

Chapter: 556

The Ugly Master looked at the marrow pill on the auction stage, his eyes also showed enthusiasm, and said to Lin Ziming: “Master, you must photograph this marrow pill, it will have a great effect on you!”

Lin Ziming took a deep breath, calmed his excitement, nodded and said, “Do your best.”

After the host had bought enough and ignited the atmosphere of the audience, he began to announce the auction: “This first-grade Xisui Pill, refined by the master of the soul house, has a starting price of 100 million yuan, and the higher price will get it.”

Lin Ziming took a sigh of relief. The starting price of this pill was 100 million yuan, and it was too expensive. You must know how many large companies have a revenue of 100 million yuan a year.

No wonder that tonight’s auction will not be open to the public, and the taxes generated here are all a large sum.

Moreover, according to the usual style of auctions, one hundred million is only the starting price, and when the transaction price is reached, it is far more than this price.

Sure enough, as soon as the host’s voice fell, someone immediately raised the sign and shouted: “Two hundred million!”

In the next moment, someone immediately followed and shouted: “250 million.”

“Three hundred million!”

“400 million!”

“Five hundred million!”

“.....”

In just one minute, the price of 800 million has already been bid, which can be described as crazy!

At this moment, Lin Ziming even had a thought about whether the ugly master united so many people to get him a scam in order to defraud him of money.

Of course, this thought appeared for a second, and then he denied it. This is impossible.

At this moment, a loud and domineering voice remembered, “One billion.”

It was Gu Hanxing. He stood up, his eyes swept across the audience, his expression was full of arrogance and publicity, and he looked at the world, and said indifferently: “Tonight I am running for this marrow pill. Everyone will give me Gu Hanxing one. That’s it for the face.”

Those who still wanted to raise the price, when they heard Gu Hanxing’s words, they all retracted, showing a strong unwillingness on their faces, but they didn’t dare to call any more and didn’t dare to offend Gu Hanxing.

Gu Hanxing was very satisfied with everyone’s response and said to the host:

“What are you still doing, count down to announce the winner.”

The host was also very jealous of Gu Hanxing, and began to report, “Is there anyone with a price of more than 1 billion? If there is any, this marrow pill will belong to Mr. Gu, once a billion, twice a billion... ..”

However, at this moment, a calm voice rang, and a sign in the crowd raised, “1.5 billion.”

There was a brief silence in the audience. The next moment, everyone looked over and saw Lin Ziming, with a faint smile on his face and a lazy posture.

Chou Ye was also a little frightened. Lin Ziming directly bid 1.5 billion and raised the price by half. How would other people follow?

1.5 billion is a huge number, and Ziqiong Media’s annual income may not reach 1.5 billion. As the underground emperor of Huacheng, his ugly master looks very beautiful, but it is more difficult for him to spend 1.5 billion all at once.

After a brief silence, a louder discussion broke out at the scene, and the roof of the Yuntian Pavilion auction was lifted.
