Chapter 1711 The abyss of purgatory (1)

Before entering the purgatory abyss, he still had to do some preparation work.

Putting one's own items into the balance of destiny and letting it take care of it, in case a situation similar to the trial of fate occurred again, where one could not bring in their own items.

In addition, there was also an inspection fairy that accompanied him along the way. This little thing had to be properly taken care of. It was impossible for Tang Zhen to bring her into the purgatory abyss.

After looking around, he walked to a flower the size of a millstone and placed the patrolling elf in his hand in the pistil.

At the same time, Tang Zhen once again inserted a wisp of Origin Energy into her body before turning around and leaving.

Just as he was walking further and further away, the patrolling elf lying in the pistil moved. It slowly opened its eyes and looked at Tang Zhen's back in a daze.

Perhaps it was because she was hungry, the little fairy reached out and pulled off a pistil. She put it in her mouth and sucked on it, her face full of a happy smile.

The smile on the little fellow's face froze when it saw that Tang Zhen was getting closer and closer to the purgatory abyss. Soon after, it revealed an anxious expression. After throwing away the flower pistil in its hand, it hurriedly flapped its wings and chased after him.

Just as his body approached the purgatory abyss, Tang Zhen felt an enormous suction force radiating over. It made him feel as though he could not stand steadily and could fall down at any moment.

At this moment, when he looked at the purgatory abyss, Tang Zhen felt dizzy. It was as if a strange voice was continuously revolving in his ears, urging him to jump in.

Other than this terrifying suction force, Tang Zhen could also feel an indescribably dense death Qi that was continuously spiraling above the abyssal purgatory.

Due to the suppression of the vitality of the fate Island, this death aura couldn't spread out at all. After a long time, it had condensed into a solid substance and scattered near the entrance of the purgatory abyss.

This kind of crystal condensed from death energy was definitely a rare treasure for cultivators who practiced evil cultivation methods in some planes.

However, at the entrance of the purgatory abyss, no one paid any attention to these special crystals. They were everywhere.

This was indeed a strange place. No wonder the residents of the island of destiny were so afraid of being thrown into it by the Wheel of Destiny.

After being silent for a moment, Tang Zhen walked toward the purgatory abyss with a determined expression.

At this moment, an object suddenly flashed in front of his eyes. He took a closer look and realized that it was the patrol elfin that had accompanied him along the way.

“Little guy, you’re finally willing to wake up?”

Tang Zhen smilingly extended his hand and held the little fairy floating in the air in his palm as he asked.

He already knew that the little fairy had woken up, but he thought that the little guy was very cute, so he deliberately didn’t expose her.

Perhaps, this little fellow was also obsessed with the taste of Origin Energy. She had been pretending to be unconscious from the beginning. She was afraid that Tang Zhen would not give her that kind of delicious food after she woke up.

However, when it discovered that Tang Zhen was about to enter the purgatory abyss, the little fellow could no longer sit still. It hurriedly rushed over to stop him.

Hearing Tang Zhen’s teasing, the little fairy’s face blushed as red as an Apple. She seemed to be extremely embarrassed.

However, she soon remembered what she was going to do. She pointed at the abyss and hell with a frightened expression on her face.

Tang Zhen smiled and waved his hand when he saw the little fairy anxiously waving her hand to remind him. Her concern was beyond words.

“I know it’s dangerous here, but I have my reasons to go down. Don’t worry, I’ll be fine.”

After explaining to the patrolling fairy, Tang Zhen took out a trace of Origin Energy and placed it on the little fairy’s head.

The little fellow could not resist the temptation at all. It opened its little mouth and looked at the droplet-like object with anticipation.

“Ah Wu!”

When the origin Energy fell, the little guy hugged it with both hands and swallowed it with his mouth wide open. Then, with a look of enjoyment, he gently patted his little belly.

“Alright, go back and find your friends. Remember, don’t be deceived by bad people in the future. Not everyone will help you, understand?”

The little fairy’s face revealed an angry expression. After waving her small fist a few times, she bowed to Tang Zhen.

She knew who had lied to her, and at the same time, she knew who had saved her. The little fairy was very close to her Savior.

Tang Zhen sent the little fairy into the air and waved his hand at her. He then continued to walk towards the purgatory abyss.

The little fairy danced in the air for a while. She seemed to know that she was unable to stop Tang Zhen and her small face was filled with a dejected expression.

Seeing that Tang Zhen had finally disappeared from her line of sight, the little fairy was silent for a moment. Then, her figure flashed and she disappeared in an instant.

.....

After Tang Zhen approached the edge of the purgatory abyss, he immediately felt the death Qi was like a tide that continuously gushed towards his body.

Under the attack of the law of death, if one didn't use the power of a cultivator to defend, they would probably lose their life in an instant and become a lifeless corpse.

In reality, there were corpses lying all over the ground under Tang Zhen's feet. They were all unlucky individuals who were unable to resist the terrifying death Qi and had lost their lives in an instant.

Black mist filled the air, and the aura of death churned. Coupled with the layers of corpses around him, the scene was like the abyss of hell.

However, just a few dozen steps away, there was the chirping of birds and the fragrance of flowers. It was like a paradise, the contrast was extremely obvious.

The land of beauty hid great evil, allowing Tang Zhen to have a new understanding of this mysterious Wheel of Destiny.

It was as if it had mysophobia, not allowing a single trace of dirt to exist in its territory. The abyssal purgatory was its trash can, throwing away all the ugly things.

Stepping on the corpses that were scattered all over the place, Tang Zhen continued to advance along the spiral path, heading straight for the interior of the purgatory abyss.

The closer he got to the bottom of the purgatory abyss, the denser the pure death Qi became. In the beginning, it was only in the form of mist. Soon after, it turned into the form of water droplets and floated around Tang Zhen's body.

When they went deeper, the water droplets turned into black water, swimming around like living creatures.

"Roar!"

A dull sound rang out, and a group of strange fish-like creatures swam in the black water, as if the death energy had no effect on them.

However, the surface of their bodies was still like a zombie. As they swam, rotten flesh and blood kept falling off, and then flesh and blood would grow at their wounds, repairing their missing bodies.

Without a strong body recovery ability, one would not be able to resist the strange death energy, and would not be able to survive in such an extremely harsh environment for a long time.

The new wounds stacked on top of the old ones, causing the tumors to spread all over its body, making the strange fish look extremely ferocious.

When those blood-red eyes looked over, they were filled with extreme evil, making one's heart tremble.

With just a glance, Tang Zhen could confirm that these strange fish had the strength of a spirit Emperor cultivator. At the same time, they also had the ability to attack with their mental energy.

...

As expected, creatures that could survive in such an environment all had extraordinary strength and were extremely fierce.

Just as Tang Zhen was observing those strange fish, they had also noticed him. Soon after, they were like sharks that had seen blood as they pounced towards him.

The strange fish had clearly treated Tang Zhen as its prey. If he did not Dodge, a huge battle would be unavoidable.

There wasn't a single wisp of heaven and earth energy in the purgatory abyss. It couldn't be replenished once it was consumed. If it wasn't necessary, Tang Zhen would never waste it.

Without any hesitation, Tang Zhen leaped and flew into the black Sea below.

This black water appeared to be as light as air. However, when Tang Zhen entered the water, he felt his body rapidly falling as he charged into the bottomless darkness.

During this period of time, the pressure that Tang Zhen felt grew increasingly greater. If he were to hold onto a piece of steel at this moment, it was likely that he would be instantly crushed flat.

However, there were still living beings present in this terrifying environment. During the process of Tang Zhen falling into the abyss, clusters of black figures would appear from time to time. Their cold and indifferent eyes were firmly staring at him.

Without any warning, a figure that was hundreds of meters long rushed out of the black water and bit at Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen hurriedly dodged when he saw this. He narrowly avoided the mouth of the huge beast and secretly thought that he was lucky in his heart.

He thought that he had dodged a disaster, but the giant beast seemed to have its eyes on him. It chased him closely, its huge mouth opening and closing as it bit him.

...

Tang Zhen could only helplessly increase his speed as he charged into the depths of the black water. He would occasionally unleash an attack to delay the speed of the monster's pursuit.

The gigantic monster had thick skin. Even after being struck by Tang Zhen, it was not affected in the slightest. On the contrary, its speed of pursuit continued to increase.

To be able to survive in such an extreme environment, the monsters all had extremely strong vitality, as if they were not afraid of pain.

This was also Tang Zhen's first time encountering such a creature. He could not help but feel a little restrained for a time. The world Energy that had accumulated in his body was rapidly consumed.

Just when the situation was extremely critical, he felt his body become light. Then, he rushed out of the black water and fell into a dark area.

Chapter 1712 Once in purgatory, living is worse than death (1)

Tang Zhen felt his body become light the moment he charged out of the black water. The feeling of being free from his restraints was so carefree that he could not help but roar out loud.

he didn't have time to look at his surroundings. he quickly stabilized his body in the air to avoid encountering other dangers.

It was only then that he realized that the air around him was filled with a rancid smell that made him want to vomit.

It was like the terrible smell of countless filthy garbage accumulated over the years. Because there was no discharge channel, it could only be accumulated in this world.

!!

"Owwuuu!"

An angry roar came from above his head. It was the giant monster that had been chasing him all the way. At this moment, it had actually extended its head out of the black water and was ruthlessly biting towards Tang Zhen.

the monster's huge head was the size of a house. when it opened its mouth, it looked extremely ferocious. tang zhen's body was too small compared to it. he could not even fill the gaps between its teeth.

However, even if this was the case, the monster was still unwilling to give up. The eyes that it used to look at Tang Zhen were still filled with greed, as though he was the Supreme delicacy.

"You still dare to be arrogant even now, go to hell!"

Tang Zhen no longer had any scruples after escaping from the black water's restraint. As he waved his right hand, a giant hand condensed from energy appeared and directly grabbed the black water monster's head.

"Die!"

Following Tang Zhen's furious roar, the giant energy hand grabbed the monster's body and pulled it down violently.

The monster's eyes were filled with fear. It struggled desperately to escape, but the giant energy hand was so powerful that it couldn't break free.

Following Tang Zhen's sudden burst of strength, the monster was forcefully pulled out of the black water. Its enormous body was like a collapsing mountain as it was ruthlessly thrown to the ground by the huge hand.

"BOOM!"

A muffled sound came from the ground, and the monster's body fell to the ground, raising a cloud of black dust.

The monster's body flipped a few times in the dust. It attempted to get up and escape, only to see Tang Zhen rushing down from the air. The battle blade in his hand ruthlessly hacked at the monster's head.

Previously, it had been turned into a miserable state by this monster. Now that the tables had turned, it would be strange if Tang Zhen let it go!

Although the saber was only as tall as a person, the blade was hundreds of feet long. It drew an arc in the air and landed on the monster's head.

With a shrill scream, the monster's head and body were split in two. Stinky blood spurted out and instantly formed a pool on the ground.

The monster's head kept opening and closing in the dust, tearing at the dust on the ground. It was still extremely fierce.

At this time, it was already like a lamp without oil. After struggling a few times, it no longer moved.

Tang Zhen observed his surroundings. After confirming that there was no danger, he slowly descended from the sky.

Although the monster was completely dead, the flesh around its wound was still growing like wriggling maggots, making people feel creepy.

Just as Tang Zhen was prepared to take a closer look, he suddenly heard waves of hurried footsteps coming from his surroundings. Soon after, he saw many strange figures appearing and heading straight towards his location.

"Who is it? get out here!"

Tang Zhen lifted his battle blade and furiously roared. His gaze landed on the dark corners around him as a cold glint flickered in his eyes.

hehe, we're just here to watch the fun. We don't have any other intentions.

Someone quickly replied and walked out from the darkness. However, a trace of surprise flashed across Tang Zhen's eyes when he saw the other party's appearance.

This person was six to seven meters tall, his body was covered in scales, his waist was bent at a 90-degree angle, and he had three heads of different appearances on his back.

There was also an ugly head on his neck. One of his eyes had rotted away, and his mouth had rotted away to the point that his gums were exposed.

The four heads did not match their bodies at all, as if they were not their original bodies, but had just borrowed this shell and parasitized it.

At this moment, the three heads on its back were all stretching their necks and staring at the monster's corpse on the ground. Saliva was constantly flowing down like a waterfall, looking extremely exaggerated.

"I'm so hungry, I want to eat!"

"It smells good, it smells so good!"

what are you hesitating for? let's grab it together!

While drooling, the three heads were constantly urging the surrounding black shadows to rush up and snatch the monster's corpse.

"All of you, shut up!"

The man with the bent back turned his head and roared behind him. Soon after, he looked at Tang Zhen and said with a smile, friend, did you just get thrown into the abyss of hell? "

The man's face was completely rotten. Although he tried to smile, he looked very ferocious.

"That's right. What can I do for you?"

Tang Zhen nodded his head and admitted his origin.

The aura on his body was too obvious and was incompatible with the prisoners in the abyssal purgatory. The other party could tell his origin with a glance. Naturally, Tang Zhen did not have the need to hide it.

hehe, you killed a black water beast right after you arrived. It seems that you are not weak.

First, he praised and revealed a reminiscing expression. Then, the rotten-faced man continued, "However, I want to give you a piece of advice. In the purgatory abyss, if you don't need to consume earth and heaven energy, you'd better save it.

It won't take long for you to understand how blissful it is to be able to possess heaven and earth energy."

The rotten-faced man continued to size Tang Zhen up as he spoke. His eyes were filled with greed and vigilance.

Soon, he shook his head and sighed unwillingly. "In addition, you have to be careful. Newcomers like you are the favorite food of those old monsters. If you encounter them, you'd better leave immediately!

Once you're caught, they won't kill you, they'll just put you in their stomach. They'll only let you go when they've used up all your World Energy."

Tang Zhen was stunned when he heard this. He never expected that such a thing would happen in the purgatory abyss. It seemed like this place was indeed a land of evil. Anything could happen here.

thank you for your reminder, but I'm very curious. Why are you telling me this? "

“Hehehe, I just want to make a deal with you. After telling you this, I hope you won’t be stingy with your spoils of war and give me some of the beast’s flesh.”

“I see, no problem.”

Tang Zhen nodded. He gently waved the blade in his hand and a piece of flesh the size of a car was cut off. It was then sent flying in front of the man with a rotten face.

...

thank you, thank you. You’re so generous!

The rotten-faced man cupped his hands in thanks. Then, he drooled and rushed impatiently to the piece of flesh, devouring it madly.

After seeing this scene, the surrounding black shadows could no longer hold back. They screamed and pounced on the beast’s corpse.

“If you want to snatch it by force, you’ll have to see if the saber in my hand agrees!”

After seeing the rotten-faced man’s reaction, Tang Zhen also understood the value of this ferocious beast’s flesh and blood. When he saw the surrounding black figures trying to snatch it, he did not hold back and attacked.

A blade light flashed and the black shadows that tried to rush toward the fierce beast’s corpse were cut in succession. Strange screams were endless.

During the process of the battle, Tang Zhen discovered that these black figures were actually like walking corpses. The surface of their bodies was extremely festering. As they walked, rotten flesh, pus, and blood continuously dripped down. Some people’s bodies had simply rotted to the point that only a skeleton was left.

This scene, which was like an Asura hell, caused Tang Zhen’s heart to become increasingly alert. There was no need to guess to know that they were all unlucky fellows who had been thrown in.

Even though he was sighing in his heart, his movements did not slow down at all. His blade was faster than ever, and he cut down all the zombies and skeletons that were charging at him.

This time, he listened to the rotten-faced man’s warning and did not use the power of a cultivator at all. Instead, he resisted the enemy with his physical strength alone.

When the carrion skeletons saw that they were unable to break through Tang Zhen’s defense, each and every one of them let out a desperate and crazy roar. They actually no longer pounced towards the ferocious beast’s corpse but instead rushed towards him.

...

Tang Zhen had no fear on his face as he slashed with the saber in his hand. The corpses around him piled up like a small mountain.

Fortunately, these rotting corpses and skeletons only knew how to use brute force. Even if they were to surge over endlessly, Tang Zhen could still easily deal with them even if he was alone.

The rotten-faced man next to them would also attack them from time to time, ruthlessly smashing them away so as not to affect his eating.

Chapter 1713 Purgatory might not be heartless (1)

After the last zombie was taken down, Tang Zhen looked at the rotten-faced man with blood all over his face and asked, "What are they? why can't they communicate normally like you?"

The rotten-faced man chuckled, reached out his hand to wipe the squirming flesh on his face, wrapped his tongue around his finger, and sucked it. "They were all unlucky people who were thrown into the abyss purgatory. However, because they were too weak, they were eroded by the death energy and lost their minds. They lived in a daze all day long, and it could be said that they were better off dead.

There's no need to pay attention to them, Sir. In the abyssal purgatory, there are countless of them, and they're as annoying as flies."

Tang Zhen shook his head when he heard the rotten-faced man's explanation. He secretly thought that the abyssal purgatory was indeed dangerous. No wonder the residents of fate Island had a change in expression when they heard it.

If he wasn't here in person, Tang Zhen wouldn't dare to believe that the fate Island, which could be called a paradise on earth, would have such a place!

The seemingly heavenly fate Island might not be as beautiful as he had imagined.

Tang Zhen thought for a moment before casually asking, "Are there many prisoners like you in the purgatory of the abyss?"

No. the rotten-faced man shook his head. in the entire purgatory abyss, only 10% of the prisoners are like me. Although they won't lose their minds, they will become like this as time passes.

He casually tore off a piece of the beast's flesh and threw it on his back so that the three heads could also eat it. The rotten-faced man's face revealed a desolate expression. "If it's a sector Lord cultivator, their body can produce world Energy and they can last for a while, but one day they'll run out of energy.

Do you see the three heads on my back? they are my brothers. Their cultivation base is too low, but they were thrown into the purgatory abyss because of me.

I was too impulsive and let my brother down.

We've been locked up for hundreds of years, and the situation is getting worse. Their bodies have long decayed and become useless.

In order to survive, we can only use the parasitic method and transplant the head on the back of the fierce beast. Every day that can be sustained is a day."

Hearing the man's words, the three heads on his back looked sad. At the same time, they comforted him and told him not to blame himself.

"It's been a few hundred years, and you're still dawdling. Aren't you tired of it?"

"Isn't it good to die together? what's there to be dissatisfied about?"

“Boss, stop talking nonsense. I want to eat meat!”

Hearing this, the rotten-faced man bent his body and tore off a piece of flesh, throwing it to the three heads on his back. A faint smile appeared on his face.

This scene looked very terrifying, but it was mixed with something called Brotherhood, which made people feel emotional.

“Take this beast head as well. Consider it my thanks to you.”

After hearing Tang Zhen’s words, the rotten-faced man nodded. His body was already stiff and he could not stand upright. He could only express his gratitude with this.

“Since you’re so generous, I’ll remind you again. None of the prisoners who can survive in the purgatory abyss are easy to deal with, and they more or less have some strange means.

If it’s not necessary, it’s best to keep a respectful distance.”

After saying this, the rotten-faced man exerted strength in his arms and dragged the car-sized beast’s flesh and head slowly into the darkness.

The three heads on his back turned around and kept shouting at Tang Zhen, reminding him to take care.

Tang Zhen wanted to ask a few more questions. However, when he saw that the other party had left in such a straightforward manner, he gave up on this intention.

Before entering the purgatory abyss, he had already prepared himself to face the ugliest things. However, after coming into contact with the rotten-faced man, his original thoughts changed.

Just like the abyss of purgatory on the island of fate, since the land of great kindness hid great evil, why couldn’t the land of great evil hide great kindness?

Moreover, in the cultivation world, it was difficult to define good and evil. It could be seen from the calabash cultivator’s use of an inspection spirit to plot against Tang Zhen that the rules of the Wheel of Destiny might not be fair.

Tang Zhen turned his head and glanced at the fierce beast’s flesh. Although he felt disgusted, he did not wish to throw it away after understanding its value.

“I’d better take it with me. Maybe it’ll come in handy at some time.”

Tang Zhen raised his hand and gently waved. The fierce beast’s corpse was stored into his storage ring, leaving behind only a ground full of rotten corpses and dirty blood.

Tang Zhen once again observed the surrounding environment. He discovered that this place seemed to have experienced a volcanic eruption. Other than the rancid smell in the air, there was also a trace of sulfur.

It was the same no matter where he went. There was not a single blade of grass growing on the ground. A thick layer of black dust had accumulated on the ground, leaving deep footprints on it.

Tang Zhen did not know how big the purgatory abyss was. However, it was definitely not small. It was likely that he would have to waste quite a lot of time if he wanted to track the strange man here.

He threw the tracking bird into the sky above his head. Although the strange darkness blocked his vision, Tang Zhen was still able to accurately lock onto the location of the tracking bird.

After the tracking bird circled in the sky for a while, it let out a cry and flew in a certain direction in the darkness.

After Tang Zhen left, a group of black figures appeared from the surrounding corners. Compared to those ignorant zombies and skeletons earlier, their eyes clearly had a trace of intelligence.

They rushed up impatiently, lying in the pit that was filled with dirty blood, and desperately sucked the stinky blood. Their faces were full of enjoyment.

While they were drinking to their heart's content, these prisoners were also conversing in low voices, guessing Tang Zhen's origins.

just look at the saber in his hand. He's another lunatic who has entered the abyss purgatory on his own initiative. Damn egoistic maniac!

hehe, looks like the rumors about the purgatory abyss aren't scary enough. Otherwise, why would there always be some guys who are not afraid of death who dare to come in? "

"Do you think we should follow behind him and see when he dies? then we can take his things?"

"If you want to die, go yourself. I haven't had enough!"

Upon hearing their companion's suggestion, the other prisoners all showed disdain and said sarcastically, " a newcomer like him is very vigilant. Aren't you afraid that he'll kill you after finding you? " it's a little dangerous, but the reward is great too. If we really get his items, we'll be rich!

he has so many things on him. As long as he doesn't do anything stupid and provoke those terrifying monsters, he can definitely hold on for a long time. I'm afraid you won't be able to hold on before he dies.

"You're right. It seems like I've been overthinking."

The sound of their conversation became weaker and weaker, and in the end, these black shadows simply lay down in the blood, no longer willing to get up.

Even if their stomachs were full, they would desperately drink another mouthful. After they digested it, they would take another mouthful, afraid that their actions would be one step slower.

Tang Zhen did not know what had happened after he left. He only silently followed behind the tracking bird and continued to advance into the darkness.

He had a feeling that the strange man must have discovered him, so he was running away.

Of course, there was also a possibility that he was deliberately luring him into the danger zone.

it was not strange for him to have such a thought. since he had dodged it, he would pull tang zhen down with him before he died.

As they advanced, the surrounding environment became more and more desolate.

From time to time, he could see piles of white bones on the ground. There were also figures swimming in the dark, as if they were puppets without intelligence. They were in groups and constantly wandering on the plain that was covered in black dust.

in addition, there were also huge corpses scattered on the ground. they must be the corpses of the fierce beasts that lived in the black water.

After walking for a short while, Tang Zhen was attacked by a group of strange human-headed birds.

When these human-headed birds saw Tang Zhen, they let out excited roars and swarmed towards him.

Following the chirping of the strange birds, black shadows shot out of the surrounding hills that looked like volcanic craters. They were all human-headed strange birds.

A strange "Jie Jie" sound was emitted from their mouths. They were like a black sandstorm as they continuously danced and circled around Tang Zhen and launched wave after wave of attacks.

When he saw the number of human-headed strange birds increasing, Tang Zhen did not dare to continue fighting. He waved his battle saber and slashed out a bloody path as he sped forward.

Chapter 1714 The crisis-ridden Inferno abyss (1)

In the air that was filled with black mist, those human-headed strange birds persistently chased after Tang Zhen. They let out irritating chirps that were incomparably ear-piercing.

"You're too noisy!"

Tang Zhen couldn't stand the disturbing noise anymore. He flicked his hand and threw out a chain of lightning, which landed on the flock of human-headed strange birds.

The chain of lightning spread wildly. After hitting one of the birds, it quickly spread to the other birds.

It was like a Thunderbolt that spread out in the dark clouds, spreading out for several miles. The blinding light illuminated the dark and desperate land.

For a time, shrill screams rang out without end. The human-headed birds that were struck by lightning were blasted into meat paste, and the sky was filled with flying feathers and charred corpses.

Seeing that Chain Lightning's attack was effective, Tang Zhen threw out dazzling light balls one after another. They flew into the sky like flares and cleared out an empty area.

Under the illumination of the flickering light, countless figures could be seen moving from all directions, like moths attracted to a flame.

Every time a human-headed bird was killed by him, the wandering figures would search for its remains, grab it, and devour it.

In the process of devouring, the flesh and blood of these strange birds were like charcoal, setting the purgatory prisoners' chests and abdomens on fire, making them look like moving furnaces.

But even so, they still devoured crazily. Compared to the pain of being burned, it seemed that hunger and the erosion of death were more terrible.

After devouring the human-headed bird's flesh and blood, the pain was slightly reduced. Some of the purgatory prisoners even had expressions of enjoyment on their faces.

This was the abyssal purgatory. Flesh and blood containing energy could offset the pain of being corroded by death energy. It was also here that food was the most difficult to obtain.

Unknowingly, a strange scene appeared.

Tang Zhen was madly running in front while countless human-headed strange birds followed behind him. Closely following behind were a dense crowd of purgatory prisoners.

The loose dust on the ground flew up as he ran, like a ferocious Black Dragon, Dancing in the Dark sky.

It looked dangerous, but it was not the case at all.

Compared to Tang Zhen's speed, these human-headed strange birds were clearly much slower. It did not take long for them to be left behind.

However, in the process of escaping, the energy accumulated in his body had been consumed greatly. In the case of not being able to replenish it, he could only take out a trace of the world's origin to absorb and refine it, so as to make up for the energy deficit in his body.

Just as he recovered, he felt the ground shake violently. Then, a huge figure the size of a small mountain appeared in front of him, staring at him with blood-red eyes.

It was a monster with only one head. Its skin was mottled and rotten, and its four arms supported its huge body like a Spider.

The human-headed monster opened its mouth and revealed a Savage smile when it saw Tang Zhen sizing it up.

"Haha, fresh food!"

The human-headed monster roared excitedly, and the surrounding black dust flew up along with its roar, covering its huge figure.

"Whoosh!"

With a sharp sound, the monster's four arms bent to support itself on the ground. Then, it bounced into the air like a ball and smashed toward him.

"BOOM!"

The ground was smashed into dust, and his vision was completely blocked. He could not see his surroundings at all.

A pair of monstrous hands appeared from the dust and ruthlessly clawed at Tang Zhen. It was accompanied by the excited roars of the human-headed monster.

Tang Zhen's figure flashed and dodged the human-headed monster's attack. At the same time, the battle blade in his hand slashed out and chopped off one of the human-headed monster's arms.

Sparks flew in all directions as Tang Zhen's body rapidly retreated. His face carried a trace of shock.

The battle blade that could kill a sector Lord in one strike didn't even cut off the arm of the monster, only leaving a terrifying wound.

The monster with a human head was severely injured. A pained expression immediately appeared on its face. Its bulging eyes turned blood-red, and indescribable anger burst out when it looked at Tang Zhen.

"Die, ants!"

It was like a giant bear that had been angered by a mouse. The human-headed monster attacked again and was determined to kill the mouse that had offended it.

"You still dare to come? do you really think I can't deal with you?"

Tang Zhen coldly snorted. His figure rapidly flashed and flew toward the human-headed monster.

Seeing that Tang Zhen had delivered himself to the door, the human-headed monster's eyes flashed with surprise. It opened its mouth and ruthlessly bit at him.

Tang Zhen did not Dodge. Just as both parties were about to come into contact, the battle blade in his hand suddenly slashed out and directly struck one of the eyes of the human-headed monster.

The blade seemed to ignore space and distance, and it instantly landed on the human-headed monster's eye. With a "poof", the huge eye suddenly exploded.

The stinky liquid splattered all over the place. The human-headed monster's roars were mixed in the middle as its four arms once again grabbed toward Tang Zhen.

Zhen Tang's attack had succeeded. He turned around and launched a new attack. His target was the other eye of the human-headed monster.

"Ant, I'm going to tear you apart!"

The human-headed monster roared again and again. It waved its arms and randomly grabbed everywhere. In the end, Tang Zhen was as flexible as a fish and could not be touched.

In the middle of the stalemate, Tang Zhen flicked his hand and threw out another icicle, which hit the other eye of the human-headed monster.

A shrill scream was heard again. The monster's second eye had been blown off, and it was now completely blind.

"Owwuuu!"

the monster with a human head went completely crazy after being hit continuously. it spun around on the spot like a spinning top, its four arms constantly waving and scratching.

Due to the rapid rotation of the human-headed monster, a tornado appeared with it as the center. The tornado grew larger and larger, sweeping the surrounding black dust into the sky.

All the moving objects in the vicinity were attracted over and spun continuously with the strong wind.

The purgatory prisoners who were attracted by the fight were also swept up by the storm one after another, and were torn into pieces in a moment.

The human-headed monster swallowed crazily, its mouth chewing non-stop, and it kept letting out a strange laugh.

Tang Zhen promptly withdrew himself. He looked at the terrifying whirlwind from a distance before turning around and leaving without the slightest hesitation.

The tracking bird seemed to be a little impatient from waiting. After it saw Tang Zhen, it continuously emitted clear chirps before continuing to fly forward.

...

After encountering the human-headed monster, Tang Zhen had become even more careful. Whenever he discovered any signs of danger, he would immediately Dodge and retreat.

His goal was to kill the strange man, so there was no need to waste time on useless fights.

In fact, there was another reason for this. There was no benefit in killing these purgatory prisoners. Instead, it would be a waste of precious energy, which was not worth it.

After continuously running for over ten hours, Tang Zhen discovered that the sky in front of him seemed to have brightened up. It was completely different from the dusky environment from before.

After walking in, he realized that the light came from the dust on the ground.

The dust looked like unburnt charcoal and grass, flickering with light as if it was breathing.

After he stepped on it, a terrifying burning sensation seemed to penetrate his skin and burn his soul.

In the distance, the light seemed to grow stronger, like a Burning sea of fire.

Tang Zhen was not afraid of being burned by the flames. Even if he was within a sea of flames, his body would not be damaged in the slightest.

However, the flames of the abyssal purgatory were different. It seemed to be able to burn the energy within one's body. The moment Tang Zhen's feet stepped on the scorching dust, his body actually started to burn.

In such an environment, it was impossible to avoid the loss of energy. Even Tang Zhen was helpless.

...

Tang Zhen shook his head as he looked at the tracking bird that was still in front of him, urging him to hurry up. He then walked forward with determination.

If his enemy had such courage, what did he have to fear?

He didn't believe that the strange man who had reincarnated would be able to endure through him. Since the other party had already issued a challenge, how could Tang Zhen have the reason to retreat!

As he continued to advance, the flames on Tang Zhen's body became more and more exuberant, making him look like a moving fireball.

Although the energy consumption was huge, a trace of pleasant surprise appeared on Tang Zhen's face.

It turned out that in the process of burning the flame, the building foundation in his mind space was also being tempered at the same time. The realm that had been stagnant began to show signs of a breakthrough.

Tang Zhen, who was originally a little hesitant, no longer had any scruples at this moment. He laughed out loud as he strode forward and headed straight into the distance.

Chapter 1715 Advancing to the 2nd level of the sector Lord realm

Unknowingly, Tang Zhen's surroundings had already turned into a lava hell. Everything that entered his eyes was bright.

This light was extremely strange. It did not give people the feeling of light or hope, but pure destruction!

The originally flat ground was now undulating like waves, constantly flashing with dazzling spots of light.

This sea of light seemed to be a forbidden zone for life, but in fact, there were also creatures that existed, and they were all extremely powerful.

At this moment, a huge Flame Dragon was writhing in the sky a few dozen kilometers away from Tang Zhen. It seemed as though it was having fun.

The other party was obviously also a purgatory prisoner, but he treated the terrifying flames as if they were nothing. It could be seen that he either had terrifying strength or was extremely talented.

Regardless of the reason, Tang Zhen had no need to provoke him.

After advancing for a distance, Tang Zhen suddenly stopped and sat cross-legged on the lava-like dust.

He had a feeling that the advancement of his cultivation level had already reached a point where it could not be delayed. Otherwise, there would be a huge problem.

Tang Zhen, who was originally like a moving fireball, was now more like a volcano that was about to erupt. His entire body was filled with a terrifying aura.

This situation lasted for about 15 minutes. Then, the surrounding space trembled continuously, and layers of ripples spread out in all directions.

"BOOM!"

It was as if a huge wave had hit a dam, causing the earth to tremble.

The fireballs around Tang Zhen, which were originally only as tall as a person, began to expand at a terrifying speed. In just a moment, they had already reached a height of several thousand feet.

A human figure appeared from the sea of fire. He sat cross-legged in midair and suddenly opened his eyes.

The flames that surrounded the figure also began to change shape. They were like humans, beasts, birds, insects, and fish. It was as if they were worshipping a King. They kept spinning around the figure.

This spectacular scene also alarmed the prisoners in the sea of fire. They all looked at the position where the flames rose, their eyes filled with doubt, greed, and also fear.

The purgatory prisoners that were able to survive in this region were all extremely strong, with the lowest being at the sector Lord level.

Seeing the strange phenomenon in the flames, the purgatory prisoners knew that someone was breaking through to a new realm. Although this was rare in the purgatory abyss, it was not as if it had never happened.

What really surprised them was the commotion caused by this breakthrough. It was simply unheard of.

One must know that this place was a dangerous place without any energy. And to break through to a new realm, especially the world Energy was essential.

Therefore, those who chose to break through here were all forced to do so, and the success rate was not high.

Even if it was successful, it was impossible to cause such a big movement. So what was the reason?

Although they were curious, none of the purgatory prisoners came over rashly to avoid any unnecessary misunderstandings.

One had to know that it was not easy to survive in the purgatory abyss. If they rashly made a strong enemy, they would not be far from death.

Just as the surrounding purgatory prisoners were paying attention to this place, Tang Zhen had also fallen into a crisis.

Because he was in a land of death without World Energy, the world Energy he needed to advance had no source, so under these circumstances, there were signs of a backlash.

His body began to rapidly shrivel up as a large amount of heaven and earth energy was forcibly extracted from his body, turning into energy clouds that surrounded his body before being absorbed by his mental dimension.

However, after this world Energy appeared, before it could be absorbed by his mental dimension, it turned into a blazing flame. The amount that was truly absorbed and used was less than one-third of the amount consumed.

This was a terrifying vicious cycle. If he did not resolve it as soon as possible, Tang Zhen might die from exhaustion before he could complete his advancement.

“I have to solve this problem, or else I’ll die.”

This thought flashed across Tang Zhen's heart. He hurriedly took out a portion of the world's origin source, threw it into his stomach, and began to refine it.

As a result, the flames around him expanded once more after he swallowed the origin Energy. The refined Origin Energy was unable to be absorbed in time and turned into flames again.

"This method won't work. What should we do next?"

Tang Zhen's brows were tightly knitted. He was at a loss for what to do.

When he saw that his body was getting thinner and thinner, and was almost no different from those purgatory prisoners who had lost their minds, a flash of inspiration suddenly appeared in Tang Zhen's mind. He shook his hand and took out a pile of destiny gold coins.

According to his analysis, the coin of destiny was also a special energy condensation. In a situation where there was no earth and heaven energy to supplement it, the coin of destiny might be able to solve the urgent need.

The most important reason was that he had no other choice.

"Refine!"

Following Tang Zhen's low roar, these destiny gold coins suddenly trembled. Like ice cubes thrown into a flame, they quickly melted into a liquid state.

"Absorb it!"

Tang Zhen did not hesitate any longer when he sensed the unique energy contained within the liquid. He sent all of it into his mind space.

Perhaps the power that formed the coin of destiny was too special, but the flames that burned energy couldn't do anything to it. In the end, all of it was successfully sent into it.

The cornerstone of the tower in his mind space was like a fish that was about to die of thirst. Seeing the new energy appear, how could it be picky? it immediately devoured it madly.

However, after absorbing this completely different energy, the reaction of the building's cornerstone was very strange. Its aura was suddenly strong and weak, as if it could collapse at any time.

Tang Zhen's heart immediately became suspended when he saw this. He was afraid that another unexpected change would occur at this critical moment.

However, what he was afraid of happened. Just as this thought appeared in his mind, the building's foundation began to shake violently.

A ball of flame appeared out of thin air and wrapped around the tower's foundation stone. It looked exactly the same as Tang Zhen at this moment.

With the appearance of the flame, the mental space also began to shake, as if it was about to collapse.

At the same time, he also felt a special emotion coming from the building's foundation stone, as if it was asking him for help.

However, the current Tang Zhen was too busy to even take care of himself. Even though he was anxious in his heart, he was helpless.

“Crack!”

A crisp sound came, and cracks appeared on the surface of the cornerstone of the tower in his mind. Soon, the number of cracks increased and spread all over the surface of the entire cornerstone.

“Huala”

...

The building’s foundation had completely shattered. Tang Zhen’s heart was suspended when he saw this.

Who would have thought that before Tang Zhen could recover from his shock, a burst of extreme joy was transmitted over. It was precisely the building’s foundation stone that had shattered earlier.

Tang Zhen focused his eyes and discovered that a light spot had actually appeared among the fragments of the foundation stone of the tower. It was the foundation stone of the tower that had been reborn from the fire!

It kept dancing in the space of his mind as if it was celebrating its new life. At the same time, it also made Tang Zhen feel more spirituality.

Every building had a building spirit, and a similar thing seemed to have appeared in this building’s cornerstone.

In the process of the tower’s foundation stone flying, Tang Zhen felt a trace of thought. It seemed to be very eager for the power that the coin of fate had turned into, hoping that Tang Zhen could give him more.

At this moment, Tang Zhen only wanted to laugh out loud. How could he be stingy with some destiny gold coins when he had just escaped death?

Moreover, he had a million gold coins of destiny, so he could spend them freely without worrying about running out.

In the following time, Destiny’s coin was refined one by one and sent into the mental space, which was then absorbed by the building’s cornerstone.

In the beginning, Tang Zhen was still calm and collected. However, as time passed, the corner of his mouth started to Twitch.

Unknowingly, he had invested 200000 destiny gold coins. However, the foundation stone that was only the size of an egg was still not full!

...

Tang Zhen, who previously felt that he was rich and overbearing, also felt his heart ache unceasingly at this moment.

The problem was that the foundation stone of loucheng still sent him a message of desire. Tang Zhen really couldn't bear to refuse. Not to mention, this was related to the improvement of his realm, so he absolutely couldn't be reluctant to invest.

forget it, I can't keep this unexpected fortune. It'll only cause trouble if I keep it, so I'd better take it out quickly!

After making up his mind, Tang Zhen once again took out a huge amount of destiny gold coins, refined them, and sent them into his mind space.

The tower's cornerstone let out a jubilant sound and began to devour crazily again.

After an unknown amount of time, the tower's cornerstone sent a thought that it was full. Tang Zhen's mind space also shook violently, and a new world was suddenly opened up.

The 2nd level of the sector Lord realm was just a matter of time!

Chapter 1716 The sector Lord's 5 brothers who failed in their raid (1)

A couple of human figures suddenly rushed over from the distance the moment Tang Zhen had successfully completed his advancement. They headed straight for his position.

To choose to appear at this time, he was definitely not a good person and was definitely someone with ulterior motives.

Earlier, Tang Zhen was still puzzled as to why there was no one who wanted to take advantage of the situation. From the looks of it now, it wasn't that there wasn't anyone. The other party was merely waiting for an opportunity.

Due to the wild Burning of the heaven and earth energy, the hundred Zhang flame that originally enveloped Tang Zhen's surroundings had already shrunk to a height of less than ten meters.

This would inevitably give people the wrong impression that Tang Zhen had encountered an unforeseen event during his advancement and had already reached the extent of being a lamp without oil.

In a situation where the supply of World Energy wasn't enough, the ascendants would inevitably be in a life-and-death crisis. Under such circumstances, it was naturally the best time to take action.

However, the other party would never have guessed that Tang Zhen's advancement to the 2nd level of the sector Lord realm wasn't from the ordinary world Energy, but from a vast amount of Destiny's gold coins!

One wrong step would lead to all the wrong steps. This group of people thought that they had chosen the right time to attack. However, they did not know that Tang Zhen had already completed his advancement.

In the blink of an eye, the enemy had crossed over ten miles of space and was getting closer and closer to Tang Zhen.

As these enemies ran, they dragged a bright fire Dragon behind them, which danced in the air with great momentum.

fortunately, I'm not late. Brat, I'll take your life!

Before he even arrived, a roar could be heard.

The purgatory prisoner in the lead with a short horn on his head laughed in a strange manner. He casually waved his hand at Tang Zhen and threw out a weapon that looked like a spear.

"Take my spear of flames!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the spear, which was dragging flames behind it, shot toward the huge figure in the air like a lightning bolt.

Although this spear did not attack Tang Zhen's body, it was also not to be underestimated. If Tang Zhen was really hit, he would suffer quite a serious injury.

That was his energy incarnation, which was closely related to his main body. It could hurt people, and it could also be hurt by people.

The other four enemies went in different directions and surrounded Tang Zhen, seemingly to prevent him from taking the opportunity to escape.

Tang Zhen, who had just completed his advancement, suddenly opened his eyes. A cold glint flashed across his eyes as he shook his hand and grabbed at the long spear that was flying towards him.

"BOOM!"

With a muffled sound, the spear that was shot at him was caught in his hand, and it was still trembling.

"He's actually been caught by the CAW!"

A cry of surprise came from the prisoner who had thrown the spear, and his face was full of fear.

The long spear originally carried an aura that could destroy the world. However, after it was grabbed by Tang Zhen, the aura suddenly disappeared without a trace.

It was like a stupid dog that was being strangled in Tang Zhen's hand. It kept shaking and wailed from time to time.

"It's impolite not to return the favor. Eat my spear!"

Tang Zhen coldly snorted. The long spear in his hand changed direction and he threw it ruthlessly at the purgatory prisoner who had just attacked.

This spear seemed to have a spirit of its own. It wanted to resist Tang Zhen's attack, but who would have thought that the force would be so thick that it was simply unable to resist.

The aggrieved and helpless spear continued to wail as it flew forward at high speed, shooting towards its master.

The purgatory prisoner who had attacked Tang Zhen earlier was still in a daze. When he saw Tang Zhen counter-attacking him with a long spear, he was instantly shocked.

"Not good, the spear is out of control!"

The purgatory prisoner shouted and dodged to the side without any hesitation, trying to avoid the attack.

However, the spear seemed to have eyes of its own. It changed direction and continued to fly in the direction he had dodged.

“What do you want? I’m your master, why are you chasing me?”

Seeing the long spear chasing closely behind him, the purgatory prisoner was so angry that he cursed out loud, but it was of no use.

As the weapon’s owner, he naturally knew the destructive power of this spear. With a full blow, even a sector Lord would be heavily injured.

If he was in the outside world, he could slowly recover even if he was injured.

However, in the purgatory abyss, the prisoners were already in a miserable state. If they were seriously injured, they would not be far from death.

Hearing its master’s angry curses, the Spear’s attack didn’t slow down in the slightest. Instead, it sped up and suddenly shot at the purgatory prisoner’s buttocks.

The moment the spear hit the target, it protected the heart desire and tried its best to dissipate the force. At the same time, it changed its direction to avoid the danger of its owner being hit in the ass.

“Aiyo, this deal is a huge loss!”

Touching his butt that had been pierced by the spear, the prisoner looked indignant and shouted to his companions around him, “ why aren’t we doing anything? when he really completes his advancement, can we beat him? ”

Upon hearing the loud roar of the purgatory prisoner, four figures charged toward Tang Zhen at the same time. They wanted to kill him directly.

“It’s too late to kill me.”

Tang Zhen revealed a contemptuous expression. He extended his hand and gently waved it at his surroundings.

The scorching dust in the surroundings rapidly rose and transformed into human figures, surrounding Tang Zhen.

This was the ability he obtained after reaching the 2nd realm. He could turn everything into weapons, even plants and rocks could be granted intelligence for a short period of time. His strength was comparable to the cultivators in the city.

The four purgatory prisoners ‘attacks landed, but they were blocked by the human-shaped objects. BOOM! BOOM! the loud sounds were endless.

Although this attack had successfully destroyed the dust guard, Tang Zhen was not the slightest bit injured. There was not even a trace of dust on his body.

long range attacks won't work. Let's attack at close range!

As one of the purgatory prisoners roared, the other three purgatory prisoners also moved forward. As they raised their palms, all kinds of weapons condensed in their hands.

"Brat, die!"

The four purgatory prisoners revealed excited expressions as they looked at Tang Zhen, who was sitting cross-legged on the ground and unable to move. It was as if they could already see the scene of them splitting the spoils of war equally after Tang Zhen was killed.

"You're the ones who will die."

...

Tang Zhen, who was sitting cross-legged on the ground, suddenly opened his mouth. As he laughed out loud, four energy arms shot out from his body.

His four arms grabbed the weapons and twisted them at the same time. With a series of cracking sounds, the weapons were all broken.

not good, this is a tricky problem. Brothers, retreat!

When the prisoner with the injured butt saw this, he immediately roared at his companion, covered his butt, and ran away without hesitation.

When his four companions saw this, they quickly flew back and retreated in the same direction.

"It's too late to run now."

Tang Zhen stood up from the ground and coldly looked at the four enemies. Killing intent was boiling in his eyes.

He punched the ground, and as the earth trembled, a human-shaped warrior made of burning dust appeared.

They were five meters tall, and they held large sabers and warhammers in their hands. They strode toward the five prisoners.

Hearing the heavy footsteps behind them, the five purgatory prisoners turned around and were instantly scared out of their wits.

"Oh my God, isn't this bullying?"

...

They cried out bitterly in their hearts, their faces full of dejection.

Even though the 5 of them were all sector Lords, they were only strong on the outside but weak on the inside. The attacks just now seemed fierce and sharp, but they could only sustain one wave.

After years of suffering in the purgatory abyss, his energy had been completely depleted. The attack just now was also a trace of energy accumulated by his mental space over the years. It was used as a life-saving trump card.

If it was not because Tang Zhen was in a state of advancement, there was a 99% chance of him failing. Otherwise, they would definitely not dare to launch a sneak attack.

If they succeeded, then it was fine. But if they failed, then their ending would be like this, being chased like a stray dog.

Right now, they were secretly regretting it in their hearts. They really shouldn't have listened to that bastard's instigations and recklessly provoked this terrifying fellow.

It was also at this moment that the humanoid Warriors had caught up, waving their heavy hammers and swords and slashing at them.

A few purgatory prisoners made a prompt decision, wriggling around in the thick and soft dust like Gophers, constantly avoiding the attacks that came at them, but they were complaining in their hearts.

As they dodged, they would also counterattack from time to time. However, these human warriors formed from dust were impossible to kill. Once they were scattered, more human warriors would immediately appear.

One did not need to guess to know that Tang Zhen was relying on the sufficient amount of heaven and earth energy in his body to maintain the attacking form of the human shaped warrior.

Unless Tang Zhen stopped casting, these human warriors would never dissipate. It would be strange if they did not die of exhaustion.

"Your Excellency, I was wrong. Please stop!"

The purgatory prisoner who still had a long spear stuck in his butt pleaded loudly, his face filled with panic. The long spear looked like his tail.

He couldn't beg for mercy. If this continued, it wouldn't be long before the brothers were killed here.

The situation was stronger than the person, even a sector Lord would have moments where he was short of breath.

Chapter 1717 The strange man is dead (1)

When he heard the purgatory prisoner's plea for mercy, Tang Zhen walked over and coldly glanced at him.

"Do you think it's too late to beg for mercy now?"

upon hearing tang zhen's mocking question, the purgatory prisoner dodged the attacks of the humanoid warrior while shouting, "there's still time, there's still time, your excellency, we were really wrong!"

His companions were the same. As they dodged the attacks, their faces were covered in dust, and they kept shouting and begging for mercy.

” that’s right, your excellency. we were really wrong! ” we were blinded by greed. We shouldn’t have listened to the vile person’s instigation. Please be magnanimous and don’t hold it against us.

Sir, please listen to me. We’ve all been thrown into the purgatory abyss. It’s not easy for either of us. Please spare us this time.

Tang Zhen revealed a strange expression when he heard the continuous pleas of those purgatory prisoners. He felt that it was somewhat unbelievable.

He had dominated the world of loucheng for tens of years and this was the first time he had seen such a shameless sector Lord.

However, Tang Zhen clearly understood that the other party had indeed reached the end of their rope. Otherwise, why would they act in such a manner?

It seemed like the purgatory abyss not only consumed heaven and earth energy, but also the pride of the cultivators.

“Forget it, I’ll spare your lives for now.”

The enmity between the two sides was not one that would not rest until one of them died. Tang Zhen originally did not have the intention to kill them all. At most, he would only teach them some lessons.

Otherwise, with his methods, killing the 5 sector Lords would be as easy as blowing off dust, why would he let them live for so long?

With a light wave of his hand, the humanoid Warriors stopped their attacks and turned into ashes that scattered with the wind.

Seeing this, the five purgatory prisoners relaxed and lay on the ground, panting.

The dodging just now had really tormented them. If it wasn’t for their Foundation as realm Lords, they would have already been exhausted.

“Oh my God, I almost died of exhaustion.”

The purgatory prisoner with a long spear stuck in his butt sighed. As he spoke, the long spear was still shaking.

Tang Zhen strode over. He looked down at the purgatory prisoner lying on the ground, shook his head, and sighed.

The purgatory abyss was indeed not a good place. Just by looking at the five sector Lord cultivators, one could tell that they must have suffered a lot.

A realm Lord cultivator who could roam the greater world and cross the void as he pleased was actually worse than a beggar here.

“Tell me, why did you attack me? If I’m satisfied with your answer, I can let you go. If not, you should know the consequences.”

Tang Zhen's ice-cold voice was transmitted over, causing the expressions of the five purgatory prisoners to freeze. Their bodies involuntarily trembled.

Sir, listen to me. We were incited and deceived by someone. If you want to take revenge, go find that guy. If you really can't, we can lead the way for you.

The purgatory prisoner with a long spear in his butt explained hurriedly, shirking his responsibility.

yeah, it really has nothing to do with us. We were all deceived.

"That brat is truly detestable. If you're willing, we brothers will go and beat him up right now and bring him here to be punished by you."

"That's right. As long as you say the word, we'll go through fire and water without hesitation!"

Tang Zhen waved his hand, indicating for them to shut up. After which, he coldly asked, "Since you've been deceived, I'll give you a chance. Bring that guy here now.

Otherwise, I won't let you off even if I have to search the entire hell abyss. Do you understand?"

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's words, the five purgatory prisoners no longer pretended to be dead. After leaping up from the ground, they patted their chests and guaranteed Tang Zhen, don't worry, we'll make a trip there and bring him over immediately.

After throwing down these words, the five purgatory prisoners ran off into the distance in a flash. Each and every one of them was afraid that Tang Zhen would go back on his words.

Tang Zhen was not in a hurry. In any case, there was no exit to the abyssal purgatory. If the five prisoners dared to escape, Tang Zhen would find them sooner or later.

At this moment, he had already reached the 2nd realm of the sector Lord realm, and his mental dimension was starting to produce an endless amount of World Energy. Although it still couldn't keep up with the amount consumed, it was still much stronger than when he had first entered.

Most importantly, the tower's foundation stone in his mind was also emitting energy, and it was extremely special.

Upon closer inspection, it was actually very similar to the power of destiny, yet not completely the same.

This kind of energy could be used by Tang Zhen at any time. When he summoned those human warriors earlier, he used this kind of special energy.

Moreover, this kind of energy wouldn't burn on its own. As long as Tang Zhen didn't use it, he could continue to gain likes.

As time passed, the quantitative change would turn into a qualitative change, and it might bring unexpected benefits.

In addition to these unexpected changes, the original function of the cornerstone of the City Tower was not affected. It could still search for heroic spirits and summon them.

Not only could the summoned energy cultivator use the energy of heaven and earth, but he could also use that special power. As for the specific effect, Tang Zhen still needed to experiment to know.

Just as he was carefully sensing the changes in his mind space, another series of footsteps sounded out from afar. Tang Zhen raised his head and saw that the five purgatory prisoners had returned.

At this moment, the five of them were gathered together. They were carrying a human-shaped object as they jubilantly dashed toward Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen did not need to look carefully to know that the object they were holding in midair was the strange man that he was bitterly chasing.

Because the tracking bird was circling in the sky and chirping, with an anxious expression, as if the five Guys on the ground had stolen its business.

“Sir, this is the guy who wants to harm you. We’ve already captured him.”

The purgatory prisoner in the lead looked at Tang Zhen with a fawning expression. As for the long spear that was stuck in his buttocks, it had already been pulled out and was now tied behind him.

Tang Zhen nodded his head. He looked at the strange man who was thrown on the ground, only to discover that he was already on the verge of death. It seemed that he did not have long to live.

“You didn’t expect us to meet again so soon, did you?”

Tang Zhen looked at the strange man and spoke in an indifferent tone.

hehehe, how could I not have thought of this? from the day I entered the purgatory abyss, I knew that we would meet very soon.

The strange man wanted to stand up from the ground, but the feeling of being looked down on by an enemy was very uncomfortable. However, his body was too weak, and he failed after several attempts.

In the end, he could only helplessly sit cross-legged on the ground. He raised his head and looked at Tang Zhen with a trace of arrogance and unwillingness in his eyes.

...

The purgatory abyss wasn’t a good place to begin with. Even the realm Lord cultivators had been tortured to the point where they were neither human nor ghost. He was just a child of destiny who was still recovering his strength. How could he withstand such a degree of torture?

To be able to live until now, he was probably relying on his will to hold on, wanting to see the final result.

Unfortunately, he still lost. He was completely defeated in the hands of Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen shook his head as he looked at the strange man whose body had already been burned and whose appearance was like a dried corpse.

“Now that you’re on the verge of death, what else do you have to say?”

The strange man coldly laughed when he heard Tang Zhen's words. He sighed and said, "The winner is king and the loser is vilified, what is there to say?"

The only thing I didn't expect was that you would have the courage to come to the path of fate to seek revenge.

I've come into contact with many cultivators in Lou city, and there's no lack of brave ones, but there are very few like you.

And the thing I admire about you the most is that you actually dared to enter the purgatory abyss.

You know that death is the only way out, but you still refuse to back down. To have made an enemy like you is the greatest misfortune of my life."

The strange man's breath became weaker and weaker as he spoke. His body was like a piece of cotton that was on fire, constantly burning and turning into ashes.

...

However, he did not care in the slightest and still stared fixedly at Tang Zhen. "I just want to ask you one thing. Is it worth it to get to this point where both sides are injured?"

"It doesn't matter if it's worth it or not. A man must repay kindness and take revenge.

You being alive is my greatest threat. I will only feel at ease if you die."

Tang Zhen softly said, answering the strange man's question.

The strange man laughed bitterly. The moment before he died, he stared unblinkingly at Tang Zhen. His cold voice seemed to have come from the Nine Hells, "Tang Zhen, I really want to see how exactly you are going to leave this abyss hell.

If you can really leave, then congratulations, I'll also be convinced of my loss."

As soon as he finished speaking, the strange man's body turned into a cloud of dust and disappeared with the wind.

After Hua Yue, the second Destiny's Child died in the hands of Tang Zhen.

Chapter 1718 A weird reason for going to jail (1)

Tang Zhen was silent for a long time as he looked at the strange man who had completely disappeared.

When a person died, their grudges would disappear. However, Tang Zhen did not have any special feelings after the other party died.

It could only be said that after stepping on the path of cultivation, he had been wandering in the cycle of killing and being hunted. He had seen life and death lightly and was used to it.

Compared to Hua Yue, this strange man was actually more worthy of Tang Zhen's respect.

He knew that he wasn't Tang Zhen's match, so he used his body as bait to set a trap to lure Tang Zhen.

Perhaps, it was because he understood Tang Zhen's character that he was so confident and certain that Tang Zhen would definitely follow him into the abyss.

The person who understood you the most in this world would always be your old enemy.

With the death of the strange man, Tang Zhen's mission to the fate Island was basically completed. The next thing he had to consider was how to leave the purgatory abyss.

Under normal circumstances, it was not an easy task to escape from prison. It could even be said to be as difficult as ascending to the heavens.

In the past countless years, countless purgatory prisoners had thought about this problem and had tried hard, but they had all failed without exception.

The reason for this was because this was a sealed world set up by a master of creation. If a world Overlord entered it, they would have no chance of escaping.

The Masters of creation and the sector Lord cultivators were two completely different forms. The difference wasn't limited to their cultivation, but the sublimation of their entire life form.

In a cage set up by such a powerful expert, only an artisan-level prisoner could break out of this sealed space by force. Otherwise, they would be imprisoned here forever.

However, in this prison where there was no energy of heaven and earth, it was not easy to maintain one's life. How could one break through to the creator level?

If one was determined to break through, the higher one's strength, the faster one would die.

It was likely not an easy task for Tang Zhen to leave this place. However, since he dared to enter, he also had the confidence to leave. It was just that he was not in a hurry.

Tang Zhen waved his hand in a bored manner as he looked at the five purgatory prisoners who were smiling obsequiously at the side. "Since you've already captured the person, then we can let bygones be bygones. You can leave now."

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's words, the purgatory prisoner whose butt had been pierced by a spear fell silent for a few breaths. He then looked at Tang Zhen and asked with a smile, "Sir, you've just arrived. I wonder if you need a guide or an attendant. If you need one, the five of us guarantee that you'll be satisfied.

"Yes, we've been here for hundreds of years, so we're very familiar with the terrain."

"A Big Shot like you should have a few underlings to run errands for you. Otherwise, wouldn't you lose face?"

"Don't worry, Sir. The five of us are cheap and useful. You won't regret it."

Tang Zhen waved his hand and stopped the five of them from continuing to promote their products. Soon after, he asked with a curious face, "The few of you must also be realm Lord cultivators. If you do things like this, won't you lose your own face?"

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's question, the head prisoner whose butt had been pierced by the spear curled his lips and said with a face full of disdain, "So what if you're a realm Lord? I don't care if you're at the first or second level. Even if you're a third level realm Lord, you're nothing here. In order to survive, he was even willing to be a dog, so how could he care about his face?"

To be honest, even if there's energy in dog shit, we brothers will eat it without hesitation."

Although the prisoner's boss did not seem to care about what he said, Tang Zhen could hear a trace of sadness and helplessness from his tone.

In purgatory, he had no choice but to make some changes if he wanted to live.

Tang Zhen originally wanted to refuse. However, after seeing the miserable appearance of these five people, he swallowed the words that were at the tip of his tongue.

Forget it, he didn't need this little bit of World Energy anyway, so he would just help them out.

When he thought of this, Tang Zhen took out a trace of the world's origin and threw it in front of the five purgatory prisoners.

before I leave this place, this will be the payment for hiring you. I think it should be enough.

Looking at the world's origin floating in front of them, the five purgatory prisoners' eyes were wide open, and they rushed up without hesitation.

"Enough, enough! You are indeed generous!"

it's been hundreds of years. I've finally seen the power of the origin source again!

"It's really good stuff, let's quickly split it up?"

don't worry, let me feel that familiar aura. It's really intoxicating.

Upon seeing this, the prisoner leader was so angry that he cursed, " what the f * ck are you dawdling for? if you wait any longer, it'll all be f * cking burnt!

Hearing this, the other four purgatory prisoners suddenly came back to their senses. They reluctantly refined and absorbed the origin Energy, and then they showed a look of enjoyment.

After absorbing the origin Energy, their originally rotten bodies began to change. On the surface, he looked no different from a normal person.

haha, after absorbing this world's origin, we brothers will be able to hold on for another eight to ten years.

The head prisoner laughed heartily and waved at the other four. He then walked forward and bowed to Tang Zhen.

"If you need anything, please say it. As long as we brothers can do it, we promise we won't hesitate to do it."

Tang Zhen glanced at the eldest prisoner. This eldest prisoner did have some redeeming qualities for being able to resist the temptation of the origin Energy and leave the opportunity to his brothers.

"I don't have anything for you to do for the time being. I'm just curious, how did you get thrown into the purgatory abyss?"

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's question, the prisoner leader immediately revealed an indignant expression. The other four prisoners also had the same expression.

"I can't hold my breath when I mention this. Back then, the five of us heard that there was a lot of good food and wine on the island of destiny, so after completing a mission, we ran here excitedly.

In the end, when we arrived at the island of destiny, we found out that we couldn't walk around randomly. We had no choice but to stay in that Inn all day.

Although our movements are restricted, our purpose is to taste the food and wine here, so it's fine even if we can't walk around.

in the end, one day, we drank too much and forgot about the Bullsh * t rules here. We saw a group of fat birds flying in the sky and wanted to catch them to drink with us.

Who knew that the bird was so agile that he couldn't catch it after a long time and finally ran far away.

We were so drunk that we forgot that we were not allowed to fly here, so we all rushed up to catch the bird.

In the end, even though the bird was caught, we were also unlucky. A large hand caught the five of us and threw us into the abyss without any room for discussion.

I never dreamed that I would be thrown into the hell abyss just because I caught a bird, and locked up for a few hundred years. Tell me, where do you think we can find any reason for this?"

At this point, the prisoner leader squatted on the ground and held his head in frustration.

The other four prisoners were the same. They all squatted on the ground and sighed.

...

Tang Zhen could not help but be dumbstruck when he heard the prisoner boss's description. He really did not expect that they were thrown into the abyssal purgatory for such a strange reason.

He had been sentenced to life in prison after drinking and catching a bird. He had indeed been wronged.

However, this was the rule of the island of destiny. When the Wheel of Destiny dealt with this kind of matter, it had always been merciless. As long as the rules were violated, even the son of destiny would not be forgiven.

It could only be said that the luck of these five unlucky fellows was not good. They had nothing better to do than to come to this fate Island. They were really too bored.

Chapter 1719 Recruiting a group of sector Lord hatchet men (1)

After hearing the old prisoner's unbearable past, Tang Zhen could only shake his head and sigh. Fate was truly making a fool of him.

Who would have thought that a small mistake would cause five sector Lord cultivators to be thrown into the abyss of hell and suffer for hundreds of years?

Moreover, this torture was endless. As long as they didn't leave the abyssal purgatory, they might lose their lives here sooner or later.

"Alright, you guys don't need to be depressed. If you have that much time, you might as well think of a way to escape from this place."

Tang Zhen casually said. At the same time, he prepared to summon the balance of fate.

"Your Excellency, it's easy for you to say that. If we could leave, why would we stay here? I'm afraid he would have escaped long ago and would never come back to the island of destiny again."

The other four prisoners nodded at the same time, their faces full of helplessness.

Tang Zhen also ignored them. He merely silently summoned the scales of fate in his heart and quickly received a response.

what price do I have to pay if I want to leave the abyss and hell? "

After hearing Tang Zhen's request, one end of the balance of fate flashed, and a ball of light slowly appeared.

Tang Zhen felt a slight joy in his heart. He secretly thought that the scales of fate were really omnipotent.

He took out the coin of destiny that was previously stored in his mind and threw it into the balance of destiny. It didn't take long for the ball of light to fly into Tang Zhen's hand.

He had spent a total of 10000 destiny gold coins, but as long as he could bring Tang Zhen out of this place, it would be worth it even if he had to spend ten times more.

Tang Zhen took out the light ball from his mind. It turned out to be a key-shaped object. After studying it for a while, he understood the use of this object.

It was a replica, and the main body was located in an unknown place in the abyssal purgatory. As long as the prisoner found it, he would have the right to escape the cage.

As long as Tang Zhen activated this key, he would be able to immediately leave the purgatory abyss and be randomly teleported to any corner of the fate Island.

It seemed that this purgatory abyss, known as the one way out, did not have a way out. It was just that it was extremely difficult to find.

This situation was normal. If it was a Pure Land of death, without a trace of life, it would probably not be tolerated by the laws and would not be able to exist for long.

Now that he had the key, Tang Zhen could leave at any time. Just as he was about to activate the key, a flash of inspiration appeared in his mind, and he temporarily stopped the activation.

Looking at the five purgatory prisoners who were squatting on the ground, Tang Zhen softly asked, "If I can take you out of the purgatory abyss, how are you going to thank me?"

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's words, the five prisoners were stunned for a moment. Their faces were filled with doubt and shock.

"Your Excellency, are you trying to make us happy?"

"That's right, this joke isn't funny at all."

"If you can really bring me out of here, I'll even call you my father!"

"You're so shameless. Who would want a stupid son like you? However, if you can really bring us out, we're willing to work like cows and horses."

that's right, that's right. Even if I have to eat dirt outside, it's still much better than staying here. I don't want to stay in this damn place for another second!

After hearing the five prisoners' answers, Tang Zhen smiled and said, "So that's what you all think. As long as I help you get out, I'll even be willing to be your slave?"

The prisoner leader took a serious look at Tang Zhen before he nodded and replied, "You're new here and don't know what kind of suffering you'll suffer here. Is it normal to doubt our sincerity?"

If you're also trapped here for a few hundred years, suffering every second, you'll know if we're sincere or not."

After pausing for a moment, he once again looked at Tang Zhen with a puzzled expression. He seemed to be unable to understand why Tang Zhen had asked this question.

Could it be that he had made a mistake? did this cultivator, who had just entered the purgatory abyss, really have a way to leave?

But on second thought, he felt that it was unlikely.

For so many years, countless experts had been trapped in the purgatory abyss, and many of them were extremely talented. However, they still couldn't leave and were trapped here until their deaths.

The human cultivator before him had only just entered the second realm. Although he was a powerful cultivator, he might not be able to find a way to leave the purgatory abyss.

Such a confident performance was only because he had not suffered a blow. He would soon find out how ridiculous his thoughts were.

When he saw the puzzled expressions of the five prisoners who had escaped from the prison, Tang Zhen did not explain much. Instead, he asked them to contact the prisoners who wanted to leave the abyssal purgatory. The more the better.

Although the five of them felt puzzled, they would naturally not reject Tang Zhen's arrangement since they had already accepted his employment.

After gathering together and studying it for a while, the five of them went in different directions. Their actions were decisive.

Tang Zhen stood quietly at his original spot, waiting for the purgatory prisoners to come to him on their own accord. However, many thoughts flashed through his mind.

The reason he did this was because of an idea that suddenly appeared in his mind, and it was highly feasible.

There was a knot in Tang Zhen's heart. Back then, when the wild war zone was destroyed, he was unable to stop it and could only watch as the enemy left.

one day, a debt of blood will be paid in blood. Attacking the world where the terobo people live was also the promise he made to all the residents of Holy Dragon City.

It was only because the tribesmen were so powerful that his own strength was not enough to deal with this epic-level invasion, which was why he had not made a move yet.

Just as he was about to leave, a thought suddenly appeared in his mind. Could he use the sector Lords in the abyss purgatory to help him fight an invasion?

Tens of sector Lords forming an alliance to invade a world, just thinking about it was terrifying. No matter how strong the terobo people were, they wouldn't be able to defend!

Just a few dozen sector Lords weren't enough, because the world the teroboros people lived in was a starry sky, radiating to many planets, it wasn't as simple as a plane invasion.

Hence, other than sector Lord level Warriors, he also needed to recruit many cultivators and mercenaries.

The manpower in the Holy Dragon War zone and the cracked territory alone would definitely not be enough, so he might have to recruit from the entire fifth battle zone.

If he really couldn't, he could contact other battlefields and post Recruitment messages on their battlefields 'platforms. As long as the rewards were generous, there would be no shortage of applicants.

He could also ask the sector Lords he brought out to help. With their influence, it should be easy to recruit some mercenaries.

This was Tang Zhen's plan. If it could be successfully implemented, the doomsday of the tribesmen would soon arrive.

This was definitely a bold and crazy plan. According to Tang Zhen's understanding, there were very few Wars that invaded star systems in the history of the tower world.

If they could invade under his command and obtain the final victory, then he would leave his name in history in the entire world of loucheng.

This process might require a large amount of manpower and resources, so much that even Tang Zhen could not afford it. However, once it was successful, they would obtain a return that was tens or even hundreds of times more!

...

After this thought gushed out of his heart, he could no longer suppress it. Therefore, Tang Zhen made up his mind in an extremely short amount of time and decided to gamble.

There was no need to mention the benefits of success. Even if they failed, it would be a heavy blow to the tribesmen, and it could be considered as revenge for what had happened back then.

Just as Tang Zhen was carefully studying the entire plan, numerous figures appeared one after another. Their auras were astonishing. They were all purgatory prisoners who had rushed over after being notified.

The enormous Fire Dragon that Tang Zhen had seen earlier was also among the group. At this moment, it was circling in the air a thousand meters away from Tang Zhen. It was sizing him up without blinking.

Tang Zhen carefully distinguished the fire Dragon's aura and confirmed that it was a 3rd level sector Lord, only a step away from the artisan realm.

However, in the purgatory abyss, his strength couldn't increase at all. This resulted in him having the aura of a sector Lord Level 3, but not the corresponding strength.

Strong on the outside but weak on the inside, even Tang Zhen who had just reached the 2nd level of the world Overlord realm could fight him to a standstill.

I heard that you can take us out of the purgatory abyss. Are you serious? "

The fire Dragon's voice resounded from the sky and reverberated around Tang Zhen. For a time, the fire waves churned.

"This is a serious matter. Do you think I would joke about this?"

Hearing Tang Zhen's question, the fire Dragon nodded its head. A trace of joy was revealed in its eyes. Soon after, it continued to ask, "In that case, please state your request."

...

As he watched the increasing number of purgatory prisoners gathering around him, Tang Zhen stood up and raised the key in his hand, displaying it to the prisoners.

this is the way to leave the purgatory abyss. My request is simple. After I take you out of here, you must help me fight an invasion without any compensation!

Chapter 1720 Two choices _

After hearing Tang Zhen's explanation, those purgatory prisoners looked at the key in his hand at the same time.

"Are you saying that we can leave this place through this key?"

A puzzled expression appeared on the purgatory Fire Dragon's face. After pondering for a moment, it looked at Tang Zhen with shock.

I've heard of a legend that there's an item hidden in the abyssal purgatory. As long as we find it, we can return to the outside world. Could it be that this is the key? "

"That's right. There is indeed such an item. Moreover, it's in my hands." Tang Zhen nodded.

The hell fire Dragon nodded and said in an envious tone, " "Congratulations, you actually have such good luck. Of course, I believe that you came prepared. Otherwise, we couldn't find it after searching for countless years. How did you get it the moment you came?"

Tang Zhen smiled but did not give an explanation.

Who knew where the real key was? the balance of fate had only given him a replica.

Although he wasn't sure if the functions were the same, Tang Zhen didn't care about anything else as long as he could bring people out.

The other purgatory prisoners looked at each other. Many of them didn't even know that this legend existed. Now that they saw that the most experienced purgatory Fire Dragon had also confirmed Tang Zhen's words, they immediately became excited.

To them, this was undoubtedly great news. They were willing to pay any price to get rid of the imprisonment of the abyssal purgatory.

To sector Lords like them, it was as easy as blowing off dust.

However, that purgatory Fire Dragon opened its mouth once again and spoke to Tang Zhen in a serious tone,"Even if this key is real, there is only one. Can you lead so many people away?"

Upon hearing this sentence, the originally excited prisoners were immediately stunned. The gazes they used to look at Tang Zhen had also become complicated.

If there was only one chance to escape, who would it fall to?

This was a matter of life and death, so who would give up so easily?

The atmosphere at the scene became a little tense. Some prisoners were already prepared. If the situation changed, they would directly snatch it.

Instead of continuing to live, it was better to fight for a chance to regain freedom.

Tang Zhen smiled and kept the key in his hand. He looked at the fire Dragon and those prisoners and said, since I dared to gather you, I have the confidence to take you away. What you need to do is to sign a contract with me.

The hell fire Dragon nodded. Signing a contract was not a big deal. As long as they followed the contents of the contract, it would not be too much of a restriction to them.

After some thought, the hell fire Dragon nodded and said, " "Since you've said so, I'll believe you can do it for the time being. But have you ever considered another problem? how are we going to leave the island of destiny?"

We're all prisoners. Who knows if the Wheel of Fortune will throw us back in after we get out?

Even if they didn't have the status of a prisoner, none of the sector Lords present were residents of fate Island. Even if they didn't have the status of a prisoner, they weren't allowed to walk freely on fate Island.

Unless you have a key that can teleport everyone out of the island of destiny, then all the problems can be solved.

However, as far as I know, the abyssal star sea blocks off all transmission functions and can only be called a special means of transportation. That's why it's impossible to be transmitted to the outside world."

When the purgatory Fire Dragon spoke up to this point, he stared at Tang Zhen without blinking. He wanted to hear how Tang Zhen would solve this problem.

The other party's question seemed to be difficult, but in fact, it was something that had to be considered. If there was an oversight, it could lead to all their previous efforts being in vain.

Tang Zhen had already thought about these questions earlier. Therefore, his face revealed a confident expression after hearing the question of the purgatory Fire Dragon.

"This Tang has already considered the problems that Your Excellency mentioned and has a way to deal with them.

If this key can only transport one person, you will need to enter my mind space. That way, when I leave, I can take you with me."

Upon hearing the answer given by Tang Zhen, a purgatory prisoner beside him shook his head."In that case, isn't our life and death in your hands? isn't that inappropriate?"

Tang Zhen coldly laughed when he heard this. He looked at the purgatory prisoner and said,"This Tang is willing to share this precious opportunity with you and sign a contract. If this still can't exchange for your trust, then I can't do anything about it.

The choice is in your hands, and you only have one chance. Just think about it."

Ignoring those purgatory prisoners who had a contemplative look on their faces, Tang Zhen continued,"After you enter the mind space, I will activate the key and lead you out of the purgatory abyss.

"My other identity is the son of destiny candidate for the Wheel of Destiny. I have the authority to walk freely on the island of destiny. Therefore, the problem that His Excellency Fire Dragon was worried about just now is the easiest problem to solve."

Tang Zhen swept a glance at the purgatory prisoners present. He paused for a moment before he continued, Actually, this is only the first option. If you really don't trust me and don't want to enter my mind space, I have another option for you.

The purgatory Fire Dragon was originally still pondering over Tang Zhen's plan. When it heard that there was another method, it immediately looked at him and asked,"There's actually a way? are you joking?"

Ever since the inferno Fire Dragon had been imprisoned in the abyssal Inferno, it had never given up on finding a way to escape. The prisoners of his generation were the same, but no one had ever succeeded.

In the end, Tang Zhen actually said that there was more than one way to leave this place. This caused the purgatory Fire Dragon to feel shocked and at the same time, it also had an illusion.

Could it be that the fire had damaged his brain and caused his IQ to drop? was that why the other party could think of more than one method while he didn't think of any?

In reality, not only was the purgatory Fire Dragon shocked, the other purgatory prisoners also had similar expressions. They felt that Tang Zhen's words were somewhat inconceivable.

They looked at Tang Zhen in unison, waiting for him to give an explanation.

Tang Zhen did not hold back and explained to the prisoners, "Actually, the second method is related to the first method. It also requires a key."

After hearing Tang Zhen's explanation, the purgatory Fire Dragon laughed involuntarily, "There's only one key, which means everyone can only choose one method, so there's no need to talk about the second method.

Those who don't agree to enter the mind space, just let them stay in the purgatory abyss. If you're not convinced, come and talk to me!"

After saying that, the hell fire Dragon looked around with a provocative look.

Upon seeing this, the purgatory prisoner, who was still harboring some thoughts, immediately shrank his neck and hid, not daring to provoke the most senior fellow in the purgatory abyss.

If she angered him, she might be swallowed in one bite the next moment.

Even though he had been through a lot in the abyss hell, the other party was still a 3rd level sector Lord. Crushing the 2nd level cultivators in the abyss hell was a piece of cake.

With the inferno Dragon's intimidation, the other prisoners all became well-behaved.

However, Tang Zhen still had to finish his words. This second method might seem redundant, but it could effectively resolve the concerns of the prisoners. At the same time, it could also provide him with an opportunity to make a fortune.

"When did I say that there was only one of these keys?"

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's words, all the prisoners, including the purgatory Fire Dragon, were stunned. The gazes they used to look at Tang Zhen became increasingly strange.

It was difficult for others to get a single key, but you got more than one. How could you live?

...

The hell fire Dragon's face turned red, but he knew that it wasn't the time to think about his reputation. The most important thing was to figure out how to use the second method.

"Don't keep me in suspense, tell me what your request is."

Upon hearing the inferno Dragon's anxious tone, Tang Zhen immediately said, one key for 100000 destiny gold coins. Sign a contract and find a way to leave the island of destiny. However, you still have to help me participate in the plane invasion. When the time comes, you can enjoy the war benefits according to the proportion.

After saying this, Tang Zhen looked at the prisoners and smiled as he waited for them to make their choice.
