Chapter 161: besieging the city

“The monster’s flesh, blood, and bones were distributed according to a certain ratio. After adding a special medicinal liquid, Tang Zhen transported these meat lumps under the mother tree with the help of the Holy Dragon City residents. ”

“The outer skin of the mother tree’s fruit was extremely flexible. Tang Zhen could only easily cut it open with the purple electric dagger and seal the flesh and blood into the fruit. After that, the mother tree automatically healed the cut. ”

“Tang Zhen used the monster’s blood to draw a special rune on the fruit. Then, he used the monster’s brain to set up a simple array under the mother tree. The main work of cultivating the body was completed. ”

“In the following month, Tang Zhen only needed to follow the records in the secret technique and change his brain Pearl in time. ”

“This work took a total of two days. Tang Zhen was so busy that his feet didn’t touch the ground, but he also enjoyed it. ”

“Tang Zhen could not help but feel a sense of achievement in his heart as he looked at the hundred giant fruits hanging and swaying slightly under the mother tree. Life in the tower world was tense and exciting. Compared to the mediocre and boring life in his original world, this was the world that was suitable for him. ”

Tang Zhen was holding a bottle of fruit juice in his hand. He was about to take a sip when he suddenly jumped up from his seat and looked in the direction of the city wall with a grave expression.

“Through the map view, Tang Zhen saw a dense Army of kobolds slowly advancing in the direction of the Holy Dragon City! ”

“This was a true Army, well-equipped and dignified. They did not lack any of the siege weapons, grain, and supplies needed for the expedition. ”

“This dog-headed man army was divided into several groups according to the type of soldiers. Tang Zhen found nearly a hundred Lion-headed men in heavy armor. In addition, there were also some ferocious monsters that seemed to have been domesticated by the dog-headed men. ”

A rough estimate showed that there were about 20000 kobolds in this group. It was a spectacular scene!

“damn it, these dog-headed people are really persistent. I just destroyed a gang, and now another one is coming to die! ”

“Tang Zhen rubbed his somewhat numb temples as he took out his walkie-talkie and said to Tessen, “” call all the Warriors of the Holy Dragon City. Our old enemy is here. The number of kobolds this time is four to five times more than the last time! ”

“get ready! Tai Seng immediately growled, and then a series of shouting and running sounds came from the walkie-talkie. It was obvious that the soldiers were getting ready for battle after receiving the news.”

“This time, there were too many kobolds. He definitely could not let his guard down. Otherwise, Holy Dragon City would be in danger of being destroyed. When he thought about the tall siege weapons that the Kobold Army had brought along, and then thought about the fifteen-meter-tall walls of Holy Dragon City, Tang Zhen felt a little uncertain.”

“Taking advantage of the distance between the Kobold Army and the Holy Dragon City, Tang Zhen gritted his teeth and exchanged all his brain beads for gold coins. Once again, he activated the [terrain transformation plug-in], which was a gold-gobbler!”

“The ability of the [terrain transformation plug-in] was indeed too amazing. Among all the black technology applications that Tang Zhen had downloaded, this application had the most visual impact.”

“With the activation of the application, under the horrified gazes of all the Holy Dragon City soldiers on the city wall, a giant semi-circular stone wall connecting two cliffs quickly rose from the ground. Its huge shadow instantly covered the entire entrance of the Holy Dragon City Valley, completely blocking the sun.”

“After the stone wall had completely covered the original city wall, it was raised to a height of 50 meters before it stopped rising!”

“In the direction of the Holy Dragon Valley, a transportation ramp quickly appeared, directly connecting to the top of the stone wall. Then, the top of the stone wall began to change again, as if a hollow passage had appeared, and countless Windows appeared!”

“The Holy Dragon city’s Warriors were enjoying themselves when they saw that the power to expand the window seemed to have disappeared, leaving only a small section of the stone wall with no windows. Those with obsessive-compulsive disorder felt that something was wrong!”

Tang Zhen shifted his gaze back from the map. It was only a minute and this was all he could do.

“Other than the box of brains in the ghost bank, Tang Zhen couldn’t even take out a single brain from his pocket. He was a standard pauper. However, after building such a majestic city wall and rendering the Kobold’s siege weapons useless, Tang Zhen felt that the gold coins were worth it!”

“When Tang Zhen rushed to the city wall, Tai Seng was commanding the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers and residents to move firearms and ammunition onto the newly built city wall. When they saw Tang Zhen appear, all the residents looked at him as if they were looking at a God, their eyes filled with respect.”

“””City Lord, this is your Kasaya.”” ”

Tai Seng pointed at the majestic city wall and asked Tang Zhen. His voice was filled with excitement and his eyes were shining.

“that’s right, I did it. Hurry up and get to work. The houndhead men are coming!”

“Tang Zhen appeared to be unconcerned as he waved his hand. However, after hearing the definite answer, the gazes of the residents, who were about to prostrate themselves on the ground, caused Tang Zhen to feel quite pleased. He also felt a trace of pride in his heart!”

“After all, such a technique was almost no different from that of a God!”

“””Long live the city Lord!”””

“Tai Seng’s eyes were red with excitement. He yelled at the top of his lungs, and everyone immediately agreed. They all shouted at the top of their lungs, wishing they could use all their strength to shout out their respect for the city Lord.”

“The boiling emotions and the sky-shaking roars continued for a long time, causing Tang Zhen to feel a little uncomfortable. He waved his hand to signal everyone to stop cheering. He also said that with the great enemy in front of them, it was more important to quickly go up the city wall and arrange the defense.”

“Everyone was quite obedient and buried their heads to start working. All of them were full of energy, and they walked with the wind.”

“With Tang Zhen’s storage space, the weapons and ammunition were first sent to the city wall. The soldiers placed the machine guns and other weapons while sizing up the giant city wall under their feet.”

“After Tang Zhen’s modification, the top of the giant city wall was also very wide. Tang Zhen had made a long row of rooms near the valley. When he went in to take a look, it was actually a vertical cave that opened up along the wall.”

“The space inside was very large. It could store weapons and ammunition, and it could also be used for living. It was just that it was a little rough and uneven. This could not be helped. After all, it could only be used for a limited time.”

“In the direction of the gravel plain, there was a two-meter-high stone wall with many gaps in it, making it easy for the Warriors to observe and shoot.”

“Through these gaps, they could clearly see that the Kobold Army had set up camp less than two kilometers away from Holy Dragon City. However, at this moment, they were all stunned by the magnificent city wall in front of them.”

“In the dog-headed people’s camp, a tall dog-headed man with an angry expression was beating up the dog-headed warrior in charge of scouting. It was because of this group of bastards ‘wrong information that led to the current dilemma.”

“In the face of such a tall city wall, all the siege weapons lost their effectiveness. Their large Army’s expedition seemed to have become a huge joke. They couldn’t possibly let the dog-headed soldiers fly over a height of 50 meters!”

“Glancing at the dog-headed warrior who was beaten up and spitting blood, an old dog-headed man in a long robe coughed lightly, indicating that they should stop fighting. The Furious dog-headed man cursed angrily and sat back on a folding leather chair.”

“The dog-headed elder glanced at the dog-headed generals sitting in the tent. Seeing their worried faces, he smiled and said, “” you don’t have to worry, 17th Prince. After all, no one thought that those lowly humans would have such a magical technique. They could actually build a giant city wall in the blink of an eye. ”

“The dog-headed man who had attacked him earlier was still indignant. He said to the old dog, “” master Maronis, you might not know this, but I made a military pledge to my father. I said that I would take down this human city in the shortest time possible and use it as the rear camp of the Royal Kobold clan. Who would have thought that this would happen? how am I supposed to complete my mission? “” ”

Chapter 162: The 17th Prince and the car snatching

“This angry dog-headed man was the 17th Prince of the Royal dog-headed clan, ao Feng. He was also the commander of the dog-headed Army that was attacking the Holy Dragon City. ”

“The old dog-head man, who was called master marony by the seventeenth Prince, smiled and said with confidence, “” don’t worry, seventh Prince. When I saw this city wall, I sent a message to the royal family’s Tower and asked the messenger to ask for help from the tower of black feather. I believe that there will be a reply soon. ”

“The 17th Prince’s expression relaxed slightly. With the help of the flying guys from Blackfeather Tower City, it would not be difficult to attack the human race’s Holy Dragon City. ”

“After letting go of his worries, the 17th Prince turned to the group of dog-headed officers and said, “” last time, the yellow-toothed general led 5000 soldiers to attack this City Tower. For some reason, they were all wiped out. So, don’t let your guard down just because the enemy is a human. You must be more vigilant. ”

“The 17th Prince was being cautious, but when the arrogant dog-headed officers heard it, they felt that the 17th Prince was being too careful. They started to look down on him. ”

“They were just a group of lowly humans. There was no need for them to be so vigilant. If it wasn’t for the sudden appearance of the city wall, the dog-headed People’s Army would have broken through the city wall and killed all the humans inside! ”

“As for the last time when the yellow-toothed General’s Army was completely annihilated, they might have encountered some powerful monster along the way, and none of the unlucky ones managed to escape. They would never believe that the Holy Dragon City humans had killed them! ”

The 17th Prince felt helpless as he looked at his generals’ nonchalant expressions.

“The Kobold King had many descendants, and it was just one of them. It was already extremely lucky to be able to participate in the Kobold King’s grand plan and become the commander of an Army. ”

“Originally, he thought that it would be easy to conquer a low-level human city. However, who would have thought that there would be such twists and turns? this made the 17th Prince feel a little uneasy. ”

“If he couldn’t take down this tower, he would probably never be able to stand out among the Royal Kobold clan!”

“Tang Zhen stood on the city wall and looked down at the dog-headed people’s camp. His gaze shifted slightly, but he was continuously planning in his heart.”

Tang Zhen would definitely give them an unforgettable memory tonight.

“After thinking up to this point, Tang Zhen walked down from the city wall. He needed to make some preparations and prepare a big gift for the dog-headed people.”

“In the original world, kimchi country.”

“Tang Zhen walked out from a gap in a container in a remote location. As expected, the container that he had emptied had been discovered by someone and reported to the police. At this time, the entire dock was filled with a tense atmosphere. From time to time, police officers from the pickle nation would pass by.”

“Tang Zhen ignored the others. After tidying his clothes, he directly headed to the street outside the dock.”

“The officers from the pickle nation, who were still at the dock, could never have imagined that the notorious thief who had kept them so busy would slip away right under their noses.”

“Ever since the news of the stolen containers at the dock spread, because of the huge amount of money involved and the involvement of many countries and companies, there was a lot of attention on it, which also put a lot of pressure on the kimchi police.”

“For the past few days, the police officer in charge of the case had not had a good night’s sleep. He had been investigating for clues and collecting relevant information all day long, trying to catch the guy who had moved the empty container in broad daylight without anyone knowing.”

“Tang Zhen had come over this time to get a batch of fuel. The Holy Dragon city’s stock was already insufficient. After a while, the Holy Dragon city’s motor vehicles would run out of fuel.”

“Small fights weren’t tang Zhen’s style. This time, his target was the fuel truck that was transporting fuel.”

“After activating the [all-purpose electronic kit] and hacking into the network of the fuel company, Tang Zhen got the transportation route of all the fuel tank cars and quickly selected the target.”

“After arriving at the road that the tank truck must pass through, Tang Zhen found a slightly remote road section. After adjusting his view to the map view, he sat on a chair by the roadside and waited.”

“Time slowly passed. Tang Zhen waited for a long time, but the fuel truck still didn’t arrive. He couldn’t help but feel a little anxious.”

“The Holy Dragon City was currently surrounded by a large number of soldiers and could be in danger at any time. He could not waste too much time here. If he really could not do it, Tang Zhen could only head to those gas stations.”

“While Tang Zhen was thinking about this problem, he didn’t notice that a car had stopped beside him. At the same time, the car window rolled down and a man wearing sunglasses shouted at him, “Hey, how do I get to Jinpu road?””

“Ignoring this fellow, Tang Zhen was still pondering if he should change the route. However, he suddenly noticed a tank truck slowly driving over. His mood immediately relaxed.”

Tang Zhen clapped his hands and stood up. He then began to prepare for action.

“When the young man who was driving saw that Tang Zhen was ignoring him, he couldn’t help but curse in a low voice. He ignored the girl in the front passenger seat who was blocking him and slammed the door as he walked in front of Tang Zhen.”

“““Brat, you’re very arrogant!”” ”

“The young man wearing sunglasses pushed Tang Zhen, but he felt like he had hit a wall. The other party didn’t move at all.”

“Tang Zhen slowly turned his head and used an ice-cold gaze to sweep over the young man. The killing intent that he unintentionally revealed caused the other party’s body to stiffen. Before the young man could recover from his shock, Tang Zhen reached out and took off his sunglasses. After which, he gently pushed his slightly handsome face.”

“It was as if the young man had been knocked down by a car. He immediately flew out and his body slammed into the car with a “bang”, causing the girl in the car to scream in shock.”

“““Brother, are you okay?”” ”

“The girl jumped down and helped the young man up. She then shouted to Tang Zhen, hey, what’s wrong with you, uncle? why did you hit me? do you believe that I’ll call the police right now?”

“The young man’s face was filled with anger. He pushed away the girl’s hand and was about to rush up to regain his face. He had been slapped by Tang Zhen just now, making him feel very humiliated.”

“““You’d better get out of here, or I’ll kill you!”” ”

Tang Zhen coldly snorted. He looked at the fuel truck that was getting closer and slowly walked to the middle of the road.

“““I think you’re the one who’s looking for death!”” ”

“The young man didn’t seem to be a law-abiding person. Tang Zhen’s words didn’t scare him. Instead, it aroused his fierce nature. After seeing Tang Zhen walk to the center of the street, he took off his coat and threw it on the ground before striding towards Tang Zhen.”

“A shrill horn sounded. The young man saw a tank truck coming from afar and kept honking, but the arrogant kid who had stolen his sunglasses stood in the middle of the road like a fool.”

“he didn’t even Dodge the car. Is there something wrong with his head? ” ”

“As the young man thought of this, his footsteps slowly came to a stop, his eyes filled with doubt. ”

“When the fuel tank Truck driver saw that Tang Zhen was blocking the middle of the road and didn’t Dodge, he quickly stepped on the brake and barely stopped when he was less than three meters away from Tang Zhen. ”

“”Bastard, are you f * cking looking for death?” ”

The driver of the fuel tank Truck stuck his head out of the cab and cursed at Tang Zhen.

“Tang Zhen didn’t say anything. He walked a few steps to the tank truck, opened the door, and grabbed the stunned driver. Then, he punched the driver’s jaw! ”

“After the driver was hit, his eyes rolled back and he passed out. ”

Chapter 163: night raid on the camp

“After kicking the tank truck driver out of the car, Tang Zhen closed the door and directly started the tank truck, continuing to move forward. ”

The young man who was prepared to fight with Tang Zhen stood at the side. He looked at the scene in front of him in a daze and felt confused. He really couldn’t understand what Tang Zhen was thinking. He actually robbed a Fuel Tank Truck in broad daylight?

“Looking at the unconscious tank truck driver, the young man thought for a moment, then finally took out his mobile phone and called the police! ”

“Tang Zhen didn’t drive the tank truck far before he found a fork and drove down. After running for a while and seeing that no one was paying attention, he put away the tank truck and returned to the loucheng world. ”

“After returning to the square of the Holy Dragon City, Tang Zhen released the fuel truck. Then, he took a container and put the fuel inside. Immediately after, Tang Zhen returned to the warehouse and stored a large pile of things in the storage space. Only then did he stop his busy work. ”

“After returning to the city wall, Tang Zhen looked at the dog-headed people who were preparing to eat and started to wait silently. ”

“Night quietly descended and the entire dog-headed people’s camp fell into silence. Only the patrolling sentries were still walking around from time to time. Tang Zhen noticed that every 100 meters around the dog-headed people’s camp, there was a wooden stick that emitted a green glow. It looked like a street lamp. ”

“This thing seemed to have a strange effect. Ever since it was inserted, the monsters wandering on the gravel plain avoided the dog-headed people’s camp as if they had encountered a flood.”

Tang Zhen was secretly amazed. He pondered about getting a few of them later and taking them back to study.

“The Holy Dragon city’s soldiers were also eating. They had been on edge for the entire day and could finally relax a little. The group of people gathered together and laughed, as if they did not care about the Kobold Army.”

“Tai Seng put away his night vision goggles, walked in front of Tang Zhen and asked, ““ city Lord, how do you plan to deal with those guys? tell us. It’s really uncomfortable to not fire a shot? ““ ”

“Tang Zhen smiled when he heard this. He pointed at the dog-headed people’s camp and said, ““ Don’t worry, you’ll be busy in the second half of the night.”“ ”

“Tyson didn’t know what was going on and wanted to ask more questions, but Tang Zhen only told him to prepare the mortar and anti-aircraft machine gun and wait for his order to attack.”

“When midnight came, Tang Zhen activated the [quantum stealth light curtain] and jumped down from the 50-meter-high city wall. Just as he was about to land, he gently knocked the wrist guards on his arms and his entire body was like a feather as he quietly landed on the ground.”

Tang Zhen tried his best to keep his footsteps as light as possible as he began to move towards the dog-headed people’s camp.

“When he arrived in front of the dog-headed people’s camp, Tang Zhen carefully observed it. After confirming that there was no alarm device, he slowly walked into the dog-headed people’s camp.”

“The dog-headed people had a very sensitive sense of smell. He had already used a small trick to hide it earlier, but there was still the danger of being exposed. Therefore, Tang Zhen had no choice but to be extra careful.”

Tang Zhen had already clearly seen the dog-headed people’s camp through the map’s perspective. The direction he was heading toward was the place where the dog-headed people stored their rations and supplies.

“After avoiding the two patrolling dog-headed man sentries, Tang Zhen went into the middle of the pile of food and drinking water. He took out all the fuel barrels he had gotten and then tied them to remote explosives.”

“The smell of fuel was very strong, and he believed that the dog-headed people would be able to discover it very quickly with their developed sense of smell. Tang Zhen had to end the battle quickly.”

“Next, Tang Zhen began to place explosives all over the dog-headed people’s camp. After placing more than ten explosives, the dog-headed people’s Sentinels finally discovered something unusual!”

“A shrill bone whistle sounded, attracting the attention of the patrolling Kobold Sentinels. However, before they reached the location of the whistle, they heard an earth-shattering sound.”

“At the same time, a huge fireball rose from the rations and supplies, and at the same time, small fireballs scattered in all directions, setting the rations and tents on fire. The fire that soared into the sky was extremely dazzling in the night. ”

“The splattering fuel produced an astonishingly high temperature, and the food and drinking water were swallowed by the fire in the blink of an eye. Some kobolds wanted to put out the fire, but they couldn’t get close to it. They could only stomp their feet in anxiety. ”

“As the fireball rose, the camp of the houndhead men immediately became chaotic. Countless houndhead men ran out of their tents to see what was going on. However, before they could figure out what was going on, they heard a series of loud noises. ”

“The huge shock wave set off the prologue of death in the dog-headed people’s camp. Some unlucky dog-headed soldiers lost their lives in their sleep, and some tents were lifted into the sky, with none of the dog-headed people inside surviving. ”

“From time to time, broken limbs of the kobolds fell from the sky, causing a huge panic. The Kobold officers roared loudly, but they could not control the chaotic situation. This situation meant that the kobolds had already blown up the camp! ”

“Tang Zhen hid in the dark and threw out two grenades. Then, through the communication cracking function of the [all-rounded digital battle interface], he connected to Tyson’s walkie-talkie. ” don’t worry about the ammunition. Hit it hard!

“As soon as Tang Zhen’s order was given, Tai Seng, who had been waiting impatiently, immediately gave the order to attack. The five mortars produced by the ice Bear Alliance let out a roar, and the killing explosive shells streaked across the night sky, smashing down on the dog-headed people’s camp. ”

“”BOOM!”” ”

“The cannonballs exploded one after another, and the debris and air waves tore the nearby kobolds into pieces. The power of the explosion was like the collapse of the heavens and the earth, and it completely threw the kobold camp into chaos. ”

“Countless dog-headed soldiers in unkempt armor and clothing ran out of their tents like headless flies. They began to flee in all directions, afraid that they would be affected by the terrifying artillery fire. ”

“The sound of anti-aircraft machine guns followed closely behind. The bullets from above still produced a terrifying killing effect within the effective distance they could barely reach, knocking down the dog-headed soldiers who were running in all directions. ”

“The trajectory of the light drag bullet and armor-piercing burning bullet was extremely beautiful in the night sky, but it represented the gorgeous blooming of the flower of death! ”

“The dog-headed people’s officers were furious. They shouted at the panicking soldiers and tried to restore order, but it was to little effect. ”

“From time to time, a wave of bullets would hit the Kobold officers who were standing in conspicuous positions, cutting them in half. When they saw the unlucky fellow who was wailing in pain with half of his body behind him, the Kobold officers did not dare to stand in conspicuous places. They only hid in the corners and berated him loudly. ”

Master Marony and the seventeenth Prince of the Kobold royal family looked at the chaotic kobold camp in a daze. They then looked at the deadly flashes of light that kept flying from the Holy Dragon city’s wall. Their faces were ashen.

“The siege hadn’t even started, and his side had already blown up the camp. This was a great taboo in the first place. Coupled with the sneak attacks of the despicable humans, the Kobold Army was bound to suffer heavy losses tonight! ”

“The 17th Prince took a deep breath and shouted to the cultivator team beside him, “” “”All of you, get out! Kill all those who are shouting and disturbing the morale of the Army!”” ”

“””Yes, sir!”” ”

“After the 17th Prince’s order was given, the 100 Lion and dog-headed people scattered in all directions. They shouted “” don’t panic “” while their blades flashed non-stop. Soon, nearly 100 dog-headed people were killed! ”

“All of the dog-headed people’s officers also spread out, each taking charge of a region, gradually calming down the chaotic dog-headed people. ”

“Although the gunshots and artillery fire were still going on, the camp of the dog-headed people had strangely quieted down after the explosion. There were no more dog-headed people running around in the camp. ”

“Even when the cannonballs exploded beside them and their companions were blown to pieces, the dog-headed people still lay quietly on the ground, not moving an inch! ”

Tang Zhen sighed in his heart. He gently opened and closed his mouth a few times. The [all-rounded digital battle interface] recognized his mouth into a voice and sent it to Tyson.

stop firing! Don’t waste any more ammunition!

“As soon as the order was given, the attacks on the city wall stopped. The entire kobold camp fell into a dead silence. ”

“Tang Zhen, who was hiding in the dark, looked at the seventeenth Prince, who was obviously the commander in chief. A murderous intent rose in his heart. He held the purple lightning short sword and quietly moved to its side. ”

Chapter 164: -killing master Maronis

“The dog-headed people had a keen sense of smell. If it wasn’t for the smell of blood and smoke in the dog-headed people’s camp, which concealed Tang Zhen’s aura, he would have been discovered by the dog-headed people! ”

“It was precisely because of this concern that he did not dare to get too close. When he slowly moved to about ten meters behind the seventeenth Prince, Tang Zhen shot out like a sharp arrow and the purple lightning short sword in his hand went straight for the seventeenth Prince’s neck. ”

“Tang Zhen’s attack was too sudden, causing the guards around the seventeenth Prince to be unable to react in time. By the time they realized that something was wrong, the purple lightning short sword had already touched the seventeenth Prince’s skin. ”

“””Prince, be careful!”” ”

“Master marony, who was beside the seventeenth Prince, roared. An invisible shock wave spread out with him as the center. Tang Zhen was the first to be affected, and his body was violently bounced back. The sword that was supposed to kill him only cut open the seventeenth Prince’s skin. ”

“””There’s an assassin, catch him!”” ”

“The nearby Kobold Warriors all rushed over, vowing to capture and kill the assassin! ”

“Although Tang Zhen was invisible, he still couldn’t escape the sniffles of the numerous dog-headed people. They had already faintly locked onto Tang Zhen. ”

“Tang Zhen’s body trembled in mid-air, and he ingeniously removed the force from his body. He glanced at master marony and confirmed that this dog-headed man was a level four cultivator. Looking at the methods it used, it was likely to be a Holy master! ”

Tang Zhen’s eyes narrowed slightly when he thought of the fact that the dog-headed man was a grade-4 Holy master.

“The 17th Prince, who was ambushed, did not pay any attention to the wound on his neck. After he sniffed, he looked in Tang Zhen’s direction with a cold and sinister expression. ”

Tang Zhen’s attack was launched again before the guards could block the seventeenth Prince’s body. He took advantage of his invisibility and actually approached the seventeenth Prince’s side again.

“Master marony seemed to be able to easily judge Tang Zhen’s position. Seeing that he was about to attack again, he wanted to use the same trick and send Tang Zhen flying with air waves again. ”

“In the blink of an eye, Tang Zhen’s purple lightning short sword had pierced over. It was less than two meters away from the 17th Prince. Perhaps in the next second, the 17th Prince’s blood would splatter on the spot! ”

“However, at this moment, Tang Zhen, who intended to assassinate the seventeenth Prince, suddenly raised his hand and pointed at master marony. ”

“Maronis, who was about to cast a spell, suddenly felt that he was in trouble. He desperately retracted the spell he was about to release and moved his feet to Dodge, but it was too late. ”

A piercing light flashed from Tang Zhen’s fingers. It seemed to have passed through space and landed on marony’s head.

“The cooldown period of the [miniature death light weapon] was up and Tang Zhen activated it again, catching Marony off guard! ”

Pfft! Pfft!

“Marloni’s head, which was filled with horror, disappeared in an instant, leaving only a hunched body standing in place. ”

“Tang Zhen waved his hand and put away Marloni’s body. He laughed and ignited a giant cluster bomb. At the same time, he activated the [map teleportation plug-in] and his figure directly appeared on the Holy Dragon city’s city wall! ”

“He turned around and looked at the kobold camp. A huge fireball soared into the sky. In the dazzling light, countless Kobold limbs and gravel fell. After a while, the light dissipated, leaving only the sparks of fire and the faint wails of the kobolds. ”

“Tang Zhen looked at it for a while, then walked to a stove that had been changed from an oil barrel with a lid and released Marloni’s body. ”

“After discovering that Marony was a level four Holy master, Tang Zhen changed the target of his assassination at the last minute. He went for the seventeenth Prince on the surface, but in fact, he put Marony on his must-kill list. ”

“He was just the commander of the kobolds. Whether he was killed or not, it did not matter much to Tang Zhen. In the face of the Holy Dragon city’s giant city walls, the role of a commander was dispensable. ”

“However, Tang Zhen did not dare to let his guard down against a level four Holy master. Who knew what strange means these people had. Therefore, he had to kill them as soon as possible to get rid of any future trouble! ”

“By creating a diversion and relying on the abnormal power of the deathlight weapon, Tang Zhen had indeed easily gotten rid of Marony, removing this big worry in his heart. ”

“Marloni, a Holy master with a high reputation among the kobolds, would never have expected that he would die so carelessly. ”

Tang Zhen slowly squatted down and began to examine Marony’s body.

“He had always been curious about the Holy Masters, and now he hoped to get a better understanding of the so-called cultivators among cultivators through Marony’s belongings! ”

“After rummaging inside and out, Tang Zhen threw the naked body directly outside the city wall. After a long time, a ‘bang’ sound was heard. ”

All of Marony’s personal belongings were here. Tang Zhen began to check them one by one.

“The first item was an identity card, which should be Marony’s proof of identity in the dog-headed people’s loucheng. He wondered how many points he had left in it. ”

“Seeing this identity card, Tang Zhen could not help but recall a matter that he had discovered by chance a few days ago.”

“After killing the invading dog-headed man army, some of the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers treated the dog-headed man’s identity cards as spoils of war. They picked them up and handed them to Tang Zhen.”

“Tang Zhen, who originally thought that these things were useless, tried to read the points in them. However, he was informed by the cornerstone trading platform that the dog-headed people were a hostile force to the human race by default. Therefore, he could withdraw the points from them for himself, but he would have to collect 10% of the fees!”

“Tang Zhen had never known that the cornerstone trading platform had such a rule. He immediately withdrew all his points and tried to withdraw the points of the Holy Dragon City residents at the same time. In the end, he was told that he could not do it!”

“Tang Zhen, who had finished exchanging his points, fell into deep thought. Could it be that the cornerstone trading platform was encouraging the various races to fight against each other and snatch resources and points?”

Tang Zhen retracted his thoughts and started to look at the other items.

“A leather bag filled with messy little bottles, dozens of Level 3 and Level 4 brain beads, a sharp demon weapon dagger, and a bracelet decorated with colorful metal with a level 4 brain bead embedded in it!”

Tang Zhen’s line of sight fell on the bracelet. He carefully sized up the Level 4 brain that was obviously larger in size and could vaguely guess its function.

“Other than these things, Tang Zhen also found a thick diary on marony’s corpse. It was bound with monster skin made of an unknown material. It was soft, smooth, and extremely comfortable to the touch.”

“Gently opening the diary, what entered his eyes were curved words. The color was blood-red and messy. There were even special symbols used in some places. If it wasn’t for [mysterious word cracker], Tang Zhen really wouldn’t be able to understand.”

“However, with the aid of the application, he no longer felt any pressure when reading. Tang Zhen began to read word by word.”

“This diary recorded what marony had experienced since he was a teenager. He was born in a small Kobold tribe and had a good talent for cultivation. After he was discovered by the cultivators from the Kobold loucheng, he had been keeping him by his side.”

“After Maronis became a Holy master, he began to wander alone!”

“Compared to the situation where monsters ran amok in the human living area, the dog-headed people were much safer. This was because their buildings were all centered around the royal city and gradually spread out. Therefore, this area was the dog-headed People’s World. The monsters were effectively suppressed and rarely caused too much harm.”

“Marony had lived in the Kobold capital city and other Kobold towers of various sizes for decades. His cultivation had gradually advanced to level four, and he had later become a guest of honor of the seventeenth Kobold Prince. ”

“Tang Zhen had a preliminary understanding of the dog-headed people race through the contents of the diary. He never expected that in a certain area in the distance, there would actually be a foreign race force that was like a Kingdom. They had many buildings and countless dog-headed people residents! ”

“Originally, he didn’t take the dog-headed people to heart. However, he didn’t expect that there would be such a powerful force behind them. This caused Tang Zhen to be a little surprised. ”

Chapter 165: Doomsday of the Kobold Army

Tang Zhen saw Maroni’s understanding and application of divine arts in his notebook!

“After becoming a Holy master, Maronis had to save up points for five years before he could exchange for his first divine spell from the cornerstone trading platform. He had spent 10000 points!”

“This was a divine spell that could control a dagger and instantly cast it. It could control a dagger to fly and kill enemies within a range of five meters, which was why it always carried a dagger with it.”

“With this Divine Art, Maronis gradually became famous and accumulated more and more points!”

“Later on, it exchanged for a few more divine arts, including the shock wave that was used to stop Tang Zhen’s assassination. If time allowed, it would have released divine arts one after another.”

It was a pity that the might Tang Zhen had used was too overbearing. He had killed him with a single strike!

“Looking at Maroni’s understanding and application of the divine arts, Tang Zhen felt that these divine arts were a weakened version of mobile phone applications. For example, the ability to control daggers that Maroni exchanged could be downloaded in the application store.”

“[super item manipulation magnetic field (basic). Able to control all metal objects. Can be upgraded. The higher the level, the greater the range and power of control. Download cost: 10000 gold coins.]”

There were also several other divine spells that Maronis had mastered. There were similar applications downloaded in the application store!

The connection between them was intriguing.

“Tang Zhen watched all the way until dawn. Only then did he put away marony’s notebook. Under the light of the morning sun, he sized up the dog-headed people’s camp.”

The neat and orderly dog-headed people’s camp the day before could only be described as a scene of devastation at this moment.

“There were ashes left behind by the fire everywhere. The smoke had not dispersed, and corpses were strewn all over the place. The Kobold corpses that had died in the attack last night were being cleared out one by one and piled up on the gravel plain outside the camp.”

“Corpses piled up like mountains, and blood flowed like rivers!”

Tang Zhen estimated that the night attack last night had killed at least four thousand kobolds and burned countless tents and rations. The Kobold Army was about to face the crisis of running out of food and water.

“They had to either think of a countermeasure and fight to the death, or withdraw their troops. Other than that, they had no other choice!”

“Tang Zhen couldn’t help but laugh out loud when he saw the dog-headed Prince fly into a rage. He took out a heavy sniper rifle from his storage space, locked onto the 17th Prince, and gently pulled the trigger.”

Bang!

The bullet pierced through the morning mist and hit the 17th Prince’s body.

“The scene of the 17th Prince’s body being torn to pieces did not appear. A green protective shield appeared on the surface of the 17th Prince’s body, blocking the attack of the bullet. However, the attack frightened him so much that he quickly hid behind cover under the cover of his guards.”

“Tang Zhen was very clear about the defensive power of the protective shield. He also knew that he would not be able to kill the 17th Prince, who had already taken precautions after the assassination. This shot of his would only be a hindrance to the 17th Prince!”

“Tang Zhen, who was in a good mood, was planning to go back and have a meal. However, when he noticed the dust rising in the distance, he couldn’t help but frown. This was clearly a large-scale Army. Could it be that the Kobold Army had increased in number?”

“Quickly switching to the map view, Tang Zhen looked at the scene that appeared in front of him. An expression of not knowing whether to laugh or cry appeared on his face. At the same time, he repeatedly shook his head and said, the commotion last night was too big. It attracted a bunch of people. This time, the houndhead men are in big trouble!”

“The Kobold sentries who had been released also noticed the group of people who had suddenly appeared. When they saw what it was, their expressions changed greatly. Without hesitation, they drove their huge dogs back to the camp to report the situation!”

“However, before the Kobold Sentry could run a few steps, it was pressed down by a huge rotten claw. The huge force directly squashed the Kobold Sentry. Then, the corpse was swallowed by a huge head that revealed its cheekbone.”

The giant rotting beast that had swallowed the Kobold Sentinels roared at the sky and continued to run towards Holy Dragon City. Behind it were all kinds of corpse monsters that covered the sky and the earth as they slowly walked over!

“It was stinky and ferocious, as if all the evil ghosts from hell had come out!”

Close to a hundred corpse monster Centurions were scattered among these corpse monsters. They obviously had simple intelligence and could command the scattered corpse monsters. It was as if their roars had some kind of magic that could make the brutal and bloodthirsty corpse monsters advance according to their orders.

“The ones pushing and shoving at the forefront were mostly infected Wanderers who had turned into zombies, as well as all kinds of infected monsters. They were like cannon fodder, and it would not be a pity no matter how many of them were consumed.”

“Following around these corpse monsters were all kinds of creatures from the corpse race world. Each of them had a strange shape, some were tall and fierce, some were petite and strange. Compared to the infected monsters, they were undoubtedly much more agile.”

“Further back was The Spiritual Brain corpse King’s world conquering Army. Sword Shield ghost soldiers, corpse monster archers, spearmen, and heavy-Armored Cavalry formed into square formations and advanced at a steady pace.”

What surprised Tang Zhen was that the spirit brain corpse King didn’t appear in this Army of the undead race. It was unknown where it was hiding and brewing its scheme.

The Army of undead monsters was huge and attracted the attention of the houndhead men from far away. They quickly formed a defensive formation and looked in the direction of the undead army with a serious expression.

“The 17th Prince looked at the approaching army of corpse monsters, and his face became gloomier. First, the camp was attacked in the middle of the night, and now the Army of the corpse race blocked the way back. Was he destined to return in defeat after leading his troops to battle?”

“The 17th Prince wanted to retreat, but he found that he had no way out because he was surrounded by enemies. Where could he retreat to?”

“A touch of sorrow flashed through its heart. It was afraid that it would die Here today, and its bones would be buried under Holy Dragon City!”

“Fine, I’ll fight to the end and use my death to make the Kobold royal family famous!”

“After the 17th Prince thought of this, he slowly drew his saber and walked to the front of the line with a solemn expression!”

“On the city walls of the Holy Dragon City, Tang Zhen looked at the two armies that were about to clash. However, there was not much joy on his face. From the current situation, the kobolds would definitely lose.”

“Before the wolves were driven away, the Hungry Tiger had come again!”

“From Zhen Tang’s point of view, a dead dog-headed man was not as good as a living dog-headed man. After a living dog-headed man was killed by him, it meant that he was completely dead. However, the dog-headed man killed by the corpse clan would become a corpse monster, an accomplice to the Tiger’s evil deeds.”

“Unfortunately, he couldn’t control this kind of thing, and he had no choice!”

“The day he was worried about had finally arrived. The corpse race had already arrived at Holy Dragon City. They would not let any living creature off. From the start, both sides were destined to have no possibility of reconciliation.”

“Below the city wall, the undead army and the Kobold Army finally collided. The White gravel plain was completely covered, and deafening battle cries resounded through the clouds!”

“The dog-headed people were extremely brave in battle. They waved their short Spears and machetes, and used their hands and feet to fight against the zombies and zombified monsters. Their weapons were constantly attacking the vital points of their enemies.”

“They were excellent Warriors, but unfortunately, the enemy they were facing was a monster that could not feel pain and only knew how to kill!”

“Ordinary attacks were useless against the corpse monsters. Even though they were covered in bloody holes and had broken limbs, they still stubbornly crawled towards their enemies, trying to tear them apart and devour them.”

“After the two huge waves collided, the dog-headed people’s side was quickly devoured. The corpse race’s army commander drove straight in and gradually spread out. Unknowingly, he separated the dog-headed People’s Army and gradually surrounded them, devouring them.”

“Over 10,000 kobolds fought to the death, but they couldn’t escape defeat!”

“The dog-headed people who had died in battle stood up from their pools of blood. They dragged their broken limbs and joined the Army of corpse monsters, starting to attack their own kind.”

“The battle lasted for nearly an hour. When the last surviving Kobold leaned against the Holy Dragon city’s wall and waved their weapons to block more and more zombie monsters, it meant that the Kobold Army had completely lost!”

“This was the terrifying aspect of the corpse clan. Once they formed a large scale, they would be unstoppable like an avalanche!”

Chapter 166: Upgrade to Class 5 and the purchase of! fire truck

“When the last Kobold fell, the Holy Dragon City had already become a sea of undead! ”

“Looking down from the top of the city wall, the sight was filled with disgusting corpse monsters. They occupied almost every inch of the land under the city wall, rubbing shoulders and constantly roaring! ”

“Some of the corpse monsters that were good at climbing got close to the city wall. Their sharp claws latched onto the stone wall in an attempt to climb up the city wall. However, they were all hit by the Holy Dragon City Warriors who were already prepared and had their heads blown off. ”

“Throwing javelin grenades as if they were free, even if the zombie monster’s eyes were closed, they could still land on it. ”

“Tang Zhen was operating an anti-aircraft machine gun, searching for the corpse monster Centurion below. Once he locked onto a target, he would pull the trigger and directly smash the corpse monster Centurion into pieces! ”

“A level 4 corpse monster Centurion was just enough to provide him with the experience points to level up, helping him to advance to Level 5! ”

“As the saying goes, ‘good fortune and bad luck go hand in hand’. This undead army was a huge crisis for the Holy Dragon City, but from another perspective, it was also a huge opportunity! ”

“If he could destroy all of these corpse monsters, he would definitely obtain a huge amount of brains, which would be more than enough to upgrade Holy Dragon City to a level 2 building! ”

“The sound of the anti-aircraft machine gun did not stop. When the corpse monster Centurions hiding among the corpse monsters faced the large-caliber bullets, they simply had no ability to resist. They could only howl as they were killed one by one by Tang Zhen. ”

“After Tang Zhen had killed an unknown number of corpse monster Centurions, he suddenly felt an incomparably abundant energy surge through his entire body. His bones and muscles sounded in unison, causing him to involuntarily let out a long howl towards the sky! ”

“Advancing to rank 5 and having the strength of five people, the feeling was so wonderful! ”

“After becoming a level 5 cultivator, killing monsters below level 5 would not give any experience. Tang Zhen then handed the red Barrel of the anti-aircraft machine gun to the soldier beside him. He waved his fist and wished that he could immediately fight a great battle with the corpse monster! ”

He turned his head to check on the soldiers who participated in the defense of the city. Tang Zhen discovered that they all appeared very tired. This kind of mechanical repeated attack could easily exhaust the strength of a strong soldier.

“Corpse monsters were different from living creatures. If one couldn’t blow up their head or completely destroy their body, then the corpse monsters wouldn’t be considered exterminated. It was also because of this that the ammunition consumption was extremely high, but the number of zombie monsters killed was very small. ”

“Tang Zhen estimated that the number of zombie monsters that were killed was only a few thousand. However, 60% of his ammunition had been consumed! ”

“Tang Zhen’s heart was slightly shocked. He secretly thought that he could not continue like this. Otherwise, he would run out of ammunition. Without any weapons to protect himself, the Holy Dragon City would really be in danger of being destroyed. ”

“Tang Zhen called Tai Seng over and told him that he only needed to be wary of the monsters that were climbing the walls. As for the corpse monsters on the ground, he didn’t need to worry about them for the time being. Tang Zhen planned to use other methods to deal with them! ”

“On the giant city wall, Tang Zhen glanced at the densely packed zombie monsters. Under the watchful eyes of the soldiers, he activated the teleportation function! ”

“In the pickle nation of his original world, Tang Zhen walked out of a secluded path. He ran the [universal electronic kit] as he walked, quickly searching the internet in an attempt to get two fire engines. ”

“Soon, he found the result he wanted. A company was selling two fire engines. After looking at the location of the company, Tang Zhen found that it was not far from him, so he decided to go directly. ”

“The best way to deal with these zombie monsters was to use fire. However, there were too many zombie monsters and special tools were needed to spray fuel. Tang Zhen thought for a while and found that only the fire truck was the most suitable! ”

“Tang Zhen hailed a taxi on the road and told the driver the address. After which, he sat in the back seat and closed his eyes to rest. ”

The taxi drove for more than twenty minutes before Tang Zhen got off the car and paid. He glanced at the factory’s Gate and walked in.

“After telling the guard that he was here to buy a fire truck, the guard picked up the phone and said a few words before letting Tang Zhen follow him in. ”

“The area of this factory was not small. Tang Zhen followed the security guard for a while before he saw the person in charge of this factory, a middle-aged man with a short figure. ”

“After the two of them exchanged a few words, the middle-aged man led Tang Zhen to a row of garages and opened the garage door to invite him in. ”

Two water tank fire trucks that were 60 – 70% new were parked in the garage. They looked like they were well maintained. Tang Zhen inspected them a little and confirmed that they could be used normally. He then decided to buy them.

“Tang Zhen walked out of the garage and was planning to discuss the price with the middle-aged man. However, he did not expect that a young man’s flustered and exasperated voice would suddenly be transmitted from behind,”“Bastard, you actually dare to come here!”” ”

“At the same time, a hand was placed on his shoulder, and he was even moved forcefully. ”

“Tang Zhen was slightly startled. He thought in his heart, which fellow is this? after which, he turned his head and took a look. He didn’t expect to know this man. He was the young man who had his sunglasses stolen when he intercepted the fuel tank Truck last time. ”

“Pushing away the young man’s hand, Tang Zhen coldly snorted,”“You’d better stay away from me. Don’t look for trouble. If you delay my official business, I’ll deal with you!”” ”

“The young man staggered and almost fell to the ground. He had been defeated by Tang Zhen twice in a row, which made him feel very embarrassed. He rolled up his sleeves and rushed forward to compete with Tang Zhen. ”

“The middle-aged man quickly hugged him and shouted to the young man, “” Yu Xi, what are you doing? if you cause any more trouble, I’m going to call the chairman! ”

“The young man called Yu Xi struggled a few times, but was unable to break free from the middle-aged man’s embrace. He pointed at Tang Zhen and roared, “What is this guy doing? why is he here?” ”

“he wants to buy a fire truck, ” the middle-aged man quickly replied. the two trucks that were returned. ”

“Upon hearing this, Yu Xi didn’t even think. He roared at Tang Zhen, “ get lost, I won’t sell this car to you. Leave right now! ”

The middle-aged man smiled bitterly. The Chairman’s son had never done anything serious except causing trouble. No wonder his father sent him here. He thought that it would be more peaceful. Who knew that he would quarrel with the client after just a few days.

The middle-aged man didn’t want to know the reason for the enmity between the two. He only knew that this young master was too willful!

“Tang Zhen looked at Yu Xi, who was baring his fangs and brandishing his claws, and shook his head slightly. He had no interest in dealing with this kind of guy. He had originally planned to pay for the goods honestly, but after this guy’s trouble, it would be strange if Tang Zhen was willing to pay! ”

“After a while, I’ll get rid of these two cars and fill in the traffic. Do they really think I don’t have a temper? ”

“After thinking up to this point, Tang Zhen turned around and left. He didn’t care about the middle-aged man’s urging to stay and Yu Xi’s mocking. He quickly walked out of the factory and turned into a nearby alley. ”

“Ten minutes later, Tang Zhen, who had activated the [quantum invisibility screen], returned to the garage and sent the two fire trucks back to the Holy Dragon city’s city wall. Only then did he begin preparing the next item of materials with satisfaction. ”

Chapter 167: Burning corpses and the camouflage net (1)

“If he were to use fuel oil alone, the killing effect on the zombie monsters would be too low. Therefore, Tang Zhen also planned to add some ‘seasoning’ to ensure that the fire would burn for a longer time and it would be more difficult to extinguish it.”

“Tang Zhen had used this method to deal with corpse monsters before. Therefore, he had some experience. After walking around the market once, he had gathered most of the required materials. He placed them in a hidden corner and sent them back to the Holy Dragon City while no one was paying attention.”

The last thing he needed to prepare was a large amount of fuel!

“There were many gas stations in the vicinity of this city, but the amount of gas storage was unable to meet Tang Zhen’s needs. After screening through the possible locations for gas storage, he finally locked his target on a large airport in this city!”

“The [all-purpose electronic kit] obtained the relevant information. Through the satellite map and building drawings, it could be seen that there was a large oil depot built on the airport, and the tall oil tank was shining in the sun.”

He got into the car and went straight to his target. It didn't take long for him to arrive near the airport. A passenger plane was taking off from the airport and slowly rising into the sky.

“After activating the [quantum stealth light curtain], Tang Zhen easily entered the airport and effortlessly found the huge storage tank. He raised his head and sized it up a few times before he began to think about how to move the fuel away.”

“The size of the oil tank was too large, and it was impossible to store it directly into the space. However, the fuel in bulk could not be transported, which gave Tang Zhen a headache.”

“Could it be that he had to bring the fire truck's tank over, fill it up, and then bring it back?”

“Tang Zhen, who did not have a suitable container in his hands, could only use this method in the end. However, the problem came again. How could he block the huge water tank of the fire truck and prevent others from seeing him stealing oil here?”

“Fortunately, there was plenty of black technology in the application store, so solving this problem was a piece of cake!”

“[holographic camouflage screen. After operation, it can perfectly disguise fixed objects 100 meters x 100 meters x 100 meters, blocking a variety of detection methods. Download cost: 2000 gold coins.]”

“The price was not high, but Tang Zhen was short of money. If he had not obtained some brain beads from Maronis, he would not be able to afford it!”

“After exchanging the brain Pearl for gold coins, Tang Zhen chose to download and install it. After the installation was completed, Tang Zhen launched the application.”

“According to the instructions, Tang Zhen chose the oil tank above his head as the camouflage target.”

“Only the user, Tang Zhen, could see that countless rays of light were connected together to form an inverted semi-circular light shield that covered all the oil tanks.”

“From now on, as long as Tang Zhen didn't turn off the application, no matter what he did in the net, even if he dismantled the oil tank, the outside world wouldn't notice anything unusual. They would only see the oil tank that was still standing!”

“Moreover, this camouflage net also had the function of blocking the sound inside, so there was no fear of the people outside finding out anything unusual after making any sound.”

“After solving the problem of disguise, Tang Zhen brought the two fire trucks in turn. After they were filled with fuel, they were sent back.”

“Then, he got a lot of containers, filled them all, and sent them back to the back of the Holy Dragon City. Only then did he turn off the [holographic camouflage screen] and return to the top of the wall in the other world.”

“The battle to defend the city continued, but the intensity had decreased a lot. As they only needed to defend against the monsters that could climb the wall, the soldiers could now take a break.”

“Although the 50-meter-tall city wall looked very high, it was necessary to distinguish the targets. Against the perverted zombies, the city wall of this height might not be safe. Up until now, more than ten Holy Dragon City soldiers had been hit by the flying rocks. One soldier even had his ribs broken!”

“These rocks were thrown up by a kind of undead monster that looked like a monkey. There were about a thousand of them, hiding behind the undead monsters as cover. The rocks were almost overwhelming. Fortunately, the city wall was high enough, and most of the rocks hit the unlucky undead monsters.”

“The corpse race and the corpse monsters were on two completely different levels. Facing the corpse monsters whose skulls had been smashed by the rocks, the corpse race remained indifferent!”

“Dodging a few rocks that were flying toward him, Tyson roared and fired at the zombie monsters with his machine gun. After The Mummy monkeys that were throwing rocks were beaten up, he laughed a few times and took a sip of water from a bottle.”

“Other than the stone-throwing undead monkeys, the undead archers were also shooting arrows non-stop. A height of 50 meters was already the limit of a normal arrow, but it was still within the killing range.”

“If it was not for the high walls and the fact that they did not dare to get close to the bottom of the walls, the dense rain of arrows would have definitely caused a lot of casualties to the Holy Dragon City soldiers on the walls!”

“It seemed that before these cheap zombie cannon fodders were used up, the undead army didn’t intend to personally go into battle. At most, they would provide support and carry out harassment attacks.”

The seemingly wooden corpse race also had their cunning!

“Tang Zhen had never underestimated these guys. After carefully examining the various monsters of the undead race, he then commanded the residents on the city wall to add special ‘seasoning’ to the fuel!”

“After working for a while, the fuel in the two fire truck tanks had been processed. After the fire truck started, Tang Zhen pulled a water dragon belt and aimed it at the zombie below.”

“As the high-pressure water pump was running, a dark red turbid liquid splashed out. As Zhen Tang’s arm moved, it was all sprayed on the heads of the corpse monsters.”

The fuel that Tang Zhen had mixed was very sticky and it was very difficult to get rid of it after it stuck to the corpse monster’s body. It looked greasy and the smell was also very pungent!

“After the can of fuel was completely sprayed out, Tang Zhen took out a cloth soaked in fuel, lit it and threw it down.”

“The fireball floated down leisurely under everyone’s gaze and finally hit the head of a corpse monster that was drenched in fuel. There was only a “” BOOM! The area below the huge city wall immediately turned into a sea of fire. The waves of fire soared into the sky, bringing with them thick smoke!”

“The burning undead kept howling and struggling in the sea of fire. The fat in their bodies was ignited and turned into countless moving torches. Looking from above, the ground was full of these burning fireballs!”

“The stench of burning flesh mixed together, making people want to vomit. In this fiery hell, the number of standing corpse monsters decreased, but the charred remains on the ground increased!”

The corpse clansmen who were hiding in the back saw that the situation wasn't good and had already dodged far away. Only the corpse clansmen with simple intelligence had already been frightened by the monstrous flames!

“The fire burned for a long time before it slowly extinguished. However, the bottom of the city wall had already become charred black. There were layers of corpse monster corpses everywhere, already stuck together, and green smoke floated in spirals.”

“The number of zombie monsters was already quite large. In addition, the kobolds that turned into zombie monsters after dying in battle caused the number to be even more shocking. Tang Zhen's fire only burned a small portion of them.”

“Although it was only a small portion, it still meant that at least several thousand brains had fallen below the city wall!”

“However, Tang Zhen was not anxious. He had a calm and steady appearance.”

“As long as you dare to come close, I will set fire to you. Anyway, the brains are not afraid of being burned, and they can't run away even if they are placed under the city wall. It's not too late to go down and clean them up after the undead army is driven away!”

“As he watched the brainless zombie monsters approach the city wall again, Tang Zhen signaled the soldiers to start the other Water Tank Fire Truck and prepare to light another fire truck that soared into the sky!”

“Chapter 168: harvest, unstoppable”

“The flames soared into the sky several times, the air near the city wall was extremely dirty, and the ground was piled with a layer of black ash. When he picked it up and rubbed it with his fingers, it felt greasy.”

“This terrifying method finally intimidated the undead, making them not dare to approach the area within five hundred meters of the city wall. They could only surround the city from a distance, trying to cut off the Holy Dragon city's access and trap the Holy Dragon City to death.”

“When they were dealing with Black Rock City, they had used the same method, and the results were obvious!”

“Now, they were using the same old trick to deal with the Holy Dragon City, but they were destined to go for wool and come home shorn. Tang Zhen was still hoping that these people would stay in their original places obediently and help him farm monsters and accumulate brain matter!”

“After filling the two fire truck tanks with fuel, Tang Zhen stopped moving, leaving only one empty tank. If it wasn’t for the lack of containers, Tang Zhen would have emptied all these tanks and carefully stored them.”

“With weapons like tanks and fire trucks, the Holy Dragon City would not have to worry about zombie attacks for a short period of time!”

“Glancing at the growling corpse monsters, Tang Zhen ordered people to prepare a large number of ropes. He called over a dozen Holy Dragon City cultivators and let them fall down from the city wall.”

“Some corpse monsters tried to rush forward, but they were torn into pieces by the bullets before they could run a few steps. After killing nearly a hundred of them, the corpse monsters controlled by the corpse clan became obedient. Other than moving around anxiously, they did not take another step forward!”

“Tang Zhen simply ignored these low level corpse monsters. With his current rank 5 cultivation, he could completely kill his way in and out of the group of corpse monsters. He did not even need to rely on his strength.”

“When one’s cultivation reached a certain level, one’s strength would undergo a qualitative change. Currently, Tang Zhen could already feel a trace of it. It was as if the strength in his body was undergoing a subtle change. It was just that it was not obvious.”

“Tang Zhen needed to sacrifice the brain beads. Therefore, he went through the trouble to come down and collect them. Otherwise, he would only need to come down alone and order his phone to directly absorb them. It was simple and saved time.”

“Unfortunately, the application store only had the option of exchanging brain beads for gold coins, but not the function of extracting brain beads.”

“Enduring the strange burnt smell, everyone began to search for the brains among the charred remains. With the keen senses of cultivators, they could easily find the brains among the remains.”

“Compared to the other cultivators who had their backs bent and heads lowered, Tang Zhen was much more relaxed. He discovered that his perception ability was getting stronger and stronger. He could easily sense any brain Pearl within a ten meter radius.”

“Tang Zhen controlled his storage space and quickly collected the buried brains. His work efficiency was equivalent to the sum of everyone else’s. Every time he walked through a designated area, a pile of brains would appear in his storage space.”

“The brain beads collected were of different levels, with most of them being level two. It was clear that after a period of evolution, these corpse monsters, which were mostly Wanderers, had all leveled up once!”

“Seeing that Tang Zhen was leisurely picking out the brains and was getting closer and closer to his position, a corpse race Centurion who was in charge of controlling the corpse monsters roared and pounced towards Tang Zhen. ”

“When the corpse race’s Centurion was less than five meters away from Tang Zhen, it had already raised its huge bronze battle blade in an attempt to split Tang Zhen in half! ”

“Tang Zhen, who was removing the brain, didn’t even raise his head. Instead, he turned his body to the side and kicked the stone on the ground. A piercing sound suddenly rang out, followed by a blood-curdling scream from the corpse race Centurion. Half of his neck had been smashed by the stone. ”

“The corpse race’s Centurion was dressed in heavy armor. This was a part of his body that was rarely exposed, but when he faced Tang Zhen, it became a fatal weakness! ”

“The corpse race’s Centurion, who had half of his neck broken, was extremely tenacious. He still staggered and pounced forward, trying to kill Tang Zhen. However, he was sent flying by Tang Zhen’s kick and fell heavily on the ground, unable to get up again. ”

“Compared to the corpse monsters that were purely transformed from infection, these corpse race members were actually a bit weaker. Tang Zhen did not use much strength and killed this level four corpse race Centurion! ”

“Seeing that Tang Zhen had killed a level 4 monster so easily, the soldiers on the city wall began to cheer in unison. This sound also stimulated the undead race. They immediately roared and drove the undead monsters to pounce on the crowd. ”

“””You guys go back, I’ll Cover You!”” ”

“Tang Zhen took out his large alloy sword. After he easily brandished it, he spoke to the people behind him in a deep voice. ”

“The Black Mass of corpse monsters rushed over. Tang Zhen roared and rushed forward. The alloy sword in his hand was waved by him, creating countless afterimages. It was like a red iron rod that fell into the snow. The ice and snow immediately melted wherever it passed. ”

“Flesh and blood flew in the air, and blood splattered everywhere. It was unknown how many zombies were chopped into pieces by the alloy sword, but anyone who was within a three-meter radius of Tang Zhen was not able to escape the fate of being beheaded! ”

The power of a Grade 5 cultivator was this terrifying!

“Tang Zhen was in the midst of killing when he suddenly felt countless rocks falling from the sky. He turned his head to take a look, only to discover that there was a group of mummified monkeys squatting on the ground. They were emitting mournful roars as they continuously threw rocks at him. ”

There were too many rocks and they continuously fell around him. Tang Zhen was extremely annoyed and anger rose in his heart. He took out a grenade and threw it towards the group of mummified monkeys.

“The grenade exploded, scaring the group of mummified monkeys into jumping all over the place. However, they still persevered in throwing rocks at Tang Zhen! ”

“He took out his machine gun and fired. After driving these mummified monkeys far away, Tang Zhen laughed at himself. He thought to himself, “why am I angry with a group of mummified monkeys?””

“After slashing another level-four zombie with the body of a giant crocodile and the head of a giant python, Tang Zhen took out the brain Pearl and began to retreat in the direction of the city wall. The zombie monsters stopped chasing after them when they reached the border of the burning area. They only roared at Tang Zhen continuously!”

“Tang Zhen let out a sigh of relief. He had just fought and exhausted a lot of his strength, but his battle results were outstanding. The corpses of the corpse monsters on the ground were powerful proof.”

Tang Zhen sat on the body of a level four corpse monster. He rested for a while before getting up to collect the brain beads again.

“After being busy for half a day and cleaning up the battlefield, Tang Zhen followed the rope and returned to the city wall. He began to count the gains this time.”

A large pile of brains was scattered on the ground. Tang Zhen led Qian Long and Tai Seng as they squatted on the ground and divided the brains into small piles according to their ranks. It didn't take long for them to finish counting.

“This time, he had obtained more than 5000 Level 1 brains, more than 14000 Level 2 brains, less than 1000 Level 3 brains, and only a few dozen Level 4 brains!”

“No matter what, he had gained a lot this time. At the very least, he had gathered enough brain beads to upgrade the building. One must know that in order to gather enough brain pearls to upgrade the tower, Tang Zhen had racked his brains and had even shamelessly extorted Black Rock City.”

“Now that he had enough brain beads, it was time to prepare for the upgrade of the building.”

“Due to the lack of brain pearls, Tang Zhen originally planned to wait until the flashing gold race's sanctuary was completely cleared before considering the problem of upgrading the tower. However, it seemed that there was no need for this now!”

Chapter 169: temporary reinforcement

“Tang Zhen decided to upgrade the Holy Dragon City to Level 2. He had waited for this day for a long time, and in his heart, he was already somewhat impatient!”

“But before that, he still had some things to prepare.”

“The first was the defense of the city Tower. Compared to the monster attacks when the city Tower was built at Level 1, the attack would be 50% stronger when it was upgraded to Level 2. However, for the Holy Dragon City, which was currently surrounded by a large number of troops, that number of monsters was not even a fraction of the total number!”

“However, due to the undead army surrounding the city, when the undead monsters were leveling up in the Holy Dragon City, they would definitely launch a crazy attack on the Holy Dragon City due to the influence of the law. The strength of the attack would far exceed that of an ordinary monster attack. Therefore, Tang Zhen had to be prepared!”

“Secondly, the Holy Dragon city’s Food Warehouse was almost empty, and Tang Zhen had to replenish it.”

“Currently, the Holy Dragon City was still unable to be self-sufficient. The residents’ main food had been purchased and supplemented by Tang Zhen. The last time he asked Peter to transport the food, it was only enough to support the Holy Dragon city’s consumption for a month.”

“Now that Peter and Ivanov had disappeared together, and he was in kimchi country, Tang Zhen could only personally complete the purchase!”

“After giving some instructions to Tyson, Tang Zhen started the teleportation and appeared under the fuel tank of the airport in kimchi country.”

“Tang Zhen, who had activated the [quantum invisibility light curtain], observed the surroundings. It seemed that the matter of the missing fuel had not been discovered by anyone. The area around the fuel tank was still quiet, with only the occasional ground crew and vehicles passing by.”

“After leaving the airport, Tang Zhen went to the market to buy a batch of food.”

“After walking around the market and gathering enough food, Tang Zhen was planning to return to the airport. However, he accidentally discovered a familiar-looking person in a restaurant by the roadside.”

“After some thought, Tang Zhen remembered the identity of this person. It was the guy who caused him to be pestered by the kimchi police.”

Tang Zhen walked into the restaurant and sat opposite the person. He looked at the guy without saying a word.

“The young man, who was burying his head in his food, noticed that someone was sitting opposite him. He looked up, but unfortunately, he did not recognize Tang Zhen. After glancing at Tang Zhen, he continued to bury his head in his food.”

“Tang Zhen smiled. He suddenly extended his hand, grabbed the young man’s head, and directly pressed it into the bowl of noodles in front of him. No matter how that fellow struggled, he refused to let go.”

“The struggling young man immediately attracted the attention of the surrounding diners. Some of them tried to come up and rescue him, but were frightened by Tang Zhen’s eyes that were filled with killing intent. They could not help but step back resentfully and point at Tang Zhen from a distance.”

“Seeing that there were more and more onlookers, Tang Zhen decided to change the place to do his business.”

Tang Zhen dragged the young man whose face was covered in soup. He didn’t care about this guy’s protests and struggles. He directly dragged him to a nearby alley and then threw him on the ground.

“””Bastard, Who are you? do you want to die?””” ”

“The young man, who had fallen to the ground, rubbed his buttocks and spat out a mouthful of saliva that contained blood as he furiously cursed at Tang Zhen. ”

“Tang Zhen coldly laughed when he heard this. He stepped forward and kicked the young man a few more times. Only then did he shake his head and slowly said,“”Your memory is too bad. If you are unlucky one day and get killed by the people you have tricked before, I’m afraid you won’t be able to recognize who did it, right?“” ”

“After the young man was kicked a few times, he felt unbearable pain. He was afraid that he would be beaten up again, so he became more well-behaved and said to Tang Zhen, if you have something to say, say it. Don’t beat around the bush. You said that I’ve tricked you in the past? “” ”

“””What do you think?“” ”

Tang Zhen retorted.

“””I really can’t remember. Why don’t you give me a reminder?“” ”

“This young man was also a cheeky person. When he saw Tang Zhen’s attitude ease up a little, he immediately crawled up from the ground with a flattering face. ”

“””Alright, stop pretending. Tell me, why did the kimchi police chase after you at the dock last time?“” ”

Tang Zhen looked at the young man and asked with an expressionless face.

“Upon hearing Tang Zhen’s question, the young man immediately recalled Tang Zhen’s identity. After curling his lips, he vaguely replied,“”It’s nothing. It’s just a small matter,“” ”

“Tang Zhen slapped the young man’s head and scolded,“”Do you f * cking think I’m an idiot? tell me the truth, or I’ll kill you!“” ”

“The young man didn’t take it to heart. He was about to rebut when he felt a chill on his forehead. When he looked at it, he saw a gun pointed at his forehead. ”

The young man’s legs trembled in fear and he almost knelt on the ground.

“””Big brother Pi Xiu, we’re all from the Asian Alliance. Let’s talk this out!“” ”

“The young man trembled and didn’t dare to move. He only took a glance and confirmed that the iron in Tang Zhen’s hand was real iron. At this moment, his heart was in his throat. ”

“Tang Zhen saw that he was quite frightened and kept his weapon. He said to the young man,“”Tell me, if you dare to hide it again, I’ll open a hole in your head!“” ”

“At this point, the young man did not dare to hide anything and explained the entire matter. ”

“It turned out that the young man was an underground middleman. He had accepted a business deal some time ago, but he was involved in a transnational case, so he was pursued by the kimchi country’s police. ”

“The young man hid here and there, and then he ran into Tang Zhen at the dock. He took the opportunity to frame him and tried to distract the attention of the kimchi police. ”

“Tang Zhen nodded his head after hearing the entire story. With his sharp senses, he knew that the other party did not lie to him.”

“Since that was the case, this person still had value.”

“Tang Zhen wasn’t so idle that he would randomly find trouble with this person he had only met once, let alone have any deep hatred for. It was nothing more than feeling that he was wasting too much time purchasing supplies and wanted to find a purchaser to run errands!”

“This guy was an underground middleman, and because of his profession, he definitely had a lot of connections. He just happened to be the person he needed the most. In the future, he would leave all matters in kimchi country to this guy.”

“As for whether this fellow wanted to do it or dared to do it, Tang Zhen didn’t care. With his money and club methods, he didn’t believe that he couldn’t deal with this fellow!”

“””This isn’t the place to talk. Come with me, I have something I need you to do!”” ”

“Tang Zhen called the young man and the two of them found a restaurant. After staying in a single room for an hour, Tang Zhen left alone, leaving the young man with a complicated expression but eyes full of anticipation, staring at the ceiling in a daze.”

“What he had just experienced was like a dream to the young man. It was so crazy, but it was extremely real!”

“””Perhaps this is an opportunity. As long as I grasp it, I can escape.”” ”

“The young man seemed to have thought of something, and a smug smile appeared on his face, but a cold light flashed in his eyes.”

“Throwing away the cigarette butt in his hand, the young man picked up the heavy bag on the ground and stepped out of the restaurant’s private room.”

“In the next few days, the young man dealt with a large amount of gold of unknown origin through his own connections. At the same time, he rented a warehouse in the suburbs.”

“From time to time, vehicles filled with food and fuel would enter and fill the warehouse to the brim. Then, they would be transported away by Tang Zhen.”

“With the assistance of the young man, Tang Zhen did not need to worry about logistics for a short period of time. All he had to pay was a simple performance and a few large pieces of gold that he had casually picked up from the fallout shelter!”

“Chapter 170: city upgrade, monster siege”

“When the tower was upgraded to grade two, the city Lord only needed to offer a sacrifice in the tower.”

The Holy Dragon city's walls were filled with fully armed soldiers. They looked solemn and expressionless as they looked at the undead army below. Beside them were all kinds of weapons and equipment used to defend the city.

"Tang Zhen had already told them that he wanted to advance Lou Cheng. Now that the corpse Army had surrounded the city, the monsters summoned by the rules could only be corpse monsters. They only needed to deal with these corpse monsters that were attacking the city using the previous method."

"In the Holy Dragon City, Tang Zhen took out the brain beads from the stone altar and piled them on top of it. At the same time, he began to communicate with the foundation stone to confirm the upgrade of the tower."

"As the foundation of the mother tree Tower City was already bound to the main city, it only needed to level up at the same time. However, the number of brain pearls sacrificed had to be doubled, which meant that the Holy Dragon city's main city and the mother tree auxiliary city needed to sacrifice a total of twenty thousand Level 2 brain pearls!"

"The image of the level 2 City appeared in his mind. Compared to the previous level 1 city, the level 2 City was more than twice as large and as tall as before. It looked quite magnificent."

"After slightly changing the layout of the level 2 main tower City, Tang Zhen confirmed the construction!"

"Following the order, the entire city Tower immediately became illusionary, following Tang Zhen's modifications, it quickly widened and rose. In the blink of an eye, the upgraded level two City Tower appeared in front of the Holy Dragon city's residents."

"Looking at the even taller and more majestic city, the residents cheered in unison. Everyone's face was filled with happiness and gratitude!"

"Before they could finish cheering, the mother tree in the valley suddenly moved. The soil at the roots of the tree trembled slightly, as if a prehistoric beast was lurking underground and was about to break out of the soil."

""Huala"" "

"Under everyone's shocked gazes, the mother tree's trunk continued to extend into the sky as if it was going to pierce through the heavens. At the same time, its trunk was also growing thicker, and the roots of the tree were cracking the ground."

"By the time the mother tree stopped growing, the area covered by its crown was actually a mile wide. It was a spectacular sight!"

"A gentle breeze blew past, and the leaves of the mother tree trembled slightly. Speckles of seven-colored light fell from the tree. It was exceptionally beautiful even during the day, and the residents of Holy Dragon City were stunned by it."

"After the tower City finished upgrading, Tang Zhen rushed to the city wall without stopping. However, before he reached the city wall, he heard a monster's roar that resounded through the clouds!"

“At this moment, the countless corpse monsters had already begun to attack the Holy Dragon City. Under the influence of the rules, they became extremely crazy, and even the corpse race could not interfere at all.”

“Sure enough, it was as Tang Zhen had guessed. The monsters that were attacking the city were the zombie monsters that had surrounded the city. As they did not need time to gather, there was no lack of high-level monsters. Therefore, the moment the building was upgraded to Level 2, these zombie monsters could not wait to start attacking the city!”

“These corpse monsters were stacked under the city wall, and they were actually more than 30 meters tall. Looking down from above, they looked like countless squirming insects, which was a terrifying and disgusting scene.”

“They crazily bit the wall, trying to climb up the tall city wall. A few of the corpse monsters used some unknown method and had even climbed up the top of the city wall. Fortunately, the soldiers were prepared and killed the monsters in the shortest time.”

“Two water tank fire trucks were spraying fuel continuously, but there were too many zombies. Often, just as a zombie was filled with fuel, it would be stepped on by a few other zombies. After spraying for a long time, 90% of the zombies that were sprayed with fuel were actually buried under the pile of zombies!”

“This way, the burning effect would be greatly reduced, but he could not care too much at the moment.”

“A few burning fireballs were thrown down and hit the bodies of the corpse monsters, but they did not cause a huge flame like before, only igniting a small area.”

“Upon seeing this, Tai Seng ordered his men to push down all the oil barrels around him and then fired armor-piercing fireballs, finally igniting a few large fireballs.”

The flames rose up once again. The Warriors endured the scorching heat and beat the zombies that were still climbing up the wall into the sea of fire.

“As for the undead that were slightly further away, they were suppressed by machine guns and mortars. It was unknown what method the spirit-brain corpse King used to make them not affected by the rules, so they were not as crazy as the corpse monsters. After a few tentative attacks, they chose to wait and see!”

“This helped to reduce the pressure on the soldiers, and they only needed to deal with the crazy zombie monsters.”

“Looking at the Horde of zombie monsters under the city wall, the soldiers sighed in their hearts. If it wasn't for the city Lord's god-like means to build this giant city wall at the critical moment, the Holy Dragon City would have been razed to the ground by the Kobold Army and these zombie monsters!”

“Even with such an advantage, the battle was still fraught with danger. From time to time, some special corpse monsters would rush up the city walls, their bodies burning with fire as they scurried around, causing chaos.”

“Every time this happened, the members of the cultivator battle team would quickly surround them and kill these corpse monsters in the shortest time possible, taking out their brains and throwing them down on the city wall.”

“Flames, smoke, blood, and debris.”

“The scene on the city wall was like hell. If one’s mental strength was too weak, they would have been paralyzed on the ground and hiding in a corner, trembling.”

“Fortunately, none of the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers were cowards. They were immersed in this hellish scene, operating the weapons in their hands, adding a touch of blood to the picture of death.”

“When the howls of the zombie monsters became weaker and weaker, and finally completely disappeared, everyone realized that the monster siege battle had ended!”

Tang Zhen threw down the javelin in his hand. His gaze swept across the faces of every Holy Dragon City soldier before he finally swung his fist with all his might.

“““We’ve won!”” ”

“As soon as the words left his mouth, all the Holy Dragon City soldiers burst out in earth-shattering cheers, laughter, and curses. Then, they sat on the ground and began to pant.”

“They were too tired. The fierce battle had completely exhausted their last trace of physical strength. Many people gritted their teeth and persevered. They even tied themselves with ropes and leaned their bodies against the wall, unwilling to retreat even half a step.”

“As soon as the battle ended, the Holy Dragon city’s residents immediately went up the city walls, bringing hot water and food to reward the Holy Dragon city’s Warriors.”

Tang Zhen looked at the undead army in the distance. An indescribable feeling of disgust rose in his heart. He felt that this group of people deserved to die!

“Although the Holy Dragon City, which was besieged by the corpse race, did not have to worry about food supply, the speed of development would definitely be greatly limited. Tang Zhen did not want to see the corpse race expand without any restraint, so he had to reverse this situation.”

“What Tang Zhen wanted to do was to completely clean up the undead army. Then, he would return an eye for an eye and directly attack the nest of the undead!”

“The Holy Dragon City currently did not have such means, and Tang Zhen did not have such black technology in his hands. Therefore, he had to find countermeasures from the original world.”

“After changing his clothes, Tang Zhen activated the teleportation function and appeared in the kimchi country.”
