Chapter 861 The conditions (1)

The elder of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe trembled when he saw his thousands of subordinates being so easily disposed of, floating on the surface of the water like dead fish. He almost fainted from anger.

Where did the other party come from? how could he possess such a terrifying weapon? why had he never heard of it before?

He had previously thought of snatching his opponent's weapon, but now it seemed that he had overestimated himself.

As soon as he woke up from his sweet dream, the tribe elder immediately realized that something was wrong.

The enemy's strength was far beyond his imagination. First, the sea beast Knights were instantly crippled, and then the tribal warriors who were diving to attack were all killed in one fell swoop. In the face of such an unusually fast harvest method, he really didn't know what to do.

Perhaps the Mastiff Dragon Tribe would not be able to escape this time!

After this thought appeared in his mind, the tribe elder was shocked. He secretly glanced around. After making sure that no one was paying attention to him, he quietly hid in a garbage ship and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

It was also at this moment that the patriarch of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe and the other elders arrived. They stared at the floating metal Island, which had already stopped moving, with wide eyes.

As far as the eye could see, the floating metal Island was like a Super Monster, quietly crouching on the surface of the sea, ready to swallow the Mastiff Dragon Tribe in one bite!

what are these things? where did they come from? "

The Mastiff Dragon chief's fat arms kept waving, and his face was twisted as he pointed at the floating metal Island and asked loudly. However, no one could answer his question.

"A bunch of trash, trash!"

The Mastiff Dragon Tribe leader roared in anger, pointing at one of his trusted subordinates and saying, "Go over immediately and ask them what they want."

The henchman trembled in fear and almost knelt on the ground.

He had also seen the corpses floating in the sea. They almost filled the surface of the water. The pungent smell of blood could still be smelled even from where he was.

"Chief, I'll do it!"

Seeing his confidant's reaction, the clan leader was furious. He kicked him down and roared with a gloomy face, "Cut the crap and do as I say, or I'll kill you immediately!"

Seeing this, the confidant knew that the clan leader had the intention to kill. He did not dare to hesitate and quickly ordered people to steer the garbage ship, approaching the metal floating island in fear.

When they were still far away from the floating metal island, the clan leader's confidant shouted, "Don't attack, don't attack!"

"I don't have any weapons and I'm only asking on behalf of the patriarch. What's your purpose in coming here?"

Repeating the same words over and over again, the confidant of the clan leader shouted until he was almost out of breath, but he did not dare to stop, afraid that the other party would attack him.

Glancing at the incomplete corpses floating by the garbage ship, the confidant of the chief was even more scared, and his legs trembled violently.

The thought of being hit by such a terrifying weapon sent a chill down his spine.

He, who had gained the trust of the clan leader by flattering him, had never experienced such a situation before. It was already a good thing that he didn't wet his pants!

Fortunately, before he got close to the metal floating island, the other party didn't attack. This also made him feel a little more at ease.

He looked up at the huge metal floating island. A shadow covered his tiny body, making him look like an ant.

"Who are you guys, and what are you doing here?"

The clan leader's confidant suppressed the fear in his heart and raised his head to shout.

As soon as he finished speaking, a metal platform quickly descended at the edge of the metal floating island. A middle-aged man with an ancient face stood on it and looked at him with cold eyes.

After seeing the middle-aged man's appearance, the clan leader's confidant suddenly felt that he was somewhat familiar. He pondered for a moment and suddenly shouted, "It's old Yu, it's you, you damn fellow!"

"When you fell into the whirlpool, you didn't die. You're really lucky!"

After seeing the familiar enemy, the clan leader's confidant no longer had the timid look from before. Instead, he appeared to be aggressive.

After hearing the patriarch's confidant's words, the old fish sneered and shouted in a low voice, "Cut the crap. You're lucky that I didn't kill you back then, but I'll take revenge sooner or later!" He said.

The clan leader's confidant sneered and said in a disdainful tone, "you're just a lowly Vagabond on the sea, and you want to take revenge on me? I think you should give up on this idea!"

At this point, the clan leader's confidant glanced at the huge metal floating island with a hint of envy in his eyes. He said to old Yu, "So, you're the one who attracted these people?"

"Hehehe, I didn't expect you to have this kind of ability. You must have gotten a lot of benefits!"

I won't waste time with you. Just tell me, what is your purpose in coming to my Mastiff Dragon Tribe and killing my Warriors?"

what's the purpose?" old Yu sneered. of course, I'm going to kill all of you!

The clan leader's confidant was shocked when he heard this.

"Old Yu, is this true?"

what? are you afraid? if that's the case, then quickly betray the Mastiff Dragon Tribe and come to me, just like how you betrayed our chief!

Old Yu sneered, his face full of disdain.

The clan leader's confidant blushed and argued, " you can't blame me for what happened back then. It's that guy's fault for not opening his mind. Sooner or later, he'll suffer a big loss, and in the end, he'll even implicate us!

"So you betrayed us, took the treasure to the Mastiff Dragon Tribe, and killed us all?

I fell into the whirlpool and didn't die, but after you saw my son, you ordered people to beat him up, right?"

Old Yu's face was frighteningly gloomy as he spoke. He clenched his fists, making cracking sounds.

Looking at the clan leader's confidant who was avoiding his gaze, old fish suddenly laughed and pointed at him."Let's not talk about the past for now. I can tell you now that my master has come here for only one purpose, and that is to destroy your Mastiff Dragon Tribe!

Of course, if you can kill the protector of the tribe and hand over all the treasures, my master can consider letting you Live!

If you still don't make a decision in an hour, my master will launch an attack. Once the battle starts, not a single blade of grass will be left!

That's all I want to say. Hurry up and go back and tell your clan leader.

As for the enmity between us, we can slowly settle it when the time comes!"

After temporarily suppressing the killing intent in his heart, old Yu no longer paid any attention to the clan leader's confidant. He sat on the metal platform and quickly rose into the air, returning to the metal floating island.

Seeing old Yu's disappearing figure, the patriarch's confidant's eyes flashed with killing intent, but it was quickly replaced by fear.

He knew that old Fisher was not joking. If he did not follow the other party's request, a battle would be inevitable.

In the blink of an eye, thousands of Mastiff Dragon Tribe soldiers had been killed. Who knew what other methods they had and how terrifying their killing power was?

If the Mastiff Dragon Tribe really failed and he fell into old Yu's hands, then with the new and old grudges between the two of them, he was afraid that he would be better off dead!

As if he had thought of something, the patriarch's confidant's body suddenly trembled. He glanced at the floating metal Island with a complicated expression, then quickly returned to the Mastiff Dragon Tribe.

Chapter 862 Human wave tactics (1)

In the Mastiff Dragon Tribe, the chubby chief was sitting on a chair, eating the food offered by the woman beside him.

The confidant who had just returned was telling him the Holy Dragon city's conditions in full detail, not daring to falsify or hide anything.

After hearing that the Holy Dragon City wanted him to kill the protector and hand over all the treasures, his fat body suddenly jumped up from the chair and slapped his confidant's face, causing blood to flow from his mouth and nose.

trash, you're all a bunch of trash. You've completely disgraced the Mastiff Dragon Tribe!

Not seeing the venomous eyes of his confidant, the clan leader sneered and looked in the direction of the floating metal Island. "It seems that the other party's goal is not small. It is definitely not something that can be dismissed with a little benefit!

I'm very curious, I don't know where this group of people came from, I don't know what their abilities are, but their tone is not small!"

At this point, he glanced at the corpses floating on the sea and seemed to think of the power of the terrifying weapon. He then shouted coldly, "since these guys want the treasure of my Mastiff Dragon Tribe, then they'll take it with their own abilities. As for The Guardian, they'll have to be able to defeat it first!

At this point, the clan leader coldly glanced at the influential members of the tribe around him and sternly shouted, "The enemy is now blocking the door. From the conditions they put forward, it is clear that they want to force us to our deaths!

I admit that they're very powerful, but that's definitely not a reason for us to retreat.

If we don't force them back, when they break into the tribe, none of you will be able to escape!"

Seeing the complicated expressions on the faces of the nobles, the Mastiff dragon clan leader continued with a dark expression, "I know you're not convinced that I'm the patriarch, and some of you even spread rumors that I'm the one who killed the old patriarch!

Hehehe, I'll tell you today, no matter how I got my position as the clan leader, as long as I'm the clan leader, you have to obey my orders.

The enemy is right in front of us. If anyone dares to slack off or try to stop us, I'll make sure he's better off dead!"

The Mastiff Dragon chief's facial muscles were almost twisted together as he said this. His squinted little eyes revealed a terrifying light.

The four cultivators who had been following him all this time also clenched their sabers tightly, as if they were ready to kill at any moment!

When the influential people of the tribes who were scheming saw this, their hearts trembled. They all said that they would go all out and fight to the death with the enemy!

They had no choice but to express their stance, because from the clan leader's attitude, if anyone dared to disobey his orders, he would definitely pull them out and kill them to intimidate everyone.

After seeing the reactions of the nobles, the clan leader snorted coldly. He then turned to a sea beast Rider beside him and said, "Since the other party is so arrogant that he gave us time to think, then if we don't make good use of it, wouldn't we be too tactless?"

Weren't their weapons very powerful? they seemed to be able to easily deal with a few thousand people, so how would they be able to deal with tens of thousands or even hundreds of thousands of people?

Pass on my order, except for the women and children, all the rest of the tribe are to fight. Today, even if I have to pile up people, I will pile them to death!

I'd like to see if their weapons are more powerful than the tactics of my Mastiff Dragon Tribe!"

All of the nobles present were taken aback by the Mastiff dragon clan leader's words, and their eyes were filled with shock.

This guy was a madman. He would actually use this kind of human wave tactic of sacrificing his life to try to repel the enemy's attack!

Even if the enemy was defeated in the end, the Mastiff Dragon Tribe would suffer a great loss. Who knew how many of their tribesmen would die because of this?

Would the Mastiff Dragon Tribe be able to recover its former strength without its large numbers of tribesmen? would those who had been secretly coveting the Mastiff Dragon Tribe, and even those who had long since become mortal enemies with them, miss this opportunity for revenge?

This was something that the Mastiff Dragon Tribe had to consider after defeating the enemy. But what if the enemy won and really destroyed the tribe?

If it really came to this point, what should he do?

For a moment, the hearts of the nobles were filled with all kinds of worries, but when they saw the Mastiff dragon clan leader's gloomy face, no one dared to speak.

If anyone were to surrender now, they would definitely be killed immediately!

At this time, the sea beast riders who had received the order had already led their remaining companions into the tribe. They galloped through the waterway and spread the order of the tribe leader.

The Mastiff Dragon tribesmen who had received the order were all dumbfounded. After a moment of silence, they took out all kinds of strange weapons from the garbage ships and gathered outside the tribe.

In the Mastiff Dragon Tribe, no one was allowed to disobey the orders of the chief, or they would die.

It was even more so in the face of a great enemy.

Moreover, if the enemy really attacked, they wouldn't be able to escape, so they might as well take the risk.

As for whether he would live or die, that would all depend on luck!

In the midst of the shouts and cries, streams of people moved along the waterway and quickly gathered into a dense pile, filling the waterway outside the tribe.

In just a few minutes, tens of thousands of Mastiff Dragon tribesmen had gathered, and the number was still increasing!

They looked at the floating metal Island in the distance with different expressions on their faces, but the scene was unusually quiet, so quiet that it was a little strange.

No one spoke during the entire process. They only clenched the weapons in their hands and gritted their teeth, not letting their legs tremble.

The Mastiff Dragon Tribe leader, who was sitting in the garbage ship, laughed out loud when he saw this, his face full of pride.

"All of you, open your eyes wide and take a look. This is the strength of our Mastiff Dragon Tribe. With so many brave warriors, what do we have to fear?"

After glancing at the silent nobles beside him, the clan leader let out a disdainful snort and said to the leader of the sea beast riders, who was waiting for orders, "Next, you will be in charge of the command. Lead these clansmen to surround the enemy from all four directions. Remember, don't form a tight formation, the more scattered, the better!

Remember this, no matter how powerful the enemy's weapons are or how many casualties there are, you don't have to care. Just keep charging forward!

As long as we board the ship and hold them back for a short time, we'll kill them all once our people board the ship!"

The Mastiff dragon clan leader couldn't help but coldly snort, they want to take advantage of my Mastiff Dragon Tribe? I don't know if they have such a good appetite. Aren't they afraid of losing all their teeth?"

When the sea beast Rider heard this, a hint of fear flashed in his eyes. He knew that he would not be able to return from this battle.

From the Mastiff Dragon chief's words, it was clear that he wanted the sea beast riders to be the first to climb onto the enemy's metal Island.

When he thought of the terrifying weapon of the enemy and the tragic death of his familiar companion, the leader of the Knights "heart twitched.

In the following battle, they would be the first to bear the brunt, and their fate could be imagined!

"This subordinate will do as you command!"

Under the Mastiff Dragon chief's cold gaze, the leader of the sea beast riders gritted his teeth, cupped his hands, and bowed. He then walked out.

After gathering the remaining sea beast riders and re-dividing them into four teams, these sea beast riders led the dense pack of Mastiff Dragons behind them. They either rode on garbage warships or swam across the water. Like a flock of ducks out of their cages, they rushed madly towards the metal floating island!

Chapter 863 Charge of death (1!

The saying "when there are more than ten thousand people, there is no end" was indeed true!

At this moment, tens of thousands of the Mastiff Dragon tribe's tribesmen were gathered together. The sight of them moving quickly on the surface of the sea was enough to make one's heart jump.

Under the lead of the ocean beast riders, they quickly rushed in all four directions. At the same time, they tried their best to distance themselves from each other to reduce the killing rate of the metal bullets.

It was clear that the two probing attacks had given the Mastiff Dragon Tribe a way to avoid them.

In an extremely short time, all the Mastiff Dragons were in position, directly surrounding the floating metal Island of Holy Dragon City.

With everyone in position, the attack quickly began. However, Holy Dragon City did not open fire for some unknown reason.

However, the hot-blooded Mastiff Dragon tribesmen, who were focused on charging forward, were in no mood to care about these things.

At this moment, the Mastiff Dragon Tribe members who were steering the trashy warships were rapidly moving the oars in their hands. They didn't care about the creaking sounds of the ship and the danger of it falling apart at any moment. They just wanted to be faster, just a little faster!

As for the Mastiff Dragon Tribe members swimming in the water, they pushed the garbage warships forward as they swam. While they pushed the garbage warships forward, they also found a simple cover for themselves.

After witnessing the terrifying might of the Holy Dragon city's weapons and the corpses floating around in the surrounding sea, the Mastiff Dragon clansmen were filled with sorrow and unwillingness.

They were already mentally prepared for what kind of blow they would suffer in the process of this attack.

It was possible that half of the clansmen who had participated in the attack this time would not be able to return!

However, when the time came, they had no other choice but to keep moving forward in silence, hoping that they could get closer to the floating metal Island.

As long as he could get onto the metal floating island, it would be hard to say who would win the next battle.

However, they also knew that the enemy would never give them such an opportunity. Perhaps in the next second, the enemy would directly attack!

After all, this was a bloody war. If he showed any mercy, he would definitely be the one to die!

Therefore, in order to ensure his own survival, the best choice was to kill the enemy!

Just as the Mastiff Dragon Tribe had predicted, when they were less than a thousand meters away from the floating metal Island, the terrifying weapons suddenly opened fire. Countless metal bullets poured down like a Metal Storm, sweeping across the entire sea.

The prologue of death was pulled open, and the entire sea suddenly became a living hell.

The traveling garbage ship was the first to be affected. After coming into contact with the metal Storm, it was immediately smashed into pieces and quickly shattered into pieces.

Many of the Mastiff Dragon tribesmen who couldn't Dodge in time were also covered by the terrifying Metal Storm. They didn't even have time to scream before they were torn into irregular pieces!

A few Mastiff Dragon tribesmen who were swimming in the sea watched as their tribesmen on the garbage ship were shot into pieces by the bullets, blood, and brain matter splattering on their faces.

This horrifying and tragic scene almost scared them to death!

On the surface of the sea around them, dense water pillars continuously shot up into the sky, and similar scenes of death could be seen everywhere!

However, most of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe members had already dived deep into the water when they launched their attacks, attempting to avoid the Metal Storm's harvest.

After the two failed attacks, they had discovered that the terrifying weapons had limited destructive power against targets in the deep water.

In the sea, some of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe members with extraordinary skills could even reach out and grab those tiny metal balls!

However, the bottom of the ocean wasn't the safest place to be. The powerful underwater bombs had directly wiped out all the Mastiff Dragons hiding in the ocean.

Therefore, after diving into the water, these Mastiff Dragons began to swim forward with all their might, while keeping a close eye on the water above their heads.

The moment the shock bomb landed, they would quickly rush out of the water to avoid the attack.

It was just as the Mastiff dragon race had expected. Just as they dived into the water, more than a dozen giant bombs were thrown into the water one after another, erupting with a series of loud sounds.

The deafening explosion and shockwave spread out, wreaking havoc underwater. Many of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe members who didn't manage to jump out of the water in time were knocked unconscious.

For a time, the bottom of the sea was filled with unconscious Mastiff Dragon tribesmen, floating around with the sea water. It wouldn't be long before they drowned and suffocated to death!

But at this moment, no one had the time to save them, because if they hesitated, they would be the next people floating in the water.

After dodging this wave of shock bombs, the Mastiff Dragon clansmen felt much more confident. Their eyes were bloodshot, and they quickly dove into the water again, rushing toward the metal floating island.

The Mastiff Dragon Tribe members at the forefront were already less than a hundred meters away from the floating metal island. When they felt the massive size of the ship, they were once again shocked.

To be able to use metal to make such a huge floating island, the strength of the other party could be imagined. To fight against such an enemy, regardless of victory or defeat, one would definitely have to pay an extremely heavy price!

Since that was the case, he could only fight to the death!

Seeing that they were about to reach their target, a powerful force rose in the hearts of all the Mastiff Dragons, driving them to speed up again.

But at that moment, through the clear water, they found thick ropes being thrown into the sea. The ends of the ropes were flashing with lightning-like arcs.

"Damn it, what the hell is this?"

Just as this thought flashed through his mind, the Mastiff Dragon tribesmen who were approaching the thick rope suddenly felt their bodies go numb and passed out in violent twitches.

This kind of high-voltage current was not something they could resist at all!

In this case, even if they were good at swimming, they would unconsciously drown in the process of fainting, which led to a suffocating death.

However, the electrical resistance of the seawater was too high, so the high-voltage cables did not exert too much power. At most, they could knock out the surrounding Mastiff Dragons.

But even so, there were still a large number of Mastiff Dragons who had completely lost their fighting strength. They floated to the surface of the water in a dense mass, a shocking scene!

However, most of the Mastiff Dragons managed to avoid all of the attacks, and safely reached the bottom of the metal island. As they leaped, their hands and feet hung on the metal hull.

This situation was beyond the Holy Dragon city's expectations.

It turned out that even though the metal hull did not have any pressure points, the Mastiff Dragon Tribe had already prepared a way to deal with it. This was because there were suction cups on their palms. As long as they controlled the contraction of their muscles, they could easily attach themselves to the hull.

In the end, they were still aliens, and all of them had some special innate abilities. Although they were restricted in the water world, at this moment, they were just in time to come in handy!

This was also the reason why the nobles of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe didn't have to worry about climbing up the floating metal Island even though they knew that it was tall and smooth. This was because they had the special ability to absorb and climb.

The situation on the battlefield was ever-changing. Under the threat of death, all the participants would unleash their potential, and their speed was almost unbelievable.

And the current situation was obviously very unfavorable for Holy Dragon City!

Chapter 864 The blood-soaked floating island

In the blink of an eye, the Mastiff Dragon tribesmen, who had suffered heavy casualties during the charge, had already reached the bottom of the metal floating island.

They were like geckoes all over the ship, constantly climbing up, each one fighting to be the first.

When the Mastiff dragon clan chief saw this from a distance, he immediately clapped his hands and laughed, his face full of pride.

He could already see the Mastiff Dragon Tribe landing on the metal floating island and completely defeating Holy Dragon City!

When the other influential members of the tribe saw this, they were also full of smiles. They had more or less a trace of confidence in winning this battle.

They were very familiar with the fighting strength of their own people, and with the use of the human wave tactic, it was hard to say whether the enemy could resist them if they swarmed up later.

However, what happened next made their faces turn ugly.

It turned out that on the floating metal Island, other than the terrifying weapons that were firing wildly, a group of enemies had suddenly appeared. They were holding strange weapons that were about a meter long. They were constantly shooting out dense and terrifying metal bullets, shooting down the Mastiff Dragon clansmen who were climbing up.

Even though the Mastiff Dragons tried their best to Dodge and counterattack, the effect was still not obvious. The Mastiff Dragons who were shot let out blood-curdling screams and fell into the sea.

From a distance, the Mastiff Dragon Tribe members were like dumplings being dropped into the sea. They kept crashing into the sea, splashing water everywhere.

It was very dangerous to fall into the water from such a height. In addition, they were shot, so the chances of survival were very low!

With the advantage of the terrain, the Holy Dragon city's soldiers could easily avoid the enemy's counterattacks, and then unhurriedly kill these Mastiff Dragons. For a moment, they completely suppressed the charging momentum of the Mastiff Dragons, and no one could climb onto the metal floating island!

"Dammit, dammit! Bastard, bastard!"

&Nbsp; " you ...! the Mastiff Dragon Tribe leader saw this and immediately flew into a rage.

After he smashed a precious cup, he turned his head and waved to a cultivator beside him.

This cultivator was dressed in a long robe, which was completely different from the other Mastiff Dragons. He looked proud and aloof.

This cultivator was the Mastiff Dragon tribe's Holy master, and his cultivation had already reached the level of a feudal lord!

After receiving the order from the Mastiff Dragon Chief, the Holy master began to wave the pocket-sized harpoon in his hand. He held a large handful of blood-red beads the size of rice grains in his hand and kept chanting.

A wave of energy quickly gathered around the tribe's Holy master. He spat out blood and pointed at the Mastiff Dragons charging at him.

"Pfft pfft pfft"

The Mastiff Dragon tribesmen who were climbing up the mountain were trembling in fear as they dodged the bullets. However, they suddenly realized that their companions beside them were screaming in pain. Their bodies became like cooked prawns, and they were wailing in extreme pain.

However, as soon as the howl rang out, their bodies suddenly exploded.

What was strange was that after their bodies exploded, their blood and flesh actually formed a cloud of blood mist that didn't dissipate. There seemed to be a sinister and twisted face hidden in it, slowly floating above their heads.

The blood mist blocked the Holy Dragon city's soldiers' line of sight, providing the Mastiff Dragon Tribe with the best cover as they climbed up.

Seeing this, the Mastiff Dragon clansmen's spirits were lifted. They roared and rushed to the top of the floating metal island.

The moment they jumped onto the metal floating island, the Mastiff Dragons did not hesitate at all. They pounced on the Holy Dragon city's soldiers closest to them.

"Brothers, remember to avenge me!"

A sea beast Rider rushed to the deck and fought with a Holy Dragon City soldier. After being stabbed several times, he shouted in despair.

As soon as he finished speaking, he charged fiercely at the Holy Dragon City warrior in front of him. He did not care about the sword that was stabbed into his chest. He grinned hideously and pulled a metal box from his waist.

“Bang!”

After a muffled sound, the place where the two of them were was covered in thick smoke, leaving only two severely corroded wreckage. At the same time, a black, viscous liquid splashed in all directions, quickly corroding everything in contact with black smoke.

Many Holy Dragon City soldiers were drenched by the black liquid. Their armors were burned through, and their white bones could be seen through their exposed skin!

After the first ocean Beast Rider did this, a second and a third Wufu appeared.

For a moment, the Holy Dragon city’s orderly defensive formation was thrown into chaos, allowing even more Mastiff Dragons to take the opportunity to climb up.

Seeing the sea beast riders self-destructing, the Mastiff Dragons immediately let out wild roars and pounced on the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers without a care for their lives.

Their eyes were bloodshot as they roared, as if they wanted to vent all the anger in their hearts.

Any enemy who stood in front of them would be their target and completely torn to pieces!

The Holy Dragon city’s officers who had suffered the deaths of their subordinates had gloomy expressions. Although their fallen subordinates could be reborn through a host body, they could not swallow the anger in their hearts.

The Holy Dragon City of today was no longer the same as before. Not only did the level of the cultivators in Loucheng increase rapidly, but the soldiers in Loucheng were also not like before, where they were all composed of ordinary people.

The Holy Dragon city’s soldiers who had entered the overseas battlefield this time were all Rank 2 and above. They had undergone professional and strict military training and had all seen blood on the battlefield!

Their powerful cultivation, steel-like willpower, and their fearless fighting style allowed them to possess extremely terrifying combat power after being equipped with the Holy Dragon city’s standard weapons!

The Mastiff Dragon tribesmen, who had been driven by fear and anger, were no match for them.

The military officers who had originally planned to capture more prisoners instead of killing them directly gave the order to kill all the enemies on the deck. This gave the Mastiff Dragon Tribe another head-on blow!

At this moment, seeing the Mastiff Dragons charging at them, a soldier wielding a war blade jumped out from the small team of Holy Dragon City soldiers. He grinned evilly and faced the Mastiff Dragons, who were clad in simple armor and had no protective gear.

Without any scruples, their true battle was completely revealed. Their close combat ability was by no means ordinary!

Saber Light flashed, and miserable screams rang out. The Mastiff Dragon tribesmen who had rushed up to the floating metal Island were all terrified. The scene of slaughter they had imagined had not appeared. Instead, their tribesmen had all been killed. The metal deck was covered in the corpses of the Mastiff Dragon tribesmen, their skin and flesh rolled up!

Under the interception of the Holy Dragon city's powerful firepower, only a small number of Mastiff Dragons were able to reach the floating metal Island. Compared to the Holy Dragon city's soldiers that filled the entire edge of the floating metal Island, this small number was not even worth mentioning.

As for the Mastiff Dragon tribesmen lying in pools of blood, in the last moments of their lives, they saw the scene of despair that had befallen them on the floating metal Island.

There were at least 10000 soldiers sitting quietly on the deck, coldly watching the slaughter at the edge of the floating island, without any expression on their faces.

It was as if a battle of this scale could not pique their interest at all!

Looking at the neat armors, fine weapons, and the intimidating military formation of the soldiers, the dying Mastiff Dragon tribesmen closed their eyes unwillingly.

The Mastiff Dragon Tribe had no chance of winning against such an opponent!

Chapter 865 Sea of fire, summon

Under the full-force attacks of the Holy Dragon city's soldiers, the Mastiff Dragons that had rushed onto the floating metal Island were wiped out in the blink of an eye!

Compared to the Holy Dragon city's soldiers, the Mastiff Dragon tribe's fighting strength was not even worth mentioning. It was reasonable for them to be eliminated.

After all, these Warriors came from the world of towers, which was born for killing and plundering. They had spent their entire lives polishing their combat skills. How could these sea creatures compare with their combat power when they went all out?

As the Mastiff Dragon people on the deck were exterminated, more than fifty Holy Dragon City Holy Masters, who were wearing exquisite white battle armor and holding special staffs and special equipment, began to disperse the blood mist formed by the secret technique.

These Holy Masters were a special unit of the Holy Dragon Army and were rarely used on the battlefield. The blood mist that was shuttling back and forth at the edge of the floating island, constantly letting out annoying shrieks, just so happened to require their help to clear it!

This blood mist had obviously been cultivated in the bodies of the Mastiff Dragons for a long time. When it was used, it would tear the host's body apart and form a special blood mist similar to a visible spirit!

The main purpose of this special blood mist was to disrupt the opponent's perception, allowing the soldiers on their side to take the opportunity to break through the defense.

Although this method was very sinister and strange, it was nothing more than child's play to the Holy Masters of Holy Dragon City.

The Holy Masters waved their staves, and energy attacks were quickly launched, hitting the blood mist spirits.

The blood mist spirit bodies that had been shot by the Holy Dragon city's soldiers without any damage, let out a terrifying scream at this moment. Then, like burning velvet, they instantly disappeared!

At the same time, the Mastiff Dragon tribe's Holy master who had used the secret technique let out a blood-curdling screech. His entire body exploded in an instant, and his blood splattered everywhere.

The Mastiff Dragon tribesmen, who had been using the blood mist as cover to climb up, were all stunned. But before they could recover from their shock, they saw countless spherical objects being thrown in all directions from the floating metal Island.

After these spherical objects fell on the water surface, they suddenly exploded and sprayed out a large amount of oil. This oil quickly burned as soon as it came into contact with the air. In the blink of an eye, a low sea of fire spread!

The waves around the metal floating island suddenly surged and pushed the burning flames far away, making it impossible for them to get close to the ship.

The Mastiff Dragon Tribe members in the middle of the ocean had completely collapsed.

Who knew what those mad scientists of the Holy Dragon City had added to the bomb, causing the temperature of the flame to be extremely high and difficult to extinguish. Once contaminated, it would burn for a long time even in water!

Once again, the Mastiff dragon race was in deep trouble. They had nowhere to hide in this sea of fire. People were constantly caught in the terrifying flames, and they screamed in pain.

All of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe members who were surrounded by the sea of fire immediately dove into the sea and rushed toward the areas that were not burning with all their might.

Even if they were painfully suffocated underwater, no one dared to come up to the surface to breathe, because that was almost equivalent to seeking death!

The scorching flames had completely destroyed the Mastiff Dragon tribe's momentum. The only thing they needed to think about now was how to escape the sea of fire and save their lives!

In fact, if the Holy Dragon City wanted to destroy the Mastiff Dragon Tribe, they would not need to go through so much trouble. Just a few torpedoes would be enough to turn the entire tribe upside down!

However, due to several considerations, there was this kind of control of firepower output and a battle situation where they exchanged blows.

First of all, the Holy Dragon City wanted to use this opening battle to test some newly developed weapons and battle tactics. If they were to directly cripple it, the testing would not be able to continue.

The second reason was that there were a large number of items that could be exchanged for battle achievements in the sea tribe. If they crashed into it directly or blew it up, they would undoubtedly lose a lot of battle achievements, which was not worth it.

As for the third point, it was to force the tribe's Guardian to appear and then wait for an opportunity to kill it directly!

The Holy Dragon City attached great importance to the target of the tower's advancement mission. However, they did not have any information about The Guardian, so they had to take a cautious approach and launch an attack outside the Mastiff Dragon Tribe!

However, judging from the current situation, the Mastiff Dragon Tribe would really be destroyed if The Guardian didn't make a move!

The Mastiff dragon clan leader, who was watching the battle from a distance, also realized this. Seeing the tens of thousands of clansmen he had sent being devoured like this, his eyes turned red.

"Damn it, you bastards, you're forcing me!"

The Mastiff Dragon Chief growled as he pulled out a dagger from his waist and pulled hard on his wrist.

Blood spurted out, but the Mastiff Dragon Chief didn't seem to care. He knelt down and put his wrist into the sea, muttering something.

For some unknown reason, the blood that flowed into the sea did not dissolve. Instead, it quickly formed a strange rune, floating quietly under the water.

As the Mastiff Dragon chief's blood flowed out more and more, the surface area of the rune grew larger and larger. Suddenly, the rune glowed, and under everyone's gaze, it shot into the sea like lightning!

&Nbsp; the Mastiff Dragon Tribe leader saw this and immediately fell to the ground, his face as white as a sheet of paper, and he began to pant.

Obviously, what he did just now was not as simple as losing a large amount of blood!

damn it, when The Guardian arrives, I'll tear you into pieces and make you the Guardian's sacrifice. Only then can I relieve the hatred in my heart!

The Mastiff dragon clan chief gasped for breath, looked in the direction of the floating metal Island, and roared with a fierce tone.

The noble members of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe were also holding their breath and looking at the calm sea.

They naturally knew that the Mastiff Dragon Chief had just used a secret technique to summon the tribe's protector. It probably wouldn't take long for this mysterious protector to arrive!

In fact, none of the influential people present had ever seen what The Guardian looked like. Ever since the Mastiff Dragon Tribe had been established, countless years had passed, but the number of times The Guardian had been summoned could be counted with one's fingers.

After all, after The Guardian appeared and completed the mission, a large number of flesh and blood sacrifices and treasures were needed. Otherwise, it would go crazy and cause a terrible disaster!

If the clan leader who summoned The Guardian violated the agreement, he would also suffer a backlash and suffer a pain worse than death.

Therefore, The Guardian was a double-edged sword. It could hurt the enemy and also hurt the user at the same time, so one had to be very careful when using it!

But even so, there were still countless sea remnants who wanted to have a Guardian!

In the water world, without a Guardian, one would not be qualified to establish a tribe. The threat of the Pirates and other tribes alone was enough to destroy any tribe without a Guardian.

The ability to summon a Guardian required a special bloodline talent. This talent was extremely rare. It was said that before the sea tribe entered this Water World, only the nobles of the ancestral land had a special ability!

It was just that this legend was too long ago, and many of the sea's remnant races had basically forgotten about it!

Just as the nobles were having their own thoughts, a large amount of waves suddenly began to surge in the sea in front of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe. Dark clouds began to gather in the sky, and lightning flickered.

There seemed to be a huge object rushing toward the surface of the sea.

"This is The Guardian of the Pi Xiu?"

A noble of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe couldn't help but mutter to himself after seeing this scene. His face was filled with shock.

At this moment, a deep roar that was filled with the sound of metal and stone suddenly spread out. At the same time, a huge figure leaped out from the bottom of the sea and floated above the sea.

Because the water world could not fly, it could only stay above the sea, barely maintaining its flying posture.

Its body was 50 meters long, and its entire body was covered in dark-colored scales. Its huge wings flapped continuously, and when its huge head moved, black smoke constantly spewed out of its mouth.

the great dragon King of the Mountains has descended and summoned my contractor. Where are you?"

The giant black Dragon that looked like a giant lizard spoke in a strange tone. It arrogantly looked at the Mastiff Dragon Tribe members who were dumbfounded, and asked in a thunderous voice.

Chapter 866 -nothing more than this (1)

The noble members of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe were completely shocked by the appearance of the giant dragon.

Although they knew that the tribe's Guardian was an extremely powerful existence, they did not expect it to be a ferocious Black Dragon!

Just by looking at the Black Dragon's huge body, one could tell that its combat power and defense were absolutely extraordinary!

Judging from the Dragon's aura, it had clearly surpassed the Lord-tier and was at the king-tier!

For the water world, where cultivation resources were scarce and it was extremely difficult to become a Lord-tier cultivator, the power of a King-tier was a legend.

It was also because of this that the nobles of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe were collectively speechless. Their hearts were filled with great shock and joy, and their hearts that had been hanging in the air finally returned to their original position.

The protector was so powerful that the enemy couldn't possibly be his match. The Mastiff Dragon Tribe would definitely be saved!

When they thought of this, those rich and powerful people almost cried. After all, they were used to a life of luxury and did not want to become poor vagrants on the sea, living a precarious life.

If it really came to that, he might as well just kill them!

"I am here, Lord Protector. I am the chief of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe!"

The Mastiff Dragon Tribe leader, who had been lying in the maid's arms, immediately jumped out and bowed respectfully to the Dragon.

He had heard about the things to pay attention to when summoning a Guardian. Being polite and humble to a Guardian was definitely something he had to pay attention to!

Therefore, even though the Mastiff Dragon Tribe leader was usually extremely arrogant, at this moment, he was still subservient and had a fawning expression on his face.

"Tell me, what do you need me to do?"

The giant dragon that called itself the King of the Mountains stared at the Mastiff Dragon Chief with cold eyes and asked in a language that only the summoner could understand.

there is a group of enemies behind you. They are trying to destroy my tribe, so please destroy them!

The Mastiff Dragon Tribe leader kept the long story short and directly explained the whole matter.

The giant dragon glanced at the floating metal Island in the distance with a hint of disdain in its eyes. This kind of metal object could not withstand the burning of its Dragon flames at all.

As for the Holy Dragon city's soldiers standing on the metal floating island like ants, they were not even worth its attention. It only needed to wave its sharp claws and it could crush a large number of them!

Such a weak enemy could not pique the Dragon's interest at all.

It just wanted to complete the mission as soon as possible, then return to its world and get a good sleep in the sea of gold coins in the cave!

“I’m going to exterminate the enemies now. You should prepare the sacrifice immediately, or I won’t let you off!”

After the giant dragon let out a roar, it immediately turned around and charged towards the floating metal Island of Holy Dragon City!

The Mastiff Dragon Chief immediately fell to the ground after the Dragon turned around. He didn’t even want to move a finger.

The Dragon’s aura was really terrifying. The short conversation just now had consumed a lot of his energy. It was already good enough that he hadn’t fainted!

However, even though his body was extremely tired, his eyes were still burning with a burning flame. He looked in the direction of the floating metal Island, and his face flashed with unconcealable excitement.

He wanted to see the Dragon guardian kill the enemy with his own eyes, and then take the huge metal floating island for himself.

With this floating metal Island, it wouldn’t take long for his tribe to become even stronger, and all enemies who dared to disobey his orders would be wiped out!

At that time, there would definitely be a large area of the sea that belonged to the Mastiff Dragon Tribe in this Water World!

The more the Mastiff Dragon patriarch thought about it, the prouder he became. He couldn’t help but laugh out loud!

The distance between the Mastiff Dragon Tribe and the floating metal Island wasn’t very far. At this moment, the giant dragon was already rapidly approaching.

If it wasn’t for the fact that flying was prohibited here, which prevented it from climbing any higher, the Dragon wouldn’t have allowed itself to stay at the same height as an ant.

At the same time, a mysterious power of law kept invading, trying to change the life form of the Dragon and turn it into a monster in the world of buildings!

Fortunately, the Dragon had been teleported here through a secret method, which was allowed by the laws of this world. It would not be a big problem for it to stay for a short time, but if it stayed for a long time, even it would not be able to resist the changes!

Dragons had a long history and were often summoned to other worlds, so they had some understanding of the power of the plane and the laws. This Dragon also knew what situation it was in.

This was actually the power of the law that every world had. Once one was in it, one would be affected by this power of the law. The more powerful the world was, the more powerful this power of the law was!

If one’s cultivation was strong, most of the nomological laws of the Otherworld could be completely ignored. However, one had to be careful in the powerful Otherworld.

In particular, the power of the nomological laws in the world of loucheng was so strong that it was almost perverted. When the Dragon came here for the first time, it was so scared that it almost wet its pants!

Compared to the direct teleportation of the physical body, the restrictions of the soul teleportation were much smaller. It could basically guarantee that one would not lose their consciousness for a long time. However, it was still difficult to escape the poisonous hands of this law, and in the end, one would become a complete monster!

In order to avoid this change, one had to either have a special secret technique or have the mark of this world in their soul power. There was no other way!

Although the Dragon knew what was going on, the double pressure was still suffocating. It also made the anger in its chest rise, and it desperately wanted to vent.

However, as it approached, the scene that it had experienced countless times did not appear.

Those ants that were extremely weak in his eyes were not scared by its appearance at all. They looked at it as if they were looking at a hen!

This strange situation caused the Dragon's anger to increase once again. It had to teach those ants who didn't understand its might a good lesson. Only then would they know how terrifying and great it was!

Just as the Dragon was about to spit out its Dragon flames to bathe these ants in the flames, it suddenly discovered that a dozen figures had risen from the huge metal floating island and were rushing over at the same height as it.

Sensing the dangerous aura exuded by the dozen figures, the giant dragon, which was originally full of disdain, was suddenly shocked and stopped its huge body from moving forward.

It was also at this moment that the dozen or so figures had already surrounded it. They looked at it with a strange look, as if they were studying a new toy.

In particular, there was an ant in purple armor standing in front of him. His eyes were filled with curiosity, but his sharp gaze seemed to be able to see through it from inside out.

Although the Dragon was displeased by the look in his eyes, it felt a faint sense of fear after sensing the terrifying aura.

It was as if the ant in front of him had extremely terrifying power that even he could not resist!

However, this ant's body was so small, so how could it possess such great power?

Although it was puzzled, the Dragon still did not dare to act rashly. It decided to figure out the situation first.

If he was wrong and these ants weren't as powerful as he thought, it wouldn't be too late to crush them into powder!

Just as the Dragon was about to speak, the ant in front of it spoke first.

"Big lizard, you're The Guardian of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe, right?"

The young man in purple-gold armor said with a smile. He looked at the dragon's tail again, as if he was estimating the power of the tail hammer, but also as if he was thinking about how to use it.

"Big lizard, you ant, you dare to call me a big lizard!"

The giant dragon was furious upon hearing this. It did not care why the other party was speaking their dragon language. It was so angry that two thick black smoke spewed out of its nostrils.

&Nbsp; this ant was actually comparing him to those low-level bugs. This was an insult to the Dragon race. He had to make him pay!

As a noble giant dragon, no one had ever dared to be so presumptuous in front of it. Even if there had been one, it had been slapped to death by the angry giant dragon!

At the thought of this, the giant dragon roared at the man in purple-gold armor and spat out Dragon flames.

The Dragon Flame was a type of oil secreted by the wyrms. It would burn violently once it came into contact with the air. It had a terrifying temperature that was enough to melt steel. Once one was sprayed by it, not even a bone would be left!

However, the anticipated situation where the enemy was covered in Dragon flames and burned to ashes did not happen. This was because the man in purple-gold armor had a mocking smile on his face as he condensed the Dragon's Dragon flames into a fireball.

"It seems that the strength of The Guardian is only so-so, I was too cautious earlier!"

The man in purple-gold armor toyed with the Dragon Flame fireball as he looked at the Black Dragon in front of him.

Chapter 867 Pursue and attack _The enormous black Dragon felt incredulous as it looked at the Dragon flames in Tang Zhen's hand. It even suspected that it was hallucinating.

The Black Dragon was very clear about the power of the Dragon Flame. It was a terrifying thing that could easily melt steel. It was almost invincible against enemies.

Every time it was used, it would make the enemy feel as if they had fallen into hell!

However, who would have thought that Tang Zhen was actually able to ignore the damage of the Dragon flames. It was as if this fireball that was emitting a high temperature was no different from a ball of cotton!

"Damn it, how did you do it?"

The giant dragon roared and spewed out Dragon flames again in disbelief, trying to prove that what it had just seen was a false scene.

However, Tang Zhen did not give it the opportunity to attack this time. When he saw that the huge black Dragon was about to attack again, he casually waved his hand. The Dragon Flame fireball that he had gathered with his mental energy soared into the sky and smashed towards the huge black Dragon that had its mouth wide open with lightning speed.

The dragon's mouth secreted grease. Just as it was about to spit it out, the Dragon Flame fireball thrown by Tang Zhen directly smashed into its mouth, igniting the just-vaporized grease.

"BOOM!"

A muffled sound of flames erupting could be heard, following which a large ball of flames burst out from the dragon's mouth, enveloping its entire head and burning continuously.

In the past, Dragons would spray this oil and let it burn on its own, so they would not be hurt by the Dragon flames at all.

However, at this moment, the high-temperature flame exploded in its mouth, and its head was also stained with a lot of it. The taste of being roasted by the flame was still excruciating even though the Dragon had a strong defense.

"Owwuuu!"

The dragon's eyes flashed with pain as black smoke came out of its mouth. It was in so much pain that its body trembled and twisted.

"Kill it!"

At this moment, Tang Zhen gave the order to attack!

The cultivators of the Holy Dragon City floating on the surface of the ocean attacked at the same time. Sabers, greatswords, and heavy armor-piercing machine guns were all thrown at the Black Dragon. Immediately, sparks flew from the Dragon's body, and blood and flesh were peeled off.

These Holy Dragon City cultivators were all over Level Seven, and the fatty among them had already advanced to level nine. The damage they caused at the same time was something that even the king-tier giant dragon could not withstand.

In the blink of an eye, the scales on the Dragon's body were shattered, and blood gushed out of the wounds.

Tang Zhen wielded the soul annihilating saber and continuously attacked the giant dragon. While he dealt great damage to it, he also prevented it from attacking the other Holy Dragon City cultivators.

The giant dragon was already howling in pain. Its huge body was crashing around on the surface of the sea, its sharp claws scratching wildly, and its thick tail sweeping around in an attempt to kill the ants that were causing it great damage!

However, it was only at this moment that it realized that its huge size had become its weakness. Because flying was prohibited, it could only move above the sea, making it impossible for it to escape the Holy Dragon City cultivators 'siege!

Although the Holy Dragon City cultivators 'bodies were extremely small compared to its huge size, and their attacks did not seem to hurt at all, the truth was not so.

Compared to an elephant's size, a bullet was just as small. However, when the bullet passed through a gun, it could kill an elephant that was countless times larger than itself!

In the eyes of the giant dragon, the Holy Dragon City cultivators were small, but they could erupt with extremely terrifying killing power. They were like a group of poisonous wasps, launching fatal attacks on their surrounding targets!

Especially Tang Zhen's attack, which caused that enormous Dragon to be in so much pain that it wished it was dead. Its enormous head was filled with terrifying criss-crossing wounds!

Under such continuous attacks, the Black Dragon could not withstand it any longer. Its entire body was covered in blood, which dripped down its scales into the ocean.

If this situation continued, the Dragon would definitely be killed by the Holy Dragon City cultivators!

The giant dragon also realized that it was in danger. It immediately spat out flames without any regard for its life. At the same time, it waved its sharp claws, and suddenly, a mass of seawater was sucked up, which then turned into countless ice blades and shot in all directions.

These ice blades were thin and sharp, and once they hit, they would definitely be injured or killed!

When the Holy Dragon City cultivators saw this, they all subconsciously dodged. Who would have thought that at this moment, the giant dragon would actually choose to turn around and escape after letting out a roar!

"You want to run? dream on!"

Tang Zhen also planned to scan the giant Dragon's corpse to see if he could make a half-mechanical giant dragon beast to increase the strength of Holy Dragon City!

If the application was unable to achieve this, Tang Zhen would not give up easily. Instead, he would try to extract the body tissue of the giant dragon and see if he could use cloning or other methods to cultivate it.

In short, the moment he saw the Black Dragon, Tang Zhen had already made up his mind. He must list this Dragon as one of the Holy Dragon city's battle forces!

catch it! Even if you can't catch it alive, you must leave its corpse behind!

Tang Zhen had already turned into a ray of spiritual light after his voice sounded. He directly chased in the direction that the huge Dragon had fled in.

The Holy Dragon City cultivators behind him did not hesitate at all. They all used their fastest speed and followed closely behind Tang Zhen.

When the giant dragon heard this, it was so scared that its liver was about to split apart, and it desperately accelerated to escape!

This scene fell into the eyes of the powerful members of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe in the distance. Their hands and feet immediately turned cold. A sense of powerlessness overwhelmed them, and they fell limply to the ground.

The Mastiff dragon clan's chief's face had long turned ashen. His entire body was in a daze as he looked in the direction that Tang Zhen and the giant dragon had disappeared in. His mouth was uttering words that no one could understand.

In fact, when he saw Tang Zhen and the others appear and surround the giant dragon guardian, he already knew that the Mastiff Dragon Tribe was completely finished this time!

No matter how bad his eyesight was, he could tell that the Holy Dragon City cultivators floating on the sea were all two-star and three-star horde leaders. The young man in purple-gold armor leading the group was a terrifying King level cultivator!

A cultivator with such terrifying combat strength could single-handedly wipe out the Mastiff Dragon Tribe. No one would be able to stop him in the meantime!

With the addition of the feudal lords and the floating metal Island, the Mastiff Dragon tribe's fate was already sealed!

"Why, Yingluo? why, Yingluo?"

The Mastiff Dragon Chief seemed to have lost his soul. He looked around at the fleeing nobles, then suddenly rose to his feet and let out a loud roar.

"I can't accept this. We still have countless people. As long as we charge together, even if we can't defeat the enemy, we'll make them pay a heavy price!

Pass on my order, all the clansmen are to retreat!"

The Mastiff Dragon Tribe leader suddenly realized that his surroundings were completely silent. He turned around and saw that all of the tribe's nobles who had been gathered together a moment ago had all disappeared in the blink of an eye.

Even a few of his most trusted confidants had fled the place in a hurry. They were paddling a garbage ship with all their might to leave, obviously preparing to pack up their belongings and escape!

&Nbsp; the Mastiff Dragon chief's face turned red with anger as he saw this. He spat out a mouthful of blood, staining his chest red.

He turned around with a bitter smile. He barely supported his swaying body and looked in the direction of the metal floating island.

At this moment, at the edge of the metal floating island, there was a tall, golden-haired man. He seemed to be looking at him coldly as well, and their gazes met in an instant.

Then, the golden-haired man waved his hand and looked away into the distant sea.

Following Tai Seng's order, the originally still metal floating island suddenly extended a series of slanted metal slides.

Rows of jet bikes were lifted up from the cabins of the metal floating island. The Holy Dragon city's soldiers mounted them neatly and directly slid into the sea along the metal slide, heading toward the Mastiff Dragon Tribe.

One after another, jet ski was lifted up, and one after another, Holy Dragon City Warriors rushed down from the metal floating island. In the blink of an eye, the sea was filled with Holy Dragon City Warriors.

They were traveling at high speed on the sea, brandishing guns and sabers. They had completely sealed off the sea around the Mastiff Dragon Tribe, and killed anyone who dared to escape.

“We’re finished!”

The Mastiff Dragon Chief laughed bitterly and fell to the ground, completely unconscious!

Chapter 868 Surrounded and beaten up _After witnessing the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers charging down the metal floating island, all the Mastiff Dragons immediately began to flee in all directions!

Now that the Mastiff Dragon Tribe had been completely defeated, and the protector was fleeing like a rat, the Holy Dragon City, who had been pursuing their victory, naturally had to launch a general attack!

If they did not run now, they would not have the chance to escape when the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers arrived.

Countless Mastiff Dragon Tribe members had this thought, and the entire tribe was in chaos. Curses and cries rang out incessantly, shaking the clouds!

At this time, the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers were like fierce Tigers coming down the mountain. They controlled the high-powered jet ski and galloped forward. Under clear orders, they quickly sealed off the Mastiff Dragon tribe’s Sea area.

The Mastiff Dragon tribesmen who were trying to escape were filled with despair. They squatted on the garbage ship and began to cry.

The Mastiff Dragons had all witnessed how cruel and merciless war was. After all, the corpses in the ocean couldn’t be faked. At least ten thousand Mastiff Dragon Warriors had already died in the ocean!

As for the injured Mastiff Dragon tribesmen, they were uncountable. Fortunately, they were good swimmers, so they didn’t drown to death.

However, if their wounds were not treated effectively, they would not be able to escape death.

The hearts of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe members were filled with sorrow at the thought of this. Perhaps it wouldn’t take long for them to become one of them, soaking in the cold seawater and smelling bad. Then, they would be torn to pieces by the carrion-eating fish, leaving only their skeletons behind!

However, the expected killing did not happen. Not even a single gunshot was fired during this time. Only the roar of the jet ski continued.

The Holy Dragon City soldiers did not directly charge into the tribe. Instead, they stopped their water motorcycles on the surface of the sea, coldly raised their rifles, and aimed at the Mastiff Dragon tribesmen who were hiding in the garbage ships and trembling.

The Mastiff Dragons didn’t dare to make a move, and could only wait for the judgment of their fate.

Right at this time, a few patrol boats with large-caliber machine guns approached slowly. Under the watchful eyes of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe, they entered the densely-packed waterway.

don't be nervous, everyone. The Holy Dragon city's guns will only point at the enemy. For those who obey orders, they will never hurt you, Yingluo.

Old fish and some recruited vagabonds were standing on the armed patrol boat, shouting through the loudspeaker, advising the Mastiff Dragon Tribe to give up resistance.

As long as they handed over the items requested by the Holy Dragon City, they would be spared from death. Even the Mastiff Dragon Tribe could be preserved.

As for the Mastiff dragon clan's trash ships, which were passed down from generation to generation and were more important than their lives, the Holy Dragon City had no interest in them at all!

That was indeed the case. The Holy Dragon City was too lazy to care about things that had nothing to do with the mission.

The previous battle could not be avoided.

However, at this moment, if the Mastiff Dragon Tribe continued to resist without knowing what was good for them, the Holy Dragon City would definitely kill them and completely wipe the entire Mastiff Dragon Tribe from the water world!

The Mastiff Dragon tribesmen, who were hiding in the garbage ships with weapons in their hands and thought that they were doomed, were all overjoyed by old fish's persuasion.

No matter how precious a treasure was, it was not as important as one's life. There was no need to think too much about which one to choose between the two.

Moreover, in the entire Mastiff Dragon Tribe, almost all the treasures were in the hands of the powerful. The wealth accumulated by ordinary clansmen was quite limited. So, even if the Holy Dragon City collected treasures, it had little to do with them!

Since that was the case, what was there to hesitate about?

After realizing this, a few brave Mastiff Dragons drove their garbage ships to old Fisher's armed patrol boat and said something to him.

After old Yu heard this, he turned to the Holy Dragon City cultivator beside him and said a few words. Then, the Holy Dragon City cultivator used his communication device to speak.

The roar of a motor rang out, and at the same time, nearly a thousand elite Holy Dragon City soldiers rode over on water motorcycles. Under the lead of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe, they began to shuttle through the waterways, constantly collecting the mission items!

At this time, in the sea region about a hundred miles away from the Mastiff Dragon Tribe, a Black Dragon covered in injuries was floating on the surface of the sea. It was looking nervously at the Holy Dragon City cultivators surrounding it.

Blood was constantly dripping from its body, and its huge eyes were filled with panic and regret.

These Lord-level cultivators of the Holy Dragon City all had their own weapons that they were good at, which could cause serious damage to the enemy in an instant.

In particular, the dozen or so people who followed Tang Zhen to the battle this time were the best among the Holy Dragon City cultivators. Their combat strength was off the charts.

It was already a miracle that the Dragon wasn't turned into meat paste after being surrounded and attacked by this group of Lord-tier cultivators!

The Dragon never dreamed that it would suffer such a heavy injury when it was summoned this time. It even almost lost its life here!

No, the summoning time was not over yet. Perhaps in the next second, he would be killed by these terrifying ants!

As a noble giant dragon, how could it be killed by an ant? that would definitely be the greatest humiliation of the Dragon race!

At the thought of this, it became even more vexed. But now that it was seriously injured, it was impossible to get rid of these ants 'pursuit!

Unable to escape, the Dragon was extremely anxious. Although the injuries on its body made it feel extremely painful, it was nothing compared to its life.

Dragons had long lifespans, but the longer they lived, the more they feared death.

The only thing it had to do now was to stall for time as much as possible. When the summoning time was over, it would be able to leave this damn world and get rid of the siege of these terrifying ants.

The Dragon swore in its heart that when it returned to its own world, it would never accept the summoning to the world of the tower again for the sake of the sacrifice!

"Bastard, what are you trying to do? do you really want me to die with you?"

The huge Dragon roared loudly as it looked at Tang Zhen, who was standing in front of it and was holding a battle blade that was continuously spitting out black flames.

The Dragon race did have a terrifying secret technique that could drag the enemy down with them, but the Dragon knew that it would never use such a method so easily!

"You're not worthy of dying together!"

Tang Zhen coldly snorted. He swept his eyes over the enormous Dragon that was covered in injuries and said, "You're trying to buy time until the summoning ends and you're teleported away, right?"

I advise you to give up. You can't leave today, understand?"

The dragon's heart skipped a beat when it heard that. It roared in exasperation, " "Bastard, what do you want? I didn't hurt you. On the other hand, you guys are the ones who keep chasing me, alright?"

The Dragon, who couldn't escape or defeat, felt extremely sullen.

"What do you want? didn't I already say it?"

Tang Zhen coldly laughed as he waved his hand at the enormous Dragon.

When the surrounding Holy Dragon City cultivators, who were rubbing their fists and wiping their palms, saw this, they immediately laughed sinisterly and once again launched a group attack on the giant dragon!

The Dragon wailed and could only choose to fight back. Unfortunately, in the face of the Holy Dragon City cultivators who were as fierce as wolves and tigers, its resistance seemed to have no effect.

The giant dragon that had been the king of the other world was now in a sorry state, and its aura was getting weaker and weaker.

If this situation continued any longer, the Dragon would probably really die!

Chapter 869 -surrender, solution (1)

stop! I surrender! Argh! Bastard! I said I surrender!

After being beaten up by the Holy Dragon City cultivators but unable to escape, the Black Dragon's aura became more and more weak.

A life-and-death battle was not an exchange of pointers. Therefore, these Holy Dragon City cultivators did not have any scruples when they attacked. Basically, every attack was a killing move!

No matter how strong the Black Dragon's life force was, it could not withstand such a terrifying storm of attacks.

After being bombarded by a dozen grenades from the Holy Dragon City cultivators, the giant dragon was completely terrified. At this moment, it had become like a bloody gourd, and there was not a single part of its huge body that was intact.

The scales that had been peeled off were hung on the body by the minced meat, and they swayed with the shaking of the Dragon, looking extremely miserable.

This kind of serious injury was already life-threatening. If it was not treated, the bleeding alone was enough to kill it!

Therefore, it could only stop resisting and loudly beg for mercy from Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen waved his hand when he heard this. Those Holy Dragon City cultivators then retreated to the side, still unsatisfied. They sized up the huge Dragon with eyes full of ill intentions, as if they were trying to figure out where to cut their next attack from!

After seeing this scene, the giant Dragon's body trembled again.

you can't even surrender. I only want your body for my experiments. In the end, I still have to kill you!

Tang Zhen smiled at the huge Dragon. His face was filled with regret. However, that smile seemed to contain ridicule, causing the huge Dragon to wish that it could bite him to death!

bastard, do you have to kill a dragon for your damn experiment? can't you do it with a living one? "

The Dragon lowered its head and asked weakly. It was too lazy to even move.

The damn power of the natural order began to invade its body again, trying to turn it into a monster in the world of buildings. The Dragon used all its remaining strength to resist the invasion, leaving it with no extra strength to do anything else.

Tang Zhen frowned and shook his head. He sighed, "Actually, I also want you alive. Unfortunately, I have a few reasons to kill you. I have no choice!"

The Dragon was furious. "I've committed so many crimes that I have so many reasons to kill me!"

Who are you trying to fool?

However, at this moment, even if it was filled with anger, it did not dare to flare up. It could only continue to ask with a sad face, "Can you tell me? I want to hear it."

In the dragon's heart, it felt that it could still be saved.

Tang Zhen, who had already completely controlled the life and death of the giant dragon, did not lack the time to say these few words. Moreover, he still wanted to inquire about some things from the mouth of this giant dragon.

After all, this fellow came from another world. Moreover, he was summoned through a secret technique. Tang Zhen was very interested in this.

"First of all, you were summoned here. Once the summoning time is up, you will definitely return to your world. In order to keep you here, I can only kill you!"

After all, a dead body could not be recalled back to the world it belonged to.

The second reason is that you are The Guardian of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe, a target that I must kill for my loucheng advancement mission. If I don't kill you, my loucheng can't advance!"

Tang Zhen swept his eyes over the enormous Dragon when he spoke until this point. He said indifferently, as for the third reason, it's because I want to see how good you are at taking a beating and how long it will take to kill you!

When the Dragon heard the third reason, it was so angry that black smoke came out of its nostrils and its eyes turned blood red.

So I'm just a big sandbag in your eyes?

This was bullying the Dragon!

It wanted to fight Tang Zhen to the death, but when it thought of the terrifying consequences, the giant dragon immediately became exhausted. Seeing that Tang Zhen was about to give the order to attack again, it hurriedly said in an annoyed tone, "Don't be in such a hurry to kill me. Actually, I have a way to solve the problems you mentioned!"

Tang Zhen's eyes brightened when he heard this. He indifferently said, "What do you think? if it's feasible, I can spare your life!"

The giant dragon drooped its head and said with a hint of unwillingness, "I'll only tell you if you promise not to kill me!"

Tang Zhen coldly laughed and was about to wave his hand to signal for an attack.

The Black Dragon was shocked and quickly said, "Don't do it, I'll talk, I'll talk!"

"First of all, the problem of returning after summoning is actually very easy to solve. I just need to cancel the contract or the summoner dies, and I can't return.

It's just that I can't do this, because the two parties of the contract can't hurt each other, so I can only leave it to you!"

Tang Zhen nodded when he heard this and instructed his communication device.

The Dragon's contractor was the Mastiff Dragon tribe's patriarch. After Tang Zhen's order was given, his fate could be imagined.

After settling this matter, Tang Zhen casually waved his hand and took out a watermelon-sized object from his storage ring.

this bomb can easily blow up a small mountain. It will receive a specific signal at all times. Once the signal is interrupted, it will explode immediately!

After using his mental energy to lift up the specially made bomb and bring it to the front of the giant dragon, Tang Zhen sneered, I don't trust you, so you should swallow it. If you really teleport away, this bomb will instantly blow you up into a meat paste!

The huge Dragon immediately roared furiously when it heard this. It seemed to be extremely dissatisfied with Tang Zhen's actions.

As a result, fatty, who was floating at the side, immediately aimed his machine gun at the giant dragon and hit it until it screamed in pain.

"Don't hit me, I'll swallow it, okay?"

Helplessly, the Dragon swallowed the bomb and continued dejectedly, "As for Lou Cheng's promotion mission, I actually have some understanding of it and have a way to solve it.

As long as you take out more than half of my soul power and hand it over to the cornerstone platform, it will be regarded as a completed mission!

The most important thing is that after using this method, not only can you successfully complete your loucheng advancement mission, but I will no longer be invaded by the laws of the world of loucheng, and I don't have to worry about turning into a monster!"

"There's actually such a method? how did you know about it?" Tang Zhen was greatly surprised.

The giant dragon scoffed. your world of loucheng has a bad reputation. Many powerful foreign worlds know about you. Besides, we Dragons have memory inheritance. What's so strange about knowing about this? "

The curiosity in Tang Zhen's heart became increasingly dense as he continued to ask, "You said that many foreign worlds know of the existence of the world of loucheng. Then, what does the world of loucheng look like in the eyes of those natives?"

“What else can it be? In other worlds, your world of Loucheng is a den of Devils, and the cultivators of Loucheng are called ‘fiends’, ‘otherworldly demons’, ‘Fiend Race’, and so on.

In short, nothing about you guys has anything to do with good things. There are many people who hate you!”

When the Dragon said this, it felt extremely depressed.

Although it knew that there were powerful cultivators in the world of Loucheng, such a terrifying expert would never appear in these Abandoned Lands!

There shouldn’t be any two-star King tier cultivators in a normal level eight city either, which was why it accepted the summoning and descended into the water world.

Who would have thought that such an unforeseen event would occur? If he had known earlier, he would not have accepted the summoning even if he was beaten to death!

On the other hand, a glint flashed across Tang Zhen’s eyes after he heard the ridicule in the giant Dragon’s words. At the same time, there was also a faint pondering expression.

He had always wanted to figure out one thing. What kind of existence was the mysterious and strange world of Loucheng?

However, being in the mountain, he was unable to see the entire mountain. Therefore, Tang Zhen had never been able to find a clear answer.

However, the Black Dragon’s words gave Tang Zhen the possibility of finding the answer.

Chapter 870 Resolve, clean up _The solution given by this huge Dragon was indeed feasible. It was precisely because of this that Tang Zhen did not directly kill it.

As he had said before, a living Dragon was more valuable!

Tang Zhen was undoubtedly more interested in the things that the huge Dragon had said about the tower world. He wanted to ask a few more questions, but he also knew that now was not the best time.

In any case, this giant dragon had already fallen into his hands. He could interrogate it at any time. Tang Zhen was not in a hurry.

At this moment, the communicator showed that someone was calling, and Tang Zhen answered it with his mind.

“City Lord, it’s been settled!”

A man’s deep voice came from the communication device. At the same time, an image appeared. The person being filmed was the chief of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe.

However, this guy had already reached the end of his life and was lying on a garbage ship like a dead dog. It was a huge contrast from his previous arrogant and overbearing appearance, which was particularly miserable.

Because summoning the Dragon had consumed a large amount of blood essence and Yuan Qi, in addition to the anger, the Mastiff Dragon Chief was actually already in a state of exhaustion.

However, while he was being rescued, there was no one around him. Everyone had abandoned him and fled for their own lives.

The cultivators of the Holy Dragon City did not even need to make a move. The Mastiff dragon clan leader died silently on the garbage ship, and no one paid any attention to him.

The winner was noble and the loser was Bandit. The death of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe leader might not be a bad thing. At the very least, it would save him from humiliation and suffering!

However, even he had not expected that at the tribe's critical moment, at the end of his life, no one would be by his side to protect him.

Although the Holy Dragon city's power was indeed frightening, the main reason was that the Mastiff dragon clan leader's daily actions were not popular. In this life and death situation, no one was willing to face the crisis with him!

After Tang Zhen took a glance, he shifted his gaze away from the communication device and turned to look at the huge black Dragon.

"Since your Summoner is dead, the next thing to do is to take half of your soul power, right?"

The Black Dragon nodded helplessly. Now that things had come to this, it could only hope to keep its life, and other things could only be considered later.

However, it would be extremely weak after having its soul power split in half. It would probably not be able to recover for hundreds of years!

Next, under the gazes of Tang Zhen and the rest, the huge Dragon used a secret technique to split half of its soul strength. In other words, it directly handed the condensed energy body to Tang Zhen.

After the energy body was violently cut in half, the giant dragon immediately became even more dispirited. It looked sickly, as if it would die at any time!

Soon after, Tang Zhen directly grabbed half of his spiritual strength under the heartbroken gaze of the huge Dragon.

Sure enough, it was as Tang Zhen had expected. Although this enormous Dragon's body was large, the condensed energy body was only the size of a basketball.

It was just like the void snake cultivator he had seen before. Although its body was huge, the condensed energy body was only a meter long. The contrast was extremely obvious.

Tang Zhen held this energy body in his hand. After observing it for a moment, he directly kept it into his storage space.

"You guys look after it, I'll go back and verify it!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Tang Zhen's figure disappeared without a trace. He had obviously used the teleportation ability that only King level cultivators could use.

“Oh my God, this bastard finally let me go!”

The enormous black Dragon heaved a sigh of relief after seeing Tang Zhen disappear. Its heart, which was originally hanging in the air, was finally at ease.

This enormous black Dragon had been on tenterhooks for every second when it was facing Tang Zhen earlier. It was afraid that Tang Zhen would turn hostile and kill it!

After all, a Dragon’s entire body was a treasure. In the world it lived in, there were countless people who had designs on it, and killing it was a Supreme honor.

Fortunately, from Tang Zhen’s point of view, it was more valuable alive. Otherwise, with the methods of these Holy Dragon City cultivators, killing it would not be a big deal!

However, when it thought about how it would be trapped in the tower world for the rest of its life and cooperate with Tang Zhen to do all sorts of experiments, the giant dragon’s heart was filled with endless sorrow.

However, the saddest thing for it was that it could no longer see the shiny treasures that it had collected over the years.

Thinking of this, the Dragon, who was covered in wounds but did not cry out in pain, could not help but blink a few times and squeeze out two drops of crystal tears.

By the time Tang Zhen returned from the Holy Dragon City, the entire Mastiff Dragon Tribe was already under his complete control. Items that could be exchanged for battle credits were found one after another and carefully moved to the transport ship.

The members of the Mastiff Dragon Tribe were gathered and imprisoned in the middle of the sea, surrounded by Holy Dragon City soldiers armed with guns.

In the face of the powerful Holy Dragon City, these Mastiff Dragons were powerless to resist, so they could only leave it to fate.

Tang Zhen boarded the transport ship and nodded at the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers who saluted him. Then, he turned his gaze to the treasures in the eyes of the sea’s remnant race.

He picked up a plant that he had planted in a flower pot. He glanced at the carefully taken care of plant, wanting to see what was so special about it.

He didn’t know why the cornerstone platform made such a rule that these items had to be exchanged for battle credits.

After all, no matter how he looked at it, he felt that the plant in his hand was very ordinary. The only special thing about it was that it was very likely to come from another world.

After handing this plant to the Holy Dragon City soldier beside him, Tang Zhen glanced at the other items and a look of understanding flashed in his eyes.

Perhaps he was overthinking it, but the cornerstone platform’s goal was actually very simple.

This was because these plants and other items that could be exchanged for battle merits were extremely precious in the water world. Every remnant race at sea cherished them.

If the Holy Dragon City wanted to obtain these items, it was inevitable that there would be friction between them and the lost clan of the sea. In that case, a battle would be inevitable.

This way, the possibility of Holy Dragon City using other means to obtain these items was eliminated, and Holy Dragon City had no choice but to use force.

Not to mention, using brute force to plunder was indeed the most energy-saving and convenient way!

Tang Zhen shook his head. He was a little disdainful of the method used by the foundation stone platform. If this thing had intelligence, it would definitely be a bloodthirsty and battle-loving lunatic!

Tang Zhen swept a glance at the Mastiff Dragon clansmen, whose faces were filled with fear but whose eyes were filled with hatred. He waved his hand and called over an officer from the Holy Dragon City.

“Next, we’ll follow the previous plan and recruit a servant army from these remnant clans on the sea. The more the better.

With our conditions, I don’t think these remnant races of the sea will refuse!”

When the Holy Dragon City officer heard this, he saluted Tang Zhen and called for his subordinates to arrange this matter.

Tang Zhen swept his gaze over the sea region that was covered with corpses and those sea monsters of various sizes that had rushed over after smelling the scent of blood. He directly moved towards the enormous black Dragon’s location.

The method that fellow had mentioned was indeed useful. After Tang Zhen had handed over half of the energy body, the mission progress displayed on the cornerstone platform had indeed advanced by a portion!

Tang Zhen laughed out loud after seeing this scene. He became even more curious about this enormous black Dragon.

Although this guy acted like a coward, even a little rascal, he really had a lot of useful things in his head!

If he put in more effort, he might be able to get more information from it!
