Chapter 1601 The end of the trial, the fifth battle area

The environment under the pool was just as Tang Zhen had expected. It was as if a huge mountain was pressing down on his body, but it also seemed like extremely viscous glue that was impossible to break free from.

The water was extremely clear, but any impurities that fell into the water would be pushed to the bottom of the pool, and it was impossible to dissolve in water.

Being in such an environment was undoubtedly very uncomfortable. The cultivators who could enter it must have extraordinary skills.

In fact, in his previous life, the desert cultivators did not directly dive to the bottom of the pool. Instead, they found a secret mechanism that divided the water in the middle into two. Only then did they enter the bottom of the pool and obtain the treasure.

However, with Tang Zhen's participation, they were destined to have no fate with these treasures. They were able to keep their lives because Tang Zhen did not want to waste time.

As for the origin of the treasure at the bottom of the pond, it wasn't hard to guess.

Perhaps the residents of this city had thrown the treasure into the pool because they had seen that the situation was not right and the enemy was very likely to attack.

In the end, thousands of years later, things remained the same, but people had changed. This batch of treasures still fell into the hands of the enemy's descendants.

Luckily, these treasures had helped a sector Lord to rise, otherwise their existence would be greatly reduced.

With Tang Zhen's cultivation, it was naturally not that troublesome to enter the bottom of the pool. After he entered the pool, the strangely bone-chilling water in the pool automatically separated, and his body was not contaminated in the slightest.

Above the water and below the water, they were two completely different worlds.

Just as what the illusionary reality world Overlord had said, the bottom of the pond was filled with dazzling treasures. To the desert cultivators, almost every single one of them was priceless.

According to the illusionary reality world Lord, the appearance of these treasures had led to a bloody massacre in his previous life.

The final Victor of this battle was the chief of Stone Forest fortress. No one knew that he had long planned to use his strength to suppress everyone present and make all the participants stay. Then, he would take advantage of the situation to dominate the entire desert.

Su huanzhen and his companions had only come in to try their luck, but in the end, they had all fallen into his trap. After a bloody battle, he was the only one who had escaped with serious injuries.

At that time, su huanzhen had snatched a treasure. In order to force the hidden su huanzhen to hand over the treasure, the Stone Forest Fort master tortured his companion in extremely vicious ways and sent a message to him to exchange the treasure for his companion.

However, su huanzhen didn't know about it at that time. Instead, she hid in a remote cave and slowly recuperated.

Seeing that su huanzhen still hadn't shown up, Stone Forest fortress master could only order the pursuit to continue. At the same time, he abandoned his companion's body in the wilderness, causing su huanzhen to bear the bad reputation of forsaking righteousness for profit.

Therefore, su huanzhen had always harbored a grudge against the chieftain of Stone Forest fortress. Now that Tang Zhen had been reborn in his place, the chieftain of Stone Forest fortress was definitely someone he had to kill!

Among the treasures that the illusionary reality world Overlord had snatched, there was only one item that was worth paying attention to. It was the foundation stone of a building.

This building's cornerstone was extremely special. After it was built, it only existed in the cracks of the plane. The castellan could communicate and summon special residents of the building at any time.

No matter where su huanzhen went, his tower would bring her there. It was extremely convenient.

It was because of this tower that su huanzhen was able to slowly rise up in the tower world and eventually become a sector Lord.

Such a building foundation was definitely worth a fortune, comparable to 10 destiny gold coins!

However, this building foundation stone was su huanzhen's item and had already been bound to him. It had been removed from the river of time, so even if Tang Zhen wanted it, he couldn't find it at all, even if he was one step ahead.

As for the compensation given to Tang Zhen by the real illusion world Overlord, it was actually another tower Foundation stone.

According to the real illusion world Lord, the Tower Foundation stone he had accidentally obtained wasn't the best one. There was another one that had been obtained by the Stone Forest fortress Lord.

The real illusion realm Lord didn't know the attributes of the Tower Foundation stone, but according to his analysis, it was definitely much better than the one he had snatched.

Therefore, he told this information to Tang Zhen as one of the compensations.

After scanning the bottom of the pond with his spirit power, Tang Zhen quickly found the box that the fantasy world Overlord had described. He walked up and opened it.

Sure enough, a tower cornerstone was suspended in the air. The runes on the surface flickered, and it looked extraordinary.

Tang Zhen was temporarily unable to determine the attributes of this foundation stone. He could only keep it for the time being and wait until he returned to Holy Dragon City to appraise it.

As for the other treasures, Tang Zhen also kept them. These were things that belonged to the world of loucheng, and there was no need to let those desert cultivators have them.

After this matter was over, Tang Zhen did not stay any longer and instantly disappeared.

.....

During the period of time, Tang Zhen experienced the scene of the fantasy world Overlord building his city and helped him get rid of a rival who was fighting for resources. After that, he began his last task.

This mission was to invade a low-resource plane and upgrade the building to a national level.

Back then, the illusionary reality realm Lord had never dreamed that this world would also be invaded by other buildings. Caught off guard, the wealth that the illusionary reality realm Lord had accumulated was almost wiped out overnight!

This matter had always been on the mind of the illusionary real world Overlord. After suffering for many years, he finally managed to catch his breath from the crushing defeat.

Since Tang Zhen was reincarnating in his place, he naturally wouldn't be polite to his enemy. He used the elemental cultivators nurtured by the special tower to kill his enemy until they were in a complete mess. He had no choice but to withdraw from this competition in humiliation!

When the last mission was completed, Tang Zhen received the gold coin of destiny promised by the fantasy realm Lord. At the same time, he also received the notification that the trial was over.

Tang Zhen, who had completed all the trials, had accumulated enough points. This also meant that he could become a member of the fifth battle area at any time!

An ancient and desolate bronze door appeared in front of him. Tang Zhen raised his head and looked at it for a moment before he stepped through it.

He knew very well that a whole new world would be revealed to him after he stepped through the door.

After entering the world of loucheng for almost twenty years, he finally had the opportunity to truly enter the upper class of this great world and come into contact with a wider world and more secrets.

Light swirled, heaven and earth seemed to become one. From time to time, a clear voice could be heard, which was extremely pleasant to the ear and made people feel relaxed and happy.

There were waterfalls and Springs all over the place along the way. Rare and unique beasts would occasionally appear and disappear. At the end of the road that was like a rainbow Bridge under his feet, there was a huge Palace. Even though it was covered by clouds and mist, Tang Zhen was still able to sense its magnificence and vicissitudes.

As Tang Zhen approached the hall, streams of light appeared out of thin air. Cultivators with astonishing auras appeared one after another. They stood at both ends of the main street and stared at Tang Zhen, who was slowly walking over.

This scene was quite spectacular, and it also allowed Tang Zhen to witness the true strength of the fifth battle area.

Every single one of them had at least the strength of a sector Lord, and there were even some who had disguised their auras to be dark and unclear, but they were definitely beyond that level!

Fortunately, most of them weren't in their true forms. Otherwise, the power they exuded would be enough to tear the void apart and cause unknown damage.

How many plane worlds could resist such a powerful lineup?

The road was very long, but even so, both sides of the road were still filled with cultivators from Lou city. The number was uncountable.

...

The purpose of their appearance here was to welcome Tang Zhen, the new member who had just joined the fifth battle area.

Tang Zhen was a little flattered, but he also guessed that this might be some kind of ceremony in the fifth battle District. Therefore, he maintained a calm expression and looked forward without blinking.

After he walked through the long avenue and passed by many deep gazes, he finally arrived at the door of the hall.

"Participant Tang Zhen, you have passed the trial of the fifth battle zone. If you are willing to join my battle zone, please enter the main hall!"

His voice was like an ancient bronze bell, reverberating in the heavens and earth, reaching the depths of his heart.

The giant door of the hall opened again, and there seemed to be a golden light shining inside, which was dazzling.

Tang Zhen inhaled a deep breath of air when he heard the voice that was transmitted into his ear. He strode in and the door immediately closed.

It was only then that the cultivators of Lou Cheng who had rushed over began to leave. Occasionally, a few people would exchange a few words with each other, and then they would disappear in an instant.

Chapter 1602 Joining the 5th battle area

Tang Zhen seemed to be in another world as he slowly walked through the door.

There were two rows of huge bronze statues in front of him. They were lined up on both sides of the road, and their faces were hidden in the darkness, looking blurry.

The bronze statue gave off an indescribable feeling of oppression. It made Tang Zhen recall the war puppet that he had encountered with the Morning Star City Lord. However, compared to these bronze statues, that war puppet was not even worthy of carrying shoes!

Tang Zhen felt that these bronze colossuses were living creatures. From the moment he entered the hall, many gazes were cast down and landed on him.

!!

There was admiration, judgment, and a faint sense of approval in his eyes.

Perhaps they were the Guardians of the hall, and would only react when the hall was in danger.

Just as he was observing his surroundings, the torches on both sides of the road lit up, and a passage appeared in front of him, leading straight to the center of the hall.

“Participant Tang Zhen, please come to the foundation stone platform and receive your basic reward!”

An aged voice sounded. Tang Zhen wasn’t unfamiliar with this voice. This was the cornerstone platform master of the fifth battle region. Both parties had come into contact not long ago.

Tang Zhen followed the instructions and walked forward. He arrived at the foundation stone platform in the center of the hall. He raised his head and looked at the constantly changing ball of light in front of him. There seemed to be a pair of eyes that could see through everything and was sizing him up.

every new member is worth celebrating. The fifth battle area is proud of you, and I hope you can also make a contribution to the fifth battle area.

As if it was some sort of ritual, a solemn voice came from the ball of light and echoed in the hall.

now, please answer me officially. Are you willing to join the 5th battle area? ”

Tang Zhen nodded and said with a certain tone, “I’m willing to join the 5th battle area!”

“Very good, you won’t regret your choice!”

As his voice fell, a row of items appeared in front of Tang Zhen. They were suspended within the bundle of translucent light. Although the specific appearance could not be seen clearly for the time being, an aura that caused one’s heart to move was revealed.

from now on, you are a member of the fifth battle area. Among the items in front of you, there is your identity card. It will be used when you are teleported or enter other battle areas. It will be convenient for the cornerstone platform to identify and let you in. There’s also the standard equipment for the members of the battle zone, which includes battle armors, Battle Blades, storage equipment, and auxiliary items.”

other than these items, there’s also the replica of the 5th battle district’s code of inheritance, the boundary stone tablet of your fief, and the seal of the sector Lord that connects to the cornerstone platform!

“Now, these items belong to you. Please keep them safe. These items not only represent your status as a member of the fifth battle area, but they are also valuable!”

“Every time a member of the Battlezone dies in battle and the items are left behind in the outside world, there will be people in charge of retrieving them. They will not allow any outsiders to obtain them!”

Tang Zhen did not expect these items to be so important. Since the cornerstone platform placed so much importance on them, he would naturally take care of them. When these items were lost, it might also be the time for Tang Zhen to die!

After putting away all the items, the light ball in front of him said, "From now on, you'll have half a year to rest. You can slowly choose your own fief. At the same time, you still have half a year to manage and build the base. When the time is up, you will have to accept the missions assigned by the war zone."

"The interval between each mission in the Theater of Operations is 50 years. During this period, you can move freely without any interference from the Theater of Operations."

there aren't many rules in the fifth battle area. As long as you don't break any forbidden rules, no one will say anything to you.

After giving Tang Zhen another reminder, the ball of light slowly disappeared. Tang Zhen also felt the scenery in front of his eyes changing. Soon after, he appeared on a floating island.

This Island was quite mysterious. It was only a small area, but the scenery was extremely beautiful.

There was a spring in the middle of the island, from which spring water gushed out continuously. When it flowed to the edge of the island, it turned into a waterfall that flowed straight down. Before it hit the ground, it turned into clouds and scattered in all directions.

On the island, there was a Pavilion-like building with map-like items inside. Most of the places on the map already had owners.

After seeing Tang Zhen's appearance, two slender plant spirits with a pair of transparent wings came forward and greeted him.

"You're welcome. I want to find a fief. Do you have any suggestions?"

These plant spirits were the servants of the fifth battle area, responsible for daily trifles. Every member of the battle area was their master, and they had to serve them wholeheartedly.

After hearing Tang Zhen's request, the eyes of the two plant spirits brightened. They immediately invited Tang Zhen to the map and introduced the situation of the ownerless areas to him.

As long as the service was good, the members of the battle zone would not be stingy with their gifts. The little things in the eyes of the spirit Emperor realm Lord were very valuable to these plant spirits.

Sir, please take a look. This is the flowing cloud region. The territory is always covered by clouds and mist. There are countless floating islands in the sea of clouds. However, the weather is humid and cold, so very few members choose their fief here.

this is the warm sun Sea. There's only day and no night. There are many islands on the sea and many strange beasts in the sea. It's a great place to cultivate. However, most of the areas already have owners, and the remaining areas are barely satisfactory.

the vast icy plain is too barren. However, there is another world beneath the icy plain. It produces many strange treasures. I can consider it.

Hearing the introduction of the two plant spirits, Tang Zhen's face revealed a trace of difficulty, as if he didn't know what to choose.

He had joined the trial of the fifth battle zone to find a backer for the newly established Holy Dragon battle zone and also to get in touch with the higher-ups of the world of Loucheng and learn more secrets.

At the same time, it could also increase the strength of the Warzone's cultivators, in preparation for the day when they would invade the world of the Teroboros.

Therefore, the first requirement for the fief was to have sufficient heaven and earth energy so that the cultivators of the Loucheng could cultivate even in the wilderness without having to stay inside the Loucheng all the time.

In addition, it would be best if there were strong enough monsters in the fief so that the cultivators could take the opportunity to train themselves and obtain extra income.

This point was extremely important. It must be known that in the current Holy Dragon battle zone, there were no places to farm monsters in the wild, which led to Tang Zhen having no choice but to build multiple trial grounds.

Although the trial arena also had the effect of tempering cultivators, and the effect was also very obvious, the resources invested in it were countless.

If there were natural monsters in the fief, Tang Zhen would be able to reduce the investment of a part of his Origin Energy. Moreover, the value of natural monsters and man-made monsters could not be compared.

After hearing Tang Zhen's request, the two plant spirits pondered for a moment. They pointed at a region at the edge of the map and said, "This place is close to the edge of the fifth battle area. For some unknown reason, it is connected to a shattered space. No one knows how big this shattered space is, but one thing is for sure. This shattered space is connected to many planes, and cultivators and monsters from other worlds often appear inside, taking the opportunity to enter the fifth battle area."

"But because of the sealing formation, these infiltrators can't leave the border, so they won't be a threat."

When Tang Zhen heard this, he immediately revealed an expression of interest. He checked it according to the directions given by the plant spirit and felt even more satisfied.

"This is the place, how can I obtain the ownership of this place?"

After hearing Tang Zhen's request, the two plant spirits didn't waste any words and guided Tang Zhen to leave a spiritual imprint on the map. Next, Tang Zhen only needed to use the teleportation array here to reach the teleportation point closest to the border.

After thanking the two plant spirits and giving them some rewards, Tang Zhen went to the teleportation array on Another Sky-floating island and headed to his fief in the fifth battle area.

Chapter 1603 Hesserens' fief (1)

In most cases, the strength of a battle zone could be determined by the number of transmission arrays. The more powerful the battle zone, the more widely the application of transmission arrays.

For example, the current sacred Dragon Battlefield, although it could not be compared to the old battlefields in terms of size and strength, its overall strength was still acceptable. In some aspects, it was even better than the other battlefields that were still weak.

Everyone had their own strengths and weaknesses, and the new war zone might not necessarily be weak.

But even so, the sacred Dragon Warzone was not so extravagant as to build teleportation formations everywhere. There was not even a regular teleportation formation!

!!

The reason for this was that the cost of production and maintenance was too high, so it was not cost-effective to use.

However, looking at the fifth battle area, the teleportation points within the territory were densely packed. Some of the fiefs even had dozens of teleportation points. They were simply rich to the extreme.

Tang Zhen sighed in his heart. He chose the teleportation point that was closest to his fief and took out his identity card to pay the teleportation fee.

Tang Zhen had just joined the 5th battle District, so logically speaking, he didn't have any points to use. However, the 5th battle District allowed new members to owe on credit. There was no interest, but there was a certain limit.

When the members had time to accept missions, it would be easy to repay the points they owed.

The teleportation process was very short. In less than ten seconds, Tang Zhen had already arrived at his destination.

A burst of clamor was heard. A huge teleportation square appeared in front of Tang Zhen. The venue seemed to be compact with loess, and ancient buildings were distributed around the square.

The buildings were desolate and simple, full of exotic styles.

Cultivators in all sorts of attires shuttled back and forth between these buildings, making the square seem very lively.

This scene had exceeded Tang Zhen's expectations. However, it was very normal after thinking about it. It was just that his initial thoughts were wrong.

It was difficult to join the 5th battle area, but it didn't mean that the 5th battle area was sparsely populated.

One did not need to think to know that a war zone with a long history that was ranked among the top in the 3000 warzones would definitely have a prosperous population.

welcome to the hesseren territory, Sir. I wonder what business you have here, and if you need my service? ”

Just as Tang Zhen was looking around, a man wearing a rune robe walked over. He bowed to Tang Zhen and asked in a very polite tone.

I’m going to the cracked plain. How do I get there? ”

This teleportation array was still a long distance away from his fief, and they had to pass through the defense line of hessin’s territory. Tang Zhen did not understand the specific situation here, so he asked.

“Your Excellency, are you planning to go to the cracked Plains to hunt for foreign cultivators or to buy local specialties?”

Tang Zhen looked at the long-robed man and asked in an indifferent tone, “What’s the difference between the two?”

if you’re ready to hunt for foreign cultivators, you can join those temporary teams or established teams. This way, not only can you guarantee more rewards, but you can also improve your safety.

“If you’re here to purchase local specialties, you can hire an appraiser and guard the carriage to help you take care of a series of trivial matters. This way, you won’t have to do everything by yourself, and your pressure will be reduced!”

Tang Zhen nodded his head. So this long-robed man was recommending his family’s business. No wonder he was so proactive.

“Would it be dangerous if I go alone?”

Tang Zhen casually asked. He didn’t expect that his fief would be so lively. He was only curious as to why no war zone members chose this place.

The long-robed man smiled when he heard this. He advised Tang Zhen, Your Excellency may have extraordinary strength, but I still suggest that you form a team to go there. You should know that the scarred plain is connected to the shattered space, and from time to time, cultivators and monsters from other worlds will appear. If you don’t have a companion to take care of you, I don’t think you can even survive a day.

“At the same time, it’s also a territory without a Lord. Even if someone does as they please there, you won’t be able to find any reason to judge them and can only accept your fate. However, if you go with the group, even if something happens, there will be someone to stand up for you.”

At this point, he smiled proudly and pointed to the mark on his chest. in the hesseren territory and the cracked Plains, there are very few people who don’t give us face when we announce the name of the fire owl!

Tang Zhen nodded. Just as he was about to ask a few more questions, a few fully armed Lou Cheng cultivators walked over. They glanced at Tang Zhen and then reached out to Pat the long-robed man who had a proud expression on his face.

The long-robed man's face revealed an unhappy expression. Just as he was about to turn around and see who dared to pat his shoulder, he heard a low voice, "Double-headed snake, are you gutless? you dare to do business with anyone?"

Hearing this voice, the long-robed man's neck shrank slightly. He immediately turned around with a smile and said, "so it's the great captain. You've misunderstood. I just saw that His Excellency was at a loss, so I came up to clarify his doubts. I absolutely have no other intentions!

The captain sneered and said in a disdainful tone, "don't think that I don't know what you're up to. It's fine for you to scam others, but if you want to scam this person in front of you, I'm afraid you won't even know how you died!

After he finished speaking, the captain ignored the long-robed man, who had a stunned expression on his face. He took a step forward, bowed to Tang Zhen, and said, welcome to the Hesseran territory, Your Excellency Tang Zhen. Our Lord is unable to come to welcome you because of some matters, so he can only ask me to convey his respect and say that if you need anything, please feel free to ask!

Tang Zhen nodded. He did not find it strange that the other party knew of his whereabouts. At this moment, he had just joined the fifth battle area. There must be many people who were paying attention to his every move.

The news had probably spread after he chose the cracked Plains as his territory.

Although he had broken the record of the fifth battle District, there was no substantial reward. However, it still raised Tang Zhen's reputation to a higher level.

As the future neighbor, the Lord of Hesseran's territory naturally had to express his gratitude.

Thank you for your Lord's good intentions. When I'm done with the matters at hand and your Lord is free, this Tang will definitely pay a visit!

After exchanging a few polite words with the cultivators of Lou Cheng, Tang Zhen asked for the direction of the cracked plain and teleported away.

After Tang Zhen left, the long-robed man nicknamed "double-headed snake" finally moved his numb face and asked the captain, Captain, who was that person just now?"

Hearing the long-robed man's question, the captain glanced at him and said in an emotionless tone, "You want to know his identity?"

"Hehe, I'm just a little curious, I'm just curious!"

Although the long-robed man said this, his face was full of curiosity. From the captain's attitude, he could confirm that the young man's identity was definitely not simple.

Since you're so curious, I'll tell you. He's actually a new member of the Warzone and the new master of the scarred plain.

If you want to make money in the future, it will depend on his mood. If he doesn't let you enter the cracked Plains, you'll have to stay here obediently. No one will help you!

Hearing the captain's warning, the long-robed man's body trembled, and a complicated expression appeared on his face.

Before Tang Zhen's arrival, the scarred plain was a land without an owner. Because it was connected to the scarred space, it had always been a gold-making place for the Rogue cultivators.

In the past, because there was no one to manage it, the Rogue cultivators were unscrupulous and completely treated this place as their own back garden.

However, now that this land had an owner, it was absolutely impossible for them to continue fishing for benefits like before.

Seeing that his stable source of income was about to go down the drain, the long-robed man was burning with anxiety, but there was nothing he could do. He was so anxious that he almost jumped up from the ground.

Seeing this, the team leader smiled. Seeing that the long-robed man was usually quite sensible, he reminded him in a low voice, "This Sir Tang Zhen has just obtained a fief and is still confused about many things. If someone were to remind him at this time, do you think he would remember this favor?"

The long-robed man's eyes lit up. He bowed to the captain and said, "I will definitely thank you in the future. then, he ran away.

...

Chapter 1604 The scarred Plains (1)

After leaving the teleportation array, Tang Zhen went straight to the edge of Heiss 'territory.

There was an invisible force field between this territory and the scarred plain. If one wanted to leave this place and enter the scarred plain, they would have to go through a specially opened passage.

It wasn't just this place that had an invisible force field. There were similar force fields in the other fiefs to prevent the wild cultivators and Wanderers from running around.

In the past few days, countless cultivators and monsters from other worlds had appeared at the border, trying to cross this invisible force field, but none of them had succeeded.

As time passed, the cultivators from the other world understood one thing, and that was to never get close to the invisible force field, or else it would be equivalent to seeking death.

The field cultivators in Hessian territory did not dare to approach the invisible force field. Every time they wanted to go out, they had to pay a certain fee.

Origin stones were the main currency in the 5th battle area. Brain pearls and coin of destiny could also be used, but the former's value was slightly lower, while the latter was only used by sector Lord level cultivators and was rarely seen on the market.

Tang Zhen didn't lack origin stones. When it was his turn, he casually handed over a few origin stones and obtained the certificate to exit seclusion.

This kind of certificate was bound to the soul information to prevent cultivators from the other world from entering Heissian's territory under an imposter's name after obtaining it.

This kind of thing happened quite often, and the reason was actually very simple.

For the cultivators from the other world, the scarred plain was just a wild land. Although it did not lack natural energy, it could not be compared to Heiss' territory, which had been in operation for many years.

If they could have a better living environment, who would be willing to live here?

It was a pity that the checks in Heiss' territory were extremely strict, and 99% of the foreign cultivators could not sneak in. They had no choice but to find ways to intercept and kill the itinerant cultivators from Heiss' territory in order to obtain the various materials they needed.

Therefore, the journey from the checkpoint to the cracked plain was definitely the most dangerous one. At this time, the wild cultivators would take the initiative to stick together and only spread out after they had safely left this place.

Tang Zhen followed the crowd and walked out of the checkpoint. What appeared in front of him was a boundless land. There was almost no mountain peak as far as the eye could see. It was as flat as if it had been ironed.

Tang Zhen wasn't clear about the specific area, and no one had estimated it. However, according to the introduction of the plant spirit, it should be equivalent to the area of ten Holy Dragon battlefields!

Compared to this, the original world could only be considered an island in the sea.

However, on this flat land, a huge and deep crack could be seen every few hundred miles. Gray smoke emitted from the crack, making people feel very uncomfortable.

It was as if countless cracks had appeared on his smooth skin, a completely sickly symptom.

Tang Zhen's spiritual energy also felt a little uncomfortable after sensing this scene.

There was no other reason, but from time to time, some strange-looking creatures would crawl out of the smoke. They would circle the edge of the crack for a moment before burrowing into the nearby grass and woods.

If the crack was a disease of the earth, the cultivators and monsters from the other world were parasites that bred, wantonly absorbing the nutrients of the land while ruthlessly destroying it.

It was fine if it was in the past. However, this place now belonged to him. Tang Zhen could not allow this kind of thing to continue no matter what.

He was going to clean up the place. Those who chose to obey could continue to stay here, and those who didn't, there was no need for them to exist.

From the beginning, Tang Zhen didn't intend to kill all the cultivators from the other world. He only wanted to clean up those monsters.

"Brother, don't block the way. The group behind is ready to set off."

Just as Tang Zhen was observing his surroundings, a voice came from behind him. It turned out that a group of rogue cultivators had formed a team and were preparing to enter the cracked Plains.

There were at least 2000 people in this group, and most of them were Lord level cultivators. There were a dozen King level cultivators among them, and they seemed to be the leaders of the group.

Tang Zhen dodged to the side and stood at the edge of the road. He was not in a hurry to leave.

“Little brother, if you’re alone, you’d better follow us. Otherwise, you won’t be able to go far!”

The one who shouted for Tang Zhen to make way was an old man with white hair and a white beard. He was wearing a slightly old leather armor with a few obvious patches on it.

He had a shield in his hand, a saber at his waist, and a bronze helmet full of blade marks on his head. He seemed to be in dire straits.

Behind the old man were a dozen or so young people. Their equipment was similar to the old man’s, and compared to the other teams, they were obviously much more shabby.

“You’re all on the same side. Are you also going to the cracked Plains to hunt for alien cultivators?”

Tang Zhen casually asked. It was true that the equipment of this group was too inferior. Going over in this manner was no different from courting death.

In his senses, he had found many King-level cultivators and monsters from the other world. If one’s strength was lower than the Lord-level, they would not even be qualified to enter this place.

we’re only picking some medicinal herbs and ores. We don’t dare to fight with those foreign cultivators. Those wolf cubs are too fierce and fight with no regard for their lives. The newbies behind me are no match for them!

The old man’s voice was filled with vicissitudes of life and a trace of emotion, as if he had a past that he could not bear to look back on.

“Old man, how much do you know about the rift plain?”

Tang Zhen only had general information about the cracked Plains, but he knew nothing about the specific situation. Therefore, it was necessary to find someone who was familiar with the environment here and all kinds of secret information to help him.

If this old man was capable of doing this, Tang Zhen would not mind giving him a chance.

Upon hearing Tang Zhen’s question, the old man carefully sized him up and said in an indifferent tone, young man, if you’re planning to make a fortune here, I advise you to go back as soon as possible. Although there are many opportunities to make a fortune in the cracked Plains, there are not many that can really make a fortune!

if the path we’re going to take next is paved with white bones, then near the crack that is rich in resources, even if we dig three feet deep, we’ll only find the remains of rotten bones.

especially when the tide season comes and the cracks spit out the treasures from the other world, almost every crack will set off a bloody slaughter. Out of 100 cultivators, it's already good enough if half of them can leave!

When Tang Zhen heard this, he frowned and asked, "What's going on with the tide season?"

The old man used a surprised gaze to sweep over Tang Zhen, as if he did not understand why Tang Zhen would ask such a question. After all, this was something that everyone knew.

Seeing that Tang Zhen's expression did not appear to be fake, the old man finally began to explain. The more Tang Zhen heard, the more surprised he became.

It turned out that this so-called tide season was actually a special kind of World Energy loss. It was said that these cracks were not only connected to shattered space, but also to many other worlds.

According to the cultivators from the other world, there were natural altars in the worlds connected to these cracks.

The cultivators from the other world would collect a large number of treasures as sacrifices. When these treasures accumulated to a certain extent, the altar would change. While erupting the heaven and earth energy of the scarred plain, it would also absorb the sacrifices.

As a result, the cracks spurted out treasures regularly, and from time to time, it would also sweep in nearby cultivators and monsters.

It sounded as if the cultivators of the cracked Plains had an advantage, but that was not the case.

It had to be known that the world Energy that flowed in from the fifth battle area was enough to form an energy tide in the other world. Not only could it give birth to countless natural treasures, but it could also provide a large number of cultivators to improve their strength.

The sacrifices they provided were only equivalent to planting a seed, but the result was a hundred times better!

...

The corner of Tang Zhen's mouth twitched when he heard this. No wonder he felt that the heaven and earth energy concentration here was not as high as that of Heiss. It turned out that a portion of it would be extracted by the other world regularly!

The long-term loss of heaven and earth energy without timely replenishment had ultimately benefited the otherworldly cultivators.

Tang Zhen absolutely couldn't tolerate this kind of poaching behavior!

Chapter 1605 Tang Zhen who was implicated (1)

The white-haired old man didn't notice Tang Zhen's expression and continued to speak in a faint tone, every time the tide rises, it's a day of revelry for the itinerant cultivators and the cultivators from the other world. They gather near the crack and wait for the treasure to appear.

man will die for wealth. More wealth means more death, especially in an unmanaged place like the scarred Plains. Death is a common thing.

sometimes, in order to ensure the greatest benefits, the cultivators are at odds with each other from the beginning. The chaotic battle will continue from the beginning to the end of the tide, during which countless people will die.

The old man sighed emotionally when he said this. He warned Tang Zhen, I've been wandering in the scarred Plains my whole life. It's a miracle that I'm still alive. Most of the people I've known all these years have died in the scarred Plains.

not only were there King-level cultivators among them, but there were also nomological Kings. But so what? they still turned into white bones that no one cared about!

"This is a cultivator's grave. If you are still attached to life, your best choice is to turn around and leave immediately!"

After saying these words, the old man felt that something was wrong. He seemed to have spoken too deeply to a stranger.

He was secretly puzzled in his heart. It was really strange. Why did he find this young man so pleasing to the eye? he couldn't help but say what was in his heart.

Tang Zhen revealed a contemplative expression. At the same time, he quietly retracted his mental energy that could affect one's emotions. He was using this method to make the old man speak his mind.

As long as Tang Zhen was willing, any cultivator whose strength was inferior to him would definitely not be able to keep any secrets.

He didn't expect there to be so many things to say about the scarred plain. No wonder no one chose this place!

Tang Zhen had thought too much. In fact, other than the fact that the cracked Plains was too chaotic, there were other reasons that no one chose it.

First of all, the fifth battle area had not had any new members for many years, and the original members had better fiefs to choose from. If there were no special reasons, there was no need to choose such a place.

Tang Zhen also noticed that in the current fifth battle area, there were many places that had better conditions than the cracked Plains. However, they did not meet all of Tang Zhen's requirements. Only the cracked Plains was still acceptable.

If Tang Zhen was given a chance to choose again, he would probably still choose this place.

"You two blind things, quickly get to the side!"

Just as they were about to ask for more information about the crack in the ground, they heard a curse, and the target was him and the old man.

Tang Zhen frowned. He turned around and looked at the fellow who had spoken in an unfriendly manner. Soon after, he saw a rough man wearing an Earth Dragon leather armor. His face was filled with an unruly aura as he stood in front of him. His eyes were filled with disdain.

“Such a wide road, don’t tell me you can’t walk through it?”

Tang Zhen’s tone was indifferent as he asked. His eyes were a little cold.

cut the f * cking crap. I just can’t walk over. I want you to get lost, do you hear me? ”

As if he was waiting for Tang Zhen to open his mouth, the wild cultivator’s arrogance grew even more arrogant. He raised his finger and pointed it at Tang Zhen, almost poking his face.

A dozen or so wild cultivators stood at the side and sneered as they watched this scene. With one look, one could tell that they were the accomplices of the arrogant cultivator.

When the old man by the side saw this, he hurriedly stretched out his hand and pulled Tang Zhen’s clothes. After which, he faced the arrogant cultivator with a face full of smiles and said, “Second master de, he’s just a young boy and doesn’t know any better. Please be magnanimous and don’t lower yourself to his level!”

Upon hearing this, second master de did not even look at the old man and said in a disgusted tone, “Who Do You Think You Are to be qualified to talk to me?”

The old man wasn’t angry at all. He just kept bowing and saying good things, but the arrogant cultivator didn’t care at all.

The young men behind the old man couldn’t take it anymore. Just as they were about to jump out, they were held back by their companions. At the same time, the old man glared at them fiercely. Only then did they turn their heads away with faces full of unwillingness.

Tang Zhen looked at the arrogant cultivator and his companion. A faint smile was revealed on his face.

“I just won’t move, what can you do to me?”

Upon hearing Tang Zhen’s words, the arrogant cultivator revealed a sinister smile and said word by word, “Kid, do you know what happens to people who dare to talk to me like that?”

“I’m quite curious. Why don’t you tell me about it?”

Tang Zhen stood still as he looked at second master de and asked with a smile.

Second master de seemed to have heard a topic that interested him. He turned to look at his companion behind him and laughed out loud as he pointed at Tang Zhen and shouted, did you guys hear that? this kid wants to know the consequences of offending me. Do you guys think I should tell him? ”

Hearing this, the wild cultivators behind him also laughed presumptuously, but most of them were sneers of contempt and pride.

brat, since you want to know, I’ll f * cking tell you. Remember, don’t wet your pants!

Second master de roared as he spat at Tang Zhen, I'll strip you of your clothes and stuff the parasite into your mouth. Then, I'll use a pair of tweezers to stab into the pustules on your body and pull out fat worms one after another.

"You can't feel pain, but you can see that your body is full of holes, and your body will become thinner and thinner. When you can't move anymore, your stomach will become bigger and bigger, and your belly will become thinner and thinner!"

A sickly smile flashed across second master de's face as if he was immersed in the scene he had described. He stared at Tang Zhen without blinking and laughed sinisterly, in the end, your stomach will explode with a 'boom', and countless colorful bugs will crawl out and eat your bones!

"Hehehe, kid, don't you think it's great?"

Tang Zhen nodded his head expressionlessly. He said to second master de, that's right, it's really cool. Since you like it so much, do you want to experience it for yourself? "

Second master de was stunned for a moment. He gave Tang Zhen a thumbs up and his voice was as cold as ice.

"Brat, you've got guts!"

don't worry, I'll let you have a taste of my new method. I guarantee that you'll die a more painful death, so painful that you'll regret being born alive!

The atmosphere at the scene became tense. Not only did second master de's eyes flash with killing intent, but his companions behind him also slowly moved forward with cold smiles on their faces.

The old man saw that the situation was not good and his eyes showed signs of struggle. In the end, he sighed softly and forced a smile at second master de, "Second master de, you're a magnanimous man. Please don't lower yourself to the same level as this young boy."

"How about this, didn't you say last time that you wanted me to sell you all of my harvest? as long as you let this kid go, I'll definitely do as you say!"

Second master de snorted and slapped the old man. At the same time, he cursed, "you shameless old thing. It's too late to agree now!"

"Not only do I want all of your gains, but I also want this kid's life. No one can help me!"

Just as second master de's palm was about to land on the old man's face, another hand suddenly appeared and grabbed his wrist.

Feeling the force on his wrist, second master de's expression changed slightly. He finally looked at the ordinary-looking young man in front of him.

To be able to grab his wrist, it proved that the other party was not weaker than a Lord-tier, but he had already assessed the young man's strength earlier, and he was at most a level five!

Could it be that he had made a mistake? this was a guy who was pretending to be a pig to eat a Tiger.

Second master de felt a slight chill in his heart. Just as he was about to open his mouth to try and salvage the situation, his companions had surrounded him with their swords unsheathed.

Forget it. Even if he had misjudged the other party's strength, he had more than a dozen people here, and there was an organization behind him. Why would he be afraid of this kid?

...

In the scarred Plains, one was not afraid of being arrogant, but afraid of being weak. The more flamboyant one was, the more others would fear them.

Even your companions and the organization behind you will support you, because in the cracked Plains, if you were a yes-man and had no organization to rely on, no one would dare to collect your corpse even if you died!

Chapter 1606 The double-headed snake that rushed thousands of miles to help

Under the watchful eyes of the crowd, second master de had already made up his mind that he must kill Tang Zhen today to establish his might!

To survive in the scarred Plains, one had to be ruthless. Once there was a grudge, one must not give the other party a chance to take revenge.

The seemingly harmless young man in front of him had already made him feel a sense of danger.

Even if Tang Zhen belonged to an organization in Heiss 'territory, he wasn't afraid. Because of the competition for resources, these organizations had long been filled with hatred.

!!

Once there was an opportunity to make a move, no one would show mercy. This had already become a common understanding.

If you don't kill him this time, you might die in his hands the next time we meet!

He wasn't worried that Tang Zhen was a Lou Cheng cultivator because the Lou Cheng cultivators in the fifth battle area had to wear the standard battle armor at all times to show their identity. If they were injured without the battle armor, there would be no way to reason with them and they might even be punished.

If Tang Zhen was wearing the standard battle armor of Lou Cheng's cultivators, second master de would not dare to use Tang Zhen to beat up the old man and make the matter more and more serious.

kid, let go of my hand. Otherwise, you won't be able to keep your hand.

Second master de's face did not have the slightest trace of panic. On the contrary, he looked at Tang Zhen as if he was looking at a dead man. He was practically gnashing his teeth as he spoke.

"Don't just talk without practice, I'm waiting for you to make your move!"

When second master de heard Tang Zhen's sarcastic words, the veins on his forehead bulged as he angrily shouted, "you're courting death!" Without any hesitation, he pulled out a dagger from his waist and stabbed towards Tang Zhen's chest.

"Kill him!"

When the companions beside him saw this, they brandished their blades and hacked at Tang Zhen in unison, as if they wanted to chop him to the ground.

"All of you, stop!"

At this moment, a loud roar suddenly came from the distance. Then, a long-robed man led nearly 100 cultivators and rushed madly toward Tang Zhen's position.

A trace of joy flashed across the long-robed man's eyes when he saw second master de and the others attacking Tang Zhen. Soon after, his face revealed an indescribable indignation as if he had seen an irreconcilable enemy.

stop them! Kill whoever dares to resist! I, the double-headed snake, will bear the consequences alone!

The long-robed man's voice was particularly loud and could be heard even from far away. Many of the onlookers were puzzled. They could not understand what kind of enmity the two-headed snake had with second master de. Why was he so high-profile?

Tang Zhen gently dodged second master de's dagger and looked at the group of cultivators. When he saw the long-robed man's face, he could not help but reveal a strange expression.

Could it be that this fellow had specially rushed here just to show off in front of him?

This fellow, whom the patrol Leader had called a two-headed snake, whom he had met once at the teleportation square, must have used some special means to arrive here at the same time as him.

Second master de was also shocked. However, when he saw the two-headed snake in front of him, his face revealed an expression of sudden realization. He thought that Tang Zhen was the two-headed snake's accomplice.

"Kid, so you're from fire owl!"

Since they were all competitors, there was nothing to be afraid of. Even if he were to break through the heavens, he would have the organization behind him to support him!

At the thought of this, second master de sneered and shouted at his companions, " don't be scared, beat him to death. Our people are right here. At worst, we'll have a bloody fight with fire owl!

As long as they left hesserne's territory, no one would care about the wild cultivators 'killing even if blood flowed like a river. This made second master de have no scruples at all.

"You still dare to be so arrogant, you dog-like thing!"

Tang Zhen coldly snorted and waved his hand at second master de. Soon after, second master de's face was completely deformed. Like a broken basket being blown by a strong wind, he rolled and flew to the side.

Second master de's companions were stunned for a moment. Just as they were about to attack Tang Zhen, the two-headed snake's men had already rushed forward.

With more than a hundred cultivators against more than a dozen cultivators, it was a one-sided battle. In less than half a minute, second master de's companions were knocked to the ground, their bodies covered in blood.

The battle of this scale caused a huge commotion and naturally attracted the attention of the cultivators on the checkpoint. However, when they understood the specific situation, they began to watch from the sidelines.

The cultivators guarding the pass had long gotten used to the occasional fights between these wild cultivators and simply couldn't be bothered to deal with them.

The two-headed snake rushed in front of Tang Zhen with a group of people. However, he was not in a hurry to speak to him. Instead, he went straight to second master de, who had been slapped unconscious by Tang Zhen. His face was filled with ferocity.

The double-headed snake lifted its leg and strode over second master de's body. The double-headed snake then slapped second master de's face and scolded him, "f * ck you! Are you blind? how dare you provoke anyone?"

I'm going to f * cking beat you to death today. Let's see how arrogant you can be! Let's see how arrogant you are!

Second master de was stunned by the slap. Teeth kept flying out of his mouth and blood splattered everywhere with the slap.

The excruciating pain finally woke him up from his dazed state. Looking at the double-headed snake that was sitting on top of him, slapping him and cursing at the same time, second master de also cursed, "Two-headed snake, I'll kill your zu Qianqian!"

"Pa!"

Another crisp sound was heard. Second master de's words were smacked back into his stomach and another tooth flew out.

how dare you scold your master double-headed snake? you must be tired of living!

Second master de's face turned purple with anger. Being ridden and slapped in public was worse than being killed.

"Just you wait, we're not done yet, Yingluo!"

"Pa pa pa!"

"You still dare to scold me? it seems like you're really tired of living!"

"I swear I'll kill you, Yingluo!"

"Pa pa pa pa pa!"

Seeing that second master de was still not going to give in, the double-headed snake did not hold back anymore. Its pair of hands were like a windmill, and in the blink of an eye, second master de, who was on the ground, was beaten up like a pig's head.

Even though second master de's cultivation had exceeded the Overlord level and his body was abnormally strong, he still could not withstand this kind of attack that targeted his vital points. Perhaps after a while, he would be whipped to death by the double-headed snake!

"Don't be in a hurry to kill him. I still want him to have a taste of his own methods of torture!"

Tang Zhen's voice came from the side. The double-headed snake's ears had already stood up when it heard this. It immediately jumped up from the ground and fiercely spat at the mud-like second master de. Immediately after, it moved in front of Tang Zhen with a face full of smiles.

"Your Excellency, I'm sorry to have startled you!"

The two-headed snake bowed to Tang Zhen and continued, this bunch of blind dogs even dared to offend you. They're simply too arrogant. I don't think there's any need for them to live!

At this point, the two-headed snake patted its chest, looking as if it was willing to do as it pleased, "As long as you say the word, I'll bring my men to destroy this bunch of bastards' lair and help you vent your anger!"

...

"An old man?"

Tang Zhen looked at the two-headed snake with a smile that was not a smile. He used a faint tone to ask, "Tell me, how old are you now?"

The two-headed snake was stunned for a moment, but it still answered honestly, "I've wasted two hundred and seventy years of my life, and I'm still a junior. I'm sorry to make you laugh."

"Don't call me an old man just because you came all the way here. I'll accept this favor!"

The two-headed snake was ecstatic when he heard this. He hurriedly bowed to Tang Zhen and said, "I don't dare, I don't dare!"

The double-headed snake felt that it was happier to have this new member of the fifth battle area, the new master of the scarred Plains, owe him a favor than to have earned 10 destiny gold coins.

don't be happy too early. Do you see that? they're already leading hundreds of people over. Are you sure you're a match for them? "

The two-headed snake looked at the exit of the checkpoint. Its expression changed, and then a cold smile appeared on its mouth.

The reason why he had the name of a two-headed snake was that he always had a backup plan when he did things. He was like a venomous snake with a head at the end. Even if the enemy attacked one of his heads, he would be attacked by the venomous fangs of the other head!

Since he dared to act so arrogantly in front of the checkpoint, he had absolute confidence that he could do it beautifully.

In order to make the new Lord of the cracked Plains, Tang Zhen, look at him properly, the two-headed snake had already gambled all of its wealth!

...

Moreover, with Tang Zhen's identity, how could he just watch him suffer a loss?

Chapter 1607 Daggers drawn (1)

Seeing that someone was fighting, the cultivators who were heading to the plains of cracks stopped and gathered from all directions.

In front of the border pass leading to the cracked Plains, although there were often fights, they were usually not on a large scale. Most of the time, they would keep the grudges in their hearts and find another place to fight.

For the sake of the monk, they had to fight here. They were really looking down on the cultivators of Loucheng.

If they didn't plan to stay here, they didn't have to worry about anything.

!!

Not to mention that in the following journey, the various organizations would have to face the ambush of foreign cultivators and monsters together. If they took action now, it would undoubtedly be very irrational and cause a serious reduction in the number of people.

This was already something that everyone knew, but it was being ignored at this time. It was obvious that the matter had been blown up, and both sides had completely fallen out.

Especially when they saw that the two-headed snake was leading more than a hundred cultivators, and the number of cultivators that had just rushed out of the border was several times that of the two-headed snake's side, everyone realized that this was definitely not a joke.

Perhaps it wouldn't take long for the nearby wild cultivator organizations to be reshuffled, and some of the forces that everyone was familiar with would also disappear.

In the blink of an eye, the two sides had gathered together, each pulling out their formation, their long swords unsheathed, their eyes sharp as knives, ready to attack at any moment.

"Two-headed snake, are you f * cking tired of living? how dare you touch my people?"

The person leading the reinforcements was a red-robed cultivator. His face was as dark as the bottom of a pot. He looked at second master de who was twitching on the ground and his other companions who were being stepped on. He asked in a frosty voice.

His companion was being controlled and had a sword placed on his neck. The red-robed cultivator did not dare to make a move, but his heart was filled with killing intent.

The two-headed snake was disdainful of the cultivator in Red's question, as if it didn't care about him at all.

hehe, your subordinate is blind and offended someone he shouldn't have offended. It's already lucky that he's still alive!

The enmity between the two sides had already been formed. The two-headed snake didn't mind revealing a bit of Tang Zhen's identity in an attempt to make the red-robed cultivator have scruples.

Although he was already prepared to fight, the enemy was outnumbered and he did not have an advantage in the fight. The two-headed snake naturally had to delay as much as possible.

Let's see how arrogant you'll be when your true reinforcements arrive!

The two-headed snake glanced at Tang Zhen when he said this. He discovered that Tang Zhen did not seem to have any intention of blaming him. His courage immediately increased.

He pointed at second master de and scolded him arrogantly, "If it wasn't for your magnanimity, do you think you would still be alive to see this bastard?"

"I'll tell you the truth. If you don't give me an explanation today, not only will this bastard die, but all of you will also die!"

The two-headed snake's words were extremely arrogant. Not only did he compliment Tang Zhen, but he also expressed his determination. At the same time, he seemed to be deliberately provoking a fight between them.

Hearing this, the cultivator who had rushed over with his men frowned slightly. The two-headed snake's behavior made him suspicious.

The red-robed cultivator looked at Tang Zhen carefully. He felt that this man was a bit unfathomable. Could it be that he had an extraordinary identity for the two-headed snake to protect him?

If that was the case, he would have to be more cautious.

Although the members of the wild cultivators organization were cruel and merciless, they also knew how to seek advantages and avoid disadvantages, thus protecting their own safety.

If second master de had really offended someone he should not have, and even the organization could not afford to offend him, then it would be useless even if the boss came!

Who was right and who was wrong had not been decided yet, and the identity of the young man was not clear, so they really could not rush to make a move.

However, he had come over with an aggressive momentum, so he couldn't just retreat like this.

Therefore, they still had to do what they had to do and say what they had to say. Otherwise, after today, how could their organization still have a foothold in this pass?

"I don't care who he is. However, since you've touched my brother, I can't let this matter rest. There must be an explanation!"

The cultivator in red said to the two-headed snake. He didn't want to lose his momentum, but at the same time, he wanted to leave some buffer space.

"I'll give you a chance. Tell me how to deal with this. If I'm satisfied, you can leave. If I'm not, none of you can leave here alive!"

"Hehehehehehehe."

The two-headed snake sneered and mocked the red-robed cultivator, "you're giving me a chance? how boastful of you! Stop pretending!"

"I'll say this today. This Sir's matter is our fire owl's matter. If you want to make a move, then do it as soon as possible. If you don't dare to make a move, then don't dawdle and quickly get out of my sight!"

The conversation between the wild cultivators was naturally filled with vulgarities, and it was very common to bring along family and ancestors.

The red-robed cultivator's mouth twitched when he heard the two-headed snake's unyielding tone. He felt even less confident.

He took another look at Tang Zhen before transmitting a voice to his subordinate beside him, send a message to our boss immediately. Tell him that there's a particularly tricky matter here and ask him to come as soon as possible!

No one was a fool. The two-headed snake's behavior was somewhat abnormal in itself. If he could not withstand the provocation and rushed forward in a moment of rashness, he might fall into the trap.

If things really got out of hand, even the organization behind him couldn't protect him.

"Hehehehehehehe."

Seeing this, the two-headed snake sneered, but it was getting more and more proud, and its eyes revealed a trace of confidence that it had the whole situation under control.

He didn't mind using Tang Zhen's identity to intimidate others. In fact, he was even eager for the other party to make a move. If that was the case, then the other party would never be able to step into the cracked Plains again.

When he, the two-headed snake, attacked, he always killed two birds with one stone. Otherwise, he would not be ashamed of his name.

At this time, he was very grateful to second master de. If it were not for his death-seeking behavior, he would not have had such a good opportunity.

The atmosphere was silent.

The scene of the confrontation was strangely quiet. Both sides did not say a word. Those who were originally prepared to watch the show could not help but feel a little disappointed.

They had originally planned to watch a bloody battle, but who knew that the leaders of both sides were only here to quarrel. It really made them anxious.

Was this still the organization of wild cultivators that would start a fight whenever there was a disagreement?

This group of people in front of him were probably imposters!

Most of the wild cultivators were whispering to each other. Some of them began to secretly size up Tang Zhen, trying to guess his specific identity.

Who was this person that the two-headed snake was so respectful to, and the red-robed cultivator was so afraid of?

Chapter 1608 Are we going to fight or not?

Tang Zhen did not open his mouth from the beginning to the end. He did not need to open his mouth.

The current situation was a good opportunity to let these wild cultivators know that the cracked Plains had a new master. It was absolutely impossible for them to be as unscrupulous as they used to be.

If you want to enter this place, you have to follow your own rules!

After witnessing the scene just now, the white-haired old man was also extremely apprehensive. He was afraid that things would get out of hand and he would be dragged into it in the end.

!!

The reason why he spoke up for Tang Zhen earlier was because he knew that Tang Zhen was being dragged into this matter. Although the old man was tactful, he was also unwilling to implicate innocent people.

However, as the situation developed, the old man became more and more uncertain. It seemed that the young man who spoke to him had a very complicated identity.

Of course, it was also possible that the double-headed snake was deliberately looking for trouble. It used Tang Zhen as a pretense to find trouble with second master de. In fact, it did not know Tang Zhen at all.

The old man had lived for so many years and had seen all kinds of things!

He had lived for a long time and had already seen through life and death. If not for his luck, he would have been buried in the cracked Plains.

Now, he was living day by day, and at the same time, he was trying his best to bring up the younger generation and let them mature as soon as possible.

He had done this many times, but as the years went by, the number of people he brought with him grew, but the number of people who returned decreased.

The young men beside him had just grown up and were the only hope of the village. If they died here, then the village, which was only left with the old and weak, would be completely destroyed.

thinking of this, the old man's heart felt uncomfortable, and his legs were a little unsteady.

At the same time that he was secretly anxious in his heart, the white-haired old man also secretly sized up Tang Zhen. He placed his last trace of hope on him and prayed that he was really some extraordinary Big Shot.

The two-headed snake's name was quite well-known. The old man had been in the border for many years and had come into contact with it more than once. This was the first time that this cunning fellow had shown such a tough side.

The two-headed snake would not be so aggressive if it did not have any backing, would it?

As the old man was thinking, a large group of cultivators rushed in from the border. There were five King level cultivators, and the rest were all Level Seven or eight cultivators. It was a very powerful lineup.

For an unaffiliated cultivator, advancing to the king tier was like a natural chasm. This was true even in the fifth battle area where the natural energy was abundant.

On this point, wild cultivators couldn't be compared with Lou Cheng cultivators at all, especially to the cultivators of Lou Cheng in the fifth battle area. No matter how large the number of wild cultivators was, they were just a group of chickens and dogs!

However, for the wild cultivators who made a living near the border, such a large lineup was definitely a rare sight.

Second master de's forces had already come out in full force!

After seeing this scene, the onlookers began to get excited again. They were secretly rejoicing in their hearts that they had chosen to come out of seclusion and take the risk today. Otherwise, they would have missed this rare and Grand scene.

"Fight, fight, it'd be better if they all died!"

The wild cultivators who had grudges and conflicts with the two forces all wanted to cheer loudly, hoping that the two forces would fight until blood flowed like rivers, and it would be best if they all died!

The originally tense atmosphere became more and more tense. The cultivators brought by the two-headed snake also began to stir.

"Don't panic, listen to my orders. This is not only their lair, but also our territory. Do you think we're afraid of these guys?"

The two-headed snake's voice rang out in time, temporarily stabilizing the morale of the Army.

A cloud of dust rose. In a short time, the red-robed cultivator's reinforcements arrived at the scene of the confrontation.

The leader of the group was a brawny man who was nearly three meters tall. He carried two broadswords on his back. Just by standing there, he gave off a sense of pressure.

even the boss of the blood Blade is personally involved. This is going to be interesting!

I'm afraid the two-headed snake is going to suffer. He only has about a hundred people. It's impossible for them to be a match for the bloody blade!

what's there to be afraid of? if Blood Blade can send reinforcements, can't fire owl send reinforcements? just wait patiently. I promise you won't be disappointed!

"Disappointed? hehe, I'm just afraid that they won't fight!"

As the onlookers discussed in low voices, the boss of bloody blade had already stood up. His egg-sized eyes were wide open, and he shouted with a murderous aura, "What's going on? Who dares to touch our Blood blade's brothers? is he tired of living?"

After roaring out these words, the boss of blood edge looked around before his gaze finally landed on Tang Zhen.

He carefully sized up Tang Zhen and a pondering expression appeared in his eyes. Soon after, he looked at the two-headed snake standing to the side as killing intent flashed in his eyes.

twin-headed snake, you're really bold. Do you really think I, bloody blade, am easy to bully? " you fire owl have the advantage in numbers, but I, Blood Blade, am not bad either. Whether you're right or wrong in today's matter, you must kneel and apologize.

"Otherwise, I'll bring some people to visit your boss and see if he can still protect you!"

The two-headed snake laughed disdainfully and spread out his hands casually, "Whatever, I'll be waiting!"

The two-headed snake was calm as it felt the pressure coming from the bloodblades. It was as if it did not care about the opposing team at all.

At this moment, the two-headed snake had already made up its mind. It must make good use of this opportunity and perform as much as possible in front of Tang Zhen.

However, he was also a little anxious. Why hadn't his boss arrived yet?

After he knew Tang Zhen's identity, he chased after him in a hurry. While he was chasing Tang Zhen, the double-headed snake immediately informed his boss of this shocking news.

This was especially so when the two-headed snake discovered Tang Zhen's figure and discovered that he was in conflict with his arch-enemy, blood edge. The two-headed snake was so excited that it almost jumped up. At the same time that it rushed over to rescue him, the subordinate responsible for reporting the news also set off at the same time.

This was a once-in-a-thousand-years opportunity, so why was his boss so slow?

If he didn't seize the opportunity to show off in front of the Lord of the cracked Plains, the expected profits would be greatly reduced.

The two-headed snake secretly sighed in its heart. However, it still made up its mind. It would drag this out as long as it could. If it really couldn't do it, it would risk its life and put on a show. As long as Tang Zhen was satisfied, it would be fine!

The two-headed snake pulled out the soft whip that was wrapped around its arm. It was ready to fight. At the same time, it used its eyes to size up Tang Zhen without leaving a trace. It wanted to see what kind of reaction he would have.

In the end, he saw Tang Zhen still standing with his hands behind his back. He looked at the boss of bloody blade with a smile that was not a smile. His eyes were extremely calm.

It was as if the aggressive bloodblades were a bunch of ridiculous clowns in his eyes!

After seeing this scene, the two-headed snake felt inexplicably relieved. It once again let out a strange laugh and looked at the boss of bloody blade.

He saw that the big boss, who had been so aggressive earlier, was frowning at this moment, and his face clearly showed a trace of hesitation.

...

Chapter 1609 greetings, your excellency (1)

“Damn it, are we going to fight this war or not? I’m so worried!”

One of the cultivators cursed angrily, his face full of depression.

There were many other wild cultivators who had the same feelings as him. When they saw that bloodshed had turned out in full force, they thought that blood would flow like a river very quickly. In the end, they had hesitated for a long time and still had not made a move!

This group of bastards, wasting the enthusiasm of the audience for nothing, they can’t play with people like this!

The hearts of the onlookers, which had been raised, fell to the ground again with a thud. More and more people cursed in low voices.

what’s going on with fire owl and blood Blade? aren’t they usually very brutal? they bully us like we’re grandsons, and now they’re acting like grandsons themselves? ” that’s true. They’re all as cowardly as the eggs of a mud monster. They’ve been dawdling until now and still haven’t made a move!

Not all of the onlookers were boorish. There were also some people with discerning eyes. After hearing their companion’s complaint, they explained in a low voice, ” can’t you see? bloodshed and blades are wary of that young man, which is why they haven’t made a move yet!

His companion was stunned for a moment. He stretched his neck and carefully sized up Tang Zhen. Soon after, he scratched the corner of his mouth and doubtfully said, I don’t see anything different. It seems that his strength is not as good as mine!

“Tsk, if you could tell, you wouldn’t be standing here and watching!”

His companion sneered and ignored him, continuing to observe the development of the situation.

There were many cultivators who could see this level, and they were very clear that the people from blood edge were probably investigating the young man's identity and then deciding whether to fight or not.

It was not a small matter for the team leader to come out personally. Compared to those underlings who only knew how to speak with their fists, the team leader must have a brain, otherwise, he would have been scammed to the point where not even his bones would be left!

let's wait and see. We'll probably have a result soon.

The white-haired old man also steadied his mind and said to his companion standing beside him.

As a result, just as his voice fell, he saw a sudden change at the border.

The runic gate, which was usually only half-open, was completely opened, and the horn sounded. This was an emergency assembly order.

A cultivator flew up from the border and waved the flag in his hand. Then, a large group of cultivators rushed out of the border. There were more than a thousand of them, all of them fully armed.

The wild cultivators were at a loss when they saw this. They had come here many times, but this was the first time they had seen such a formation.

Something big was about to happen!

This thought rose in the hearts of the wild cultivators. At the same time, they once again looked at the two parties in confrontation and the indifferent Tang Zhen. They subconsciously linked them together.

The cultivators of loucheng who had rushed out of the border were full of killing intent. They pushed away the wild cultivators who were blocking the way and rushed over in a flash.

As if a huge mountain was pressing down on them, the wild cultivators who were whispering immediately became silent. Some of the more timid ones wanted to take the opportunity to leave, but they were stopped by the cultivators in Lou Cheng.

Now that things had developed to this point, the onlooking wild cultivators probably couldn't leave even if they wanted to.

The two sides were also shocked by this change. No one had expected that the cultivators of Lou city, who had never participated in the battle of wild cultivators, would also join in!

The two-headed snake's eyes brightened when it saw the Rogue cultivator following Lou Cheng. It quickly saluted, "Boss, you've finally come!"

At this moment, he was like a man who had endured humiliation for the sake of the organization and had gone through fire and water. He had been struggling all along, and now he had finally been rescued.

Those who didn't understand him would have believed him on the spot!

"Brother, you've worked hard!"

The cultivator who was called boss by the two-headed snake nodded and looked at him with admiration. He patted his shoulder gently.

“For the fire owl, I’m willing to die a thousand times!”

The two-headed snake’s face was full of righteousness, and at the same time, a trace of emotion appeared on his face, as well as a determined expression of a man dying for his friend.

The fire owl boss was even more touched. He looked deeply at the two-headed snake, and his thoughts were conveyed without words.

He didn’t care about double-headed snake’s character, only his performance. If he wasn’t satisfied with double-headed snake’s ability to seize the opportunity and withstand the pressure, who would go to the fire for the organization?

leave the rest to me. Since bloodblade wants to die, he can’t blame anyone else!

The fire owl boss swept his gaze across the crowd, and a cruel smile appeared on his face as he looked at the blood blades ‘members, whose expressions were constantly changing.

He slowly turned around and followed the heavily armored Lou Cheng cultivator. The two of them walked to Tang Zhen.

“Commander of the Hessian border, greets Your Excellency Tang Zhen!”

“Greetings, Lord of the cracked Plains, fire owl Ronald!”

The two famous figures at the Hessian border actually bowed to Tang Zhen with the etiquette of a Lou Cheng cultivator facing a superior.

the onlookers who saw this scene trembled at the same time, especially when they heard the fire owl ronald’s words. the scene suddenly became silent, so quiet that one could even hear a steel needle falling to the ground.

The fire owl Ronald’s words contained information that shocked everyone.

This seemingly ordinary young man was actually a member of the fifth battle area, the new master of the land under their feet!

As everyone knew, any one of the members of the fifth battle group was a true God’s favored son, and their strength was enough to look down on everyone else!

Every cultivator in the fifth battle area had heard about the legends of the members of the battle area from time to time. Some cultivators could even list the names of each member and their great achievements as if they were family members.

To the cultivators of the fifth battle area, every member of the battle area was a legend!

However, at this moment, a legendary figure, a powerhouse that many people would never get to see in their entire lives, was actually standing in front of them. This was simply unbelievable.

No one suspected that Tang Zhen was an imposter because no one in the fifth battle area dared to do so!

“We pay our respects to Your Excellency Tang Zhen!”

The old man beside him was the first to return to his senses. He placed his right fist on his chest and half-knelt on the ground towards Tang Zhen’s heart. However, his emotions were like stormy waves that kept on surging.

He had never dreamed that he would be able to meet a legendary figure in his lifetime. He could die with no regrets.

The young man who followed the old man had a face full of light, his eyes full of worship and respect. He knelt on the ground one after another to express his respect and excitement.

“We pay our respects to Your Excellency Tang Zhen!”

“Greetings, my Lord!”

...

Shouts came one after another, and soon they joined together. Except for the cultivators in Hessin’s territory who bowed, all the wild cultivators half-knelt on the ground to express their respect.

This salutation was not only for Tang Zhen, but also to the fifth battle area, to those legendary powerhouses who were elusive!

Chapter 1610 The resentment of the bloodblade _

Everyone stood up after they finished bowing. However, the gazes they used to look at Tang Zhen had already changed.

Previously, Tang Zhen was just a passerby in their eyes. There were countless people like him at the border.

Every year, countless people would come here and go to the cracked Plains with hope, but they never returned.

The land of the cracked plain had no lack of corpses.

!!

If Tang Zhen was an ordinary person and died on this land, it was likely that no one would remember him.

However, everyone’s attitude immediately changed when they found out that Tang Zhen was a member of the war zone and the owner of the land under their feet.

It was like an ordinary person suddenly finding out that the Hawker on the street was actually the head of state. The huge shock in his heart was indescribable.

The identities of the two sides were completely different, and it was impossible for them to meet in their entire lives. Now, it was only a coincidence that they could meet.

Many wild cultivators were secretly excited. When they drank with others in the future, they would have the capital to boast.

I've seen the Lord of a Warzone with my own eyes, and I'm only a hundred steps away from him. You bumpkins probably don't have such good luck!

The more they thought about it, the more excited they became. The Eyes of the Wild cultivators began to light up as they looked at Tang Zhen. This scene was like a hot star who was being surrounded by fans.

Some people were happy, while others were sad. The onlookers didn't think that the matter was too big, and they couldn't wait for it to blow up as big as possible. The confrontation between the two wild cultivation organizations earlier had already made their blood boil.

Now that Tang Zhen had revealed his identity, and it was the kind that could pierce through the heavens, it was likely that he would not be able to bear the consequences this time around if he were to offend his blood blades.

A little carelessness would lead to eternal damnation.

haha, if bloodblade's blade isn't crippled this time, I'll chop off my head and kick it like a ball!

Someone said in a low voice, his face full of confidence.

what's going on? did the bloody blade offend you? "

His companion asked in confusion.

I don't have any grudges with them. It's just that the members of this organization have always been overbearing, and many people have been implicated. Now that we've finally met an iron plate, it's really satisfying!

His companion nodded, thinking that this was indeed the case.

The wild cultivators' organization was very obedient in front of the cultivators in Loucheng, but in the scarred Plains, they were like a group of bloodthirsty hungry wolves. Wherever there were benefits, they could be seen.

In order to snatch resources, the wild cultivators organization had done countless wicked things over the years. From time to time, a small team would be wiped out, and in the end, it was proved to be related to the wild cultivators organization.

However, most of the time, it was the cultivators from the other world who took the blame and bore the crimes that didn't belong to them. Fortunately, the cultivators from the other world had a lot of debts and didn't worry about it at all.

It could be said that the Rogue cultivators were the biggest cancer in the scarred Plains. If Tang Zhen wanted to fix this place, the first step was to control and eradicate these rogue cultivators. Otherwise, he could forget about opening up a new situation in a short time.

Tang Zhen was already aware of this situation and was thinking of an appropriate solution. Of course, he still needed to observe for a while before doing so.

There were also quite a number of people present who looked at the two-headed snake with envious eyes. With his performance just now, Tang Zhen would definitely have something to say after this incident.

This kind of Big Shot hated owing favors the most. If he could repay it, he would definitely do it at the first moment.

Even if those with discerning eyes could see that Tang Zhen was deliberately giving the two-headed snake a chance to perform, so what?

It was a great thing for such a Big Shot to give you a chance. If the two-headed snake seized this opportunity, it would definitely soar to the sky.

From the looks of it, opportunities would always be left to those who were prepared. If it was someone else who knew of Tang Zhen's identity, they might not have been able to do what they did earlier, even though they would also be shocked by Tang Zhen's identity.

He chased Tang Zhen for thousands of miles and appeared at the critical moment to protect Tang Zhen at all costs. At the same time, he informed his boss to come and help him.

To be able to complete this series of arrangements in such a short time was enough to prove that the two-headed snake was a talent!

Even without this matter, it was not difficult for the two-headed snake to perform in front of Tang Zhen with its ability.

Everyone knew that a Lord who had just taken office would definitely recruit a new group of subordinates to work for him. If he was chosen, he might even become a resident of the city!

Especially in the fifth battle area, it was extremely difficult to become a resident of the city Towers. After all, the city Towers here were extremely large in scale, and there were already enough offspring inside. How could they take in residents from the wild cultivators?

Feeling the envious gazes around him, the two-headed snake was also very happy in his heart. However, he still appeared very humble on the surface. It was as if he had become a shadow after his boss's arrival and would not easily show himself.

Everyone was secretly suspicious. The two-headed snake who had desperately protected Tang Zhen and fought against the blood blades was not the same person.

He knew when to advance and when to retreat. He was able to correct his own status. The current performance of the two-headed snake was sufficient to make Tang Zhen think highly of him.

Just as Tang Zhen was chatting with the border officer, the red-robed cultivator who had confronted Tang Zhen and demanded an explanation from the two-headed snake was trembling.

The cold sweat on his forehead dripped down. He knew better than anyone the consequences of offending a Warzone leader. As long as the other side said the word, he would become a corpse in the next second.

“If it wasn’t for that damn second brother de, things wouldn’t have turned out this way!”

At the thought of this, the cultivator in red glared at second master de, who was sitting on the ground, with eyes full of hatred. If he could make a move now, he would have cut this bastard into a thousand pieces!

But even so, so what?

It was only to vent the depression in his heart, and it was of no help in solving the problem.

Looking at the boss of Blood Blade, he no longer had his usual demeanor. He was standing beside Tang Zhen and the others with a smile on his face. Unfortunately, no one paid him any attention.

Seeing his boss so humble, the red-robed cultivator felt angry and sympathetic, but there was nothing he could do.

No matter how vicious bloodshed’s blade was, in the face of the Warzone’s feudal lord, he was still as humble as a dog, praying for a chance of survival.

At the thought of this, the cultivator in red had a splitting headache. He kept cursing in his heart. second brother de, you are a f * cking b * stard. Of all people, why did you have to provoke the new master of the plains of cracks? aren’t you f * cking courting death by hanging yourself? ”

What made him even more depressed was that the scarred plain had a new master, and they had no idea about it!

The fact that the fire owl organization knew about this matter while they knew nothing about it made the cultivator in red feel that he had lost in a fair way.

It was impossible for the fire owl, Ronald, to lie in public. Moreover, he had the highest-ranking officer of the border with him. With his existence, there was no longer anything suspicious about Tang Zhen’s identity.

After scolding second brother de in his heart, the red-robed cultivator sneaked a glance at Tang Zhen and felt a trace of resentment towards him.
