Chapter 181: killing with! borrowed knife

cut the crap. Put your hands behind your head and squat on the ground!

“Officer han, who was holding a gun, didn’t dare to be careless in front of Tang Zhen. She was very clear about the strength of the man in front of her. When they were at the dock, five or six big men couldn’t get close to him. Once he found an opportunity, she might be countered by him. ”

“Thinking of the scene of being controlled by Tang Zhen last time, police officer han had a lingering fear. ”

“After that, they investigated through the documents that Tang Zhen showed and found out that he was a mental patient who had been missing for three years. His family had been looking for him, but there was no news of him. They didn’t expect him to suddenly appear near the dock. ”

“This guy was a patient, and he would go crazy once he was provoked. He had to be extra careful. ”

“Police officer han secretly reminded herself, afraid that Tang Zhen would make any strange movements. Although she held a gun in her hand, she was still very nervous. The hand holding the gun was also slightly trembling. ”

“Tang Zhen raised his hands slightly. After which, he turned his head to look at officer han and said with a smile, ”“You don’t have to be so nervous, I’ll just cooperate with you!” ”

“Seeing Tang Zhen turn his head, police officer han involuntarily took a step back. After thinking for a moment, he threw out the handcuffs and said to Tang Zhen, ”“Handcuff yourself and don’t play any tricks, or I’ll really shoot!” ”

“ ”“Okay, I’ll do as you say!” ”

“Tang Zhen laughed softly as he used the tip of his foot to hook the handcuffs. He buckled them on his wrists and looked at police officer han. ”“I’ve cuffed it up. You should be at ease now.” ”

“Police officer han secretly heaved a sigh of relief. He lowered the muzzle of his gun slightly and pointed at Tang Zhen, don’t play any tricks. Squat on the ground and wait. ”

“After that, officer han took out his mobile phone and was ready to find someone to help him. ”

“ ”“Officer han, aren’t you curious why I’m here?” ”

“Officer han, who was about to make a call, said casually, “ ”“Why?” ”

“ ”“Because the group of people you’re chasing has kidnapped my friend. I have half an hour to get there, or they’ll kill my friend!” ”

“ ”“Friend? And you still say you don’t know him?” ”

“Police officer han put down the phone and said to Tang Zhen, ”“Who’s on the phone? where is he?” ”

“I don’t know who they are. They just gave me an address and told me to be there in time. But looking at the time, they should be here soon!”

Tang Zhen shrugged his shoulders and feigned a helpless expression.

“Police officer han grabbed Tang Zhen, but Tang Zhen didn’t move at all. She was the one who was dodged. She cursed in her heart. Police officer han pointed at Tang Zhen and said,“Get in the car with me now, we’re going to save your friend!””

““I’m sorry, but can you do it?””

Tang Zhen sized up officer han with a suspicious look.

“Being swept by Tang Zhen’s invasive gaze made officer han feel a sense of shame as if her clothes were seen through. This made her feel quite uncomfortable. She snorted coldly and shouted at Tang Zhen, “cut the crap. Get in the car!”

“Tang Zhen obediently got into the car when he heard that. After officer han warned Tang Zhen not to move, he immediately started the car and went straight to the second floor where Tang Zhen had been before.”

“As police officer han drove, he monitored Tang Zhen behind him, afraid that Tang Zhen would do something.”

“Tang Zhen, on the other hand, had a comfortable expression on his face as he lazily laid on the back seat. After glancing at the identification on the car, he said to police officer han, Officer han yiyi, please focus on driving, or I’ll really have to take the wheel and drive for you.”

“After the female police officer heard Tang Zhen call out her name, she rolled her eyes in a bad mood and shouted at Tang Zhen,“Be good, or I’ll deal with you right now!””

“Tang Zhen let out a “tsk” sound. His face was filled with disdain as he curled his mouth.”

“The female police officer’s driving skills were pretty good. It didn’t take long for them to arrive at the place where the young man was killed. Tang Zhen jumped out of the car with her. The female police officer threatened him with a gun, but Tang Zhen didn’t fall for it. Han yiyi had no choice but to let Tang Zhen follow her.”

“The three guys that Tang Zhen had knocked down hadn’t recovered yet, so han yiyi didn’t use any strength to tie up all three of them and call for help.”

“However, after she was done with all of this, she discovered that Tang Zhen had disappeared!”

Han yiyi looked around but didn’t find any trace of Tang Zhen. She was so angry that her body trembled and she kept cursing Tang Zhen.

“However, just as she turned around and was about to walk into the courtyard, she felt someone pounce on her from behind and press her to the ground.”

“Before she could resist, she heard gunshots and bullets flying past where she had just been standing.”

“Han yiyao was shocked. If she hadn’t been pressed down in time, she would probably have been shot by now.”

She turned around and saw Tang Zhen getting up from her body. He even reached out and smacked han yiyao’s perky butt!

“Feeling pain and numbness in her butt, han yiyao wrinkled her nose and cursed “” pervert “” in her heart. She immediately got up from the ground to find cover and took out her weapon to fight back.”

“Tang Zhen was also hiding in a corner. He was observing the situation outside through the view of the map. At this moment, there were six people who had entered the courtyard and were attempting to enter the house.”

A man holding a short-barreled hunting rifle carefully pushed open the door. He was just about to poke his head in when Tang Zhen kicked the door. The man’s face was covered in blood as he fell unconscious in the courtyard.

“Seeing that their companion had been ambushed, the remaining five people immediately rushed to the window and shot randomly into the room.”

“Han yiyao couldn’t lift her head from the pressure. Tang Zhen picked up a leather shoe from the ground and smashed it at a man outside the window. The strength of a level 5 cultivator was no joke. Even if Tang Zhen restrained his strength, he still sent the man flying.”

“Since he wanted to act, he had to act more realistically. Otherwise, Tang Zhen would send this group of people to heaven in less than half a minute!”

“Seeing that another comrade had been killed, the remaining four panicked and quickly squatted down to avoid the attack.”

“Tang Zhen took the opportunity to quickly run to the place where han yiyao was hiding. When he passed by the three men who were tied up, Tang Zhen pulled out a gun from one of the men’s waist and said to the nervous han yiyao, “” “”Let’s go to the second floor. It’s safer there!”” ”

“””No, there are suspects here, we can’t let them take them away!”” ”

“Han yiyao didn’t move and continued to stare outside. Tang Zhen patted her butt again, making han yiyao so angry that her eyebrows were raised. She fiercely bared her teeth at Tang Zhen and said, “” “”You bastard, if you do this again, I’ll blow up your d * ck!”” ”

“Tang Zhen revealed a “”I’m so scared”” expression, but his movements did not stop. He raised both his arms and fired a shot at the door.”

A blood-curdling scream rang out. Tang Zhen’s shot had pierced through the door and hit the person’s abdomen.

“Three of their companions had been taken down in succession, causing the remaining three to become timid. They were hesitating whether to continue the attack or to evacuate directly to avoid further casualties.”

“In the corner of the room, han yiyang looked at Tang Zhen in surprise. She snatched his gun and coldly snorted at Tang Zhen, “” “”You better behave yourself, who told you to shoot?”” ”

“Tang Zhen didn’t pay attention to han yiyang. Through the map, he saw a few police cars rushing over. They would arrive in a minute. ”

“With such a short amount of time left, the remaining three people probably wouldn’t be able to escape. ”

“Since the attention of the pickle nation’s police had been attracted, Tang Zhen could finally retreat! ”

“While han yiyang’s attention was focused on the outside, Tang Zhen jumped up to the second floor, activated the [ quantum invisibility ], and jumped onto the street outside. ”

“After cutting open the tires of the cars of these fellows with the purple lightning short sword, Tang Zhen looked at the police cars that were speeding over and turned around to leave in satisfaction! ” this is half a year’s rent and security deposit. Please check it.

Chapter 182: modified tank

“A day later, in a certain block. ”

“Tang Zhen smiled as he handed a stack of brand new cash to the middle-aged woman in front of him. After chatting for a while, he sized up the surrounding environment and nodded in satisfaction. ”

“He had previously used the [ all-purpose electronic kit ] to check the rental information of the city’s houses and found this house that was currently being rented. The environment and location were very suitable for him, so Tang Zhen used forged documents to rent this house. ”

“The house was huge and had a basement, enough for him to set up the rebirth altar. ”

“After the female landlord left, Tang Zhen began to clean the basement. At the same time, he found someone to install a strong anti-theft door before going to the market to purchase. ”

“The materials needed for the rebirth altar were quite a lot. Tang Zhen busied himself for half a day before he finally purchased all of them. For convenience’s sake, he even bought a second-hand pickup truck. As for his id, he could use the [ virtual reality simulator ] to get through. ”

“After bringing the materials he bought back to his residence, Tang Zhen went back to the basement and started to set up the rebirth altar. ”

“Tang Zhen was very familiar with this kind of thing. However, this time around, he had changed it to a modular layout. It was very convenient regardless of whether it was dismantling or assembling. The reason why he did this was naturally to make it convenient for him to pack up and escape in the future. ”

“After being busy for three hours, Tang Zhen finally finished setting up the altar. Next, he only needed to obtain a suitable body in order to help the young man complete his rebirth. ”

“The body cultivated by the mother tree was about to mature, and Tang Zhen was not in a hurry. Therefore, the matter of rebirth could wait for a few days. Before that, Tang Zhen still had other things to do. ”

“He tried to contact Ivanov and the others again, but there was still no response. It was even possible that his mobile phone had been destroyed, so Tang Zhen could not lock onto their specific location. ”

“““This bunch of useless guys can’t even handle such a small matter!”” ”

Tang Zhen cursed as he sat down on the sofa. He held a teacup in his hand as he watched the program on the television and enjoyed a rare leisure time.

“Now that the Holy Dragon City had already repelled the enemy that had surrounded them, it was time for him to show off his extraordinary abilities. Tang Zhen would definitely not be satisfied if he did not beat up the corpse race and the dog-headed people until he was afraid of pain. ”

“I’ve been bullied by this bunch of foreign bastards for so long, it’s time for me to get back at them! ”

“To do a good job, one must first sharpen his tools. Tang Zhen had a deep understanding of this saying. If not for the weapons from the original world that he had obtained, the Holy Dragon City would not have been able to hold on until now. It might have even been destroyed several times. ”

“This time, he planned to get some transport vehicles suitable for the Holy Dragon City. At the same time, he would also modify these vehicles into special combat vehicles. Through an online search, Tang Zhen ordered 20 high-performance heavy trucks. They were available in stock, and Tang Zhen could pay for them at any time. ”

“Due to the lack of equipment in the Holy Dragon City, Tang Zhen could only choose to carry out the modification in kimchi country. After driving around, he finally contacted a car modification factory and agreed to place the twenty cars there for modification. ”

“The scope of the modification included the safety protection of the driver’s seat, the protection of the tires, the modification of the rear compartment, the mounting of weapons, and other aspects. It was not too complicated, but it was not simple either. ”

“In addition to modifying the car, Tang Zhen also needed to store enough fuel and buy some easily damaged parts for backup. ”

“In the blink of an eye, six or seven days had passed. Early in the morning, Tang Zhen was about to drive out again. ”

“There were too many things to do. Tang Zhen’s feet barely touched the ground. Fortunately, everything went smoothly. The cars had basically been modified, and the other things that needed to be prepared were almost ready. Tang Zhen only needed to bring these cars back to the loucheng world. ”

“““Good Morning, uncle!”” ”

“A clear and melodious voice sounded from not far away. Tang Zhen, who had just opened the car door, turned his head and took a look. He smiled and replied, ”You too!” ”

This was a seventeen or eighteen-year-old girl who lived next door to Tang Zhen’s rented house. The two of them had met a few times in front of the house and became familiar with each other after a while.

Tang Zhen didn’t know the girl’s name and had never asked. He only felt that her smile was very good looking and gave people a pleasant feeling.

“To ordinary people, he was destined to be a passer-by. If he came into contact with them too much, not only would it bring trouble to them, but it would also bring inconvenience to himself. Therefore, Tang Zhen had been subconsciously avoiding contact with strangers. ”

“The girl might only be curious about Tang Zhen, this uncle who rented a large house by himself and left early in the morning and returned late every day. They were all neighbors, so it was normal to greet each other when they met. ”

“”Do you need me to send you to school? it’s on the way.” ”

Tang Zhen was only being polite out of habit. He did not expect the girl to immediately walk over and sit in the front passenger seat.

“”Then thank you, uncle!” ”

“After saying that, she even smiled sweetly, causing Tang Zhen, who was secretly scolding himself for being talkative, to be helpless. He could only start the car with a smile. ”

The car slowly moved along the road while the girl was chatting with Tang Zhen.

“”Uncle, what’s your job?” ”

“”As long as I can earn money, I’ll do anything!” ” Tang Zhen was expressionless. ”

“”Then wouldn’t uncle be unprincipled?” ” the girl pouted. ”

“The corner of Tang Zhen’s mouth twitched, ”Yingluo, uh, it’s still alright.” ”

“”Uncle, don’t you feel lonely and scared living in such a big house by yourself?” ” the girl asked. ”

“”You’ll get used to it.” ” Tang Zhen’s face was filled with black lines. ”

“The girl’s eyes lit up. are you single, uncle? do you want me to introduce you to a girlfriend? ha, are you embarrassed? it’s okay, it’s a deal! ”

“Tang Zhen, ”Yingluo.” ”

“Damn it, when did I promise you anything? ”

“After the girl finally got off the car, Tang Zhen heaved a long sigh of relief. He thought to himself that his ears could finally be quiet for a while. ”

“However, in the blink of an eye, Tang Zhen gently smiled again. He did not know why, but the conversation earlier had made him feel very relaxed and his mood was also very happy.”

The merciless killing in the other world and the wandering in his original world had always kept his nerves in a tense state.

“The higher the position and power, the more the strength increased, the further Tang Zhen felt that the distance between him and ordinary people was. This kind of feeling was intoxicating, but it was also very easy for him to feel lonely. This was because he had no way to communicate with others normally. Most of the time, he could only bury his happiness, anger, and sorrow in his heart.”

“There were always losses for everything, but as long as he was willing, what did it matter how hard and tiring it was?”

Tang Zhen arrived at the place where the cars were modified. He looked at the row of cars that were parked in the courtyard and nodded his head in satisfaction.

“The modified truck was completely different. However, in Tang Zhen’s opinion, it was the most suitable vehicle for the Holy Dragon City. After all, it was easy to operate and did not require too much maintenance.”

“The last time at the military base, Tang Zhen had considered whether to get a tank, but in the end, he dismissed this idea. This kind of land God of War was not easy to operate, and the requirements for logistics were too high. The Holy Dragon City could not afford to support it at the moment!”

“After finding the boss of the factory, Tang Zhen paid the rest of the money and told the boss to pick up the car at night and remind the workers responsible for The Night Watch.”

“After the boss counted the money, he naturally agreed without hesitation.”

“Time passed by, and Tang Zhen appeared in the factory at midnight. He first put sleeping pills in the food of the night watchmen, making them fall asleep, and then used the universal electronic kit to forge a video of a car driving out of the factory and inserted it into the surveillance video of that night. Then, he sent the modified tanks to the square in front of the Holy Dragon City.”

Chapter 183: The secret of the fallout shelter

Through the map view, Tang Zhen watched as Xiao Feng left in his car before switching to his normal vision.

Xiao Feng was a very smart young man, and he was very reliable in his work. However, he was not suitable to be a leader. Tang Zhen had never planned to let him take charge of the rebirth altar.

This was a very serious matter and Tang Zhen had to be cautious.

This might seem like a dangerous task for the time being, but once the test of the inter-plane Soul transmission was completed, the humans from the original world would head to the world of loucheng on a large scale. By then, the people who were in charge of the rebirth altar would definitely receive great honor and prestige.

Therefore, Tang Zhen would definitely not use those who did not have the ability or those who harbored evil intentions!

The matters in the original world had basically been settled. The next thing Tang Zhen had to do was to clean up the sanctuary and wait for Black Rock City to ask for help again!

He walked out and locked the courtyard door. Tang Zhen returned to the house and activated the teleportation.

Holy Dragon City, the third underground floor of the glittergold race's sanctuary.

Tang Zhen looked at the empty underground third floor. After confirming that there was nothing abnormal in the surroundings, he activated the [ instant teleportation map plug-in ]!

This time, he needed to teleport down. However, the map did not show the environment of the fourth underground floor. Therefore, Tang Zhen did not have a clear teleportation coordinate to set.

The teleportation this time was based on the general structure of the sanctuary. As for where he would be teleported to, it would depend on luck.

Fortunately, this kind of teleportation wouldn't squeeze Tang Zhen into the stone. Otherwise, Tang Zhen would have to go through a lot of trouble to teleport back to his original world. After the cooldown the next day, he would open the [ teleportation plug-in ] again!

However, it was very likely that he would be covered in dust during the process of teleportation!

Tang Zhen wanted to enter the fourth underground floor of the sanctuary without anyone knowing. This was the only effective way at the moment. Otherwise, if he opened the entrance to enter, it would definitely attract the attention of the Queen of the flashing gold race. Then, Tang Zhen would definitely not be able to see what he wanted to see.

Tang Zhen only felt his vision turn dark as he activated his teleportation. His body gently landed on the ground. He extended his hand and touched it. He confirmed that he had successfully entered the fourth underground floor.

After quickly activating the [ quantum invisibility light screen ], Tang Zhen opened the [ all-rounded digital battle interface ] and carefully explored.

The fourth underground floor was also a spacious space. Tang Zhen walked around a few times and did not find any traces of monsters. God knows where the Queen of the flashing gold race had taken those monsters.

After confirming that there was no abnormality on the fourth underground floor, Tang Zhen checked the passage to the fifth underground floor and was surprised to find that the passage was not closed!

Tang Zhen was overjoyed. This way, he didn't have to wait for the cooldown and his investigation speed could be much faster.

After carefully entering the fifth underground floor, Tang Zhen could smell the unique smell of monsters. It seemed that there should be monsters appearing on this floor!

What Tang Zhen didn't expect was that there still weren't any monsters on the entire fifth underground floor. Instead, the ground was covered in traces of blood and minced meat. They were dried up and black, as if they had existed for a very long time.

Tang Zhen looked at the dirt on the ground. His expression was silent and he revealed a thoughtful expression.

The situation in the flashing gold race's sanctuary was really strange and completely beyond Tang Zhen's expectations. Could it be that the Queen of the flashing gold race was right? she had imprisoned all the monsters at the bottom of the sanctuary?

Unfortunately, Tang Zhen didn't believe the Queen of the flashing gold race. He thought that this woman was very scheming and that there must be some unspeakable secrets hidden in the sanctuary!

After stopping for over ten minutes, Tang Zhen headed to a deeper space once again, planning to explore it.

On the sixth underground floor, he found the same bloodstains. Compared to the situation on the previous floor, this floor was more messy. Many metal objects had traces of fighting and cutting.

These traces clearly indicated that an unusually intense battle had taken place here!

Tang Zhen had a faint guess in his heart. However, he needed more evidence to prove it. Therefore, Tang Zhen continued to head deeper into the forest.

Like a Night Walker, he was passing through the gloomy ghost's domain. He passed through the water supply area, the energy area, the living area, and many areas with unknown uses. Tang Zhen was already close to the bottom of the sanctuary.

During this time, he did not encounter a single monster, but more and more clues supported his guess, which made his face more and more gloomy.

The Queen of the flashing gold race didn't know what was good for her. She must have set a trap for him.

"Ka BA!"

A soft sound was transmitted over, causing Tang Zhen, who was moving forward, to stop in his tracks. His eyes were fixed in the direction of the sound.

A glittergold race monster was slowly walking along the passage. It was wearing a set of soft armor-like clothing, and its expression was ferocious and terrifying. It seemed no different from an ordinary monster.

In the monster's hand, there seemed to be a stack of golden paper, which was full of runes and patterns.

Tang Zhen hid in the dark and quietly looked at this monster. He felt that this monster was not simple.

If one looked closely at the monster's eyes, they would be able to discover something different. This was because the monster's eyes were constantly moving, and they shone with the light of 'wisdom'.

After seeing the performance of this flashing gold tribe monster, Tang Zhen remembered that the Queen of the flashing gold tribe had once mentioned that there were other flashing gold tribe people who had retained their intelligence like it. It seemed that this guy was one of them.

Tang Zhen didn't take any action. Instead, he allowed the flashing gold tribe monster to walk past him. The situation was still unclear, so it wasn't wise to act rashly.

After the flashing gold tribe monster walked past, Tang Zhen continued to move forward. However, this time, he was more careful to avoid being discovered by the flashing gold tribe monsters.

After walking for about twenty minutes, Tang Zhen once again entered the space of the next level.

This space was different from all the other spaces above. It was much larger, but in this space, there were all kinds of mechanical marionettes lined up in rows. The small ones were only the size of a fist, while the big ones were four to five meters tall. They were fully armed and looked majestic!

Tang Zhen carefully approached one of the mechanical puppets and used the purple electric short sword to cut it a few times. The Golden outer shell of the mechanical puppet was peeled off. At the same time, his fingers hooked into the inner part of the mechanical puppet, and a Golden Disc embedded with several level two brain beads slid into his palm.

Tang Zhen carefully studied the Golden Disc and found that these level two brain beads were firmly fixed on it. At the same time, the disc was densely covered with golden wires. When placed into the puppet's body, these wires would connect to the wires inside the puppet.

The design was simple and clear, and it was easy to tell that the power source of these puppets came from their brains!

Tang Zhen secretly sighed. The flashing gold race was indeed powerful. They had actually modified their puppets and used the energy of their brains on the spot!

Tang Zhen coldly looked at the huge number of mechanical puppets and a mocking smile appeared on his face. He had now completely figured out the plan of the Queen of the flashing gold race.

a woman's heart is the most vicious. This Queen of the flashing gold race is quite a character. However, isn't she afraid of losing and not being able to recover by betting the fate of her entire race? "

Even though Tang Zhen had already mentally prepared himself, he still felt fear in his heart after he had seen all the types of mechanical puppets. He could completely imagine the scene when these puppet army appeared on the ground.

To the Holy Dragon City, it was a terrifying disaster!

Chapter 184: The wasteland tank and the revived teenager

On the Holy Dragon city's wide square, a row of crude and eye-catching modified war chariots were now neatly arranged.

Tai Seng led his large group of men and gathered together, surrounding the war chariot that Tang Zhen had brought back last night and clicking his tongue in wonder.

They were no longer strangers to cars!

Now, the Holy Dragon city's soldiers were all skilled at driving, so when they first saw these chariots, Tyson jumped on them and started the car skillfully, circling the valley five to six times.

After jumping out of the car, Tai Seng laughed out loud, saying that this car was prepared for war, and that it was a pleasure to drive it!

Tang Zhen watched from the side for a while before walking forward and introducing the functions of this modified war vehicle to everyone.

The modified tank could be equipped with a heavy machine gun, and there were firing holes on both sides of the carriage that could be closed. At the same time, the top of the carriage was sealed with dragon bones and steel plates, which were connected to the head of the tank. The Warriors needed to enter the tank through the rear carriage.

The modified war chariots could transport troops quickly and provide basic protection. They could also carry powerful weapons. Tang Zhen's goal had already been achieved by being able to do these.

Out of the 20 combat vehicles, 15 would be used for combat. The required ammunition and weapons would be carried by the combat vehicles.

Of the remaining five, two were fuel tank cars, one was a food supply vehicle, one was an ambulance, and one was a command vehicle.

The Holy Dragon City did not have many Warriors at the moment, and these chariots were enough for them!

The basic functions of the tank had been introduced. The next thing for the Warriors to do was to install the weapons and interior, and then carry out adaptive training.

The last time they were at the military base, Tang Zhen had gotten quite a lot of military equipment. Now, everyone was given a set. However, when these authentic equipment were worn by the Holy Dragon city's soldiers, Tang Zhen felt like he was looking at guerrillas.

look at the appearance of these guys. They are wearing leather clothes, jeans, combat boots, tactical vests, and Kevlar helmets. They are completely dressed like modern soldiers, but why do they have a two-foot-long self-made machete on their waist and four or five short javelins on their backs? is a rifle not enough for you?

This combination was fine, but what about the plate armor under the tactical vest? a bulletproof vest? And that Bone Cat bastard, can you f * cking throw away that shiny silver hat on your head? that's for matching armor, okay?

Tang Zhen was also drunk when he saw the creative mix-and-match style of this group of people.

He had no energy to complain about these people who were wasting good things. Tang Zhen asked Murong Ziyan to find a few skillful women and let them watch the battlefield medical rescue video brought by Tang Zhen. He was prepared to train them to become military doctors on the battlefield.

He had spent too much energy and money on this group of people. Tang Zhen was not willing to let this group of people die so easily. That would really be a loss.

Tang Zhen would try his best to do what he could. As for the results, Tang Zhen would not force it. Before the cross-plane Soul transmission experiment was completed, professional technical talents had always been the resource that Tang Zhen lacked the most.

He watched as a group of excited guys assembled weapons around the tank, and some even placed a huge six-horned monster's skull on the front of the tank, making the already wasteland-style tank look even more ferocious. It looked like a perfect match.

Tang Zhen no longer bothered with these guys and left the square. He walked all the way to the mother tree and checked the hanging fruits. Only then did he take out the purple lightning short sword and carefully cut open the outer shell of the fruit.

As the cracks on the fruit gradually widened, a green liquid like egg white flowed out, and at the same time, a healthy and muscular male body was revealed.

This was the soul host body that Tang Zhen had cultivated. There was no breathing and no soul. It was just an incomparably pure body!

Tang Zhen examined the body for a moment. After confirming that there were no flaws, he extended his hand and kept the body into his storage space. At the same time, he activated the transmission and returned to his rented house.

He took out a drink from the refrigerator and took a sip. Then, Tang Zhen changed into a white coat and walked into the basement while tightly locking the anti-theft door.

The materials for rebirth had already been prepared. Tang Zhen threw the cultivated body into the blood pool and then implanted the brain bead that stored the young man's soul into the body, directly activating the rebirth altar.

Tang Zhen was already extremely familiar with this rebirth secret technique. Even if he were to close his eyes, he would still be able to complete the entire step.

As the strange light disappeared, the body in the blood pool moved and slowly opened its eyes.

"If you're awake, then get up quickly. Go to the bathroom to take a shower and change your clothes."

Tang Zhen held a cigarette in his mouth as he glanced at the young man who had a blank expression and slowly said.

The young man stood up from the blood pool and felt the air he breathed in. He took another look at his almost perfect body, especially the swaying thing under him, and grinned.

Tang Zhen looked at the proud expression on the young man's face and could not help but mock, although that thing of yours can be used, it's a pity that it can't give birth. Other than making you feel good, its most important function has already disappeared.

The corners of the young man's mouth twitched. He silently went upstairs and washed himself. Then, he came down in loose clothes.

"Boss, what's going on?"

The young man sat opposite Tang Zhen. His face was filled with curiosity and joy.

Didn't I tell you that as long as you follow me, I can guarantee that you won't die? did you think I was bragging and turn a deaf ear to it? "

Tang Zhen looked at the young man and said in an unpleasant tone.

The young man smiled awkwardly and quickly explained, " "I was so shocked by the gold that you took out that I didn't hear what you said."

you're not scared out of your mind. You're just too greedy. It's just a few pieces of gold and you're already so flustered. I really don't know if choosing you back then was a wrong decision.

Tang Zhen shook his head with a regretful expression.

The young man quickly expressed his loyalty. boss, you have good eyes. Didn't I complete my previous missions well? this time, if it weren't for those guys who were determined to kill me, I wouldn't have been so cowardly.

Tang Zhen waved his hand and stopped the young man from speaking. He spoke in a deep voice,"I don't care about your past. From now on, you're a different person. Your past life has nothing to do with you.

The price of resurrecting you is not small, so I hope you do your best in your job. Otherwise, if I can resurrect you, I can naturally kill you!

Of course, I won't let you work for nothing. I believe you'll soon realize that money is just a set of numbers that keep increasing to you!"

After saying this, Tang Zhen waved his hand and over ten pieces of gold, which seemed to have been cut by a sharp blade, appeared in front of the young man. They were dazzling!

The young man estimated that the weight of the gold was definitely more than 200 kilograms!

take these gold when you leave. Then, you can gain a firm foothold in this city and work hard for me!

Tang Zhen thought for a moment before taking out a military pistol and a few magazines filled with bullets from his space and handing them to the young man.

When the young man was about to leave with his things, Tang Zhen suddenly thought of something and asked,"Oh right, I still don't know your name."

"I thought you wouldn't ask, boss. Just call me Feng!" The young man smiled bitterly.

"Okay, I know. You can go now."

Chapter 185: The destruction of the flashing gold race

Tang Zhen wanted to get rid of these puppets once and for all. Other than removing all the brain pearls that acted as their internal power source, he could also download an application for emergency use.

[ electromagnetic pulse bomb, destruction radius of one kilometer. Download cost: 10000 gold coins. ]

Tang Zhen had studied the structure of the puppets of the flashing gold race. After his analysis, the technology of the flashing gold race had many similarities with the technology of the original world, and the electromagnetic pulse bomb might be effective.

It was just that this application would only take effect after the puppets had started running. Now that all the puppets were shut down, Tang Zhen couldn't use it even if he downloaded it!

There was another way, which was to kill the queen of the flashing gold race and the others!

Without the glittergold race's control, these puppets would not be able to be activated. This was the most thorough solution.

However, if he were to get rid of this group of people, Tang Zhen might never be able to obtain the technology regarding the usage of the brain Pearl's energy. He might not even be able to make these mechanical puppets his own.

Tang Zhen felt very conflicted in his heart. This kind of technology that could transform the brain Pearl into a power source was too important to him. As long as he could master this method, he would be able to get rid of his dependence on the energy of his original world and gradually develop a brand new energy system!

After thinking for a long time, Tang Zhen finally made up his mind.

The disaster of the flashing gold race could not be left alive. Otherwise, they would only bring disaster upon themselves. Even if nothing happened this time, Holy Dragon City might be bitten by these guys in the future!

With the existence of an unstable factor like the Queen of the flashing gold race, Tang Zhen wouldn't be surprised no matter what they did.

As for the energy conversion technology, Tang Zhen believed that as long as he studied it carefully, he would eventually master it. After all, there was a pile of physical objects there, so reverse cracking should not be a problem.

In that case, let's start!

Tang Zhen selected an application from his list of applications and clicked on it to start it. At the same time, a low-frequency sound wave began to ripple in the fallout shelter.

This was not the first time Tang Zhen had used an infrasonic weapon. Therefore, he was extremely familiar with the might of such an application. It was an invisible blade that could kill without spilling blood. It could attack the most sensitive and fatal part of the enemy's body!

Because this application had the function of protecting the user, Tang Zhen did not need to worry that he would be hurt by the infrasonic waves. He only needed to wait for the results quietly.

The last time he heard the Queen of the glittergold race talk about the destruction of the sanctuary, he had a vague guess about the invisible 'devil'. It might be a kind of terrifying infrasonic wave, but the glittergold race did not understand this thing.

Compared to the technology of the original world, which was developing in all aspects, the glittergold race was somewhat biased. They were obsessed with the technology of metal machinery and had created metals similar to memory alloys, metal cloths with excellent performance, and mechanical puppets similar to robots.

However, in other aspects, the flashing gold tribe was very backward, only slightly better than the Aboriginals in the world of loucheng.

In other words, the flashing gold tribe was a pure metal civilization. They had a natural advantage, but they also had a fatal flaw. They could rise easily, but they could also be destroyed easily!

While Tang Zhen was thinking about this problem, the remaining glittergold clan members in the sanctuary under his feet were in extreme pain.

The glittergold clansmen who had just gathered together to discuss how to plot against Holy Dragon City suddenly felt their bodies trembling non-stop, and traces of dirty blood began to seep out of their orifices.

Their souls also began to tremble, and a sense of panic and madness overwhelmed them. It made them feel as if the whole world was spinning upside down, as if their souls would be completely destroyed in the next second.

This feeling was so familiar, and it made them extremely fearful!

It was the culprit who had killed the glittergold race in the sanctuary, the invisible and terrifying 'devil'!

At this moment, almost all the surviving members of the glittergold race were lamenting in their hearts, lamenting why the heavens were so unfair. Not only did the glittergold race encounter a catastrophe of extinction, but they had just had a chance to leave the sanctuary and return to the surface. Who knew that they would be entangled by this hateful 'devil' again?

Perhaps this time, the flashing gold race is going to be completely exterminated.

The Queen of the flashing gold race waved her hands in vain. The strange mask had fallen off, revealing her twitching and deformed face. The blood flowing out of her seven orifices made her look even more hideous and ugly.

The pain of the body and soul was nothing, because the torture of the resentment in the heart was ten times more painful than this!

Ever since the Queen of the glittergold race regained consciousness and found out that the sanctuary had been destroyed and all her people had died, she had been resentful. She hated the gods and all the living beings in this world who could live normally!

After being trapped in the sanctuary for so many years, the Queen of the glittergold race and her remaining subordinates had paid a huge price and finally confirmed that they had left their original world and were now in a world full of monsters.

Like them, the monster had a brain that contained strange energy.

Other than that, the glittergold race also discovered that the mechanical puppets they created were not affected by the rules and could move outside the sanctuary. However, because the mechanical puppets had to be controlled by the glittergold race at a close distance, the range of movement of the mechanical puppets was extremely limited.

The last time Tang Zhen was attacked by the bladed puppets on the second underground floor of the fallout shelter, it was actually the Queen of the flashing gold race who was hiding on the third underground floor and controlled the bladed puppets to do it!

The restrictions on the use of mechanical puppets made the glittergold race realize that they had to find a way to leave the sanctuary. Only then would they have the hope of rising again. Otherwise, they could only wait for the day of decay and death!

However, after experimenting for decades, they still could not find a suitable method. Instead, they accidentally discovered a method to convert the brain into power, which increased the combat power of the mechanical puppets by more than several times.

It was also because of this invention that the Queen of the flashing gold race killed all the zombies without intelligence, except for the monsters on the first floor, so that they could make their final contribution to the flashing gold race.

In fact, even if the Queen of the flashing gold race didn't do anything, these monsters would still devour each other, because they needed to eat too!

As for the massive amount of monster corpses, they were burned and converted into energy. Some of the corpses were used to feed a type of scavenger fly. Monsters also needed to eat, and what they ate were these fly eggs!

After many years, the new mechanical marionettes of the glittergold race were completed and placed in the bottom few floors of the sanctuary. The Queen of the glittergold race and her people continued to wait for the opportunity to leave the sanctuary.

After Tang Zhen appeared, the Queen of the flashing gold race knew that the opportunity she had been waiting for had finally arrived!

What Tang Zhen didn't know was that from the moment he entered the first floor, the Queen of the flashing gold race had been observing and plotting against him. Until the two of them reached an agreement on the third floor, Tang Zhen's every move in the sanctuary was under the surveillance of the Queen.

It was also because of this kind of constant surveillance that the Queen of the flashing gold race discovered many secrets about Tang Zhen. It also gave the Queen of the flashing gold race hope of escaping the sanctuary.

The soft cloth armor worn by the Queen of the flashing gold race could block Tang Zhen's detection, so Tang Zhen had never discovered the existence of the Queen. If it wasn't for the fact that the Queen had deliberately revealed a flaw on the third underground floor, Tang Zhen would never have discovered her!

The Queen of the flashing gold clan put on a good show in front of Tang Zhen. Although Tang Zhen was skeptical, he still cultivated the body with the greatest sincerity.

Tang Zhen was ready to fulfill his promise. The Queen of the flashing gold race also thought that the plan was going to succeed. She would immediately lead the mechanical puppet army to the ground and occupy the so-called Holy Dragon City. Then, she would restore the glory of the flashing gold race!

But why did the invisible demon reappear when the plan was about to succeed and wanted to take away the lives of it and its people again, taking away the last hope of the glittergold race's revival?

Her people were all dead, and the Queen of the flashing gold race felt that she was about to die as well. However, in her daze, she seemed to hear familiar footsteps. It should be the young man who had made a deal with her.

How did he appear here? did he discover the secret? when did he discover it, Yingluo?

The Queen of the flashing gold race had countless questions in her mind, but she could not ask them because a large amount of blood was spurting out of her mouth. However, the young man walked up to her and said in a mocking tone, "I know your plan, but it's a pity that you're destined to fail. Also, I was the one who released that 'demon' Yingluo!"

When the Queen of the flashing gold race heard this, her body trembled violently. She struggled to reach out to grab Tang Zhen, but her arm only reached out halfway before it fell limply!

The glittergold clan was exterminated!

Chapter 186: Emptying the fallout shelter

Looking at the Queen of the flashing gold race's twisted and unwilling face, Tang Zhen was speechless for a long time.

Originally, the foundation of cooperation between the two sides was very weak. After the Queen of the flashing gold race, Tang Zhen could only choose to fight. This was the result that Tang Zhen did not want to see the most.

Think about it, if the cooperation between the two sides was successful, Tang Zhen would obtain the technology of the flashing gold clan, and the flashing gold clan would get a chance to revive with Tang Zhen's help. What a win-win result!

It was a pity that things never went as one wished. Situations like the Queen of the flashing gold race's scheme, which ended up in vain, were not uncommon.

After all, the Queen of the flashing gold race had suffered the consequences of her own actions, and she could not blame anyone else!

The matter was over, and the glittergold race was history. What he had to do next was to clean up the entire sanctuary and rebuild his own underground city.

As for the original sanctuary of the flashing gold race, after Tang Zhen took out the cornerstone to build a new auxiliary city, it would disappear from this world and become history forever.

After Tang Zhen carefully searched the bottom of the sanctuary a few times, he finally found the foundation of the sanctuary. The Queen of the flashing gold race didn't touch it and just let it float in the middle of a room.

There were no powerful monsters guarding the foundation stone. Perhaps they had been completely cleaned up by the Queen of the flashing gold race.

The harvest of the brain pearls was not as much as he had imagined, because most of the brain pearls were used by the glittergold race to make mechanical puppets. Now, only a small portion was left, and they were placed in some metal boxes according to their ranks. Tang Zhen glanced at them and kept them all in the storage space.

Next, Tang Zhen began to search for the literature of the flashing gold clan. As long as it was metal paper with words, he put it all into his storage space.

These things were related to the technology of the flashing gold race, so Tang Zhen didn't dare to be careless. He thoroughly searched every corner of the bottom floor. After confirming that he didn't miss anything, he returned to the body of the Queen of the flashing gold race with satisfaction.

As the blade flashed, the brains of the Queen of the flashing gold race and her clansmen also entered Tang Zhen's storage space. However, he had stored them separately.

He had already gotten what he wanted, and now it was time to send people to clean up the place!

Slowly walking back to the surface, Tang Zhen informed the residents of the Holy Dragon City and asked them to organize a clean-up.

There were too many things in the fallout shelter. Tang Zhen estimated that it would take at least one to two months to clean up, and this did not include the metal puppets.

Fortunately, the flashing gold tribe had a special metal puppet transportation channel that could transport these metal puppets to the surface in batches. Tang Zhen had already figured out the use of this elevator-like transportation device. When the time came, they only needed to transport them up in a concentrated manner.

The residents who received the order immediately got busy. Because they would encounter strange things when they entered the building at night, they could only work during the day. Time was tight, and everyone was racing against time.

Seeing that almost all of them had been mobilized, but they still felt that there was not enough manpower, Tang Zhen felt that the Holy Dragon City should recruit residents again.

Under normal circumstances, as long as a city was announced to be recruiting residents, it would not take long for the Wanderers to swarm in.

However, the undead clan was wreaking havoc now, and almost all the Wanderers in this area had fled. Even if they sent out a message to recruit residents, it would probably not be very effective.

In order to raise people, they had to provide for food, drink, and accommodation, which was not a small expense. Therefore, the other towers were extremely strict with the number of residents and the qualifications to be selected. Those Wanderers who were lucky enough to obtain the preparatory qualifications were so excited that they were about to go crazy!

Tang Zhen, who had the support of the original world, did not have such concerns. He dared to take as many people as he could. Although he still had to rely on the resources of the original world, once the Holy Dragon City was on the right track, Tang Zhen would be able to get rid of his dependence on the original world, whether it was food or weapons.

When that time came, the original world's greatest use would be to provide a massive number of immigrants to the Holy Dragon City, making the Holy Dragon City even more powerful!

Tang Zhen sat on the grass under the mother tree and thought for a long time before he collected his thoughts. He began to think about how to store the huge amount of supplies in the sanctuary.

The flashing gold race's sanctuary was too big and there were too many things inside. In line with the principle of not wasting anything, Tang Zhen asked the residents to move out as much as possible.

Who would have thought that these residents would be worse than him? they were used to living a life without anything. In the eyes of these residents, they couldn't tolerate any waste. If they didn't move away all these good things, they would definitely not be able to sleep.

Therefore, even if Tang Zhen didn't give this order, they would have dug the ground three feet and moved the flashing gold race's sanctuary clean.

Tang Zhen watched as the residents moved the pure gold sculptures that weighed more than a ton to the ground. He couldn't help but admire their perseverance. Now, there wasn't even a piece of paper left in the places that they had cleaned up.

However, in this case, the material reserves had become a big problem. They couldn't just randomly throw them in the Holy Dragon Valley, right?

Tang Zhen thought for a long time before finally locking his eyes on the cliffs that provided the Holy Dragon City with a protective barrier. He wondered if he should open some caves in these cliffs so that he could store these resources.

Taking advantage of the abundant brain beads in his hand, Tang Zhen didn't hesitate and immediately activated the terrain transformation plug-in, starting to transform these cliffs.

This application could only be used for one minute a day, and it would consume a large amount of gold coins. Therefore, Tang Zhen had to plan it in his heart before he could start to modify it.

Tang Zhen's eyes swept around these cliffs. After he had a draft in his heart, he launched the application and began to quickly operate on the map.

With the activation of the application, the interior of the cliffs began to undergo earth-shaking changes. As long as Tang Zhen's finger passed through the three-dimensional image of the cliffs, a straight and wide giant cave would instantly appear under the cliffs.

These cliffs were all very high and wide. The caves that Tang Zhen had opened up had no effect on them. It was as if he had just drilled a hole in a huge rock. However, once one entered the ground, one would discover how wide the inside was!

After one minute, Tang Zhen had just finished opening up the cave he had designed. If it wasn't for the extremely fast hand speed of a rank 5 cultivator, Tang Zhen wouldn't have been able to complete the design before the time was up.

Looking at the cliffs of the Holy Dragon Valley again, one could see many holes at the bottom. Once one entered, they would find that the inside was extremely spacious. Moreover, the inside of the cave was not completely dark, because the sun was shining in through the holes above them.

After informing the Holy Dragon city's management of this news, Tang Zhen also joined the cleaning team. They kept the larger metal objects into the space and then placed them back into the cave.

With the addition of Tang Zhen, the residents didn't need to carry those heavy objects, so the carrying work doubled.

However, there were simply too many resources in the sanctuary. Even Tang Zhen, who possessed a terrifying speed, had to work for four to five days without his feet touching the ground before he could move all the heavy metal objects into the cave!

In the process of moving the goods, many residents had injured their hands and feet by the flashing gold tribe's artifacts. Some even had their heads broken. Tang Zhen felt that this could not go on. He had to provide the residents with basic labor protection.

Therefore, after carrying the heavy metal objects, Tang Zhen activated the teleportation and appeared in the rented house in the pickle nation.

Chapter 187: Girl-next-door! 1!

Tang Zhen planned to purchase some labor protection supplies this time. Because it was a small matter, he didn't need Xiao Feng. He could easily settle it himself.

In addition, Tang Zhen also planned to buy some meat and oil for the residents to improve their meals.

The food for the Holy Dragon city's residents was pretty good. In addition to a sufficient supply of rice and steamed buns, there were also many canned food, dried fish, and dried meat. They were all good things that Tang Zhen had transported back from the pier of the pickle nation.

However, he would definitely get sick of eating these things every day. Tang Zhen didn't know what other people were thinking, but he had eaten enough and didn't want to eat a single bite.

If Tang Zhen's thoughts were to be known by the residents of the Holy Dragon City, they might not say anything, but they would definitely think that the city Lord was not content.

Now, in the endless wilderness, where could one find a good place like the Holy Dragon City? not only did the residents have enough to eat, but they also didn't need to spend money. This way, the residents could save up the Jade coins they earned and go to the shops in the Holy Dragon City to buy some things they liked.

Different life experiences naturally led to different thoughts. This was a very normal thing.

Driving his own pickup truck, Tang Zhen directly rushed to the shopping mall. He didn't care what brand it was. As long as it was something he thought was delicious, he would throw it into the shopping cart in piles. The customers at the side stared at him and thought that they had never seen people buy things like this. Could it be that these things didn't cost money?

Of course, these things required money, but Tang Zhen wasn't short of money now!

After buying a large cart of food and drinks, Tang Zhen left the market. When no one was paying attention, he put these things into the storage space and began to buy raw meat, chicken and fish, as well as labor protection supplies for the residents.

Tang Zhen treated this purchase as a holiday and enjoyed himself.

When it was time to eat, Tang Zhen found a restaurant on the street. After ordering a few dishes, he buried his head and started eating.

Halfway through the meal, Tang Zhen's phone rang. He took it out and saw that it was an unfamiliar number.

Tang Zhen's phone number was very special. It was a messy combination of numbers and symbols. It was also encrypted by the [ all-purpose electronic kit ]. Other than people familiar with Tang Zhen, there was almost no possibility of a wrong call.

He pressed the answer button and a low male voice with a strong accent of the North Sea Alliance immediately came from the receiver. "Your Excellency, I am Pargo."

Tang Zhen placed his chopsticks on the table and softly said, what's wrong with you guys? why have you disappeared for so long? " you don't know, " Pargo said. some force in the ice Bear Alliance is after us, and we've just gotten rid of them. We're hiding in a primitive forest, and Mr. Ivanov is right next to me.

As soon as Pargo's voice fell, Ivanov's voice came from the phone. Your Excellency, I've underestimated my enemy this time. But don't worry, it won't take long for me to solve the problem, because I've already obtained the support of an important figure.

Ivanov talked for a long time, and Tang Zhen finally understood the cause and effect of the matter. To put it bluntly, it was the trouble caused by the magic soldier armor and the card's protective shield. Ivanov and the others were targeted by a high-level force of the ice Bear Alliance, who wanted to get these things into their hands.

Fortunately, Ivanov was prepared for this situation. Now that he had found a strong shelter, it would not be long before he could appear in public!

Tang Zhen wasn't too interested in these things. Whatever Ivanov wanted to do was his own business. Tang Zhen only needed to give him the most basic help.

Of course, this basic thing was also the most important thing to Ivanov!

After chatting for twenty minutes, Tang Zhen hung up the phone. Since he had confirmed that Ivanov and the others were fine, the stone hanging in Tang Zhen's heart was finally lifted.

Ivanov was a very important chess piece in his original world. Tang Zhen could not give up on him easily. In fact, Tang Zhen had already made a plan. If Ivanov still did not appear, he would personally look for him!

After receiving the good news, Tang Zhen's mood naturally became much better. He ordered two more dishes and slowly ate while drinking.

Unfortunately, Tang Zhen's meal was destined to be unable to be eaten in peace. The waiter had just served the dishes when Tang Zhen saw two people coming in from the door. He knew one of them. It was the girl from his neighbor's house. The one beside her was also a little familiar. It was just that Tang Zhen could not recall where he had seen her before.

The girl from the neighbor's house was clearly here for Tang Zhen. She pulled the arm of the girl beside her and directly sat in front of Tang Zhen's table. She said to him, I saw your car at the entrance just now, so I came in. Uncle, you disappeared for so many days, where did you go? "

Tang Zhen raised his head and smiled. I'm busy with my business. I just came back today. What are you doing? do you want to eat together? "

"Sure, Huiyan and I haven't eaten yet, so we'll help ourselves then!"

The girl winked at the girl next to her. The other person showed a helpless expression, as if she thought that this was not good. However, she could not resist her friend's constant eye signals, so she could only smile dryly and did not get up to leave.

Tang Zhen was indifferent. He called the waiter and ordered a few more dishes. Only after that did the three of them start to chat.

It was only then that Tang Zhen found out that the girl next door was called Jin mingzhen and her friend was called Lin Huiyan. They were currently in the same university and had a very good relationship.

After eating, Tang Zhen planned to leave, but who knew that Jin mingzhen would insist on shopping with him. Tang Zhen couldn't resist and could only follow along.

Ever since he came to the kimchi country, Tang Zhen had never seriously shopped once. Now, he felt pretty good to be shopping with two little girls, so Tang Zhen was not in a hurry to leave.

After walking around for a while, the three of them came to an arcade. The two girls immediately went in and chattered about what game they wanted to play. Tang Zhen wasn't very interested in this kind of thing. However, he couldn't resist the two girls 'pulling and pulling. Thus, he also went over.

In front of a shooting game machine, a few men immediately greeted Jin mingzhen and her partner when they saw them. They seemed to be familiar with each other.

When they saw Tang Zhen and the girl walk over, a blond man's expression turned a little off. He turned to Lin Huiyan and asked, "Who's that guy?"

It was obvious that this guy was interested in Lin Huiyan and even treated her as his exclusive property. That was why he was hostile to the strange man beside her. Now that he was speaking in such a tone in front of Tang Zhen, it was obvious that he had the intention of making things difficult for Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen also ignored this fellow. His gaze gently swept over his body and directly treated him like air.

As though he was provoked by Tang Zhen's attitude, the golden-haired man swept his gaze at the game console beside him. He raised his chin towards Tang Zhen and said, "Hey, uncle, do you dare to have a match?"

After he finished speaking, he raised the toy gun in his hand and made a provocative aiming gesture at Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen originally wasn't in the mood to pay attention to this guy with exuberant hormones. He was about to open his mouth to refuse, but who knew that Lin Huiyan, who had been quiet all the way, would suddenly walk up and place a toy gun in Tang Zhen's hand. At the same time, she smiled sweetly and said, come on, uncle! I believe you can win!

Tang Zhen was stunned for a moment. He turned his head to look at the golden-haired man and discovered that his expression was gloomy and his nose was almost crooked from anger.

Chapter 188: Helping in the battle (1)

"Ke ke," Tang Zhen laughed softly. He sized up the tall girl in front of him and nodded, since that's the case, let's have a competition. I'll say this first, you're not allowed to cry if you lose!

Tang Zhen's serious tone caused the two girls to continuously laugh. However, it also caused the golden-haired man to become even more infuriated. He coldly laughed and stood in front of the machine. There was a Fury suppressed in his heart. He thought that he would definitely make Tang Zhen lose all face later.

The game in front of him was his strong suit. Among the old players in the entire arcade, he was ranked in the top three. In the blond man's opinion, Zhen Tang would definitely lose!

Using what he was best at to defeat his opponent, only then could he show his excellence in front of Lin Huiyan!

When the game started, the golden-haired man aimed with both hands, appearing very professional. On the other hand, Tang Zhen had a relaxed expression. The pistol was held loosely by him, as if it would fall at any time.

The golden-haired man sneered repeatedly when he saw this. He had already started to imagine how he would use the sharpest words to ridicule Tang Zhen after he won the competition later.

"Swish!"

On the big screen in front of him, a door opened, and two zombies pounced out. The blond man pulled the trigger on reflex, but at this moment, two crisp "pa pa" sounds were heard, and the two zombies' heads had been blown up!

The golden-haired man was startled. He turned his head to look at Tang Zhen by the side, only to see the latter raising a gun with one hand and smiling at him in disdain.

"Wow, uncle's shooting speed is so fast!"

Lin Huiyan's exaggerated shout made the blond man even angrier, and his hands started shaking.

"Pa pa pa"

As the game progressed, the two of them continued to shoot at each other. Compared to the golden-haired man's nervousness and concentration, Tang Zhen appeared to be much more casual. However, for some unknown reason, the pistol in his hand seemed to have activated its automatic positioning. Every bullet would land on the monster's head.

It was fast and Swift, and none of the bullets missed!

Looking at the points obtained by the two, the gap was getting bigger and bigger.

The golden-haired man inadvertently saw Tang Zhen's points and was greatly shocked. At this moment, he finally realized that he had kicked an iron plate. He couldn't help but feel a little uneasy. How would Lin Huiyan look at him if he lost later?

Who knew that he would be so depressed after failing to act tough?

The game finally ended. Seeing the crazy number of points Tang Zhen obtained, the onlookers were so shocked that their mouths were wide open. This was because they had never thought that this game could still obtain such a high score!

A few men and women who were watching looked at Tang Zhen as if they were looking at a God. They were just short of pouncing over and asking to be taught by him!

Jin mingzhen and Lin Huiyan's performance was even more exaggerated, as if they were the ones who won the competition. They surrounded Tang Zhen and chattered non-stop, making the single dogs feel inferior.

The golden-haired man's face was gloomy and he did not say anything. He coldly glanced at Tang Zhen before turning around and leaving.

Tang Zhen looked at the golden-haired man's back and softly laughed. He thought in his heart, "I have only displayed a small portion of my strength. If I were to display all of it, I would definitely cause you to explode!"

After playing and making a scene, Tang Zhen planned to leave. The two girls also didn't plan to play anymore, so they followed him out.

As soon as they reached the door, the three of them heard the sound of a fight. Lin Huiyan listened for a while, then rushed over with an anxious expression. Tang Zhen could only follow when he saw this.

From afar, he could see a man waving his fist and fighting with seven or eight people. Tang Zhen swept his gaze over and was surprised to find that it was a familiar face. It was the young man whose glasses he had snatched and who had stolen the water tank from his fire truck.

The fellow who was fighting with him was not anyone else. It was the golden-haired man who was competing with Tang Zhen!

Lin Huiyan rushed over to protect the young man's back, loudly reprimanding the blond man. Unexpectedly, the blond man seemed to have turned his love into hatred. He actually laughed hideously and waved his hand, pushing Lin Huiyan to the side. The crowd once again swarmed forward.

Jin mingzhen hurriedly rushed over to help Lin Huiyan up, at the same time looking at Tang Zhen for help.

Tang Zhen was unable to turn a blind eye to the two girls, who were like helpless kittens. However, when he thought about how he had finally managed to get a day's rest, he ended up encountering so many terrible things, causing Tang Zhen to feel depressed in his heart.

Tang Zhen slowly walked forward. He extended his hand and picked up a young man. After which, he threw him to the side. A "Hua la" sound was heard as the young man was thrown a few meters away, knocking over quite a number of display items.

As the sound of collision was heard, the golden-haired man also noticed Tang Zhen. Jealousy flickered in his eyes. The golden-haired man immediately called three people and headed straight for Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen did not show any mercy when he attacked the golden-haired man, who had a bitter and hateful expression on his face. These four people had just rushed in front of him when Tang Zhen slapped each of them in the face. The four of them were slapped until they spun two rounds on the spot before they dizzily fell to the ground.

Just as they wanted to force themselves to get up, Tang Zhen pressed down on their bodies one by one. The four of them immediately cried out for their parents in pain and began to roll on the ground. In a short while, snot and tears flowed down.

When Tang Zhen had nothing to do and was reading books, he had once seen the meridian network diagram of the human body. He tried to use the energy in his body to break through the acupuncture points and found that it was very effective. It was just that different acupuncture points gave people different feelings. The intensity of the pain was also proportional to the energy that Tang Zhen injected.

The four guys rolling on the ground had to endure ten minutes of painful torture before they could gradually calm down.

This painful and miserable cry immediately startled the few people who were fighting at the side. When they saw the golden-haired man and the other three people rolling on the ground, they immediately abandoned the young man who had been beaten until his face was bruised and directly charged toward Tang Zhen.

When the young man who was being beaten up saw that it was Tang Zhen who came to his rescue, his face was filled with disbelief. He was about to jump up and say something, but Lin Huiyan grabbed his arm and kept wiping his nose with a tissue.

Tang Zhen was impartial towards the few people who rushed forward. He gave each of them a slap and then pointed at their acupuncture points.

The ground of the shopping mall was filled with snort worms rolling around and wailing like a large group of fat pigs waiting to be slaughtered. The sound was extremely ear-piercing!

Jin mingzhen and Lin Huiyan supported the young man with a bruised face as they walked over. When they saw Tang Zhen, their eyes were full of stars. "Uncle, you're really amazing. What kind of Kung Fu is that?"

After saying that, the two of them even stretched out their white and tender fingers and rubbed them together, occasionally letting out a burst of delicate laughter.

The young man with a bloody nose and a swollen face snorted, but he did not say anything. However, his constantly moving eyes betrayed him. It was obvious that he was also very interested in this.

we'll talk about this later. I'm ready to run. What about you guys? "

Tang Zhen turned around and walked outside as he spoke. The two girls hurriedly pulled the pig-headed young man and chased after him when they saw this.

While they were walking, Lin Huiyan said to Tang Zhen, "Uncle, you don't have to worry. Someone will help us deal with this matter. You're fine, so you don't have to worry!"

The pig-headed young man immediately added, " that's right. Don't be afraid. I'm the one who's going to teach that guy who's been bothering Huiyan a lesson. It's not your fault!

Tang Zhen was speechless. He thought to himself, "how can you tell that I'm afraid? I just don't want to deal with the kimchi country's police!"

Chapter 189: Big bear's talent

After walking out of the mall, Tang Zhen walked to his pickup truck and opened the driver's seat. He didn't expect the three people behind him to actually follow him into the car.

"Hey, I'm going home. Why are you following me?"

Tang Zhen turned his head to look at the three of them as he asked with a puzzled expression.

"Of course I'm hitchhiking. Uncle, you won't be so stingy, right?"

Jin mingzhen replied with a sly look on her face. At the same time, she blinked her eyes and looked at Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen silently turned his head and started the car. Very quickly, it merged into the rolling traffic.

The pickup truck arrived at the entrance of Jin mingzhen's house. The three of them got off the truck and headed to Jin mingzhen's house. At the same time, they invited Tang Zhen over to have a seat, but Tang Zhen politely declined.

After returning to his own house, Tang Zhen locked the door and activated the teleportation function, returning to the world of Loucheng.

After sending the food he bought to the dining hall to cook, Tang Zhen distributed labor protection appliances to the Holy Dragon City residents who were working. Then, he went to the old man who trained the ogres to see the progress of the training.

Tang Zhen saw an Ogre tied up in chains from a long distance away from The Taming site. The ogre was being led by a Big Bear and was wandering around the valley. Old Wan and a few Holy Dragon City residents followed behind, talking about something as they walked.

After seeing Tang Zhen come over, Big Bear pulled the ogre over as if he was presenting a treasure, and he couldn't stop smiling foolishly.

Big bear's height was already abnormal, but in front of the huge Ogre, he was as tall as a child.

However, as the big Bear pulled it, the ogre followed obediently like an obedient baby, giving off an extremely awkward visual impact.

Perhaps Tang Zhen had left a shadow of fear in the ogre's heart. After seeing Tang Zhen, the ogre seemed to cower and didn't dare to move forward. Da Xiong immediately became angry when he saw this. He kicked the ogre's legs twice, and the ogre followed him.

Tang Zhen, who saw this scene, could not help but sigh in his heart. If the size of the ogre was reduced by countless times, its current performance would be similar to that of a puppy!

'This old man Wan is quite resourceful. I'll tell Ziyan later to give them some appropriate rewards. If the effect of the domestication can be maintained, they can definitely be upgraded to a higher level as residents.'

Tang Zhen took the iron chain from Big bear's hand and gently pulled it. At first, the ogre seemed to resist, but after being kicked by Big Bear, it immediately became obedient.

Tang Zhen looked at this scene curiously. He turned around and asked old Wan TOU, what's going on? the ogres seem to be afraid of the bear.

Old wantou laughed and said, " you're right, my Lord. These ogres are really afraid of Big Bear. As long as Big Bear is angry, these ogres will immediately become obedient. There's also something strange about Big Bear. It seems like big Bear can understand the ogres 'language. I don't know what's going on.

This was a rare thing. He didn't expect da Xiong to have such an ability!

Tang Zhen looked at the big Bear that was feeding the ogres. He glanced at the bear's unusual size and recalled the bear's habit of eating brains. He could not help but think of a forbidden scene.

Could it be that the bloodline of the big Bear contained the genes of the ogres?

Shaking his head to drive away the strange image in his mind, Tang Zhen chatted with he Lao Wan for a while. After figuring out the progress of The Taming of the ogres, he began to study the custom weapons and equipment for the ogres.

Considering the magical power of the ogres and their strong recovery ability, Tang Zhen decided to equip them with heavy armor that was covered with sharp blades. Then, he would equip them with blunt weapons like maces to increase the destructive power of the ogres.

The Holy Dragon City was unable to make this kind of armor, so Tang Zhen had to take the time to go to the original world!

After leaving old Wan's place, Tang Zhen went to the mother tree again to check on the cultivation progress of Lisa and the other two.

Under the huge mother tree, Tang Zhen was surprised to see the pure man, yuelang, who had the elf bloodline and was more beautiful than a woman. At this moment, his eyes were closed with a pious expression as if he was communicating with the mother tree.

No wonder she didn't see him when she came back. It turned out that this kid had run here.

Tang Zhen walked forward and suddenly discovered that yuelang's body seemed to be flashing with light. From the signs, it was clear that he had successfully communicated with the mother tree.

Tang Zhen was both surprised and happy when he saw this. Although yuemang was a half-elf, he was also a resident of the Holy Dragon City. Tang Zhen was naturally happy that he could communicate with the mother tree because this meant that the Holy Dragon city's strength had once again increased.

However, for yuemang to be able to communicate with the mother tree so quickly, did it mean that the elf bloodline that worshipped nature was more suitable for communicating with the mother tree? and there was some kind of origin between the tree spirit tribe and the elves?

Tang Zhen didn't disturb yuelang, Lisa, and the other two. He turned around and returned to the tower. In the newly transformed study room, he began to read the books and materials of the flashing gold race.

As his level increased, Tang Zhen's analytical ability gradually improved and his insight became sharper!

Through the records in the books and Tang Zhen's experiments, he had basically figured out the principle of the lighting system in the flashing gold race sanctuary. The next thing he had to do was to lay the lighting equipment in the main locations of Holy Dragon City.

The energy used by the glittergold race came from a kind of transparent crystal. They put it into special metal equipment and produced a large amount of energy through special means. This energy was similar to electricity, but it did not need to be transmitted by wires and other conductors. Compared to electricity, it was undoubtedly much safer.

Only when it came into contact with a special material would this energy produce a continuous light. The lighting used by the glittergold race was made of this special material, and there were still some in stock.

The sanctuary would disappear sooner or later. Therefore, Tang Zhen ordered people to take down all the lamps and put them in the cave. They would only move them out when they needed to be used.

Tang Zhen was very free until Black Rock City asked him for help in dispatching troops, or until the kobolds recklessly harassed him again. He could use this time to renovate Holy Dragon City and make it more beautiful and neat.

Looking down at the sacred Dragon Valley through the map view, Tang Zhen began to plan. At the same time, he took out a pen and paper and recorded his thoughts.

As he thought about it, he recorded it down. Very quickly, Tang Zhen had written down a whole chapter. After carefully checking it, Tang Zhen walked to the Holy Dragon city's Square and shouted at Tai Seng, "Call your men over, we're starting to work!"

yes! seeing his boss in such high spirits, Tai Seng didn't dare to delay any further. He immediately called over all the soldiers who weren't assigned to defend the city and waited for Tang Zhen's orders.

When Tang Zhen saw that everyone had arrived, he ordered the residents in charge of managing the production tools to get pickaxes. After giving each person one, he directed everyone to dig trenches and level the soil. He also called all the foremen in charge of the Valley's construction and explained his construction plan to them in detail.

In Tang Zhen's plan, the entire front Valley would be installed with lighting devices, so the amount of work would be huge.

It was impossible for Tang Zhen to keep an eye on the construction all day long. It was also impossible for the soldiers to work all day long and neglect their training. Therefore, these jobs ultimately still needed the residents to complete them.

Therefore, before this, Tang Zhen must let the residents in charge of management figure out what they wanted.

After these people understood his thoughts, Tang Zhen would hand over the draft he had drawn to them. He would then have to travel between the two worlds as a Porter!

Chapter 190: The black-feathered Birdman that was blown up in the air

Since the work had been arranged properly, Tang Zhen naturally became a hands-off manager.

Just as he was about to return to his study to Continue reading and studying the glittergold race's cumbersome technology, a shrill alarm suddenly rang out, echoing throughout the sacred Dragon Valley!

Tang Zhen's heart tightened. This was an emergency alarm signal that would only be activated by the city guards when a major enemy situation was discovered.

Tang Zhen switched to the map and glanced at it. He then looked at the sky above his head and suddenly turned around to run straight for the city wall.

kill! Tai Seng roared like a tiger, and all the Holy Dragon City soldiers who were working immediately raised their weapons and ran toward the city wall as fast as they could, each of them filled with killing intent.

These soldiers were the most aware of how powerful the Holy Dragon city's combat power was. They were already doing a good deed by not causing trouble for others. Now, there were actually some ignorant fellows who came to attack them. Did they think that the Holy Dragon City was easy to bully?

Outside the Holy Dragon city's city walls, close to a hundred thousand monsters had lost their lives. Their battle results were clear, and it was definitely a real bloodbath!

At the top of the city wall, hundreds of soldiers in charge of defending the city had all entered battle-ready mode. Their eyes were fixed on the sky in front of them, because there was a large black dot flying over from far and close.

Tang Zhen had already clearly seen the appearance of the person who had arrived through the map's view.

It was a half-human, half-bird creature. It had huge black wings, a human body, and bird feet. It wore a black mask on its face, and a leather tube was tied to its abdomen, which was full of sharp javelins.

There were many of these black-feathered Birdmen. Tang Zhen estimated that there were at least a hundred of them. Once they formed an attack formation and threw javelins from the air, the killing power would be extremely terrifying.

It would be a nightmare for any defenseless ground targets to encounter these black-feathered Birdmen!

Tang Zhen's expression was solemn. After seeing the attire of these Birdmen, Tang Zhen was certain that they were not monsters but some kind of foreign race creature in the wilderness.

Looking at the direction these foreign tribes were heading, they were clearly heading straight for Holy Dragon City. What were their intentions?

the enemy can throw javelins from the air, so don't underestimate them. All of you go back to your rooms and hide. Load your weapons and get the anti-aircraft machine guns ready. Wait for my order!

After Tang Zhen gave the order, the soldiers on the city wall immediately entered their rooms. At the same time, hundreds of guns were pointed at the sky, leaving Tang Zhen standing alone on the huge city wall.

The group of black-feathered Birdmen quickly approached. When they were less than five hundred meters away from the Holy Dragon City, Tang Zhen already saw some of the black-feathered Birdmen taking out short javelins from their leather tubes and getting ready to throw them.

As expected, he didn't come with good intentions. Since that was the case, he didn't need to be polite.

Tang Zhen's face was cold. When these black-feathered Birdmen were less than fifty meters away from the Holy Dragon City, he suddenly swung his arm down and dodged to the side.

"Pfft! Pfft! Pfft!"

A few sharp javelins landed on the spot where Tang Zhen was originally standing. They were full of force and actually deeply embedded into the Rocky ground!

The Blackwing Birdmen had already begun their attack. A large number of short javelins poured down. However, before their javelins fell to the ground, a thunderous sound of gunfire rang out at the same time. The metal Torrent shot into the sky and hit the Blackwing Birdmen team.

In an instant, the entire sky was filled with black feathers and splattering blood. The screams of the black-feathered Birdmen were endless. Their broken bodies fell from the sky one after another, and then heavily fell to the ground, turning into piles of rotten meat.

A black-feathered Birdman held a short javelin in his hand, but before he could throw it, a rifle bullet blew up his head. The black-feathered Birdman's body trembled, and the javelin fell to the ground. Then, he fell like a stone and hit the wall heavily, staining the wall with blood!

From a distance, it looked like a strange, abstract rock painting!

Dozens of black-feathered Birdmen tried to throw their javelins into the rooms on the city wall after dodging the barrage of bullets. However, before they could get close to the city wall, a series of anti-aircraft machine gun bullets were fired at them. These black-feathered Birdmen were directly torn into countless pieces, and their flesh and blood kept falling on the roofs.

More than a dozen black-feathered Birdmen rushed over the city wall and were about to rush into the Holy Dragon Valley, but they were sniped by the thousand Dragons and the cultivators of the cultivator battle team one by one. Not a single one of them escaped!

Other than the dozen or so black-feathered Birdmen who were lucky enough to break through the blockade line, the rest of the black-feathered Birdmen were blocked by the barrage of bullets and could not move an inch forward. The Holy Dragon city's wall ground, which was originally very clean, was now covered with minced meat and blood mixed with feathers, looking very bloody.

The battle was extremely intense, but it was one-sided. The aggressive black-feathered Birdmen were completely destroyed in less than five minutes!

There were less than a hundred black-feathered Birdmen left in the dark sky. They were all dodging the bullets in panic. From time to time, some unlucky black-feathered Birdmen would be shot and fall. If they were unlucky enough to be hit by the anti-aircraft machine gun, they would explode into a cloud of blood mist in the air!

Sorrowful wails filled the air, and it was an unspeakable tragedy!

The black-feathered Birdmen, who had always regarded themselves as the overlords of the sky and looked down on the creatures on the ground, even slaughtering them as they pleased, had now encountered a group of humans who could easily kill them. This made them feel like their guts were being torn apart.

This strong contrast made them at a loss, and many of the black-feathered Birdmen were still unwilling to die.

The leader of the black-feathered bird men had rushed to the sky above the city wall several times in an attempt to kill the detestable human. He was the one who had given the order to attack just now. Furthermore, he had been looking at the noble dark wing clansmen as if they were pigs or dogs.

This kind of gaze made the leader of the black-feathered birds extremely furious. It swore that it would definitely kill this human and dismember his body into a thousand pieces!

With the support of his anger, the leader of the black-feathered birds finally reached the top of the city wall. However, before he could vent his anger, he saw the human raise his left arm and a white light shot out.

The leader of the Blackwing Birdmen felt a sudden pain in its body, and then its head was separated from its body. For the first time, it flew without the support of wings.

Seeing his clansmen falling from the sky, the leader of the Blackfeather Birdmen wanted to order them to retreat, but he could not make a sound.

“Bang!”

A large foot flew over and kicked the head of the leader of the black-feathered Birdmen away like a ball. Another black-feathered Birdman was knocked down in mid-air, and the two instantly exploded into a cloud of blood mist, floating below the Holy Dragon city’s walls.

Seeing that their leader had been killed in an instant, the black-feathered Birdmen who had managed to escape by luck did not dare to hesitate any longer. They immediately turned around and retreated in the direction they had come from. In their opinion, as long as they were further away from the city wall, the humans who could not fly would be helpless!

This time, the flying feather race had suffered heavy casualties. He must take revenge. When he returned to the tower, he must report to the master of Blackfeather city and gather a large group of Warriors to take revenge!

There were also the damned dog-headed people. Didn’t they say that they had already sent out a large number of troops to surround the human city? however, there wasn’t even the shadow of a dog to be seen. Were they toying with the dark wing tribe?

After flying a few kilometers away from Holy Dragon City, the black-feathered Birdmen who were lucky enough to escape with their lives heaved a sigh of relief. Some of the injured black-feathered Birdmen even began to bandage their wounds in the air.

Looking at the few tens of dark wing tribe members left, and then thinking about the spectacular scene of hundreds of their tribesmen brothers, the black wing Birdmen felt a wave of sorrow.

damn humans, we must take revenge. We must attack their city, lift them into the air, and throw them to their deaths on the cliff!

This was the black-feathered Birdmen’s favorite way of execution, and now it was all reserved for the Holy Dragon city’s residents.
