

Chapter: 1381

“What is this sound? Why does it sound like a bomb?”

“Listen, it seems to be coming from Junlin Mountain. Has anyone exploded the mountain in Junlin Mountain?”

“No, there is no mining value in Junlin Mountain, why would anyone go to bomb Junlin Mountain, and there is no news about it.”

Near Junlin Mountain, a group of people looked over curiously after hearing the sound.

This is a group of well-dressed young people, there are more than a dozen, all of them are handsome men and beautiful women. They had come here for a vacation, but when they thought of hearing all kinds of explosion-like sounds, they immediately seduce their curiosity.

A rich man with long bangs and oily noodles suggested: “Why don’t we go and have a look, Junlinshan. I heard from the older generation that there are so many secrets on it.”

Hearing his suggestion, everyone else started to feel excited and walked towards Junlin Mountain together.

The closer you are to Junlin Mountain, the more you can hear the explosion on Junlin Mountain. But when I got closer, I heard it again. It didn’t sound like an explosion, but it seemed that some large creatures were destroying it. It was banging and moving. Even at the foot of the mountain, they could feel the transmission from the mountain. Coming here, the tremor resembles an earthquake.

This aroused their curiosity even more, and could not help speeding up their pace.

“Arrived!”

The person running in the front yelled, and then his eyes widened, as if he had seen something incredible.

In front of him, what I saw was that many luxury cars were parked, all kinds, the cheapest, costing more than one million! The more expensive ones, even tens of millions!

What’s the situation? Could there be a big group that is driving the show here?

But even at the car show, there are not so many luxury cars. Besides, under the mountain, King’s Landing is just a mountainous area where the birds do not shit. How can anyone come to the car show?

However, if it weren’t for the auto show, it would be even more incomprehensible. Why are there so many luxury cars parked here?

Could it be that he had hallucinations?

“Hey, Juntao, why are you stunned? What do you see... I shit!” The second person also saw this scene. He also opened his eyes and yelled out instantly. exaggeration.

Then, the people behind also rushed over, and they finally saw the large row of luxury cars in front of them. They only felt incredible and could not believe why there are so many luxury cars here.

“What’s going on?”

The people behind also said in astonishment.

At this moment, a loud bang came from Junlin Mountain, and they were all taken aback. All of them looked up, and suddenly they saw a scene that was unforgettable for them in their lives.

I saw that on the top of Junlin Mountain, there were two people, one of them was holding a huge tree in his hand, which was used as a weapon. They swung at the other side fiercely, at a rapid speed, as if they had cut the air and made a whine. The whining voice reached them.

Then, the two big trees violently collided with each other and broke.

But this did not stop. Then, the two people on the top of the mountain trembled together again. They didn’t seem to be humans, but giants, monsters, and gods. They had inexhaustible power. Can pull up the big tree next to him and smash it at the opponent.

And, the big rocks on the mountain became their weapons. They were thrown by them in various ways. Some big rocks even flew in their direction, flew over their heads, smashed behind them, and threw a few big trees. It broke.

“This, this is...”

It took a full ten seconds before someone of them reacted, swallowing heavily, and said in amazement and disbelief!

“I don’t know, is this someone making a movie?”
