

Chapter: 2173

At the same time, he felt a huge crisis, completely dodging on conditional launch.

The next moment, a big tree surrounded by three people in front of him exploded directly. He looked in that direction and immediately saw the young man named Gong Chunqiu, looking provocatively and playfully. He still said in his mouth: "Your speed is not bad, I look forward to your performance in the secret realm."

After speaking, he jumped into the secret realm entrance with Xiaoyao King. Lin Ziming's expression became gloomy, and even if he was magnanimous, he couldn't help being angry now!

This guy made a sneak attack on him without saying a word. If he hadn't reacted fast enough, he would have been injured just now.

And once he is injured, then what awaits him is definitely death.

The point is that he has never provoke the opponent, and the opponent will kill him.

Lin Ziming snorted heavily. He has never been a soft-hearted person. If people don't offend me, I don't offend people. It's his creed. Will sit and wait!

At this moment, everyone jumped into the light curtain, and Lin Ziming didn't delay much, and jumped directly into it!

And after he jumped in, the entrance of the secret realm, the twisted space and time, like a ripple in a lake, disappeared clean in three or two.

Even the abnormal dark clouds in the sky slowly dissipated, as if nothing had happened.

When he jumped in, he immediately felt that he had jumped into another time and space. The surrounding air pressure gave him a lot of pressure, and the air became thinner, which was different from the experience on earth.

The strangest thing is that the surrounding scenes and pictures are distorted in various ways.

This is as real and peculiar as the experience of traveling through time and space in those science fiction movies.

Fortunately, this kind of experience did not last long, and soon this kind of distortion of time and space disappeared.

The next moment, he found himself jumping from mid-air. A strong sense of weightlessness spread throughout his body. He looked down quickly and found that he had fallen from a height of more than 30 meters.

Moreover, the gravity here seems to be larger than on the earth! !

After a brief panic, Lin Ziming immediately stabilized his mind, adjusted his body posture into a contracted posture, and then when he landed, he bent his legs and rolled on the ground in a circle. The momentum is cushioned.

But even so, he still felt some pain

Fortunately, his physique was abnormal enough, otherwise he would have become a mass of mud if he fell from such a height to an ordinary person.

Not to mention ordinary people, even ordinary congenital realm masters would have to be seriously injured, or even fall directly to death.

It's no wonder that not everyone can enter the secret realm. If the realm is not high, it will be a dead end when it comes.

Lin Ziming stood up, took a deep breath, and adjusted his state.

He soon discovered that the surrounding environment was completely different from that on Earth. It was really a brand new world.

He is now in a forest, and the trees here are too tall and too big to cover the sky!

On the earth, a tree can grow to two meters in diameter, which is already very powerful.

But here, the smallest tree has a diameter of more than two meters, and some of the larger ones have a diameter of more than five meters, and even more than ten meters! It's just a giant.
