

Chapter: 348

Chu Tian yelled very loudly and was very excited. The expression on his face was even more mad, as if he had seen a god, and everyone around him was startled. The little beauty next to him was also shocked.

Chu Tian had indeed seen Lin Ziming, right in front, surrounded by many bosses, flattering.

He yelled very loudly, not very far away. How could Lin Ziming hear him? After hearing the sound, Lin Ziming looked over and met Chu Tian, his eyes flashed with some complexity, and then he He looked away, pretending that he didn't see it.

Strictly speaking, he is no longer Chu Tian's brother-in-law, because he has divorced Chu Fei.

So he pretended not to see Chu Tian so as not to disturb Chu Fei's life.

But for Chu Tian, it's not the same thing. He clearly saw that Lin Ziming had already seen him, so why did he pretend not to see him?

Not reconciled, he ran over quickly, wanting to recognize Lin Ziming.

When he passed by here just now, he saw many rich and powerful bosses standing next to the hotel. They seemed to be waiting for someone, but the person waiting was his brother-in-law! This excites him, he knows, brother-in-law must be very awesome.

"Stand back, this is not a place where you can come in!"

However, as soon as he squeezed out of the crowd and was about to rush over, he was stopped by a few strong bodyguards.

Chu Tian shouted loudly: "You leave me, I'm going to find my brother-in-law!"

"Who is your brother-in-law?" a bodyguard asked in a deep voice.

Chu Tian pointed to Lin Ziming, who was surrounded by many bosses not far away, "That one is my brother-in-law. I tell you, my brother-in-law is a super big man. Seeing that there are no such bosses, so many bosses have to go around my brother-in-law. I advise you to let me in quickly, otherwise my brother-in-law will find out, and you won't be able to eat and walk around."

Several bodyguards looked at each other, and then they all laughed mockingly, thinking that Chu Tian was here to make trouble, and they were too lazy to explain to Chu Tian, and just dismissed them unceremoniously, "Walk around, where are the little boys from? Who is the big man our boss wants to fawn on, will it be your brother-in-law?"

"Get out of here, this is not a place where you can make trouble, be careful to get into trouble."

Chu Tian still wanted to explain, but the bodyguard didn't give him this opportunity at all, and drove him out impatiently. He had no chance to resist. The last time he was pushed and fell to the ground, he grinned in pain and was extremely angry. “You watchdogs wait for Lao Tzu to see how I let my brother-in-law teach you!”

The bodyguards didn’t take his screams seriously.

Many people around were watching gleefully.

The little beautiful woman said, “My God, was that really your brother-in-law just now?”

Chu Tian got up from the ground and said, “Of course it is my brother-in-law! I would say that my brother-in-law is very powerful, and so many rich bosses will flatter him.”

“But why doesn’t he pay attention to you?” The little beauty said with some confusion.

This really turned Chu Tian’s question down, because he didn’t know why his brother-in-law would ignore him. This is a plausible thing! Besides, the brother-in-law had already seen him.

“My brother-in-law... there were too many people just now, and he didn’t see me.” Chu Tian could only make excuses like this.

But what he said immediately made everyone around him laugh, “It’s really shameless. He’s a super big guy. Could he be your brother-in-law?”

“That’s right, I really want his brother-in-law, why don’t you even let him in by the bodyguard, it’s obviously here to touch porcelain.”
