Chapter 1791 Encounter at the shop (1)

Tang Zhen was not in a hurry to head to the Academy. Instead, he first went to the shops on both sides of the street to take a look and deepen his understanding of this world.

Tang Zhen could be said to be at a loss when he saw the items being sold in those shops. This was because he simply did not know what use these items had.

However, when he saw the students of the school of creation choosing materials, he knew that these items must have special uses. Otherwise, they would not have spent so much gold coins to buy them.

Tang Zhen became more and more interested, and he was determined to figure out the secret of the creator.

As for the matter of finding the Starship fortress, there was no need to rush it. It was more important to obtain the knowledge of the artisans.

After making up his mind, Tang Zhen continued to stroll around. At the same time, he analyzed and organized the information he had gathered.

In addition to all kinds of materials, some shops also sold finished creation orbs, but there were very few customers.

Although there were only simple items in these creation spheres, they were very expensive. The cheapest one was sold for more than 100000 gold coins.

As long as the creation ball was bought, the shop operator would provide the corresponding incantation, making it convenient for the buyer to take out the items inside.

However, after an item was taken out, it could not be put back in. This process involved the mysterious power of the law and was irreversible.

Tang Zhen looked around for a while and discovered that there was no lack of creation orbs that were worth millions in the shop in front of him. However, even so, the items inside were still not considered too precious.

Compared to the sealed continent in his hands, the difference was not just a little. From this, he could be sure how valuable the creation sphere he had obtained by accident was.

When the shop owner saw Tang Zhen staring at the creation ball, he hurriedly went forward and introduced, Sir, which creation sphere do you like? if there's anything you don't understand, I can introduce it to you.

Seeing the shop owner open his mouth, Tang Zhen casually pointed to an creation ball in front of him and said, "This looks interesting, can you tell me what's inside?"

The shop owner glanced at the creation sphere that Tang Zhen had pointed at. He smiled and explained, "You really have a good eye. This creation sphere has an extraordinary origin. It's the work of a disciple of a master in our city's Academy.

There was a one-hectare fertile field with a special type of aquatic grass growing there. The seeds of this aquatic grass were extremely delicious and many artisans used them as food.

And every ten years, the size of this fertile land will increase by a bit. After you buy it, you can completely treat it as a family heirloom and give it to your descendants. It's definitely worth the money!"

Tang Zhen nodded his head. This creation sphere was only the size of an egg, yet there was a fertile field inside. It was truly extremely strange.

If an ordinary person had such a thing, as long as there were no accidents, they would not have to worry about going hungry.

"This item is not bad, but I wonder what the price is?"

Tang Zhen looked at the shop owner and asked in an indifferent tone.

the price is not high, only 500000 gold coins. I can guarantee that this is the lowest price. You will not be able to buy it anywhere else!

One of these creation spheres couldn't even be sold in ten days to half a month. Now that someone was interested, the shop owner naturally had to do his best to promote it.

five hundred thousand? that's not too expensive.

Tang Zhen had hundreds of millions of gold coins. He could casually take out 500000 gold coins. Moreover, he had no interest in haggling.

When the shop owner next to him heard this, a hint of joy appeared on his face. Just as he was about to continue his victorious pursuit, someone suddenly interrupted him.

you're such a black-hearted boss. This kind of inferior-grade fertile farmland creation ball only has a plot of land, and it costs at most 200000 Yuan. You actually asked for 500000 Yuan. Aren't you afraid that people will find out and cause you trouble? "

The shop owner's mouth twitched when he heard this. He turned to look at the source of the voice and saw a tall girl in a Black Gold-embossed short skirt staring at him.

This girl's appearance was very unique. The proportion of her facial features was extremely perfect, and there was a heroic spirit between her brows.

Coupled with a neat outfit and a pair of Black Gold-stamped boots that wrapped around her calves, she would definitely make people's eyes light up.

However, the shop owner's pupils shrank, and his face turned bitter. He shook his head at the girl and said, " don't talk nonsense. The quality of my fertile farmland creation ball is absolutely guaranteed. How can it be compared with those defective products? "

The girl pointed at the shop owner and said, " don't give me that. My friend bought an creation sphere from you a few days ago, but after he returned, he discovered that it was full of loopholes.

She doesn't need that money and can't be bothered to find trouble with you, but I can't just watch her suffer.

I'm here today to ask for a refund, you hear me?"

After saying this, the girl took out an egg-sized creation ball from her pocket and placed it on the counter.

Tang Zhen glanced around and discovered that there was a fruit tree in the creation sphere. It was covered with exquisite and clear fruits.

What made people feel uncomfortable was that these fruits were full of insect eyes. Some of them had completely rotted, and insects could be seen crawling around on the fruits.

No wonder this girl would come to the shop owner to return the goods. Anyone who saw such a fruit would feel uncomfortable.

The shop owner glanced at the creation ball and rolled his eyes. Just as he was about to explain, the girl in black spoke again, "You don't have to explain to me. Everyone knows the truth. I'm just asking you today if you want to return the goods.

If you want to return the goods, I'll let this matter go. I don't want to be a busybody.

But if you don't return it, I'll go to the academy and tell everyone about this. Let's see who will come to buy things from you in the future!"

After hearing the girl's words, the shop owner quickly nodded and said, don't worry, I'll return the goods now. I just hope that you won't go around spouting nonsense. I've also been deceived.

The girl pouted and muttered in a disdainful tone, "I'd be a fool to believe you. Everyone on the street knows about you. You're always looking for outsiders to do your dirty work.

The shop owner's mouth twitched, but he didn't dare to refute, because he knew this girl's background, and he couldn't afford to offend her.

Seeing that the shop owner had gone back to withdraw the money, the girl turned her head to look at Tang Zhen. She then pointed at the fertile farmland creation ball and said, "This creation sphere also has flaws. Although it looks good now, it will be different in the later stages.

There will definitely be a lack of water and pests in the seaweed field. After the reduction in yield and death, it's already not bad to have a tenth of the harvest."

After sizing up Tang Zhen, the girl thought for a moment and said, "If you want to buy an creation sphere, it's best to go to the academy's specialized store to buy it. Although the price is a bit expensive, at least the quality is guaranteed.

If you insist on buying from these private stores, then it's best to spend money to hire an artisan apprentice to help you appraise it, so as to avoid any losses when buying defective products."

Tang Zhen smiled and nodded when he heard the girl's explanation.

thank you for your reminder. I really don't know anything about this. Also, I want to buy a few creation spheres. Can I hire you as a consultant? "

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, the girl frowned and said with hesitation, "It's not that you can't treat me, but my taste is very high, and the fee is very expensive.

You have to pay me 100000 gold coins for each creation ball you choose. If you think it's too expensive, you can find someone else."

The smile on Tang Zhen's face became even wider when he heard the girl's words. Since the other party dared to state such a price, she definitely had absolute confidence.

Since that was the case, he couldn't miss this opportunity. If he could really pick a few good quality creation orbs, it would be convenient for him to analyze them.

no problem. I'll hire you. I'll have to trouble you to lead the way. I'm not familiar with this place.

Hearing Tang Zhen agree to her condition, the girl curiously sized him up. After which, she casually received the box that the shop owner handed over.

After checking the gold coins inside and confirming that there were no problems, the girl ignored the shop owner's bitter face and waved her hand at Tang Zhen.

"Let's go, the car is outside. I'll take you to buy a real high-quality creation ball."

Tang Zhen smiled when he heard this. He ignored the shop owner who wanted to say something but hesitated as he followed the girl and slowly left.

Chapter 1792 It's not easy to be an artisan (1)

Seeing the girl and Tang Zhen walk out the door, the shop owner heaved a sigh of relief as if he had been relieved of a heavy burden. At the same time, he secretly cursed his bad luck.

Having run a shop in this city for many years, he naturally knew the identity of the girl in black. This was also the reason why he didn't dare to pester her too much when she asked for a refund.

If he couldn't bear to part with small profits, he would suffer greater losses. The shop owner could still tell which was more important.

The shop owner felt very regretful that he didn't get any money from Tang Zhen. He probably wouldn't be able to sleep tonight.

His ability to observe people's expressions was not bad. He could see that Tang Zhen was definitely a rich fat sheep, and he didn't know much about the creation sphere.

However, the shop owner did not understand that offending the girl in black might only affect his business, but if he were to scam Tang Zhen, he might lose his life.

Tang Zhen would never show mercy to those who deceived him, regardless of the other party's identity.

The shop owner didn't know that so far, nearly 100 plane worlds had directly or indirectly ceased to exist because of this "fat sheep."

Of course, one could not lump things together. On this matter, even if Tang Zhen knew that he had been deceived, he would perhaps only smile indifferently.

Things that were flawed in the eyes of others might not be worthless to him. Analyzing the reasons for the failure of a piece of work was also a part of the learning process.

.....

Tang Zhen walked to the street and saw a strange car parked on the side of the road.

The car had six wheels, and four long legs curled up in its fur like those of a kangaroo. The soles of the feet were very strange, somewhat like the feet of a goose.

Its body was like a convertible sports car with two comfortable seats. If one looked closely, one could see that its surface was wriggling slightly.

After seeing the girl in black, the car even shook and made a snorting sound.

This was a vehicle that was a combination of flesh and machinery. Tang Zhen had seen similar things before, but they were definitely not as perfect as the one in front of him.

The artisans of this world were indeed extraordinary.

no matter what, I have to take control of this plane. I have complete control over it!

This was the first time Tang Zhen had such a thought. He wanted to completely control a world and not destroy it for the sake of plundering resources.

If this world was included in their pocket, it would produce profits that were ten or even hundreds of times higher than plundering. The significance of this to the Holy Dragon War zone was too great.

Just obtaining the knowledge of an artisan wouldn't bring him any benefits in a short time, and it would take many years to spread it. How could it compare to directly controlling the entire world?

Invading and plundering was far more direct and straightforward than taking complete control of a plane. It could be said that everything was for the purpose of destruction, and anyone who resisted would be killed without mercy.

And controlling a plane without shedding a drop of blood required more planning and deployment, which took a lot of time. Of course, the benefits would be greater.

If it was the child of the plane who did this, he might be very familiar with it. However, this was the first time Tang Zhen had done this.

The experience of helping Loki in the true immortal plane was at most an aid. The real person who did it was Loki, and he had been an outsider from the beginning to the end.

This matter was a challenge to Tang Zhen. However, it was easier to stimulate his fighting spirit. Moreover, he was enjoying it.

The black clothed girl smiled when she saw Tang Zhen sizing up her car without turning his eyes away. She mistakenly thought that he was very interested in her car.

With a hint of pride in her voice, the girl pointed at the car and said, " it looks good, doesn't it? it's a gift from my grandfather. There's only one in the entire city.

Tang Zhen nodded his head. Even with his experience, he was unable to find too many flaws. It was indeed a very interesting item.

"If I'm not wrong, this car can not only travel on land but also dive into the water, right?" Tang Zhen said after thinking for a while.

Hearing Tang Zhen's words, a trace of surprise flashed across the black clothed girl's face. It was the first time that an outsider had seen through the hidden function of the car.

"Tell me, how did you know? you haven't heard people talk about this car before, have you?"

Tang Zhen pointed at the front of the car when he heard the black-clothed girl's question. There was an extremely inconspicuous organ there that was covered by hair.

"This should be the gills of the car. They can breathe underwater and provide oxygen for the passengers.

When the back of the seat is in the water, it should be able to pop out a bright flesh membrane, so that the passenger can see the scenery outside."

Looking at the surprised girl, Tang Zhen walked to the front of the car and pointed at the four legs and the hidden tail.

when you encounter special environments or enter the water, four legs and a tail that looks like a fishtail will come in handy, right? " he asked.

The girl in black pouted. The feeling of having all her secrets seen through was really uncomfortable.

you're quite knowledgeable. Get in the car now. I'll take you to buy a creation ball.

Although the car's Secret had been discovered by Tang Zhen, the girl in black didn't care. This wasn't a big deal. So what if she knew?

It was not a big deal to be able to see it, but to be able to create it was a real skill.

After the two of them got into the car, the girl grabbed onto the two antennas on the driver's seat. Then, the six wheels started to spin crazily, and the car flew away.

Although it was fast, the car knew how to avoid pedestrians on the road. It was completely automatic, which made the driver very relaxed.

While driving, the girl turned her head to look at Tang Zhen and asked, you don't look like a local. Are you here to buy a creation ball or for something else? "

"The purpose of my coming here is to learn the knowledge of creation until I become an artisan," Tang Zhen said indifferently.

Since you're from here, can you explain to me the specific learning process of an artisan?"

The dark-skinned girl wasn't surprised when she heard Tang Zhen say that he wanted to become an artisan. After all, most of the foreigners came for this goal.

"It's not easy to become an artisan. You must first have enough talent, enough cultivation, and also enough money to support you.

"After you have all of these, it will be a long learning and research process. Becoming an artisan isn't easy, and 90% of people choose to give up during this process."

When the girl spoke up to this point, she turned her head and looked at Tang Zhen. She used a slightly consoling tone and said, "So, before you make a decision, you must think carefully. If you're not sure you can handle this, then it's best to give up as soon as possible.

Becoming an artisan isn't as simple as you think."

Tang Zhen could tell that the other party was doing this for his own good. He smiled and expressed his gratitude, saying that he had already considered it before coming.

When the other party heard this, he no longer tried to persuade him.

There was no shortage of dream seekers like Tang Zhen in this city. Every year, there were at least 80000, if not 100000, dream seekers.

...

However, most people came with passion, but they ran into walls everywhere. In the end, they could only leave quietly in a daze.

It could be said that less than one in a hundred people would be able to stay. Moreover, in the future learning process, a large number of people would be eliminated.

Perhaps it wouldn't be long before this slightly mysterious young man beside him would leave the city quietly.

For the rest of the time, neither of them spoke. It was not until a huge building complex appeared in front of them that the car slowly came to a stop.

The buildings here were even more unique. From time to time, strange animals and plants could be seen in front of them, running around the pedestrians.

Most of them were pets, and 99% of them had been created by artisans. Many of them were unique.

Of course, if an artisan grasped a specific creation formula, he could mass-produce the items. This was especially true for daily necessities with high consumption rates. Just a single creation formula was worth a fortune.

"This is the city's Creator Academy. It is ranked 53rd in the entire world. Its level isn't particularly high, but its strength can't be underestimated.

Every artisan Academy has its own specialty. This Academy's specialty is its relaxed environment and rich ancient books. In this aspect, it can be ranked in the top ten among all the academies."

The black-clothed girl introduced the place to Tang Zhen as they walked. From her tone and words, it was as though she had returned to her own home, appearing free and relaxed.

Tang Zhen acted as a loyal listener. At this moment, he had memorized every word that the other party had said. It might come in handy at a critical moment.

...

If he wanted to plan for a plane, he couldn't miss any information. Comprehensive intelligence was the necessary Foundation for carrying out operations.

Since Tang Zhen had already made up his mind, he would think of a way to let the cultivators in loucheng infiltrate this world and then quietly cast a large net.

When the net was closed, the world would be under his control.

Chapter 1793 The official store (1)

As the two of them spoke, they had already passed through the long flesh carpet and arrived in front of a strange building that looked like a watermelon.

The flesh carpet extended all the way into the building. People were coming in and out constantly, and it looked very lively.

There was no need for the two of them to walk. The flesh carpet wriggled and sent the two of them into the building, just like an automatic elevator.

According to the girl in black's explanation, this flesh carpet was also a creature created by an artisan. It had the ability to clean itself and move objects, so it was very popular with the rich.

After entering the building, they saw beautiful creatures that looked like little sprites everywhere. Their bodies were shimmering with colorful fluorescent light, and they scattered spots of light as they flew.

welcome. If you need anything, please let me know. I can help you arrange it.

After seeing Tang Zhen and his companion enter, a foot-tall little fairy with transparent wings flew over and spoke with a delicate and pleasant voice.

"Go do your work. I'm very familiar with this place, so I'll be in charge of guiding you."

Although the little fairy in front of him was only a creature created by an artisan, the black-clothed girl still maintained sufficient courtesy. This caused Tang Zhen to have a higher opinion of her.

please take your time to look around. If there's anything you need, you can call me and my partner.

The seven-colored fairy flapped her wings and saluted Tang Zhen and the black-clothed girl before slowly flying toward the counter not far away.

"Now, tell me what kind of creation sphere you're going to buy. I'll Take You There directly and save time."

The black-clothed girl, who was hired by someone, quickly entered her role and used a very formal expression to ask Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen thought for a moment and then replied with a certain tone, "I'm going to buy a few creation orbs from the lowest to the highest level to slowly study them in the future. Can I buy them all here?"

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, the girl's face revealed a trace of surprise. After which, she gently shook her head.

you definitely can't buy the highest-grade creation spheres here. Their value is too high. You have to go to the largest auction house in the capital. There will occasionally be something you want there.

Creation spheres that are a few grades lower can be bought here, but they're very expensive. Are you sure you want to buy a few from the highest to the lowest?"

Tang Zhen nodded his head, indicating that he did indeed intend to do so.

alright, I hope you have enough gold coins in your pocket. This will require a lot of money.

The girl shrugged her shoulders and led Tang Zhen to a row of counters. She began to introduce the products here to him.

This was a shop that specialized in selling creation spheres. Most of the teachers and apprentices in the Academy would choose to sell them here after they had completed their production.

There were also some artisan apprentices who contacted the shops and sent their works to them for consignment sale. However, most of these works had some flaws.

In the shops run by the Academy, the customers were often experts. They could distinguish the flaws, so naturally, they would not buy it.

If people knew who the author was, not only would they not be able to sell it, but their reputation would also be affected. Therefore, the quality of the creation balls here was basically guaranteed.

Therefore, the creation spheres sold in civilian shops were either defective products like this or the works of self-taught apprentices.

"This is the lowest grade creation ball, and it should be the work of some apprentice. Do you see the label here? it has already been appraised, and it belongs to the one star One grade quality.

There were nine levels in star-class, from one to nine. Nine stars was the highest, and each star-class was further divided into nine levels.

This star is also white in color, which means that this is the lowest quality. Above it are Silver Star, Gold Star, and purple Star, three grades."

Tang Zhen repeatedly nodded his head as he listened to the girl's introduction. The system of the creator was indeed quite perfect. It had actually been refined to such a degree.

The more this was the case, the more he couldn't miss this plane. He had to find a way to control it.

At this moment, he couldn't help but secretly rejoice. If he hadn't discovered this special plane first and had been discovered by the other towers, the artisan civilization would have been destroyed.

If that was the case, it would definitely cause heartache.

Tang Zhen looked at the black-clothed girl when he thought of this. He used a slightly puzzled tone and asked, since it's such a low-level creation ball, why is it placed here and at such a high price? "

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's question, the girl revealed an expression of "as expected." Once again, she confirmed that Tang Zhen really knew nothing about the artisan realm.

However, the more she thought about it, the more she admired Tang Zhen's eyesight. He was able to tell all the functions of her car with just a glance. This was obviously a kind of ability.

"You only see the level of this creation sphere, but you don't know the value of this plant.

According to the creator's imagination, this should be a heavenly treasure that could increase one's cultivation after consuming it. It was a special plant that had not been recorded before.

Since he had passed the appraisal, it meant that he had already succeeded, or he was only one step away from success. That was why he was qualified to be placed here.

Of course, this wasn't a mature plant, and it was impossible to determine if it could bear the expected fruit. It would take at least ten to twenty years to get a specific answer.

It's because there's a certain gambling nature to it, otherwise it wouldn't be worth only 10000 gold coins, but at least 100000 gold coins!"

After hearing the black-clothed girl's explanation, Tang Zhen waved his hand at the little fairy beside him. After which, he pointed at the creation sphere in front of him.

I'll buy this creation sphere, but I want to buy the others. Do you want a unified payment or a separate payment? "

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, the little fairy said that she could settle the bill together, but she needed to be at the side and be responsible for recording.

Tang Zhen nodded. He looked at the black-clothed girl and indicated for her to continue leading the way and introducing the place.

Having easily earned 100000 gold coins, the girl was obviously very happy. She was even more serious when choosing and introducing.

Tang Zhen listened carefully at the side and discovered that there was indeed a reason for the other party's high price. It was because the creation spheres she had chosen were indeed of the best quality.

The black-clothed girl didn't even look at the creation spheres that had minor flaws but weren't problematic.

Either he didn't choose, or he would choose the best.

Her approach was in line with Tang Zhen's intentions. One's vision was picky enough, and one's pocket of money was sufficient. The cooperation was quite good.

The two of them walked around the shop and finally chose more than 80 creation orbs. Their total value had already exceeded 50 million gold coins.

However, Tang Zhen still wasn't satisfied. This was because he wanted an even higher grade creation ball. However, the girl refused to help him choose.

Faced with Tang Zhen's puzzled expression, the girl explained, "It's not that I don't want to earn this money, but those high-level creation spheres involve too much knowledge, which has long exceeded the upper limit of my knowledge.

But if you're willing to wait, I can find an expert to help you, but the identification fee will not be 100000 gold coins, but a million gold coins!"

Hearing the black clothed girl's explanation, Tang Zhen nodded his head. The other party was very professional and did not choose to deceive because of money.

in that case, I'll have to trouble you to help me find an appraiser. Since I'm already here, I naturally don't want to leave with regrets.

As Tang Zhen spoke, he first paid for the eighty creation balls and then placed a bag of gold coins in the girl's hand.

The largest denomination of a gold coin in this world was ten thousand. Above that, there was a special gold Card, with a maximum denomination of ten million.

They existed for the convenience of artisans. For ordinary people, a single gold coin would take a long time to earn.

The black-clothed girl received the remuneration that Tang Zhen paid. A trace of a smile appeared on her face as she stretched out her hand and snapped her fingers.

"You're a very straightforward person. Since that's the case, I'll give you face and give you a 20% discount,"

When the girl spoke up to this point, she first took out some gold coins and returned them to Tang Zhen. She did not have the slightest expression of heartache.

Then, she took out an item from her pocket, fiddled with it a few times, and shouted, " "Old man, I've found a business for you to make some extra money. I'll appraise one creation sphere for 800000 gold coins.

I'm in the Academy's shop. If you want to make money, come quickly!"

Chapter 1794 Low profile sector Lord

The girl in black had earned over eight million gold coins from Tang Zhen just by helping him appraise it. Even after a 20% discount, it was still over six million.

Of course, the other party earned money through his own ability. Moreover, the price was clearly marked. The creation balls that he helped Tang Zhen choose were also the best of the best.

Just based on this point, he had a clear conscience when he took the money.

To an ordinary person, 6000000 gold was an astronomical figure. To an artisan, however, it might not even be enough to cover the cost of a single research.

The girl in black might have been used to this amount of gold coins, so even though she had a huge amount of money, her expression did not change, and her speech and behavior did not change at all.

As for the appraisal price of 800000 for the next pill, Tang Zhen similarly didn't care. With his status, the gold coins in this world were no different from dung.

In addition, he was very interested in the appraiser. To be able to be called by the girl in black to save the situation and to dare to ask for such a price, he must be an expert.

Keeping in touch with such a person would be very helpful for his future plans. Now that the opportunity was in front of him, he naturally would not miss it.

It didn't take long for a series of screams to come from the store's entrance. Then, an old man with white hair and a tattered robe rushed in.

He was unruly, unbothered by trifles, and indeed had the attitude of a master.

where are you? who wants me to appraise you? I don't have much time, so come and see me!

After the old man entered the store, he shouted at the top of his lungs. The customers next to him wanted to protest, but after seeing the old man's appearance, they all obediently shut their mouths.

Tang Zhen's eyes rolled slightly when he saw this. The corner of his mouth revealed a smile.

"I'm here, hurry over!"

The girl in black waved at the old man. When the old man saw her, he quickly ran over.

Looking at Tang Zhen in front of him, the old man took out a round ball from his waist. After fiddling with it with his hand, he said, "I've already started my own timer. I have half an hour before I have to leave.

What kind of creation sphere do you want to buy? tell me quickly and I'll take you to choose."

When the old man spoke, he had an anxious expression on his face, as if he had something urgent to do.

The girl in black saw this and immediately said in a slightly dissatisfied tone, "Hey, hey, hey, how can you treat the customers I introduce to you with this kind of attitude? if you do this again, I won't give you any more chances to earn extra money in the future.

The old man revealed a difficult expression when he heard the black clothed girl's words. After which, he squeezed out an ugly smile towards Tang Zhen.

little brother, what kind of creation ball do you want? just tell me, and I promise you won't waste this appraisal fee!

Tang Zhen smiled when he saw the interaction between the black-clothed girl and the old man. He felt that it was quite interesting.

How could Tang Zhen, who had been paying attention and observing, not see that the relationship between these two people was very close? they should be grandfather and grandson.

Their identities were not simple either, which could be seen from the expressions of the customers in the store. They should be very well-known in the Academy.

Regardless of the identity of the two, Tang Zhen only wanted to buy an creation sphere and then think of a way to enter the academy through this grandfather and grandson duo.

After telling his request to the old man, the other party nodded and directly brought Tang Zhen and the other person to the second floor of the shop.

The creation balls here were all of high quality and easily cost tens of millions. Usually, very few customers could enter and visit.

It could be seen that the old man was very familiar with this place. After he went upstairs, he continuously introduced it to Tang Zhen. Compared to the black-clothed girl's explanation, it was more concise and to the point.

This was the difference between realms. Although the girl in black also had a deep knowledge of creation, she was still far from the old man.

After choosing for a while, Tang Zhen put several creation spheres into his pocket and paid a huge amount of gold coins.

The gold coins that were originally exchanged were not enough to pay for the goods. Tang Zhen exchanged some more and temporarily stored the rest.

In the days to come, there were still many places where he would need to spend gold coins. These were probably far from enough.

After the transaction was completed, the old man happily received the gold coins from Tang Zhen and turned around to leave.

Looking at his appearance, he seemed to be really in a hurry.

Seeing this, the girl in black quickly stood in front of him and reminded him, " don't go and buy all that rubbish anymore. Our house is filled with junk. Believe it or not, I'll throw them out if you buy more.

The old man chuckled and agreed, but his eyes betrayed his inner thoughts.

Seeing this, the girl in black sighed softly, but did not say anything more.

you don't have to leave in a hurry, Sir. I still have one thing that I hope you can help me with.

Tang Zhen took this opportunity to tell them about his preparation to learn creation knowledge. He also expressed that he was unfamiliar with this place and hoped that they would be able to help him.

After hearing Tang Zhen's request, the old man sized him up, indicating that this was not a problem.

As long as they followed the normal procedures, anyone was qualified to apply for the Academy. However, whether they could successfully apply and to what extent they could develop would depend entirely on their own efforts.

Whether they helped or not, it didn't really matter.

However, the old man still told Tang Zhen the specific process and then gave him something like a business card. He said that if he encountered a problem that he couldn't solve, he could take this out.

Tang Zhen expressed his thanks before the three of them bid each other farewell.

After leaving the shop, Tang Zhen followed the old man's instructions and found the registration location.

After paying the registration fee, Tang Zhen was led to do some tests. Although this was a threshold, it was an easy task for him.

After a few hours of hard work, Tang Zhen officially joined the Academy. From now on, he could freely learn the knowledge of creation.

Tang Zhen did not choose the dormitory provided by the Academy. He walked around the city twice and bought a semi-underground house.

The house was built on the grass halfway up the hill. It didn't look particularly eye-catching on the outside, but the space inside was quite large.

There weren't many residents around here. If Tang Zhen stayed here, he could minimize the number of times he was disturbed by outsiders.

After settling down, Tang Zhen began his formal studies.

After officially coming into contact with the artisan profession, Tang Zhen discovered that this was indeed a money-burning profession. Whether it was various books or materials used for experiments, they all required a large amount of gold coins.

Even if one had the relevant knowledge, it was not easy to successfully complete the production. It also required repeated experiments to achieve the perfect fusion of materials.

In this process, an apprentice artisan needed to be highly focused, have a meticulous observation, and have sufficient physical strength to ensure the completion of the final experiment.

Fortunately, this was an easy task for Tang Zhen. This also allowed his learning speed to become extremely fast. He only used a very short time to complete the most basic steps.

However, becoming an artisan was only the beginning.

After completing the introductory steps, Tang Zhen frequently went in and out of the classroom and the library. He often visited the more famous artisans in the Academy.

The old man's name card was very useful at this time. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to meet those artisans so easily.

This world was somewhat similar to the wizard World. If one wanted to ask for knowledge from the Masters of creation, they would also have to pay a certain price.

Fortunately, Tang Zhen didn't lack gold coins. This also allowed him to not encounter any obstacles in the process of learning. The creation knowledge he grasped also increased.

Although he frequently entered and exited the Academy, Tang Zhen's performance was extremely low key. It was to the extent that many students did not know that such a student had appeared in the Academy.

This was the result that Tang Zhen wanted. At this moment, he had yet to formulate a corresponding invasion plan. It was really not appropriate for him to attract the attention of too many people.

According to his analysis, there might be a creator-level powerhouse in this high-energy plane.

Once he attracted their attention, it would definitely have a great impact on his plan. This was definitely not the result that Tang Zhen wanted.

Although Tang Zhen had already reached the second realm of the realm Lord and was only a step away from the third realm, there was still a huge gap between him and a true creator.

...

Tang Zhen would definitely not rashly make a move before he was completely confident. He did not want to fail at the last step.

Chapter 1795 The way to open the crystal wall (1)

In the secret underground room, Tang Zhen had set up a runic magic circle to prevent others from peeking into his secret.

The sealed continent water creation sphere that he had brought out from the ruins was placed on the table. Runes were constantly flashing on the energy crystal wall.

Through the knowledge of creation that he had learned over the past few days, Tang Zhen could basically confirm that the sealed continent was definitely the best creation ball.

An creation ball of this level would definitely cause a sensation if it was taken out, and it would lead to countless people coveting and snatching it.

It could be said that the sealed continent was comparable to a small plane. Perhaps, it was because of this that Tang Zhen accidentally entered the spatial passage when he was opening it.

However, it was easy for this thing to enter, but it was extremely difficult to come out.

When he first opened the space passage, he had to stabilize it with the help of thousands of cultivators in loucheng city, which allowed dozens of heavy warships to enter.

When he came out, he had spent a lot of effort, and this method had a considerable drawback. The sealed continent would be destroyed if he was not careful.

The creation ball wasn't a real world. It looked powerful on the surface, but it was actually quite fragile.

If Tang Zhen were to grasp the ultimate code of the creation ball, he would be able to destroy it in an instant. It could be said that the life and death of all living things within the creation ball were completely in the hands of the creator.

Frequent internal damage would also make the internal structure of the creation ball unstable, and there was a danger of the crystal wall collapsing.

When the creation sphere's crystal wall collapsed, the things inside would directly appear in this world, and they would appear in their original normal volume.

The violent changes would not only lead to the death of the creatures inside the creation ball, but also cause great damage to the outside world.

According to the ancient records, there was once a high-grade creation ball that suddenly exploded, and a city was instantly submerged in a flood.

Countless strange man-eating fish wreaked havoc in the flood, devouring all kinds of living creatures, causing huge losses.

To this day, that area was still a country of water, and the man-eating strange fish formed groups, making it impossible to kill them all.

Also, due to the changes in the creation sphere, the entire city was buried by land that appeared out of thin air. It was as if a piece of a map had been removed and a new picture had been pasted.

It was precisely because of these various reasons that Tang Zhen didn't dare to easily crack the creation ball to avoid causing harm to the cultivators inside.

At this moment, there were only two paths in front of Tang Zhen. He could either obtain the ultimate control password of this creation sphere or crack it by force.

Although the creator of the sealed continent had long disappeared after the passage of time, Tang Zhen could still exchange for the ultimate password through the balance of fate.

However, according to the scales of fate's usual style, it would probably cost an astronomical figure.

In order to invade the terobo star system, Tang Zhen had already invested 90% of his destiny gold coins into the war. Therefore, even if the scales of destiny were to offer a price, he might not be able to afford it.

After trying it out, it was just as he had expected.

Even if he took out all the remaining Destiny's gold coins, he still couldn't lift the end of the scale. It didn't even show any signs of moving.

Tang Zhen could only choose to give up on the shortcut when he saw this. He started to study the feasibility of forcefully breaking it.

However, if he were to break it by force, it would put the cultivators in the sealed continent in danger. There were 100000 King level cultivators here. If an accident were to happen, Tang Zhen would be heartbroken.

Therefore, Tang Zhen would never use this method unless he had no other choice.

He would rather waste more time to think of other ways than to play with the lives of the cultivators in Lou Cheng.

In fact, in addition to these two methods, Tang Zhen had another method. That was to find a way to find the specific origin of the sealed continent and then find the real password to crack it.

However, after so many years, the ground where the secret chamber was located had already turned into ruins. If Tang Zhen wanted to find the password through the traces, it would be like looking for a needle in a haystack.

Perhaps this world's top artisans could open the sealed continent, but whether it was the value of the ball or the cultivators inside, he must not let them know.

After researching for half a day, Tang Zhen was unable to find a satisfactory solution. He could only give up for the time being.

After adjusting his condition, Tang Zhen took out a low-grade creation ball from his storage equipment and began to use the most brutal method to crack it. He hoped to find a way to open the sealed continent.

.....

Before he knew it, more than a month had passed.

Tang Zhen was walking on the streets of the city. He was preparing to gather some materials to make the final preparations to break the crystal wall that sealed the continent.

After this period of study, he had already mastered all the basic courses of creation and was now learning more advanced knowledge.

The artisans who had come into contact with him were all amazed by his learning progress. They believed that it wouldn't be long before he had the qualifications to take the 1-star artisan examination.

This kind of learning speed was extremely rare in the entire Academy. It was only because Tang Zhen had deliberately kept a low profile that his reputation would have soared.

He only used a little more than a month's time to complete what other apprentices would need ten years or even decades to complete. It was not an exaggeration to say that he was a monster.

Tang Zhen himself did not feel that there was anything amazing about it. After all, his true strength was there. It was only natural for him to obtain his current results.

Moreover, his goal wasn't just to become a 1-star artisan. He still had many things to learn as a top-notch 9-star artisan.

However, this did not delay him from carrying out his own plan. After thinking for a period of time, Tang Zhen had already formulated a plan to solve the problem.

It was absolutely impossible to contact the world of Loucheng directly and let the cultivators of Loucheng force their way in. That would attract the attention of the powerhouses in this world, and it might backfire.

At that time, Tang Zhen could only choose to fight head on. Moreover, he could not guarantee that he would obtain the final victory.

Tang Zhen's plan was to use the sealed continent as a transit point and let Lou Cheng's cultivators enter the sealed continent. After that, they would enter this world through the sealed continent.

Although this process was slightly complicated, it would not attract the attention of the local powerhouses, and it could be completely done without anyone knowing.

The premise of this plan was to be able to freely enter and exit the sealed continent, otherwise everything would be a dream.

Tang Zhen's idea was to cultivate a special creature that could bring people in and out of the creation sphere.

Ordinary creatures could not do this at all. Therefore, Tang Zhen was preparing to cultivate a super-dimensional creature similar to the soul-gnawing beast that could switch between the third and fourth dimensions.

Although the idea was good, it was not easy to realize. Fortunately, he had the most important material in his hands, which was the blood of the soul-gnawing beast.

As long as the blood of the soul-gnawing beast was improved, some special materials were added, and then combined with an artisan's Secret technique, he could create a creation ball that could breed such a creature.

Before he purchased the materials, he had already simulated this set of manufacturing formula countless times in his mind. Only when he was 90% confident did Tang Zhen start to act.

During this day, he went around the material shops in the city, searching for the things he needed.

...

After that, he went to the Academy's trading platform to post a request for purchase, expressing that he would purchase the materials he wanted at all costs.

He was only three materials away from the required materials for the experiment, and they were all very rare items that could not be bought at ordinary shops.

Advanced artisans might be able to come into contact with these materials, but low-ranked artisans had never even heard of these three materials.

Tang Zhen had already made up his mind. If he still couldn't gather the things he wanted, he could only buy them through the scales of fate.

Although the number of Destiny's gold coins was decreasing the more he used them, Tang Zhen would never hesitate as long as he could complete his plan.

Just as Tang Zhen was patiently waiting, he suddenly received a notice. There was already news of the materials he wanted, but the owner wanted to discuss the price with him face to face.

Tang Zhen was overjoyed when he heard this. He hurriedly put down the work in his hand and headed straight for the place where the other party had agreed to trade.

When he arrived, he saw that the trader was none other than the black-clothed girl who had helped him appraise the creation ball.

However, her current appearance was completely different from before. Her entire body was wrapped in a white tight-fitting one-piece garment, revealing her slender legs and graceful figure.

His upper body was covered in a white feather coat, and a pair of huge wings on his back were folded, trembling from time to time.

With the Golden Crown on her head and her pretty face full of heroic spirit, she really looked like an angel.

...

Chapter 1796 The deal in the tavern (1)

The girl's outfit was so stunning that the people who passed by her would often look at her.

The girl, on the other hand, looked indifferent, as if she was used to this kind of situation.

Everyone loved beauty, even cultivators. When Tang Zhen ordered people to design the armor for the cultivators in Loucheng, he would emphasize that it was as beautiful as possible.

However, in addition to its beauty, the clothes were also suitable for flying, but ordinary people would not be able to tell.

After seeing Tang Zhen, the girl waved her hand at him and invited him to sit on the chair.

After Tang Zhen sat down, the girl in front of him patted her body. Soon after, the feathers that wrapped around her body trembled gently before they automatically fell off.

After the feather fell to the ground, the thing quietly lay at the girl's feet. Then, it revealed its eyes and mouth from the feather and kept pecking at the beans the girl had thrown on the ground.

Tang Zhen took a glance and discovered that the beans were not simple. They should have been refined using special materials.

Ordinary food should not be able to support this special species. No wonder it was not popularized in the city.

What an interesting little thing. Did your grandfather give it to you again?"

Tang Zhen shifted his gaze away and asked the girl with a smile.

“It’s not my grandfather this time, it’s my father. Of course, I’ve contributed too.

Because it was my suggestion, he specially cultivated this kind of winged bird and gave me the first one!”

The girl’s face flashed with pride.

Tang Zhen nodded his head and casually praised. He also casually sized up the surrounding environment.

This was a habit that he had long developed. He had to be on guard against any possible danger, and it was not something that could be easily changed.

This was a rather unique Tavern. It was built in the middle of a huge tree that was shaped like a flower vase. The inside was decorated with emerald green vines, the seats were twisted branches, and the wine vessels were all kinds of flowers.

The wine inside was also colorful and pleasing to the eye, emitting a faint rainbow light.

what are you drinking? this Tavern’s juice is very famous. Do you want a glass? ”

Tang Zhen nodded. He looked at the girl and asked, I didn’t expect to find the materials in your hands after searching for so long. This is a little beyond my expectations.

The girl put down the wine glass, took out three small boxes from somewhere, and placed them in front of Tang Zhen.

the things you want are too unpopular. I’m afraid ordinary creators have never even heard of them. I just happened to see the request message and remembered that I have these materials in my collection.

“It seems that my luck is not bad.”

Tang Zhen used his eyes to ask the other party. After obtaining permission, he opened the box and checked it.

It was indeed the three sets of materials he needed, but the amount was not much, and he did not know if it was enough.

Tang Zhen closed the box and asked, ” forgive me for being presumptuous. I’m afraid that these materials are not enough for me. If you still have any in stock, you can sell them all to me. I guarantee that the price will satisfy you.

The girl shook her head. Tang Zhen could not help but feel a little disappointed when he saw this.

“It’s not a matter of money. If I had more, I would definitely bring them all to you.

In fact, these materials were obtained from the ruins, and I only brought some back along the way. If you want them, you can only go to the ruins to find them.”

Tang Zhen smiled. There was no difficulty for him to explore the remains.

However, when he asked for the location of the ruins, the other party shook his head.

"I can't tell you the location of the ruins because it's a secret shared by all of us. However, we'll be going there again soon. If you're willing to pay the price, we can take you with us.

At that time, you won't need to buy materials from me. You can collect them yourself and get as many as you want."

Tang Zhen thought for a moment before nodding his head in agreement.

The materials in his hands were enough for him to use. If he succeeded, there was no need to search for them.

If he failed, it wouldn't be too late to follow the other party.

that's good. Why don't you tell me the specific time of the operation? if necessary, I'll contact you in advance.

The girl nodded. She was unconcerned about whether Tang Zhen would follow.

Ruins weren't treasures. Even if one took the risk, they might not necessarily gain anything.

In such a situation, having a few more teammates would allow them to take care of each other, which would greatly enhance their safety.

In fact, 90% of the ruins were broken creation spheres with all kinds of strange things inside. In most cases, there was only danger and no wealth.

Furthermore, the latecomers would have to pay enough money to join the organization as compensation for the secret.

No one would refuse such a thing when they could get benefits.

In this world, there were even people who specialized in searching for ruins and auctioning off adventure slots to earn enough gold coins.

After inquiring about the price of the materials, both parties completed the transaction.

if you want to participate in the exploration of the ruins, you can find me in the laboratory on the east side of the Academy. My name is Leah.

The girl got up and left her seat. At the same time, she threw a few gold coins into the flowers beside her to pay for the wine.

"Oh right, you haven't said your name yet. This is very impolite."

Looking at the girl who had turned around to ask, Tang Zhen reported her name before nodding his head and bidding her farewell.

Leah chuckled, turned around, and snapped her fingers at the winged bird. The strange creature extended its two little wings and flapped them continuously as it left the ground.

As he followed Leah to the door, the winged bird suddenly approached her and wrapped itself around her like a piece of clothing.

After wrapping Leah's graceful body in it, the bird suddenly spread its wings and flapped them gently.

"Goodbye!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Leah tapped the ground with the tip of her foot and flew off the ground like an elegant Swan.

...

another creature created by an artisan? interesting. Even ordinary people can use it freely.

Tang Zhen looked at Leah, who had disappeared in the air, and a thoughtful look appeared in his eyes. Then, he turned around and headed straight for the laboratory rented by the Academy.

A true artisan would definitely have his own laboratory. Tang Zhen had yet to make any preparations for the time being. Therefore, he could only rent the Academy's facilities.

According to the College's requirements, Tang Zhen paid enough gold coins to rent a top-class laboratory.

After sealing off the laboratory and ensuring that no one would disturb him, Tang Zhen began his first attempt.

Even though he had extraordinary strength and the experimental process had been simulated countless times, there were still various changes that could happen in the actual operation.

Tang Zhen did not dare to be careless. In this aspect, he was a pure newbie.

Tang Zhen processed the materials one by one according to the knowledge of creation he had mastered. After the preparation work was completed, he began to use the runic magic circle to fuse and catalyze the materials.

After this step was completed, it was time to create the crystal wall of the creation ball, and then activate the special array inside, officially beginning the creation process.

Tang Zhen had completed every step meticulously. However, he kept feeling that something was wrong. It was as if he was not creating a life but an object.

"Why do I have a feeling that this experiment will fail?"

...

Tang Zhen muttered to himself. After which, he shook his head and laughed softly.

it was just a small experiment, yet he was already worried about the gains and losses. this was not in his character.

However, this kind of feeling also made Tang Zhen feel quite interested. It was as if he was a true artisan apprentice, moving step by step towards his dream.

After all the work was completed, an creation sphere appeared in front of Tang Zhen. However, it was chaotic inside.

As for the results of the experiment, he would have to wait for some time.

If an embryo appeared, it would mean that Tang Zhen's experiment was a success. If it was still chaotic, it would mean that his experiment had failed.

after placing the creation ball into the catalyst device, tang zhen sat cross-legged and began his daily cultivation.

By the time he opened his eyes, the catalysis time was up, and the pre-set beeping sound kept ringing.

He walked to the front of the catalyst and opened the tightly shut alloy door. When he saw the creation ball inside, Tang Zhen shook his head.

The creation sphere was like a rotten egg, looking extremely muddy. It was obvious that his experiment had failed.

Chapter 1797 An interesting blabberbird (1) judging from the current situation, perhaps I should reserve a spot in the exploration Group and collect more materials for future use.

Tang Zhen had a feeling that the following experiment might still encounter failure.

He had underestimated creation. He had always thought that he could create the special creature he wanted with his terrifying accumulation of knowledge and the creation knowledge he had recently mastered.

However, reality had already proven that he had failed. The artisans and the cultivators of loucheng were two completely different cultivation systems.

There were some aspects that he could learn from, but there were many aspects that were completely different. He had to study them in depth and carefully.

Although the first experiment failed, Tang Zhen was not discouraged. After all, this matter was already within his expectations.

After sorting out his emotions and reviewing the experiment steps from yesterday, he began a new experiment.

Three days later.

Tang Zhen shook his head gloomily as he looked at the failed creation sphere.

He was a sector Lord, yet he had failed his experiments time and time again. If he didn't have any thoughts about it, he would be lying to himself.

After analyzing the specific reasons for the failure, Tang Zhen first eliminated the problem with the technique. He would never make a mistake in this kind of thing.

There were two possible reasons for his failure. The first was that he didn't have enough knowledge. After all, he had only grasped the basic knowledge of an artisan so far.

Even with his own experience and knowledge, he still couldn't perfectly realize the plan, so failure was only natural.

Furthermore, the special creature that he wanted to create would definitely not be a simple thing. Just its ability to freely change dimensions was far beyond that of ordinary creatures.

Only by mastering more advanced knowledge of creation and combining it with his own experience would he have a chance of success.

I'm still too impatient. However, these experiments weren't in vain. At least I found some loopholes. I can avoid similar mistakes in the next experiment.

After Tang Zhen summed up his experience, he cleaned up the laboratory and walked out of the door.

This experiment had cost him close to 10 million gold coins. For an apprentice artisan, this was an inconceivable amount of money.

Even the experiments of high-ranked artisans rarely had such a huge consumption. From this, one could see how extraordinary Tang Zhen's experiments were.

Perhaps, there would be even more consumption before the experiment was successful. Given Tang Zhen's style of seeking perfection, it was not impossible for him to spend over a hundred million.

After passing through the huge campus, Tang Zhen arrived in front of a building that looked like a huge conch according to the address that Leah had given him. Beside it was a jade-green Lake.

Before they came, Tang Zhen had already inquired about it. The men and women who entered and left this place had already obtained the qualifications of an artisan. They were forbidden from entering without permission.

Even if Tang Zhen wanted to find someone, he would have to first reveal his identity. After which, a group of reverie birds squatting at the entrance would pass on the message.

Looking at the Kingfisher-like little bird with colorful feathers in front of him, Tang Zhen expressed that he was looking for Leah.

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, those tongue birds exchanged glances with each other. However, they did not immediately report the matter. Instead, they started to brazenly discuss it.

"Brothers, did you see that? Here comes another idiot who's wooing big sister Leah!"

let me count how many there are today. Damn it, my claws are not enough.

brother, hurry up and go back. Big sister Leah is mine. You have no chance!

bribe me and buy me some good food. Maybe I'll be happy and help you pass on a message!

Tang Zhen could not help but be at a loss whether to laugh or cry when he saw the group of blabbering birds discussing noisily and completely ignoring him who was standing beside them.

Since when did a flock of birds become so gossipy?

Of course, this also meant that this girl named Leah was quite popular in the Academy, and she must have many suitors.

Considering her figure, looks, background, and talent, it was only natural that she had so many suitors.

don't talk nonsense here. Why don't you get to work? do you need a beating? "

It was unknown when an owl flew over from the distance. When it saw this group of blabbering birds chirping in front of Tang Zhen, it immediately reprimanded them in a stern tone.

he's looking for big sister Leah. Didn't you tell us not to disturb her? "

yes, boss. You said it. Why don't you admit it now? "

"I'm getting old, that's Understandable, understandable!"

how can you be our boss if you're so forgetful? why don't you just give it to me? "

Another wave of chattering and discussion caused Tang Zhen and the owl to frown at the same time. This group of little things was really a little annoying.

shut up! Whoever opens their mouth again will have no bird food for this afternoon!

The owl let out a loud roar. This move was indeed effective. The bunch of blabbermouths immediately covered their mouths with their wings, as if they were saying, " I won't open my mouth.

When the owl saw this, it took two steps on the ground in satisfaction. Soon after, it turned its head and looked at Tang Zhen.

miss Leah once said not to let strangers disturb her experiment. Please go back, she won't see you.

Tang Zhen nodded. Since the other party had something to say, he only needed to pass the message over. It was not necessary for him to meet them.

you can help me tell Leah that Tang Zhen has decided to participate in her relic exploration operation. Then, ask her to tell me the specific time of the operation.

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's words, the owl nodded its head. After telling him to wait a moment, it flapped its wings and flew into the building.

Tang Zhen waited for the other party's reply before quietly standing at the door. His gaze would occasionally sweep across the artisans in formal attire.

Artisans were divided into nine ranks, from high to low. The specific ranks could be seen from the badges they wore. The men and women entering and leaving were basically 1-star to 2-star low-ranked artisans.

As for the 3-star and above artisans, their experiments often required a lot of time. It was absolutely normal for them to disappear for three to five years.

As for the clothing that Tang Zhen was wearing, it was one of the most popular ones this year. It was low-key yet luxurious, causing those artisans who knew their stuff to not dare to look down on him.

A man depends on his clothes and a horse depends on his saddle. Tang Zhen would never do such a thing as pretending to be a pig to eat a Tiger. That was purely looking for trouble for himself.

While he was waiting, another young man slowly walked over.

He was holding a basket of fruits in his hands. They were as crystal clear as gems and had a strange fragrance.

...

Ignoring Tang Zhen, who was standing at the side, the youth walked to the front of the copycat bird and said with a smile, Hello, these are my gifts for you. They are the latest fruits cultivated by intermediate artisans. Each of them is exceptionally sweet.

After saying this, the young man placed the fruit in front of the tongued birds and motioned for them to taste it.

Those tongue-Reapers looked at the young man in front of them, then at the fruits on the ground, their eyes blinking non-stop.

“Guys, this guy is bribing us again. Do you want to accept this gift?”

you Hungry Ghost, you were scolded by big sister Leah last time. Don’t you remember? ”

I can’t take it. I definitely can’t take it. Miss Leah is mine. No one is allowed to snatch her from me!

“I think we should just eat his fruits and not help him. Wouldn’t that be perfect?”

Tang Zhen looked at the young man with a strange expression when he heard the contents of the Chatterbox’s discussion.

The young man also showed a trace of embarrassment, but it disappeared in a flash. He then took out a bottle of crystal clear liquid from his pocket and gently unscrewed the lid.

An intoxicating sweet smell spread. Even Tang Zhen gently nodded his head after smelling it. This kind of fragrance was really too rare.

The eyes of the blabbering birds were wide open as they stared at the bottle in the young man’s hand. Their eyes were filled with desire.

...

Seeing this, the young man smirked and said in a tempting tone, “Isn’t it especially sweet? let me tell you, this is top-grade flower honey cultivated by an advanced artisan. A sip will be enough to last you a year.

As long as you help me send a message to miss Leah, I’ll give this bottle of flower honey to her. I promise I won’t go back on my word!”

Tang Zhen could tell that these blabbering birds were indeed tempted.

Humans die for wealth, birds die for food.

Although they were still hesitating, it wouldn't be long before someone who couldn't resist the temptation would appear.

Sure enough, just as this thought rose in his mind, he saw a Blabbermouth bird fly out and grab the flower honey in the young man's hand.

"Give me the letter. For the sake of good food, I can even throw away my life!"

The young man chuckled and quickly took out an exquisite ring from his pocket and handed it to the back-tongued bird.

you just have to give this ring to miss Leah and you don't have to worry about anything else. She definitely knows how to read the contents inside!

The tongue bird nodded and turned around to send the ring into the building. At the same time, it grabbed the honey bottle with its claws, refusing to let go.

However, he didn't expect to be hit by an owl after flying for a short while. Then, he was smashed to the ground by the owl's wings.

"You brat, how dare you accept bribes again! I'll beat you to death!"

"Old man, don't be in a hurry to kill me. Let me eat the Nectar first, or I won't be satisfied even if I die!"

When the other reverie birds saw this, they either jeered or tried to stop the fight. It was simply too lively.

Tang Zhen's eyes were filled with a smile as he looked at the copycat bird that was hugging the bottle and not letting go no matter what. It was rolling and crawling around on the ground.

"Leah, you're out!"

A cry of surprise came from the side. Then, the young man ran straight to a figure at the door with an excited face.

When Tang Zhen raised his head, he saw the girl named Leah standing not far away. She was wearing a long robe that was similar to a lab coat. She was also smiling as she sized up the talking birds that were running around.

The big clothes with some stains could not hide her graceful figure, but it had a different kind of beauty.

Her black and purple hair gently fell to her shoulders, and her hair fluttered in the breeze. This scene made the young man, who was about to rush forward, dumbfounded, and his face was filled with an intoxicated expression of happiness.

Chapter 1798 Being low-key will attract hate?

Upon hearing the young man's shout, Leah glanced at him out of the corner of her eye, but her expression didn't change.

Anyone who was pestered all day would subconsciously feel disgusted and annoyed.

Especially the person in front of him, who usually had a bad reputation, but was always pestering him.

However, due to the relationship between the elders, Leah didn't want to be too rude. She just kept a normal distance, hoping that the other party would back off.

However, there would always be some people who would not give up until they achieved their goals, because they knew how great the benefits were after they achieved their goals.

Without paying attention to the other party's question, Leah walked in front of Tang Zhen and gently nodded to greet him.

When the young man saw this, a trace of coldness flashed in his eyes, but it disappeared in an instant.

"We've decided to take action after sunrise tomorrow. If you want to go, you'll have to pay 100000 gold coins and gather at the Academy's Gate tomorrow morning."

After hearing Leah's words, Zhen Tang took out a Gold Card and handed it to her.

"These are the gold coins you asked for. I'll be there on time tomorrow morning."

After he finished speaking, Tang Zhen turned around and was about to leave.

"Wait a moment!"

After hearing Leah's words, Tang Zhen slowly turned around and used his eyes to ask her what else she wanted.

"In order to ensure your own safety, you'd better purchase all the materials and equipment you need according to the list I provided you.

This is for you and for the team. If something unexpected happens, these resources will come in handy."

As Leah spoke, she handed a piece of paper to Tang Zhen. It was filled with delicate handwriting.

Tang Zhen took a glance and smiled to express his thanks.

hey, are you guys going to explore the ruins? take me with you. I'm very experienced. I can definitely guarantee miss Leah's safety.

The young man beside him jumped out, his face full of urgency.

Leah's brows furrowed slightly. After thinking for a while, she looked at the young man and said in a calm tone, " you can join if you want to. This can enhance the team's strength. But are you sure you can take the pain? "

The young man's expression changed when he heard Leah's questioning words. He then waved his fist and said loudly, " Leah, you don't understand me. I'm actually a very strong and brave person.

When you encounter danger, you just need to hide behind me, and I'll protect you!"

At this point, the young man's face was filled with determination. There was even a hint of anticipation in his eyes, trying to get Leah's praise.

In the end, the other party only nodded slightly and extended his hand.

The young man was overjoyed. He quickly walked over and was about to hold Leah's hand.

I'm asking you to pay the gold coins. If you don't have any, you can pay me tomorrow morning.

The young man was stunned. He awkwardly retracted his hand and quickly took out three gold cards from his pocket.

this is 300000 gold coins. I want three people to go with me. They are my guards and they can guarantee that you will not be hurt, Leah!

It was dangerous to explore the ruins. In order to ensure his own safety, the young man would bring his own guards no matter what.

However, she could never admit to this, so she used taking care of Leah as an excuse to prevent others from thinking that she was incompetent.

Unfortunately, in the eyes of Tang Zhen and Leah, the other party's behavior was extremely ridiculous. They only needed a glance to see through his inner thoughts.

Tang Zhen was too lazy to care about such people and matters.

Seeing that there was nothing left for him to do, he turned around and left. He did not notice that Leah's eyes were still on him.

Tang Zhen's learning speed was extremely fast and he was extremely talented. Although not many people knew about this, it didn't include Leah.

Her grandfather was the Dean of the Academy. He was eccentric, but no one dared to question his knowledge in the field of creation.

Although she came from an extraordinary family, Leah herself was also extraordinarily talented and hardworking. She was obviously a different kind of person from the ignorant and incompetent young man in front of her.

When Leah accidentally learned that Tang Zhen had used only a short month to complete the basic knowledge of an artisan and had the ability to obtain the qualifications of an artisan, her heart was filled with shock.

Even with her extraordinary talent and the guidance of three true artisans at home, it still took her five years to obtain the qualifications of an artisan.

Even so, he had caused a sensation in the Academy and was called a genius.

However, when compared to Tang Zhen's speed, her reputation as a genius did not seem to live up to her name.

His grandfather had mentioned Tang Zhen more than once, sighing that if he successfully advanced to the artisan realm and could maintain this speed, perhaps a legend would be born in their academy!

However, the field of creation was broad and profound, and talent could only determine the starting point. Whether one could reach the peak of the artisan realm in the end was something that no one could be sure of.

Therefore, even though Tang Zhen had displayed such a devilish side, the Academy did not make any big movements. They only maintained their observation in the dark.

If he could still maintain this speed after becoming an artisan, the Academy would support Tang Zhen no matter how many resources they had to spend.

After Leah found out about this, she was secretly shocked and curious, but at the same time, she was also filled with an unwillingness to admit defeat.

Geniuses always liked to compete with each other.

The last time she heard the news that Tang Zhen wanted to purchase materials, Leah had contacted him immediately. She wanted to take this opportunity to see what was different about him.

After some observation, Leah didn't get much useful information, but she felt that the man was very mysterious.

Therefore, she decided to take the opportunity to explore the remains and carefully observe Tang Zhen again. She wanted to see what secret this man was hiding.

When Leya was staring at Tang Zhen, the young man beside her also noticed this scene. He was stunned for a moment, then he looked at Tang Zhen.

In contrast to Leah's slightly curious and confused gaze, the young man's eyes flickered with a hint of fierceness.

This was the first time he had seen Leah look at someone like that, and a sense of danger immediately rose in his heart.

As if he had thought of something, the young man's lips curled into a sneer, but it disappeared in a flash.

When he turned to look at Leah again, he realized that she had already walked into the building, leaving only her graceful back.

...

Leah, you're mine. No one can take you away from me. I'll kill anyone who dares to stop my plan!

Thinking of the benefits that he would get if his plan succeeded, the young man smiled proudly.

To gain both fame and fortune, to have a beauty in his arms, in order to get all of this, so what if he killed a few blind guys?

.....

After Tang Zhen left the Academy, he began to purchase supplies according to the list provided by Leah.

Although with his strength, he could traverse blade mountain flame sea Guild as if it were flat ground, the means of an artisan couldn't be underestimated.

Back when he had rushed out of the sealed continent's crystal wall, he had spent three days thinking about it. From this, it could be seen how extraordinary the means of an artisan were.

Although Tang Zhen had absolute confidence in his own strength, there were times when strength did not represent everything.

It was like having the brute force to break a stone tablet but not being able to freely operate a spacecraft. There was no connection between the two.

Therefore, he still had to make the necessary preparations.

Due to the existence of the Academy, the city was rich in resources. Basically, the items listed on Leah's list could be bought.

...

Even if there were some things that could be bought or not, Tang Zhen would store them all in his pocket. This kind of shopping feeling that he had not felt for a long time also caused him to feel quite emotional.

From the day he became a cultivator of Lou Cheng, most of the things he had were obtained through war. It seemed that he had not gone shopping for a long time.

He remembered that the last time he went shopping was in his original world decades ago. At that time, he was still struggling to make a living.

Decades passed in the blink of an eye, and many things in his memory no longer existed.

After being away from his homeland for so many years, he had gradually forgotten the scenery of his homeland. He had long since gotten used to wandering and killing in the various planes.

Now that he had finally calmed his heart, Tang Zhen could not help but feel a trace of emotion.

Although he had already broken away from the level of ordinary life, his emotions that belonged to ordinary people had never been erased.

"I haven't returned home for decades. I wonder what my hometown has become?"

If there is a chance, I still want to go to the original world to take a look. Although the greater world is wonderful and gorgeous, my original world is my root!"

Tang Zhen secretly sighed. He was just about to turn around and return to his residence when he discovered that he was being followed not long after he left.

A trace of coldness flashed across Tang Zhen's eyes. His expression did not change as he continued to walk forward.

Chapter 1799 Do you think you can kill me with your abilities?

Tang Zhen continued to advance. The pursuers were sneaky and thought that they had concealed themselves very cleverly. However, they did not know that Tang Zhen had already discovered them.

Unless a creator personally acted, even a world Overlord expert would not be able to track Tang Zhen without exposing himself.

Tang Zhen had already determined the number of enemies when he discovered that he was being followed. There were a total of five people who were hiding in the crowd and following him.

This group of people clearly had ill intentions. There was a trace of killing intent hidden in their eyes, which also showed that they were not just following them.

Tang Zhen did not feel any nervousness when he discovered that someone was following him. Instead, he felt that it was a little ridiculous.

It was as if a few hungry wolves were chasing after prey covered in sackcloth, but they did not know that under the sackcloth was a terrifying Overlord Dragon.

They were planning to kill Tang Zhen in their hearts, but they didn't know that when they had this thought, one of their feet had already stepped into the gates of hell.

However, in the group of cultivators, killing and being killed were the most common things. When they took the lives of others, they were actually holding a knife to their own neck.

However, Tang Zhen was a little curious in his heart. In order to completely control the artisan plane, he had already done his best to hide himself and had never had any friction with anyone. Where did the other party's killing intent come from?

After thinking about it, the scene that had just happened and the figure of that young man appeared in Tang Zhen's mind.

Although the young man tried his best to cover it up, how could he hide it from Tang Zhen's eyes? the acting that he thought was perfect was actually full of flaws in his eyes.

It was obvious that he was trying to woo Leah. In order to get a chance to meet her, he was even willing to please those blabbermouths.

Whether it was the basket of fruits or the fragrant flower honey, none of them were things that ordinary people could get their hands on.

The fact that the other party was able to do this showed that he was very concerned about this matter, but from another perspective, it was also enough to show that he had ulterior motives.

He was willing to spend so much money even to deal with a group of blabbermouths, which showed that he was determined to win.

Leah's background, as well as her looks and talents, must have been the reason why the young man had taken action.

During this process, if someone were to obstruct his plan, it was highly possible that he would take some extreme measures.

Perhaps in his eyes, he had already become a competitor, so he had sent someone to follow him and even prepared to kill him.

He was inexplicably treated as a love rival and was even planning to use extreme means to kill him. This was really an undeserved disaster.

Tang Zhen coldly snorted when he thought of this.

Tang Zhen would never be polite to this kind of blind fellow. As long as he provoked him, he would definitely make the other party regret it for life.

After walking to the end of the street, Tang Zhen paused for a moment before turning around and walking out of the city.

The five cultivators who were secretly following him revealed a trace of joy when they saw this. Tang Zhen had chosen to go outside the city, which made it easier for them to make a move.

According to the information that they had just obtained, this Tang Zhen was an outsider. Usually, only one person would enter and leave. Even if they killed him, it was estimated that not many people would notice.

They loved this kind of prey the most, because it would save them a lot of trouble.

Tang Zhen only stopped after he walked all the way to the strange forest outside the city.

This strange forest had existed for a long time, and it was said to be the work of an artisan. The vines had the ability to automatically capture flying insects, and sometimes, they could even cause harm to pedestrians who accidentally entered.

When it had been created, it had only been used to catch mosquitoes, but it had mutated in the end. That artisan had casually thrown it outside the city, and it had slowly grown to its current scale.

That was why very few people came here. Even if there was a battle, no one would notice it.

“You’ve followed me for so long, it’s time to make a move, right?”

Tang Zhen looked behind him and asked in a cold voice.

hehehe, so you’ve already discovered it. I was wondering why you would come here. You must have some qualms, right? ”

The five cultivators no longer hid. They openly appeared in front of Tang Zhen and spoke in a gloomy tone.

“Oh, what do I have to worry about?”

Tang Zhen smiled as he looked at the cultivator opposite him. At the same time, he sealed off the surrounding space to ensure that outsiders would not be able to discover the abnormality here.

“You’re carrying a huge amount of money, you’re low-key, and your background is unknown. No matter how I look at it, I feel that there’s a problem.

Could it be that you committed a crime somewhere else, so you changed your name and came here to hide from the disaster?”

When that cultivator spoke up to this point, a trace of pride appeared on his face. He once again sized up Tang Zhen.

“We are also entrusted by someone. Someone wants your life, but if you are sensible, there may be room for negotiation.

As long as you give us 10 million gold coins, we can let you go and fake your death so that you can give us an explanation when we return.

However, from now on, you are not allowed to set foot in this city. Otherwise, the day you appear will be the day you die!”

Tang Zhen nodded after hearing the other party’s words.

These five cultivators had a good plan. They wanted to earn the Commission and at the same time, they wanted to frame the victim.

The other party said that he would be able to keep his life after paying the money. There was a 10% chance that it was true, but there was a 90% chance that he was lying.

If he was just an ordinary cultivator and believed that it was true, he might have been killed after handing over the gold coins.

Coldly sizing up the five cultivators, Tang Zhen shook his head, feeling a little bored.

He was obviously an ant that could be killed with a slap, but now he dared to threaten him. Obviously, he had been too low-key.

In the end, even a nobody dared to jump out. Not only did they want to kill him, but they were even prepared to take the opportunity to extort him.

perhaps after this matter is over, I should be more high-profile, just like those children of the plane, dazzling no matter where I go? ”

Naturally, there were benefits to this. He could greatly increase his influence and then attract a large number of followers. He could use the local forces to realize his plans.

This was the way the child of the plane did things. He had always been single-handed, which was completely different from the way the cultivators in Loucheng city did things.

When Tang Zhen thought up to here, he could not help but ponder whether he should recruit a group of local cultivators and have them help him realize his plan.

With this thought in mind, Tang Zhen looked at the five cultivators in front of him again. A faint disappointment flashed in his eyes.

Even if he wanted to take in local cultivators, it would definitely not be these five guys in front of him. They were not qualified at all.

...

Only one of them was comparable to a Lord cultivator, and the other four were even weaker. How much use could subordinates with such strength be?

Since it was of no use, he would just dispose of it.

Tang Zhen looked at the five people opposite him and said with an indifferent tone, "I'm sure this isn't the first time you've done something like this. However, you can only consider yourself unlucky to have met me today."

As soon as he finished speaking, he reached out and waved at the other party.

The five cultivators were sneering at first, but in an instant, they felt as if they had fallen into an ice cave, and their faces were filled with fear.

They discovered that their bodies had completely lost control, and the blood in their bodies seemed to be burning, as if their bodies were about to explode.

The fear of death welled up in their hearts. They looked at the young man who they had treated as a fat sheep and were prepared to extort before killing him. It was as if they were looking at the most terrifying thing in the world.

"No, don't, don't, don't, don't, don't, don't, don't,"

The leader of the five cultivators squeezed out these words with all his strength. It was his last struggle.

As soon as the words left his mouth, he felt the pressure on his body lighten. The other party seemed to really have the intention of letting them go.

He was overjoyed. As long as he could avoid the crisis in front of him, it meant that there were infinite possibilities.

...

It was not impossible for him to find strong reinforcements to help him kill Tang Zhen.

Without any hesitation, the leader of the cultivators shouted, " please let us go. No matter what you ask, the five of us promise to do it!

"Your promises are worthless in my eyes!"

Tang Zhen's ice-cold voice resounded. Soon after, the leader of the cultivators felt his scalp go numb as he lost control of his body once again.

By the time he came back to his senses, he saw that the young man's palm was clasping his head, and a trace of indescribable horror was faintly emitting from the young man's body.

It was as if the end of the world had arrived, and his heart was filled with despair.

"Crack!"

That leader seemed to have heard a crisp sound. Soon after, his head was crushed into pieces by Tang Zhen like an egg!

Chapter 1800 Leah's visit (1)

With a crisp sound, the cultivator in Tang Zhen's hand had his skull crushed and fell to the ground.

The other four cultivators also groaned, and wisps of snake-like Azure flames sprang out of their bodies, completely enveloping them.

In the blink of an eye, a few piles of ashes appeared on the ground and scattered in the wind.

“It seems that my guess was correct. These people are indeed related to that young man.”

After searching the memories of the leader of the cultivators, Tang Zhen already knew the cause and effect. He was sure that this matter was instigated by the young man.

They had done assassinations more than once for different reasons. It could be said that they had countless vengeful souls in their hands.

Because most of his targets were ordinary people, and he had handled it perfectly, he had never left any traces.

That young man was their big customer. He was very generous and both parties had cooperated many times.

Just because he was afraid that Tang Zhen would delay his plan, the young man did not hesitate to kill him. It was enough to show how sinister his heart was.

Perhaps in his eyes, he didn't care about human lives at all and did everything he liked.

Tang Zhen would definitely not let such a person off.

Of course, this kind of thing didn't need to be rushed. He would let him live for two more days, and when the remains were explored, he would send him to heaven.

Tang Zhen removed his mental energy barrier when he thought of this and slowly walked toward the city.

Just as he was about to reach his house's entrance, Tang Zhen saw a few youths by the side of the street pushing and shoving a pair of younger siblings.

During this period of time, he had seen this pair of siblings several times. Every time, he would observe them from a distance and knew that they should be picking up garbage for a living.

The siblings' clothes were tattered and they were small and weak. At this time, they were beaten to the ground by these teenagers and wounds appeared on their bodies in the blink of an eye.

Seeing this, the young men became even more excited and started punching and kicking.

The older sister protected her younger brother and let the other party kick and hit her, but she did not make a sound.

The younger brother, who was pressed down, kept struggling and tried to get up to fight back, but he was protected by his sister. He could only curse in anger.

Tang Zhen frowned slightly when he saw this. His finger moved slightly, and those bullying young men stood stiffly on the spot. Their faces were filled with fear.

Then, like marionettes, they raised their hands at the same time and slapped their companions.

“Pa, pa, pa, pa, pa!”

The crisp sound of the slap lingered in their ears, and the faces of those teenagers became red and swollen, tears and snot flowing out of their eyes from the pain.

The pair of siblings on the ground were dumbfounded. They looked at the strange scene in front of them and did not know what to do for a moment.

“If you bully others in the future, it won’t be a slap, but a gourmand. Do you understand?”

Tang Zhen’s voice sounded. There was a trace of iciness in his tone.

He just couldn’t stand the behavior of these youths and gave them a small punishment. Otherwise, how could these youths have survived?

Hearing this, the teenagers all nodded their heads vigorously, afraid that they would be slapped again if they hesitated.

“Get lost!”

As soon as he finished speaking, the teenagers broke free of their shackles and ran away, crying and wailing, as if they were avoiding a flood or a ferocious beast.

The pair of siblings crawled up from the ground. They ignored the pain on their bodies and hurriedly thanked Tang Zhen.

At this moment, how could the siblings not guess that it was Tang Zhen who helped them get rid of the crisis? they were also very grateful in their hearts.

They were used to the fickleness of human nature. For the siblings, having someone to help them when they were in trouble was like a bonfire in the winter, making their hearts feel warm.

you’re welcome. Why are you siblings in such dire straits? are you homeless? ”

Hearing Tang Zhen’s words, the siblings exchanged glances and gently nodded.

The younger brother was slow with his words, so it was the older sister who explained, ” “A year ago, father brought me and my brother to the city, saying that he wanted to save money for my brother to learn the art of creation. However, I didn’t expect that after only a few months, father would fall from the roof and die.

My brother and I don’t have a place to live, so we can only wander on the streets. We want to work for others, but no one wants us to do it. ”

When the elder sister said this, her dust-covered face revealed a touch of shyness, and there was a bitter helplessness between her brows that could not be dissolved.

The younger brother clenched his fists stubbornly and gritted his teeth tightly. He couldn’t bear to look at his sister’s wound.

Looking at the sister and brother, they were also pitiful people.

Tang Zhen thought about how he was always alone and would more or less make people suspicious. He said to the sister and brother, "That house is my home and I need someone to clean it. If you're willing, I can hire you.

We'll provide you with food and accommodation, and you'll be paid 10 gold coins a month. What do you think?"

The siblings were startled when they heard Tang Zhen's words. Soon after, they hurriedly thanked him.

The brother and sister knew that Tang Zhen wanted to help them. There was only gratitude in their hearts. They would definitely not be ungrateful and reject Tang Zhen's good intentions.

"Since that's the case, you guys can come with me."

Tang Zhen was about to bring the siblings back home when he said this. However, he had just taken a few steps when he suddenly turned his head and looked at the sky.

At this moment, a figure was floating in the air. There was a pair of pure white wings on his back that were gently flapping in the sunlight.

That figure circled once when he saw the gaze that Tang Zhen threw over before slowly landing on the ground like a swan.

Looking at the beautiful figure that descended from the sky, the siblings were stunned for a moment. The other party's appearance and temperament made them feel even more inferior.

"Leah, why are you here?"

A trace of surprise flashed across Tang Zhen's eyes as he curiously asked when he saw the girl keeping her wings.

"I happened to be passing by and saw the scene just now."

A hint of slyness flashed in Leah's eyes as she asked with a smile, "What did you do just now? You could actually control someone's hands and feet from a distance. Those few hits were really satisfying!"

It was obvious that she couldn't bear to see the young men bullying the siblings, so she said such words.

...

It's just some small tricks. If you're interested, I can teach you.

This world's development in the field of creation was amazing, but in terms of combat, it was extremely clumsy and couldn't be compared to the world of Loucheng.

Even simple object-controlling techniques piqued Leah's interest.

"If there's a chance, I'll ask you for advice. In addition, you have to pay attention to the young man you meet in the Academy. He's a very sinister person, and he may be harmful to you."

Tang Zhen nodded his head. He already knew about this matter and had already resolved it.

That young man wouldn't live for long and Tang Zhen didn't put this kind of trash in his heart.

However, judging from Leah's appearance, she might not have been passing by, but had come specifically to tell him about this.

"Thank you. I've troubled you to make this trip."

Leah chuckled. Since Tang Zhen had already seen through it, there was no need for her to deny it.

"My house is right in front. Why don't we go in and have a seat? at the same time, I still have some questions to ask you."

Leah's family was very knowledgeable. She might know some of the questions that Tang Zhen couldn't understand. Now that there was an opportunity, she naturally had to ask him.

...

Leah didn't refuse and followed Tang Zhen to the house in front.

At this time, the sun was just right. The carpet-like green grass was soft and pleasing to the eye. Tang Zhen simply took out a parasol chair from his storage equipment and placed it on the grass.

There were also storage equipment in this world, but most of them were cultivated by artisans using special methods. Different styles would result in different spaces.

However, most of them only had a space of a few cubic meters. Moreover, the storage methods were different. They could not be compared with the storage equipment made by Tang Zhen.

Upon seeing this, Leah chuckled and asked Tang Zhen, "I didn't expect you to only have these things in your storage equipment.

Could it be that your storage equipment has such a huge space that you can store whatever you want?"

I just like to sit down and have a cup of tea in a place with beautiful scenery, so I carry these things with me. There's actually no harm in relaxing appropriately.

As Tang Zhen spoke, he took out the tea boiling equipment and started to skillfully fiddle with it.

Leah patted the bird's wings on her body, and the wings fell off automatically, swaying left and right on the ground.

I'll have to trouble you to help me look after it. This is the food for the winged bird. Just feed it a dozen or so.

Waving at her sister, Leah took out an emerald green bottle and handed it to her with a smile.

The elder sister nodded and took the bottle. She brought her younger brother to a place far away. Clearly, she wanted to avoid hearing the conversation between Tang Zhen and the other person.

"She's a very sensible girl, but her life is a little tough."

Leah sighed and slowly sat on the chair. She turned to look at Tang Zhen.

"Tell me, what do you want to ask? I'm in a good mood today, so I can give you a 20% discount."
