Chapter 301: The birth of the Super soldier

Tang Zhen's control of his strength could be described as extremely wonderful.

The sharp scalpel in his hand flashed nimbly, and in an instant, the head of the strong man from the ice Bear Alliance was split open.

He took out the purple electric short sword and carefully carved on the pale skull. He appeared to be very serious.

It did not take long for a strange formation to appear on the skull of the brawny man, covering the entire surface of the skull.

After putting down the purple lightning short sword, Tang Zhen took out a soft purple metal and pulled it into a thin thread.

This was a special metal from the world of loucheng. It was one of the main materials used to forge mo weapons. It had extremely good conductivity and was many times better than silver!

After inlaying this kind of fine thread in accordance with the carved pattern, Tang Zhen carefully made a small hole in the center of the array.

Tang Zhen took out a level three brain Pearl. After a little carving, it was directly embedded in the small hole in the skull.

After doing all this, Tang Zhen took out a long needle.

He drew a tube of blood from the brawny man's body and carefully smeared it on the entire array.

At the same time, Tang Zhen mumbled something and his brain started to glow.

The engraved magic circle also began to flash with a faint fluorescent light, which was extremely dazzling.

If one's view turned to the inside of the brawny man's skull, one would be able to see countless fine light rays penetrating the hard bone spine and ruthlessly piercing into the brawny man's brain.

The moment these light rays pierced into his brain, the strong man of the ice Bear Alliance, whose hands and feet were firmly fixed in place, began to struggle desperately. At the same time, he let out an unconscious roar from his mouth, like a violent beast.

His strong muscles began to swell up rapidly as if they were pumped with air. The blood vessels under his skin were also clearly exposed, as if they would burst at any time.

Even his eyes, which had been closed all this time, opened because of the pain. However, his pupils were not focused at all, only like the madness of a beast.

However, no matter how he struggled, he could not break free from the restraints of his hands and feet.

Tang Zhen ignored this fellow who was in an extremely painful state. He first observed the operating state of the array. After which, he took out the Ivy ointment and evenly applied it on his scalp.

After pulling the scalp over and covering the array on the skull, Tang Zhen directly wrapped the brawny man's head with a bandage.

According to the healing speed of the Ivy ointment, the wound on the head would be completely healed before the brawny man woke up and pinched it.

After taking care of one person, Tang Zhen began to "operate" on the second strong man of the ice Bear Alliance!

Tang Zhen's own speed was very fast. In addition, he was becoming more and more skilled as he did it. Very soon, he completed all the operations of the ten strong men.

After throwing the scalpel away, Zhen Tang took out a bottle of mineral water and took a sip. He then took off his Surgical Gown and sat down in the hall.

Ivanov had been waiting outside. When he saw Tang Zhen come out, he immediately got up and welcomed him.

"Your Excellency, may I ask how the results of the experiment are?"

Ivanov's heart was filled with anticipation for the "super soldier" that Tang Zhen spoke of.

The longer he was in contact with Tang Zhen, the more he understood him, causing Ivanov to feel more and more afraid.

It was as if the young man in front of him could destroy the entire world with a single move!

As time passed, this feeling became more and more obvious.

After this meeting, Ivanov even felt his legs tremble slightly, and he had the desire to turn around and run away.

Ivanov himself could not figure out why it was like this.

If Ivanov asked Tang Zhen, he would definitely get the real answer, but he didn't have the courage to.

Ivanov's body was in such a state because of the brain in his head.

Due to the existence of the brain Pearl, Ivanov's senses had become extremely sharp. It was also because of this that he could clearly sense how terrifying Tang Zhen was.

This feeling was similar to when a low-level monster encountered a Lord-tier monster. It would feel fear from the soul, and then subconsciously submit and escape.

In fact, even if Ivanov didn't say anything, Tang Zhen could also see the fear in his eyes.

Tang Zhen did not care about this. Instead, he let nature take its course.

An appropriate amount of intimidation was also one of the methods to control his subordinates.

Tang Zhen sat on the sofa and stretched his body. He then said to Ivanov, "The experiment should be a success. It won't be long before they wake up, and then we can carry out the test.

You have to make good use of these people. With them around, I don't think anyone can stop your expansion."

After he said this, Tang Zhen paused and frowned slightly. He turned to look at Ivanov.

"Inform the other three guards to send 10 of their most loyal men here as soon as possible. I plan to give each of them 10 super soldiers!"

Ivanov nodded. He was in full agreement with this.

As partners of the same organization, the stronger each other was, the more help he would receive. This was a win-win situation.

Just like this time, when Ivanov was in trouble, he received the help of the other three gatekeepers, which greatly relieved his pressure.

After another two hours, the bodyguard next to him came to report that all ten of them had woken up.

Tang Zhen nodded and walked over with Ivanov.

In a spacious room, ten bare-chested men from the ice Bear Alliance stood together with bandages on their heads.

Ivanov only took a glance and felt an extremely violent power from the ten men.

It was flamboyant, overbearing, and filled with an aura of destruction!

Ivanov had a feeling that as long as one of his men made a move, he would be able to tear a group of enemies into pieces.

It seemed that the Super soldiers created by the Oracle were indeed extraordinary!

Just as Ivanov was sizing up his ten men, the ten men were also constantly sizing up Tang Zhen.

Ever since they woke up, they could feel the changes in their bodies.

It was as if there was a monster hidden in their bodies, filling them with infinite power, as if they could easily destroy everything!

Every living being that suddenly obtained super power would have this kind of unreal feeling in the beginning.

Just now, someone couldn't help but want to test his strength. In the end, that one-inch thick-wall iron pipe was easily crushed and broken!

This kind of abnormal strength made them ecstatic, but at the same time, it also made them more confident.

So what if he only had a few years of life left? to be able to possess such powerful strength and get a million dollars as compensation, he felt that he had earned it!

The most important point was the promise of the Oracle.

It was also because they could be reborn that they had such a feeling of profit!

The mysterious Lord Oracle had become even more mysterious and powerful in their hearts.

However, when they looked at the Oracle again, they felt like they were looking at a prehistoric monster!

It was as though Tang Zhen only needed to gently move his hand to kill all of them.

This feeling was so obvious that it made people feel an irrepressible sense of submission from the bottom of their hearts!

The ten people who had just obtained great power and felt that they were above everyone suddenly broke out in cold sweat, and their legs couldn't help but tremble!

Tang Zhen expressionlessly sized up these ten people. He smiled and nodded, the experiment was very successful. It feels good to obtain great power, doesn't it? "

Tang Zhen's voice sounded once again as he turned around and walked out of the door.

since that's the case, come with me to test it out. It's good to let you know how strong you are!

Chapter 302: Strength test, abandoned city

Behind Ivanov's Manor, there was a spacious green space that covered a few hectares.

After everyone came out of the room, Tang Zhen turned his head and looked at the ten super soldiers behind him.

I believe you've all felt the new power in your bodies. Do you feel like you can destroy everything? "

The ten super soldiers looked at each other and nodded in unison.

Tang Zhen smiled slightly when he saw this. He beckoned to everyone.

come, all of you attack me together and use your greatest strength to attack me!

The Super soldiers hesitated for a moment before they instantly shot out from their original positions and charged straight at Tang Zhen.

In their hearts, they also wanted to see how strong Tang Zhen was.

However, their explosive speed made Ivanov's pupils contract, because it was far beyond the speed of a normal person!

In the blink of an eye, these ten super soldiers had already surrounded Tang Zhen. Their punches and kicks that carried a violent force whistled over.

There was a faint tearing sound in the air, which made the onlookers feel a sense of shock.

However, these attacks that carried a destructive force were instantly and forcefully stopped when they landed on Tang Zhen's body!

Tang Zhen casually blocked the attacks of the ten people. At the same time, he swung his fists and feet at lightning speed.

With a series of muffled groans, the Super Warriors were all sent flying as if they had been hit by the explosion.

One of them fell into the pool and broke a marble sculpture!

After seeing this scene, all the onlookers were so shocked that they couldn't close their mouths.

If such a terrifying power were to land on an ordinary person, there would be no possibility of survival!

Fortunately, these super soldiers had extremely strong resistance to attacks. Tang Zhen did not use too much force either. Therefore, they quickly got up from the ground and returned to Tang Zhen with frightened expressions.

The ten of them were well aware of their own destructive power, and they were even more aware of the terrifying strength required to defeat ten people at the same time.

Moreover, Tang Zhen had played it down so easily. This was clearly not his true strength.

They were already extremely respectful towards Tang Zhen!

Looking at the ten super soldiers who were covered in dust, Tang Zhen said in a deep voice, "You guys haven't gotten used to the power you've just gained, so you'll have to go through a lot of training in the next few days.

When you can easily control your body's strength, you can carry out your missions normally!"

After ordering the Super soldiers to retreat, Tang Zhen modified the rebirth altar in Ivanov's hands so that it had the ability to store souls.

If any of these super Warriors died in an accident, their souls would be absorbed by the rebirth altar and could enter a new body at any time.

After everything was done, Tang Zhen went to the room that Ivanov arranged for him and continued to read.

As night fell, Ivanov prepared an extremely sumptuous dinner, and Tang Zhen also had a good meal.

He took the time to return to the Holy Dragon City. After patrolling the area, Tang Zhen returned to his original world, took a bath, and prepared to sleep.

At this moment, there was a sudden knock on the door.

Tang Zhen opened the door, only to discover two hot women from the ice Bear Alliance standing outside.

With just a glance, Tang Zhen recognized the other party. They were the two women he had met when he got off the plane during the day.

Compared to the day, the two of them were dressed even more sexily. They were wearing short black silk skirts, full breasts, and long legs. They were full of charm.

After seeing Tang Zhen open the door, they naturally walked in and surrounded Tang Zhen in the middle.

A faint fragrance wafted over, making one's heart throb.

These two women were not very old, but it was precisely because of this that they looked even more youthful and full of vitality.

These two women came to his bedroom late at night. It must have been Ivanov's arrangement. Tang Zhen did not expect this guy to be so meticulous.

Tang Zhen had already gradually adapted to this kind of act and did not have much resistance in his heart.

It would be a problem if he didn't eat a delicious dish that was delivered to his door. Moreover, he really liked it.

Reaching out his hand to hold the two's slender waists, Tang Zhen used a gentle force and threw them onto the big bed seven to eight meters away.

In the midst of the exclamations, the two women landed lightly on the bed, only making a slight sound.

"Oh my God, what a wonderful feeling!"

so strong! He actually threw the two of us so far away!

The two women's exclamations sounded one after another. At the same time, they seemed to be teasing Tang Zhen with their eyes and body movements. Their eyes were filled with lust.

Tang Zhen laughed softly and slowly walked toward the large bed.

At this moment, a soft shout was heard.

"You two pieces of trash, get out of here immediately!"

Natasha stood at the door and looked at the two women on the bed coldly.

After hesitating for a while, the two women got up and left with a chuckle. When they passed Natasha, they even showed a provocative smile.

After fiercely glaring at Tang Zhen, Natasha turned around and left without looking back.

Looking at Natasha's actions, Tang Zhen laughed and turned back to his bed.

The door behind him slowly closed without any wind.

The next morning, Tang Zhen drove the off-road vehicle and left Ivanov's Manor.

The goal of his trip was to an abandoned city of the ice Bear Alliance.

Many years ago, a terrible disaster had occurred here, causing the city to be completely abandoned. Now, it was deserted.

To others, it was a land of disaster, filled with painful memories!

However, to Tang Zhen, that place was a very suitable place to hide his secret.

He was going to build a super large Soul Fusion array there to speed up the detection of the plane coordinates of the Lou Cheng world.

It was unknown how far the loucheng world was from the original world. Before the specific coordinates were determined, Tang Zhen would never be able to achieve Soul transmission across planes!

Therefore, Tang Zhen used the virtual game as a cover. He used the spiritual strength he extracted while playing the game to carry out the detection of the plane's coordinates.

However, an ordinary person's soul power was very limited. Every trace of soul power was insignificant, and it would be constantly consumed in the process of launching.

After crossing an uncountable distance, the soul power would become weaker and weaker, until it completely dissipated!

Therefore, even if there were countless players participating in the game, the launch distance between each other was almost the same, and the local area was powerless.

The best solution was to gather a part of the soul power and form a more powerful soul beam.

This kind of soul beam had a longer range and was more solid, so it would not dissipate easily.

The scattered soul power was like iron powder, which was far less solid than a steel ingot after smelting.

The formation that Tang Zhen had set up had the effect of smelting.

The reason why Tang Zhen chose this abandoned city of the ice Bear Alliance was because when the array was refining and shooting out soul beams, it would have a huge impact on ordinary people.

This was especially so when he was refining his soul power. The effects were the most severe.

During this period, if an ordinary person with weak willpower approached the array, they would quickly develop a terrifying illusion.

Only when the smelting process was completed or when one had left the range of the array's influence would one be able to escape from the illusion.

For ordinary people with strong soul power, as well as those real spirits, this array also had a great temptation.

Once they sensed the existence of the array, they could not help but move closer to the array.

With these disadvantages, there was no need to consider densely populated places.

Tang Zhen considered for a long while before deciding to build the soul Fusion array in this abandoned city!

One reason was that this place was deserted and very few people visited. The second reason was that because of the disaster, countless ruins were abandoned here, and many things could be transported to Holy Dragon City!

Before the arrival of the Cold Moon disaster, Tang Zhen would also build an area to accommodate all kinds of Wanderers' forces and use it as a temporary shelter during the Cold Moon disaster.

The materials needed to build this sanctuary would have to be collected from this abandoned city!

Chapter 303: Soul altar, visitors from the barren city

The city that Tang Zhen was heading to was called 'ghost city' by many people!

Although the cities and villages in this area had been completely destroyed because of the spread of the disaster back then, some people still returned to their homes and lived here for a long time after many years.

Tang Zhen drove the car all the way forward, continuously passing through the broken roads before finally arriving at the destination of this trip.

After sending the car to the loucheng world, Tang Zhen changed into a clean set of clothes and began to look for a suitable location.

Through the map's perspective, Tang Zhen could see an area with a radius of 100 kilometers. Through this method, he could filter the locations and ensure that he would not miss out on anything.

As he had guessed, this abandoned city was indeed desolate.

In between the large forest and wild grass, there were countless broken buildings. The gaps between the road and the square were also covered by lush grass.

Countless public buildings and car wreckages had been damaged by the wind and rain, and had become mottled.

In such a large area, other than the dilapidated man-made buildings, he seemed to be the only one there.

However, if one looked carefully, they could still find signs of human activity.

Not far away from him, there was a human village. In a Lake further away, there were people fishing.

After Tang Zhen carefully inspected it, he finally chose a location.

Then, with the wind under his feet, he began to move quickly through the abandoned city, straight to the location of his target.

The destination was at the end of the route. There was a large building that looked dilapidated.

As he walked, a group of wild dogs suddenly ran out and blocked Tang Zhen's path.

These wild dogs were huge in size and had fierce eyes. They were coldly staring at Tang Zhen, as though they had the intention of treating him as food.

Tang Zhen did not hesitate as he continued to advance toward the established route.

When this group of wild dogs saw Tang Zhen rushing over, they actually also swarmed forward, their sharp teeth directly biting at Tang Zhen.

“You’re looking for death!”

Tang Zhen coldly snorted. He swung his fist out fiercely and directly sent the two wild dogs in the air in front of him flying.

The wild dog that flew out suddenly exploded in mid-air, splattering its flesh and blood all over the ground.

Another kick swept out, and several wild dogs were sent flying, directly hitting the roadside buildings.

The wild dog was instantly turned into a meat patty, firmly stuck to the wall.

The remaining two wild dogs whimpered and immediately ran away with their tails between their legs. They were extremely fast.

These two beasts had also realized how terrifying Tang Zhen was. In the face of the threat of death, they made the wisest choice.

After getting rid of a few wild dogs that blocked the way, Tang Zhen continued to move forward. It didn’t take long for him to reach his destination.

Tang Zhen frowned slightly after sweeping his gaze over the dilapidated building. However, he still walked in.

After decades of wind and rain, this place had become extremely dilapidated, dust and garbage were everywhere.

Because of the hasty evacuation back then, many of the items in the building had been abandoned and scattered on the ground.

A group of wild pigeons occupied the space of one floor. After seeing Tang Zhen, they were not afraid at all.

After spending half an hour, Tang Zhen carefully looked through the abandoned building and decided to build the soul Fusion array here.

He first chose a room that was big enough on the top floor, then cleared out all the debris in the room.

The next thing to do was to build the altar.

Because there were abandoned buildings everywhere, there was no lack of materials to build an altar.

Tang Zhen ran to a square and used the purple electric short sword to cut up a number of concrete blocks, storing them in the storage space.

After returning to the top floor, Tang Zhen neatly stacked these concrete blocks and then used the purple lightning short sword to cut and trim them.

After the main body of the altar was done, Tang Zhen teleported back to Holy Dragon City and took some mixed high-grade cement. He mixed it with a quick-solidifying agent and smeared the surface of the altar evenly.

After doing all this, Tang Zhen only needed to quietly wait for the cement to set.

However, this did not mean that he could be idle, as there were still many things for him to do.

After walking out of the abandoned building, Tang Zhen walked around and came to a signal tower.

He used the purple electric short sword to cut the steel structure of the signal tower in half and put it into his storage space.

After returning to the top of the abandoned building, Tang Zhen directly made a big hole on the top of the altar and inserted half of the signal tower into it.

After arranging the signal tower, Tang Zhen moved a pile of debris and blocked all the cracks in the hole.

After the soul Fusion altar was set up, the signal tower could collect and receive the scattered soul power. The condensed soul beam would also be sent out through this half of the signal tower to the endless void.

After finishing the antenna, the hardness of the concrete also met the requirements. Tang Zhen began to calm down and carve the array.

This was a tedious task. Even with Tang Zhen's speed, he would need at least half a day to complete it.

Just as Tang Zhen was concentrating on building the soul Fusion altar, two cars had also entered the abandoned city.

After the car stopped, a group of young people jumped out of the car.

Looking at the appearance of these young people, they should be here to play and explore.

From their equipment, it could be seen that they were planning to occupy this place for a while.

However, they didn't rashly run around. After all, a huge disaster had happened here, and there were still many places left with fatal dangers.

After using the instrument to measure one round, the group of young people continued to move forward with excited faces.

It was just that the end point of their route was coincidentally the building that Tang Zhen had chosen!

Not long after the group of young people left, a few more cars whizzed over, driving at an extremely fast speed.

After seeing the cars on the side of the road, the few cars suddenly stopped, and a group of burly men jumped out of the cars.

These people's faces were gloomy and fierce, and they carried a murderous aura. One look and one could tell that they were not good people.

Especially when they took out all kinds of guns and weapons from their cars, they looked even more like bandits.

The leader, a bald man with an aquiline nose, threw away the cigarette butt in his hand and waved to the people behind him. He carried an automatic rifle and chased in the direction where the young man disappeared.

Unfortunately, Tang Zhen was currently inscribing a formation and did not notice the scene that was happening outside. Otherwise, he would definitely sigh.

Did this group of people have nothing better to do? why did they all come to this godforsaken place?

What happened to the dilapidated, remote, and uninhabited place?

After passing through the square overgrown with grass, the group of young people had already arrived at the abandoned building and were pointing at it.

Two girls were still taking selfies with their phones and quickly uploading them to social media sites.

Exploring an abandoned city like this would always give people a very cool feeling, which was also the motivation for them to come here.

we'll rest here tonight. Do you have any objections? ”

A tall young man from the ice Bear Alliance turned around and asked his partner.

“Sure!”

“I think this place is not bad!”

look, there are so many people replying to me. They're all liking the post!

“.....”

Looking at his busy companions, the young man shrugged his shoulders and led the way into the abandoned building.

His companions behind him also carried their own bags and followed him in.

However, they had never imagined that there would be endless nightmares waiting for them inside this building!

Chapter 304: Escape from the abandoned building, construction of the altar

The abandoned building that had been abandoned for a long time became lively again. This group of young people did not care much about the dirty environment.

With excitement and apprehension, they began to look around the abandoned building that was tens of thousands of square meters.

As it had been a long time since humans visited, the abandoned building had become a paradise for animals. Creatures like rats and sparrows appeared from time to time.

In the corner of a room, the group of young people unexpectedly found a large pile of bones that looked very fresh.

It was dirty, broken, and had a terrifying aura.

In such an environment, the group of young people were not frightened. Instead, they continued to explore with great interest and took out their mobile phones to take pictures from time to time.

The already abandoned scenery, coupled with the text description, caused a constant stream of exclamations and questions on social media, which greatly satisfied their vanity.

This abandoned building was very large and had a lot of rooms. They wandered around for half a day but still hadn't reached the top floor.

Just as these young people were about to continue their exploration to the higher floor, a young man inadvertently came to the window and happened to see two burly men holding rifles.

When he saw the two of them heading straight for the abandoned building, the young man suddenly felt a sense of danger.

"Could it be that these guys with guns are here for us?"

After the young man realized this, he immediately turned around and ran to his companions, shouting out his discovery.

"What did you say? someone barged in with a spear?"

A golden-haired girl in outdoor clothing was stunned when she heard this. At the same time, a hint of worry appeared on her face.

Among these people, her identity was the most special.

If these armed criminals were really coming for them, then she was most likely their real target!

we have to find an exit and leave this place. We can't let them catch us!

A strong young man with short hair pulled out a pistol from his waist and said to the crowd.

that's right. We have to leave as soon as possible!

Another young man took out a revolver from his waist and quickly checked it.

The rest of the people also took out their folding knives or picked up a temporary weapon from the ground, then quickly looked for an exit.

Before they came here to explore, they had all prepared their own weapons for self-defense in case of danger.

The citizens of the ice Bear Alliance were tough. Among this group of young people, several of them had gone to military school before, so they were not too flustered.

They carefully walked along the corridor while constantly observing their surroundings. The two people in front and behind them even raised their pistols in alert.

Just as they turned a corner, a criminal with a submachine gun happened to walk over.

As soon as the two sides met, the criminal pointed his gun at the crowd, which was self-evident.

“Damn it!”

The young man at the front immediately opened fire, firing several times in a row, forcing the armed criminal to a corner.

run! Hide! We’re their target!

Following the young man’s shout, everyone immediately ran to higher ground.

Gunshots were heard. The criminal had rushed up and started shooting from behind.

The criminal didn’t seem to want to kill the young men, so he flicked his gun a little, and most of the bullets flew elsewhere.

The young men, who were in a hurry to escape, did not realize this. They frantically looked for an exit, only to find that all the exits were guarded by bandits.

In a panic, these young people began to run upstairs, hoping to find a safe place on the top floor and then call for help.

The criminals didn’t seem to care about the young people calling for help. They drove them away unhurriedly and even took out their mobile phones to record.

It didn’t take long for these young people to run to the top floor, which was the floor where Tang Zhen was located.

In fact, Tang Zhen had already discovered their tracks when these people entered the abandoned building. At the same time, he noticed the group of armed criminals.

However, Tang Zhen ignored these people. He merely used a stone to block the door of the room he was in. After which, he continued to inscribe the array.

Even the gunshots and the criminals’ laughter didn’t disturb his work.

By the time these young people rushed to the top floor, Tang Zhen had already finished inscribing the array. He straightened his back and stretched his muscles and bones.

Tang Zhen frowned slightly when he heard the occasional gunshots and the panicked screams of men and women outside.

“I thought this was a peaceful place, but I didn’t expect so many people to come and make trouble!

If this situation continued, the soul Fusion altar would most likely be exposed.

It took me half a day to get this Soul Fusion altar done, and it's very important to my plan, so I can't expose it easily.

Since that's the case, I'll have to use some extreme methods!"

After Tang Zhen thought up to this point, he immediately took out the brain Pearl and began to embed it into the array.

After he was done embedding, he waved his hand and a few huge plastic buckets appeared on the ground.

The Scarlet liquid in the plastic buckets was the monster Blood that Tang Zhen had specially collected.

Without this thing, the soul Fusion array could not function normally!

Tang Zhen casually lifted the bucket and poured all the monster Blood into the soul Fusion altar, filling the pool to the brim.

The engraved array was also completely submerged by the blood, and no trace could be seen on the surface.

With another wave of his hand, a monster's brain that was stored in a glass container was taken out. Tang Zhen carefully placed it in the center of the blood pool in the soul Fusion altar.

After sealing all the windows in the room, Zhen Tang once again took out some strips of monster skin and used the blood of the monster to write runes on them.

After he finished writing the runes, Tang Zhen took out a nail and used his bare hands to push these leather strips against the surrounding walls.

After doing all this, the gunshots outside had stopped, and the criminals had forced the group of young men into the corner of the top floor.

Tang Zhen slightly shook his head as he looked at the flustered and frightened expressions of the group of young people. He turned around and walked to the front of the soul Fusion altar.

A series of obscure and strange incantations were emitted from Tang Zhen's mouth and continuously reverberated in the room.

When the incantation was heard, the blood pool filled with the monster's blood began to flash with red light.

The flickering light was very regular, as if some kind of creature was breathing continuously.

At the same time, the runic leather strips that were nailed to the wall also began to flash with a faint red light, which reflected the blood pool.

At some point in time, the monster's brain above the blood pool began to tremble slightly. Blood vessels slowly extended from the brain and plunged into the blood pool like plant roots.

When the blood vessels came into contact with the fresh blood in the blood pool, they immediately began to absorb it madly. The size of the monster's brain began to grow rapidly.

While Tang Zhen was chanting the incantation, he was also staring at the blood pool and continuously replenishing it.

When the monster's brain grew to the size of a wheel, it stopped growing.

However, even more blood vessels were drilling out of the brain. As they waved in the air, they were also constantly growing thicker and longer.

It didn't take long for the blood vessels to touch the half of the signal tower and quickly wrap around it.

Countless blood vessels extended out and covered the surface of the signal tower.

In just a few minutes, the signal tower in the house had completely turned into a tower of flesh and blood!

The gigantic brain emitted a faint red light, which quickly spread to the signal tower along the blood vessels, and spread out from the top of the signal tower at lightning speed.

As soon as the red light spread, it attracted a Thunderbolt from the clear sky, and a large number of dark clouds quickly gathered.

In just a dozen minutes, the sky above the abandoned city had become extremely gloomy, and the sun's rays had been completely blocked.

A large amount of gray fog appeared out of thin air and quickly spread across the abandoned building area. The gray fog was getting thicker and thicker!

After less than ten minutes, the surrounding area of the abandoned building could no longer be seen beyond three meters!

Tang Zhen watched everything that was happening outside through the map view as a trace of a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

"The soul Fusion array is complete!"

Chapter 305: The criminal's live broadcast (1)

What Tang Zhen didn't know was that when this group of bandits entered this deserted city, they had already logged onto their social media and started a live video.

In the beginning, no one had noticed this video.

However, it didn't take long for someone to notice that the content of the video was abnormal.

After watching for a while, the audience was surprised to find that it was a live video from a group of criminals.

The content of the live broadcast was even more shocking. It was the scene of the group of criminals capturing a group of young people.

After confirming that this wasn't a joke, the live broadcast immediately caused a huge uproar on the internet!

People kept sighing that this group of bandits was too Savage to dare to do such a thing.

However, on second thought, they had done this kind of thing quite a few times.

It wasn't too strange for such a live broadcast to happen.

In the blink of an eye, comments started to appear on the live stream, making it seem unusually lively.

Some were indignant, some cursed, and some were cheering for the bandits, hoping for the world to be in chaos.

One grain of rice can feed a hundred different people, this was evident.

No matter what, this live broadcast video immediately went viral and became known to countless people.

The popularity of the internet on the mobile phone made the live broadcast spread to every corner of the original world.

At that moment, as long as one logged into a famous video website, they could see the video being broadcasted and the criminal's explanation on the phone.

Through the slightly shaky live broadcast screen, the audience could clearly see that the shooting location was extremely desolate, and there was a dilapidated atmosphere everywhere.

Everything he saw along the way was the same!

The audience watching the video immediately asked, what was this place?

There was strength in numbers. Soon, someone confirmed that the location of the video was the abandoned 'ghost city' of the ice Bear Alliance!

After confirming the location, the audience began to discuss.

you're really courting death. Why did you run to that kind of ghostly place?!

"God, I really admire their courage!"

"There's no way to escape in this place!"

what are these bandits trying to do? why did they come to this 'ghost city' to capture a few young people? there's definitely something wrong here!

After a while, more detailed information was revealed. It was the identity information of the group of young people who were being chased by the bandits.

Other than a girl who had a special identity, the rest were just ordinary people.

Therefore, the audience agreed that the girl was probably the real target of the criminals.

Sure enough, it didn't take long for the bandits to confirm the audience's guess in the live broadcast.

They wanted to kidnap the girl and the other young men to threaten the girl's father, who held an important position in the ice Bear Alliance, to agree to an unreasonable request of the bandits.

If he didn't agree, he would bear the consequences!

When the girl's father heard the news, he was so furious that he smashed the table on the spot!

He immediately used his power and began to mobilize a large number of military and police to rescue the location given by his daughter.

However, it would take at least an hour to get to the scene of the incident.

No one could predict what would happen in such a long time!

At this moment, the audience finally understood the bandits' intention and started to worry for the young men.

They couldn't help but secretly pray that this group of young people could escape the pursuit of the bandits and escape safely.

However, it seemed that the hope was slim.

From the angle of the video, the criminals could be seen surrounding an abandoned building and blocking all the exits.

Some of the more observant viewers noticed the young man standing by the window when the video flashed by.

The young man seemed to have noticed the criminals.

After seeing this scene, the audience felt a little more at ease, hoping that they could escape!

As the audience prayed, the armed criminals began to walk up the stairs, and the scene in the abandoned building appeared in front of countless viewers.

Many viewers did not know the history of the abandoned city. After seeing the decorations in the abandoned building, they quickly searched for relevant information on the internet.

When they learned about the history of this abandoned city, they couldn't help but sigh.

However, more people were staring at the screen, hoping that the group of young people would not appear.

They put themselves in the shoes of the group of young people, and their hearts were in their throats.

However, the next second, their hopes were dashed.

In the video, the criminal walking in front suddenly raised his gun, and then a young man in the corner of the upstairs fired continuously.

The criminal who was recording the video quickly dodged, and the image shook violently.

Seeing this, the audience cheered and prayed that the young man could kill several criminals.

Some people felt that the young man's action was too impulsive. Once the criminals were angered, they would probably shoot and kill.

Some people believed that the criminals were determined to die, otherwise they wouldn't have done such a live broadcast.

If they didn't satisfy their demands, none of the bandits and this group of young people would be able to leave this abandoned building alive!

Everyone had different opinions, and no one could convince the other.

At that moment, the cameraman stood up, and it was certain that he and the criminal in front of him were not shot.

After seeing this scene, the audience was very regretful.

The criminals with submachine guns in front of them started shooting and quickly gave chase.

The young man in the video kept running, while the armed criminals kept shooting from behind. Their laughter was full of madness and contempt.

Countless people in the audience started to curse, but they could only feel anxious.

Some people kept cursing at the military and police. Why were they so late?

What the audience didn't know was that the Ice Bear Alliance had already mobilized thousands of military and police, and a few military helicopters were rushing over.

The Ice Bear Alliance placed a lot of importance on this matter, and they would not allow it to continue to worsen.

As for blocking the live broadcast signal, it was finally dropped after countless people opposed it.

Time passed by slowly. During this period, the audience saw the figures of the young people several times, and even saw their panicked and helpless faces.

After seeing this scene, countless people felt as if their hearts were being cut by a knife.

The sense of helplessness seemed to penetrate the screen, making many people feel the same and cry.

As more and more criminals gathered, the young man climbed higher and higher.

It didn't take long for these young people to reach the top floor.

The bandits had also sealed off all the exits on the top floor and began to drive the young people to the corners unhurriedly.

Perhaps it was because the young men had weapons in their hands, or perhaps it was to create an atmosphere for the live broadcast, the bandits were not in a hurry to arrest them.

They only needed to wait until these young people had no way to retreat, and then they could easily catch a turtle in a jar!

After seeing this scene, the audience realized that these young people had no way of escaping.

Countless people fell silent, silently waiting for the final outcome.

However, at this moment, a change occurred!

The live broadcast suddenly became chaotic, and countless snowflakes suddenly appeared.

The bright top floor of the abandoned building quickly became dark, and at the same time, countless gray fog appeared out of nowhere.

After seeing this scene, not only were the audience watching the video shocked, but even the criminals panicked.

The bandits did not know what was going on either. They started to look around nervously.

The audience was also staring at the screen without blinking, afraid that they would miss something.

At this moment, a scream suddenly came from the video, followed by rapid gunshots.

The voices of many bandits came out of the gray fog, their voices full of panic and madness.

It was hard to imagine what could make these bandits so afraid that they might even go crazy.

However, the observant audience still heard the words that appeared the most frequently in the gray fog.

“Devil!”

At this time, the video interface was dark, and the criminal in charge of broadcasting kept whispering in fear, as if he was praying.

The terrifying atmosphere in the video had already made the audience break out in cold sweat.

No one had expected such a huge reversal at the last moment!

The audience was confused. What was going on?

The livestream interface shook again, and then a hazy and strange figure suddenly walked out from the thick gray fog.

However, when the audience saw the figure clearly, they all sucked in a cold breath and their faces were filled with disbelief.

Chapter 306: -Soul Fusion ghostly banner, Yin souls everywhere

It was a brawny man in broken armor. He was dressed in medieval clothes, covered in blood and stains, and his cloak was broken and burnt.

The audience was shocked because the armored man didn't have a head!

“Oh my God, this is the Headless Horseman!”

After seeing this, the audience finally understood why the bandits kept shouting "demon"!

At this very moment, the demon had appeared before their eyes.

As they watched the Headless Horseman slowly approach the criminal who had recorded the video, all the viewers felt a chill run down their spines!

The criminal who had filmed the video was still praying with a trembling voice and didn't seem to notice the Headless Horseman's approach.

At this moment, the Headless Horseman suddenly raised his hand and slashed down with his long sword.

A scream was heard. It was obviously the voice of the criminal who had taken the video.

The headless rider bent down, grabbed a round object, and placed it on his neck.

Upon closer inspection, it was actually a bloody head!

"Oh my God, it's the head of the criminal who took the video!"

As the Headless Horseman placed the thug's head on his neck, he suddenly opened his eyes and revealed a sinister smile. Almost all the spectators screamed in horror!

At this moment, the live stream was suddenly cut off!

The excited audience started to curse. At the same time, they started to make various guesses and discuss whether the strange Headless Horseman was real or fake.

The outcome of the discussion was not important. What was important was that from now on, this abandoned building would become the most famous ghost land in the original world.

Countless adventurers tried to approach the abandoned building to find the secret on the top floor.

However, these adventurers were either scared out of their wits or seriously ill, but no one could get close to the top floor.

In the end, this abandoned building became the only officially recognized ghost land, and its reputation rose!

Tang Zhen was actually unconcerned about the waves that were set off in the outside world.

After throwing away the criminal's head and turning off the [virtual reality simulator], the terrifying Headless Horseman's outfit instantly disappeared, revealing Tang Zhen's original appearance.

The scene of the prank just now had actually been recorded and broadcasted live. This was something that Tang Zhen had not expected.

But it didn't matter, it wasn't his real face anyway!

Perhaps it wouldn't take long for this place to become famous!

He had originally wanted to find a quiet place to set up the soul Fusion array, but he didn't expect that the more he caused trouble, the more attention he would attract. Now, it was known to the whole world!

Tang Zhen wasn't afraid of people knowing about the existence of the soul Fusion array. He just didn't want the soul Fusion array to affect the lives of ordinary people.

With the technological level of the original world, it was impossible to destroy the operation of the soul Fusion array. And if a large number of humans came close, it would only allow the soul Fusion array to absorb more of the dissipated soul power.

If the machines and equipment got too close, they would be affected by the strange magnetic field and would not be able to work properly.

Since things had already come to this, he would just let nature take its course!

After dealing with all the bandits, Tang Zhen turned his attention to the operating Soul Fusion array.

From Tang Zhen's point of view, spiritual strength was a type of yin energy. On the other hand, the normal world was filled with countless yang energy.

When a small amount of yin energy appeared in the Yang energy, it would not change much. However, once a large amount of yin energy appeared, it would produce a violent reaction.

The most direct manifestation of this was the huge change in the surrounding environment.

Dark clouds loomed, the temperature plummeted, and ghost fog grew.

This was the demon ghost that was formed after a massive amount of yin energy was gathered together!

Ever since the soul Fusion altar was built, this area had become a ghost domain, blocking outsiders from peeking and collecting soul energy from the surroundings.

The bandits and young men in the abandoned building were the first group of outsiders to experience the horror of the demon ghost!

In one of the rooms on the top floor, a few young people gathered together and held the door tightly, nervously listening to the sounds outside.

At this moment, their faces were filled with fear.

As if they were playing a game of cat and mouse, the criminals drove them to the highest point of the abandoned building, making sure that they couldn't escape.

The room they were in was their last resort. Other than jumping off the building, there was no way to escape.

A sense of despair and pessimism rose in everyone's hearts, and several girls were already sobbing secretly.

"Have you made the call? when will the police come?"

“I’ve already fought, but I don’t know when they’ll come.”

“I’m afraid we’ll be caught by these criminals before the police arrive!”

The more they spoke, the sadder and more worried they became. Some of them had already started pulling their hair and were on the verge of collapse.

At this moment, another commotion was heard. The bandits had already gathered.

The young man in the room immediately became more nervous when he heard the bandits’ voices.

Someone ran to the window to see if there was any hope of escape, but he was surprised to find that the surrounding environment had changed.

“Oh my God, look, why is there such a thick fog outside?”

Following his exclamation, the panicking crowd finally noticed the change in the environment outside. At the same time, they also noticed that the fog around them was getting thicker.

Unknowingly, he could not even see his fingers when he stretched out his hand!

“What’s going on?”

“Look, our room is also filled with gray fog!”

“If the outside is also filled with this fog, can we take the opportunity to escape?”

Everyone’s eyes lit up when they heard this. They all thought that this was a heaven-sent opportunity!

As for the reason for the fog, no one cared.

They peeked out through the gap in the door and found that the corridor outside was indeed filled with the gray fog, and the criminals were gone.

It was as if those criminals had quietly disappeared from this world!

Although the situation before their eyes was very strange, this group of young people immediately became excited.

They quickly opened the door and walked out carefully.

The girl who was walking at the back inadvertently glanced at the window when she was about to go out. She was surprised to find that there was a person squatting in the corner beside her, facing the wall.

Because of the thick fog, she couldn’t see the other person’s face clearly.

The girl thought that this was her companion, so she quickly leaned over and patted the other party’s shoulder.

“What are you doing? we should go!”

However, before the girl’s palm could touch her squatting companion, she heard someone calling her softly from behind.

The girl turned around and looked, but she didn't see who was calling her.

When the girl turned around, she realized that the person who was squatting on the ground had disappeared!

The girl was shocked and ran out of the room in a hurry to chase after her companion.

However, when she ran out, she was horrified to find that her companions had disappeared!

This was no small matter. The girl's face immediately turned pale, and her body trembled.

"Where are you? where are you?"

The girl called out her friend's name softly, but there was no response, which made her even more panicked.

He was surrounded by thick fog, and he couldn't see his surroundings clearly. Naturally, he couldn't tell which direction he was going.

The girl was only relying on her blurry memory to move towards the exit.

As she walked, the girl suddenly realized that a few blurry black shadows had appeared in front of her.

"Could it be my own partner?"

The girl was overjoyed and immediately ran two steps to catch up with the black shadow.

However, she could vaguely feel that her companion's walking posture was particularly strange, as if it was very stiff.

When she finally caught up, the girl reached out to pull her "companion" who was closest to her, but she felt that she had touched a piece of hard frozen meat!

At this moment, the 'companion' turned around and looked at the girl.

When she saw the face of her 'companion', the girl's eyes widened and she couldn't help but scream.

It was a human face with missing flesh and skin, as if something had gnawed on it. The white bones were exposed, making it look extremely ferocious.

On his body, there were a few obvious bullet holes, and his clothes were completely soaked in blood.

From the outside, it was a complete corpse!

But now, this corpse was standing and walking, and staring at her with a cold and silent gaze.

Beside the corpse, there were a few other similar black shadows that turned around at the same time.

While the girl was frightened, she recognized the other party's identity. They were the bandits who had tried to kidnap them!

But now, the criminal was dead!

The girl did not hesitate to turn around and escape. Even though she fell a few times in a row and her head was bleeding, she still ran for her life.

There was only one thought in her mind, and that was to leave this place as soon as possible, to escape from this terrifying place.

As she ran, another black shadow appeared beside her, but the girl didn't dare to go up and check again.

The girl ran forward with her head lowered, but she still couldn't suppress her curiosity. She sneaked a glance at the black shadow.

The girl was scared out of her wits.

The shadow was a woman. She wore a tattered dress that was covered in blood and dirt.

The woman's body was covered in wounds and blood, and blood was constantly dripping from her drooping arms.

Her long golden hair was soaked in blood and had become a few thick locks, covering her strange face that was full of hatred.

Most importantly, the woman was floating in the air!

The devil!

The girl was on the verge of a mental breakdown as she thought of this.

She ran madly in the abandoned building, screaming and venting the fear in her heart.

What the girl didn't know was that her companions were also in the same situation. Everyone was so frightened by the constant appearance of ghosts that they were on the verge of collapse.

This abandoned building was now filled with eerie ghostly figures!

In fact, the ghostly abandoned building would not really kill them.

On the other hand, those bandits who had tried to kidnap this group of young people had all died under the interference of the illusions and spirit bodies under Tang Zhen's deliberate guidance.

In the evening, Tang Zhen looked at the gray fog at the edge of the abandoned building. The ice Bear Alliance's military police were continuously losing soldiers and laughed softly.

Under the gray fog's interference, no human could get close to the abandoned building. They were all scared witless.

After guiding the group of young people who had broken down a little, Tang Zhen let out a bored yawn after releasing them from the abandoned building.

"After scaring off these guys, I should continue working!"

Chapter 307: missing mercenary group (1)

Just as Tang Zhen was working on the demolition work in the abandoned city and continuously transporting abandoned supplies to the Holy Dragon City, a team of cultivators entered the Holy Dragon city's area of control.

Their weapons and equipment were obviously much better than that of an ordinary exploration team. They were riding on a strange Mount and had sufficient supplies. They were slowly moving forward in the wilderness.

At the very front of the troop was a muscular man with a straight back, looking around vigilantly. He had a huge battle bow in his hand.

Beside the brawny man, a young man in leather armor came over and smiled at the brawny man. "Big brother Iron Dragon, you don't have to be so nervous. This is only the Wildlands. There won't be any powerful monsters here!"

didn't you see that we've walked for more than ten miles and not a single low-level monster has appeared?!

The brawny man turned and glanced at the young man. He snorted coldly and said, "What do you know, kid? although this Wildlands is barren and desolate, the monsters are far more powerful than you think.

I heard that a few decades ago, the elven cultivator team was completely annihilated by a group of 5th-tier Cyclops!"

when a one-eyed giant goes berserk, its combat ability is extremely powerful. It is definitely not as simple as you think!

After he said that, the burly man glanced at the tall stone pillar in the distance with a hint of solemnity in his eyes.

He was worried about the mission this time.

They had spent nearly half a year traveling thousands of miles to reach this wild land only because they had accepted a mission to find the moonlight pebbles on the cornerstone trading platform.

According to the quest's hint, the team of elf cultivators had died at the hands of the Cyclops in the Wildlands.

The moonlight pebbles they carried should be in the territory of the one-eyed giant.

If he wanted to find the moonlight pebble, he had to get past the one-eyed giant first. This was what Iron Dragon was most worried about.

Although their mercenary group was quite strong, with the exception of him, who was a rank 5 cultivator, the other members were all rank 4 cultivators and Holy Masters.

However, when facing the one-eyed giant, Iron Dragon still did not have the confidence to win!

For this mission, Iron Dragon had invested too much energy and money. This was also related to the mercenary group's promotion qualifications. Therefore, this mission had to be completed!

Tie long couldn't help but sigh as he thought of this.

If it wasn't for those guys in loucheng bullying him too much, he wouldn't have taken the risk and come to this Savage Land.

I hope that this mission can be successfully completed and everyone can return safely!

As time passed, the mercenary group finally got close to the area of the stone pillar.

Tie long jumped off his Mount and looked at the stone pillar area from a distance. He then waved his hand at the silent girl beside him.

The girl was wearing black leather armor, tight black leather pants, and a pair of soft-soled leather boots.

Her entire body was wrapped up tightly, and she even wore a pair of specially made glasses around her eyes.

little Ying, go to the stone pillar area and investigate. Remember to be extremely careful!

After tie long finished speaking, the black clothed girl immediately ran towards the stone pillar area.

Her movements were extremely gentle yet Swift. A layer of mist began to spread around her body.

The black-clothed girl's figure gradually faded under the shroud of this mist. After a certain distance, she actually disappeared from everyone's sight.

This was a Holy master's ability, and the girl in black was a grade-4 Holy master!

However, due to her race, the girl in black was more suited for assassination and reconnaissance work. Her Holy master skills were also more suited for these two jobs!

When the black-robed girl went to investigate, tie long and his team members didn't let their guard down. They made preparations to receive and escape.

Facing a group of enraged Cyclops, the wisest thing to do was to run!

everyone, keep your spirits up. Once there's any change in the situation with little Ying, we'll immediately retreat!

As soon as tie Long's voice fell, he discovered a wave of water fluctuations beside him. Immediately after, the black-clothed girl's figure appeared out of thin air.

"Why are you back so quickly? did the one-eyed giant find you?"

Tie long nervously asked. At the same time, he vigilantly glanced in the direction of the stone pillar area, but he didn't see the single-eyed giant.

The black-clothed girl looked at tie long and said with a cold voice, " the one-eyed Giants in the stone pillar area are all dead. Now, it's occupied by a group of wandering cultivators. They're looking for the garbage on the ground.

Tie long was stunned when he heard this. A bad feeling immediately rose in his heart.

“Mount, let’s go over and take a look!”

As soon as his voice fell, tie long had already rushed out. The other members looked at each other and followed closely behind.

&Nbsp; after rushing into the stone pillar area, tie Long’s mouth immediately dropped open at the scene before him.

At this moment, the stone pillar area was in a mess.

The broken body of the Cyclops was thrown everywhere. Many parts of its huge body had been gnawed by the monsters, revealing its bones. There was no muscle left on its trunk-like legs.

A few dozen Wanderers and wild cultivators were rummaging through the bones that were emitting a rotten smell. It seemed like there was a treasure hidden underneath.

&Nbsp; after seeing this, tie long felt like his head was about to explode. His face turned extremely ugly.

“Damn it, what’s going on?”

Tie long suddenly rushed out and grabbed the neck of a wild cultivator. He coldly said, “Tell me, what happened here?”

The rank 2 wild cultivator’s face was ashen. When tie long and the others had arrived, he had already felt a trace of uneasiness. Now that tie long had roared, he immediately told them everything he knew.

However, the wild cultivator had no idea how the Cyclops had died. After all, no one had seen it.

Tang Zhen did not publicize this matter. He still planned to use this poison to poison another batch of high level monsters!

Following ye Xiu’s explanation, tie long also understood the cause and effect of the matter.

After this wild cultivator finished speaking, tie long casually threw him to the side and turned around to Mount his own Mount.

let’s go to Holy Dragon City and get the moonlight pebble back!

The young man in leather armor couldn’t help but ask, “Boss, do you really think that the Holy Dragon’s city Lord will obediently hand over the moonstone?”

Tie long couldn’t help snorting coldly when he heard this.

“He’s just a puny third level city Lord, what capital does he have to fight us?

If he doesn’t know what’s good for him, I’ll beat him up until he hands it over!”

Tie long laughed out loud and headed straight in the direction of the Holy Dragon City.

Since the Holy Dragon City had already found the moonlight pebble for him, Iron Dragon would save a lot of time. He only needed to go to the Holy Dragon City and get it back.

As a level 5 cultivator from an advanced city, how could he put a mere Level 3 city Lord in his eyes?

Chapter 308: Tie long who suffered a heavy blow _1

&Nbsp; with the moonlight pebble's information, Iron Dragon immediately felt his mood lighten.

&Nbsp; Iron Dragon had originally thought that he would have to face the terrifying Cyclops. After a bitter battle, he had never imagined that these Cyclops would be killed. This made Iron Dragon, who had been prepared for casualties, relax.

They were all comrades who had gone through life and death together. Tie long didn't want to see any of them get hurt.

What he needed to do now was to rush to Holy Dragon City and ask that puny city Lord Lou for the moonlight pebble.

If the other party is tactful, tie long doesn't mind helping him a little. If he doesn't know how to appreciate a favor, then ...

A trace of killing intent appeared on tie Long's face.

None of the mercenaries who licked blood on their blades were soft-hearted!

As for whether the one-eyed giant was killed by the Holy Dragon City, Iron Dragon did not make this assumption at all, because that was not the strength that a level 3 City Tower could have.

The well-built Mount galloped all the way, heading straight for the Holy Dragon City, stirring up a cloud of dust.

&Nbsp; as he ran, tie long discovered that a group of several hundred people had appeared in front of him, and they were all heading in the same direction.

By the time his Mount had reached him, tie long discovered that it was a medium-sized caravan made up of foreign merchants.

The guards of the caravan also saw tie long and the others chasing after them. They immediately drew their weapons and put on a vigilant posture.

Although tie long was a level five cultivator, there were more than a dozen level four cultivators and dozens of level three cultivators in the caravan guards. Therefore, they did not feel afraid.

Seeing the other party's nervous expression, tie long explained, "Don't be nervous, I just want to ask for directions!"

A guard commander of the caravan said to tie long, " "Tell me, where do you want to go?"

I want to go to Holy Dragon City. Should I keep walking forward? "

Hearing this, the guard leader relaxed his guard a little and pointed forward, " "Just follow this path and you'll reach it in no time."

Tie long cupped his hands to express his thanks.

“By the way, where are you guys going?”

Tie long, who was about to leave, looked at the caravan guards and suddenly asked.

“We’re going the same way. We’re going to Holy Dragon City too.”

Tie long was slightly stunned. He did not expect this foreign tribe caravan to also be heading to Holy Dragon City.

A City Tower that could attract non-humankind trade caravans must be either rich in resources or powerful. Otherwise, how could it attract these profit-seeking non-humankind merchants?

The Holy Dragon City was able to attract foreign trade caravans. It was probably stronger than he had imagined.

But even so, it was still a small third-grade city. Iron Dragon was confident that he could force the city Lord to hand over the moonlight pebble!

Originally, he wanted to ask the guard leader about some information about Holy Dragon City. However, when he saw the Guard’s vigilant eyes, tie long chuckled and continued on his way with his men.

It was just a level 3 City Tower, he was too cautious.

After leaving the caravan, the iron Dragon mercenary group continued to gallop. It didn’t take long for a huge mountain peak that reached the clouds to appear in front of everyone.

“This monastic robe is the Holy Dragon City!”

Tie long looked at the huge city wall in front of him and felt dizzy.

The mercenaries behind him also looked at each other with bitter smiles on their faces.

Even the tower they were in only had a twenty-meter wall. Compared to the Holy Dragon city’s fifty-meter wall, it was not even worth mentioning.

Was a class 3 building with such walls really that simple?

If it was an Ordinary Level 3 city with a lack of high-level cultivators, the other party might compromise because of the strength of the iron Dragon mercenary group. However, the Holy Dragon City was obviously not an ordinary city.

At this moment, there were caravans and cultivators going in and out of the Holy Dragon city’s Gate, making it very lively.

This kind of bustling scene could only be seen in high-class buildings. He did not expect Holy Dragon City to be the same.

This Holy Dragon City was not simple!

Iron Dragon pondered for a while and took the lead in controlling his Mount, walking towards the Holy Dragon city’s Gate.

He decided to investigate first before deciding on a method to retrieve the moonlight pebble.

After arriving at the city gate, Iron Dragon indifferently glanced at the Holy Dragon city's soldiers in charge of the guards, taking the opportunity to judge the Holy Dragon city's martial strength.

However, with just a glance, Tie Long's pupils contracted, and his eyes were full of shock and confusion.

The Holy Dragon City warrior in charge of guarding the gate in front of Iron Dragon was actually wearing equipment that was not inferior to the Iron Dragon mercenary group's. The weapon in his hand especially made Iron Dragon's heart tremble.

As a veteran mercenary, Tie Long recognized the origin of this strange weapon at a glance.

The flintlock was an expensive and powerful weapon that had a high price but no supply!

A few years ago, Iron Dragon had encountered a mercenary group that used flintlocks and cannons as their main weapons.

This mercenary group's combat power was amazing, and their reputation was spread far and wide. Their level also far exceeded the Iron Dragon mercenary group.

In that mercenary group, there were two flintlocks. At that time, Iron Dragon had experienced the power of flintlocks.

Tie Long was very envious. He had also thought about getting a flintlock, but after asking around, he knew that this was a weapon that only the rich could afford.

&Nbsp; this matter had always made Tie Long feel regretful, but he could only comfort himself that this was not something he could force.

But today, he was no longer calm.

At a glance, the ten Holy Dragon City Warriors in front of him were actually equipped with flintlocks. This was simply insane!

Your Holy Dragon City is very rich, right? so rich that every warrior in the city is equipped with a flintlock!

This was too much of a blow!

Tie Long felt his heart trembling. He resisted the desire to rob and slowly passed through the city gate.

&Nbsp; after entering the city, Tie Long immediately began to observe the surrounding environment.

He realized that behind this wall, there was another wall that was less than twenty meters tall, protecting the Holy Dragon city's Tower.

From this angle, two huge towers could be seen, proving that there was more than one tower in the Holy Dragon City.

Iron Dragon's eyes narrowed slightly. The Holy Dragon city's strength had increased by another level.

Looking at the tightly guarded inner city walls and the Holy Dragon City soldiers armed with automatic rifles, Tie Long felt a headache.

It would probably be more difficult to advance and attack Holy Dragon City than to fight the one-eyed giant.

Since that was the case, he could only wait for the opportunity to strike!

At this moment, tie Long's lofty aspirations before coming to Holy Dragon City had already been completely crushed.

The members of the iron Dragon mercenary group exchanged a glance and followed the crowd into the commercial district.

However, when they reached the commercial district, tie long and his group members were once again shocked!

The commercial district in front of them was the most spectacular market they had ever seen.

Even the tower they were in didn't have such a spectacular and beautiful area. The only advantage was that there were more people.

The members of the iron Dragon mercenary group were dumbfounded. After storing their mounts in the cave, they began to wander around.

As for the mission of snatching the moonstone, they had already put it to the back of their minds.

After witnessing the Holy Dragon city's power, they clearly realized that it would not be an easy task to get the moonlight pebble back!

In that case, let's go shopping first!

Chapter 309: I'm afraid this mission is going to be ruined

Tie long walked on the street of the commercial district, looking at the foreign merchants coming and going. He couldn't help but sigh.

After so many years of travelling, tie long was quite familiar with the nature of these foreign merchants. They were like a group of bloodthirsty flies. Wherever there was money to make, they would rush to it.

The Holy Dragon City must have had its own unique ways to attract so many foreign merchants.

The members of the mercenary group had already scattered. They took the opportunity to go shopping to find out about the Holy Dragon city's situation.

The more powerful the Holy Dragon City was, the more they did not dare to act rashly.

When they had accidentally heard that the Holy Dragon city's city Lord was a Lord-tier cultivator, tie long and the others had become even more cautious.

He had thought that he could use his cultivation base to force the other party, but now that he thought about it, it was simply a huge joke.

&Nbsp; Iron Dragon couldn't help but blush. He actually wanted to threaten a Lord? he really didn't know what death was!

If he had followed his original plan, his body would have been cold by now.

Under normal circumstances, the city Lord of a level three building was basically at level four, and level five was very rare.

As for a Lord Level 3 city Lord, tie long had never even heard of one!

The difference between Level 5 and Lord was a huge chasm. Throughout the ages, only a few cultivators had passed this stage.

This Holy Dragon City was strange everywhere!

Thinking of this, tie long let out a sigh.

Since he couldn't fight them head-on, he could only use his wits.

Wandering along the wide streets, tie long inadvertently saw a group of cultivators with happy faces walking out of the tall buildings.

&Nbsp; looking into the building, tie long found that there were even more cultivators inside. They were all pointing at a huge gang.

&Nbsp; after seeing this scene, tie long felt that it was somewhat familiar.

Could it be that this Level 3 city also had a cornerstone platform for issuing missions?

Tie long was a little puzzled as he walked in.

Tie Long's rank 5 cultivation was too eye-catching compared to the low-ranked cultivators in the hall who were only Rank 2 or 3. The aura he exuded made many cultivators quickly make way.

Tie long felt a bit proud. It was still a small city after all. With his Level 5 cultivation, he was already considered a top existence here.

Although he was proud, tie long still carefully sized up the building.

&Nbsp; after observing for a while, tie long finally understood what this place was.

Just as he had thought, this was indeed a place to issue mercenary missions.

It was just that in this place, the mission was not issued by the cornerstone trading platform, but by the Holy Dragon City.

Iron Dragon did not expect the Holy Dragon City to be so bold. They had actually created their own mission system to compete with the cornerstone trading platform for business.

However, after understanding the contents of the mission, Iron Dragon realized that most of these missions were trivial matters that required him to run errands for Holy Dragon City.

There wasn't much of a similarity between the missions on the cornerstone trading platform.

Iron Dragon then asked about the mission rewards. After hearing that points could be exchanged for special weapons and equipment, he excitedly rushed to the equipment display cabinet at the side, wanting to see what equipment could be exchanged in Holy Dragon City.

 arriving in front of the glass display case, tie long only took a glance before his breathing became heavy.

In this long row of showcases, not only were there exquisite swords and armors, but there were also many things that tie long did not recognize.

What moved tie long the most were the dazzling demonic weapons and a dozen black and shiny firearms!

this Holy Dragon City is really willing to invest. They actually used such a precious weapon as a reward!

 Iron Dragon looked at the shining demon weapons with greed, but most of the time, his eyes were on the rifles.

He was extremely envious of these rifles that shone with a metallic luster!

After taking a look at the exchange criteria for these weapons, Iron Dragon suddenly had the idea of completing missions here and then using his points to exchange for firearms.

This thought immediately filled tie Long's mind, constantly stimulating and reminding him.

This was an opportunity that couldn't be missed!

A struggle appeared on tie Long's face. After thinking for a long time, he began to stroll around with a relaxed expression.

However, he was very clear on how to register a mercenary group, how to get points, how to advance, and so on.

After leaving the mercenary Union, tie long strolled around for a while before returning to the cave they temporarily rented.

These caves were located at the bottom of the surrounding cliffs. They were densely arranged in a circle, and there were thousands of them.

The cave that tie long and the others had rented was located at the foot of a mountain. It was about four to five hundred square meters and was very spacious.

This was a cave for humans to live in. The caves for mounts were elsewhere.

At this moment, in the cave, only Xiao Ying was sitting quietly on the dry grass. It was so quiet that it was a little scary.

Tie long sat on the side. After thinking for a moment, he turned to Xiao Ying and asked, you've seen the Holy Dragon city's defenses today. Do you have the confidence to sneak in? "

Xiao Ying was silent for a moment, then nodded.

Tie long frowned and sighed.

He knew that the moment Xiao Ying hesitated, it meant that the mission was extremely difficult.

The last time she hesitated, she almost died in the lair of a level five monster. The last time, she was almost killed by a group of cultivators.

“If it’s difficult, then don’t go.”

Tie long looked at the sky outside the cave and let out a sigh.

“I also took note of the Holy Dragon city’s cultivators’ weapons and equipment today. They’re much better than us. If we were to fight them head-on, our chances of winning are extremely low.

I’m afraid we’ll have to return empty-handed from this mission!”

Although he was unwilling to accept this, tie long had already confirmed this point after a rational analysis of the strength of both sides.

The chances of completing the mission were slim!

After a long silence, Xiao Ying spoke again, “no matter what, I have to enter Lou city, because I feel that there is something in the valley that is attracting me.

Her voice was still cold, but there was a rare determination in it.

Tie long was stunned when he heard this. He silently glanced at Xiao Ying.

Ever since this girl joined the iron Dragon mercenary group, she had never revealed her face. Even tie long had never seen her true appearance.

Only through Xiao Ying’s tall and graceful figure, as well as her clear and cold voice, could one deduce that her appearance was definitely extraordinary.

As for Xiao Ying’s race, Iron Dragon didn’t know either. He only knew that she didn’t like to move in the day, and preferred night and dark environments.

“If that’s the case, then be careful. If the situation doesn’t look right, retreat immediately.

As long as we think of a way, we’ll definitely be able to find an opportunity to enter the main city!”

When Xiao Ying heard this, he gently nodded his head.

She raised her head and looked in the direction of the Holy Dragon city’s main city. There was a surprise and uneasiness in her eyes that Iron Dragon could not see.

Chapter 310: Breaking into Holy Dragon city at night (1)

It was late at night, and the sacred Dragon Valley gradually quieted down.

Other than the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers in charge of night security, everyone else had already fallen asleep.

A faintly discernible black shadow silently slipped out of the commercial district. She was using the shadows as cover, constantly moving towards the Holy Dragon city's inner city wall.

Holy Dragon City still had lighting equipment working at night, illuminating the area in front of the city wall.

Anyone who tried to get close to the city wall would be exposed to the eyes of the city guards.

When the black figure approached the area illuminated by the light, she hesitated for a moment. Then, she saw a mist moving around her.

It didn't take long before her figure disappeared without a trace.

This was a special invisibility technique that could help her avoid the scanning of the city guards.

It didn't take long for her to reach the city wall.

At this moment, her entire body was like a feather. She only needed to exert a little force and she would be able to climb up lightly.

One of the Holy Dragon city's soldiers glanced at the bottom of the city wall. He seemed to have heard some strange noise.

He took out a strong flashlight and shone it at the place where the sound had come from. After confirming that there was nothing unusual, the Holy Dragon City soldier was relieved.

"Is there a problem?"

A Holy Dragon City cultivator in black armor walked over. His eyes were like lightning as he kept looking around.

From the fluctuations of his aura, he was clearly a level 4 cultivator!

I heard some noise. It should be fine.

After the Holy Dragon City soldier finished speaking, he pointed to the area behind him.

The Holy Dragon City cultivator nodded, but he still took out an item and placed it in front of him, looking in the direction the warrior pointed.

The item he was using was actually a thermal imaging night vision device used by the United States military.

It was this glance that caused the Holy Dragon City cultivator's expression to change.

A hand reached for his waist at lightning speed, and a pistol with a silencer appeared in his hand.

"Pa pa pa!"

After a few muffled sounds, the cultivator quickly rushed to the place where he had just shot.

After hearing the gunshot, more than twenty Holy Dragon City soldiers on the city wall immediately pounced over. There were five cultivators among them, each of them unsheathed their swords.

“What’s going on?”

A brawny man with a strong aura walked over and asked the cultivator who fired.

The cultivator squatted down and pressed a finger on the ground. When he retracted it, his finger was already stained with blood.

someone has sneaked into the inner city, but I’ve already injured him. The fact that he could avoid so many defensive equipment proves that this person’s stealth technique is very advanced.

The brawny man nodded and looked in the direction of the inner city. “Since the other party has entered the inner city, we don’t need to do anything. After all, those guys in the inner city aren’t just for show.”

After saying this, the brawny man’s face darkened and he roared at the crowd, “What are you guys doing? you can’t even guard a section of the city wall. How many fish have escaped the net?”

Everyone lowered their heads and no one said a word.

The brawny man sighed helplessly. He took out a cigarette and lit it. After taking a deep breath, he sighed and said, “that bunch of bastards will definitely laugh at us again tomorrow. I can’t help but hold my breath.

“All of you, keep your spirits up. If there are any more fish that slip through the net, watch how I’ll deal with you!”

After saying this, the burly man turned around and left, as if he did not care at all that someone had infiltrated the inner city.

The only thing he cared about was his reputation.

The other Holy Dragon City Warriors were also dejected. They had encountered yet another embarrassing incident, and it made them feel a fire burning in their hearts.

In the following time, every soldier’s eyes were wide open, afraid that someone else would slip past under their eyes.

Behind a large tree by the road in the inner city, the black shadow from before slowly revealed itself. It was Xiao Ying of the iron Dragon mercenary group.

She wasn’t in a good state at the moment. Although the cultivator had shot hastily, he had still hit her shoulder.

The bullet was stuck in her muscle, and she frowned in pain.

After treating its wounds, Xiao Ying looked in the direction of the Holy Dragon city’s main city, gritting its teeth as it continued to move forward.

Using the shadows and trees as cover, Xiao Ying quickly approached Holy Dragon city’s main city and carefully stepped onto the huge steps.

Xiao Ying was extremely careful with every step he took, for fear of attracting the attention of the hidden guards.

In this kind of building, there would definitely be cultivators in charge of Night Watch. Once he was discovered by them, he was doomed to return empty-handed.

In order to figure out what was attracting her, she had to successfully sneak into the main city today.

The Holy Dragon city's stairs were very long. Xiao Ying carefully walked for a long time before reaching the top.

The main city gate was not closed, and there was no one guarding it. Xiao Ying took a deep breath and walked towards the main hall.

That feeling became even clearer, as if it was in the hall of the building.

Xiao Ying's heart was filled with apprehension and desire as he strode into the hall.

A huge bulletproof glass was in front of her, and the aura that attracted her seemed to be hidden behind the glass.

However, the glass was blocking her way and she could not take another step forward.

Xiao Ying stretched out his hand and pressed it against the transparent barrier, looking longingly at the pitch-black area, trying to find the source that had attracted him here.

It was unknown when, but ten silent figures had silently appeared beside Xiao Ying.

The aura on their bodies seemed to be firmly suppressed, but the little bit of it that leaked out was enough to make people tremble in fear.

Xiao Ying recovered from her dazed state and immediately noticed the abnormality around her.

Quickly entering a state of alert, Xiao Ying drew out its own weapon, holding two pitch-black sharp daggers in front of its body.

Xiao Ying had a feeling that the enemies in front of her were very powerful, and each one of them was much stronger than her!

She had no chance of winning if they fought.

But she must not be caught, or else the iron Dragon mercenary group would be in danger.

If he really couldn't escape, then he would fight to the death. In short, he couldn't drag big brother Iron Dragon and the others down.

However, Xiao Ying's heart was still filled with deep regret, because she still could not figure out what exactly was attracting her.

After Xiao Ying attacked, the black-clothed cultivators surrounding her also slowly drew their weapons.

It was a long and thin battle blade, its color even darker than Xiao Ying's Black Dagger. At first glance, it gave off a sharp feeling, as if it could cut through anything.

The battle would start at the first touch!

Just then, behind the dark bulletproof glass, a heartbreakingly beautiful woman in white appeared.

She stood behind the glass and sized up Xiao Ying for more than ten seconds. Then, she smiled sweetly.

“City Lord, can you let this girl go? I’ll owe you a favor.”

Tang Zhen carried a smile that was not a smile as he walked over from a corner. He spoke to the White-clothed woman, “It’s not good to owe me a favor. Are you sure you want to do this?”

The White-clothed woman behind the counter nodded. The smile on Tang Zhen’s face became even wider.

With a wave of his hand, the ten cultivators who had surrounded Xiao Ying put away their weapons and disappeared without a trace.

Tang Zhen sized up Xiao Ying, who was still in a guarded state. After smiling, he slowly walked out of the city.

Xiao Ying heaved a sigh of relief when she saw Tang Zhen’s figure disappear. Earlier, she had felt that even her soul was trembling.

This Holy Dragon city’s city Lord was truly terrifying to the extreme!

Xiao Ying turned around and looked at the woman behind the counter, then asked in a cold voice, “Why did you save me?”

because we’re family, my cute little sister!

The woman smiled and waved at Xiao Ying.

“Come, big sister will take you to see the other sisters.

Also, don’t cover your face anymore. Since the heavens have given you such an appearance, you should show it!”

Xiao Ying hesitated for a moment, then slowly removed the mask on his face.

A pale but beautiful face was revealed. The woman behind the counter smiled even more brightly when she saw her.

Following her call, Xiao Ying walked towards the bulletproof glass.

The bulletproof glass that could block a large-caliber rifle was unable to stop Xiao Ying’s figure. She directly passed through it.

The Woman in White held Xiao Ying’s hands, and the two of them walked into the darkness.

In the hall of the main building, a faint bell-like laughter reverberated from time to time.

However, when this laughter entered one’s ears, it gave one a chilling feeling.
