Chapter 51: The beginning of the tide of death

In the world of loucheng, somewhere in the wilderness.

This was a nameless Valley with strange rock formations. Dark brown rocks that were as sharp as blades extended endlessly, and clusters of wild grass grew tenaciously in it. It looked extremely desolate.

Five shabbily equipped Wanderers and wild cultivators were sitting in a circle, each holding a piece of dry and hard grass seed flatbread and drinking cold water to satisfy their hunger.

They placed it in the bloody leather backpack beside them, which contained their harvest from this trip. There were the head of the corpse monster and the organs of other monsters as proof of their hunting mission.

Once he brought the loot to the Wanderer town, he could exchange it for many rewards from the officials of Black Rock City.

The tide of zombies was a disaster this time. An endless stream of zombie monsters wandered around the vicinity of Black Rock City. Although it was a headache for the ruler of Black Rock City, it also gave the Wanderers and wild cultivators a chance to make a fortune.

As the hunting rewards given out by Black Rock City continued to increase, the rewards from a single hunt today were equivalent to a few times in the past. With such a good job, he had to seize the time and do it a few more times.

It could be seen that they were in a good mood and were all smiling as they spoke.

However, none of them noticed that a dark cloud had suddenly appeared on the horizon and was slowly approaching them.

It was only when the dark cloud was about to engulf them that a wandering cultivator in the group noticed something unusual.

“Big brother, look at what’s flying in the sky?”

A thin man frowned and looked at the sky for a while, then turned to the brawny man beside him.

The brawny man, who was called big brother by the skinny man, looked up at the sky and saw a group of strange black birds with blood-red eyes swarming over. Their target was none other than them.

The wild cultivators in the wilderness had a high sense of danger, which was why they were better than the cultivators in loucheng.

Before the Big Brother could give a warning, the other companions who had noticed the strange bird’s unusual behavior had already drawn their weapons and started to attack the death bird.

crackling ” sounds rang out non-stop. Although the virus carried by these death birds was very terrifying, they were very fragile by themselves. A large number of them were instantly knocked down by the weapons of the few people.

However, the death birds were not afraid of death. If their target was not infected with the virus, they would not give up.

As more and more dead birds piled up on the ground, someone was finally injured by the dead birds that had escaped the net.

The injured person had yet to realize the terror of this poison. As he moved vigorously, the poison’s attack speed suddenly accelerated, and his movements also slowed down unknowingly.

One of his companions noticed his abnormality, but he had no time to deal with the overwhelming death birds. Finally, when a trace of black gas spread to his face, the injured man’s expression changed dramatically.

An unnatural muscle twitch appeared on his face, and it became more and more serious. If one looked closely at his eyes, they were already covered in blood like a spider web.

“Plop!”

The wounded man suddenly fell to the ground. His limbs were twisted in an exaggerated way, which made him look extremely ferocious.

“Old Mo, what’s wrong with you?”

The man who was called boss saw his companion fall and quickly shouted loudly. However, he did not get any response, which made him anxious.

Time passed by slowly, and more and more death birds were smashed by the weapons. Other than the boss, the rest of the people were all injured. At the same time, the death birds stopped attacking them.

Only the boss was uninjured. He desperately chased away the death birds, and the few injured people also helped him.

Ten minutes later, when the last death bird was smashed into pieces, the boss fell to the ground, exhausted and panting heavily.

“Damn it, what kind of bird is this? why have I never seen it before?”

After the boss cursed, he didn’t get a response from his brothers like he usually did.

He turned around in confusion and saw his brothers all lying on the ground. Their limbs were twisted and deformed, and their faces were covered with a layer of gray-white skin that only the dead would have.

“Damn it, what’s wrong with you guys?”

The boss’s eyes were about to pop out of their sockets. He struggled with his exhausted body and crawled over with difficulty to take a look.

Even though the Wanderer and wild cultivator were already prepared to die in the wilderness, they still couldn't accept the sudden arrival of this day.

The boss crawled to the side of one of his companions. This person was the first to fall, the wandering wild cultivator named old Mo. It had only been a dozen minutes, but his face was already frighteningly blue and purple.

He tried his nose, breath, and pulse, but he had been dead for a long time.

The leader of the Wanderer exploration team was filled with sorrow. His turbid eyes turned red, and he couldn't help but shed tears.

"Kekekekeke"

A strange sound came from beside him. The leader of the exploration team turned around in surprise and found that his companion, who had been dead for a long time, was struggling to get up.

"Old Mo Feifei, what are you doing?"

The leader of the expedition team had a bad feeling, but before he could finish his question, the Wanderer called old Mo pounced on him and pushed him to the ground.

"Damn it, how did you become a zombie?"

The frightened boss didn't even finish his sentence before old Mo bit him on the neck. Blood splattered all over old Mo's ashen face.

The leader, whose throat had been bitten, was struggling helplessly. From the corner of his eye, he saw a few figures with strange movements standing up from the ground. They were his dead companions.

"Hehe, Yingluo."

The leader of the exploration team let out a bitter smile mixed with sorrow and unwillingness at the last moment before his consciousness disappeared. Then, his eyes went completely black.

In a Valley in the wilderness, the ground was littered with shattered black bird corpses. A few strange Wanderers and wild cultivators were lying on the ground, tearing and devouring a broken corpse.

"Pa!"

A badly mutilated arm stretched out from the middle of the wild cultivators and swung with great force, knocking two Wanderers to the side. Soon after, a skeleton with only broken skin and hair stood up from the group of wild cultivators. From the remnants of its clothing, it was the leader of the exploration team.

"Si si si ..."

The boss, whose leg had been completely ripped off, looked around with his blood-red eyes that had fallen out of his eye sockets. He extended his neck and roared at his subordinates who had turned into zombies. He then picked up the weapons that had fallen on the ground, turned around, and walked towards the direction of Black Rock City.

The subordinates also picked up their weapons and continued to follow their former boss, staggering forward in the wilderness.

If one were to look down from the sky, they would see the corpses of Wanderers crawling up from the ground as the death birds passed by. They would then pick up their weapons and slowly head toward Black Rock City.

This group continued to expand and gather, from the original scattered stars, gradually turning into a dense black cloud.

Chapter 52: Preparing for sales (1)

After Tang Zhen and the others finished eating, he instructed Murong Zi Yan to look after the house. He brought Qian Long and da Xiong out of Wanderer town and headed to the place where he had previously buried the weapons and supplies.

Along the way, they encountered many Wanderers. They formed groups and headed towards the wild building. Many of the groups were led by cultivators from Black Rock City.

As they had suffered too many losses over the past few days, Black Rock City had split up some battle teams. A Black Rock cultivator led a dozen Wanderers and wild cultivators to clear out the corpse monsters, and they had achieved quite a good result.

Tang Zhen's group of three ignored these people. They merely hurried on with their journey.

Due to there being too many Wanderers along the way, Tang Zhen's group of three stopped and walked. When they were about to arrive at the location where the resources were buried, they deliberately stopped for a period of time in order to avoid a Wanderer exploration team that stopped nearby to rest.

Their unusual actions had even attracted the attention of a rank 3 cultivator from Black Rock City who was leading the team. However, this was a crucial moment in clearing out the zombie monsters. Therefore, he did not step forward to question the three of them. He only stared at Tang Zhen with a puzzled expression.

Only after this group stood up and left did Tang Zhen let out a long breath. His heart had a feeling of being relieved of a heavy burden.

He was clearly here to take his things, but he had to do it like a thief. This kind of feeling made Tang Zhen extremely displeased.

When they arrived at the location where the resources were buried, Tang Zhen repeatedly confirmed that there were no more Wanderers passing by. Then, he got da Xiong to be on guard while he and Qian Long quickly cleared away the dirt and debris on the ground, revealing the battle Blades and various resources hidden underneath.

Upon seeing so many weapons hidden underground, thousand Dragon was stunned.

After all, to Wanderers, weapons and equipment also represented wealth, so these weapons also represented a large amount of brains.

After taking out one of the weapons and examining it carefully, thousand Dragon nodded and said that it was a good weapon. If he were to sell it, he should be able to get a good price.

However, thousand Dragon had also warned Tang Zhen that the weapon shops in Wanderer town all had the backing of important figures in Black Rock City. If he rashly sold these weapons, he might offend some people. He had to be careful.

Tang Zhen did not expect such a thing to happen. He immediately opened his mouth and asked Qian Long.

The thousand Dragons replied. On the surface, the Wanderer town seemed to have been established by a powerful Wanderer, but in reality, the power behind it came from Black Rock City.

The owner of Wanderer town's weapons shop was said to be a high-ranking official in Black Rock City.

If Tang Zhen wanted to sell weapons in Wanderer town, it would be equivalent to snatching business from Lou Cheng's forces. He would definitely be viewed with hostility and suppressed by those people.

This was a difficult problem. After all, his Foundation was not very stable yet. If he rashly made another enemy on the surface, it would not be good for him.

However, this batch of weapons could be exchanged for the brain Pearl that Tang Zhen urgently needed. He was extremely reluctant to give up on selling them.

This kind of somewhat helpless feeling made Tang Zhen increasingly feel how important it was to possess his own city and strength!

When he did business in his own city, he didn't have to worry about any forces. It was not like now, when he did business, he was afraid of making enemies.

However, this was something that could not be helped. After all, the profits from weapons were so huge. He knew it, and so did others. It was such a piece of cake, who would be willing to let go easily and let others have a share?

He would take it one step at a time. Right now, he had to move these things back to the cave he was staying in.

These things were not light, but fortunately, da Xiong was very strong, and he was able to carry those weapons by himself. Tang Zhen and the thousand Dragons shared the remaining resources, and it was quite easy for them.

On their way back, the three of them, who were carrying huge bags, naturally attracted the attention of many Wanderers.

Some of the Wanderers with sharp eyes could even faintly judge that the supplies that Tang Zhen and the others were carrying were most likely a pile of weapons and living supplies.

These people's eyes were filled with greed and ferocity. If it weren't for the people coming and going, and the fact that it was close to Wanderer town, they probably wouldn't mind being a temporary guest of bandits.

Every time Tang Zhen noticed this kind of gaze, he would have an impulse to pull out his gun and kill the other party.

Damn it, you even dare to covet my things, you're really tired of living!

Before dark, the three of them finally returned to the cave. However, in order to prevent any accidents from happening, they did not rest along the way, so they were so tired that they were panting.

There was no such thing as light travel on a long journey, not to mention that the road in the wilderness was difficult to walk on. Therefore, after returning, even da Xiong, who was muddleheaded, complained that he was tired.

Tang Zhen felt that this method of transporting resources was not desirable. Although he could hide his ability this way, it was really too troublesome to do so.

In the end, this matter was a matter of trust. He was always worried that after his ability was exposed, it would attract the greed and coveting of others.

However, Qian Long, Murong Ziyang, and the others were all his companions. Even if he didn't say anything, they would definitely have noticed something unusual about him and guessed something.

Instead of hiding, it was better to show off his ability in front of them at the appropriate time. This way, he could avoid the process of hiding and at the same time enhance his sense of mystery, making them more respectful of him.

In the evening, everyone began to sort out and count the supplies that Tang Zhen had brought. As Tang Zhen counted the items, he explained the use of these items to them. Then, everyone discussed the price.

Among the items he had brought this time, other than the steel knives, there were lighters, soap, refined salt, binoculars, and other miscellaneous items.

He didn't have a plan when he went shopping. He just went to the supermarket and bought whatever he liked.

Murong Zi Yan was an ordinary wanderer. How could she have seen so many new things?

Everyone listened to Tang Zhen's explanation as they fiddled with it curiously, their eyes filled with surprise.

Tang Zhen generously waved his hand when he saw this, telling them to take whatever they liked. In any case, these things were not worth much money.

Hearing this, everyone's faces naturally brightened. They looked at each other and immediately began to pick in high spirits.

It wasn't easy to do business in the Wanderer town's market, and one had to buy a stall first.

The price of a good stall was higher, and the price of a remote stall was cheaper. If one had enough money, they could even rent some houses as a shop.

Tang Zhen had originally planned to rent a shop, but after hearing the price Qian Long stated, he immediately dispelled that thought.

The rental price of this shop was too high, and he was currently lacking in brains, so he naturally would not waste money on this.

Thus, he decided to rent a normal stall to sell the resources he brought, and Qian Long would be in charge of the sales. He didn't need to worry about the details of the sales. He just needed to deliver the goods on time.

Chapter 53: booming business

"After they woke up early the next morning, Qian Long brought Tang Zhen to the stall rental area in Wanderer town and rented an unremarkable stall."

"Over the past few days, the shops in Wanderer town had been very popular. Due to the large number of Wanderers coming in from the outside, business had naturally flourished. The remaining few shops had almost all been rented out."

"After renting the stall, the two of them returned to the cave to carry the goods."

"After the two of them had moved the goods over and arranged them in different categories, they began to call for sales."

"Some Wanderers who passed by saw the dazzling array of goods on their stall and were immediately attracted by them. Then, they asked about the use and price of the goods."

It had to be said that the things that Tang Zhen had brought were still very popular in this world.

"Because of the wild buildings, many items in the original world were often discovered by the Wanderers. Therefore, the Wanderers could recognize some of these goods."

"For example, lighters and soap, the Wanderers could recognize them at a glance. As for salt, which was a daily necessity, it was one of the essential items for every Wanderer."

"After the Wanderers asked about the price, they felt that it was not very expensive and could even be considered cheap."

"Soon, some Wanderers began to take out their brains to buy the items they wanted, most of which were lighters and small tools."

The Wanderer town was currently crowded with people. The things that Tang Zhen brought were all sold before dark.

Even the steel knives he put up for trial sale on the stall were bought by a few generous Wanderers.

Tang Zhen was also extremely happy when he saw that business was so booming.

“When he did the accounting at night, he found that he had sold a total of nearly 2000 brain beads, which was definitely a huge profit.”

“To the Wanderers, Tang Zhen’s goods were worth it. To Tang Zhen, it was just a matter of a thousand to eight hundred Yuan, but he actually got two thousand brain beads in exchange. This was even more of a profit!”

“It was just a difference in values. Anyway, they were not at a disadvantage.”

Tang Zhen was in a good mood. He was calculating how many gold coins he could exchange for after absorbing these brain beads and what applications he could download.

“During dinner, the cave was filled with laughter. Everyone sat around the fire, planning their future business while roasting the sausages that Tang Zhen had brought. Their words were filled with longing.”

“This scene was very heartwarming, and everyone’s faces were filled with happy smiles. The warmth of the fire warmed their hearts. They had hope in life and a goal in life.”

A trace of a smile appeared on the corner of Tang Zhen’s eyes as he watched the little girl play with the big Bear.

“When he was selling his goods this afternoon, he saw the bearded man and his men passing by the streets of Wanderer town.”

“Tang Zhen noticed that when the fully bearded man and the rest looked at their stall, their eyes seemed to be filled with greed.”

“The other party’s behavior sent a chill down his spine. This bastard seemed to have his eyes on them. If it weren’t for the fact that fighting was forbidden in Wanderer town, he and his minions would have already rushed up to Rob them.”

“Tang Zhen hoped that this group of people would Rob them. That way, the guards of Wanderer town would be able to kill the bearded man and his men.”

“However, the greedy eyes of the bearded man and the others also made him determined to get rid of the hidden danger as soon as possible.”

“This kind of guy must not be left alive. Otherwise, he might bite his body at any time.”

Tang Zhen was calculating in his heart. How should he kill this fellow?

“Tang Zhen calculated in his heart. Now that he had a rifle in his hand, he could finish off the enemy from a distance. It seemed to be the best weapon to kill this fellow.”

“Although Tang Zhen could also use the quantum invisibility light beam and infrasonic waves to try and kill the bearded man, he wasn’t sure if the bearded man could see through his invisibility. After all, these Wanderers had rich combat experience, and they might have a way to lock onto him.”

Tang Zhen was not arrogant to the point of thinking that his close combat ability had surpassed the full-bearded man. The other party had been through hundreds of battles. The combat experience of the two of them was not proportional.

“If he could really break the invisibility, the danger level of close combat would increase greatly, and it was not advisable.”

“As for things like the infrasonic weapon, it could be considered as one of Tang Zhen’s great killing weapons. He would not use it easily.”

“According to the instructions, this thing could affect a range of up to 50 kilometers, causing people to go into a coma, go crazy, and have their organs ruptured. The death rate was extremely high.”

“If it wasn’t for the fact that this type of infrasonic weapon had a directional function, Tang Zhen wouldn’t have used it so easily if he had aimed it directly at the corpse King’s clone and the infrasonic wave didn’t penetrate the ground.”

“Who knew how many Wanderers would be in the direction of the launch if he used this thing? in order to avoid hurting the innocent, he would try not to use this method.”

“After much thought, he decided that a rifle was the most suitable.”

“However, he had not received any professional training, so his shooting skills were only average. It was still acceptable if it was a short-distance close-range shot, but once the distance exceeded twenty meters, the accuracy would greatly decrease.”

“However, if he were to get close to the bearded man and shoot, his situation would become extremely dangerous. This was a problem that made Tang Zhen very conflicted.”

“If he could improve his shooting skills, then he would have more confidence in killing the bearded man.”

Tang Zhen’s eyes brightened as he thought about it.

He suddenly remembered that there seemed to be an application in the application store that could solve this problem. He quickly opened the application store.

“After looking through the war category, he found an application that could help him.”

“The name of this application was because of the Super shooting assistant. It was divided into four levels, beginner, intermediate, advanced, and master.”

“The exchange price of the basic shooting assistant was 10000 gold coins. The effect was to take three seconds to correct the trajectory within 200 meters. Under normal circumstances, the hit rate was 100%.”

“Looking at the effect of the intermediate level, the trajectory correction within a thousand meters, 100% accuracy, never missing, and the bullets also had armor-piercing effect.”

“As for the effect of the master-level, it had already exceeded the limit of rifle sniping. It could actually correct the trajectory within five kilometers, with 100% accuracy. At the same time, it also had the effect of acceleration, armor-piercing, and explosive damage.”

“Tang Zhen secretly sighed in his heart. This thing was simply heaven-defying for a sniper. If one possessed the ability of a master, one could definitely be called a gun God. Once one was locked onto by the crosshair, one would undoubtedly die.”

“Moreover, for this kind of hierarchical application, the download could not jump to the highest level at once. Instead, it had to be completely downloaded step by step.”

“Tang Zhen secretly pursed his lips. Although he was extremely envious, he was embarrassingly short of money and could only look at the Grandmaster-grade effects to his heart’s content.”

“He didn’t have many gold coins now. Including his income from the day, it was only slightly more than 20000 gold coins. He could only download the beginner version of the Super shooting assistant application.”

“The brain Pearl obtained during the day’s sale was kept by Tang Zhen. He absorbed half of the brain Pearl when no one was paying attention, and the balance in his account reached 10000.”

“With enough gold, Tang Zhen did not hesitate to download the beginner Super Archer application. In just a few seconds, the download and installation were complete.”

Chapter 54: The start of revenge (1)

Tang Zhen looked at the blood-red App icon on his phone. It was a skull with a bullet hole in its forehead and a crosshair on it. It looked fierce and mysterious.

“At this moment, a line of text appeared before his eyes.”

“[in order to utilize the application resources reasonably and bring out the best effect, it is recommended to combine the Super shooting assistant with the all-rounded digital combat interface. Do you agree?]”

“Then, the application icon of the Super shooting assistant disappeared, and the original all-round data combat interface was replaced by a blood-red color.”

“Following the activation of the all-rounded digital battle interface, Tang Zhen immediately noticed that a cross-shaped crosshair had appeared in front of his eyes. The other functions of his digital comprehensive battle interface were also displayed at the same time.”

“A series of data, including the amount of ammunition, mini-map, physical strength, distance measurement, infrared, and so on, appeared in front of Tang Zhen’s eyes. His field of vision actually reached 180 degrees!”

“Fortunately, these things occupied the corners and did not affect Tang Zhen’s normal vision, which he was already used to.”

“When he looked forward, the crosshair would disappear once the distance exceeded two hundred meters. Once it was below 200 meters, the crosshair would reappear.”

“When he focused on a target, it only took three seconds for the green crosshair to turn red. As long as he aligned the crosshair of the gun with the red crosshair, he could easily kill any target within 200 meters.”

“Tang Zhen suddenly thought of a problem. If the target was two kilometers away, he would need to use a high-precision scope or have good vision. Only then would he be able to aim at the vital points of the target.”

“If the target was five kilometers away, how could he kill it in one shot when he couldn’t see it clearly?”

“Tang Zhen didn’t believe that this kind of thing was unsolvable, so he went through the application store again and finally found an auxiliary function called sniping eye.”

“It could greatly enhance the user’s vision, allowing the user to see targets up to five kilometers away. It was also a very powerful auxiliary ability.”

“After getting a super shooting assistant, Tang Zhen began to secretly plan how to take action. Moreover, he was prepared to do it alone this time.”

“He had a private discussion with thousand Dragon, but the latter didn’t approve of him doing this alone.”

“However, Tang Zhen patted his chest and guaranteed that there would be no problems. He appeared to be very confident.”

“Regardless of whether he could kill the bearded man this time, he had a way to escape unscathed. If he really couldn’t, he could teleport back to his original world. If he brought another person with him, he might be in danger if there was an accident.”

“In the end, Tang Zhen still managed to convince Qian Long. He was prepared to start keeping an eye on the tip of that full-bearded man tomorrow and act according to the situation.”

Tang Zhen woke up from his sleep one morning.

Qian Long and Murong Ziyang brought the rest of the goods to the market to sell. Tang Zhen also packed up and found a tattered piece of clothing. He put it on over his cloak as a disguise and then hid in a hidden corner of the Wanderer town.

“He stared at the people coming and going on the streets. According to Qian Long, the bearded man and his men passed by here every day, so he chose to wait for his prey here.”

“Around nine o’clock in the morning, Tang Zhen, who was feeling bored, suddenly jolted. A trace of cold glint was revealed in his eyes as he stared intently at a corner of the street.”

“The bearded man finally appeared, and there were seven or eight people beside him. Each of them was holding a weapon and equipment, and it seemed like they were preparing to leave Wanderer town.”

“Tang Zhen silently stood up and used the Wanderers and buildings on the street as cover to quietly follow behind the bearded man and the others. After they left the Wanderer town, he followed them quietly.”

The fully-bearded man and the others hurried ahead while Tang Zhen activated the quantum stealth light screen and followed behind unhurriedly.

“Along the way, Tang Zhen judged that the bearded man and the others should be heading in the direction of the ruins where the two parties had previously met.”

Tang Zhen thought in his heart as his eyes gradually turned ice-cold.

“The bearded man and the others didn’t realize that someone was slowly following them, and could take their lives at any time.”

“Tang Zhen wasn’t in a hurry to make a move. After all, this place was quite close to the Wanderer town, and it was inevitable that Wanderers would pass by this place. If they were to bump into him, he was afraid that he would get into unnecessary trouble.”

Behind the fully-bearded man’s group was a very powerful Wanderer team. Tang Zhen had no choice but to be cautious when he moved.

“Just like that, they followed them in the wilderness for a long time at a moderate pace. The fully bearded man and the rest finally entered the Super ruins. Tang Zhen, who was hiding behind them, also followed them in without hesitation.”

“Just like the last time he was here, there were basically no monsters around the outer area of the Super ruins. However, he could see the figures of Wanderers from time to time.”

“In the sky above the ruins, the gray fog seemed to never dissipate. It just floated there without moving. The closer they got to the center of the ruins, the thicker the gray fog became. In some places, they couldn’t even see the scenery a few meters away.”

“Tang Zhen was afraid of losing the bearded man’s group. Therefore, he maintained a distance of 100 meters from the bearded man and the others. This way, the map would be able to display them in real time.”

“After walking for a while, the bearded man and the others stopped in a place that looked like a Park.”

“There was a forest of giant black vines in the park. The branches of these giant vines were messy, and they were thin and twisted like dragon scales. They looked like ferocious ghosts.”

“From time to time, the cries of monsters could be heard from the forest. The cries were very mournful and made people’s hair stand on end.”

“Then, these people split up. Looking at their appearance, they seemed to be setting up some kind of trap.”

“Tang Zhen was curious in his heart. Therefore, he was not in a hurry to attack. Instead, he quietly lay on the top of a pile of ruins and expressionlessly observed the actions of the fully-bearded man and the others.”

“After observing for a while, he was sure that the bearded man and his men were really setting up an elaborate trap.”

“Tang Zhen was extremely curious in his heart. What exactly was the thing that made these people, who were not weak, spend so much effort to set up a trap?”

“The bearded man would not be able to escape death today, but before that, he still wanted to see what they were up to.”

“Therefore, Tang Zhen calmed his heart and suppressed the boiling killing intent in his heart. He focused his attention and carefully observed.”

“On the bearded man’s side, after the trap was set up, the bearded man and the others were divided into two groups. One group lay in ambush around the trap and covered themselves with weeds and other things to hide themselves. They lurked in the grass and did not move.”

The other group was led by the bearded man and another Wanderer. The two of them looked at each other and entered the giant vine forest together.

“At the same time, the sound of hurried footsteps came from the giant vine forest. Immediately after, Tang Zhen saw the bearded man and another Wanderer scuttle out of the forest with a panicked expression. The bearded man was holding something similar to an ostrich egg in his hand.”

“””Aooo!”” ”

“A strange cry seemed to ring in his ears, and at the same time, a giant four-legged monster that looked like an ostrich rushed out of the forest.”

Chapter 55: The four-legged bone snake bird and the snipe

“The appearance of this ostrich-like monster was extremely strange. Its four thick long legs were covered with dark brown scales, its body was like a giant elephant, and its back and neck were covered with giant blood-red bone spikes that looked like strange coral vines!”

“The four-meter-tall ostrich monster was furious. It glared at the bearded man in front of it, its cold eyes filled with hatred.”

“The monster also had a tail that looked like a Python, and it was swinging back and forth, easily crushing a millstone-sized rock.”

“Tang Zhen’s gaze was fixed on the ostrich monster, and the monster’s information quickly popped up in front of him.”

“[four-legged bone snake bird, Level 4 monster, has a strong sense of territory and is good at running and chasing prey. Its tail whip is very lethal, and its weakness is in the cracks of its back. It can kill in one hit!]”

Tang Zhen looked at the size of this four-legged bone snake bird and could not help but feel admiration for the courage of the fully bearded man and the others. They actually dared to provoke such a terrifying monster.

“However, looking at the trap that the bearded man and the others had prepared, it might really be possible to subdue the four-legged bone snake bird.”

“No matter what, he had to wait and see.”

“Not far away from the forest, the four-legged bone snake bird stopped in its tracks after it rushed out of the forest.”

“It seemed to have realized the danger. Even though the bearded man was holding the egg and provoking it with exaggerated movements, the four-legged bone snake bird did not immediately rush forward.”

“However, the bearded man’s next move completely enraged the four-legged bone snake bird.”

The bearded man raised the egg high up in the air and was about to smash it.

“Seeing that the egg it had painstakingly hatched was about to be smashed, the four-legged bone snake bird let out an angry howl and charged at the bearded man like a mad bull.”

“Facing the four-legged bone snake bird that was charging towards him, the bearded man’s mouth revealed a mocking sneer.”

“””Whoosh, whoosh, Whoosh!”””

“When the four-legged bone snake bird rushed through the trap set by the bearded man and the others, a rope that had been set up in advance was immediately pulled up by the hidden Wanderer, and it accurately tripped one of the monster’s legs.”

“The four-legged bone snake-bird was shocked. It immediately raised its leg to Dodge, but it was too late.”

More than ten thick ropes made of monster tendons quickly rose from the dust on the ground and quickly wrapped around the legs of the four-legged bone snake bird.

“The four-legged bone snake bird let out a cry and jumped on the spot, as if it wanted to break free from the flexible ropes. The Wanderers who had been lying in ambush from the side attacked at the same time. The archers shot several arrows at the same time, and the sharp arrows were aimed at the vital parts of the four-legged bone snake bird's head. "

"There were also a few Wanderers who threw out burning torches and flew around the four-legged bone snake bird, restricting it to a small area. "

"The four-legged bone snake bird was suddenly attacked, and its struggling and chirping became more violent. However, the rope was very flexible, and no matter how hard it struggled, it could not break free in a short time. "

""Attack with full force!"" "

"The full-bearded man shouted. Immediately after, two Wanderers raised their javelins and threw them at the ostrich monster. "

"The javelin was fast and sharp, and it pierced into the four-legged bone snake bird's wrinkled body in an instant. "

""Pfft! Puchi!"" Two soft sounds. "

"The javelin pierced the chest of the four-legged bone snake bird, and blood flowed down the wound and covered the monster's body. "

The four-legged bone snake bird let out a sad cry. It had already begun to fight for its life.

"At this moment, all the ropes that were wrapped around its body, except for the toughest one, had been torn apart by the four-legged bone snake bird. However, no matter how much it struggled, it could not break this rope. "

"Looking at the bearded man who slowly raised his javelin, it seemed to have realized that death was coming and let out a sorrowful cry. "

"When the Wanderers, including the bearded man, saw that the four-legged bone snake bird's struggling movements had slowed down, they launched even more frenzied attacks. "

"The eyes of Tang Zhen, who was hiding a short distance away, focused. He pulled the trigger without the slightest hesitation! "

"A crisp sound was heard, and the bearded man and the others were slightly stunned. Before they could react, they saw that the rope tying the four-legged bone snake bird seemed to have been hit by something and broke into two. "

"The four-legged bone snake bird that suddenly broke free from its restraints let out a long cry and charged at the bearded man with eyes full of anger. When it passed by a Wanderer, it swept its Python-like tail lightly and easily broke the Wanderer's neck. "

"The Wanderer's face was filled with pain. When his hands reached for his neck, his neck broke with a crack, and his head rolled on the ground. "

“After getting rid of a Wanderer, the four-legged bone snake bird suddenly jumped up and smashed its huge body at one of the Wanderers. The Wanderer’s face turned pale as he tried to Dodge, but he saw the four-legged bone snake bird bite down. Its open mouth was filled with sharp teeth. ”

“The four-legged bone snake bird bit down, and the Wanderer’s arm was immediately torn off. Blood splattered everywhere, and the Wanderer howled in pain. ”

“Unfortunately, he only managed to let out a single howl before the four-legged bone snake-bird kicked him in the head. The Wanderer’s head burst open like a rotten watermelon, and his blood and brain matter splattered everywhere. ”

“All the Wanderers were shocked, and they frantically attacked the four-legged bone snake bird with their weapons. However, the monsters that had lost their restraints moved quickly, and most of their attacks missed. ”

“In the blink of an eye, two more Wanderers died in the four-legged bone snake bird’s mouth. ”

“The fully bearded man’s eyes were about to pop out. At this moment, how could he not guess that someone had plotted against them? He looked behind him with hatred and roared at the same time. He waved a long spear to meet the four-legged bone snake bird. ”

“This full-bearded man’s strength was very strong. Tang Zhen estimated that he should be at level three. He faced the four-legged bone snake bird head-on, and at the same time, he quickly thrust out the spear in his hand, and then quickly retracted it in the blink of an eye. ”

“The bearded man’s movements were very fast. He waved the spear like a Phantom, and in an instant, the abdomen of the four-legged bone snake bird had more than a dozen bloody holes, and its originally flexible movements became much slower. ”

“The rest of the Wanderers saw this and gathered around, intending to help the bearded man kill the four-legged bone snake bird. However, before they could get close, the crisp voice sounded again. ”

“A Wanderer a few steps away from the bearded man trembled. The bow and arrow in his hand slowly fell to the ground, and a bloody hole burst open in his chest. ”

“Covering his bleeding chest, the Wanderer looked unwilling to give up and wanted to turn around to find the murderer, but he failed. ”

“”Plop!”” ”

“The Wanderer’s corpse fell heavily to the ground, and his ferocious face was filled with unwillingness. ”

“”Who the hell is it? Get the hell out here!”” ”

“Seeing that his men had been killed by a sneak attack, the bearded man roared and threw the spear in his hand at the four-legged bone snake bird. This spear was filled with hatred, and it directly pierced through the chest of the four-legged bone snake bird. The sharp tip of the spear came out from the back of the four-legged bone snake bird. ”

“The four-legged bone snake bird, which was already covered in injuries, was struck by a fatal blow. It no longer had the ability to attack, and its huge body fell heavily to the ground. ”

“The bearded man who had thrown the spear suddenly turned around. His cold eyes looked at the ruins not far away, and a murderous intent suddenly appeared in his eyes. The bearded man pulled out a dagger from his waist and shot towards the ruins like a bolt of lightning. ”

Chapter 56: The final struggle _1

“Just as the bearded man was rushing towards the ruins, he suddenly felt a fatal danger enveloping him. The bearded man was shocked and dodged to the side on reflex. ”

“”Whoosh!”” ”

“A bullet pierced through the air, and its target was the bearded man. ”

“”Pfft!”” ”

“The bearded man felt as if something had hit his ribs. He looked down and found that there was a bloody hole in his waist, and the blood had soaked through his clothes and chain armor. ”

“When the remaining Wanderers saw that their leader was injured, they shouted at the same time and charged forward without the slightest hesitation. ”

“However, as the Wanderers were charging over, the crisp sound of gunfire rang out again. The head of the Wanderer running in the front exploded like a rotten watermelon being hit by a wooden stick. The headless corpse ran a few more steps before it fell into the dust. ”

“The tragic state of their companion caused the Wanderers to stop their charge, and they looked at the dead guy with a dumbfounded expression. ”

“The sound of death that rang out from time to time made the Wanderers’ hearts break. They weren’t ignorant, and they knew that the sound was definitely made by firearms. ”

“In other words, they were being targeted by a sharpshooter, and death would descend upon them at any moment. ”

“Some Wanderers also used firearms as weapons, but it was a pity that most of their firearms were primitive and crude. They didn’t have a long range, and their accuracy wasn’t high. Most of the time, they weren’t even as good as bows and arrows. ”

“As time went by, the number of Wanderers who used flintlocks in the wilderness decreased. ”

“However, the accuracy of this gunman was shocking. No one had ever heard of such an expert gunner in the vicinity of Black Rock City. Could it be that he was a Wanderer from the outside world who wanted to take advantage of the situation? ”

“He was usually the one who did this kind of thing, but he didn’t expect that someone else would do it today! ”

“The Wanderers were secretly annoyed and wanted to get back at him, but when they thought about how terrifying the gunman was, they all had the intention to retreat.”

“The bearded man was quite tough. After being shot in the ribs, his movements were not affected much. Instead, he quickly found a place to hide.”

The other Wanderers also followed suit and looked for cover to hide.

“Unfortunately, there was no ideal cover in such a short time. After another crisp gunshot, a Wanderer hiding in a pit was shot in the heart. He struggled a few times before he stopped moving.”

“A few more gunshots rang out, and people screamed as they were killed by the bullets.”

“At this moment, there was only one Wanderer left in the bearded man’s group besides him. The rest of them had either died in the mouth of the monster or under Tang Zhen’s gun.”

“The bearded man curled up behind cover, one hand covering his wound, and at the same time, he roared in grief and indignation, “” “”Who the f * ck are you? If you have the guts, come out and let’s fight face to face. What kind of hero are you, sneakily hiding in the dark and shooting? You’re a coward, a bastard!”” ”

“” “”Hehe, now you feel aggrieved? When you f * cking snatched my brain, where did your arrogance go?”” ”

“Tang Zhen cursed in his heart and turned the muzzle of his gun toward the Wanderer not far away from the bearded man. In his field of vision, a Green cross-shaped crosshair was gradually turning red.”

“The moment the crosshair turned red, Tang Zhen decisively pulled the trigger.”

“With a crisp sound, the bullet hit one of the Wanderer’s legs. The Wanderer screamed, but he didn’t reveal any other part of his body from behind the cover. He was obviously afraid of being shot again.”

“Tang Zhen no longer paid any attention to the Wanderer. Although this shot didn’t directly take his life, it had still broken one of his legs. If he didn’t treat his wound in time, he would probably die.”

“In this short period of time, Tang Zhen had shot and killed several enemies. However, his emotions did not fluctuate too much. After all, this was not the first time he had killed an enemy.”

He didn’t feel any guilt in killing these Wanderers. His experiences in this world had made him understand that this was a world where the strong preyed on the weak. Mercy and hesitation would only make him lose his life faster.

“If this rifle was in the hands of the bearded man, he believed that the bearded man would not hesitate to kill them when they seized the spoils of war last time.”

“Seeing that his last man had lost his ability to fight, the full-bearded man’s fear and grief could not be described with words. Although he had killed countless people over the years and was often hunted down, this was the first time he had experienced such helplessness.”

“He didn’t know who was ambushing him. After all, he had made countless enemies over the years, and it was common for him to kill Wanderers. He wouldn’t take things like snatching the brains of Tang Zhen and the others to heart.”

“If the full-bearded man knew that he and his subordinates had lost their lives just because he had stolen a brain, he would not hesitate to give up on the attempt to steal it, and would choose to kill the other on the spot!”

“If he could escape this time, according to the bearded man’s character, he would definitely dig three feet into the ground to find the person who had attacked him. Then, he would drag the person into the wilderness and torture him for three days and three nights before killing him.”

“Unfortunately, there weren’t so many “ifs” in this world. Tang Zhen wasn’t interested in knowing what the bearded man was thinking.”

“No matter what, he could not let the bearded man go back alive!”

“Tang Zhen looked at the time and estimated the speed of the full-bearded man’s bleeding. A few minutes later, he unhurriedly walked out from the ruins.”

“The moment he stood up, the bearded man also stuck his head out and happened to see Tang Zhen, who had removed the light from his quantum stealth.”

“When the full-bearded man saw Tang Zhen’s face, he was at first confused, but immediately revealed an expression of sudden realization. He gritted his teeth and fiercely roared, “Damn it, so it’s you. If I had known earlier, I would have killed you directly last time!””

“Tang Zhen gave a disdainful smile when he heard this. He raised his gun and aimed at the full-bearded man as he said, “What’s the use of saying all this? you’re going to die today!””

“The full-bearded man knew that his injuries were serious. If this stalemate continued, he would not be able to escape death due to the excessive blood loss. He simply stood up, pointed at Tang Zhen and scolded, “Do you know who I am? how dare you kill our team member? aren’t you afraid of being hunted down by our organization?”

“If you can let me go, I promise that this matter will be written off and we’ll mind our own business in the future. What do you think?””

“The bearded man’s expression didn’t change when he spoke nonsense, but in his heart, he already wished to hack Tang Zhen into a thousand pieces.”

Tang Zhen coldly laughed as though he was looking at a clown. He was disdainful of the full-bearded man’s words. He quickly raised his rifle and aimed at the bearded man’s chest. The green crosshair in his field of vision gradually turned red.

“It was also at this moment that the fully bearded man’s hand, which had been covering his wound, suddenly rose. Then, he ruthlessly threw something at Tang Zhen.”

Tang Zhen was slightly startled when he saw this. He did not hesitate to jump to the side and Dodge.

“”BOOM!”” ”

“With a loud bang, gravel and grass flew everywhere. The thing that the bearded man had thrown was actually a bomb. At the same time, he turned around and ran into the forest of giant vines.”

Tang Zhen’s heart tightened. He absolutely couldn’t allow this full-bearded man to escape. He would die today without a doubt!

“He quickly raised his gun and aimed at the bearded man’s back. Before the green crosshair turned red, one of the bearded man’s legs had already stepped into the giant vine forest.”

Tang Zhen did not dare to hesitate any longer as he quickly pulled the trigger.

“After a loud bang, the bearded man’s body trembled and he staggered. However, he did not stop. Instead, he continued to run toward the forest of giant vines and disappeared in the blink of an eye.”

“f * ck! Tang Zhen cursed in his heart. He raised his gun without thinking and shot at the Wanderer with an injured leg, knocking him to the ground.”

Chapter 57: Worth tens of millions (1)

“Only after entering the giant vine forest did Tang Zhen discover that not even a blade of grass grew within the giant vine forest. However, there was something similar to fungus growing on these strange giant vines. On some of the giant vines, this kind of fungus actually grew so densely that it was airtight, looking very strange.”

Tang Zhen involuntarily became nervous when he saw this strange environment.

“That full-bearded man had been shot twice in a row. Naturally, there would be blood dripping on the ground when he escaped. Tang Zhen began to follow the trail of blood.”

Tang Zhen estimated the amount of blood the bearded man had lost and concluded that this guy couldn’t run far. He walked unhurriedly in the giant vine forest and vigilantly looked around in case a monster suddenly appeared in the forest.

Tang Zhen’s eyes focused after he had chased for around seven to eight hundred meters. He discovered the full-bearded man lying under a huge vine under a large tree in front of him.

“At this moment, the full-bearded man’s entire body was covered in blood and he was already on the verge of death. After he saw Tang Zhen, his originally pale face actually emitted traces of red light. After which, he let out a maniacal laugh. ”

“hahaha, you’ve indeed caught up. Since you want to take my life, I’ll make you die with me! ”

“After shouting this sentence with all his might, the bearded man suddenly dodged and pushed aside a pile of weeds beside him, revealing a bird egg like the one he had been holding. ”

“The bearded man laughed wildly as he lifted a stone and smashed it down on the egg. After a crisp sound, the egg was smashed. ”

A bad feeling suddenly rose in Tang Zhen’s heart as he looked at the egg white that was slowly flowing out and the maniacal laughter of the full-bearded man whose scheme had succeeded.

He didn’t have time to think about why the bearded man would do such a strange thing. He only wanted to kill him immediately!

“Just as Tang Zhen was about to open fire, the sound of hurried footsteps suddenly came from not far away. Immediately after, several four-legged bone snake birds appeared in front of Tang Zhen. ”

“After seeing the egg being smashed, the four-legged bone snake birds let out an angry roar. One of the four-legged bone snake birds aimed at the grinning bearded man and pecked him hard, tearing his head off. ”

The four-legged bone snake bird that was holding the human head in its mouth swung its neck. The head with a full beard flew through the air and rolled onto the grass in front of Tang Zhen.

“The full-bearded man’s head was covered in blood. However, his eyes were still staring at Tang Zhen. At this moment, the corners of his mouth were still emitting traces of a sinister smile. ”

He wanted to see Tang Zhen die and be torn to pieces by the four-legged bone snake bird!

“Unfortunately, in his imagination, Tang Zhen, who should have been torn to pieces by the four-legged bone snake bird in a panic, did not feel the slightest bit of panic. Instead, he looked at his head and smiled before suddenly disappearing without a trace. ”

“The bearded man’s eyes were wide open. At the last moment before he lost consciousness, he suddenly felt a sense of regret and then fell into endless darkness. ”

Tang Zhen’s figure suddenly appeared in his house with the rifle in his hand.

“After taking a look at the familiar environment, Tang Zhen shook his head and sneered. He kept the rifle into the origin space, took off his tattered clothes, and threw them into the trash can. ”

“The operation this time around was a little dangerous. If it was not for this teleportation function, Tang Zhen did not dare to guarantee that he would be able to escape from the pursuit of a few Furious four-legged bone snake birds. ”

“This full-bearded man was really good at tricking people, even trying to trick him before he died. ”

“Tang Zhen sighed. Although he had gotten rid of the fully bearded man’s group today, it was still unknown if he could escape the investigation of the group behind the fully bearded man.”

“Although there was the matter of his spoils of war being snatched, they did not have any mortal enmity. If it was not for the full-bearded man’s greedy gaze when he looked at the stall, Tang Zhen might not have had to kill the full-bearded man.”

“However, since he had such thoughts that he should not have, Tang Zhen would definitely not let him stay.”

“Forget it, I’ll take one step at a time. If I’m really pissed off, I’ll kill all of you even if I have to risk my life. I can teleport anyway. Let’s see who will have the last laugh!”

Tang Zhen waved his fist as a trace of battle intent was revealed in his eyes.

“Since he had returned home, he might as well go out and buy some things. Only the heavens knew if the four-legged bone snake bird was still in its original spot. Tang Zhen did not want to take this risk.”

“After washing up, Tang Zhen left the house. This time, he was going to the provincial capital to buy a few goods that were not available in the local area.”

“The bus moved rapidly on the highway and arrived at the provincial capital after a few hours. Tang Zhen got off the bus and found a taxi, heading straight to the most prosperous area of the provincial capital.”

“Tang Zhen, who was sitting in the taxi, was thinking about his development plan in the Lou city world for the next period of time.”

“The descent of the undead race caught Tang Zhen by surprise. They were not ordinary monsters, but an organized invader. They massacred all the living creatures they encountered, which created a great obstacle for Tang Zhen’s city construction.”

“Tang Zhen, who originally regarded Black Rock City as his imaginary enemy, had now listed the undead clan as his number one enemy. Under the circumstances of becoming enemies with the spiritual-brain corpse King, Tang Zhen’s primary task was to clean up the wild buildings that the undead clan had descended on the tower world.”

“As long as the wild buildings of the corpse race were cleared, he believed that these wandering corpse race would lose their base and would no longer be able to cause any waves.”

“During this period of time, he had invested a lot of money into the world of loucheng. Now that there was a powerful enemy of the undead race, he had to form a team to fight against it. This also meant that he had to invest more money. The money in Tang Zhen’s hands was obviously not enough.”

Tang Zhen’s trip to the provincial capital this time around was also with the goal of finding a new source of income.

“He had stored quite a few items in his interspace, including the green jade stone he had obtained from the Black Rock City square. Tang Zhen had looked up some information on the way here, and he was more and more convinced that this thing was Jade.”

“If that was the case, judging from the quality of the Jade, it should be able to sell for a good price.”

“Gold and jade jewelry was a very famous jewelry chain Group in the Federation. It was said that its assets were close to 100 billion Yuan, and the chain stores were opened all over the country.”

“At this time, Tang Zhen was sitting in a jewelry chain store of the group located in the provincial city, waiting for the results of the appraisal of the Jade for sale. Looking at the valuable jewelry on the counter, his eyes flashed with a thoughtful look.”

“The results of the appraisal came out. It was confirmed to be a top-grade Jade with excellent quality. After some discussion, Tang Zhen sold this piece of Jade for 20 million Yuan!”

“When this huge sum of money was transferred to his account, Tang Zhen’s blood pressure soared. Fortunately, his self-control was extremely strong, so he didn’t lose his composure in front of others.”

“After leaving the jewelry store, Tang Zhen went to the shopping mall. After a big shopping spree, he bought a second-hand house in a pretty good location through a real estate agent.”

The area of the house was 180 square meters. Moving in with a bag also saved Tang Zhen a lot of trouble.

“He had earned over ten million in a day and spent over a million in the blink of an eye. This kind of experience made Tang Zhen, this poor kid, feel as if it had been a lifetime ago.”

“However, it was only at this moment that Tang Zhen discovered that other than the initial excitement, money could no longer bring him any stimulation. On the contrary, his desire to build a city had become stronger and stronger after he no longer lacked money.”

“Tang Zhen waved his fist. After feeling the powerful strength within his body, he confirmed that this was the goal he was pursuing!”

Chapter 58: Construction Processing Workshop (1)

“The first was to pay back the money, to pay off his adoptive father’s loan. However, this matter needed Tang Zhen to take time to do it, and he couldn’t make a big fuss.”

The second matter was to solve the problem of weapons and equipment.

“The weapons used by the Wanderers were very messy, and most of them were of poor quality. On the battlefield of life and death, a piece of equipment with poor quality was likely to take the life of the user.”

“Tang Zhen didn’t want his men to wear this kind of equipment and fight with monsters, so he had to do a good job in terms of protection.”

“Originally, he had planned to equip his future subordinates with protective gear such as explosive armor. However, after reading some comments on the internet, he found that the defensive capabilities of the explosive armor were very limited. It was not practical to use it in cold weapon battles.”

“It seemed that if the conditions allowed, he would still have to make it himself. If not, he could hire someone to make it.”

“Tang Zhen only needed to get people to process the suitable metal into parts and then send it to the other world for assembly. If it really didn’t work, he would find an excuse to directly complete the production and then bring it to the world of loucheng.”

There were all sorts of things to do these days. He believed that no one would make a fuss about making some armor.

“In addition to the information on this plate armor, Tang Zhen also paid attention to the information on the stab-proof suit and chainmail. Among them, a type of chainmail made of metal spring pads attracted his attention.”

“This type of chain mail had a good appearance. It was said to have a very good protective power and the price was also relatively suitable. A set of long chain armor cost about 2000 Yuan. Zhen Tang calculated that if he bought 100 sets, it would cost about 200000 Yuan.”

“Of course, Tang Zhen wouldn’t buy so many at once. He planned to buy a few sets first to see the effect. If it was possible, he would produce them himself.”

“After paying and leaving his address, Tang Zhen ordered a few more stab-proof clothes. Then, he began to browse weapons such as bows and crossbows.”

“These things were also sold online, but the quality was hard to say. Tang Zhen chose a few more famous shops and paid to order ten pieces.”

“After estimating the price of entrusting a factory to manufacture a set of armor, Tang Zhen felt that it was a little expensive. Even if he had a large sum of money in his hands, it did not mean that he could casually waste it.”

Should he hire a group of people and produce it himself?

“As Tang Zhen thought about this, he took out his phone and called one of his ex-co-workers.”

“This person’s name was Wang Daqing. He lived in the countryside and was honest. He had once worked with Tang Zhen. Because he was once bullied by the local ruffians, only Tang Zhen stood up to help him. Wang Daqing recognized Tang Zhen as a friend, and the two often contacted each other on the phone.”

“Wang Daqing was now a farmer at home, taking care of his sickly old mother. When he was free, he would enter the city to work part-time to support the family.”

“When he received Tang Zhen’s call, Wang Daqing was working in the field. When he heard that Tang Zhen was going to rent his house and find people to work for him, he patted his chest and said that he would take care of this matter.”

“After the two of them settled the matter, Tang Zhen called his younger sister and had a simple chat. He told her that he had bought a house in the provincial city and that she could move in at any time.”

He would send the keys to her later and ask his sister to wait for him at the school gate.

“After Tang Zhen sent the key over, he gave his sister a sum of money and asked her to slowly pay off the money her adoptive father owed. If someone asked about the origin of the money, she could just find an excuse.”

“Welding machines, cutting machines, angle grinders, drilling machines, polishing machines, all kinds of machines and equipment needed to be purchased. In addition, there were all kinds of consumables. Zhen Tang also bought a lot to avoid going back and forth.”

“Tang Zhen chose a store with a good reputation and purchased everything in one go. Then, he entrusted it to deliver the goods according to the address.”

“After leaving the store, Tang Zhen went to the building materials market.”

“Patterned steel plates, 304 Stainless Steel Plates, titanium steel plates, and a batch of steel pipes of different specifications. Tang Zhen also waved his hand and paid for the delivery.”

“Following that, Tang Zhen went to many places and bought leather, canvas, paint, and other items. Even though his physical strength was amazing, he was also extremely tired.”

“Tang Zhen, who felt that it was inconvenient to not have a car, went to the car shop without stopping and bought an off-road vehicle that cost more than 300000 Yuan as a means of transportation.”

“The driver’s license had already been taken. After Tang Zhen finished the procedures, he drove back to his residence and found a pen and paper to count the materials he had bought.”

“In order to keep a low profile, Tang Zhen didn’t plan to bring the motor vehicle to the world of loucheng. However, with the arrival of the undead race, he couldn’t keep a low profile anymore. He could only take this opportunity to rise up and achieve his goal earlier.”

“Considering the geographical situation of the Lou Cheng world, ordinary cars were definitely not suitable for use. However, some agricultural tractors seemed quite suitable, as they were also sturdy and resistant to construction.”

Tang Zhen had his eyes on a four-wheel tractor with front acceleration. The tires were thick and the horsepower was high. He believed that it would be able to adapt to the terrain of the loucheng world.

“When the time came, they would be equipped with a trailer, which could be used to transport people and supplies, and the speed of their journey would be greatly improved. Moreover, Tang Zhen’s space was just enough to fit a tractor of this size. He wouldn’t be able to fit any bigger.”

“The next morning, he drove to the village where Wang Daqing’s family lived.”

“After driving for a few hours, Tang Zhen arrived at the small village where Wang Daqing’s family was located. It was a place with beautiful scenery beside the mountains and rivers.”

“Wang Daqing, who received the call, was already waiting for Tang Zhen at the village entrance. After seeing him come, he got in the car and led the way to his home.”

“Wang Daqing’s house was at the edge of the village. It had a large courtyard that covered an area of 2000 square meters. At this time, the courtyard was filled with all kinds of supplies.”

“After meeting Wang Qingqing’s mother and giving her the gifts, Tang Zhen and Wang Qingqing went to the courtyard to discuss.”

“Zhen Tang told Wang Daqing that he had met a famous director and had gotten an order for a batch of props from him. With the idea of everyone making money, he asked Wang Daqing to come along.”

“He would rent Wang Daqing’s place and pay him 5000 Yuan a month to take care of the management. He would be paid 10000 Yuan a month, but he had to do a good job.”

“Regardless of whether Wang Daqing believed Tang Zhen’s words or not, Wang Daqing nodded and agreed without any hesitation just because of the monthly income of 15000 Yuan.”

“After the communication between the two sides was completed, the next thing was easy to handle.”

Tang Zhen first gave Wang Daqing 50000 Yuan and asked him to find someone to build a simple colored steel shed in the courtyard to block the view of outsiders.

“Then, he found a group of helper and an electrician to install and connect the equipment and circuits.”

“There were a lot of young men who worked in the village, and they were all familiar with electric welding and cutting. Wang Daqing went out for a walk and found six people.”

They were naturally happy to be able to work at home with a high salary.

“Seeing that the manpower was ready, Tang Zhen handed a drawing to Wang Daqing. This was a drawing of armor. The front chest and back of the heart were protected by a whole steel plate, and the waist and abdomen were drilled with small steel plates and arranged on thick leather with rivets.”

“Inside the cowhide, a layer of canvas had to be sewn, and the total weight was close to 20 pounds. There was also a helmet, leg armor, and other parts, which looked quite complicated.”

“Tang Zhen wanted to ensure the quality. As for the speed, he believed that Wang Qingqing knew what to do.”

“This was the first item that Tang Zhen requested to make, and there were a total of 1000 pieces. If the materials were not enough, Tang Zhen asked Wang Daqing to place an order directly and transfer 100000 Yuan to him at the same time.”

“He told Wang Daqing that he was going to the mountain area and wouldn’t be back for half a month. He might not be able to contact him during this time, so he would have to worry about the things here. Wang Daqing said that he wouldn’t let him down.”

Chapter 59: sold well of slingshots

“The house in provincial city was bought by Tang Zhen for his sister. He had no intention of going there again. Tang Zhen returned to the old house that was originally dilapidated. After parking the car in the courtyard, he locked the courtyard door and slowly walked into the house.”

“After taking off his coat, Tang Zhen put on the leather armor and cloak. The defensive power of this cloak could save his life at a critical moment.”

“He took out the pistol and checked the magazine. At the same time, he changed into a pair of light military boots and held a military knife in his other hand. After taking a deep breath, Tang Zhen activated the teleportation function.”

Tang Zhen’s vision blurred and he appeared in the strange giant vine forest.

“Tang Zhen immediately sized up his surroundings the moment his vision recovered. His mental state was extremely tense. Fortunately, he did not find any traces of the four-legged bone snake bird. Instead, he saw the body of the bearded man.”

“Like a broken doll, it had already been torn to pieces by the angry four-legged bone snake bird.”

Tang Zhen did not dare to have the slightest hesitation when he saw the miserable state of the full-bearded man. He immediately broke into a mad dash and dashed out of the giant vine forest like the wind.

“He had seen the strength of the ostrich monster. Once she was targeted by this monster, she would definitely lose her life here.”

Tang Zhen did not encounter the four-legged bone snake bird even after he ran out of the giant vine forest. Tang Zhen could not help but secretly feel that he was lucky.

“After he left the forest of giant vines, he saw the corpses of the Wanderers he had killed scattered in the grass. However, they were all incomplete, and it was obvious that they had been gnawed on by some monster.”

“The huge body of the four-legged bone snake bird had been cut into eight pieces, and the brain was naturally not left behind. There was not a single valuable material left on the body. Looking at the cut marks on the body, it should have been done by a Wanderer who happened to pass by.”

“Tang Zhen was disgusted by the sight, so he turned his head away and didn’t look at it anymore. Then, he walked straight in the direction of the Wanderer town.”

“When he passed by the building where he had encountered the ghouls last time, Tang Zhen suddenly had an idea. He now had the assistance of a super marksman. Could he hide in a high place and kill the monsters calmly?”

“Although it was useless for him to level up, he could still collect the brain Pearl. After all, a level 2 brain Pearl was worth 100 gold coins.”

“Tang Zhen made up his mind. After this busy period, he would definitely find an opportunity to return here. He kept feeling that there was a huge secret hidden in the depths of these ruins.”

“The journey back wasn’t very smooth. During this time, he encountered the attack of a flock of death birds. Facing the weak but crazy strange birds, Tang Zhen was almost hit.”

“Tang Zhen, who still had a lingering fear in his heart, didn’t know that once he was scratched by this strange bird, his entire body would stiffen and he would die, following which he would turn into a disgusting zombie.”

“However, just as he escaped from the death birds, he was attacked by another wave of zombies. These zombies dragged their broken limbs and rushed towards Tang Zhen. Some of them were even waving weapons in their hands and their movements were very Swift.”

“They were only level one zombies. As long as Tang Zhen was careful, they wouldn’t pose any threat to him. The only thing that made him puzzled was that the torn clothes of these zombies were very similar to Wanderers.”

“After killing these monsters and removing their brains, Tang Zhen continued to move forward. During this time, they had crossed paths with a few waves of Wanderers. However, these Wanderers had gloomy expressions and seemed to have a lot on their minds.”

“When he arrived at the entrance of Wanderer town, Tang Zhen discovered that the entire town had entered a state of martial law. The walls were filled with archers that had been temporarily summoned. There were also wild cultivators who used flying stones and stone ropes. They looked at the sky as if they were facing a great enemy.”

“Tang Zhen was puzzled. After handing over the pass, he directly headed to the market.”

“On the street, he saw thousand Dragons selling some goods. The two of them exchanged a glance, but neither of them said anything. However, a relieved expression flashed across thousand Dragons’ face.”

“After meeting with Qian Long, Tang Zhen went straight back to the cave. He happened to see Murong Zi Yan’s two sisters cleaning up two death birds at the entrance of the cave.”

“””What’s the matter with this strange bird? I can see it everywhere in the wilderness.”” Tang Zhen asked after seeing this.”

“Murong Zi Yan was very happy when she saw Tang Zhen return. She knew the reason why he went out this time. Now that he had returned safely, it proved that the matter had been settled and Tang Zhen himself was also intact.”

“””This is the death bird. After being scratched by it, you will stiffen and die, then become a zombie. Black Rock City had a huge headache dealing with these monsters. They had already recalled all of their cultivators to defend the city. Wanderer town has also recruited a group of archers to defend against the attacks of these strange birds.”” ”

Murong Zi Yan’s words made Tang Zhen suddenly understand. The doubts he had along the way were also solved.

“He had to admire the spirit brain corpse King’s plan. He had used a weak bird of death to force the cultivators of Black Rock City to retreat to their nest. Without their unified command, these Wanderers and wild cultivators, who were like scattered sand, simply couldn’t pose much of a threat to the corpse race.”

“Moreover, the Wanderers also had to be on guard against these birds of death. Over a thousand Wanderers and wild cultivators had been killed and turned into zombies recently. As for the Wanderers without cultivation, the number of deaths was uncountable!”

“Recalling the fragile nature of the death bird, Tang Zhen’s heart jolted. If he brought a large number of slingshots and rubber bands, they might become a popular product!”

“This type of slingshot was useless against most monsters, but it was an excellent weapon against the deathbirds. After all, the deathbirds would attack in groups and fill the sky. In this case, they could hit the birds with their eyes closed.”

“This way, even the old, the weak, the women, and the children would have the ability to attack and defend against the death bird.”

“After thinking up to this point, Tang Zhen immediately ran into the cave and teleported back to his home.”

“After driving around the hardware stores and fishing equipment stores in the entire city, Tang Zhen bought nearly a thousand Jin of steel balls, a large pile of slingshots, and a woven bag full of slingshots.”

Tang Zhen teleported back to Wanderer town after he put the items into his space.

“After calling for da Xiong to come over and work as a Coolie, Tang Zhen sent these things to Qian Long’s carpet and sold them at a price ranging from one to five brain beads. At the same time, he also added a hundred steel beads for free.”

“When a Wanderer saw these slingshots, he went up and asked about them. When he was told that these slingshots could be used to shoot the death birds and could be used regardless of cultivation level, the Wanderer bought one out of curiosity.”

“Coincidentally, a flock of death birds was attacking at this time. The countless archers who occupied the high ground in the town immediately set up a defense. For a time, arrows rained down like rain, and death birds would fall from time to time.”

“The Wanderers who didn’t have long-range attacks hid and dodged the falling arrows and the dead bird’s corpse. Tang Zhen, Qian Long, and the Wanderer cultivator who had bought the slingshot pulled their slingshot at the same time and shot randomly into the sky.”

“In this situation, the advantage of the slingshot was immediately revealed. It was easy to operate and saved energy. The damage caused to the death bird was also very obvious.”

“He was not like the archers and those who used the stone throwing rope. After shooting a dozen arrows, they were all so tired that they were gasping for breath, and their arms were sore and uncomfortable.”

The Eyes of the Wild cultivator who had bought the slingshot grew brighter and brighter. The effect of this slingshot against the death bird was surprisingly good!

“The wild cultivators who were hiding nearby also saw this scene. Immediately, some of them rushed over, threw down a brain, and excitedly took out their slingshots to join the ranks of killing the death birds.”

More and more Wanderers and wild cultivators risked being injured by arrows and death birds that slipped through the net to buy slingshots. Some Wanderers even bought dozens of slingshots at once.

“As more and more Wanderers and wild cultivators with slingshots joined the battle, the death birds in the sky were quickly cleared out, and the ground of the Wanderer town was covered with arrows and the corpses of the death birds.”

“Many people had seen the wild cultivator shoot the death birds with a slingshot. When they looked at the bodies of the death birds on the ground, they found that many of them had been killed by steel balls. Soon, nearly 10000 Wanderers in the Wanderer town learned about the new weapon, the slingshot.”

“They all rushed to Tang Zhen’s stall to buy slingshots. Even the manager of Wanderer town came here and picked up a slingshot curiously. At the same time, he ordered 2000 slingshots from Tang Zhen!”

Chapter 60: Strange birds besieging the city (1)

“Zhen Tang was naturally very happy to receive a large order. He took the time to send a message back home, found the phone number of a slingshot seller on the internet, and ordered 10000 ordinary cold bending slingshot.”

“This kind of ordinary slingshot was easy to process. Because Tang Zhen didn’t have too many requirements for the materials, it could be made by using ordinary round steel and a simple workbench.”

“After a little polishing, a slingshot was completed.”

“The price of an ordinary slingshot was cheap. Ten thousand of them cost less than a hundred thousand Yuan. Immediately after, Tang Zhen ordered a large number of rubber bands and steel balls and asked for them to be shipped as soon as possible.”

“After he was done with all this, Tang Zhen returned to the world of loucheng.”

“The slingshot he brought with him had been sold out and many people came to ask if they had any stock. What Tang Zhen didn’t know was that when he left, another wave of death birds attacked. However, as Wanderer town had several hundred slingshots, the thousands of death birds were quickly annihilated.”

“Out of Tang Zhen’s expectations, the special Agent from Black Rock City, who had stopped at Wanderer town, had also come to him and wanted to order 5000 slingshots and a large number of steel balls.”

What Tang Zhen did not know was that Black Rock City had already been surrounded by nearly 100000 death birds. These monsters were like a huge dark cloud as they continuously flew around Black Rock City.

“In order to prevent the death birds from entering Black Rock City, all the doors and windows had been sealed. Even so, many residents were still injured.”

Anyone who was injured by these strange birds would die without a doubt. The ruler of Black Rock City had no choice but to throw these residents who had turned into zombies out to prevent the entire city from collapsing from the inside.

“The appearance of the slingshot made the special Agent from Black Rock City see the hope of solving the death bird crisis. For this reason, he specially looked for Tang Zhen and asked him to provide the goods as soon as possible.”

“The special Agent of Black Rock City had even promised that if the crisis of Black Rock City could be resolved, Black Rock City would never forget his contributions and would even give him the qualifications of a reserve resident!”

“Tang Zhen didn’t care about the qualifications to become a resident of Black Rock City. However, he had no choice but to care about a business deal worth over 10000 brain beads.”

“The special Agent from Black Rock City was very straightforward and paid him ten level three brain pearls, which was equivalent to a thousand level one brain pearls.”

“Tang Zhen estimated the time and promised that he would deliver the goods in three days. Although the other party was a little dissatisfied after hearing this, there was nothing he could do. After all, the amount he ordered was too much. It was normal for Tang Zhen to delay the delivery of the goods by a few days.”

“After sending off the special Agent from Black Rock City, Tang Zhen finally had a moment of peace and quiet.”

“The sold well of the slingshot this time had exceeded his expectations. After calculating the total sales, it had actually exceeded 15000 brain pearls. These brain beads were equivalent to 150000 gold coins in the application store. To Tang Zhen, this was not a small amount of income!”

“However, this time, he was not in a hurry to absorb the brain Pearl. Instead, he placed it in his storage space in case he needed it.”

“Just as he was deep in thought, Murong Zi Yan walked into the cave. She looked at Tang Zhen and smiled. Then, she asked in a concerned tone, “” the matter has been resolved. You didn’t get hurt after going out this time, did you? “” ”

“””Don’t worry, I’m fine!”” ”

“Tang Zhen smiled indifferently, indicating that he had no problem.”

“Murong Ziyang nodded. She stepped forward and hugged Tang Zhen’s arm. She leaned her head against his chest and said, if you encounter such a thing again in the future, you have to be more careful. The last time you were injured, you scared me.”

“Tang Zhen nodded his head and patted Murong Zimo’s shoulder, I know. I’ll be more careful in the future. Go and make dinner. I’m a little hungry.”

Murong Ziyao obediently nodded her head and turned around to leave the cave. Tang Zhen’s expression was very relaxed.

“Not long later, Qian Long closed his stall and returned. The moment he saw Tang Zhen, he lightly punched his shoulder and asked in a concerned manner, “I saw that guy hasn’t come back for a few days, so I think you’ve dealt with him. He’s not injured, right?””

“Tang Zhen nodded and said with lingering fear, it was a little dangerous. I was almost tricked by that bastard. But fortunately, I killed him, and his men won’t be coming back.”

“Thousand Dragon nodded. since you’ve killed the bearded man, the team behind him definitely won’t let this matter go easily. We must be careful during this period of time. By the way, were there any other people around when you attacked? if there were, should we take a look? ””

“Tang Zhen shook his head and said, “ don’t worry. No one should have seen it. Even if someone heard the sound, they shouldn’t have seen my face. I should be fine.”

“The conversation ended there, and the two of them began to talk about the death bird.”

Black Rock City.

“The countless death birds were like a huge black flood, circling the entire tower, looking for a gap to enter the tower. All the windows were sealed, and the archers fired arrows one after another through the narrow holes that were deliberately left behind.”

“However, such an attack was not even worth mentioning against the massive flock of death birds. Moreover, there was a limited number of arrows in Black Rock City, and they had almost run out.”

“The entire Black Rock City had fallen into a state of panic and confusion. Although the residents were still working, they seemed to be absent-minded. From the homes of the residents who had died, the sound of low sobs could be heard from time to time.”

“Xiao Rui left home as usual, and his sister went to work. Because of the death birds, the place where she worked was temporarily changed into a bow and arrow workshop, and they produced arrows day and night.”

“However, according to his sister, the arrow shaft, feather glue, and other materials had almost been used up. It was likely that in a day’s time, the entire Black Rock City would not be able to produce another arrow.”

“The birds of death seemed to be endless. Their chirps made it hard for people to sleep all night. Even Xiao Rui couldn’t sleep well. From time to time, a few birds would hit the window, making a “ Bang Bang “ sound.”

“Yesterday, their teacher had informed them that they would be heading to the highest floor of the tower to take over the exhausted cultivators from Black Rock City and kill the death birds.”

“There were more than a thousand students in their school, and they were all under 18 years old in the entire Black Rock City. However, due to the consideration of cultivation, the students who participated in the defensive battle this time were all students with cultivation levels above level two.”

“After they arrived at the school and did roll call, everyone climbed up the stairs together and crossed the iron gate that they were usually forbidden to pass through.”

“After climbing for a while, when they passed a floor, Xiao Rui vaguely heard the guy who often bullied him boasting to his companions that there was a treasure vault at the end of this floor. He had once heard from his grandfather that all the treasures in Black Rock City were hidden here!”

Xiao Rui’s heart skipped a beat when he heard this. He secretly took note of this information.

“At the same time, a mysterious person who could make himself invisible suddenly appeared in his mind. It was this guy who gave him a thousand brain beads and used them to buy a lot of supplementary materials. Now, his cultivation had touched the threshold of rank 3!”

I wonder how many brains I’ll get from that guy for this important piece of information?
