A LIFE UPSIDE DOWN

Chapter: 2356

“Impossible! Absolutely impossible!” He immediately shook his head and said, “Hmph, Lin Ziming, don’t think you can deceive me, you are just struggling to death, you think you can scare me in this way? I’ll give you The poison in the glass of wine you drank was enough to poison tens of thousands of people to death. Even if you are a master of the gods, once you drink it into your stomach, there is only one dead end!”

After a pause, he said again: “But I’m really surprised that you can hold on for so long. From this point of view, you can be considered formidable in the God-Communication Realm.”

After hearing this, Chen Xuejuan couldn’t help it again. She pointed at Situ Jing, her fingers trembling with anger, “Situ Jing, you! You are so brutal! How can you do this! Senior Lin is our Hua Guo The pillar of your country! You killed Senior Lin. This is destroying the foundation of our country!”

After that, she wanted to play Situ Jing again, but this time, Situ Jing would not give him a chance, and directly scolded her, “Enough!”

Then he grabbed Chen Xuejuan’s hand and said coldly: “Chen Xuejuan, you bitch, don’t think I don’t know, you just like Lin Ziming! You said that you are very cold and clean, but you are only in your bones. You are just a slut. You have only met Lin Ziming a few times, and you have already secretly promised him, do you think I don’t know!”

Chen Xuejuan heard these words, her face flushed suddenly, “Situ Jing, you fart! You, let me go, you hurt me...”

There was pain on Chen Xuejuan’s face. She didn’t have any martial arts training. She was just a weak woman who had no power to bind chickens. In front of a half-step god master like Situ Jing, she naturally had no ability to resist.

Situ Jing didn’t have the same knowledge as her, but he snorted coldly, and then pushed her away. The latter staggered to the ground, his eyes flushed.

“Senior Lin, I’m sorry, I’m sorry, I didn’t know that such a thing would happen, I’m really sorry...”

Chen Xuejuan’s face was full of tears, and her eyes were full of regret, guilt, and pain. She invited Lin Ziming over this time, really just wanting to get to know Lin Ziming and get closer, she really didn’t expect such a thing to happen!

Kill Lin Ziming here.

Lin Ziming finally opened his eyes, looked at Chen Xuejuan, shook his head slowly, and said, “Miss Chen, you are a good person. From now on, you should spend less time with people like Situ Jing.”

Chen Xuejuan shook her head desperately, but she was already speechless, because she was really guilty and painful in her heart, thinking that she indirectly killed Lin Ziming.

Situ Jing was very proud. He was very happy to see Lin Ziming's current heroic appearance, the first genius of the state of China, the master of the realm of God, died in his hands. What an exciting thing!

"Lin Ziming, you can see that you really want to live. I just have an antidote on my hand. If you kneel in front of me and beg my forgiveness, I can give you the antidote." Situ Jing said proudly. It seemed to him that he had mastered Lin Ziming's life and death, and could tease Lin Ziming at will.

However, at this moment, Lin Ziming sneered. He was originally a rickety body, slowly standing upright, and his pale face gradually returned to his blood.

He looked as though he was not as weak as he was just now.

It makes people feel like they are recovering from a serious illness!

Seeing this scene, Situ Jing's brows jumped fiercely twice. Suddenly, he had a bad premonition, but he was suppressed, because he was intellectually still believing that there is no one in this world who can. Resist that cup of poison, even if it is a master of the gods!

Lin Ziming took a deep breath, twisted his neck, and said, "I still underestimate you, underestimated your courage, underestimated your madness, and underestimated your courage."

Everyone at the banquet cast their eyes on Lin Ziming's body.

What happened tonight was unexpected by all of them.

Then, Lin Ziming continued: "Your cup of poison is indeed very powerful, but unfortunately, it still poisons me. Just now when I was the weakest, if you had the mentality of a cat and a mouse, you would directly attack me. , I might have fallen into your hands."
