Chapter 1801 Tea for guests (1)

After hearing Leah's words, Tang Zhen chuckled and activated the runic magic circle on the stove.

Leah looked at the flickering runes on the stove curiously. She felt that these runes were very profound, completely different from the runes that artisans were good at.

perhaps it's from some ruins, an item of the ancient artisans. If Grandpa sees it, he might be able to recognize its origin.

Leah's grandfather loved to collect items from ruins and spent a lot of money. Even the Dean of the Academy was often troubled by money.

Tang Zhen didn't know what was going on in Leah's mind. He continued to slowly adjust the fire and appeared to be very engrossed.

The ice in the crystal Jade pot slowly melted, and then the surface of the Jade pot was covered with cold air, making people feel a little cool.

The ice used to brew tea came from a certain plane. It was a gift specially collected by the cultivators of the Holy Dragon City for Tang Zhen. He also liked to brew tea with this kind of expensive ice.

Leah watched Tang Zhen's operation without blinking. She felt that his temperament was a little mysterious, and the curiosity in her eyes became more and more intense.

Not long after, the cold air on the surface of the Jade pot subsided and the water began to boil. Tang Zhen took out an emerald green tree branch and plucked a few leaves that were as transparent as Jasper.

He rubbed the leaf with his fingers and threw it into the Jade pot. Soon, the water in the pot turned emerald green.

At the same time, an extremely strange tea fragrance spread out, refreshing one's heart and mind. It was as if one's body and soul had become much more transparent.

He took out two fiery red gemstone-like cups, poured the tea into them, and handed them to Leah.

this tea is very good for cultivators. You can try it. I guarantee you won't be disappointed.

Leah nodded in thanks and picked up the teacup to take a sip. It was slightly hot, but in the blink of an eye, it became cool and appetizing. At the same time, the fragrance of the tea wafted through the air, washing her body like a spring.

It was as if after drinking this mouthful of tea, his entire body had become lighter by a few kilograms, and he felt as if he was floating in the air.

Leah's family background was extraordinary, and she had tasted countless exotic delicacies, but she had never tasted such a strange tea before.

Where did this Tang Zhen get such good stuff? if it was a new product of an artisan, he should have received some news about it, right?

Leah was puzzled, but she didn't show it on her face. She continued to kiss her lips and taste it carefully.

After drinking a cup of tea, Leah turned to look at Tang Zhen and said in a negotiating tone, "I really like this tea. If you're willing, can you exchange some for me?"

When my grandfather and father were doing experiments, they would always stay at home for a long time, so it was inevitable that they would be tired and absent-minded. If I could drink a cup of tea like this during the process of work, it should be very helpful to them.

Of course, if you find it difficult, you don't have to be embarrassed to refuse. I don't want to take away someone's love."

"It's fine, I still have some."

Tang Zhen nodded. He took out two Jade boxes from his storage equipment and placed them in front of Leah.

"This contains the polar ice essence used to make tea, as well as the tea leaves we used just now. There are thirty pieces in total.

Since you want to express your filial piety, I naturally have no reason to refuse."

The corner of Leah's mouth lifted into a smile that was like a blooming flower as she nodded at Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen didn't feel anything. On the contrary, the sister and brother beside him were a little absent-minded. The younger brother's eyes were even more straight.

Leah touched the jade box and said softly, "Thank you, but I've never taken things from others for free. How about this? if you have any questions about creation, I can help you ask my grandfather.

The starting price for him to help someone answer a question is one million gold coins. Why don't you ask a few more so that you won't lose money?"

Although Leah was about to become a 3-star artisan, there was still a huge gap between her and her grandfather.

It was obviously more fair and sincere for his grandfather to answer the questions.

One look at Tang Zhen's items and one could tell that they weren't ordinary. Leah didn't want to take advantage of others, especially Tang Zhen.

Perhaps it was the influence of her competitive heart, but she subconsciously did not want Tang Zhen to look down on her.

Tang Zhen didn't force him. An equivalent exchange was a rule between artisans. His relationship with Leah was ordinary, so there was no need to be too calculative over this matter.

When he thought of this, Tang Zhen pointed out a few problems that he could not understand. These were also the problems that he had encountered in his experiment.

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's question, Leah's brows furrowed slightly. She even had a feeling that she didn't understand what he was saying.

She was only a step away from becoming a 3-star artisan, but Tang Zhen didn't even have the qualifications to become an artisan. By right, she should have understood Tang Zhen's question.

However, the truth was as such. She had never heard of some of Tang Zhen's thoughts. However, when she thought about it carefully, she felt that they were very reasonable.

grandpa's praise is indeed correct. This Tang Zhen is indeed extraordinary. I reckon that Grandpa will also be full of praise after hearing his words.

Leah had a premonition that Tang Zhen's experiment wasn't simple. It might even have reached or exceeded the ability of a three-star artisan.

If he succeeded, it might mean that he would skip the initial stage and directly become a 3-star artisan.

When she realized this, Leah was both envious and amazed. At the same time, she was also a little jealous.

The two of them chatted for about half an hour before Leah stood up and gently stretched her waist.

Leah's curves were exposed in her special, tight-fitting flight suit, especially her long, straight legs.

The sunlight scattered on her long hair. As it gently trembled, it reflected a thread of purple luster, causing Tang Zhen to quietly praise her in his heart.

Perhaps it was because of the love of the heavens that such an elf was created. Her every move was exceptionally eye-catching.

"Thank you for your hospitality. It's getting late, and I still have experiments to complete.

As for your question, I'll ask my grandfather, and I'll tell you the answer tomorrow."

Leah snapped her fingers as she spoke.

Then, she saw the winged bird that had been rolling on the ground jump up from the grass and fly towards her.

When the bird was on Leah's body, it was as beautiful as an Angel's. However, at this moment, it looked like an old hen, falling awkwardly as it flew.

"Look at your dirty appearance, are you being naughty again?"

After hearing Leah's words, the winged bird's body trembled slightly. After throwing away the grass, it wrapped around Leah's body like clothes.

Leah extended her wings and flapped them a few times. She smiled at the siblings in thanks, and at the same time, she tapped the ground lightly with the tip of her foot and flew into the sky in the blink of an eye.

...

Leah's strength was not yet at the Lord-tier, so she could not fly. The winged bird was probably her mode of transportation.

After Leah left, the siblings came over and were ready to help Tang Zhen clean up the table.

"There's no need to trouble yourself, I can do it myself,"

Tang Zhen pointed at the remaining tea in the Jade pot and said to the siblings, you are all ordinary people. This tea is of great benefit to you. Share it and drink it.

Tang Zhen's words weren't empty. With the things that he, a realm Lord, took out to treat his guests, how could they be ordinary? after drinking it, it would definitely have the effect of cleansing one's marrow and bones.

The brother and sister duo had long seen that Tang Zhen was not an ordinary person. That Jade teapot was also definitely not an ordinary item. Although there was not much tea left, it was enough for each person to have a cup.

take a bath after drinking the tea, and then take the money I gave you to buy two sets of clothes. From now on, treat this place as your home, and don't have any psychological burden.

Tang Zhen took out a bag of gold coins and handed it to his sister.

"When you buy clothes, buy some daily necessities, including food and the like. We don't have these at home, so we have to buy them on the spot.

I'll take a long time to do experiments, and sometimes I'll be out for a long time. You don't have to worry about me, just keep the house clean.

If there's anything you can't solve, just wait for me to come back and deal with it. "

...

The brother and sister nodded at the same time, then poured out the tea from the Jade pot and carefully took a sip.

Shocked expressions appeared on the siblings' faces. They had never dreamed that there would be such a magical drink in the world. After drinking it, they felt like they were flying in the sky.

Without any hesitation, the two of them drank the tea in one gulp. They did not move for a long time, their faces full of reminiscence.

Chapter 1802 How is he not dead yet?

When the next morning arrived, Tang Zhen directly headed to the entrance of the Academy.

When he arrived at his destination, there were already a few people waiting there. There was also a group of strange-looking birds next to them.

The passersby seemed to know the origin of this giant bird, so even if they passed by, they would not stop to observe it for too long.

Tang Zhen, on the other hand, was very interested. He walked to the entrance of the Academy and slowly sized it up.

These strange birds were very large. They looked like Gryphons, but they were obviously stronger. They should be the type that could travel long distances with heavy loads.

In the middle of the birds was a strange house, which was about 100 square meters.

A few men and women in light armor stood at the side and were discussing something in a low voice. Their gazes stopped on Tang Zhen for a few seconds after they saw him walking over.

However, when Tang Zhen walked over, they shifted their gazes away as though they did not see him.

Tang Zhen did not mind. He slowly walked to the front of the house and carefully sized it up.

The house was beautifully decorated, like a small palace. It was made of a kind of light but tough wood.

Around the house, there were also thick ropes hanging down to the ground, looking extremely tough.

This house was probably hanging from the big bird's body and used as a passenger cabin. It was really a unique and creative idea.

Compared to sleeping in the open while riding on the big Bird, this was more comfortable and free.

In order to do this, the stability and coordination of the big Bird must be well controlled. A slight error would cause the house to sway left and right, like a small boat in the wind.

If that was the case, it would be better to ride the big Bird directly, which would save him from the pain of "seasickness."

As for the furnishings inside the house, they had all been treated by a soft bag and were firmly fixed to the ground, so they could not be easily moved.

This was also to prevent hurting the passengers. Otherwise, they might lose their lives if they hit the important parts.

It had stopped at the entrance of the Academy early in the morning, and there were a few men and women dressed as adventurers next to it. This must be the means of transportation for this trip.

Tang Zhen had sat on a huge Dragon and a battleship before. In the past, he was used to teleporting. However, this was the first time he had taken such a transportation tool.

This kind of travel experience was quite interesting.

Just as Tang Zhen was sizing up the house, another group of people walked out from the Academy. They were also wearing light armors and capes, the standard adventurer attire.

When the men and women who were talking saw this, they immediately smiled and waved at them.

Leah, you're here. Let's set off immediately. I can't wait!

A woman said loudly. From their expressions, it was obvious that they were very familiar with each other.

Tang Zhen turned his head and saw Leah in the crowd. Her black, golden-patterned light armor made her look tall and slender.

Apart from her, there were a few other females, but most of them were apprentices. Although their looks weren't bad, they simply couldn't compare to her.

There were also a few artisans, but they were all 1-star artisans. Although they looked no different from young people, they were much older than Leah.

Among this group of people, Leah's artisan rank was the highest, and she seemed to be the leader.

After greeting the few men and women from before, Leah turned her head to look at Tang Zhen and gently nodded her head. There was a trace of a smile in her eyes.

Kang Zhen nodded in response, but they didn't talk.

Leah, you're here too. Thank God I'm not late!

An excited voice was heard. Then, the young man who delivered the fruits yesterday came over with two strong men.

The gazes of these two men were like blades, and they were completely incompatible with the aura of an artisan. It was as if they were two different kinds of people.

Tang Zhen swept his eyes over the young man. There was no change in his expression. It was as though yesterday's incident had never happened.

Leah didn't respond to him. Instead, she said to her companions, "Yesterday, there were four people who wanted to join our team. I've already collected 400000 gold coins from them as agreed. I'll distribute it to everyone later."

Everyone nodded in acknowledgment and was not too surprised.

In fact, this matter was very normal. Sharing resources to create benefits for themselves was something they had agreed on before.

If there was no harvest from the ruins, at least there would be an additional income. Artisans spent a lot of money, and they would never miss the opportunity to earn gold coins.

At the same time, their gazes swept over Tang Zhen and that young man. They knew that the four of them were the new team members who would be participating in this exploration.

Leah led the group over, pointed at the young man, and said, "Let me introduce you. This is Warter, and the two beside him are his guards."

Everyone looked at White and his two subordinates and nodded. They had all heard of this infamous young master.

As soon as White's identity was confirmed, everyone had already guessed his intention. He was obviously looking for an opportunity to get close to Leah.

Otherwise, with the style of this person, why would he choose to explore the ruins and bear the bumps and possible dangers of the journey?

Many of the men in the team looked disdainful and indignant. They all had their hearts set on Leah, and now that a spoiled second generation had suddenly jumped out to snatch her away, it would be strange if they were in a good mood.

White looked at Leah with a smile and put on a friendly posture. "Hello everyone, my father is the city Lord. If there's anything I can help with in the future, please let me know!"

White had revealed his identity as soon as he opened his mouth. This was his greatest advantage, and he clearly had to make good use of it.

In fact, Leah didn't want to make their relationship too tense because of his identity, or it would put his grandfather and father in a difficult position.

When they heard that white was the son of the city Lord, the apprentices' disdainful expressions immediately softened.

In this world, artisans were respected. If one wanted to take on important positions, the identity of an artisan played a huge role.

Although Warter was an ignorant and incompetent second generation, his father was an intermediate artisan in both name and reality. He also had a great reputation in the artisan circle.

They didn't care about the city Lord's status, but they couldn't ignore the fact that the other party was an intermediate artisan.

White's eyes flashed with pride when he saw the change in everyone's expressions. It was because of his father that he was able to do things without any scruples.

Just because he was afraid that Tang Zhen would ruin his plan, he dared to directly hire an assassin to track and assassinate him. Moreover, he did not have any psychological burden.

Ignoring white, who was secretly pleased with himself, Leah pointed at Tang Zhen and said, this is Tang Zhen. He is also a student of our artisan Academy. It's just that he has only joined the Academy for a short time. I'm guessing that no one has heard of his name.

...

Everyone followed Reya's finger and looked at Tang Zhen. Other than a few people nodding in surprise, the rest of them had cold expressions.

The elimination rate of the artisan profession was very high. 99% of the artisan apprentices would never be able to advance to an official artisan.

Today, they were still in the same Academy. Perhaps it wouldn't be long before the other party would leave the Academy dejectedly.

After a few decades, the gap between their statuses might be like a chasm, and they would never have the possibility of contact again.

if that was the case, why should he waste his energy on such useless communication? unless the other party was really worth investing in, such as Leah and White.

On this point, everyone felt that Tang Zhen was not as good as White, so his cold expression was a matter of course.

On the other hand, White suddenly turned around and stared at Tang Zhen, who was standing by the house. The expression on his face was somewhat sinister.

“Dammit, what are those Five Guys doing? why isn’t this Tang Zhen dead yet?”

White cursed in his heart. He was angry that those five assassins didn’t fulfill their agreement and let Tang Zhen appear in front of him again.

However, on second thought, he sneered in his heart.

This time, he had two guards with him, both of whom were experts whose strength had exceeded the Lord-level.

...

He would have plenty of opportunities to get rid of this Tang Zhen fellow after entering the remains.

Chapter 1803 White’s scheme (1)

White had made up his mind that he would think of a way to kill Tang Zhen after they reached the ruins.

Because Tang Zhen had concealed his cultivation, he was merely a Rank 2 or 3 ordinary cultivator in everyone’s eyes.

White also had the same thought. In his opinion, he only needed to send a guard to easily deal with Tang Zhen.

At that time, he would simply fabricate the scene and Tang Zhen would be treated as someone who died in an accident. Moreover, no one would investigate further.

!!

In the exploration of ruins, there were often unexpected casualties. Everyone was mentally prepared for this kind of thing.

Moreover, Tang Zhen was all alone. Even if he really died in the remains, no one would care.

The proud White didn’t know that Tang Zhen had already marked him as a death target. Even if he had the ability to escape from this world, he wouldn’t be able to avoid the pursuit of a sector Lord.

“Alright, since everyone is here, let’s set off immediately!”

Leah called out to the others and walked into the house first. The others followed her in succession.

After everyone had entered, the animal controller in charge of controlling the birds whistled. Immediately after, the birds flapped their wings at the same time and slowly rose into the sky.

At this time, it could be seen that these big birds were different from other birds. It turned out that their abdomens could actually shoot out a strong airflow, supporting them to stop in the air steadily.

At the same time, their wings were also gently flapping, slowly pulling the house into the air. When it reached a certain height, it would move forward under the control of the beast Tamer.

The entire process was extremely smooth, and the passengers in the room did not even feel the slightest bump. If they did not look out of the window, they would have thought that they were still on the ground.

Tang Zhen quietly stood by the window. He looked at the city that was gradually disappearing under his feet. His expression was extremely calm.

He had been to too many worlds and had witnessed the prosperity and destruction of many planes. He was also the mastermind behind the scenes.

However, he had never been like this before. He stood quietly in the house in the sky and looked at the vast land.

This world was full of life and seemed to be full of hope and vitality. What the cultivator in Lou Cheng was doing was destroying this beauty and hope.

Of course, this destruction didn't mean that they completely disappeared. Instead, they reappeared in the world of loucheng in another way.

It was by relying on this method of plundering that the world of loucheng was so powerful and had a vast territory.

Although he was already the Lord of the war zone, Tang Zhen still did not know how big the world of loucheng was.

There were more than 3000 battlefields, and he had only been to a few so far, and it was just a cursory tour.

From this point of view, what the cultivators of loucheng city brought might not necessarily be destruction.

As they destroyed a plane, they were also using the power of the origin to create a new world.

From the moment he advanced to the realm Lord, Tang Zhen had a feeling that the ultimate realm of Lou Cheng's cultivators was to work hard to create a more perfect species.

Only by becoming a creator could he achieve this goal.

However, without a large number of cultivators and a vast supply of resources, it would be almost impossible to become a creator.

Perhaps the world of loucheng was using this method to try and cultivate an artisan-level powerhouse, and reality had already proven that this method was indeed effective.

The world of loucheng was vast and boundless. Tang Zhen didn't know how many creator-level experts there were, but there definitely wouldn't be a few.

However, when the cultivators of loucheng became Masters of creation, they might be able to get rid of all the shackles and just quietly act as spectators, never interfering with any disputes.

After this thought appeared in his mind, Tang Zhen's heart jolted and he seemed to have comprehended something.

Perhaps the ultimate goal of the cultivators in loucheng was not destruction, but to create a new world. All the destruction during this period was also an indispensable part in achieving their goal.

And what he was doing now was exactly for this goal.

Although the works of an artisan couldn't be compared to that of a creator, there might not be much of a difference. After all, they were also creating all kinds of new species.

This was a huge group with infinite potential, while the group of Masters of creation was bound to be rare and lonely.

Thoughts endlessly gushed out from Tang Zhen's mind. He had unknowingly sunk into a state of deep thought. His cultivation that was originally progressing slowly had actually started to rise rapidly at this moment.

The increase in his cultivation speed might have something to do with the sudden surge of comprehension he had.

A sector Lord's forehead formed a heaven and earth, just like the chaotic state before creation. Comprehension was to perfect the laws and foundations of this world.

As he continued to comprehend and perfect it, the small world in the space between his eyebrows would become closer and closer to the real world.

The day this special world was completely formed would be the day Tang Zhen advanced to the creator level!

At this moment, if one were to pay close attention to Tang Zhen, one would discover that there was a trace of strange rhythm faintly rippling around his body. It seemed to be filled with endless vitality.

However, if one wanted to comprehend and discover this special rhythm, they would need sufficient realm and luck. Even if the unlucky ones saw it, they would ultimately gain nothing.

At this time, among the passengers in the room, only Leah noticed Tang Zhen's abnormality. She looked at Tang Zhen without blinking, and her beautiful eyebrows furrowed slightly.

She felt that there was something wrong with Tang Zhen at this moment. Although he was standing in front of the window, he seemed to be extremely far away from this world.

It was a strange feeling, like looking at the stars in the night sky. Although the light was right in front of you, you could never reach out to touch it.

" could it be that he's cultivating some kind of special technique that gives off such a strange feeling? it's as if one can't look away with just one glance? "

Leah was secretly puzzled. Although she had sensed something unusual, she could not understand what this phenomenon meant because of her realm and cultivation.

When her cultivation realm was high enough, she would understand what Tang Zhen's current state meant and would definitely benefit a lot.

Just as Leah was staring at Tang Zhen, White was also looking at her, but his eyes were slightly gloomy.

After staring at Leah for a while, White turned his eyes to Tang Zhen. The killing intent in his eyes became even more intense.

If it wasn't because it wasn't convenient for him to make a move now, he wished he could directly order someone to throw Tang Zhen down from the sky and smash his body into pieces.

At this moment, he had already confirmed that the way Leah looked at Tang Zhen was indeed different from the others. This kind of feeling made him exceptionally jealous, ashamed, and angry.

From the beginning to the end, he had never received such treatment.

"Damn woman, you're my exclusive product. If anyone dares to snatch you from me, I'll definitely not let him off!"

With this thought in mind, White's eyes turned slightly. He gave a look to the guard next to him and whispered a few words.

...

The guard had followed White for many years and naturally understood his plan. After nodding secretly, he moved closer to Tang Zhen's position.

In order to prevent the house from being stuffy, a few windows had been opened. One of the windows happened to be in front of Tang Zhen.

The window wasn't particularly large, but it was large enough for a person to squeeze through.

Just as that guard approached Tang Zhen, another guard secretly made a move and used his mental energy to stimulate the flying bird.

The originally stable house suddenly trembled. The guard near Tang Zhen seemed to have lost his balance as he pounced towards Tang Zhen's back.

As long as he touched Tang Zhen's body, he would be able to use his strength to push Tang Zhen out of the window and fall to the ground from the sky.

If Tang Zhen was only a Rank 2 or 3 cultivator, he would definitely die from falling to the ground from such a height.

This scene appeared to be a coincidence. Therefore, no one would suspect anything even if Tang Zhen fell from the sky. At the very most, they would treat it as an accident.

Even if someone discovered that something was wrong, who would dare to jump out and accuse him of deliberately sending his men to plot against Tang Zhen with his identity there?

Such a thing was impossible. No one would be willing to offend the city Lord's son for a dead man.

Everything seemed to be very smooth. However, just as that guard was about to make contact with Tang Zhen, he saw Tang Zhen's body twist gently, avoiding the other party's sneak attack.

...

The guard who was preparing to ambush Tang Zhen cried out in alarm and instantly fell out of the window, quickly disappearing.

Chapter 1804 Full of loopholes (1)

The sudden turn of events immediately alarmed the passengers in the room.

"What's going on? how could someone fall from the window?"

The beast Tamer in charge of controlling the big Bird turned pale. Someone had gotten into an accident on his vehicle, and this would definitely take a big hit to his reputation.

Moreover, these passengers were not ordinary people. If he really wanted to compensate them, he would not be able to afford it even if he went bankrupt.

!!

If he were to meet a more domineering family member, he would be forced to pay with his life. What would he do then?

At the thought of this, the beast Tamer's mind went blank and he fell to the ground.

"Hurry up and control the big Bird. If anything else happens, no one can protect you!"

After seeing the beast Tamer's appearance, an artisan roared, waking him up from his wild thoughts.

Leaping up from the ground, the beast Tamer quickly returned to his post. He continued to control the giant bird to fly while carefully observing the situation at the window.

The other passengers also came forward and looked at the narrow window, their eyes full of surprise.

Many people sighed in their hearts. The guy who fell down was really unlucky. He could actually squeeze out of such a small window?

Could it be that that person was deliberately seeking death? otherwise, how could such a thing happen? quick, take a look. Who's missing from the team? is there any way to rescue them? "

An artisan apprentice shouted. At the same time, he swept his gaze across the crowd, wanting to see who had fallen.

White, who was at the side, was dumbfounded. He originally thought that the one who fell would be Tang Zhen. He never thought that it would be his own guard who fell.

It was just a small matter, but something went wrong. It would be strange if white wasn't angry.

you're really a useless piece of trash. You can't even do such a small thing. Watch how I deal with you later!

White cursed in his heart. Then, he turned his eyes and whispered something to the other guard beside him.

"I know who it is. It's the guard who followed white. He's the only one missing here!"

The apprentice artisan who had counted the number of people shouted. Hearing this, everyone turned to white.

White also put on a surprised expression, as if he couldn't believe that such a thing would happen.

He rushed to the window with a worried expression and kept looking down.

In this situation, he was like a good boss who cared about his subordinates.

When everyone saw this, they felt even more strange.

The window was only half open, and white had difficulty sticking his head out. How did the guard fall?

"What's going on? how did he fall out for no reason?"

If he were to die like this, how am I going to explain it to his family?"

White's tone was filled with self-blame, as if something had happened to a close friend. He kept sighing.

White's words had just fallen when his other guard suddenly looked at Tang Zhen and said in an angry tone, it must be you. It must be you. Otherwise, my companion wouldn't have fallen from the window.

Upon hearing the Guard's words, everyone looked at Tang Zhen together. Their eyes also carried a trace of caution.

"I don't care who you are, but as long as you hurt my companions, I will never forgive you!"

When the guard said this, he was about to attack Tang Zhen. At the same time, a trace of ruthlessness flashed across his eyes.

It did not seem appropriate to kill someone in public. The guards did not intend to kill Tang Zhen here.

With his means, he could completely use the hidden force to destroy Tang Zhen's body, leaving behind an injury that would never be healed.

This kind of damage would completely destroy Tang Zhen. One must know that an artisan not only needed knowledge, but also sufficient cultivation.

With enough strength, they could help them complete long-term experiments and avoid being affected by physical exhaustion.

Secondly, they could obtain a long life, giving them enough time to pursue higher realms.

Seeing that the guard was about to reach Tang Zhen, white was overjoyed. There was an emotion in his chest that could not be suppressed and was about to burst out.

He loved to see his enemies suffer pain and torture. He couldn't free himself from that feeling. It was more satisfying than taking forbidden drugs.

Furthermore, that fellow called Tang Zhen actually didn't even Dodge. He was probably scared silly by the aura of his own guard.

"Stop!"

Hearing this sudden voice, Walt almost jumped up in anger. Which blind fellow actually dared to ruin his good plan?

However, when he saw the figure in front of the guard, he almost cursed out loud, but he forced himself to hold it back.

The one who stopped the guards was none other than Leah, who had been silent earlier.

White's guards knew Leah's identity and knew that if they hurt her, even white would not be able to bear the consequences.

In order to give Leah's family an explanation, he would definitely be pushed out as a scapegoat, and he would most likely lose his life.

It was because of this that the guard stopped attacking and waited for White's instructions.

Leah, why did you stop my guard? it's very likely that he did this. I have to seek justice for my guard!

After hearing White's "indignant" growl, Reya only glanced at him indifferently. Her eyes were very clear, as if she had seen through the dirty thoughts in his heart.

"Before this matter is cleared up, don't randomly accuse others."

After Leah said this, she turned to the guard and asked in a calm tone, "Are you sure you saw with your own eyes that your companion was pushed down by Tang Zhen?"

Hearing this, the guard hesitated for a moment before shaking his head.

He did not dare to guarantee that no one had seen the scene at the window earlier. If he were to insist that it was Tang Zhen who did it, it would be inevitable for others to see through his scheme.

As long as the witness told Leah the truth, white would be blamed for this incident and would think that he was deliberately instigating them to cause trouble.

...

"Since you can't be sure that it was Tang Zhen who did it, why are you so aggressive?" Leah said coldly.

The guard snorted coldly but did not answer Leah's question.

White saw that Leya stood up for Tang Zhen and his heart was filled with hatred, but on the surface, he had to smooth things over.

"Although it's very likely that he did this, you can't be so impulsive. Maybe he didn't do it on purpose."

White's words were directed at the guard, but the meaning between the lines was that he was still sure that it was Tang Zhen's doing.

Tang Zhen stood at the side and expressionlessly watched the performance of Walt and his guards. However, he was coldly laughing in his heart.

These guys were really courting death. He had originally wanted to let them live a little longer, but who would have thought that they would take the initiative to provoke him again?

Since that was the case, he had to at least show some respect and let them know the consequences of provoking a sector Lord.

"You said that I was the one who sent your guard down. Can you tell me what cultivation level your guard is at?"

Hearing Tang Zhen's words, white secretly felt that something was wrong. He had really neglected this matter.

Tang Zhen's cultivation was only at level three, but his guards were genuine Level Seven cultivators. They could be considered one of the few experts in the city.

...

A rank 7 cultivator was pushed out of the window by a cultivator who wasn't even rank 3. It didn't make any sense.

It was like a child who had just turned one year old swinging a hundred-pound hammer to chase after a strong man. It was inconceivable no matter how one thought about it.

After Leah and the others heard Tang Zhen's words, they also reacted at the same time. Then, they looked at white and his servant with a hint of mockery.

This pair of master and servant was indeed despicable. They actually used such a method to scheme against others.

First, he pretended to be pushed out of the window, and then he used it as an excuse to find trouble.

If it wasn't for Leah stopping him in time, Tang Zhen would probably have been injured by the guard.

Although whether Tang Zhen was injured or not did not have much to do with him, this kind of thing made people feel disgusted.

Unity was the most important thing in a ruin exploration team. When he thought about cooperating with such a sinister person, he always felt a little insecure.

It would be truly troublesome if he changed his target to him after scheming against Tang Zhen. He might even lose his life because of this.

Chapter 1805 Little death-seeking expert (1)

Sensing the change in the atmosphere, white cursed in his heart. He didn't expect things to develop to this point.

He didn't care what the others thought, but he was afraid that Leah would also think that he was the one who had ordered her to do this.

In that case, it would definitely lower Leah's impression of him.

Warter was overthinking things. Leah's polite response was a sign of improvement in their relationship.

!!

In fact, in Leah's eyes, white was a sinister, perverted, and despicable man. She would never come into contact with him unless it was necessary.

White had been the one pestering her all this time, and Leah had no choice but to contact him.

Even if he had a good impression, it would probably be negative. Any random passerby would have a better impression than him.

White made up his mind that he couldn't let things go on like this, so he laughed dryly and said, "My guard probably had too much to drink, which is why he lost his balance and fell out of the window.

Since you don't think it has anything to do with this person, then let's just forget about this matter."

While white was trying to find a way out, he also did Leah a favor, saying that he wouldn't pursue the matter for her sake.

Leah didn't seem to hear him. Instead, she turned to look out the window and said in a calm tone, "Your guards are rank 7 cultivators. They can fly in the air. So, even if they fall from high places, they won't die, right?"

The people around him nodded slightly. This was a fact. If it weren't for the fact that they had to protect white, these two guards could have flown alone and hurried on their way.

Since that was the case, so what if he fell out of the window?

In his heart, he secretly despised white. If he really wanted to plot against someone, why didn't he do it himself? instead, he used such a stupid move that was full of loopholes.

If white wasn't the son of the city Lord, someone would have probably jumped out and cursed him.

Leah's other suitors were secretly pleased. This matter could be said to be a hard slap to White's face. It was utterly embarrassing.

Given his rumored character, he would definitely not let the matter rest easily. At that time, he would definitely think of ways to find trouble with Tang Zhen.

Leah's previous attitude toward Tang Zhen had similarly made a few suitors unhappy. If white could get rid of Tang Zhen, they would naturally welcome him with open arms.

He originally thought that the matter was over, but Tang Zhen did not intend to let white off easily.

First, he hired someone to kill him, and then he tried to push him out of the window. At the same time, he interrupted his comprehension of the realm. This was simply unforgivable.

Fortunately, Tang Zhen wanted to keep a low profile as much as possible. Otherwise, just based on what white had done, Tang Zhen would be able to slaughter his entire family!

The Father was the Father's fault for not teaching the child well. Since white was so sinister and despicable, his father probably couldn't be that strong either.

As the Lord of a city, how could he not know about his son's actions? however, he had indulged him.

In the past, when he bullied others, the other party could not win against this father and son and could only choose to swallow his anger.

However, now that they had provoked Tang Zhen, it was equivalent to offending the Emperor. It could only be said that their retribution had arrived!

"Do you think that guard will come back? I don't think he will!"

Tang Zhen's voice rang out once again. However, he denied Leah's words just now, causing everyone to look at him.

if you want to put on a show, you have to do it the whole way. Since you pretended to be pushed down the window, how could you fly back? wouldn't you be exposed? "

When Tang Zhen said this, he looked at white with a smile.

"Mr. White, am I right?"

Upon hearing Tang Zhen's words, white was stunned for a moment. He also felt that something was amiss.

His own guard had fallen down for so long, so logically speaking, he should have flown back by now, but why was there no trace of him after so long?

Did he really fall to the ground and die?

However, the possibility of this happening was extremely low. It was like a fish being drowned, and it sounded more like a joke.

The other guard also realized that something was wrong and quickly looked out of the window. However, in the vast sky, there was no sign of his companion.

He released his mind power to sense the area, but he found nothing. It was as if the guard who had fallen had disappeared into thin air.

"What's going on? why hasn't he returned yet?"

White was suspicious and sized up Tang Zhen again. He felt that this matter might be related to him.

The others thought about Tang Zhen's words and combined with the fact that the guard had not returned for a long time, they were more and more certain that white was trying to frame someone.

Otherwise, if Leah didn't come forward and Tang Zhen was injured, how would white explain it when the guard returned?

White also thought of this and his face turned red with anger. His expression was also somewhat distorted when he looked at Tang Zhen.

If it wasn't for these two sentences from Tang Zhen, this matter would have been lightly brushed off and treated as if it had never happened.

But now, he had become a sinister and despicable person in everyone's eyes. This was definitely not the result white wanted.

If that was the case, how was he going to get along with Leah in the future? wouldn't she be on guard against him?

It was not easy to get the opportunity to get along with her. White had already vowed to take advantage of this opportunity to capture Leah, so how could he let Tang Zhen destroy it so easily?

Although he wanted to cut Tang Zhen into a thousand pieces, he still had to endure it because Leah was beside him. He could not do anything at all.

White suddenly took out an item from his pocket and looked as if he had just realized something.

"My guard has already sent me a message, saying that he flew out by himself just now because he found an extremely rare material on the ground.

The opportunity was fleeting. He didn't even have time to greet me before he flew out.

He's currently collecting materials, so he can't come with us for the time being. He told us not to worry about him."

At this point, white said to Leah, " "This is just a misunderstanding. It's also my Guard's fault for being too impulsive and not understanding the specific reason.

He's worried about his companions, so he's acting this way. I hope everyone can understand."

After saying this, white sat back on his chair. He intentionally kept his mouth shut about his Guard's attempt to attack Tang Zhen.

The guard coldly glanced at Tang Zhen with a trace of disdain in his eyes. Clearly, he and white did not put Tang Zhen in their eyes.

...

With weak strength and no prominent status, so what if they bullied or humiliated you?

You were lucky this time, but next time, let's see if anyone will stand up for you.

White and his guards all thought that Tang Zhen had escaped because of Leah. They were somewhat disdainful.

How could these two fellows know that if it wasn't for Leah's obstruction, the one who would die at this moment would not be Tang Zhen, but the two of them, who were little experts at seeking death.

As for the guard who had fallen down earlier, he had already fallen to the ground and had completely turned into a pile of meat paste.

That guard had tried to scheme against Tang Zhen. How could Tang Zhen let him off so easily? when he pushed him out of the window, Tang Zhen had already sealed all of his cultivation.

.....

After falling out of the window, the guard was stunned for a moment, then he prepared to fly away.

In the end, there was no reaction. His body seemed to be filled with sand, and he was unable to mobilize the slightest bit of World Energy.

Realizing that his cultivation had been sealed, the Guard's heart was filled with fear. For such a situation to occur while he was high up in the sky, it was simply fatal!

In desperation, he could only shout in the air, hoping that his companions could hear him and save him.

...

After shouting for a long time without getting any response, the Guard's heart was filled with despair. At the same time, he could only watch as he got closer and closer to the ground.

Before he fell to the ground, Tang Zhen's figure suddenly appeared in his mind.

It seemed that when he tried to scheme against him, the other party had already sensed it, and the corner of his mouth revealed a disdainful smile.

That smile seemed very familiar. It was like the mockery of a human when he lifted his foot and crushed an ant that attacked him into powder.

He might be an ant that had overestimated his own strength. On the other hand, Tang Zhen, who appeared weak, was actually a terrifying huge Dragon in disguise.

If young master white provoked such a person, not only would he be harming himself, but his family would also be implicated.

If he could choose again, he swore that even if he had to break both his legs, he would never provoke that mysterious young man.

At this moment, the guard felt a huge impact, and his body was smashed into pieces.

His vision suddenly turned black, and his remaining consciousness completely dissipated!

Chapter 1806 The underwater continent (1)

White didn't know what had happened to his guard. Otherwise, with his cowardly personality, he would have run as far away as possible.

Even if he wanted to scheme against Tang Zhen, he would not show his face in public. Instead, he would hide behind the scenes and play tricks.

Unfortunately, he didn't know the truth and could only run further and further away on the road to death. Even his own father couldn't save him.

At this moment, the room had returned to silence. Because of White's explanation, everyone treated it as a farce.

!!

After all, it was none of their business, and white had an extraordinary background, so no one wanted to get into trouble.

In fact, anyone with a discerning eye could see that white was deliberately looking for trouble with Tang Zhen, and that young man called Tang Zhen didn't seem to be as simple as he looked on the surface.

"Tang Zhen, come over for a moment. I have something to tell you."

Leah called out to Tang Zhen and invited him to a table in the corner. They sat down facing each other.

Everyone looked at him curiously. White was so angry that he gritted his teeth, but because of what had just happened, he couldn't speak at all.

Tang Zhen didn't refuse. Under White's murderous gaze, he walked to the table.

"I've already asked my grandfather about the questions you've raised. When he answered them, he also praised your ideas.

He told me to tell you that if you have similar questions in the future, you can ask him directly instead of asking me."

This should be the goodwill of Leah's grandfather. After he discovered that Tang Zhen had a talent in the field of artisan and that his thinking was very creative, he was prepared to observe him up close in this way.

Tang Zhen didn't refuse. In terms of cultivation, he might be able to crush 99% of the cultivators on this plane. However, in terms of creation, he was indeed a pure newbie.

Having the guidance of an Academy's Dean would be of great help to his studies. Moreover, he also understood that this was an opportunity that many artisans yearned for.

In the artisan circle, money couldn't solve everything.

If Tang Zhen didn't have the Dean's business card, he wouldn't have been able to obtain those artisans and get them to answer his questions no matter how much gold he spent.

The people around them seemed to be busy with their own things, but in fact, they were all listening to the contents of the conversation between Leah and Tang Zhen. Their faces were full of envy.

At the same time, they were also puzzled. Who exactly was this Tang Zhen? not only did Leah protect her in every way possible, but she could even Ask the Dean for advice at any time.

Perhaps only direct disciples and immediate family members could receive such enviable treatment.

Tang Zhen ignored the envious and jealous gazes from the surroundings. To a cultivator at his cultivation level, he could view everything as ants. Why would he care about the right and wrong of such a small character?

after this ruin exploration is over, I'll personally pay a visit to your grandfather to thank him for his help.

As the Dean of the creator Academy, he had a considerable amount of influence in this world. Now that there was a possibility of him coming into deep contact with the other party, Tang Zhen naturally wouldn't miss such an opportunity.

He could even find a breakthrough point from the other party, and then cooperate with his own plan to complete the layout of the entire world.

Leah nodded. This was exactly what her grandfather had hoped for.

in addition, my grandfather is full of praise for your tea leaves. At the same time, he asked if you have any extra in stock. He's preparing to conduct an experiment to see if this kind of tea can be cultivated.

Tang Zhen nodded, but he wasn't very optimistic about Grandpa Leah's plan.

The things he took out were all heavenly treasures. How could they be cultivated just because he said so?

After the two of them chatted for a while, Leah took out an item and handed it to Tang Zhen.

"These are the answers to your questions. As long as you ask them, the answers will be displayed on it.

If an outsider obtains this item but doesn't know the corresponding problem, they will never be able to see the contents."

Tang Zhen received the book-like item. After he obtained the answer according to Leah's guidance, he began to read it seriously.

After watching for a while, Tang Zhen revealed a happy expression. This Academy's headmaster did not disappoint him.

The other party gave a concise and accurate answer to the question raised by Tang Zhen. At the same time, he pointed out some mistakes in Tang Zhen's experiment.

The other party could even vaguely guess the content of his experiment based on these problems alone, and at the same time, they also gave guiding suggestions.

The content of these suggestions had already exceeded the scope of his questions. It was almost no different from personally guiding him. It also allowed Tang Zhen's comprehension of creation to become deeper.

Seeing Tang Zhen's serious expression, the corners of Leah's mouth curled up into a smile. She also took out a book and started reading.

After seeing this scene, the people around them couldn't help but let their imaginations run wild.

White rolled his eyes and secretly took out his communication device. No one knew what he did, but his face was full of a sinister smile.

.....

In the blink of an eye, three days had passed. Tang Zhen and the others had crossed an unknown distance before finally arriving at a huge island in the middle of the ocean.

According to Leah's introduction, the giant Island did not exist in the first place. It was surrounded by a vast ocean.

A group of collectors had accidentally discovered a giant shipwreck at the bottom of the sea. In the process of excavation and exploration, they had accidentally broken an creation ball.

It was impossible to determine how long this object of creation had existed or who its creator was.

However, one thing was certain. A complete world had already formed inside this creation ball. After it appeared, it immediately formed a huge island in the ocean.

The surface of the sea was less than one percent of the land, which showed how terrifying the land was.

Most of the creatures inside the creation ball were submerged by the sea water, but there were still many creatures that survived and lived on this super Island.

After the island appeared. It attracted countless cultivators to explore. In the end, they discovered another big secret.

It turned out that the structure of this land was extremely strange. There were countless wide passages shuttling back and forth inside. It should have been caused by the corrosion and devouring of a special creature.

As time passed, the interior of these passages became a world of its own, with countless strange creatures and plants living there.

Even if it had sunk to the bottom of the sea, most of the passages had been preserved, and the goal of Leah's group was a secret underwater passage.

Because the area of the underwater continent was extremely large, these passages were rugged and winding. Without a special guide, it was impossible to find the exact location.

When the giant bird reached the sky above the Super Island, it began to fly deeper into the island and finally landed in a place that looked like a town.

It wasn't accurate to call it a town, because the houses here were too scattered, sparsely built in a Valley, completely unlike the dense houses in the city.

...

However, the total number of houses here was not much less than that in the town, and groups of collectors could be seen on the mountain roads from time to time.

In addition to these gatherers, there were some buildings in the valley. Those were the private residences of artisans, and there were cultivators or special creatures guarding the entrance to prevent strangers from approaching.

On the Plaza in the valley, there were many travelers like Tang Zhen who had come from afar. Their means of transportation were also strange.

Except for a few native creatures, the rest were basically the works of artisans who had maximized their imagination.

After landing, Tang Zhen and the others were not in a hurry to head to their destination. They still needed to rest temporarily and replenish the necessary items for their exploration.

Entering the underwater continent was not a child's play. If one was not careful, they would die at the bottom of the sea and not even their bones could be found.

With Leah leading the way, the group arrived at an Inn located halfway up the hill. This was also the place they had stopped at the last time they were here.

Only after he had crossed the main door did Tang Zhen discover that there was a whole new world inside the inn.

The shop used the winding passages on the continent to open up a Hall that was nearly 1000 square meters in size. The floor was flat and clean.

The surroundings of the hall were like a winding mountain road, with guest rooms that had a rough yet unique style.

In the hall, there was a group of guests gathered around a circular fence. On the table, there were utensils similar to hotpot, and from time to time, a fresh fragrance would drift over.

...

On the guardrails, there were many fishing rod-like objects that were thrown into the deep hole in the middle of the guardrails.

Seeing Tang Zhen sizing her up, Leah explained, " "This is one of the local specialties. Fish and shrimp that live in deep pits and caves are caught on the spot, and then directly cooked in the pot. The taste is extremely delicious.

If you're lucky, you can catch some top-grade fish and shrimp, and someone will buy them directly, which can be considered as an extra income."

Chapter 1807 Fishing competition (1)

After hearing Leah's introduction, Tang Zhen was a little interested.

A banquet was set up in front of the deep pit that led to the bottom of the sea. Fishing and shrimp were cooked on the spot, accompanied by fine wine and tea. It was also an extreme enjoyment.

"I want to try it out. Why don't you come with me?"

Tang Zhen looked at Leah and extended an invitation.

!!

"Sure, let's go together."

As her grandfather had a very good impression of Tang Zhen and was also very curious about him, Leah didn't refuse his invitation.

This was not in line with her usual personality. Other than the necessary things, Leah spent most of her time doing experiments and reading.

In the past, when she encountered such a situation, she would reject it immediately. However, she agreed very happily this time.

“Why don’t you count me in? we can book a deep pit and relax together.”

White’s voice was heard again. He had been looking for an opportunity to get close to Leah for the past few days, but all he got was an indifferent reply.

It was precisely because of this that his eyes burned with jealousy when he looked at Tang Zhen. He had even treated Tang Zhen as the biggest obstacle.

He would not rest until he killed Tang Zhen.

On the surface, however, white didn’t seem to be acting strangely. In fact, he was even more enthusiastic than before and got along very well with the other members of the team.

The other party members were also happy to do so. Being able to build a good relationship with the city Lord’s son would be beneficial to their future development.

Before Leah could say anything, white called out to the owner of the wine and shop, asking him to book an empty pit next to it.

Warter would not let go of such an opportunity to show off his wealth and get close to Leah.

“No need, boss. We’ll pay for this table.”

Leah didn’t pay attention to white. She spoke to the owner beside her and was about to take out gold coins to pay.

However, just as her voice fell, a Gold Card flicked out of Tang Zhen’s hand and flew into the boss’s hand.

“If you want a refund more than a refund, please bring out any special dishes you have here.”

The innkeeper looked at the Gold Card in his hand and quickly nodded in agreement. At the same time, he called the waiter to serve the wine and food.

White, who was beside him, sneered in disdain.

From White’s point of view, this was Tang Zhen’s self-esteem acting up.

A foreigner of unknown origin, no matter how rich he was, how could he compare to him, the son of the city Lord?

It was a pity that this was not the place to fight for wealth. Otherwise, white would definitely let Tang Zhen experience what it meant that gold coins could also kill people.

It didn’t take long for the inn’s staff to bring in fishing equipment. In addition, the table was filled with a variety of dried fruits and specialty dishes.

In the middle of the table, the waiter lit the Golden charcoal at the bottom of the pot and then placed the wine pot to the side to heat it.

“This is our store’s special wine. With the fresh fish and prawns caught from the deep pit, the taste is guaranteed to be unforgettable.”

While the waiter was introducing the fish, he handed a fishing rod and a small can of specially made bait to Tang Zhen and Leah, who were sitting on both sides of the table.

A table could only seat two people. After Tang Zhen and Leah sat together, white could only sit beside them.

Sitting at the same table with him was a female apprentice artisan. She seemed to be interested in white and would always take the initiative to talk about him.

The chances of becoming an artisan were very low, but if she could become the daughter-in-law of the city Lord, she would also have sufficient status.

Not everyone was like Leah, who had the qualifications and confidence to look down on white, who was of equal social status.

Tang Zhen didn’t care about white, who was gloating and deliberately showing off in front of Leah. Instead, he hooked the bait and threw it into the deep pit.

The pit was about 15 meters in diameter and was said to lead straight to the bottom of the ocean. Because of the glowing minerals, the deep blue ocean water was bright and transparent, and the depths could be seen.

From Tang Zhen’s angle, he could see many fish and prawns swimming back and forth in the sea. Fishing in such an environment was quite interesting.

“It’s boring to just sit there and fish. Why don’t we have a competition to see who can catch the most valuable fish and shrimp?”

White’s voice was heard again. He was always looking for his presence to attract Leah’s attention.

The other members of the adventurer team nodded one after another. It was indeed boring to just bury their heads in fishing. No matter who won or lost in the competition, it could indeed liven up the atmosphere.

“Since no one objects, then we’ll use each table as a unit. The time is one hour, and then we’ll calculate the harvest.

In order to make the bet more interesting, everyone please take out an item as a wager. The value is not less than 10000 gold coins.

After the tally is done, all of them will belong to the winner. What does everyone think?”

Warter suggested again, and this time, no one objected. Ten thousand gold coins were indeed nothing to them.

Of course, to ordinary people, this was a huge gamble. Just hearing it would make one’s heart tremble.

Tang Zhen and Leah also took out an item and placed it on the tray the waiter was carrying. Then, they stared at their fishing rods.

Warter chuckled to himself. He had suggested this bet because he had a special item that could attract creatures with special bloodlines.

This was his father's treasure, used to attract the precious creatures in the ruins. White had secretly taken it out before leaving home.

If this kind of thing was used well, it could save one's life and also be used to trick people.

With this item, white was confident that he could win the bet and show off in front of Leah.

After stealthily mixing that item into the bait, white threw out his hook and anxiously waited.

Tang Zhen naturally noticed White's actions and chuckled without a care. At the same time, a trace of Origin Energy appeared and silently mixed into the bait.

The other artisan apprentices were not idle either. They were all carefully mixing bait to increase the attraction of the fish and shrimp.

This wasn't actually cheating, but each of them showing off their own abilities. Among the customers nearby, there were many who had brought their own special bait.

There were even people who made a living by doing this. They reserved a table in the tavern all year round and tried to catch those extremely precious fish and shrimp.

...

In addition to the delicious taste, some of the fish and shrimp were also experimental materials needed by artisans, so they were quite expensive.

In addition to the value of these fish and shrimp, the reward for winning was also quite attractive. Although the items taken out by the crowd were not particularly precious, the total value was still hundreds of thousands of gold coins.

For an artisan apprentice, this was enough to support the expenses of dozens of experiments, so he would naturally work hard to win it.

Just as Tang Zhen and the rest cast their hooks, the seawater in the deep pit in front of them immediately became restless. Looking down from above, they saw that the sea was actually filled with the figures of fish and shrimp.

When the inn's waiter saw this, he couldn't help but exclaim because he had never seen such a strange scene before.

As they cried out in alarm, everyone raised their fishing rods and pulled the colorful fish and prawns ashore.

There were ordinary fish and shrimp, which could be bought for a basket with a few silver coins. There were also relatively rare species, each of which could be worth several gold coins.

Seeing that everyone was fishing one after another, the customers at the side also became interested and came to watch the fun.

did you see that? that guy caught a fine-scaled snake fish. This kind of fish is hard to get hooked. This one can be sold for at least 20 gold coins.

the fish that beauty caught are the truly rare ones. They're called red-eyed golden orbs, and they're one of the materials that artisans purchase. Each of them is worth at least 100 gold coins!

"Look, look, the young master beside the beauty is the one with the guard. Did he Catch a Fire-scale fish?"

...

that's right, it's a fire-scale fish. When it's moving, it's as if there's a flame burning on its body. One of them can be sold for at least 500 gold coins!

Oh my God, who are these people? how did they catch all the rare good things? " didn't you see the badges on their bodies? these are probably all artisans. They must be very capable. Otherwise, how could such a scene appear? "

I didn't come here in vain today. This is the first time I've seen a group of artisans fishing. It's really an eye-opener!

The onlookers discussed animatedly. White proudly glanced at Tang Zhen beside him and threw the fire-scale fish he had just caught into the bucket.

Up until now, Tang Zhen hadn't caught a single fish. This made white incomparably carefree.

"Trying to steal the limelight from me, young master white? you're not worthy!"

Leah was also full of doubts. She didn't understand why Tang Zhen couldn't catch a single fish. Was it because of bad luck?

Feeling white and Leah's gaze, Tang Zhen smiled gently and appeared very calm.

How could ordinary fish and shrimp sense the origin Energy? therefore, the bait that Tang Zhen cast would only catch the truly extraordinary treasures!

Chapter 1808 Do you dare to bet on a bigger one?

Tang Zhen did not catch a single fish for a long time. On the other hand, he firmly occupied the first place position due to his special bait.

Time passed slowly, and the bet was about to end. He was already sure to win!

To be able to win in front of Leah and prove his ability was something white had always dreamed of.

He understood Leah's character, and this was the only way he could make her think more highly of him.

!!

Especially when compared to Zhen Tang, his results were far ahead. It was impossible for Leah to turn a blind eye to it.

This greatly satisfied White's vanity. Looking at Leah's pretty face, he couldn't suppress the excitement and pride in his heart. He turned to look at Tang Zhen.

"Whether this person has the ability or not, it can be seen with a comparison.

For example, the competition we're in right now is actually a competition of personal ability and creator skills.

The stronger the ability, the more techniques one had, and the more fish and shrimp one could catch.

Whether it's a Dragon or an insect, we'll know with a single comparison!"

After saying this, white looked at Leah and asked with a smile, "Leah, do you think I'm right?"

Leah's eyes didn't move, but she said in a cold tone, "Isn't a competition of ability a competition of fathers?"

Don't think that I don't know that you used your father's beast luring pill. It has nothing to do with your own strength."

White laughed at this, not feeling the slightest bit of shame. Clearly, in his eyes, this was also a display of strength.

Just based on this, he could be ignorant and incompetent, but he could enjoy things that many people couldn't even enjoy with their lives.

hey, what's going on with the one beside you? why didn't he catch a single fish after so long? could it be that it's like what I said, that he's exposed after a mere comparison? "

When white said this, he looked at Tang Zhen again. Anyone could see who he was targeting.

Allowing others to provoke him but not retaliating from the beginning was definitely not Tang Zhen's character.

Although white was already a dead man in his eyes, his endless chatter still made him angry.

Even a man made of mud would have some anger. As a realm Lord, how could he tolerate the repeated provocations of an ant?

He had originally planned to let him live for a while longer, but since he was so suicidal, he would send him on his way ahead of time.

Tang Zhen's expression didn't change as he turned his head and glanced at white. He only used an indifferent tone to say, this round isn't over yet. I want to increase the bet. I wonder if you dare to? "

"You didn't even catch a fish, and you still dare to increase the bet with me?"

White froze for a moment, then snorted coldly."Why wouldn't I dare? it's just that the amount of my bet is relatively large, I'm afraid you won't be able to accept it!"

Tang Zhen shook his head and casually threw out a stack of gold cards that glittered under the light.

“I’ll bet on this, is it enough?”

Those who were watching from the side took a look and immediately sucked in a cold breath.

“My God, how many gold coins are there? why can’t I count them?”

10 million, 20 million, 50 million! It’s actually 100 million!

“What did you just say? I didn’t hear it wrong, did I? someone actually placed a bet of 100 million gold coins!”

The onlookers felt their hearts beating wildly, and their legs trembled. They were wondering how big a pile 100 million gold coins was.

Everyone knew that artisans were rich, but they hadn’t expected them to be rich to the extent that they would bet such a terrifying amount.

Such a bet was simply unheard of!

It wasn’t just the onlookers who were shocked. Even Leah and the other members of the adventurer team were shocked.

Only now did they know that there was actually such an invisible wealthy person in the team. If it wasn’t for White’s provocation, no one would believe that Tang Zhen was actually so rich!

Leah had the intention to dissuade him, but after seeing Tang Zhen’s eyes, she subconsciously didn’t speak.

White stared at the Gold Card on the table in a daze. He secretly swallowed his saliva, and his heart was beating wildly.

Even as the son of the mayor, he had never seen so many gold coins. It was a gold mine.

When he thought of the scene of him having this wealth, he could no longer suppress the impulse in his heart. He had to get it no matter what.

“Tang Zhen, are you sure you want to bet this amount of gold coins with me?”

White’s eyes were fixed on Tang Zhen as greed flickered in his eyes.

“That’s right, do you dare to or not?”

White laughed and got up. He looked at Tang Zhen and said, I, white, have participated in countless gambles, and I have never been scared off by anyone before. Since you insist, then I’ll bet with you!

Seeing that white had agreed to the bet, Tang Zhen extended his hand and pointed at the Gold Card on the table. After which, he looked at white with a smile that was not a smile.

His meaning was obvious: I’ve already taken out my stake, and since you’re betting with me, please take out the corresponding stake.

White frowned and looked at Tang Zhen, "Who would have so many gold coins for no reason? if you are willing, I can write a receipt. If I lose, you can withdraw money from the city Lord's mansion at any time!"

"That's good. Then you can write down a written pledge and record the scene of our bet, in case someone reneges on it in the future."

White laughed disdainfully. In his opinion, his victory was already in the bag. Although this was unnecessary, it was also a necessary process.

Having someone bring him a pen and paper, white wrote down an IOU of 100 million gold coins and then signed his name.

During this process, there would always be someone in charge of recording the results to ensure the fairness of the bet.

White threw the paper he had finished writing on the table and turned to look at Tang Zhen. His eyes were filled with excitement.

"Tang Zhen, I don't know where you get your confidence from. You dare to bet with me at this time?"

Judging from the current situation, you're already bound to lose. I don't believe you have the ability to turn the tables.

Perhaps I should thank you in advance for giving me such a big gift. It's really full of surprises and surprises."

...

Tang Zhen merely sneered as he looked at the arrogant white. He gently shook the fishing rod in his hand.

It was also at this moment that the bottom of the deep pit suddenly changed.

A strange fish that was more than ten meters long slowly appeared, dragging a rainbow light behind it. It was like a Dragon in the Sea.

The onlookers, who had been staring at gold coin, looked at the strange fish in the sea and covered their mouths in surprise.

this is a seven-colored Sea Dragon, the rarest type of fish. It's said that it's a creature from the creation ball, and every one of them is worth a city!

that's right. It's said that an advanced artisan has placed a bounty of 10 million gold for a seven-colored Sea Dragon.

I didn't expect the seven-colored Sea Dragon to appear here. I wonder if I can catch it? "

As they conversed, they tried to keep their voices down and even covered their mouths.

Although the sound from outside the guardrails could not enter the deep pit due to its special structure, everyone was still very careful.

Almost everyone's hearts were in their throats, especially White, who was staring at the seven-colored Sea Dragon.

As long as he was able to fish this seven-colored Sea Dragon, not only would he be able to win the bet with Tang Zhen, but he would also be able to obtain a huge amount of income.

...

I want to catch it. I must catch it. This is a treasure that was attracted by the beast luring pill. It belongs to me!

White kept roaring in his heart, and his expression was even a little ferocious. He wanted to jump into the water and grab the seven-colored Sea Dragon.

The other adventurer team members were the same. Everyone knew what this seven-colored Sea Dragon meant, especially to artisans. Its value far exceeded gold coins.

When the seven-colored Sea Dragon was in the ocean, it had the special ability to teleport and was extremely vigilant. It was almost impossible to capture it.

Just as everyone's hearts were in their throats, Tang Zhen, who had an indifferent expression from the beginning, revealed a smile as he gently lifted the fishing rod in his hand.

The seven-colored Sea Dragon that was originally gently swimming in the sea suddenly charged toward Tang Zhen's bait as though it had been struck by lightning. It then fiercely bit down.

The fish line was suddenly pulled straight. Soon after, Tang Zhen's arm shook and a rainbow light broke out of the water. It fell to the ground in front of everyone's exclamations.

Tang Zhen ignored the shocked onlookers and threw the fishing rod on the ground. He did not even look at the seven-colored Sea Dragon that was struggling. Instead, he turned his head to look at the dumbstruck White.

"Time's Up, you've lost!"

Chapter 1809 White's death (1)

Impossible, this is absolutely impossible. You must be cheating!

White was on the verge of breaking down when he saw the seven-colored Sea Dragon that Tang Zhen had fished up. His face was filled with malevolence as he roared in rage.

"Cheating?"

Looking at the exhausted White, Tang Zhen coldly laughed, "Just now, who was the one who said that this bet is a competition of individual strength, and there's no such thing as cheating.

!!

"The process isn't important, what's important is the result?"

Spring arrived at Tang Zhen's words. Everyone nodded to themselves. And that was indeed the case.

I don't care. You must have cheated, so this bet is not fair. I will never admit it!

Since he didn't want to hand over a hundred million gold coins, white decided to act shamelessly.

He didn't have any savings, and there was a limit to his monthly expenses, so how could he afford to pay a hundred million?

It was fine if he won, but now that he had lost, he would never admit to this bet.

Looking at White's unreasonable and shameless appearance, everyone secretly despised him. He had been arrogant before, but now he was ready to go back on his word.

He was the son of the city Lord, but he did such a shameless thing. He really didn't care about his face at all.

White could see everyone's expressions, but he couldn't care about that right now. As long as he could get out of this bet, losing face didn't matter.

When this matter was over, he would beat everyone present one by one. If anyone dared to leak today's events, white would definitely take revenge by any means necessary.

Tang Zhen didn't even pay attention to white. He waved his hand and grabbed the gold coins and receipt on the table, then waved his hand at white.

"The receipt is in my hands. When I return to the Academy, I will personally come to collect the money. Remember to prepare the gold coins!"

Seeing the letter in Tang Zhen's hand, white completely shed all pretense of cordiality. With a sinister expression, he furiously roared at the guards beside him, "This person tricked me into writing a written pledge. He definitely has bad intentions. I suspect that he's going to take my life again. Kill him immediately!"

That guard laughed sinisterly. He did not hesitate to charge at Tang Zhen and was prepared to kill him.

Who knew that at this moment, a low roar suddenly came from the deep pit, and the ground shook.

A huge black shadow suddenly appeared, filling the entire deep pit, and even the sea water surged up.

There were two pairs of blood-red eyes in the black shadow. They were looking around through the sea. The eyes were full of greed and ruthlessness, and a terrible aura spread out in an instant.

oh no, it's a king-tier giant beast. How did this thing appear? "

The onlookers cried out in alarm and fled in all directions without any hesitation, afraid that they would lose their lives if they were a step slower.

"Huala"

In the sound of waves crashing, huge tentacles stretched out from the deep pit and swept out in all directions.

The guard who was prepared to attack Tang Zhen felt a Gale assault him from behind. He was so frightened that he hurriedly dodged. Who would have thought that the tentacle's whipping speed would be so fast that it instantly landed on the Guard's body.

With a miserable shriek, the Guard's body was directly turned into meat paste, flying a distance and then sticking to the wall of the inn.

Screams came one after another. Other than the guard, a few other members of the adventurer team and a few onlookers were hit by the tentacles.

Under the terrifying power of the tentacles, most of these people had their bones broken and their tendons snapped, and they fell to the ground, motionless.

White, who was previously clamoring that Tang Zhen was cheating, was now lying under the table with a deathly pale face. His body was constantly trembling like a sieve.

An indescribable fear rose in his heart. Never in his dreams did he think that he would encounter a series of unforeseen events on this journey.

Without the guards by his side, he didn't even dare to move. He could only pray in his heart that the king-level sea monster wouldn't discover him.

For some reason, white turned to look at Tang Zhen's previous position, wanting to see if he had been killed by the sea monster.

In the end, with just one glance ... White was dumbfounded.

Tang Zhen was still standing in the same spot, but Leah had already fainted and fallen to the ground. It was unknown if she was Dead or Alive.

It was different from the people who were running away in panic. There was no fear on Tang Zhen's face. He only stared at white, who was hiding under the table.

Compared to white who was in a sorry state, Tang Zhen seemed to be in his own courtyard and didn't seem to care about the king-class sea monster.

"Damn it, why isn't he afraid? Why didn't he run away? What's going on?"

White kept roaring in his heart, but he didn't dare to make a sound, for fear of attracting the sea monster's attack.

At the same time, he kept cursing in his heart, hoping that Tang Zhen would be smacked by the sea monster's tentacle in the next second and then turn into a pool of mud like his guard.

In this way, all the problems would be solved.

Who would have expected that just as this thought flashed across his heart, he would see Tang Zhen, who was standing opposite him, slowly walking over.

The dozens of tentacles that were wantonly dancing in the hall actually dodged one after another as Tang Zhen advanced. They did not dare to touch her body in the slightest.

Seeing this scene, white suddenly had a terrifying thought, and his body couldn't help but tremble violently.

there's something wrong with this Tang Zhen. There's definitely something wrong with him!

With an unknown origin, a huge fortune, and a leisurely stroll in the garden of a King-tier sea monster's attack, this was definitely not something an apprentice creator could do!

The more he thought about it, the more afraid he became. The more he thought about it, the more his body trembled. The current Tang Zhen was like a demon in his eyes.

He had a faint feeling that the appearance of this King level sea monster might be directly related to Tang Zhen.

Otherwise, how could he have caught the extremely rare seven-colored Sea Dragon? he must have used some special method to attract this magical creature.

Since the rainbow Sea Dragon had been attracted here, it wasn't impossible to attract another King-class sea monster.

Thinking of this, White's heart was filled with regret.

If he had accepted his loss and handed over the one hundred million gold coins, this King-level sea monster might not have appeared.

Even if he didn't have that many gold coins and didn't want to acknowledge the bet, he could have asked his father for help when he got back. He wanted him to help solve this matter.

It could only be said that one wrong step led to many more wrong steps, and the result was this irreversible situation.

...

While his mind was filled with distracting thoughts, Tang Zhen had already passed through the waving tentacles and walked to the table where white was hiding.

are you scared to death right now? are you afraid that the tentacles will hit you and turn you into a pool of rotten meat?"

Tang Zhen's voice was neither sad nor happy. However, when white heard it, it was as if a demonic voice had filled his head, causing an indescribable chill to rise in his heart.

"Do you see that guard who was smashed into meat paste? actually, your previous guard died in the same way.

He fell from a high altitude, unable to fly even if he wanted to. Then, he fell into a pile of meat paste.

Very soon, you will be like the two of them, your bones and internal organs crushed. Even your closest friends and family will not be able to recognize you."

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, an indescribable fear rose in White's heart and he began to cry silently.

He finally understood why his guards had mysteriously fallen out of the window and disappeared without a trace.

So it was all this guy, everything was his doing!

White's eyes were filled with resentment. He thought that Tang Zhen had schemed against him, but he had forgotten that he was the one who had started everything.

as long as you spare me and take me away from here, Leah will be yours. I'll even ask my father to take you in as a disciple, and I'll listen to your orders.

...

As for the 100 million gold coins, I'll think of a way to gather them for you. If you think it's not enough, I can think of another way.

I really don't want to die, I really don't want to die!"

Tang Zhen didn't say anything and only quietly looked at him. This also caused White's heart to become colder and colder.

you can't kill me. My father is the city Lord. If you kill me, you won't be able to live either!

White shouted at the top of his lungs. His father, the city Lord, had become his only life-saving card.

"Do you think that this matter will be over if you die? even your father can't shirk his responsibility for raising a scum like you.

After harming so many people, we have to collect some interest. Otherwise, how can the souls of those who died in vain rest in peace?"

Tang Zhen stood up slowly as he spoke. He held Leah in his arms and walked slowly toward the hotel entrance.

"Don't worry, it won't be long before your father will go down to accompany you."

When he heard Tang Zhen's words, he mustered the courage that he did not know where he had mustered up from. He suddenly came out of the table and crazily ran towards the hotel's entrance.

However, he had only taken two steps when a tentacle whizzed over and smashed toward white.

"I don't want to die!"

White let out a desperate roar. The next moment, he was smashed by the tentacle and turned into a pile of mud!

Chapter 1810 Trapped in the cave (1)

There was an uproar in the valley. The change in the inn had attracted many onlookers.

Everyone was shocked when they heard that a King-level sea monster had appeared in the fishing pool inside the hotel.

This situation was quite rare. Although the deep pit was connected to the sea, the inside was rugged and winding, and there were many turns in the middle.

In such a special environment, it was difficult for King-class sea monsters to enter, unless these things lived in the passage.

!!

Living on an island, the residents knew very well how terrifying sea monsters were.

This matter had to be resolved as soon as possible. Otherwise, if the king-class sea monster was allowed to wreak havoc, the entire town would probably be destroyed!

In order to deal with a King-tier monster, a cultivator of the same level was required. Moreover, with the monster's strength, at least five cultivators of the same level were required to work together to kill it.

Unfortunately, this wasn't the world of loucheng. There was only one king level cultivator in the entire city, and he was no match for this ferocious monster.

even if we can't kill the monster, we have to find a way to control it. Otherwise, once it charges out, the entire town will suffer a catastrophe!

The king level cultivator who had heard the news looked serious. He looked at the hotel and frowned.

The cultivators around them were terrified. They didn't want to face such a terrifying monster. Every time a King-level monster came ashore, it would cause terrible casualties.

with our current manpower, it's impossible to deal with this monster. But if we wait for reinforcements, what if he runs out during the time? "

Someone next to him added with a worried look.

actually, there's another way. That is to completely destroy the exit of the hotel. This way, we can delay the speed of the monster coming out.

Some cultivators suggested, but they were quickly opposed.

"Have you forgotten that there are still many people in this hotel? if we destroy the entrance now, will those people be able to escape?"

Once the entrance was destroyed, the survivors would not be able to escape and could only wait for death.

"The monster has appeared for such a long time, and its strength is so terrifying. I guess the people inside are all dead.

What's more, sacrificing a small number of people to save the entire town, what's wrong with that?"

The cultivator who proposed to destroy the hotel argued. At the same time, he looked at the king level cultivator, hoping that he would accept his suggestion.

The residents trapped in the cave had nothing to do with him. As long as he could stop the king-level sea monster and ensure his own safety, the sacrifice of a few residents was nothing.

The king-level cultivator shook his head and said to the people around him, "I've asked the escaped innkeeper. There are many artisans and apprentices here, and they definitely can't be compared to ordinary guests.

If we destroy the inn, it's the same as cutting off their path of survival. Even if these artisans die at the hands of the sea monsters, we can't escape the blame."

Hearing the king level cultivator's explanation, everyone fell silent. If this was the case, things would become troublesome.

what can they do inside? can the lives of these artisans be compared to the safety of the entire town? "

The previous cultivator spoke again, still insisting on destroying the entrance of the inn. He also claimed that if they hesitated any longer, it would cause an even greater disaster.

At this moment, an even louder vibration was heard. It was as if the entire ground was shaking.

The cultivators' expressions changed when they felt the trembling of their feet and the falling bricks and tiles.

we can't hesitate anymore. Listen to my order and destroy the inn immediately. I will bear all the consequences!

The expression of the cultivator who wanted to destroy the inn suddenly changed. As he roared, he took out an item from his storage equipment and threw it at the entrance of the inn.

"BOOM!"

With a loud explosion, the entrance of the inn collapsed, and huge rocks rolled down.

Seeing this, the king-level cultivator sighed and called everyone to attack at the same time. They destroyed a cliff above them.

Now that things had come to this, he could not continue to hesitate.

However, it was a good thing that this matter was not done by him personally. If he really investigated it, someone would naturally bear the responsibility.

In the blink of an eye, the inn was completely buried by the giant rocks. No matter how strong the king-tier monster was, it was impossible for it to break out.

However, if that was the case, there would be no chance of survival if there were any survivors in the cave.

.....

Just as Tang Zhen was about to leave with Leah in his arms, he heard a loud noise coming from the front. Then, the entrance of the hotel completely collapsed.

because they were afraid that the sea monster would come out, they simply blew up the entrance. As for whether there are survivors inside, I'm afraid no one cares.

Tang Zhen shook his head. Although the exit had been sealed, he could leave this place at any time as long as he was willing.

However, since they were stuck in the cave, it would inevitably arouse suspicion if they went out rashly.

Moreover, he had Leah and dozens of survivors around him. Since Tang Zhen didn't want to attract too much attention, he naturally wouldn't make any unnecessary moves.

He could also use this opportunity to complete his experiment and strive for success as soon as possible.

After thinking of this, Tang Zhen turned his head and looked at the sea monster that was still waving its tentacles. A cold glint flashed across his eyes.

An undetectable aura appeared, causing the rampaging sea monster to freeze. Then, as if it had encountered its natural enemy, it turned around and fled without hesitation.

After the disaster, everything was in chaos.

The screams of the survivors were endless, and the ground was covered with broken bodies. Except for a few residents who had escaped, the rest were basically all here.

After confirming that the sea monster had escaped, the survivors jumped out and ran straight for the exit of the hotel.

Only now did they realize that the exit had been completely blown up, and there was no way out.

When the survivors saw this, a trace of despair appeared on their faces as they began to curse.

Although cultivators had some special abilities, it also depended on their own strength. At the very least, the huge rock blocking the entrance was definitely not something they could take away.

Otherwise, the cultivators outside wouldn't have used such a method to try and stop the king-tier monster from destroying the town.

Seeing that there was no hope of escape, and that the sea monsters that had disappeared could reappear at any time, some of the survivors had completely collapsed.

...

They frantically waved their weapons and hacked at the steel-like rocks, but after trying for a long time, there was still no effect.

"Damn it, I don't want to die Here!"

A cultivator shouted. At this moment, his face was filled with madness. The corpses on the ground and the threat of death had made him hysterical.

When he turned his head and saw Tang Zhen standing at the side, this cultivator seemed to have found a target to vent his anger on. He raised his weapon and pounced straight at him.

"It's all your fault. If you didn't have a competition, how could you have attracted a King-class sea monster?"

You artisans are the main culprits.

I can't get out now, and I might be eaten by the sea monster at any time. In that case, you can die first!"

As soon as he finished speaking, that cultivator brandished his blade and slashed at Tang Zhen.

"You're looking for death!"

Tang Zhen coldly snorted. He casually picked up a stone from the ground and shot it at the cultivator.

With a sharp sound, the stone pierced through the cultivator's head and exploded like a watermelon.

...

"Plop!"

The headless corpse fell to the ground, and the weapons hit the ground, making a crisp sound.

Seeing this, the cultivators who were on the verge of collapse immediately sobered up, and the weapons they had raised slowly fell.

Tang Zhen ignored these cultivators. Instead, he carried the unconscious Leah and walked into a well-preserved guest room.

When the members of the adventurer team who had come with Tang Zhen saw this, they also followed him and entered the adjacent rooms.

At this time, the cave had been divided into several groups. They were curled up in the corners, jointly guarding against the sea monster that could appear at any time.

With their escape route sealed, the sea monster could appear at any time, and the various injuries on their bodies, the survivors were extremely depressed, afraid that death would befall them the next moment.
