

Alternate 1891

Chapter 1891 Bidding (1)

The treasure had an owner, but it was also from several hundred years ago. Now that Tang Zhen had killed the evil demon, the treasure in the haunted house naturally belonged to him.

Sir Tang Zhen, we have found the secret room and there are a lot of treasures inside. Do you want to go and take a look? ”

Tang Zhen nodded and stood up. He walked to the location of the secret chamber, and the Demon Hunters dodged to the side.

He reached out and gently grabbed the boxes, gold melons, and silver stools. They were all lifted off the ground and placed in front of everyone.

!!

Seeing this scene, the Demon Hunter’s face was filled with admiration and envy. This technique alone was enough to crush everyone present. No one was his match.

It was not difficult for cultivators to control things remotely, but ordinary cultivators could not control things of such weight.

To be able to do it so easily, all of them had profound cultivation and were experts who could suppress others.

“Bang!”

Just as everyone was sighing to themselves, they heard another muffled sound. The locks on the iron boxes exploded at the same time.

Then, there was another creaking sound. The rusty iron box seemed to be grabbed by an invisible hand, and the lid was opened.

The items in the box were revealed. Most of them were pearls, Jade, jewelry, and scattered gold and silver treasures that sparkled under the sun.

According to the memories he received, before the Lord of The Fiend nest bought this house, he was actually a Bandit who committed all sorts of evil.

The gold and silver treasures hidden in the secret room were all plundered by him in his early years. Those who participated in the treasure-hiding were all killed, and he was the only one who knew the secret.

Originally, he thought that with this wealth, he could enjoy the glory and wealth of the human world, but he did not expect that because of a jade pendant that he had robbed when he collected the mountain, he had become a low-level demon.

After becoming an evil demon, they would have great strength and a long life. The master of The Fiend nest was naturally more than happy to have that.

However, the longer it lived, the more timid it became. It completely lost the fierce and domineering aura it had in the past, hiding in The Fiend nest for hundreds of years without coming out.

The Demon Hunters in the yard were all looking at the treasures, their eyes shining, and they wanted nothing more than to take them for themselves.

For demon hunters, money was also an indispensable resource for cultivation. If these treasures were to be auctioned and sold, they would definitely earn a huge sum of money.

Unfortunately, all these things belonged to Tang Zhen. Even though they were envious of them, they did not dare to have any evil thoughts.

Tang Zhen had an indifferent expression. He was completely unconcerned about these gold, silver, and treasures. The three portions of evil demon blood essence that he had auctioned earlier had allowed him to possess a rather terrifying wealth.

Perhaps when he left this plane, he wouldn't even be able to spend all this money, and it would be useless to ask for more.

Although he didn't care about the money, he could use this opportunity to build up his reputation again.

"Whoever is familiar with the auction house can use my name to contact them and sell this treasure.

The money earned from the auction could be used to set up a Demon Hunter School to recruit qualified juniors for free.

There's a long way to go in eliminating the demon and protecting the Dao. I will also do my best to make the Demon Hunter Group continue to grow stronger!"

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, regardless of whether the Demon Hunters were sincere or not, they all started to praise him.

They didn't have the courage to donate such a large sum of wealth just like that. They could only feel envious.

Of course, Tang Zhen's donation was not a loss. It was estimated that from today onwards, his name would be known by more and more people, including those ordinary people.

Teaching and educating people was a good thing, and the achievements were present and the benefits were long-term.

Especially in the Demon Hunter Group, once the students became successful, each of them would be a Dragon among men.

If it wasn't for Tang Zhen, those students would definitely be grateful for their future.

At that time, with a wave of Tang Zhen's arm, these future demon hunters would definitely respond actively and sincerely obey his command and leadership.

After such a situation really appeared, who else in the world would dare to oppose Tang Zhen? otherwise, they would be making enemies on all sides.

“Since Sir Tang Zhen has made this suggestion, why don’t you be the Dean of this Academy? there’s no need for you to stay there all the time. You only need to be there in name.”

A Demon Hunter rolled his eyes and made a suggestion, his tone carrying a hint of flattery.

“This matter can be discussed later. If necessary, this Tang will not refuse.”

Tang Zhen could only be considered a passerby in this world. He had no intention of managing his own forces. Therefore, he was not very interested.

If the fifth battle area invaded the demonic plane, he could leave some cards up his sleeve, which might come in handy at some point.

Of course, the possibility of this happening was very low. After all, the suppression of strength in the demonic plane was too severe. Although the fifth battle area had many powerhouses, they would not easily start an invasion war that would obviously cause them to suffer losses.

Using a sector Lord as a King level practitioner, only being able to use 1% of his full power, this was a huge loss.

If something happened in the middle and some sector Lord cultivators were killed, it would be a huge blow to the overall strength of the 5th battle area.

Therefore, unless it was necessary, the war would not start.

Seeing that Tang Zhen was not very interested in this matter, everyone automatically ignored this matter and started to discuss other topics.

The contents of the discussion between demon hunters were naturally related to evil demons. These rumors were bizarre and interesting, and they also aroused Tang Zhen’s interest.

Seeing that Tang Zhen was listening with great interest, those demon hunters immediately perked up and told the most bizarre and exciting rumors in their memories one by one.

The people who heard it were enraptured and intoxicated, making the atmosphere at the scene more harmonious and cheerful.

Not long after, the officials from the local demon Hunter headquarters rushed over. When they saw Tang Zhen surrounded by a group of demon hunters, they quickly took the initiative to greet him.

When they heard the news that The Fiend nest had been cleared, the officials’ expressions were extremely interesting. They all felt that it was somewhat inconceivable.

Just now, when they were talking about the clearing of the devil’s nest in the neighboring city, they were still lamenting why such a good thing didn’t happen to them. Who knew that they would get the news in the blink of an eye?

Without any hesitation, these officials went straight to the haunted house and prepared to take over the devil nest from Tang Zhen.

Perhaps the points that the headquarters had stored would be used up, but it didn’t matter. Compared to the value of a fiend nest, these points were nothing.

In every city on this plane, there was actually a Demon Hunter headquarters, but it was only in name. There was only one real headquarters.

The matter of Tang Zhen removing the demon nest had already attracted a high level of attention from the headquarters, and they had sent a group of experts to help.

It was said that a group of elites had been selected and equipped to enter the demon nest to undergo a month of closed special training.

...

These elites were the real official demon hunters, and all cultivation resources were provided by the government. Compared to the Demon Hunters that were like individual cultivators, these official demon hunters had a greater advantage.

Following these officials were the wealthy people who had participated in the auction last time, as well as their trusted subordinates.

The fact that they didn't get the demon blood essence last time left the rich brooding, and they felt depressed because they had money but couldn't spend it.

When they heard that Tang Zhen was heading to other cities to clear out the devil nests, these rich people immediately sent people to follow him. They hoped that after Tang Zhen succeeded, they would be able to obtain another portion of The Devil's Blood essence.

These wealthy people were quite powerful. After arriving in the city, they immediately contacted the official demon hunters here.

When they heard that Tang Zhen had successfully cleared the demon nest, the happiest people were actually these rich people. They immediately followed closely, afraid that they would miss this opportunity.

"Sir Tang Zhen, I wonder if you're still willing to sell The Devil's Blood essence. As long as you state your conditions, we guarantee that we won't refuse."

our boss is already on his way here. Sir Tang Zhen, please do us the honor and take some time to meet him.

A group of people surrounded Tang Zhen and fought to be the first to report their origins. They were afraid that Tang Zhen would not be able to hear their words if they were a step slower.

There were also some people who were more scheming. They directly reported the highest price they could offer. If Tang Zhen didn't agree, they would think of another way.

"My master is very sincere and has prepared five vertical take-off and landing passenger planes for Your Excellency Tang Zhen. All of them are the latest top-tier transportation vehicles.

These passenger planes are worth 30 billion and I only hope to exchange them for a portion of Devil's Blood essence with His Excellency Tang Zhen. Please don't refuse."

“Our family has an Island with complete facilities and beautiful scenery. It’s an excellent vacation spot and we hope to exchange it for a portion of evil demon blood essence with Sir Tang Zhen.”

Sir Tang Zhen, I have an antique map in my hand. All the possible locations of the devil’s nest are marked on it. It will definitely be of great use to you, so you must consider it.

Hearing the conditions offered by the rich, the onlooking demon hunters were filled with shock and envy. It was only at this moment that they truly experienced the benefits of clearing The Fiend nest.

Chapter 1892 The official Demon Hunter (1)

The atmosphere in the haunted house was unusually lively.

Originally, not even a rat could be seen here, but after The Fiend nest’s leader was killed, the dark clouds in the sky dispersed, and this place actually became like a vegetable market.

The people who were qualified to enter this place were not simple. However, in order to fight for The Devil’s Blood essence, they could no longer care about their so-called status.

Moreover, Tang Zhen was powerful and had a net worth of hundreds of millions. In front of such a person, their status was not worth mentioning.

!!

The Demon Hunters were extremely envious when they heard the bids from the rich and powerful. However, Tang Zhen only had an indifferent expression and didn’t express his position from the beginning to the end.

If they were to compete in wealth, none of these people present could compare to Tang Zhen.

Even if their wealth was added together, it simply couldn’t compare. After all, their wealth was limited to this world, how could they compare to the accumulated wealth of the Warzone Lord.

Even though cultivation was also about wealth, companionship and law, but the wealth that a sector Lord sought was completely different from the wealth in the eyes of normal people.

However, Tang Zhen had taken a fancy to the connections of these rich people and the forces they had in this plane. This was what was truly valuable.

If he could have a group of such people to provide services when he was doing things, it would undoubtedly be much more convenient when he moved.

For example, providing intelligence, arranging logistics, and providing convenience in all aspects.

It could be said that once this secular power was activated, it would explode with unimaginable power. It was just that many people did not have the ability to use it.

Only with the corresponding strength and status could one mobilize the corresponding resources. This was the case in any world.

Tang Zhen was alone and it was necessary to control this force in his hands. It was naturally the best method to cater to his interests.

To use the available resources to complete his plan to conquer the entire world, every link had to be considered.

Since those rich people needed the demon's blood essence, he would provide it to them. It wouldn't have much of an impact on his strength.

Moreover, Tang Zhen only supplied a limited number of them. Each time, there were only three portions. If one wanted to obtain them, they would have to rely on their own abilities.

There were many rich people in this world. Even if Tang Zhen cleaned up all the demon nests, he would not be able to meet the needs of these rich people.

The greed in a person's heart was insatiable. Especially to those who could get whatever they wanted, the things that they couldn't get were the most precious.

In order to get what they wanted, they would pay a sufficient price and try their best to please Tang Zhen.

This included those who had already obtained the demon's blood. In order to get more shares, they would also try to maintain their relationship with him.

Under everyone's anticipating eyes, Tang Zhen, who had a silent face from the beginning, finally nodded gently.

no problem. This time, it's still three portions of demon blood essence. I'll sell them through the auction, and I'll also give you a potion formula as a gift.

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, the surrounding spectators practically roared out in excitement. Their faces were filled with excitement.

It was not in vain for them to pay attention to Tang Zhen's whereabouts and arrive at the demon nest at the first moment. At this moment, they had indeed received a report.

Since Tang Zhen had already made a promise, it was time for them to display their abilities in the following time.

In the demon-hunting battlefield, they were not even considered cannon fodder, but in the competition of the business world, they were fearless.

This was a fierce battle between a Dragon and a Tiger. To them, the difficulty was almost the same as Tang Zhen's clearing of the devil nest.

If they could get it, it was their ability. If they couldn't get it, they didn't need to be disheartened. According to their analysis, Tang Zhen would continue to attack the demon nest in the future.

As long as he attacked The Fiend nest, he would have a chance to obtain The Fiend's blood essence. If he paid the price and had enough patience, he would definitely gain something.

There was no need to stay any longer. The group of buyers left one after another. They needed to convey the news back and make sufficient preparations as soon as possible.

In the time that followed, the officials of the Demon Hunter headquarters began to work, carefully counting the items left in the demon nest.

There were treasures everywhere in The Fiend nest. Even the ashes of The Fiend servants that had been refined by the flames were carefully collected.

These were things that Tang Zhen didn't want. It was a good thing that they could be exchanged for points. Even if he didn't need them, he could use them to reward his subordinates.

As there were too many items outside the demon nest, when they encountered precious items, staff members would come to ask how to deal with them to avoid any mistakes.

In fact, the truly good things were all in his hands. The slightly inferior ones were left inside the demon nest. Shi Gu and Xiao Yu were responsible for cleaning them up, so they would definitely not miss anything.

Therefore, Tang Zhen waved his hand, indicating that all the items could be exchanged for points. The staff member left in satisfaction, and he could finally have some peace and quiet.

He sat back down on the recliner and closed his eyes, as if everything had nothing to do with him.

Seeing this, the Demon Hunters didn't dare to disturb him. At the same time, they tried to keep their voices down so as not to disturb his rest.

From their point of view, Tang Zhen would definitely need to rest after experiencing such a huge battle.

When night fell, this haunted house that had been shrouded in darkness for hundreds of years was brightly lit for the first time.

This rare scene attracted countless people to stop and watch, and at the same time, they began to discuss.

As the Demon Hunter headquarters had used a special device to block the real images inside the haunted house, the ordinary people could only see fake images and never see the real content.

Only demon hunters could see the real scene.

Just like the last time, all the Demon Hunters who participated in the operation to clear the demon nest all attended the celebration party.

Because of Tang Zhen, Shi Gu and little Jade also had the qualifications to participate in the banquet. No one dared to be disrespectful to them.

After two battles in the demon nest, their strength had increased rapidly, making the Demon Hunters extremely envious.

Accompanied by melodious music, the Demon Hunters held their wine cups and talked loudly about the exciting experiences in the battle, their faces full of pride and satisfaction.

Of course, the most discussed topic was still Tang Zhen's performance in the battle. This was especially the case for the flaming passageway that he had casually created.

If not for the flaming passageway, at least half of them would not have been able to return from The Fiend nest alive.

The speaker's eyebrows were exulted, and the listeners' eyes were also filled with amazement. They had not expected such a situation to happen.

If that was the case, then the danger they would encounter in the battle would be minimized. As long as he was careful, he could definitely walk out of The Fiend nest alive.

If that was the case, it was definitely a wise choice to join the Demon Hunter team.

Of course, even without the flaming passage, the latecomers wouldn't give up on this opportunity. They had to fight for it no matter what.

...

Just as everyone was chatting happily, a large group of people walked in from the entrance. Among them were officials from the Demon Hunter headquarters, as well as wealthy people who had rushed over.

In addition, there was a group of people wearing the same uniform, which looked like some kind of long trench coat, with a Blue Badge on their right arm.

If one were to look closely at these windbreakers, they would discover that they were covered in dense runes and were made of a very special material.

When attacked, the windbreaker would become as hard as steel, providing a very good defense.

There were all kinds of weapons hidden under their windbreakers. Not only were there short knives and long swords, but there were also all kinds of firearms. It was a Mobile Armory.

After seeing this group of people, the Demon Hunters on the scene looked at them one after another, and someone quickly recognized their identity.

these are the official demon hunters, and they're all elites. I wonder what they're doing here? " do I even need to guess? he's definitely preparing to enter The Fiend nest to cultivate and quickly increase his strength!

no matter how I think about it, there are still more benefits to becoming an official Demon Hunter. At least I don't have to worry about cultivation resources.

"Things might not be as you think. Not only do you have to go through a lot of selection to become an official Demon Hunter, but there are also many restrictions on your actions. How can you be as free as we are?"

The most important thing is that the official Demon Hunter quota is scarce. Half of it is prepared for those who have connections, and ordinary demon hunters can't get it at all."

...

Just as everyone was in a heated discussion, the group of official demon hunters had already walked in front of Tang Zhen. After introducing themselves, they began to talk in a low voice.

Chapter 1893 The devil's thousand year harvest _

after the person in charge of the city introduced their identities, they retreated to a seat at the side and started talking to the other demon hunters.

Looking at their expressions, it was obvious that they were doing this to avoid suspicion. It was estimated that he was not qualified to touch the content of the following conversation.

Tang Zhen didn't reject these official demon hunters. As long as they didn't find trouble for him, they could cooperate with each other.

What the other party wanted was a peaceful world, and what he wanted was the life of the devil. The foundation of their Union was very solid.

!!

"Sir Tang Zhen is indeed young and promising. In such a short time, you've cleared two demon nests in a row. You're really a role model for us demon hunters.

Do you know that because of you, the Demon Hunters in other cities are all excited and have organized themselves to attack the nearby demon nests?

Regardless of whether they could succeed or not, their courage alone was worthy of strong support.

For Sir Tang Zhen to be able to stir up this pool of stagnant water and make the entire circle active, his contribution is definitely not without merit!"

The leader of the official demon hunters was a middle-aged cultivator. He was tall and strong, with white hair at his temples, and looked very heroic.

Although he appeared to be filled with righteousness, he was still very respectful towards Tang Zhen. As for how sincere his words were, perhaps only he himself knew.

"I've brought a group of young people here this time in hopes of being able to follow your Excellency's actions and give them the opportunity to gain actual combat experience.

They are all good seedlings, please give you a chance!"

Tang Zhen glanced at the official demon hunters and saw that they were not very old. At this moment, they were looking at him with curiosity and admiration in their eyes.

Compared to those wily demon hunters, these young people were purer and could be seen through at a glance.

Although they had their own pride as official demon hunters, they still admired the truly strong from the bottom of their hearts.

One had to know that Tang Zhen was the first Demon Hunter to successfully clear out a demon nest in hundreds of years. Moreover, he had cleared out two in a row.

This kind of battle record left them in the dust. Therefore, even if Tang Zhen had just become a demon Hunter not long ago and looked to be about the same age as them, it still couldn't affect the worship in their hearts.

Moreover, with Tang Zhen's battle record, if he was willing to become an official Demon Hunter, he could make an exception and join them at any time. The position he would obtain would definitely be much higher than theirs.

To be able to become an official Demon Hunter, not a single one of them was a fool. No one would easily offend a person like Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen thought for a moment and said to the middle-aged cultivator, "It's fine to bring them along, but there's one thing I have to remind you of. The Fiend nest is filled with danger, and I can't take care of them all the time.

If there are any casualties, it can only be your bad luck. You can't blame anyone else."

The middle-aged cultivator hurriedly nodded after hearing Tang Zhen's agreement. He was naturally clear about this matter.

"Don't worry, Sir Tang Zhen. These young people are the elites of the pre-selection and they're very hardworking in their daily cultivation.

Ordinary battles can no longer have the effect of tempering, so I brought them here in the hope that they can temper themselves in brutal battles so that they can grow faster."

The middle-aged cultivator's face turned serious.

After sizing up the surrounding crowd, he spoke to Tang Zhen in a low voice, "Sir Tang Zhen, I have something I want to tell you in detail. May I know if we can find a quiet place?"

"There's no need to change the location, we can do it here."

An invisible energy barrier appeared as Tang Zhen spoke, completely isolating the two of them from the surrounding space.

The middle-aged cultivator was a little surprised at first, but he soon noticed the abnormality. After careful observation, he revealed an expression of shock and admiration.

"Sir Tang Zhen's methods are indeed extraordinary. I'm ashamed of my inferiority. Since that's the case, I'll be direct.

According to the information we have, it won't be long before the demons begin their new harvest.

Once the harvesting began, the entire world would face a catastrophe, and no one would be able to escape.

These evil demons' methods were cruel and strange. When the time came, the people would definitely be plunged into misery and suffering, and blood would flow like rivers.

In order to prevent this from happening, the Demon Hunter headquarters had already made preparations. To avoid being caught off guard when the disaster comes."

When the middle-aged man said this, his expression was unusually solemn, and there was a trace of worry in his eyes.

This was the first time Tang Zhen had heard of such a statement. He frowned slightly and said to the middle-aged cultivator, "What exactly happened? You better explain it clearly, and don't leave out anything."

The middle-aged cultivator quickly explained the situation to him.

"You might not know this, but in the past thousands of years, the evil demons would actually start a harvest every thousand years.

Every harvesting process was extremely bloody, and after the harvesting was completed, the evil demons would leave a small number of people behind and allow them to reproduce.

In order to prevent future generations from discovering any abnormalities, demons would use various means to erase traces of their harvest.

Even if the later generations found something strange, they would mistakenly think that it was a natural disaster, but they would never know that it was all done by evil demons!"

The middle-aged cultivator's face was filled with grief and indignation.

"It can be said that we are a group of livestock raised by the evil demons. When we grow fat, we will be slaughtered by them!

The title of Demon Hunter is full of lies, but we are the real prey!"

The middle-aged cultivator clenched his fists tightly and his face was twisted.

However, when he turned his head to look at Tang Zhen, he discovered that Tang Zhen had an indifferent expression. He did not seem to be shocked by this matter.

The middle-aged cultivator felt strange and asked, "Sir Tang Zhen, don't tell me you know the secret of this matter?"

Tang Zhen shook his head, indicating that he did not know.

since you don't know, why aren't you shocked at all after hearing these secrets? "

The middle-aged cultivator was really curious. Moreover, one of his missions was to figure out Tang Zhen's attitude.

Tang Zhen's strength was obvious to all. They had to pull him to the same side and realize how terrifying a devil was.

However, Tang Zhen's current attitude was something that the middle-aged cultivator couldn't understand.

"I don't know the secret you're talking about, but I'm very clear about one thing," Tang Zhen explained. "The strength of an evil demon far exceeds that of a Demon Hunter.

Since that was the case, why didn't they kill all the Demon Hunters?

...

The answer was simple, they were disdainful because in their eyes, demon hunters were just a bunch of ridiculous ants.

However, even ants could bite an elephant to death when there were many of them. A thousand years was enough for demon hunters to have a certain level of strength and pose a threat to evil demons.

At this time, he naturally had to harvest a lot to avoid raising a Tiger.

So, the target of the catastrophe is not ordinary people, but demon hunters. I don't know if I'm right?"

The middle-aged cultivator nodded with a bitter smile, indicating that it was the truth and there was nothing to hide.

"The most important point is that as long as you're in this cage, you have to accept the control of the evil demon.

Even if the later generations knew the cause and effect and tried their best to avoid the appearance of demon hunters, the evil demons would still destroy this plan.

In the eyes of the evil demons, the Demon Hunters are the best food. A thousand years is for reproduction and fertilizing, so this plan is destined to not succeed."

The middle-aged cultivator nodded his head and his eyes were filled with admiration.

The things that Tang Zhen had said had indeed happened a thousand years ago. There were also corresponding records in the precious information collected by the Demon Hunter Union.

It was just that ordinary people could not see these secret scrolls at all. Tang Zhen had definitely not seen them before. The words that he said at this time were also completely obtained from his own analysis.

...

With such a cultivation and a vision that could see through the fog, if Tang Zhen was a Demon Hunter from the government, he would definitely be the focus of their training.

Although the middle-aged cultivator had the intention to recruit him, he could only regretfully give up this idea when he thought of Tang Zhen's strength and the capital he possessed.

There was no need to try something that was destined to fail. If he attracted Tang Zhen's dislike because of this, it would instead not be worth it.

Chapter 1894 The demoness who delivered herself to the door (1)

"Your Excellency must have a lot of things to deal with, so I won't disturb you any longer. See you tomorrow!"

After negotiating with Tang Zhen, the middle-aged cultivator left with his men. They also had many things to prepare.

Clearing The Fiend nest was no child's play. The enemy could easily number in the thousands, so they had to deal with it with all their strength.

The official demon hunters' training process was very strict. Every one of them cost a lot of resources, and they could not be easily lost.

!!

The chaotic situation that the civilian demon hunters were in was rarely seen among the official demon hunters. In this group, the rules and regulations were quite strict.

They were more United and loyal, able to trust their comrades and were extremely loyal to their own beliefs.

On this point, the Demon Hunters among the common people were far behind.

Perhaps this had something to do with the education they received. Compared to the Demon Hunters among the common folk, they knew more secrets and knew how dangerous the situation was for humans.

As for why the civilian demon hunters were not informed of the secret, it was mainly because their quality was mixed, and there were even evil demon spies.

If they knew the secret, the whole world would be in chaos without the demon's harvest.

Therefore, even if there were a large number of civilian demon hunters, they were not valued by the government. Even when the catastrophe occurred, most of them were used as cannon fodder.

After the official demon hunters left, the auction began, and all the bidders entered the venue.

The atmosphere at the scene was extremely enthusiastic. Everyone was determined to win, and the situation looked like they were on the battlefield.

Tang Zhen didn't have the mood to participate in this kind of activity. Instead, he took a special car and headed to the hotel he had booked to rest.

The pure black luxury car slowly moved along the street. Tang Zhen sat in the back seat, while rotten bones and little Jade followed beside him.

There were a few other cars behind the car with a bunch of demon hunters in them.

They spontaneously followed behind him and volunteered to act as guards. As long as Tang Zhen did not reject them, they would follow him wherever he went.

This method had the intention of currying favor with Tang Zhen. At the same time, it could also pull their relationship closer and obtain additional benefits.

To be able to interact with such an expert day and night, and to be able to ask questions about cultivation at any time, was an opportunity that many people could only dream of.

To be able to become Tang Zhen's guard, one would definitely have to go through a series of competition. The selected ones were naturally the group of people with the highest strength.

Those who were weaker had no chance to participate at all. They could only be envious and jealous.

There were a total of ten people in the guard team, and one of them was the huge man named Han Hu. He was also the only person selected in the city.

Han Hu immediately signed up after hearing that they were going to organize a team of guards. At the same time, he obtained a spot with his absolute strength.

However, according to Han Hu, he did it to repay Tang Zhen, not like the others, who were completely trying to get more benefits.

The convoy passed through the bustling streets and finally stopped in front of a skyscraper. A group of people had long been waiting at the door to welcome them.

After seeing Tang Zhen and the others get off the car, the staff immediately stepped forward and led them to the resting area on the top floor.

After reaching the rest area, Tang Zhen entered his room to rest while Shi Gu and Xiao Yu stood guard at the door.

Tang Zhen might not need it, but as a subordinate, he had to maintain his master's dignity.

As for the 10 demon hunters that followed them, they were guarding the room outside, which was the second line of defense.

Tang Zhen couldn't help but feel funny when he saw this. Although he was a world Overlord and had commanded tens of millions of cultivators in a war, he had never put on a show before.

Since they were willing to do this, he couldn't say much and just let nature take its course.

Tang Zhen entered the room and took a look. After which, he sat cross-legged on the carpet and his body slowly floated in the air.

A large amount of blood-colored mist emerged from his body and was continuously condensed and compressed until its color became darker and darker.

It was like purifying impurities, throwing away harmful and useless things, leaving behind only the pure essence.

Although he had killed two evil demons in a row and absorbed all their blood essence, the red mist did not change much in general.

Tang Zhen was not in a hurry. Something like raising one's cultivation was not something that could be done in a day.

Especially for a sector Lord like him, he couldn't be like a water tank that would fill up after a certain amount.

This matter required perseverance and opportunity.

It was common for cultivators to be stuck in a realm and not be able to advance for their entire lives.

If they were to encounter an opportunity like his, they would definitely try it even if it meant risking their lives.

The cultivation method Tang Zhen was using now was more stable and efficient than what the cornerstone platform taught. The side effects after absorption would also be smaller.

This was also the reason why Tang Zhen did not hesitate to accept the mission after learning about the details. This was because he had sufficient confidence in himself.

After spending about half an hour, Tang Zhen finished his cultivation.

He then took out the spoils of war he had seized one by one, wanting to study them in detail. Why did the cornerstone platform take such a fancy to these spoils of war?

Just as Tang Zhen was studying the treasures of those demons, a lady with a graceful figure slowly appeared in the corridor.

This woman was extremely beautiful, and her entire body exuded a charming aura, making people unable to look away.

From the moment she appeared, she became the focus of everyone's attention. The woman seemed to enjoy this feeling, and her every frown and smile was extremely charming.

However, when she walked to the area where Tang Zhen was, she was blocked by the Demon Hunter guarding the door and reminded her that entry was strictly prohibited.

"Oh, why can't I enter?"

The woman's voice was slightly hoarse, making people feel numb and itchy in their bones, and their bodies seemed to become light.

The Demon Hunter who blocked the way had an unnatural expression on his face. He cleared his throat to indicate that there was a distinguished guest living here.

is that so? why do I have a feeling that he would really like to see me? "

When the woman spoke, her eyes seemed to be glistening with a strange light.

"Impossible. Sir Tang Zhen would never be cowardly."

...

The Demon Hunter shook his head. Just as he was about to reject her again, he saw her eyes, and her gaze became blurry.

The words of rejection were immediately retracted, and he took the initiative to make way for the woman to walk in.

The other demon hunters felt a little strange. Just as they were about to ask what happened, they froze in place.

Their eyes were blank and seemed to have lost focus, as if the woman in front of them didn't exist at all.

The woman chuckled and walked to the bronze door in front of her with light steps.

The sturdy door opened automatically and the woman stepped in. She was immediately greeted by the sight of Shi Gu and Xiao Yu, who were guarding the door.

A look of disgust flashed across her eyes as she waved her hand. Shi Gu and Xiao Yu fell to the ground as if they had been struck by lightning.

you should suffer the punishment of being cut into pieces for helping the humans deal with your own kind. I will properly deal with you two traitors after I kill Tang Zhen.

It was easy for demon hunters to deal with demon servants as 99% of them had no choice. However, for some of the higher-ups, they did not care about these difficulties at all.

They made the rules and only needed results. They paid attention to the law above emotion, but they did not include themselves.

After coldly throwing down these words, the woman's long legs moved gently and was about to step into Tang Zhen's room.

...

"You want to kill my people? who gave you the courage?"

A faint voice rang out, causing the woman to raise her eyebrows slightly. She then turned around with a chuckle.

It was unknown when Tang Zhen had appeared behind him. He was currently using a cold gaze to look at him.

"Not bad, you actually discovered me. It seems that you are not as weak as I thought.

If that's the case, I'll have to be more careful. If you take it away, I'll become a laughingstock."

The woman's charming eyes were like silk as she carefully sized up Tang Zhen. However, her words carried a killing intent that was not concealed at all.

"You want to kill me? are you sure you have the ability?"

Tang Zhen's tone contained a trace of ridicule. He looked at the woman's expression as if he was looking at a jumping clown.

He originally planned to search for the evil demons in the demon nests one by one, but he didn't expect that there would actually be someone who wasn't afraid of death taking the initiative to come to his door. It was really out of Tang Zhen's expectations.

Judging from the tone of the other party, it seemed that he had come specifically to kill him and was very confident.

Tang Zhen would definitely not let go of such a prey that had delivered itself to his door. Otherwise, wouldn't he be wasting a good opportunity?

Chapter 1895 You're the devil

The smile on the corner of the woman's mouth was gently withdrawn when she saw that Tang Zhen did not have a trace of fear. Her eyes had also become cold and sharp.

"Tang Zhen, I don't care where you're from. You've already become The Public Enemy of the fiends by killing two fiend nest Masters.

To tell you the truth, no matter where you go in the future, you will face an endless pursuit!

If you're smart, take the initiative to commit suicide as an apology. Perhaps you can suffer less torture.

Otherwise, I have countless methods to make you wish you were dead!"

!!

Tang Zhen merely laughed in disdain in the face of the woman's threat. At the same time, he gently waved his hand at the unconscious bone eroding little Jade.

The bedroom door suddenly opened, and then, as if an invisible force was pulling their bodies, they were directly dragged into the room.

"Swish!"

The door closed with a muffled sound. At the same time, a runic magic circle appeared on the door, completely separating the two rooms.

"You seem to care a lot about your two servants, but it's no use. After I kill you, I'll have a lot of time to deal with them."

When the woman said this, she even stuck out her tongue and licked the corner of her lips, revealing a cruel smile.

"Don't worry, you'll never have the chance."

Tang Zhen's voice had just sounded when the woman opposite him suddenly made a move. Her beautiful hair was like a black waterfall as it swept towards Tang Zhen.

At the end of the black hair, there were human-head-like things. They opened their mouths wide and let out ear-piercing shrieks.

The shrieking sound was like a demonic sound filling one's mind, causing one's consciousness to go blank.

When the enemy was in a daze, the hair would be like a venomous snake, drilling into the body through the pores of the seven apertures, sucking the blood essence of the attacked.

It seemed like a simple method, but it had extremely high killing efficiency. Those who were not as strong as the woman would die in an instant.

Who would have thought that the instant these strands of hair approached Tang Zhen, a layer of white flames would rise from Tang Zhen's body and come into contact with those strands of hair.

The smell of burning spread out, and at the same time, it was mixed with the wails of ghosts and howls of wolves. The hair that came into contact with the flame instantly turned to ashes.

The hair that followed behind it seemed to have intelligence. It shrank and dodged like crazy, but even so, there were still many strands of hair that were surrounded by green smoke from the burning.

The woman's face was filled with heartache. Her pretty face instantly twisted like an evil Ghost as she grabbed at Tang Zhen.

Her fingernails were as black as ink and were constantly extending. They were covered with naturally formed runes, and dark green smoke floated around them.

The smoke was highly toxic and one would die if they breathed it in. The nails were also highly toxic, and upon contact, one's flesh would immediately rot into pus and blood.

"Tang Zhen, go to hell!"

The woman roared fiercely, but she looked a little embarrassed.

Her beautiful, silk-like hair had become extremely ugly at this moment. Not only were many places charred and bald, but the rest of her hair was even sticking to her scalp and hiding behind her head.

It was as if he was extremely afraid of Tang Zhen.

This kind of hair was by no means ordinary, and it was not easy to cultivate. One had to pull out all the hair of a young woman, then apply secret medicine and torture her in all ways.

After the woman was tortured to death, runes and magic circles were drawn on her body. In the end, resentment came out of her head and condensed into a long black hair.

After that, the woman plucked the long hair and transplanted it on her head. She then fed it with her blood essence.

That was why it was said that a single strand of her hair was equivalent to a life. The number of young women who had died in her hands had already exceeded 100000!

However, Tang Zhen had destroyed one-third of the woman's hair in the first exchange. When she felt heartache, she hated Tang Zhen even more.

"If that's all you have, then you can die!"

Tang Zhen coldly snorted when he saw the black fingernails heading straight for him. At the same time, he straightened his palm into a blade and swept them horizontally with the ten fingernails.

The woman's expression changed as she heard the sound of metal clanging. Her nails shattered and fell to the ground.

"You should die!"

Seeing that her two most powerful attacks had been broken and destroyed, the woman was so angry that smoke came out of her seven orifices, and the wariness in her eyes grew stronger.

Originally, she thought that Tang Zhen was just a lucky person with extremely high talent. He was lucky enough to kill two demons, but his true strength wasn't that strong.

It was a fact that demon hunters had no foundation. They only harvested once every thousand years, so what could be preserved?

In a world controlled by evil demons, it was impossible for a Demon Hunter to be too heaven-defying. Once one's cultivation reached a certain level, they would suffer the wrath of heaven and be completely destroyed.

This was a restriction curse on the Demon Hunters. It was a creator-level technique and couldn't be easily broken.

A special character like Tang Zhen would frequently appear a few hundred years ago. Occasionally, he would also perform a magnificent feat of killing evil demons.

However, such people were short-lived. It didn't take long for them to die for various reasons. The hidden Devils were naturally the ones behind the scenes.

The demons would not allow such geniuses to grow up and become a greater threat to them. Therefore, after they showed their outstanding side, they would kill them by any means necessary.

Such geniuses were also the favorite food of the evil demons. After devouring them, they would also obtain great benefits.

As for the deaths of a few evil demons, it was nothing at all. It must be known that there was also killing competition between evil demons. The number of evil demons that died at the hands of demon hunters was not even a fraction of the number of deaths from internal strife.

Therefore, after hearing about Tang Zhen, some evil demons immediately had the idea to make Tang Zhen their hunting target.

This woman was a devil from a nearby devil nest. After she learned of Tang Zhen's movements, she immediately came and tried to kill him.

Although Tang Zhen had already killed two demons in a row, the woman was extremely confident in her strength. She was certain that Tang Zhen was not her match.

However, at this moment, she no longer had such thoughts. In fact, she even felt a hint of regret.

maybe I should observe for a while more before making a move. Otherwise, I wouldn't be in such a sorry state.

However, she had forgotten about her impatient appearance earlier. She was afraid that she would be a step too late and cause Tang Zhen to become someone else's prey.

Who knew that not only did he not gain any benefits on this trip, but he had also suffered a great loss. Even if he killed Tang Zhen and devoured him, he was afraid that it would not be able to make up for this loss.

At the same time, a terrible thought rose in the woman's mind. If she was not careful, she might be the one to die Here.

After this thought appeared in her mind, it actually became uncontrollable, and it also made the woman more flustered.

...

No, he must use all his strength to kill Tang Zhen as soon as possible!

A sharp cry came out of the woman's mouth, and then her beautiful body suddenly changed. Her legs were bent like lamb legs, and her face became more and more charming.

However, her eyes were shooting out dark green flames, and her whole body was surrounded by black gas. In her hand was a whip covered with tiny palms.

When the female demoness waved her hand, those hands with sharp nails kept scratching, as if they were venting their bone-deep hatred.

"Tang Zhen, go to hell!"

The female devil lashed out with her whip and went straight for Tang Zhen. At the same time, she raised her hand and threw out a round ball that was surrounded by black and green mist.

The ball exploded, and the entire room was shrouded in a thick mist. In an instant, all the items in the room rotted into mud.

Within the mist, the sharp claws on the whip were stained with mucus as they wrapped towards Tang Zhen.

Once they were caught by the whip, the sharp claws would madly scratch and tear the enemy into pieces.

Moreover, the claws were burned with Yin Fire, so they wouldn't be affected for a short time even if they came into contact with the white flame.

Who knew that just as the whip touched Tang Zhen, a red mist gushed out from his body and rushed towards the whip like a living creature.

...

"You're a mayfly demon!"

The female demoness was like a frightened wild cat as she let out a cry of shock, her eyes filled with disbelief.

Then, she immediately realized something. She threw the whip away without hesitation and turned to escape.

At this moment, there was only one thought in her heart. She had been involved in a conspiracy. This Tang Zhen, who was disguised as a demon, was definitely hunting demons to increase his strength.

His identity as a Demon Hunter was just a disguise to confuse other evil demons so that he could walk around in the human world openly.

“Damn b * stard, if I had known this earlier, I wouldn’t have gotten involved in this mess even if you killed me!”

Those who dared to hunt and kill evil demons so arrogantly were either powerful experts with astonishing strength or stubborn lunatics who sought death.

From the female Devil’s Point of view, Tang Zhen was clearly the former. She did not want to continue being entangled with him.

However, at this moment, she felt her tail being pulled by a large hand, causing her body to tremble uncontrollably.

That was her sensitive area and she would not let anyone touch it easily. However, at this moment, she was not in the mood to care about that feeling.

Because at this moment, a cold voice entered her ears.

“Do you think it’s possible for you to leave here alive after knowing my true identity

Chapter 1896 Taking in the female demon (1)

Tang Zhen’s words caused the female fiend to feel as though she had fallen into an ice cave, as her body continuously trembled.

If she had a choice, she would definitely not appear here tonight and try to kill Tang Zhen.

He had thought that his prey was a little lamb, but when he made his move, he realized that it was actually an Overlord Dragon.

This kind of horrifying thing really made her feel like breaking down.

!!

The demoness had a feeling that she wasn’t here to claim her life, but to give it up.

The most fatal thing was that Tang Zhen had taken out her vital part, making her unable to escape.

Her tail was very important to her, just like the head and heart of an ordinary person. It had to be protected closely.

Unless she was in her battle form, the female demon’s tail would never be exposed to avoid being attacked by the enemy.

However, Tang Zhen was able to see through her weakness with a single glance. Moreover, he directly extended his hand and pulled her back, causing the female fiend to be extremely embarrassed and angry. However, she was helpless.

Of course, with the strength of the female demon, even if her vital parts were controlled by others, she still had the means to cut off her tail to survive.

However, the problem was that Tang Zhen was similarly not simple. Even if he used his life-preserving methods, he might not be able to escape from Tang Zhen’s demonic claws.

At the moment of life and death, the female demoness no longer hesitated and immediately begged for mercy.

She had regained her human nature, her clothes torn and tattered, and she looked very pitiful.

“Don’t kill me. I’m more useful alive than dead.

As long as you promise not to kill me, I’ll sign a slave contract with you and serve you wholeheartedly!”

Although demons liked to enslave all living beings, it would be a great humiliation if they were to be enslaved.

The problem was that compared to his life, a moment of humiliation was nothing. Only by keeping his life could he have a chance to rise again.

As for whether Tang Zhen would spare her, the female devil wasn’t confident in her heart. Therefore, she was also prepared to secretly counterattack.

Once Tang Zhen was prepared to kill him, he would not allow Tang Zhen to obtain any benefits even if they had to die together.

“Are you begging for mercy? why can’t I feel any sincerity?”

Tang Zhen’s voice appeared from within the mist. He was holding a strange looking thin and long war blade that was like a willow leaf.

If one looked closely, one would realize that the knife was not made of metal. It was actually made of a leg bone.

The weapon’s raw material came from the devil that Tang Zhen had killed. During the absorption and refining process, he had left behind a Devil’s leg bone. He wanted to see the effect of using it to refine a weapon.

He was not very satisfied with the result. He could barely use it, which was a huge difference compared to his previous weapons.

However, for an ordinary Demon Hunter, this battle blade could still be considered a divine weapon. After all, Tang Zhen’s refining technique was involved in it, and its value even far exceeded the material itself.

It was more than enough to kill demons.

Tang Zhen gently placed the battle blade in his hand on the female Devil’s thin and white neck. He sized her up a few times and exerted a slight force with his arm.

Feeling the sharp blade cutting into her skin, the female demon felt her body tremble and she subconsciously clenched her fist.

“You want to use self-detonation to take me down with you?”

Hearing the trace of ridicule in Tang Zhen’s tone, the female devil stared at him without turning her eyes away. She used an ice-cold voice and said, “That’s right. If I die, you won’t have an easy time either.”

I've already killed two demons, and I'm still alive. Do you think you can hurt me with this? "

no matter if it's effective or not, I have to try it. I can't just sit here and wait for death.

Hearing the female Devil's reply, Tang Zhen smiled and withdrew the battle blade from her neck.

The female demon heaved a sigh of relief. Just as she was secretly rejoicing in her heart, she saw Tang Zhen suddenly take out an item and directly place it around her neck.

It was an item similar to a collar. It was gorgeous and flamboyant, which was quite in line with her temperament.

However, the female demoness knew that this item was definitely not simple. It was very likely that Tang Zhen was using it to restrict her.

"After wearing this, if you dare to have any evil thoughts, it will blow your head into pieces of meat!"

When the female fiend heard this, she curled her lips.

to a demon, losing only a part of their body would not kill them, even if it was the most important part of their head.

Tang Zhen's methods were naturally not that simple. Therefore, the female devil believed that she would definitely die like an ordinary person after losing her head.

Although her heart was filled with resentment, the female demon could only obediently accept her fate. At least after bringing this item, it meant that she would temporarily be able to keep her life.

As for when Tang Zhen would kill him, it would completely depend on his mood. From this moment on, his life was already completely in Tang Zhen's control.

"Have you already guessed that I won't kill you?"

Tang Zhen suddenly opened his mouth and asked the female devil beside him.

The female fiend was stunned when she heard this, and a trace of unnaturalness flashed across her face. After hesitating for a moment, she nodded.

She did not dare to lie to Tang Zhen easily. Otherwise, once he found out the truth, she might lose her life.

"It seems that my senses were right. When I grabbed your tail, I suddenly felt a strange force enter my mind, trying to peek into my thoughts.

It must have been at that moment that you read a bit of my thoughts, but you pretended not to know.

This is very interesting. Is this your innate ability or some kind of secret technique?"

Since Tang Zhen had raised this question, the female devil did not dare to hide it. She could only use a slightly helpless tone to reply, "This is our race's innate secret technique. When we mate, we can feel each other's thoughts through our tails and enjoy the extreme pleasure.

The tail is also a vital part of our race. Once it is controlled, our combat power will be greatly reduced, so it will not be easily revealed.”

Hearing the female Devil’s explanation, Tang Zhen nodded his head and did not seem to be very interested.

The demoness was a little surprised. Her race had always been very popular among the demons because of this ability.

However, from Tang Zhen’s appearance, it seemed that he didn’t care about this ability. This caused the female fiend to heave a sigh of relief, but at the same time, she also felt a little disappointed.

...

It was uncomfortable to be ignored by others, especially for females.

For the female devil, the resentment that was produced from being ignored was even stronger than being subdued by Tang Zhen.

“He looks quite similar, but his personality is cold. Really boring.”

The female devil silently cursed in her heart. However, she felt even more disappointed. Her original plan of using her body to please and seduce Tang Zhen was likely not going to work.

This was her powerful weapon, but now she had no place to use it, so one could imagine how depressed she was.

Tang Zhen ignored the female devil who was letting her imagination run wild. Instead, he walked into the house and woke up the unconscious Shi Gu and Xiao Yu.

After they regained their consciousness, they immediately stood up and looked around vigilantly.

Soon, their gazes fell on the female demoness, their eyes filled with anger and fear, as well as a trace of confusion.

“Hey, why are you looking at me like that? I didn’t do anything to you!”

At this moment, the female demoness had already returned to her human form. She glanced at Shi Gu and Xiao Yu with a flirtatious expression as she complained in a reproaching tone.

we’ll be a family in the future. Call me big sister. There’ll be benefits for you!

...

After hearing the female demoness ‘words, Shi Gu and Xiao Yu looked at each other, their faces filled with confusion.

From the looks of it, the female demon seemed to have been subdued by her master?

He turned his head to look at Tang Zhen, only to see him gently nod his head. After which, he walked out of the house.

“I say, you two, are you going to call me or not?”

After Tang Zhen walked out of the house, the female devil immediately widened her eyes and asked in an ice-cold voice.

“Sister Yingluo!”

A wise man knows when to retreat. Shi Gu and Xiao Yu hesitated for a moment before obediently opening their mouths.

“Be good, this is big sister’s gift for you. Don’t dislike it!”

The demoness nodded her head in satisfaction and took out two items, stuffing them into the hands of Shi Gu and Xiao Yu. She then walked out of the house with a smile.

“Master, wait for me!”

Shi Gu and Xiao Yu stood where they were as they stared at the crystal in their hands. There was only one thought in their minds.

This big sister who had suddenly appeared was actually a nouveau riche. She was actually so generous!

Chapter 1897 The demoness killer (1)

In the room outside, the group of demon hunters were still in a daze, as if they had not recovered from that state.

They only gradually recovered after Tang Zhen came out. Their faces were filled with doubt as they sized up their surroundings.

“Sir Tang Zhen, what happened just now?”

The Demon Hunters looked at the house that was in a mess and seemed to have thought of something. They quickly asked in an anxious tone.

!!

“It’s nothing. There was a little accident, but it’s been resolved.”

Tang Zhen did not blame these people. Although they were not weak, they were definitely not a match for the female devil.

If it wasn’t for the female demoness ‘overconfidence and not taking their lives, they would have long become corpses.

Tang Zhen had let the female devil off not because he was soft-hearted.

Other than wanting another helper to obtain information about the demons from her, there was another main reason. It was because she didn’t harm his subordinates and followers.

Otherwise, no matter how great the value of the female devil was, no matter how much she begged and bribed, Tang Zhen would not hesitate to kill her.

This was Tang Zhen’s style of doing things. The fate of the terobo people was the best proof.

After hearing Tang Zhen's reply, the Demon Hunters heaved a sigh of relief at the same time. While they rejoiced, they were also a little embarrassed.

Their mission was to protect Tang Zhen. Who would have thought that they would encounter such an embarrassing situation when they just took office tonight?

Fortunately, Tang Zhen was a magnanimous person and didn't pursue this matter. Otherwise, they would really have no face to stay here.

Just as they were silently blaming themselves, they saw the female demon slowly walk out of the room, with corrosive bone and Xiao Yu behind her.

"Yingluo is you!"

The Demon Hunter who had stopped the female fiend at the beginning was stunned for a moment, then revealed a shocked expression, and pointed at her at the same time.

"Sir Tang Zhen, it was her just now."

The Demon Hunter's eyes flashed with realization as he spoke, then he shut his mouth.

Since this woman dared to follow behind Tang Zhen so brazenly, it was clearly impossible for her to be an enemy. There was no need for him to continue reminding her.

As for why the woman had knocked them out, it was probably because of some special reason. Although the Demon Hunters were unhappy, they couldn't do anything about it.

However, looking at the dilapidated room, everyone was still full of doubts. They could not understand what had happened while they were unconscious.

"Oh, you're all awake. Let's introduce ourselves."

The demoness slowly walked to the front of the crowd as if she was familiar with them, revealing a charming smile.

you can call me sister Mei. From today onwards, I'll be His Excellency Tang Zhen's personal assistant. Please take care of me!

When the female devil spoke, she sneaked a glance at Tang Zhen. When she discovered that he wasn't angry, her suspended heart also relaxed.

Her current actions were also in order to integrate into this group as soon as possible. The stronger her sense of existence was, the more Tang Zhen would value her.

As a demon who had lived for more than a thousand years, the female demon was extremely skilled in manipulating people's hearts.

After hearing the female evil demon's words, the Demon Hunters didn't dare to neglect her and quickly greeted her with a smile.

She was called sister Mei because she was a succubus, but she was also a mutant of the succubus race, so she only used a harmonious sound.

After the female demoness heard the Demon Hunters' words, she smiled charmingly and had a satisfied expression on her face.

"Since you guys call me sister, I can't let you guys call me that for nothing. This is my gift to you guys. Each of you can take one piece and use it first."

As the female demon spoke, she took out a handful of black gemstones and distributed them to the Demon Hunters.

This kind of thing was a special product of the demon nest. Demon hunters called it a magic crystal. It was a kind of pure and absorbable energy stone, which had always been regarded as a treasure by demon hunters.

The Demon Hunters did not expect sister Mei to be so generous. The smile on their faces grew wider and they kept thanking her.

Putting aside the gifts he had received, just looking at sister Mei's appearance was a pleasing thing.

In addition, her own strength was not weak, and she took care of all of them in one move. Facing such a beautiful and powerful woman, the Demon Hunter couldn't help but admire her from the bottom of his heart.

Alright, go and inform the supervisor here to clean up the room and get me a new one.

The house was in a mess because of sister Mei. Tang Zhen would definitely have to change the house. As for the losses here, he didn't have to worry about it at all.

As long as Tang Zhen was willing, even if the entire building was to be demolished, the wealthy merchants who tried to please him would not say anything.

If Tang Zhen was willing to use The Devil's Blood essence to exchange for it, it was likely that those wealthy people would buy all the nearby buildings and allow him to destroy them as he pleased.

After hearing Tang Zhen's instructions, the Demon Hunters immediately turned around to carry out the order. Soon, they were arranged to a new room.

As usual, the Demon Hunters were in charge of guarding the corridor while Corrosive Bone and Little Jade were waiting at the door. As for the demoness, sister Mei, she was called into the house by Tang Zhen.

"Tell me, what do you know?"

Tang Zhen sat on the gorgeous sofa and looked at sister Mei, who was standing in front of him, and asked in a calm tone.

"Master, what do you want to know?"

Sister Mei blinked her eyes and a trace of doubt flashed in her eyes. She really didn't know what Tang Zhen wanted to know.

"Tell me your background and why you came to assassinate me."

Sister Mei's face revealed a trace of depression. She always felt that she had been deceived by Tang Zhen. Otherwise, she would not have encountered the current situation.

I'm just an unknown little evil demon. I've been hiding in the corner of the city for a thousand years. There are less than three evil demons who know of my existence.

I'm also not like those great demons who not only have their own fiend nest but also have countless fiend servants under them. I'm just a pitiful person without a home to return to."

Sister Mei sighed softly, revealing a pitiful look, but her words were obviously a little too modest.

Or rather, she was unwilling to show off in front of Tang Zhen. In fact, she was quite strong. The cultivation and methods of the two evil demons that Tang Zhen had killed earlier were inferior to hers.

It might be its habit to not have its own devil nest, but Tang Zhen did not think so.

...

"You don't have a fiend nest. Is it because you have too many enemies and are afraid of being blocked inside?"

If I'm not wrong, you've tried to assassinate me more than once, right?"

Sister Mei pursed her lips, picked up a bottle of wine from the table, and poured a glass for Tang Zhen.

"I've indeed done it a few times. There were times when I was successful, and there were also times when I was hunted down by people when I made a mistake.

In order to prevent myself from being blocked, I stopped managing The Fiend nest and hid among the people. This was actually safer.

The reason I attacked master was because I thought of you as a rising star among the Demon Hunters. Although such a genius's strength is not bad, he is not my opponent at all.

I just didn't expect master to have hidden it so deeply. I'm really regretful now, but it's too late."

When sister Mei said this, she looked at Tang Zhen with a resentful gaze. It was really a charming scene.

If an ordinary person were to be looked at by her, they would probably immediately be captivated and at a loss.

Tang Zhen had seen countless beautiful women. It was impossible for him to be confused by sister Mei's appearance. He only frowned slightly.

"According to what you've said, there's more than one elite Demon Hunter that died in your hands, right?"

...

Sister Mei smiled proudly when she heard this. She stretched out two fingers that were as white as Jade and shook them gently.

"In total, there are twenty of them!"

“What about the Devils? how many have you killed?” Tang Zhen nodded and asked.

“This, Yingluo?”

Sister Mei blinked her eyes and stretched out five fingers.

“Five? that’s not a small number.”

Tang Zhen nodded.

“Master, it’s not five, it’s more than fifty.”

Upon hearing sister Mei’s words, Tang Zhen’s face revealed a trace of surprise. He didn’t expect the female devil to have such a brilliant record.

After seeing Tang Zhen’s expression, sister Mei was naturally very proud in her heart, but she didn’t dare to show it.

master, you’ve misunderstood. Among these demons, most of them are mixed-blood demons, and only three of them are high-level demons.

Although sister Mei was very proud of her past achievements, she felt a little flustered when she thought of Tang Zhen’s true identity and what he was doing now.

Perhaps, the number of experts that had died in Tang Zhen’s hands was far more than what she had imagined. She was only able to keep her life because of her good luck.

“With your strength, it’s already pretty good that you’re able to do this.”

Tang Zhen revealed a smile. There seemed to be a hint of admiration in his eyes as he looked at sister Mei.

Chapter 1898 Sister Mei’s vicious plan (1)

Seeing the admiration in Tang Zhen’s eyes, sister Mei didn’t say anything, but she was very proud in her heart.

Up until now, she had only told Tang Zhen about her past experiences. Other people did not have the qualifications to know about it. Otherwise, they would die.

Sister Mei couldn’t let someone who knew her secret live. It would bring her danger. If the secret was leaked, her enemies might come looking for her at any time.

However, he kept these things in his heart and didn’t have anyone to show off to. It was also a very depressing thing.

!!

To be able to tell it to Tang Zhen and even receive a trace of praise, this already made sister Mei very satisfied.

“Looking at him, he should be very satisfied with me. That’s good!”

When the female demon, sister Mei, thought of this, she felt even more pleased with herself. Conquering an expert like Tang Zhen would bring her a great sense of satisfaction.

Sister Mei was an oddball among their race. She completely disdained to rely on and serve other demons for survival. Instead, she walked on a completely different path of power.

Although she had a beautiful appearance and looked weak, her hands were actually covered in blood. Who knew how many innocent souls had died by her hands?

In the cultivation world, killing was not uncommon. It was common to see people who destroyed countries and cities.

Tang Zhen was already used to such things. He would definitely not let some cultivators kill too many people and affect his judgment.

Otherwise, in the entire world of Loucheng, there was no one that could be used. It must be known that cultivators of Loucheng above the king level had killed countless people!

He was more interested in the other party's ability and whether he could be used by him. As long as he had such conditions, it would not be a problem even if they were once enemies.

Sister Mei was a good candidate. With her participation in his plan, it might be much easier.

"The reason why I kept you here is not only to provide assistance during the battle, but also to help me plan how to kill more evil demons." Tang Zhen said after thinking up to this point.

When sister Mei heard this, she showed a complicated expression.

She already knew of Tang Zhen's identity. He was a true devil and he had increased his strength by hunting and killing Devils.

It wasn't that there weren't such demons, but they were equivalent to demonic cultivators among demons, and they played the role of enemies to the whole world.

Even among the evil demons, they were extremely disgusted with such a guy. Once exposed, they would often be hunted down to death.

This was because this was different from the revenge and profit-seeking between demons. This was a completely unreasonable killing, a pure black sheep.

At this moment, sister Mei felt as if she had boarded a pirate ship, and it was the kind that she couldn't get off.

She was afraid that Tang Zhen would be hunted down by the Devils after she was exposed one day, and she would also be implicated.

However, he was currently under Tang Zhen's control. His life and death were all in Tang Zhen's hands. Hence, even though he clearly knew that the path ahead was filled with danger, he could only brace himself and charge forward.

One should know that once a devil decided to do something, most of them would not give up easily. If he were to dissuade them, he would instead arouse Tang Zhen's anger.

Servants had no human rights and could only silently endure the punishment. Since that was the case, why ask for trouble?

After frowning and thinking for a while, sister Mei's eyes lit up and she made a suggestion.

"The simplest method is naturally to search for traces of The Fiend nest, and then invade and plunder it like master did.

However, there were disadvantages to doing so. It would only make it more difficult for one to find The Fiend nest.

It should be known that a demon lair that was more than a thousand years old was mostly hidden very tightly, and it was not easy to find it.

The two fiend nests that master had cleared out, the original masters had only been fiends for a few hundred years. They were shallow and self-righteous fools.

They were simply seeking death by being so arrogant. Even if their master did not kill them, other demons would come to kill them sooner or later.

After these two incidents, the other evil demons would definitely be on guard. As long as their master entered the area under their control, they would definitely close the entrance to the demon nest.

Searching for the entrance to The Fiend nest is bound to waste a lot of time, and it's still unknown if we can find it in the end."

Tang Zhen listened to the analysis in silence and nodded gently from time to time. He clearly agreed with sister Mei's point of view.

When sister Mei saw this, she also let go of her courage and spoke.

"Rather than blindly searching for The Fiend nest, why don't we take the initiative to set up a trap to attract the fiends? at the same time, we'll hide behind the scenes and secretly make a fortune!"

When sister Mei said this, she looked exulted and very proud.

Tang Zhen took a sip of the wine in his cup and glanced at sister Mei with a faint smile.

After seeing Tang Zhen's eyes, sister Mei felt a little guilty and her gaze turned slightly.

the reason why you suggested this was because you were afraid of making too many enemies and being hunted down by the demons, right? "

Sister Mei covered her mouth and chuckled. Although her thoughts were exposed by Tang Zhen, she did not feel embarrassed at all.

To be able to protect his life while completing his mission was nothing out of the ordinary in her eyes.

All plans were for profit, but risks came with it. If he could guarantee his safety while obtaining benefits, why not?

Tang Zhen didn't care about sister Mei's little thoughts. As long as she could help him lure enough demons, Tang Zhen wouldn't care no matter what means were used.

it seems like you already have an idea in mind. How do you plan to do it? why don't you tell me? ”

If sister Mei's plan worked, Tang Zhen would immediately execute it without wasting any time.

“Evil demons are greedy by nature. When faced with temptations that move their hearts, they can't control themselves at all.

We can make use of this to create an imaginary treasure trove and attract them to fight for it.

In the process of fighting, killing is inevitable, so we can take the opportunity to kill them all!”

Tang Zhen nodded his head. This method was not bad, but he still needed sister Mei to explain in detail how to do it.

“According to my understanding, 10000 years ago, the evil demons and the human race were evenly matched. It was only after a Great War that the evil demons completely gained the upper hand, resulting in the current situation.

During that Great War, many powerful evil demons died or went into deep sleep, and their demon nests were sealed or buried.

However, such a fiend nest would definitely contain countless treasures, and once they appeared, they would cause the fiends to go crazy to snatch them.

We can forge a similar fiend nest and deliberately scatter some treasures. Then, we can spread the news and attract those fiends here.”

...

Sister Mei's plan was very simple, but it was also very effective. If the operation was successful, it might really save Tang Zhen a lot of time.

it's a good plan. I think we can give it a try. Do you have any suggestions about the location and items? ”

Tang Zhen didn't know much about this world. At this moment, he naturally had to ask sister Mei, the local snake, for advice to avoid any omissions in the process of implementation.

Sister Mei seemed to have a well-thought-out plan. Perhaps she had a similar plan herself, but because of her personal strength, she had never been able to implement it.

“The location can be in a Valley on the outskirts of this city. That place was once an ancient battlefield, and from time to time, there will be items left behind from the past unearthed.

Many demons knew about this, so choosing this location would increase the credibility to the greatest extent.

As for the treasures, I've collected some over the years. Although they're of average value, they can barely be used as bait.

If master has more valuable items, you can also take some out. The more valuable the bait is, the better the effect will be.”

Sister Mei was so excited that she almost screamed on the spot, her face flushed red, as if she was imagining the scene of her plan being successfully executed and countless demons being killed.

Chapter 1899 Exterminate the evil and defend the Dao, a long and arduous journey _

In the time that followed, sister Mei was very active and took the initiative to offer advice.

As a native cultivator, she knew more secrets and had a more accurate grasp of the demon's psychology.

He had clearly found the right person to hand this matter over to her. He believed that the result would definitely not disappoint Tang Zhen.

It was already sufficient for Tang Zhen as long as he could attract the evil demons over. As long as they appeared, they could forget about leaving!

!!

Sister Mei and Tang Zhen discussed all night. After taking all the changes into consideration, they finalized the entire plan.

Then, sister Mei accepted the order, took the things that Tang Zhen gave her, and ran excitedly to start the layout.

Sister Mei didn't say that this plan had been brewing in her heart for a long time, but she just didn't have the courage to execute it.

Now that she had Tang Zhen as her backing, sister Mei no longer had any scruples and was eager to realize it.

This succubus had always been full of an adventurous spirit and yearned for an exciting life.

That was why she didn't spend a lot of time running a demon nest like other demons. Instead, she hid among the people and did some plundering and assassination.

Walking on the edge of life and death, tasting the soul-stirring stimulation, she was intoxicated.

Sister Mei's heart was filled with excitement at the thought of the heavy responsibility she had to accomplish what she had never dared to do before.

The resentment that was originally controlled by Tang Zhen had also unknowingly greatly dissipated. A trace of anticipation had even risen in his heart.

If the plan was successful, he would definitely obtain great benefits. As the Minister who contributed the most, Tang Zhen would definitely not treat him badly.

Sister Mei was so confident because she was a true high-level demon, not a mixed-blood demon like eroding bone.

It wasn't without reason that pure-blooded evil demons looked down on mixed-blooded evil demons. Regardless of status or battle strength, the two simply couldn't be compared.

Unless it was really necessary, Tang Zhen would definitely not kill her. That would be the greatest waste of resources.

Sister Mei firmly believed that as long as she worked hard, her status would get higher and higher, and her position would become more and more stable.

Of course, if there was a chance, sister Mei would still choose to get rid of Tang Zhen's control. No matter how comfortable a rich dog was, it was not as free as a stray dog.

Her life had always been in the hands of others, and she was constantly in danger. She really didn't want to live such a depressing life.

.....

Sister Mei only appeared for a moment and then disappeared.

As for sister Mei's whereabouts, the Demon Hunters who had seen her before did not ask much, but they guessed that she was most likely on a secret mission.

As sister Mei said that she was Tang Zhen's personal assistant, the Demon Hunters had some speculations about Tang Zhen's background. It was obviously not as simple as it seemed on the surface.

Thinking about it, how could such a powerful Demon Hunter appear out of thin air? there must be a big force behind him.

This beautiful sister Mei was obviously a member of the hidden force. She had appeared unexpectedly and then disappeared mysteriously, making it impossible for people to know her whereabouts.

As for the other unrelated people, they didn't know about the existence of sister Mei. They didn't know that Tang Zhen had a high-level demon servant overnight.

If this matter were to spread out, it would definitely cause a huge uproar. It was absolutely rare to be able to enslave a high-level evil demon.

The difficulty of completing this task far exceeded that of clearing The Fiend nest. Since ancient times, there had been very few successful people.

It was a quiet night.

The next morning, hundreds of demon hunters gathered in the lobby of the hotel, attracting the attention of passersby.

They secretly guessed in their hearts, could it be that some great figure lived here?

There were even more people outside the hotel, including the Demon Hunters who were still watching and the agents of the rich.

After clearing two demon nests in a row, Tang Zhen's reputation was getting bigger and bigger. Many demon hunters came because of his fame, wanting to witness his magnificent feat of clearing the demon nests with their own eyes.

As time passed, more and more demon hunters would join the Demon Hunter team.

It was extremely lively outside. A large group of people were eagerly waiting, but Tang Zhen was sitting in the room.

The middle-aged cultivator, who represented the government, came to visit at dawn to discuss the next target.

Just as sister Mei had said earlier, there were only a few evil demons who openly exposed the location of their fiend nests. Most of the evil demons hid their fiend nests very deeply.

The old demons were cruel and low-key. They were not as flamboyant as they appeared to be, looking for trouble for themselves.

This also caused Tang Zhen to be unable to find a target for a while after he cleared out the two fiend nests.

The specious rumors were mostly stirred up by the demonic servants and had nothing to do with The Fiend nests.

Fortunately, the middle-aged cultivator had come prepared. He had a piece of information in his hands that marked a few locations where fiend nests might be.

Using Tang Zhen to weaken the evil demons was a plan that the government had already formulated. Therefore, they had already made sufficient preparations before they came.

Tang Zhen smiled when he saw this. He was naturally more than happy to do so.

After carefully analyzing the information provided by the middle-aged cultivator, Tang Zhen pondered for a moment and finally chose a location.

“Northern wilderness swamp, I think this place is not bad, should we go and have a look?”

The middle-aged cultivator smiled when he heard the location mentioned by Tang Zhen. He indicated that there was no problem with this place.

“The northern wilderness swamp is located in a Nature Reserve. Because of the dangerous environment and wild beasts, few people dare to approach it.

The demon nest’s entrance according to the intelligence was located in the ruins of this swamp. It had been discovered by chance decades ago.

as the discoverer insisted that he saw a large group of monsters, we sent a small team of demon hunters to investigate, but the team never returned.

After this incident, we sent a team of elites to investigate and finally determined that this was a fiend nest.

Due to the remote terrain, the headquarters sealed the investigation results and used official power to turn the area into a Nature Reserve.”

The middle-aged cultivator gave a simple introduction, but there wasn’t much useful information. It was clear that they didn’t have a deeper understanding of this fiend nest.

This was actually very normal. If it was not necessary, even the government would not go deep into the demon nest to avoid causing a bigger change.

...

If he really poked the hornet's nest, he would only be stung and full of bumps. He was completely asking for trouble.

This situation also explained the awkward situation of the official demon hunters. They didn't dare to provoke their mortal enemy.

Even if they knew that a great disaster was coming, they had no choice but to secretly do some small tricks.

Perhaps they felt helpless, but in the face of a powerful demon, what they could do was actually very limited.

He was like a fish that had been thrown into a pot of boiling water. He knew that he would become a pot of fish soup sooner or later, but he could not escape at all.

Everything he was doing now was more like a struggle before being scalded to death. In fact, it didn't have much meaning.

"If your Excellency Tang Zhen wants to go to the northern desolate swamp, I can help to contact the military's transport plane. It can send you to the designated place in the shortest time possible.

As for the road in the swamp, there is also a corresponding means of transportation, and you don't need to take a step for the whole journey."

The middle-aged cultivator was clear that with Tang Zhen's strength, he could completely ignore the dangers in the swamp and directly reach the location of The Fiend nest.

The main purpose of these vehicles was to transport ordinary demon hunters to the battlefield.

It was meaningful to kill more demonic servants. Perhaps fewer people would die when the calamity came.

...

Chapter 1900 Fierce battle in the air (1)

"As long as Sir Tang Zhen is willing, we can cooperate with you unconditionally and do our best to mobilize the resources you need."

There was no need to talk about Tang Zhen's strength. After clearing out the devil nest, he would most likely not lack cultivation resources. The money in his hands was uncountable.

Under such circumstances, the methods used by the government to bribe the Demon Hunters were no longer useful in front of Tang Zhen.

Therefore, the only thing they could do was to provide logistical assistance, collect intelligence, and show their sincerity as much as possible.

!!

The middle-aged cultivator believed that Tang Zhen would definitely be able to feel their sincerity.

After confirming the location and discussing everything, the middle-aged cultivator immediately made arrangements.

The official demon hunters had a lot of power, so it wasn't difficult for them to apply for the use of military transportation.

Especially the middle-aged cultivator in front of him, who came with a heavy responsibility and had much more authority than other official demon hunters.

In just an hour, the middle-aged cultivator told Tang Zhen that everything was ready and they could start at any time.

Under Tang Zhen's lead, a large group of demon hunters took a car and headed to the nearby airport in a grandiose manner.

When they arrived at their destination, they saw that the airport was already under martial law, and teams of fully armed soldiers were standing guard there.

Not only were demon hunters involved in the clearing of the demon nest, but elite soldiers from the military were also involved.

The weapons and equipment they used were all developed at a huge cost with the purpose of dealing with demonic creatures.

These elite soldiers had undergone special training and would also participate in the battle with the Demon Hunters. However, they were only responsible for the outer defense to prevent any fish from escaping.

During the second fiend nest purge, a large number of demonic servants had fled, causing the entire city to descend into chaos last night. Large numbers of demon hunters were hunting for demonic servants everywhere.

Although there were quite a few casualties, with the government's intervention, it didn't cause much panic.

The main reason was that the defense work on the periphery was not done well, and no one was responsible for defense at all.

Learning from the previous lesson, this time, the government not only mobilized the Army, but also added a large number of civilian demon hunters.

At present, an official employment mission had appeared in the Demon Hunter headquarters in all the cities, and the rewards were unusually generous.

Anyone who was willing to follow Tang Zhen to clear the demon nest could sign up to accept the mission. Then, it would be organized by the officials and sent to the designated location collectively.

This was a huge move that had not been seen in a hundred years. It attracted the attention of everyone and also caused Tang Zhen's reputation to become increasingly resounding.

At this moment, the Sosnovka Military Base was filled with moving figures. The reflection of weapons and armors appeared from time to time.

Before joining the operation, the Demon Hunters had completely upgraded their equipment and tried to improve their strength as much as possible.

The demon wave was about to be wiped out, and the danger factor was extremely high. He definitely couldn't be stingy with his points at this time.

After everyone had boarded the transport plane, several transport planes took off and headed straight for the northern wilderness swamp.

Beside these transport planes, there were also six fighter planes to guard them in case of any accidents during the flight.

It was impossible to guard against the demons' means. The fighter planes were dispatched to guard them in order to prevent them from launching attacks in the air.

This proved to be a wise move.

Just ten minutes after the transport plane took off, a large group of flying monsters suddenly appeared and tried to destroy the transport plane.

The jet fighters' pilots, who were already prepared, immediately engaged the flying monsters. They relied on their super-fast speed and sharp weapons to temporarily suppress the attacks of the flying monsters.

However, there were too many monsters. It didn't take long for fighter planes to be destroyed one after another, and they had to request for backup.

The demons had more tricks up their sleeves. There was more than one wave of flying monsters that came to intercept them. It did not take long for more flying monsters to appear in their field of vision.

These monsters were huge in size and looked ferocious. There were monsters similar to dragons and demons similar to chimaeras.

They were scattered all over the sky, like dark clouds sweeping over, completely blocking the transport plane's path.

The Demon Hunters on the transport plane were scared witless. Due to the limitations of their strength, 99% of them were unable to fly in the air.

If the transport plane crashed, no matter if it was the Demon Hunters or the soldiers, there was basically no chance of survival.

At this critical moment, Tang Zhen's figure suddenly appeared in the air and flew towards those monsters.

He waved a blood-red whip in his hand and continuously swept at the flying monsters, leaving afterimages in the air.

Wherever the long whip passed, miserable screams rang out. Those arrogant monsters were split in two and fell from the sky to the ground.

The shadow of a whip flew past, clearing out a large area of space. Its speed was so fast that it left people dumbfounded.

Inside the transport plane, there was a special player that could see the scene outside.

The Demon Hunters who were watching the battle were dumbfounded. They then cheered in unison, their faces full of admiration.

If he had the same strength and could ignore the demons, where would he not be able to go in this world?

A man should be like his Excellency Tang Zhen. Even if he was surrounded by thousands of demons, his expression would not change. Killing demons was like cutting grass!

Although they wanted to kill the enemy together with Tang Zhen, their strength was limited. Therefore, they could only watch helplessly and were unable to help at all.

Those official demon hunters were also staring at Tang Zhen. Many young people were so excited that their faces turned red. They wished that the figure in the sky was themselves.

The battle in the sky was getting more and more intense.

Tang Zhen brandished his whip and charged in front. Several transport planes followed behind him. They used a speed that made people's jaws drop as they forcefully opened a path through the group of monsters.

Just when everyone thought that they were finally out of danger, a large group of flying monsters suddenly appeared in the distant sky.

These monsters were huge and covered in thick bone armor, which glowed with a dark luster under the sun.

On the scales of the flying monsters, there were smaller flying monsters that looked like Yakshas and evil ghosts. They wriggled on the monsters' bodies.

When they approached Tang Zhen, they were like dumplings as they continuously flew down from the monster's body.

In the blink of an eye, another Sea of Monsters formed a new barrier, completely sealing off the transport plane's passage.

The moment the transport plane came into contact with these monsters, it would be severely damaged, and death would only be an instant.

...

there's no end to this. I think you're in a hurry to die!

Tang Zhen revealed an annoyed expression when he saw another group of flying monsters appear. He raised his hand and waved it in front of him.

“I’ll send you guys on your way!”

The air became extremely viscous, and suddenly, ripples and folds appeared, instantly condensing into crescent moons.

These crescents were shimmering with golden light and exuded a dazzling cold light. They seemed to be extremely sharp.

There were at least 100000 of them, filling up the sky.

“Go!”

Following Tang Zhen’s low roar, these crescent-shaped objects emitted a soft cry and swept toward the flying monster from all directions.

The sky was like a blood-colored firework. A bloody mist exploded in the air, and broken limbs fell to the ground like rain.

When the flying monsters that were charging over saw this, they quickly dodged in all directions. However, they didn’t expect the crescent moons to be like boomerangs, constantly crisscrossing in the air.

When they touched each other, they merged into one and turned into a larger crescent moon, sweeping across the sky.

...

“Damn it, what kind of strange move is this?”

In the distant sky, there was a giant evil Dragon that was tens of meters long. On the dragon’s back stood a demon in heavy armor.

His name was the heaven vault devil. Within the evil demon faction, he could be considered to have some fame.

Seeing the flying monsters that had attacked earlier being cut down one after another, the evil demon was embarrassed and angry. It did not expect that this Tang Zhen would be so difficult to deal with.

However, in the blink of an eye, more than half of the demonic servants it had nurtured over the years had been lost. It was so painful that its heart was bleeding.

If it had known earlier, it would not have intercepted Tang Zhen halfway. It was truly not worth the loss.

However, the battle had already progressed to such a stage. If he were to withdraw, he would definitely lose everything. It seemed like he had to personally step up and kill this Demon Hunter named Tang Zhen.

“Servants, follow me into battle and tear this Demon Hunter into pieces!” He ordered.

The demonic spirit of the heaven vault waved his arm, and the mixed-blood evil demons guarding him, as well as the thousand heavy-armored evil demons, all responded at the same time, letting out shrieks that made people's scalps tingle.

Tang Zhen had already cleared out all the flying monsters in the sky. When he saw another wave of monsters flying over, he immediately charged forward. The leader of the wave was a high-level demon.

He had just subdued a female devil last night, and today, another one who was not afraid of death came to his door. If he could do this every day, it would save Tang Zhen a lot of effort.
