

Alternate 141

Chapter 141: The magic weapon and the magical card

“The large-caliber machine guns were wreaking havoc on the streets, causing the entire Street to be in chaos.”

“All the pedestrians began to scream and Dodge in panic, but there were still people who were hit by the stray bullets of the machine guns and fell on the street one after another.”

“The bodyguard’s car at the front had been shot into a honeycomb, and the bodyguards inside had all been shot. The cars behind were also covered in bullet holes, and the windshields were shattered, stained with blood.”

“The bodyguards who were suddenly attacked immediately looked for cover and began to return fire at the machine gunner. However, because the machine gunner had a steel plate erected in front of him, the bullets hit the steel plate and flew around randomly, but they couldn’t hit the brawny man of the ice Bear Alliance who was shooting wildly.”

“Most of Ivanov’s bodyguards were retired soldiers, and there were also some experts among them. After about a minute of fighting, one of the bodyguards successfully threw a grenade into the car, which exploded with a loud bang!”

“The machine gunner was blown away by the grenade, and the bodyguards were finally freed from their suppressed state. But before they could catch their breath, the loud roar of a motorcycle suddenly sounded.”

“More than 20 gunmen in black biker suits and black helmets rushed to the convoy on mountain motorcycles. They raised their submachine guns and began to shoot, once again suppressing the bodyguards and making them unable to move.”

“Pargo, who was sitting in the car, kept observing the situation outside. His pupils suddenly shrank, and he shouted, “” get out of the car! he kicked the door open and jumped out of the car with Ivanov.”

“Ivanov jumped out of the car with Pargo in a sorry state. His eyes swept across the street corner not far away, and he was shocked to find that an enemy was carrying a rocket launcher, aiming at his car and pulling the trigger.”

A flaming grenade was fired and it hit the car hard.

“”BOOM!””

“After a huge explosion, Ivanov’s car jumped up and turned into a big fireball at the same time. Thick black smoke rose into the air, and the shock wave of the explosion threw several bodyguards nearby.”

“”Protect Mr. Ivanov and don’t move.””

“fire! Pargo warned. He picked up the submachine gun that had fallen to the ground and began to return fire at the approaching motorcycle gunner. Although he was still wearing the demon soldier armor, it did not affect his tactical movements.”

“The magazine was quickly emptied, and Pargo dropped the submachine gun in his hand. He then pulled out the old-fashioned TT33 pistol from his waist and fired three shots at the speeding motorcycle gunner.”

“The gunman was shot in the chest, and his body fell limply from the motorcycle. The out-of-control motorcycle also slid across the road after falling, leaving a long trail of sparks and crashing into a car.”

“Another motorcycle gunner pounced on Pargo. His driving skills were good, and he fired while riding. He even dodged Pargo’s shots and rushed in front of him.”

“”Ka BA”””

“The sound of the firing pin made Pargo’s expression change, but he didn’t hesitate. He quickly put away the pistol and pulled out the demon Sword from his waist. He swung it at the motorcycle gunner who was about to shoot.”

“”Pfft!”””

“The shimmering blade swept past the motorcycle gunner’s body as if it was an illusion, but Pargo knew very well that the blade had hit the enemy!”

“”Huala”””

“Blood sprayed out from the body of the motorcycle gunner who had just brushed past Pargo, and his body was split in two. Even the motorcycle he was riding on was split in two!”

“Such a shocking scene immediately attracted the attention of both sides. At the same time, several motorcycle Gunners aimed their weapons at Pargo and fired at the same time.”

“Pargo’s heart tightened. He wanted to Dodge, but it was too late because the bullet had already hit his body.”

“After a series of crackling sounds, the shooters were shocked to find that their bullets couldn’t penetrate Pargo’s armor!”

“Pargo, who had just escaped death, roared excitedly. He rushed in front of one of the motorcyclists and slashed at him with his knife.”

“The knife passed, the person was broken, and the motorcycle was split in two!”

“Looking at the sharp Demon Blade in his hand and touching the demon Armor on his body, Pargo was full of battle intent. He took off his mask and pounced on the other motorcycle gunner.”

The onlookers who were hiding in the distance looked at this strange scene in a daze. Their hearts were full of surprise and excitement. They never dreamed that there would be such a sharp saber in the world that could easily cut through a motorcycle. There would be such a strong armor that could withstand the continuous shots of a submachine gun!

The armored Ambusher actually relied on these cold weapons to beat the gun-wielding Ambusher into a retreat!

“Perhaps Pargo’s fighting spirit had inspired his teammates, the rest of the guards in demon soldier armor also shouted and joined the battle with their demon soldiers. They took the bullets flying all over their bodies and killed six people in a row, along with their vehicles. Finally, the motorcycle gunmen were completely frightened away!”

“Ivanov, who was hiding behind cover, took a deep breath and looked at the dilapidated Street. A cold light flashed in his eyes. He knew that if it were not for the protection of the high nobles, he would probably have been “” reborn “” again.”

“damn it! No matter who you are, I will never let you go!”

Ivanov’s ruthlessness meant that the land under his feet was about to set off another bloody storm.

“The two bodyguards beside him slowly poked their heads out and found that the enemies had retreated. They then motioned for Ivanov to stand up with them and prepare to move to a safe place immediately. However, just as Ivanov stood up, one of the bodyguards beside him trembled and blood gushed out of his chest.”

A gunman hiding on the roof with an automatic rifle in his hand suddenly started shooting at Ivanov and the others!

“Ivanov’s heart thumped wildly, and he tore a white card in his hand without hesitation. At the same time, the broken card turned into a stream of light and disappeared. In an instant, a green light barrier wrapped around Ivanov.”

“The bullets hit the light shield one after another, but they were all blocked by the seemingly thin light shield and could not move an inch forward. The bodyguard beside him was not so lucky. He was hit in the abdomen by a bullet, but fortunately, he reacted quickly. After seeing that the light shield could block the bullets, he was now hiding behind the light shield and retaliating. At the same time, he did not forget to look at the light shield that covered Ivanov with a horrified look!”

He had only seen similar things in sci-fi movies. He didn’t expect it to appear in front of his eyes this time. How could he not be shocked?

“The sudden attack of the gunman caused everyone to panic, but then he was locked on by more than a dozen guns. Before the magazine in his hand was finished, the gunman’s head was blown off. After falling from the top of the building, he heavily smashed into the roof of a car, causing the alarm to scream wildly!”

“Five seconds later, the light shield disappeared, and Ivanov, under the cover of the high, got into an off-road vehicle and quickly left the scene of the gunfight.”

“The commotion this time was too big, and he believed that it would soon lead to an investigation by the official forces of the ice Bear Alliance. However, Ivanov already had a way to deal with it, so he was not worried. What he was most concerned about now was who wanted to kill him!”

“An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth-this was Ivanov’s life Creed, so those who wanted to hurt him had to be prepared to suffer his thunderous anger!”

“Of course, before that, he still had to pay a visit to the Oracle. If it were not for the demon weapon and the magical card that he had given him, Ivanov, who was sitting in the car, would have been a bloody corpse.”

Chapter 142: being targeted

“Half an hour later, Tang Zhen finally saw the still frightened Ivanov. Although he appeared very calm, Tang Zhen could still see a trace of suppressed anger in his eyes. ”

“This matter was a disgrace to Ivanov. With his character, how could he calm his anger so easily? even when he was facing Tang Zhen, his mind was still thinking about how to take revenge. ”

“Tang Zhen did not interfere in this matter. With the power that Ivanov possessed, it would be easy for him to complete a revenge operation. Moreover, this was his own revenge. He would most likely not be willing to let others take it. ”

“After chatting with Ivanov for a while, Tang Zhen changed the topic and told him that he had brought a large amount of gold and that he would be in charge of the casting and sales. ”

“After speaking, Tang Zhen took out the gold from the storage space. It was as spectacular as a small mountain. Ivanov’s eyes were wide open as he looked at it. He couldn’t help but exclaim in admiration. At the same time, he bent down to pick up a piece and looked at it carefully. After looking at it for a full minute, he threw the gold piece back to the ground. ”

“””The feeling of throwing gold around is really delightful. Unfortunately, gold can no longer make my blood burn. It’s really a regretful thing!” ”

Ivanov could not help but sigh. He no longer paid attention to the mountain of gold around him. He did not even look at it again. This was a huge contrast to his usual personality.

“Ivanov, who had once regarded money as his life, was now obsessed with power and immortality after being resurrected from the dead. He was no longer tempted by money. ”

“Even if the gold was worth billions, he was only surprised and admired it, but there was no greed in his heart. ”

“After the two of them discussed the details of how to deal with the gold, Tang Zhen got up and left. Ivanov also hurriedly left in his car. This time, the commotion was too big and too many things had been exposed. He had to start the emergency plan. ”

“But Ivanov did not forget the enemy who wanted to kill him, and he had already begun to plan his revenge. ”

“Just as Tang Zhen and Ivanov were meeting, in a police station of the ice Bear Alliance, several police officers were watching the video of the gunfight scene copied from the surveillance camera. Their expressions were extremely wonderful.”

“The intense gunfight had already made them nervous, but when Pargo slashed the motorcyclist and the motorcycle he was riding, they thought they were seeing things.”

“However, after Pargo showed off his power and broke three motorcycles in a row, everyone’s faces became serious, and the original laughter and banter disappeared.”

“After that, the rest of the guards repeated the same action as the Pargau, completely ignoring the bullet attack, and pounced forward to split the frightened motorcyclist and his Mount into two, killing the motorcyclist until he ran away like a rat.”

“When Ivanov tore the card apart, an energy shield formed on the surface of his body, blocking the bullets from the automatic weapons. Everyone’s mouth was wide open in surprise, and they all showed an expression of disbelief.”

“““Are you sure you didn’t play the wrong video? are we watching a science fiction movie?”” ”

“A strong police officer rubbed his numb cheeks from maintaining a surprised expression for a long time and turned to his colleague next to him. His tone was full of uncertainty, and he urgently needed someone to give him a positive answer.”

“A chubby man with very little hair shrugged, indicating that he was also in a daze and couldn’t give her what she needed.”

“““There are a lot of things that don’t make sense in this case. For example, the armor that’s not afraid of submachine guns, the sword that’s sharp enough to split a person and a motorcycle, and the energy shield that can block rifle bullets. These things don’t make sense. I think this case should be reported to the Alliance headquarters.”

“And I’m sure that the Alliance general office will be interested in this case!”” ”

“A man in a leather jacket said with a calm expression. It was obvious that his words were agreed by the others. After everyone agreed, they immediately reported this unusual shooting to the Alliance headquarters.”

“As they had expected, they received a reply from the Alliance headquarters less than half an hour later, telling them not to act on their own. The headquarters had sent a special operations team to deal with this case. At the same time, all related information was blocked and no one was allowed to come into contact with it!”

“After the man in the leather jacket hung up the phone, he showed an expression that said, ““ I knew it. he then made a gesture to drive his men away.””All of you, get to work!”” ”

“In the evening, three black business cars entered the police station. After the doors opened, more than a dozen men and women in Black jumped out and went straight into the police station.”

“It was a spacious conference room, and the room was very quiet. The dozen men and women were either standing or sitting, watching a video that the man in leather had watched before. After seeing Pargo's performance and the energy shield that appeared on Ivanov's body, they all had different expressions."

"The video came to an abrupt end. A woman with short, light blond hair glanced at the people in the room and spoke at a slightly faster speed, "" everyone has seen the entire process of the case. Now, I want to hear your thoughts. "

"As soon as the woman's voice fell, a brawny man with a beard moved the video. When the scene showed Pargo slashing at the motorcycle shooter, he paused the video and pointed at Pargo. I remember this man. His name is Pargo, and he's one of the main members of a resistance organization in the Northsea Alliance. He's participated in many influential operations, but when the resistance organization was disbanded, he and his sister disappeared. I didn't expect them to come here! "

"The bearded man's hands were not idle as he spoke. His fingers slid quickly on a mobile phone, and it did not take long for Pargo's information to be transmitted to everyone's communication devices. "

"Most of them picked up their communication devices and looked at it, then they continued their discussion. "

"A thin young man with glasses zoomed in on the picture and pointed at Pargo's armor. He also took a screenshot of his demon weapon and sword. After putting the two pictures together, he said, "" I believe everyone has seen that Pargo's armor and sword are both translucent. As far as I know, there are some transparent metals that have been processed by special processes, but none of them are as hard as the armor and sword in the video. Other transparent materials are not able to achieve this. "

"After I processed the images, I found that they were all emitting a faint light. If it was a dark night, I believe that the light would be even brighter. From this, I can roughly confirm that the material used for the armor and the blade should be an extremely rare metal!"" "

"After saying this, the bespectacled man switched to the video of Ivanov using the protective shield. This was a video taken from another angle. As the location of the battle was located in a bustling area, more than 20 cameras had captured the entire process of the battle. "

"The spectacled man took a sip of water and pointed to the paused image. did everyone notice? this man is the main target of protection. The gunmen were also targeting him. However, when he was suddenly shot, a sci-fi energy shield appeared around his body. I would like to say that this kind of energy shield is almost impossible to exist because it requires a controllable high-density energy. With the current level of technology, it is impossible to do so. "

"As soon as the spectacled man finished speaking, someone asked, "" however, there is indeed a force field shield in this video. How do you explain this? "" "

"The bespectacled man shook his head. After adjusting the screen, he pointed at Ivanov's hand and said, "" I noticed that before the energy shield was activated, this man used his hand to tear a white card. When the card was torn to pieces, it actually turned into light and disappeared. Please note that it didn't burn, but disintegrated into light and disappeared! "

"The bespectacled man pushed his glasses up and frowned as if he was talking to himself. what kind of magical substance is this? could it be a prerequisite to activating the protective shield? "" "

Chapter 143: The special operations team and entering the second underground floor

“Looking at the man in glasses who was deep in thought, everyone ignored him. ”

“They all knew the character of the bespectacled man. Once he entered a state of mumbling to himself, they should not easily interrupt his thoughts, otherwise he would go crazy. ”

“The short-haired woman saw that everyone was silent, so she said, “” “”According to the information sent by the intelligence Department, the identity of the young man who was attacked has been confirmed after investigation! ”

“The man was called levsett, a member of a small local gang called ‘Fire Fist’. Some time ago, all the members of the gang were shot dead, but the information showed that levsett had disappeared before the fire Fist was attacked. ”

“Before he went missing, he had participated in a gang operation and tried to kill an opponent of Fire Fist, an arms dealer named Ivanov. However, the final result was that all the members who had participated in this operation had gone missing, and so had the arms dealer named Ivanov! ”

“Later, the local police found two scrapped cars in the suburbs. There were bullet marks on the bodies, and several burnt bodies that were beyond recognition. Although it was impossible to identify them, it was very unlikely that they were members of the fire Fist. ”

“Things should have come to an end at this point, and it seemed that levsett and Ivanov were both dead. However, something else happened later that changed the situation. ”

“A few days later, in a villa in the suburbs, there was a fierce gunfight. One of the attackers was the members of the fiery fist, and the villa they surrounded was actually one of Ivanov’s old nests. ”

“The battle lasted for about 20 minutes, and all the members of the fire Fist were killed. During this time, two groups of people left the villa. The intelligence Department pulled up the surveillance video of the nearby intersections and confirmed that three men and one woman had left. The first two to leave were Pargo and levsett. ”

“The second group was a man and a woman. The woman was Pargo’s sister, Natasha, and the man was a man from the Asian Alliance. After our investigation, we found out that the man’s name was Tang Zhen, an illegal immigrant. He joined a tour group some time ago and suddenly disappeared that night after entering the Alliance. ”

“There was very little information about the man. They only knew that he was an orphan who was adopted and raised. He had a sister who was not related by blood and was usually low-key. According to investigations, the man’s adoptive father had a huge debt and the man was currently in charge of paying it. ”

“Later, the intelligence Department found out that on the day Ivanov was attacked, the man from the Asian Alliance had driven a car belonging to Ivanov’s men and appeared nearby. In the end, they concluded that he had entered Ivanov’s Villa. ”

“After the battle in the villa, the man from the Asian Alliance had appeared several times in the local area, but soon disappeared mysteriously. Levsett, who was originally a member of the fire Fist, had successfully taken over Ivanov’s forces through some unknown means. Then, under the command of Pargo, he had eliminated all the members of the fire Fist! ”

“After that, levsett kept in contact with the local influential figures. He used some unknown means and successfully obtained the full support of several local influential figures. Now, he had become the leader of the local underground forces. ”

“This Street gun battle was planned by the old leaders of the local forces to kill the powerful levsett. However, they failed due to various accidents. I believe that levsett will take revenge soon!” ”

“The short-haired woman looked at the crowd and said, “” “”This is all the information that the intelligence Department has at the moment. What do you guys think?”” ”

“A tall young woman beside the short-haired woman spoke first, “” “”I have a few questions. First of all, how did levsett take over Ivanov’s forces? after all, the two sides were hostile to each other. ”

“next is the man from the Asian Alliance. I don’t think his appearance was coincidental. His whereabouts are mysterious, and it’s likely that he played an important role in these events. So, the intelligence Department needs to strengthen their investigation of him. ”

“Finally, is Ivanov dead or not? is he involved in these things?”” ”

“After the woman finished speaking, everyone nodded. Then, someone suggested that they should immediately go to Ivanov’s Villa, because after the gunfight in the villa ended, levitate had been living there, and there were often powerful people going in and out of the villa! ”

“Ten minutes later, three commercial vehicles left the police station and quickly headed to Ivanov’s Villa, followed by dozens of special police of the ice Bear Alliance. ”

“However, when the fully armed police arrived at the villa, they found that the place had long been empty! ”

“However, the spec Ops members discovered a secret basement by accident. After trying their best to open it, they found that the entire basement had been severely damaged. However, they could still see that there were large amounts of cut marks on the floor and walls. It seemed like something had been moved out. ”

“The members of the special operation team who returned empty-handed were unwilling. They immediately began to hunt down Tang Zhen and the other three. However, they quickly discovered that these four people seemed to have vanished from the world. No matter how they tried, they could not find any traces of them. The case had also entered a stalemate for a time. ”

Tang Zhen didn’t know what was happening in the original world because he was leading his men and slowly opening the door to the second underground floor of the fallout shelter.

This was an extremely thick and heavy metal door that tightly sealed the entrance to the second underground floor. Tang Zhen studied it for a long time before he successfully opened this metal door.

The rumbling sound of gears criss-crossing rang in their ears. Everyone raised the weapons in their hands with a guarded expression. Tang Zhen stood at the front with a machine gun in one hand. His eyes did not blink as he looked at the slowly opening door.

""Crack!"" "

"The door was fully opened, but there was no large group of monsters as expected. It was quiet behind the metal door. There was no movement, no light, and it was so quiet that it was scary. "

"Tang Zhen activated the [ all-rounded digital battle interface ] and looked around for a while. After confirming that there was no danger, he took the lead and stepped into the passage. The others followed closely behind and entered one after another. "

"The sound of footsteps echoed in the quiet passage. Dozens of strong flashlights illuminated the passage. Tang Zhen looked around, but he didn't find the switch used by the glittergold race to control the lighting. "

"After walking past the last flight of stairs, Tang Zhen had already officially stepped into the second underground floor. "

"As there was no light source, not only was Tang Zhen's vision pitch black, but even the map was the same. The infrared detection, sound wave radar, and other functions were all activated, but they were still unable to fully display the situation on this floor. Everything that entered his eyes was blurry. There were no moving objects, as if this place was a dead zone. "

Tang Zhen involuntarily raised his vigilance in the face of this strange situation. He indicated to the people behind him to be careful as he took a few steps forward by himself.

""Ka BA!"" "

"One of Tang Zhen's feet stepped on a piece of metal floor. However, he did not expect that the floor would suddenly emit a crisp sound. Soon after, he was shocked to discover that the metal floor on the ground had actually lit up one after another. However, not all of the floor had lit up. Instead, it was like a chess board that extended to an extremely far place. "

Tang Zhen used the light to observe the image displayed on the map. It turned out that this second underground floor was actually a super large space without any support!

"The brightness of the floor lights was not high. It looked like the Holy Dragon city's Valley under the moonlit night, but it was enough for Tang Zhen to see the entire second underground floor. At this moment, Tang Zhen discovered something standing on the four walls of the second underground floor. "

"Tang Zhen's face revealed a shocked expression after merely taking a glance. He turned around and shouted loudly, quickly retreat to the first floor! "

"Tang Zhen's voice had just sounded when countless pairs of red eyes suddenly appeared on the four walls. At the same time, the door of the tunnel also began to slowly close! "

Chapter 144: shovel truck bucket puppet

“Tang Zhen’s reminder was still too late. Following the rapid sound of gears grinding, the door of the passageway had already been swiftly closed. Not a single gap was left behind, and the only exit was cut off.”

“The Holy Dragon City soldiers responsible for guarding the door outside desperately pulled the switch, trying to open the metal door again, but there was no reaction at all.”

“Tang Zhen stared unblinkingly at those red eyes that were slowly approaching. Without even turning his head, he said to Tai Seng and the others behind him, find a corner immediately and form a defensive circle. Before being attacked, no one is to act rashly.”

“After Tang Zhen finished speaking, his body suddenly scuttled forward and pounced towards the owners of those red eyes. At the same time, the machine gun in his hand also began to continuously shoot out bullets, as if he wanted to attract the attention of these things.”

“Tang Zhen’s goal had been achieved. After encountering his luring attack, these things really pounced towards him. As they approached, they also emitted waves of mechanical sounds.”

Tai Seng and the others who were squatting in the corner finally realized that the owners of those red eyes were actually countless 2.5-meter tall wheeled metal puppets waving their two sharp blade-like arms. They were currently surrounding Tang Zhen who was standing in the middle like a tide.

The dim lights flickered constantly because of objects passing by. Tang Zhen’s figure was like a lonely boat in the raging sea.

“Rapid firing sounds rang out. Tang Zhen controlled the machine gun and fired for a long time before he managed to turn a puppet into scrap metal. However, he had used up dozens of bullets.”

The ammunition consumption was too large and the efficiency was too low. Tang Zhen came to a conclusion in his heart.

“Tang Zhen instantly put away the machine gun and switched to his alloy sword. After dodging the attack of a puppet, he turned his body and slashed the sword at its body. Sparks flew everywhere as the sharp sword cut through half of the puppet’s body, causing it to suddenly stop its original movements and stand frozen on the spot.”

“After getting rid of one of the bladed puppets, Tang Zhen quickly pulled out his large sword. Just as he was about to attack his next target, he discovered that he had already been completely surrounded by several hundred bladed puppets!”

“In an instant, countless blades chopped down. There seemed to be no place to Dodge. If Tang Zhen was the slightest bit careless, he would be chopped into meat buns.”

“Tang Zhen’s heart tightened. After quickly finding an opening, he did not hesitate to leap over the heads of countless bladed puppets that were brandishing their sharp blades at the sky. At the same time, a light flashed on his hand and a Green Chain appeared out of thin air, swiftly binding a large group of bladed puppets at the edge.”

The green Chain could not be extended indefinitely. The current length had already reached its limit!

“The chains were able to help him restrain a portion of the blade-armed puppets. The pressure Tang Zhen suffered would be greatly reduced. When facing these metal-made blade-armed puppets, a human’s body of flesh and blood would not have any advantage.”

“f * ck, if I were wearing a metal shell, I would definitely kill you all!”

“Tang Zhen secretly cursed. At the same time, a flash of inspiration appeared in his mind. He recalled that there seemed to be a shovel car parked in the warehouse that Peter was guarding!”

Using the cart to deal with the bladed puppet seemed like a good idea.

“Tang Zhen was overjoyed when he thought of this. He raised his leg and kicked over a blade-armed puppet that was approaching him. After being slashed by countless blades, he was teleported back to his original world.”

“As soon as he appeared in the original world, Tang Zhen quickly ran to the shovel car. He jumped on it and found that the key was also there. It was easy to start it.”

“He tried to put it into the space, and as expected, it was done very easily!”

“When the forklift faced these bladed puppets, it would definitely have a crushing advantage. However, Tang Zhen was not sure if its fragile tires could withstand the slashing of the bladed puppets.”

He couldn’t care too much now. Tang Zhen activated the teleportation and returned to the second underground floor of the fallout shelter.

“Tang Zhen’s sudden appearance immediately attracted the attack of the bladed puppet. Fortunately, he had activated the map teleportation function and appeared at a place hundreds of meters away.”

“With a wave of his hand, Tang Zhen released the shovel car and got into the driver’s seat. He kept honking at the large group of bladed puppets in the distance. At the same time, he also turned the car lights over, shrouding the densely packed bladed puppets under the bright light.”

“After noticing Tang Zhen in the distance, the sword-armed puppets rushed towards him in unison. The sound of the metal wheels under their feet pressing against the floor converged together, as if a mechanical Army was charging.”

“The forklift under his butt let out a roar. The throttle was already set to the maximum, and thick black smoke spurting out. Tang Zhen laughed hideously and drove the forklift to rush forward.”

300 meters 200 meters 100 meters

“”BOOM!”” ”

“Tang Zhen seemed to hear a loud bell-like sound. The shovel bucket of the excavator heavily collided with the bladed puppet at the front. The braver one wins when they meet on a narrow road. The bladed puppet, which was much shorter and heavier than the excavator, was sent flying and then crushed by the giant wheel.”

“The crazy collision continued, and neither side had any intention of retreating. The battle would only end if one side was smashed into pieces.”

“Tang Zhen stepped on the accelerator with all his might. The sound of collision and hacking kept ringing out in his ears. The windshield in front of him was shattered, and one of his tires was also slashed until it leaked air. However, he still stubbornly continued to drive forward.”

“His vision suddenly brightened, and there were no longer any bladed puppets in front of him. It turned out that they had been left behind!”

“Only then did Tang Zhen realize that the Army of bladed puppets that had originally gathered together had been pierced through from head to tail by him, leaving behind only metallic remains on the ground.”

“In just a single exchange, nearly one-third of the bladed puppets had been killed. This was simply a pleasant surprise for Tang Zhen!”

“But it was a pity that after the baptism of swords and knives, the cart had become extremely damaged. Who knew if it could withstand the impact of another battle?”

“The bladed puppets were emotionless, so they would not feel sad when their own kind was destroyed. Even if they fought to the last moment, even if they were the only one left, they would not feel fear or hesitation.”

“Fighting with such an enemy was undoubtedly a painful thing, because you couldn’t get the pleasure of killing the enemy, and you would even feel a little irritated.”

“Tang Zhen knew very well that Wu Luan had to get rid of all these bladed puppets today no matter what. Otherwise, Tai Seng and the others could forget about escaping from this place. Tang Zhen didn’t think that Tai Seng and the others would be able to gain any advantage against these terrifying metal puppets.”

“Walking out of the driver’s seat of the shovel car, Tang Zhen took out an RPG from the storage space and pulled the trigger at the sword-armed puppets that pounced on him. After a loud bang, a few sword-armed puppets were blown away, and some were thrown off balance by the fragments and shock waves of the explosion.”

“Looking at the effect of the attack, he could not help but shake his head. When facing this kind of all-metal creature, the originally powerful weapon was now reduced.”

Tang Zhen didn’t care if the destructive power was reduced or not. It was fine as long as the attack was effective!

“He did not have a lot of ammunition in his storage space. However, if he used all of it to attack these bladed puppets, he would be able to cause quite a bit of damage to them. This was Tang Zhen’s best choice at the moment.”

“For a period of time, the sound of explosions rang out continuously. After Tang Zhen had emptied the rocket missiles, he began to throw grenades and explosives. Occasionally, he would use the machine gun to fire. Relying on his agility, he constantly dodged the attacks of these bladed puppets and always maintained a distance of about twenty meters from them.”

“He was grateful to the creator of these bladed puppets for not setting up any long-range weapons for them. Otherwise, Tang Zhen would definitely be caught in an even more difficult and bitter battle.”

Chapter 145: The second underground floor is cleaned up

“The sound of the explosion could be said to be deafening. In this confined space, the Echo was particularly intense. Tang Zhen was shaken until he felt dizzy and had no choice but to plug his ears to prevent his ears from being deafened.”

“Time slowly passed as Tang Zhen continued to Dodge and fight. The ammunition reserves in his storage space had been gradually exhausted. The four tires of the shovel car had also been destroyed. It was viewed as an enemy by the puppet and had been brutally flogged. At this moment, it had already been slashed beyond recognition.”

“Fortunately, after Tang Zhen’s bitter battle, there were less than 30 bladed puppets that could move normally on the second underground floor. Tang Zhen killed to his heart’s content, but he was also exhausted.”

“After dodging the attack of one of the bladed puppets, Tang Zhen turned to look at the dumbfounded Tai Seng and the others and bellowed, “” “”What the f * ck are you all doing? beat him up!”” ”

“Tai Seng and the others were taken aback when they heard this. They quickly raised the guns in their hands and aimed at the remaining bladed puppets before firing. Since Tang Zhen had killed 90% of the bladed puppets, the pressure on Tai Seng and the others had been greatly reduced.”

“If it wasn’t for Tang Zhen taking the initiative to draw away the bladed puppets, Tai Seng and his men would have lost more than half of their men. They might even have been completely annihilated. This was something that everyone present was very clear about.”

“The bladed puppets were not very strong, only equivalent to Ordinary Level-2 monsters in combat. However, they had a solid metal shell, and they were numerous and fast. If they pounced on him together, there was no way they could fight him head-on.”

It would not be an exaggeration to say that Tang Zhen had saved all of their lives!

“Gunshots and explosions rang out, and the remaining bladed puppets were finally reduced to spare parts scattered all over the ground under the combined attacks of the group.”

“Tang Zhen sat on the ground. He casually took out a can of beer from his storage space and gulped it down. After feeling that it was not enough, he took out two more cans and drank them in succession. Only then did he feel much more comfortable.”

“When the feeling of hunger, thirst, and fatigue slowly faded, Tang Zhen immediately jumped up from the ground and walked to a puppet with a blade arm that he had broken with his alloy sword. After observing it for a while, he dismantled it in a few moves.”

“After the outer shell of the bladed puppet was removed, a smooth golden skeleton was revealed. Golden soft threads of varying thickness were hidden under it. In addition, there were all kinds of precise parts wrapped in Crystal Yellow grease, filling the gaps between the bones. ”

“Tang Zhen wanted to find the energy source that maintained its movement and see what it was. He had always been very curious about the energy source used by the flashing gold clan. If he could master it and further research and spread it, he might be able to get rid of the energy dependence on his original world. ”

“Unfortunately, the internal structure of this bladed puppet was extremely precise. Tang Zhen was still confused after looking at it for a long time. It was impossible for him to completely dismantle and analyze it in a short period of time. Moreover, this kind of thing was not his strong suit. It required a person with a very solid professional Foundation to do this. ”

“Tang Zhen could not find such a talent even after searching the entire Holy Dragon City. This made him feel helpless. However, he had no choice. After all, this was not the original world. ”

“It seemed that the experiment of soul possession had to be sped up. As long as he could complete the transmission of the soul across the plane, Tang Zhen would be able to obtain the talents he needed in large quantities. ”

It’s all because of that damn mysterious law. Tang Zhen couldn’t bring the brain Pearl that stored the soul to this world. He couldn’t even bring a single bacteria from the original world. It could be said that he was extremely strict.

“Last time, he had killed two gunmen with fiery fists and collected their souls. However, when Tang Zhen placed the two brain beads that stored human souls into the storage space and his hand respectively, he discovered that the two brain beads had been completely destroyed after the transmission was completed. The souls inside had also completely dissipated. ”

“It was also because of this that Tang Zhen was only left with the only path that he could take, which was to transmit his soul across the plane! ”

“After Tang Zhen’s dedicated research during this period of time, people like Ivanov, who had a brain bead in their brain, could transfer their soul to another spare body at the moment of death and automatically complete a rebirth. ”

“However, this kind of rebirth could only be completed on the same plane. Moreover, there were still some minor problems that had yet to be solved. However, Tang Zhen was already prepared to start the experiment. ”

“Once this experiment was successful, he could carry out the soul transmission experiment across planes! ”

“After signaling everyone to collect the remains of the bladed puppets, Tang Zhen began to look around the second underground floor, trying to find the device to open the door. ”

“After walking a large circle, Tang Zhen’s gaze stopped on a pile of glittering gold clan’s characters on the wall. After looking at it for a while, he operated according to the order indicated by the characters and successfully opened the door between the first and second floor. ”

“The moment the metal door opened, Holy Dragon city’s Warriors who were guarding the first underground floor rushed down, wanting to see what was happening.”

“When they saw that everyone was safe and sound, and that the ground was covered with broken metal pieces, they let out a sigh of relief and joined the team to clean up the battlefield.”

“There were simply too many metallic remains on the ground, but because they were made of a very light golden metal, it was not difficult to move them. The group divided them into many small piles, and at the same time, placed some of the well-preserved bladed puppets together. The wreckage was not immediately transported to the surface because there was no place to store it outside, so it was temporarily piled up here.”

“During this period, someone tried to swing the bladed arms of the bladed puppet and found that the long blades made of this special metal were extremely sharp. Unfortunately, the shape was strange and not suitable for human use.”

It could only be used as a normal weapon after it was modified.

“The cleaning of the second underground floor of the sanctuary did not bring Tang Zhen the brains that he urgently needed. This also caused him to be lacking confidence in the subsequent exploration. Only the heavens knew what the situation was like down there. If it was all these mechanical puppets, Tang Zhen would really want to cry but have no tears.”

“Tang Zhen, who felt a little tired, slowly walked out of the sanctuary. He bathed in the bright sun outside and sniffed the smell of the grass. Tang Zhen took a deep breath in an intoxicated manner. He found a big stone that was very warm under the sun and lazily laid on it without moving.”

The feeling of the warm sun shining on his face was so comfortable.

“Every day, he was busy with the development of the Holy Dragon City and also had to guard against the spying of the enemies from the outside world. The battle had almost never stopped. Tang Zhen did feel a little tired. Now, he relaxed and laid on the stone. He actually fell asleep very quickly.”

“He didn’t know how long he slept. When Tang Zhen woke up, the sky was already full of stars. When Murong Zi Yan and the others saw him wake up, they went up and asked him a few questions.”

“Tang Zhen smiled and said,“it’s fine.”” After that, he let everyone go back to rest. As for him, he carried the remains of a bladed puppet and prepared to go back and study it in detail.”

Chapter 146: The attack of the houndhead men

“The next morning, Tang Zhen was suddenly awoken by the sound of hurried footsteps. Just as he opened his eyes, he saw a soldier from the Holy Dragon City hurriedly running in. He said to Tang Zhen with an anxious expression,“My Lord, we’ve just found a large group of houndhead men on the gravel plain, and they’re heading towards the valley!”

“Leader Tai Seng has already brought his men over and is asking you to go as well.””

Tang Zhen was slightly startled when he heard this. He looked around through the map and immediately confirmed that this soldier's words were true.

"After putting on his cloak, he walked out of the tower. Tang Zhen originally planned to run to the top of the city wall to check on the situation. However, when he saw a few Holy Dragon City residents with panicked expressions, he immediately stabilized his body and walked toward the city wall with an indifferent expression."

"He was the backbone of the Holy Dragon City. His every word and action would be seen by the residents. It was precisely because of this that Tang Zhen could not show any signs of panic. Otherwise, it would cause the residents to be collectively uneasy."

"Leading by example, the more critical the moment, the more obvious the effect."

"Seeing that the city Lord was so calm and not worried about the attack of the kobolds outside, the terrified residents could not help but relax and continue with their work."

"On the road to the city wall, there were a few tractors shuttling back and forth, carrying fully armed soldiers and defensive supplies. When the resident saw Tang Zhen, he immediately stopped and invited Tang Zhen to sit on them."

"Tang Zhen didn't delay and jumped onto the back of the tractor. After seeing the city Lord stand firm, the resident stepped on the accelerator and sped away."

"By the time Tang Zhen arrived at the city wall, all the Holy Dragon city's soldiers had already assembled. Fully armed soldiers were everywhere, and their faces were full of fighting spirit."

"The section of the city wall under their feet had been built by Tang Zhen to be extremely wide. It was a few dozen meters wide. When these soldiers gathered together, there was not even a small space to stand on."

"Ten machine guns were firmly set up on the firing positions made of stone and concrete. Each machine gun was guarded by two soldiers, and there were many ammunition boxes around them."

Soldiers armed with automatic rifles also lined up on the firing positions on the wall. They stuck their rifles out of the firing holes and stared at the enemies below the wall.

"Next to these soldiers were compound bows, bundles of sharp arrows, and short javelins made of steel pipes. Some of the javelins still had dark brown blood stains, indicating that it was not the first time they were used in battle."

"Some distance behind the wall, there were also mortars and anti-aircraft machine guns. At this time, there were also special operators waiting for orders."

"The weapons he had obtained from Ivanov had already been equipped with the Holy Dragon city's Army. However, many of the weapons had not been used and had been left in the corner to eat dust."

"Today, the Kobold Army had arrived at the city gates. Would they have the chance to display their might?"

“As the leader of the cultivator battle team, Qian Long was also standing on the city wall with the other members of the battle team. However, these guys, who were wearing black leather shirts and leather pants and light armor, looked very idle and were chatting with each other out of boredom. ”

“Compared to the standard weapons and equipment of the ordinary Holy Dragon City soldiers, the equipment of these cultivator teams was much messier. Some of them carried swords, some carried sabers, and some even used battle axes. However, all of them were made of excellent materials and were weapons that Tang Zhen had specially prepared for them. In addition, each person must carry a pistol and two grenades. The rest of the equipment was up to their preferences. ”

A cultivator battle squad wouldn't be mobilized in ordinary battles. They were the Special Forces under Tang Zhen and were specialized in carrying out some difficult missions. They were only deployed to the city wall as a precaution.

“After all, they were cultivators who mainly used cold weapons and were not used to gun combat! ”

“When he saw Tang Zhen walking over, the heavily armored Tai Seng immediately handed the telescope to Tang Zhen. However, he was rejected by Tang Zhen with a smile. With his map vision, there was no need for him to use the telescope in such an effective distance. ”

“”There are about 5000 kobolds in this group, and they have brought a lot of supplies. They are clearly prepared. ”

“I observed for a while and found that there were no women or children in the team. Instead, they were all young kobolds, all of them wearing armor and holding Spears. They were obviously pure Warriors, and their target was very clear, which was our Holy Dragon city's Pi Xiu!” ”

“Tang Zhen nodded his head from time to time. When Tai Seng was reporting to him about the enemy, he was also observing the dog-headed people in front of him through the map. The truth might be as Tai Seng had said, that this group of aggressive people had come for the Holy Dragon City. ”

“Tang Zhen was slightly puzzled in his heart. When did his Holy Dragon City enter the sights of the dog-headed people? looking at their well-prepared appearance, they were not the kind of dog-headed people who robbed people on the road. This showed that this group of dog-headed people had long coveted the Holy Dragon City. ”

“When he thought of this, Tang Zhen couldn't help but let out a soft snort. His eyes also turned dark and cold. you want to have designs on this daddy, Lou Cheng? do you believe that I won't make you guys come here and never return? ” ”

“While Tang Zhen was observing this group of dog-headed people, the other party had already swept over in an overbearing manner. Along the way, smoke and dust billowed, which was extremely eye-catching on the gravel plain. ”

“When they were only about 500 meters away from the city wall, the arrogant kobolds stopped. For a moment, all kinds of barking could be heard. This was the Kobold issuing military orders. ”

“At the same time, there were also kobolds driving wooden carts and setting up barricades in front of the team. This was quite a standard thing. ”

“In the middle of the Kobold troop, there was a group of kobolds dressed in armor and gorgeous robes gathered together. They pointed at the city walls and discussed among themselves. From their expressions, it was as if they were full of disdain for the Holy Dragon City Warriors on the city walls.”

“After Tang Zhen’s gaze swept through the group of dog-headed people, he actually found many dog-headed people with cultivation levels above rank two. Among them, there seemed to be two dog-headed people dressed as Holy Masters. Tang Zhen also found a few of the tall Lion-headed people who were dressed in heavy armor and had left a deep impression on him.”

“From the looks of it, Tang Zhen frowned. The strength of this group of dog-headed people wasn’t weak. They didn’t seem to have good intentions!”

“Although he didn’t dare to underestimate the strength of the dog-headed people as a whole, Tang Zhen despised the knowledge of the dog-headed people to the extreme. This was because they didn’t even know that they were trying to kill him.”

“These arrogant kobolds thought that a distance of 500 meters was safe enough. Other than the mounted crossbow, ordinary long-range weapons such as bows and crossbows would not be able to reach this position.”

“However, they didn’t know that this distance was within the range of the heavy machine guns. The 12.7mm machine gun bullets would definitely teach these unscrupulous dog-headed people a painful lesson.”

Should he take advantage of the fact that the dog-headed people had yet to gain a firm foothold and give them a painful lesson?

“Zhen Tang hesitated for a moment when he thought of this. In the end, he resisted this thought. He was afraid of scaring the group of dog-headed people away. If possible, he didn’t want to let a single dog-headed person leave.”

“““Don’t be impatient. When they attack the city, we’ll give them a good beating!”””

“After Tang Zhen gave the order, he silently stood on the city wall and continued to observe the situation within the dog-headed people’s camp.”

“Through observation, he could see that these dog-headed people were in a strict order and were mobilized in an orderly manner. They were definitely not an ordinary dog-headed people tribe. Tang Zhen suddenly thought of the dog-headed people tribe that he had exterminated. Could it be that this group of people were here to take revenge for their compatriots?”

“When he thought of this, Tang Zhen felt that it was impossible. This was because the dog-headed people’s ruthlessness was as famous as their reproductive ability. Even if they were born from the same mother, the fights between them were extremely cruel. It seemed impossible for them to take revenge for a group of dog-headed people who were killed. Moreover, it was in such a large scene.”

“Perhaps it was just as he had guessed, that this group of kobolds had taken a fancy to his Holy Dragon City and wanted to take over it?”

Chapter 147: a one-way trip?

“Time passed by unknowingly. After about an hour, the houndhead men, who had been biding their time, finally made a new move.”

“With a short sound of a horn, about a thousand kobolds rushed out of the camp and began to gather in front of the formation. They quickly divided into ten square teams, holding shields and short Spears. They let out low growls that were difficult to understand, and slowly advanced towards Holy Dragon City.”

“A group of dog-headed people carrying simple siege ladders followed closely behind. They held the siege ladder in one hand and shields in the other, following closely behind the siege team.”

Tang Zhen discovered that the style of their siege ladders was extremely simple. He really didn't know if the dog-headed people were too confident or if they simply didn't think much of the human defense.

“As the kobolds attacked, the atmosphere on the battlefield became tense.”

“The 1,000 Kobold Warriors gathered together and advanced. Their footsteps and weapons clashed. Coupled with the murderous aura that they emitted, they naturally produced a kind of sharp aura that could easily make rookies who had never experienced war go weak.”

“However, this kind of imposing manner was not very effective in front of the Holy Dragon city's soldiers. To the Holy Dragon city's soldiers, who were armed with loaded guns, they were just a group of lambs waiting to be slaughtered.”

“If they wanted to break through the line of defense formed by large-caliber bullets, they had to pay an extremely painful price. These firearms from the original world were not to be trifled with.”

The terrifying power of these hot weapons had already given the Holy Dragon city's soldiers a strong confidence!

“The Kobold troops continued to advance, getting closer and closer to the city walls. All the Holy Dragon City soldiers placed their fingers on the ring of their trigger in unison, waiting for the order to attack.”

“When the team of kobolds was less than 50 meters away from the city wall, all the kobolds raised their shields above their heads. Looking down from the city wall, one could even see the ferocious faces of the Kobold Warriors through the gaps in the shields. They could also see pairs of bloodthirsty eyes that were filled with contempt and cruelty.”

“””Wuwuwu!”””

“The bugle horn made of monster's leg bone was blown again, the sound short but powerful.”

“The dog-headed people who heard the horn suddenly launched a charge. Their speed increased several times and they went straight to the city wall. At this moment, Tang Zhen gave the order to attack.”

“All the guns began to spray fire, and a dense barrage of bullets poured down.”

“The sound of gunfire filled the wilderness like a storm, scaring all the houndhead men. However, before they could figure out the source of the sound, countless bullets whizzed through the air and enveloped all the houndhead men on the ground. More and more houndhead men were pierced by the bullets.”

“The solid shield in the Kobold’s hands, which could originally defend against swords and sabers, was now like paper. It was easily torn into pieces by the bullets, and the Kobold hiding behind it was hit.”

“The bullets flew everywhere, and the charging kobolds fell to the ground in rows. Their armor began to be drenched in blood. After a few futile struggles, some of the dog-headed people on the ground tried to get up, but they felt that their bodies were getting weaker and weaker. Even if they managed to stand up, they were once again shot through by bullets. Then, they were knocked down by the inertia of the bullets and could no longer get up.”

“Blood instantly dyed the ground in front of the Holy Dragon City Red. Countless gravel was hit by bullets, and dust filled the air, but it could not cover the increasing amount of blood and minced meat.”

The air that was originally filled with the smell of sunlight and grass was immediately replaced by the smell of blood and smoke.

“The dog-headed Warriors’ screams rose one after another. The ten parties had completely disintegrated. Half of the dog-headed people were fleeing like rats, while the other half had broken bones and tendons, all of them lying on the blood-soaked ground.”

“The ground was covered in the corpses of kobolds, and the ground was stained red with blood. Miserable cries could be heard everywhere.”

“In less than a minute, half of the attacking Kobold Warriors had been killed!”

“All the dog-headed people were dumbfounded by the tragic scene in front of them. They had never expected that the human tower, which they thought was weak, would have such a terrifying flintlock!”

“In fact, there were also guards who used flintlocks in the Kobold troop. However, they were the kind of extremely expensive flintlocks that could only be reloaded after each shot. Compared to the firearms in the Holy Dragon City, they could simply be thrown into the sewers.”

“A dog-headed officer in charge of leading the team was probably dumbfounded by the bloody scene in front of him. He actually barked loudly and rushed down the city wall while waving his short spear. However, he only ran four or five meters before his head was blown off by a large-caliber machine gun. The headless corpse struggled a few times before it stopped moving.”

“Seeing the dog-head men soldiers in complete defeat, Tang Zhen immediately signaled for the anti-aircraft machine guns and mortars behind him to open fire. The target was the dog-head men’s camp not far away.”

“””Whoosh, whoosh, Whoosh!”””

“The dog-headed people in the camp were still dumbfounded as they looked at the tragic state of their companions. Suddenly, they heard a strange sound. Some of the sharp-eyed dog-headed people even saw a few small black dots falling from the sky. They landed on the position of the camp.”

“A dog-headed officer who had been frightened by the Holy Dragon city’s firearms was shocked. He had already realized that danger was approaching and shouted at the top of his voice, “” “”Quickly Dodge, quickly Dodge!”””

“However, before he could finish his sentence, the dog-headed officer felt a chill in his chest. He lowered his head with difficulty and was horrified to find that a large hole had been dug out where his heart was. Broken pink lungs hung outside his body and trembled continuously.”

The anti-aircraft machine gun bullet that went through its chest had already declared its death!

“The dog-headed officer opened his mouth a few times, wanting to say something, but he couldn’t make a sound because blood had already filled his mouth.”

“It saw its companions being torn apart by the streams of light one after another. Then, a loud noise was heard, and the dog-headed officer felt his body fly up before falling heavily to the ground!”

“At the last moment of his life, the dog-headed officer’s eyes turned black, but he was still puzzled. When did the weak human race, which had always been at the mercy of others, become so powerful?”

“Those who had not experienced the might of the bombardment from the mortars and the flat-out shots from the anti-aircraft machine guns would never be able to understand it. In the midst of the rumbles, kobolds were constantly thrown high up into the air or hit by the flying gravel. The ordinary gravel under their feet had transformed into extremely terrifying weapons at this moment, beating up piles and piles of kobolds until they bled.”

“The dog-headed people’s camp was in chaos. There were dog-headed people scurrying around, weapons, and corpses all over the ground.”

“The dog-headed man commander’s orders were not carried out effectively. Even though he had killed a few dog-headed soldiers in a row, he still could not stop the chaotic scene.”

A third of the Mighty Five thousand Kobold Army had been lost in the blink of an eye. It would be strange if they did not collapse!

“The Kobold commander’s eyes were bloodshot, and more than half of his guards had been killed. In the smoke, he held a demonic saber and stared at the humans on the city wall. He swore to himself that he would torture them to death after they broke through the city.”

“However, when the angry dog-headed commander saw the dog-headed people’s corpses on the ground, he couldn’t help but sigh in dejection. In the face of such a terrifying firearm, he had no confidence in breaking through the city wall. It seemed that this expedition was going to be a crushing defeat!”

“Occupying the floor in front of him was one of the plans of the Kobold King. He had thought that it would be an easy task, but he had never thought that it would be so difficult!”

“Thinking of the punishment that the royal family would give to the losers, the dog-headed man commander trembled. After a moment of silence, he gave the order to retreat with a hoarse voice.”

“””Wuwuwu!”””

“The short horn sounded again. The kobolds, who had been hiding in all directions in fear, immediately fled in the opposite direction of the Holy Dragon City at the fastest speed they could muster.”

Chapter 148: total annihilation

“““City Lord, should we pursue?”” ”

Jimmy Junior’s eyes were red. He moved in front of Tang Zhen and asked with an expectant face.

“This little fellow’s eyes were a little red from the killing. One could tell from his eyes that as long as Tang Zhen gave the order, he would be the first to jump down from the city wall and chase after the dog-headed people who had escaped.”

“““Little bastard, get lost!”” ”

“With a slap, Tai Seng pulled Jimmy far away before turning to look at Tang Zhen, waiting for his orders.”

Tang Zhen was very clear about this principle.

“The Holy Dragon City had a limited number of Warriors. It was obviously not worth it to chase after the dog-headed people who were running around in the vast gravel plain. If they were not careful, they might even be killed by the enemy. Therefore, Tang Zhen had originally planned to let them go this time.”

“However, when he saw the killing intent on the faces of Tyson and the others, Tang Zhen suppressed this thought and waved his hand, ““ get into the off-road vehicle and remember not to chase too far. If the situation turns bad, retreat immediately!”

“““Yes, sir!”” ”

“let’s go! Tai Seng roared, and the people below immediately began to move the sandbags blocking the city gate. At the same time, a group of killers excitedly started the off-road vehicles parked under the city wall.”

“The vehicle was loaded with heavy machine guns and had sufficient ammunition, but there were too few people!”

“In the end, these guys brought all the vehicles that could be driven over. A pile of vehicles were parked under the city wall, full of Holy Dragon City soldiers who were rubbing their hands in excitement.”

“When Tai Seng saw that the speed of transporting the sandbags was too slow, he was so anxious that he stomped his feet. He then looked at Tang Zhen with a pleading and fawning expression. His intention was obvious-he was asking the city Lord to help him collect these sandbags.”

Tang Zhen shook his head when he saw this. He originally wanted the dog-headed people to run a little further away so that Tyson and the others could chase after them and kill a few more. He didn’t expect this guy to be so impatient!

“Forget it, let them have their wish. In any case, this group of dog-headed people would be a disaster if they were left alive. The earlier they were killed, the earlier they would get rid of the root of the disaster!”

“After thinking up to this point, Tang Zhen jumped down from the city wall and waved his hand at the entrance. The mountain-like sandbag blocking the entrance disappeared and was placed to the side by Tang Zhen.”

“””The city Lord is so powerful!”” ”

“After Tai Seng absent-mindedly flattered him, he immediately jumped into the car and shouted to the back, “””All of you, f * cking charge!”” ”

“As soon as he finished speaking, the Holy Dragon City soldier driving the off-road vehicle stepped on the accelerator and rushed out.”

“Qian Long wasn’t as impatient as Tai Seng and had been sitting quietly in the carriage with the cultivator battle team members. But who would have thought that as soon as the city gate was cleared, he would be the first to rush out, the wheels of the carriage kicking up a cloud of dust!”

“Following closely behind them were numerous off-road vehicles, tractors, motorcycles, and even a few electric three-wheeled vehicles. All of them were filled with Holy Dragon city’s soldiers. Zhen Tang didn’t know whether to laugh or cry at this scene.”

“Seeing the group of Holy Dragon city’s soldiers leave with killing intent, Tang Zhen waved his hand and called over a few of the Holy Dragon city’s management staff.”

“The Kobold corpses at the foot of the city wall had to be cleaned up. Otherwise, they would attract carrion-eating monsters and cause a plague to spread.”

“The defeated Kobold soldiers had already left this area, and the blocked city gate passage had already been opened. Next, all the residents of Holy Dragon City moved out and transported the corpses to the mother tree.”

“After giving a few instructions to the dejected Holy Dragon City soldiers who had stayed behind to defend the city, Tang Zhen’s body was like a bolt of lightning as he quickly chased in the direction where Tai Seng and the others had disappeared.”

“On the gravel plain, countless Kobold soldiers had abandoned their helmets and armors and were walking forward with their tongues out.”

“Their current appearance was extremely miserable. They were far from the arrogance and high-spirited attitude they had when they first arrived. The bloody massacre in front of Holy Dragon City had sent them from the clouds to hell. The Kobold Army, which had always been invincible when it came to attacking cities, had finally suffered a great loss this time!”

“There had originally been five thousand soldiers, but now there were only about three thousand left. All of them were injured and looked dispirited. Their morale was low, and from time to time, a few bloodstained kobolds would fall to the ground and never get up again.”

“The dog-headed people’s commander was riding on a ferocious giant dog. The armor on his body was in a mess, and his personal guards did not say a word.”

“They had suffered a crushing defeat this time, so they were bound to be punished and ridiculed. Who could be happy at the thought of not only bleeding but also bearing a bad reputation?”

gather the Warriors. Let those who are seriously injured go on their way!

“The dog-headed man commander’s face was filled with vicissitudes of life, as if he had aged a lot.”

“As soon as it finished speaking, many of the dog-headed Warriors looked panicked. At the same time, a loud roar was heard.”

“The dog-headed man commander, who was mentally and physically exhausted, immediately looked in the direction of the sound and shouted,““Don’t panic, or I’ll kill you without mercy!”“ ”

“However, when it saw the source of the sound, it was so angry that its eyes almost popped out. At the same time, it felt as if all the strength in its body had been sucked out. Its arms, which were holding the saber high, fell limply. It muttered to itself, ““ ““These bunch of human lunatics, are they trying to kill us all?”“ ”

“The roar became louder and louder, and as the dust filled the air, the dog-headed soldiers could clearly see the faces of the human warriors who were riding in the strange vehicles, and their faces were filled with murderous intent.”

Shouldn’t such an expression appear on the faces of Kobold Warriors? why was it appearing on the faces of the weak humans? was the world about to change?

“Fear quickly erupted. The power of the Holy Dragon city’s firearms had left an indelible shadow in their hearts. When they thought of the nightmarish scene of their comrades being torn to pieces by those weapons, many kobolds could not help but wail and fall to the ground.”

“The Kobold commander seemed to have come to life as he roared at the scattered soldiers beside him, ““ the dog-headed people would rather die than surrender. There are no cowards who would die on their knees. It seems like we can’t go back. Let’s fight to the death and show these lowly humans the courage and backbone of us dog-headed people! ”

“Before he could finish his sentence, the old Kobold commander roared and brandished his saber, pouncing on the Holy Dragon city’s convoy.”

“The originally depressed kobolds instantly regained their morale when they saw this. Their eyes were bloodshot as they bared their fangs. They roared and followed after him. Some of them brandished short Spears, some brandished stones, and some even tore off the arms of the dead kobolds to use as weapons. Their faces were filled with madness and determination! ”

“The sound of gunfire rang out as bullets rained down on the charging kobolds. The splattering blood drenched the armor of the kobolds, but it did not stop their momentum. They only closed their eyes unwillingly after they were hit by the bullets.”

“Every inch of the path that the dog-headed people took was covered with corpses. However, the remaining dog-headed people still stepped on their companions’ bodies and continued to charge until their bodies covered their companions’ bodies.”

“The Kobold commander was completely obliterated by the machine gun grenade, but even at the last moment of his life, he did not back down!”

“The gunshots stopped, and the battlefield was silent. Only the sound of the kobolds dying could be heard from time to time. None of the Warriors of the Holy Dragon City spoke. They silently looked at the gravel plain that was filled with the remains of the kobolds, as if they were mourning for them.”

“Although they were houndhead men, and although humans and foreign races were irreconcilable, they couldn’t disrespect their opponents who were not afraid of death!”

“Tang Zhen quietly watched the scene before him. However, he quietly sighed in his heart.”

“Although he had annihilated the invading kobolds, the unyielding will of the foreign tribe made him more aware that if the Holy Dragon City wanted to rise, it was destined to step on a road paved with blood, flesh, and bones!”

“Even so, Tang Zhen had never thought of taking half a step back!”

Chapter 149: Exposed? _1

“In the sacred Dragon Valley, Tang Zhen was standing under the mother tree with his hands behind his back.”

“The monster corpses that had been piled up around the mother tree had been used up. Now, only bones were left on the ground. Thousands of Kobold corpses were thrown over, covering the ground with a thick layer of white bones. The roots of the mother tree were like countless wriggling snakes, wrapping them all up.”

“Tang Zhen noticed that the mother tree was growing very quickly. In just a few days, its trunk had become a lot thicker, the density of its roots had more than doubled, and the efficiency of absorbing nutrients had also greatly increased.”

“work hard. After a while, I’ll get you a few high-level monsters to replenish your nutrients!”

“Tang Zhen looked at the mother tree and said with a smile. However, he didn’t expect that the mother tree would make a “Hua Hua” sound as soon as he finished speaking. Its leaves shook as if it was protesting Tang Zhen’s actions.”

Tang Zhen didn’t have time to care about the mother tree’s depressed mood. He turned and walked towards the ogre cage in the corner.

“Before he even got close, Tang Zhen could already smell a pungent stench. Five ogres were violently shaking in the cage. Their legs had already recovered and were now locked by a thick iron chain.”

“On the ogres’ necks, there was a silver-white collar. If these ogres were disobedient, they would be twitched by the high voltage released by the collar. After suffering a few losses, the originally rebellious ogres had become much more obedient.”

“A few Holy Dragon City citizens were surrounding the ogre’s cage, pointing and talking about something while putting some special powder into the ogre’s food.”

“These residents were experts in monster domestication and training. When they were in the nomadic tribe, they were in charge of rearing monsters. Now, they were transferred by Tang Zhen to deal with these ogres.”

“After seeing Tang Zhen walk over, a white-haired old man with a weather-beaten face hurriedly walked over and bowed to Tang Zhen.”“City Lord, do you have any orders?”“”

The respect in his words was revealed without a doubt. This was because old Wan was grateful from the bottom of his heart for Tang Zhen!

“If it wasn’t for the city Lord’s mercy, they would have become the dog-headed people’s food. Their bones would have been thrown everywhere.”

“Even without the dog-headed people’s pillage, a Wanderer at his age would not have many years left to live. After all, the tribe had limited food, and they usually gave priority to the young and strong. Once they encountered a year where there was a lack of food, countless old guys like him would starve to death.”

It was already an extravagant hope to not go hungry every day. Becoming a resident of Lou city was simply something that they didn’t even dare to dream of!

“But now, not only did he become a resident of Lou city, he could eat well and wear warm clothes every day, he didn’t have to worry about his retirement, and he could even have a sip of wine from time to time. Wasn’t this the good life he had dreamed of?”

“One must be grateful. Therefore, the old man was grateful and respectful from the bottom of his heart towards Tang Zhen. He was also particularly attentive when he did things.”

“”“Old Wan, these guys are still honest, right?”“”

Tang Zhen glanced at the ogres that were looking at him with hatred before turning to ask old Wan.

“Old Wan smiled and replied with confidence, “” “”I don’t dare to say anything else, but as long as it’s a monster that I’ve tamed, there’s no one that’s disobedient. We have enough resources in Loucheng, so the taming process will be much easier. Don’t think that these ogres are making a fuss now, but in less than a month, they’ll be terrifyingly obedient!”“”

“Tang Zhen smiled when he heard this. Since old Wan was so confident, he would just wait for the results.”

“After chatting with old Wan, Tang Zhen got up and left. He still had other things to do.”

“Clearing the sanctuary and defending the city consumed a lot of ammunition. There was still one-third of the ammunition left in the Holy Dragon city’s storage. Tang Zhen did not think that the houndhead men would give up, so he had to make early preparations.”

“Qian Long and the others were in charge of cleaning up the battlefield, so Tang Zhen didn’t have to worry about it at all. Therefore, he teleported back to his original world after making some preparations.”

“Tang Zhen appeared in the warehouse. After looking around, he discovered that Peter was not here. He was about to take out his mobile phone to contact the other party when his expression suddenly changed. A pistol appeared in his hand like lightning.”

“””Pa pa pa!”””

“A brawny man wearing a bulletproof vest was shot in the arm by Tang Zhen, and the rifle in his hand fell to the ground. This shot seemed to have stirred up a hornet’s nest. Immediately, more than a dozen black muzzles extended in from all directions, and intense gunshots suddenly erupted.”

“In a split second, Tang Zhen had already discovered that the identity of these armed men was not simple. From their equipment and identification, they were likely to be special combat personnel of the Ice Bear Alliance.”

How did these guys find this place? what happened to Ivanov?

“There were many doubts in Tang Zhen’s heart. However, before that, he had to evacuate from this place and contact Ivanov to find out what had happened.”

“The moment the gunshot rang out, Tang Zhen had already rushed to the corner of the warehouse like lightning and kicked the hard brick wall. A “”boom”” was heard and the thick brick wall collapsed from his kick.”

“The members of the Ice Bear Alliance who were in charge of surrounding Tang Zhen were shocked. No one thought that Tang Zhen would actually run out from this position. Seeing Tang Zhen coming out from the hole in the wall, the special combat members who were caught off guard immediately opened fire. However, they were unable to stop Tang Zhen who had rushed into the forest.”

“For a moment, the entire warehouse was in chaos. The police sirens kept sounding. The ground was filled with fully armed Ice Bear Alliance Special Forces. They rushed into the forest one after another, trying to capture Tang Zhen.”

“A helicopter in the sky had locked onto Tang Zhen and reported his position from time to time. At the same time, there were people shooting from the helicopter in an attempt to stop him from escaping.”

“Upon seeing Tang Zhen’s strange speed and agile movements, the pilot on the helicopter could not help but curse,””Damn it, is this Asian kid a monkey on stimulants?”””

Tang Zhen had also noticed the helicopter in the sky. It was precisely because of its existence that Tang Zhen did not dare to activate the teleportation and leave in front of everyone. This was because doing so would be equivalent to revealing his secret to everyone. This was definitely not a scene that Tang Zhen wanted to see.

“Therefore, he had to participate in this boring game of pursuit and perform a perfect escape. Moreover, he couldn’t show too much uniqueness during this period, otherwise, he wouldn’t be able to live in peace in the future!”

“After Tang Zhen thought of this, he once again reduced his speed. He began to play hide and seek with the special combat personnel behind him. At the same time, he continuously used his pistol to return fire.”

“His accuracy caused the pursuers behind him to suffer. A small pistol actually suppressed several special combat personnel with submachine guns, making them not dare to show their faces.”

“Just as he rushed past a trench, Tang Zhen saw a special combat personnel hiding behind a big tree in front of him. He was waiting for him to come over and launch a surprise attack. He did not expect that Tang Zhen had already discovered him. The moment the special combat personnel revealed his head, he was knocked out by Tang Zhen’s punch.”

“After getting rid of this special combat personnel, Tang Zhen, who had already run to the edge of the forest, turned around and glanced at the helicopter in the sky. He gave a middle finger in disdain and rushed into the small alley at the side.”

Chapter 150: The pursuit and escape

“Tang Zhen, who had entered the alley, paused for a moment. After he swiftly scanned the nearby map, he quickly ran toward an abandoned factory with wind under his feet. ”

“After seeing this scene, the pursuers behind Tang Zhen were in hot pursuit. The helicopter in the sky also followed. ”

“The pursuers continued to shoot in an attempt to slow down Tang Zhen’s escape speed. Unfortunately, it was as if Tang Zhen had eyes on the back of his head. He agilely dodged the bullets that were shot from behind him. He leaped over the wall and jumped into the courtyard of the abandoned factory. ”

“In this area, Tang Zhen only needed to find a hidden place and activate the [ quantum invisibility light curtain ], and he would be able to calmly leave this place. As for whether the special combat personnel of the ice Bear Alliance would dig three feet deep to search for him, Tang Zhen didn’t care. ”

“Tang Zhen clearly understood in his heart that no matter how powerful their abilities were or how brilliant their tracking methods were, they were destined to be unable to catch him. The ability of these black technology applications was so strange that it was unimaginable. ”

“After escaping from the pursuit here, the other party would think that Tang Zhen’s counter-pursuit method was brilliant even if they could not find him. They would not consider the direction in which he could be teleported. This was the result that Tang Zhen wanted. ”

“Under the helicopter pilot’s unblinking gaze, Tang Zhen jumped in from the broken window of the abandoned factory. Only then did he slowly activate the [ quantum stealth light screen ] and disappeared without a trace. ”

“As he heard the noise coming closer and closer, the police siren sounded. Tang Zhen activated the [ map teleportation plug-in ] and completely broke away from the encirclement. ”

“A long line of police cars came and rudely smashed the gate of the abandoned factory. Before the cars stopped, countless armed special combat personnel jumped out of the cars and surrounded the abandoned factory while shouting. ”

“The helicopters kept circling in the sky, and the special combat personnel quickly broke into the interior of the factory. However, the expected gunshots did not sound, because the entire factory was empty! ”

“The Special Forces didn’t believe it and began to search for Tang Zhen. They didn’t miss an inch of the land. But to everyone’s surprise, the man from the Asian Alliance disappeared without a trace in front of everyone! ”

They had really seen a ghost!

“This was the common thought of all the people involved in the pursuit. They had clearly seen the guy enter the abandoned factory, and the surveillance from the ground and the air had not stopped during this time. No one had seen him run out from inside, which meant that the guy was in the abandoned factory. ”

But what was the result?

“Hundreds of police officers were mobilized at once, and they waited for two days. Even helicopters were sent to support them. It was one of the few big moves the local police department had made in recent years! ”

“Everyone was confident that they would be able to capture the man from the Asian Alliance, who had been named by the Alliance headquarters. ”

The result of the matter was unexpected. Who knew what strange method this guy used to escape from the inescapable net!

“Several police dogs were running around in circles. The other party’s scent had suddenly disappeared in this place, causing them to be unable to track him. Their dog faces were full of confusion. ”

Tang Zhen’s disappearance was simply a ruthless face-smacking!

“Everyone’s faces were dark, especially the dozen or so Special Forces members. They knew better than the Special Forces how difficult it was to deal with the man from the Asian Alliance! ”

“After a few days of detailed investigation, all the evidence vaguely showed that there was something wrong with this man from the Asian Alliance. Whether it was Levsett or the Pargo siblings, it seemed that they were only connected after he appeared. ”

“After the investigation of the Asian Alliance’s intelligence personnel, it was confirmed that the man’s whereabouts had been strange recently. It was as if he had suddenly become rich and often purchased large amounts of supplies, but they could not find out the specific whereabouts of these supplies. ”

“When he was in the Ice Bear Alliance, the man had first made contact with Ivanov because of an arms deal! ”

“The mysterious disappearance of the siblings, Levsett and Pargo, caused the members of the special operation team to agree that as long as they captured Tang Zhen, many problems could be solved.”

“They followed the clues and after checking countless pieces of information, they finally confirmed that Tang Zhen was likely to appear in that warehouse. Therefore, they planned to wait for him to appear.”

The facts proved that they had guessed correctly. Tang Zhen had indeed appeared in the warehouse.

“However, no one expected that Tang Zhen would actually run away in the end!”

“The moment Tang Zhen ran away, the investigation that had just made some progress immediately fell into a deadlock.”

“In an alley three kilometers away, Tang Zhen’s figure appeared. However, for safety reasons, he didn’t turn off the [ quantum stealth light screen ].”

“A man was making a phone call outside the alley. Tang Zhen was only a few meters away from him, but he didn’t notice anyone in the alley from beginning to end. There was no doubt about the concealing effect of the [ quantum invisibility light curtain ].”

“Tang Zhen took out his phone from the space. Instead of calling Ivanov, he first called Pargo because the phone in his hand had been modified by Tang Zhen and was much safer.”

“Unfortunately, the call didn’t go through. Pargo’s phone was turned off, and he didn’t know what happened.”

“Next, Tang Zhen tried to call Ivanov, Peter, and Natasha. The result was that all of them had their phones turned off without exception. This made Tang Zhen realize the seriousness of the matter.”

“Ivanov and the others seemed to be facing a police pursuit, but this guy had always been very cautious. It would not be an exaggeration to say that he was a cunning rabbit with Three Burrows. There should not be any major problems. Now that he could not be contacted, perhaps he did not want to expose his hiding place.”

“After this was over, he would definitely find a way to contact her. Without her support, not only would the rebirth altar not be able to be maintained, but he would also not have many years left to live!”

Ivanov had already been firmly tied to his own chariot by Tang Zhen.

“Zhen Tang wasn’t too concerned about the police’s pursuit. Unless he took the initiative to turn himself in, even if the special combat forces exhausted themselves to death, they wouldn’t be able to catch him.”

“However, the disadvantage also appeared at the same time. That was, after the subordinate in charge of running the errand ran away, Tang Zhen would have to do everything himself for a period of time in the future.”

“It was okay to lose people, but money could not be lacking. Otherwise, nothing could be done.”

“Fortunately, there were several bank cards and a large amount of cash in his storage space. These were the profits from the sale of gemstones. Tang Zhen kept half of it and gave the rest to Ivanov.”

“Although the Holy Dragon city’s expenditure was huge, this sum of money was enough for him to use for a long time.”

“However, before that, he had to leave the ice Bear Alliance as soon as possible because Tang Zhen could faintly feel that an invisible giant net was coming towards him.”

“Tang Zhen knew that the things he took out would attract the attention of some people sooner or later. However, who knew that this was a bait that Tang Zhen had thrown out. The more fish that were hooked, the more successful his plan would be.”

“When some things were known to the world and could not be covered up, Tang Zhen’s next plan could be implemented. After all, his goal was to kidnap all the humans in the original world and not just a small number of people!”

“If the target was set too high, one couldn’t take too big a step. Otherwise, it would be easy to hurt his waist. Before the soul Plane transmission experiment was successful, Tang Zhen had plenty of time to slowly lay out the layout.”

“Tang Zhen stood in the alley and thought for a long time before activating the [ all-purpose electronic kit ]. He began to search for information on firearms. The war could come at any time, and the Holy Dragon city’s ammunition had to be replenished as soon as possible. This was the most important thing to do right now.”

“In addition to Ivanov, there were many large and small arms dealers in this city that was famous for underground arms trade. It didn’t take long for Tang Zhen to lock onto a guy.”

“However, this time, Tang Zhen did not intend to pay. The guy who was targeted by Tang Zhen could only admit that he was unlucky!”
