971 It's hard to tell the real from the fake (1)

After hearing the order of the Lord of Holy Dragon City, Donnie hurriedly agreed. At the same time, he waved his whip and drove the captives to the city wall that was under construction.

Hearing that their lives were saved, the soldiers all let out a long sigh of relief, secretly thinking that they were lucky.

What they needed to do next was to find an opportunity to escape from this place and report this matter to the Lord of Snow City. As for how the Lord would deal with it, it was none of their business!

Only the leading cultivator didn't think so, because in front of these powerful cultivators, their chances of escape were very low.

However, from the way the fake villagers addressed him, the black-armored cultivator was also a Lord. Was this a real official position or a form of respect?

A city Lord and a Lord, who were these people?

Just as the soldiers were mulling this over, the Lord of Holy Dragon City suddenly called out to Danny.

you've already caught them. What will you do if someone comes to hewang village to look for them?"

Donny chuckled and quickly replied, " don't worry, Sir. I'll fake the scene when I get back. People will only think that they were attacked by monsters and were annihilated. They won't suspect us!

The Lord of Holy Dragon City shook his head, " that's not good. It's easy to arouse suspicion. Let's change to a safer method.

After the Holy Dragon City Lord said this, he waved his hand at a group of masked cultivators in the distance. Then, these people quickly walked over.

Then, the Holy Dragon City Lord stretched out his hand. Under everyone's gaze, an item the size of a book appeared out of thin air and he fiddled with it.

Those who had never seen this before were all dumbfounded, wondering where this thing had come from.

The Lord of Holy Dragon City had a smug look on his face. After he ordered his men to clean the faces of the captured soldiers, he raised the box and scanned the soldiers one by one.

The Holy Dragon city's special spy detection equipment was in the hands of every Overlord, and had been used more than once in the past few days.

The soldiers being scanned were confused, but they did not dare to resist and could only obey.

"Take off your clothes, hurry up!"

Seeing the Lord of the Holy Dragon City do this, Donnie immediately shouted at the soldiers and waved his whip, as if he was going to whip them.

Although the soldiers were filled with grief and indignation, they did not dare to resist. They could only obediently take off their clothes and squat on the ground, shivering.

The Lord of Holy Dragon City at the side placed the equipment in his hand on the table and tapped it a few times.

In less than a few seconds, something as thin as a cicada's wing popped out of the box and was fiddled with by the Holy Dragon City Lord.

He raised his head and swept his gaze across the group of masked cultivators. He pointed at one of the cultivators and asked him to come in front of him.

"Take off your mask and put this on your face."

The cultivator in black leather armor immediately took off his mask, revealing a face full of scars.

"Damn it, it's actually that butcher Matt!"

One of the soldiers from Snow City mumbled to himself after seeing his face.

Although his voice was soft, it was still heard by the man who had taken off his mask. He turned his head and revealed a cruel smile to the soldiers of Snow City, his eyes filled with cold killing intent.

The soldier trembled and cursed himself for speaking out of turn. It was not a good thing to be targeted by a wanted criminal in Snow City!

Fortunately, that Matt didn't dare to be impudent in front of the Holy Dragon city's Lord. After all, the lives of these masked cultivators were in the hands of the Holy Dragon City. If they were obedient, they could still get gold coins. If they were disobedient, they would only end up as corpses.

Therefore, in the past few days, the mountain bandits that the Lord of Holy Dragon City had used all sorts of methods to get were all very well-behaved.

Under the threat of powerful strength and the temptation of benefits, even if the Holy Dragon City asked them to beat the dog, these guys would not beat the chicken!

In fact, these bandits also had their own plans.

From what he had learned over the past few days, he could confirm that the Holy Dragon City was definitely a superpower with a great background. Gold coins and equipment were piled up like mountains, and the cultivators were powerful. They could even command giant dragons and monsters on the snow mountains!

After the bandits saw these things, they made up their minds to follow the Holy Dragon City. They wanted to take a gamble and obtain wealth and glory for themselves and their descendants!

Matt was one of them. He was now extremely loyal to the Holy Dragon City, and it had nothing to do with the contract.

Following the instructions of the Lord of Holy Dragon City, Matt applied a paste-like substance to his face. After standing there for a dozen seconds, he reached out and wiped his face. Immediately, all the hair on his face fell off!

The originally rough and fierce brawny man was now like an egg that had its shell peeled off. It was really funny.

However, no one laughed. Instead, they watched Matt pick up the thin object and spread it on his face.

When Matt moved his hand away, a burst of exclamations immediately rang out. The captured cultivator leader was even more dumbstruck, staring at the person in front of him who looked exactly like him.

“Is this a Kasaya human skin mask?”

The leading cultivator’s body kept trembling. He had already understood the other party’s plan. Clearly, they wanted this Matt to impersonate him and continue to station himself in River View Village.

In that case, even if Snow City sent people to patrol the area, they should be able to deal with it.

After all, such a lifelike human skin mask was simply a work of art. Even the leading cultivator himself did not notice any difference.

If he could not tell, how could others?

The Lord cultivator’s mind constantly flashed with images of enemies wearing human skin masks and moving around the city. He was so scared that he broke out in a cold sweat.

The Lord of Holy Dragon City looked at Matt, who had changed his appearance, and took out a button-sized item, directly sticking it under Matt’s neck.

After sticking it to his skin, its color slowly changed, becoming the same as his skin.

If one didn’t look carefully, they wouldn’t be able to notice that something was stuck to Matt’s neck.

“You say a few words to him. The others, don’t make a sound!”

Following the Holy Dragon City Lord’s orders, the team leader was forced to say a few words to Matt under the pressure of his Warblade. However, this situation of trying to find something to talk about was truly awkward.

However, after exchanging a few words, Matt’s voice suddenly changed, becoming exactly the same as the leader’s!

After seeing this, the leader of the cultivators lost all hope and his face turned ashen.

Although Matt had changed his appearance, his voice was quite different from his own. However, after sticking that thing on him, his voice had also undergone a magical change.

...

The current Matt was like a clone of himself. There was no difference in his body shape, appearance, or voice.

Even his own family wouldn't be able to figure out who the imposter was in such a short time.

At this moment, the leading cultivator was certain that these black-armored cultivators were otherworldly demons. Otherwise, how could they have so many strange and powerful techniques?

Snow City was really in danger this time!

After successfully duplicating a soldier of the city of snow, the Lord of Holy Dragon City nodded and duplicated the rest of the soldiers.

Soon after, these clones changed into the leather armor of the soldiers of Snow City. Under the lead of a Lord of Holy Dragon City, they staggered back to River View Village.

The real soldiers were driven to the bottom of the city wall and began to build the city wall with the villagers of hewang village and the giant dragon in the sky!

However, they didn't know that the villagers of hewang village and the giant dragon would receive a generous salary after they worked, all of which were paid in shiny gold coins!

Although they had temporarily lost their freedom, both the villagers and the Dragon were full of energy as they looked at the increasing number of gold coins in their pockets!

Although some of the villagers were unwilling, they had no choice but to obey the commands of the powerful cultivators and the ferocious bandits.

Even if they escaped, they would not be able to escape, because the area around hewang village was now under the tight control of the Holy Dragon city's cultivators.

...

Under the blockade of cultivators and drones, it was impossible to escape from here!

Chapter 972

972 passageway opens

Tang Zhen opened his eyes and stood up from a huge rock.

This world was indeed not simple. It had immediately sensed his arrival.

It seemed that the gods that these natives believed in were not simple characters. They could sense the world, so when the changes occurred, they reacted quickly.

Although they couldn't do anything due to some restrictions, they still sent down an Oracle and ordered their believers to start searching for their traces.

The entire continent of timriel was probably in turmoil because of his arrival!

However, it was impossible for these native cultivators to kill him and drive him away!

Tang Zhen glanced at the stone city that was about to be completed. He called over a Holy Dragon City Lord and gave a few instructions before his figure suddenly disappeared.

The preparations for the invasion were almost complete, and it was time for Holy Dragon City to activate the teleportation!

In a daze, Tang Zhen's figure appeared in the Holy Dragon City and walked towards the Lord's Hall.

An hour later, the Holy Dragon City suddenly issued an order. From today onwards, the business district was temporarily closed. Unrelated people were to immediately evacuate to the outer Urban area and wait.

A large number of Holy Dragon City cultivators who were out on missions also began to return to the tower. The Holy Dragon City soldiers with serious expressions locked down the entire area around the inner city!

Just as the foreign merchants were confused and couldn't figure out what was going on, some of the more knowledgeable people had already guessed the answer.

The Holy Dragon City, which had been upgraded to a level 9 city, was probably preparing to invade the other world!

It was just that until now, no one had really seen what the Holy Dragon city's main city looked like. What was displayed in front of everyone was only the auxiliary city!

They were full of anticipation for Holy Dragon city's main city, which had never shown itself.

The length of time that the dimensional teleportation channel opened varied. During this period, as long as one paid attention, they would probably have a chance to see the Holy Dragon Capital city!

As for the Holy Dragon city's actions, these non-city residents also had many speculations.

When the tower City carried out an invasion mission, other than the main city and the auxiliary cities with special attributes, which had to participate in the battle together, the auxiliary cities without any special attributes would often stay behind to guard the territory.

However, for a national-level building, most of the time, they would either focus on the main city and abandon the auxiliary cities that took up resources to ensure that the development of the main city would not be affected.

The other option was to take all the secondary cities with them when they invaded, so as to avoid leaving any low-level secondary cities behind and giving the enemy in the tower world an opportunity to take advantage of them!

Even if they were afraid that the entire city would be destroyed after the defeat and secretly built a city to preserve their bloodline, they would not choose to build it in the area controlled by the city. They did not want to be implicated after the defeat and be sent overseas.

This wasn't something rare. The land in the world of loucheng was constantly increasing and decreasing. Today, there were a few thousand square kilometers of land, and tomorrow, a large piece of land would disappear into thin air from time to time. In fact, it was all the work of the cornerstone platform!

However, the abilities of the cornerstone platform could not be fathomed. Even if such a thing happened, it would not affect the normal lives of the loucheng natives. At most, they would wake up to find that the original mountain peak had disappeared, or the city that was thousands of miles away had suddenly appeared in front of them!

Fortunately, this kind of thing would only happen in the area controlled by the national-level buildings. Such a wonderful scene would definitely not be seen near the low-level buildings!

Unknowingly, countless eyes were focused on Holy Dragon City, waiting for the situation to develop further.

One night passed, and when the next day arrived, the Holy Dragon city's residents were surprised to find that the commercial district had disappeared!

About thirty kilometers away from the Holy Dragon City, a building appeared out of thin air. It was the commercial district that had disappeared overnight!

After confirming that their eyes were not playing tricks on them, everyone's hearts were filled with shock.

No one knew what method the Holy Dragon City had used, but they had actually used a method that was akin to moving mountains and filling the seas to forcefully move a large area of buildings so far away. This incident had really made countless people's jaws drop!

They had long heard of the Holy Dragon city's wonders. However, after seeing it with their own eyes, they still felt that it was unreal.

Because this ability could already be described as a miracle. It seemed that other than the cornerstone platform, no cultivator could achieve this.

However, the Holy Dragon City was only a level nine city. Did it really have such high access to the platform? moreover, this had happened more than once. At that time, the Holy Dragon City was only a low-level city!

Therefore, the possibility of this was extremely low. Perhaps it was just as the rumors said, that this was the doing of the Holy Dragon city's legendary city Lord!

There was no clear answer to what the truth was.

Another order was issued. From today onwards, the Holy Dragon city's inner city area would no longer allow anyone who was not a resident of the city to enter. Violators would be severely punished!

The non-Holy Dragon City residents discussed animatedly. From this series of actions, they could conclude that the Holy Dragon City was indeed about to begin their invasion mission. Otherwise, they would not have done such an abnormal thing.

However, they didn't know that this was only the beginning.

On the second day after the commercial district was moved away, Holy Dragon City directly built a new auxiliary city near the commercial district and upgraded five levels in one day!

After the Super Fortress-like auxiliary city was built, countless monsters appeared out of thin air and launched a frenzied attack on the Holy Dragon City!

However, to the current Holy Dragon City, these monsters were merely brains that had delivered themselves to their doorstep. Under the combined efforts of ten thousand Holy Dragon City soldiers, the battle of the monsters sieging the city only took an hour before it completely came to an end.

Looking at the mountain of monsters 'corpses, all the foreign kinds fell silent.

The Holy Dragon city's strength had far exceeded their imagination. That was why they could easily deal with countless monsters attacking the city as if they were playing around!

It was no wonder that it could dominate the Wildlands with such strength!

As for the Holy Dragon city's purpose in building this auxiliary city, everyone was also very clear. It was clearly used to guard the city.

With this auxiliary city as a Garrison, even if the Holy Dragon City was teleported to another world, they did not have to worry about their old lair being destroyed!

Under everyone's expectant gazes, a huge vortex slowly appeared in the sky above the Holy Dragon City, then continued to expand and extend.

One only needed to take a glance at this strange scene to be destined to never forget it!

look, the Holy Dragon city's dimensional portal has opened!

With a cry of surprise, the foreign tribe merchants and Holy Dragon City residents who had remained in the outer city area all raised their heads to look at the sky, their faces filled with excitement!

For these people, who mostly came from the low-level towers, to be able to witness the teleportation process of a tower was definitely something they could boast about for many years!

As for the Holy Dragon city's residents, they were already in a state of excitement. They were all silently making preparations, waiting for the official teleportation to begin!

However, following Tang Zhen's other order, the Holy Dragon city's residents were no longer happy!

The Holy Dragon city's invasion of the foreign world this time only allowed Lou city's Warriors and cultivators to participate. All non-combat personnel would not be brought!

This order made the Holy Dragon city's residents very unhappy. It should be known that every time Lou city invaded, it could be considered a feast. Other than Lou city, who would enjoy the greatest victory, the residents of Lou city could also take the opportunity to get a lot of benefits!

Lou Cheng was also very willing to see this scene. As the saying goes, "keep the fertile water in one's own field". If the residents of Lou Cheng got benefits, it also meant that Lou Cheng would benefit. In this case, why should he stop them?

Tang Zhen's order could be said to have directly cut off the income channel of the loucheng residents. No wonder the loucheng residents were unwilling.

In addition, no one knew how long it would take for Lou Cheng to invade a foreign world. It was not rare for it to take a hundred or eighty years. Therefore, in order to prevent the soldiers from missing their loved ones, Lou Cheng naturally brought all the residents with him when he invaded.

Unless Tang Zhen was certain that he would complete the invasion mission within a short period of time, he would definitely not give such an order!

For a moment, the residents of the city were in a heated discussion. However, the city Lord's words carried enormous weight. Even if the residents of the city were unwilling, they could only obey his orders.

In a slightly tense atmosphere, the Holy Dragon city's mission to invade the other world had officially begun!

973 Exposed (1)

"Pa!"

With a crisp sound, an exquisite wine cup was thrown to the ground, its fragments flying everywhere.

Balguv took a deep breath and slowly sat down on the chair. His expression was uncertain, and his eyes were full of anger.

On the table in front of him, there was a piece of information. It was the contents that made balguv extremely angry.

According to the reports from the servants, during this period of time, a large number of armed men had suddenly appeared in the vicinity of the xueman territory. They had used various methods to enter the xueman territory and then disappeared without a trace.

These arrogant fellows did not even put him, the Lord xueman, in their eyes!

Other than that, there were also armies approaching the snow City. They came from different territories, and the total number of soldiers had already exceeded fifty thousand!

According to the current information, it could be confirmed that these troops were not simple soldiers, but were composed of cultivators and elite veterans, and their combat power was quite amazing!

One could imagine what kind of turmoil they would cause once they entered the territory. That was definitely not something balguv wanted to see.

Balguv wanted to stop these troops from entering the snow region, but unfortunately, his Army was limited in numbers, and their combat power could not compare to the Allied forces. This was also what made him angry!

If balguv insisted on intercepting them, the two sides would inevitably fight, and the situation would definitely become worse!

However, if they were unable to stop these greedy fellows, then once they entered the xueman territory, it would be equivalent to having a knife hanging on their necks, with the possibility of being chopped down at any time.

In the end, it was all because of that damned otherworldly demon race!

If it wasn't for these people who had appeared out of nowhere, the enemy forces wouldn't have been able to find an excuse to enter the snow City, and he wouldn't have been in such a passive position.

Up until now, bargof had not realized the danger of the tower invasion. He only treated it as a special event!

"Is there any news about the otherworldly demons?"

what's going on?" balguv looked at the official beside him and asked coldly. He was clearly very dissatisfied with the official in charge of searching for traces of the otherworldly demons.

After all, so many days had passed, and there was no news about the extraterrestrial demon race. If this official was not his most capable subordinate, bargov would have been furious.

The official's body trembled slightly and he sighed to himself. He bowed and replied, " we're currently trying our best to search for them. Unfortunately, we still haven't found any traces of the otherworldly demons. I don't know if they've hidden themselves too well or if the information is wrong!

"The news shouldn't be wrong. Those guys wouldn't joke about this.

I've also just received news from the divine halls in the city that they've also received the Oracle, which proves that otherworldly demons have entered this world!"

The official was taken aback. He didn't expect the heavenly demonic tribe to have such a powerful background that they could make so many gods issue an Oracle!

Previously, he was still somewhat disapproving of this matter, thinking that this was just an excuse for those forces to invade the xueman territory. However, now it seemed that this matter was more complicated than he had imagined!

Thinking of something, balguv's expression became even more unsightly. At this time, he was like an active volcano, on the verge of eruption.

Seeing this, the official was also very nervous. He knew the temper of the Lord in front of him. If he couldn't find any traces of the heavenly demon race, it was very likely that he would be beheaded!

However, he was also in a very difficult position, because during this period of time, the traces of the search team had almost covered the entire xueman territory, but they had not found any valuable clues.

The group of otherworldly demons seemed to have disappeared into thin air!

Just as he was thinking hard and his brain was about to be mixed together, a cultivator outside the door staggered in with blood all over his body.

Seeing this, a sharp light flashed in bargof's eyes, and he appeared in front of the heavily injured cultivator in a flash.

“Discovered traces of the heavenly demon race in the Xuanji hewang village.”

After the cultivator finished his sentence with great difficulty, his body twitched, his head tilted, and he died!

Hearing this, balguv took a deep look at the cultivator, and a shocking aura burst out from his body. He turned around and roared.

“Pass on my order, gather the elites in the city and immediately send troops to River View Village!”

.....

River View Village.

Donnie looked at the dead bodies on the ground, exasperated.

“You bastards, why are you so impulsive? tell me, what should we do now?”

After cursing, Donnie spat and turned to look at the Lord of Holy Dragon City beside him with a helpless expression.

“Your Lordship, they were forced to do this. Who would have thought that among this group of Snow City soldiers, there were a few who were familiar with the original soldiers. Once they communicate, it is inevitable that there will be some mistakes,”

The Holy Dragon City Lord waved his hand and said with a serious expression, “They’re already suspicious, and will report this to Snow City sooner or later.

However, the cultivator who used the teleportation scroll to leave was a big problem. Although I shot him twice, he didn’t die immediately. He should be able to hold on until we send the news back.

If that’s the case, we’ll definitely be exposed!”

it can’t be helped. Donnie smiled. who would’ve thought that an ordinary cultivator would have a precious teleportation scroll? it seems that balguv has really put in a lot of effort to find us!

The Lord of Holy Dragon City did not say anything. Instead, he quickly reported this matter to Tang Zhen, and then a cold smile appeared on his face.

“I didn’t want to make a move so early, but since Snow City doesn’t know how to appreciate my kindness, then we don’t have to be polite!

You guys will return to Boulder Valley with me. There’s no need to stay here any longer. We need to prepare and give the enemy a surprise!”

Donnie was shocked. He had seen a lot of magical things during this time, and his expectations for the Holy Dragon City were getting higher and higher.

Now that the hidden location had been exposed, a large number of enemies were about to arrive. What kind of methods would Holy Dragon City use to deal with these enemies?

With speculation and anticipation, Donnie and the others quickly returned to the Boulder Valley, and then they saw a shocking scene.

A huge vortex appeared in the sky above the stone city. Lightning flashed around it from time to time, as if the sky had been eroded into a big hole!

This was a strange scene like the end of the world. Just looking at it would bring a huge mental pressure to people. It was definitely not a good sign.

After recovering from the shock, Donnie and the others took a deep breath and followed the Lord of Holy Dragon City into Stone City.

However, when they saw the scene in the stone city, they were immediately dumbfounded and their faces were filled with disbelief.

Chapter 974

974 The vanguard! 1!

In order to build this Stone City, an area of the Boulder Valley had been cleared out. After the wall was built, this open space became the inner area of the stone city.

The last time Donnie left, it was just an open space, but now, he found that the open space was full of giant metal monsters!

They were about five meters tall and had an extremely strange shape. They were like two-legged deformed Giants that were standing in place with their arms crossed.

The large-caliber six-barreled machine gun and electromagnetic gun that were exposed showed that these fighting robots had fierce firepower and their power could not be underestimated!

There were about a hundred of these metal Giants, standing in neat rows on the empty ground.

Although the metal Giants didn't move at all, Donnie and the others could still feel a terrifying aura from them. It seemed that once they moved, they would turn into killing beasts that no one could resist!

Behind these metal Giants were rows of silver-white metal monsters. Although they were not as large as the metal Giants, they were not simple things either.

Donnie had seen such a thing before. Not only could it fly, but it could also shoot a powerful metal ball that could easily penetrate the trunk of a tree!

Once one was targeted by such a thing, unless one was extremely agile, one would die without a doubt!

He originally thought that this kind of thing was very precious, and the Holy Dragon City might not have many. But looking at the scene in front of him, his guess was clearly wrong.

As far as the eye could see, the wide ground was filled with these flying devices. There were at least five to six hundred of them!

As for the metal cars at the back, Donnie had never seen them before. However, since the Holy Dragon City had displayed them, they were obviously some kind of weapon!

What was the Holy Dragon City up to?

Donnie had seen similar things when he was out adventuring. He was told that they were battle puppets, and most of them had been excavated from ancient relics!

Looking at the metal monsters that occupied the entire Stone City, Donnie had a lot of thoughts.

This Holy Dragon City had either discovered an ancient site full of battle puppets, or they were descendants of the dwarves. Otherwise, how could they have so many battle puppets?

Now that the enemy was approaching, was Holy Dragon City planning to rely on these war puppets to fight against the countless troops of the city of snow?

Although these war puppets were very powerful, the Army of Snow City was not simple either. There were many cultivators in the Army. Would these inanimate objects really be useful?

Many of the cultivators who had sought refuge with the Holy Dragon City had the same idea as Donnie. Obviously, they did not think highly of this tactic!

The main reason they thought this way was because they had never seen these robots fight before. Otherwise, they would not have such thoughts.

Of course, it was useless to think too much about it, because they could not interfere in such matters. The only thing they could do was to obediently listen to the Holy Dragon city's commands.

In fact, the worries of Danny and the others were unreasonable. Tang Zhen had also considered this point. Therefore, this battle would not completely rely on the armed robots. The Holy Dragon City cultivators would also provide assistance.

In the face of tens of thousands of enemies, the ten Lords he brought were definitely not enough. He could only use his points to teleport another group of cultivators in Loucheng and let these Lords take charge of the command!

The Holy Dragon city's war achievement points that they had just accumulated had been used up again.

However, Tang Zhen was also clear that a war was a battle of attrition. Once the Holy Dragon City was teleported over, the exhaustion would be even greater. These were all things that he had to face.

Fortunately, war itself was also a business with the greatest returns. If the Holy Dragon City obtained the final victory, then these investments were nothing compared to the generous returns!

The next thing to consider was how to deal with these Timriel natives.

According to the information that they had just received, over five thousand soldiers had already gathered in the city and were rapidly making their way towards Hewang village.

At the same time, there were also many small teams made up of unknown forces that rushed to Hewang village from all directions after receiving the news.

Based on their speed, the first batch of enemies would arrive at Hewang village by tomorrow afternoon at the latest.

After these enemies arrived, they would not attack Stone City directly. Instead, they would wait for the follow-up troops to arrive and investigate and collect information.

Due to the location that Tang Zhen had chosen, even if a large number of enemies arrived, they would not be able to display their advantage in numbers unless they were able to move all the surrounding trees away!

Tang Zhen didn't know if these enemies could do this, but at least he couldn't do it for the time being. Otherwise, he wouldn't have used manpower to build a Stone City.

The world will of a high energy world was extremely powerful. The suppression on a foreign King like him was too powerful. Tang Zhen was helpless about it!

This feeling of being bound made him very uncomfortable. Sometimes, he even wanted to use a host body and arm himself to the teeth. This way, he would not have to worry about such things!

After estimating the time, Tang Zhen turned his head to look at the vortex above his head. A trace of anticipation was revealed in his eyes.

Strictly speaking, he didn't come to this world through proper means. The cultivators who arrived through the plane transmission channel were the first batch of legal invaders!

Other than Tang Zhen, the surrounding ten Holy Dragon city's overlords also raised their heads to look at the sky, waiting for their subordinates to descend.

During this period of time, they had no familiar subordinates to use, which made these Lords feel extremely inconvenient.

As for the natives like Danny, whether it was in terms of strength or quality, they could not meet the requirements of the Holy Dragon City Lord at all. They could only be considered to be passable!

If Donnie and the others knew what the Holy Dragon city's Lords were thinking, what would they think?

However, they weren't in the mood to think about these things at the moment. Instead, they looked at the huge vortex in the sky with the curious villagers of River View Village.

Under everyone's gaze, the frequency of the lightning in the sky suddenly increased, and the dazzling light seemed to have connected into one!

In the midst of the exclamations, a huge pillar of light suddenly shot out from the vortex and landed on the ground in front of everyone.

When the light beam disappeared, the hundreds of fighting robots were already filled with dense figures. They were all wearing the same black armor, with sabers and special rifles fixed on their backs. They were covered in all kinds of accessories and were looking around coldly.

Donnie and the other native cultivators gasped when they found out that these people were all powerful cultivators!

Their battle armor was somewhat different from the Holy Dragon City Lord's battle armor. Other than the Holy Dragon City badge, there was also a roaring White Tiger on their right arm, which seemed to be filled with a fierce aura.

When they saw Tang Zhen and the Holy Dragon city's Overlord at the side, these Holy Dragon City cultivators used a dazzling speed to quickly assemble into ten squadrons and walked in front of Tang Zhen and the rest.

Holy Dragon city's First Legion, White Tiger Battalion, from the first to the tenth Special Forces, all members of the Special Forces, pay respects to the city Lord!

Following the sonorous and powerful voice of a Holy Dragon City cultivator, more than two hundred men, who were nine feet tall, knocked their right fists on their chest armors. Their bodies were as straight as javelins as they saluted Tang Zhen respectfully!

The whole process was neat and neat, full of rhythm and iron-blooded aura.

welcome, as the first batch of lucky people to arrive in a different world through the plane's transmission channel, your names will be engraved on the Holy Dragon City square, and will be remembered and worshipped by all the residents of the tower!

Hearing this, the cultivators were excited because this was the glory they dreamed of!

After paying their respects to Tang Zhen, the Holy Dragon City cultivators stood to the side and looked up at the sky.

Soon, another pillar of light descended. When the pillar of light disappeared, another two hundred Holy Dragon City cultivators appeared.

Compared to the cultivators of The White Tiger Battalion, these cultivators of loucheng wore an armband of a Black Tortoise.

"Holy Dragon city's 1st Legion, black turtle Camp, all members of the 1st to 10th battle teams, pay their respects to the city Lord!"

The same voice rang out again, but this time, the cultivators had changed. They were also the Holy Dragon city's 1st Legion's elite cultivator battle team!

The teleportation continued.

The Azure Dragon Camp that belonged to the 1st Legion and the cultivators of Vermillion Bird camp were also teleported over one after another!

At this point, the first batch of Holy Dragon city's Vanguard cultivators had all arrived. A total of more than a thousand awe-inspiring cultivators stood together, and the shocking aura was enough to stir the weather!

Chapter 975

975 Letting the Tiger into the mountain (1)

Donnie and the other spectators were stunned for a long time.

The scene that had just happened was definitely something they had never experienced before in their lives. The light pillar that fell from the sky and the powerful cultivator that appeared out of thin air had caused a huge psychological impact on them.

Never in their dreams would they have thought that the Holy Dragon City would summon thousands of powerful reinforcements in such an unbelievable way!

The people who had been afraid of the attack from Snow City were now filled with confidence.

With a large number of majestic-looking battle puppets, giant Dragons, and monsters from the snow Mountain, as well as more than a thousand powerful cultivators, what did they have to fear?

Putting everything else aside, these cold and fierce cultivators were enough to put Snow City in an unprecedented crisis!

Cultivators were not ordinary soldiers. Even if Snow City had cultivators as well, they would not have this many.

Moreover, the cultivation equipment of these Holy Dragon City cultivators was enough to crush the cultivators of all Snow City several times over!

Thinking about that, Donnie and the others' eyes were brighter and brighter, bursting with amazing brilliance.

They saw hope in the Holy Dragon City, as well as the opportunity for them to obtain glory, wealth, and fame in the future.

As mountain bandits, they were basically desperadoes with no future. Everything was for their own benefit. This was also the reason why they were so active after being controlled and recruited by the Holy Dragon City.

This was because the Holy Dragon City could give them enough gold coins to cover the cost of their lives.

Although the Lord of Holy Dragon City had promised that as long as they worked hard, they would not lack wealth and fame, it was a pity that everyone did not take it seriously.

They didn't believe in false promises. Only gold coins were real.

But now, it seemed that fame and fortune might really befall them.

Realizing the possibility, Donnie and the rest of them were all short of breath and had a hint of hope.

Who didn't want to be an aristocrat, enjoy a luxurious life, and control a piece of land?

God bless me, I might really make the right bet this time!

In fact, the residents of the Holy Dragon City did not care about the thoughts of the natives like Danny at all, because this was just their Harvest Land. After they evacuated, it would have nothing to do with them who was in charge here.

However, if they could bring benefits to the Holy Dragon City after they came to power, what was the harm in supporting them?

Other loucheng might not do this, but to Tang Zhen who could freely travel between worlds, it was definitely a feasible method to use these foreign worlds as a resource base!

Of course, before that, he had to control the natives here. Otherwise, everything would be empty talk.

This wasn't an easy task, because this world also had a large number of cultivators, as well as high and mighty gods, who were hiding in secret corners and coldly monitoring the world!

Tang Zhen retracted his thoughts and looked at the ten Holy Dragon city's overlords beside him.

"From now on, the 10 of you can lead your own men and use the terrain here to snipe the enemy. I don't care how many you kill. I just want you to make sure that the enemy won't be able to get close to us before the tower descends!

Can you guys do it?"

When the ten Holy Dragon city's overlords heard this, they immediately straightened their bodies and replied to Tang Zhen in unison, "I promise to complete the mission!"

"Very good, you all go and prepare!"

Tang Zhen smiled and nodded. He waved his hand and softly said.

The ten Lords returned the salute, then quickly turned around and went to their respective subordinates, beginning to shout loudly.

Following the orders of the ten Lords, the thousand Holy Dragon City cultivators immediately scattered and returned to their respective Lords.

"Let's go!"

A Holy Dragon City Lord saw that his subordinates had all gathered and waved his hand. Then, a hundred Holy Dragon City cultivators moved at the same time, slowly leaving the stone city.

At the same time they started moving, the combat robots that had been silent all this time suddenly let out a soft sound. Immediately after, they moved their huge bodies and left with the Holy Dragon City cultivators.

Flying devices and tank-like vehicles followed closely behind. All of them swarmed out of Stone city's Gate.

After the first cultivator battle team left, the second cultivator battle team also formed a long line and followed them out of the stone city.

After they entered the dense forest, they disappeared without a trace in the blink of an eye, like a drop of water falling into the sea!

After waiting for all the Holy Dragon City cultivators to leave, Tang Zhen looked at the plane transmission channel above his head and the corners of his mouth curled into a smile.

Next, he had to make some arrangements around the stone city to ensure that there would be no interference before the tower completed its teleportation.

Although there were ten elite cultivator teams guarding the city, some powerful natives would definitely have a way to bypass them and go straight to Stone city to explore.

This was Holy Dragon city's first invasion. It was a matter of life and death. Tang Zhen would definitely not be careless.

Therefore, for a period of time in the future, he would stay here and act as a Guardian until the Lou city completely descended!

After thinking for a while, Tang Zhen beckoned to Tang Zhen and motioned him to come over.

When Downey saw this, he immediately came to Tang Zhen with a respectful expression.

He had long been in awe of this mysterious expert who had countless powerful cultivators as his subordinates.

"I need a large number of soul stones, but I don't have enough people to collect them at the moment, so I hope you can do this.

As a reward, if you give me a Soul Stone, I will reward you with ten gold coins. The higher the quality, the more rewards!

Are you interested in this matter?"

Donnie nodded hard to show that he was willing.

He had personally seen the mountain-like amount of gold coins in Tang Zhen's hands. He knew that the other party definitely did not lack money. Since he had given such a reward, he would definitely honor it when the time came!

The opportunity to make a fortune had come!

very well, then you can go with the companions you recruited some time ago. I'll wait for you to return with a full load!

Tang Zhen's tone carried a hint of encouragement as he patted Tang Zhen's shoulder.

...

As Tang ni and a group of bandits left excitedly, only Tang Zhen, the evil God's believers, and the villagers of hewang village were left in Stone City.

He waved his hand at the empty field, and piles of items appeared. They were the materials for building the soul teleportation circle.

This was one of the reasons why the Holy Dragon city's cultivators were not afraid of death and why Tang Zhen dared to challenge strong enemies. Because of its existence, even if the Holy Dragon city's residents died in battle, they would have a chance to be Reborn!

As the strength of the Holy Dragon city's residents continued to increase, coupled with the support of this soul transfer array, the Holy Dragon city's cultivators who did not fear death were destined to sweep the world!

976 Adventurer team _1

At the entrance of hewang village, a team covered in dust was slowly approaching.

This was a team made up of humans, orcs, dragonkin, and other races. They were dressed in standard adventurer attire and seemed to be quite strong.

Stopping in their tracks, they looked at the quiet village not far away with a hint of wariness in their eyes.

“Captain, we’ve confirmed that the heavenly demon is near this village.

Previously, a scouting team from the snow City had been ambushed here. Other than the cultivator leading the team who had used a teleportation scroll to escape, the rest had all died here!

If we enter rashly, I’m afraid we’ll encounter danger!”

A skinny elf man in leather armor constantly looked around as he spoke to his Captain.

The captain had a muscular build, but he had the head of a Tiger. Coupled with the heavy armor he was wearing, he looked extremely majestic!

After hearing his team member’s words, his eyes became serious, as if he was considering whether he should earn this generous Commission.

Unlike the believers who believed in different gods, their team was just a pure adventurer team. They had decided to take on the mission at the last minute because they had seen the high reward for the mission.

The reason why they were the first to reach River View Village was that their companions in Snow City had sent a message using a messenger bird, and they happened to be near River View Village.

Therefore, as soon as they received the news, they rushed here without stopping, trying to collect valuable information in order to exchange for generous rewards.

Bargof would never be stingy to those who provided valuable information!

However, when they arrived at hewang village, they began to hesitate.

For the otherworldly demons to be able to cause such a huge commotion and make the Xue man territory feel as if they were facing a great enemy, they were clearly not easy to deal with.

Could an ordinary adventurer team like them really deal with such a terrifying opponent?

However, as the first team to arrive at River View Village, they were the most likely to be the first to obtain information about the otherworldly demon race. Everyone knew what this meant.

It was a pity that this bounty was not easy to earn.

As the Tigerman Captain was weighing the pros and cons, the dragonkin man in the team stepped forward and said to the Tigerman Captain, " "Didn't we rush here with all our might just to get some useful information?"

Since that was the case, what was there to hesitate?

If we wait a while longer and the other teams arrive, then the bounty will have nothing to do with us!"

The other members of the team nodded at the same time. Obviously, they also believed in the principle of seeking wealth from danger. They knew that it was absolutely impossible to earn a rich bounty without taking risks.

"But what if we're ambushed by the otherworldly demons? can we really escape safely?"

There were also members who were extremely wary of the otherworldly demons and did not want to take risks.

"We've killed vampires, necromancers, and escaped from death countless times. How can we be scared by the extraterrestrial demon?"

Maybe snow City was just exaggerating, saying that the otherworldly demons were so powerful, but in reality, they couldn't even withstand a single blow!"

Another team member spoke. The meaning behind his words was clear. It seemed like he didn't care about the heavenly demon race at all.

So far, there was no specific information about the otherworldly demons. They didn't even know what they looked like.

It was actually very normal for the team members to doubt the strength of the otherworldly demons and think that they were not as powerful as they were rumored to be.

The Tigerman Captain, who had his head lowered in thought, no longer hesitated and immediately waved his hand at the crowd.

They were adventurers who were willing to exchange their lives for money. If they were afraid of danger, they might as well go home and farm!

Therefore, even if it was dangerous, he still had to try!

Following the command of the Tigermen Captain, all the team members immediately got into a search and defense formation, took out their weapons, and slowly approached River View Village.

Even though they had doubts about the strength of the heavenly demon race, they still maintained their best state of mind to guard against any sudden attacks from the enemy.

As they got closer, the corpses at the entrance of the village came into their sight. Looking at the corpses, it was obvious that they were the scouts from Snow City who had been ambushed.

"Everyone, be careful. There's something wrong here!"

The Tigermen Captain raised his shield and battle axe, and after reminding his team members, he took the first step into the gate of River View Village.

At this moment, there was not a single person in the village. It was as quiet as a ghost's domain, making one's heart tremble.

A gust of cold wind blew, and a few fallen leaves on the ground swirled up and drifted past the crowd.

This oppressive atmosphere made everyone's breathing become much heavier, and their eyes constantly swept across any suspicious corner.

However, other than the strange atmosphere, there did not seem to be anything unusual here. It seemed to be an empty village.

"Check the surrounding houses and see if there are any clues left behind."

The leader of the Tigermen team gestured to the team members beside him. Immediately, three of his team members rushed to the front of a wooden house and kicked the door open in cooperation.

A minute later, the three of them came out and shook their heads.

the villagers left very suddenly. They only ate half of the food on the table. There are no signs of a fight!

The Tigerman Captain nodded. Just as he was about to go deeper, he caught a glimpse of a black shadow that had suddenly appeared out of the corner of his eye. When he saw the appearance of the black shadow, he was shocked.

"Enemy attack!"

The captain of the Tiger Squad roared. As he warned his team members, he also raised his shield and looked at the black figure that had suddenly appeared.

At the same time, all the members of the adventurer team raised their weapons and looked around with solemn expressions.

It turned out that there wasn't just one shadow, but more than twenty of them!

They were wearing black armor made of an unknown material, and their faces were covered by helmets. They were slowly walking out from behind the wooden houses with sabers in their hands, blocking all the retreat routes of the adventurer team.

An almost tangible murderous aura spread from the black-armored cultivators, causing a cold wind to blow in the originally quiet village.

Upon seeing this, the hearts of the adventurer team's members sank, and a hint of fear flashed in their eyes.

...

Although the two sides had not fought yet, they could be sure that these enemies were not simple just by looking at their aura and equipment!

Could this group of black-armored cultivators be the otherworldly demons that Snow City was looking for?

After realizing this, the members of the adventurer team knew that the crucial moment had arrived.

Valuable information that could be exchanged for a large amount of gold coins was definitely not as simple as providing a location. It had to include a lot of information such as the enemy's strength, equipment, number, and so on.

And the best way to obtain this information was naturally to fight with real weapons!

Chapter 977

977 Escape _1

Faced with the enemy's encirclement, the members of the adventurer team all had serious expressions.

They had encountered the worst situation. There were still enemies hidden in the village, waiting for them to walk into the trap.

However, the team members had no time to regret. Besides, they had already made preparations before entering the village.

And encountering the enemy was naturally the best opportunity to obtain the other party's true information!

Not to mention, on the battlefield, it was still uncertain who would win!

The Tigermen Captain took a deep breath and said in a serious voice, "In a while, we'll directly break out of the village. If we succeed, we'll immediately evacuate to the scheduled location.

If it fails, everyone will give the little bird a chance to deliver the information!"

"Little bird, you must listen to the order this time. If we can't make it back, remember to take care of our family after you receive the reward!"

None of the team members objected to the Tigermen captain's words. Some of them even smiled. However, the female swordsman called little bird immediately growled, "I won't leave you behind. If we die, we'll die together!"

cut the crap. Do you want the gold coins that we exchanged for with our lives to be blown away by the wind?"

The leader of the Tiger men didn't have time to say anything else, because the black-armored cultivators around them were already rushing toward them.

"Charge!"

With a loud roar, all the members of the adventurer team began to rush towards the village entrance. In the blink of an eye, they were entangled with the black-armored cultivators who surrounded them.

As soon as they exchanged blows, all of the team members felt a chill in their hearts.

The situation was not good. The other party's equipment and strength were actually higher than they had expected!

One of the team members looked at the sword that had been cut in half and was stunned for a moment. Then, he pounced on the black-armored cultivator in front of him and waved his hand. A hand-ax appeared in his hand.

With a flash of cold light, the hatchet went straight for the black-armored cultivator, and the broken sword in his hand was like a poisonous snake, stabbing straight for the gap in the opponent's armor.

"Ding! Ding! Ding!"

With a crisp sound, the battleaxe landed on the black-armored cultivator's body and bounced off without leaving a trace.

The broken sword that was aimed at the gap in the armor was also blocked by a kind of cloth. Even with the team member's brute force, he could not penetrate the armor at all!

The team member was shocked. Just as he was about to turn around and retreat, the other party's fist came at him like lightning and hit his head.

The team member's vision turned black and he fainted.

The leader of the werecats roared in panic and tried to take the unconscious man away with him.

However, two long sabers appeared at the same time and blocked his way. The sabers were so sharp that they cut off a small piece of the Tiger captain's metal shield!

"Damn it, what kind of weapon is this? how can it be so sharp?"

A member wearing leather armor cursed and took out a scroll from his pocket. At the same time, he roared out a strange sentence.

This was a secret code that only the members of the adventurer team could understand.

When the members of the adventurer team heard this code, they immediately leaned together and firmly held each other's bodies. The adventurers whose hands were not free were also pulled by the teammates in the middle.

In the blink of an eye, they had become a human ball!

The adventurer who was holding the scroll pulled it hard, and the entire scroll instantly turned into a stream of light and disappeared. At the same time, a strong air current suddenly rose from under their feet.

The members of the adventurer team used this air current to run at the same time with great tacit understanding. Their sprinting speed was extremely fast.

At the same time, the person who released the scroll chanted another incantation, and a protective barrier completely enveloped them.

"BOOM!"

At the same time the protective shield was formed, the already powerful airflow actually strengthened again. The running adventurer team members roared loudly and stomped on the ground in unison, then flew up together.

Under the dumbfounded gazes of the black-armored cultivators, the 'human ball' directly passed them and flew toward the forest outside of Hewang Village!

f*ck, flying human ball? what kind of tactic is this?"

A Holy Dragon City cultivator took off his helmet and looked at the disappearing adventurer team with shock and surprise.

"Who knew? I originally wanted to test the strength of these natives and then interrogate them for information. Who would have thought that they would have such a method?"

In the end, Yingying, hehe, it was really unexpected!"

The other Holy Dragon City cultivator also took off his helmet and sat on a stone by the road, replying with a hint of regret.

The Holy Dragon City cultivators at the side were the same. After they put away their battle sabers, they all had a leisurely look on their faces. Other than marveling at these Indigenous People's strange escape techniques, they did not seem to have any intention of continuing the pursuit.

From their tone, it seemed that they had no intention of killing the adventurer team!

In fact, with the means of the Holy Dragon City cultivators, if they wanted to kill this adventurer team, they could not even take half a step into the River View Village.

Otherwise, the Holy Dragon City cultivators would not have used cold weapons to fight, but would have directly shot and killed them!

do you think these guys can escape? there are several battle teams in charge of defense outside. Can they escape?"

The one who spoke was a Holy Dragon City cultivator with a cigarette in his mouth. He was young and looked like a hooligan.

"What we need to do now is to drive away all the Aborigines who have entered the control area. We don't have to kill them if we can, so as not to agitate them!"

After all, no matter how powerful we are with over a thousand people, we can't be a match for tens of thousands or hundreds of thousands of Aborigines. They also have cultivators!"

The one who spoke was a middle-aged man, a one star horde leader. From his military rank, he was obviously the captain of this cultivator battle team.

He stuck his saber into the soil, took out a wine pot from his waist, and took a big gulp.

Besides, these guys have been acting all this time. They predicted our existence, so they deliberately said those words for us to hear, taking the opportunity to numb us. Then, after getting enough information, they will use life-saving means to escape!

“Really? I don’t think so?”

that’s probably what happened. Otherwise, why would they enter the village without investigating or leaving anyone outside to receive them? ”

...

“According to what you said, these natives are really cunning!”

The ruffian-like Holy Dragon City cultivator came over and carefully took the captain’s wine pot, taking a big gulp.

boss, what do you think the city Lord is thinking? why didn’t he just send out planes, tanks, or drop one or two super bombs? wouldn’t that be the end of the battle? ”

“You know nothing!”

The captain shook the wine pot in a bad mood and cursed, ” “Lou Cheng’s main purpose of invading the other world is to obtain the world’s origin and collect resources that are useful to us, not to fight and kill!

Other than the brutal and bloodthirsty towers, most of the other towers would try to avoid fighting and use gentle means to achieve their goals!

Of course, it wasn’t easy to do this. 99% of Lou Cheng’s problems would be solved by force.

However, since there is such a method with the least losses, we have to try it no matter what, don’t we?”

The middle-aged Captain took another gulp of wine and continued, ” as for using planes and tanks, it’s not that they can’t, but the logistics will definitely be a big problem. It’s fine for a short time, but what will you do if it takes a long time? ”

“The use of a nuclear weapon has happened more than once in the tower world. This is what the city Lord said himself!

if we use it here, not only will we be implicated, but it might also cause some kind of mutation. If we cause monsters to appear everywhere, will we be doing missions or fighting monsters?

...

Therefore, unless it was absolutely necessary, this kind of thing would definitely not be used!

Moreover, with the city Lord’s vision, he will naturally make the most beneficial plan for our city. He must have his own purpose for not wanting to destroy this world!”

At this point, the middle-aged Captain looked up into the distance and a cold smile appeared on his face.

What he was afraid of was that these Aboriginals did not understand the situation and only wanted to die. If things really reached that point, killing might be the best way to solve the problem!

Chapter 978

978 Nowhere to escape (1)

“Bang”

After a muffled sound, a series of screams rang out.

Under a large tree in the dense forest, a group of adventurers lay on the ground, their eyes squirming like mosquitoes, groaning in pain.

Someone stood up unsteadily, but he fell to the ground after taking a few steps.

“Robert, what’s with your damn spell? I was almost killed by a tree!”

The dragonkin in the adventurer team had good physical fitness. He quickly overcame the feeling of dizziness and stood up from the ground, shouting at the wizard who had torn the scroll earlier.

The mage by the name of Robert took a deep breath and stood up with difficulty. He did not forget to pat the dirt off his body.

Although he was trying his best to maintain his composure, his legs were still trembling, and he looked very embarrassed.

“How would I know that this spell scroll would be so difficult to control? after all, I’ve never had the chance to use it ever since I got it!”

Robert explained with a hint of grievance in his tone.

alright, that’s enough. If it wasn’t for Robert, we wouldn’t have been able to escape!

The Tigermen Captain snorted and stopped the quarrel between his two team members. He looked around, trying to estimate their current location.

we have to leave immediately. Otherwise, those otherworldly demons will definitely catch up with us. We won’t be as lucky as we were just now!

Hearing this, everyone’s expression tensed up. Without any hesitation, they stood up and followed the Tigermen Captain in the direction of Snow City.

They were still talking in low voices as they walked.

“Will the green-eyed man lose his life in the hands of those otherworldly demons?”

who knows? may the gods bless that unlucky fellow and allow him to hold on until we bring reinforcements to save him!

do you think those black-armored cultivators are really from the heavenly demon race? they’re just like us, just some powerful cultivators.

who knows? maybe they’re just ordinary cultivators, but they’ve become the claws and teeth of the otherworldly demons!

I think so, but their weapons are really good, and their strength is also quite good. If we didn’t put on a show at the beginning, I think we wouldn’t have been able to get out of hewang village!

“Hehe, no matter what, we’ve struck it big this time.”

When they thought of the generous reward, everyone’s spirits were lifted, and their speed could not help but increase a bit.

However, as they walked, they suddenly stopped and looked at the empty space in the forest in front of them with gloomy expressions.

In the open space of the forest, there were uneven tree stumps and wild flowers and green grass growing around it. The sunlight shone on this place, making it look very beautiful.

More than a dozen cultivators in black armor were sitting on tree stumps and looking at the adventurer team that had just appeared.

“Fortunately, I didn’t wait for nothing. You’re finally here!”

A black-armored cultivator stood up from a tree stump and slowly walked over under the gaze of the adventurer team members. He spoke in a somewhat mocking tone.

Unlike the other cultivators who were fully covered in armor, this young cultivator didn’t wear a smooth black helmet. Instead, his face was exposed.

This was a rather handsome face, with red lips and white teeth. There was a smile at the corner of his mouth, and one look at him would make people feel good.

As if he had met an old friend, he looked at the adventurer team’s members, whose expressions were getting uglier and uglier, and said in a warm tone, “I’ll give you two choices now. You can either surrender or be killed by us. You only have ten seconds to consider!

The young cultivator’s tone was warm, and his smile was kind. However, the contents of his words made the members of the adventurer team nervous.

They looked at the young man as if they were facing a great enemy. The other party’s Lord-tier cultivation gave them a huge pressure.

The Tigermen Captain laughed bitterly. He hesitated for a moment before saying, “We choose Yingluo.”

f * ck him! I’ll die either way. I’ll go all out!

Before the Tiger man Captain could finish his sentence, the violent dragonkin behind him had already jumped out and slashed at the young cultivator with his saber.

“Don’t worry about me, you guys run!”

As soon as he finished speaking, the dragonkin’s saber had already landed in front of the young cultivator. However, the young cultivator sneered and caught it.

Holding the saber in one hand, the young cultivator’s smile gradually turned cold, and a trace of killing intent appeared in his eyes.

“Is this your choice? not a bad one!”

As soon as he finished his words, a crisp sound was heard. The dragonkin's heavy saber was broken by the young cultivator!

This scene made the hearts of the adventurer team members Twitch.

A bitter smile flashed across the Tiger captain's face, and in the blink of an eye, it turned into determination. At this point, they had no other choice.

"Everyone, cover the little bird!"

These words came out of his mouth again, but it was all an act in River View Village, and now it was real.

In this life-and-death moment, the team members didn't hesitate at all. They all rushed forward with a shout and pounced on the young cultivator.

The female swordsman named little bird gritted her teeth and immediately rushed in the opposite direction. She was about to disappear into the dense forest.

However, at this moment, two more Holy Dragon City cultivators appeared from the forest and blocked the bird's path.

The bird's reaction was extremely fast. It immediately pulled out two Flying Daggers from its waist and threw them at the cultivators who were blocking its way.

However, the Holy Dragon City cultivators were even faster. The moment the flying Daggers were shot out, a cultivator rushed over like a ghost and attacked the back of the bird's neck.

If he was hit by this attack, he would be seriously injured even if he didn't die!

The little bird let out a soft cry. Its body was really like an agile little bird, avoiding the attack at an unbelievable angle, and at the same time landing on a big tree.

Just as the little bird neared the tree, a strange scene appeared. Her figure actually fused with the tree and disappeared without a trace in the blink of an eye!

No wonder the Tigerman Captain had the bird retreat. She had the ability to hide her tracks with the trees!

...

This scene was also seen by the members of the adventurer team, and a trace of a gratified smile appeared on the corners of their mouths at the same time. As long as the bird could escape, their efforts would not be in vain.

As adventurers, sooner or later, they would end up dying. However, with the little bird helping them take care of their family, they could rest assured.

The sound of weapons clashing could be heard. The Tigermen Captain of the adventurer team, who was still fighting, finally fell to the ground slowly. The heavy armor on his body was also broken.

Looking at the Holy Dragon City cultivators standing around with blood-dripping battle sabers in their hands, the Tiger-Man Captain laughed bitterly, blood spurting from his mouth.

“You think your death was worth it, because your sacrifice allowed your companion to escape, don’t you?”

The handsome young lord of the Holy Dragon City walked over and looked down at the Tiger men Captain, a mocking smile on his face.

The leader of the Tiger men was speechless, but his expression and eyes clearly showed that he agreed with the young cultivator’s question. There was even a hint of provocation and pride in his eyes.

The young cultivator shook his head and pointed to the edge of the forest with a trace of regret in his voice.

“Actually, I really wanted to let that girl go, but my team members definitely wouldn’t allow it, so I could only bring her back!”

The Tiger captain’s eyes immediately widened. He desperately turned his head and looked in the direction the young cultivator was pointing.

Two Holy Dragon City cultivators were slowly walking over from the knee-high weeds. One of them was carrying a woman covered in blood, her life or death unknown.

...

“Little bird Qianqian”

The Tiger Captain roared and spat out another mouthful of blood. With an unwilling expression, he fainted.

Chapter 979

979 Cage (1)

A sharp pain hit the little bird, causing it to let out a groan. It then realized that something was wrong, and the habit formed by years of adventure made it open its eyes suddenly.

What she saw was a huge stone roof, which occupied her entire field of vision. The square-shaped lines on the huge rock made her feel dizzy.

“How are the captain and the others? where is this?”

After regaining consciousness, the first thought that came to the little bird’s mind was to be concerned about the safety of his teammates.

After so many life and death experiences, the relationship between the members of this adventurer team was so deep that they could entrust their lives to each other!

This was also the reason why they were able to cover the bird’s escape without any complaints at the critical moment of life and death.

Of course, in addition to the unregretful sacrifices they made between them, it was also because of the bird’s racial talent that could help her escape from the dense forest!

However, the little bird who had brought all of his teammates ‘hopes was disappointed this time.

In fact, even the little bird did not expect that her racial talents would be useless in front of the Holy Dragon City cultivators. The other party only searched the forest once and found the little bird hidden in the big tree.

Just as the bird realized that something was wrong, a crisp sound rang out. The bird felt as if it had been pierced by a heavy javelin, and it fell from the tree.

Before she fainted, she seemed to see two Holy Dragon City cultivators walk to her side. One of them, a cultivator in black armor, took off her helmet, revealing a delicate face. It was a young and beautiful woman!

The little bird wanted to get up and resist, but suddenly, its vision turned black and it completely lost consciousness.

Taking a deep breath, the little bird climbed up from the withered grass with difficulty. She checked the wounds on her body and found that they had been bandaged.

Who did this? Captain and the others?

Looking around again, she found that she was in a stone house made of huge stones. There was nothing else except some dry grass on the ground.

After glancing at the door where the sunlight shone in, little bird used all its strength to get up. It wanted to see where it was and whether the captain and the others were Dead or Alive.

At this moment, the sunlight at the door was blocked by a figure that suddenly appeared, causing the little bird to become nervous.

However, the other party's body shape seemed very familiar?

"Little bird, you're finally awake. That's great!"

A voice filled with surprise and joy was heard, and the bird's tense body relaxed slightly after hearing this voice.

"Robert, you're fine. That's great. Where's the captain and the others?"

The little bird ignored the pain from its wound and grabbed wizard Robert from the adventurer team, asking in an urgent tone.

She clearly remembered how the captain and the others were covered in blood when they tried to cover her escape.

Robert, who was pleasantly surprised, immediately looked embarrassed, as if he did not know how to answer.

Seeing this, the bird immediately had a bad feeling and asked loudly again.

Aiya, don't ask anymore. Come with me and you'll know!

Robert gritted his teeth and slowly walked out of the stone house with the strange little bird.

The piercing sunlight outside made the bird a little uncomfortable, but she still managed to see where she was. It was a huge stone Valley that was completely sealed off.

There was almost no grass growing here. Other than rocks, there were still rocks!

The scorching sun made the valley a vast expanse of white, making it appear extremely dry.

At this time, there were hundreds of men and women of different races in the valley. From their appearance and dress, they were obviously cultivators and adventurers.

They sat in every corner of the valley and looked like strangers were not allowed to enter. However, if one observed carefully, they would discover that they were all looking up at the top of the valley.

It was as if there was a treasure there that could appear at any time!

Among these cultivators, the bird saw the Tiger-Man Captain and the others. Even green eye, who had fallen into the hands of the otherworldly demons, was sitting under a huge rock, safe and sound.

All the team members were there!

Although they didn't look like they were in good condition, with blood and bruises all over their bodies, they were indeed still alive!

This was the biggest surprise for the bird!

The little bird couldn't help but laugh. As it laughed, tears flowed out of its eyes.

After shaking off Robert, the bird quickly ran toward the members of the adventurer team, wanting to see how their injuries were.

She clearly remembered that when the Tiger Captain and the others had fought with the otherworldly demons, they had been cut all over by the other party. The blood all over their bodies was definitely real!

"Little bird, don't go over!"

Robert roared and quickly chased after the bird, pulling it back.

"What are you doing? why won't you let me go over?"

what's going on?" the bird asked angrily as it looked at Robert, who was holding it back.

However, before Robert could reply with a bitter smile, the bird heard a burst of shouts from the valley. Then, the men and women sitting around suddenly got up and rushed to a spot in the valley.

It turned out that a black-armored cultivator had appeared at the top of the valley. He was looking coldly at the people in the valley and casually threw down a fist-sized object.

And the target of these men and women was the item that had fallen into the valley!

Perhaps because their cultivation was restricted, these people dressed as cultivators were not very fast. However, they still seemed to be fighting for their lives, desperately rushing towards the place where the item had fallen.

The Tiger Captain and the others who were resting together also jumped up from the ground and quickly joined in the fight.

Hundreds of fierce-looking men and women collided with each other in an instant, and an intense battle of fists and flesh immediately broke out. Curses and screams rang out continuously.

These cultivators' cultivation had all disappeared, but their strong physical qualities were still preserved, so their killing power was also very considerable. On the chaotic battlefield, people would be knocked unconscious from time to time, or thrown into the air far away!

The Tiger Captain and the others huddled together and blocked the attacks from the cultivators around them. Even though they had to take on countless punches and kicks, they still tried their best to get closer to the object!

It seemed that the item was of great significance to them!

...

"Robert, what's Captain Qian Qian and the others doing?"

After seeing this scene, the bird stomped its feet anxiously and grabbed Robert.

Robert's face was full of unwillingness, and his eyes were burning with fire. He clenched his fists so tightly that they made cracking sounds. However, a few seconds later, he laughed bitterly and shook his head as he looked at the bird.

the team leader and the others are snatching the voucher to exchange for an item!

Robert's tone was calm, and his expression was calm. However, the little bird knew that Robert would only show such an expression when he was in extreme anger and pain.

The little bird was stunned for a moment. She looked at Robert and asked hesitantly, "What does Captain Yingluo want to exchange for?"

Robert heaved a long sigh of relief. He looked at the Tiger Captain and the others, who had already gotten the certificate but were now being attacked by hundreds of cultivators. He said coldly, "The thing that Captain wants to exchange is actually medicine for healing."

The little bird seemed to have thought of something. Its body trembled and it asked in a trembling voice, "You exchanged for me, right?"

Robert looked at the bird and smiled helplessly. He nodded hesitantly!

The little bird's body suddenly went soft and it fell to the ground.

Seeing this, Robert was so frightened that he screamed. He quickly ran to the little bird and helped her sit up.

Before the medical expert Robert could examine the bird's wound, the initially dazed bird suddenly stood up and rushed toward the Tigermen Captain.

"Dammit, do you want to die?!"

Seeing that blood was seeping out of the gauze on the bird's body, Robert once again pulled the bird back and scolded it loudly.

"Get lost and let me go. I'm going to help the captain and the others. Let me go!"

The bird seemed to have gone crazy. It kept struggling, trying to break free from Robert's grasp.

"You're injured and your cultivation is sealed. How are you going to help the captain?"

If you go now, you'll only be making things worse and putting them in an even more dangerous situation!

If your injuries worsen, wouldn't the captain and the others have suffered for nothing the past few days? do you want them to snatch more vouchers for you to exchange for medicine?

We're not helping them, we're just trying to kill them!"

Robert's expression was twisted as he roared at the bird. It was a very frightening sight.

This was the first time Robert, who had always thought of himself as a gentleman, had lost his composure in front of a lady. This also made the little bird, who had almost lost control of its emotions, suddenly calm down.

The bird's calm voice sounded as it looked at Robert, who was squatting on the ground and covering his face with his hands in pain.

"Tell me, Robert, what happened?"

Where are we? what's the use of that certificate? why don't you go and help the captain?"

Robert raised his head and looked at the bird with his blood-red eyes. He smiled miserably and said, "When we were captured by the otherworldly demons, we thought that we were dead for sure. Who knew that they would only injure us and not kill us!"

After that, our cultivation was sealed by the heavenly Fiend Race and we were sent to this cage.

At first, there were only a few dozen people, but as time passed, more and more people arrived. They were all cultivators and adventurers who had their cultivation sealed after being captured by the otherworldly demons!

These guys are indeed worthy of being from the otherworldly demon race. They actually imprisoned us here, but they don't give us food or water. They only leave ten vouchers every day, and whoever gets them can use them to exchange for an item!

In order to treat your injuries, the captain and the others risked their lives to snatch three vouchers, two of which were exchanged for potions!"

Tears were streaming down little bird's face when he heard this. He clenched his fists tightly as he looked at the blood-covered Tigermen Captain and the others.

Robert sighed and continued, " "Because I'm a mage, my body is too weak, so the captain and the others didn't allow me to participate in the fight. Instead, I'm responsible for taking care of you and treating their injuries.

Hehe, without magical energy and medicine, what can I use to heal them?

Do they really think I'm stupid? these bastards didn't want me to be killed, so they did this!"

Robert laughed like a madman, but he accidentally pulled on his wound. He couldn't help but cough loudly, and a trace of blood seeped out of the corner of his mouth.

It was obvious that he had also suffered heavy injuries in the battle when he was captured.

The bird looked at Robert and reached out to wipe the blood from the corner of his mouth. It asked softly, " why are those otherworldly demons doing this? why don't they just kill us? "

Rather than suffering such torture, death was a relief.

Robert's originally white teeth were now stained with blood. After hearing the little bird's words, a cold glint flashed in his eyes.

those guys said that as long as we sign a contract, we can leave this place. But do you know what kind of contract that is? "

With a hint of anger on his face, Robert continued, " it's a complete slave contract. Once we sign it, we'll be controlled by the otherworldly demons for the rest of our lives. Our life and death will be in their hands!

The bird had also heard of this type of contract before. It asked in surprise, " isn't that kind of slave contract very precious? isn't it a waste to use it to sign a contract with low-level cultivators like us? "

It wasn't that little Niao was underestimating herself, but this kind of slave contract was very rare and precious. She never thought that the heavenly demon race would do this. This was definitely a huge waste of precious resources!

Robert shook his head. In reality, he was also a little confused. Where did the otherworldly demons get so many slave contracts from?

"Then, did anyone agree to Qianqian's request?"

Little bird hesitated for a moment before asking again.

of course. After all, no one is willing to die Here. Even if they become a puppet at the mercy of others and live a sullen life, it's still much better than dying of thirst and hunger!

Robert snorted coldly and replied.

The little bird still wanted to ask something, but it heard a voice that resounded through the valley.

Time's Up! The fight is over!

After this voice rang out, the native cultivators who were still fighting each other all stopped their attacks at the same time.

They were unwilling to give up, coldly looking at the Tiger Captain and the others who were still protecting the evidence even though they had already collapsed on the ground.

Curses, mockery, and threats were heard. However, the blood-covered Tigermen Captain and the others only sneered, their eyes filled with disdain.

A tall man seemed to be unwilling to give up. When he saw the Tigermen Captain and the others stand up and casually pick up the stone tablet as proof, his face immediately became fierce. He rushed forward like an arrow and tried to snatch it.

However, the Tigerman leader and his team members, as well as the onlookers, did not make any unnecessary movements. They only looked at the brawny man who tried to snatch it coldly as if they were looking at a dead man.

“Bang!”

A muffled sound was heard. Then, the brawny man’s head suddenly exploded, and blood spurted into the sky. His headless body fell heavily to the ground!

This bloody scene instantly made many people’s eyelids jump in fear!

The cultivators who had entered the valley the earliest had already experienced the terrifying long-range attack of the otherworldly demons several times, and a few disobedient guys had lost their lives because of it!

The cultivators were extremely afraid of the weapons that were used to maintain the rules and could easily take lives from a thousand meters away. Therefore, they would never dare to break the rules.

Only a hothead like him who had just entered would dare to ignore the rules and court his own death!

Although it was a bloody scene, cultivators who licked blood on the edge of their blades were used to it!

There were also some special cultivators who were looking forward to this scene.

...

Because whether it was the unlucky guy who had died while snatching the voucher or the hothead who had been shot dead in one shot, they were all food that they were in urgent need of at the moment!

It was not a strange thing for them to eat people when they were so hungry!

Soon, more than a dozen strong orc cultivators came over and lifted the headless body with laughter. Then, they walked away.

However, they obviously wouldn’t succeed so easily, because the companion of that hothead had already rushed over and was fighting desperately with these orc cultivators.

The bloody battle in the distance was still going on, but the starving native cultivators were staring at the minced meat and brain on the ground with hesitation and struggle in their eyes, and even a trace of madness!

I can't take it anymore. I'll be a dog then. Let me out, I want to sign a contract!

A native cultivator spat on the ground, climbed onto a huge rock in the valley, and shouted at the sky.

As soon as he finished speaking, a Holy Dragon City Lord descended from the sky and slowly landed in front of the native cultivator.

The terrifying aura made these native cultivators feel shocked and they subconsciously took a few steps back.

very good. I can guarantee that you will not regret your decision in the future!

The Holy Dragon City Lord looked at the Aboriginal cultivators on the huge rock and said in a praising tone.

I don't care what happens in the future. Hurry up and sign a contract with me. I want to eat meat now. I want to eat it now!

The burly man was starving. At this moment, he didn't care what it meant to be a cultivator who could fly in the air. He just couldn't wait to fill his stomach.

"As you wish!"

The Holy Dragon City Lord nodded and swept a glance at the native cultivators who were watching coldly from the side. A sneer appeared at the corner of his mouth, and he directly flew out of the valley with the other party in his hand!

After seeing this, many native cultivators began to hesitate.
