

Chapter: 2180

Shaking his head, Lin Ziming originally wanted to enter this city, rest and experience the feudal life in this world, but now he sees this, even if he enters, he is repelled, so he doesn't bother to look for it. It's uncomfortable. But he also wants to understand that if he really wants to blend into this world, the first thing to solve is the problem of his clothing. He has to put on the clothes of this world to not be treated as an outlier.

At the same time, he was also very curious, what did the powerful people on the earth who entered the secret realm do to the aborigines here to make the aborigines here hate them so much?

With a sigh, Lin Ziming didn't want to think about it anymore. The most important thing right now is to integrate here first.

Fortunately, when he came, he asked the Queen of Huangpu Road and Eagle Dog Country, and knew that the secret to entering the secret realm and breaking through the god realm was to find the fruit here.

And there is more than one of this kind of fruit, but there are many, the more you find, the greater the probability of breaking through the God Realm after you eat it! Moreover, the strength after breaking through the God Realm is stronger.

At the beginning of Huangpu Road, he had only eaten three fruits, so he successfully broke through to the realm of the gods, and the queen of the Eagle Dog country, at that time found two fruits.

However, whether it is Huangpu Road or the queen of the Eagle Dog country, there is no specific description of where this fruit is and what it looks like.

According to the meaning of Huangpu Dao, it is a kind of chance to find the fruit after coming to the secret realm. As long as the practitioner sees the fruit, he will know that it is the fruit.

Now Lin Ziming has only come to the first day in the secret realm. He still has time to look for it, so he is also not very anxious.

What he is curious about now is, where are the remaining nineteen strong men on earth who entered the secret realm with him now?

Next, Lin Ziming spent three days in this world. During these three days, he spent almost all of them in barren places, with forests, lakes, basins, and mountains covering thousands of kilometers. His footprints.

And he had a better understanding of the world, and gradually adapted to the environment of this world.

He now knows that there are three suns in this world, and the brightest sun in the sky is a star in prime of life, and its mass should be about the same as the sun.

The other two suns, should be two red giant stars, are already at the end of the star's life, with a lifetime of several million years left.

Fortunately, these two red giant stars are relatively far away from this planet, so the impact on this planet is not significant for the time being.

On the whole, the mass of this planet is half larger than that of the earth, and the volume is also slightly larger, which leads to greater gravity and greater magnetic field, resulting in a thicker atmosphere and higher oxygen content.

The result of this is that almost all living things on this planet are one size bigger than those on Earth.

Fortunately, the aborigines on this planet look similar to humans on Earth, and because this planet is still in a feudal society and there is no industrial pollution, the humans on this planet look very beautiful.

Men are generally more handsome, while many women are also good-looking. Even after these three days, Lin Ziming has seen some beauties, not inferior to the big beauties on earth.

There is even more wild beauty.

On the fourth day, when Lin Ziming was walking through a forest, he suddenly heard a scream, accompanied by the voice of a woman.

In addition, there was the men's wretched laughter, which immediately caught Lin Ziming's attention. It was obvious that someone was bullying a woman!

To be honest, Lin Ziming has always had a deep hatred for such things.
