Chapter 1751 Entering the shop to cause trouble (1)

After entering the shop, Tang Zhen sized it up and discovered that the decorations here really had some magical aura.

At least, from his point of view, he could not find any fault with it. If he did not know that he was on a tourist planet, he would even feel as if he had crossed into another dimension.

It was likely that the tribesmen had recorded the invaded planes in detail for memory and research, and when needed, the city would directly copy the data.

This Art Company used its original items and turned into an antique shop. In the hardwood showcases full of decorative patterns, antique goods were displayed.

There were over ten customers in the store. There was a shop assistant dressed in retro-style clothes beside Tang Zhen. At this moment, they were all smiling as they introduced the goods to two customers who seemed to be a couple.

“This short sword is the Royal sword of the Earth Spirit clan. It’s made of a very rare metal, and not only is it inlaid with precious natural gemstones, but it also has mysterious and complicated runes.

When you hold this dagger, its surface will glow, and when you hold the hilt, the dagger will suddenly grow longer, and pop out from the blade.

It’s extremely hard and can cut through iron as if it was mud. After the Earth Spirit race disappeared, the manufacturing industry of this type of dagger was lost, and it’s survival rate decreased.”

The shopkeeper went on and on, praising an ordinary rune weapon to the level of a rare treasure. His purpose was nothing more than to get the tourists to pay.

After being hoodwinked by the shop assistant, the tourists were obviously a little tempted. It was magic-themed week, and an expensive antique short sword seemed to suit the occasion.

After discussing in a low voice, the couple was about to pay for the valuable sword.

“If I were you, I definitely wouldn’t spend so much money, but in the end, I bought a piece of junk!”

Tang Zhen’s voice suddenly sounded, causing everyone around to be stunned. They all looked at him in unison.

“Teacher, what do you mean by this?”

The expression of the shop assistant who was trying his best to promote the store earlier changed. He sized up Tang Zhen a few times and said with a fake smile, “Every item in our store is absolutely genuine. We guarantee that we won’t deceive our customers.

Your irresponsible nonsense will greatly affect our shop’s reputation, and we might even have to compensate for the possible losses.”

On the surface, there seemed to be nothing wrong with the shop assistant's words, but the expression in his eyes made people very uncomfortable.

The customers who had planned to buy the items were no longer in a hurry. They just watched quietly from the side, wondering what would happen next.

Tang Zhen glanced at the shop assistant and pointed to the product he had just introduced and said, the Earth Spirit's Royal Guard's short sword. It's a pretty good collection, but the one in your shop is not only a fake, but also a defective one.

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's words, not only were the customers shocked, but the expressions of a few shop assistants also changed slightly. This kind of matter really affected their reputation too much.

"Sir, if you continue to cause trouble, I'll inform the ground guards!"

The smile on the shop assistant's face was no longer there as she coldly looked at Tang Zhen. Her tone had also become cold and stern.

"You think I'm causing trouble? fine, do you dare to take out this dagger and let us all see it up close?"

Tang Zhen looked at the shop assistant and asked in an indifferent tone.

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's words, those few shop assistants exchanged glances and communicated with their eyes. Soon after, they looked at Tang Zhen and sneered, "We can take it out, but what if it proves that you're lying?"

"You can just take it out. If I don't tell you the truth, I'll let you deal with it." Tang Zhen laughed.

"Alright, let's see what you're going to do later."

The shop assistant had personally participated in the excavation of the ruins, and he had handled the dagger. He was sure that there would be no problems.

He walked to the counter, reached out, and scanned the transparent display case. The antique display case slowly opened.

"Now, look carefully. Is this Earth Spirit clan's short sword real or fake?"

As the shop assistant spoke, he reached out to grab the short sword, wanting to show it to the crowd.

However, just as the dagger was taken out of the display cabinet, a shocking scene happened. Under everyone's gaze, the dagger seemed to have been corroded by wind and frost for a thousand years in an extremely short time, becoming extremely rotten.

"Huala!"

The short sword was broken from the hilt and fell to the ground. It actually broke into several pieces like rotten wood, and the residue flew everywhere.

The shop was silent. Everyone looked at the pile of broken pieces on the ground with a complicated expression.

The shop assistants, in particular, looked as if they had just eaten a fly. They had just vowed that the dagger was extremely hard, but in the blink of an eye, they had been slapped in the face.

If a weapon like this could kill an enemy, even a wooden stick would be more reliable than it.

Or were the Earth Spirit clan's enemies made of tofu, and could be killed with a toothpick?

If the shop assistant dared to say that, she would probably be drowned in spit.

"So, how are you going to explain this?"

Tang Zhen looked at the shop assistant with a smile that was not a smile as he inquired in a faint tone. The other customers also looked at the shop assistant at the same time.

"This Yingluo."

The shop assistant was also dumbfounded. He also didn't understand what was going on. How could such a situation happen to a perfectly fine antique?

don't say that. Tell me what happened. If you don't explain it clearly, I'll immediately complain about your shop!

The customer who was about to pay for the item earlier had an angry expression on his face. He felt as if he was being treated as a fool. Fortunately, Tang Zhen opened his mouth. Otherwise, he wouldn't even know that he had been cheated.

that's right! How could you do this? " this is a black shop. This is a black shop. You are the disgrace of the terobo people.

this short sword is fake, so the others are probably fake as well. Let's leave quickly and inform our friends about this. Tell them not to come here.

The shop assistants panicked when they heard the customers' discussion.

Due to their long lifespans, the circle of friends of the tribesmen was not simple. It would not take long for news of what happened on this planet to spread to another planet. This was a fatal blow to their reputation.

please don't think too much about it. There must be some misunderstanding. Our shop has been in business for hundreds of years, and we have never deceived our customers.

After hearing the shop assistant's explanation, the customers looked a little hesitant. They really didn't understand how a shop on a tourist planet could deceive its customers.

Only those vulgar and low-class races would resort to such underhanded means. The teroboros rarely did such things.

we only believe in the truth and our own eyes. Since you say that this is a misunderstanding, do you dare to open the other cabinets and let everyone see if there is a problem? "

Seeing that it was Tang Zhen who spoke again, the shop assistants gritted their teeth in hatred. However, in front of so many customers, they were really helpless.

However, in their hearts, they had already determined that Tang Zhen was deliberately looking for trouble. His goal was to put them in a difficult position.

They made up their minds in their hearts. If they were to figure out the cause and effect and confirm that Tang Zhen was deliberately causing trouble, they would definitely not let this matter go.

It was just that until now, the shop assistant had yet to figure out the specific reason. In the face of Tang Zhen's inquiry and the customers' intense gazes, she felt as if she was sitting on pins and needles.

A shop assistant came in front of Tang Zhen and asked in a low voice, "Who are you? what do you want?"

Tang Zhen smiled when he heard this. He said the name of a book. After which, he looked at the shop assistant whose expression had changed slightly as he quietly waited for the other party's reply.

Chapter 1752 Forced you to make a move (1)

Seeing the shop assistant's reaction, Tang Zhen knew that he had come to the right place.

At the moment, he could only confirm that the other party knew about the books, but he couldn't be sure how much he knew or whether the books were in the store.

Although he could directly search through his memories, it would easily alert the enemy. If the other party saw that the situation was not good and destroyed the book in a desperate situation, Tang Zhen's efforts would be in vain.

In truth, although Tang Zhen had acted quickly, he had still wasted some time. It was enough for those who were observant to react.

If the other party's vigilance was high enough, he could completely speculate that someone had their eyes on those books from the encounter with the library and master Waller.

The fact that the other party had spent so much effort to move a few books showed that they had different meanings and must have placed great importance on them.

Therefore, Tang Zhen simply revealed his identity and let the other party know his intention of coming. He planned to lure the snake out of its hole.

As long as the other party responded, he would be able to follow the clues and find useful clues for himself.

Sure enough, just as Tang Zhen had expected, when the shop assistant heard the name of the book mentioned by Tang Zhen, his expression became unnatural. He even secretly gave his companion a look.

From this, it could be seen that the relationship between the employees was not simple. They had worked together for a long time and had long developed a tacit understanding.

The shop assistants on the opposite side also responded. When the short sword shattered earlier, they had already focused all their attention on Tang Zhen. Their expressions were uncertain.

On the surface, Tang Zhen seemed to be unaware, but in reality, he had long been observing the surroundings and paying attention to the every move of those shop assistants.

Soon, he noticed that a shop assistant in the corner had turned around secretly, as if he was using some kind of item to send a message.

He extended his spiritual power and locked onto the shop assistant. The information that the other party was communicating with entered his eyes.

“Someone is looking for those books and is causing trouble in the shop. What should we do?”

keep the other party in check. I’ll figure out his background and then make plans.

should we control this guy first? if we let him continue to cause trouble, our reputation will be ruined?”

“You guys act according to the situation. Don’t make too big of a commotion, so as not to affect our plan.”

“Understood, we know our limits.”

After the exchange between both parties ended, that shop assistant turned around and swept a glance at Tang Zhen. A trace of cold glint flashed across his eyes.

It seemed that he had already made up his mind and was prepared to show Tang Zhen what he could do.

The tribesmen were not United, and there were also disputes between factions. However, these facts were mostly hidden, and few people knew about them.

At this moment, the customers were still waiting for a reply. They wanted to know if this was a coincidence or if the store was selling problematic products.

This matter did not cause them any losses. The purpose of stopping now was only to watch the show.

The shop assistant who was in charge of explaining looked at his companion, only to see him secretly make a hand gesture. He immediately understood his companion’s plan.

Reaching out to signal the customer not to be excited, the shop assistant turned to look at Tang Zhen and said in a disdainful tone, “Everyone, listen to me. We’ve just found out that this gentleman was sent by our competitor.

This person’s purpose is to cause trouble and ruin our store’s reputation. Don’t be used by him, or you’ll really be fooled.

As for the problematic antiques, they must have done something to them. That was why he was so sure that there was a problem with the dagger.

Otherwise, he wouldn’t have known that there was a problem if he hadn’t touched antiques before. Everyone only needed to think for a moment to understand.”

When the customers around them heard this, they seemed to come to a realization and seemed to think that the shop assistant's words made sense.

After all, the matter just now was indeed a little unreasonable. If Tang Zhen was said to be deliberately causing trouble, then it would make sense.

Therefore, they looked at Tang Zhen one after another. There was doubt in their eyes, as well as reprimand. There were even people who directly opened their mouths and asked him to prove his innocence.

People like them were just here to watch a show.

Tang Zhen originally couldn't be bothered with these teroboros people. However, he thought of his plan to lure the snake out of its hole and decided to play with them for a while.

"Since you're so sure that I've tampered with the items here, you must have enough evidence. Then let me ask you, is there anything that I've tampered with?"

One or two items could be tampered with, but it was impossible for all the items to be tampered with. That kind of thing would never happen.

So, as long as you take out an authentic one to prove your innocence, it will be considered that you did not deceive the customer.

"I've already given you a chance to prove your innocence. What do you think of this?"

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, those customers felt that it made sense. They turned their heads to look at the shop assistant again, wanting to see how he would respond.

The shop assistant was a little embarrassed. The incident just now made him worried. What if he picked out an item and it suddenly broke? what should he do?

Seeing his companion's awkward expression, another shop assistant stood up and said loudly to the customers, "everyone, please be quiet. I've just informed the ground guards. They'll arrive at the scene very soon and figure out the cause and effect of the incident.

This was a matter of honor and integrity, so he could not take it lightly.

Therefore, our shop is temporarily closed. Please leave for the time being to avoid any misunderstandings."

Hearing that the shop had already called the police, the customers stopped talking and turned to leave.

As for whether the store really called the police or what would happen next, the customers didn't care at all, so as not to get themselves into trouble.

The only regret was that he could not see the results at the first moment, which could not satisfy his curiosity.

After all the customers left, only Tang Zhen and the shop assistants were left in the shop. The scene began to become quiet.

Tang Zhen merely stood quietly on the spot. He smiled as he sized up the shop assistant standing in front of him, wanting to see their next action.

“What is your background? now you should tell me, right?”

The shop assistant said with a fake smile. Compared to before, his smile now had a trace of contempt and a smug smile of victory.

Tang Zhen gently shook his head when he heard this.

“I can’t say that you’re not qualified.”

Hearing Tang Zhen’s words, the coldness on the shop assistant’s face became even more intense. He suddenly took out a gun and pointed it at Tang Zhen.

As he took out his pistol, the rest of the shop assistants also took out their weapons from under their robes and surrounded Tang Zhen.

The atmosphere in the shop became tense. However, Tang Zhen, who was in the middle, did not have a change in his expression. His gaze swept across the other party’s proud face and a trace of contempt flashed in his eyes.

“You trash are qualified to threaten me with a gun?”

As soon as he finished speaking, the shop assistants felt a burning sensation in their hands, as if they were holding a piece of red-hot iron. They were so frightened that they quickly threw their weapons on the ground.

But even so, their palms were still severely burned, and the weapons on the ground seemed to be melting. They had been completely deformed.

Upon seeing this abnormal and strange scene, the expressions of those shop assistants changed drastically. They looked at Tang Zhen as though they had seen a ghost. Their eyes were filled with an uncontrollable fear.

This method was too terrifying. It could actually destroy the enemy’s weapon without a sound. What else could deal with him?

At this moment, the danger level of Tang Zhen in the store assistant’s heart had already rapidly increased. If he could kill Tang Zhen, he would definitely not hold back.

Once again, they extended their hands to their waists. This time, they actually took out high-frequency vibration daggers. The armor-piercing stiletto with a terrifying rotation speed was brandished straight at Tang Zhen.

Using the shop as a cover and carrying so many weapons at the same time, these guys were obviously not good people.

Chapter 1753 Three reinforcements (1)

Tang Zhen was in no hurry when faced with the weapons that were coming at him. He casually waved his hand from his original spot and caused those fatal attacks to disappear.

The shop assistants were even more miserable this time. Their bodies flew out and smashed into various objects, making " hualala " sounds.

The two consecutive failed attacks had also caused these shop assistants to clearly realize that they were simply not Tang Zhen's match. The strength of both parties was not on the same level.

They were similarly clear that Tang Zhen was merely unwilling to kill them. Otherwise, the few shop assistants would have long become corpses.

The shop assistants were not stupid. They knew that they were not as good as him, so if they continued to overestimate their abilities, they would really be courting death.

However, their identities were not simple, and the things they did were not simple. They could not compromise easily.

The shop assistant who was the first to communicate with Tang Zhen crawled up. He rubbed his arm and asked Tang Zhen, "Sir, what do you want to do? must we fight to the death?"

Although they were not afraid of death, they couldn't die casually. This was the mentality of these shop assistants.

Tang Zhen didn't bother with the other party. The few shop assistants didn't have any sincerity at all. What they were doing now was just a stalling tactic.

Tang Zhen's line of sight swept across the few shop assistants and landed on their gloomy faces. He quickly revealed a surprised expression.

you guys aren't from the terobo tribe? this is interesting!

It turned out that the shop assistant in front of him only had the appearance, and her appearance did not match the form of her soul. It was as if a malicious ghost had possessed her and borrowed her body.

The customers probably didn't expect that all the employees in the shop were from unknown races.

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's words, the expressions of the few shop assistants really changed as their bodies began to tremble violently.

Compared to the faint killing intent that they had revealed earlier, their expressions were now ferocious, and there was even a hint of madness in their eyes.

Tang Zhen's words had already touched on their greatest secret. Once it was revealed, the consequences would be too ghastly to imagine.

At this moment, it was time for someone to make a sacrifice.

The shop assistant opposite Tang Zhen revealed a determined expression. One of his hands quietly reached for his waist while quietly approaching Tang Zhen.

The atmosphere in the shop quieted down again, but the killing intent was even stronger.

“Go to hell!”

That shop assistant was the closest to Tang Zhen. At this moment, he suddenly rushed forward in an attempt to protect Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen laughed softly when he saw this. He used a slightly mocking tone and said, “I’ve seen through you and you want to die together with me. Unfortunately, you’re not worthy!”

As soon as he finished speaking, the staff who was trying to rush over froze. Then, her feet floated off the ground with a face full of horror, like a puppet suspended in the air.

“Clang!”

A crisp sound was heard, and something fell from his waist. It looked like a cigarette box.

Tang Zhen extended his hand and beckoned, causing the box to fly into his hand. When the shop assistants beside him saw this, their expressions turned extremely ugly, and there was a faint trace of despair in their anger.

miniature space collapse bomb? do you really think that this thing can kill me? ”

At the same time Tang Zhen sneered, he threw the bomb on the ground and lightly stepped on it with his foot.

The shop assistant at the side looked as if he had seen a ghost. After cursing “ damn it “, he turned around and ran without hesitation, afraid that he would be involved.

“Pa!”

With a crisp sound, the box suddenly shattered. Then, with the box as the center, whether it was the ground or the surrounding items, everything was sucked into a vortex and continuously disappeared.

The effective range of the space collapse bomb was ten meters, and no matter what object was in it, it was almost impossible to avoid being swallowed.

However, when the explosion occurred, Tang Zhen was standing at the center of the collapse. The terrifying devouring force did not seem to have any effect on him.

The entire process of the explosion and collapse only took a fraction of a second, but all the objects in the range of the explosion disappeared. Then, everything returned to normal.

The shop assistant who tried to die with Tang Zhen had been swallowed by the vortex, leaving no trace behind.

The staff who witnessed the entire scene had indescribable fear on their faces. In their eyes, this was simply impossible.

“Monster!”

A shop assistant shouted in horror. He subconsciously picked up a long spear beside him and threw it at Tang Zhen, who was at the point of collapse.

“You’re looking for death!”

Before the flying spear could even approach Tang Zhen, it strangely changed direction and was reflected back at the shop assistant.

The shop assistant couldn't Dodge in time and was nailed to the wall by the spear. It was unknown whether he was Dead or Alive.

At this moment, the shop was already in a mess. A few frightened shop assistants looked at Tang Zhen and actually did not know what to do.

From the beginning to the end, Tang Zhen had been toying with them as if he was toying with a few ants.

An indescribable feeling of sorrow welled up in their hearts. The staff felt that their lives were no longer in their control, and their every move was like that of a caged beast.

At this moment, three figures suddenly walked out from behind the shop, breaking the current deadlock.

They seemed to be wearing some kind of device that caused the air around them to constantly distort, making it impossible to see their specific appearance.

With the appearance of the three people, the originally helpless shop assistant seemed to have a backbone, and her expression became more stable.

After these three people appeared, they sized up the area around Tang Zhen that had been devoured. A trace of surprise flashed in their eyes. At the same time, they also tried their best to hide their fear.

"Where are you from, and what's your purpose in looking for those books?"

A hoarse voice came over. It was unclear who was talking among the three people, but the person who was communicating was Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen, however, stared at the human figure on the far left. He softly laughed, "My goal should be the same as yours."

"Our purpose? We don't have any purpose, are you joking?"

When he noticed that Tang Zhen had been staring at him, the figure on the left seemed to be a little uncomfortable. After confirming that he had failed to conceal his traces, Tang Zhen already knew that he was the one who had spoken.

Tang Zhen shook his head. He looked at the figure and said, "Cut the crap. I'm here today to take back those books.

If you give it, we'll mind our own business. If you don't, I'm sure you don't want to know what the consequences will be!"

The corner of the human figure's mouth twitched when he heard Tang Zhen's words. His eyes revealed killing intent as he said, "Can I take it as you are threatening me?"

Tang Zhen looked at the human figure in front of him. His tone was filled with disdain.

Although the three in front of him were as strong as King level cultivators and might have other tricks up their sleeves, he still didn’t take them seriously.

The other party seemed to have been provoked. They snorted softly and launched an attack at the same time.

The three of them were extremely confident in their own means. They attacked fiercely the moment they attacked, and a simple punch or kick was enough to penetrate alloy armor.

Although he didn’t have the support of a cultivator’s skills and could only use pure brute force, the other party’s martial skills seemed to be very skilled. Their cooperation was also very tacit, enough to deal with a powerful enemy.

In addition to their own strength, the three enemies were also wearing a special armor that could enhance their strength. At the same time, it could simulate the skills of cultivators and attack the enemies.

Clearly, the other party had come prepared. The purpose of their sudden attack was to capture Tang Zhen.

If it was a normal cultivator in Loucheng, they would probably be at a disadvantage. However, their opponent was a World Overlord, and their actions were no different from showing off their skills in front of an expert.

After the attacks of the three enemies were launched, it was as if a clay ox had entered the sea. Tang Zhen, who had suffered the attack, was actually not injured in the slightest. He merely looked at them with a cold smile on his face.

“Something’s wrong, retreat!”

That hoarse voice sounded once again. After discovering that the attacks of the three people were actually ineffective against Tang Zhen, he immediately realized that the enemy was too powerful and chose to retreat without the slightest hesitation.

“You want to run now? have you asked me?”

Tang Zhen’s cold laughter entered their ears. The three enemies became alert in their hearts. Just as they were prepared to Dodge Tang Zhen’s attack, they suddenly felt that their entire bodies were powerless and they softly fell to the ground.

“Damn it, what’s going on?”

The hoarse voice was filled with confusion and fear. He really couldn’t understand what had happened. Why had he lost his strength for no reason?

As for the few shop assistants beside him, they had long been like stranded fish, lying on the ground in a mess. Only their eyes rolled from time to time.

They were the meat on the chopping board. At this moment, their lives were completely in Tang Zhen's control.

Chapter 1754 Clone puppet (1)

"Now, can you tell me where the books are?"

Tang Zhen slowly squatted down. He looked at the man who had spoken to him earlier and gently removed his mask.

A very ordinary-looking face appeared. It seemed to have no special characteristics. If one had a brief contact with it, it would be difficult to leave a deep impression.

It could be said that even if he was thrown into a crowd, he would not attract much attention.

The seemingly ordinary appearance was very effective in hiding one's self. If he was not mistaken, this face should have been carefully designed after data analysis.

From a small perspective, one could see a big one. It was certain that the other party did not want too many people to know of his existence. Even his face had been tampered with.

With a light flick of his finger, the masks of the other two enemies also fell off. Soon after, three identical faces appeared in front of Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen's brows twitched when he saw this strange scene. Subsequently, he revealed a trace of interest.

"Three identical faces. Are you triplets or clones?"

While he was speaking, a drop of blood flew out from the glabella of each of the three enemies and floated in front of Tang Zhen.

A vast amount of spiritual energy swept over the blood, and even the most sophisticated instrument could not compare to it. In an instant, the most accurate analysis was made.

so they're all clones, but they can control from a distance through a spiritual link. They also use the replicated soul fluctuations of the original body, but they're in the position of servants.

Tang Zhen became more and more interested. The mastermind behind this matter was clearly a very interesting person.

The other party was trying to find the database of the terobo people's spiritual fluctuations. His actions were secretive and strange, and he even had such a special clone expert under him.

He did not know if there were any limitations to this cloning technique. Otherwise, as long as the other party wanted to, they could create an Army of powerhouses at any time.

Although he didn't know the true strength of the other party, judging from the information he had, it was clearly not a simple organization.

They had the same goal, but the other party had more information. He wondered if there was any possibility of cooperation.

When he thought of this, Tang Zhen looked at one of the clones and said in a very casual tone, "I know you've seen everything. Now, I'll ask you one thing. Are you going to give me those books or not?"

The clone was silent and only looked at Tang Zhen quietly.

"If you don't want to answer, do you really think I can't do anything to you?"

As Tang Zhen spoke, he reached out to the head of one of the clones and began to search his memory.

A few seconds later, Tang Zhen released his hand. He did not even look at the unconscious clone as a cold smile flashed across his face.

you're really ruthless. You're completely treating them as battle machines. The memories in their minds are terrifyingly simple. If I'm not wrong, the memories of clones are regularly cleaned, right? "

"This way, I can perfectly hide my tracks. Even if I encounter a situation like this, I can easily escape from danger.

Originally, I was only interested in books, but now, I'm also a little interested in you."

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, the remaining two clones were silent for a few breaths. Then, one of them said in a low voice, "Tell me, are you cultivator Lou Cheng?"

Tang Zhen's methods were already clear enough. As long as the other party wasn't a fool, they would definitely be able to guess his background. His current question was only to confirm it.

"So what if I am? so what if I am not?"

Tang Zhen retorted. The other party seemed to be very concerned about his identity. There was not much hostility in his tone.

As for the completely crippled clone, the other party did not pay any attention to it at all, as if he did not care about such a loss.

"If you're Lou Cheng's cultivator, then we have a common enemy. Maybe we can cooperate.

If you're not, you'd better leave immediately. Those books are not things you can come into contact with, they will only bring you disaster."

The clone's tone was very calm, as if everything was under his control. He did not care about the situation in front of him at all.

The smile on Tang Zhen's face became even wider when he heard this, "Tell me, how do you plan to cooperate?"

By saying this, he had admitted his identity as Lou Cheng's cultivator. On one hand, he dispelled the other party's concerns, and on the other hand, there was nothing to hide.

At this time, the torobo people on the tourist planet had probably already known about the arrival of Lou Cheng's cultivator. This mysterious man was not simple, so it was impossible for him not to know about this.

the reason you're looking for those books," the clone continued, "is it to find the hidden clues in the books, and thus find the true location of the land of souls?"

"Home of souls?"

When Tang Zhen heard this, he curiously asked, what's the home of the soul? is it the place where the torobo people store their soul memories?"

that's right. The land of souls is just an ancient name, and it's also recorded in books.

Hearing the other party mention those books again, Tang Zhen thought of the question in his heart and took the opportunity to ask,"I haven't read those books, but according to what you said, the author must have left something useful in them.

Then can you tell me who the other party is and how he was able to come into contact with these secrets and preserve them through the books?"

Tang Zhen's question seemed to be very difficult to answer. However, the other party hesitated for a moment before softly explaining,"Actually, no one knows the identity of the author of these books. This is because every time he reincarnates, he changes his appearance and even gender.

However, he was also full of adventurous spirit. Not only had he followed torobo's Expeditionary fleet to invade other planes many times, but he had also been to many mysterious places.

In this process, the author wrote down his experiences in a special ciphertext. Because he concealed it very well, no one discovered the secrets hidden in these books for more than a hundred years after he donated them to the library.

Until one day, a scholar accidentally flipped through these books, which were more like diaries, and then happened to discover the secret.

Although the words used in these books were obscure and difficult to understand, if one were to analyze them carefully, one would discover that there was special content hidden in these books.

As long as one of the books is damaged, it will be impossible to read it normally and become a pile of waste!"

Tang Zhen nodded when he heard the other party's explanation. However, he was secretly thinking in his heart.

Some people knew that they couldn't let others know the secret, but they were unwilling to keep it in their hearts. Therefore, they used some special methods to tell the secret.

The chances of this secret being discovered by others were extremely low. It might even be impossible for others to ever discover it, until it was drowned out by the long river of history.

It could only be considered a coincidence that the secret of these books had been discovered and deciphered. Perhaps even the author had not expected this.

so, after your research, you discovered that there were records about the land of souls in the books, and that's why you went through so much trouble to get those books out? "

Tang Zhen looked at the clone opposite him. His eyes seemed to be filled with doubt as he said in a puzzled tone, if I'm not wrong, you should be a true-blue terobo man. So, why are you deliberately searching for the home of souls? "

...

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's question, the clone lowered his head as if he didn't want to answer the question.

Tang Zhen wasn't in a hurry. This was the other party's secret. If he didn't want to say it, he had no choice.

At this moment, he seemed to be in control of the entire situation. However, regardless of whether it was the shop assistant or the clone expert, they were all chess pieces that could be abandoned at any time. If Tang Zhen did not want the clues that he had obtained with great difficulty to be completely cut off, he must have sufficient patience.

Chapter 1755 Biological battleship in the deep ocean (1)

If a secret was related to life and death, and was not known, then the best way was to turn a blind eye to it and not hear it.

The more he knew, the more trouble he would have, and it would also increase unnecessary risks.

It should be known that the people who could best keep secrets in this world were the dead. Therefore, in order to keep some secrets, many people had inexplicably lost their lives.

The home of the soul was a matter of life and death for the entire tribesmen. It was of great significance, and it could be said that every tribesman should do their best to keep it hidden.

Not searching for its information and deliberately fading its existence from his memory was also an excellent means of protection.

If all the torobo people did so, then this secret would become the secret of the entire race. Although everyone would still know about it, it would be hidden even deeper and more secretive.

However, the mastermind behind the scenes in front of him did the exact opposite, as if he was only satisfied after finding out the real secret.

If he was from a lower race, it would be understandable, but there was an irreconcilable hatred between the two sides.

However, if the mastermind behind this was a tribesman, it would be a little unbelievable.

This was the true black sheep, the mortal enemy of all the tribesmen. If they succeeded, they might put the entire race in danger.

Tang Zhen had a kind of intuition that the other party was definitely not searching so persistently in order to satisfy his curiosity. Instead, it was due to some kind of hidden purpose.

Just as he was thinking to himself, the controlled clone continued to speak.

if you choose to cooperate, then we will act together in the following process and search for the location of the home of souls.

The mysterious person's tone seemed to have a trace of anticipation. He was very optimistic about Tang Zhen's strength. With the addition of such an expert, it was no different from adding wings to a Tiger.

Although the clone's strength was strong, it was in a state of being crushed when facing Tang Zhen. It was very obvious who was stronger and who was weaker.

Those who achieve great things don't care about trifles. As long as they can be used by me, even if they are enemies one second, they can become allies the next.

After pondering for a moment, Tang Zhen stared at the other party and said indifferently, "Since you know my identity, then you must also be very clear that the tribesmen and I are mortal enemies.

If I really did find out about the home of souls, I'm sure you know what the outcome would be even if I don't tell you."

Cutting the weeds and removing the roots, the moment Tang Zhen discovered the soul Village, it was also the day of the torobo people's disaster.

Since the war had already begun, they would naturally use all means to attack the enemy. No matter if it was the cultivators of loucheng or the tribesmen, they would not miss any opportunity.

Tang Zhen was telling the other party that only by cooperating with him would one truly become the enemy of the entire world.

The controlled clone was silent for a few breaths before he looked up at Tang Zhen and said, " "The Grudge between you and the tribesmen has nothing to do with me. My goal is to find the home of souls.

I won't explain the reason for this, but you'll naturally know when the time is right."

The mysterious person did not explain his true motive. Tang Zhen also did not pursue the matter. Some secrets would naturally reveal themselves as time passed.

Tang Zhen made up his mind. Since the other party knew about the clues to the soul Village, it was necessary to cooperate.

Even if the enemy's background was unknown, Tang Zhen did not care about it at all. As the saying went, those with great skill were bold. Even if it was a Dragon's pool or a Tiger's Den, he would still dare to take a trip.

After the cooperation between the two sides was finalized, Tang Zhen removed the restrictions on the clones and the staff. He was then invited to the back of the shop and took a small aircraft to a secret location on the tourist planet.

During this period, the two clones remained silent and did not speak a word to Tang Zhen. They were like real puppets.

The aircraft shuttled through the mountains and finally landed on the sea. It flew for another 1000 kilometers and then plunged down.

The other party's lair was hidden under the ocean, but the depth was somewhat beyond Tang Zhen's expectations. After diving for tens of thousands of meters, it suddenly changed direction and continued to advance along the trench.

Ten minutes later, a huge warship appeared in front of Tang Zhen. It was extremely conspicuous in the dark trench.

The appearance of the battleship resembled a giant aquatic creature. The surface of the battleship had specks of fluorescent light flashing on it, making it look like a galaxy of stars.

After the aircraft slowly approached the battleship, it was wrapped in an energy field and entered the battleship from a hidden position.

During the entire process, the terrifying pressure of the seawater seemed to have disappeared completely, and it did not affect the aircraft at all.

"Your Excellency, please follow us!"

After the aircraft landed, the clone, who had not spoken throughout, suddenly turned around and made an inviting gesture to Tang Zhen. Then, he walked out of the aircraft first.

Tang Zhen followed closely behind. He walked into the interior of the battleship, which was flickering with fluorescent light and looked like the abdominal cavity of a living creature.

The two clones flew in front. Tang Zhen followed them while looking around. Throughout the entire journey, he could see the ceiling above his head that was like a rib cage. It was bright and dark as if it was breathing.

There were also red and green fruit-like glands that drooped down like grapes. However, they were too large, some of them even the size of houses.

In addition to these strange glands, there were also many strange-looking organs crisscrossing inside the warship, even squirming gently like living creatures.

Although Tang Zhen knew of the existence of a biological warship, it was his first time entering the interior of such a functional biological warship. Everything he saw and heard along the way was rather novel.

After flying for a few minutes, an extremely spacious area appeared in front of Tang Zhen. If the previous location was the abdominal area of the biological warship, then this was the heart area of the warship.

When Tang Zhen entered this space, the rib-like walls flickered with light. There was also a huge spindle-shaped object above his head that was emitting white light.

The light grew brighter and brighter, illuminating the entire space.

“Welcome to my warship, Sir Tang Zhen!”

A slightly strange sound came from the other side. Soon after, a huge transparent slime bubble dropped from the sky and hung a few meters away from Tang Zhen.

In the mucus bubble, there was a creature the size of a baby. It had an exposed brain and its body was like a combination of a squid and a shark. It was wrapped in the mucus.

At this moment, it was using its huge eyes to look at Tang Zhen. That strange sound was obviously coming from its mouth.

Although the voice was a little strange, Tang Zhen could still tell that this voice was the mysterious person behind the scenes who controlled the clones.

“To be able to figure out my identity in such a short time, it seems that your intelligence gathering ability is very strong!”

Although Tang Zhen did not hide his tracks, it was still not an easy task to successfully lock onto his identity.

The hidden strength of the other party might be far more powerful than he imagined.

The monster in the slime bubble was actually the same as the clones. It was a puppet that was controlled remotely and not the real body.

If Tang Zhen’s guess was correct, this puppet might have the ability to control the biological warship. It might look unremarkable, but it was the core of the entire biological warship.

The creature inside the slime bubble laughed. It blew bubbles and swam two rounds inside before saying to Tang Zhen, “When I received the information, even I was shocked. I really didn’t expect you to be the commander of the cultivators in Loucheng!”

If the higher-ups of the Terobo people knew that you were inside my warship, they would probably capture you even if they had to evaporate the entire ocean, right?”

Tang Zhen laughed softly when he heard this. He used an indifferent tone to say, if that’s the case, the Terobo people would probably want to kill you more. Compared to me, you’re actually in more danger.

The creature swimming in the water was quiet for a moment when it heard this. It raised its head and looked at Tang Zhen. Its tone contained an indescribable hatred.

That’s why I invited you to work with me. You and I have a common enemy, and our ultimate goal is to make the Terobo people disappear completely!

Chapter 1756 The land of souls and the soul-gnawing beasts (1)

No matter how deep one's emotions were hidden, there would always be a time when clues would be revealed. No matter how good a person was at acting, they could not hide from the observation of people with a heart.

Even if he was controlling a puppet, he could still reveal some clues, not to mention that the other party did not deliberately hide it.

At this moment, Tang Zhen could confirm that the person hiding behind the scenes might have a bone-deep enmity with the terobo people!

Although he did not know the other party's specific identity, and since they had come into contact, the other party had not revealed much information.

However, one thing was for sure, the mysterious man really hated the tribesmen.

In the laws of heaven and earth, there was naturally no lack of lust in the world of mortals. As a realm Lord, Tang Zhen was extremely sensitive to emotional changes.

When he was communicating with the other party, he could feel a hatred that seeped deep into the bone, even to the point of irreconcilable hatred.

What kind of deep hatred could have caused him to accumulate such a shocking amount of resentment that he would not hesitate to cooperate with her in order to find the home of souls?

It was not that Tang Zhen was self-deprecating, but to most of the torobo people, Lou Cheng's cultivators were no different from demons, and they would avoid them like the plague.

Especially since he was the Commander-in-Chief of the Allied army of cultivators in Lou city, a devil among devils, how many people would dare to come into contact with him easily?

The fact that the other party could ignore this clearly showed that he was a ruthless person who would do anything to achieve his goal.

When dealing with such a fellow, even Tang Zhen would be more cautious and guard against being schemed against by the other party.

Even an unremarkable character could influence the battle situation under the circumstances of coincidence, not to mention that the other party's strength was not weak.

After making up his mind in his heart, Tang Zhen looked at the creature in the water, whose face was filled with hatred, and gently nodded his head.

"Since I've come here, I've already decided to cooperate with you. However, I still have to remind you that if you dare to play any tricks, I'll definitely make you regret it!"

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's warning, the creature in the water let out a strange "haha" laugh. Its expression was somewhat sinister.

"Don't worry, I know what I want. I can't be bothered with other things."

"Sir, why don't you take a look at this item first, then tell me what you think?"

The creature in the water replied. Then, he pointed to the side, and a transparent object like a water column immediately rose from the ground.

A beautiful pattern kept flashing in the water pillar. It looked like a rune or a map, and it was impossible to figure out what it was.

If one observed carefully, they would find that these lines seemed to extend infinitely, making one dizzy, as if their souls were being sucked into them.

This pattern was not simple!

Tang Zhen took a few glances before frowning slightly. He turned around and looked at the creature in the water.

What is this? is this the location of the home of souls? ”

The other party nodded and said in a certain tone, ” “That’s right, these are the coordinates deduced and simulated based on the clues in the book.

As long as the hint is there, we’ll be able to find the location of the soul Village. There won’t be any mistakes!”

Tang Zhen sneered when he saw the confident expression of the creature in the water. However, he was a little disappointed in his heart.

He had thought that the other party had gotten hold of some useful clues, but now it seemed like his expectations had been too high.

If the land of souls could be found so easily, the torobans would be too small. No matter how stupid they were, they wouldn’t be able to find clues so easily.

The picture in front of him could only be considered a clue at most, but it might not be the true answer.

Otherwise, why would the other party cooperate with him? as long as he searched according to the answer, what place could he not find?

Even if the clues really came from those few books, Tang Zhen would still not believe it easily unless he personally read and analyzed it and confirmed that there was no problem with the records.

Tang Zhen looked at the creature in the water when he thought of this. He softly sneered, ”What’s the use of all these mysterious things? do you really think that you can lock onto the location of the home of souls with these things?

If I had to say, I’m afraid you’re also confused and can’t determine the specific location, right?”

Hearing Tang Zhen’s ridicule, the creature in the water did not get angry. After swimming around in the water, it used a cold and indifferent voice to say, ”You don’t need to provoke me with these words. I won’t take out those books for you to verify.

Please tell me first, what do you see in this scene?”

When Tang Zhen heard this, he understood that this mysterious person was determined. Hence, he did not say anything more.

Looking at the pattern again, he pondered for a while and said, "if I'm not wrong, the home of the torobo people's souls is not in the three-dimensional space but hidden in the lower-dimensional space, right?"

Hearing Tang Zhen's reply, the creature in the water revealed a trace of a smile and gently nodded.

"You're indeed the Supreme Commander of the cultivators of loucheng. You saw through the mystery of this pattern with a single glance. It's indeed as you said, the land of souls is in the two-dimensional world.

This pattern was the password hidden in the book. It was composed of nearly 100 independent words. It was actually a paragraph of secret key words to enter the two-dimensional world.

After finding the entrance, he could use the text on the secret key to enter the soul Village!

The problem is that we only have the secret key text, but we don't have the necessary item to write the text, the blood of a special creature."

When the creature in the water spoke up to this point, it looked at Tang Zhen without blinking. It then asked with an expectant tone, "According to the information I have, cultivators from Lou Cheng once invaded the terobo star system, and those special creatures also appeared near the battlefield.

There were no longer any special creatures in the terobo Galaxy. The world of loucheng was full of heaven and earth energy, so there was a high chance that it had survived.

Sir Tang Zhen, you come from the world of loucheng. Do you know the traces of this creature?"

special creatures? what are they? can you be more specific?"

Tang Zhen frowned slightly. He secretly thought that the main reason why the other party was cooperating with him might be related to that special creature.

"There are many names for this type of creature, such as the nightmare devil, the multi-dimensional insect, and the soul-gnawing beast Suan ni."

Tang Zhen's brows twitched when he heard the words "soul-gnawing beast" mentioned by the aquatic creature. His mind immediately recalled his encounter with the soul-gnawing beast.

The wreckage of the terobo star system will be used as its base. After being captured, it will self-destruct its origin and hope that one day, it will receive Tang Zhen's help to return to the terobo star system to retrieve what belongs to it.

It turned out that the thing that the soul-gnawing beast was referring to was actually related to the soul Village. This was really out of Tang Zhen's expectations.

Although Tang Zhen felt surprised in his heart, he did not show it on his face. Instead, he waited for the aquatic creature to finish speaking before gently nodding his head.

I'll look for traces of this special creature, but it will take some time.

it's fine. I've waited for so many years, so this little bit of time won't make a difference. If you find it, you can contact me through this item.

The cultivators of Loucheng city were about to arrive, and the tourist planet would become a battlefield. The creatures in the water naturally would not be in danger to avoid being affected by the war.

As the creature in the water spoke, a tentacle suddenly dropped down from the sky. A fist-sized crystal was wrapped around it.

Tang Zhen took it and examined it before putting it away in his storage space. Then, he extended his hand.

Where are the books? If you don't take them out now, aren't you showing no sincerity in our cooperation?"

The creature in the water shook its head and said in a firm tone, "I can't give it to you now. What if you find that special creature and crack the coordinates of the home of souls? What if you leave me behind?"

Seeing that the creature in the water had rejected him, Tang Zhen did not force it. He smiled before turning around and leaving.

After he found out about the book's true function, he had already expected this. He was just casually testing the waters earlier.

Seeing Tang Zhen leave, the creature in the water did not try to stop him. It only coldly looked at Tang Zhen's back. Its eyes rolled around, and no one knew what it was thinking.

Following the guidance of the clone, Tang Zhen left the biological warship and headed straight to the sea.

Although the water pressure in the deep sea was enough to flatten steel, it didn't have any effect on the sector Lord cultivators who were crossing the void.

...

Not long after Tang Zhen left, the biological warship hidden in the trench also activated and disappeared without a trace.

Chapter 1757 Big Bear and little six (1)

After Tang Zhen returned to the surface, he first contacted the 5 sector Lord brothers.

He had to return to the war tower and recall the reincarnation mirror that was guarding the Supreme tower. At the same time, he had to prepare for the battle that was about to happen.

The reason for summoning the reincarnation mirror was naturally because the soul-gnawing beast was residing in it. Furthermore, it was sleeping in the most hidden corner and would not come out easily.

However, this matter was related to her, so it was impossible for the soul-gnawing beast not to figure it out.

He was familiar with the 5 sector Lord brothers "nature and knew that they were suitable to cause trouble behind enemy lines. Hence, Tang Zhen wasn't prepared to bring them back. Instead, he wanted to keep them to continue causing trouble for the terobo people.

After searching for the other's spiritual fluctuations, their spiritual fluctuations collided with each other. Tang Zhen then informed the five sector Lord brothers of his arrangements.

First of all, he wanted to hear their own thoughts. If the other party was unwilling, Tang Zhen would not force them.

In the end, after hearing Tang Zhen's arrangements, the five sector Lord brothers didn't hesitate at all and agreed to it.

"Don't worry, Sir Tang Zhen. We five brothers will definitely not leave until we turn this tourist planet upside down!"

Hearing the assurance of the sector Lord boss, Tang Zhen couldn't help but feel sorry for the torobo people on the tourist planet. They were afraid that they would have a hard time dealing with these five people who didn't know how to behave.

Because of the appearance of the five brothers, the tourist planet was now in chaos. The ground security forces were attacking everywhere, but they were either left with a nose full of dust or were beaten up until they fled like rats. It was simply miserable.

After hearing that many of the teroboros people had lost contact, a large number of tourists began to leave in a hurry, afraid that they would be added to the list of missing people.

If this situation continued, this tourist planet would probably fall into chaos before Lou Cheng's Army arrived.

After the arrangements for the tourist planet were done, Tang Zhen took out his identity card and activated the ultra-long distance teleportation to return to the war tower.

The scene in front of him changed. Tang Zhen had already appeared in a huge square, surrounded by cultivators.

Although the interior of the war tower was huge, there was not much entertainment. In order to pass the time, most of the cultivators in the tower would gather in the square and cultivate.

Compared to the foundation stone platform, the skills of the cultivators in the war tower were more complete, and there were more resources that could be exchanged. Since the cultivators in the war tower were lucky enough to enter, they naturally would not miss such a God-given opportunity.

After seeing Tang Zhen's appearance, the cultivators of loucheng saluted him. As the commander of the Alliance Army, there were very few cultivators of loucheng who didn't know him.

Tang Zhen wasn't in a hurry to leave. Instead, he chatted with the cultivators of loucheng that he knew or didn't know. He didn't put on the airs of a world Overlord.

Just as they were speaking, another large group of people approached. Tang Zhen swept his gaze over them. They were all residents of the Holy Dragon City. There were even a few that he was particularly familiar with.

“Big Bear, little six, where are you two going?”

the two figures in the crowd suddenly stopped on the spot when they heard this. after which, they turned their heads and looked at tang zhen’s position.

The one with the size of a small mountain was big Bear, who had followed Tang Zhen since the Holy Dragon City was established. After being promoted to King-tier cultivator, the man-eating Demon King bloodline in his body was activated, and his attributes were abnormally strong. He rarely had any opponents in the same level.

The young man named little six was actually a special tower that Tang Zhen had created using the foundation stone of the giant tower and a trace of his own blood essence.

Because the transformation was very thorough, before the transformation, anyone would think that he was a normal cultivator of Lou Cheng.

After the two of them saw Tang Zhen, a trace of surprise flashed in their eyes as they hurriedly walked forward.

As his cultivation deepened, Tang Zhen either lived in seclusion or spent most of his time outside. He had less and less interaction with the residents of the tower City, and many of them had not seen each other for decades.

Nouveau riche Captain, Bone Cat, old Wan Qianqian

After a few decades, da Xiong was no longer the silly big guy who asked for candy the moment they met. Xiao Liu was also no longer the quiet little boy who only knew how to follow da Xiong around and cause trouble.

Tang Zhen could not help but feel rueful in his heart when he saw this scene. He had clearly missed out on many things during these years of running around.

“City Lord, you’ve returned!”

After bowing to Tang Zhen, the big Bear scratched his bald head and asked Tang Zhen with a smile.

Although he was already a King level cultivator, in front of Tang Zhen, da Xiong still looked like his original self. He was very honest and honest.

you’re back. You two seem to be in a hurry. What are you planning to do? ”

Upon hearing Tang Zhen’s question, little six replied, ” brother da Xiong and I have gathered some points. We’re going to take a look at the platform of the war tower to see if there are any suitable cultivator skills for us.

Although they both had their own talents and abilities, they were still cultivators of Lou Cheng. In order to exert their own combat power to the extreme, they naturally had to master the corresponding cultivator skills.

that's a good thing. However, although the items in the war tower are good, the points required far exceed that of the cornerstone platform. Do you guys have enough points? "

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's question, da Xiong and the other man exchanged glances as their faces revealed a dejected expression.

It was little six who spoke up and explained to Tang Zhen, "City Lord, even though the two of us participated in the battle on the commercial planet, there were too many cultivators involved, so we didn't gain much.

Big brother Bear knew that I wanted to exchange for a cultivator skill, so he took the initiative to give me his points, so that I can learn the skill first and use it to deal with the upcoming battle."

After hearing little six's explanation, Tang Zhen nodded his head and turned around to walk towards the exchange platform.

After taking a few steps, he saw that da Xiong and the other man were still standing at the same spot. Tang Zhen smiled and waved his hand, "Aren't we going to the exchange platform? what are you two still doing?"

Hearing this, da Xiong and the other man quickly followed. Their faces were full of joy and excitement, like children being led by their parents to buy candy.

As he walked to the exchange platform of the war tower, he met more and more cultivators. Obviously, they were the same as Big Bear and little six, all here to exchange for supplies and cultivator skills.

When they saw Tang Zhen's arrival, the cultivators in the building made way for him. At the same time, they stared at him intently, wanting to see what he was going to do.

As a world Overlord, he would be the center of attention wherever he went.

Tang Zhen didn't care at all. He beckoned Big Bear and little six to come forward and asked the two of them about the cultivator skills they wanted to exchange.

Da Xiong was the first to speak as he said to Tang Zhen, "I want a cultivator skill that is similar to group buffs, so that my subordinates can have faster speed and more agile reactions. The longer the duration, the better."

After awakening the bloodline of the ogre, the number of Ogre Warriors under big bear's command increased. This time, Tang Zhen launched an invasion on the torobo people, and among them was the ogre army led by Big Bear.

This Army was made up of ogres, the lowest of which was a Lord. They were all fully armored and looked like meat grinders on the battlefield.

As the ogres were almost immune to physical damage and were equipped with anti-Demon Armor that could weaken energy attacks, even the cultivators in the city were no match for the ogres.

However, because of their huge size, their movement speed and reaction speed had always been the disadvantages of the ogre Warriors. Even if their shock hammers could easily flatten heavy tanks, they had to be able to hit the enemy first.

After hearing da Xiong's explanation, Tang Zhen revealed a satisfied expression. It was clear that da Xiong had already learned how to think and understand how to increase the combat power of the group.

When he thought of this, Tang Zhen looked at little six. He was also extremely concerned about this young man who had a slight connection with him.

"Tell me, what kind of cultivator skill do you want?"

After hearing Tang Zhen ask him, little six thought for a moment and said in a slightly hesitant tone, "I've analyzed my combat form and found that after my body size has been enlarged, my defense has always been a problem.

Even though the energy shield was effective, it would not last long against the weapons of the torobo people.

Although the injuries of the main body would gradually recover, they would still be affected during battle. In serious cases, they would even be forced to withdraw from the battle.

That's why I want a cultivator's skill that can greatly improve my own defense. At the very least, it can ensure that I can persist until the end of the battle and not leave halfway."

When little six said this, his expression was a little sad, but it was immediately replaced by determination.

Tang Zhen understood little six's difficulties. His body size after transformation was too huge and he was destined to become the focus of the battlefield. While he possessed powerful destructive power, he would also be focused on by the enemy.

Even if his defensive power was extremely strong, he was afraid that he would not be able to withstand the overwhelming attacks. It was inevitable that he would have to retreat halfway.

After hearing the requests of the two, Tang Zhen was a little hesitant. This was because he was very familiar with the redeeming skills of the war tower. Even if the two of them had enough points, they might not be able to redeeming a suitable cultivator skill.

No matter how he thought about it, he felt that he was the only one who could solve their problem.

Chapter 1758 Tang Zhen's gift (1)

Although the power of the cultivator's skills on the tower's platform was not bad, it still depended on the cultivator's own strength. It wasn't that there weren't any good skills, some of which could destroy the world, but they weren't suitable for the two of them.

It wasn't impossible to tailor a cultivator's skill. Tang Zhen himself could do it. However, he needed enough time, and what he lacked the most was time.

After thinking about it, he could only find another way.

Fortunately, this matter couldn't stump Tang Zhen. Since one path couldn't work, he would have to find another way. There would always be a way to solve the problem.

As he thought of this, Tang Zhen looked at Big Bear and little six, signaling them to follow him into the distance.

The interior of the war tower was extremely spacious. The three of them moved through the crowd, trying to find a quiet place.

After walking for a while, the three of them finally arrived at an open-air Tavern at the edge of the square. They found a table and sat down.

Although it was located at the edge, there were also many cultivators in the tavern. After those toasting customers saw Tang Zhen, they all stood up to welcome him and then continued to toasting.

Even for world overlords, they were still customers when they entered the inn. If they were restricted by their status, it would affect their mood instead.

In times of war, they were subordinates, and in times of leisure, they were brothers in life and death. This was the only way to be free and at ease.

Because of its huge size, Big Bear could not sit on a chair, so it could only sit on the ground.

There were many cultivators like him in the surroundings, and there were even cultivators who were much larger than the big Bear. They didn't like the feeling of being compressed, so they always maintained their original form.

The cultivators of Lou city were used to this. They drank and chatted with each other without any scruples.

Looking at the current scene, who would have thought that this was the interior of a super war fortress?

Although the war tower was a pure war machine, it tried its best to simulate the environment of the tower, making the cultivators feel like they were at home.

Traveling to another world could easily take decades or even centuries, and the cultivators of loucheng were not made of metal, stone, iron, or wood, so how could they not be homesick?

The tower was home, and the war tower could also be home. No matter what, he could not treat his own people badly.

After waiting for the big Bear duo to sit down, Tang Zhen ordered people to serve wine and food. He softly asked, "Do you know why I called you here?"

Da Xiong shook his head and stared at Tang Zhen. There was a trace of doubt on his face.

Little six's brain was obviously smarter than Big bear's. After hearing Tang Zhen's question, he asked in a low voice, "My guess is that even though there are many skills in the war tower, none of them are suitable for us, so you asked us to leave?"

Tang Zhen smiled when he heard this. He revealed an expression of approval towards little six and gently nodded his head.

"You're right. For ordinary cultivators, the skills of the war tower are enough to meet their needs.

However, the two of you are special. Even the most top-notch cultivation technique may not be able to meet your requirements.

You don't have enough Battle Points. Even if I give you some, you can't cross the level limit of cultivators. Even I can't do anything.

There's no order without rules, so I have to set an example.

Since that's the case, there's no need to waste time. As for your needs, I'll help you solve them. What do you think?"

When little six and little six heard this, they immediately revealed a pleasantly surprised expression. They stood up at the same time and bowed to Tang Zhen to thank him.

The two of them couldn't help but be pleasantly surprised. Originally, they were only looking forward to obtaining sesame, but who knew that in the blink of an eye, they would obtain a watermelon. This harvest was really too great.

As for how to repay them, the two of them did not even think about it. What kind of status did Tang Zhen have? even a strand of leg hair was thicker than their waists. Even if the two of them sold themselves, they would not be able to repay him.

Since Tang Zhen had opened his mouth to help, he would naturally give it away as a reward. It was impossible for him to do such a thing as an equivalent exchange.

As long as he could remember this favor in his heart and never forget it, it was better than anything else.

At this time, the two were full of anticipation. This had nothing to do with greed, but was entirely due to the yearning for power.

Tang Zhen was now a second realm world Overlord. Once he made a move, it would definitely be extraordinary. In some aspects, even the foundation stone platform couldn't be compared to him.

Who would be willing to sell the truly good things to the cornerstone platform? they would all keep them in their own pockets in case they couldn't get them when they needed them again.

Tang Zhen didn't make them wait for long. He summoned the scales of destiny in his mental space and ordered suitable equipment for the two of them at the price of 1000 destiny gold coins.

1,000 destiny gold coins didn't sound like a lot, but its value was clear. If it were to be converted to other currencies, it would definitely be an astronomical figure.

If it wasn't for Big Bear and little six being close, Tang Zhen wouldn't be so generous. At most, he would give some Battle Points.

Not long after, the required items were conjured and fell into Tang Zhen's hands.

Tang Zhen took a look and felt that it was worth it. Any one of these two items could be called a divine artifact.

After throwing an item that looked like a horn to da Xiong, Tang Zhen introduced it, this is the horn of agility. It can affect cultivators in the same camp within a ten-kilometer radius, increasing their reaction speed and agility by three times. The duration is one hour, which should be enough for you.

Da Xiong was overjoyed when he heard this. He held the ancient bugle horn in his hand, which was made of an unknown material, and wanted to try blowing it a few times right now.

Da Xiong had never even dared to think about such a terrifying increase in attributes. He now understood the value of the swift horn.

Tang Zhen noticed da Xiong's restless appearance and reminded with a smile, "You have to be careful when using this equipment. It's not without restrictions, but it can only be used once every three days.

If it's a random test and you delay the battle, you'll regret it. "

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's words, da Xiong hurriedly and carefully put away the horn. He had an expression of being a precious treasure.

Although he had a rough appearance, it didn't mean that he was really stupid. Just based on the attributes that Tang Zhen had mentioned earlier, it was sufficient to prove that this Swift horn was a godly weapon that could only be encountered but not sought.

In his heart, he secretly made up his mind that in the future, other than himself, no one should even think about touching this horn. What if it was damaged?

Ignoring the big bear's vigilant expression, Tang Zhen turned his head to look at little six and handed over an item that looked like a crown.

"This equipment can create a folded and distorted space around you, which can effectively resist physical and energy attacks. No matter how big you are, it won't be a problem.

Of course, this equipment wasn't truly invincible. If you encountered a spirit Emperor, there was a danger of being defeated. If a realm Lord attacked, it could help you block three attacks at most.

Even though it's not perfect, it's more than enough for you.

Even if hundreds of cultivators of the same level attack you, they won't be able to hurt you at all. You don't have to worry about anything, just attack.

Just like the horn of swiftness, this equipment also has a use limit. After being activated once, the next time it can be used is one month later."

Little six listened attentively, not daring to miss any details. The excitement on his face grew.

...

On the battlefield of life and death, even a slight advantage could turn the tide of the battle and determine the final victory, defeat, or survival.

Not to mention their own strength, the increase in strength of a cultivator by top-grade equipment was by no means as simple as it seemed on the surface. It could be regarded as a Second Life.

With this equipment, he, who already had the advantage of size and was invincible among his peers, would be able to completely crush his enemies.

Even when facing a nomological King, he was not afraid at all and could even kill enemies above his level!

Top-grade equipment was indeed powerful. It was no wonder that countless cultivators would go after it like a flock of ducks. There was obviously a reason for this.

Thinking up to this point, little six once again bowed to Tang Zhen. Although he did not open his mouth to thank him, his heart was already filled with endless gratitude.

Tang Zhen waved his hand to stop him when he saw this. He spoke to little six in a sincere and earnest manner, "After so many years, I'm sure you know where you came from and understand the difference between you and the other residents of the city.

As long as you're in Holy Dragon City, you're no different from anyone else. Especially since you have my blood in you, you must not be weaker than anyone else in your life. Do you understand?"

Hearing this, little six smiled and nodded firmly.

Chapter 1759 The true origin of the home of souls (1)

After giving the two valuable pieces of equipment to da Xiong and little six and chatting in the tavern for a while, Tang Zhen got up and left.

The war was coming, and he had inadvertently obtained a clue about the soul Village. Tang Zhen had a lot of things to deal with now, so he really didn't have time to drink and reminisce.

Perhaps, one day in the future, when the Holy Dragon battle zone dominated the world of loucheng, Tang Zhen would truly have the leisure time to drink tea and brew wine, and smile as he watched the changes of the situation.

When he arrived at his command Hall, Tang Zhen contacted the cultivators who were left behind in the scarred territory through the communication function of the war tower.

The functions of the war tower were comprehensive and incomparable to ordinary towers, especially in terms of communication and teleportation. It was extremely convenient.

Although everyone knew how powerful the war towers were, the cost of using them was too high. In particular, Tang Zhen's method of renting ten war towers at once was a rare and expensive method.

Some city Lords spent their entire lives transforming their own cities in the hope of turning them into war cities.

This kind of war tower was different from the real one. It wasn't a cornerstone platform, and its functions weren't as complete. However, it was still a weapon of war, and it made the cultivators in the war tower even more powerful.

Almost every city Lord wished to own A Private War tower, but the massive investment of resources was enough to make 99% of the city Lords flinch.

Although Tang Zhen also had such thoughts, he clearly understood in his heart that it was impossible for him to reach this goal with the resources he currently possessed.

It didn't take long for the foundation stone platform of the cracked territory to be connected to the war tower, and a cultivator from the war tower appeared in front of Tang Zhen.

The search for the home of souls could not be done without the participation of soul-gnawing beasts. The reincarnation mirror could also be used in the following war, so Tang Zhen decided to get it together.

After receiving Tang Zhen's order, the cultivators guarding the rift didn't dare to disobey. They quickly used a special method to contact the reincarnation mirror.

The giant tower was still crowded with people. The reincarnation mirror was in charge of guarding this place.

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's call, the overseer in the reincarnation mirror didn't dare to be negligent. He hurriedly ran into the tower and activated the teleportation through the cornerstone platform.

There was a special teleportation channel between the war tower and the cornerstone platform. Even if they were separated by a distant plane, they could still reach it in an instant.

As for the giant tower, even if there was no Guardian, it could still operate as usual without any worry of any trouble.

With a flash of light, the reincarnation mirror's figure appeared on the huge teleportation platform. It slowly flew in front of Tang Zhen.

"City Lord, I've missed you to death!"

The Guard's sneaky voice was heard. This guy had lived for an unknown amount of time, but he had always shown people his slippery and mischievous image, which had not changed for many years.

Tang Zhen revealed a helpless expression. He had once reminded the overseer in the past that there was no need for him to use such an appearance to show others. In the end, this guy did not change no matter what he was taught, and he always had this Rascal look.

cut the crap. I've summoned you here because I have something very important for you to do. I hope you can complete it with your heart.

Seeing Tang Zhen's serious expression, the overseer also withdrew his smile. At the same time, he patted his chest and guaranteed that he would definitely not disappoint Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen smiled and nodded. He knew that Lin Dong was not perfunctory.

The overseer's promise was very valuable. The two sides had worked together more than once, and he had done his best to complete every mission.

I hope that you can send your elite troops and think of a way to infiltrate the torobo fleet. Then, you can act at the critical moment and deal the enemy a fatal blow!

Spirit body cultivators were best at creating fear, bewitching people's hearts, or possessing a target to control them. Even the cultivators of loucheng could not compare to them in this aspect.

Since he had an advantage in this aspect, he naturally had to make use of it reasonably and create as much trouble for the enemy as possible.

It was foreseeable that when the spirit body cultivators invaded the torobo battleships, they would probably cause chaos and panic before they even fought.

After hearing Tang Zhen's request, the overseer immediately expressed that he could set off to carry out the mission at any time.

don't worry, I have something that I need the help of a soul-gnawing beast to solve. Help me get her out first.

Hearing that Tang Zhen wanted to find a soul-gnawing beast, the overseer was stunned for a moment. Soon after, he revealed a depressed expression.

"My Lord, can you please take that little devil away so that she can no longer stay in the reincarnation mirror?"

Tang Zhen felt curious in his heart when he saw the overseer's bitter face. He inquired about what exactly had happened.

"You may not know this, but ever since he entered the reincarnation mirror, he's been sleeping all day. His snores are even louder than Thunder, and he hasn't stopped for a moment.

perhaps it's the innate ability of the soul-gnawing beast, but her snores can't be blocked at all. Can you imagine the feeling of having snores ringing in your ear all the time? that's simply a kind of torture!

However, they couldn't disturb her while she was sleeping, or she would fly into a rage and cause chaos in the reincarnation mirror.

The few worlds that I've painstakingly built were smashed to smithereens by this person in a fit of anger. You can't even look for her to judge because this ancestor is simply unreasonable."

When the overseer said this, his expression was one of despair. Clearly, he had been tormented by the soul-gnawing beast's snores.

Tang Zhen smiled and consoled the overseer after he heard this.

The overseer's helplessness actually had his own reasons. Otherwise, with his strength, how could he not be able to deal with a soul-gnawing beast?

The overseer was completely giving face to Tang Zhen, that's why he didn't bother with the soul-gnawing beast. Otherwise, he would have kicked her out long ago.

let's get her out. Maybe after this, the soul-gnawing beast won't come back.

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's words, the watcher, who was originally complaining, was stunned for a moment. He then asked in a solemn tone, city Lord, what do you mean by this? could it be that the soul-gnawing beast will lose its life because of this? "

Although he was complaining, the guard was still worried about the safety of the soul-gnawing beast.

don't worry. At most, I'll use some of her blood essence. It won't endanger her life. Moreover, this matter is actually related to her. It's only right that she does something.

The overseer did not say anything more. He turned around and waved his hand at the reincarnation mirror. Then, a figure flew out.

"Pa!"

The figure landed on the ground with a crisp sound, like the collision of metal.

"Who's disturbing this old lady's sleep? do you want to die?"

At the same time as the voice sounded, the figure suddenly leaped up. His eyes were as wide as bells as they fell on Tang Zhen and the guard.

The soul-gnawing beast had only spoken halfway when it heard Tang Zhen's cold snort, causing its body to tremble in fear.

This kind of terrifying strength immediately made the soul-gnawing beast become obedient, because she was simply no match for it.

"You are Tang Zhen?"

When it saw the person in front of it, the soul-gnawing beast's eyes flashed with shock. It scratched its head and asked, " you're already so strong. How long have I been sleeping? at least a thousand years, right? "

The overseer's mouth twitched as he thought to himself, " if you stay in the reincarnation mirror for a thousand years, a large group of spirit cultivators will probably go crazy because of your snoring.

"It's not a thousand years, it's only a few decades,"

Tang Zhen looked at the soul-gnawing beast and said in an indifferent tone, back then, you and I had an agreement. If one day you came to the terobo star system, you hoped that I would help you retrieve an item. Now, it's time for me to fulfill my promise.

The soul-gnawing beast was stunned for a moment when it heard Tang Zhen's words. Soon after, it revealed an expression of wild joy.

is what you said true? alright, let's go now!

The soul-gnawing beast's expression was somewhat impatient. Retrieving the item that belonged to her had already become her obsession. Once there was an opportunity to complete it, she would try it even if it meant risking her life.

Tang Zhen indicated to the soul-gnawing beast not to be anxious. He still had a lot of information that he needed to understand. The soul-gnawing beast in front of him might be able to give him an answer.

"First, tell me, do you know about the home of souls?"

Hearing the words 'home of souls', the soul-gnawing beast curled its lips in disdain and said in a cold voice, " what Bullsh * t home of souls? it's just a name given by those shameless torobo people.

After hearing the soul-gnawing beast's answer, Tang Zhen knew that the other party definitely knew about the soul Village. He continued to ask, tell me in detail what's going on with the home of souls. Remember not to miss out anything.

...

Seeing Tang Zhen's grave expression, the soul-gnawing beast did not dare to be perfunctory and hurriedly told him the information it knew.

Chapter 1760 The two-dimensional world in the book (1)

The soul-gnawing beast's face was filled with disdain and hatred at the mention of the land of souls. It was obvious that this mysterious place that stored the information of the torobo people's souls had a great connection with her.

While Tang Zhen and the overseer were waiting, the soul-gnawing beast sorted out the memories of its bloodline inheritance and began to slowly explain.

The so-called home of the soul was just a name given by the people of teroboros, and even the people of teroboros rarely knew of it.

The name was only passed down among the first generation of teroese, and only a small portion of them knew about it. The so-called home of the soul was actually a very special book.

It was special because of the materials used to make the book and the special functions it had.

According to the soul-gnawing beast, the pages of this book were actually made from the skin of the soul-gnawing beast's ancestor.

Due to the influence of the mysterious power, the thickness of the book could not be counted, and it seemed that one could never turn to the last page.

This book recorded the names of all the teroborians, and whenever a teroborian was born, the corresponding name would appear on the page.

It wasn't as simple as a name. It was a record of soul information and would be updated at an appropriate time.

It could be said that this book was a Book of Life and death in the other world, and it held the lives of all the tribesmen. Once the soul records here were erased, the tribesmen would no longer have a channel to download soul memories.

The immortal torobo people would also become a joke.

The ink used to record the soul's memories was actually the blood of the soul-gnawing beast race. Other than this special ink, nothing else could leave a mark on the pages.

Because the book carried a two-dimensional world, the contents inside were constantly changing, and anything unbelievable could happen.

In order to erase the names of the torobo people, the blood of the soul-gnawing beasts was also needed. In this unique world, the blood of the soul-gnawing beasts was the most powerful weapon.

The Guardians of the books also had the blood of soul-gnawing beasts, and were used to deal with intruders.

If Tang Zhen wanted to enter the soul Land, the assistance of the soul-gnawing beast was indispensable. Other than her blood being able to kill enemies, she also had a magical ability, dissolving blood to absorb.

To put it bluntly, the ink used to write these words came from soul-gnawing beasts, which had great activity and a strong sense of identity with their own race.

When the soul-gnawing beast activated its innate ability, the blood would be absorbed by the soul-gnawing beast like a swallow returning to its nest.

The things that the soul-gnawing beasts wanted to retrieve were the blood that had their names written on it, as well as the soul-gnawing beast's crystal cores that were hidden in the deepest depths. Those crystal cores contained all the inheritance of the soul-gnawing beast race.

Hearing the soul-gnawing beast's explanation, Tang Zhen suddenly came to a realization. There were actually so many things to say.

"This home of souls is so important to the tribesmen. If it is destroyed, it will be a devastating blow to their morale.

It was better to take the firewood from the bottom of the cauldron than to stop the boiling.

If that's the case, then it's better to do it as soon as possible, and try to completely destroy the home of souls before the battle between the two sides!"

Tang Zhen made up his mind. He looked at the soul-gnawing beast again and asked in a solemn tone, think about it carefully again, if you missed any details. If I'm not here, we'll set off immediately.

The situation on the battlefield was changing, and the opportunity was fleeting. It really could not be delayed.

The soul-gnawing beast shook its head. She had already said everything that needed to be said. If there was anything that she had missed out, she would be able to remind Tang Zhen at any time.

After some thought, the soul-gnawing beast said, "I can't enter the home of souls with my main body, so I can only possess you in another form.

Before that, I'll give you a portion of blood to ensure that you can enter the soul world smoothly, and at the same time, you'll have the means to protect yourself."

Tang Zhen nodded and asked what they should do.

you need to take off your clothes, and then I'll turn into a tattoo. This way, not only will it be hidden, but it'll also be convenient for us to communicate in time and use my innate ability.

Hearing the soul-gnawing beast's request, the clothes on Tang Zhen's body suddenly disappeared, revealing his well-built body that was like a piece of art.

The soul-gnawing beast glanced at him and seemed to be a little embarrassed. However, it immediately turned into a gray mist and floated onto Tang Zhen's body.

In the blink of an eye, a ferocious beast tattoo appeared on Tang Zhen's body. His eyes were crimson red and the scales on his body made him look like a skeleton.

The tattoo looked so alive that it seemed as if one's soul would be devoured by just one look.

"Alright, here's the blood you wanted!" He said.

The soul-gnawing beast's voice sounded as if it was in pain. Clearly, the blood was very precious, otherwise she wouldn't be in this state.

Tang Zhen casually picked up the bottle that had appeared out of thin air. He used his spiritual energy to examine it before putting on his clothes again.

After signaling the guards to take the reincarnation mirror and move, Tang Zhen used his authority as the Commander-in-Chief to give orders to the ten war towers.

after encountering the torobo fleet, there's no need to rush into battle. Wait for the general attack order!

.....

Tang Zhen took out the ball in his hand and casually activated it.

The round ball appeared to have lost its gravity as it slowly floated up from Tang Zhen's hand. When it rose to a height of around ten meters, it suddenly erupted with brilliant light.

A hidden signal was sent out. This special communication method was very similar to quantum communication, but it was faster and more stable. It could be received quickly even if it was several planets away.

After waiting for more than ten minutes, an image popped up on the ball, with an unknown coordinate marked on it.

"Let's meet here, see you there!"

Along with the image was a cold voice. It was the creature in the water that he had seen last time.

Tang Zhen took a glance and discovered that the coordinates were near the tourist planet. He quickly headed there.

This time, he was still piloting a transport ship. Because it had been modified by the terobo engineers, its speed was unbelievably fast.

The star-class voyage was long and boring. Tang Zhen turned on the automatic navigation system, then sat cross-legged on the ground and closed his eyes to rest.

According to the soul-gnawing beast, once you enter the soul Land, your original strength will be sealed. Moreover, due to the special nature of the two-dimensional world, a lot of common knowledge does not apply there.

According to normal understanding, there was no such thing as a height in the two-dimensional world. In fact, it was true.

Being in it, even if he had a high level of consciousness, he couldn't do it.

This was the dimensional limit. However, if one's strength was strong enough, one could also break through the dimensional limit and do things that were inconceivable to two-dimensional creatures.

The souls of the torobo people stored in the home of the soul would live like normal people in there to ensure that they do not lose their vitality.

...

Those guards were hidden among them. If Tang Zhen was discovered, he would be hunted down.

As long as he was covered by the blood of the soul-gnawing beast, even if Tang Zhen was a sector Lord, he might be completely obliterated.

It could be said that the operation this time was quite dangerous. If he was not careful, he would fail miserably.

In addition to the Guardians of the soul Village, Tang Zhen also had to be wary of the mysterious behind-the-scenes manipulator. The other party's intentions were unknown, and it was difficult to guarantee that it would cause harm to Tang Zhen at the critical moment.

One must always be wary of others. If this fellow really harbored evil intentions, Tang Zhen would guarantee that he would not be able to return.

The soul-gnawing beast suddenly opened its mouth while Tang Zhen was thinking, waking him up from his thoughts.

my Lord, you can actually use some special abilities in the home of souls.

Tang Zhen's face revealed an expression of interest. He was still thinking about how he would fight The Guardian if he didn't have the cultivator skill. He didn't think that there was a solution.

tell me, how do you use your special ability? what are the conditions? "
