Chapter 711 black ball (1)

Life and death on the battlefield could be decided in a flash!

In order to survive in such an environment, in addition to rich experience and skilled skills, it was more dependent on luck!

The foreign cultivators who were hiding in the buildings were unlucky, and more than a dozen of them had been shot to death!

Even though their close-combat abilities were amazing, when faced with a dense rain of bullets, they still couldn't escape the fate of being turned into sieves!

The crystal-armored Overlord couldn't keep his cool any longer when he saw the American troops using their weapons to suppress the enemy and the foreign cultivators in hiding dying one after another.

His handsome face was filled with a ferocious and twisted expression. In the depths of his eyes, there was a trace of fear.

Although he was disdainful of the residents in the town, it didn't mean that he completely ignored the weapons of his original world!

In fact, when he stepped into his original world and gained a basic understanding of the basic information here, he had already realized that this world was a tough bone to chew!

Although there were no powerful cultivators here, there were technological weapons that could destroy the entire world!

Even he was shocked by the power of that technological weapon!

If the tower he was in also had such a technological weapon, then in the future, in the process of invading other worlds, it would be successful!

Therefore, after realizing this, the other commander who had participated in this operation had already begun to lead his men to start the operation. They were ready to obtain the Super weapon called the nuclear bomb.

The servant race that he led was mainly responsible for disrupting the area around the plane's transmission channel, so that the natives here would be in danger and would have no time to spare to deal with the plane's transmission channel.

As for the other two teams, they also had their own missions, and he did not know their specific plans.

According to their past experience, as long as this series of plans were carried out, the invaded world would remain in a state of extreme chaos before the tower descended. Sometimes, they didn't even need to do anything, and the entire world would be on the verge of destruction!

However, never in his dreams would he have thought that when he interrogated the natives of this world, he would receive a piece of extremely shocking news.

This world wasn't sealed off, and it wasn't like there weren't any cultivators in it. In fact, it had long been in deep cooperation with a city!

Although the Holy Dragon City was only a Grade 6 city and its location was unknown, the Lord cultivators who heard the news still felt like they had been deceived.

It was as if they had been used by someone in this matter!

Otherwise, how could they have obtained the coordinates of their original world so easily? at the same time, they would be told that the resources here were rich and the natives were weak.

A scheme, this was definitely a scheme!

However, there was no turning back. Once the invasion began, there had to be a result.

Moreover, the resources here were extremely rich. As long as they successfully took over this world, they would not have to worry about resources for the next few hundred years!

Therefore, under such circumstances, even if the city Lord knew that this was a conspiracy, he would probably be angry and secretly happy at the same time.

However, would things really be that simple?

The Lord cultivator shook his head and dispelled all the thoughts he shouldn't have. His eyes became determined.

In any case, he had no other choice. If he wanted to live to see victory, he had to be more clear-headed and more active than others.

After all, every invasion would cause countless Warriors and cultivators to die in foreign lands. Even their corpses could not be brought back, and they could only be buried alone in the ruins of the Otherworld!

Seeing that their hiding place had been discovered and could turn into ruins at any time under the dense Metal Torrent, the Lord cultivator in charge of commanding roared and directly threw out a ball-shaped object that he carried with him!

When the other hidden foreign cultivators saw this, they followed suit and threw out the ball-shaped objects.

After these black spheres were thrown out with great force, they immediately glided a great distance away, as if they were immune to gravity.

After landing, these black balls strangely floated up from the ground and stopped at a height of 50 centimeters to 1.5 meters.

Before the American soldiers could figure out what it was, the black spheres suddenly disintegrated!

Countless crescent-shaped light blades spread out in all directions with great force!

These crescent-shaped metal blades were extremely fast and sharp. They easily pierced through the soldiers' bodies, and even the tree trunks!

The American soldiers who had their bodies pierced felt a chill run down their spines before blood began to gush out of their bodies.

Not only were the bodies of a few American soldiers pierced, but even the rifles in their hands were easily cut in two by the blades!

When the blades hit their target, they flew around like boomerangs. After spinning a few rounds in the air, they gathered together again and formed an even larger black ball.

It was quietly floating six to seven meters in the air, constantly letting out a sound similar to an overloaded machine, as if it could explode at any time!

All the American soldiers felt a sense of foreboding.

Once this giant metal ball exploded, the destructive power it produced would definitely be extremely terrifying!

He just didn't know if the armored car beside him could withstand the cutting of such a terrifying blade.

Just as the soldiers were panicking and desperately looking for cover, a muffled gunshot was heard.

The metal ball that was floating in the air trembled violently and almost collapsed. Countless crescent-shaped blades spread out, like a disturbed bee swarm, dancing around the metal ball.

All the Warriors were stunned when they saw this. The scene of the metal ball being shot down began to appear in their minds.

Some of the soldiers even aimed at the metal ball without waiting for orders and pulled the trigger without hesitation. A dense barrage of bullets whizzed out!

"Damn it, who told you to open fire?"

Smith's angry shout came through their communicators as soon as the American soldiers opened fire.

idiots, you're just looking for death by using your Broken Spears to attack the metal ball!

As if to confirm Smith's words, the bullets that were shot at the metal ball suddenly bounced back, turning into terrifying ricocheting bullets that shuttled back and forth between the American soldiers!

Screams rose and fell. The soldiers all held their heads and lay on the ground in an extremely sorry state. Even so, they were still on tenterhooks.

After all, ricocheting bullets were different from direct bullets that flew out of the muzzle. It could come from any angle, making it impossible to guard against!

As the soldiers dodged in fear, a series of muffled gunshots rang out. The metal ball in the air was knocked back and finally hit the wall, completely scattering!

Chapter 712 captured alive

At the same time that the black metal ball was shot down by Tang Zhen, several armed helicopters sped over, and the whistling bullets from the air cannons shattered the bricks on the wall!

The destructive power of these bullets was quite astonishing. They easily left rows of bright holes on the wall and killed the foreign cultivators who were hiding behind them with the remaining force!

“Whoosh, whoosh, Whoosh!”

Several missiles were launched at the same time, and they fell into the building with flames trailing behind them. In the violent roar, one-third of the entire building immediately collapsed.

A large number of foreign cultivators couldn't Dodge in time and were hit by the bullets and gravel. They fell to the ground with blood spewing from their mouths.

After suffering such a heavy blow, their bones were basically all broken, and they had completely lost their fighting strength.

“Damn it!”

Seeing this, the non-human Lord cultivator took out a fist-sized metal box from his pocket and pressed the red button on it.

Suddenly, an invisible shock wave spread out from the metal box and covered the area of 20 square kilometers around the ranch.

The slowly advancing tank suddenly stalled, and the military helicopter hovering in the air fell to the ground as if its wings had been broken!

At this moment, all electronic products had failed, and the United States “fierce offensive came to a halt.

The attacking American soldiers were also stunned at this moment. After losing the noisy electronic voice in their ears, they were at a loss.

“Now, charge out with me!”

The Lord cultivator roared and rushed out of the ruined building, followed by the alien cultivators.

Before the American soldiers could react, the foreign cultivators had already charged into the nearby forest, nimbly leaping through it!

“You want to run? dream on!”

run! a low shout came, and a figure suddenly appeared. He rushed out of the fallen helicopter and shot in the direction that the Lord cultivator had escaped.

This person was Tang Zhen, who had immediately locked onto the alien overlord after controlling the armed helicopter to land safely!

In the blink of an eye, Tang Zhen's figure had already appeared in front of the foreign tribe's Overlord. Under the other party's horrified eyes, he stretched out his hand and pulled!

An invisible hand appeared in front of the non-human Lord, making it unable to move.

bastard! He's a King level cultivator!

The foreign tribe Overlord let out a frenzied roar as he pulled out his crystal longsword in an attempt to fight for his life. However, in front of Tang Zhen, he simply did not have the slightest bit of resistance and was easily captured.

When the foreign cultivators saw this, they all roared in anger and charged forward fearlessly in an attempt to save the Lord.

"You overestimate your abilities, all of you go to hell!"

After subduing this Overlord cultivator, Tang Zhen casually waved his hand. The black metal ball that he had scattered earlier actually floated in the air and condensed again.

However, the condensation this time around completely relied on Tang Zhen's mental energy and not the strange magnetic force that the metal ball originally possessed.

Before the foreign cultivators could get close, these Boomerang-shaped metal blades suddenly spread out in all directions with Tang Zhen as the center!

A series of "PU PU" sounds rang out in the forest as the black Flying Daggers not only pierced through the bodies of the foreign cultivators, but also the tall trees.

What followed was the sound of snapping. Then, the trees fell like dominoes, one after another, and a huge open space quickly appeared in the forest.

In between the broken trees were the foreign cultivators who were covered in blood. They were lying on the ground in a mess, most of them having been killed!

At this moment, their faces were twisted with fear and disbelief in their eyes. It was as if they had never dreamed that they would encounter a King level cultivator in their original world.

When the leader of the foreign tribe that was subdued by Tang Zhen saw this, he immediately stopped struggling. He softly sighed and lowered his head with a dim gaze.

With a cold snort, Tang Zhen casually waved his hand. Those black metal Flying Daggers once again condensed into a huge ball and were kept into his storage space.

Through his previous operation, he discovered that this black metal was not only unusually hard and sharp, but it also consumed very little spiritual power when used. It was clearly a pretty good medium to long range weapon!

Tang Zhen would naturally not miss out on such a good thing. This was because he only needed to slightly modify it in order to turn it into a weapon that was quite handy.

Tang Zhen, who was carrying the leader of the foreign tribe, ignored Smith, who had just rushed into the forest and had a miserable expression on his face. He directly landed on the open land of the ranches not far away.

After Smith swept a glance at Tang Zhen, he didn't speak any nonsense. He directly ordered his men to lock up all the foreign cultivators who hadn't died with alloy shackles, afraid that they would burst out and hurt people again!

After Tang Zhen landed on the ground, he casually threw the leader of the foreign tribe onto the ground and used his mental energy to shield the surroundings, causing the outside world to be unable to hear the conversation inside.

"So, what do you know?"

Tang Zhen's voice was as cold as ice. His eyes were firmly locked onto the eyes of the foreign tribe's Overlord, and he did not hide his killing intent in the slightest.

The foreign tribe leader let out a bitter laugh and said to Tang Zhen, "What's the difference between telling me or not? will you let me go?"

Tang Zhen shook his head. of course not. But at least I'll let you die a quick death. You won't have to suffer day and night. You won't be able to die even if you want to!

When the non-human Overlord heard this, he raised his head and did not close his eyes. At the same time, he took a deep breath. After ten seconds, he opened his eyes and looked at Tang Zhen.

"Since what happens after death has nothing to do with me, why don't I just say it so that I can die more easily?"

"That's right, it's good that you can think this way!"

Tang Zhen nodded his head in approval when he heard this.

When the foreign tribe leader heard this, he looked straight at Tang Zhen. Suddenly, he revealed a mocking smile and shook his head slightly.

Tang Zhen was not the least bit surprised when he saw this. All he did was gently nod.

"Is this your answer? very good!"

As he spoke, Tang Zhen bent over and looked at the foreign tribe leader. A sinister smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, causing the heart of the foreign tribe leader to tremble.

"I, Tang Zhen, have always kept my word. Since I said that I would make you wish you were dead, I will definitely do it!

I hope that in the future, you won't regret your stupid decision today!"

Slowly standing up, Tang Zhen released the reincarnation mirror and sneered at the leader of the alien race, but I'm sure you'll regret it so much that you'll die in the future. You'll never know how terrifying it is if you haven't experienced that kind of endless torture!

As soon as he finished speaking, Tang zhenxu lifted up the body of the foreign Lord and threw him towards the reincarnation mirror.

At the moment the mirror door was broken, the Lord's soul left his body and entered the reincarnation mirror.

His body fell to the ground with his eyes closed. He was reduced to an empty shell without a soul.

use all means to search his memories. If it doesn't work, let the soul-gnawing beast devour him!

Tang Zhen's eyes revealed a cold glint as he instructed the overseer in the reincarnation mirror.

When the overseer heard this, a cruel and sinister smile appeared on his face. He immediately nodded in agreement and turned around to collect the soul of the Lord of the foreign race!

Tang Zhen glanced at Smith, who was cleaning up the battlefield, and called him over. After giving him a few instructions, he directly returned to the tower world.

Chapter 713 Prison Break (1)

As the saying goes, "to cure a disease, one must solve the root of the problem. To cut the grass, one must cut the root!"

Although the foreign cultivators who acted as the vanguard were quite happy, it was not impossible to deal with them. It was only a matter of time before they were completely eliminated.

The most crucial point was still the tower that had yet to descend!

No matter how Tang Zhen tried to fill up the hole in the original world, the source would not be affected. In fact, the more he filled it, the more the hole would leak!

Therefore, the wisest way was to solve the problem at the root and completely destroy the city that invaded the original world. Only then would they be able to rest easy.

Of course, the mastermind behind the scenes could not be let off. Otherwise, if they were allowed to play tricks in private, Holy Dragon City would suffer another disaster sooner or later.

One could only be a thief for a thousand days, but there was no such thing as guarding against a thief for a thousand days. Therefore, this "thief" must be killed with heavy blows. He must not be given a chance to rise again!

Because this thief had touched Tang Zhen's roots, Holy Dragon City had fallen into a huge crisis. A little carelessness would cause a great loss to their vitality.

That was why he had never felt such an uncontrollable desire to kill.

After returning to the Holy Dragon City, Tang Zhen briefly checked the battle report from the overseas region. After confirming that the battle would end soon, he ordered his assistant to bring a foreign tribe merchant to the city Lord's Hall.

This foreign merchant wasn't very old, and he was wearing a long robe made of a special fabric. He had an extraordinary bearing, and he looked like a wandering poet.

After seeing Tang Zhen, this foreign tribe merchant gave a slight bow. After which, he quietly looked at Tang Zhen with a trace of curiosity in his eyes.

Many foreign tribes were very interested in Tang Zhen's story, and this foreign tribe merchant was clearly one of them.

I heard that you know the location of the grassland where the giant seven-colored flower bloomed. You can tell me now.

Tang Zhen looked at the foreign merchant and said indifferently, "I heard that you don't want a reward, but rather the right to become a resident of Holy Dragon City. I can promise you this.

However, because you are not a human, you can only be a reserve resident for the time being. You will only be able to become an official resident after ten years.

This is a rule that was set long ago and can not be changed because of you, do you understand?"

A trace of joy immediately appeared on the foreign merchant's face when he heard this. He once again bowed to Tang Zhen.

"Thank you from the bottom of my heart, great city Lord. It was you who gave me the opportunity to become a part of this powerful and beautiful city. These are definitely the happiest days of my life.

As for the seven-colored flower plain you mentioned, I do know that place, because I once accidentally entered it!"

The foreign merchant glanced at the three-dimensional electronic map in the city Lord's Hall and slowly walked over.

what an exquisite item. It actually condensed the landscape of thousands of mountains and rivers. It's really amazing!

The foreign merchant sighed and complimented. He then looked at a mountain range on the map and said, "City Lord, you only need to follow this mountain range until you encounter a boundless swamp, and then enter through a gap in the swamp to reach the grassland!

I once accidentally entered it and lived there for half a year before leaving by boat."

Tang Zhen nodded his head when he heard this. He inquired about the specific situation of the grassland before sending the foreign tribe merchant off with a smile.

At this moment, Tang Zhen's heart also sighed in relief.

As long as he found the grassland and met the wise man that the goddess of knowledge, Terrell, mentioned, Tang Zhen might know who the mastermind was. He could also determine the exact location of the two invading towers from the mouth of the wise man!

Time waits for no one. Tang Zhen did not hesitate. He simply packed his things and immediately set off.

Although the journey this time around was not too far, Tang Zhen had still made full preparations so that he could calmly deal with any situation.

After all, Holy Dragon City was currently being coveted by hidden enemies. Who knew if the other party would target him? if they really wanted to wait for an opportunity to kill him, Tang Zhen would not be completely unprepared.

The next step was to hurry on their journey, so there was no need to say more.

While Tang Zhen was in a hurry to find the seven-colored grassland, the former world's American Alliance was also in a state of turmoil.

About seven hundred kilometers away from the dimensional gateway, there was a huge prison that held many extremely vicious criminals.

The security level here was quite high. There had been several prison riots in history, but in the end, no one had been able to rush out of the prison. They were all blocked by the tall walls and thick iron gates.

Of course, no matter how high the wall was, it couldn't stop a living person. The reason why the prisoners couldn't escape was that the security here was extremely tight, and there were almost no loopholes to exploit.

However, such a method could only be used to deal with prisoners. If they were to face an armed invasion from the outside, the defense here would be nothing at all.

As usual, today was a very normal day. The prisoners were moving according to their work and rest schedule, and the prison guards were handing over their work as usual. Everything was in order.

However, not long after, the guards at the prison gate were surprised to see a heavy vehicle pulling a container speeding over and directly crashing into the prison gate.

Through the window of the driver's cabin, the guards could clearly see the unmasked pilot's fierce eyes!

Before the guards could sound the alarm, the heavy-duty car directly hit the gate and sent the alloy welded gate flying.

At this moment, the guard finally touched the alarm button. However, when he pressed it, there was no response at all. The sharp alarm did not sound.

"Bastard, what happened?"

The guard shouted and was about to grab the walkie-talkie, but suddenly his eyes blurred and he felt a cold pain in his heart.

A tall man wearing a mask and a camouflage uniform let out a strange laugh and slowly pulled out a military knife from his chest.

Before the guard lost consciousness, he saw the container being kicked open, and then countless tall masked men jumped down one after another. They were all wearing different kinds of camouflage clothes and holding rifles in their hands.

The most impressive thing was that almost all of them carried a long saber on their backs, which looked cold and awe-inspiring!

At this time, the number of armed men gathered at the prison gate was close to 200. They quickly spread out and fired at the prison guards who had heard the news.

Amidst the continuous gunfire, the two sides officially began exchanging fire.

These prison guards were well-equipped and had good combat power. Their attacks and cover were very organized.

However, who would have thought that these armed men's shooting accuracy would be so high that it was frightening. Their movements were also extremely agile. They were completely at the level of a Soldier King.

The prison guards who had rushed over immediately cried out in alarm. After confirming that they were no match for him, they immediately chose to retreat and ask for help, leaving behind a ground full of corpses.

After the armed forces managed to force the prison guards to retreat, they immediately followed up with another attack and went deep into the prison.

Chapter 714

The prison was usually dead, and the tense and oppressive atmosphere almost drove people crazy.

Therefore, when the gunshot was heard, the prisoners were stunned at first, then showed a hint of surprise on their faces. Some of them even started to dance with their fat butts.

"God, what's that sound? did you doze off today?"

The sound of cheering rose and fell, as if it was a Festival.

When the militants charged in, the prisoners had already been screaming for a long time. While they were screaming for freedom, they were also calling for the militants to save them.

There were also some prisoners who watched coldly from the side, secretly guessing the purpose of these militants. They maintained a cautious attitude to avoid stepping into Muddy Waters.

After all, an armed Prison Break was not a small matter. No one would believe that they had no ulterior motives for doing such a thing.

Therefore, the wisest way was to wait and see!

After another round of intense gunfire, the bodies of more than a dozen prison guards fell to the ground, and the tightly shut door was kicked open.

After that, the eyes of the militants gleamed with ferocity as they slowly walked to the entrance of the prison cells. They reached out and grabbed the tightly shut electromagnetic prison door.

Because the electromagnetic door was set to shut down the power supply, it could not be opened even though the power system of the prison had been destroyed.

"Hey, big guy, are you going to tear the fence?"

brother, this is an alloy door. You can't open it. You'd better find the key quickly!

"Muscle man, if you can pull this iron door open, I'll wash my ass clean and let you play with it for a day!"

After seeing the armed men's actions, for a moment, there was a continuous stream of foul language, causing the armed men at the door to frown.

"Shut up!"

A rough and hoarse voice sounded, carrying a few traces of disdain and anger. That brutal gaze swept over, causing many prisoners to turn their heads guiltily.

Seeing this, the armed man nodded his head in satisfaction. Then, with a loud roar, he pulled the iron door down!

All the prisoners were shocked when they saw this. They looked at the armed men with fear and vigilance.

"Oh God, you're a real man!"

Jack, hurry up and pray. Your ass will definitely be F * cked rotten by this fierce man, I'm sure of it!

buddy, thank you for coming to save us. You must be an angel sent by God!

Although the prisoners who were unexpectedly freed were talking non-stop, they did not run out in a swarm. Instead, they lined up and slowly walked out of their cells with cautious expressions.

They swept a glance at the masked militants who were armed with loaded guns, and their eyes flickered a few times before they quickly gathered in the square.

At this moment, even the fiercest prisoners became well-behaved, because everyone knew that these armed men were not to be trifled with. Since they could shoot the prison guards, they naturally would not be polite to the prisoners.

Once they were provoked, they would have to eat a few iron peanuts!

Especially the way the armed men tore down the metal door, it was enough to prove that they were perverts. When they killed people, they didn't even blink their eyes, so they were not to be trifled with.

He hoped that their target was not him, or it would be too unfortunate. They would rather continue to live in prison than be targeted by a group of perverts!

These prisoners prayed in secret, but there was no expression on their faces. Finally, they were driven away by the armed forces and gathered at the site where they usually did their activities.

Surprisingly, these guys, who were usually the most unruly, were now in good order. Even though there were thousands of people present, no one dared to speak.

At this moment, on the platform in the square, there was a handsome man standing. He was the only one among the militants who was not wearing a mask.

However, for some reason, when everyone saw his face, they had a strange feeling that they couldn't describe. It was as if he was different from normal people.

The man glanced at the silent prisoners, grinned, and ordered his men to open the row of boxes in front of him.

All kinds of guns and knives appeared in front of the prisoners, which made them shudder with fear. now, you can take these weapons and leave, or you can do nothing and wait for help here, and then continue to spend the rest of your lives in this narrow cell!

The man roared at the prisoners with an excited expression. His words seemed to have a bewitching power, "But I want to tell you that you only have one chance to choose. If you miss it, you will regret it for the rest of your life!"

"There's one more thing I have to tell you. Near City X, we've buried tons of gold and gemstones that are enough to drive people crazy.

As long as you dare to explore, these treasures may belong to you!

Don't think that I'm trying to make you happy, because these treasures do exist. As long as you take them out, you'll be able to get half of them as a reward!

With this money, you can live a life of luxury and wine, and enjoy life to your heart's content!"

When the prisoners below the high platform heard this, they looked disdainful. They thought to themselves, "if there were treasures, why would they tell us? they would have dug them up long ago.

However, there were also people who were skeptical. Some even believed it completely because they felt that these militants had no need to lie.

Thinking of the tons of gold and gemstones, their hearts beat wildly, and their eyes flashed with a hint of greed.

The man on the high platform smirked, as if he didn't care about what the others thought. He was just casually mentioning the treasure.

In fact, the clearer you were about some things, the more suspicious people would be. It was better to be vague, which would be more credible.

After all, wealth moved people's hearts, not to mention such an amazing amount of wealth. So, under the influence of greed, even if they had doubts, these greedy guys were very likely to give it a try!

The trap was right in front of them, and there was no need for anyone to push it. The greedy ones would jump in by themselves.

This was human nature, driven only by profit and desire!

Alright, you can choose your own weapons now. The map of the hidden treasure has already been printed. As long as you go and search for it, I guarantee that you won't be disappointed!

After the man finished speaking, he jumped down from the stage and quickly left the prison under the protection of the armed men.

The rest of the prisoners looked at each other and finally swarmed forward to snatch the weapons.

As for the thick pile of treasure maps, there was nothing left either. They had all been taken by the prisoners.

However, during the fight, not many people noticed that the weapons and treasure maps were stained with some sticky liquid.

When the liquid came into contact with his skin, it didn't take long before it seeped into the depths of his skin as if it were alive.

Then, without any organization, these prisoners swarmed out and rushed straight to the unguarded prison gate, disappearing in the blink of an eye!

Chapter 715 Vicious means (1)

This wasn't the first time foreign cultivators had used this strange liquid!

When it was first used on the townspeople, it caused their bodies to mutate, which raised the alarm of the United States.

After swallowing the slime, the metabolism of the townspeople became extremely abnormal. Not only were they constantly hungry, but they were also full of aggression.

In the words of the guards, it was as if they were not facing humans, but a bunch of brutal and greedy carnivorous beasts!

When their bloodthirsty gazes locked onto you, you would feel an intense sense of danger. It was as if your blood had already frozen, and your limbs could not help but start trembling.

In the natural world, there would sometimes be a situation where a ferocious beast would hunt for food, but the prey would just stand there and let the other party devour it. Both were the same.

After the townspeople consumed the slime, they began the process of transforming from omnivorous creatures to carnivores.

However, in the process of transformation, their rationality began to gradually disappear, and in its place was their greedy nature and instinctive desire!

According to Tang Zhen's speculations, this situation was only the initial performance. As for what the future would look like, it was still unknown.

The American side was very troubled by this because the number of townspeople who swallowed the slime was not just a few, but thousands!

After these people had been isolated, they had received the attention of countless people from the outside world. Everyone wanted to know what exactly had happened to them.

Although the experts had confirmed that there were no obvious abnormalities inside the townspeople's bodies after a careful examination, the changes in their personalities and bodies were obvious to all.

To say that he was fine under such circumstances was no doubt self-deception!

In fact, the American personnel in charge of the treatment knew very well that the townspeople were no longer pure humans.

It was just a feeling. It was as if he could tell the difference at a glance when facing different species!

One day, when they mutated again, it was very likely that they would directly turn into monsters and attack the humans around them without any humanity. They might even directly treat humans as food!

Such a situation must not be allowed to happen, or the consequences would be unimaginable!

Although these townspeople were pitiful and were all innocent victims, this didn't mean that they could be unscrupulous.

This was because when they transformed into monsters, they would cause great harm to their original world. This was no different from adding hail to snow to the American Alliance!

Therefore, the leaders of the United States alliance could not allow such a thing to happen!

The top-secret order had long been given to the guards. As long as the residents of the town showed signs of danger after losing control, they could kill them directly and not let a single one go!

It was easy to imagine that once this matter was exposed, it would shake the entire world, and the US alliance would become the target of countless people!

The United States was also in a difficult situation and could only pray that things didn't develop in the worst direction.

There was no room for discussion on such matters. As the saying goes, 'a little impatience will spoil a great plan', this was actually the truth.

Through this incident, Tang Zhen also had a deeper understanding of these National Buildings.

He had originally thought that when these buildings invaded the other world, they would choose to crush them with force and fight head-on with real swords and Spears!

But now, it was certain that when they invaded the other world, they were completely unscrupulous, and conquering by force was just one of them!

.....

He turned back to look at the prisoners.

It wouldn't take long for the prisoners to realize that their bodies were beginning to mutate.

Compared to the residents of the small town, these mutated prisoners were undoubtedly more terrifying, and the danger factor was at least several times higher!

Once they started wreaking havoc, the damage they would cause was simply unimaginable.

In fact, the plan of this group of foreign cultivators was very simple. They were going to use these ferocious prisoners to cause large-scale chaos in the original world!

This was not the first time they had used this method. In addition, they were very clear about the effects of the sticky liquid, so they had tried it many times when they were conquering the other world!

In order to ensure that the plan could be carried out smoothly, the foreign cultivators even used money as bait and then used the special characteristics of this strange mucus to infinitely amplify the ferocity and desire in their hearts.

In this way, he could easily achieve his desired goal.

Half an hour later, the American military arrived.

When they saw the empty prison and the bodies and blood all over the ground, they were all confused. No one had expected that someone would attack a heavily-guarded prison in broad daylight!

The most incredible thing was that the militants even provided weapons to the prisoners and allowed them to leave.

Everyone knew that once these guys came to society, they would cause a great threat to Social Security.

What are these lunatics trying to do? an armed riot?

Therefore, without any hesitation, all the police forces in the nearby areas were dispatched to assist in capturing these escapees.

There were police sirens everywhere, and the checkpoints on the road were also one after another. All the police officers were in heavy armor, as if they were facing a great enemy.

The American police tried to bring all the prisoners to justice before they caused more chaos.

As for the militants who had participated in the prison break, the American police had also quickly confirmed their identities after careful analysis.

It turned out that the military police had been pursuing the group of foreign cultivators, and they had robbed the gun shop in broad daylight. Then, they had attacked the prison without any restraint and released all the prisoners.

The foreign cultivators were right under their noses, but the American military couldn't catch them. They were even more ashamed after the prison break!

Smith, who received the report, didn't hesitate at all. He immediately led his Secret Service personnel and took a plane to the scene of the incident.

But after a careful search, the American military was surprised to find that they couldn't determine the direction the foreign cultivators had fled in!

Just like the last time, these foreign cultivators disappeared without a trace after retreating. No matter what methods were used, they couldn't find their traces. After Smith saw this scene, he couldn't help but sigh inwardly. Compared to Tang Zhen, their abilities were really too lacking.

When facing these foreign cultivators, he was even more helpless and had been played around by them.

It was a pity that Tang Zhen had something to do now. He could only rush over once a day and quickly return after staying for a while.

Therefore, they couldn't count on him now, as that would make the American Alliance seem too incompetent.

Therefore, Smith gritted his teeth and immediately mobilized all the people he could mobilize to search for traces of the foreign cultivators.

Up to now, nearly four hundred foreign cultivators had been killed or arrested. The remaining six hundred or so foreign cultivators had yet to be found.

As long as they existed, the United States would not be able to live in peace.

Hopefully, Tang Zhen would be able to determine the location of the invading tower one day earlier and eliminate the hidden danger from the root. Otherwise, the original world would be in danger!

Chapter 716 lake monster

Sighing softly, Smith didn't dwell on this matter. Instead, he asked a prisoner who had just been captured about the entire process of the prison break.

When he had heard the foreign cultivator claim that there was a large amount of treasure near the dimensional portal, he seemed to have vaguely understood their intentions.

It turned out that they wanted to use these greedy prisoners to gather near the passage and disturb the stability of the area.

The American military would definitely be in a terrible state. While dealing with them, it would likely affect the protection of the dimensional portal, allowing foreign cultivators to take advantage of the situation!

Or could it be that the foreign cultivators had other motives that had yet to be revealed?

But so what if they knew this? at the very least, with the American Alliance's current means, they were helpless against these foreign cultivators who appeared and disappeared like ghosts. They were always being led by the nose.

Smith leaned back in his chair, constantly looking at the communication device on his wrist. He looked at the message he had just received and frowned again.

He raised his head and looked in the direction of the dimensional portal, his face full of worry.

Tang Zhen flew at a rapid speed. After taking a few breaks along the way, he finally saw the huge Lake that the foreign merchant had mentioned.

Fortunately, due to the improvement of his phone, the power of his cultivation skills had been raised to the limit, and the time limit could be ignored. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to fly for such a long time.

Through the map view, Tang Zhen could confirm that the lake was extremely large. It was at least 300000 square kilometers. It was indeed boundless!

According to the alien merchant, he was attacked by a water monster when he was on a boat to the island in the lake. He survived the attack and accidentally entered a crack in the mountain at the edge of the lake.

After passing through the crack, a huge grassland appeared in front of him. Huge seven-colored flowers bloomed in the grassland!

The most amazing thing was that the valley where the grassland was located was completely surrounded by a mountain range, and there was no other exit except for this crack in the mountain.

If one were to look from the sky, they would not be able to discover the existence of this grassland.

Tang Zhen's figure rapidly flew across the surface of the lake. At the same time, he switched to the map's perspective and continued to search. As expected, other than a vast mountain range, there was no grassland that was surrounded by mountains.

It was obvious that the alien merchant was telling the truth. If they wanted to enter the seven-colored flower plain, they had to enter through the crack in the mountain.

Otherwise, the grassland would have been known by others long ago and not just a few people who had heard of it.

It seemed that it was impossible to use any tricks. It was better to search for the crack in the mountain with peace of mind. Even if the location was extremely hidden, he believed that he would be able to find it after careful search.

While looking for the entrance to the seven-colored grassland, Tang Zhen observed the boundless lake below him. From time to time, he could see astonishingly large water monsters swimming past under his eyes.

The largest water monster was shaped like an eel and was three to four hundred meters long. It was a behemoth!

When Tang Zhen flew above the water monster, the water monster clearly sensed Tang Zhen's aura. Its body actually trembled for a moment before it desperately rushed towards a cave at the bottom of the mountain.

Tang Zhen originally did not have the mood to care about the monsters here. However, when he thought that these monsters were all local snakes, they would definitely know the exact location of the entrance to the plains. Hence, he had the intention to inquire from them.

Don't underestimate these high-level monsters. After they advanced to the Lord tier, they began to develop intelligence. Some of the monsters' intelligence even far exceeded the hundred races of the continent.

Of course, this type of highly intelligent monster had always been very rare!

Tang Zhen's body flashed. He was like a sharp arrow as he charged into the water, directly shooting towards the bottom of the lake that was several hundred meters deep.

Due to the water's resistance, his speed was slightly reduced. However, he was still able to reach the bottom of the lake in a very short time. He grabbed the 3-star horde leader monster's tail.

With both hands, Zhen Tang's ten fingers pierced into the eel monster's tail muscles and then pulled it back with all his might!

The monster that had half of its body in the cave immediately wailed. Its huge body immediately retreated from the cave and turned around to bite Tang Zhen.

This monster's head was almost the size of a train. Now that it had opened its mouth to bite, countless sharp teeth flashed with a cold light. It was truly extremely terrifying!

Only at this moment did Tang Zhen discover that this monster actually still had four sharp claws. However, they were usually hidden within its skin and would only pop out when it was attacking!

Tang Zhen released his hands upon seeing this. His body suddenly rushed forward and disappeared without a trace in the blink of an eye.

When the monster saw Tang Zhen disappear, it had yet to return to its senses when it felt an intense pain coming from the top of its head, and it almost fainted from the pain.

At this moment, it had already confirmed that Tang Zhen was above its head. Moreover, he could take its life at any time.

The monster directly gave up resisting when it sensed the terrifying aura emitted by Tang Zhen. Its body went soft and sank to the bottom of the lake, allowing Tang Zhen to do whatever he wanted.

It had also thought it through clearly. If Tang Zhen wanted its little life, it would be useless no matter how it struggled. It would definitely be difficult to escape death!

Since that was the case, he might as well give up resistance and seek a quick death!

Tang Zhen was not interested in the brain of this monster. When he saw that it had tactfully given up on resisting, he no longer made things difficult for it. Instead, he used his mental energy to communicate with it.

"Do you understand what I'm saying? if you don't, I'll kill you!"

The eel monster, which was originally feigning death, suddenly trembled. Its huge eyes swept over Tang Zhen. After it turned two rounds, it hurriedly made contact with Tang Zhen's mental energy.

"Yes, I will. What's the matter?"

Tang Zhen was happy when he heard this. He didn't expect that this monster's tone would be so similar to the rich captain's. Both of them had a trace of forthright air.

"There's a crack in the middle of the lake, and behind it is a grassland with seven-colored flowers. Do you know that place?"

"I know. Do you want to go? I'll Take You There!"

The communication between the man and the monster was simple and clear. In less than three sentences, the eel monster had directly carried Tang Zhen and headed straight for the entrance.

Tang Zhen did not expect that this monster would be so tactful. He had much less trouble.

In order to take care of Tang Zhen, this eel monster even floated to the surface of the water. It carried Tang Zhen on its head as it rapidly swam away, frightening all the monsters along the way into hiding.

When Tang Zhen saw the behavior of this monster, it was obvious that someone had taught it before. He curiously asked, "Other than me, have you come into contact with any other cultivators?"

The eel monster immediately replied, "Yes, it's the old monster who lives in the grassland!

Seeing the curiosity on Tang Zhen's face, the eel monster also became spirited. It immediately used its mental energy and began to explain to Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen slightly nodded as he listened. A pensive expression flashed across his eyes.

Chapter 717 The Dreamland (1)

At this moment, the eel monster seemed to have opened up a Chatterbox, and it spoke endlessly.

"To tell you the truth, I've been living in the grassland that you're going to go to since I was a child, and I often meet that old monster.

You don't know how annoying he is. He always tells us some nonsense, and we're getting calluses from listening to him.

That feeling, thinking about it now, made people tremble all over!

I couldn't take it anymore, so I ran out of the grassland. I was only Level 1 at that time, and I was almost eaten by other water monsters!

In the end, after so many years, my body has grown bigger and bigger. I wanted to go back and listen to him, but I can't do it anymore!"

The eel monster's tone immediately turned gloomy when it said this. Tang Zhen did not know if it was an illusion, but he actually felt a trace of sadness from its mental energy.

It was rare for monsters to have emotions and be sentimental.

From Tang Zhen's point of view, this eel monster was more like a living human and not a cold-blooded and malevolent monster. It had merely entered the wrong body.

The reason for such a strange situation must be related to that "old monster"!

Tang Zhen was also extremely interested in the old monster that the eel monster had mentioned. He secretly guessed the other party's identity as a glint flashed across his eyes.

The monster's path of advancement was far crueler and harsher than the cultivators of the hundred races in Lou Cheng. Other than the bloodline, other external forces were also indispensable.

To be able to gain enlightenment from an ordinary monster and allow it to grow to its current level, this 'old monster' was clearly no ordinary person!

Perhaps he was the wise man in Harrell's prophecy. He was a special existence that could help Tang Zhen solve the mystery and live for an unknown number of years!

This eel monster was definitely the king of this water area, so it went straight to the crack in the mountain without any obstacles.

Not long after, Tang Zhen saw a tall cliff that seemed to have been cut by knives and axes. Its entire body was slippery and covered with emerald green moss.

In the area near the bottom of the cliff, there was a huge type of aquatic grass that looked like bamboo, with strings of pale yellow flowers that looked like bells.

Under the clear water surface, many big fat fish were swimming around, fighting to eat the roots of this aquatic plant, making crisp “ka Cha” “ka Cha” sounds.

With the arrival of the eel monster, the big fish immediately scattered and disappeared without a trace.

Half of the eel monster’s head was revealed. It looked at the water grass in front of it that was so dense that not even the wind could pass through. It said to Tang Zhen, the entrance to the grassland is just behind the water grass. You can just go in directly!

Tang Zhen gently nodded his head. He jumped down from the head of the eel monster and landed on the wide leaves of the seaweed in an incomparably light manner.

“Many thanks for sending me off!”

Waving his hand at the eel monster, Tang Zhen’s figure crossed the grass and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

The eel monster stared in the direction that Tang Zhen had disappeared in for a moment before shaking its head and mumbling to itself.

the old monster said that a King level cultivator would come to find him many years later. He even asked me to bring that cultivator here. It seems that it should be this guy!

At this point, the figure of the old monster suddenly appeared in the mind of the eel monster. Its huge body suddenly trembled and it quickly dived into the water, sneaked back to its cave and hid.

It had already made up its mind to find a way to avoid that terrifying cultivator. At least, before it felt safe, it would never swim out of the cave!

Tang Zhen, who was extremely afraid of the eel monster, was currently standing in front of a deep cave that was about two meters tall.

A stream of clear water glowed with a silver light. It was flowing out of the hole in the mountain and into the boundless Lake behind him.

The water current was very shallow and had just reached his knees. After Tang Zhen swept a glance and confirmed that there was no problem, he stepped in.

After entering the cave, Tang Zhen discovered that the interior of the cave was actually very wide. There were countless shimmering mushrooms on the stone walls on both sides, as well as all kinds of insects.

The fluorescent light they emitted illuminated the cave, and with the Silver River water, it made the place look hazy and exquisite.

Tang Zhen’s arrival seemed to have disturbed them. A group of small fluorescent fish in the river immediately swam against the current. They were like a swimming band of light that pointed out the path for him to advance.

Tang Zhen slowly walked forward in the stream. As he walked, he would observe the beautiful scenery in the cave. Unknowingly, he had already walked a few kilometers.

After passing through a corner, Tang Zhen suddenly felt that the area in front of him had suddenly opened up. Soon after, an enormous exit that was tens of meters tall was reflected in his eyes.

Looking out from the exit, a silver ribbon-like River could be seen winding across the soft carpet-like grassland. It was a beautiful sight.

Around this River, there were giant flowers about ten meters tall. They were bright purple and red, and their fragrance assailed the nose. One breath of it could refresh one's heart.

One-meter-tall fairy-like creatures were flapping their colorful wings and shuttling between the flowers, letting out crisp laughter from time to time.

In addition to these elves, there were also a few colorful and lovely creatures on the grass. They were wandering around carefreely and seemed to be at ease.

Tang Zhen quietly watched the scene before him. He suddenly felt as though he had entered a fairy tale world. It was as though this place was a true paradise.

Originally, he had thought that the scenery of the elven garden was already quite good, but compared to the scene in front of him, it was simply a hundred thousand miles apart!

How could such a paradise be created?

Tang Zhen glanced at the two white dragonbirds that flew past in the sky. He discovered that the sky here was a little special. After taking a closer look, he discovered that it was actually an incomparably huge transparent barrier that completely covered this entire grassland.

No wonder the grassland couldn't be detected from the sky. Perhaps the barrier was something like a one-way glass, and the scenery inside couldn't be seen from the outside. It could even simulate the shape of mountains and rivers to confuse the creatures in the building world that got close to it.

As for whether there were other methods to avoid detection, Tang Zhen was temporarily unable to determine.

Taking a deep breath, Tang Zhen slowly walked out of the hole and stepped on the soft green grass that was like a carpet.

However, he did not continue forward. Instead, he looked at the empty space in front of him as if he was sizing something up.

About half a minute later, a faint figure condensed out of thin air, forming the image of a woman in a light yellow dress.

The woman looked very similar to the flower elves. She also had a pair of rainbow-colored wings on her back. The only difference was that she was 1.7 meters tall and her body was made of pure energy!

Although she appeared to be a little illusionary, her cultivation was already not inferior to Tang Zhen. In fact, it was even slightly higher.

Tang Zhen did not dare to lower his guard in the slightest when facing such an expert.

Although he had a guess that the woman in front of him was the energy incarnation of some King-tier monster, he still didn't dare to use the [monster detector] to detect her, in case it angered her.

The only thing that caused Tang Zhen to feel at ease was that this woman's body was emitting an extremely peaceful and natural aura. Moreover, she gave off a frighteningly clean feeling. One would feel extremely close to her with a single glance.

At this moment, the yellow-dressed woman was using her bright eyes to look at Tang Zhen. After carefully sizing him up for a while, she finally revealed a smile and softly laughed. It was as melodious as a silver bell and like the sound of nature that could calm one's mind.

Chapter 718 Residents of dream city _Tang Zhen's heart also relaxed after hearing the laughter of this yellow-dressed lady. A trace of a warm smile was revealed on his face.

"Hello, outsider, Welcome to the City of dreams!"

Tang Zhen also smiled and replied when he heard this, the dream city is indeed worthy of its name. It makes one feel as if they are in a dream. However, if I may ask, where is the city? " it's not impossible to go to the city of dreams. You just need the residents here to show you the way. But if you want to enter the tower area, you have to get past me first. Otherwise, you'll never be able to enter!

Tang Zhen nodded. He had also sensed the strangeness of this place. Those scenes seemed to be right in front of him. However, when he sensed them, he discovered that they were far away on the horizon. It was as if they were all illusory images.

This magical spatial effect did not seem to be composed of pure runic magic circles, and he was still unable to crack it with his current strength.

Sensing that the yellow-dressed lady did not have the slightest malicious intent, Tang Zhen smiled and said, "If you want me to pass, you have to at least give me a question, right?"

of course there's a question. It's to see what gift you can give me. As long as I'm satisfied with the gift, I'll let you in!

After the yellow-dressed lady finished speaking, she stared intently at Tang Zhen. Her eyes revealed an expression of anticipation.

Tang Zhen revealed a strange expression. He seemed to have thought of something. With a wave of his hand, a large pile of items immediately floated in the air.

This was a gift he bought for the little girl Murong Ziyue, but because the little girl was strictly supervised by Mr. Mo in her cultivation, Tang Zhen never had the chance to give it to her personally. As a result, it had been kept in the storage space.

look, I have candy, chocolate, a mirror, dolls, or video games. You can choose any one of them.

Tang Zhen began to introduce the items as if he was talking about his family's treasures. However, he had only said a few words when he saw the eyes of the yellow-dressed Lady Light up. She grabbed all the items in front of her and hugged them in her arms.

"Alright, I like these gifts very much, you pass!"

After he finished speaking, he did not wait for Tang Zhen to ask any more questions. He then hugged those items and disappeared in a flash, as if he was afraid that Tang Zhen would take them back.

Tang Zhen gently smiled when he saw this. Only after he confirmed that the scene in front of him had become incomparably real did he take relaxed steps and slowly walk forward.

There was nothing to say about the environment here. Not only was the scenery exceptionally beautiful, but even the air seemed to contain rich energy, which was extremely suitable for the cultivation of Lou Cheng's cultivators.

If the Holy Dragon City had such an environment, in less than three to five years, there would be countless Lord-level cultivators!

Therefore, if it was possible, Tang Zhen would definitely spare no expense to create a similar environment in Holy Dragon City. He would definitely benefit endlessly in the future.

Just as Tang Zhen was slowly walking forward, the creatures on the grassland were also curiously sizing him up as they constantly chit-chatted.

Many of them were monsters, but they didn't have the hostility of monsters. Instead, they were filled with a peaceful and natural aura, blending in with the entire environment.

If Tang Zhen's guess was correct, they were actually the residents of this dream city!

Tang Zhen was walking when he saw a few chubby little fellows that were not even a meter tall running over. Two of them were even continuously falling over while running.

They were wearing clothes made of flower petals, which simply covered their bodies, making them look very bright.

Under Tang Zhen's gaze, these little fellows with large, adorable eyes, onion-like heads, and a few leaves on their heads, stumbled and ran in front of him.

"Outsider, are you the one who gave big sister elf that kind of endearing, delicious food?"

Under the encouraging gazes of his companions, a little fellow walked out. He did his best to raise his head to look at Tang Zhen and asked in a childish voice.

Tang Zhen guessed that it should be talking about some kind of candy. However, because he didn't know the name, it had a scratching and indescribable expression of urgency.

As for the big sister elf, she must be the yellow-dressed woman.

that's right. I gave it to you. Is there a problem? "

Onionhead's eyes lit up and immediately looked at Zhen Tang with an ingratiating expression. His chubby hands clenched into fists and he drooled. can you give me some too? big sister elf only gave us one piece, and we really don't have enough.

Tang Zhen smiled and took out a bag of candy. He said to Onionhead, "I can give it to you, but you have to answer a question of mine. How about it?"

Onionhead stared at the candy, swallowing his saliva and nodding his head.

then can you tell me where I can find a very old man who has lived here for a long time? "

Onionhead furrowed his brows as he tried to recall who the old man was.

The other onionheads had the same expression. They were deep in thought and sighed after a long time.

hey, I've never seen the old man you're talking about. What should I do? "

Onionhead looked at the candy in Tang Zhen's hand with a reluctant expression. There were even glistening tears in his eyes.

As for the other onionheads, they were on the verge of tears. They pursed their lips and looked aggrieved and unwilling.

Tang Zhen laughed out loud when he saw this. He did not make things difficult for these few little fellows and casually passed the bag of candy to them.

A few little onionheads were ecstatic as they hugged candy and jumped up. Then, they bowed to Tang Zhen and ran into the distance with candy in their arms.

However, he didn't run far before Onionhead, who was talking to Tang Zhen, ran back and said, " although I've never seen that old grandpa, the city Lord must have seen him. You just have to go and find him, he will definitely tell you!

Onionhead pointed to a building in the distance and said to Tang Zhen, " "The city Lord lives there, you should go!"

Tang Zhen smiled and nodded. After sending Onionhead off with his eyes, he turned his gaze towards the multi-colored building that looked like a Castle from a fairy tale!

There was nothing there before, but after Onionhead pointed it out, the building appeared.

It was obvious that this was another strange rule that seemed to be related to fate!

Perhaps it was just as the yellow-dressed woman had said. If there were no residents of the tower to guide the way, Tang Zhen would probably never be able to find the location of this tower!

As he thought of this, Tang Zhen began to carefully size up the dream city.

The city in front of him was built on a flat grassland. It wasn't very large, but it could definitely be called exquisite. All the details could be said to be perfect.

In front of the castle, the Silver River meandered, as if it was a moat, surrounding the entire Castle.

A rainbow-like jade Bridge stretched across the river. Under the sunlight, it glowed with a dazzling light. Other than this Rainbow Bridge, there were a few other bridges of different shapes not far away. Some were woven from emerald green vines, while others were made from large trees that directly crossed the two sides of the river.

In the shallowest part of the river, there were gemstones the size of millstones scattered in the water. A few Snow Elves were jumping across the river.

He looked around as he walked. It didn't take long for Tang Zhen to arrive at the gate of the tower.

At this moment, a team of Lou Cheng's Warriors wearing colorful armors walked out. They stood side by side along the Rainbow Bridge as if they were welcoming Tang Zhen's arrival.

There were also some soldiers in formal attire playing melodious and cheerful music, attracting countless colorful butterflies to dance above Tang Zhen's head, like falling flowers.

With a glance, Tang Zhen knew that these soldiers were all puppets. However, the craftsmanship was exquisite to the extreme. It could be said to be a work that surpassed the heavens!

A beautiful lady in a gorgeous long robe slowly walked in front of Tang Zhen and greeted him with a smile.

welcome to dream City, City Lord Tang Zhen. Our city Lord has prepared a sumptuous meal to welcome you!

Tang Zhen gently nodded upon hearing this. After which, he followed the other party and entered the interior of the tower that was like a dream Palace!

Chapter 719 Luxury and confusion (1)

Tang Zhen's heart was filled with shock after he entered the loucheng!

The decorations of this dream city could be said to be extremely luxurious. It was not an exaggeration to say that this place was completely built with rare treasures!

The walls were made of warm and fine top-grade Jade, and the huge, sparkling and resplendent gemstones were used as decorations. Each of them could be considered priceless!

In addition to the basic wall decorations, there were many precious items along the way to embellish the corners of the building.

These items seemed to be naturally formed, but they were exquisitely crafted. They were cleverly and reasonably arranged in the corridors and rooms of the building, looking quite pleasing to the eye!

For example, the mural he had just passed by was embedded with all kinds of gemstones forged from the best magic weapons. Any ordinary weapon would immediately become an indestructible magic weapon if one of them was integrated into it. The grade would not be lower than intermediate.

However, in the dream city, they were one of the materials that made up the countless murals. If one did not look carefully, no one would notice them.

Another example was the lamps used for illumination in the corridor. They were a strange plant with bronze flowers and leaves, and a number of light balls growing on the top, hanging upside down from the ceiling by thin threads.

The light ball emitted by the plant was warm and bright, and it would change color from time to time, as bright as a neon light.

In addition to its beauty, Tang Zhen also discovered that as long as one was within the range of the light, one's soul would have a feeling like a spring breeze.

To a Holy master, this kind of glowing plant that could nourish the soul and increase mental strength was a precious cultivation treasure that could only be found by chance!

The rarest thing was that even though there were so many rare treasures piled up together, they didn't give people the feeling of a nouveau riche. Instead, they were filled with a rich noble aura and seemed to contain a rich cultural heritage.

From this, it could be seen that the city Lord of dream city was an extraordinary person with profound knowledge, unique taste, and powerful strength.

Tang Zhen would inevitably feel a trace of nervousness in his heart when coming into contact with such an existence. After all, the other party had already left an extremely deep impression on him even before they had met.

Whether it was this special city hidden in the middle of the mountain, the suffocating scenery, or the decorations that were rich enough to rival a country, all of them made him feel like he had opened his eyes.

As for the residents of the building, including the woman who was leading the way, many of them gave him an unfathomable feeling.

What caused Tang Zhen to be even more shocked was that ever since he met that foreign merchant and knew the location of dream city, he had always felt as if he was being spied on along the way. It was as if everything had been planned.

It was as if someone had already seen through his fate, so they had made appropriate arrangements in advance at the most crucial places, leading him here step by step.

This was why the goddess of knowledge, Terrell's prophecy came about. When the bounty mission was just released, a foreign merchant who had entered dream city by chance came to point out the exact location for him.

With dream city's methods, if they did not want to be discovered, the foreign merchant would not be able to find and enter this place even if he smashed his head!

Therefore, Tang Zhen could conclude that this foreign merchant was definitely guided by someone. This was why he would use a very obscure and strange gaze to size him up when he saw him.

As for the eel monster that was leading the way, it was probably playing the same role. Otherwise, he might not be able to find the entrance to the dream city even if he dug three feet deep.

As the yellow-dressed woman had said, unless a resident of the city pointed out its location, outsiders would never be able to find it!

Therefore, the eel monster must be a resident of dream city. This explained why it could advance to a three-star Lord and why its way of thinking was different from ordinary monsters.

In short, this dream city was filled with mystery and strangeness. If it wasn't for the fact that Tang Zhen didn't sense any danger, he wouldn't have entered it.

Moreover, he was also very curious about the city Lord of dream city. He wanted to see what kind of existence he was.

After passing through a long passage, Tang Zhen entered a spacious hall.

The floor of this Hall was covered with an extremely fine and soft carpet. After stepping on it, one would feel as if one was in the clouds.

A large carved table about ten meters long was filled with fragrant food. The food looked, smelled, and made people drool with one look!

On the cart at the side, there were all kinds of exquisite containers, all of which were filled with wine and drinks that were like bejeweled nectar.

That magnificently dressed lady turned around and smiled. After inviting Tang Zhen to take a seat, she quietly stood to the side.

"Lady, when will your city Lord come?"

Tang Zhen asked the magnificently dressed lady beside him after sizing up the surrounding environment.

The aura of this magnificently dressed lady was obscure. Tang Zhen was unable to sense her cultivation. However, he was certain that her strength was definitely not inferior to his.

The magnificently dressed lady smiled softly at Tang Zhen when she heard this, "Please wait a moment, city Lord Tang. My city Lord is on his way back and should be back soon!"

Tang Zhen nodded his head and did not ask any more questions. Instead, he sized up the food on the table.

After watching for a while, a strange expression surfaced on Tang Zhen's face. After hesitating for a moment, he said to the magnificently dressed lady, "I wonder if you can tell me the origin of these dishes?"

Hearing this, the magnificently dressed woman slowly said, "No problem, I'll introduce them to you!"

As she spoke, the woman pointed to a huge seashell in front of Tang Zhen and said, this is a specialty of the ocean of nothingness. It's rare, but it's extremely delicious. It's one of my Lord's favorite foods.

this dish is made from a rare wild beast from the other world. It doesn't require any ingredients, and it already has an extremely delicious taste!

the dish beside you has carefully selected ingredients. It's also a delicacy from a different world, called steamed bun.

"The Buddha Jumps Over the Wall, right?"

Tang Zhen suddenly spoke indirectly. At the same time, he extended his hand and touched the Ivory chopsticks wrapped in gold and the official ceramic plate that was clearly an antique Imperial Royal use. A faint smile was revealed on his face.

"I didn't expect your esteemed city Lord to be so meticulous. Not only did you bring several delicacies from this Tang's hometown, but even the tableware was so authentic and exquisite, without the slightest deviation."

"I'm really flattered, and even a little uneasy."

Tang Zhen stood up and spoke to the magnificently dressed lady when he said this, along the way, I always felt that everything along the way seemed to have been arranged by someone. I've always been confused.

Tang Zhen paused when he said this. He swept his gaze to a corner not far away and continued with a smile, "Now that I've seen the familiar food on this table and the details of the arrangement, this Tang has a faint guess that perhaps the wise man that the goddess of knowledge, Terrell, spoke of is actually your city Lord!

As for your city Lord's ability, I have a vague guess. Perhaps it is related to time and space, and can even go back in time!

"Only this kind of ability can allow me to obtain this information from the mouths of the wise men here! The answer I want!"

When Tang Zhen said this, he turned to the main seat of the dining table and asked with a smile, "City Lord, do you think my guess is right?"

Chapter 720 Dream city's city Lord

Tang Zhen's voice had just sounded when the figure of a young man slowly appeared on the gorgeous large chair beside the dining table.

This man was dressed in a long golden robe. He was tall and well-built, and he had a faint smile on his face. However, his eyes were as deep and calm as the starry sky.

His face looked very ordinary at first glance, but when one looked at him again, he gave off a feeling of déjà vu.

It was as if this person had appeared in his life at a certain time, but he had been in too much of a hurry to notice.

However, if one observed carefully, they would find that the other party's face was extremely unfamiliar. They had never seen him before.

That feeling of déjà vu was actually an illusion!

However, the strangest thing was that when you tried to remember someone's face, you would find that no matter how hard you tried, you would never be able to remember the details of the face. There would always be a vague outline.

Tang Zhen had this kind of feeling in his heart. After trying with all his might to no avail, he gave up on this method.

However, he secretly remembered this method in his heart.

"Holy Dragon city's city Lord Tang Zhen greets dream city's city Lord!"

Tang Zhen cupped his hands toward the young man as he looked at him with a smile.

city Lord Tang, you're welcome. Please sit down and try the food I've carefully prepared. We'll talk while we eat!

Tang Zhen did not decline when he heard this. After pulling out a chair and sitting down, he once again looked at the dream city Lord.

Although the other party did not reveal any cultivation aura, Tang Zhen felt a sense of powerlessness as if he was facing the vast universe. This caused him to not dare to lower his guard.

The dream city Lord pointed at a dish in front of Tang Zhen and said with a special tone, I've heard that city Lord Tang is very knowledgeable and is proficient in runic magic circles and many secret skills. Do you know the origin of this dish? "

Tang Zhen sneered and said to the dream city Master, "City Lord must be joking. Since you already know this Tang's origins, why ask these questions?"

This is a famous dish from my hometown, how could this Tang not recognize it?"

Dream city Master nodded her head, smiling as she picked up a sparkling fruit, placing it in her mouth to take a bite, the sweet juice immediately filling her mouth.

"This is indeed a famous dish from your hometown, but this hometown is not your hometown. Or rather, it is not even a world!

That's why you can only enjoy this dish that's hundreds of years away from your original world by staying here!"

Tang Zhen's body trembled when he heard this. He raised his head to look at the dream city Lord and asked, city Lord, do you mean to create a parallel world? "

City Master dream nodded, then shook her head and explained to Tang Zhen: "It's impossible to trace back the time of the world of loucheng. In the past countless years, it has invaded countless other worlds.

Some powerful cultivators had done a statistical analysis and found that many of the invading worlds had similar mountains and landforms, and some were even exactly the same!

However, the indigenous people in these worlds and their social environments were different. However, they had many similarities!

That's why those cultivators came to the conclusion that there should be countless types of clones in these foreign worlds, which are what you call parallel worlds!"

When dream city Lord said this, he pointed at the dish in front of Tang Zhen and said, " "These dishes were meticulously prepared by the royal chef in a different world that I entered, one that was extremely similar to your world, but at a different time!

It sounds easy, but it's actually not easy to do, so these few dishes are quite precious!"

Dream city Master saw that Tang Zhen was listening with great interest, and a smile appeared at the corner of her mouth as she continued to speak.

"Of course, this world was also invaded by Lou Cheng. Although it was not destroyed, more than half of the world's origin was plundered, so it was impossible for cultivators to appear again.

The natives didn't know the specific situation, but they knew that the path of cultivation had been cut off, so they called it the Age of Chaos!"

Tang Zhen revealed a pondering expression as he asked dream city Lord,"Then what kind of plundering method did that tower use when it invaded?"

City Master dream was clearly very familiar with this matter. After hearing Tang Zhen's question, she explained, " "There are countless loucheng in the loucheng continent, and they all develop in different ways.

Most of the buildings were inclined to train a large number of residents and use the human wave tactic to crush the enemy with numbers!

Some buildings were more inclined to train elite cultivators, and any one of them could be a strong master who could fight against ten people!

There aren't many cultivators in the city you're asking about, but they're quite powerful.

Moreover, when they invaded other worlds, they preferred to use schemes to win and take advantage of the chaos!

When they first invaded that world, they used various means to stir up disputes. Then, they hid behind the scenes and fought with the native cultivators of that world while constantly plundering the world's origin.

Because the origin of that world was not hidden in the bodies of the indigenous creatures, the living creatures of that world were able to avoid a disaster. Although there were also countless deaths and injuries, they were not completely exterminated!"

After more than a hundred years, the cultivators in this city had searched through thousands of mountains and rivers, killed countless native cultivators, and finally gathered enough origin of the world to complete the task. Then, they left this world that was riddled with holes!

This was the first time Tang Zhen had heard of such a thing. He naturally listened with great interest.

He had a faint premonition that this trip was definitely not in vain!

The dream city Master was clearly a talkative person. Seeing Tang Zhen's excited look, he continued, "when Lou Cheng accepted the mission to invade a foreign world, it actually depends on luck most of the time. If he's lucky, he can invade a weak but large foreign world, and he can easily gather the world origin required for the mission.

In this case, although this Otherworld was severely damaged, it would not be destroyed!

However, if it was a small world, the world had to be completely destroyed in order to gather enough natural source for the task!

These destroyed worlds will then become breeding grounds for monsters, using the remaining natural source of the world to nurture monsters and become the hunting grounds for the level 5 towers to obtain brain jewels!"

Tang Zhen nodded his head. He had already made a similar guess. Therefore, he did not feel strange when he heard the truth at this moment!

When the two of them talked, they frequently moved their chopsticks. When they tasted the delicious food, they would also accompany it with fine wine and occasionally give a few comments.

After a while, when the dream city Master had finished talking about some secrets of the tower world, Tang Zhen finally asked the question in his heart.

"Dream city's master is extremely powerful and knowledgeable. This Tang is inferior to you, and I am very grateful for your hospitality.

However, this Tang has come this time to ask for a favor from city Lord."

Hearing this, City Master Meng smiled, " "You want to ask who is plotting against the Holy Dragon City and where are the two foreign invaders?"

Tang Zhen did not find it strange that the other party knew of his intentions. After all, according to his guess, this dream city Master had the ability to travel through time and space. It was likely that she had already known that he would come to seek help a long time ago!

After seeing Tang Zhen nod his head, the dream city Master also nodded and softly said, when I checked my future a few decades ago, I accidentally discovered your existence. Since I had nothing to do, I checked your background.

When dream city Lord said this, he looked at Tang Zhen with a profound gaze, as if he was trying to probe.
