, he bought the out of body sand at the original price from the jellyfish shopkeeper!

After this item from Tang Zhen was sealed, it was urgently sent back to the headquarters of the Shang city for analysis and study. The rest of the cultivators from the Shang city continued to track Tang Zhen until he entered an alley.

When the video recording reached this point, Tang Zhen seemed to have disappeared from the face of the earth. He never once walked out of the alley.

However, the cultivators from the Merchant City did not come back empty-handed. Although Tang Zhen had changed his appearance, he did not hide his waist token immediately. Therefore, after the cultivators from the Merchant City considered that Tang Zhen might have changed his appearance, they screened the nearby tourists again.

A similar situation had happened before, but as long as the waist token was still there, it was absolutely impossible to escape the lock-on of the Super creature's intelligent brain!

Sure enough, the results of the screening proved the cultivator's guess. Tang Zhen had indeed changed his appearance and turned into a race that even the cultivator from the mall couldn't see any abnormalities.

Even the Super biological brain was unable to discover any traces of disguise. It was as if this was Tang Zhen's actual body.

The cultivators from the Shang city were secretly impressed by this disguising technique, but at the same time, they were also worried.

If Tang Zhen was able to change his appearance and his waist token was also blocked, then it would undoubtedly be wishful thinking if they wanted to find Tang Zhen again.

To be able to shield the waist token was equivalent to completely hiding oneself. Unless Tang Zhen appeared in front of the cultivators of the mall, even the Super biological brain would be helpless!

The only way was to rely on manpower to search continuously, but that would cause too much of a commotion and may cause unnecessary panic among the tourists.

It must be known that the number of tourists staying in the myriad world mall was at least ten million. Only one-third of them stayed for a long time, and the rest were temporary tourists.

As long as Tang Zhen hid among the tourists, he would definitely be able to leave without anyone knowing. Furthermore, the cultivators of the myriad world mall would not be able to discover him!

In the video, Tang Zhen followed a few tourists into the dimensional barrier and finally disappeared completely. The cultivators of the mall immediately transferred another video recording and continued to stare at the video, afraid that they would miss anything.

At the same time, the person in charge of this arrest operation ordered his subordinates to investigate the specific identity of Tang Zhen's pursuer. The faster the better!

The person-in-charge of the cultivators from the mall who were in charge of hunting down Tang Zhen was extremely robust. He was wearing the standard armor of the myriad world mall, and his eyes were abnormally sharp. He was extremely experienced in dealing with similar situations, and his strength was not inferior to a law King!

He stared intently at Tang Zhen on the screen and didn't miss any details in order to search for possible clues.

In the end, when Tang Zhen and the others entered the shop where the secret meeting was held, the information of the few customers he had tracked was placed in front of the person in charge.

you said that these people are from the wizard World and are marked by the AI as dangerous people. They are likely to be related to the destruction caused by the cultivators in loucheng? ”

The person-in-charge scanned through the videos and turned to his subordinates. He sneered and said, ” “This is a little interesting. As far as I know, the loucheng world and the Sorcerer world have always been in constant disputes, and the relationship between them is also very tense.

However, other than the never-ending invasion of the Sorcerer world by the world of loucheng, I’ve never heard of the world of loucheng being invaded by sorcerers. Otherwise, it would be interesting!”

Speaking of this, the person in charge was stunned for a moment. He quickly rummaged through the information sent by his men, then revealed a thoughtful expression.

After a moment of silence, the person in charge suddenly had an expression of realization. He said with a hint of excitement, ” “I’ve been wondering what these Wizards were planning to do, but they’ve been too secretive in the past, so we’ve never caught them.

However, when I was checking the information just now, I found something wrong. These Wizards seem to be targeting Lou Cheng, and they are obviously planning something.

Although this was not a strange thing for the enmity between the two worlds, after carefully analyzing the past actions of these Wizards, it did not seem to be as simple as a grudge.

Therefore, I’m sure that these Magi are definitely making a big plan to target the world of loucheng, and they might even invade the world of loucheng instead!”

“Apart from that, I also discovered something even more interesting. Someone is cooperating with these Magi, always providing them with some very sensitive information at the most critical moment.

And the source of this news was very likely to come from the mall!

After standing up and pacing back and forth for a few steps, the person in charge turned to look at his subordinates and gave a decisive order, ” report everything to headquarters immediately and request for a promotion of the mission. I need more manpower and higher authority!

“Your task is to collect all the information about Lou Cheng’s cultivators over the years. Don’t let go of any information about the Magi. Then, carefully analyze it and find all the suspicious points!”

After a moment of silence, the person in charge said with a hint of hesitation, ” also, investigate if there’s anyone among us who’s secretly in contact with the Wizards. Tell me when you find out, but don’t let anyone else know, understand? ”

Seeing his subordinate’s hesitant expression, the person in charge impatiently waved his hand. He then sat back on the chair and continued to watch the video recording after Tang Zhen left the shop.

However, the person-in-charge’s expression was obviously gloomy. His brows were knitted together from time to time, and no one knew what he was thinking.

The myriad world mall was actually happy to see the battle between the cultivators of the loucheng world and the Sorcerer world. Moreover, because of the constant harassment from the loucheng world, they hoped that the loucheng world would suffer some losses. After all, they had never done business with the loucheng world.

However, since this matter involved cultivators from the Shang city, it became complicated!

1190 The dark side of the world of loucheng

The myriad world mall had been in operation for many years, so the intelligence system it had was naturally extremely powerful and fast. Therefore, the person in charge quickly got what he wanted.

Looking at the sorted information, the person in charge's face became gloomier and gloomier. In the end, he snorted coldly.

"Go and call Xiao Dao over. Also, don't tell him about this. If he plans to escape or arrest you, you absolutely can't let him leave, understand?"

After the cultivators under him left with worried expressions, the person-in-charge clicked on his communication device. An image immediately popped up in front of him. A handsome man in white clothes and silver hair appeared on the screen.

He looked at the person in charge with an elegant posture and a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, giving people a feeling of a spring breeze.

"Lord manager, I've discovered something related to the loucheng world and the Sorcerer world. I think we can make use of Jian Jia."

Ten minutes later, the person in charge ended the call with the man in white and turned to look at the door.

"Bring Xiao Dao in, I have some things to ask him."

As the person-in-charge's voice fell, a cultivator from the mall with a cold and determined expression but a hint of panic in his eyes walked in. Behind him were two fully armed cultivators.

"Xiao Dao, you sit down. As for the two of you, leave first. You are not allowed to come in without my orders!"

After the two men left, the person-in-charge walked to the opposite side of dagger and sat down. He stared at dagger for a long time without saying anything.

The cultivator named Xiao Dao was calm at first, but as time went by, he seemed to be a little guilty. His eyes were wandering, and he didn't dare to look at the person in charge.

After a long time, the person in charge sighed and said, "Xiao Dao, we've known each other for almost fifty years, right?"

"It's fifty-three years, Captain!" Xiao Dao nodded.

that's right, it's been fifty-three years, but it's only today that I realized that I've never really understood you, my brother!

The corner of Xiao Dao's eyes twitched slightly, and he said in a puzzled tone, "Captain, what do you mean by this?"

The person in charge smiled and patted Xiao Dao's shoulder, then shook his head.

"I know that you came from a place called planet kort." After a brutal battle, you finally obtained a free teleportation card. You went through countless hardships before you finally became a cultivator of the Merchant City!

In fact, all of us brothers have similar experiences. It's also because of this that we can understand and take care of each other, and there's no difference between us and real brothers.

What are brothers? we should share blessings and difficulties together. As long as we have this group of true brothers, there is absolutely no way we can cross this hurdle!"

When Xiao Dao heard this, his eyes trembled slightly, as if he wanted to say something, but in the end, he chose to remain silent.

The person-in-charge glanced at Xiao Dao and shook his head. There was a hint of sternness in his tone."Even now, you still want to hide it. I can tell you clearly that the things you've done might cost you your life!

Unless you tell me how you colluded with the Magi and how you schemed against the world of loucheng, and see if there is any room for change, no one can save you!"

After hearing the person in charge's words, dagger's body suddenly trembled. He stood up from his chair, and a dangerous aura spread.

Even if this aura wasn't as powerful as a nomological King's, it was enough to crush an ordinary King level cultivator!

However, in front of the person-in-charge, this aura was like snow meeting a raging flame. It instantly disappeared without a trace!

"What, you still want to attack me?"

The person in charge snorted and looked at Xiao Dao coldly. He waved his hand and chased away the cultivators from the mall who had just rushed in.

Looking at the angry Captain, Xiao Dao hesitated for a moment. In the end, he let out a long sigh and sat back on the chair, his face full of unwillingness.

"Tell me, what's going on?" the person-in-charge sighed.

If it's possible, I'll try my best to help you. At the very least, I'll keep you alive!"

When Xiao Dao heard this, he laughed bitterly. There was a trace of confusion in his eyes as he said in a low voice, "Since you've already noticed it, there's no need for me to continue hiding it."

"Actually, before I joined the myriad world mall, I was once a resident of Lou city!"

After the person in charge heard this, he was slightly stunned at first, then he revealed a thoughtful expression.

He thought for a moment before nodding. "As I thought, I remember the information stated that Cott planet was once invaded by a Lou Cheng more than 70 years ago. Could it be that you are the survivor of that defeated Lou Cheng?"

"That's right. After the city was destroyed, some of the residents and I were lucky enough to escape from the pursuit of the native cultivators. In the end, we hid our names and survived.

Although I managed to keep my life, I will never forget who caused the destruction of the tower and the death of my family and friends. I swear that I will take revenge on them!"

When Xiao Dao said this, his face was already slightly twisted. His eyes flickered with the flames of hatred, and his clenched fists made cracking sounds.

"Who's your enemy? is it related to the world of loucheng?"

The person in charge seemed to have thought of something and asked casually.

that's right. My enemy is a continent-level tower in the spirit fall battle zone. They forced the tower I was in to constantly invade the other world and hand in a fixed amount of spoils of war on a regular basis. Otherwise, I would be brutally suppressed by them!

In the central region of the spiritual ruins Warzone, this is actually a very common thing. It's not only the loucheng that I'm in that would be oppressed and blackmailed!

Our city Lord is not willing to be bullied like this, but we can't count on the cornerstone platform because almost all the elders in the continent-level city have a certain level of authority on the cornerstone platform. The joint Elders Council formed by them can even control the cornerstone platform to a certain extent!

He could only secretly contact some castellans who were also unwilling to be exploited and prepared to find an opportunity to leave the central region and head to the edge of the Warzone or even join other warzones.

With the strength of our city, it will only take a hundred years at most to build a new national-level city!"

With a sorrowful expression, Xiao Dao continued, " "However, just as they finished their discussion and were prepared to carry out the plan in secret, a hidden traitor leaked the news, and we were completely unaware of it.

Very quickly, we accepted a new invasion mission, the target of the invasion is Cott planet.

However, when we were teleported to this world, we were shocked to find that the strength of the tower's protective shield had been reduced to the lowest level, and the price of the items on the cornerstone platform had been raised several times. All the situations were extremely unfavorable to us!

What was even more despairing was that the tower's teleportation was so powerful that the native cultivators of Cott planet were prepared for it. Therefore, the moment the tower descended, it suffered a fatal blow. The lowest level of protection was instantly shattered, and the residents of the tower suffered heavy casualties!

My parents and sister died in the hands of the native cultivators at that time, and we, the children, were protected by the people sent by the city Lord in an attempt to preserve the last trace of hope!

The reason why he made such a decision was because there was no way out. The damn cornerstone platform actually rejected the return request, and we were completely abandoned on the Otherworld battlefield. The final outcome was only death!”

I know, this must have something to do with those continent-level towers. They must have done something to the cornerstone platform to kill us!

Looking at Xiao Dao’s pained expression, the person in charge sighed and patted his shoulder to comfort him.

“So that’s why you fought for the free teleportation card at all costs, desperately improved your strength to become a cultivator of the Merchant City, and then used your authority to secretly cooperate with the Wizards to take revenge on the loucheng world?

moreover, your actions will also involve the Commerce City and continuously intensify the conflicts between them. When the hatred accumulates to a certain extent, there is a possibility of war between the two sides!

Even if the Shang city doesn’t attack the loucheng world, the Magus world will invade the battle zone in the spirit ruins that you mentioned after they are fully prepared. At that time, you can take revenge, am I right?”

Xiao Dao sneered when he heard that. Killing intent surged in his eyes as he nodded lightly.
