Chapter 91: The mysterious Mr. Tang

The girl's bald older brother involuntarily trembled when he saw Tang Zhen smiling at him. Tang Zhen seemed to be a demon in human skin when he saw his expression. The scene that had just happened seemed to have frightened him.

“““Mr. Wanwan, I'm actually not familiar with them. Wanwan, yes, not at all!”” ”

“The girl's brother's heart was slightly thumping. He really didn't want to become one of the unlucky ones on the ground. His body was covered in whip marks, and then he rolled in the dust and screamed in pain. This was definitely a painful memory that he would never be able to erase for the rest of his life.”

“The girl's brother was very sure that these guys must have been traumatized by fear. In the future, when they saw this kind of self-made triangular leather whip again, they would involuntarily avoid it.”

“The girl saw her brother's cowering expression. Although his expression was very shameless, it did not mean that she did not have a protective feeling in her bloodline. Therefore, she took a step forward and faintly blocked her brother behind her. She said to Tang Zhen, I'm very sorry for involving you in this dispute, but please don't hurt my brother. Although he often makes mistakes, he's not a bad person, Yingluo.”

Tang Zhen waved his hand to stop the girl from speaking. He merely quietly looked at the brother and sister. A trace of doubt flashed across his eyes.

“The moment he turned around, he seemed to have felt a dangerous aura, but it quickly disappeared. Ordinary people would definitely not give him this kind of numb feeling.”

The intuition that he had gradually cultivated after fighting with monsters more than once made Tang Zhen convinced that he was not mistaken.

“““Are you pretending to be a coward to confuse me? interesting, Yingying!”” ”

“Tang Zhen smiled as he threw the leather whip in his hand to the side and said, don't worry, I don't intend to do anything to your brother. After all, he didn't provoke me, did he? ”” ”

“The girl's brother quickly nodded, his face even revealing a trace of flattery.”

“After Tang Zhen said this, he carefully sized up the brother and sister. This caused the pressure on the two of them to suddenly increase. The forehead of the older brother was already covered with fine beads of sweat.”

“Seeing that the brother and sister appeared quite uncomfortable in front of him, Tang Zhen directly opened his mouth and asked,”“It looks like you're in need of money. It just so happens that I have a job that requires manpower. I've decided to hire the two of you. Your salary will be paid in American banknotes. Each person will receive ten thousand dollars a week. How about it?" "

"Upon hearing Tang Zhen's words, the eyes of the brother and sister immediately became heated. This was indeed a large sum of money to them! "

""May I ask what we need to do?" "

"After the girl was pleasantly surprised, she hesitantly asked Tang Zhen. After all, the salary was really too high. She could not help but have some doubts about Tang Zhen's purpose in hiring the two of them. "

"However, his older brother somewhat blamed his younger sister for being too talkative. He was afraid that he would miss the opportunity to make a fortune. However, after thinking about it, there was nothing wrong with asking clearly. After all, a high income meant high risk. It was not impossible for them to kill and set fire as long as the reward Tang Zhen gave was worth the risk. "

""It's just that I'm not familiar with this area, and I need to buy some supplies, so I need someone to run errands for me. The reason I hired you two is because I happened to meet you two, so you don't need to worry."" "

"After explaining the matter, Tang Zhen no longer paid attention to the brother and sister. Instead, he returned to his car, took out a cigarette, and started smoking. "

This cigarette was from Ivanov's inventory. It had a very spicy taste and Tang Zhen was quite not used to it.

"The girl's older brother came over and said to Tang Zhen, Sir, we've decided to accept your employment. Now, please arrange the mission! "

"Tang Zhen glanced at the girl's older brother and threw the cigarette in his hand over. He asked,""First, I need to know your name. Also, call me Mr. Tang."" "

""I'm Pargo, Mr. Tang!" "

"alright, Pargo. This is the list of items I need to buy. Take a look and see if you can gather them in this city. "

Tang Zhen said as he handed over a piece of paper and waited for Pargo's answer.

"After Pargo looked at it seriously for a while, he raised his head and said to Tang Zhen,""I've already seen it. The things on the paper should be able to be bought."" "

Tang Zhen nodded. He turned around and entered the car. He took out a paper bag and threw it over.

"When Pargo opened the bag, he felt his heart beat wildly because there were ten stacks of brand-new notes in the bag, and they gave off a smell that intoxicated him. "

""Mr. Tang, what are you doing?" "

“Pargo asked in a probing tone. Although he was short of money, the sudden appearance of such a large amount of cash in his hands made him feel very uneasy. Not to mention that the money was thrown to him by the ‘devil’ Tang Zhen. ”

“”“Since you’re going to help me purchase the supplies, I naturally won’t let you pay for it out of your own pocket. This money will be the funds for the purchase. Remember, I only want the best. After you’ve gathered all the materials on the list, give me a call and I’ll tell you where to send them.”” ”

“Tang Zhen looked at Pargo and continued, the rest of the money can be considered as payment for your hard work. As long as you work hard, I will definitely not treat you badly. ”

“Pargo nodded repeatedly, indicating that he would do a good job. ”

“Seeing this, Tang Zhen no longer spoke. Instead, he took out a smartphone from the bodies of the young men who had collapsed on the ground. He turned on the electronic kit and made a few slight modifications. This mobile phone immediately became a powerful super phone. ”

“Super strong signal, anti-positioning, anti-eavesdropping, network automatic tracking and positioning, etc. Tang Zhen simply did not look at the other functions in detail. In any case, he had long been used to the black technology in the application store. ”

“After asking for Pargo’s phone number, Tang Zhen used the phone to call him. Pargo picked up his phone and looked at it, only to find that it was a hidden number. ”

this number can only be dialed using your marked phone. Remember to call me when you’re done.
Don’t Let Me Down!

Tang Zhen patted Pargo’s shoulder and waved to the girl beside him. He started the car and returned to the Ivanov’s Villa.

“Seeing that Tang Zhen’s car had disappeared, Ivanov let out a long sigh of relief. He turned to his sister and asked, Natasha, where did you find this perverted guy? he almost scared me to death! ”

“Natasha glanced at her brother and said in a disdainful tone, “” how dare you comment on your boss like that? do you believe that I’ll tell him about it when I get back? he’ll punish you on behalf of me and my mother. He’ll use that kind of leather whip to give you a good beating. ”

“Pargo was shocked and quickly begged for mercy, but Natasha just ignored him. In the end, he was annoyed and promised not to say anything. ”

“Looking at the group of young men who were still groaning on the ground, the brother and sister decided to immediately leave this place and then purchase the supplies according to the list given by Tang Zhen. ”

“At this moment, the advantage of being a local snake could be seen. The brother and sister who drove the pickup truck only took one afternoon to gather the materials Tang Zhen needed. When they called Tang Zhen and told him that the mission was completed, Tang Zhen was quite surprised. ”

“In any case, it was a good thing to be able to gather everything. Tang Zhen gave Pargo an address and asked him to transport the supplies. ”

“After the brother and sister pulled the supplies to Ivanov’s Villa, Tang Zhen directed the two of them to help move the things to the basement. As expected, the two of them saw three bodies placed together by Tang Zhen. ”

“Natasha and her brother looked at each other and revealed an expression of “as expected.””
However, out of Tang Zhen’s expectations, the brother and sister did not show any panic. ”

“However, when he saw Pargo’s hand rubbing his waist from time to time, Tang Zhen knew that the two of them might have already taken preventive measures. ”

“Tang Zhen was unconcerned about this and did not deliberately explain anything to the two of them. He merely smiled and said to the brother and sister who had finished moving the supplies, well done. I have one more thing to do. I will stay in the basement to prevent others from disturbing me. If you can help me guard this house for three days, I will pay you double your salary! ”

“Tang Zhen’s tone was very relaxed when he said that he wanted to increase the money. He had previously cracked Ivanov’s hidden safe and got a lot of cash from it, so he didn’t feel any heartache when he threw out money. ”

“When Ivanov was reborn and found out that his safe had been opened by Tang Zhen with an electronic kit and the cash inside had disappeared, he didn’t know if he would die again from heartache! ”

Chapter 92: The reborn Ivanov (1)

“Perhaps it was purely for the sake of money, but the brother and sister very happily agreed to Tang Zhen’s request. They did not mention the matter of the three corpses at all, as if this matter did not happen at all. ”

“The two of them started to guard the door for Tang Zhen, not allowing him to be disturbed in any way. ”

“what an interesting pair of siblings. Perhaps they have a lot of interesting stories? “ ”

“Tang Zhen looked at the map and saw Pargo take out the TT33 pistol from his waist. After fiddling with it a few times, he put it back in. This was an old gun that seemed to have been baptized by war. Tang Zhen believed that Pargo was definitely not its first owner. ”

“Natasha, who was sitting on the roof and basking in the sun, seemed to have a lazy and powerless expression. However, Tang Zhen believed that as long as there was an abnormal situation, the sniper rifle placed next to the girl would erupt with life-threatening flames. ”

“Tang Zhen looked at Natasha’s exquisite appearance and really didn’t dare to associate her with the female sniper who took lives. However, the facts had proven that the brother and sister that he felt something was wrong from the beginning were indeed not simple characters. ”

“It was as if fighting and killing were what they were best at, not acting. ”

What exactly had these two siblings experienced? why did they want to hide themselves? why did they accept his employment in the end? Tang Zhen wasn't interested in finding out the cause and effect of all these.

He only needed the two of them to guard the door for him during the few days he was doing experiments.

"After arranging the materials that Pargo had bought, Tang Zhen began to set up the altar in the basement for the simplified version of the soul lodging secret technique. According to Tang Zhen's plan, this altar would probably be used many times in the future, so it had to be built to be strong and durable."

"In the following period of time, Tang Zhen completely lived in the basement. The entire basement had also changed according to his modifications. It began to change beyond recognition. At the same time, a mysterious and solemn atmosphere gradually emerged."

"During this period of time, Tang Zhen had teleported back to the other world and brought back the materials that Qian Long had gathered."

"With all the materials gathered, Tang Zhen began the final construction work. At this moment, he was carving the core array of the soul hosting secret technique. The sharp purple lightning short sword in his hand was constantly waved, carving out strange lines on the hard ground as if he was cutting tofu."

"After drawing the lines on the ground, Tang Zhen dug out dozens of nodes and then placed the brain beads in order. These brain beads would be used as the energy to maintain the operation of the array and could be used for a long time."

Tang Zhen took out the monster's blood from his storage space and carefully poured it along the path. He only needed to wait for the blood to dry up naturally before he could use the soul lodging secret technique.

"After finishing all of this, Tang Zhen stretched his body and went to Ivanov's wine cellar. He picked a bottle of red wine and slowly tasted it."

"Ivanov's wine cellar was very large. In addition to a variety of red wine, the rest of the wine was a variety of brands of special spirits of the ice Bear Alliance, which almost filled up half of the wine cellar."

"Tang Zhen didn't know why Ivanov had stored so much hard liquor. However, when he saw these things, an idea suddenly emerged in Tang Zhen's mind. At the same time, he couldn't wait to try it."

"He immediately got to work. He stored half of the strong wine in the wine cellar into his storage space and then teleported back to the tower in the other world. After greeting a few residents he met along the way, Tang Zhen came to the room where the foundation stone was placed."

"Standing in front of the cornerstone platform, Tang Zhen first used his brain to exchange for 100 points, then began to leave a message on the cornerstone trading platform: "" the purest spirit, only heroes can drink, a total of 100 bottles, each bottle is 20 points! "

"Over twenty words actually required over forty points, causing Tang Zhen to call him a profiteer. Who knew if there was someone controlling this cornerstone trading platform from behind the scenes? if there was, then the number of brain beads earned every year would probably be an astronomical figure that Tang Zhen could not imagine! ”

“He placed the spirits in his inventory around the cornerstone platform. When he stepped back, a thin layer of light spread from the cornerstone and enveloped the spirits. ”

“At this point, other than Tang Zhen, no one else was able to take out the liquor. Unless the transaction was completed or the transaction was canceled, the items on the trading list would be protected by the cornerstone trading platform. ”

“Following the payment of the points, the information posted by Tang Zhen immediately appeared on the cornerstone trading platform. At the same time, it was signed as Holy Dragon City (Level 1 city). ”

Tang Zhen nodded in satisfaction as he looked at the information that was slowly rolling on the cornerstone trading platform. He then left the room. This was because Tang Zhen didn't need to worry about the following matters at all. He only needed to wait until the goods were sold to check the points.

“The Holy Dragon City was currently undergoing a major construction, and every resident was busy. Tang Zhen walked around and found that he, the city Lord, seemed to have nothing to do. Feeling a little embarrassed, Tang Zhen stopped walking around and teleported back to the basement of the Ivanov family's house. ”

“Tang Zhen checked the monster's blood on the circuit. The surface of the blood had already congealed. Tang Zhen estimated that based on this speed, he could perform the soul lodging secret technique at midnight. ”

“Since there was nothing to do now, Tang Zhen lay on the sofa, closed his eyes, and began to rest. ”

“The past two days of hard work had made him feel quite tired. Even with three times the physical fitness of an ordinary person, he couldn't withstand such an intense overtime work. ”

“However, although Tang Zhen's body was tired, he had never felt that it was hard. This was because he was working hard for his dream. Once he was engrossed in it, he would have a kind of joy in it. ”

“He slept until around 10 am. Only when the work schedule in his subconsciousness, which was like a biological clock, woke Tang Zhen up did he comfortably stretch his body and stand up. He took out a bottle of mineral water and drank it before starting to check the monster's blood in the array. ”

“The blood had completely dried up, showing a purplish-brown color. It looked like he could completely perform his secret technique. ”

“Tang Zhen changed into his black cloak, then stripped Ivanov's clothes off and threw him into a blood pool inside the array. ”

“Immediately after, Tang Zhen stripped the body of the other young gunman and threw it into another blood pool. At the same time, he used a long tweezer to take out the brain Pearl from the young man's brain. ”

“After the ordinary Level one brain was removed from the young gunner's brain, it turned bright red. Under the light, one could see a faintly discernible human-shaped object floating in it. ”

“The corner of Tang Zhen’s mouth was slightly lifted when he saw this. The abnormal phenomenon of this brain bead indicated that he had already successfully gathered the young gunner’s soul. Otherwise, the young gunner’s soul would have already turned into ashes at this moment. ”

“He took out the brains of the other gunner, and the results were the same. It seemed that both brains had successfully contained the soul that was about to dissipate. ”

“Tang Zhen didn’t take out Ivanov’s brain because he would be performing a secret technique on him later. Therefore, he couldn’t move his brain. ”

“A brand new brain bead was stuffed into the brain of the young gunner in the blood pool by Tang Zhen. However, the runes on this brain bead were very special, completely different from the patterns on the brain bead that was previously taken out. ”

“Tang Zhen looked at the two corpses that were soaking in the blood pool. He looked at the time and decided to begin the soul lodging secret technique now. He slowly walked to the center of the formation and sat down in a spot surrounded by the monster’s blood. Then, he began to chant something. ”

“It was an extremely strange language, with abrupt fluctuations in pitch. At times, it sounded like the melodious voice of a crane, and at other times, it sounded like the wailing of ghosts and gods. The strange rhythm seemed to resonate with the air, causing some of the items on the table to tremble slightly. ”

“After chanting this incantation for less than a minute, Tang Zhen suddenly clapped his hands and the brain nodes on the ground lit up one by one, emitting a faint blood-colored light. After all the nodes were lit up, the blood of those monsters also began to glow faintly. For a moment, the entire basement’s floor, walls, and ceiling were all reflected with a blood-colored light. ”

Tang Zhen stopped all his actions and quietly looked at the two corpses in the blood pool. Success or failure depended on this one move. He could not afford any mistakes. Tang Zhen’s heart was also extremely nervous.

“””pfft!”” ”

“A young and strong body suddenly sat up in the blood pool. His eyes were wide open with a blank look on his face as he stared ahead. Coupled with the bullet hole on his forehead, the whole scene looked like a real-life horror film. ”

“A moment later, the young man finally inhaled a deep breath of air before exhaling heavily. After which, he turned his head and looked at Tang Zhen, who was wearing a black cloak. ”

“welcome back to life, my Dear Mr. Ivanov! ”

“Tang Zhen’s voice seemed to have come from heaven. However, it carried a devil-like temptation as it slowly reverberated in the basement. ”

Chapter 93: fictional God

“The young man in the blood pool was covered in dirty blood, and his naked body was exposed to the air, but he didn’t care about it. He just silently felt the youthful vitality contained in his body, and then looked at his big belly that had disappeared, and then waved his arms hard.”

“This body was so strong, yet so unfamiliar.”

“After a moment of silence, the young man asked in a trembling voice, “ “I’m alive, I’m really alive again? Oh God, didn’t you just shoot me in the head?” ”

“His voice trembled with excitement, but more than that, it was disbelief.”

Tang Zhen did not reply. He merely threw a mirror over and it landed in the blood pool.

The young man immediately picked up the mirror and wiped the dirty blood off it. Then he saw an unfamiliar face with a bullet hole in the forehead.

“He was very familiar with this face, because it was this guy who had shot him in the abdomen.”

“Slowly putting down the mirror, the young man, or rather, the reincarnated Ivanov, stood up from the blood pool. At the same time, he saw the body in another blood pool, which was his previous body.”

“It was pale, bloated, and even a little ugly.”

“Looking at his stiff body from the perspective of another body, Ivanov did not know how to describe the strange scene. It was not a sad scene, but a wonderful feeling that was almost beyond life and death.”

Ivanov slowly walked in front of Tang Zhen and took the blanket that Tang Zhen handed him. He wrapped himself up and soon felt a trace of warmth in his heart. He felt extremely comfortable and couldn’t help but let out a groan. This feeling was really wonderful.

“Looking at the black-cloaked Tang Zhen, and then glancing at the basement that was beyond recognition, Ivanov had too many doubts in his heart that he wanted to ask.”

“However, as the words reached his mouth, he lost the courage to ask, because the black-cloaked young man in front of him gave him too much pressure.”

“Tang Zhen looked at Ivanov with a smile that was not a smile. After drinking a mouthful of red wine, he softly said, tell me the question in your heart, and I might be able to give you an answer!”

““Thank you!” ”

“Ivanov thanked her and pointed at his own body. He asked in a careful and respectful tone, “ “What’s wrong with my body? is there really such a magical thing as resurrection?” ”

“Tang Zhen sneered and pointed at Ivanov. I only helped you to change your body into a stronger one. As for whether or not you can be resurrected, aren’t you a living example? ” ”

“Ivanov nodded, hesitated for a moment, and then continued to ask, “ “May I ask who you are?” ” ”

“Tang Zhen finally waited for Ivanov to raise this question. He chuckled in his heart and said with a sacred tone, I’m a lucky person. I was fortunate enough to have met a real God!”

“Tang Zhen paused and glanced at Ivanov’s expression. As expected, he saw a shocked and envious expression on his face. ”

“God ordered me to be his Messenger in the world, to help him develop believers and teach me the divine spell of resurrection. In addition, God also taught me these abilities. ”

“As soon as Tang Zhen finished speaking, he waved his hand and Ivanov was shocked to find that his original body had disappeared into thin air. Then, Tang Zhen waved his hand again and his body appeared at the entrance of the basement. ”

Tang Zhen’s palms were placed together before he slowly separated them. An automatic rifle slowly appeared between his palms. He threw the rifle on the ground and raised his hand. Two grenades appeared in his palm.

“Looking at Ivanov, who had fallen into a dazed state, Tang Zhen smiled and said, actually, this is just one of the abilities that the gods have given me. I can do this too! ”

“After Tang Zhen finished speaking, Ivanov was shocked to find that Tang Zhen’s body had already disappeared into thin air. ”

“““Lord Oracle, where have you been?”” ”

“Ivanov was a little flustered. It was a great fortune to be able to meet this Oracle and help him be reborn. Now that the Oracle was gone, he immediately became extremely flustered because he had more questions to ask. He hoped that he could also get the favor of the God. ”

“““No need to shout, I’m right beside you.”” ”

Tang Zhen’s voice sounded in Ivanov’s ears before it once again appeared in the open space in front of him.

“““Now, do you believe me?”” ”

“Feeling that his performance was almost done, Tang Zhen used a faint tone to open his mouth and ask. ”

“““I believe, I absolutely believe, and I have never doubted the words of the Oracle!”” ”

“Ivanov immediately bent down. His tone was pious and firm, and he was speaking the truth. ”

“When he realized that he had indeed been reincarnated, a deep sense of respect and fear had already risen in his heart for Tang Zhen. Now that he had seen Tang Zhen continuously display ‘miracles’, he was even more convinced and devoted to him. ”

“Tang Zhen nodded upon seeing this. It seemed that Ivanov had already believed his words without a doubt. In that case, it was time to talk about serious matters. ”

“A solemn and solemn voice sounded in Ivanov’s ears. Tang Zhen asked word by word, Ivanov, as you have been reborn by relying on divine arts, are you willing to help the great God develop his believers in the world? “” ”

“When Ivanov heard this, he immediately became extremely excited. He heavily knelt in front of Tang Zhen and replied in a decisive tone, I, Ivanov, am willing to sacrifice myself for the great God and help him develop his believers in the world. Even if I have to face blades and axes, even if death comes, I will not be afraid! ”

“”Don’t worry. As long as you become a devout believer of God, you don’t have to be afraid of death because you will be immortal!”” Tang Zhen said with a smile. ”

“What Tang Zhen said was not the truth, but he did not completely lie to Ivanov either. This was because as long as his soul was not exhausted, he indeed had the possibility of infinite reincarnation. ”

“This was the terrifying part of the soul lodging technique. If one’s soul power was strong enough, it was possible to live forever! ”

“Tang Zhen could not help but sigh in his heart. Fortunately, the words that recorded the soul lodging secret technique were very unique. As a result, the person in charge of Black Rock City did not discover its value. In the end, he benefited from it. ”

“He had only managed to decipher the text with the help of the [ mysterious text translator ] that he had downloaded from the application store, making it possible for his grand plan to be realized. Once the original world was under his control, he would have billions of people in reserve. How difficult would it be for him to make a name for himself in the loucheng world? ”

“Ivanov was his own experimental subject. There were more experimental subjects in the future. Tang Zhen wanted to use the people from the ice Bear Alliance to do experiments. Once all the experiments were completed, Tang Zhen would carry out the soul lodging secret technique across the plane of space and transfer the soul of the original world’s human into the body cultivated in the Lou Cheng world, completing a perfect rebirth! ”

The source of all these plans was now tied to Ivanov.

“Ivanov immediately became excited when he heard that he would no longer have to worry about death. However, Tang Zhen’s next words made him worry about his gains and losses. ”

“your current body doesn’t belong to you, so the compatibility is very low. It will fail in about three to five years, and you will have to change to a new body! ”

“Ivanov was stunned when he heard this. He thought to himself, “” the source of the new body is not a problem for him, but is it a little troublesome to change every three to five years? “” ”

He sneaked a glance at Tang Zhen and realized that Tang Zhen was looking at him with a smile that was not a smile. It was as if he had already seen through his thoughts.

“don’t worry. Actually, the solution to this problem is very simple. You can either wait for me to cultivate a perfect body, then you only need to change it once and you will never have to worry about the body failing again. Even if the body is damaged, there is a spare body to replace. ”

“It’s just that this will take a long time, so you’ll have to wait patiently. ”

“You can clone a body for yourself, but according to the current technology, even if this body is successfully used, it can only be maintained for about ten years. In the end, it will still fail rapidly.”” ”

“When Tang Zhen said this, he looked at Ivanov and waited for his answer. ”

“Ivanov lowered his head and thought for a while before he raised his head and said to Tang Zhen, you can continue to cultivate that perfect body, and I will find a way to recruit a group of top scholars to research and improve the body cloning technique. What do you think? ” ”

What else could Tang Zhen say? he was very satisfied with Ivanov’s tactfulness!

Chapter 94: The so-called ‘sacred relic’

“Ivanov paused for a second and asked Tang Zhen in a probing tone, “” my dear Oracle, I wonder if you can give me a token to represent the existence of God. It will be more convincing when I spread the power of God among my believers. ”

“Tang Zhen glanced at Ivanov when he heard this. His eyes were very calm, but it made Ivanov immediately become more reserved. ” you’re right. Having a Holy item will make the believers more convinced. I’ll agree to your request.

“Ivanov’s consideration was very thoughtful. Tang Zhen was silent for a while before gently nodding in agreement, which made Ivanov very excited. ”

“In fact, other than the magical abilities that Tang Zhen obtained from the application store, there weren’t many items that could make people feel that they were magical. The purple electric short sword was one of them. However, Tang Zhen couldn’t give it to Ivanov because it was a weapon that he could use. The cloak and leather armor were the same, but they were used by Tang Zhen to save his life, so he couldn’t give them to Ivanov. ”

“After much thought, he decided that he could only give Ivanov the items he had obtained from the treasure room in Blackstone city. ”

“In the tower world, it was not good for Tang Zhen to show these things to others. Otherwise, once Black Rock City discovered it, they would immediately lock Tang Zhen as the suspect of stealing the treasure. In the face of such a huge loss, it would be strange if Black Rock City did not take revenge on Tang Zhen. ”

“However, in the original world, Tang Zhen could take it out without any scruples and did not have to worry about Black Rock City coming to find him. ”

“After thinking up to this point, Tang Zhen waved his hand and a pile of swords and armor appeared out of thin air in front of Ivanov. Ivanov was shocked, but when he saw what these items were, he quickly stepped forward. ”

“Ivanov first looked at the swords and armor carefully, and then pulled out a scimitar. The more he looked at it, the more shocked he was. ”

“These swords and armors were the items that Tang Zhen had obtained from the treasure room in Black Rock City. According to Tang Zhen’s guess, they were very likely to be the most precious demonic weapons in the tower world. ”

“Other things aside, the appearance of these mo weapons was very cool. ”

“It was unknown what kind of metal the sword was made of, but it was covered with extremely beautiful patterns. It was natural, and it had a glazed texture. It shone with a faint light, and Ivanov’s face changed color. ”

“At Tang Zhen’s signal, Ivanov waved his scimitar at the sofa beside him. The heavy sofa was instantly split into two. One of the pieces fell to the ground, and the filling at the broken part was extremely smooth. ”

“”””This Kasaya is too sharp!””” ”

Ivanov was full of praise. He put the scimitar back and turned his attention to the armor.

“The shape of the armor was strange, and it was a decorative style that Ivanov had never seen before. It was wild and ferocious, like the armor worn by gods. The material used was similar to that of swords, so it must have had an amazing defensive power. ”

“In the original world where guns and explosives were rampant, cold weapons were naturally unable to resist these firearms. However, using them as honor guards to show the greatness of God was the best choice. ”

“Ivanov had already begun to fantasize about wearing a gorgeous robe and being followed by a group of guards wearing this kind of God-given armor and swords, and receiving the worship of those powerful people who were usually high and mighty. ”

“As he looked at Ivanov who had fallen into a beautiful fantasy, the corner of Tang Zhen’s mouth twitched. He coughed lightly and said,”””Other than that, I’ll give you something else. It’s different from the weapons of the divine realm. It’s a true sacred object!””” ”

Ivanov’s eyes lit up. He began to stare at Tang Zhen’s hands with a face full of anticipation.

“Tang Zhen did not let him wait for long. A light suddenly flashed in the air above his extended palm. Immediately after, an incomparably resplendent and mysterious crystal appeared above Tang Zhen’s palm. As it slowly rotated, runes continuously flashed. ”

This crystal was one of the cornerstones that Tang Zhen had obtained from the treasure vault in Black Rock City. He had taken it out and handed it over to Ivanov.

“Ivanov’s breathing became heavy in an instant. He could confirm with one look that this was definitely not something that could appear in the original world, but an item that truly belonged to the gods. ”

“Looking at Ivanov’s eyes that were filled with incomparable desire, Tang Zhen grabbed the foundation stone and handed it to him. Then, he saw Ivanov piously lift it up with both hands. After carefully examining it for a long time, he slowly lifted it up with one hand and made it float slightly above his head. ”

Ivanov was wrapped in a blanket and holding a floating cornerstone with a pious and solemn look on his face. He did have the style of a quack.

“Tang Zhen smiled when he saw this. He said to Ivanov, through this God’s stone, the God can feel the prayers of the believers. When it reaches a certain level, it can become a temple bestowed by the God. ”

“When Ivanov heard this, he immediately straightened his back. When he looked at the foundation stone, the piety in his eyes became more and more intense. ”

“Tang Zhen’s words weren’t spoken randomly. He really intended to replace this cornerstone with a building foundation that was similar to a religious Hall at an appropriate time. After that, he would try to see if he could sacrifice it to build a building in his original world! ”

“If he could succeed, Tang Zhen guessed that the relationship between the loucheng world and the original world was not simple! ”

“In fact, ever since the corpse race descended into the world of loucheng, Tang Zhen had some doubts in his heart. In the boundless world of loucheng, where did those wild building ruins with different styles come from? where did the strange monsters come from? were they born and raised in the world of loucheng, or were they like the corpse race and forcefully descended into this world? ”

“Or it could be said that they were affected by some mysterious power, which was why they appeared in the tower world after their destruction. They were the missing parts of their respective worlds. ”

“It was impossible to rely on guessing for this kind of question. Even if Tang Zhen thought that his guess had some possibility, before he obtained the correct answer, a guess was only a guess and not a real answer. ”

Tang Zhen came back to his senses from his thoughts. He thought for a while and told Ivanov the method of using the altar to perform a simplified version of the soul lodging secret technique. It was actually just a simple incantation.

“Without this altar, Ivanov would not be able to complete the soul hosting secret technique with only a short incantation. Therefore, only Tang Zhen could maintain the altar at a fixed time so that he could continue to perform the secret technique. ”

Tang Zhen took a sip of red wine and slowly stood up as he looked at Ivanov’s bitter expression while memorizing the spell.

“The mission assigned to Ivanov had been completed. The next step would depend on his ability. However, Ivanov himself was not a simple person. In addition to the mystical item given to him by Tang Zhen, he believed that it would not take long for him to have a group of devout believers. ”

“the brother and sister outside are probably mercenaries to hide from the enemy. I’ve hired them temporarily, and they’re both quite capable. Find a way to make them your guards, and it’s best if they become your believers. ”

“Tang Zhen suddenly turned around and looked at Ivanov, “” “”You’re not allowed to touch that girl, and you’re also not allowed to touch any other man, understand?”” ”

“Ivanov revealed a wretched smile and quickly nodded. don’t worry, Your Excellency. I’ll take good care of the woman you like. I’ll kill whoever touches her!”

Tang Zhen did not say anything after hearing this. He only smiled gently at Ivanov before his figure instantly disappeared without a trace.

“Ivanov bowed to send him off. After a long time, he slowly straightened his back. His young face had a complicated expression mixed with piety, madness, and detachment.”

Chapter 95: The conversation and the breakout (1)

“Tang Zhen, who activated the quantum stealth light curtain, did not leave immediately. Instead, he appeared in the hall on the first floor.”

“At this moment, Pargo was lying on the sofa. He seemed to be very relaxed, but Tang Zhen had a feeling that if there was any movement, Pargo would be like a cheetah, quickly jumping up from the ground and injuring people.”

“The truth was just as Tang Zhen had guessed. After he turned off the quantum invisibility screen and deliberately made a sound, the originally lazy Pargo suddenly jumped up from the sofa. He half-knelt on the ground and used the sofa and coffee table as cover. His other hand quickly pulled out the TT33 from his waist and aimed it in Tang Zhen’s direction.”

“””Pa pa pa!”” ”

“Tang Zhen clapped his hands and looked at the guarded paars as he laughed,””You’re pretty good. If I were the enemy, I’m afraid you would have already fired. How could someone who can find cover, determine the target’s location, and quickly aim at the target be scared by my words?”

“That’s why I’m saying that you guys were prepared to put on a show for everyone to see, but your previous performance was too much?”” ”

“Pargo stood up from the ground, his pistol hanging at his waist as he looked at Tang Zhen and said, I felt that something was wrong since you started talking. Hiring me and Natasha with a high salary for no reason is unreasonable in itself, so we thought that you must have a purpose. Now can you tell me, what do you want from us? ”” ”

“Tang Zhen walked to the sofa and sat down. He looked at Pargo with a smile that was not a smile and said,””What am I doing? of course, I’m hiring you. Although I’ve never seen you in action, I’m still sure that you and Natasha are very good at fighting, so I used the excuse of hiring you as an excuse to test you. In the end, you agreed, so we have the basis for cooperation, right?”” ”

“Pargo’s eyes were fixed on Zhen Tang. The man in front of him was exuding a terrifying pressure. Ordinary people might not be able to feel it, but Pargo, who had been in the battlefield for a long time, could clearly feel it. This pressure made him feel like pulling out his gun at any time. His heart was beating wildly and his nerves were tight, almost driving him crazy.”

""How can you be so sure that I'll accept your employment? what if we choose to refuse?" "

"Pargo's butt was half-leaning on the other sofa, trying to relax his body. If he kept on being so nervous, he would definitely break down. "

"Tang Zhen smiled when he heard this. He looked at Pargo, who deliberately revealed a relaxed expression, and said, you won't refuse. People like you, once you sense danger, will never allow it to develop to a level that threatens you. So, you will choose to advance instead of retreating, or carry out a preventive attack, or try to resolve the danger. Since I've given you a chance to get close to me, you will naturally use it to determine if I have any ill intentions. "

"If you were sure that I wanted to harm you, I'm afraid you would have already taken action. After all, you've brought your weapons, haven't you?" "

"Tang Zhen smiled as he explained. At the same time, he picked up a bronze sculpture on the table and gently fiddled with it. "

""After that, you saw that I showed the three corpses without any restraint, and I didn't show any malice, so you judged me as a friend and not an enemy. You took the opportunity to accept the mission, not wanting to be on bad terms with me because of this matter. "

"Besides, Yingluo, even if you refuse the job, do you think I can't do anything to you?" "

"After Tang Zhen finished speaking, he gently broke off the bronze sculpture. The hard sculpture was actually like rotten wood as it was easily broken into many small pieces and scattered on the ground. "

"Pargau's pupils contracted as he stared at the solid bronze sculpture for a while. Then, he looked at Tang Zhen with an ashen face and asked, ""Can you tell me how long you've been watching us?" "

"Tang Zhen leaned back on the sofa and looked at the depressed Pargo. ""I just happened to meet you and your sister, and I happen to need people like you to help me with things. Everything is just a coincidence. "" "

"Pargo let out a long sigh of relief, and his expression finally relaxed. He laughed at himself and said, "" ""It seems that I was being overly sensitive before. Then, Mr. Tang, may I ask if you spent money to hire us just to guard the door?" "

"of course not. You need to protect someone to get out of here, because a battle is about to take place here. As for the salary, it can be calculated separately. He will pay you! "

"Tang Zhen pointed to the exit of the basement. A young man was currently walking out from inside. However, what made people feel puzzled was that this young man's forehead was wrapped in a circle of gauze, and there were faint blood stains seeping out. "

"Pargau looked at the young man's face, and a shocked expression appeared on his face again. If it wasn't for the fact that it was broad daylight, he would have thought he had seen a ghost. "

Wasn't this one of the three corpses in the basement? how did he come back to life?

“Pargo was sure that he had seen it very carefully at that time. The young man had been shot in the forehead by a pistol, and he couldn’t be more dead. Livor mortis had also appeared on the body, which further proved that he had been dead for a long time.”

“Therefore, Pargo was sure that the young man with livor mortis on his neck and the back of his hands, and gauze on his head, was one of the three bodies.”

“God, what was going on?”

“Even though Pargo had killed countless people, he was still terrified by what was happening in front of him. The dead were not scary, but it was very scary to see a dead person come back to life after a few days.”

“Tang Zhen ignored Pargo, who was about to lose his mind, and said to Ivanov, let Pargo take you away now. Otherwise, I might have to change your body!”

“Ivanov was stunned. Just as he was about to ask Tang Zhen why, he suddenly heard rapid gunshots from outside.”

“””There’s no need for me to explain this time, right? because we’ve already been surrounded!”” Tang Zhen shrugged his shoulders and helplessly said.”

“In fact, before Tang Zhen walked out of the underground room, he had already discovered this group of armed gunmen through the map. Therefore, he did not directly leave.”

“””Damn it!”” ”

“Ivanov waved his fist and looked at Tang Zhen,””It must be the fire Fist, but how do they know I’m still alive?”” ”

“they’re looking for me. As long as we check the surveillance, they can trace the area where the car I was driving was in. Besides, they didn’t see your body, so it’s only natural that they surrounded your lair.”

“Tang Zhen explained. After which, he impatiently waved his hand and said, hurry up and get Pargo to take you away. By the way, do you need to call your sister?”” ”

“At this moment, Pargo took out a submachine gun from his backpack in the corner and shook his head at Tang Zhen. Natasha will leave after the cover is done. Damn it, I wanted to avoid my enemies and live a quiet life, but why did I pick up a gun?”” ”

“””Don’t worry, you won’t regret your choice today!”” ”

“Tang Zhen patted Pargo’s shoulder. He raised his hand and took out an automatic rifle from under his cloak. Then, he ran upstairs like lightning.”

“””Can you tell me how he did it? magic?”” ”

“Pargo looked at Tang Zhen’s back in a daze. His mind was still recalling Tang Zhen’s actions just now. His hand clearly didn’t reach under the cloak, but a rifle appeared out of thin air. Moreover, it didn’t look like there was a rifle hidden under the cloak. Otherwise, he would have noticed the abnormality when Tang Zhen was walking in the bedroom. ”

“Ivanov heard the rapid gunshots coming from outside and urged Pargo, “” “”He’s a Big Shot you’ll never be able to guess. I wouldn’t be surprised even if he took out a T34 tank from under his cloak. ”

“Buddy, can we leave now? don’t worry, I’ll pay you a large sum of money!”” ”

“Ivanov urged. He had already died once, so he knew how precious life was. He did not want to be beaten to death again. The feeling was too painful! ”

“Tang Zhen, who was carrying an automatic weapon, had just entered the second floor when he saw Natasha, who was squatting in the corner and sniping outside the window. ”

“At this time, the beauty looked like a calm and cold Warrior. Her beautiful face was no longer as delicate as when they first met. Her movements were clean and crisp, and lethal bullets would shoot out from her muzzle from time to time. ”

“After seeing Tang Zhen, Natasha pouted her small mouth and heaved a sigh of relief. She glanced out of the window again and then looked at Tang Zhen,“”It seems that you have to pay more, my Dear Mr. Tang!”” ”

Chapter 96: gun battle

“The corner of Tang Zhen’s mouth twitched into a smile when he heard this. After his gaze caught a human figure flashing outside the window, he did not hesitate to raise his gun and shoot. With his powerful strength and abnormal reaction speed, coupled with the assistance of a super shooting assistant, Tang Zhen only needed one shot to blow up the head of the gunman. ”

“Natasha watched her target fall and pulled back the sniper rifle that was half extended. Her beautiful big eyes glanced at Tang Zhen and praised, “” “”Your aim is not bad!”” ”

“The window was smashed by the crazy bullets. The two of them changed to another window. Before Natasha could observe, Tang Zhen stuck his gun out and fired three shots in a row without looking. ”

“When Natasha heard the screams and the sound of heavy objects falling to the ground, she knew that Tang Zhen’s three shots had hit the target. Moreover, more than one person had been hit. This exaggerated shooting method made Natasha frown slightly because she couldn’t understand how Tang Zhen had done it. ”

“This feeling made her very uncomfortable, because not understanding it meant that it could not be cracked, making her feel like she had lost control of the battlefield. ”

“After Tang Zhen confirmed that there were no more gunmen near the window through the map, he immediately stood up and began to search for the enemy with his gun. He quickly found an enemy hiding in the corner and turned his gun over.”

“However, he didn’t expect that Natasha’s first shot would be slightly off. The gunman was so frightened that he wanted to lie down to avoid the bullet, but his head was blown off by Tang Zhen’s next shot.”

“After seeing this scene, Natasha pouted slightly and then quickly moved to another location.”

“When Tang Zhen saw that four or five gunmen had aimed at this window and started shooting, he immediately squatted down. With the view of the map, he almost emptied a magazine.”

“After making sure that the gunmen were all killed, Tang Zhen turned around and moved. However, he found that Natasha was silently looking at him. After staring for a while, she said, “Big brother sent a message saying that they have left safely. We can leave now.””

“Tang Zhen nodded. The two of them immediately got up and prepared to rush to the first floor. However, they discovered that two gunmen had already rushed into the hall on the first floor and were preparing to rush to the second floor.”

“Tang Zhen and Natasha looked at each other. Each of them was responsible for one target and quickly killed the two gunmen. However, at this moment, another seven or eight gunmen rushed into the hall, and there were also people outside who were stationed at the front and back windows with guns.”

“There were about 20 gunmen surrounding the Ivanov villa this time. Other than the ones killed by the two of them, the rest were almost all gathered here.”

“Natasha glanced at her magazine and wiped the fine beads of sweat on her forehead with some annoyance. She shook her head at Tang Zhen, pursed her lips and shrugged, “I didn’t expect to encounter such a scene, so I prepared very little ammunition. In fact, I’m out of bullets.”

“Perhaps it was because Natasha had been on the battlefield for a long time, but when she talked about this almost devastating thing, her expression remained unchanged, as if she were just chit-chatting.”

“Tang Zhen threw his rifle and said with a smile, “What a coincidence, I was just about to say the same thing.””

“Natasha looked at Tang Zhen’s frivolous appearance and angrily punched him. Then, she took a small folding knife from her waist belt.”

“From the looks of it, she seemed to be going for her last fight. However, Tang Zhen did not think that this girl had any hope of winning when faced with seven or eight strong men holding automatic rifles.”

“Perhaps she just didn’t want to give up the last chance. After all, if she fell into the enemy’s hands, she would probably suffer a terrible torture that was worse than death. Tang Zhen believed that those gunmen would definitely not have any mercy when facing a beautiful captive like Natasha.”

““You wait here, I’ll go deal with them.””

“Tang Zhen didn’t take out any more firearms from his storage space. Instead, he took out the purple electric short sword. Without waiting for Natasha to stop him, he had already rushed down the stairs like lightning and met the gunman who was preparing to go upstairs.”

“By the time the Gunners saw Tang Zhen and subconsciously pulled their triggers, his purple electric short sword had already drawn out a life-reaping edge, blooming a blood-colored flower of death in the middle of the Gunners!”

“Hot blood shot into the air from the gunmen’s chests and necks, and some of them were even heads and limbs that were sent flying. The bullets that went out of control passed through the flowers of death and shattered the floor-to-ceiling glass on the first floor.”

“When Tang Zhen passed through the middle of these gunmen and quietly stood in the middle of the hall, the blood that was wildly gushing out from the seven to eight corpses had already dyed the stairs completely blood red. After which, it turned into a small stream that slowly flowed on the ground of the hall on the first floor.”

“””God, are you Superman?”” ”

“Natasha exclaimed excitedly and pounced over. She looked at Tang Zhen with an extremely admiring gaze. At this moment, the brave and calm beautiful sniper seemed to have transformed into a little girl who saw the superhero in her heart. She no longer had any reservations.”

“The killing scene that had just happened was completely comparable to the classic scenes in super blockbusters. Even a female sniper like Natasha, who was used to seeing life and death, could not help but be intoxicated by it.”

“After Tang Zhen saw Natasha’s expression and movements, he felt a little proud in his heart. Just as he was thinking about how to respond to Natasha, he saw a gunman raise his rifle and pull the trigger at Natasha from the corner of his eye.”

“””Be careful!”” ”

“Tang Zhen roared and blocked in front of Natasha. His back faced the bullets, and at the same time, the purple electric short sword flew out.”

“Gunshots had already sounded. Tang Zhen only felt as though his back had been struck four to five times by a heavy hammer, causing him to nearly vomit blood.”

“This black cloak saved his life at the critical moment. It blocked all the bullets, but the impact of the bullets was greatly reduced. This was also one of the shortcomings of the black cloak.”

The gunshots had stopped. The gunman had a purple electric short sword in his chest and was limply falling to the ground.

Tang Zhen! Natasha exclaimed. She carried Tang Zhen and dragged him to the sofa. She had just seen with her own eyes that the bullets of the gunman had landed on Tang Zhen’s body.

“The thought of this man blocking a fatal attack for her made Natasha’s heart beat wildly. She never owed anyone anything. Someone saved her life, so what should she do to make it even?”

“don’t move. How are you feeling now? ” ”

“Natasha looked at Tang Zhen’s pained expression and wanted to check if his back was injured. At this time, she had already determined that Tang Zhen should be wearing a heavy bulletproof vest similar to dragon scale armor. Otherwise, if he was shot by a rifle at close range, his chest and back would have bled under normal circumstances. ”

The body of flesh and blood was extremely fragile in front of such a killing weapon!

“””No problem, I’m just a little uncomfortable. Let’s evacuate immediately!”” ”

“Tang Zhen waved his hand to indicate that he was fine. Then, he struggled to stand up. After Natasha saw that he was indeed fine, she bent down to pick up a rifle and walked out of the door. ”

“After two gunshots, Natasha leaned in and slightly turned her head, signaling Tang Zhen to continue walking out. ”

“The courtyard of the Ivanov family’s house was very quiet. The bodies of the gunmen were scattered on the ground, and the air was filled with the smell of gunpowder and blood. ”

“Even after the two of them got into the car and left, there were no more gunmen. They must have been killed by the two of them. ”

“Tang Zhen sat in the front passenger seat. Natasha drove while contacting Pargo. From time to time, she would turn her head to look at Tang Zhen, her eyes full of concern. ”

“The car finally stopped in a Manor, and Ivanov and Pargo took the two inside. At this time, Tang Zhen had already taken the Ivy ointment and his body was no longer in any danger. ”

“After the secret conversation with Tang Zhen, Ivanov began to mobilize his own forces with a furious expression on his face. With the cooperation of Pargo, he was ready to retaliate against the fire Fist, intending to eliminate the roots in one go! ”

“Tang Zhen did not participate in this matter. Since Ivanov did not ask him for help, he naturally had the confidence and confidence to do so. If the dignified head of the firearms Bureau did not have some secret and violent means, he would have been thrown into the river to feed the fish. ”

“In the bathroom, Tang Zhen turned on the tap and allowed the water to wash his strong and straight body. His back was full of bruises, which were the traces left behind by bullets. However, Tang Zhen did not care about this. Instead, he was thinking about the various miscellaneous matters regarding the Holy Dragon City. ”

“The bathroom door was gently pushed open. A pair of snow-white long legs stretched in and slowly walked to Tang Zhen’s back. After which, they gently hugged him. ”

“””This is Yingluo?”” ”

Tang Zhen did not turn his head as he softly asked.

“you saved me, so I’ll repay you with my body. This way, we don’t owe each other anything. ”

“Natasha’s voice sounded, but it seemed like she was talking about a deal, which made Tang Zhen feel very uncomfortable. In fact, the original purpose of protecting Natasha was to let her play the role of a Saint beside Ivanov.”

“Of course, if he had the opportunity, Tang Zhen would not refuse to kiss her.”

“””You like my body, right? Don’t deny it, I can feel it from your eyes. Come, I belong to you tonight!”” ”

Natasha’s mumbling voice sounded again. Her finger brushed over the bruise on Tang Zhen’s back and gently kissed it.

“Tang Zhen’s body suddenly tensed up. He only relaxed a few seconds later. As he felt the soft feeling transmitted from his back, Tang Zhen immediately felt that he was already on the verge of exploding.”

Tang Zhen slowly turned around and looked at Natasha’s nearly perfect body under the impact of the water flow. He could no longer control himself and fiercely hugged her in his arms. His delicate snow-white skin and strong bronze skin intertwined together as he crazily and violently explored her body.

Chapter 97: The Holy Dragon city’s celebratory feather.1

“A few days later, the weather was unusually clear in the morning.”

“A few hundred meters away from the Ivanov family’s house on the road, Tang Zhen’s figure appeared out of thin air. At this time, he had already changed into ordinary casual clothes. He seemed like an ordinary passerby as he began to leisurely stroll.”

“As Tang Zhen walked, he thought about how to make use of Ivanov to bring him more convenience.”

“Just last evening, Ivanov had killed his biggest enemy, the fire Fist, and became one of the big bosses in this area!”

“If this had happened in the past, Ivanov would have been so excited that he would die. However, since his rebirth, he had become the spokesperson of the Oracle in the world. His vision had long become extremely lofty. How could he be fascinated by such a small power in front of him?”

“With Ivanov’s protection, the brother and sister naturally no longer had to worry about being hunted down by their enemies, but they still had to pay the price.”

“Natasha agreed to be the saintess and put on a white robe that was specially tailored to match her perfect figure and appearance, making her look extremely Holy.”

“Ever since that crazy night, she had kept a certain distance from Tang Zhen. It was as if it was just as she had said. She was purely repaying Tang Zhen and did not want to owe him too much.”

“Pargo became the captain of Ivanov’s guards. Together with six other strong men wearing the demon weapon armor that Tang Zhen had taken out, they guarded Ivanov, who was dressed in a gorgeous robe, as guards of honor. At the same time, they also cooperated with the armed bodyguards and began the plan to develop believers.”

“From Tang Zhen’s point of view, the more Ivanov acted this way, the more benefits he would obtain!”

“Ivanov could not only provide him with an experimental body for the soul lodging secret technique, but he could also help him expand his influence in his original world. In the future, he could also help him obtain many weapons and firearms that he urgently needed, even heavy weapons that could destroy cities!”

“Although choosing Ivanov was a spontaneous decision, the entire process and the results achieved had greatly exceeded Tang Zhen’s expectations. Therefore, he was extremely satisfied.”

“Tang Zhen, who was in a good mood, went to the nearby market and bought a whole car of wine and food in one breath. When he paid the bill, he used the money he obtained in the loucheng world.”

“These banknotes might have belonged to the original world, but unfortunately, they disappeared or were destroyed because of the disaster. However, they were strangely restored in the world of loucheng. Tang Zhen had only brought them back to the original world.”

“After the hired car unloaded the goods into the forest, Tang Zhen watched as the driver with a strange expression left. He immediately put all the food into the storage space.”

“His own city had just been built, so he had to celebrate with the residents!”

The transmission was activated. Tang Zhen returned to his own room in the tower after his vision blurred. He stood by the window and looked around before walking in the direction of the kitchen.

“At this moment, the residents were all busy with their own tasks, so there were not many people in the building.”

“After Tang Zhen greeted the woman in charge of the food in the kitchen, he got the woman to open the door of the food storage at the side of the kitchen. Then, Tang Zhen released all the food he had brought along this time.”

“Looking at the room filled with food, Tang Zhen smiled in satisfaction. He turned around and ordered the woman to call Murong Zi Yan over.”

“Not long after, Murong Ziyan rushed over.”

“When she entered the kitchen Warehouse and saw all kinds of alcohol, chicken, fish, meat, and eggs on the floor, she was slightly stunned for a few seconds. Then, she looked at Tang Zhen with a questioning look.”

Tang Zhen pointed at the food in the warehouse and told Murong Zi Yan that these were ingredients for the celebration.

“”Isn’t this Kasaya a little too extravagant?”” ”

“Murong Zi Yan asked in disbelief. Even though she didn’t have to worry about hunger after following Tang Zhen, she still couldn’t accept the fact that she had to use up so much precious food at once.”

“call a few more people to take care of the food. Since loucheng has been built, we should celebrate with the residents!”

“Tang Zhen indifferently waved his hand, indicating that Murong Zi Yan didn’t need to feel heartache. ”

“There was a saying that “” an Emperor does not lack hungry soldiers. Letting the residents eat a meal that they had never eaten before was definitely the embodiment of the benefits of the loucheng. While the residents were shocked, they would definitely be grateful to him, and it would increase his prestige. ”

“Murong Zi Yan obediently nodded her head. Not long after she left, she returned with a dozen women. They used rattan woven baskets to separate the food and carried it to the dining room to prepare for cooking. ”

“Not long after, Murong Zi Yan came back with a troubled expression. She told Tang Zhen with some bad intentions that the women did not know how to prepare the food. ”

“Tang Zhen had overlooked this point. After all, they were in two different worlds. There were a lot of food that they had never seen before. He followed Murong Zi Yan to the kitchen and began to guide the women on how to cook the food. ”

“Previously, he had bought enough seasonings to cook these dishes. During this period, he even personally cooked two of his own specialty dishes. The only difference was that he used to use plates to store them, but now he used large basins. ”

“The news that city Lord Tang Zhen was preparing to hold a celebration quickly spread among the residents. Tai Seng and Qian Long even specially came over to check and confirm. When they saw the plates of delicious food, the two of them drooled. ”

“Taking advantage of the chef’s inattentiveness, the two picked up a crispy roast duck and ran, making Murong Ziyan so angry that she chased after them and scolded them. ”

“Preparing food for more than 400 people at once sounded very scary, but in the eyes of these chefs who made big pot rice, it was not a problem at all. Several women and the helper they called later, everyone was busy cooking and frying. In just a few hours, all the required food was ready. ”

“After sealing off all the entrances to the three lines of defense, they sent people to take turns to guard. The remaining residents were all called over by Tang Zhen and gathered in the open space in front of the tower. ”

More than 400 people sat around ten long tables that had been temporarily built. The tables were filled with delicious food that exuded a strong aroma.

“This was the first time the Holy Dragon city’s residents had had such a meal since they were born. The alluring food made them drool, and the wine in their cups filled them with curiosity. At the same time, they were secretly grateful to the city Lord who had given them the status of a resident and brought them an unforgettable meal. ”

“After Tang Zhen saw that everyone had taken their seats, he raised the wine glass in front of him and looked around at everyone. He slowly opened his mouth and said,“”Today, we’ve all gathered together to taste good food and to celebrate the successful establishment of our Holy Dragon City. ”

“from now on, we all have a home that belongs to us. From now on, we and our descendants will all live here. I hope that everyone will work together to upgrade Holy Dragon City to the most powerful city in the endless wilderness!”

“”””Cheers!”” ”

“Tang Zhen raised his head and finished the wine, showing the empty cup.”

All the residents followed suit and shouted loudly. They raised their wine glasses together and drank it all in one gulp.

“”””Long live the city Lord!”” ”

“”””Protect the Holy Dragon City, even at the cost of ten thousand lives!”” ”

“”””Good wine!”” ”

“”””Oh, is this wine? why are you so confused after drinking it?”” ”

“”””The fruit juice is so good, so sweet!”” ”

“”””Is this called beer? it tastes weird. It’s like horse urine. Do the big shots drink this? Tsk, tsk, their taste is really weird?”” ”

“The discussion at the table was endless, but it didn’t affect everyone’s eating speed. They had never eaten these beautiful dishes before, and they felt that they were really delicious!”

“As a result, the dining table was filled with residents who were chewing and grabbing food with their mouths and eyes fixed on the food. They were afraid that the delicious food would be gone if they were slow.”

“In fact, the residents didn’t need to worry at all because Tang Zhen had already prepared sufficient food. It was enough to last them until they couldn’t walk.”

“Tang Zhen, Qian Long Tai Seng, and the rest sat at the same table. Murong Zi Yan sat beside him. Other than them, Li Sha and the others were also present.”

“Compared to the other tables, where the residents were gobbling down their food, this table was much slower. The main reason was that they knew there was enough food, and they had already visited the kitchen before dinner.”

“For example, Murong Ziyue, that little girl, was still holding the chicken leg that she had “””” stolen “””” and was gnawing on it with relish.”

“Big Bear, who was sitting on the ground, was holding an entire Turkey and eating with a smile.”

“Qian Long and Tai Seng were both holding a bowl of high alcohol each, and their faces were flushed red as they competed with each other. However, when it came to drinking, Qian Long was clearly no match for the muscular Tai Seng, and he was already starting to get dizzy from the alcohol.”

“Tang Zhen didn’t drink anymore. Instead, he was drinking with Murong Zi Yan and the others. At the same time, they were discussing something in a low voice. Li Sha, who was watching from the side, had an unnatural expression on her face. However, she only drank her wine in silence.”

“There were soldiers in charge of security among the residents. After eating and drinking to their fill, they stood up and went outside to replace their companions who were standing guard. While they were celebrating, they kept their guard up.”

“After all, this place had already become their home. There was no need for Tang Zhen to specially emphasize it. Every resident would also take the initiative to protect this place.”

“After the noisy banquet ended, Tang Zhen announced that there would be a half-day holiday. After everyone cheered, they returned to their residence to rest.”

Tang Zhen went to the room where the foundation stone was placed by himself. He wanted to see if the hard liquor that he had previously announced for sale had already been sold.

“As soon as he entered the room, Tang Zhen knew that the hard liquor had been sold because the floor of the entire room was clean and not a single bottle of wine was left.”

“After sticking his identity card on the wall of the cornerstone trading platform and taking it off, Tang Zhen realized that there were indeed 2000 points on it, which was equivalent to 2000 level one brain beads.”

“At the same time, a message suddenly appeared on the stone wall of the cornerstone trading platform.”

Chapter 98: The valley under construction

Tang Zhen was very curious when he saw someone leaving a message on the platform. He immediately clicked on it to check.

I’m Hammer from the holy city of dwarves. Your wine is very good. I want 1000 more bottles!

“His words were straightforward and in line with the dwarves’ style that Tang Zhen had heard of.”

“Tang Zhen suddenly came to a realization after reading the message. It seemed that his strong wine had been bought by this dwarf called hammer. After tasting it, he felt that it was not bad, so he left a message for Tang Zhen to place an order.”

This was good news. Tang Zhen naturally wouldn’t neglect such a rich and forthright customer. He immediately returned to his original world and planned to buy another batch of hard liquor from the market.

“Unfortunately, he couldn’t find the brand of spirits in Ivanov’s house even after searching the market. Helplessly, Tang Zhen had to call Ivanov.”

“After the call was made, Ivanov quickly picked up the phone and asked Tang Zhen in a very respectful tone what instructions he had.”

“Tang Zhen’s face was a little red. In Ivanov’s eyes, he was a God’s messenger. He had such a powerful identity, but he specifically called to inquire about a kind of strong wine. He felt that his status was a little low.”

“No matter what, he still had to ask what he had to.”

“Ivanov immediately laughed when he heard Tang Zhen asking him about the origin of the hard liquor in the basement. He mistakenly thought that Tang Zhen was also a person who liked liquor, so he bragged about his Ice Bear Alliance hard liquor and immediately said that he would give the rest of the hard liquor to Tang Zhen.”

“Ivanov had good intentions, but it was a pity that half of the hard liquor in the basement had been taken away by Tang Zhen. The remaining amount was far from enough for Tang Zhen. Therefore, Tang Zhen refused Ivanov’s gift and asked where he could sell this kind of hard liquor.”

“In the end, Ivanov told Tang Zhen that this brand of spirits had stopped production. The wine in his house was the only stock left in the winery. However, he then told Tang Zhen the name of another spirit and said that the taste was almost the same.”

“After hanging up the phone, Tang Zhen followed Ivanov’s instructions and bought a thousand bottles of hard liquor from the market before he was teleported back to the loucheng world.”

“After entering the room on the cornerstone platform, Tang Zhen let out the strong wine and left a message to reply,”“the wine is ready.””

“He stared at the pile of hard liquor for a long time, but there was no sign of it disappearing. It seemed that the buyer named hammer was not in front of the cornerstone trading platform.”

“When Tang Zhen saw that he couldn’t see the process of the goods being transferred from the cornerstone trading platform, he came out of his room in a somewhat disappointed manner and began to patrol the valley.”

“Slowly walking to the compact and flat field in front of the building, Tang Zhen saw two soldiers fiddling with their walkie-talkies and chatting with others with a proud expression.”

“Since the battle to defend the city, Tang Zhen distributed these walkie-talkies to the residents of loucheng and equipped them with solar chargers. The residents were very curious about this tool that allowed long-distance communication, and anyone who was qualified to wear a walkie-talkie became the object of envy of the residents.”

“Tang Zhen had seen it more than once. There were residents who were wearing walkie-talkies and placed them at the most conspicuous position in a high and mighty manner. From time to time, they would pretend to roar a few words and then wait for the envious eyes of others.”

“When they saw Tang Zhen coming over, the two soldiers immediately put on a serious look and stood guard. They were afraid that Tang Zhen would blame them for fiddling with the walkie-talkie. However, the two of them had forgotten that the person on the other end of the walkie-talkie couldn't see their situation. ”

“““Hey, Bone Cat, why aren't you talking? tell me about you sleeping with the lady boss at the Wanderer market. I remember that the landlady's body could fit three of you. Did you stuff your head into her when you slept with her?““ ”

“““Why aren't you replying? did I guess correctly? hahaha Yingluo,““ ”

“The words transmitted from the walkie-talkie were extremely vulgar, causing the face of the warrior called Bone Cat to turn red. He looked at the smiling Tang Zhen in front of him and laughed dryly. After which, he picked up the walkie-talkie and gritted his teeth as he growled, old ninth su, shut the f * ck up. ”

“The bone Cat raised its head and looked at Zhen Tang. Just as it was about to please Zhen Tang, the rough voice from the walkie-talkie sounded again,““Bone Cat, I'll be honest with you. The lady boss once told me about you. She said that you saw her naked body and you were done with her before you even got into bed, Huahua.““ ”

“““Hahahahaha!““ ”

“A burst of unbridled laughter came from the walkie-talkie, but it was the laughter of a large group of people. ”

“The bone Cat wished it could stick its hand into the walkie-talkie, strangle su laojiu, and find a hole to hide in. ”

“&Nbsp; damn b * stard, old nine su, you are too unreliable. Can't you tell that there is something wrong with my voice? this is in front of the city Lord. You have completely embarrassed me. ”

Tang Zhen laughed out loud when he saw the bone cat's miserable appearance. He gave the bone Cat a perverted expression that any man could understand and left with his shoulders twitching.

“As soon as Zhen Tang left, the bone Cat picked up the walkie-talkie and shouted, old ninth su, you bastard! Just you wait! I'm not done with you today! ”

“Oh, come on. I'll wait for you when I'm completely naked. Don't let it end so quickly this time, Yingluo hahahahahahahahahahahahaha. ”

“The bone Cat spat on the ground and secretly cursed in its heart. Although the city Lord was magnanimous and didn't care about these trivial matters, it had lost all its face. Later on, it would definitely beat su laojiu up until he had panda eyes to vent the anger in its heart. ”

Tang Zhen walked out from the training ground. What entered his eyes was a vast Valley and a lively scene of labor.

“In the distance, Tyson was riding a three-wheeled motorcycle with a few people in it. He was driving around in circles in the valley. These guys were shouting excitedly on the motorcycle, and from time to time, someone would stand up and shoot an arrow at the target in the distance. ”

The dozens of straw dummy targets in the distance were already filled with sharp arrows.

Tang Zhen had brought three tricycles and even an agricultural tractor over.

“He had originally planned to use these things to transport supplies to the residents who were building in the valley. However, after Tyson learned how to operate them, he immediately asked for one, saying that it was for training his men.”

“Upon seeing the scene in front of him, Tang Zhen finally understood that this was the training method.”

“The tricycle that they had just obtained was very novel to Tyson and his soldiers. Naturally, they were having fun playing with it. Tang Zhen didn’t blame them. After all, these things were for them to play with, so they had to get familiar with it.”

There was a large area near the valley that was filled with gravel plains. The ground was also very flat and very suitable for these vehicles to travel on. Zhen Tang even planned to get a few more agricultural tractors to participate in the construction of the valley.

“Tang Zhen was only able to do this much. As for things like bulldozers and excavators, leaving aside whether his storage space could store them, just the maintenance and consumption of these machines, as well as their operation, would be enough to drive Tang Zhen crazy. Therefore, he was very wise to temporarily put them aside.”

“&Nbsp; Tai Seng pulled his men and ran two more laps before calling for them to start the four-wheeled tractors, pulling up the cement pillars and iron wires, and running to the entrance of the valley to continue building the defense facilities.”

“After the discussion of Tang Zhen and the others, the Valley’s entrance would be guarded by a combination of barbed wire and traps. At the same time, a two-story defensive tower would be built with stones and cement that could be seen everywhere. There would be people on duty at all times.”

“At the same time as the defensive towers were being built, they were also preparing to build a cave Sentry tower on the two cliffs at the entrance of the valley. This would increase the amount of work needed, and it would be enough for Tai Seng and the other residents to be busy for a while.”

“After the Sentry tower on the cliff was completed, Tang Zhen would equip the soldiers in charge of the guards with the mosinagan rifles, binoculars, and walkie-talkies that he had obtained from Ivanov. He would strive to discover the enemy’s situation as soon as possible and report in time!”

Chapter 99: The pathetic ‘nouveau riche’ exploration team (1)

Tang Zhen retracted his gaze from the entrance of the valley and looked at other places.

“On the other side of the valley, the thousand Dragons were shouting loudly. The same group of residents were waving their sharp Sickles, cutting down the weeds and then flattening the ground with shovels.”

“After clearing out an area of five mu, they began to build a simple shed.”

“The ruler of this shed was about tens of meters long. According to the plan, a total of four needed to be built side by side in four rows. The main body of the shed was the iron pipe brought by Tang Zhen and the stones in the valley. After the iron pipe was reinforced with right-angle buckles, the top of the shed would be covered with colored steel tiles, and the surrounding would be blocked by stones. ”

“This kind of shed could be used as a trading stall, and it could also provide a temporary place for the Wanderers to shelter them from the sun and rain. It was also one of the means to attract homeless Wanderers. ”

“Tang zhenquan had the help of his storage space. Otherwise, it would have taken a long time to transport these construction materials. ”

“Now that the residents of the Holy Dragon City knew that the Lord City Master had magical abilities, Tang Zhen no longer avoided them. After seeing the Lord City Master Release resources a few times, the residents of the Holy Dragon City were used to it. ”

The lake in the valley could be seen further away.

“The rippling surface of the lake was very beautiful. The surface of the lake was vast, and the aquatic products were also very rich. Standing at a high place on a sunny day, you could see groups of fish swimming in the Green Lake. The whole picture was very beautiful. ”

“However, Tang Zhen was extremely clear that if he were to rashly enter the water to catch fish, he would definitely die a miserable death. ”

“In the luxuriant grass a few meters away from the shore, there was a type of worm that was like a thin rope. There were countless of them. What surprised Tang Zhen the most was that they were actually a type of miniature monster! ”

“The monster detector showed that these monsters were not of a high level. They usually fed on seaweed, but when a creature entered the water and got close to the seaweed, they would bite and strangle it until the target collapsed in the water. ”

“At this time, the target of the attack would become a delicious meal to improve their diet. ”

“and these terrifying insects happened to be the food of another kind of strange fish in the lake, the black fish that swam in groups. ”

tai seng had once told tang zhen that there should be something like a water monster living in the lake. he had personally seen a black shadow that was at least seven to eight meters long swimming across the lake.

“Even at night when the moon hung high in the sky, the roars of monsters could be heard from the lake. ”

“If Tang Zhen wanted to make use of this Lake, he would have to get rid of all kinds of dangerous creatures in the lake. The first thing he had to get rid of was naturally the unknown water monster. If he allowed it to occupy the lake, it would be a big threat to the Holy Dragon City and the Wanderer market that was being built in the valley. ”

“As for how to deal with this monster, Tang Zhen had already come up with a preliminary plan and would soon implement it.”

“The lake was very fertile, and the land near the lake was the only land suitable for farming in the valley.”

“After the reclamation of the residents, about one hectare of land had been cleared and several high-yield crops brought by Tang Zhen had been planted.”

“The residents of the Holy Dragon City had never had any experience in farming land. Tang Zhen was the same. In order to learn how to farm, Tang Zhen searched for information and bought books. After a few days of hard work, he finally finished sowing the land.”

“There were potatoes, sweet potatoes, and corn, and more than a dozen different types of crops.”

“Whether these plants could grow smoothly would directly determine the Holy Dragon city’s future food source. After all, it was not a long-term plan to rely on Tang Zhen to transport them. They needed a stable source of food.”

“At the same time, it also cultivated a few kinds of wild plants unique to the world of loucheng, which were the main source of food for the Wanderers in this world.”

“For example, the ‘‘ astringent melon ‘‘ that grew underground and was the size of a basin, the ‘‘ bitter stem ‘‘ that had starch in its stem, and the ‘‘ sour bean ‘‘ that looked like a pea. Each one was more and more unpalatable.”

“However, the Wanderers in the world of loucheng had no choice. In order to fill their stomachs, they could only endure the strange taste and eat.”

“It wasn’t that Tang Zhen wanted to eat these crops. He only wanted to see if the yield would increase after applying the chemical fertilizer he had brought. If the results were ideal, it was completely possible to plant some of these crops.”

“Compared to the crops on earth, the life force of the plants in the loucheng world was too strong!”

“After walking around the cultivated land, Tang Zhen was pleasantly surprised to discover that the ground was already sparsely covered with tender shoots. They were the sweet potatoes, potatoes, and other plants that he had brought from earth.”

“He quickly called over the residents who were in charge of farming the land and told them to take good care of the seedlings, and to water and remove weeds in time.”

Tang Zhen’s mood was extremely good when he saw these already sprouted crops.

“Each city Tower would provide a limited amount of food Exchange per month based on the number of residents. This was not a very important function, but it was indispensable. The food was not given for free, but needed to be exchanged with points.”

“Unfortunately, the small amount of food exchanged could only ensure that the residents would not starve to death. It was absolutely impossible to fill their stomachs for every meal. However, in order to ensure the vitality of the city and let the residents work harder in the construction, the premise was to have a full stomach. Otherwise, how could the residents who were so hungry that they couldn't even walk properly work? ”

“It could be said that solving the problem of food sources was one of the important problems that Holy Dragon City was currently facing. If it could not be solved properly, it would be difficult for Holy Dragon City to develop too much in the future. ”

“If Tang Zhen could control the original world, then this problem would be easily solved. After transferring a large number of people, he would turn the original world into a global processing plant and a large Granary. ”

“The dream was great, but it was still far away from being realized. So, from the current situation, if the residents of Holy Dragon City wanted to live a better life and have no worries about food and clothing, they had to work hard to earn money! ”

Money?

“When Tang Zhen thought up to this point, he realized that he had work to do. He needed to prepare a currency to replace the brain Pearl that could be used in the tower. ”

“When everything in loucheng was back on track, this currency could be used as a salary for the residents and also to exchange for the brain beads they had accumulated. ”

“Tang Zhen did not want to scheme against the pitiful brains in the pockets of the residents. Instead, he hoped that one day, all Wanderers who came to the Holy Dragon City to trade would use the currency issued by the Holy Dragon City. Otherwise, they would not be able to buy and sell goods. ”

“If the Wanderer teams wanted this currency, they would have to use the brain pearls to exchange for it. This way, a large number of brain pearls would enter Tang Zhen's pocket. ”

“““City Lord, city Lord!”” ”

“Tang Zhen was pondering over a problem as he walked. Suddenly, a voice called out to him. He turned around and saw a soldier riding a tricycle that was driving unsteadily towards him. ”

Tang Zhen waited for the tricycle to stop before asking.

“Then, the soldier stopped the tricycle and panted heavily as he said to Tang Zhen,““We stopped a Wanderer exploration team at the entrance of the valley. They asked to take refuge in the valley, saying that they wanted to avoid the pursuit of a group of kobolds. ”

“Leader Tai Seng and his brothers stopped them, but leader thousand Dragons invited you over, saying that there's something on these people that you might be interested in!”” ”

“Tang Zhen immediately turned around and jumped onto the tricycle when he heard this. He said to the soldier, step on the gas! We'll rush over immediately! ”

“Yes, sir! the soldier replied and immediately pressed the pedal to the metal. He then ran toward the entrance of the valley. ”

“When he was about to reach the entrance of the valley, Tang Zhen saw Tai Seng and Qian Long leading a group of fully armed Warriors and surrounding them. There were also a dozen or so Wanderers in tattered clothes squatting on the ground with dejected expressions. ”

“What made Tang Zhen feel astonished was that when he was sizing up these Wanderers, he noticed that golden light would occasionally flash on their bodies, making them appear extremely dazzling. ”

“Tang Zhen was greatly surprised. After jumping down from the tricycle, he arrived in front of these Wanderers in a few steps. ”

“what’s going on? ” Tai Seng was asking a robust Wanderer with a dark expression. From the guy’s bruised face, it was likely that he had misbehaved earlier and was beaten up by Tai Seng. ”

“Qian Long walked to Tang Zhen’s side and pointed at the Golden armor and hammer-shaped weapons on the Wanderers’ bodies. He remembered that Tang Zhen liked to collect this kind of soft and heavy metal. Therefore, he immediately ordered his men to inform Tang Zhen. ”

Tang Zhen’s eyes were wide open as he looked at it. He picked up a Wanderer’s sledgehammer and took a closer look. He was certain that the sledgehammer was actually a whole piece of gold!

“He looked at the other Wanderers, and they all had Golden Hammer-shaped weapons and armor made of flattened golden plates. ”

A full set of gold equipment made Tang Zhen sweat profusely. What a group of rich people!

“After weighing the weight of The Golden Hammer, Tang Zhen could not help but ask, ”I say, you guys are quite rich, to actually use this kind of weapon!” ”

“When the brawny man who was beaten black and blue by Tyson heard this, he thought that Tang Zhen was laughing at them. He straightened his neck and said, ”You have money? Big brother, we really don’t have any money! If we had money, we would use these broken weapons. They’re heavy and soft, but we’re so poor that we have no choice but to use these weapons!” ”

“Tang Zhen was speechless. A full set of genuine gold equipment and you’re still crying poor? you guys are so poor that you only have money left, right? ”

“Of course, Tang Zhen also knew that this burly man was speaking the truth. This was because in the world of loucheng, gold was truly worthless. Even a steel bar that could be made into a weapon was worth more than a large piece of gold. ”

“The only thing he was curious about was The Golden Hammer in his hand. It was obviously a component of some kind of artifact. Where did this group of Wanderers get it from, and why were they in such a sorry state? ”

Chapter 100: The nomadic tribes and the rescue of the captives (1)

“After asking Tai Seng, Tang Zhen finally understood the origin of these ‘rich’ Wanderers. ”

It turned out that these Wanderers came from a tribe in the wilderness that made a living by 'nomadism'. These Nomad Wanderers domesticated a few docile and controllable herbivore monsters that were rarely seen in the wilderness and wandered around all year round.

"The men were in charge of scouting, hunting, and guarding the tribe, while the women were in charge of gathering wild vegetables, fruits, grass seeds, and other food. Although they could not guarantee that they would be full, they were still better off than the homeless Wanderers."

"When night fell, they would gather their tamed monsters and hide among them. They would rely on the aura of these tamed monsters to avoid the harassment of the wandering monsters at night."

"During the day, these monsters would ask Wanderers to help clean up the parasites on their bodies and feed them a special pill that was made with a secret technique to help them relieve the pain of drug addiction."

"The nomadic Wanderers used this kind of forbidden drug to control the monsters, and at night, they needed the monsters' protection, forming a state similar to symbiosis."

"However, their nomadic lives were destined to be more dangerous than those of the Wanderers who defended an area for survival. This was because the herbivore monsters they raised would migrate and forage for food all year round. Therefore, the nomadic Wanderers had to migrate with the monsters."

"The more places they traveled, the more monsters they encountered. This time, they encountered a group of kobolds nearby. After the battle, the entire tribe was destroyed. More than 100 kobolds were captured, and only a dozen of them escaped."

"After Tai Seng told him the information he had received, he quietly waited for Tang Zhen's decision."

"Tang Zhen was also considering whether he should rescue these Wanderers. After all, there were more than a hundred lives here. If he didn't rescue them, they might end up as the monster's food."

"If these Wanderers joined the city, the population of the building would increase by a lot, and the construction in the valley would be much faster."

"However, according to the Wanderers, the kobolds who attacked the tribe didn't seem like monsters, but a group of foreign races!"

"Tang Zhen's eyes narrowed when he heard this. If the kobolds in the vicinity were not monsters, but a foreign race, then they were destined to be the Holy Dragon city's enemies!"

"Murong Ziyang had once said that there was an unspoken rule between the human race and the foreign races in the endless wilderness. That was, within a region, the human race and the foreign race must not co-exist. One side must be completely destroyed!"

This rule had never changed for thousands of years!

"Since that was the case, he had to take the initiative to attack this time!"

"After thinking up to this point, Tang Zhen no longer hesitated and immediately issued an order," "Tai Seng, immediately form a team, we'll go and rescue them!"

“Hearing this, Tai Seng’s eyes lit up and his face turned red with excitement as he roared, “““Yes, sir!”””

“Eating well and wearing warm clothes every day, the bodies of Tai Seng and the others also gradually became stronger. Now that he had a high-quality weapon and Lou Cheng to rely on, Tai Seng began to miss the days when he fought with monsters. He couldn’t wait to appear in front of the houndhead men and test out how sharp his weapon was!”

“There were many Warriors in the Holy Dragon City who had this thought, so after receiving the order, they began to rub their fists in excitement.”

“Following Tang Zhen’s order, the entire city immediately began to move. The selected soldiers quickly began to assemble.”

“According to the Nomad from the Nomad tribe, there were at least 200 dog-headed people. Hence, Lou Cheng was prepared to send a 100-man team. With the advantage of their equipment, they would not be at a disadvantage in the battle.”

“Tang Zhen didn’t want to send out so many people. With the weapons in his spatial storage, he was confident that he could slaughter all of these dog-headed people by himself. However, when he saw the excited expressions on the faces of Tai Seng and the others, he didn’t say anything.”

“The newly built Holy Dragon City needed a victory in battle, and these soldiers who had obtained excellent equipment also desired a victory in battle. Since that was the case, why should he stop them?”

“If there was really a danger of casualties, it wouldn’t be too late for him to save them!”

“The dozen nomadic Wanderers, who were dressed in gold equipment, did not have the air of a nouveau riche at all. Instead, they looked at the Holy Dragon city’s Warriors with envy, especially when they saw that all the Warriors were wearing the same armor and holding sharp weapons. They were so envious that they even drooled.”

“The organization that these Warriors belonged to must be very powerful, and the leader of the organization must be a big tycoon. He actually gave everyone a set of armor and weapons!”

“They still didn’t know about the existence of the Holy Dragon City, because Tai Seng didn’t even let them take half a step into the valley. They also didn’t know that these soldiers were the residents of the tower City that they were extremely envious of and saw as their ultimate goal!”

“In order to speed up, Tyson even brought a tractor and a tricycle over. Everyone jumped on the vehicle, and the compartment was full.”

“Even so, there were still some people who couldn’t get on the tractor, and they ended up sitting on the front of the tractor. Tang Zhen looked at the four cars that were packed with people. He suddenly felt as if he was looking at a Hindustani squeezing in a train in his original world.”

“Seeing that the car couldn’t fit so many people, Tai Seng started to roar and ordered the ones with the highest cultivation to get in the car as the vanguard, while the ones with the lowest cultivation could only run behind.”

“After confirming that they did not miss anything, Tang Zhen waved his hand and led the way with Tai Seng and a Nomad. The rest of the people followed closely behind. The mighty group rumbled along the way as they quickly passed through the wilderness.”

Tang Zhen welcomed the breeze in the wilderness and looked at the hundred loucheng soldiers who were armed to the teeth. A smile appeared on the corner of his mouth as he secretly thought that his hard work was not in vain. This team finally had a form.

“Although the cultivation of the Holy Dragon city’s soldiers was uneven, and their overall strength was far inferior to the Black Rock City’s Army, with the equipment provided by Tang Zhen, it was enough to protect themselves.”

“The next thing he had to do was to lead them to clear the nearby wilderness, gather the scattered Wanderers, and strengthen Holy Dragon City as much as possible to obtain a large number of brain beads.”

“When they were strong enough, it would be the time for the Holy Dragon City to expand their territory!”

“Tang Zhen turned his head and glanced in the direction of Black Rock City. He muttered to himself in his heart. He hoped that those guys who were destined to be his enemies would give him a chance to grow and catch his breath. That way, he would also give them a decent ending ceremony. Once their actions endangered the Holy Dragon City, they could not blame him for using unscrupulous means.”

“With a faster means of transportation, the long distance was no longer too far. After about an hour, Tyson sent a signal through the walkie-talkie that he had discovered the enemy.”

“Upon seeing this, Tang Zhen immediately took out his binoculars and looked in the direction that Tai Seng had indicated.”

“In the wild grass that filled the sky, there were about a hundred or so humans with barely any clothes tied up with ropes, hobbling forward with expressions of despair.”

“There were more than 200 ferocious and ugly kobolds in the surroundings. They were holding weapons that looked like short Spears, and stinky saliva was dripping from the corners of their mouths as they continuously whipped the staggering Wanderers.”

“From time to time, there would be people who couldn’t move being whipped, and blood would immediately flow out of their naked bodies.”

The dog-headed man’s wild barks and laughter could be heard from time to time. He seemed very proud.

“The rumbling of the convoy alerted the dog-headed people. They immediately looked in the direction of Tang Zhen and the others and barked wildly at the same time. The human captives had also discovered Tang Zhen’s team. Some of them tried to shout for help, but they were knocked to the ground by the dog-headed people’s Spears. Their heads were covered in blood, and it was unknown whether they were alive or dead.”

“The two sides faced off with a distance between them. After Tai Seng stood in the car and watched for a while, he turned his head to Tang Zhen and said, “ I’ve never seen these kobolds before. They have a certain level of discipline, and their weapons and equipment are also very uniform. According to my guess, they’re probably a foreign tribe that has just moved here. They might even be building a city here! ”

“Tang Zhen had also learned from Murong Ziyang that these monster-like indigenous races all had their own unique social system. In the towers of these foreign races, there was also a city Lord who ruled over a large number of foreign races. ”

“From time to time, these alien races would come out to search the wilderness and capture humans to enslave and keep in captivity, even to the extent of using them as food. Therefore, humans who fell into the hands of the alien races were almost better off dead! ”

“After these thoughts circulated in Tang Zhen’s mind, he expressionlessly observed for a while more before he asked Tai Seng, “ I just want to ask, are you confident in annihilating all of them? ” ”

“There was no hesitation in Tai Seng’s answer as he nodded his head heavily, “ Don’t worry, no problem! ” ”

““Since that’s the case, Zhenzhen” ” ”

Tang Zhen waved the battle blade in his hand and took the lead to charge forward.

““Then leave no one alive!” ” ”

““Kill bi an!” ” ”

All the Holy Dragon City soldiers unsheathed their sharp blades and pounced on the kobolds with hatred on their faces.
