1251 Half a year of development _1

Time passed day by day, and half a year had passed since the Holy Dragon City was unsealed.

Half a year was enough for a lot of things to happen, especially for a city with great potential. Huge changes were happening at every moment!

In these peaceful days, not only did Holy Dragon City regain its former prosperity, but beautiful metal buildings also rose from the ground and appeared in front of the city's residents one after another, protecting Holy Dragon City.

According to Tang Zhen's idea, this kind of metal building could be used for the residents to live in during normal times. When they encountered danger, it could also be transformed into a war fortress in an extremely short time to attack the enemy.

In order to realize his own ideas, Tang Zhen did not hesitate to spend a lot of money and invited many top designers from the original world. After careful design and selection, he finally obtained the construction blueprint he wanted.

According to the design plan, the entire Holy Dragon City was divided into several areas. The architectural style of each area was different, and all kinds of famous architectural schools in the original world could occupy a place in it!

However, the buildings that occupied the largest proportion were those that were filled with a modern and sci-fi style. Every one of them was the painstaking work of the top designers in the original world and could definitely be called the best of the best!

Ground-to-air missiles, laser weapons, close-range defense cannons, and other weapons were all hidden in the building. When they were not activated, outsiders would not be able to discover anything unusual.

Other than the weapons from the original world, the high-tech weapons from the terobo people were also hidden within.

After the blueprint was completed, Tang Zhen used his spiritual power to copy down the blueprint and instilled it into the metal brain one by one, allowing it to build according to the blueprint.

This process was extremely cumbersome. Fortunately, Tang Zhen's mental energy was as vast as the ocean. Otherwise, just recording and copying these blueprints would be enough to cause him to completely collapse!

After the metal brain, which was fed by Tang Zhen with a large amount of the world's Origin Energy, obtained the building blueprints, it was like a child who had received a beloved toy. It directed an increasing number of metal construction bugs and began to play the game of "building houses"!

The massive amount of blueprints that seemed extremely troublesome to ordinary people was very simple to the metal brain. Building it was even easier, and there would definitely be no omissions.

Under the metal brain's command, a massive number of metal construction bugs worked non-stop, and one metal building after another rose from the ground. Not only were the details exactly the same as the drawings, but they were also so accurate that it was as if they had been measured with a ruler. The exterior was also exquisitely carved, and they looked like huge works of art.

The first to take shape was a large area of buildings filled with the remnants of the great Tang Dynasty. There were no missing cornices or arches, and coupled with the carefully cultivated flowers and plants, it made one feel as if they were in another time and space, making the residents of Holy Dragon City exclaim in admiration.

Although the style of the original building had been preserved as much as possible, there were still many changes. First, the area of the building was infinitely expanded. The most eye-catching one was a 300-meter-tall metal tower, which looked extremely majestic!

When it was first designed, other than the basic residential function, the metal tower was also a super defense tower. A large number of high-tech weapons were installed in it to fight against possible enemies in the future.

The defensive Wizard Tower that was once destroyed by the teroboros would be built next to the metal tower, allowing the two to complement each other.

Other than the metal tower, the other buildings also had hidden functions. It was just that other than the core members of Holy Dragon City, very few people could access them.

As for the Holy Dragon city's residents, they had a feast for the eyes. They had never thought that there would be such beautiful buildings in the world!

Just looking at it was refreshing, not to mention that they would be able to live in it one day in the future!

Due to the use of special alloy formulas, necessary decorations would be added in the future, so the various functions of the metal building were very suitable for human habitation. At the same time, it also had a strong defense.

Even if heavy artillery was used, it would be impossible to penetrate the metal wall, not to mention bullets. If they were attacked again, the residents only needed to stay at home to basically ensure their safety.

In fact, there was also an underground project that was being carried out together with the construction on the ground. Even the residents of Holy Dragon City did not know that the ground under their feet had been gradually hollowed out. At the same time, it was replaced by a complex and solid multi-layered metal space, just like a cabin, and it was still expanding.

In these underground metal spaces, there were also enough space for thrusters to be installed to ensure that one day, the entire Holy Dragon City could fly into the sky!

Of course, this was only a plan. With the Holy Dragon city's current means, they could not do this. Unless they had more powerful technology, or they could upgrade the floating city again until it surpassed the national level!

Otherwise, other than the main city Tower being able to rise into the air, the other buildings would still remain in their original positions. This was definitely not the result that Tang Zhen wanted.

In order to support this miraculous construction project, the amount of metal resources collected by the Holy Dragon City had reached a terrifying amount. It was estimated that by the time the entire construction work was completed, the finished metal products collected from several other worlds would be completely exhausted!

At the same time, in order to ensure that the metal brain could function at a higher level, the supply of the world's origin had never stopped. The assets that Holy Dragon City had accumulated were about to be exhausted, and it was unknown if they could support the completion of the entire project.

Sometimes, Tang Zhen even considered whether he should find a new world to invade and completely plunder the world's origin source there to make up for the massive consumption in the past half a year!

However, the process of discovering a new world required time and opportunities. It could not be forced!

Fortunately, Tang Zhen also knew that this kind of thing couldn't be rushed. Therefore, he had been managing and building the City Tower in an orderly manner. Under the careful management of him and the residents under him, the Holy Dragon city's reputation grew bigger and bigger. Even the residents of the City Tower thousands of miles away had heard of the rumors about the Holy Dragon City.

The novel goods and countless opportunities attracted countless cultivators and Wanderers to the Holy Dragon City. This also caused the Holy Dragon City to be filled with people all day long, and the prosperity level was far higher than that of the wilderness War zone!

Another benefit of the increase in fame was that many of the survivors of the war zone in the wilderness who had been teleported to the spirit ruins war zone had also heard the news and came from all over the war zone.

Every time the survivors from the savage war zone arrived, the Blood River King and the other cultivators who were brought back by Tang Zhen from the other world would rush over to see if there were any friends or relatives among the survivors.

Although they knew how difficult it was to survive the catastrophe that had spread throughout the entire war zone, they still couldn't help but have a glimmer of hope and hope in their hearts.

Although most of the cultivators returned in disappointment, there were still some cultivators who were extremely lucky. When they really saw their long-lost relatives, they were so moved that tears filled their eyes!

After these loucheng survivors who once belonged to the wilderness War zone arrived, they would basically choose to stay near the Holy Dragon City because the Holy Dragon City would never bully them. Instead, they would be given appropriate care.

Moreover, with the gradual development of the Holy Dragon City, there were more and more opportunities. There was even a chance to become a resident of the city. The survivors who had suffered from the hardships of vagrants would naturally not miss such a good opportunity!

In addition to vigorously building the Holy Dragon City into an impregnable fortress, Tang Zhen also brought back nearly 100000 surviving cultivators from the savage war zone from the other world one after another. All of them signed employment contracts with him.

These cultivators didn't appear in front of the world but were left in the space TOWER. They could be considered as Tang Zhen's hidden card.

As for the rest of the loucheng cultivators who were still in the other world, Tang Zhen no longer deliberately searched for them. He only left their contact information and sent them over to check on them regularly. He would bring back as many as he could.

One could do as one wished, but he had to have a clear conscience. Tang Zhen was already extremely benevolent to be able to do this to this extent!

1252 The dream notebook's mutation _1

However, just as Holy Dragon city's development was progressing at a tremendous pace, an unexpected situation occurred again.

Another busy day had ended. Tang Zhen returned to his room and flipped through the notes that the dream city Lord had given him before he fell asleep.

What Tang Zhen didn't know was that after he fell asleep, the Black Diary that would update its contents from time to time suddenly emitted a fluorescent light. A special energy spread out from the diary and slowly enveloped the entire room.

Tang Zhen did not know how long he had slept in a drowsy state. Suddenly, he heard someone whispering beside his ear. That voice was soft and it seemed as though they had deliberately lowered their voices so that no one else could hear them.

A thread of vigilance rose in Tang Zhen's heart. He quietly opened his eyes, only to discover that his surroundings were completely dark. It was as if he was in a room without any lights.

The person who spoke just now was not far ahead. Relying on his Super Night Vision ability, Tang Zhen was sure that there were seven or eight people sitting there. The voice that had just been spoken came from their mouths.

Although he didn't know why he had left the bedroom and suddenly came to this strange place, Tang Zhen didn't panic in the slightest. After he confirmed that his cultivation was not affected, he gently got up from the ground and slowly walked to the side of those people.

Although Tang Zhen's footsteps were very light, these strangers sitting in the dark could still sense it. At the same time, they turned their heads and looked in Tang Zhen's direction.

"You're awake, young man?"

Another soft voice sounded. It seemed to be one of the voices from the conversation earlier. However, he had deliberately lowered his voice and spoke in a sneaky manner, causing Tang Zhen to frown slightly.

“Who are you? why am I here?”

Tang Zhen slowly opened his mouth and asked. As he was unable to figure out the exact situation, his voice was similarly not too loud.

I knew you would ask this. Come and sit down, and I'll tell you slowly!

Tang Zhen's powerful strength caused him to be fearless. Although the atmosphere here was filled with strangeness, he still followed the instructions of the voice and slowly sat down on the ground beside these people.

As long as he found something wrong with the situation, he would use his mental power to kill all these sneaky guys!

However, Tang Zhen immediately discovered that something was amiss after he landed on the ground. This was because the ground under his buttocks was not the ground. Instead, it was an extremely soft thing to the touch. It was just like a living flesh carpet.

Although he felt strange in his heart, Tang Zhen's expression did not change. He turned his head and looked at the owner of the voice.

For some reason, when he sat on the strange flesh carpet, the darkness in front of him began to fade away, leaving only a black and white scene.

Seven or eight strange-looking men and women were leaning against each other, looking at him with cold eyes. The person who had just spoken to him was actually a middle-aged man with half a skull and a black tattoo on the other side.

They were tightly pressed together, sitting on a black spread-out object, which felt like a carpet of flesh and blood.

When he saw Tang Zhen sizing them up, the middle-aged man revealed a hair-raising smile. He continued to lower his voice and said, don't worry about where you are. Let me tell you a few things first. You must remember them, or you might lose your life!

Tang Zhen's brows twitched as he slightly nodded.

“First of all, we can't speak loudly. Otherwise, we might attract the night demons. Even if we have the nightmare skins that can hide our auras, we might be discovered by the night demons!

Once you fall into the hands of the night devil, you'll definitely suffer a fate worse than death, and it'll be too late for you to regret it!”

Tang Zhen nodded his head. He swept his gaze at the black object under his butt and secretly thought that this flesh-like blanket was called the nightmare skin. He wondered what exactly it was.

“Besides not speaking loudly, you should also pay attention to not eating anything. Anything that looks like food might cause you to mutate.

After obtaining any food, you must carefully observe it for a period of time. Only after confirming that there are no abnormalities can you eat it!”

As he spoke, the middle-aged man pointed to his face and revealed a bitter smile. did you see that? I was so hungry that I ate a piece of cake that I thought was safe. As a result, my whole body began to rot. This situation has been going on for half a year, and it has only improved recently!

Tang Zhen sized up the middle-aged man. From his angle, he could even see that only half of the middle-aged man's neck was left. Logically speaking, with such a terrifying injury, the middle-aged man should have died long ago. However, the middle-aged man was still alive and kicking. He was even telling Tang Zhen what to do in a lecturing tone!

He didn't need to think to know that this place was definitely abnormal!

Tang Zhen felt as if there was a layer of fog in front of him. He did not understand why he had suddenly come here. With his cultivation level as a law King, it was impossible for him to be completely unaware of the enemy's plot. Clearly, there was a hidden story behind this matter!

"There's one more thing you have to remember, and that is, items with real colors are very rare treasures. Once you find them, you have to get them as much as possible!

However, demons also have real colors. If you make a mistake, you may lose your life, so you have to be careful!"

"True color, what does that mean?"

Tang Zhen asked in a puzzled tone. At the same time, he swept his gaze across the people who were only in black and white. He faintly thought of something in his heart.

After the middle-aged man heard Tang Zhen's question, he patiently explained,"The so-called true color is any color other than black and white. They are all items from outside this world or the essence of monsters and have extremely high value.

Any item with real colors can be exchanged for good stuff from traveling merchants, so we can't miss it!"

After hearing the middle-aged man's explanation, Tang Zhen nodded. After which, he spoke with a curious tone, can you tell me why you're so enthusiastic about explaining this to me, and how you're so sure that I don't know this information? "

The middle-aged man used his single eye to sweep a glance at Tang Zhen when he heard this. He emitted a low and deep laugh that faintly carried a trace of dark coldness.

The other men and women also covered their mouths and chuckled at the same time. The gazes they used to look at Tang Zhen were very strange. It was as if they were gloating over his misfortune, as if they were looking at a lamb waiting to be slaughtered.

Tang Zhen seemed to have understood something. A trace of a teasing smile similarly surfaced on the corner of his mouth as he quietly watched the middle-aged man with a terrifying face.

The middle-aged man seemed to be very surprised when he discovered that Tang Zhen did not have the slightest flustered expression. However, he still continued to use a low and deep voice to say, I don't know if you've noticed, but have you noticed any differences between you and US? "

yes. Tang Zhen nodded and said indifferently, " there are indeed some differences. For example, this hand of mine!

As he spoke, Tang Zhen raised his left hand. The middle-aged man smiled and nodded. When he looked at Tang Zhen's palm, his remaining eye was filled with greed.

Tang Zhen's left hand was completely of a normal color, different from the surrounding monotonous black and white colors. Other than that, the two rings on his fingers were similarly shimmering with bright colors, appearing extremely lively.

"You must have seen my left hand and confirmed that I came from another world. As for why you're telling me this information, there must be some reason. Perhaps it's like an equivalent exchange. Only by telling me this information can you be qualified to get my hand!

Now, tell me, is that the case?"

When Tang Zhen spoke up to this point, his eyes had an additional trace of iciness as he looked at the middle-aged man. His killing intent was faintly visible.

"Hehe, I didn't expect you to be so smart. But so what? as long as I say what I need to say, you can't refuse to give it to me. These are the rules, and they can't be changed!"

At this point, the middle-aged man's face showed a hint of ferocity. He pointed to his empty eye sockets and said, " "Did you see that? I'm actually the same as you, from another world.

After I woke up, someone told me the same information, and without giving me any time to think, they directly gouged out my eyes!

Now, it's finally my turn to experience this feeling. Don't worry, I'll try my best to be gentle and slowly cut your hand off. I guarantee that you'll be able to see the entire process clearly!"

When the middle-aged man said this, his laughter became even colder, and the remaining half of his face twisted and twitched.

"Are you sure I'll let you do whatever you want? can't I just run away?"

Tang Zhen looked at the middle-aged man and continued to ask in a faint tone.

"Escape? in your dreams!"

The middle-aged man pointed at the nightmare skin that Tang Zhen was sitting on and said, once you sit on this nightmare skin, you can't leave unless you wait until dawn. Try it if you don't believe me!

Tang Zhen moved a little when he heard this and discovered that it was as if he had grown on a Nightmare's skin. He was completely unable to move!

Chapter 1253

?1253 Choosing the wrong target to scheme on

After realizing that he was tied up, Tang Zhen ignored the middle-aged man. Instead, he sized up the strange thing called nightmare skin with interest.

Speaking of which, this nightmare skin was quite magical. Although it looked like an inanimate object, when one touched it with their hands, they could feel that it was a living thing!

Even if it was dead skin shed from a nightmare, it could still survive independently and even have the possibility of evolving into a complete body.

Every time someone sat on the nightmare hide, the pores would produce countless tough hair, silently holding the person tightly. At the same time, the edges of the nightmare hide would curl up, trying to wrap around the person sitting on it.

The middle-aged man and the others were very particular about their sitting positions. They each pressed down on a part of the boundary of the skin, which prevented it from curling up. However, even so, the nightmare skin did not stop struggling!

After being wrapped by the nightmare skin, it would automatically absorb the blood essence of the trapped creature, draining its flesh and blood, and finally turning it into a dry corpse!

As long as it absorbed enough life essence, the nightmare hide would undergo a mutation. Its size would gradually increase and thicken, until it grew into a terrifying nightmare again!

In this world, the skin of a nightmare wasn't anything rare. It could often be found in the corners of some buildings. Many of them were discarded during the evolution of a nightmare, and were basically in an open state.

As for the rolled-up nightmare skins, there were skeletons wrapped in them without exception, indicating that it had once devoured a careless fellow!

Of course, Tang Zhen was temporarily unaware of this situation. He only knew that the hair from his nightmare skin had tied up his legs. It was precisely because of this that the middle-aged man appeared fearless!

As long as it was an ordinary person, they would not be able to break free from the binding of these hairs. In the end, they could only obediently let themselves be slaughtered!

After staring at the nightmare skin for a while, Tang Zhen shifted his gaze back and looked at the middle-aged man's proud smile. He gently shook his head and said in a cold voice, "It's still too early for you to be happy. Who told you that I can't leave this nightmare skin?"

The middle-aged man was startled when he heard this. He used a puzzled gaze to size up Tang Zhen while revealing a disdainful smile at the same time.

From the middle-aged man's point of view, Tang Zhen was just trying to be stubborn. When the knife fell on him, he would definitely beg for mercy with tears and snot!

There was only one thing that he could not understand. Why did Tang Zhen still have such a fearless appearance even at this moment? It was as if he was unconcerned about the danger that was about to happen to him. Moreover, it was obvious that he was not acting tough on the outside but was actually a coward on the inside.

Could it be that this man from another world really had a way to deal with the crisis in front of him? otherwise, he would not be so calm!

When the middle-aged man thought of this, a trace of vigilance suddenly appeared in his heart. He had originally planned to slowly deal with Tang Zhen so that the long night would no longer be boring. However, he had now decided to immediately take action to collect the reward that he deserved.

“It’s useless no matter what you say. If you could really leave this nightmare skin, how would you end up in this state?”

From the middle-aged man’s point of view, any unlucky person who suddenly appeared in this abandoned house was either a transmigrator from another world or a weak sleepless. With their weak strength, there was no way they could resist the restraints of the nightmare skin!

After saying this, a trace of ferocity appeared on the middle-aged man’s face again. He said to Tang Zhen in a low voice, “From now on, enjoy this rare experience. After tonight, you’ll completely lose your left hand!

Remember, do not resist or shout, or I will cut your neck instead of your wrist!”

The middle-aged man suddenly pulled out a dagger from his waist and ruthlessly swung it toward Tang Zhen’s arm as soon as he finished speaking.

The distance between the two was less than a meter. The middle-aged man’s dagger could definitely hurt Zhen Tang easily, especially when his body was trapped by the nightmare skin. It was simply impossible to escape!

A cold glint immediately flickered in Tang Zhen’s eyes when he saw that the middle-aged man had really attacked him. Moreover, he did not show any mercy at all.

When the dagger was about to come into contact with his body, Tang Zhen actually didn’t Dodge or evade. Instead, he directly extended his hand and blocked it. The dagger made of unknown material was caught by him.

“Damn it, let go of me, or I’ll make you pay a heavy price!”

When the middle-aged man saw that his dagger was caught by Tang Zhen, there was not much panic on his face. On the contrary, he fiercely threatened and waved to his companions around him.

After receiving the middle-aged man’s signal, his companions took out ropes and threw them at Tang Zhen at the same time.

The movements of these fellows were incomparably skilled. Clearly, they frequently used lassoes. Adding this to the extremely short distance and Tang Zhen being unable to move his body, not a single one of the lassoes fell on his body.

He didn’t know what material these ropes were made of, but they looked extremely tough. Once they were tied, they would be pulled tightly, and there was no way to break free!

Clearly, this group of people was already prepared for this. After confirming that Tang Zhen was trapped, their smug and mocking expressions became even more intense. It was as if they had already defeated Tang Zhen.

The ignorant were fearless. These guys didn't know what kind of terrifying existence the "rookie" they were dealing with was!

Tang Zhen would not be polite to this group of people who tried to harm him. His wrist gently shook and he snatched back the dagger from the middle-aged man. Soon after, a cold light flashed and the dagger cut across the middle-aged man's arm.

This move was extremely fast. Before the middle-aged man could feel any pain, one of his arms had been cut off at the root, and blood was spurting out!

Looking at the blood spurting out of his broken arm, the middle-aged man screamed and tried to stop the bleeding in a hurry. In the end, it sprayed all over his companions' heads and faces. They were all covered in blood but could not Dodge.

"Since you're seeking your own death, you can't blame me!"

His body did not shake at all, but the ropes wrapped around Tang Zhen's body broke and slid down. Some of the ropes had even turned into a pile of powder.

After seeing this scene, the middle-aged man and his companion were shocked. They knew how tough the rope was, but they didn't know what kind of terrifying power and control was needed to destroy the rope to this extent!

The shocking scene continued to unfold. Under the stunned gazes of the middle-aged man and his companion, a faint flame flickered on Tang Zhen's legs. Immediately after, a stinky burning smell spread in all directions.

The nightmare skin that was impervious to fire and water had actually been charred. It was the part below Tang Zhen's body that had been completely carbonized!

what nightmare skin? it seems like it's nothing more than this!

Tang Zhen coldly snorted and slowly stood up from the ground. He looked down at those people whose faces were filled with fear from above as the corner of his mouth was lifted into a trace of a cruel smile.

Chapter 1254

1254 Dream world (1)

listen up, all of you. Now, you have to answer whatever I ask. If you hide even a single word, you'll definitely end up in a worse state than him!

Tang Zhen extended his hand and pointed at the middle-aged man who was still screaming miserably. His tone was filled with killing intent, and it seemed to have caused the temperature of the air to drop by a few degrees.

These fellows who were unable to move immediately nodded. They were clearly aware of the current situation. In a situation where Tang Zhen was able to move freely, the life and death of these people would be completely in his control!

At this moment, they couldn't help but feel regret. Why didn't they leave one person behind to stay by the side of the dream demon hide to prevent any accidents from happening?

Of course, this was just a thought. Although they understood the benefits of doing this, few people would do it normally.

Whenever night fell, those night demons with extremely sharp senses would wander around. They could smell the scent of living people from a few kilometers away, and then they would swarm over to hunt.

Therefore, at night, people would choose to sit on the nightmare skin and use its aura to hide themselves. Otherwise, it was very likely that they would not live until dawn.

At this moment, although everyone nodded to show their cooperation with Tang Zhen, they were also secretly praying in their hearts. They hoped that those wandering night demons would be able to smell Tang Zhen's living breath and rush here to tear him into pieces!

Other than that, there was no other way to get out of the crisis in front of him.

The middle-aged man and the others who were secretly praying did not know that Tang Zhen had already completely concealed his aura after he had some understanding of the so-called night demons. Even if he stood in front of those night demons now, those monsters would not be able to discover him as long as he did not move.

Even if a Night Demon really appeared, Tang Zhen wouldn't be afraid. He could just kill it and study it!

This was the confidence brought about by strength. Other people would avoid night demons like the plague, but Tang Zhen was eager to experience it!

With a light touch, the middle-aged man's wound stopped, preventing him from bleeding to death.

Judging from his performance just now, this middle-aged man was obviously the leader of this team. He must have more information than the others. Before he got the information he wanted, he would be of some use.

As for the middle-aged man's companions, Tang Zhen didn't mind killing a few of them to let them know how powerful they were and not dare to lie to him.

"You, yes, you. Now tell me, what is this place?"

Tang Zhen half-squatted and walked to the other end of the nightmare skin. He softly said to a middle-aged man's companion, "Remember to answer honestly, or else ..."

He didn't finish his words, but pointed at the middle-aged man who was breathing heavily, making them think of those cruel and terrible things that had happened to him.

The hair of the person named by Tang Zhen had all fallen off. Some strange tentacles grew on the top of his head and squirmed from time to time like living creatures. His chin had also been completely deformed, looking like a baboon with a crooked mouth.

He looked at Tang Zhen with a slightly flustered expression and kept on saying, this is the dream world. We are the natives here, but there are also people from other worlds, just like you and him.

The man pointed at the middle-aged man.

in this world, there will be a large number of monsters wandering around during the day, and night demons will hunt around at night. Once you fall into the hands of these monsters, you will definitely be better off dead.

It's lucky to be killed directly, but most of the time, the captured people will suffer painful torture and then be transformed by demons into their accomplices."

Tang Zhen nodded his head when he heard the other party's description. After which, he waved his hand with an expressionless face.

"You probably didn't lie to me, but you didn't explain it in detail. There's nothing useful in it, so you should be punished!"

As soon as he finished speaking, a cold light flashed, and blood appeared on half of the man's face. The skin on his face slid to the ground, turning into a skeleton face just like the middle-aged man!

Looking at the flesh on his leg and touching the bones on his face, the man couldn't help but scream in pain.

didn't I say that you can't shout or you'll attract the night demons? so you'd better shut your mouth, or I'll kill you right now!

After hearing Tang Zhen's warning, the person who had half his face cut off immediately shut his mouth tightly. However, his body continued to tremble. Clearly, he was suffering an extremely great pain.

Other than fear, there was also a viciousness that was hidden extremely deeply in the eyes that he used to look at Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen turned a blind eye to this. This was because judging from the injury on the middle-aged man's neck, which only had half left, an injury might not necessarily lead to death in this world. At the very most, he would only suffer some pain.

However, the tragic state of their companion still frightened the people around him. Although they knew that they would not die from this kind of injury, the pain they had suffered was real. They did not want this kind of encounter to fall on them.

Therefore, when Tang Zhen extended his hand and pointed at the second person, the other party did not have the slightest hesitation. He immediately poured out everything he knew like beans pouring out of a bamboo tube.

Tang Zhen focused his attention and listened carefully at the side. At the same time, he continued to analyze in his heart. He had already faintly understood why he had come here.

In the strange dream world, not only were there a large number of monsters wandering around day and night, trying to hunt down the sleepless who were struggling to survive, but there were also many powerful dream shatterers hunting these terrifying monsters.

No one knew how long the battle between the two sides had been in a stalemate. The number of casualties between the two sides was also increasing. However, the number of monsters had never decreased, and the camp of the dream Crusher had never been cut off!

The reason was that both sides had the ability to resurrect. Monsters could resurrect after they died, and so could the dream Crusher!

The two sides had been fighting for many years, and they would not rest until one of them was dead. The ordinary sleepless who were caught between the two forces were much more miserable. They hid here and there all day long like rats, desperately looking for food to fill their stomachs.

They didn't have the ability to resurrect like monsters and dream Chasers, but they didn't die so easily. They were afraid of attracting nightmares when they slept, so they never fell asleep easily.

This caused the sleepless to look Haggard, as if they were walking corpses.

As for the changes in their bodies, they were all caused by mistakenly eating food that contained magic power. Under normal circumstances, it was difficult to cure.

In this world, there would often be strange buildings. Not only would there be new monsters, but there would also be a variety of items and food. In addition to the items with real colors that could survive for a long time, the same was true for food.

Sometimes, the food would even automatically appear beside the sleepless, emitting an alluring fragrance and attracting the sleepless to eat it.

However, most of the food could only be seen but not eaten, because once one couldn't control themselves and ate it, there was a high chance of being poisoned, causing the body to mutate. When the poison accumulated to a certain extent, the sleepless would completely lose their self-consciousness and become a Night Demon that would run out to hunt every night!

Chapter 1255

1255 A trace of fog is lifted _1

The natives were pained and afraid of the monsters that were transformed from sleepless.

Because they had lost their original consciousness and were extremely obsessed with the flesh and blood of living creatures, these night demons became the biggest threat to the sleepless. Even the monsters that were active during the day could not be compared to them.

To the powerful Dream Crusher, these night demons were also enemies that needed to be eliminated. They would not show mercy just because they were once of the same kind. They would even be killed and cleaned up regularly.

In the places where the dream Chasers gathered, they would build cities where many sleepless lived. Both sides worked together to resist the invasion of the monsters.

These sleepless in front of Tang Zhen came from a nearby city. The reason they had appeared here was because they had delayed their return time while searching for resources. They had no choice but to stay overnight in the wilderness.

The nightmare skin under his butt was prepared for such unexpected situations. Without it, the sleepless outside the city would definitely die!

Teams like them could be found everywhere in the city because the dream Crusher never provided free food, so sleepless could only find ways to fill his stomach.

There were often times when search teams would go out and never return. People were already used to this, and at most, they would just sigh. However, life still had to go on until they became one of the missing people.

After another sleepless was asked by Tang Zhen and told him everything he knew, Tang Zhen turned his eyes to the pale middle-aged man.

This fellow who had tried to scheme against him was also a transmigrator from another world. Perhaps, Tang Zhen would be able to obtain some useful information from his mouth.

The middle-aged man laughed bitterly when he saw Tang Zhen staring at him. How could he not know what Tang Zhen was thinking?

that's all I know. I don't even know some of the things they just said. If you get angry and want to kill me, then I can only admit that I'm unlucky!

When he said this, a trace of pain was revealed in the middle-aged man's eyes. Tang Zhen even discovered that there was a trace of sparkling and translucent tears flickering in the bottom of his eyes.

Tang Zhen was deep in thought as he looked at the middle-aged man's expression.

"Where did you come from? How long have you been here? do you miss home?"

To the middle-aged man's surprise, Tang Zhen actually sat in front of him and asked him in a casual tone.

Although he was suddenly on guard, when he thought about how his life was in the hands of others and how he was already half-crippled, the middle-aged man suddenly felt that his future was bleak. At this time, he completely let down his guard.

Leaning back slightly to make himself more comfortable, the middle-aged man slowly said in a low voice, "In the world I was in, there were mobile mechanical fortresses that emitted huge steam everywhere. People lived in these mechanical fortresses and wandered around the huge world.

there are also monsters outside the fortress. We need to find a way to survive while fighting against the sporadic monsters. At the same time, we need to wander around to collect resources and avoid the moving natural disasters that appear from time to time.

Before I came here, I used to be a boiler worker for a large mobile fortress. My daily job was to constantly throw fuel into the huge boiler to maintain the operation of the fortress.

Every day, after my busy work, I would take a good bath and go back to my home to rest.

I have a virtuous wife and a pair of children. So much time has passed, they should have grown up by now!"

When the middle-aged man said this, a touch of gentleness appeared on his ferocious face, and the corners of his mouth also lifted into a warm smile.

then why did you come here? did you notice anything wrong? "

The middle-aged man shook his head and said, " actually, I don't know the specific reason either. I only know that I worked overtime for three days and three nights in a row to avoid a mobile natural disaster. In the end, I was so tired that I fell asleep on the fuel reactor.

In the end, when she woke up, she found herself in this world and could no longer return.

However, I once found a crystal in the fuel. It looked very beautiful, so I put it in my pocket and wanted to give it to my wife. When I came to this world, I found that the crystal was also in my pocket."

Tang Zhen's eyes brightened when he heard this. He said to the middle-aged man, "Where's the crystal? show it to me!"

The middle-aged man hesitated for a moment, but in the end, he reached into his collar and pulled out a piece of rope. A pink crystal the size of a fingernail was tied to it.

Tang Zhen merely took a glance and knew the origin of this crystal. This was clearly a special origin stone!

However, it was different from the origin stone that Tang Zhen had seen before. This origin stone had a trace of special energy lingering on it, and it seemed to be intertwined with the middle-aged man's aura.

"So even if this crystal is lost, you can still vaguely sense its location and find it?"

The middle-aged man was stunned. He asked in a puzzled tone, " How do you know? This thing was indeed lost twice, but I managed to find it back in the end. In order to prevent it from being lost again, I tied it up with a rope!"

Tang Zhen revealed an "as expected" expression and continued to ask the middle-aged man, have you come into contact with other transmigrators? do they have similar crystals on them? "

The middle-aged man nodded and then shook his head. "I've seen two transmigrators before, but they were lucky enough to become powerful dream shatterers. They were on a completely different level from me.

I was afraid that they would ignore me, so I didn't dare to go up and talk to them."

When he said this, a hint of shame appeared on the middle-aged man's face. They were both transmigrators, but he was doing so well while he was in such a sorry state. It was really embarrassing.

Shaking his head and gently smiling, Tang Zhen looked at the middle-aged man with a trace of pity and ridicule in his eyes. This fellow had missed the opportunity to change his fate because of his own cowardice and ridiculous self-esteem.

Fortunately, this guy was lucky to have met him by chance. Although he would become a test subject, at least it was much better than being on his last legs!

However, Tang Zhen did not mention this matter for the time being. Instead, he asked another question. are you sure that I'm a transmigrator, so you're in a hurry to tell me some things? then, you'll follow the strange trading rules and take away the items that have real colors from me. What's going on? "

Hearing Tang Zhen mention this matter, the middle-aged man's body trembled. He thought that Tang Zhen wanted to settle old scores, but he still replied honestly, " "This is what I heard from the sleepless who dug out my eyes. Actually, I don't know the exact reason.

However, when we saw you, there seemed to be a voice in our minds telling us that if we told you what we just said, we might get something in return.

The only thing of value on you should be something with real colors, so that should be my reward!"

Tang Zhen was completely speechless when he heard the middle-aged man's words. He finally knew why this transmigrator in front of him was in such a miserable state. It was because this fellow was an unlucky fool!

In fact, Tang Zhen had already faintly understood the specific reason, but it was definitely not like what the middle-aged man had said.

If Tang Zhen was just an ordinary transmigrator and had the misfortune to meet this idiot in front of him, his future life would probably be as miserable as his!

Chapter 1256

1256 Fate's prank (1!

Tang Zhen had already guessed the specific function of this origin stone that the middle-aged man valued greatly.

It should have been deliberately projected into the greater world by the principal will of this world, like an admission permit, and bound to the spiritual fate of the person who picked it up.

After the binding process was completed, the person who picked up the origin stone would travel to this strange world in a muddled state due to mental exhaustion or great stimulation.

Because they were bound to each other, the transmigrators could clearly sense the location of the origin stones. It was absolutely impossible to lose them!

The function of the stone of origin was definitely not as simple as bringing a traveler to the dream world. It should have a more special function.

"I guess you haven't killed a monster since you transmigrated, have you?"

Tang Zhen asked the middle-aged man. There was a trace of ridicule in his eyes.

The middle-aged man shook his head and said in a matter-of-fact tone, " I'm not a powerful Dream Crusher. How would I dare to hunt for monsters? naturally, I'll hide as far away as possible!

Tang Zhen revealed an expression as if he had expected this when he heard this.

“Then the so-called trading rules are also your own imagination!”

The middle-aged man was stunned when he heard that. Then, he muttered, “ I’ve encountered something like this before, and with the voice in my mind, I think this should be the case!

Tang Zhen was completely speechless when he heard the middle-aged man’s self-righteous explanation.

“Do you know why you have such a crystal, and why it followed you to this world?”

Without waiting for the middle-aged man to reply, Tang Zhen continued, “It’s the main culprit behind your transmigration to this world, and it’s also the capital you used to start your family.

As long as you personally kill a monster, this crystal will absorb the overflowing vitality of the monster, and at the same time, it will feed you back, so that your strength will also increase!”

The middle-aged man was startled when he heard this. His only remaining eye glared at Tang Zhen as he used a puzzled tone to say, is what you said true? you’re not lying to me, are you? how is that possible?

Tang Zhen coldly laughed. He ignored the middle aged man’s shock and continued, “The reason why you didn’t discover this secret was because you were too unlucky.

The moment you transmigrated to this world, you met a self-righteous idiot sleepless. After he told you about the rules of this world, he greedily and short-sighted dug out your eyes, thinking that it was a reward for himself.

In fact, the real reward was the reward that you had to give to the other party after you became strong!

That eye of yours with real colors was actually your golden finger, but it was dug out before you could use it!

Without your cheat and not daring to hunt for monsters, it would be a miracle if you could make a name for yourself!”

Tang Zhen continued to attack as he looked at the middle-aged man, who had clearly fallen into a dazed state and had an incomparably complicated expression, “The most infuriating thing is that you still don’t understand what’s going on, and you still want others to repeat your tragic fate!

If I were an ordinary transmigrator, and after you cut off my hand, I would be completely destroyed by you and become a piece of trash like you!”

The middle-aged man’s eyes were out of focus as he looked ahead, muttering, “ “Impossible, this can’t be real. You’re lying to me. Yes, you’re lying to me!”

“I’m lying to you, hehe Yingluo.”

Slowly standing up from the ground, Tang Zhen looked at the middle-aged man who was already tormented by regret to the point that he was about to collapse. He used an ice-cold tone and said, whether you admit it or not, you’re a piece of trash now. You’re almost beyond redemption!

however, things are not irreparable yet. As long as you are willing to listen to my arrangements, it is still possible to get out of your current situation and become a strong person like the dream Crusher!

After the middle-aged man, who was originally like mud, heard these words, his eyes immediately erupted with a bright radiance. He did his best to straighten his body and looked at Tang Zhen in front of him with an anticipating expression.

if what you said is true, and you can make me as strong as the dream Crusher, then I, Gus, will leave my rotten life in your hands!

The middle-aged man's tone carried a hint of determination. He knew that if he couldn't get rid of his current identity, he would die in an unknown corner sooner or later, or become a member of the night devil, living a life worse than death!

As for seeing his wife and children whom he missed day and night, he could forget about it!

Tang Zhen nodded his head in satisfaction. Clearly, the middle-aged man called Gu Si was not that unbearable. Other than being a little stupid, the reason why he had ended up in such a state was also related to those accidents that happened by chance!

However, fate was always so unpredictable. It would often tease people until they wished they were dead. Just when you were about to give up all hope, there would be a chance of survival in front of you.

Whether or not he could grasp this opportunity to change his fate would depend on what he did!

"How are your injuries? if there's no problem, we can start now?"

After hearing Tang Zhen's question, a smile appeared on Gu Si's sinister face. He spoke in an uncaring tone, "Don't worry, as long as the head is still there, I won't die. The injuries on my body will recover sooner or later. At most, I'll suffer a little!"

Tang Zhen nodded his head. He had already understood this point from the mouths of these sleepless. While he was secretly amazed, he was also a little interested in the cause of this situation.

If they could master this ability, the Holy Dragon City cultivators who invaded other worlds would be successful in every endeavor!

With a wave of his hand, a flame appeared out of thin air. Different from the monotonous black and white around him, it flickered with vivid colors and fell directly on the middle-aged man.

Everyone clicked their tongues in wonder after seeing this scene. They did not expect that Tang Zhen would be able to create an item with real colors just by casually doing it!

Gus watched nervously as the flames landed on his body, but he realized that the flames did not burn him. However, he was shocked to discover that the nightmare skin that was holding him in place started to shake, and the fine hair turned to ashes in the blink of an eye.

Slowly standing up from the ground, Gus looked at Tang Zhen with anticipation and said, as for what we should do next, as long as you tell me, I will definitely carry it out!

After witnessing Tang Zhen's magical ability, Gu Si's heart was filled with anticipation. He also knew that this was the only chance to change his fate. He simply steeled his heart and threw everything out!

Tang Zhen threw the dagger in his hand to Gus and said with a smile, "As I said before, as long as you have this crystal, you can improve your strength by killing monsters. I think killing night demons will have the same effect.

"What I want you to do next is to kill a Night Demon and see what happens!"

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, Gu Si's body trembled slightly. He hesitated for a few seconds before firmly nodding his head.

alright, I'll do as you say. At worst, I'll just die. It's just a rotten life anyway!

After seeing Gu si finally make up his mind, Tang Zhen walked to the door of the room and gently pushed it.

A rotten and bloody smell suddenly rushed into the room, as if the outside and the inside of the room were two completely different worlds.

At the same time, Tang Zhen also saw night devil who was wandering around and was feared by sleepless.

Although they looked similar to humans, they were definitely not. This was because the night demons 'legs had disappeared, and their bodies were held up by a cloud of white mist, dancing around like ghosts.

Other than these normal-looking night demons, there were also night demons that looked like werewolves, and night demons with many hands and legs. They all looked very strange!

Tang Zhen gently snapped his fingers and immediately alerted the two night demons. After slightly identifying the source of the sound, they swiftly floated over to the room where everyone was.

Chapter 1257

1257 Death and rebirth (1)

Gus 'legs and stomach trembled as he looked at the terrifying Nightstalker. The hand that was holding the dagger was also trembling.

In the past, when he encountered such a terrifying monster, he would subconsciously choose to avoid it, but now he had to fight it to the death. This kind of thing was something that Gus did not dare to think about before.

Before he came to the dream world, he was just an honest boiler worker and had never been involved in a battle. Even after he came to this world, he was forced to make a living, but he had never killed or robbed anyone.

By right, people like him simply couldn't adapt to this cruel world. Being eliminated was only a matter of time.

Perhaps it was due to the protection of the origin stone's luck, Gus actually didn't die. Instead, because of his good character, he obtained the acknowledgment and loyalty of several sleepless, and they formed their current team.

Unfortunately, that kind of life was completely gone. Next, he was going to face the biggest challenge of his life. If he survived, he might be able to change everything. If he died, he could not blame anyone. After all, this was his own choice!

"Kill them, or you'll die!"

Tang Zhen's ice-cold voice sounded out, causing Gus "spirit to jolt. He gritted his teeth and let out a low roar before charging towards the night Demon that was less than ten meters away from him!

The two night demons noticed Gus when he moved, and they made excited hissing sounds as they pounced at him with their fangs bared.

"Smash it, go to hell!"

Gus slammed into the Nightstalker at the front, his remaining arm brandishing a dagger and piercing it into the Nightstalker's body.

The night Demon did not seem to feel anything. Instead, it waved its sharp claws and ruthlessly pierced Gus 's shoulder, tearing away a large piece of flesh with a strong pull.

Gus 'body trembled in pain, but he continued to brandish his dagger madly, continuously stabbing at the Nightstalker's body. In the end, he simply threw the Nightstalker to the ground and brandished his dagger to stab at the Nightstalker's eye socket, which was flickering with white flames.

As for the other Nightstalker that was attacking him from behind, Gus had no time to care about it. All he could think about was killing the Nightstalker beneath him!

The Nightstalker was still struggling at first, but it didn't take long for it to stop moving, and the flames in its eye sockets slowly extinguished.

Gus was now covered in blood, but he still struggled to stand up. He turned around and pounced at the other Nightstalker that was devouring his flesh and blood.

The dagger in his hand was lost, but the blood-red eyes of Gus did not seem to care. At this time, his eyes were extremely crazy, and he directly pounced on the night demon's attack. He used his arms to hold its neck tightly, unwilling to let go no matter what!

"Crack!"

With a crisp sound, the night demon's neck was snapped by Gus. As it stopped struggling, the White flames in its eyes were extinguished!

After releasing the night demon's limp body, Gus slowly knelt on the ground and let out a soundless, wild laugh.

He felt that all the grievances he had suffered had been completely vented through this battle. His initial cowardice and inferiority had also vanished with the death of the night devil.

Even if Tang Zhen was lying to him, Gu si had no regrets for being able to throw away his cowardice before the end of his life and engage in a hearty battle!

Tang Zhen gently nodded as he looked at Gu si, who was kneeling on the ground while covered in blood. A trace of approval was revealed in his eyes.

This honest, slow, and unhappy middle-aged man's performance in the battle was eye-catching. If he had done so earlier, he might not have ended up in this state.

He was a traveler who had the blessing of this world's original will, but in the end, he was running around for food like an ordinary sleepless. If word of this got out, he would definitely be laughed at by his own kind!

The next step would be to see if the principal will of the world favored this guy. If things were not as he had speculated, then Gus 'life would be difficult to keep.

Under Tang Zhen's unblinking gaze, Gu SI's aura became weaker and weaker, as if he would die at any moment.

However, he raised his head with great difficulty. He tried his best to lift his eyelids that were covered in blood. He stared at Tang Zhen and revealed a smile with great difficulty.

"If I die, please let my companions go. They are just pitiful people!

Even if we've done something outrageous, we've been forced to do it. Who asked us to live in such a world?"

After saying this sentence intermittently, Gus 'head suddenly drooped down, and his life aura completely dissipated!

"Is He Dead? it shouldn't be like this!"

Tang Zhen looked at Gu SI's corpse. A trace of doubt flashed across his eyes as he spoke in an indifferent tone.

As for Gus 'companions, they were all secretly crying. They had watched their boss die in front of them, but they could not help at all. The pain in their hearts was indescribable.

The eyes that were looking at Tang Zhen from behind were also filled with disgust and killing intent. However, there was even more helplessness and sorrow.

Compared to an expert like Tang Zhen, an ordinary sleepless was like an ant. Not only did they not have any ability to resist, but they could also be punished at any time because of an unintentional offense.

The number of sleepless killed by the dream Crusher was not much less than the number of sleepless killed by the monsters. In fact, compared to the monsters, the sleepless were more afraid of the dream Crusher!

Tang Zhen ignored the malicious gazes behind him. He only stared unblinkingly at Gu SI's corpse as a doubt gradually surfaced on his face.

something's not right. Normally, after a person dies, there should be a trace of scattered spiritual power. Why didn't I sense it?"

Tang Zhen slowly walked to the side of Gu Si's corpse. He extended his hand and gave it a push. The corpse that was covered in injuries fell to the side. The only eye that opened was filled with unwillingness.

this situation is very similar to the operation of the soul transfer array. Every time the bound person dies, the soul will be absorbed by the person who is being transferred, and then wait for a host to be Reborn!

Tang Zhen's eyes immediately brightened when he thought of this. A smile once again appeared on his face.

"My guess was right, Gus didn't die at all!"

Tang Zhen shook his head again when he said this. He softly said, that's not right. Gus is already dead, but he has been reborn. This is clearly related to the origin stone!

Just as he said this, Tang Zhen suddenly turned his head and looked at a certain corner of the night. He smiled at those sleepless who were still sad and tearful, "You don't have to be sad anymore, because your boss has returned!"

Everyone was stunned when they heard Tang Zhen's words. However, they quickly recalled the words that Tang Zhen had said to Gu Si earlier. A trace of anticipation immediately appeared in their hearts.

If boss really became the dream Crusher, he might really be able to come back to life!

Following the direction pointed by Tang Zhen, everyone heard a series of light footsteps. Immediately following that, a familiar figure appeared in front of the house. It was the already dead Gus.

At this moment, he was only wearing a single layer of clothing. All the injuries on his body had completely disappeared, and his broken arm had regrown. Even the eye that sleepless had dug out had been completely restored.

it was a pity that it was just an ordinary eye, without any signs of real color.

Gus, who had just been given a new life, had a face filled with emotion. He swept his gaze over his unusually happy companions, smiled, and nodded. He then turned his head to look at Tang Zhen.

"Mister, you've given me a new life, please accept Gus' bow!"

As Gus spoke, he knelt on the ground and kowtowed deeply to Tang Zhen. After a long time, he raised his head in a daze.

Chapter 1258

1258 The Return of the Monsters _1

Unknowingly, the pitch-black night sky gradually faded away, and a sliver of dawn gradually appeared.

The nightmare skin that sat under sleepless's butt retracted its dense hair the moment the night sky dissipated, turning back into a thin and dry leather that looked unremarkable.

The sleepless that had been bound for an entire night stood up and quickly gathered in front of Gus, congratulating him.

After their boss became a dream Crusher, he would definitely take care of them. Perhaps from then on, they would not have to risk their lives to look for food!

The good days seemed to be approaching!

Gus' face was also filled with joy. After his rebirth, he felt extremely good. Not only had all of his internal injuries disappeared, but his body was also filled with endless power. It was as if he could collapse a wall with a single punch!

In fact, this was just his illusion. Compared to a true powerhouse, Gus was still far from it. He was only a little stronger than an ordinary sleepless.

However, as long as Gus did not die and worked hard to increase his strength, he would become a true powerhouse sooner or later!

Tang Zhen did not care about the cheering crowd. Instead, he kept staring at the street outside. He watched as the wandering night demons entered the buildings and quickly disappeared without a trace.

What appeared before him was still a black-and-white world that looked lifeless. At the same time, black dust kept falling from the sky, as if it was the ashes of some burning object.

With the disappearance of the night devil, another dangerous monster jumped out. It was another monster with real colors and was also the real enemy of the dream Crusher!

Gus had once heard from the dream Crusher that these monsters did not belong to this world, but they were different from transmigrators. They were all pure invaders!

The mission of the transmigrators and the dream Chasers was to kill all these intruders and restore the peace and stability of the dream world!

The two of them were like fire and water, they were sworn enemies!

Through the view of the map, Tang Zhen had already seen the traces of a group of human-shaped monsters. They were constantly patrolling the streets and would occasionally enter the buildings by the roadside as if they were looking for something.

If one observed them carefully, they would find that the bodies of these monsters were translucent, and there was a colorful rune on their foreheads that drove away the black dust that got close to their bodies.

These runes were the true colors that Gus had mentioned. After the dream Chasers killed the monsters, they would also take away these true colors and use them to exchange for various materials!

As for the specific operation, Gu si had no way to give Tang Zhen an answer because of his low status and had never come into contact with it.

Other than these humanoid monsters, Tang Zhen also saw some huge monsters that appeared out of thin air. Their appearance was ferocious and terrifying. They were constantly walking in the wilderness and destroying everything they encountered along the way.

Just as Tang Zhen was about to go and see where these demonic creatures came from, he faintly heard someone calling him from far away. It seemed to be Murong Zi Yan's voice. At the same time, he also felt a mysterious force appear, as if it wanted to drive him away from this world.

Tang Zhen was very familiar with this mysterious force. It was the power of law that the world's principal will possessed. It isolated the space around Tang Zhen in an attempt to expel him, an illegal trespasser!

"I may have to leave for a while. If you have nothing else to do, wait for me here for a day!"

Tang Zhen frowned and thought for a moment before turning around and speaking to Gu si beside him.

"No problem, I'll be waiting for you here!"

After nodding in agreement, Gus thought for a moment and asked, "Is there anything you need me to help you with?"

Although Gus had become a dream Crusher after his rebirth, he did not dare to show any disrespect to Tang Zhen. Instead, he became even more humble.

In addition to being grateful to Tang Zhen for changing his fate, Gus was also very clear that he was still extremely weak in front of Tang Zhen. Perhaps the other party only needed a casual blow to crush him into powder!

Only by obediently following orders and serving Tang Zhen obediently would he be able to live on peacefully and even have the opportunity to become a true expert!

"You can't meddle in my Affairs, so just wait for me obediently. If you don't want to, you can also leave with your companions. I won't blame you!"

gu si quickly shook his head and expressed that he would definitely stay here to wait for tang zhen. he would definitely not leave easily.

Nodding his head gently, Tang Zhen gave up on resisting the origin intent. His body slowly disappeared in front of Gus and the others.

His soul seemed to have passed through an extremely long and narrow passage before finally returning to his body. When he felt that he could control his body, Tang Zhen suddenly opened his eyes.

A pretty face was looking at him with concern. After seeing that Tang Zhen had woken up, a smile appeared, causing the entire world to become brilliant.

"Tang Zhen, you've finally woken up. You really scared me just now!"

Murong Zi Yan looked at Tang Zhen and confirmed that he was safe and sound. She then said softly.

"Ziyan, what did you see just now? was there anything wrong?"

Tang Zhen sat up from the bed and asked after sizing up his surroundings.

After hearing Tang Zhen's question, Murong Zi Yan's brows slightly furrowed and she said with a trace of doubt: "Something was really wrong just now. In the past, you were very light when you slept and would immediately wake up as soon as someone approached you. But this time, I called you for a long time before you woke up.

Also, compared to the past, you've woken up more than an hour late today. This is a very rare thing!"

Tang Zhen nodded when he heard this. He seemed to be deep in thought as he swept his gaze around him. Finally, his eyes locked onto the dream notebook that had been thrown on the bed.

Seeing Tang Zhen staring at the dream notebook, Murong Zi Yan smiled and picked it up. She placed it on the bedside table and said: there's one more thing that's not right. You never leave your books on the bed. You always put them away before you go to sleep!

Tang Zhen gently nodded his head. He stood up and walked to the window. When he saw the thriving scene outside, his originally somewhat depressed mood also relaxed.

After having breakfast with his family, Tang Zhen made arrangements for the things that he had to deal with. Then, he brought the dream notebook to the secret room with a very solemn expression on his face.

Last night's abnormal encounter was definitely related to this dream notebook. What Tang Zhen wanted to know the most was whether this matter happened by chance or was it deliberately done by dream city Lord?

Tang Zhen's thoughts leaned towards the second possibility. This was because no matter if it was him entering the dream city by mistake or the city Lord of dream giving him the notebook, everything had happened unexpectedly and suddenly. Tang Zhen even had a feeling that it was unreal after the incident and wondered if he had been dreaming at that time.

However, this dream notebook really did exist. Through the contents that were refreshed from time to time, Tang Zhen understood many secrets of the world of loucheng, which was of great help to him!

Last night's bizarre encounter made Tang Zhen realize that this dream notebook was definitely not as simple as it looked. Perhaps the encounter with the dream city Lord back then was a foreshadowing for last night's events!

What was City Master Dream's intention, and what did the dream world have to do with him?

If the dream world was an alien world invaded by the dream city, why did it become so chaotic? were the invading demons the residents of the dream city? were the dream Chasers the rebels supported by the original will of the world?

Tang Zhen only felt a cluster of fog lingering in front of his eyes. If he wanted to figure out the truth, he had to head over and investigate once again!

Chapter 1259

1259 The threat from the elder Council in the battle zone

Just as Tang Zhen was studying the dream notebook, the Holy Dragon City resident responsible for guarding the cornerstone platform sent him a call request, causing him to temporarily stop thinking.

city Lord, there's a message on the cornerstone platform, urging you to head to the central battle zone as soon as possible. Would you like to take a look? ”

Tang Zhen furrowed his brows when he heard this. He gently nodded his head to indicate that he understood. Soon after, he kept the dream notebook and continued to think about the problem earlier as he walked.

If his guess was correct, the dream notebook was a special transmission channel that could send the soul consciousness to that strange world. Of course, this process could only be done when he was sleeping.

Also, because his power of the will was too strong, the dream notebook would be aware of any abnormalities. Therefore, this guidance process must have been completed in a subtle way, causing him to be completely ignorant of it before.

If it was an ordinary person, they would only need to take a look at the dream notebook to guide them into the dream world!

After figuring out the general reason for the incident, Tang Zhen already had a plan in his heart. Therefore, he decided to deal with the cornerstone platform first.

He walked all the way to the room where the foundation stone platform was located. As expected, Tang Zhen saw the information mentioned by the resident.

The content of the message was nothing more than urging him to go to the central Warzone as soon as possible and tell the elders of the Warzone about his encounter in the myriad world mall. However, the problem was that similar messages had appeared several times in the past six months.

The cornerstone platform's urgent urging made Tang Zhen feel that something was wrong. This was because when he returned to the world of the tower, he had already told everything he needed to say. Even if he hid some things, it had nothing to do with the mission.

Then why was the cornerstone platform urging him so urgently?

In particular, almost every message mentioned the elder Council of the war zone. This organization made up of the residents of the top towers had such great influence that even the cornerstone platform had to serve them?

According to the information he had obtained from the main control platform of the wilderness Warzone, the authority that a tower could obtain was at most intermediate. This restriction could not be changed, or it would affect the normal operation of the cornerstone platform.

However, after deliberately gathering some information, Tang Zhen realized that the power of the elders Guild in the spirit ruins Warzone was far greater than he had imagined. It had even exceeded the scope of influence of an intermediate authority.

He had obviously been targeted by these guys, and they had repeatedly sent him messages to urge him to go to the central Warzone. They must have a plan!

after recalling his experience during this period of time, Tang Zhen felt that the Elders Guild should not have discovered that he had robbed the treasure house of the super creature's brain. The reason for urging him should also have nothing to do with this.

In this case, there were only two things left that would attract the attention of the Elders Guild.

First of all, his tower was an outsider and the only tower that was preserved in the wilderness Warzone. The Elders Guild would definitely be interested in how his tower survived and moved the entire tower here.

Right now, there must be secret agents from the Elders Guild in the war zone around Holy Dragon City. The investigation of Holy Dragon City was definitely not done in a day or two.

With a large number of survivors from the savage war zone being teleported here, and with the influence of the Council of Elders in the war zone, it wasn't difficult to get information about Holy Dragon City from the survivors.

Other than this reason, Tang Zhen's personal experience could also be said to be legendary. Perhaps the war zone's Elders Council was interested in him and was prepared to deceive him to imprison him for research?

This possibility did exist, but it was very small.

There were countless rich people in the world of Loucheng. The experiences of those top cultivators could be considered legends. Tang Zhen's performance might be dazzling, but in the entire world of Loucheng, it could only be considered not bad.

Not to mention, for cultivators in Loucheng, the city itself was the biggest golden finger. Not only could it be used as a paradise for cultivation, but there were also endless cultivation resources and skills that could be exchanged. From time to time, they would carry out plane invasion missions. It was the best channel to accumulate personal wealth and improve their combat strength!

Tang Zhen's phone could be regarded as a mobile miniature cornerstone platform. The disadvantage was that it could only be opened to him. However, as long as the residents of Loucheng worked hard to improve their level and strength, anyone would be qualified to enjoy similar rights!

Of course, his phone also had heaven-defying advantages that the cornerstone platform couldn't compare to. For example, it could rapidly increase the user's cultivation level, help them comprehend the power of laws, and it had many incredible and magical applications.

However, these were all secrets that Tang Zhen had never revealed to anyone. Even his closest people did not know about the specific situation. Tang Zhen was sure that the war zone's Elder Council would definitely not know about it!

After eliminating this guess, the only place that Tang Zhen could attract the attention and coveting of the Elders in the war zone was the space TOWER.

There was no doubt about the preciousness of the spatial tower. Even a top-grade spatial tower wouldn't be easily missed. As an outsider, Tang Zhen had accidentally obtained a spatial tower that belonged to the spirit ruins Warzone. This would definitely attract the unwillingness and coveting of many people.

Tang Zhen had once carefully analyzed it and believed that before he obtained the space TOWER, the war zone's Elders Council had already discovered it through their authority. Based on its abnormal behavior, they judged that the space TOWER was no longer a city without an owner!

It was only because of the concealment of the space TOWER that the elders Guild in the battle zone was unable to determine its location. This was why they had not obtained the space TOWER for a long time. In the end, it had unexpectedly benefited Tang Zhen.

After Tang Zhen obtained the castellan's authority in the space TOWER, the cornerstone platform would definitely display it. Perhaps from that moment on, the elders of the war zone would start to notice Tang Zhen and start investigating him!

The purpose of their actions was naturally to take back the spatial tower from the hands of Tang Zhen, an outsider!

Tang Zhen would not feel that it was too much to speculate about the war zone's Elder Council with the most malicious intent. This was because from the information he had gathered, this group of people had done many immoral things. It was not impossible for them to use schemes and intrigues to snatch the spatial tower!

After having such a thought in his heart, Tang Zhen naturally would not foolishly throw himself into the trap. In any case, this place was extremely far from the central Warzone. Even if he did not go, they would not be able to do anything to him.

If this group of people still refused to give up and sent people to harass him, Tang Zhen would have a way to deal with them. He would not mind secretly finishing them off.

Unless Tang Zhen led the space TOWER and left the battlefield, the other party would not be able to mobilize the continent-level tower to attack. This was because it would consume a huge amount of resources. Unless the cornerstone platform was responsible for paying, no one would make such a loss!

After making a plan in his heart, Tang Zhen no longer bothered about this matter and slowly left.

He still had to make some preparations as he would be heading to the dream world again that night to find out what the dream city Lord was planning to do.

1260 The transmigration experiment

Another busy day had ended. Most of the Holy Dragon city's residents had gone to bed early because there was still a lot of work waiting for them tomorrow.

The Holy Dragon City did not keep idle people, and there was no lack of returns for their efforts. As long as the residents worked hard to show their value, they would always find a position that suited them.

After a fiery "rebirth," the Holy Dragon city's management had already realized their shortcomings. While building and expanding, many places were also quietly changing, making the Holy Dragon city's Foundation more reasonable and perfect.

If one were to look down from a high place, they would find that the buildings were shining. Other than the light source for illumination, the rest were all light clusters formed by metal construction bugs, which were building day and night.

Rays of colorful light from the searchlights intertwined in the sky. Other than being decorative, the main purpose was to guard against any flying monsters that might appear and to prevent unnecessary damage to the Holy Dragon City.

The defensive work on the ground was even more watertight. It was almost impossible for any enemy to pass through the defense formed by hundreds of thousands of Holy Dragon city's Army and successfully reach the core area of Holy Dragon City.

Not to mention that under the cover of the night, there were still Holy Dragon City cultivators hiding like ghosts, dutifully guarding the safety of the tower.

At this moment, in a brightly lit Hall in the Holy Dragon City, a dozen top-level Lord-tier cultivators were sitting in chairs and talking in low voices. King-level Masters and law Kings like Lingxu Zi, Fatty, and Blood River King were also present.

It could be said that almost all the top experts in Holy Dragon City were gathered here!

Other than these experts, there were also many Holy Dragon City cultivators of different levels. They sat on chairs at the side, almost filling up the house.

Although delicious food and fruits were placed in front of them, everyone was not interested in enjoying them at all. Instead, they nervously looked at Tang Zhen, who was sitting on the bed, and the dream notebook in his hands.

"City Lord, are you sure you want to do this?"

Fatty hesitated for a moment, but still asked in a worried tone.

Of course, otherwise I wouldn't have called all of you here. Don't worry, it's just an experiment. There's no need to make a fuss!

Fatty shook his head. I'm not afraid. It's just that if something really happens, the stability of Loucheng will definitely be affected. We have to be careful!

Tang Zhen laughed softly when he heard this. He said to Fatty, "Your worries are not without reason, but I've already made preparations, so there will definitely be no problems."

Tang Zhen's face carried a trace of solemnity as he looked at the dream notebook placed in front of him. He continued, "There's no way to establish a normal dimensional portal in this dream world. We can only enter through the guidance of the dream notebook. I'm not sure how large its area of influence is or how many people it can affect."

There should be a lot of resources in this world, and there should be a lot of secrets hidden in it. Now that it's in front of us, how can we miss it so easily?"

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, everyone understood his plan. If the dream world could be entered in large numbers through this method, it would not take long for the Holy Dragon City cultivators to start a new round of invasion!

alright, everyone get ready. I'm going to start!

After scanning his surroundings, Tang Zhen opened the dream notebook. His sea-like mental strength began to continuously invade the dream notebook.

The dream notebook, which had been motionless, suddenly glowed and floated in front of everyone. At the same time, a strange power spread from the dream notebook and enveloped all the cultivators in the hall.

After being touched by this strange force, everyone immediately felt drowsy and yawned continuously, as if they couldn't stop.

Some of the Holy Dragon City cultivators with lower cultivation levels could no longer resist the tide-like sleepiness and fell asleep in their chairs.

The cultivators above the Lord level could still resist, but they would definitely fall asleep after a while. Only the top-level Lords, the fatty, and the others seemed to be in high spirits, as if they were not affected at all.

Seeing this scene, Tang Zhen seemed to have understood something. He waved his hand and pushed the dream notebook in front of Lingxu Zi.

I'll go over first. I'll have to trouble you for the next matter!

Lingxu Zi nodded and said to Tang Zhen, "Don't worry, city Lord, I will not let you down."

Tang Zhen laughed softly when he heard this. He yawned under everyone's gaze. He lay on the bed for less than a minute before he quickly entered Dreamland.

Tang Zhen seemed to have experienced a long journey. He suddenly opened his eyes after he was able to control his consciousness.

The surrounding environment was very familiar. It was the building where he had left last time, but now it was covered by the night again.

Following Tang Zhen's appearance, two voices immediately rang out beside him. One of them was from Gus, while the other belonged to the Holy Dragon City cultivator who was participating in the experiment.

"City Lord, quickly come over here!"

"Sir, be careful of outsiders!"

After hearing the notifications from both sides, Tang Zhen scanned his surroundings and discovered Gus and the Holy Dragon City cultivators in a confrontation. They were all looking at each other with vigilant eyes!

“Don’t be nervous, we’re all on the same side!”

Tang Zhen waved his hand and directly walked in front of the Holy Dragon City cultivators to check on the changes in their bodies.

He was now certain that he and the residents had transmigrated to this world spiritually, while his main body was still in Holy Dragon City.

However, if they did that, they would not be able to bring physical resources with them. They would be left behind in Holy Dragon City. The Holy Dragon City cultivators in front of them, who were dressed in unlined clothes and had no weapons on them, were the best proof!

Losing the advantage in equipment, the combat power of the Holy Dragon City cultivators would be greatly reduced. This was extremely disadvantageous to Tang Zhen’s plan!

The most important thing now was to find out where the dream Crusher’s weapons came from and whether he could obtain them in large quantities.

After seeing another Holy Dragon City cultivator appear out of thin air, Tang Zhen gestured for everyone to wait quietly. Then, he turned around and walked to Gus.

“Do you know where the dream Crusher’s weapon came from?”

Gus was taken aback. After frowning and thinking for a moment, he said in an uncertain tone, “I seem to have heard someone mention it before. It seems that when an item is continuously tempered and reaches a certain level, it will become a weapon for the dream Crusher!”

Tang Zhen’s eyes turned as he said to Gu si, “You’re really that simple?”

Gu Si’s face turned red as he said to Tang Zhen, “I wasn’t a dream Crusher in the past, but I’ve heard people mention this occasionally, so ...”

“Alright, I got it!”

Tang Zhen waved his hand and stopped Gu Si’s explanation. He swept his gaze around and sucked a red brick on the ground into his hand. After which, he carefully observed it.

From Tang Zhen’s point of view, this was an ordinary turn of the head. He wondered what form it would take in the outside world.

After everyone saw this scene, their faces were filled with doubt. They did not know what Tang Zhen was trying to do.

However, they soon found out the answer. This was because a vast amount of mental energy had directly wrapped around the red brick and continuously seeped into the red brick. The originally ordinary-looking brick instantly became as bright as gold!

Less than three seconds later, Tang Zhen retracted his mental energy. A dazzling “gold brick” had already appeared in his hand!

as expected, it's using spiritual power to change the internal structure of ordinary items and use spiritual power to charge them. I think only items with excellent materials can be made into top-tier weapons!

If that was the case, the situation of the Holy Dragon city's cultivators might not be too bad. Although they did not have Tang Zhen's terrifying mental energy, it was more than enough to refine weapons!

However, he still needed to test the power of the weapons made in this way.

When Tang Zhen said this, he casually threw the gold brick to Gus and extended his hand to point at the wandering night Devils.

“Let's go out and test out the power of this brick.”
