

Alternate 1871

Chapter 1871 Devil Devourer (1)

The mushy flesh and blood splattered everywhere and landed on the faces of several men and women who had forgotten themselves.

He reached out and touched it gently. He could smell the strong smell of blood. When he saw what was in his hand, he immediately screamed in horror.

The scream was like a signal, causing the entire factory to fall into chaos.

The reveling men and women were in a mess. The demonic servants picked up their messy weapons and headed straight for Tang Zhen's position.

Seeing that there was a fight, the men and women who had taken a large amount of forbidden drugs and were drunk stepped aside, whistling wildly and cheering loudly.

At this moment, they had not realized what would happen next. They thought that this was just an ordinary fight.

Perhaps the rioter's teeth would soon be knocked out, beaten up like a pig's head, and then thrown to the side of the road.

Just as they looked on expectantly, the well-built young man suddenly pulled out a gun and pulled the trigger at the man and woman who were walking towards him.

In the midst of the muffled gunshots, people fell to the ground one after another, blood splattering everywhere.

"Oh my God, murder!"

ah! someone exclaimed, and the curiosity and excitement of the onlookers were replaced by fear. They ran for their lives out of the door, afraid that bullets would hit them in the next second.

Who knew that at this moment, within the crowd, there would also be people fighting, and it was none other than Shi Gu and Xiao Yu who had followed closely behind.

Seeing that Tang Zhen had already taken action, the two of them did not hesitate and directly attacked the demonic servants hiding in the crowd.

"Bastards, kill them!"

After seeing Tang Zhen take out his demon hunting pistol and knock down a few of his subordinates in succession, the robust man on the factory floor coldly snorted and waved his hand at the magic servants beside him.

Unlike the demonic servants on the dance floor, the demonic servants guarding the brawny man all carried weapons like long swords and submachine guns.

After they received the order to attack, they immediately locked onto Tang Zhen and a dense rain of bullets continuously shot towards him.

Tang Zhen did not even look for cover. Instead, he took out two pistols from his storage equipment and fired as he moved.

None of the bullets that were shot at him hit his body. They all brushed past him.

On the contrary, the bullets he shot seemed to have eyes, and every single one of them was aimed at the demonic servants' heads.

Compared to the ammunition gifted by the Demon Hunter organization, Tang Zhen's bullets were more terrifying. They left a hole the size of a human head when they hit the body.

Although these demonic servants had strong physiques, they were unable to withstand such an attack. In the blink of an eye, the ground was covered with corpses.

In the middle of the arena, eroded bones and Xiao Yu were in a tough battle. They were facing an enemy that was more than twenty times their number. Even though they had the advantage in equipment, they were still in a precarious situation.

Tang Zhen didn't intend to help them. Instead, he walked up the factory step by step and left all the demonic servants to the two of them.

Under such circumstances, the two of them had no other choice but to fight to the death.

Tang Zhen's words were still ringing in their ears. If they didn't kill these demonic servants today, the two of them would be the ones to die.

The adversity of life and death was also a trial.

The miserable shrieks from the fighting below were unending. Tang Zhen had already walked to the top of the factory and coldly looked at the brawny man who had stood up from the sofa.

There were a few women's corpses that had been sucked dry. Due to the urgency of the situation, the burly man had no time to slowly enjoy his prey.

The brawny man held a double-edged battle axe that was cast with a skull in his hand. He sized up Tang Zhen without blinking and asked with an ice-cold voice, "Kid, did no one tell you what this place is?"

Tang Zhen merely laughed coldly. The strong man in front of him was merely a vicious dog guarding the door. He was too lazy to talk nonsense with the other party.

Seeing that Tang Zhen was ignoring him, that burly man laughed savagely as he waved his battle axe and hacked toward Tang Zhen.

it doesn't matter if no one told you. In short, don't think about leaving here alive today. You'd better become my food obediently!

Just as it swung its battle axe, green flames burned on the battle axe, revealing an evil aura.

This was a weapon given to him by his master. Even if a Demon Hunter were to be slashed by it, they would definitely not be able to escape death.

The brawny man had the confidence to guard the entrance of the demon lair with the demon battleaxe in his hand, preventing outsiders from entering.

Of course, the main reason was that the Demon Hunters in this city knew the limits of the demon's territory and would not rashly enter an evil demon's lair.

Therefore, the brawny man subconsciously regarded Tang Zhen as a newcomer. Moreover, he was a newcomer who had no foundation but was eager to make a contribution. From the beginning, he had chosen the demon's nest as his mission target.

It had killed more than one of such fools, and their skulls, which had been eaten clean, were still placed in the house as souvenirs.

After today, another one would be added to its souvenirs.

"Get lost!"

The burly man's face was filled with ferocity. He had already imagined the scene of Tang Zhen being split into two. In the end, an explosive sound came to his ears.

The voice entered its ears, causing its vision to go black, and its body fell limply to the ground.

When it gradually regained consciousness, it saw a pair of feet walking in front of it. The battle axe that had fallen on the ground also gently floated into a pair of white palms.

With great effort, the burly man turned his head and saw the young man holding the demon battle-axe and chopping down at his head.

Then, his vision rolled and he saw a headless body with blood spurting out from the neck.

"This angle is so unique"

As this thought flashed through his mind, the brawny man saw the young man kick the sofa away, revealing the entrance to The Fiend nest hidden below.

The man opened his mouth and wanted to say something, but he soon felt that his vision was pitch black, and his consciousness was gradually blurred.

Tang Zhen looked at the whirlpool-like entrance of the devil nest. A trace of disdain flashed across his eyes. Soon after, he leaped into it.

The next second, he appeared in a greasy and slippery world, and the translucent mucus was everywhere under his feet.

In this world, there were countless bodies wriggling around in the mucus, looking like disgusting snot worms.

When they discovered Tang Zhen, this outsider, those disgusting snot worms leaped out from the mucus and flew over like flies that had seen blood.

you're just in time. I'll start devouring you guys!

...

Just as Tang Zhen's voice faded, rolling blood mist appeared out of thin air around his body, enveloping the demonic servants within.

Shrill screams constantly rang out. Any demonic servant that was enveloped by the red mist was instantly corroded into powder. At the same time, wisps of blood essence were absorbed by the red mist.

This was the devouring ability given to Tang Zhen by the cornerstone platform. Its original owner was killed by Lou Cheng's cultivator, and at the same time, the secret of the demonic plane was exposed.

When Tang Zhen carried out this mission, the cornerstone platform transplanted this ability into his body. In order to be able to use this ability, it also transformed his body.

Although that evil demon was powerful, how could it be compared to Tang Zhen? hence, this devouring ability would only become even more terrifying in Tang Zhen's hands.

If Tang Zhen was willing, he could kill all the living people in the entire city with just a thought.

Just as Tang Zhen was devouring the demonic servants, an angry roar suddenly came from the depths of The Fiend nest. Following that, a monster that was hundreds of meters long rushed towards him.

The monster's body seemed to be made up of the bodies of countless living people. It was like a giant Human Centipede, and it exuded an evil aura.

This ferocious and evil monster was the master of the demon nest, a demon whose strength was close to the king class.

After seeing the appearance of this evil demon, Tang Zhen suddenly pounced over. The rolling red mist instantly enveloped the evil demon.

Sensing the fatal danger of the red mist, the five human faces on the evil demon's head let out shrill screams and swam away without hesitation.

...

"You want to run? obediently die!"

As Tang Zhen's voice sounded, the red mist seemed to have a life of its own as it swept towards the demon.

In the blink of an eye, the demon was enveloped by the red mist. Then, like a worm thrown into a pot of oil, it rolled and struggled in pain.

Chapter 1872 The shocked Demon Hunter (1)

The red mist's devouring and corrosive abilities were extremely terrifying. In the blink of an eye, the demon's skin had already rotted.

Just like the most powerful aqua regia, there was almost nothing that could stop its destruction, especially the body of flesh.

The demon's powerful self-healing ability seemed to have completely lost its effectiveness. The White bones quickly appeared in the rotten flesh, and then decayed and broke at an extremely fast speed.

The devil was extremely terrified in his heart. His pained screams continued to ring out. There were even sounds of him begging for mercy mixed in. He hoped that Tang Zhen would let him off.

It did not understand Tang Zhen's background and why he had directly charged into its lair and attacked it without saying anything.

All of these were not important. The most crucial point was that Tang Zhen would really kill it!

He could conclude that he was definitely not Tang Zhen's match just based on this terrifying red mist. Therefore, he could only lower his voice and choose to beg for mercy.

If he hesitated any longer, he would lose his life.

Who would have expected that Tang Zhen would remain silent from the beginning to the end. He merely quietly looked at the devil that was continuously turning around due to the pain. It was as though everything had nothing to do with him.

"If you want to kill me, you have to pay the price!"

When the devil saw that Tang Zhen was unmoved by his begging, he knew that he would definitely die. Hence, he simply rushed forward and tried to die together with Tang Zhen.

The explosion under despair was actually quite terrifying. Even if the evil demon was already at the end of its life, it still couldn't be underestimated.

Who knew that the closer it got to Tang Zhen, the faster the corrosion speed of the red mist. The blood essence in his body was like a blood snake that was slithering as it was extracted one after another.

Its skin and flesh continued to fall off, leaving a trail of blood and flesh on its path.

By the time it was less than twenty meters away from Tang Zhen, it had already turned into a huge skeleton with rotten flesh hanging on it. It looked extremely hideous.

"Who exactly are you, Yingluo?"

After forcing himself to say this, the huge skeleton collapsed and was instantly engulfed by the red mist.

"I'm not willing to accept this, Yingluo"

There seemed to be another voice echoing in the surroundings, full of unwillingness.

"You don't need to know who I am. You just need to know that you are one of the prey."

Tang Zhen extended his hand and beckoned. The red mist that filled the sky rapidly compressed and gathered. In the blink of an eye, it entered his body and disappeared.

The red mist was his blood, and he could control it like his own arm. The more he devoured, the stronger he would become.

It was a pity that this evil demon's realm was far from his, and although he had gained something, it was quite limited.

Only by accumulating them would he be able to achieve the goal of this trip.

Looking at the mucus on the ground, there were some scattered items that were originally hidden in the demon's body.

As the demon disappeared, these items also fell to the ground and became Tang Zhen's spoils of war.

With a wave of his hand, Tang Zhen kept these items before turning around and walking out.

The demons in this lair had been killed, and the most precious thing had fallen into his hands. There was no need to waste any more time.

Without the support of the demons, the lair would shrink rapidly and disappear soon.

After walking out of the demon lair, a bloody scene appeared in front of Tang Zhen's eyes.

The ground was filled with mutilated corpses, and the ground was dyed red with blood and minced meat. The air was filled with a nauseating stench.

In the middle of a pile of corpses, rotten bones lay quietly on top of it, his body covered in terrible wounds.

Beside Shi Gu stood the female ghost Xiao Yu, who looked as if she would disappear at any moment.

"Well done. Here's your reward."

As Tang Zhen spoke, he threw two items into the hands of Shi Gu and the female ghost Xiao Yu.

Shi Gu weakly picked up the bottle in front of him. After carefully examining it, his originally listless eyes flashed with a trace of shock.

"This is the blood essence of the evil demon Pi Xiu!"

Shi Gu let out an excited growl, and without any hesitation, he stuffed the bottle into his mouth, crunching it into pieces with his teeth. His face was filled with joy and enjoyment.

"Thank you for your reward, Sir!"

After swallowing the bottle fragments and blood, rotten bones stood up with great difficulty to express his gratitude. He then pulled a half-dead body from the ground and began to devour it.

In the process of devouring, the wounds on its body began to heal, and its skin seemed to become tougher. A layer of scales even appeared faintly.

Its aura had also changed unconsciously. It now had an indescribable aura that made people feel extremely evil.

With this trace of demon blood essence as a guide, as long as corrosive bone cultivated diligently and devoured it, it would not take long for him to evolve from a demonic servant to a true demon.

Shi Gu had been dreaming of this day. He did not expect that he would realize his dream so quickly after following Tang Zhen.

Although he had almost died, it was nothing compared to the reward he had received.

Riches and honor were obtained from danger. As expected, the old ancestor did not bully the later generations.

After the female ghost Xiao Yu saw the changes to the bone corrosion, she turned to look at the item in her hand and realized that it was a Handful of Soul devouring sand.

Knowing how precious this item was, the female ghost Xiao Yu immediately ignited and absorbed it. Her originally illusory body also became more and more solid.

After Tang Zhen gave out his reward, he no longer paid attention to the demon and ghost who were cultivating. Instead, he checked the spoils of war that he had just obtained.

He found that although these items were rare, they were not too precious, and it was even more impossible for them to catch the attention of the foundation stone platform that held the treasure Mountain.

The cornerstone platform of the fifth battle area had made an agreement with him that the spoils of war would be split 30 – 70, which showed that these demonic items must have something special about them.

Although Tang Zhen was very curious, he did not spend too much time to investigate. The purpose of his trip this time around was only to increase his strength. The spoils of war were originally things that were not essential.

He fought for the 30% share of the spoils of war because he didn't want his efforts to be in vain. He just didn't want the cornerstone platform to take all the benefits.

Just as he was studying the demonic item, he suddenly heard the sound of police sirens. Then, he saw a group of fully armed police officers rush into the factory.

...

When they saw the remains of the dead bodies all over the ground, and the stench of blood that almost made people vomit the dinner they had last night, the military and police's expressions changed.

They had received a report that there had been a gunfight here, but no one had expected the scene to be so bloody.

How was this a gunfight? this was clearly a slaughterhouse!

However, when they saw the bodies, they immediately realized that something was wrong. The bodies were not of normal humans, but of ferocious monsters.

When it came to this kind of matter, it was no longer within their jurisdiction. Just as the officer leading the team was about to inform the headquarters, a group of people rushed in from the door.

These people were dressed in a different way. A few of them were carrying traditional cold weapons, the blades of which shone with a chilling light.

Through the badge on their chest, their identity could be confirmed. They were the Demon Hunters of this city.

Tang Zhen saw that a few of them looked familiar. It was obvious that they had just met at the Demon Hunter headquarters. He didn't expect that this group of people would also rush over after hearing the news.

Tang Zhen completely ignored them and continued to study his spoils of war. He wanted to figure out what the real-time platform was doing.

As they looked at the corpse on the ground and Tang Zhen, who was sitting at the highest position with an indifferent expression, the shock in the hearts of those demon hunters far exceeded that of the military police, who were at a loss.

They had been demon hunters for a long time, so they naturally knew what this place was. They usually stayed away from it.

...

However, no one would have thought that the terrifying demon nest in this city would be destroyed by a newbie who had just become a demon Hunter!

This matter had completely subverted their understanding and even made them feel somewhat incredulous.

Their existence was their reason. If an evil demon lair could be easily disfigured, the Demon Hunters would not have allowed it to exist for so many years. They would not dare to provoke it easily.

In the end, such a terrifying demon nest was razed to the ground by a newbie Demon Hunter with his two servants, a demon and a ghost, in half an hour!

Looking at the indifferent face of Tang Zhen, the Demon Hunters had the same thought in their hearts. Who exactly is this guy? Why was he so powerful?

Chapter 1873 The Demon Hunter who hugs his thigh (1)

Seeing the group of demon hunters appear, the military officer leading the team heaved a sigh of relief, a hint of relief flashing in his eyes.

The person who would take over had arrived, and they could finally escape.

Although he didn't know why the Demon Hunters appeared so quickly and what was hidden behind this matter, it had nothing to do with him, and he didn't want to figure it out.

The more he came into contact with this kind of thing, the more he knew how deep the water was, and he avoided it like the plague.

!!

To the military officers, this was no longer a battle scene, but a bomb that could go off at any time.

Even if it was a pile of bloody corpses, it was not something they could deal with. Who knew which corpse was poisoned, and a touch would take a person's life.

Don't think of it as an alarmist. Many of the demonic servants were like this, their bodily fluids carrying fatal toxins.

Therefore, in the eyes of many insiders, the corpses of demonic servants were seen as venomous snakes and ferocious beasts, and they were avoided like the plague.

In fact, these corpses were the source of pollution. Wherever they appeared, a plague would occur.

In addition, there were also some strange things that couldn't be seen or touched, which were even more difficult to guard against.

For example, curses, resentment, witchcraft, and the like.

If the demonic servant's corpse carried these items and caused his house to be in chaos, that would be truly unfortunate.

There had been an example of this in the past. A demonized innkeeper had killed a guest and created a "house of a thousand corpses", just so that he could become a demon.

In the end, he had only killed a few dozen people before he was discovered by a few military police on special missions. After a fierce battle, he was killed.

He thought that the matter was over, but who knew that the innkeeper would curse the military before he died and pester a few military police?

Needless to say, what happened after that made the few military police miserable. In the end, they asked for help from the Demon Hunter headquarters and were lucky enough to get rid of the entanglement.

After this incident, everyone had learned their lesson. They knew that after encountering such an incident, they absolutely couldn't act tough blindly. It was best to hide as far away as possible.

As a result, it gradually became a custom that the military and police would immediately inform the Demon Hunters when they encountered such an incident and let them handle it.

There were specializations in every profession, and demon hunters were made for this, so there wouldn't be any major problems if he handed it over to them.

everyone, listen up! Immediately head to the outer perimeter and be on guard duty. No one is to return without orders!

The military officer was also a decisive person. After making up his mind, he immediately ordered all his team members to leave the factory and then sealed off the outside.

At this time, if anyone dared to break in without permission, they would definitely be attacked, and might even be killed on the spot.

As for the mess in the factory, the Demon Hunters would be in charge of it. They just had to leave after they were done.

Even the records of this operation would be taken care of by someone. It had nothing to do with them.

“Sir Tang Zhen, may I know if you need our help to clean up the battlefield?”

A Demon Hunter took the initiative to step forward and loudly asked Tang Zhen. His attitude was humble and his tone carried a trace of respect.

Tang Zhen raised his head, swept his eyes over the Demon Hunters, and gently nodded.

“Thank you, everyone.”

you’re too kind, Sir. Just leave everything to us. We guarantee that there won’t be any mistakes!

The Demon Hunters in the factory answered at the same time. At this moment, the surprised expression on their faces had been replaced by flattery and admiration.

Although they didn’t know what the cause of this matter was, the result was already out. If Tang Zhen wasn’t willing to say it, they wouldn’t ask.

The act of cleaning up the battlefield at this time was only a spontaneous action. The purpose was to please Tang Zhen.

One had to know that there were many good things in this fiend nest. It would definitely take a lot of time to clean it up.

Tang Zhen only had two subordinates. At this moment, they were also injured. They were simply unable to handle it.

It wasn’t a bad thing for a Demon Hunter to take the initiative to help under such circumstances. It could save Tang Zhen a lot of trouble.

These were all secondary. The most important point was that Tang Zhen’s strength was definitely unfathomable since he was able to destroy a demon’s lair by himself.

A person like him was destined to be famous and become a hot figure.

He had just become a demon Hunter, so he probably didn’t have any useful helpers. If he could hug onto such a golden thigh in time, he would definitely obtain unimaginable benefits.

To be able to rush over as soon as he received the news was clearly an extremely wise thing to do. Otherwise, he would miss this opportunity.

Just as the Demon Hunters dispersed, rotten bones and little Jade stood up, their bodies exuding an aura that made their hearts palpitate.

Not only had his original injuries completely healed, but his strength had also advanced a step further. He was only lacking a suitable opportunity to break through.

The Demon Hunters at the side saw this and couldn’t help but feel envious.

Demonic servants and female ghosts who could break through and advance at any time were definitely the best assistants for demon hunters.

The Demon Hunter with sharp eyes had already noticed that a trace of evil demon's aura had appeared on Shi Gu's body. It was obvious that Tang Zhen had rewarded him with the evil demon's blood essence.

If Shi Gu were to fight Mohawk again, he would probably be able to completely crush him!

Having an evil demon as a servant was the dream of all demon hunters, but the ones who could really do this were all demon hunters who were famous all over the world.

Tang Zhen had just become a demon Hunter, and his demonic servant still had the potential to evolve into an evil demon. This would definitely attract the envy and envy of countless people.

Although they were envious, no one dared to have any evil ideas. His act of clearing out the demon nest today was enough to deter countless people with ulterior motives.

For example, the windbreaker-clad man from earlier. Unless he had the confidence to kill Tang Zhen, he would definitely run as far away as possible and would definitely not dare to take the initiative to provoke Tang Zhen.

In fact, when this matter was spread out, the man in the windbreaker would be in a constant state of anxiety. He was afraid that Tang Zhen would come to his door and settle the enmity between the two of them.

Tang Zhen's performance today was enough to show that he didn't go all out when he was at the Demon Hunter headquarters.

Perhaps in his eyes, the man in the windbreaker was just a clown, and he was simply too lazy to pay attention to him.

"Your Excellency, what should we do next?"

Shi Gu walked in front of Tang Zhen. His eyes were filled with gratitude as he took the initiative to request for the assignment of tasks.

...

The female ghost, Xiao Yu, followed him. At this moment, she looked no different from an ordinary person, but the ghostly Qi around her was getting thicker and thicker. The surrounding area within a one-foot radius was filled with cold air.

There was even a layer of white frost on the spot where she was hovering, looking crystal clear.

the entrance to the demon nest is behind me. I've killed all the demons and demonic servants inside. You two go in and search again to see if there are any valuable items left.

If anything happens, you can ask me for help in time. Of course, don't let such things happen and try to solve it yourself."

Tang Zhen's plan was to sweep the demon nests everywhere. This also meant that in the following days, high-intensity battles would occur from time to time.

If one didn't have sufficient strength, they might lose their lives in a battle.

Although he would only become stronger after following Tang Zhen, it was not impossible for him to fall in the process of becoming stronger.

However, one thing was certain. As long as Shi Gu and little Jade were still alive after Tang Zhen had achieved his goal, they would definitely obtain unimaginable benefits.

Therefore, Tang Zhen had asked Shi Gu and the others to take the initiative to face danger. This was to temper their combat strength and eventually become his left and right arms to solve those scattered problems.

Chapter 1874 Exchange of interests (1)

Hearing that Tang Zhen had asked eroding bones to clean up the devil nest, the busy bounty hunters turned around at the same time, their eyes revealing a trace of anticipation.

Everyone knew that the demonic servants in the factory were just small fry. The true elites were in The Fiend nest.

Demonic servants that could be taken into a fiend nest were far more valuable than these minions. Their strength would slowly increase after living in The Fiend nest for a long time.

The former was only a handyman, while the latter was a personal guard. The value of their heads was a huge difference.

!!

In the eyes of demon hunters, those demonic servants represented actual points. If they could go in and harvest some, they would definitely become rich overnight!

The opportunity to make a fortune was right in front of them, so how could they not be tempted?

However, the problem was that the entire fiend nest was taken by Tang Zhen, so the spoils of war naturally belonged to him alone.

Who would be willing to take out their wealth and give it to a group of people who had no relationship with them?

It was reasonable for Shi Gu and Xiao Yu to clean up The Fiend nest, but it had nothing to do with them.

When they encountered such a situation, the Demon Hunters could only watch the fun, and could only feel envious.

Just as Shi Gu and little Jade were about to take action after receiving the order, Tang Zhen opened his mouth once again and stopped the two.

the area of The Fiend nest is very large. If it's just the two of you, I don't know how long it will take to clear it. I have to find some helpers for you.

After Tang Zhen finished speaking, he turned his head and looked at the Demon Hunters who had anticipation on their faces. "If it's convenient for you, you can follow my two servants to clean up this fiend nest.

After the cleaning is done, I will take out 5% as a reward. Please don't think it's too little."

When those demon hunters heard Tang Zhen's words, each and every one of them was abnormally excited. How could they still refuse?

For such a large fiend nest, five percent of the profits was already quite considerable. They could not have accumulated such wealth even if they had worked hard for more than ten years.

"Thank you sir Tang Zhen. If there's anything I can do for you in the future, please feel free to ask."

Those with discerning eyes could see that Tang Zhen's action was to give a favor. Otherwise, so what if he was a little slower in clearing the devil nest?

Under such circumstances, he would be willing to clean up for ten to twenty years.

Now that they had accepted the benefits, they had to accept this favor. Not to mention following Tang Zhen's lead, they had to advance and retreat together with him.

Moreover, with Tang Zhen's strength, why would he need to worry about lacking followers? after today's matter, he only needed to wave his arm and his followers would be as numerous as the clouds.

They were also secretly in admiration of Tang Zhen's forthright and magnanimous attitude. Giving away 5% of the profits just like that was indeed the skill of a person who achieved great things.

How would these demon hunters know that Tang Zhen didn't care about the items in the demon nest at all? the truly valuable items had already been put away by him.

He didn't want to waste too much time either, so he decided to use some benefits to buy people's hearts and increase the search progress.

It was only 5% of the harvest, so he didn't care about it at all. If there was a need, he didn't mind even if he had to abandon the entire fiend nest.

The vision of an ordinary cultivator couldn't be used to measure the vision of a battle zone leader. With their wealth, they wouldn't be tempted by such a small profit.

Of course, he couldn't just throw it away, or else it would inevitably arouse suspicion from outsiders, because to a Demon Hunter, the wealth of an evil demon's lair couldn't be rejected.

Tang Zhen was a Demon Hunter now, so he naturally had to learn to do as the Romans do.

Bone corroding little Jade was filled with excitement as she led a group of similarly excited demon hunters into the demon lair.

Although it was called a demon's lair, it was heaven to them!

Tang Zhen, on the other hand, continued to guard the entrance of the demon nest, acting as a temporary gatekeeper to prevent demon hunters from taking the opportunity to sneak in.

He estimated that it wouldn't take long for demon hunters to gather here and come to find out what was going on.

A city's fiend nest being completely annihilated was no small matter. It would definitely cause a stir.

Sure enough, it didn't take long for the Demon Hunters to arrive one after another. They looked at the traces of battle left in the factory with complicated expressions.

This was especially the case when he saw Tang Zhen sitting on top of the factory building with a smile that was not a smile. Behind him was an entrance with surging demonic Qi. He immediately understood what he wanted to do.

The wealth of a demon nest was enough to make demon hunters go crazy. The purpose of Tang Zhen sitting here was clearly to deter those who had bad intentions.

If you want to take advantage of me, you'll have to beat me first.

If it wasn't for the news that Tang Zhen had single-handedly taken down this demon nest, the Demon Hunters would have already swarmed over.

However, at this moment, no one dared to act rashly, because the person in charge did have the qualifications.

Tang Zhen was able to barge into The Fiend nest alone and kill The Fiend and thousands of demonic servants. This was enough to prove his strength.

In the entire city, it could be said that no one had such strength, enough to look down on all the heroes.

Since everyone didn't even dare to provoke the devil, how could they fight against Tang Zhen who had killed the devil? rashly going up would only be courting death.

A strange scene appeared. Tang Zhen sat alone in the air of the factory and smiled at the densely packed demon hunters.

Even though The Fiend nest was right behind him, no one dared to take a step closer. This scene made people sigh inwardly. This was how a man should be.

Unknowingly, more and more demon hunters had gathered here. They had all rushed to the scene as soon as they heard the news.

Some people were whispering, some had gloomy expressions, and some were observing carefully.

"Did you guys see the dozen guys who came first? where did they go?"

"I'm also looking for them. They should have arrived earlier than us, so I shouldn't have lost sight of them, right?"

they must have followed Tang Zhen's demonic servants into the demonic nest. These guys are really lucky. Tang Zhen will definitely not let them work for nothing.

it's a pity that I missed a good opportunity. If only I had come earlier.

After thinking of the specific reason, some people sighed, while others' eyes lit up.

A few demon hunters who usually moved together lowered their heads and discussed. After that, they walked out of the crowd and slowly walked in front of Tang Zhen.

“Sir Tang Zhen, we don’t know if you lack manpower to clean up the devil nest. We brothers are willing to serve you.

Don’t worry, we won’t take anything for ourselves. After we’re done cleaning, you can check it as you wish.”

...

Tang Zhen swept his gaze over the few demon hunters and nodded with a faint smile.

“I am indeed lacking helpers. If you are willing to help, you can enter The Fiend nest to find my demonic servants.

We’re all smart people. I don’t think I need to tell you what to do, right?”

A few demon hunters immediately had joyous expressions on their faces when they heard this. They bowed to Tang Zhen.

don’t worry, Sir. We know what to do. After this, we will do our best to follow you!

After expressing their gratitude, a few demon hunters quickly entered the entrance of The Fiend nest, their faces filled with urgency.

When the onlookers saw that someone had obtained Tang Zhen’s permission and successfully entered The Fiend nest, they couldn’t help but feel envious and jealous.

Not to mention Tang Zhen’s promise of 5% of the profits, just entering the devil nest itself was a matter of great benefit.

One had to know that The Fiend nest was a special small world. The heaven and earth energy inside was far denser than the outside world, and the longer one stayed inside, the greater the benefits.

This was especially true for demon hunters whose abilities were stuck at a bottleneck and couldn’t improve for a long time. This kind of evil demon lair was a pure paradise.

Perhaps after entering it once, one would be able to break through to a higher realm under the stimulation of the rich world Energy.

...

Facing such a temptation, almost no demon Hunter could resist it.

However, there was no free banquet in the world. Everyone knew that one had to accept Tang Zhen’s favor to enter The Fiend nest.

The so-called 5% reward earlier was actually just a way to make everyone look good and show Tang Zhen’s loyalty.

For those demon hunters who were at a bottleneck in their cultivation and urgently needed to enter the demon nest, they were willing to even pay for it.

No one was a fool. What they could think of, Tang Zhen could naturally think of it as well.

The purpose of him sitting here was obviously to make a deal with those demon hunters. Whoever wanted to enter the demon nest would take the initiative to come and negotiate with him.

He wanted to gain something without paying, and he wanted to take advantage of everything. How could there be such a good thing in this world?

After figuring out these key points, the Demon Hunters no longer hesitated and made up their minds.

The opportunity to enter The Fiend nest was hard to come by. If he missed it this time, who knew when he would meet it again?

Even if they had to pay a price for it, it was nothing compared to the benefits they could obtain. However, it was nothing.

The cultivation of cultivators required opportunities. Now that the opportunity was placed in front of them, if they were still hesitant, what qualifications did they have to face greater challenges?

Chapter 1875 Winning over the hearts of the people (1)

Sir Tang Zhen, I'm willing to pay 1000 points in hopes of obtaining the opportunity to enter the Devil nest.

Very quickly, a Demon Hunter stood up, hoping to exchange with Tang Zhen by paying points.

If Tang Zhen was a veteran Demon Hunter in this city, he would be able to recognize the identity of the person in front of him. He was very close to the man in the windbreaker.

The conflict between the two of them had already spread within a short period of time. It was still unknown how the man in the windbreaker would deal with it, but this friend of his was unwilling to owe Tang Zhen a favor.

!!

Otherwise, if the enmity between the two could not be resolved, he would be caught in the middle and it would be very awkward.

However, he didn't want to give up the opportunity to enter The Fiend nest, so he thought of this method. Whether it worked or not, he had to try.

If Tang Zhen were to agree, it would be equivalent to a fair trade. Both parties would not owe each other anything.

How could Tang Zhen, who had only taken down a fiend nest, lack these points? he did not even care about the points.

The other party did not understand the situation and tried to use this method to make a deal with him. Clearly, he had made the wrong decision.

Sweeping a glance at the Demon Hunter who proposed the exchange, Tang Zhen shook his head. There was a trace of coldness in his smile.

“In your eyes, am I the one who is lacking 1000 points?”

The cultivator who proposed the exchange smiled awkwardly. However, his rejection was already very obvious.

However, he did not give up and continued to ask, “Sir Tang Zhen, please state clearly what items I need to pay in exchange for entering The Fiend nest.”

After all was said and done, he did not want to owe Tang Zhen a favor and only wanted a fair exchange.

Tang Zhen snorted softly when he saw that the other party did not know what was good for him. He used an indifferent tone to say, “In terms of strength, you are inferior to me. In terms of wealth, you are also inferior to me. Under these circumstances, what right do you have to make a fair deal with me?

In the end, you just want to take advantage. You want to take advantage of me, Tang Zhen!

I can tell you clearly that if you want to enter the Devil nest today, you must owe me, Tang Zhen, a favor.

If you want to take advantage of me and don’t want to owe me a favor, then please get as far away from me as you can!”

Tang Zhen’s words were powerful and resonated in the factory. The Demon Hunter’s face turned red and he was so embarrassed that he couldn’t say anything.

When the other demon hunters heard this, they all had complicated expressions on their faces, and their hearts were filled with mixed feelings.

Some people who originally had similar thoughts could only extinguish such thoughts. They understood that Tang Zhen was not someone who was so easy to fool.

Where there’s a gain, there’s a loss. How could there be so many advantages in this world?

Since Tang Zhen had already made things clear, this matter had already become a transaction. At the same time, it had also become much simpler.

Very quickly, someone took the initiative to walk in front of Tang Zhen and expressed that he wanted to obtain the opportunity to enter the demon nest. He didn’t say anything extra.

He didn’t say anything, and Tang Zhen didn’t say anything. However, both of them knew what was going on.

With the first person taking the lead, more demon hunters quickly came forward. They didn’t want to waste this rare opportunity.

It didn’t take long for nearly half of the Demon Hunters to enter the demon nest. The remaining ones either didn’t need this opportunity or didn’t want to owe this favor.

They were afraid that Tang Zhen would have a certain death situation waiting for them. Giving up an opportunity while leaving behind a chance to save their lives seemed to be more secure.

Tang Zhen didn't bother about these demon hunters. In his plan, these demon hunters were actually dispensable.

With them, he could build up his reputation and help with trivial matters. Without them, it would not delay his plan to clean up The Fiend nest.

To put it bluntly, Tang Zhen was just borrowing power. These demon hunters had been in business for many years. Each of them had their own forces and channels. When gathered together, they were not a small force.

If it could be used by Tang Zhen, it would naturally save a lot of time and speed up the execution of his plan.

In addition, the more people who followed him, the less people would dare to cause trouble, which was also one of the benefits.

After some time, the officials in charge of managing the Demon Hunter headquarters were all present. They were not here to fight for benefits, but to investigate the scene and evaluate Tang Zhen's merits.

For such a huge harvest, it was the most reasonable to settle it on the spot. After the settling was completed, the items that Tang Zhen was willing to hand over would be directly stored in the warehouse.

After seeing Tang Zhen, these officials couldn't help but encourage and compliment him with a very enthusiastic attitude.

Tang Zhen's actions were obvious to all. Everyone had a rough guess of his strength.

For a Demon Hunter with such a bright future, under the circumstances where there were no disputes of interests, it was natural to get closer to him.

Tang Zhen was not unfamiliar with this kind of matter. Since others had expressed goodwill to him, he must respond regardless of whether it was sincere or not.

For a time, the atmosphere of the scene became extremely harmonious, and the sound of laughter was endless. Even the original bloody smell had been diluted by a lot.

Although those officials said that it was just routine work, they were really happy in their hearts and were not deliberately flattering.

Putting aside other things, just cleaning up the demon nest in this city was a considerable contribution, and the higher-ups would definitely reward him.

Even if the demon nest was cleaned up, the Demon Hunter office in the city would not be closed down. Unless all the demons in the world were cleaned up, the Demon Hunter headquarters would completely disappear from the public's sight.

Now that the demon bases had been cleared, the work of these officials would become more and more idle, and there might not be any major events happening for decades.

To these officials, being able to receive a salary and not do anything was naturally something they wished for.

Moreover, this matter didn't affect the other demon hunters. Whether the demon nest existed or not, it didn't have much to do with them.

Be it in the past or present, the Demon Hunters' main target was the demonic servants. Even without The Fiend nest, the number of demonic servants was still endless.

Since there was no conflict of interest between them, and they could all benefit from it, it was naturally a happy ending.

The cleaning work continued for a day before it could be considered to be basically completed. As for whether there was anything left inside, Tang Zhen did not care at all.

Even if someone discovered something, they would have to pay a certain price for it.

Tang Zhen would hand over the demon nest to the Demon Hunter headquarters. This would also give him a sum of points as a reward and not a free gift.

The Demon Hunter headquarters would send people to clean it up again, and then it would be opened to the Demon Hunters until the demon nest completely disappeared.

In the following period of time, Tang Zhen followed his previous promise and gave the Demon Hunters who participated in the cleaning up a 5% reward. He won another wave of gratitude.

During this period, if someone took a fancy to an item, they could also use their points to exchange for it. Compared to buying it from the Guild, this was undoubtedly more cost-effective.

...

After everything was settled, everyone left the place, and the Demon Hunter headquarters sent people to guard the demon nest.

Those demon hunters who had entered the demon nest all headed to the Demon Hunter headquarters with Tang Zhen to participate in the special celebration banquet.

In this banquet, Tang Zhen had undoubtedly become the real protagonist. People constantly came forward to toast and Exchange greetings, trying to get closer to him.

With the illustrious battle record of clearing the devil nest, there was no doubt about Tang Zhen's strength. However, people were more curious about what Tang Zhen would do next.

In fact, there were already people who had guessed Tang Zhen's thoughts. It was just that no one was able to confirm it before they obtained his confirmation.

During the process of the celebration, there was finally someone who could not hold back the doubts in their hearts and raised the question in their hearts to Tang Zhen.

The others were also extremely curious about this, so when they heard someone ask, they all subconsciously listened.

Under everyone's anticipating eyes, Tang Zhen slowly raised his wine glass and drank the Scarlet red wine in one gulp.

"This Tang's next target is naturally the demon lair. I'll set off tomorrow morning.

If anyone is interested in going, you can wait at the entrance of the headquarters and we can fight together.

This Tang promises that once we obtain the final victory, you'll all receive great benefits!"

...

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, the Demon Hunters in the surroundings looked at each other. Their eyes were filled with excitement and anticipation. At the same time, they invited him to raise his cup and drink to his heart's content.

Chapter 1876 News of the auction (1)

Tang Zhen became famous after one battle. Not only did the Demon Hunters in the entire city know his name, but the Demon Hunters in other cities also heard of this matter.

Although the name of Demon Hunter was impressive, when faced with a real evil demon, all of them would avoid it, afraid of it.

In the past hundred years, not a single true demon had been killed. This was enough to explain the problem.

Demon hunters were just toys for the evil demons, and they would never allow them to really hurt themselves. Once there was a Demon Hunter that could pose a threat, the evil demons would even get rid of it with their own hands.

!!

This had happened many times, and many demon hunters who had high hopes or powerful abilities would die inexplicably.

The top combat power that could fight against the evil demons had always been the scarcest resource in the Demon Hunter headquarters. The few that existed had all hidden away like tortoises.

Obviously, these old foxes knew the real secret, so they chose to protect themselves and avoid being killed by the devil.

Therefore, the destruction of The Fiend nest this time was like a bolt from the blue, blasting those demon hunters into a daze.

No one expected that someone would dare to barge into The Fiend nest alone, and even kill all the fiends and demonic servants!

It sounded like a fantasy, but it was the undeniable truth.

when did such a person appear? what's his background? how can he be so fierce? "

Not only were the Demon Hunters extremely curious, but even those outsiders were also inquiring one after another to see if they could form a relationship with Tang Zhen.

These people had different thoughts. Some wanted to get to know a strong person and hope to be protected in the face of danger.

They also wanted to buy items from the demon nest through Tang Zhen to refine all kinds of secret medicine or make weapons and equipment.

Especially the evil demon's blood essence, it was definitely a treasure that could only be encountered by luck and not sought after. There were countless people who coveted it.

If one had such a treasure and used a secret technique to refine it, one would be able to regain one's youth with a 100% certainty after swallowing it.

For the elderly, this kind of treasure that could bring them back to their youth was definitely worth it even if they had to spend thousands of gold.

They didn't lack money, but they lacked time to enjoy themselves.

When the news spread, there were even several super-rich people who arrived by private planes, promising to use half of their assets to exchange for a portion of evil demon blood essence.

These tycoons had a net worth of over 10 billion Yuan, and each of them was an important figure. Since they had made a promise in public, they would definitely fulfill it.

After hearing the conditions offered by these rich people, the Demon Hunters were extremely envious. If they could have such a fortune, it would make their cultivation path smoother.

Unfortunately, in the world of cultivators, money wasn't everything. The more powerful one was, the more disdainful one would be.

Everyone knew how precious The Devil's Blood essence was. Otherwise, those rich people would not have offered such a sky-high price. However, the problem was that The Devil's Blood essence was in Tang Zhen's hands. Whether he wanted to sell it or not would still depend on his attitude.

90% of the Demon Hunters felt that Tang Zhen would not bother with those rich people. This thing was no different from a heavenly treasure to demon hunters, and they would not easily give it to others.

With Tang Zhen's means, it wasn't difficult for him to obtain money. Just the harvest from the devil nest this time was enough to allow him to obtain a huge amount of wealth.

In this case, he really didn't need to sell the demon blood essence in exchange for a lot of money.

Just when people were certain that those rich people would return empty-handed, Tang Zhen, who was at the banquet, suddenly made a shocking decision after hearing the news.

He would take out three portions of evil demon's blood essence and sell them in a live auction. Anyone who was interested could participate.

After hearing this news, people's first reaction was that it was impossible. After all, such a decision was too unbelievable.

Tang Zhen, who didn't lack money or points, simply didn't need to take out The Devil's Blood essence to auction. It was normal for people to not believe it.

However, someone quickly confirmed that this news was absolutely true. It was said by Tang Zhen himself.

Especially the Demon Hunters who participated in the banquet, they began to contact their friends and family, hoping to get financial support.

There was more than one person who had thoughts about the evil demon's blood essence. After all, this kind of thing had not appeared in the world for hundreds of years, so it was not an exaggeration to say that it was a priceless treasure.

Now that someone was finally selling it, whether it was for their own use or for investment, it would definitely be a profitable business.

Therefore, when the news of the auction spread, it immediately caused a sensation in the circle of demon hunters and rich people. Many people were eager to get it.

It was foreseeable that when the auction began, the scene would be a fierce battle.

According to Tang Zhen's request, the time the bidder had to prepare was only a few hours. If it was late, they would not wait.

To be able to gather enough funds to participate in the auction in such a short time, he was definitely not a simple person.

This rule alone was enough to eliminate 90% of the competitors, leaving only the truly capable buyers.

Many people grumbled loudly as they tried their best to gather money. They felt that Tang Zhen should have reserved more time so that they could make preparations.

Moreover, doing so would also affect the value of The Devil's Blood essence. It was extremely unwise. She wondered what Tang Zhen was thinking.

However, Tang Zhen was the owner of The Devil's Blood essence. He was the one who had the final say on how to deal with it. Even though everyone was grumbling in their hearts, they were unable to do anything about it.

As time passed, more and more people learned about this matter. The city that Tang Zhen was in had become the focus of attention for a time.

Planes kept appearing one after another, and many well-known powerhouses in the Demon Hunter circle also arrived one after another.

They were equally interested in the demon blood essence. Whether it was for their own use or for their demonic servants to raise their cultivation, they could obtain great benefits from it.

They were also very interested in Tang Zhen, who had single-handedly cleared out the devil nest. They were prepared to take the opportunity to have an exchange with him.

Being able to kill a devil was sufficient to prove Tang Zhen's strength. If it was possible, these experts would pull Tang Zhen into their circle.

In addition to the Demon Hunters, there were more wealthy merchants and all kinds of celebrities.

Although they didn't have much time, it wasn't too difficult for them to get here with their means.

In a situation where all the important figures were gathered, there was no need for them to hide their identities. They appeared in front of everyone with their original faces, causing a wave of exclamations.

Because there were too many people who had arrived, the Demon Hunter headquarters was almost full. Many people couldn't enter and could only watch and participate in the bidding through video.

At the Demon Hunter headquarters, the auction was about to begin.

In order to increase his fame and attract more demon hunters to follow him, Tang Zhen had suddenly thought of the idea of auctioning the evil demon's blood essence.

He had underestimated the importance the natives placed on the demon's blood essence, so much so that he was slightly shocked after seeing such a lively scene.

...

The commotion caused by these three portions of evil demon's blood essence had already far exceeded his expectations. However, this was actually better.

At the very least, from today onwards, everyone in the world knew of Tang Zhen's name. They knew that he had strength and money.

It would be much easier to recruit followers after clearing a demon's lair and obtaining a huge amount of wealth at the same time.

When he was clearing out The Fiend nest, he could bring a large number of followers and launch an attack with overwhelming means.

The enemies he would face in the future would only get stronger and stronger. It was impossible for every demon to have the power of a King.

In a world where a creator existed, it would not be strange for there to be an evil demon that was as powerful as him, or even stronger than him.

Any demon of this level would have tens of millions of demonic servants.

Therefore, taking the opportunity to spread his reputation and recruit more demon hunters as his followers to form a mighty demon subduing Army was the most suitable method for Tang Zhen.

Especially as the Lord of a war zone, he was more used to this kind of war, using numbers to attack the enemy.

In a situation where the enemy was stronger than them, only this method could be used. This was the best method to plunder a plane!

...

Chapter 1877 Work with me (1)

In the lively Hall of the headquarters, competitors from all over the world gathered together, waiting for the final moment of the auction.

Although many of the people present knew each other, under such circumstances, they were all competitors and had to be wary of each other.

If there was anything to say, they could talk about it later. The most important thing now was to get the demon blood essence and not let anyone else snatch it.

It didn't take long for corrosive bone and Xiao Yu to appear one after another, with three portions of demon blood essence in their hands.

!!

Compared to ordinary people, the competitors present were more experienced. They were also very calm in the face of the demonic servant.

The thing they cared about the most was the demon blood essence in Shi Gu's hands.

For a moment, everyone's eyes were fixed on the three bottles. Their eyes were filled with greed and desire, as well as an aura of determination.

these three portions of evil demon blood essence have already been appraised, and their authenticity is guaranteed. The auction will now officially begin.

As soon as the auctioneer finished speaking, everyone took a deep breath and prepared to bid.

now, we will begin the auction for the first portion of evil demon blood essence. The starting price is ...

After hearing the starting price announced by the auctioneer, the crowd who had been waiting for a long time immediately raised their signs to bid. The number kept refreshing and soon reached a shocking amount.

At this moment, it was as if money was no longer money, but a set of numbers that could be increased at will. Many people did not hesitate at all when bidding.

They were clear about the value of the demon's blood essence. Although the price they quoted was shocking, they might not be able to get the demon's blood essence.

The rarer an item was, the more precious it would be. This was especially true for a treasure that countless people were fighting for.

If he hesitated at this moment, he would miss the opportunity and it would be too late to regret.

Their eyes were blood red, and they didn't care about their image at all. They looked like crazy gamblers.

After bidding for half a day, the first portion of evil demon's blood was finally obtained by a rich man. Although he had spent more than half of his wealth, he was still very excited.

With the potion concocted from the demon's blood, he could completely regain forty to fifty years of youth and vitality, becoming no different from a young man.

With his capital and connections, as well as his abundant physical strength, he would definitely be able to obtain more wealth.

Even though the cost was huge, it was still the most valuable investment.

Looking at the smiling rich man, everyone's eyes were full of envy and jealousy, thinking that this guy's luck was really good.

Those who didn't manage to get it sighed, their hearts full of regret. They had missed a precious opportunity just like that.

The auctioneer stood up and tried to calm the atmosphere.

"Congratulations to this friend for obtaining your first portion of demon blood essence. I believe that in the next few decades, your career will definitely shine brilliantly.

It's a pity that our lives are short and we can't live to your glorious moment, so we can only send our blessings in the earth.

Let's cut to the chase. I believe everyone is also anxious. Next, we will auction the second set of demon blood essence.

I would like to remind everyone here that the blood essence of an evil demon is hard to come by even in a hundred years. If you miss it, you will definitely regret it.

I hope everyone can seize this opportunity. Money is easy to get, but opportunities are hard to come by!"

After rousing the emotions of the crowd, and seeing that everyone was holding back, the auction for the second portion of the demon blood essence officially began.

With the first crazy bidding, the second portion of blood essence became even more intense, and the final price was much higher than the first portion.

When the third portion of the evil demon's blood essence was being auctioned, the entire scene had already become incomparably noisy. Everyone was going all out for this last chance, vowing to get it.

After a fierce battle, the third portion of evil demon blood essence was successfully auctioned off, and the winner was a very famous expert in the Demon Hunter circle.

Three portions of Devil's Blood essence were sold, allowing Tang Zhen to obtain hundreds of millions of wealth, becoming a newly rich man overnight.

It was also because of this auction that everyone had a further understanding of Tang Zhen's net worth, and their hearts were filled with envy.

A devil would definitely have more than three portions of blood essence. If all of The Devil's Blood essence were to be auctioned, Tang Zhen's wealth would definitely be comparable to that of a country.

Of course, everyone was also clear that the remaining blood essence would definitely be used by Tang Zhen for cultivation. The matter of auctioning it off could be said to be out of the question.

Of course, there were still some people who were unwilling to give up. They tried to contact Tang Zhen through other means, hoping to obtain another portion of The Devil's Blood essence.

As expected, these people were all rejected without any room for discussion.

Other than these treasure seekers who refused to give up, there were also many demon hunters who stayed behind, unwilling to leave.

These demon hunters knew about Tang Zhen's declaration at the banquet and were prepared to stay behind and follow in his footsteps to clear out the other demon nests.

In fact, many demon hunters had such ambitions, but unfortunately, they did not have such strength. They could only hunt demonic servants, which were not up to the table.

This was the true situation of demon hunters. They were called demon hunters, but in reality, they did not dare to provoke real evil demons.

Tang Zhen's appearance allowed these demon hunters to see hope, and their hearts were filled with anticipation.

Especially when he said in public that he was going to launch an attack on the demon nest, it made these demon hunters feel as if they had been injected with chicken blood, as if they had found their backbone.

Tonight's events were enough to prove that exterminating The Fiend nest would result in great benefits. It was not something that hunting demonic servants could compare to.

If they could join in the battle, even if their harvest was not as good as Tang Zhen's, it would definitely far exceed their usual harvest.

They had living examples of this around them.

Those demon hunters who took the initiative to seek refuge with Tang Zhen and helped to clean up the demon nest all made a huge profit, making others envious.

These demon hunters from other cities had already missed the opportunity to participate in the clearing of the demon nest. Now that there was another chance in front of them, how could they miss it so easily?

However, Tang Zhen didn't receive these demon hunters. Instead, he got someone to send out a notice. If you want to follow him, please wait at the entrance of the Demon Hunter headquarters tomorrow morning.

For many demon hunters, tonight was destined to be a sleepless night.

The Demon Hunters who had previously followed Tang Zhen to clean up the demon nest and had a great harvest were the most active at this moment.

After the auction ended, they spent a large number of points to exchange for equipment and upgrade themselves as much as possible.

Since Tang Zhen had already pointed out that their next target would be the demon lair, they would definitely face a fierce battle.

...

Under such circumstances, it was extremely important to improve his own strength. Otherwise, he would be courting death.

If they were unwilling to improve their strength because they were stingy with points, then as long as they encountered an accident in the battle, it was possible that all their past efforts would go to waste.

Only those who could survive on the battlefield and watch their enemies die were truly powerful.

The next morning, Tang Zhen brought Shi Gu and Xiao Yu to the entrance of the Demon Hunter headquarters. In the end, they saw at least two hundred demon hunters waiting there.

These demon hunters were all dressed differently and had different temperaments. When they gathered together, they frequently attracted the attention of passersby.

Some people thought they were actors, some thought they were cosplaying activities, and only a few people knew their true identities.

Seeing so many demon hunters gathered at the same time, the insiders were secretly surprised, guessing what was going on.

After seeing Tang Zhen's appearance, the Demon Hunters went up to greet him and at the same time, indicated that they were ready.

Tang Zhen swept his gaze across the crowd and noticed that there were many new faces. They were obviously the Demon Hunters who had decided to follow him to clear the demon nest after careful consideration last night.

Other than the Demon Hunters that were ready to follow him, there were some other demon hunters further away. They were watching from afar with cold expressions.

These people didn't want to participate in the operation to clear The Fiend nest, but they also didn't want to miss this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to watch the battle, so they had followed behind and watched.

...

Tang Zhen did not pay too much attention to those who were hesitating. Instead, he was prepared to use the truth to tell those demon hunters that they would definitely earn a lot of money if they followed him.

At his command, more than two hundred demon hunters got into the car at the same time and went straight to a nearby city.

Chapter 1878 The demon's nest is ours _

Seeing the figures of Tang Zhen and the rest leaving in a grandiose manner, the onlooking demon hunters didn't hesitate and directly drove to follow behind.

They made up their minds to see with their own eyes how Tang Zhen killed the devil.

As for how strong Tang Zhen was, they needed to make a real judgment. The Demon Hunter headquarters needed results, and so did some other forces.

Even the hidden evil demons needed to figure this out, and the way they obtained the answer was naturally through the scum of the Demon Hunters.

!!

The ones who traded the most with the evil demons were actually demon hunters. In their circle, this was no longer a secret.

It was this "law-enforcement" behavior that caused the Demon Hunters to always be in a state of disunity, being toyed with in the hands of the evil demons.

At this moment, there were already people among the spectators who had made a deal with the devil and sold out information about Tang Zhen.

It was no longer important whether he did it for his own benefit or for revenge.

The most crucial problem was that Tang Zhen had already attracted the attention of countless gazes from now on.

As a public figure, his every word and action would have a huge impact in the circle of demon hunters.

There were two people sitting in an off-road vehicle in the car that followed behind. One of them was the man in the windbreaker who had a grudge with Tang Zhen.

As for the other person, he had also come into contact with Tang Zhen. He was the Demon Hunter who proposed to use his points to make a deal in exchange for the right to enter the Devil nest.

In the end, he was reprimanded by Tang Zhen. In the end, he did not have the face to stay and could only leave dejectedly.

These two people were usually very close and had some friction with Tang Zhen. Now, they naturally stood on the same side.

Due to Tang Zhen's strength, they did not dare to provoke him directly. However, it was absolutely possible for them to secretly make things difficult for him.

Looking at the convoy in front of them, both of their expressions were very gloomy. No one knew what they were thinking.

After a long moment of silence, the man in the windbreaker finally spoke.

I feel like I'm not completely sure. Do you think this will work?"

Hearing the man's words, the driver sneered and showed a hint of disdain.

"Success or failure, we've already done it. Are you afraid?"

The man in the windbreaker shook his head. Although he did regret it, he was definitely not willing to show it.

“I’m just a little worried. If Tang Zhen knows that we were the ones who did this, will he take revenge?”

“You’re still thinking too much. We didn’t do anything. We just gave a friendly reminder to the Demon Hunters in other cities.

Besides, those guys are greedy. Even if we don’t mention this, do you think they won’t try to do it?”

“Oh, really? I hope Tang Zhen thinks the same, Yingluo.”

The conversation between the two came to an end. They were silent for the rest of the journey. Three hours later, the convoy arrived at a nearby city.

A large group of people appeared on the road ahead, and the convoy that was driving slowly stopped because the road ahead had been completely blocked by them.

you’re not welcome here. Get out of my way!

A naked giant man wearing a leather vest and camouflage pants with thick iron chains wrapped around his body stood in the middle of the road. He stretched out his hand and shouted at Tang Zhen and the others.

Behind the giant man stood nearly a hundred demon hunters. They were all armed with weapons and had unfriendly expressions.

The Demon Hunters in the car looked at each other and jumped out of the car one after another, confronting the Demon Hunters who were blocking the road.

“What do you mean? if you want to fight, just say it!”

Tang Zhen didn’t need to open his mouth. The Demon Hunters that followed him had already stood up and asked the huge man in a stern voice.

“Don’t talk nonsense with master Hu. You don’t even look at the place when you bully people.

Master Hu will say it here, none of you can go over today, or else don’t even think about coming out alive!”

Although Tang Zhen’s group had more people, the giant man’s face didn’t have the slightest fear. Instead, there was a trace of anger.

Hearing the burly man’s words, Tang Zhen’s followers revealed a difficult expression. They really did not wish to start a battle.

Although they had the advantage in numbers, if they really started fighting, the other side could call for reinforcements at any time.

The longer the stalemate dragged on, the more disadvantageous it would be for them.

It was just that this kind of blocking situation was extremely rare, making everyone subconsciously feel that there was definitely something wrong.

When they thought about the purpose of the group's trip, some of the more quick-witted demon hunters had already vaguely guessed something.

"Not letting us enter the city, is this your intention or everyone's intention?"

Just as both parties were in a stalemate, Tang Zhen slowly walked over. He glanced at the brawny man and asked in a faint tone.

"This is master Hu's intention. If you want to try, master Hu will beat you to death!"

The brawny man raised his neck and stared at Tang Zhen. At the same time, he waved his arm that was wrapped in a metal chain.

"How dare you insult my master! You're courting death!"

Just as the giant man's words left his mouth, Shi Gu and little Jade, who were guarding Tang Zhen, suddenly rushed forward and directly surrounded the giant man.

The giant man seemed to have been prepared for this. He laughed as he pulled out a broadsword and slashed at Shi Gu.

"How dare you cause trouble in front of someone else's house? I think you're the ones who are looking for death!"

When the huge man swung his broad sword, there were actually traces of lightning flashing. It was clearly not an ordinary weapon.

In the end, rotten bones suddenly took out a demonic battleaxe and swung it at the large man's broadsword. The female ghost, little Jade, brandished her long ghostly claw weapon, aiming straight for the large man's vital points.

A "bang" rang out as Shi Gu and the giant man were evenly matched. Shi Gu's strength was clearly not weak.

However, he was facing two opponents. While he was blocking the bone erosion, Xiao Yu's ghostly claw took the opportunity to stab into his chest.

Who knew that the giant man's body was actually as hard as steel? Xiao Yu's ghostly claws could not even penetrate an inch before they were blocked.

...

The giant man was also frightened. He didn't expect the demonic servant and female ghost to be so powerful, and he wanted to retreat without hesitation.

At the same time, he shouted behind him, "What are you waiting for? hurry up and stop them, or they'll rush into the city!"

The Demon Hunters who were blocking the way heard this and pulled out their weapons, ready to go forward to help.

"Let's see which one of you dares!"

Tang Zhen snorted coldly. He pointed at the Demon Hunters that were ready to make a move. "Whoever interferes, I'll take his life immediately. If one comes, I'll kill one. If a hundred comes, I'll kill a hundred!"

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, those demon hunters were stunned for a moment. They immediately became hesitant.

"You cowards, this is our territory, why should we be afraid of them!"

The giant man roared once more as he dodged the attacks of Shi Gu and Xiao Yu.

After hearing the giant man's roar, the few demon hunters exchanged glances and instantly understood what the other party was thinking.

"Let's attack together. Tang Zhen would definitely not dare to attack in front of so many people."

In the eyes of these few demon hunters, Tang Zhen was only bluffing and trying to use words to scare them.

...

Who knew that just as they lifted their feet, they suddenly froze on the spot, their faces filled with horror.

Then, blood mist burst out of their bodies as if they had been torn apart by countless sharp claws.

Blood and flesh splattered all over the ground, painting a cruel picture.

The sudden bloody scene immediately stunned the other demon hunters who tried to rush out.

They looked at the corpse on the ground and then raised their heads to look at Tang Zhen who was standing opposite them. Their faces were filled with fear and hesitation.

Such a terrifying and strange method was truly impossible to guard against. If it was used on him, he would probably lose his life in an instant.

"Tang Zhen, do you know what you are doing?"

A Demon Hunter suddenly opened his mouth and pointed at Tang Zhen as he loudly asked.

"Since you know that I am Tang Zhen, I think that you have a plan for coming here. Why don't you just tell me what you want?"

After hearing Tang Zhen's words and being glanced at by his sharp eyes, the Demon Hunter hesitated for a moment. In the end, he still braced himself and said, "I know you want to clean up The Fiend nest in this city, but this is our territory. What right do you have to interfere?"

If you want to clean it up, you can, but you have to hand over half of your harvest, or else don't even think about getting away."

"Shut up!"

Before the Demon Hunter could finish his words, he was stopped by Tang Zhen. He opened his mouth, but in the end, he did not dare to continue.

At this moment, his legs were trembling and his body was already covered in cold sweat.

“I think you’re all possessed. Do you really think that I can’t do anything to you by using such a shameless method?”

Tang Zhen coldly glanced at the Demon Hunters with a trace of contempt in his eyes, but more of it was disdain.

“I’ll give you a chance. If you’re willing to follow me in clearing The Fiend nest, you can still enjoy the agreed share of the profits.

If you’re afraid of death, then get out of my way and don’t appear in front of me.

Just now, you said that The Fiend nest belongs to this city and that outsiders have no right to exterminate it. This matter is also very easy to resolve.

From now on, I’ll kill all the Demon Hunters in any city that dares to say that.

As long as we replace him and become the new owner of the city, everything will be logical.”

Hearing Tang Zhen’s words, the hearts of the Demon Hunters who were blocking the way turned cold. They didn’t expect Tang Zhen to have such a crazy idea.

If they continued to pester him and completely infuriated Tang Zhen, it was likely that none of them would be able to leave this place alive.

Chapter 1879 Dirty tricks (1)

These demon hunters that were blocking the way were naturally targeting Tang Zhen. Their goal was to take advantage of him.

There would always be some people who were blinded by greed and could not resist the temptation of huge benefits, even to the extent of taking risks.

Demon hunters were a group that was particularly obvious in this aspect, and there were many people who only sought profit.

At this moment, Tang Zhen was like a fat sheep in their eyes. Even if they were to suck out a trace of blood, it would be sufficient to feed them.

!!

Tang Zhen was just a newcomer. A day ago, he was still unknown, but overnight, he became famous.

Whether it was his magnificent feat of clearing the demon nest or the situation at the auction last night, it had already spread throughout the circle of demon hunters.

When they heard that Tang Zhen was preparing to attack the demon nests in other cities, these demon hunters even cheered and were ready to join in the grand plan.

However, when someone secretly informed them that their first stop was the city they were in and gave some suggestions that were related to their interests, some demon hunters immediately had an idea.

There was naturally no need to talk about the wealth in the devil nest. They naturally desired to obtain it. However, they did not have the powerful strength like Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen was prepared to clean up the devil nest in his city. As the owner, everything belonged to them. How could Tang Zhen not express anything?

Under the drive of this kind of twisted thinking, it was inevitable that there would be people who would have crooked thoughts and attempt to “extort” Tang Zhen.

After all was said and done, he was still blinded by greed and actually made an issue of the demon nest that he usually avoided like the plague.

According to the thoughts of these demon hunters, no matter how strong Tang Zhen was, he would not dare to offend the public.

As long as they were united and insisted that they had to split the profits before they could open the devil nest, Tang Zhen would probably have no choice.

If this matter was completed, he would obtain unimaginable benefits. He wouldn't have to worry about cultivation resources for at least a few decades.

Faced with such a huge temptation, there were not many people who could refuse, and all of them were eager to try.

Although they had numbed themselves with twisted logic, they still had no confidence in their hearts and hesitated before taking action.

Although the Demon Hunters weren't particularly clear about Tang Zhen's strength, just the fact that he could clear out the demon nest was enough to crush 99% of the Demon Hunters.

If the two sides fought, how would they deal with it?

After half a day of discussion, in the end, half of the people chose to quit, and the remaining half decided to take the risk.

As a result, there was the scene of blocking the road earlier. Although this group looked aggressive, they were actually tough on the outside but weak on the inside.

These demon hunters had long known about Tang Zhen's appearance. When they met just now, they were only pretending not to know him.

However, now that they had already shed all pretenses of cordiality, he would be a true idiot if he continued to play dumb.

Especially after hearing Tang Zhen's warning. The courage that he had been holding on to immediately leaked out, so how could he still dare to challenge them head-on?

If he really angered Tang Zhen, with his ability to clear out the devil nest, all the Demon Hunters present would probably die in his hands.

His reputation was well-deserved. Even if these demon hunters had doubts about Tang Zhen's strength, they would absolutely not dare to use their lives to try.

Fortunately, they had a plan in mind. Even if their plan failed, they had a way to escape.

Before he took action, he had already chosen a scapegoat. It was the giant man who had been besieged by rotten bones and Xiao Yu.

The seemingly fierce giant man was actually a brave and unscrupulous guy. After being incited by these demon hunters, he took the initiative to jump out and intercept Tang Zhen.

Even when the Demon Hunters were discussing last night, they didn't bring this huge man along at all. The story they told him was a completely different version.

In this version, Tang Zhen became the villain who led people to attack the city and didn't give the Demon Hunters a way out. He also bullied men and dominated women and did all kinds of evil.

If they angered Tang Zhen when they blocked the road, they would only kill the giant man and they could retreat in time.

If Tang Zhen gave in, then someone would trick the giant man away and then send others to negotiate with Tang Zhen.

In short, from the beginning to the end, this giant man was just a character that was used and was completely kept in the dark.

Speaking of which, this huge man was also a weirdo. He had a simple and honest personality and rarely came into contact with others. He usually loved to cross mountains and ridges to hunt demonic servants, and he never cared about current affairs.

Because of his personality, he had offended many people. That was why he was chosen to be used at this time.

In the end, when he realized that something was wrong and wanted to ask for help, he found that no one was paying attention to him. Instead, they were avoiding him.

The giant man was furious. No matter how stupid and upright he was, he had already realized that he had been played.

"You bunch of B * stars, you actually dared to scheme against master Hu!"

The giant man let out an angry roar and ignored Shi Gu and Xiao Yu's attacks. Instead, he turned around and charged towards the Demon Hunters.

In the process of turning around, his back was completely exposed. Seeing this, Shi Gu and Xiao Yu immediately followed up with their attacks.

"You two, stop for now."

Although Shi Gu and little Jade were puzzled in their hearts, they immediately withdrew their hands and retreated to Tang Zhen's side after hearing his order.

On the other hand, the Demon Hunters that were blocking the way were in a mess.

The giant man wielded a broadsword and charged left and right in the crowd, constantly slashing at two demon hunters.

The two demon hunters were in a sorry state. They kept dodging with the help of the crowd, afraid that they would be killed by the angry brawny man.

The giant man cursed as he slashed, and he also spilled out all the dirty things that this group of people had done. The Demon Hunters on Tang Zhen's side suddenly realized.

Looking at the Demon Hunters blocking the way again, their eyes were filled with disdain, obviously disdaining their means.

The Demon Hunters who were blocking the way heard the giant man's angry curses, and their faces turned red and white, as if they were stripped naked in front of the public.

It was really because they had done something wrong. Now that it was said in public, no matter how thick-skinned they were, they couldn't hold it in.

so that's what happened. This bunch of cowards don't dare to come out themselves, but they tricked others to come out and die. This really opened my eyes.

I always thought that there were still a few men in this city. Only today did I know that they were all a bunch of cowards.

brother, we support you. Kill all those bastards who plotted against you, so that you won't be schemed against by these scumbags in the future.

The Demon Hunters that followed Tang Zhen made a ruckus, and their originally nervous mood disappeared.

...

With Tang Zhen's words earlier, it was as though they had eaten a heart calming pill. There was no longer any fear in their hearts.

Since Tang Zhen had already said such ruthless words, he would definitely be able to do it. If the Demon Hunters in this city still did not know when to retreat, it was likely that blood would flow like a river.

However, all the Demon Hunters present were very clear that such a thing would never happen. How could a piece of trash who could do such a dirty thing risk his life for this?

The demon nest didn't belong to anyone. Before the incident with Tang Zhen, the Demon Hunters wished that there was no demon nest in their city. That way, the pressure on them would be greatly reduced.

Therefore, this battle was destined to not be fought. From the beginning until now, only a bunch of greedy guys had been making a fool of themselves.

"I'm going over now. Who else dares to stop me? if you do, stand in front of me, Tang Zhen.

If you don't, then get out of my way, or don't blame me for being ruthless."

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, those demon hunters immediately scattered like birds and beasts. They did not dare to stay any longer.

Looking at these ugly people blocking the way, the Demon Hunters that followed Tang Zhen laughed out loud. Some of them even had tears flowing out.

At the same time that they were ridiculing the other party, they also turned their gazes to Tang Zhen who was standing at the very front. Their eyes were filled with admiration and envy.

It was precisely because of Tang Zhen's existence that the people blocking their way were so afraid of them. Otherwise, today's matter would definitely not have been resolved so easily.

...

This was the benefit of following the strong. Whether it was their fame or strength, they could benefit their subordinates, which was considered an invisible benefit.

He believed that after today's incident, if they went to other cities, similar things would not happen again.

If such a thing really happened, it would be a true provocation to Tang Zhen, and a bloody battle would be inevitable.

Chapter 1880 Haunted house (1)

There was no need for Tang Zhen to say it a second time. The Demon Hunters blocking the way had already automatically made way and did not dare to continue to stay.

They had come to extort, and they had no confidence in their hearts. They were like a plate of loose sand.

Tang Zhen had killed a few guys who didn't know what was good for them, causing these demon hunters to be extremely afraid. They didn't know if he would dare to continue killing people.

!!

Especially after he had issued a warning, if she acted rashly, he might vent his anger on her.

The method of killing the chicken to warn the monkeys was just right to be used at this moment. Tang Zhen might wish for someone to stand out.

Other than Tang Zhen, they also had to avoid the giant man who called himself master Hu. After this fellow discovered that he had been deceived, he had completely lost control.

Once a dazed and crazy person like him got angry, he would be like a rhinoceros that had lost control and would not care about anything else.

Even if it was a moving train, he dared to hit it with his head.

At this moment, he was waving a huge sword and chasing the two demon hunters who deceived him because these two guys were responsible for deceiving him.

Although the others couldn't get away with it, the giant man only killed the main culprit, and the others couldn't be bothered for the time being.

The guilty demon hunters were afraid that the giant man would find trouble with them, so they quickly fled in the chaos and disappeared without a trace.

Those demon hunters that followed Tang Zhen laughed out loud. They felt a little mocking in their hearts when they saw that a troublesome matter had ended like a joke.

Then, everyone got back into the car and went straight to the center of the city. No one dared to stop them.

The Demon Hunters that followed Tang Zhen here to watch the show naturally witnessed the entire conflict between the two parties. Each and every one of them was dumbstruck.

He had resolved the crisis in such a straightforward manner and used his strength to force his opponent to admit defeat. Tang Zhen was very skilled in this.

Unfortunately, this wasn't the scene they wanted to see.

These demon hunters were extremely disappointed when they didn't see Tang Zhen suffer. They didn't follow Tang Zhen's actions, so they naturally couldn't see him doing well.

There were even some people who wished for Tang Zhen to fail. In this way, they would have a reason to ridicule him.

As for the fact that no one had cleaned up the demon lairs, it was nothing. In any case, these demon lairs had always been there in the past.

The convoy made seven turns and eight turns in the city before finally arriving at the city center. The convoy slowly stopped in front of a large area of dilapidated buildings.

These buildings were old and looked dilapidated. Because no one had taken care of them for a long time, the ground was already overgrown with weeds.

What was strange was that there were no traces of birds or beasts, not even any insects. It seemed to be a Pure Land of death.

In the heart of the city where every inch of land was worth its weight in gold, there was actually such a large abandoned building. This matter itself was very unreasonable.

However, in this city, this unreasonable phenomenon continued for a long time without any solution.

In the eyes of ordinary people, this abandoned building was a haunted house, but only demon hunters knew that this was actually the nest of evil demons.

Calling it a haunted house was a little too much of a belittle.

In order to ensure that ordinary people would not enter this place, the Demon Hunter headquarters cordoned off this land and built a high wall to prevent outsiders from entering.

Who knew that the more this was the case, the more mysterious the building became, and the more legends about this place became.

In fact, hundreds of years ago, this building had been notorious, and almost no one dared to live within a hundred meters.

Everything had been normal at first, but ever since a wealthy businessman had been killed, this place had become a haunted house.

It was said that someone had seen the ghosts of a rich merchant's family wandering around at night, demanding for their lives. The house was also full of ghost fire, and it seemed to be very lively.

No matter who lived inside, they couldn't see the sun the next day, and their deaths were too horrible to look at. It was a shocking sight.

However, most of the time, people who entered this place would mysteriously disappear. No one could find them alive or dead.

In the beginning, it was just a small fight, but it became more and more intense later on, making people change their expressions.

One year, there was a war, and thousands of wealthy merchants were chased by the rebel army. They had no choice but to enter this haunted house.

Thousands of rebel soldiers followed. In order to seize the gold and silver carried by the wealthy merchants, they ignored the desperate dissuasion of the leaders and directly rushed out of the haunted house.

In the end, after these 10000 people entered the house, it was like a stone sinking into the sea, and no one came out.

Although the area of this house was not small, it could not accommodate more than ten thousand people, so this matter itself was bizarre.

After the general of the rebel army heard of this matter, he felt that evil spirits could not resist the might of the Army. He sent nearly 1000 people in to investigate, but none of them returned.

Faced with this strange situation, the rebel general was both shocked and angry. He ordered the entire city to collect wood and fuel and throw them all into this house.

According to historical records, at that time, wood was piled up like a mountain, and kerosene was like a river. After being ignited, the flames soared into the sky, and no one could get close to it within a radius of a thousand feet.

Who knew that just as the flames were burning, a rain of blood suddenly fell from the sky, and the burning flames slowly extinguished.

The buildings in the haunted house were undamaged, and at the same time, a large amount of smoke rose.

Even the sky became gloomier and gloomier. Dark clouds covered their heads, as if they would fall at any moment.

Ghostly shadows flickered in the thick smoke. Many onlookers couldn't Dodge in time and were shrouded in the smoke as if they were alive. In an instant, screams were endless.

The rebel general turned pale with fright and tried to escape in panic, but he was still covered in smoke.

The crowd could only hear the rebel General's voice. He seemed to be suffering the punishment of being cut into pieces, and his cries were extremely tragic.

After the smoke dispersed, the onlookers saw the remains of the rebel general. His skin, flesh, and organs had been gnawed clean, leaving only a head with a wide open eye and a face full of fear.

After this incident, the rebel army collapsed on their own and fled the city in a panic.

Later on, there were often local rumors that on rainy days, there would be ghostly wails and wolf howls in this house, as if there were figures constantly twisting and struggling.

These legends continued to this day, and not only were they not forgotten by time, but more and more people knew about them.

This was because strange things had never stopped happening in the past few years.

According to the statistics of the Demon Hunter headquarters, over the past few years, it had been confirmed that more than five thousand people had gone missing here, and it was unknown how many there were without being counted.

...

This haunted house was like a magnet, constantly attracting people over like moths to a flame.

Although the Demon Hunter headquarters tried their best to prevent similar incidents from happening, it was still not very effective.

From time to time, there would be people seeking death by entering, but most of them were stopped and driven away by the guards here, so they did not enter the real core area.

However, there were still people who managed to sneak in. They originally thought that they would be able to pry into the secrets inside, but who knew that they would accidentally enter The Fiend nest and never return.

At this moment, when they saw a large number of cars stopped here, the passers-by looked around curiously. They wanted to see what Tang Zhen and the others were up to.

The Demon Hunter in charge of guarding this place saw this and hurriedly walked out, but he was secretly surprised.

As they were all demon hunters, the guards naturally recognized the origins of Tang Zhen and the others with a single glance. They also recognized that they were not demon hunters from this city.

When they recalled the rumors they heard last night, the guards immediately realized that Tang Zhen's group should have arrived.