Chapter 131: The bloodthirsty mother tree and the ogres

“The mother tree in front of Tang Zhen had already reached a height of over a hundred meters the moment it appeared. Moreover, it was luxuriant and exuberant, occupying a large area of the valley. Its tree body was extremely thick and solid. One would feel as though one was facing a huge tower when one walked to its roots.”

“The big tree in front of him looked quite spectacular. Fortunately, Tang Zhen had seen the mother tree’s majestic figure at its peak. Therefore, he was not too surprised.”

The rest of the people were at a loss. They would never have thought that the auxiliary city built by the Lord Castellan would be such a thing.

“Many of the residents had never seen a tree before because there was not a single tree in the vicinity of Black Rock City. They looked at the huge plant in front of them and felt that it was rather impressive. After all, this was the auxiliary city built by the Lord Castellan. It was not something simple!”

“Tang Zhen did not care about the discussions of the residents. Instead, he slowly walked to the mother tree and placed his palm on the trunk of the mother tree. Almost at the instant his palm touched the trunk of the mother tree, an indescribable feeling enveloped him, causing Tang Zhen to feel as if he had been bathed in a spring breeze.”

“As the city Lord of the mother tree Tower City, Tang Zhen could easily feel the power contained in the mother tree. However, whether he could communicate with the mother tree and use this power depended on his talent and luck. After all, this kind of thing could not be forced.”

“Tang Zhen carefully felt the power from the mother tree. It was peaceful and natural, filled with a magic that could calm people down. Unfortunately, this was not the power that Tang Zhen wanted.”

“He needed to be passionate, he needed to be violent, and not to be as gentle as water!”

The mountain-like piles of monster corpses in the valley were the feast that Tang Zhen had prepared for the mother tree.

“When Tang Zhen ordered the mother tree to absorb the nutrients from these monsters’ corpses, he seemed to feel a sense of resistance and unwillingness. It seemed that the mother tree, who liked fresh and natural things, hated the blood and carrion.”

“However, the mother tree could not disobey Tang Zhen’s order. Therefore, a few seconds later, the residents of Holy Dragon City saw countless roots suddenly pop out from the roots of the giant tree, and then ruthlessly stab into the corpses of the monsters around it.”

“The monsters’ corpses that were pierced by the roots seemed to be rapidly shriveling at a speed visible to the naked eye. It was not known if it was an illusion, but the residents of Holy Dragon City noticed that the giant tree seemed to be growing bigger and bigger.”

“Tang Zhen nodded in satisfaction as he watched the mother tree begin to absorb the monster’s flesh and blood. At this moment, he could already feel a trace of slightly violent power from the mother tree’s energy, and it was faintly growing stronger. ”

“This was the power that belonged to the mother tree of war. It was no longer peaceful and uncontested, but violent and brutal. Any power that dared to confront it would be met with its fiercest counterattack! ”

“Tang Zhen withdrew his hand from the mother tree and glanced at the Wanderers behind him who were filled with anticipation. He smiled and said, from now on, all of you will become new residents of Holy Dragon City. Ziyang will lead you to collect your identity cards and wait for your orders quietly. You may be very busy later because you still need to clean up the corpses of the monsters that are attacking the city. ”

“Everyone nodded and followed behind Murong Zi Yan, excitedly heading towards the Holy Dragon city’s main city to collect their identity cards. ”

“After Tang Zhen set the mother tree’s City Tower as an auxiliary city, the foundation of the mother tree’s City Tower would automatically integrate into the foundation of the main city Tower. If he wanted to upgrade, he would have to upgrade both cities at the same time, and the consumption would also double. ”

“In this way, the mother tree tower would not have a cornerstone trading platform, but would share a platform with the main city. If the Holy Dragon City was destroyed, the two cornerstones would be separated instantly and become independent cornerstones. ”

“It was precisely because of this characteristic that the other towers did not dare to rashly build an auxiliary city. The price they had to pay was simply too great, and the losses would easily outweigh the gains! ”

“Tang Zhen turned his head to look at the mother tree that was happily devouring flesh and blood. He extended his hand and hooked onto one of its hanging vines. Then, he suddenly leaped and climbed up the vines to the higher part of the mother tree. ”

“As if it could sense Tang Zhen’s thoughts, the mother tree’s vines quickly retracted. Tang Zhen did not use much strength and climbed up a huge branch of the mother tree. At the same time, a few treehouses made of vines and leaves appeared in front of him. ”

“This was the accommodation area provided by the mother tree Tower City for the residents. On this Level 1 mother tree, there were a total of ten such treehouses, each of which was strong and solid, looking like a fully enclosed bird’s nest. ”

“Tang Zhen did not plan to let anyone stay here for the time being. This was because he did not lack a house to live in. In his heart, the mother tree was the source of protection and strength for the sacred Dragon Valley. How could he allow anyone to climb it randomly? ”

“Tang Zhen’s gaze left the treehouse. After looking around, he jumped down along the vines. After which, his body was like lightning as he appeared on the huge mud wall in the blink of an eye. ”

“After seeing Tang Zhen’s arrival, the soldiers saluted and greeted him. Tang Zhen indicated that they did not need to be so polite as he slowly turned his gaze to the gravel plain outside. ”

“On the gravel plain not far away, the silhouettes of a group of monsters could be vaguely seen. There were about a thousand of them. ”

“This group of monsters were only level one or two small monsters. To the soldiers of the Holy Dragon City, they only needed to aim and pull the trigger, and they could easily take care of these monsters. ”

“However, Tang Zhen discovered the shadow of the corpse race among these monsters. He could not help but be slightly surprised. At the same time, he secretly guessed that the territory of the corpse race had already expanded to the vicinity of the Holy Dragon City. ”

“This might be the scene that Tang Zhen was most unwilling to see. Although there would be a battle with the corpse race sooner or later, Tang Zhen hoped that day would come as late as possible. This was because once the Holy Dragon City took the initiative to attack, it would prove that Tang Zhen already had the confidence to annihilate the corpse race! ”

“Hopefully, this was just a corpse race that had randomly barged in. Otherwise, he would have to quickly prepare for a great battle! ”

“Just as Tang Zhen’s mind was filled with thoughts on how to deal with the undead race and that terrifying spirit brain undead King, Qian Long suddenly roared, ”“Damn, why are there ogres here to join in the fun!” ”

Ogres?

“Tang Zhen was startled when he heard this. He naturally knew about these huge monsters. Moreover, he knew that these monsters were four to five meters tall. The lowest was rank 3, and the highest was rank 5. They had green and red stripes on their skin. They had boundless strength and a simple mind. Their food preferences were extremely varied and could be said to be omnivorous. ”

“Moreover, these humanoid monsters loved to eat people, so their name as ogres was definitely true! ”

“There was a common sense in the endless wilderness: never follow the ogres in search of food, because they would eat everything. ”

“It could be said that wherever the ogres wandered, there would be a disaster. This was because they would fill their stomachs with anything that could be eaten. Moreover, these monsters were always in a state of hunger, and they were constantly eating, eating, and eating from birth to death! ”

“The ogres were like this because they had terrifying digestive and regenerative abilities. It was said that even if the muscles of the monster were cut off, it would recover in a day. ”

“As long as you provided it with food, the ogres ‘regeneration ability would never disappear. ”

“Therefore, the ogres were not afraid of being cut by knives and axes. Even if their stomachs were torn apart, they would not care. This made the ogres one of the most troublesome monsters for Wanderers. Both humans and other races kept a respectful distance from them. ”

“After understanding this information about the ogres, Tang Zhen knew that the firearms in his hands no longer held any advantage. This was because even a powerful grenade would only be defeated in front of the ogres, who had tough skin and amazing recovery ability. ”

“Tang Zhen had gotten a rocket launcher from Ivanov, but he might not have absolute confidence in winning against the ogres. ”

The originally simple defense of the city had become very complicated because of the appearance of these ogres.

“With the appearance of the ogres, these low-level monsters seemed to have a backbone. They howled even louder and gathered around the ogres, who usually would not even have time to hide, jumping up and down. ”

“Due to the laws of nature, the ogres did not devour the food that was everywhere. Instead, they opened their mouths, which were full of fangs and drool, and stared at the people on the wall! ”

The siege battle began at the first touch!

Chapter 132: An impenetrable line of death

The arrival of these ogres meant that the siege had begun!

“The tallest Ogre roared at the sky, and the countless low-level monsters around it rushed toward the Holy Dragon Valley like crazy demons. The gravel plain, which was initially dazzling under the sun, was suddenly covered by a layer of black, terrifying torrents. They quickly moved toward the Holy Dragon Valley. ”

“everyone, pay attention. Once these monsters enter the marked location, beat them up! ”

“kill them! Tyson roared and stared at the approaching monsters with excitement and nervousness. To him, these low-level monsters were just appetizers. He could easily tear them into pieces with the weapon in his hand, but with the presence of the ogres, the unknown of this battle suddenly increased. ”

“But the more it was like this, the more excited Tai Seng became. He felt like his blood was on fire, and he couldn’t wait to kill the tallest Level 4 Ogre in one strike! ”

“Out of all the soldiers, Jimmy was the most excited. He had always had a dream, and that was to make a necklace out of the ogre’s teeth and hang it on his chest in the most eye-catching place. He wanted everyone to know how brave he was. ”

“The chance to fulfill his wish was right in front of him. Jimmy’s gaze never left the ogres. Even if a group of low-level monsters were attacking him, he would still turn to look at the ogres from time to time. ”

“Seeing his absent-minded look, Tai Seng lightly smacked his head and at the same time scolded in a rough voice, “” don’t let your imagination run wild. If you want the ogres’ teeth, you’ll have to kill them first. You can choose whatever you want then. No one will care even if you use a hammer to smash them all down.”

“&Nbsp; as for Jimmy’s thoughts, Tai Seng naturally knew them very well, but this was a critical moment, and he couldn’t allow this kid to be distracted. If he was accidentally injured by a monster, how could he face the brother who had entrusted his child to him before his death? ”

“””Oh, I know!”” ”

Jimmy scratched his head and focused his attention on the group of monsters that were approaching the marked location.

“””Beat him up!”” ”

“Following Tyson’s roar, all the guns started to shoot out flames of anger. The flames formed deadly metal cutting lines and instantly tore the monsters into pieces. ”

“The originally white gravel plain immediately changed color, replaced by an extremely striking deep red, and the dizzying color became deeper and deeper. ”

“For the first time in their lives, these monsters, who ran rampant in the endless wilderness, experienced the power of bullets. However, this experience could only be experienced once in their lives, and what awaited them next was the end of their lives. ”

“The group of monsters at the forefront had all died, and the monsters behind them were not any better. Even if they were lucky enough to survive the bullets, the terrifying lethality of the large-caliber machine guns still made them lose the ability to continue moving. They could only fall to the ground in vain, wailing and struggling. Then, they were trampled into meat paste by the rushing monsters. ”

“Due to the influence of the law, these monsters did not feel the slightest fear even when they were faced with massive casualties. They continued to howl madly, stepping on the flesh of their own kind, bathing in blood, and approaching the Holy Dragon Valley without a care for their lives. ”

“Although the power of the guns was great, they were still a little weak against the crazy monsters! ”

“Looking at the large group of monsters that were already close at hand, some of the Warriors had already thrown out their grenades. After they fell into the group of monsters on the ground, they exploded with waves of death impacts, smashing the bodies of the monsters into pieces. ”

“Tang Zhen ignored the ogres when he saw that they were just going to sit back and watch the Tigers fight. He thought in his heart that if these monsters were to tactfully retreat, he would let them off. However, if they were to recklessly come forward and cause trouble, they should be prepared to become test subjects! ”

“In Tang Zhen’s heart, he didn’t care about these ogres at all. He was even secretly pondering the possibility of taming these ogres. After all, ogres had terrifying regenerative abilities and had great value. ”

Tang Zhen didn’t mind performing a brutal dissection experiment after capturing these ogres!

“The grenades combined with the heavy machine guns caused the monsters that had been successfully killed at the bottom of the giant wall to suffer great losses again. After a fierce attack, there were only a few monsters left. Only a few of them looked up at the Holy Dragon City Warriors on the giant wall and roared. ”

“It seemed like no monster could climb up such a high wall, but there were always exceptions. ”

“A monster with thick and solid hind legs suddenly jumped, leaping more than ten meters into the air and landing on the city wall. At the same time, the monster waved its sharp, saw-like sickle-like claws, ruthlessly cutting at a Holy Dragon City soldier who was caught off guard. ”

“On the other hand, Tang Zhen was already prepared. He casually picked up a javelin made of steel pipe and threw it without even looking at it. Relying on the Super vision given by the map, the javelin thrown by Tang Zhen accurately hit the monster’s head. ”

“”Pfft!”” ”

“After a muffled sound, the monster was sent flying as if it had been hit by a train. It fell heavily on the ground and died. ”

“The Holy Dragon City soldiers who were saved looked gratefully at the castellan, then quickly turned around and raised their guns, shooting wildly at the monsters. Every shot was aimed at the monsters ‘vital points. ”

“Compared to the soldiers of the original world, these Holy Dragon City soldiers ‘shooting accuracy was extremely high. If they were placed in the original world’s Army, each of them could take on the position of an accurate shooter. ”

“Tang Zhen no longer watched the commotion. Instead, he took an automatic rifle from the side and began to shoot at the monsters within two hundred meters. Almost every shot would accurately blow up a monster’s head, causing the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers to cheer! ”

“When thousand Dragon saw this, he didn’t want to be outdone either. He threw away his rifle and picked up the compound bow beside him, firing at the monsters. Perhaps it was because of his talent, but thousand Dragon was able to play with the bow to a godlike level. The sharp arrows seemed to have eyes, and every single one of them pierced into the monster’s eye sockets before exiting from the back of the monster’s head with brain matter and blood. ”

“”Alright!”” ”

“great! Tyson shouted and grabbed the iron bucket with javelins. He waved his arms like a tornado and threw javelins one after another, nailing the monsters to the ground one after another. ”

“It was as if the three of them were in a race, clearing the monsters that were attacking the city at an extremely fast speed. ”

Tang Zhen faintly smiled when he saw this. He had a faint feeling that Qian Long and Tai Seng’s advancement to rank 3 was not far away!

“Seeing the city Lord and the two leaders so courageous, the Holy Dragon city’s cultivators and soldiers also roared in unison. Bullets and other weapons were like a dense rain, mercilessly overturning the monster’s body.”

“For a time, blood flowed like a river and corpses were everywhere!”

“Just as the Holy Dragon city’s people were in the midst of killing, the ogres that had been watching suddenly roared and punched the ground. At the same time, they took steps that made the earth tremble and pounced toward the Holy Dragon Valley.”

Chapter 133: Capturing the ogres

“When these four to five-meter-tall ogres charged side by side, they would give people a pessimistic impression that they were invincible. They were like a moving terrifying wave, an extremely terrifying war beast, with a suffocating pressure. It seemed that in the next second, they could crush, tear, and devour any enemy in front of them!”

“Seeing the ogres finally joining the battle, the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers became nervous.”

“Perhaps the ten-meter-tall city wall could stop ordinary monsters, but it might not be of much use against the four-to five-meter-tall ogres. Moreover, the ogres were nicknamed “” unkillable. their terrifying recovery and regeneration abilities made people feel hopeless.”

“Tang Zhen naturally noticed everyone’s expressions. However, he did not say anything. After all, no matter how beautiful words were, it could not be compared to killing the enemies with real weapons on the battlefield. Therefore, the next thing to do was to completely eliminate these ogres.”

get ready and wait for my orders!

Tang Zhen instructed. His body suddenly leaped and landed on the ground below the city wall in the blink of an eye. His body was like a bolt of lightning as he flashed past the scattered low level monsters.

“When he suddenly stopped, the two long demonic weapons in his hands were dripping with blood. At the same time, all the monsters in his path had blood oozing out of their bodies and their heads were separated.”

“Like dominoes that were pushed down, the monsters’ corpses fell to the ground one after another, forming a passage of death.”

“When the people of the Holy Dragon City saw this scene, they cheered in unison again!”

“Tang Zhen ignored the cheers behind him. Instead, he stared at the ogre at the front. His eyes narrowed slightly, and he actually charged toward the four to five meter tall ogres that were like city walls.”

“When the ogres at the front saw a human pouncing over, they immediately roared excitedly. At the same time, they tried their best to reach out their hands, wanting to grab Tang Zhen and swallow him in one bite. ”

“In its simple mind, humans were weak, delicious food that could make all kinds of sounds! ”

“From the looks of it, that human seemed to want to kill them? ”

“The ogres wanted to laugh. It had always been them killing and devouring humans. As for being killed by humans, hehe. In the ogres ‘minds, humans were just food. Have you ever seen food kill its prey? ”

“Such a situation might have happened to other races, but to kill a Pi Xiu in front of an Ogre was something that had never happened before. ”

“Therefore, when Tang Zhen charged over, the ogre subconsciously thought that this human was delicious food that had delivered himself to his door! ”

But the ogres didn’t know that what awaited them in the future would be years of pain worse than death.

“Tang Zhen’s current speed had already reached its limit. Just as he was about to make contact with the ogre, Tang Zhen nimbly dodged its huge claws that were the size of half a table. He then ruthlessly slashed at the ogre’s knee. ”

“””Ka BA!”” ”

“After a crisp sound, the ogre roared in pain. Its knee was suddenly split open, and the ogre lost its balance and fell to the ground. However, this Ogre was actually incomparably strong. It actually ignored its own pain and forcefully held on. At the same time, it sent a palm towards Tang Zhen, but he easily avoided it. ”

“Tang Zhen, who was in the midst of the ogres, was not afraid at all. He kept dodging the attacks. At the same time, he had already launched an application and was adjusting the data by relying on the gap between his dodging. He wanted to try and see if it would have a miraculous effect. ”

“Seeing that Tang Zhen was in a dangerous situation within the group of ogres, how could Tai Seng and the rest still dare to hesitate? the heavy machine gun let out an angry roar as bullets rained down on the ogres ‘waists. ”

The continuous attacks from Tai Seng and the rest had effectively suppressed the ogres ‘attack speed. Blood spurted out from their bodies as the bullets tore off a piece of flesh from time to time.

“The ogres ‘terrifying recovery and regeneration abilities were in full effect. Their wounds were covered with maggot-like flesh sprouts, which wriggled continuously. After the bleeding stopped, new flesh began to grow. ”

“The tall ogres kept waving the huge leg bones in their hands. Due to the intense pain after shooting, they kept growling and stomping, but they couldn’t kill the human who was as agile as a mouse. ”

“When Tang Zhen finally finished his preparations, he suddenly raised his hand and shouted in a strange language. Immediately after, everyone saw a Green Chain fly out from Tang Zhen’s finger. At the same time, the chain rapidly grew longer and thicker. In the blink of an eye, it had already surrounded all the ogres.”

“Tang Zhen softly shouted again. The green Chain that was floating in the air began to shrink. Everyone watched as the chain firmly tied the five ogres together. No matter how the ogres struggled, they were unable to escape from the chains.”

What kind of chain was this? how could it be so magical?

“While everyone was feeling puzzled, Tang Zhen looked at the chain-bound ogres that were roaring and struggling to escape. A mocking smile appeared on his face as he activated the skill.”

Shua shua shua!

“Countless laser beams that were extremely glaring even during the day appeared out of thin air. They were lined up side by side and quickly swept across the knees of the five ogres. Then, the ogres let out painful howls.”

“As they struggled, the five ogres actually rolled on the ground together. At the place where they had been standing, there were 10 neatly cut ogres’ legs. There was no blood at the wounds, but maggot-like flesh fluttered, trying to find the ogres’ bodies to connect.”

It was all thanks to the Super laser engraving machine that the ogre’s calf could be cut off so easily. He didn’t expect that it would be so effective in dealing with monsters!

“However, the usage conditions of this model were too harsh. It required a close distance, a fixed target, and on-site data settings. With these restrictions, it was impossible for Tang Zhen to forcefully use it every time he faced an enemy.”

“No matter what, these ogres had been crippled and could only wait to be captured!”

The soldiers on the wall lost their voices collectively after seeing the scene before their eyes. Their eyes were filled with shock and wild joy. There was also a deep admiration for Tang Zhen.

“At this point in the battle, the five ogres had been completely crippled, which meant that the siege battle was over. The few remaining low-level monsters finally regained their senses. They were terrified and began to run for their lives. In the blink of an eye, they had disappeared without a trace, leaving behind only a ground of flesh and blood.”

“““Brothers, we’ve won!”””

“The cheers sounded like thunderclaps. Soon after, everyone began to jump down along the rope. After which, they gathered beside Tang Zhen and curiously looked at the five ogres that were still struggling on the ground without their legs.”

“““City Lord, you’re too amazing!”””

“Jimi excitedly said to Tang Zhen. At the same time, his eyes began to linger on the smelly mouths of the five ogres as he pondered which one of their teeth he should knock out.”

“The five ogres were like lambs waiting to be slaughtered, and a rare feeling of fear welled up in their hearts. Especially that little fellow, why was he looking at our mouths with a strange expression? what was he trying to do?”

“If he fell into the hands of this group of food, would he also be eaten?”

The thought of being eaten by food made the five ogres feel sad. This way of dying was too embarrassing for their ancestors.

“Tang Zhen didn’t know what these ogres were thinking. Even if he knew, he would scoff at them. He wasn’t interested in the smelly meat of the ogres. He only planned to study them in depth. That was all.”

“If these ogres knew about Tang Zhen’s research, they would probably think that it would be better to be eaten by this group of food. After all, the pain would be less if they did that!”

“Holy Dragon city’s residents, who had received news of their victory, had already run to the city walls in high spirits, quickly moving the sandbags that were blocking the entrance to the city walls. There was strength in numbers, and it didn’t take long for them to clear out the hole that had been specially left at the bottom of the city walls.”

“Looking at the monster corpses and five ogres with broken legs on the ground, the crowd whispered to each other again. At the same time, they bowed deeply to Tang Zhen and the soldiers guarding the city.”

“This was the residents’ respect for the Warriors. There was no need to hide, just accept it.”

Chapter 134: Cleaning up the battlefield and the use of the ogres

“The current gravel plain was a raggle, with blood and minced meat covering almost every inch of the ground. It gave off an extremely pungent smell that made people want to vomit.”

“This was also the reason why very few Wanderers ate monster meat. No matter how you processed it, the stinky smell of the monster meat could not be covered up. Even if you forced yourself to eat it when you were starving, you would still suffer from abdominal pain and diarrhea. It could even cause severe dehydration.”

“For ordinary Wanderers, dealing with a few monster corpses was not a problem. However, when a large number of monster corpses appeared, it was simply a disaster. Fortunately, the Holy Dragon City already had the mother tree, which could perfectly solve this problem.”

“After a short celebration, without waiting for Tang Zhen’s instructions, the residents began to get busy. They used various tools to collect the monsters’ corpses and then transported them to the mother tree, allowing it to devour them freely.”

It didn’t take long for the mother tree to be surrounded by the monster’s corpses. It was a terrifying scene.

“The residents of Holy Dragon City were all in awe of this incomparably tall mother tree that could devour the corpses of monsters. The residents who had just joined Holy Dragon City were even more respectful. It was because of the existence of this mother tree that they had the opportunity to join Holy Dragon City. Strictly speaking, they were actually residents of the mother tree tower.”

“He had heard from chief Murong that the Lord of the city had asked everyone to pray under the mother tree when they were free. If they could successfully communicate with the mother tree, they would be able to obtain the mother tree’s power. By then, not only would the residents’ levels be automatically raised, but they would also have the opportunity to obtain a certain position.”

It was said that praying would give one the power of the mother tree and other benefits. The residents had already made up their minds to come to the mother tree more often to pray in the future.

“There were too many corpses of the monsters. It was definitely not possible to clean them up in a day. Tang Zhen immediately stepped forward to help when he saw this. With his help, the speed of cleaning up the corpses was greatly increased. His ability to casually store and release the corpses of the monsters also caused the residents who had never seen it to be in awe.”

“When they passed by the ogres, the residents were all curious. Some of the more courageous residents even secretly picked up a rock and threw it at the ogres, causing them to roar in anger.”

Tang Zhen was annoyed. He took an automatic rifle from the soldier beside him and shot at the roaring Ogre’s mouth. Only after the mouth was smashed did the ogre stop roaring.

“After the other four ogres saw the tragic state of their companions, they immediately shut their mouths obediently and glared at the passing residents of Holy Dragon City with angry eyes to ensure that they would not be disturbed.”

“They didn’t care about the pain since it would heal, but the provocation from their lowly food was unbearable!”

“After Tang Zhen saw the ogres’ performance, he could not help but think in his heart. It seemed that the ogres were not as stupid as the legends said. Compared to those muddleheaded low level monsters in the wilderness, their performance was already sufficiently intelligent.”

“Before seeing the ogres, Tang Zhen had always thought that the ogres were simple-minded monsters with developed limbs. Apart from being able to eat and resist, their greatest value was that they could provide brains. Other than that, they had no other use.”

“However, for the sake of future development, he had to think of ways to strengthen the Holy Dragon city’s strength. The matter of the rich Captain and the others originally taming monsters in the nomadic tribe had given Tang Zhen some inspiration.”

“Could he also domesticate some monsters and use them as auxiliary forces in war? if the domesticating effect was obvious, these monsters might even become the main combat force on the battlefield.”

“Now that the Wanderers of the Nomad tribe had become the residents of his tower, they would not be stingy if he asked them for the method of taming monsters. After all, the tower would not take their things for free and would give corresponding rewards.”

“After all, the stronger Lou Cheng was, the more secure their future happy lives would be.”

“When it came to experiments, the ogres in front of him were actually the best Experimental materials.”

“He had his eyes on the ogres ‘unkillable and indestructible characteristics. They would definitely be the best targets if they were used to charge and attack cities. When the time came, he would give these guys a set of heavy armor and an extra-large Mace each. They would definitely be like meat grinders on the battlefield.”

“Tang Zhen made up his mind and decided the tragic fate of these ogres. They usually lived on garbage and trash, but when they entered the battlefield, they would devour the enemy’s corpses. During war, they had to play the role of a Suicide Squad in the front line.”

“Once he had such a group of monstrous fighters, he would definitely beat the enemy to a pulp!”

“It wasn’t a good idea to leave these five ogres outside. They had to be transported back to the Holy Dragon Valley. Otherwise, if they were left here for the night, Tang Zhen would only be able to obtain a pile of Ogre bones tomorrow.”

“The ogres ‘recovery ability was very strong, but they couldn’t withstand being bitten and devoured by a group of monsters at night. The ogres were chained up and couldn’t fight back at all.”

“As long as they struggled, the chains would tighten. Now, they were deeply embedded in the ogres ‘bodies, and blood kept dripping to the ground.”

The ogres could not fight against the divine weapon of the tree spirit tribe!

“They watched as a group of people tied the ogre up with steel wires and dragged it back to the Holy Dragon Valley with several cars, ignoring the ogre who was in pain from the friction of his skin against the ground.”

“After dragging the ogres to the designated location, Tang Zhen immediately ordered people to start building the cages to imprison the ogres. The destructive power of these things was too great, so Tang Zhen wanted them to be extremely strong. At the same time, for safety reasons, he built the ogres ‘cages in the sunken part of the cliff and ordered people to guard them.”

“After this busy period, he would make a few sets of high voltage shackles for these ogres. If these guys were disobedient, Tang Zhen would ruthlessly deal with them.”

“The mother tree Tower City had been successfully built, but Tang Zhen was unable to borrow its strength for the time being.”

“As the prerequisite for using the mother tree’s power was to communicate through comprehension, it was unknown how long it would take and how many people would succeed.”

“Before this, it was just an ordinary giant tree!”

“Looking at the mother tree that was still devouring the monster’s corpse, Tang Zhen decided to spend the night under the tree and try to communicate with it. After reading the written records of the tree spirit clan, Tang Zhen was very interested in the power of the mother tree.”

It was unknown when Li Sha had walked over. She silently stood behind Tang Zhen and only quietly looked at his back in a daze.

“Tang Zhen had already discovered the girl behind him through the map. After turning around and looking at the other party, Tang Zhen smiled and asked, “I haven’t seen you in a long time. How are the children?””

“Lisa’s current job was to train and take care of the children taken in by the Holy Dragon City. Compared to those rough men, the beautiful and hearty Lisa was undoubtedly more suitable to be a coach.”

“Li Sha nodded and took a few steps forward. When she was less than a meter away from Tang Zhen, she stopped and said with a smile, these children are very sensible and hardworking. They know that good days are hard to come by, so they train hard every day. Some of them have already shown quite a bit of talent.”

Tang Zhen nodded when he heard this. He had Great Expectations for these children and hoped that a few outstanding people would emerge from them. He would then nurture them and make them the future pillars of the Holy Dragon City.

“After thinking for a while, Tang Zhen said to Lisa, call these children over tonight. We’ll have a barbeque party under the mother tree. We’ll let these children try to sense the mother tree’s power.”

“Lisa softly replied with an “en” and slowly turned around, leaving Tang Zhen with only a tall and slender back.”

Chapter 135: Closed-door development and the mother tree under the moon

“As night gradually fell, the entrance and exit of the city wall were once again sealed to prevent monsters from taking advantage of the situation to enter. Once the door made by Tang Zhen was installed, it would no longer be so troublesome.”

“Ever since he had the [terrain transformation plug-in], Tang Zhen suddenly had an idea to temporarily isolate the Holy Dragon Valley from the outside world. This way, not only would he be free from the harassment of monsters, but he could also calm down and clean up the glittergold race sanctuary.”

“There was no need to worry about the supply of food and weapons, and there was a refuge for the glittergold race that could provide a large number of brains and gold. It seemed that there was no need for him to go out and cause trouble.”

It would not be too late to show off his extraordinariness when the Holy Dragon city’s Army was strong and powerful.

“According to Tang Zhen’s estimation, if he could completely clean up the flashing gold race’s sanctuary, the number of brain beads he would obtain would be extremely shocking. It would definitely be able to help him upgrade Lou Cheng to Level 2 or 3, or even higher!”

“Since the future was so wonderful, why should he give up what was near and seek what was far away?”

“Before the corpse race’s tentacles extended to the sacred Dragon Valley, Tang Zhen completely did not need to care about what was happening outside. Therefore, he could just let it be!”

“After Tang Zhen had thought it through, he called Qian Long, Tai Seng, and the others over and expressed his thoughts to them, which received their support.”

“However, Qian Long still made a suggestion. He asked Tang Zhen not to reject the Wanderers seeking shelter in the Holy Dragon City. Even if the Holy Dragon Valley was closed, they could still take in those Wanderers. After all, the construction work of the valley still required a large number of manpower.”

“What the Holy Dragon City lacked the most was population, and Tang Zhen was naturally well aware of this. Therefore, he happily agreed to Qian Long’s suggestion and specially instructed the two of them to be careful and confirm if there were any spies among them.”

“Ever since elder mo of Black Rock City had revealed his detailed information, other than the most secretive information such as him coming from another plane and having various magical uses, the rest of the information had been thoroughly investigated.”

Tang Zhen felt very worried about this. Only the heavens knew if there were spies from other factions hidden within the people around him.

“Although he did not place the various factions in the vicinity in his eyes, this feeling of having a Fishbone stuck in his throat made Tang Zhen feel quite uncomfortable.”

“Fortunately, there was a solution to any problem. Tang Zhen’s map function could help him monitor suspicious targets all day long. Moreover, the living environment of Holy Dragon City could also cause the spies to feel reluctant to leave, and thus, they would ‘hide’ forever.”

“After letting his thoughts run wild for a while, Tang Zhen suddenly remembered that he had made an appointment with Lisa to hold a barbecue party under the mother tree. Looking at the sky, it seemed that it was almost time.”

“Tang Zhen got up and returned to his room. He teleported back to the original world. After checking the food in the refrigerator, he gave Peter a call and asked him to get some barbecue equipment and various food.”

“After hanging up the phone, Tang Zhen took out a pen and paper and wrote down some of the materials he needed. Among them were the gates needed for the city wall, the high-voltage electric shackles used to lock the ogres, and many other small things.”

“When he was talking to Lisa today, Tang Zhen found that there were many patches on her clothes. They were even sewn with very rough needle and thread, making the stitches look extremely rough.”

“After seeing this scene, Tang Zhen suddenly recalled that other than not needing to go hungry, the clothes on the residents’ bodies were still tattered. Some of the residents’ clothes could not even be worn.”

“However, as he did not have a change of clothes, he could only wear them.”

“He would tell Peter later to go to the market to purchase a batch of clothes. There was no need to pay attention to any brand or appearance, as long as it was sturdy and durable. Tang Zhen was prepared to give two sets to each person. It could be considered as one of the benefits for the residents of the Holy Dragon City. ”

“Peter’s action speed was very fast. Only half an hour after Tang Zhen made the call, Peter drove a pickup truck over. The car was filled with all kinds of materials Tang Zhen needed. ”

“After seeing Tang Zhen, Peter first saluted respectfully, and then asked Tang Zhen to check if he was satisfied with the things he bought. ”

“Tang Zhen waved his hand to indicate that he didn’t need to look at it. Then, he handed the paper full of words to Peter and asked him to buy a batch of sturdy and durable clothes, shoes, socks, and other clothes. ”

“After Peter inquired about Tang Zhen’s needs, he thought for a moment and said to Tang Zhen, ” “Actually, I used to be in the wholesale business of clothing, so I have a batch of clothing in stock. They are all leather clothes, jeans, and a lot of shoes. Because the style is too old, I haven’t been able to sell them. Why don’t you just take them away? ” ”

“Tang Zhen was happy when he heard this. After asking where Peter stored the clothes, the two of them directly drove there. ”

“Peter was right. He did have a lot of clothes in his inventory, but they were all old, and the quality was good. Because the clothes couldn’t be sold, it led to a large backlog of Peter’s funds. If it wasn’t for Tang Zhen’s reward, he would probably have to work hard for many years before he could make a comeback. ”

“Tang Zhen was very satisfied with these clothes and shoes. He nodded and said that he wanted all of them. At the same time, he took out more than ten stacks of cash and handed them to Peter. Unfortunately, Peter refused to take them. He said that the gem Tang Zhen gave him was enough to sell for a lot of money, so these clothes were for Tang Zhen. ”

“Since Peter insisted on not accepting it, Tang Zhen no longer treated him politely. After letting Peter go out for a while, he collected these clothes and transported them several times before he was done. ”

“When Peter found out that Tang Zhen had emptied the entire warehouse in just a few minutes, he immediately opened his mouth in surprise. He looked at Tang Zhen with worship and awe, as if he had already regarded him as a God. ”

“After bidding farewell to Peter, Tang Zhen returned to the sacred Dragon Valley with the various tools and ingredients that Peter had sent. ”

“At this moment, the huge moon was already hanging in the sky, and the ground was sprinkled with bright white light. The empty Holy Dragon Valley seemed extremely quiet. Tang Zhen walked out of the door and saw that a large group of people had already gathered under the huge mother tree. They were lighting a bonfire and sitting around to chat about something. ”

“The mother tree looked Holy under the moonlight. Even though it was surrounded by the corpses of monsters, it still didn’t affect the peaceful feeling that the mother tree brought to people. It was like a kind mother, protecting her children in her arms. ”

“For some unknown reason, the monster corpses around the mother tree did not give off a single scent of blood. Perhaps this was one of the mother tree’s mystical qualities, or else how could there be no smell from the mountain of monster corpses? ”

“Tang Zhen walked to the front of the mother tree and discovered that the entire mother tree was covered in a layer of white moonlight. It was as if every leaf of the mother tree was emitting a colorful light, as if countless spirits were dancing on the leaves. ”

“From this angle, the mother tree was so great, so magical! ”

“After seeing Tang Zhen walk over, the group of children who were originally gathered together and chattering immediately shut their mouths. After which, they opened their incomparably bright large eyes under the illumination of the bonfire and silently watched this mysterious city Lord in front of them! ”

“From the day they entered the Holy Dragon Valley, they had been told by instructor Lisa that it was because of the city Lord’s pity that they were allowed to enter the Holy Dragon Valley. From then on, they would no longer have to worry about starving or freezing, nor would they have to worry about dying from various reasons. At the same time, they would have the opportunity to become cultivators! ”

“It was simply a great fortune for them to have encountered such a good thing. Therefore, this group of children cherished it. They were filled with respect and gratitude towards Tang Zhen, who had given them everything. ”

“Tang Zhen did not hesitate when he saw the children’s sparkling and expectant eyes. He gently waved his hand and a large pile of food appeared in front of everyone. Before they could eat, someone could not help but drool. ”

I hereby announce that the barbeque party will begin immediately!

Tang Zhen’s voice had just sounded when the children all let out an excited cheer!

Chapter 136: Barbeque party and the mother tree of communication

“These children hesitated in the face of the large pile of delicious food that had suddenly appeared. It was not that they did not want to eat it, but compared to their previous vagrant life, which was akin to eating raw meat and drinking blood, the barbecue tools and various ingredients and condiments in front of them were things that they had never come into contact with before. They simply did not know how to use them. All of them stared at each other before finally looking at Tang Zhen in unison. ”

“Smiling, he walked forward and let the children see how he operated. Lisa, who was at the side, also came forward to help. At the same time, she asked the two children to add more fuel to the bonfire. ”

Most of the fuel used by the Wanderers in the endless wilderness was a kind of grass root that was exposed to the ground. It was extremely oily and very resistant to fire. Lisa and the others were using this kind of grass root. There was a pile of it that was as tall as a person next to them. It was the dried stock collected by the residents on a daily basis.

“After the group of people busied themselves for a while, Tang Zhen began to place the various processed ingredients on the rack and began to barbecue them. A group of children gathered at the side and watched Tang Zhen’s actions without blinking.”

“Not long after, a wave of fragrance spread out, causing these children’s noses to continuously Twitch. Some of the children had even started to drool. When Tang Zhen saw this, he smiled and shouted to the group of small heads around him,” “Don’t crowd around, all of you do it yourselves, take whatever you want to eat!” “ ”

“” “Yay!” “ ”

“The children immediately shouted excitedly when they heard this, and then pounced in front of a pile of food. After fighting for a while, each of them took a large pile of ingredients, gathered in front of their own barbecue grill, and couldn’t wait to roast them.”

Lisa couldn’t help but cover her mouth and chuckle as she watched the group of children fight and play.

“Tang Zhen looked at Lisa, who was incomparably charming under the bonfire. At this moment, her face was filled with joy and love. Clearly, she had invested too much emotion into these children.”

“these children will grow up one day. You can’t protect them forever. You have to learn to let them face their own difficulties and obstacles. After all, the outside world is not a paradise. It is full of danger and cruelty.”

Tang Zhen lowered his head and said to Lisa while roasting the meat in his hand.

“Slowly turning her head around, Li Sha gently fondled the silver hair that dangled in front of her forehead. She softly said to Tang Zhen, they are all orphans and have experienced hardships. I don’t need to tell them many things, and they know it very well in their hearts. I just want them to have a happy childhood, not like me when I was young, making a living like a wild dog every day, watching the people around me die of cold and hunger.”

“Lisa’s voice paused slightly when she said this. Tang Zhen noticed that there seemed to be mist flashing in her eyes, but it disappeared without a trace in the blink of an eye.”

“The cruel experience in the endless wilderness had made this beautiful girl’s heart extremely strong, but it had not become tougher. From the way she cared for these children, it could be seen that she seemed to want to make up for what she had lost in her childhood to these children who shared the same fate.”

“A young little girl ran back and pulled Li Sha’s hand. She timidly looked at Tang Zhen before her large eyes suddenly flashed and said,” “City Lord, we’ve roasted the food, do you want to eat with us?” “ ”

Tang Zhen looked at the little girl who was about the same age as Murong Ziyue. He patted her head affectionately and nodded.

The little girl cheered and immediately pulled Lisa's hand. She looked at Tang Zhen as she walked and slowly walked to a group of little fellows who were burying their heads and eating. Tang Zhen picked a place and sat down. Lisa also sat next to him.

"everyone, eat. There are drinks here. Help yourselves!"

"Tang Zhen looked at the little fellows who were eating until their mouths were full of oil. His mood was unusually calm. It was as though all of his worries had already left him. At the same time, something called Hope and the future had taken root and sprouted in his heart."

""City Lord, here you go!"" "

"A small, oily hand reached out in front of Tang Zhen, holding a piece of black steak. Tang Zhen looked towards the voice and saw a little boy with a little baby fat. His face was covered in charcoal ash, and his red and smooth mouth was covered in grease. He was currently chewing on food with his cheeks puffed up."

"The boy immediately grinned when he saw Tang Zhen staring at him. Under the illumination of the bonfire, the area around his mouth and his eyes sparkled. Tang Zhen smiled as he received the beef that the child handed over. He gently took a bite and gave the boy a thumbs up!"

"Seeing this, the boy smiled proudly, but immediately lowered his head and continued to eat."

"Unconsciously, the children came over and sat around Tang Zhen and Lisa. Tang Zhen looked at the dozens of children around him, stood up and said,""Children, the reason why all of you are able to enjoy such a beautiful night in a place without monsters is because you are in the Holy Dragon Valley and because you are residents of the Holy Dragon City."

"At this moment, there were Warriors standing guard on the city wall, in case there would be a monster attack at night."

"Some of these warrior uncles were slow-witted, some were rough, and some were cunning. However, they all had a common belief in their hearts, and that was to defend Holy Dragon City with their lives!"

"They are the Holy Dragon city's blade, the Holy Dragon city's shield, The Guardian of everyone in the Holy Dragon City, and you, are their future successors!"

Holy Dragon City is your home. You don't have to worry about hunger here. You can sleep in peace at night and don't have to witness all kinds of human tragedies every day. Your future will be very beautiful!

"However, the premise of obtaining this happiness is that the Holy Dragon City must exist forever and continue to grow stronger. Only then can you ensure the continuation of happy lives and ensure that your children do not have to suffer the same kind of suffering."

"Therefore, from now on, you must work hard to cultivate so that you can possess powerful martial strength. Only then can you protect yourself and your loved ones, so that your home will never be tainted by the smoke of war."

"Now, everyone, calm down and feel the world around you. Try to communicate with the tree above you. The tree is called the mother tree, it has its own thoughts."" "

“After hearing Tang Zhen’s words, the children all obediently closed their eyes and tried to feel the existence of the mother tree.”

“In an instant, the entire area under the mother tree became quiet. The moonlight that originally covered the mother tree slowly fell from the tree and onto everyone’s body.”

“The mother tree, which was originally very peaceful, seemed to have begun to tremble slightly at this moment, as if it had just woken up from a dream, and was stretching its limbs lazily.”

“Tang Zhen was currently sitting cross-legged under the mother tree. Just like the other children, he was trying to communicate with the mother tree. When the moonlight shone down, he sharply felt that the surrounding air had become viscous. The mother tree’s power that he had previously felt was now mixed in in wisps.”

“At the same time, a wondrous scene suddenly appeared in Tang Zhen’s mind. He felt as if he had turned into a tiny flying insect that was swimming in an ocean filled with light. The mother tree’s power that gave him a familiar feeling was swimming like a fish, appearing extremely lively.”

“perhaps it’s the mother tree’s power mixed in the moonlight that can help people better understand the mother tree and communicate with it? ”

“Tang Zhen thought in his heart and tried to use his spirit to touch the silk-like power of the mother tree. However, this power was extremely mischievous and kept dodging Tang Zhen’s spirit as if it was playing a game.”

“Tang Zhen spent half a day’s effort, but was ultimately unable to come into contact with it. Just as he was planning to give up, he suddenly discovered that a mother tree’s strength seemed to be avoiding something, and it directly collided with Tang Zhen in a panic!”

“In that instant, a familiar feeling hit him. It was the power of the mother tree, but the last time he experienced it, it was through his body, this time it was through direct spiritual contact.”

“then How do I communicate with the mother tree next? do I call out to it directly? ”

Tang Zhen tried to greet him when he thought of this.

Chapter 137: Two mother tree’s abilities _1

“What Tang Zhen did not expect was that he had only called out to the mother tree in a probing manner, but he had actually received a response from the mother tree. However, after the mother tree transmitted a sentence through its mind, it no longer paid any attention to Tang Zhen.”

“Tang Zhen could not help but laugh involuntarily. This was because the mother tree’s tone was actually like a child as it furiously roared at him,”“How dare you make me eat those disgusting things! I’ll ignore you!””

“He did not expect the mother tree to be so mischievous and willful. Just because Tang Zhen ordered it to devour the monster’s corpse, it no longer paid attention to Tang Zhen and cut off the communication with him. No matter how hard Tang Zhen tried, he could not get a response from the mother tree.”

“””This mother tree has quite the personality!”” ”

“Tang Zhen laughed as he came out of the state of communication. He only knew that the mother tree had self-consciousness, but he did not expect it to be so interesting. It must be throwing a tantrum now.”

“Since that was the case, they should not provoke it for the time being. Tang Zhen thought of this and carefully observed the children around him. He wanted to see if there were any lucky ones among them who could communicate with the mother tree.”

“Tang Zhen’s eyes focused when his gaze swept past a little boy. Soon after, a trace of joy slowly surfaced in his eyes.”

“This little boy was the little fellow who had previously passed him the roasted meat. At this moment, his body was covered by a ball of moonlight. However, the White moonlight had now begun to turn into a light purple. Correspondingly, a leaf on the mother tree had also begun to slowly glow. As the light purple light around the little boy grew deeper and deeper, the veins on the leaf also began to shine. Tang Zhen saw a trace of light gradually condensing on the tip of the leaf.”

Ding! Ding!

“Tang Zhen seemed to have heard a clear vibrato. Soon after, he saw a Firefly-like glow slowly drifting down from the leaves of the mother tree. It drew an irregular trajectory across the night sky and slowly landed on the head of the little boy like a meteor.”

“After the light wandered around the spot between the little boy’s brows, it suddenly entered and disappeared without a trace. Tang Zhen was slightly startled when he saw this. However, he did not do anything. Instead, he continued to observe the little boy’s condition.”

“The originally quiet little boy suddenly frowned. Soon after, he raised his right hand as though he was sleepwalking and gently brushed it across the ground. Tang Zhen noticed that there seemed to be a trace of purple light flashing from his palm.”

“The ground that the boy’s palm touched suddenly trembled slightly, as if something was trying to break out of the ground. However, because the soil was too hard, it could not break out of the ground.”

“The boy seemed to have felt that the thing underground was struggling too much; therefore, he slightly stroked it above it as if he injected a new strength into it,”

“””Swish!”” ”

“A purplish-red slender vine broke out of the ground. It didn’t stop its upward momentum until it reached a height of two meters. At this moment, it was slightly shaking its snake-like stem, dancing around the little boy in an intimate manner.”

“The vine was covered with sharp, saw-like spikes, and its head was like a sharp dart. The body of the DART was covered with vein-like purple lines, and there was a trace of liquid sliding down from it.”

“If one was wrapped by the vines or stabbed ruthlessly, it would definitely not be a good feeling. Perhaps the head of the vine, which was like a dart, carried some unknown poison.”

“Tang Zhen’s eyes were filled with curiosity as he looked at the snake-like vines. However, when he saw that the little boy was still immersed in his communication with the mother tree, he did not step forward to disturb him.”

“Regardless of the snake-shaped Vine’s power, now that someone had finally successfully communicated with the mother tree, it was a happy thing!”

“Tang Zhen thought in his heart. He inadvertently turned around and saw that Lisa was also shrouded in a ball of white light. From her appearance, it seemed that she had also successfully communicated with the mother tree.”

“Tang Zhen was slightly surprised when he saw this. He looked at Lisa without saying a word. He wanted to see if her ability was also to control this kind of snake-shaped vine. However, when Tang Zhen saw that the light that shrouded Lisa gradually turned green, he knew that Lisa’s and the little boy’s abilities were definitely different.”

“Just like the previous scene, a leaf on the mother tree changed its color and a green light dot drilled into Lisa’s forehead. In less than a minute, Tang Zhen saw Lisa, who had her eyes closed, gently wave her hand. A green light shield about two meters in diameter appeared out of thin air and completely enveloped her.”

“This green light seemed to be a defensive ability. He just didn’t know how strong it was or if it could expand its range. If it could cover the entire Holy Dragon Valley, it would be a super defensive barrier that could resist dangers from the sky.”

“The little boy’s snake-like vine was obviously an ability that relied on plants to attack. It was obvious that the mother tree had many abilities, but he wondered how it allocated the various abilities to the communicator.”

“The mother tree that Tang Zhen cultivated was different from the tree spirit tribe. They used special spring water to water it, and the various powers they obtained were more natural and peaceful. However, Tang Zhen used monster corpses to cultivate the mother tree. If he could obtain the same powers as recorded in the books of the tree spirit tribe, it would be a miracle!”

“However, in this case, the experience and general knowledge about the mother tree’s power recorded in the tree spirit tribe’s books would be useless. Tang Zhen could only use it as a reference, but he did not dare to copy it directly.”

“Compared to its original natural and peaceful power, the mother tree’s current power had become much more violent, it was not the same at all!”

“After staring at Lisa for a while, Tang Zhen looked at the other children. However, their behavior was very normal, which showed that they did not successfully communicate with the mother tree.”

“Looking at the success rate of communication with the mother tree, it was not as high as he had imagined. This was also something that could only be achieved by relying on talent!”

“Even though only two people had successfully communicated with the mother tree, Tang Zhen was not discouraged. This was because there were still many residents in the Holy Dragon City. In the future, there would be even more residents. He was sure that among the millions of residents, there would definitely be many people with this kind of talent. ”

Tang Zhen waited for a long time until the little boy’s snake-shaped vines and Li Sha’s Green light barrier disappeared. Only then did he call for everyone to return and have a good rest.

“As for Lisa and the little boy, they had already walked to the trunk of the mother tree and gently touched the trunk with their palms, as if they were comprehending something. Their faces were full of piety. ”

“Tang Zhen walked behind the two of them. He waited until the two of them withdrew their hands from the tree trunk before slowly asking, I saw your abilities just now. Your ability is a snake-shaped vine, and Lisa’s ability is a green light barrier. Do you have any explanations for them? ” ”

“Tang Zhen pointed at the little boy. After looking at Li Sha, he waited for the two of them to answer. ”

“The little boy looked at Lisa and Lisa gave him an encouraging look. The little boy then said excitedly, ” “the mother tree told me that my ability is to control the bloodthirsty vine. Within the range of the mother tree’s power, it can be used in any place with soil. And as my power increases, the bloodthirsty vine can grow very, very big, just like, just like a Pixiu. ”

“The little boy scratched his head, trying to find a word to describe the giant bloodthirsty vine he saw when he was communicating with the mother tree, but he couldn’t think of a suitable word, and his face turned red. ”

“Tang Zhen smiled and motioned for the little boy not to be anxious. Then, he looked at Lisa. ”

“when my communication with the mother tree reaches a certain level, I can use the power bestowed by the mother tree to form an infinitely large protective shield within the range of the mother tree’s power transmission. However, the larger the surface area of the protective shield, the lower the defense strength and the greater the consumption of the mother tree’s power. ”

“” “At the same time, the use of this ability is not unlimited. Because the current power is very violent, it will cause a burden on the user. Thus, there is a time limit to the use of various abilities. Some abilities even have a limit to the number of times they can be used. ” ”

“After Lisa said this, she suddenly looked at Tang Zhen with a very strange expression. She gently smiled and said, the mother tree said that it hates you and told you not to have any wishful thinking. It will never lend you its power because you forced her to eat disgusting things. You’re a Big Bad guy! ”

“Tang Zhen was stunned when he heard this. He raised his head and glanced at the mother tree. However, he could not help but laugh. ”

Chapter 138: Fishing for Lake Monsters with a giant hook (1)

“Yingluo, you don’t have to go around telling people about this embarrassing thing, right? hahaha Yingluo.”

Tang Zhen glanced at the mother tree as he spoke. He waved at Lisa and the little boy named Mo Luo before turning around and walking towards the nameless Lake that was extremely beautiful under the moonlight.

“It’s getting late, go back and rest. Remember to communicate more with the mother tree. Oh right, you and Mo Luo can move to the mother tree. Anyone who can communicate with the mother tree can move there.”

“Tang Zhen suddenly turned around and said to the two of them. As for how to get to the treehouse on the mother tree, Tang Zhen did not mention it at all. This was because he knew that after successfully communicating with the mother tree, one only needed to control the Emerald green vines hanging down from the mother tree when one wanted to get up or down.”

Tang Zhen slowly walked to the nameless Lake. He looked at the mirror-like surface of the lake and felt that this scenery was exceptionally beautiful!

“However, who would have thought that there was an unknown danger hidden under this beautiful lake?”

“Tang Zhen had been too busy during this period of time, causing him to not have the time to clean up the monster hidden in the lake. Now that he finally had a trace of free time, he decided to immediately clean up the hidden dangers in the valley.”

“Even though this lake monster had not come out to cause trouble since Tang Zhen had arrived at the sacred Dragon Valley, a monster was still a monster. One should never expect to live in peace with it.”

“The reason why it was safe now was that the Holy Dragon City did not have the energy to manage these waters. Once the two sides came into contact, a battle was inevitable.”

This Lake had always been a sword hanging in Tang Zhen’s heart. Those Holy Dragon City residents who knew about it also could not sleep peacefully at night.

“No matter what, the monster in the lake had to be eliminated!”

“Tang Zhen crossed his arms and stood by the lake. He was silent as he looked at the lake under the moonlight. At the center of the lake far away, a huge shadow was slowly sinking, causing the surface of the lake to ripple.”

Tang Zhen returned to his original world and began to prepare to clean up the lake monster.

“The water was the lake monster’s home ground and it could display its full strength. Tang Zhen naturally wouldn’t go to the lake to find trouble with it. No matter how strong he was, once he fell into the water, he would probably be slaughtered by the monster.”

“As such, the only safe way was to bring him ashore and kill him.”

“Apart from this method, Tang Zhen had other methods to kill the lake monster. However, they were all too troublesome. It was far simpler than directly fishing it up.”

“After calling Peter over, the two of them drove to the machinery processing plant in the suburbs, which was also one of the properties of the Leonard family. The two of them entered the factory smoothly.”

“The machinery processing plant had all kinds of machine tools and processing equipment, as well as a complete variety of raw materials. It could completely meet Zhen Tang’s various requirements.”

“Tang Zhen first asked people to process and build a huge fish hook. The end of the hook was made with a large plate of high-quality steel wire as the fishing line. Then, he made more than a dozen fish guns that could be fired by ballistae as backup. If this lake monster was not particularly brutal, Tang Zhen planned to capture it and study it.”

“Of course, the biggest possibility was to use bullets and RPGs to meet it because Tang Zhen had never seen a kind monster.”

“In addition to the few things that he wanted to process, the iron gate and some small things that Tang Zhen wanted to make last time were also placed in this machinery processing plant. Tang Zhen wanted to take them with him this time.”

“Tang Zhen was waiting at the machinery processing plant while Peter drove a pickup truck to the slaughterhouse to sell a few barrels of pig blood and cow blood, as well as half a truck of raw meat.”

“After the fishing hook and fish spear were completed, Peter found someone to pull these things back to the warehouse and Tang Zhen sent them to the square of the Holy Dragon City.”

“After receiving Tang Zhen’s order, Tai Seng and the others were driving around in their cars happily. Other than a portion of the supplies being moved into the Holy Dragon city’s warehouse, the rest of the things were moved to the lakeside by Tai Seng and the others.”

“After summoning a few Holy Dragon City soldiers, Tang Zhen chose a solid spot by the lake. He then waved his sledgehammer and smashed a solid iron pillar as thick as a child’s arm deep into the ground. At the same time, he fixed a nylon pulley on it.”

“He unrolled a large coil of steel rope, passed it through the pulley, and tied it to a military transport vehicle. Tang Zhen stepped forward and firmly secured the specially made giant fish hook with U-shaped bolts. Then, he hung a large piece of raw meat on the fish hook.”

“While Tang Zhen was doing this, Qian Long had already ordered his men to bring over a few ballistae. They had chosen a higher place to set them up, and when the lake monster was caught, the harpoons would be shot at the lake monster to prevent it from escaping the hook.”

“As for heavy machine guns and other weapons, they would only be used as a last resort!”

“While Tang Zhen and the rest were making their preparations, all the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers were fully armed and hiding in the grass by the lake.”

“He called Big Bear over and made him use all his strength to throw the hook with the raw meat into the lake. Tang Zhen also made him throw a few buckets of pig blood in the same place, then ran to the grass to hide.”

“After the pig’s blood was poured into the lake, the originally calm surface of the lake was instantly dyed red. After a short while, the lake water was like a boiling pot. Tang Zhen focused his eyes and looked over. He discovered that there were countless strange fish rolling around in the water. It was a pity that they were not Tang Zhen's target. "

"Time passed by slowly. From time to time, someone would throw a few pieces of raw meat into the lake, but other than the crazy strange fish, the monsters in the lake never appeared. "

Tang Zhen couldn't help but feel suspicious when he saw this. Could it be that Tai Seng's eyes were playing tricks on him and there were no large water monsters in this Lake?

"Tang Zhen's mind was filled with random thoughts. However, at this moment, an enormous black shadow suddenly appeared in his sight. Its sharp dorsal fin broke through the surface of the lake and swiftly pounced toward the spot where he had thrown the raw meat. "

it's not a waste of effort. This guy has finally appeared!

"Tang Zhen was a little excited in his heart. He subconsciously tightened his grip on the metal javelin in his hand. With his current cultivation, the might of the metal javelin that he threw was truly terrifying. It was not the slightest bit inferior to the might of a heavy machine gun and other weapons. "

"The black shadow in the lake seemed to have no scruples as it charged directly at the raw meat with the fish hook. After a splash, the steel wire tied to the wooden stake suddenly tightened. "

""He's taken the bait, pull him back!"" "

Tang Zhen's eyes stared intently at the surface of the lake where the huge waves were churning as he loudly shouted without turning his head.

"After receiving the order, the cultivator immediately stepped on the accelerator and quickly retracted the steel wire. As the steel wire gradually tightened, the monster was also in great pain from the fishing hook. It had no choice but to gradually tighten the steel wire and move toward the shore. "

"More and more parts of the monster's body emerged from the water. In the blink of an eye, a huge figure suddenly sprang up from the water, revealing its ferocious face. "

"It was a level four monster that was close to ten meters long. It looked like a combination of an octopus and a frog. Its body was covered in black scales, and mucus was dripping down. "

"The huge hook with the raw meat had been swallowed by the monster. The steel wire was extending out of its throat, causing its mouth to be unable to close and blood to flow out. "

"Because of the pain, the monster was struggling violently. Tang Zhen was really worried that the iron pillar would suddenly break. After seeing Tang Zhen and the others on the shore, the monster that was in pain immediately went crazy and madly rushed towards the group. "

"Since this monster had already taken the bait, there was no need for Tang Zhen to say anything about what to do next. "

""Try not to kill it, but attack it now!"" "

“After the order was given, everyone aimed their crossbows, arrows, and javelins at the crazed monster. In an instant, the monster’s body was covered with wounds, and blood dripped from the wounds to the ground.”

The fish spear with the rope stabbed into the body of the lake monster and directly entered its body.

“The monster that was attacked let out a series of screams, but it was unable to break free from the steel wire and rope.”

Chapter 139: Killing the lake monster and the mutated brain bead

“The lake monster was covered in blood, and its painful roars were endless. The sound waves made everyone’s eardrums hurt.”

“Thousand Dragon operated the automatic rifle, aiming at the monster’s eyes and mouth. After dozens of shots, the monster’s eyes were finally destroyed.”

“The monster, which had been severely injured, fell to the ground. It seemed to have exhausted its physical strength and was on the verge of death.”

“Tang Zhen was about to step forward to take a look and see if he could keep the lake monster alive to facilitate his research. However, he never thought that before he could approach the lake monster, a change suddenly occurred!”

“The dying lake monster suddenly erupted. A trace of green light seemed to flash on its teeth. Immediately after, it bit the steel wire in its mouth and its huge figure was like a lightning bolt as it directly pounced towards Tang Zhen.”

“””Not good!””

“Tang Zhen was shocked when he saw this. He suddenly threw the metal javelin in his hand. In the blink of an eye, it ruthlessly pierced into the lake monster’s chest. However, due to his hasty attack, this attack did not hurt the lake monster’s vital points. On the contrary, it made it even more crazy!”

“Seeing that the lake monster did not die after suffering such a heavy blow, Tang Zhen controlled the storage space and changed it to a giant sword that was 1.8 meters long. It looked extremely sharp!”

This was a weapon that he had specially built in the mechanical processing plant. He did not expect to use it so quickly.

“Due to the increase in Tang Zhen’s strength, his original weapon was no longer suitable for him to use. The purple electric short sword was too short and was not suitable for dealing with huge monsters. On the other hand, this specially made large sword, which was almost as tall as him, was made from high-quality Special Steel. It weighed more than 150 pounds, and it was just right for Tang Zhen to use.”

“At the same time as Tang Zhen’s attack, Tai Seng and Qian Long also brandished their weapons and faced the water monster’s advance head-on. The two of them had the same thought in their minds, which was to help Tang Zhen kill the lake monster. They couldn't let it wreak havoc on the shore, or else it would definitely cause heavy casualties."

"The soldiers all stopped shooting. In this situation, they couldn't use their guns recklessly, or they could easily hurt the three people who were blocking the lake monster."

"Moreover, this monster was already an arrow at the end of its flight, and its head had already been completely smashed. As long as the three of them dealt it a heavy blow, it was likely that it would be killed."

The Holy Dragon city's soldiers were very confident in the city Lord and the two leaders!

"Because after the battle, the two leaders had both become Level 3 cultivators. This was something that made everyone feel both coincidental and excited!"

The Level 4 city Lord and the two level 3 leaders would definitely be able to kill this struggling lake monster.

"Qian Long and his partner's speed was much faster than ordinary people, but the lake monster was also extremely fast when it used its full power. The crowd only saw a blur before the two sides collided."

""Aooo!""

"The monster's pained cry rang in everyone's ears. Then, a pillar of blood shot up into the sky. At the same time, the monster's head flew in the air. With a muffled sound, the monster's corpse fell heavily to the ground. It twitched a few times and then stopped moving."

"Tang Zhen, who was silently standing at the side, slowly retracted his large sword. He ignored the surprised expressions on everyone's faces and slowly walked to the side of the monster's head. At this moment, the monster's head had already turned into a pile of rotten flesh. The surface of the head was covered with blood and mud."

"Tang Zhen knew that there was a brain bead hidden within the head of this monster. However, looking at the disgusting appearance of the lake monster's head, he really had no way to make a move. When Qian Long saw this, he waved his hand and called over a few people. He then handed over the task of breaking open the lake monster's head and searching for the brain bead to them."

Tai Seng pulled out his battle blade from the side of the monster's corpse and glanced at Tang Zhen with a complicated feeling.

"The strike that had just beheaded the monster was executed by Zhen Tang. As for him and thousand Dragon, their attack was aimed at the monster's chest. However, by the time the two of them had struck the monster, Zhen Tang had already killed it."

"After secretly comparing the effects of their attacks, Tai Seng helplessly discovered that even though the two of them had successfully advanced to rank 3 cultivators, there was still a gap between them and Tang Zhen's strength and speed."

How could the difference of one level be so huge?

Perhaps he would only be able to compete with the city Lord after he exchanged for a cultivator skill from the cornerstone trading platform and reached level four?

“However, the moment he thought about Tang Zhen’s mysterious ability, Tai Seng sadly realized that he might never be a match for the city Lord.”

“Tang Zhen’s cultivation rose rapidly. In such a short period of time, he had already become a rank 4 cultivator. His speed was as fast as a rocket, and this made Tai Seng extremely envious.”

“For Tai Seng who revered strength and was competitive, it was an extremely painful matter to watch his companion’s cultivation rapidly increase while he remained at the same spot. However, after he realized the huge gap between him and Tang Zhen, he extinguished his original intention to compete.”

“It’s better not to think about those messy things and work hard to improve your cultivation. Who doesn’t know that the Holy Dragon City is now surrounded by powerful enemies? a battle could break out at any time. When that time comes, I’ll still need to fight and kill!”

“Thinking up to this point, Tai Seng felt as if a huge rock in his heart had been lifted off. His entire being immediately became extremely relaxed, and a bright smile subconsciously appeared on his face.”

“Tang Zhen was currently squatting on the ground and observing the corpse of the lake monster. Naturally, he didn’t know what Tai Seng was thinking. However, he was very clear about Tai Seng’s personality. He was a man who respected the strong. As long as he could prove that his strength was stronger than Tai Seng, then Tai Seng would submit to him from the bottom of his heart.”

“Tai Seng would be a battle blade in his hands, and once he sharpened it, he would definitely become a capable general that could conquer the world. He had to make good use of this person!”

“After dragging the broken body of the lake monster to the side, Tang Zhen commanded everyone to cast the hook again to see if there were any more water monsters in the lake. This time, they waited for nearly three hours, but no water monster appeared. It seemed that there was only one water monster in the lake.”

“Since there were no more water monsters in the lake, Tang Zhen didn’t have the mood to wait any longer. He ordered his men to collect all the items and gave a few words to the residents in charge of the Valley’s construction. He asked them to organize people to clean up the aquatic grass by the lake.”

“Once the seaweed that the strange insects lived in was cleaned up, the strange insects in the lake would die because there was no food or place to lay eggs. After the strange insects died, the strange fish in the lake would also die because there was no food source.”

“After the pests in the lake were completely eliminated, Tang Zhen could rest assured and boldly engage in aquatic farming.”

“On the way back to the tower, Qian Long passed a brain Pearl that was several times larger than an ordinary one to Tang Zhen. It came from the lake monster. Tang Zhen took it and sized it up with a surprised expression. He then used his hand to gently shake it and felt that it was quite heavy.”

“Looking at this brain that was the size of a baby’s fist, Tang Zhen could not help but guess whether its value would be a little higher. He then tried to use his phone to estimate its value. Just as he gave the order, a prompt appeared in front of his eyes.”

“[mutated Level 4 brain, worth 200000 gold coins.]”

“After seeing the notification, Tang Zhen could not help but be stunned. This was the first time he had seen the term “mutated brain Pearl.” Furthermore, the value of this brain Pearl was extremely high, it was actually 20 times that of an Ordinary Level 4 brain Pearl!”

“Tang Zhen’s interest was piqued. What kind of mutation did this mutated brain Pearl have? could it be that it had some special use? Otherwise, the phone would not have offered such a high exchange price. It was almost equivalent to two level five brains!”

“Unfortunately, there was only this simple sentence on the phone. Tang Zhen wanted to know more information but found that it was the same sentence over and over again.”

Tang Zhen furrowed his brows as he pondered. Was there any way he could figure out the specific information about this mutated brain Pearl?

“Suddenly, he remembered that he had received a universal appraisal card from the lucky Wheel. He wondered if he could use it to appraise the information on the mutated brain!”

“Tang Zhen immediately took out the card when he thought of this. He did not hesitate to tear it apart. The broken card turned into a seven-colored light and disappeared. At the same time, he heard a voice prompt in his mind, “please use your left hand to point at the item that needs to be appraised.””

“Tang Zhen followed the instructions and gently pointed at the head in his right hand, waiting for the result of the appraisal.”

“mutated monster’s brain, level four. It has the power of water attribute and storage function. The conditions for the formation of such a special attribute are extremely harsh, rare, and precious. It can be used as a spell-casting tool for Holy Masters.”

Tang Zhen looked at the appraisal content that appeared before his eyes and came to a sudden realization.

“It turned out that the reason this brain Pearl was called a mutated brain Pearl was because it had the ability to increase and store power compared to ordinary brains. At the same time, it was related to Holy Masters.”

“As a fake ‘Holy master’, he had to keep this mutated brain bead well and not sell it for money, because it might come in handy one day!”

He had to admit that this lake monster had given him a huge surprise!

“The more he understood this world, the more Tang Zhen’s curiosity and reverence grew. He believed that as the Holy Dragon city’s sphere of influence gradually expanded, there would be countless new and exciting things in the future. This was also one of Tang Zhen’s interests!”

Chapter 140: daily life and the delivery of gold

“A peaceful day had begun. When the sun shone on the Holy Dragon Valley, the residents of the Holy Dragon City had begun a new day of busy life. After eating breakfast together, they brought all kinds of tools and rushed to work in groups. Busy figures could be seen everywhere in the valley.”

“train well, all of you. No one is allowed to play tricks, or I’ll kick his ass!”

“&Nbsp; Tai Seng was wearing armor and a blade, shouting at his soldiers. He was currently running and training in the valley. Every soldier was fully armed and panting, but none of them fell behind. They were all gritting their teeth and persevering.”

“In a small open space not far away, the members of the team of cultivators were also training. However, compared to the soldiers, their training was more flexible, but the intensity and danger of the training were more than that. Even when they were training, they used real swords and guns, and it was common for them to bleed.”

“As the leader of the cultivator battle team, Qian Long was naturally among the training personnel. He constantly corrected the movements of his team members and gave them guidance based on his experience, looking very serious.”

“Under the thick and tall mother tree was a group of children led by Lisa, each of them looking full of vitality.”

“At this moment, Lisa was ordering the children to sit on the ground, and then quietly closed their eyes, trying to let them communicate with the mother tree.”

“”Hu”” a figure flashed past. It was a little boy who was holding onto a tree vine and was currently wandering back and forth on the 100 meter tall mother tree. Tang Zhen knew that this was the little boy called mo Luo. He was controlling the mother tree’s vine and was having a great time.”

“Other than that, there was also Murong Ziyang, da Xiong, the little girl, old Mike, and so on. These Holy Dragon City residents were all busy with their own tasks, and at the same time, their faces were filled with a happy smile.”

“Without the endless harassment from the monsters outside, the Holy Dragon Valley would definitely be a peaceful paradise!”

“Tang Zhen shifted his attention away from the map. He stood up from his chair and stretched his body. At the same time, he put away the tree spirit clan’s book on the table and slowly walked to the square outside the Holy Dragon City.”

“A few residents were carrying clothes and shoes with smiles on their faces. This was a benefit given to everyone by the city Lord. Every resident was given two sets, so the original torn clothes could be thrown away.”

“The two women looked at the brand new clothes and shoes and couldn’t help but exclaim in admiration.””These clothes are really beautiful. The city Lord is also very capable. I wonder where he got so many good things. We’re really lucky.”” ”

“The woman was talkative, and there was no end to her conversation. Fortunately, it did not delay his work, so Tang Zhen ignored her and headed straight to the entrance of the flashing gold race’s sanctuary.”

“The two soldiers who were guarding the entrance bowed to Tang Zhen. Tang Zhen nodded his head. After chatting with the two of them for a while, he entered the underground level of the sanctuary alone.”

“The brightly lit underground floor of the fallout shelter was now empty. Everything that could be moved had been cleared out, and it looked like an ideal residence.”

“However, if someone were to move in, they would be doomed!”

“All the Wanderers in the wilderness knew that they couldn’t stay overnight in a wild building where the foundation stone had not been taken away. Otherwise, they would encounter very strange things. They would either disappear without a trace or suddenly die. It was said that a lucky guy stayed in the wild building for a night and didn’t die the next day, but he went completely crazy.”

“For a Wanderer in the endless wilderness to encounter such a situation, it was truly a fate worse than death!”

“It was also because of this reason that Tang Zhen didn’t let the residents live here. If he really wanted to live here, he had to wait until he cleaned up the flashing gold tribe’s sanctuary and took out the foundation to rebuild the city!”

“Once the shelter was successfully built, Holy Dragon City would have an incomparably huge underground city. At that time, whether it was the accommodation of the residents or the storage of materials, they would no longer have to worry about having no place to use.”

“After walking to the entrance of the second underground floor, Tang Zhen quietly observed for a while before turning around and returning to the surface to make preparations to clean up the second underground floor of the shelter.”

“The first underground floor was an enclosed space with many monsters inside. However, there was not a single monster that could pose a threat to Tang Zhen.”

“Compared to those human-shaped monsters, Tang Zhen was actually more afraid of The Golden Spiders. They were extremely fast and possessed terrifying poison. One would definitely die if they were bitten. Moreover, their size was small and it was easy to hide. The slightest carelessness would cause casualties.”

“In order to defend against this Golden Spider, Tang Zhen had specially made a batch of Greaves to prevent his legs from being bitten by this Golden Spider. However, this kind of passive defensive measure made Tang Zhen feel a sense of insecurity.”

“He had another guess in his heart. Since the flashing gold race could make small killing machines like the golden spider, could they also make larger combat machines?”

“If there was really such a large-scale killing machine, how would he deal with it?”

“Also, other than the humanoid monsters and combat machines of the glittergold race, were there any other types of monsters in the sanctuary?”

“Before they knew it, it was already the afternoon break. The residents came back one after another for lunch. At the same time, they saw the pile of clothes and shoes that had piled up like a small mountain. Everyone’s face revealed a curious expression.”

“hey, what’s going on here? where did you get so many new clothes?”

“A resident asked the person next to him in a low voice, but the person was also confused. He scratched his head and said, “I’m not sure, it can’t be that they’re going to share it with us, right?”

“I think it’s about the same. Tsk, tsk, so many new clothes at one time, how many brains are they worth?”

“stop guessing. Look, they’re already starting to distribute. Each of them has two sets of clothes and a pair of shoes. Finally, they don’t have to wear pants that show their butts!”

“The residents at the back of the line were discussing animatedly, while the residents in front who had already been given clothes were full of joy. A few of them even changed their clothes on the spot and touched them up and down with a happy expression on their faces.”

“After the clothes were distributed, the residents began to eat. Tang Zhen looked at the map for a while and then brought a batch of gold back to his original world.”

“Peter happened to be guarding the warehouse. When he saw Tang Zhen appear, he immediately greeted him and asked what Tang Zhen needed.”

“This time, Tang Zhen had brought a total of 20 tons of gold. It was a huge fortune worth billions. It was far from something that Peter could handle. Therefore, without Tang Zhen’s request, Peter called Ivanov and informed him of this matter.”

“After hearing that Tang Zhen had brought a large amount of gold, Ivanov rushed over under the protection of the high priest.”

“Tang Zhen hadn’t eaten yet, so he asked Peter to get some food and wine. The two of them chatted while eating.”

“Ivanov, who was on his way, was in a life and death crisis!”

“Ever since the first believer joined Eternal Heaven, Ivanov’s life had become more and more glorious. Now, there were already five people who had undergone the ‘rebirth ceremony’, and all of them were rather powerful figures!”

“With the support of these believers, Ivanov’s power grew stronger and stronger. Now, he had a faint trend of becoming the head of the region. It was also because of this that he had been listed as the number one assassination list of some forces.”

“As a cunning Fox, Ivanov had already sensed the murderous intent from the darkness, so he had been particularly careful when he went out recently, for fear of falling into someone’s trap.”

“Although Tang Zhen had already told him that even if his body was shattered, as long as the Pearl in his head was still there, Tang Zhen would have a way to resurrect him. However, Ivanov did not dare to take the risk.”

“At the moment, there were a total of 20 bodyguards in his convoy, and Parker the senior guard was protecting him closely, which made Ivanov feel a little more at ease.”

“No matter how careful Ivanov was, the accident still happened.”

“As they passed through a busy road, a cargo van suddenly blocked the way of the convoy, forcing the entire convoy to stop. The experienced bodyguards immediately became alert and loaded their bullets. At the same time, they informed Ivanov to stay in the bulletproof car. If the situation became dangerous, they had to retreat immediately.”

“As soon as the call ended, the truck was suddenly kicked away. A strong man holding a heavy machine gun, hiding behind a steel plate, began to shoot wildly with a grin on his face.”

“Under the dense barrage of bullets, several bodyguards were shot to death on the spot!”
