Chapter 331: The terrifying floating metal ball _1

Tang Zhen's running speed was as fast as lightning. In the blink of an eye, he had rushed to the hole that he had cut open.

Tang Zhen leaped into the hole and turned his head to look at the dead rat that was wildly running over. His face revealed a cruel smile.

"You damn rat, you actually dare to play the trick of killing with a borrowed knife. Then don't blame me for blocking your way out!"

This dead rat's intelligence wasn't low. After seeing Tang Zhen's actions, he was definitely able to guess Tang Zhen's plan.

As expected, after seeing Tang Zhen's smile, that dead rat was slightly startled. Immediately after, it revealed a dumbstruck expression.

If this rat could speak, it would have definitely jumped up and cursed.

At the moment of life and death, his only escape route was blocked. Was there anything more ridiculous than this?

However, in the blink of an eye, this rat's eyes glowed red as it fiercely charged towards Tang Zhen.

They would definitely die if they stayed, but if they rushed over, they might have a chance of survival.

At the thought of this, the metal Rat charged forward without hesitation, its eyes filled with ferocity and madness.

The floating metal ball behind him was already rapidly approaching. If he hesitated any longer, he would definitely be killed by this guy!

The metal Rat had experienced the power of the floating metal ball before and had almost lost its life, so it was still in fear.

This was also the reason why it still desperately pounced over despite knowing that Tang Zhen's place was not safe.

Tang Zhen also saw the floating metal ball that was flying over. A faint sense of danger assaulted his heart.

This seemingly unremarkable floating metal ball definitely had terrifying destructive power!

At this moment, the dead rat had already arrived in front of him and ruthlessly crashed into Tang Zhen.

This was the only escape route, so it had to take a risk.

Even a cornered rat would bite when it was in a hurry. At this moment, the metal Rat bared its uneven broken teeth and bit at Tang Zhen fiercely.

How could Tang Zhen allow it to do as it wished? he had taken the risk to wait here in order to give this dead rat a fatal blow.

Seeing that the rat was about to enter the hole, Tang Zhen's thoughts moved. A huge metal box suddenly appeared and blocked the hole.

"Creak creak creak"

The rat cried out in grief and indignation. It slammed its head into the metal box, directly smashing a big hole in it.

Clang! Clang!

After the dead rat entered the box, there was no movement at all. It was unknown if it had fainted.

Tang Zhen laughed as he turned around and started to run for his life.

At the same time, Tang Zhen gave an order to Qian Long, telling them to quickly leave the Super junkyard and wait for him at the edge.

If he was alone, it would be easier for him to escape.

Moreover, with this dead rat attracting the floating metal ball's attention, Tang Zhen would be able to retreat with ease.

But who would have thought that Tang Zhen would hear a strange sound coming from behind him after running a few steps.

Looking at the map, there was a floating metal ball that cut through the wall and headed straight for him.

Tang Zhen's running speed increased once again when he saw this. He headed straight for the next hole.

"Whoosh!"

The metal ball emitted a red ray of light that shot straight toward Tang Zhen's back.

Tang Zhen, who was running, had been staring at the metal ball the entire time. When he saw it launch an attack, he immediately dodged to the side.

The red light brushed past Tang Zhen's body and shot onto the metal floor. It actually burned out a smooth round hole the size of a human head.

If this red light were to hit a person, they would probably be burned to ashes immediately!

After luckily dodging this attack, who would have thought that the second wave of attacks would follow closely behind, frightening Tang Zhen so much that he hurriedly dodged.

After miserably dodging dozens of attacks, Tang Zhen was also filled with anger. He took out his automatic rifle and started shooting.

Unfortunately, when the bullets hit the floating metal ball, other than the clanking sound, there was not even a spark.

The defensive strength of this floating metal ball had far exceeded Tang Zhen's imagination.

Seeing that the automatic rifle's attack had no effect, Tang Zhen did not continue to do useless things. He could only continue to flee in a miserable manner.

After dodging another shot of red light, the remains of a corpse in the corner entered Tang Zhen's eyes. Something seemed to have fallen beside it.

Tang Zhen took a few steps and rushed over. With a wave of his hand, he kept the remains and the items beside it into his storage space.

After entering the storage space, as long as Tang Zhen thought about it, he would be able to clearly see the item's appearance.

The item that dropped from the wreckage seemed to be a strange-looking gun.

The appearance of the gun was filled with a high-tech flavor. It was definitely a product made by the terobo people, and its power was definitely not weak!

He hoped that this gun could be used. Otherwise, Tang Zhen could only rely on the death light application that he could only use once a month to deal with this troublesome metal ball.

With a thought, the gun immediately appeared in Tang Zhen's hand.

While he dodged, Tang Zhen activated his [ appraisal eye ] and figured out the origin of the gun.

[ special use for the terobo Expeditionary fleet, standard Gauss sniper rifle. Currently locked on. To use, it needs to be unlocked. ]

As expected, it was indeed a high-tech weapon, but it could not be used before it was unlocked.

With an attitude of giving it a try, Tang Zhen activated the [ all-purpose electronic kit ] and selected the unlock mode.

At the same time, Tang Zhen had already crossed the empty field and entered the second hole.

Just as he was about to continue running, the words popped up in front of him.

[ the gun has been unlocked and can be used normally! ]

Tang Zhen was overjoyed when he saw this. He fiddled with it a few times before a blue flame suddenly shot out from the muzzle.

The metallic floor beneath his feet had a huge hole blasted out by the metal beam!

After making sure that the gun could be used normally, Tang Zhen deftly turned around and pulled the trigger at the floating metal ball that had just flown out.

The blue flames pounced toward the floating metal ball, causing it to explode with sparks and pushing it far away.

Tang Zhen did not feel any joy after seeing this scene. Instead, he turned around and ran without the slightest hesitation.

If the Gauss sniper rifle could cause fatal damage to the floating metal ball, it would not have tried to stabilize its flying posture while retreating.

As expected, the floating metal ball stabilized again after retreating more than twenty meters.

Red light began to flicker unceasingly on the surface of the floating metal ball. At the same time, it firmly locked onto the currently running Tang Zhen.

the target's threat level has increased, automatically increasing the strength of the attack!

As the command was issued from the inside of the floating metal ball, it immediately turned into a red stream of light and charged straight at Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen, who was constantly paying attention to the situation on the battlefield, immediately discovered this point. He looked at the floating metal ball that had turned red and felt a strong sense of danger.

Just as this thought appeared in his mind, he saw the floating metal ball light up, and then a red light as thick as a fist shot over.

"F * ck, my God!"

The beam of light that was originally as thick as a pencil had already left Tang Zhen in a sorry state. He kept complaining in his heart.

Wouldn't this fist-sized beam of light take his old life?

Why were the monsters in the wreckage of the torobo battleship more and more abnormal than the last?

The red light had already struck. Tang Zhen no longer had the time to think and chose to teleport without any hesitation.

If he didn't run now, was he going to wait for death here?

As for whether that damned floating metal ball would wait for him, that would have to wait until tomorrow!

When the [ instant teleportation map plug-in ] cooled down tomorrow, he could just teleport out. The floating metal ball was The Guardian monster of this battleship, so it would definitely not leave this area.

The power of the heavenly path was so strong that no matter how strong the monster was, it had to follow the laws of the wild tower.

With a flash of light, Tang Zhen disappeared without a trace.

All that was left was the floating metal ball that flickered with red light, which was flying around in a daze.

Chapter 332: raid the nightclub

At the same time that Tang Zhen was teleported back to his original world, Ivanov's ten super soldiers had already begun their first operation.

In a hidden basement somewhere, there was a long table filled with guns and ammunition.

10 brawny men from the ice Bear Alliance were standing around the table, putting on weapons and equipment.

After witnessing the terrifying combat power of the ten super soldiers, Ivanov did not hesitate to spend a lot of money to buy them a large number of weapons and equipment, completely arming them to the teeth.

As all ten of them had military experience, they were no strangers to these weapons.

When a complete gun was in their hands, it was completely broken down in the blink of an eye. Their hand speed was amazing.

It was as if these guns and weapons were just toys in their hands.

A golden-haired brawny man scanned the crowd and threw out a document.

"This person is our mission target this time. Everyone, take a look."

The blonde brawny man was the captain of these super soldiers. He used to be an elite of a special force of the ice Bear Alliance. After retiring, he had to rely on Ivanov because of his financial difficulties.

The information was passed around to everyone. After confirming that they had memorized the contents, the captain burned it.

from now on, there's a 15-minute break. Everyone, remember your code names so as not to affect the operation!

After the golden-haired Captain finished speaking, a short-haired man in a black battle suit responded, "I know, boss Gabriel!"

The rest of the people also nodded.

Fifteen minutes later, a black business car quietly drove onto the road, heading straight for a bustling location in the city.

Gabriel and the others in the carriage wore black masks and were as silent as stone statues.

However, the murderous aura emanating from their bodies made Pargo, who was acting as a temporary driver, feel extremely frightened.

As Ivanov's confidant, he also knew that these ten people had been transformed by Tang Zhen. However, he did not expect the result to be so terrifying.

Before these guys were modified, Pargo would definitely be able to take on three of them!

However, after the modification, even ten pargaos together might not be a match for one of them!

Pargo, who advocated martial strength, was now hesitating whether to ask Tang Zhen to reform him.

However, if Pargo wanted to modify it, he would have to go through his sister first.

Once he thought of his sister, Pargo felt a headache coming on. Not only did his brother always lose to her, but even Ivanov himself did not dare to provoke Natasha.

Everyone knew that his sister had an ambiguous relationship with the Oracle. With this protective talisman, who would dare to provoke her?

After getting rid of the messy thoughts in his mind, Ivanov began to concentrate on driving.

This was the first operation of the Super soldiers, and they had to take it seriously.

The black business car was like a ghost, shuttling through the traffic and finally stopping in front of a brightly lit nightclub.

This was one of the properties of Ivanov's opponent, and the leader of this organization would stay in this nightclub for a while every night.

Gabriel and the others' mission was to charge in and kill him!

The moment the car stopped, Gabriel and the others jumped out of the car and ran to the back door of the nightclub.

Two tall and strong men from the Ice Bear Alliance were guarding the back door. When they saw Gabriel and the others rushing over, they immediately pulled out their pistols from their waists in a panic.

However, as soon as their fingers touched the hilt of the gun, they saw two streams of light coming over and nailing their foreheads.

The steel awls thrown out by the Super soldiers easily penetrated the skulls of the two men. The lethality was even more terrifying than that of a rifle.

The obstacle has been resolved. Michael, stay here. The rest of you, follow me up!

After Captain Gabriel gave the order, everyone quickly entered in a single file and rushed up the back door.

As soon as they entered the nightclub, the noisy and rhythmic music immediately hit them, making them have the urge to sway with the music.

However, the hearts of the Super soldiers were as hard as stone, and they were not affected by the noisy environment at all.

They had already memorized the terrain before they took action, so they rushed to a staircase without hesitation.

There were two more strong men guarding the path, but when they saw Gabriel and the others, a super soldier charged forward and grabbed their throats before they could react.

"Crack!"

Two crisp sounds rang out at the same time. The two men's fingers had not even touched their weapons when their necks were directly broken.

After gaining superhuman strength, these super soldiers preferred to use close combat to deal with their enemies.

Leaving one more person to guard the passage, the rest of the Super Warriors rushed to the top.

Just as he stepped onto the second floor, two guards came up to him. Gabriel's silenced gun pointed at them twice, and the two guards fell to the ground.

However, the exchange of fire between the two sides happened to be noticed by the guards in the monitoring room, and they immediately informed all the armed guards in the nightclub.

The sound of hurried footsteps could be heard. It was obvious that the enemy was rushing over.

Gabriel frowned and quickly gave the order.

leave two people behind to block the enemy. The rest of you, follow me and continue upwards. We must finish the battle within three minutes!

As soon as he finished speaking, these super soldiers rushed upstairs. Their superhuman physique was perfectly displayed at this moment.

As soon as the nightclub guards rushed over, they saw a few figures rushing over at high speed, faster than leopards.

As he charged, the bullets seemed to have eyes, and they all landed on the guards 'vital parts.

Before the guards could even react, they had all lost their lives!

After the transformation, his body had already far exceeded the imagination of ordinary people.

If the security guards of the nightclub could capture the movements of the Super soldiers, then it would be a real disaster!

After dealing with the group of guards, the group rushed upstairs again.

This time, just as Gabriel showed his head, a hail of bullets swept over his head. The dense bullets left countless holes in the wall, and the air was filled with the smell of gunpowder.

At this moment, there were more than ten armed guards in the corridor of the top floor, and they were pointing their guns at Gabriel and the others.

&Nbsp; after communicating with the team members behind him, Gabriel and the two members behind him attacked at the same time.

One of the team members stomped on the ground and flew into the air, appearing at the top of the tunnel.

He exerted force on his hands and feet and supported his body with the connection between the wall and the roof. He then fired with the submachine gun in his hand.

At the same time, another team member poked his body out of the ground, and his gun was spewing fire.

Gabriel directly stuck out his gun. With his speed that far exceeded that of a normal person, six people were killed in an instant.

In less than two seconds, all the enemies were killed!

After clearing the corridor, Gabriel went straight to a door in the middle of the corridor and started firing.

“Bang!”

The door was kicked open, and he saw three people lying in a pool of blood. One of them had a gun aimed at him.

He easily dodged the enemy’s shot and killed him in one shot.

&Nbsp; after checking and confirming that the target was dead, Gabriel announced their retreat.

What Gabriel and the others didn’t expect was that when they were attacking the nightclub, an alcohol lamp was knocked to the ground by a flustered guard in the room where the guard was resting.

After the alcohol lamp broke, it ignited the sofa next to it, and the flames quickly spread.

Half an hour after they left, the place turned into a sea of fire, swallowing the entire nightclub.

What no one noticed was that in the sky above the burning fire field, there was suddenly a strange fluctuation that was so tiny that it could not be detected. It suddenly flashed a few times.

Chapter 333: Fumi battle suit, movie concept

In the original world, Tang Zhen activated the [ quantum invisibility light screen ] and strolled on the streets of the abandoned city, pondering about his encounter.

If he wanted to teleport back to the world of loucheng, he would have to wait for a day. Only then would his safety be guaranteed.

Tang Zhen had no choice but to deal with that terrifying floating metal ball cautiously. After all, the destructive power of this ghastly thing was really too strong.

If it wasn’t for the teleportation ability, with Tang Zhen’s Overlord cultivation, his injuries would be considered light. If he wasn’t careful, he might even lose his life.

Bruley and the others had been two-star horde leaders back then, and their cultivation levels had intimidated many people. However, hadn’t they also ended up in a sorry state in this warship wreckage?

However, risk and opportunity coexisted. The more powerful the monsters in the wild building were, the more valuable the items inside would be. The rewards in the storage dimension were enough to prove this point.

To the natives of the world of loucheng, before they figured out how to use it, those high-tech products were not even as valuable as a brain.

However, after it fell into Tang Zhen's hands, he could easily break it and use it.

After finding a dilapidated building, Tang Zhen strode in and stopped in a spacious room.

The door and windows of the room were all broken, the floor was full of debris, and the window sill was full of bird droppings.

Tang Zhen took out the box that contained the FOMI combat suit from the storage space and took it out.

At first glance, the black femme combat suit looked like the intact skin of a strong man who had his bones and flesh extracted.

Apart from the head, it could completely protect the user's body.

Tang Zhen couldn't confirm the functions of the FOMI combat suit from its appearance alone. He had to try it on.

He opened the [ all-purpose electronic kit ] and tried to unlock the combat suit.

Almost every item of the teroboros people had been unlocked and encrypted, and could not be used normally before it was unlocked.

Just like the Gauss sniper rifle that Tang Zhen had picked up by chance. If it was not unlocked, its only use was to use it as a stick to smash people!

A red light flashed from the surface of Tang Zhen's body, enveloping the combat suit. After a few seconds, it indicated that Tang Zhen had unlocked it.

The specific method of using it also appeared before his eyes.

Tang Zhen casually lifted the combat suit and pressed it against a bump on the waist of the combat suit.

Following Tang Zhen's touch, the originally soft combat suit immediately changed. It was like an air-inflated model that stood upright in front of Tang Zhen.

Then, the back of the combat suit separated from the back of its limbs, allowing the user to enter the combat suit directly.

Tang Zhen put away the extra clothes on his body. He took a deep breath and walked in barefooted.

Stepping out of the combat boots connected to the combat suit, he extended his arms. The unfolded combat suit immediately wrapped around Tang Zhen's torso and limbs.

The originally fat combat suit rapidly shrunk. Tang Zhen only felt his body slightly tighten. The combat suit had already completely fitted his body.

On the back and limbs, the openings for the user to enter were now tightly connected by countless metallic threads invisible to the naked eye.

The bulge on his waist suddenly disappeared, and a stream of light began to flash continuously on his combat suit for thirty seconds.

After the stream of light appeared, Tang Zhen had a feeling that this combat suit was continuously merging into his body, becoming a part of him.

There was nothing wrong with this feeling. In fact, there were already shocking changes inside the combat suit.

If Tang Zhen could download an application called [ nano vision ], he would be able to see the huge changes in his body.

Countless metal wires that were invisible to the naked eye had pierced through his skin and connected to his organs and neurons.

After the metal wire pierced through the skin, the user would not feel any difference because they were too small.

The feeling of becoming one with the combat suit and even treating the combat suit as his own skin was the effect of these metal wires.

Tang Zhen extended his hand and touched his combat suit. He did not feel any abnormality. On the contrary, it was extremely comfortable, as if he was touching his own skin.

He had a faint feeling that after wearing this combat suit, his combat power had at least doubled!

To a Lord-tier cultivator, doubling their combat power would have a terrifying killing effect.

Tang Zhen extended his finger and gently inserted it into the concrete wall beside him. His finger immediately sank in as though it had touched mud.

Tang Zhen withdrew his arm and nodded his head in satisfaction.

The truth was just as he had guessed. His combat strength had indeed increased by several times!

Next, Tang Zhen tested his movement speed, defensive strength, reaction speed, and so on. The results made him extremely satisfied.

With this femme combat suit, the Lord-tier monster no longer had any advantage in front of Tang Zhen. The only result was that it would be directly killed by Tang Zhen!

Tang Zhen moved his neck and took out a black windbreaker and put it on.

When the combat suit was worn on the body, it was as if all the skin had been peeled off. It looked very terrifying and ferocious, and he had to cover it up.

Due to the additional combat suit on his body, Tang Zhen's body became even more muscular. His original clothes could no longer be put on.

After closing the [ quantum stealth light curtain ], Tang Zhen took out a car and drove out of the city.

Along the way, there were cars passing by from time to time. They were all tourists who had heard of ghost city's reputation and specially came to visit the hidden world.

Curiosity was something that was particularly obvious in human beings. He hoped that they would not be scared out of their wits by the ghosts!

The car drove on and when they passed by a small city, Tang Zhen turned into it.

When they passed by an open-air market, Tang Zhen stopped the car and walked in.

He was going to buy a new set of clothes to cover up the FOMI combat suit.

After walking around the open-air market for a while, Tang Zhen found that there were many people from the Asian Alliance doing business in the market.

The stall he was at was run by the people from the Asian Alliance.

Tang Zhen chatted with the boss for a while and picked out a few sets of clothes. He walked inside and put them on.

Walking out of the changing room, the owner glanced at Tang Zhen and couldn't help but praise, "Brother, you're really strong. I'm afraid those men from the ice Bear Alliance can't compare to you!"

Since he had nothing to do, Tang Zhen paid the money and started to chat with the boss.

It turned out that there were nearly two hundred people from the Asian Alliance doing business in the market. They came from all regions of the Asian Alliance.

Due to the poor economic situation, their business wasn't doing well. Tang Zhen was their third customer today.

What's more, Tang Zhen bought several sets of clothes at once and didn't bargain when paying. This made the stall owner have an extremely good impression of Tang Zhen.

After chatting for a while, Tang Zhen took out a box of cigarettes that Ivanov had prepared for him from his pocket and handed one to the stall owner.

"Good cigarette, it seems like you're not short of money!"

The stall owner took the cigarette and sighed in admiration. He handed the lighter to light the cigarette.

Tang Zhen faintly smiled. He held the cigarette in his mouth and looked ahead as if he was in deep thought.

On the street not far from him, a man was livestreaming on his mobile phone, interacting with the audience from time to time.

If he also shot some videos of the world of loucheng and made them into movies, what kind of effect would it have?

An exciting movie world would definitely attract the attention of countless people.

At this time, if someone claimed that this was likely to be the real world and produced the corresponding evidence, what would people think?

Under appropriate guidance, this would inevitably lead to a wave of exploration and discussion.

Taking advantage of this trend, Tang Zhen's men added fuel to the fire and set up various training institutions and interest associations to attract fans to join.

These people's research on the world of loucheng could provide Tang Zhen with some business ideas.

After that, he could selectively release some news to these organizations, convincing them that the scenes in the movie were from the real world.

When they could go to the World of loucheng, their supporters would have the priority to teleport!

After the cross-plane Soul transmission experiment was successful, Tang Zhen hoped that he would welcome a group of well-trained transmigrators and not a group of scattered sand.

Therefore, before that, they would receive targeted training to adapt to the various situations in the world of loucheng. It was a professional and efficient training!

Some work had to be prepared in advance!

Chapter 334: video application, the terrifying green eyes

Tang Zhen sat in a restaurant in the market and was deep in thought.

If he wanted to shoot a video for the production of a movie, he would need professional equipment.

However, for Zhen Tang, this wasn't a difficult thing, because there was a dedicated camera application in the application store.

This application was very cheap, and could be downloaded and installed with only five hundred brain beads.

It had 1.5 billion pixels and a series of functions such as automatically adding special effects, editing, beautifying, dubbing, and adding lines. With only one application, a super movie could be produced.

Such a convenient method had also saved Tang Zhen a large amount of time.

After downloading and installing the [ super videographer ] application, Tang Zhen tried to play with it.

Tang Zhen's point of view could be accurately recorded. Even the map point of view could be clearly recorded.

After shooting a five-minute video, Tang Zhen selected the style option and entered some requirements for the video in the blank space. Then, he clicked on the auto-edit option.

About a minute later, the video was edited.

Tang Zhen was filming the restaurant in front of him. He chose a magical style and wanted it to be comfortable and leisurely, so that people could completely relax.

He clicked on the video to play, and a melodious and soothing background music sounded, making people feel relieved.

The image in the video was just an ordinary restaurant in the original world, but now it gave people the feeling that they were in a magical world.

Perhaps it was the light, or the background music, or some unknown hint.

In short, the moment he saw this scene, Tang Zhen subconsciously thought that this was a magical world and was deeply immersed in it.

The five-minute video finished playing very quickly. Tang Zhen felt that his mind had been greatly relaxed. It was as if he had arrived in a restaurant in a magical world and was enjoying a cup of fragrant milk tea.

Tang Zhen could not help but exclaim in admiration after slightly reminiscing.

“Not bad, not bad at all!”

Why don't we upload it to the internet and see what the effect is?

After thinking up to this point, Tang Zhen launched the [ all-purpose electronic kit ] and uploaded it to the largest social networking platform in his original world.

Because of the application, no one could detect Tang Zhen's identity and address. It was extremely secretive.

Next, Tang Zhen started to wait and see what the audience's comments were.

The first comment appeared less than five minutes after the video was uploaded.

Oh my God, which expert made this video? it's simply too awesome!

After this person commented, he chose to repost it at the same time, as if he couldn't wait to share it with his friends.

Tang Zhen nodded his head after watching it. As expected, he wasn't the only one who felt that the video was good.

From the looks of it, using [ super videographer ] to record a movie should be completely feasible.

After the waiter served a bowl of fresh soup filled with large pieces of mutton, as well as flatbread and chopped onions, Tang Zhen began to gobble down the food.

He inadvertently glanced at the comments below the video and was shocked to find that there were more than a thousand replies!

The comments were full of praise and exclamation, as well as gratitude for the video's publisher.

what a beautiful restaurant! I really want to go there and sit for a while!

after watching this video, I feel like all the pressure on my body has disappeared. I'm filled with endless power again. Thank you, I'm really grateful!

the magical effects in this video are beyond my reach. I wonder if the producer is interested in joining our team? ” is the one above the boss of Shadow Fiend? ” you made the boss of the world’s most powerful special effects company feel inferior, and you even sent an invitation. Brother, you’re so awesome!

Looking at the increasing number of comments, Tang Zhen smiled and closed it.

This video was just a test. Since the audience’s response was very good, he was relieved.

As for how many people would admire and worship this video, Tang Zhen didn’t care at all.

After the meal, Tang Zhen started the car and continued to drive towards the city where Ivanov was.

What Tang Zhen didn’t know was that the video he had uploaded had already spread on the internet and was being watched by more and more viewers.

Gasps of admiration filled the internet, and some people even called it the best stress-relieving video. They changed it to their computer screensaver or mobile desktop and played it constantly.

Many restaurants and shops, even the big screens in the airport and schools, showed the video. The response was surprisingly enthusiastic.

Some people were curious about the identity of the video’s creator, so they used various methods to investigate, but they found nothing.

The viral video and the silent producer became another hot topic on the internet!

The car drove all the way, and by the time they arrived at the city where Ivanov was, it was already late at night.

Tang Zhen quietly entered the manor, lay on the bed, and fell into a deep sleep.

The next morning, after Tang Zhen had breakfast, he returned to his bedroom and activated the teleportation.

At this time, he was ready to immediately activate the map teleportation plug-in if there was an abnormal situation.

However, the situation he had expected did not happen. The floating metal ball had long since disappeared, and the entire passage was silent.

Tang Zhen heaved a sigh of relief. He carefully moved forward along the passageway and soon arrived near the entrance.

Tang Zhen sized up his surroundings. He was just about to get up and leave when he suddenly felt a mental energy lock onto his body.

This familiar feeling caused Tang Zhen’s body to stiffen. That terrifying monster that was hidden within the large pit had actually targeted him.

Tang Zhen tried to take a step outside and felt that the mental energy had strengthened once again.

“Could it be that this monster doesn’t want me to leave, so it’s doing this?”

Tang Zhen clenched his teeth when he thought of this. He once again moved his body.

In the end, that surge of mental energy seemed to have turned corporeal in an instant as it pressed down on Tang Zhen's body, causing him to feel some difficulty in breathing.

Tang Zhen turned his head and looked at the large pit that was filled with gray fog. He seemed to see two green lights coldly staring at him.

"Damn it, what the hell is this?"

Tang Zhen immediately felt a wave of cold air freeze his blood after seeing this ice-cold and emotionless green light. It caused his soul to tremble.

However, the more dangerous the situation was, the clearer Tang Zhen's mind became.

He suddenly remembered what Bruley and the others had encountered. It seemed that they had also been intercepted by a terrifying monster when they were evacuating the warship wreckage, not allowing them to leave.

Could it be that they were the same monster, and they didn't plan to let him leave?

After Tang Zhen thought up to this point, he quickly returned to the warship wreckage and observed the huge pit through the map view.

As he retreated, the green light in the gray fog also disappeared, and the spiritual power enveloping his body was completely withdrawn.

It was simply impossible to rush out of the warship. Therefore, Tang Zhen's only choice was to activate the teleportation technique and leave.

He hoped that the monster would not go crazy and hunt him down after realizing that he had gone missing!

With this monster's terrifying spiritual power, it could definitely lock onto him who was dozens of kilometers away. There was no doubt about it.

Tang Zhen's action was also a gamble!

If this monster had its eyes on him and only allowed Tang Zhen to move around in the warship wreckage, Tang Zhen would be in tears!

Along with the activation of the application, a faint light flickered and Tang Zhen had already disappeared without a trace.

The instant Tang Zhen disappeared, a spiritual force swept past the place where he had disappeared. It hovered for a moment before it was withdrawn.

In the air above the large pit, a gray fog slowly condensed. A moment later, two terrifying green lights suddenly appeared in the gray fog.

Upon closer inspection, it was clearly a pair of eyes!

The terrifying pair of eyes were cold and emotionless. They seemed to have penetrated the thick gray fog and were staring at the edge of the ruins.

After a long time, the eyes disappeared, and the gray fog slowly dissipated.

Chapter 335: want to make movie!

At the edge of the Super ruins, Qian Long was staring unblinkingly in the direction of the gray mist. There was an undetectable trace of anxiety between his brows.

Tang Zhen had already left for a day, and there was still no news from him.

Yesterday, in the gray fog, he had even informed Qian Long and the others to retreat quickly. They had clearly encountered a critical situation.

To be able to make a Lord cultivator feel danger, especially an expert like Tang Zhen, Qian Long didn't dare to imagine what Tang Zhen had encountered!

He decided to wait for a while longer. If Tang Zhen still did not come out, he would have to enter the central region to investigate.

Even if he had to risk his life and might die in there at any moment, Qian Long didn't care!

At this moment, Qian Long suddenly felt the air beside him tremble. Soon after, Tang Zhen's figure appeared before his eyes.

"Hu!"

Qian Long heaved a sigh of relief, and his originally tense nerves slowly relaxed.

"City Lord, are you alright?"

Qian Long asked in a concerned manner as he walked over to Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen shook off the dust on his body and smiled at Qian Long and the others.

"Don't worry, I'm fine!"

Tang Zhen turned his head to look at the gray fog area. After thinking for a moment, he walked to a nearby broken wall.

Tang Zhen extended his finger and repeatedly waved it on the hard wall. Words appeared while gravel and dust continuously fell to the ground.

Qian Long walked behind Tang Zhen and saw the contents of Tang Zhen's letter.

no cultivators are allowed to enter the gray fog area. Anyone who violates this rule will be severely punished. -Tang Zhen, the city Lord of Holy Dragon City!

Tang Zhen had written in a common language that cultivators from all races could understand.

The reason why he did this was to prevent the monsters in the pit from being disturbed and causing unpredictable and terrifying consequences!

Although ordinary cultivators couldn't get close to the central area, they could still enter the peripheral areas.

In order to completely cut off the hidden danger, Tang Zhen simply forbade any cultivators from entering to prevent any accidents from happening.

With the Holy Dragon city's prohibition, these cultivators would definitely be wary when entering the gray fog region and give up on their plans to enter.

If there were really people who did not care about their lives, Tang Zhen would not care about them. They were seeking their own deaths, and Tang Zhen was helpless.

Qian Long ordered his men to kill a monster and used its blood to draw the words so that they would look clearer.

"When I come back next time, I'll make sure to teach you a lesson!"

Tang Zhen glanced in the direction of the warship wreckage and immediately released the wasteland combat vehicle.

Under the gazes of the wild cultivators and Wanderers, the group headed towards Holy Dragon City at high speed.

Sitting in the bumpy car, Tang Zhen kept thinking about how to shoot a movie. His mind was full of plot settings.

After thinking for a long while, Tang Zhen suddenly turned his head around and said to Qian Long, Qian Long, I'm going to make you the main character of a movie. What do you think? "

Qian Long was stunned when he heard this. He revealed an embarrassed expression and said to Tang Zhen, "City Lord, I don't think that's a good idea."

Tang Zhen felt a little strange. He was merely the main character of a movie. What was wrong with this?

Tang Zhen felt even more curious when he saw Qian Long's troubled expression. He continued to ask, your expression isn't right. Tell me, why don't you want to be the main character? "

Qian Long coughed lightly, his face filled with conflict.

If it was someone else who wanted to get to the bottom of this matter, Qian Long would have already thrown a punch over. However, he really didn't dare to do so when it was Tang Zhen who asked.

Looking at the gossiping subordinates around him, Qian Long took a deep breath and said, " because the main character has to take off all his clothes and let everyone see it. It's too embarrassing!

Tang Zhen could not help but be stunned for a moment when he heard Qian Long's reply. After which, a strange expression appeared on his face.

the movie you're talking about, are you referring to the thing in Tyson's computer? "

Qian Long looked at Tang Zhen and gently nodded his head.

A few black lines immediately appeared on Tang Zhen's face when he heard this. F * ck, we're talking about completely different things, alright?

The last time when they were checking the supplies in the main city, someone accidentally found a laptop full of movies, which was discovered by Tai Seng who was passing by.

After that bastard looked at it a few times, he immediately ran to Zhen Tang with the computer and asked to be assigned to him.

It was just a laptop, so Tang Zhen didn't think much of it and directly gave it to Tyson.

In the end, when Tang Zhen went to look for Tai Seng the next day, he discovered that this fellow was sitting together with Qian Long. Both of his eyes were staring at the laptop screen intently, and he didn't even notice Tang Zhen's arrival.

For two peak rank 4 cultivators to be so focused on it, it must be something very attractive.

However, when Tang Zhen heard the voice from the notebook, he immediately understood what was being played.

Tang Zhen didn't know whether to laugh or cry at that time. He could only cough lightly and wake up the two people who were watching an artistic film.

Looking at the strange expression on Tang Zhen's face, Qian Long and Tai Seng's faces turned red, and they wished for nothing more than to find a hole and hide in it.

How could the word 'embarrassment' be used to describe such a scene when he was caught by his boss watching such things during work hours?

Tang Zhen finally understood the reason behind Qian Long's hesitation after this memory surfaced in his mind.

Tang Zhen rapped Qian Long's head in anger before chiding, what are you thinking about? I'm not going to shoot a proper movie, not the naked and physical kind!

"Oh, is that so? Yingluo, okay."

Qian Long nodded his head in a half-understanding manner, indicating that he was willing to sacrifice himself for the sake of art!

When he saw Qian Long's depressed expression, Tang Zhen was certain that this fellow's heart was definitely filled with struggle.

alright, I've decided to pick a new lead. You have no chance!

Qian Long parted his mouth and laughed after Tang Zhen's words sounded. He had an expression as though he had been relieved of a heavy burden.

Tang Zhen rolled his eyes and decided to ignore this good-for-nothing fellow.

After the movie was completed, Tang Zhen would be screened in the Holy Dragon City and the commercial district. At that time, as the protagonist's actor, he would definitely be remembered by all the residents of the Holy Dragon City.

It was such a good opportunity to be famous. At that time, there would definitely be countless girls who would fall in love with him and cry and shout to marry him.

If it wasn't for the fact that he was the Holy Dragon city's city Lord and his identity was too sensitive, Tang Zhen would have wanted to be the main character!

you brat, you don't know how to appreciate favors. Just wait to regret it!

Tang Zhen snorted. Being rejected by the actor he had chosen made him, the 'director', feel very depressed.

Tang Zhen closed his eyes and began to plan the plot. At the same time, he was also choosing the candidates for the various roles.

The thoughts of the Lord-level cultivator were as fast as lightning. By the time the wasteland war chariots entered the Holy Dragon City, Tang Zhen had already finished constructing the specific plot.

The next thing to do was to choose the actors, prepare the props, and then start shooting!

As soon as Tang Zhen returned to the Holy Dragon City, he issued a series of orders, taking more than a hundred people from each department to participate in the filming of the movie.

At the same time, Tang Zhen had also mobilized many extras, including the residents of the Holy Dragon City, prisoners, and foreign merchants.

After everything was ready, the Super movie directed by Tang Zhen officially began shooting!

Chapter 336: shooting and screening!

On a patch of grass not far from the Holy Dragon City, Tang Zhen was carrying a big megaphone and wearing a vest as he gave commands on the spot.

In order to ensure that these actors had a photogenic feel, Tang Zhen ordered Pargo to get him a professional digital camera, which was filmed by a cultivator from the Holy Dragon City.

Although the content of the shooting was not usable, it looked much more professional.

In the wild grass, a handsome and determined young man was holding a short knife and wearing a tattered leather armor. He was having a " life and death battle " with a level one monster!

The monster looked extremely ferocious, and the young man was covered in blood. The battle scene was quite intense.

Tang Zhen stared at the young man's movements and at the same time, he activated his application to film the entire scene.

Since the camera was from a map, it was a comprehensive shot. During post-production, the camera could be directly extracted from any angle.

Under the gazes of nearly a hundred people, the young man finally killed the monster with 'extreme difficulty'. Then, he dragged his exhausted body and slowly walked into the depths of the wilderness.

"We've passed!"

Tang Zhen shouted. After which, he received the tea that the guard beside him handed over and slowly took a sip.

When the 'heavily injured' young man heard this, he immediately straightened his back and ran over.

"City Lord, what do you think of my acting?"

This young man no longer had the tired look from before, his face was full of excitement and flattery!

When Qian Long saw this, he curled his lips in disdain.

You're the captain of the guards in the commercial district, but you're here to shoot a movie and you're so excited. I don't know what you're thinking.

It's just a movie, do you have to be so serious?

hmm, it's not bad, but your expression is still a little off. You have to put in more effort. When you were fighting the monster just now, you were obviously a little perfunctory. I'll be more careful next time!

Tang Zhen put the cup aside and pointed out the young man's problems during the shooting process. He was full of style.

After Xiao Rui listened carefully, he nodded his head sincerely, his face full of admiration.

He turned around and looked at the level 1 monster that he had killed. He decided to use less force next time so that he could kill it for a longer time!

If the monster that was killed knew what Xiao Rui was thinking, it would definitely cry out in sorrow.

You're a level 4 cultivator, yet you're here to bully a level 1 monster like me. Do you have any shame?

The most outrageous thing was that this guy didn't kill me with one strike, but kept stabbing me with broken metal pieces, cutting me all over. Isn't this torture?

No one knew what the monster was thinking, but Tang Zhen was very satisfied with the shooting process.

props team, get ready. The next scene will be in The Wanderer's Market. All extras, get into the scene immediately.

Tang Zhen's voice had just sounded when the people behind him started to get busy. Not long after, a simple trading market was completed.

Nearly a hundred human and non-humankind merchants were standing in front of the stalls, shouting and yelling. Wanderers were moving back and forth around the stalls, making the place quite lively.

As the main character, Xiao Rui walked through the crowd. After looking around for a while, he walked to a stall.

He took out a bag of medicinal herbs and ores and sold them to the fat foreign merchant. Then, he carefully put the money into his pocket.

After Tang Zhen saw this, he gently made a hand gesture. A young man wearing a tattered robe rushed out.

This young man was the second male lead, played by a Holy Dragon City cultivator.

The second male lead walked in front of Xiao Rui and knocked him lightly. Then, he took out Xiao Rui's money bag.

Very quickly, Xiao Rui realized that his money bag had been stolen and gave chase with all his might. Then, the two of them began to chase and fight in the trading market, causing a huge commotion.

The two of them got to know each other after a fight. In the end, the second male lead returned the money bag to Xiao Rui and claimed that he had a treasure map. He invited Xiao Rui to go and look for the treasure together.

After confirming the authenticity of the treasure, the two of them bought all the equipment and supplies they had and entered the wilderness together.

After shooting up to this point, Tang Zhen announced that they would move to the next location to continue shooting.

In the process of choosing the location, Tang Zhen tried his best to choose places with wondrous mountains and beautiful waters, displaying the unique terrain of the world of Loucheng.

During this period, in order to shoot some scenes, Tang Zhen directly piloted the armed helicopter and pulled all the actors over.

In the blink of an eye, five days had passed, and they finally entered the shooting of the last scene.

Xiao Rui, the second male lead, and the female lead, played by Yuelang, had a life-and-death battle with a group of Raider groups in the ruins of the Blackfeather Birdman's building.

After a life-and-death struggle, the three of them 'killed' a group of Holy Dragon City cultivators who were acting as wild cultivators and finally obtained the hidden treasure.

Carrying the treasure, the three of them trudged all the way and finally arrived in front of an incomparably tall city wall.

The three of them looked at the city wall and the fully armed soldiers on it, and they couldn't help but cheer.

The setting sun's afterglow shone on the three young faces, appearing incomparably beautiful, making people unable to help but be intoxicated in the picture.

Tang Zhen nodded in satisfaction, indicating that the shooting was over. Everyone immediately cheered.

In the past five days, they had been running around to film, and it felt more tiring than training.

Fortunately, the city Lord had already promised to give them a certain reward and to broadcast the movie in Holy Dragon City.

Recalling the characters and plots that they had acted in, all the actors were looking forward to it. They wanted to see what they looked like in the movie.

Tang Zhen returned to his room and immediately started editing the movie.

The shooting process was rushed and rough, but in the face of application, these were not problems.

He entered his requirements and chose a style that combined fantasy and science fiction. Then, Tang Zhen chose automatic editing.

Due to Tang Zhen's high requirements, the editing process this time took a full five hours.

After the editing was completed, Tang Zhen resisted the urge to immediately watch it. Instead, he ordered someone to send out a notice the next morning.

Directed by the city Lord himself, the movie with the residents of the Holy Dragon City as the main characters would be broadcasted tonight!

The Holy Dragon city's residents, who had long heard that the city Lord was filming a movie, immediately spread the news. At the same time, they couldn't wait to find out what that movie was.

Some of the foreign merchants who had participated in the shooting were also bragging to their companions about how good they were during the shooting.

Xiao Rui and the other actors were all excited, and they couldn't help but smile. Yue lang even ran to Lisa's place and dressed up carefully.

Everyone in the Holy Dragon City was discussing animatedly, looking forward to the movie's broadcast.

Tang Zhen's heart was filled with a sense of achievement after he saw this scene.

Time passed slowly. When the sun set in the West and the moon hung high in the sky, the Holy Dragon city's Square was already filled with anticipating residents.

There were also countless merchants and Wanderers gathered in the Plaza of the commercial district.

At this moment, Tang Zhen was standing on the peak of a mountain. When he felt that it was about time, he activated the [ super videographer ].

Two rays of light shot out from Tang Zhen's body, hitting the sky above the Holy Dragon City square and the commercial district Square.

With the help of the [ virtual reality simulator ], the [ super videographer ] formed two huge light screens above the square.

Because of the magical effect of the application, the scenery displayed on the light screen was three-dimensional, completely like a live performance.

This kind of special broadcast effect was something that no cinema in the original world could achieve.

With the appearance of the light screen, the two public squares immediately quieted down. Everyone was staring at the sky.

The first movie of the world of loucheng had officially started screening!

Chapter 337: The lively screening scene (1)

In the vast universe, a huge planet surrounded by a super array suddenly appeared.

Compared to other planets, it was so unique and mysterious.

The universe and the planet looked extremely real, as if he was watching it from space.

Then, his view fell rapidly from the sky, passing through layers of clouds, and there were flames flying around him.

A loud background sound echoed in the valley, constantly entering the ears of the audience, as if they were in the valley.

The audience's mood immediately rose to their throats. When they saw a huge mountain blocking their way and the two sides were about to collide, some people couldn't help but exclaim.

However, at this critical moment, the view was suddenly pulled up, and it began to slowly glide in the sky.

The boundless wilderness and the spectacular and beautiful scenery were instantly displayed in front of the audience, and the desolate and majestic atmosphere hit them in the face.

There were countless monsters wandering in the wilderness. There were Cyclops that were more than ten meters tall, water monsters that were shaped like flood Dragons, ugly kobolds, and miserable Wanderers.

Further away, there seemed to be a huge building that was faintly visible.

The audience looked at the wild scenery captured from the sky and were intoxicated by the magnificent scene.

They had never thought that the wilderness they lived in actually had a beautiful side to it.

The camera slowly moved backward, and the audience saw a silver light flash across the sky. Then, the camera quickly slid backward, and finally stopped on the face of a young man.

The young man had a determined face and was full of heroic spirit. Through the broken leather armor, his lean but extremely tough muscles could be clearly seen.

He was like a cheetah hidden in the wild grass, giving off a feeling of power!

At this moment, the young man was crouching in the wild grass, staring at the silver object flying further and further away in the sky. His eyes were full of doubt.

The audience who were watching the movie immediately started whispering to each other.

“Is that person Xiao Rui?”

“Yes, it’s him. There’s no mistake!”

“Captain, you’re so cool.”

who is Xiao Rui? I really want to see him immediately!

Qian Long, who was in charge of the security, twitched his mouth. He glanced at the two girls who were full of admiration, then turned back to the big screen.

It’s just a lead actor, what’s there to be proud of? is there a need for you guys to be infatuated?

If it wasn’t for the fact that he didn’t want to play the main character, Xiao Rui wouldn’t even have a chance!

Thinking up to this point, Qian Long shot a glance at Xiao Rui, who was the main lead, and scoffed.

As for Xiao Rui, who was not too far away, he was currently all smiles. He was staring at himself on the big screen with an intoxicated look on his face.

After a while, Xiao Rui stood up from the grass and began to walk through a Valley with a strange landscape. Finally, he came to a barren land.

From the beginning to the end, Xiao Rui was on full alert. He constantly looked around for any signs of movement, making the audience nervous.

The audience’s gazes followed Xiao Rui closely. When he finally stopped, a ferocious monster appeared in the eyes of the audience.

However, after seeing the monster’s appearance, the audience was stunned at first, and then they all showed strange expressions.

“This Suan ni seems to be a horned scale monster, right?”

“That’s right, it’s a level 1 scaled horned monster!”

but why does Xiao Rui have to be so careful when he’s hunting level one monsters? I remember that he’s already a level four cultivator.

does a level 4 cultivator need to be so careful when killing a level 1 monster? it’s so strange!

Listening to the discussions of the audience, Xiao Rui’s face was full of embarrassment. He kept explaining that this was a need for acting, and that he was currently playing the role of a rank 1 cultivator.

Qian Long stood to the side, and when he saw the awkward expression on Xiao Rui’s face, he felt a sense of satisfaction.

You deserve it, I’ve long found you an eyesore, this is karma!

Thinking back to that pitiful scaled horned monster, it took you more than 70 strikes before it died, how wicked!

Qian Long, who didn't get the role of the main character, regretted it a little when he realized that the main character of the movie was in the limelight.

Now, when he looked at Xiao Rui, he was in a bad mood.

After a short discussion, the audience was attracted by the plot, and the discussion became softer and softer.

When the movie showed the scene of Xiao Rui in the Wanderer market, the foreign merchants in the commercial district began to make a lot of noise.

did you see that? that's me! I'm so handsome!

A fat non-human merchant pointed at the big screen and said to the people around him with a smug expression.

They often walked in the commercial district, so they had learned the common language of the Holy Dragon City residents.

All the merchants looked at him in disdain. You fat guy, how are you handsome at all? you're really shameless!

But then, more and more foreign merchants began to shout, pulling their companions and pointing out their roles.

"Look, look, that's me!"

haha, I'm here too! I look very heroic!

"Look, I've appeared too!"

"Where are you? why didn't I see you?"

"I was the one who fell into the bucket after being hit by someone!"

"....."

The foreign merchants watched the movie and discussed animatedly. Their faces were full of shock and admiration.

They didn't expect that there would be such a magical method to record things in the past. It was even so interesting.

It was like a real story that had happened in front of their eyes, making them intoxicated and unable to extricate themselves for a long time!

There were even people who put themselves in the shoes of the protagonist, sometimes surprised, sometimes disappointed, with rich expressions on their faces.

As the plot continued to develop, the audience was amazed again and again. When yuemang appeared as the female lead, it caused countless people to be amazed!

To be honest, after turning into a woman, yuelang was indeed stunningly beautiful. Young men with weak self-control would be deeply attracted to him with just one glance.

Only those who understood yuelang's background would have a strange expression on their faces when they praised her beauty.

On the big screen hanging in the air, Yue lang was wearing a black skin-tight leather armor and was fighting with the main character and supporting characters for a precious medicinal herb.

Yue lang, who had failed to snatch it, had an angry expression on his face. His rosy little mouth slightly curled up, and he put his hands on his small waist, constantly arguing with the main character.

Her hair was tied up high, and she was tall and slender. Her facial features were exquisite, and she exuded an irresistible charm.

After seeing this, many of the Holy Dragon city's young men could not help drooling. From time to time, they would turn their heads and secretly size up Yue lang who was standing on a high platform.

Yuelang, who had dressed up carefully, stood under the moonlight with a smile on his face. His face was like a painting, and his beauty was soul-stirring.

Yue lang pretended not to see the peeking eyes around him, but in fact, he was very proud of himself.

At this moment, being the focus of everyone, Yue lang felt extremely happy, and the person she wanted to thank the most was the dear city Lord!

He was the one who helped her realize her dream of becoming a woman. He was also the one who chose her to be the female lead and let everyone know of her beauty and talent.

If the city Lord is willing, I don't mind devoting my life to you!

Thinking of this, Yue lang looked up at the peak of the mountain, his eyes full of soft spring.

Tang Zhen, who was currently watching a movie at the peak of the mountain, suddenly shivered all over. He seemed to have a kind of cold feeling.

"That's weird, I'm a Lord level cultivator, how can I catch a cold?"

Tang Zhen continued to stare at the screen after secretly muttering to himself.

After Xiao Rui and the female lead met, they gradually developed feelings for each other. The three of them set off on a treasure-hunting journey together.

At this moment, the group of robbers appeared and blocked the three's way.

The eyes of Qian Long, who had been listless all this time, lit up, and a smile appeared on his face.

haha, I'm finally here. In a moment, you'll see the scene of Xiao Rui being beaten to a pulp by me!

Bullsh * t protagonist. It's just so-so. I don't want to be one at all!

“Kakaka!”

Qian Long’s laughter was like an owl’s, causing the Holy Dragon City cultivators beside him to subconsciously hide to the side, their faces filled with a strange expression.

Chapter 338: Thousand Dragons regrets it (1)

When the audience saw the ferocious Raider group appear, the scene suddenly fell silent!

Qian Long looked at his one-eyed self on the screen with a smug expression.

“Haha, you’re all shocked by my majestic look!

Don’t worry, you’ll see the scene of the main character being beaten to the point of peeing his pants.”

Qian Long’s eyes were glued to the big screen, his face filled with pride.

However, at this moment, he heard a loud shout.

those damn looters! Xiao Rui, you must kill them!

yes, I get angry whenever I see these bastards. It’s best to cut them into pieces!

that one-eyed man is really detestable. I wish I could drown him with a mouthful of saliva!

“Um, that one seems to be our boss?”

ah, ran ran, I’ll take a look at ran ran again. Damn, it’s really ran ran. Pretend I didn’t say anything just now!

Qian Long’s face darkened as he pointed at the two cultivators under him with an expression that said, “just you wait.”

The two cultivators laughed bitterly and quickly came forward, praising the one-eyed Dragon played by Qian Long without restraint, while the protagonist was belittled.

Qian Long laughed and said that he wasn’t as powerful as the two of them had described. However, everyone could see the approval in his eyes.

The two cultivators heaved a sigh of relief when they saw this.

Since their boss was happy, the two of them didn’t have to worry about being bullied and increased the intensity of their training.

However, even though Qian Long could control his subordinates, he couldn’t control the mouths of the other residents. Therefore, he was scolded from the beginning to the end of this scene, and it made him so angry that he gritted his teeth.

what do they know? I’m so hated, which means I acted well. Even the city Lord praised me, saying that I grasped my role very well!

Qian Long said to his subordinates with an indignant expression.

After escaping from the one-eyed Dragon's raid group, which was played by thousand Dragons and the others, Xiao Rui and the others recuperated in a cave. In the end, the male and female protagonists had sparks of love between them. The female protagonist fell in love with the male protagonist, who was injured to save her.

After seeing this scene, many of the female audience members 'eyes were filled with stars, filled with tenderness and love.

The monotonous life in the world of loucheng had never made them come into contact with such things, so the impact was particularly huge!

At this moment, everyone treated themselves as the male and female leads in a movie, looking forward to a love story that was as beautiful as a poem or a painting.

Qian Long continued to pour cold water on his heart, thinking to himself, "if you guys knew that yuelang was a man, you wouldn't be so touched!"

The movie continued to play, and gradually came to the wonderful part of the ending. The three protagonists finally arrived at the place where the treasure was buried and found a pile of treasure.

Just as the audience thought that the three of them were going to make a fortune and became excited, the damn looters appeared again.

"Bastards, why are these guys here again?"

"Haunting them like ghosts, that's exactly what I'm talking about, this damned looters!"

"Protagonist, hurry up and kill them. We can't let these guys get a single brain!"

Qian Long's face was as black as the bottom of a pot as he listened to the audience's comments. The cold air around him was overbearing, and no one dared to get close to him.

After an intense battle, the protagonist finally killed the one-eyed Dragon, and the audience immediately cheered.

Qian Long looked at his own body on the screen. After a moment of silence, he seemed to have thought of something and suddenly laughed.

"Hehehe, Yingluo!"

When the Holy Dragon City cultivators at the side saw this abnormal scene, they were all secretly worried. Had their boss gone mad from anger?

Qian Long's assistant walked over and asked with concern, "Boss, are you okay?"

"I'm fine. I'm fine. I can't be better. Hahaha!"

The more Qian Long acted like this, the more worried everyone became. They all looked at him with concerned expressions.

What are you looking at? do you think I won't give you a good beating? "

Looking at everyone's gazes, Qian Long felt that something was amiss. Immediately, his face darkened as he looked at everyone coldly.

"Oh, I'm fine!"

Seeing Qian Long's gloomy face, all the cultivators heaved a sigh of relief and turned to look at the big screen.

Qian Long didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He thought to himself, 'you bunch of B * stars, you'll only feel better after I yell at you!'

The movie had already reached its ending. The audience looked at the huge city wall in front of the three main characters and cheered in unison.

"Look, it's our Holy Dragon City!"

our city walls are too magnificent! So beautiful!

they came to Holy Dragon City. Are they going to join our city? "

"Ah, Yingluo, what's wrong? why is it gone?"

"Alright, go back and rest. The movie is over!"

In the two plazas, the audience, who were deeply attracted by the plot of the movie, felt that it was not enough and asked to continue broadcasting the next story.

However, the second movie hadn't started yet. What was Tang Zhen supposed to show?

With a stomach full of resentment, and the plot fragments that kept echoing in their minds, everyone returned to their respective homes.

That night, many people went to bed very late because the plot of the movie made them extremely excited.

There were also many men and women who were in love, pulling the male and female protagonists into their dreams and doing some embarrassing things.

After seeing that the residents and foreign merchants who were watching the movie had all retreated, Tang Zhen jumped down from the mountain peak and stretched his muscles.

The effect of today's broadcast was quite good. It seemed that he should also plan to build places like cinemas and nightclubs in the business district!

Just as he was about to return to the main tower to rest, Qian Long appeared out of nowhere and approached Tang Zhen's side with a smile.

"City Lord, you still haven't gone back to rest?"

Tang Zhen saw this fellow's expression and knew that he had something to request of him.

don't give me that. Just say what you want to say!

Qian Long chuckled and asked, " "Are you going to continue filming after this movie?"

Tang Zhen looked at Qian Long with a smile that was not a smile, what does it have to do with you whether I make a movie or not? didn't you say you didn't want to make a movie? "

"Who says I don't want to make a movie? I just don't want to make those naked movies!

I'll teach that bastard a good lesson for spreading such rumors!"

Qian Long put on an angry expression, as if he had been greatly wronged.

"Alright, just tell me what you want to do. I don't have time to chat with you."

Tang Zhen impatiently waved his hand, turned around, and prepared to leave.

When Qian Long saw this, he hurriedly stopped Tang Zhen and loudly said, "I would like to ask the city Lord to let me be the lead in the next movie!"

Tang Zhen scoffed and had a disdainful look on his face, " back then, I let you play the lead role, but you pretended to be an idiot. Now that Xiao Rui is famous and girls are throwing flirtatious looks at him wherever he goes, you're tempted again? "

"Hehe, I don't need you even if you want to act!"

Tang Zhen finally regained his face. He coldly laughed, pushed Qian Long away, and walked towards the main city.

Qian Long stood there hesitating for a moment before chasing after him again.

In the night, the voices of the two people's conversation could be heard clearly.

"City Lord, can you give me another chance?"

"In your dreams!"

I'm actually more suited to be the main character than Xiao Rui. You don't deny this, right? "

"That's right, but I don't like to be rejected, so you have no chance anymore."

"Give me another chance, brother Tang!"

"Er, Yueyue, since you're so sincere, I'll let you play the second male lead next time!"

Chapter 339: The request of a foreign merchant (1)

Early the next morning, there were foreign merchants who asked to see Tang Zhen.

Since the business district opened, this was the first time a foreign merchant had come to visit. Tang Zhen naturally had to meet him.

In the spacious city Lord's Hall, Tang Zhen was sitting on a large chair as a long-robed foreign tribe merchant representative slowly walked in.

There were dozens of foreign merchants who requested to meet this time. It was impossible for Tang Zhen to meet all of them. Therefore, the other party only needed to send a representative.

The alien merchant was tall and thin, looking like a dried human corpse. However, he had many sharp bone horns on his head and two sharp teeth protruding out of his lips.

dear city Lord, ruogen, a wood spirit merchant, greets you!

Tang Zhen nodded, indicating that the other party could dispense with the formalities.

“Mr. Rougen, may I know what business you have here?”

Tang Zhen looked at the other party and asked in a soothing tone.

“My friends and I hope to get permission from you to show the movie and then take it to other places to broadcast it.

At the same time, I would like to ask you to shoot the same movie for the wood spirits, and the actors will also be from the wood spirits!”

RUO Gen looked at Tang Zhen with anticipation in his eyes. His expression was also very sincere.

He was a very smart and brave businessman. After watching the movie last night, he realized the business opportunity.

He was not the only one who noticed this.

In their opinion, if the movie charged a fee according to the number of people watching it, and then played in a loop in various places, it would definitely bring in a lot of profits.

Furthermore, in rougen’s heart, he had always had a dream, which was to record his decades of business experience and use it as a memory of his old age.

In the past few decades, Logan had been using parchment and words to record his findings. A huge wooden box was filled up.

When he arrived at the business district of the Holy Dragon City, he immediately bought one after seeing those fast imaging cameras, treating it as a treasure.

The wood spirits were filled with a thirst for art and beauty, and they hated war. This was also the reason why they had a large number of buildings, but rarely had any Wars.

Even rougen himself liked it when others called him a poet.

After watching the movie that was being played in the Holy Dragon City last night, Logan fell into a daze.

There was a voice in his heart that was screaming madly. He had to get his hands on this method of shooting a movie, and then record his legendary life in a movie.

This thought churned in his mind for the entire night. At dawn, ruogen finally made up his mind.

In order to film the movie and obtain the method to show the movie, ruogen was willing to pay any price!

Tang Zhen sat on a chair and quietly listened to RUO Gen’s story. At the same time, he was thinking about the possibility of spreading the movie.

Without a doubt, this was the best media to expand the Holy Dragon city's influence. Through these movies, the outside world could have a deeper understanding of the Holy Dragon City, and at the same time, attract more people to the Holy Dragon City.

Moreover, the film industry itself was a money-making industry, and the booming development in the original world had already proven this point.

Using the movie to promote the Holy Dragon City and expand the Holy Dragon city's influence while also earning a large number of brain pearls was a pretty good idea.

Originally, Tang Zhen had only thought of using force to conquer the enemy. However, from the looks of it now, there were other methods that could achieve this.

He made a movie on a whim, but he didn't expect to have a new idea, which was a pleasant surprise.

After Tang Zhen pondered for a moment, he agreed to RUO Gen's request. This caused him to be abnormally excited.

However, Tang Zhen also told ruogen that if he wanted to shoot a movie, it could only be completed in Holy Dragon City.

The Holy Dragon City would provide all the services. Ruogen only needed to take out the script and brain.

After receiving a satisfactory answer, rougen returned to his caravan in high spirits and began to plan his script.

He had never had such a passionate moment in his life. It made him feel like he was decades younger and full of energy.

After RUO Gen left, Tang Zhen began to make preparations.

The existing resources in the world of loucheng were simply unable to meet Tang Zhen's needs, so he had to go to his original world.

If he wanted to operate the film industry as a profitable project, he needed to involve many aspects. Tang Zhen couldn't do everything himself, so these things must be handed over to the residents of the Holy Dragon City.

After he was teleported back to his original world, Tang Zhen made a list and began to produce and purchase.

The projector, filming equipment, and all kinds of supporting equipment suitable for the Lou Cheng world were all on Tang Zhen's production and purchase list.

He handed the list to Pargo, who would be in charge of purchasing and production.

After that, Tang Zhen drove to a warehouse and began to move the supplies.

The amount of goods this time was very large. Even though Tang Zhen had upgraded the space, it still took nearly an hour to move them.

After returning to Ivanov's Manor, Tang Zhen started a video conference.

Tang Zhen leaned on the comfortable sofa and Ivanov's image appeared in front of him.

As long as they had video equipment like mobile phones and laptops around them, the [ universal electronic kit ] could connect directly.

Within a few seconds, Xu Feng from the Asian Alliance, Kumiko from the Japanese, and Lin huixun from the pickle nation also appeared in front of Tang Zhen at the same time.

After chatting with them for a while, Tang Zhen told the four of them about how he used the movie to promote his movie, let the original world gradually understand the loucheng world, and take the opportunity to cultivate and reserve talents.

Moreover, Tang Zhen had also revealed information regarding the inter-plane Soul transmission. He had also selectively revealed some of his plans.

Tang Zhen's action was to hear the opinions of the other four. After all, they were the true executors.

After Tang Zhen finished speaking, he let the four of them watch a movie.

The beautiful scenery of the building world, the terrifying monsters, and the applied editing made the movie extremely exciting.

Any audience who saw the movie would be deeply attracted.

After the movie ended, the four of them were still in a daze for a long time, their faces filled with shock and fanaticism.

Oh my God, is this the world of loucheng? it's indescribable!

The four of them took a long time to digest the information before they came back to their senses.

They knew very well that what they were seeing was not just a movie, but a real world!

Through Soul transmission, the souls of humans from the original world would be sent to another world, and then a new world would be built.

This was a huge plan that would have a huge impact on the future of mankind. It could definitely be written into the history books.

After a moment of silence, Xu Feng took a deep breath and spoke his plan.

"I fully agree with Your Excellency's idea of storing up talents.

After spending a huge amount of resources, we must get a corresponding return.

An elite and an ordinary person will consume the same amount of resources when they are teleported, but the value they create is very different. Therefore, it is imperative to cultivate talents."

After saying this, Xu Feng paused and rubbed his temples.

Tang Zhen noticed that Xu Feng's sideburns had already turned white, and his face looked a little Haggard.

The development of the Asian Alliance had obviously consumed a lot of his energy.

“The movie brought by the Oracle can let more people understand the world of loucheng. The biggest advantage is that it can eliminate everyone’s sense of strangeness about the world of loucheng, but at most, it will only attract some hobbyists.

Thus, I’m more inclined to cultivate talents within our organization.”

After Xu Feng finished, Ivanov said, “If we were to train them within the organization, it would definitely consume a large amount of funds. Furthermore, before the teleportation begins, how are we going to arrange for these people?

If it’s possible, I’d like to have an independent territory that belongs to us. That way, we can do a lot of things without any worries.”

Tang Zhen nodded when he heard this. This was not a bad idea.

With the wealth he had now, he could totally buy a piece of land or an Island in his original world and use it as his base.

However, if that was the case, everything that happened in the base would be exposed to the eyes of those with ulterior motives, and it would be monitored by countless forces.

Perhaps in a few years ‘time, the entire world would know what kind of place this was!

However, Tang Zhen’s experiment should have been completed by then. There was no need to hide it anymore.

After thinking up to this point, Tang Zhen let Ivanov handle this matter and let Tang Zhen solve the funding problem.

In the following time, Lin huixun and Kumiko also shared their thoughts.

Lin huixun suggested that the movie should be packaged and used as a promotional movie for a virtual game that was about to be released. Kumiko hoped to get the various copyrights of the movie, which would bring a lot of benefits.

The video conference lasted for several hours. After the discussion, everyone began to act on their own.

Chapter 340: million brain beads, the wilderness mutation!

Ivanov and the others would handle the production of the film, and Tang Zhen would not have to worry about the rest.

This kind of thing was handed over to the professionals to obtain the greatest value. Tang Zhen’s responsibility was to shoot the movie in the loucheng world and then carry out the post-production.

After returning to the world of loucheng, Tang Zhen personally selected hundreds of loucheng residents and began to give them simple training.

Holding the teaching materials from his original world, Tang Zhen began to fill in the gaps in his teaching work.

Right now, there was an order from the wood spirit race. It was related to the Holy Dragon city's new income channel, so Tang Zhen had to pay attention.

Fortunately, the comprehension ability of these residents was good. They had remembered what Tang Zhen said in their hearts. As the filming continued, they should be able to integrate it.

In the next two days, Tang Zhen accompanied this group of residents and constantly fiddled with the camera, trying to shoot.

It didn't matter if they didn't shoot well. With the [ super videographer ] for post-production, many flaws could be made up for.

By the time everyone had familiarized themselves with their own work, ruogen had also completed his script.

He had written his life experiences in it, from his youth to decades later. It was full of legends and ups and downs.

After Tang Zhen finished reading the script, he turned his head and looked at RUO Gen.

He didn't expect this ordinary-looking foreign merchant to have such rich life experience.

"The script is not bad. When do you plan to start shooting?"

Ruogen first expressed his thanks and hoped to start filming immediately.

"Then how much of your brain are you prepared to invest in this movie?"

you must know that shooting a movie requires a large number of brains. Even millions of brains might not be enough. How much can you afford?"

Also, I'd like to remind you that a high investment means a high return. The more brains you invest, the better the effect of the film, and the higher the return may be!"

In order to make the other party willing to pay, Tang Zhen started to bluff.

After hearing this, RUO Gen lowered his head and pondered for a moment. He then extended a finger towards Tang Zhen."I can invest a million brain beads, but the film must be to my satisfaction!"

A million brain beads for a movie, these foreign merchants were really rich!

Only people like RUO Gen, who pursued their dreams, would spend money so readily. If it were other foreign merchants, they would hesitate for a long time.

Tang Zhen was extremely happy when he thought of the large sum of money that he would be able to earn. He smiled and said, don't worry, I'll make sure you're satisfied!

Next, ruogen signed an agreement with the Holy Dragon City and paid five hundred thousand brain beads.

The remaining five hundred thousand brain beads would be paid to the Holy Dragon City after the filming of the movie was over.

RUO Gen and the newbie director started discussing how to shoot the movie, while Tang Zhen provided technical guidance and was responsible for the post-production of the video.

Tang Zhen felt that it was a little unreal to have earned a million brain beads in such a muddled manner.

However, this also proved that there were many other ways to earn brain beads, it was just that he had not noticed it before.

The shooting of the second movie in the Holy Dragon City had attracted countless foreign merchants.

Many of them were very interested in movies. Now that RUO Gen was leading the way, they could have a deeper understanding and decide whether to invest in it.

One could imagine that once ruogen's movie was a success, countless foreign merchants would throw their brains into it to film the movie they wanted.

The lively filming scene outside Holy Dragon City had nothing to do with Tang Zhen. At this time, he was squatting in a cave, studying the aircraft he had obtained from the wreckage of the battleship.

This fellow was currently placed in the open space of the cave, and its body was shining with a mysterious luster.

After carefully sizing up the flying device, Tang Zhen activated the [ eye of appraisal ], and the pop-up subtitles confirmed his guess.

[ terobo Expeditionary fleet's small transport plane, locked status, power system damaged. ]

Tang Zhen was a little disappointed. A flying device that had lost its power system was destined to be unable to fly in the sky!

He hoped that the next time he went to the wreckage, he would be able to get the right parts, which might be able to bring the aircraft back to life.

Tang Zhen also took out the other items he had obtained from the battleship. After studying them one by one, he had a preliminary understanding of their uses.

Tang Zhen planned to set up a Research Institute in his original world and bring these items back to his original world to excavate the alien technology contained within.

If these technologies could be used reasonably, it would be very beneficial to Tang Zhen and even his original world.

The world of loucheng was just a new world that needed to be explored, and the original world was an indispensable base camp.

Tang Zhen would never ignore this point no matter when and where.

After covering the flying device, Tang Zhen walked out of the hidden cave.

These days, he had been busy with the shooting of the movie. There were many things that needed to be dealt with in Holy Dragon City, and they had all been piled up.

After returning to the city Lord's Hall, Tang Zhen buried his head and began to get busy.

.....

In a Valley a hundred kilometers away from the Holy Dragon City, a group of cultivators was slowly advancing.

Among them, the one with the highest cultivation was the captain, a rank 3 cultivator. The rest of the team were all Rank 2 cultivators.

Compared to the exploration teams formed by other wild cultivators, the armor of these cultivators was very unified, and their weapons were also considered superior.

The only difference between them and ordinary exploration teams was that they all wore a golden armband on their right arms.

A giant dragon rose from the armband, and below the giant dragon were the words 'Holy Dragon'.

Once the Holy Dragon city's patrol team saw the armband, they knew that this was a mercenary group registered in the Holy Dragon City.

When they encountered these mercenary groups, the Holy Dragon city's patrol team would not make things too difficult for them. Sometimes, they would even provide some help.

When they encountered monsters that they could not deal with, these mercenary groups could even use the walkie-talkie to ask for help. The first rescuers that arrived were these Holy Dragon City Patrol members.

Because the mercenary group could ask for help from these patrols at any time, the relationship between the two sides was still considered harmonious.

This mercenary group had just been inspected by the patrol team and was now on their way to the target location.

The leader of the mercenary group was walking in the middle of the group with a small notebook in his hand, constantly calculating something.

When the team member next to him saw this, he smiled and asked, "Leader, you're starting to calculate again. Are you still worried about the brain pearls you owe?"

of course! the captain snapped. we spent 5000 Yuan to change our equipment this time. That's money!

Other than our original savings, I also borrowed three thousand brain beads from miss Xiao Ying, and I'm counting on completing this mission to pay off the debt!"

Hearing the captain mention Xiao Ying, the eyes of the younger team member lit up, and he asked, "leader, do you think miss Xiao Ying has a boyfriend? "

When the regiment commander heard this, he immediately looked at his team members as if they were looking at dog sh * t. He snorted coldly and said, " "Brat, why don't you take a piss and look at yourself in the mirror? miss Xiao Ying is so beautiful, and her cultivation is so high, how could she possibly take a fancy to a rotten garlic like you!"

The team member immediately jumped up. "I know that there is a huge gap between my status and miss little Ying's, but leader, you don't have to be so demoralizing, do you?"

I'm not trying to discourage you, but I hope that you can give up as soon as possible. With miss Xiao Ying's status, she's not someone you can think about at all!

The mercenary group leader advised the young man with a heavy heart and patted his shoulder.

The young man nodded gloomily and continued on his way without a word.

Seeing the young man's appearance, the mercenary group leader sighed, a trace of helplessness flashed in his eyes.

Ever since he had brought the young men of the tribe to Holy Dragon City and registered them as a mercenary group, everyone's days had clearly improved.

The prosperity of the Holy Dragon city's business district made these young people restless. They began to desire to make big money, get beautiful women, and enjoy the life that only the rich could enjoy.

However, it was not easy to obtain these things. The most basic thing was to have cultivation, brains, and good luck!

If you don't have either, then just live your life honestly and don't overestimate yourself and provoke people you can't afford to offend.

This subordinate of his was very ordinary, but Xiao Ying's background was extremely shocking. Moreover, he wasn't the only one who liked Xiao Ying, so it was impossible for the two of them to have a relationship.

Out of his love for his men, the mercenary group leader said such cold words that made the young man angry.

Just as the mercenary group leader was thinking about how to find an opportunity to enlighten the young man, he inadvertently looked up and was immediately stunned by the strange situation in front of him!
