Chapter 81: The magical cornerstone trading platform

“An hour later, in the room where the foundation stone was placed in Lou Cheng, a huge snow-white stone wall appeared out of thin air.”

“There were more than four hundred white signs made of unknown materials hanging on the wall. They were one and a half inches long and one inch wide. The one at the top was purple in color. Tang Zhen’s name was engraved on the front, representing the position of the city Lord. On the back was the heraldry of the tower.”

“Following the manipulation of Tang Zhen’s thoughts, a mighty Chinese Divine Dragon appeared behind the signboard. It was the heraldry of this building. On both sides of the divine Dragon, there was a seal script character named “Divine Dragon”!

“These white tags were the identity cards of the residents of loucheng. Only when the residents of loucheng wore them could they be officially recognized by loucheng and enjoy the various benefits of loucheng. When the residents went out, it could also be used as an identity card to enter other buildings. At the same time, it also had some functions that were yet to be developed, which would only appear after the upgrade of the buildings.”

“The first resident card was the most basic white card. Only after obtaining points and contributing to the city could these basic cards be upgraded gradually. At the same time, the status of the resident card would also become higher and higher.”

“Loucheng was both a stable home and a country with a strict hierarchy. The capable would not be buried, and the mediocre could live here for the rest of their lives.”

There was one more thing that had to be explained. The cornerstone platform would have a trading platform where World Missions and loucheng missions would be issued. Any resident of the loucheng could receive missions here and obtain points.

“There were two main ways to obtain points. One was to complete the tasks on the cornerstone platform, and the other was to exchange for points with brains.”

“The points obtained from missions were released and calculated by the cornerstone platform, which could be used throughout the entire wilderness world. After cultivators obtained the points, they could even exchange for items unique to the other party in some powerful towers in the wilderness.”

“If one wanted to buy the goods on the cornerstone platform and participate in the auction, they would need to have a large number of points. This was also the reason why many of the managers of the loucheng were trying to obtain points.”

“Now that Tang Zhen had become the Holy Dragon city’s city Lord, it was inevitable that he would include earning points in his future plans.”

Tang Zhen threw away the thoughts in his heart as he looked at the Wanderers who had tired faces but their eyes were already filled with anticipation. He took the first step and walked to the wall. He took off the purple token that belonged to the city Lord and dripped his blood on it to recognize it as his master.

“After completing a series of actions, Tang Zhen turned around and looked at the people behind him.”

“Under Tang Zhen’s instructions, Qian Long, Murong Ziyang, Tai Seng, and the others stepped forward and each took out an identity token before dripping their blood onto it. As their blood was absorbed by the identity token, the name of each person who had dripped their blood would appear.”

“From this moment on, they would share the honor and disgrace of this city, live and die together!”

“Next, the Wanderers lined up, took down an identity card from the wall, and dripped their blood on it to claim ownership.”

“Every Wanderer who received an identity card would have an excited and surprised expression on their faces. Then, they would treasure it and keep it close to their bodies. From their expressions, it seemed that this small card was far more important than their own lives.”

“After all the Wanderers had obtained their own identity cards, Tang Zhen ordered everyone to leave the room and split up to complete their respective tasks.”

Some of the residents were in charge of cleaning up the battlefield and collecting the monsters’ brains. Some of the residents were in charge of cleaning up all the rooms in the building for people to live in and counting the useful materials.

“Tang Zhen waited for everyone to leave before closing his eyes to communicate with the foundation stone. When he opened his eyes again, the stone wall in front of him was already covered with strange characters and patterns. This was Lou Cheng’s foundation stone trading platform.”

“Tang Zhen stuck his city Lord token toward the white wall. After he took it back, he noticed that a number had appeared on his identity token. Through the mysterious text translator, Tang Zhen recognized that this character represented ‘zero’!”

This was the number of personal points that the cornerstone trading platform had read. It indicated that Tang Zhen’s current points were zero.

Tang Zhen retracted his gaze from the identity card and looked at the cornerstone trading platform. He used the mysterious text translator to read the text message on it.

the raging fire Castle is recruiting Grade 3 cultivators to explore the Dragon slaying Valley together. The reward is generous!

Silvermoon City is looking for a large batch of meat. The price is fair. The time limit is half a year.

“the holy city of dwarves is selling weapons in stock. Quality is guaranteed. If you want to buy, do it quickly.”

“a certain master from the tower City of the medicine Valley is looking to buy star marrow grass, 1000 points per plant. At the same time, he is selling bone strengthening pills, which are essential medicines for cultivators, 50 points per bottle!”

“black demon City is looking for a criminal. The criminal is extremely evil. He has killed countless people. His strength is level four and he has a two-star demonic weapon. After killing him, he will be rewarded with 500 points.”

Tang Zhen looked at it for a while and could be considered to have a preliminary understanding of this cornerstone trading platform.

“He didn’t know how the cornerstone trading platform came into existence, but it was a very magical existence!”

“First of all, points were very valuable. A level 1 brain bead could only be exchanged for one point. Second, any information could be posted on the cornerstone platform, but the prerequisite was that one had to pay the points.”

“What made Tang Zhen feel amazed was that when trading through the cornerstone trading platform, there was no need to travel and deliver the goods. Instead, the goods could be transported through the cornerstone trading platform. Then, the points would be paid by the cornerstone trading platform. During this process, the cornerstone trading platform would collect points from both parties as a reward.”

Tang Zhen suddenly came to a realization. He had always been curious as to why the residents of Black Rock City did not have to worry about food and drink. They even rarely left the city. It was because of the existence of the cornerstone trading platform. This was equivalent to online shopping in the original world. It could turn all the residents into homebodies because they didn’t need to walk out of the city to get the materials they wanted.

“As long as they worked hard in the building, the manager would pay them brain pearls or money, and the residents could use the money to trade in the building.”

“After that, the manager of the tower City would sell the goods on the cornerstone trading platform to obtain the points he wanted.”

“The cultivators trained by the city were responsible for the safety of the city and collecting materials for production, which would also be rewarded.”

The countless buildings in the wilderness had basically relied on this way of life to continue for thousands of years!

“After thinking through this point, Tang Zhen clicked his tongue in wonder. At the same time, his mood also became slightly excited.”

“He had the support of his original world, and by relying on the cornerstone trading platform’s trading method, it was extremely easy to earn points.”

“It was a pity that he could only rely on his brain and foundation stone to upgrade the building. Otherwise, Tang Zhen was confident that he could continuously upgrade the building without leaving it.”

“Perhaps when he had enough points, he could choose to use them to exchange for brains from other buildings, but that was a matter for the future. It was still too early to consider it now.”

“Now that Lou Cheng had just won the battle against the monsters, there were many things to be done. It was only right for him to focus on this. As for the cornerstone trading platform, he could slowly explore it.”

“As Tang Zhen thought about it, his eyes slightly narrowed. He turned around and left the cornerstone trading platform, slowly walking towards the vault in the basement.”

“When Tang Zhen entered the underground vault of the bloodthirsty gnomes’ lair, what he saw was a ground full of wolves. However, at this moment, after the building was built, the underground vault actually emitted a faint green light from the room, giving people a very uncomfortable feeling.”

“Every tower had its own strange place, and this underground vault was the Holy Dragon city’s strange place—the ghost bank!”

Chapter 82: ghost bank

“Just hearing the name ‘ghost bank’ already gave people a very uncomfortable feeling. Especially after he understood that ghost bank could extract soul strength in the case of a loan being overdue to repay the loan, Tang Zhen’s impression of it became even worse.”

“However, no matter what Tang Zhen’s senses were, the ghost bank was something that truly existed in the Holy Dragon City. It could not be erased or taken away because it belonged to this building.”

“After all, apart from this exclusive function that people criticized, the other two exclusive functions still made Tang Zhen very satisfied.”

“Tang Zhen stood at the door and hesitated for a moment as he looked at the faint green light emitted from the inside of the ghost bank. In the end, he still walked in.”

“This is my territory, I’m not afraid of him!”

“In the spirit Bank, the entire underground vault was glowing with a green light. A bank counter-like decoration blocked Tang Zhen. Behind the counter, there were two women in uniform. Their faces were completely bloodless. From their appearance, one was clearly a Westerner, while the other was an Easterner.”

“Putting aside the cold aura they gave off, they were both top-class beauties!”

“Greetings, city Lord. We are employees of the ghost bank. It’s our first time meeting. May I know what you need?”

“The eastern-faced female employee of the ghost bank asked Tang Zhen. A trace of a stiff smile even surfaced on her face. The smile was very beautiful, but it gave people a kind of hair-raising feeling, causing Tang Zhen’s scalp to feel slightly numb.”

“”Uh, I just came in to take a look at this Yingluo, you guys go ahead!”” ”

“The two ghostly female employees sat down upon hearing this. However, their eyes were staring at Tang Zhen, causing him to feel extremely uncomfortable.”

“by the way, I have a question I want to ask. Is it convenient for me to answer it? ”” ”

Tang Zhen suddenly recalled something as he asked the ghost female employee.

“please speak, city Lord. As long as it’s within the permitted range, we will definitely give you a satisfactory answer.”

The ghost female employee with an Eastern face spoke to Tang Zhen with an extremely professional tone and smile.

“what I want to ask is, if the debtor doesn’t pay back on time, will he die immediately after his soul power is extracted by you? and what is the standard of soul power extraction? it should be that the degree of extraction is different according to the debt, right? ”” ”

Tang Zhen looked at the ghost female employee and asked the question in his heart. This was also the part that he criticized the most.

“After the ghost employee heard Tang Zhen’s question, she faintly smiled and replied,””Don’t worry about this. We won’t extract all the soul power at once, or the person who is extracted will die immediately. So, we will wait until the debtor’s soul power has recovered, and then extract the soul power in installments until the debt of the same value is paid off.”

“When one’s soul power is extracted, it will naturally affect one’s lifespan, but through effective recovery, one’s lifespan won’t be shortened by too much. In fact, one can even ignore the extraction of soul power by using some secret techniques to strengthen one’s soul.”” ”

“When Tang Zhen heard about the secret soul cultivation technique, he immediately became excited. This was because he thought of the soul lodging secret technique that he had obtained in Black Rock City. The only drawback was that his soul power would be exhausted. If he could cultivate a secret technique to strengthen his soul power, then immortality would no longer be a luxury.”

“After thinking up to this point, Tang Zhen asked the female employee,””What’s a secret soul technique? do you have one here?”” ”

“The ghost employee shook her head. I’m sorry, I can’t answer this question for the time being. This is confidential, and only the top customers have the right to know.”

“”What are the conditions for the top customer?”” ”

“Tang Zhen’s eyes brightened. Hearing the words of the ghost female employee, it seemed that there was a chance of this happening!”

“”According to the standard, the top customers need to have ten billion brain beads in their savings to get information on this denomination!””

“Tang Zhen,””Yingluo.””

How many monsters would he have to kill to get ten billion brain beads? are you kidding me?

Tang Zhen shook his head unwillingly. He glanced at the ghost female employee who had returned to her seat and thought to himself that all banks were the same. They would not change even if they had turned into ghosts.

“Forget it, I’ll think of other ways. Why do I have to hang myself on a tree?”

“Tang Zhen scratched his head. This thought of his wasn’t wrong. However, the problem was, why did he use this kind of ‘death and death’ analogy? it seemed that ever since he entered this place, his mind had been revolving with similar thoughts.”

“F * ck, this place is too strange. I’d better come here less in the future. Even if other residents want to come in, they have to get my approval first!”

“When he thought of this, Tang Zhen turned around and was about to leave. However, he quickly turned back to the counter and waved his hand. A large box of brains appeared on the ground. Under the surprised gaze of the two female employees, Tang Zhen said with a slightly proud tone,””No matter what, your Spirit Bank is a property under my Holy Dragon City. You two can be considered half residents. As the city Lord, I will give you the first business. Check this box of brains and store it!””

“After Tang Zhen came out of the ghost bank, he had a card in his hand that the ghost bank had given him. It recorded his savings information.”

“After putting the card into his storage space, Tang Zhen made up his mind to ignore the ghost bank and let it continue to develop. Who knew when there would be a surprise!”

“If he really had the opportunity to obtain a secret technique to cultivate the soul, Tang Zhen would not mind using his power for personal gain.”

“When he went upstairs to the room that was prepared for him, Tang Zhen called Murong Zi Yan over. He asked her to put down the work in her hands and bring over the information that Tang Zhen had asked her to sort out.”

“Not long after Murong Zi Yan left, she returned to the house. At the same time, she placed a set of information that she had carefully arranged in front of Tang Zhen. Through this information, Tang Zhen had a further understanding of Lou Cheng’s residents and information.”

“At present, the entire Holy Dragon City had a total of four hundred and twenty-five residents. This four-story tower now had a total of two hundred rooms of various sizes. One hundred and eighty-five rooms could be provided for the residents to live in. The remaining fifteen rooms would be transformed into special rooms according to Tang Zhen’s plan.”

“These rooms included shops, conference rooms, administrative offices, warehouses, and weapon storehouses. They were all guarded by professionals.”

“There was no such thing as a free lunch in the world. In fact, after becoming a resident of Lou city, they didn’t just eat and wait for death. Instead, they had to work to earn money in exchange for living resources.”

“Loucheng protected the safety of its residents, and the residents worked hard to earn money to make their lives better.”

“There were actually many ways for residents to earn money, such as making containers or growing food, and then selling them to the manager of the city building in exchange for money. Another example was to join Lou Cheng’s exploration team, complete the missions issued by the cornerstone platform and Lou Cheng, hunt monsters, and explore wild buildings.”

Another example was to set up a caravan and trade with the Wanderers and other Wanderers’ tribal camps to earn brain pearls.

“With the city as their backing, the choices that the residents of the city had were much larger, unlike the Wanderers, whose only choice was to struggle for survival in the wilderness!”

Chapter 83: Cleaning up the corpses (1)

“The battlefield in the valley had basically been cleaned up. After some calculations, it was confirmed that they had obtained more than 1830 level one brain pearls, more than 300 level two brain pearls, and 21 level three brain pearls.”

“Other than that, he had also obtained a level 4 brain Pearl. As for the other Level 4 brain Pearl, it had already been reduced to ashes under the attack of the deathlight weapon.”

“In this battle, close to 2000 monsters were killed, and the valley was littered with corpses.”

It was a miracle that no one in the building died after killing so many monsters at once!

“The residents of the tower City were very proud, but they also knew that the main reason for their victory was because of their great city Lord. This made them feel a kind of gratitude from the bottom of their hearts.”

“As there were too many monster corpses in the valley, the residents of Holy Dragon City could not get rid of them in a short time. If they were allowed to rot, it was likely to lead to a plague. This was a serious problem that had to be solved.”

“Moreover, such a strong smell of blood was likely to attract a terrifying existence similar to the one-eyed giant. At that time, Holy Dragon City might face a destructive blow.”

“The residents of the Holy Dragon City were a little worried. After reporting the problem to Tang Zhen, Tang Zhen also became worried.”

“There were too many monster corpses, and they couldn’t be kept for too long. They had to be disposed of as soon as possible. Was there a way to get the best of both worlds that would not waste these monster corpses and could also dispose of them?”

“Tang Zhen rubbed his head and thought hard. Suddenly, a thought jumped out of his mind, causing him to feel as though he had been enlightened. The more he thought about it, the more he felt that this method was feasible.”

“However, if he were to use this method, he would probably have to use up a large amount of his brain again.”

“Forget it, these brains were free stuff anyway, he could just earn more after using them up! As he thought of this, Tang Zhen gave an order to his phone to start absorbing the brain.”

“The number of brain beads in his storage space rapidly decreased. When the number of gold coins in Tang Zhen’s application store once again reached one million, there was only one box of brain beads left in his storage space.”

[ Level 2 storage space. Storage space is 100 cubic meters. The shape of the internal space is adjustable. Download cost: 1000000 gold coins. ]

“Feeling the expansion of his storage space, Tang Zhen felt that the one million gold coins he spent was not wasted. Moreover, this expanded storage space could help him solve the problem of dealing with the monster’s corpse in front of him.”

“He called over Qian Long, Tai Seng, and the others, as well as nearly 200 residents, and the group came before the mountain of monster corpses.”

“Due to the soaking in blood, the place where the monster corpses were piled up had already turned into a blood-red swamp. Tang Zhen’s feet stepped on the muddy ground as he said to everyone, shave off all the muscles, bones, and bones of these monsters and pile them here. Try to pick the strongest monsters. Just throw the rest to the side.”

“After Tang Zhen’s order was given, the residents immediately started to move. Since Tang Zhen didn’t have any specific requirements for the muscles, bones, and bones, everyone swung their knives and chopped the monster’s corpse into eight pieces. Then, they cut open the monster’s stomach, making the scene extremely bloody.”

“The pile of flesh, blood, and bones increased, almost forming a small mountain. When Tang Zhen saw that the amount was enough, he ordered everyone to stop the bloody dismembering and tormenting of the corpses.”

“After ordering everyone to retreat to the tower, Tang Zhen teleported back to his home. He put his car into the storage space and brought it to the land of the other world.”

Clang! Clang!

“With a soft sound, the car steadily stopped in front of Tang Zhen. This might be the first car to set foot in this world. Later on, it would roar here and release its exhaust into the air of this world.”

“As he looked at the monster remains that were scattered on the ground, Tang Zhen waved his hand and kept a portion of it. His storage space was filled to the brim.”

There was no other way. The remains of the monsters took up too much space.

“After starting the car, Tang Zhen sped all the way. After running ten kilometers away from the valley, he released the monster remains in his storage space.”

“If they were dumped here, they would not affect the valley.”

“Soon after, Tang Zhen drove back to the valley and repeated the same action. After running for an unknown number of times, he finally cleaned up all the monster corpses in the valley.”

“After letting out a long breath, he put away all the flesh and bones that he had shaved off. However, he couldn’t throw away these things because Tang Zhen had a great use for them!”

“The Holy Dragon city’s residents were stunned by Tang Zhen. They only saw the city Lord wave his hand and a large area of those monsters’ corpses would disappear. Immediately after, the city Lord would drill into a small house with four wheels and run out of the valley like he was flying.”

“The residents were discussing spiritedly, all guessing how the city Lord had managed to get rid of the monster’s corpse. How could that little house with wheels run so fast?”

“When Tang Zhen returned to Lou city, all the residents were looking at him as if they were looking at a God. The burning desire in their eyes simply made Tang Zhen have the impulse to escape.”

“On the ground in front of the building, there were also many bloody things piled up. There were all kinds of fur, scales, and horns. Tang Zhen took a closer look and found that these things also came from the corpses of the monsters.”

“Compared to the useless flesh and blood, these things that had been specially picked from the monster’s body had a certain value. Out of habit, the residents of Holy Dragon City had brought them back when they were moving and cleaning up the monster’s body.”

“After Tang Zhen looked at it, he asked Tai Seng to take these things away so that his appetite wouldn’t be affected. As for how to deal with it, Tang Zhen asked him to do as he pleased.”

“The women at the side were preparing to cook. The food for more than 400 people was enough for them to work for half a day. Some were busy washing the rice, while others were busy cleaning the wild vegetables. Huge iron woks were placed on the simple stove, with fuel burning below and boiling water inside.”

“A group of burly men walked over, carrying a few thick monster hind legs. These were the edible monsters they had picked out from the monster corpses. After throwing away the internal organs and head, only the hind legs were left.”

“Tang Zhen looked at those bloody hind legs. When he recalled that they were from a man-eating monster and were about to be made into food, he involuntarily retched.”

“Tang Zhen could not bear to disturb the residents’ mood when he saw them gathering together and discussing the meat in high spirits. However, he made up his mind in his heart to find some time to get a few big fat pigs for them to try.”

“As for the dinner later, Tang Zhen really didn’t have any appetite to eat!”

“After returning to his room, Tang Zhen took out the leather scroll from the Black Rock City’s treasure room and began to read it carefully. Just as he was frowning and thinking about one of the problems, Murong Zi Yan slowly walked over and placed a cup in front of Tang Zhen.”

““Coffee? where did you get this?””

Tang Zhen regained his senses. He asked about the familiar fragrance and then looked at the coffee in front of him. He raised his head and asked in puzzlement.

“I found this when I was cleaning a room just now. I checked it and it didn’t go bad, so I ground some and brought it to you.”

Murong Zi Yan said softly as she sat on the chair beside Tang Zhen.

“After saying “thank you,” Tang Zhen picked up the cup and took a sip. The taste was not bad.”

“After putting down the cup, Tang Zhen glanced at Murong Zi Yan. After their eyes met for a while, he opened his mouth and said: now that the tower has been built, there are a lot of things that need to be taken care of. Ziyan, you have to help Qian Long and Tai Seng. After all, you have more experience in this area.”

“However, she had just pinched a few times when Tang Zhen stopped her hand. He turned his head and said with a smile, you must be tired too. Go and rest for a bit. Call Tai Seng and Qian Long and the others in the evening. We’ll have a meeting.”

Tang Zhen slowly stood up and walked to the front of the balcony. He looked at the residents who were still busy downstairs and felt a heavy sense of responsibility on his shoulder.

Chapter 84: tricked by someone

“From today on, the lives of these 400 people were in his hands. He had to take responsibility for this. Even if his original intention was to obtain more benefits in this world, he could not escape his responsibility.”

“After dinner that night, all the key personnel in loucheng gathered in the conference room and began to discuss their work arrangements.”

“After some discussion, it was decided that Tai Seng would be in charge of the security of loucheng, the daily training of the exploration team, and the regular cleaning of the monsters near the valley.”

“The thousand Dragons would be in charge of trading and contacting the Wanderers, and they would try to build a Wanderer market in the valley. Not only would they be able to sell the products of the building, but they would also be able to make preparations for recruiting residents in the future. ”

“As for Murong Ziyang, she would be in charge of the daily management of loucheng, including all aspects of food, clothing, housing, and transportation. She could be considered Tang Zhen’s ‘housekeeper’! ”

Old Mike and a few other more capable residents were responsible for other aspects of work. They cooperated with each other and temporarily supported the operation of the entire building.

“After confirming their respective duties, Tang Zhen used his authority as the city Lord to change everyone’s identity card, indicating their respective duties. ”

“Every month, these people could receive a portion of money or brain beads from the internal circulation of the tower City as payment for their wages. All these funds were under the responsibility of the city Lord, Tang Zhen. ”

“After discussing in the meeting room with lit candles until midnight, Tang Zhen yawned and returned to his own room. He lay on the floor and fell asleep. He was really too tired during this period of time and had not had a good sleep for a long time. ”

“The next morning, Tang Zhen woke up from his sleep and heard a clamor outside. ”

“Walking to the window and looking out, it turned out that Tai Seng was leading the selected soldiers in training. More than 100 people were shouting out orders at the same time, no wonder it was so noisy. ”

“After watching for a while, Tang Zhen felt a little bored. He opened the door and went to the cafeteria in loucheng. ”

“Two women were in charge of the cafeteria. When they saw Tang Zhen coming over, they quickly greeted him and saluted. At the same time, they brought him breakfast. ”

“The breakfast in the morning was very simple. It was just porridge, steamed buns, and salted vegetables, but none of the residents of loucheng felt that it was hard. Compared to their previous lives, this kind of life where they had ready-made food as soon as they opened their eyes was definitely a kind of happiness. ”

“Tang Zhen, who had finished eating, walked to the warehouse area and checked the supplies that he had sorted out during his search of Lou Cheng yesterday. He was shocked when he entered the warehouse. This was because the warehouse was actually filled to the brim. There was not even a place to stay. ”

“Tang Zhen took a closer look and found that most of the things here were computers, printers, and other office supplies. ”

“This was relatively normal. After all, this place used to be a bank. However, these things were of no use to the current Tang Zhen. ”

“He waved his hand and called over a few people, telling them to move these computers and other things to the cave outside, and leave a few good ones for his own use.”

“Tang Zhen was in charge of screening, and his subordinates were in charge of carrying. Soon, they cleared out a large pile of useless things and piled them into the cave.”

“During this period, Tang Zhen found a few more guns. They must have belonged to the guards of this bank, but now it was Tang Zhen’s turn.”

“After fiddling with them for a while, Tang Zhen put away the guns. Now was not the time to hand over such powerful weapons to Tai Seng and the others.”

“After the warehouse was almost cleaned up, Tang Zhen turned around and went to the store built on the second floor.”

“The person in charge of the store was a middle-aged man. When Tang Zhen arrived, he was tidying up the items on the shelves with a woman.”

“Most of the goods in the newly built store were provided by Tang Zhen, and a small part of them came from the residents. After their things were sold, the store would take five percent of the profit.”

“After looking through the items in the store, he felt that they were still quite simple. However, he believed that they would gradually become more abundant in the future.”

“After chatting with the person in charge of the shop, Tang Zhen went to the cave behind the loucheng. When the loucheng was built, Tang Zhen deliberately left a passage at the place where it was connected to the mountain to connect with the original cave.”

“In his original plan, the cave could be used as a processing and production base. After it was fully expanded, it would have an area of nearly one hectare. In the future, some weapons and equipment for Lou Cheng would be manufactured here.”

“However, Tang Zhen had changed his mind. He wanted to turn this place into his own laboratory!”

“In the cave lit with electric lights, the generator made a buzzing sound. More than 20 residents were operating the electric pickaxes and other tools brought by Tang Zhen to slowly level the ground. Tang Zhen saw the black fatty Big bear’s figure among these people. This fellow was shirtless and was easily carrying a large rock.”

“For the entire morning, Tang Zhen strolled around and checked the work situation everywhere. As far as the current situation was concerned, there were not many places where Tang Zhen could be used. His only task was to provide raw materials for the construction of the building.”

“The main purpose of his return this time was still to purchase things. According to the plan they had previously discussed, the entrance of the entire Valley would be sealed off to prevent monsters from wandering in as much as possible. At the same time, he also needed to buy electricity and communication equipment, as well as a means of transportation suitable for the valley.”

Tang Zhen looked at his notebook and pondered for a while. He then walked out of the house and planned to head to the material market.

“As soon as he walked out of the room, three young people jumped out of an off-road vehicle, two men and one woman. Their movements carried a sense of decisiveness.”

Tang Zhen’s eyes focused. He had a premonition that the other party was coming for him.

“As expected, when the three of them walked in front of them, the tall woman in the leather jacket said to Tang Zhen, “You are Tang Zhen, right? you are currently suspected of an intentional injury case. Please come back with us to assist in the investigation.” ”

“When Tang Zhen saw this, he naturally thought that the police had come looking for him. After all, the other party had come once before but was scared away by him pretending to be a ghost.”

“While the tall woman was speaking, the other two young men had already blocked her path. Clearly, they wanted to prevent Tang Zhen from escaping.”

“Tang Zhen curled his lips. With his current strength as a rank 3 cultivator, he could kill an adult with a single punch. However, this was after all a different world. The Federation’s punishment for assaulting a police officer was extremely strict. Tang Zhen did not want to become a wanted criminal.”

A young man took out a pair of handcuffs. Tang Zhen thought for a moment and still extended his hand.

“The handcuffs were cuffed tightly with a “ PA “ sound. Tang Zhen obediently followed the other party into the car. Who knew that the moment he sat down, he felt himself being clamped up, and immediately after that, he received a heavy punch under his ribs.”

“This punch was nothing to Tang Zhen. However, the other party’s actions made him extremely furious. He turned his head and stared intently at the young man who had attacked him. Tang Zhen waited for the other party to give him an explanation.”

“If he did not intend to explain, Tang Zhen did not mind making him pay a price.”

“The current Tang Zhen could also be considered to have killed countless people. There was naturally a sharp aura when he glared at Tang Zhen, causing the heart of the young man who had sneaked an attack on Tang Zhen to turn cold.”

““F * ck, look at your mother!” ”

The short-haired young man who felt weak from Tang Zhen’s gaze cursed as he punched Tang Zhen’s stomach again.

“Tang Zhen suddenly laughed after receiving another punch. He used an ice-cold tone to ask, speak clearly. What’s going on? you’re not the police, right? “ ”

“The two young men sneered and did not speak. They only looked at Tang Zhen with very contemptuous eyes, as if they were looking at a dead dog. However, the woman who was acting as the driver opened her mouth and said, “I think you know what’s going on. You’ve offended someone you shouldn’t have. You’re going to suffer today.” ”

“Tang Zhen had already confirmed his own guess when the woman said this. However, he never expected that the other party would use such a despicable method instead of capturing him through official means.”

“He was also careless. The other party didn’t show his id from the beginning to the end, nor did he say that he was a police officer. He just took it for granted to cooperate.”

Tang Zhen’s eyes turned cold. So what if this was the case? he really wanted to see what the other party could do to him.

“The car galloped on the road and soon turned into a factory located in the suburban development Zone. After stopping at the door of a warehouse, Tang Zhen was pushed into the warehouse by two young men.”

“In the spacious warehouse, over a dozen young men and women in different attires were smoking on the sofa. Tang Zhen knew that these people were using a kind of illegal drug that was strictly prohibited by the Federation the moment he smelled the special scent.”

Tang Zhen had once smelled the scent of this prohibited item at Xu Feng’s place. He still remembered it clearly.

“After those young men with unsteady footsteps and excited expressions saw Tang Zhen, they immediately looked at him with a kind of ridiculing expression. Their eyes were filled with anticipation as if they were about to see a good show.”

The young man sitting in the middle of the sofa was the bald man whose ribs had been broken by Tang Zhen some time ago. He had a cigarette in his mouth as he leaned forward on the sofa. The corner of his mouth had a fixed evil smile. He was looking straight at Tang Zhen like a cat looking at a mouse.

Chapter 85: The bald man almost peed his pants in fear

“After staring at Tang Zhen for a full minute, the bald young man did not see the fearful look on Tang Zhen’s face that he had imagined. This made him feel very disappointed.”

This was especially so when the bald young man saw that Tang Zhen was looking at him with the same kind of gaze. It was as if he was not afraid of the formation in front of him at all. A wave of anger rose from his heart.

“Tang Zhen had broken his ribs that night, causing him to be in a miserable state like a dead dog. The bald young man had always remembered it in his heart.”

He wanted to take revenge. He wanted to break all of Tang Zhen’s ribs and make Tang Zhen wish he was dead. This was his usual style.

“Throwing away the cigarette butt and snorting coldly, the bald-headed man shot a look at the young man behind Tang Zhen. At the same time, he tilted his head and slightly raised his chin.”

The young man behind Tang Zhen crooked his mouth and smiled when he saw this. He took out an KP swing rod from his pocket and ruthlessly whipped Tang Zhen’s leg.

“If this hit landed, an ordinary person would definitely fall to their knees in pain and would not be able to walk or run normally for a short time.”

“Secretly sneering, Tang Zhen did not even turn his head around as he sent out a ‘Tiger Tail kick’, which directly landed on the stomach of that youth. That youth who swung the rod let out a blood-curdling scream as he was kicked four to five meters away by Tang Zhen. He clutched his stomach as he rolled and twitched on the ground.”

“In fact, Tang Zhen’s kick could be considered to have been merciful. He had only used a gentle force to kick him away. If the force had exploded on his stomach, Tang Zhen’s kick would have even broken his lumbar spine.”

“With such a serious injury, the only outcome for this young man was death.”

“Seeing the young man being kicked flying, the dozen or so young men and women who were already in a half-crazy state howled in unison. Their voices contained a trace of excitement as they picked up iron chains, baseball bats, brass knuckles, and other weapons and surrounded Tang Zhen.”

“Within this group of people, there was a girl who looked to be around seventeen or eighteen years old. She was currently looking at Tang Zhen with a languid smile. At the same time, she deliberately pulled down her shirt, revealing two bright red spots on her chest. She even exaggeratedly twisted her waist a few times. This scene caused those young men to become even more excited.”

Tang Zhen coldly looked at this group of drug addicts who had let loose. The coldness in his eyes became increasingly dense.

“A young man with a body as thin as a stick held an ashtray in his hand and smashed it at the back of Tang Zhen’s head. Once it hit, he would either die or be injured. In the end, Tang Zhen only dodged slightly, and the ashtray fell through the air and smashed into the wall of the warehouse, instantly shattering.”

This attack seemed to be a signal. Everyone began to rush towards Zhen Tang like wolves and tigers. The one in front was actually a woman holding an empty beer bottle.

“With a crack, the handcuffs were broken!”

“Tang Zhen did not even spare her a glance as he ruthlessly slapped her, directly sending this woman flying. From the looks of it, it was very likely that her cervical vertebra would be dislocated.”

Tang Zhen caught the beer bottle that the woman had dropped in midair. He threw it back and directly opened the head of a fat man who was waving an iron chain.

“He jumped up and kicked out twice. Immediately after, two figures flew out and landed heavily on the ground.”

“Tang Zhen, who was surrounded, was able to send a person flying with each attack. Moreover, his speed was extremely fast. In just a few breaths’ time, he was standing alone in the middle of the warehouse. Around him were people who had fallen to the ground and were wailing miserably.”

The tall woman who rushed in upon hearing the sound stared at the scene in front of her in a daze. She couldn’t believe that this kind of scene that would only appear in martial arts movies had actually happened in front of her.

“Tang Zhen looked at the woman’s dull expression. He smiled and walked forward. He extended his hand and touched her face. After which, he ruthlessly pushed her to a corner.”

“you really don’t have a good eye. Don’t you know that you’re blocking the way? ”

“Tang Zhen shook his head at the woman in the leather jacket. Then, he walked to the young man who had locked him up. He squatted on the ground and stretched out his hand.”

The young man was quick-witted as he covered his swollen face and quickly handed over the key.

“However, when he looked at the broken alloy handcuffs, his eyes were full of disbelief.”

“Reaching out his hand, he pinched the young man’s face. After he unlocked the handcuffs with the key and threw them away, Tang Zhen turned his gaze to the bald man who had already leaned his body against the sofa.”

“Compared to the confidence he had just now, the bald man’s face was filled with fear. He was looking at Tang Zhen as if he had seen a ghost.”

“Tang Zhen walked in front of the bald man. After sitting down, he took out a cigarette from his pocket and lit it up. After taking a puff, he looked at the bald man. Just like how the bald man looked at him earlier, his evil smile was fixed on the corner of his mouth, and he didn’t say a word.”

The bald man’s body began to tremble intensely. Tang Zhen’s silent smile caused him to feel as though he was being stared at by a man-devouring Tiger. An intense fear swiftly surged out from the depths of his soul.

“”Big brother big brother Pi Xiu, I was wrong. I deserve to die. You’re a magnanimous person. Please don’t stoop to my level and let me go!” ”

“The bald man begged in a trembling voice. He had a vague feeling that if he didn’t quickly and sincerely beg for mercy, the guy opposite him might really kill him.”

“Tang Zhen sneered when he saw the bald man’s cowardly appearance. He maintained his smiling expression as he looked at the bald man and said,”“Xufeng is my brother, I don’t need to say more, right?”

“I’ll only give you one chance, if you provoke me again, Huanhuan ”

“Before Tang Zhen could finish his words, the bald man felt his vision blur. Then, he was horrified to discover that a pitch-black pistol had appeared in Tang Zhen’s hand. ”

“The gun was a real gun. As the son of the Deputy chief of the police, the bald man was sure of this. However, he didn’t even see how the gun had appeared. The terrifying speed of the gun made the bald man even more frightened. ”

“Tang Zhen faintly pointed the gun at the bald man. Just as the bald man was so frightened that his entire body was trembling, Tang Zhen suddenly pointed the gun to his side and pulled the trigger without even looking. ”

“”Bang!”” ”

“After the gunshot, a fat rat hiding at the base of the wall was beaten to a pulp, and the blood and flesh dirtied a large area of the wall! ”

“”Uh, hehe.”” ”

“The bald man swallowed his saliva with great difficulty. At the same time, he was screaming in his heart. This marksmanship is too godly. Does it have to be so exaggerated? Oh my God, what kind of pervert did I provoke? ”

“Tang Zhen smiled as he looked at the bald man, who was so frightened by this shot that he was about to pee his pants. Earlier, he had merely used the Super shooting assistant’s targeting assistance. He did not have the ability to hit the target without aiming. ”

“Seeing that the matter was almost resolved, Tang Zhen stood up and wanted to walk out. A few people who were lying on the ground and blocking the way quickly crawled to the side, afraid that Tang Zhen would kick them again if they were not pleasing to the eye. ”

“It was only after Tang Zhen walked out of the warehouse that the one with the lightest injuries among these people crawled up with a pained expression. He moved to the front of the bald man who was sitting on the sofa with a dull expression and said in a vicious tone, ”Big brother, do you need me to get a few people from the martial arts school to remove one of his kasayas?”” ”

“Before the man could finish his sentence, the bald man slapped him in the face. Then, the bald man’s angry voice almost changed tone, ” f * ck, are you trying to get me killed? since he knows Xufeng, they must be the same. Is this kind of character someone we can provoke? ”” ”

“After that, the bald man, who was only scared but not physically hurt, shouted at the people in the warehouse, ” remember this, I’ll pretend that nothing happened today. Whoever dares to say anything, I’ll break his legs! ”

“Tang Zhen’s earlier performance had probably scared the bald man until his guts were broken. As long as he was not tired of living, he would definitely not dare to provoke Tang Zhen. ”

This matter had come to an end.

“Tang Zhen drove the bald man’s car onto the road. After which, he locked the car and threw it to the side of the road, no longer paying attention to it.”

“After looking around, Tang Zhen unexpectedly discovered that the scenery of this Development Zone was very good. The roads were wide and covered with vegetation. The rarest thing was that there were few pedestrians and vehicles.”

“It was late autumn, and it was quite poetic to walk alone on the road with fallen leaves.”

“Tang Zhen’s interest was piqued. He began to follow the road with white poplar trees on both sides, stepping on the fallen leaves and slowly moving forward.”

“A Fallen Leaf fell in front of Tang Zhen’s eyes. Tang Zhen, who was wearing a black trench coat, raised his head and looked at the treetops. After looking for a while, he felt something in his heart. He opened his mouth and recited, the frost takes advantage of the autumn leaves and green leaves, describing it as withered and bitter, self-deprecating; the wind blows and leaves without urging, falling leisurely to the ground with the canopy.”

“After Tang Zhen finished reciting, he was still a little pleased with himself. Just as he was about to take advantage of the mood and sing another song, a burst of silver bell-like laughter entered his ears. He turned around and saw a pretty and beautiful woman leaning against the car. The autumn wind blew and the yellow leaves filled the sky. She looked at Tang Zhen with a smile.”

Chapter 86: Ice Bear Alliance (1)

Tang Zhen’s expression appeared a little embarrassed when he saw the girl who was covering her mouth and laughing.

“““I was just wondering who it was that was grieving here, but I didn’t expect it to be you! Old classmate, when did you become so artistic?”” ”

The girl walked over with a smile. She extended her Jade-like hand and looked at Tang Zhen with her clear eyes.

“““Long time no see!”” ”

They shook hands and separated. Everything was natural.

“Tang Zhen looked at the girl opposite him with a smile. In terms of love, if Fang Yujia was the pain in Tang Zhen’s heart, then this girl in front of him was the truest dream of his youth.”

“In that era of fluttering white clothes, which young man who had just experienced love did not have a girl who could make his soul throb in his heart? her every frown and smile was like the most beautiful poem, deeply imprinted in the bottom of his heart, flashing in his mind during countless sleepless nights.”

“Tang Zhen’s crush at that time was this gentle and quick-witted woman. She was Tang Zhen’s class monitor and had a poetic name, he Wanning.”

“However, time flowed like water, and it was normal for them to be apart. That year, after Tang Zhen left school and started to make a living, he Wanning also moved out of the city with her parents, and the contact between the two sides was cut off.”

“Some people might never see each other again for the rest of their lives, while some people might be separated by thousands of rivers and mountains, but they would meet again one day.”

“However, there were only memories and calmness left between them.”

“Tang Zhen and he Wanning hadn’t seen each other for many years. The only topics they talked about were their former classmates and teachers, the rise and fall of the city, their respective careers, and their marriage.”

“During this period, he Wanning talked about her experience of studying in the ice Bear Alliance. She occasionally mentioned a city in the ice Bear Alliance where there was a civil war a few years ago. The public security there was very bad, and the arms trade was rampant.”

“He Wanning’s words piqued Tang Zhen’s interest. He asked a few more questions in detail, and then the idea of going to that city came to his mind.”

“Now that he had built his city, it seemed like he had a stable base for development. However, whether it was Black Rock City or the undead race, or even the high-level monsters wandering around in the wilderness, they were all threats that made him uneasy.”

“In such a situation where powerful enemies were surrounding him, having a powerful weapon for self-protection was what Tang Zhen needed to do the most. The city mentioned by he Wanning could provide Tang Zhen with the firearms that he needed the most.”

“After exchanging contact information with he Wanning, the two of them smiled and said goodbye, promising to meet again when they had the time.”

“After making a phone call and asking around, Tang Zhen signed up for a tour group to the ice Bear Alliance. The earliest they could leave was tomorrow. Since he had decided to go abroad, Tang Zhen naturally needed to make some preparations.”

Tang Zhen didn’t need to prepare any self-defense weapons because there were some in his storage space. He only needed to prepare some cash for the transaction.

The original purchase plan was temporarily put on hold by Tang Zhen because he was going abroad. It would not be too late to purchase after he returned from the ice Bear Alliance.

“That day, Tang Zhen headed to the provincial capital. After seeing his sister, he found a hotel to stay in.”

“The next morning, Tang Zhen followed the travel agency and took a tour bus to the border. When it was close to evening, he had already stepped into the territory of the ice Bear Alliance.”

“Tang Zhen followed the tour group and walked on the streets. While he was enjoying the exotic atmosphere, he was also thinking about how to get to his destination. It was impossible to act alone in this country without mastering the language of this country.”

“It was a pity that other than his mother tongue, Tang Zhen had never formally learned any other languages.”

“However, this kind of thing wasn’t difficult for Tang Zhen because there was an application that could solve his current problem in the entertainment options of the application store.”

[ universal language translator: able to translate all languages simultaneously and automatically translate the user’s language for simultaneous communication. Download cost: 2000 gold coins. ]

“For some applications that cost hundreds of thousands of dollars, the price of the universal language translator was not very high.”

“The remaining amount of gold coins was just enough. After Tang Zhen found the application, he chose to download and install it. After silently choosing the language he needed, Tang Zhen looked at a citizen of the ice Bear Alliance who was passing by and greeted him.”

“”Hello!”” ”

“An incomparably standard Ice Bear Alliance language sounded in his ears. His words were clear and his pronouncing was perfect. If one did not look at his appearance, the other party would definitely think that Tang Zhen was a native of the ice Bear Alliance.”

“Seeing that the translator’s effect was very ideal, Tang Zhen also relaxed and began to follow the tour group around the various scenic spots of the ice Bear Alliance. When he saw the goods he liked, he would buy two and bring them along.”

“After staying in the hotel at night, Tang Zhen quietly slipped out of the room. As for what to do if the tour group couldn’t find him the next day, Tang Zhen didn’t care too much.”

“After checking the traffic route to the destination, Tang Zhen found a good-looking car on the street and started the all-purpose electronic kit that he had not used since he downloaded it.”

“This electronic kit had many practical functions, one of which was to instantly crack an electronic car lock. In the face of this black technology, no matter how advanced the car’s electronic lock was, it would not last more than a second.”

“As long as Tang Zhen was willing, he could even make any car with a car computer instantly shut down when it was speeding. Moreover, he could also create many unexpected accidents.”

“As the application started, the car opposite Tang Zhen instantly unlocked and Tang Zhen quickly got in.”

“This was a car that was installed with a Smart Key System. After Zhen Tang cracked it, he could start the car without using the car key.”

“After connecting to the internet through the electronic kit and choosing the destination he was going to, the best driving route appeared in front of Tang Zhen’s eyes. He drove the car slowly and soon drove out of the city.”

“As he galloped along the ice Bear Alliance’s highway, Tang Zhen admired the exotic scenery along the way while hacking into the network with his electronic tool bag to inquire about various information related to the arms deal.”

“After selecting the target, Tang Zhen once again screened through the internet. During this period, he even hacked into the ice Bear Federation’s Intelligence Agency and finally found the information he wanted. The underground arms dealer named Ivanov was currently located near the city that Tang Zhen was planning to go to.”

“When Tang Zhen finally reached his destination, it was already the morning of the next day.”

“This city, located in the mountain area north of the ice Bear Alliance, had once been ravaged by war. In some places, traces of the tragic battle could even be seen.”

“Now, this area had become a paradise for underground arms dealers. A large number of weapons left behind from the war and arms from other countries could be bought here.”

“Although many people knew that this place was full of firearms, if you thought that you could easily buy what you wanted on the streets, you were gravely mistaken.”

“Although darkness existed, it could never be openly placed on the surface, because that would make it lose the soil to survive. In this world where light and justice were the main theme, darkness could only move in the corner.”

“According to the information he had, Tang Zhen came to a grocery store. According to the information he obtained from the internet, this was the contact point that Ivanov usually used for transactions.”

Chapter 87: Buying weapons and an unexpected battle (1)

“Tang Zhen walked into the grocery store with a calm expression and found that it was very quiet inside. There were only two expressionless young men fiddling with their mobile phones. When they saw Tang Zhen walk in, they raised their heads and glanced at him.”

His eyes were filled with scrutiny and a faint coldness.

“According to the normal procedure, he would have to spend some time to buy the firearms.”

“However, his own city had just been built and there were still many things that he needed to deal with. Therefore, Tang Zhen didn’t want to waste too much time here.”

“In front of the two young men, Tang Zhen put the bag in his hand on the table and unzipped it, revealing the bundles of cash inside.”

“At the same time, Tang Zhen “inadvertently” revealed the gun at his waist, allowing the two young men to see it.”

“I want to buy arms from Ivanov. As long as I’m satisfied, money is not a problem!”

“Tang Zhen’s actions seemed very direct and dangerous. However, he had absolute confidence that as long as these two young men wanted to do something evil, he would be able to send them to heaven in a few seconds.”

“The two young men looked at each other. One of them put his hand on his waist and gave his companion a look. The other took out his phone and seemed to be contacting someone. After a moment, he nodded to the other young man.”

“Take your things and follow me!”

“The young man who made the call said to Zhen Tang, then walked out of the door first. After Zhen Tang came out, he let him get into an off-road vehicle and the young man drove the car and began to cross the streets.”

Creak!

The off-road vehicle drove into a warehouse area on the outskirts of the city and stopped. Tang Zhen saw two young men holding rifles on the roof of a building not far away. They were looking in their direction while speaking into a walkie-talkie at the same time.

The door of the opposite warehouse was pushed open from the inside. A robust young man with a submachine gun and a face full of tattoos walked out from inside and waved at Tang Zhen.

The young man who led Tang Zhen over returned to the car and did not follow him in.

“In this warehouse of nearly two thousand square meters, it was filled with all kinds of weapons. From small pistols and bullets to big anti-aircraft machine guns and mortars, everything was available. Tang Zhen even saw an armored vehicle.”

“A few strong men from the ice Bear Alliance were sitting in the house. When they saw Tang Zhen come in, a man with a small beard walked up. Tang Zhen only took a glance and recognized that this guy was Ivanov, who he was looking for.”

Tang Zhen had seen Ivanov’s information in the ice Bear Alliance’s intelligence system. This was a very cunning guy. He was greedy and especially cherished his life.

“It’s you who want to buy arms. Congratulations on finding the right person. As long as you have enough cash, I can even get you missiles!”

“Ivanov bragged to himself. At the same time, he sized up Tang Zhen with a judgmental gaze.”

“My time is limited, so let’s start the trade. Is that all? Can I choose at will?”

Tang Zhen looked around and asked Ivanov.

““Of course, please choose freely!”” ”

Ivanov said as he blew out a mouthful of smoke and twisted his thick cigar.

“Tang Zhen no longer spoke. He began to pick from the pile of weapons. From the outside, the majority of these weapons were old goods. Of course, there were some new ones that had not been used before. However, the number of them was relatively small. ”

“The reason why Tang Zhen chose Ivanov was because of his status as a local arms dealer. Although most of the weapons sold were old goods, they were all standard military goods with a complete variety. ”

“After looking around, Tang Zhen first chose ten automatic rifles and standard ammunition from the ice Bear Alliance. He also chose a box of grenades, powerful military explosives, and two small mortars. ”

“Tang Zhen had also bought a few types of weapons such as pistols and sniper rifles. Although Tang Zhen, who had a super shooting assistant, could use an ordinary rifle as a sniper rifle, the feeling of the two was different. ”

“While choosing weapons, Tang Zhen actually saw more than 20 old mosinnagan rifles. After inspecting them, he found that these old guns were well maintained and should be combat reserves that had not been used in the early years. ”

“After seeing these weapons, Tang Zhen immediately decided to buy them for Tai Seng and the others to use. ”

“Although the firing speed of this weapon was a little slow in Tang Zhen’s eyes, it was more than enough to be used for Lou Cheng’s usual defense. With the deterrence of this weapon, he believed that it would be able to make many people with ulterior motives shrink back. ”

Tang Zhen bought all these old guns along with the bayonet bullets. Ivanov’s face was filled with suspicion. He guessed that Tang Zhen bought these old guns that his grandfather used as a collection.

“After gathering the weapons he had chosen, Tang Zhen gestured to Ivanov to settle the score. However, just as Ivanov was tapping the calculator, Tang Zhen’s eyes suddenly narrowed and he fell to the ground without any hesitation. ”

“A burst of rapid gunshots suddenly rang out, and the door of the warehouse was kicked open. Immediately after, a few automatic rifles poked in and began to shoot at the inside of the room. ”

“Before the two young men in the warehouse could even raise their guns, blood immediately burst out of their chests and they fell to the ground. ”

“boss, it’s the fire Fist! They ambushed us! ”

“A young man’s urgent roar came from the walkie-talkie, and at the same time, a burst of rapid gunfire sounded. ”

“Ivanov raised his automatic rifle and returned fire in anger. He wanted to find the young man who had bought the weapon, but he found that the young man had disappeared without a trace. ”

“””Damn it, he must be from the fire Fist!”” ”

“Ivanov cursed fiercely and continued to fire back, but he did not notice that the weapons in his warehouse were decreasing little by little. ”

“Tang Zhen, who had turned on the quantum stealth light screen, took advantage of the exchange of fire between the two sides and began to frantically store the weapons into the storage space. After it was full, he would teleport back to the cave behind the tower, release the weapons, and then teleport back. ”

“In the rain of bullets, Tang Zhen was extremely busy. During this period, there were even stray bullets that hit him. Fortunately, he had already changed into a black cloak, so he wasn’t injured by the stray bullets. ”

“By the time the battle was about to end, almost half of Ivanov’s warehouse had been emptied by Tang Zhen. The remaining things were similar to anti-tank mines and walkie-talkies, which were not of much help to Tang Zhen. ”

“After taking such a big advantage, Tang Zhen was really embarrassed to watch Ivanov get killed. Therefore, after completing the last transportation, Tang Zhen carried an automatic rifle and quickly rushed to Ivanov’s side. ”

“””Pa pa pa!”” ”

“With a single shot, Tang Zhen killed a guy who had extended his head out to shoot Ivanov. Then, he pulled up Ivanov, who had been shot in the abdomen and was bleeding, and rushed towards another small door of the warehouse. ”

“Seeing that Tang Zhen was trying to save him, Ivanov was also very cooperative. He allowed Tang Zhen to support him as he staggered and covered his abdomen. ”

Tang Zhen arrived in front of the small door that was locked. He raised his foot and kicked it out fiercely. The iron door that Ivanov thought was extremely strong was directly kicked out by Tang Zhen.

“””Oh my God, is this guy a bear in human skin?”” ”

“Ivanov stared blankly at the empty door frame in front of him, and the few brand new metal door shafts on it were broken. His eyes were full of shock, and he even temporarily forgot the pain in his abdomen. ”

“Tang Zhen roared when he saw this. why are you still in a daze? if you don’t want to die, then quickly follow me! ”

Ivanov immediately came back to his senses and nodded. He began to follow closely behind Tang Zhen and rushed out of the warehouse through the small door.

“Tang Zhen had just left the warehouse when he raised the automatic rifle with one hand and fired in all directions. The recoil of the automatic rifle did not have any effect on him. It was as if it was his limbs. No matter how the bullets flew, it did not move in the slightest.”

“Ivanov, who followed closely behind, saw with his own eyes that five gunmen had been knocked to the ground by Tang Zhen during this period of time. It seemed that they were all shot.”

“When there was only one bullet left in the magazine, another magazine in Tang Zhen’s left hand pushed forward. During this time, the firepower of the automatic rifle in his right hand formed a suppressive fire that never stopped because of the change in magazine.”

“Relying on accurate shooting and suppression, the two of them finally retreated to an off-road vehicle. Tang Zhen opened the door and threw Ivanov to the back seat before jumping into the driver’s seat.”

“Unfortunately, Tang Zhen had already started the off-road vehicle and rushed out amidst the rain of bullets.”

Chapter 88: fear of death

“Ivanov’s injuries were very serious. The enemy’s shot had pierced through his abdomen from the front. The 7.62 caliber rifle bullet had torn his intestines into several pieces, and then the bullet had torn a bloody hole in his lower back.”

“If they opened his abdominal cavity, they would see that it was filled with dirt and blood. These alone were enough to kill him, not to mention the terrible gunshot wound.”

“If he could not get effective treatment in the best time, Ivanov would not be able to hold on for long.”

Tang Zhen turned his head and did not look at the blood-soaked Ivanov. He was thinking about other things while driving the off-road vehicle.

“This time, he had obtained a lot of weapons from Ivanov. It seemed that it could greatly improve Tang Zhen’s martial strength, but Tang Zhen knew that these firearms were only used to deal with the upcoming crisis. If he wanted to develop in the long run, the development of martial technology suitable for the Lou city world was the foundation.”

“The maintenance, training, and operation of the weapons in the original world required professional personnel. Only with sufficient logistics supply could these weapons and equipment be guaranteed to continue to be used normally.”

“Ivanov seemed to be a good long-term partner, but unfortunately, he was about to die.”

“Tang Zhen was thinking about something in his heart when a groan sounded beside his ear. Ivanov, who had fallen into a semi-conscious state after getting into the car, suddenly woke up at this moment. Moreover, he seemed to have become more energetic.”

“He stared at Tang Zhen with his sunken eyes. After a moment, Ivanov weakly smiled and said, “Thank you for saving me. You know, friend, I actually don’t want to die yet because my dream hasn’t been realized. But looking at the situation now, I’m afraid that this wish won’t come true.””

“Tang Zhen did not even turn his head around. He only used an indifferent tone to say, “No one wants to die, but it’s a pity that this kind of thing can only be decided by the heavens, isn’t it?””

Tang Zhen asked in return. He turned his head and observed Ivanov’s expression.

“Ivanov’s expression was extremely ugly at this time. Although his mind was still clear, Tang Zhen could feel a death aura from his body. Perhaps, his current clear-headed state was just a momentary recovery before death.”

“yes, this kind of thing can only be decided by God, but I still can’t accept it. If there is a way for me to live, I will not hesitate to give up all my family property and no longer regard money as my life.”

“Ivanov laughed bitterly at himself and continued, “but what’s the point of saying all this? I still can’t escape death. I look like a dying wild dog on the street now.”

“Tang Zhen didn’t reply. He only continued to drive. From time to time, he would look through the rearview mirror and observe the few cars that were slowly catching up.”

“Tang Zhen seemed to have decided on something. He turned to Ivanov and said, “Actually, you don’t have to die. Or rather, I can let you be Reborn!””

“Tang Zhen’s words made Ivanov stunned for a moment. He looked at Tang Zhen with suspicious eyes for half a minute before he bitterly smiled and said, “Buddy, can I understand your rebirth as shooting me in the head? If that’s the case, I don’t think there’s a need, because I can already see the door to heaven slowly opening for me.””

“Tang Zhen sneered disdainfully when he heard this, “how can heaven take in an arms dealer? don’t tease me. I think it’s more like hell!” I don’t have the time to joke with you. When I said I could help you reincarnate, I meant to help you change your body, but it can only last for a few years. But don’t worry, as long as I’m willing, I can help you change a new body at any time.””

“It was as if Ivanov was listening to a fantasy story. However, at this moment, Ivanov, who could clearly feel that death would descend on him at any moment, no longer had the right to question the truth of Tang Zhen’s words.”

“for God’s sake, I’m willing to give it a try. After all, I won’t lose anything, right?””

“After Ivanov finished speaking, he stared at Tang Zhen, afraid that his so-called ‘rebirth’ would be a shot to his head.”

“Tang Zhen was no longer in the mood to talk nonsense with Ivanov. He only asked, “Do you have any secret place to hide? I’ll need some time to prepare.””

""Yes, it's a villa on the side of Highway 236. The address is Qingqing."" "

"Ivanov said the name of the place with some effort. At this time, he felt that his vision was turning black, and the muscles in his body were becoming more and more relaxed. "

""You can die now!"" "

"Tang Zhen raised his pistol and pointed it at Ivanov's head without turning his head. Under Ivanov's sure-looking eyes, he pulled the trigger without any hesitation! "

""Bang!"" "

"The bullet pierced through Ivanov's forehead. His eyes were wide open, and they were filled with regret and unwillingness. "

"Tang Zhen did not care about Ivanov's dead state. Instead, he quickly took out a brain that was engraved with strange runes. He exerted force and pressed it into Ivanov's cranial cavity through the bullet hole between his eyebrows. "

"whether you can survive or not will depend on your luck. After all, this is my first time doing such a thing! "

"Tang Zhen lit a cigarette and stopped the car. After taking a few deep puffs, he pulled the bolt of the automatic rifle with all his might and jumped out of the car. "

"The three off-road vehicles had already caught up with them, leaving a trail of dust behind them. When they saw Tang Zhen standing in the open space waiting for them, a few strong men from the ice Bear Alliance immediately stuck their heads out of the car windows. They held submachine guns in their hands and wanted to shoot at him. "

"Unfortunately, before these people's gunshots could be heard, Tang Zhen had already disappeared from his original spot like a ghost under the dumbfounded gazes of these people. At the same time, a few bullets pierced through the air. "

""Pa pa pa"" "

"A brawny man who had stuck his body out of the car window was bleeding. His head was also shattered, and the dust from the submachine gun in his hand fell. His body hung on the car window like a pile of rotten meat. "

"After killing the gunman, Tang Zhen's body passed by an off-road vehicle. A purple light flashed in his hand as he took out the purple electric short sword. "

""Shua shua shua"" "

A weak but sharp voice sounded. The off-road vehicle that had passed by Tang Zhen had actually stopped after driving for more than ten meters. The engine had also died.

""Plop!"" "

“The other brawny man who had stuck his body out of the window had a dazed look in his eyes. Then, his upper body fell to the ground together with the car door that had been cut in half by the purple lightning. What he saw was blood and a piece of broken intestines. ”

“With only half of its body left, it was still struggling, but it was getting weaker and weaker. In the end, it died with a pile of dust-covered internal organs. ”

“The driver of the off-road vehicle also couldn’t escape the cut of the purple lightning. His hand was pressed on the wound as if he wanted to stop the blood from splashing, but it was of no use. In an instant, the driver’s seat was soaked in blood. ”

“The other two gunmen in the off-road vehicle, who had not been injured by the purple electric blade, were stunned by the scene in front of them. They raised the weapons in their hands and did not shoot at Tang Zhen immediately. ”

Tang Zhen sized up the two young-looking gunmen as a satisfied smile appeared on the corner of his mouth. He slowly raised his hands and a pistol instantly appeared in his hands.

“”Bang Bang!”” ”

“After two gunshots, the two shooters were shot in the middle of their eyebrows at the same time and were about to fall down. ”

Tang Zhen didn’t even blink as he threw out two more brains. Both of them entered the gunman’s cranial cavity through the bullet hole between his eyebrows. They only stopped when they were close to the pineal gland.

“The blood-stained brain glowed faintly in the cranial cavity, and the runes carved on it seemed to come alive. At the same time, something called ‘soul’ in the bodies of the two gunners was slowly being absorbed by the brain. ”

Chapter 89: The preparation of materials for the ‘rebirth’ secret technique (1)

“After Tang Zhen completed this series of actions in an extremely short time, the other two off-road vehicles also turned around and drove toward him again. ”

“Unfortunately, Tang Zhen was no longer interested in being entangled with these gunmen because he had more important things to do. ”

“Tang Zhen’s body leaned back in a strange manner, almost bending at a 90-degree angle. After which, under the frightened gazes of the two gunmen, two mortar shells suddenly appeared in Tang Zhen’s originally empty hands. ”

The mortar shell was a weapon that Tang Zhen had placed in his storage space in advance. He could use his mind to remove the safety of the mortar shell in the storage space before taking it out.

“”The game is over, go to hell!”” ”

“Tang Zhen’s body instantly straightened up like a recurve bow without a bowstring. Immediately after, two mortar shells issued an ear-piercing whistling sound and smashed toward the two off-road vehicles.”

“””Oh, God, this guy is a devil!”” ”

“The driver of the off-road vehicle let out his last scream before he died. Then, the two vehicles were blown into fireballs by the head-on mortar shells. The broken pieces of the body of the vehicle splattered in all directions. At the same time, the flames rose and made crackling sounds of burning.”

“After confirming that there were no survivors, Tang Zhen pulled out the bodies of the two young gunmen who had been pierced through between their eyebrows and threw them into the trunk of his car. Then, he pulled the three bodies and drove toward the location that Ivanov had mentioned.”

Ivanov’s hiding place was really well hidden. Tang Zhen only found it after circling the area a few times.

“This was a three-story building with its own door and courtyard. It was surrounded by tall walls, and it was difficult to see the inside from the outside.”

“Tang Zhen followed the information left behind by Ivanov and easily entered this place. After locking the door, he moved the three bodies to the basement of the small building.”

Tang Zhen placed the body on a makeshift stage and took out a bottle of Ivanov’s precious red wine. He took a few sips and began to think about how to complete the so-called ‘rebirth’ ceremony for Ivanov.

“Ever since he had obtained the soul lodging secret technique from the treasure vault in Black Rock City, Tang Zhen had been diligently studying it. This was because he knew that once he mastered this heaven-defying secret technique, it was equivalent to controlling the lifelines of all the powerful people in his original world. The benefits he would receive would far exceed the wealth that could rival a country.”

“No matter how rich or powerful one was, it was still difficult to escape old age, illness, and death. However, fear of death was a common problem for humans.”

“Once some influential figures learned that there was a way to make them immortal, they would either not believe it or go crazy. But no matter what, as long as it was confirmed, they would do whatever it took to achieve immortality.”

“It could be said that after grasping these top powerful people, the entire original world could be dominated by Tang Zhen.”

“From Tang Zhen’s point of view, the original world’s potential was much worse than the loucheng world. However, it could provide him with sufficient supplies and billions of people.”

“His goal was to build an incomparably huge tower in the world of towers. It might be a continent-level tower, a planet-level tower, or even an even bigger one.”

“The foundation of all these dreams was Tang Zhen’s successful completion of the soul hosting secret technique. Therefore, Tang Zhen did not wish for there to be any deviation in Ivanov’s ‘rebirth’ experiment.”

“Recalling the information recorded in the secret technique, he took out a pen and paper and listed a large list of materials needed to complete the soul lodging secret technique. Some of these materials could only be found in the loucheng world, and some could be bought in the original world.”

“Inside the cave, Qian Long and Tai Seng were fiddling with a hand grenade with curious looks on their faces. Coincidentally, Tang Zhen had just returned. When he saw this scene, he was so frightened that he immediately shouted, f * ck, you two don’t want to live anymore. Don’t move!”

“Upon hearing this, Qian Long and Tai Seng immediately stopped moving. Even the subtle expressions on their faces froze as they carried out Tang Zhen’s order extremely thoroughly.”

“When Tang Zhen saw this, he walked over in a bad mood. He snatched the grenade from Qian Long’s hand and examined it. Fortunately, he didn’t open the safety. Otherwise, if the grenade exploded and detonated the military fire in the cave, not only would these two guys lose their lives, but his newly built building would also probably be destroyed.”

“If it really came to that time, Tang Zhen would want to cry but have no tears.”

“Seeing the disapproving look on the two people’s faces, it seemed that they both thought that this little metal lump was not a big deal. Tang Zhen’s nervousness was clearly making a mountain out of a molehill.”

“Tang Zhen helplessly laughed. Only the natives of these two tower worlds would be foolish and bold enough to do such a thing. If it was someone from the original world who had some military knowledge, they would not do something that would cause them to be smashed into pieces if they were not careful.”

“””Do you guys think that this thing is nothing special? you even want to use a rock to break it open and see.”” ”

“Tang Zhen asked. Qian Long and Tai Seng chuckled. Even though they didn’t say anything, their expressions clearly proved that Tang Zhen had guessed correctly.”

“Tang Zhen furiously glared at Qian Long. He then waved his hand and said,””You two bastards, come with me. I’ll show you the power of this thing today. Otherwise, you won’t even know how you died!”” ”

“When Qian Long and Tai Seng saw Tang Zhen’s expression, they felt that the matter wasn’t as simple as they had imagined. After exchanging a glance, the two of them walked out.”

“Tang Zhen came to the open space in front of the building and avoided the residents who were working on the construction. He pointed to the mound in front and said,””Look closely, this is the power of that little metal lump you’re fiddling with.”” ”

“After speaking, Tang Zhen swung his hand and threw out a defensive grenade with its safety pin removed. After which, he pressed the two of them to the ground.”

“Just when Qian Long and Tai Seng thought that the metal lump would smash a small hole in the ground, a loud explosion sounded out, and countless pieces of rock shot out. The residents who were working in the distance were also shocked by the explosion.”

f * ck! That metal lump is actually a bomb!

“Qian Long had followed Tang Zhen for a long time and had learned how to use vulgarities when he was agitated. The moment he heard the violent sound, he immediately guessed the use of this metal lump, causing him to break out in cold sweat. ”

“Tai Seng, who had also witnessed the power of the bomb, was also filled with lingering fear at this moment. This was because he had just suggested to Qian Long to smash this metal lump with a Metal Hammer to see what was inside. ”

“It was fortunate that Tang Zhen had rushed back before they could take action. Otherwise, he and Qian Long might have already died. ”

“Tang Zhen had brought a lot of resources from his original world, and they involved many fields. In the eyes of Tai Seng, who was in charge of guarding the place, they were all very strange, but they were extremely useful. ”

“After a long time, Tai Seng gained a new hobby, and that was to study the uses of these things. Every time he figured out how to use an item, Tai Seng would be happy for a long time. ”

“So this time, after Tang Zhen got a huge pile of firearms, Tai Seng didn’t dare to touch anything that seemed to be firearms. Instead, he picked up a grenade that he didn’t think was dangerous and started studying it with Qian Long. ”

“””Damn, I was almost killed by you this time!”” ”

Qian Long crawled up from the ground and gave Tai Seng’s butt a kick. Tai Seng didn’t get angry and even scratched his head in embarrassment. His gaze toward Tang Zhen was slightly evasive.

“Tang Zhen smiled when he saw this and said,””alright, just be careful next time.”” Also, you must keep a close eye on those firearms. Don’t let anyone get close, especially not fireworks. Otherwise, the entire Holy Dragon City might be blown up!”” ”

“Tai Seng’s expression froze for a moment before he nodded his head vigorously. Right now, the Holy Dragon City was his life, and anyone who wanted to plot against the Holy Dragon City would become Tai Seng’s mortal enemy! ”

“Since Tang Zhen said that the firearms would destroy the Holy Dragon City if they were not properly guarded, then Tai Seng would definitely not allow that to happen! ”

Chapter 90: Are you blind?

“Qian Long and Tai Seng were still unwilling to give up and ran over to the mound to take a look, but they soon returned without a word with constipated expressions on their faces. ”

“Tang Zhen still had a lot of things to do and didn’t have time to talk nonsense with these two guys. He told Qian Long the items on the list and asked him to try his best to gather them within two days. After that, Tang Zhen returned to the cave and teleported to the basement of the Ivanov family’s house. ”

“After getting Qian Long to prepare the materials, he had to prepare the rest himself. ”

“The secret technique of soul lodging was actually very simple, and the materials required were not scarce. However, it had several key points, and without these points, there was no possibility of successfully performing this secret technique. ”

“The first was the brain, which was the foundation of the soul lodging secret technique. The stronger the soul, the higher the level of the brain required for lodging. As for the soul of an ordinary person, only a level 1 brain was needed for lodging. ”

“Next were the runes and activation incantations. The runes needed to be carved on the brain, and they would operate automatically when they came into contact with fresh blood. Because the pineal gland in the brain was the real residence of the soul, when the brain approached it, it could absorb the soul in the fastest time and make it reside in the brain. ”

“Otherwise, once they sensed that their bodies were dead, their souls would also quickly die without the support of the body’s essence Qi. ”

“The activation incantation was placed in the core of the brain, and it was chanted along with the runes carved. Then, the user could set the password to activate the soul transmission according to His will, or even silently cast it. ”

“The third was the special magic circle drawn by the monster’s blood with the energy provided by the brain. Without this magic circle, the soul lodging secret technique could not be successfully performed. ”

He used a simplified version of the soul lodging secret technique on Ivanov. He could only stay in a body and could not leave or enter at will. He could only rely on Tang Zhen’s help to complete the body replacement.

“If Ivanov had used a body that had been cultivated by Tang Zhen’s Secret technique, he would be able to achieve a 100% compatibility. It would also save him the trouble of having to change his body every few years. ”

“Unfortunately, Tang Zhen did not have the time to cultivate such a body for the time being. Even if he did, he did not intend to give it to Ivanov to use now. ”

“Only by making Ivanov rely on Tang Zhen’s help to change his body to live would Tang Zhen be able to completely control this guy. Although he could also use some small tricks when using the soul lodging secret technique, the effect would not be as obvious and direct as changing his body! ”

“Tang Zhen planned to use two days to prepare the materials. At midnight on the third day, he would conduct the first soul lodging secret technique experiment. ”

“After driving out of the Ivanov family’s house, Tang Zhen drove towards Urban area. When he passed a fork, Tang Zhen saw a tall beauty waving her hand to stop a car. ”

“Looking at her appearance, this beauty was not a typical member of the ice Bear Alliance. Instead, she seemed to be of mixed blood. Her figure was curvaceous, and her skin was snow-white without any color spots. Her height was almost the same as Tang Zhen. She wore a light gray pullover and jeans, and her long legs were extremely straight. ”

“Especially her pretty face, which was very delicate and clean, which made people feel comfortable.”

“After Tang Zhen came to the ice Bear Alliance, this was the first time he had seen a beauty that suited his taste. In addition, there were very few people in the vicinity. He also wanted to find someone to inquire about something, so he slowly stopped the car.”

“After seeing Tang Zhen stop the car, the girl smiled and opened the car door. After which, she sat inside.”

“Tang Zhen felt that the girl’s long golden hair had a faint fragrance. At the same time, this girl’s body also had a faint fragrance. Tang Zhen heard that the people of the ice Bear Alliance had strong body odor, but the smell of this girl gave people a trace of intoxicating and impulsive feeling.”

“““Thank you, sir. I wonder if you can drive faster on this road?”” ”

“The girl extended her hand and pointed at a path. After that, she glanced at Tang Zhen and continued,”“I know that my request may be unreasonable, but I really have something urgent to attend to. Besides, there are no other cars here, so I’ll have to take a step.”” ”

“Tang Zhen stopped the girl from continuing. After which, the off-road vehicle slightly turned around, stepped on the accelerator, and rushed out toward that road.”

“““I’m sorry for the trouble, but i still have to thank you, sir!”” ”

“When the girl saw that the speed of the off-road vehicle was getting faster and faster, the anxious expression on her face eased up a lot, and she thanked Tang Zhen again and again.”

“““If this road leads to the city, then I’m just going the same way. You don’t have to thank me.”” ”

“Tang Zhen said with a smile. At the same time, he asked the girl a few questions that he wanted to ask. Fortunately, this girl was a local. She gave perfect answers to the few questions that Tang Zhen asked.”

“As the two of them were talking, the girl suddenly pointed at the motorcycles in front of them and said, “““Sir, please help me stop that motorcycle. It’s that bald guy in the leather jacket.”” ”

“Tang Zhen glanced at the girl. He twisted the steering wheel in his hand and forcefully inserted himself into the path of the motorcycle, forcing the motorcycle that the girl had pointed out to stop.”

“Tang Zhen’s car had just stopped when he saw the girl jump out of the off-road vehicle. Then, she pulled the young man in the leather jacket and questioned him in an angry tone.”

“After Tang Zhen heard a few words, he understood the whole story of the matter.”

“The bald young man was the girl’s older brother. She had a sick mother at home. When the older brother came home just now, he took the money that the family had left for his mother’s treatment. It seemed that he was going to use it to prepare for a gathering with his motorcycle-riding friends.”

“When the girl returned home and heard about this, she immediately chased after him, and then the scene of them taking a bus by the side of the road happened.”

Tang Zhen did not step forward to interrupt when he saw the two siblings arguing. This was their family matter and was also a very sensitive topic. Outsiders should not easily intervene in this kind of topic at any time.

“Tang Zhen didn’t want to cause trouble at this moment, but trouble came to him.”

“A few well-built young men surrounded Tang Zhen. After which, one of them cursed at Tang Zhen,” “Fuck, you damned monkey, are you blind? You just ruined my car and scared my brothers. If you don’t leave a hundred thousand dollars as compensation, I’ll make you die like a stray dog.”

“After saying that, the young man waved the big bolli knife in his hand and sized up Tang Zhen. It was as if he was trying to figure out which part of his body would be more comfortable to stab the knife in.”

“Tang Zhen sneered. He didn’t speak any nonsense at all. He swung his fist and hit the knife-wielding youth’s nose, causing his nose to cave in.”

“When they saw Zhen Tang suddenly take action, the dozen or so young men at the side immediately howled. One after another, they rushed over and surrounded Zhen Tang. Some of them were even holding weapons that they had just pulled out from their motorcycles.”

“The brother and sister who were quarreling at the side also stopped. When the girl saw that Tang Zhen was being surrounded, she wanted to step forward and rescue him. However, she was firmly held back by her brother.”

“If he were to rush in now, these bastards would probably not even spare his sister. All he could do now was wait and hope that the young man from the Asian Alliance would not be killed.”

“However, things didn’t go in the direction that the siblings had expected. The youth, who they thought would soon fall to the ground and wail, didn’t fall. Instead, he waved a leather whip made of a triangular belt and whipped a dozen fierce youths until they cried.”

“The triangular belt was made of rubber and nylon rope. It was a ring-shaped object used to provide power for the engine and other equipment. It was very flexible and strong. It was very painful to whip people. Often, a whip would leave an eye-catching bloody mark on the body.”

“The brother and sister only saw the shadow of the whip flash, and the sound of the whip hitting the flesh was endless. The screams of more than a dozen young men also rose and fell. They seemed to want to Dodge and counterattack, but every second, the whips would land on their bodies and faces.”

“More than a dozen people, each one of them was exactly the same. Their speed was so fast that it was as if the youth had more than a dozen arms. Each arm was dedicated to watching one person, and then whipping them to death!”

“It took a full three minutes for Tang Zhen to calm down and stop. Around him, there were many young men whose clothes had been torn apart and were soaked in blood. There was not a single part of their bodies that was intact.”

“Their skin was swollen from the whipping, and blood and cell fluid kept oozing out of the whip marks. It was a terrible sight.”

“Despite being whipped so miserably, none of these young men let out a wail. All they could do was groan because they were too weak to make a sound.”

Tang Zhen looked at those young men who were covered in blood on the ground. There was not the slightest pity in his eyes. The bad performance of this group of people earlier had already proved that they were a group of complete villains. It would not be too much for them to suffer any punishment.

“The unscathed brother and sister looked at the dozen or so strong men on the ground and then at Tang Zhen, who was using a triangular belt to slap the flat-nosed young man. Just because he was blocking their way, they felt their hair stand on end.”

What was the background of this terrifying guy?
