A LIFE UPSIDE DOWN

Chapter: 1211

Two days passed.

Everything seemed so calm, as if everything was back on track, Lin Ziming just disappeared, and after a week of discussions about him, it slowly cooled down.

In fact, after Jiang Liqun's 50th birthday, someone started to publicize that Lin Ziming was dead and alive again. However, how many people believed that, because of the news of Lin Ziming's death, From the major innate realm masters, this credibility is much higher than that of some wealthy merchants in Yuancheng.

As for Du Feng, after he left, there was no publicity, not because he didn't gossip, but because he didn't dare. Now Jiang Liqun didn't publicize outside, so how dare he say it first.

Although Lin Ziming didn't warn him like this, he didn't even hint at it, but he was a wise man and naturally guessed Lin Ziming's deep meaning, so he simply held back.

And he also had a hunch that when Lin Ziming came back this time, it was absolutely impossible to calm down like this. In the near future, there will be a bloody storm!

As for Lin Ziming's side, he didn't do anything right now, so he stayed in Jiang Liqun's secret room, began to retreat, and tried his best to attack the Innate Realm Dzogchen!

Since he swallowed the eight-color heaven and earth spirit fruit, his body has been constantly being transformed. The rich life origin has been constantly washing his body. After these two days, he didn't know how to discharge it. How many impurities.

Now his physique is more than twice as strong as before he was injured, and he is as soft as tofu and just like a diamond.

Of course, he knew that this was his illusion, and bullets were still one of the most lethal weapons in today's society. With his body, he still couldn't hold the bullet damage.

Only when the real King Kong is indestructible can it be done.

However, he has now swallowed the heaven and earth spirit fruit, and his body has been transformed. It is only a matter of time before he breaks through to the indestructible body of King Kong. Suck!

In the secret room, two huge vortices appeared out of thin air, and began to absorb all the air here, making a rushing sound, as if the air had been torn apart.

But Lin Ziming sucked for a full minute, and his belly swelled up, like a pregnant woman who was pregnant in August.

In fact, a lot of air had already accumulated in his stomach, which was compressed by him.

Then he vigorously allocated it again.

This call was even more remarkable. It directly rustled the room. Jiang Liqun was protecting the law outside. Hearing this sound, he thought that a tornado had appeared inside.

In half a minute, Lin Ziming vomited all the air out.

He didn't stop, and immediately began to inhale and exhale, repeating again and again.

Even if it lasted for twelve hours, the secret room was already in chaos. And finally, at the thirteenth hour, he suddenly opened his eyes and stopped vomiting, with a satisfied smile on his face, "Finally broke through…"
