

Chapter: 583

Lin Ziming had long expected this group of people to oppose, after all, not everyone could reach his level, and IQ had made a breakthrough improvement. It is no exaggeration to say that he now learns things at least ten times faster than ordinary people, and he can quickly solve many difficult math problems. Looking at the company's future, it is also more accurate and far-sighted.

He didn't bother to explain these things, and said: "I have a sense of measure, just do what I want."

Many people wanted to refute, but seeing Lin Ziming who was expressionless on the main seat, they all had the guts.

Regardless of whether they are also managers and shareholders, in fact, Ziqiong Media is still a company of Lin Ziming alone. Lin Ziming alone controls 60% of the shares and has absolute say.

After a pause, Lin Ziming said: "One more thing, I plan to become a new security company, mainly responsible for the bodyguard business of the rich. Those of you who want to invest can apply to me. The deadline is half a month. Inside, it's overdue."

Hearing Lin Ziming's words, everyone was even more surprised, and many people even began to discuss in a low voice.

"I didn't hear it wrong, the chairman is actually going to set up a security company? It's not easy to do, there are too many big bosses in China."

"Isn't it? The security company needs a strong network and professional reserves. We have always been in the entertainment and media sector. We can't get along with the security company. What should we do?"

"The chairman is joking, right?"

"I don't think it is the same. The chairman has taken too much steps. A new advertising company was established not long ago, and now I am turning around to set up a security company. What do you want to do?"

"In my opinion, the chairman's mentality has expanded because of his achievements in Ziqiong Media..."

"It is possible that this year the chairman is still 30 years old, and expansion is normal."

They thought they were talking so softly that Lin Ziming couldn't hear it. In fact, it passed to Lin Ziming's ears without missing a word. But Lin Ziming is not angry. He is not so stingy. With his current state, there are very few people who can keep up with him. He has no need to explain to ordinary people. All he wants is that they execute orders. That's it.

Wang Shougui's eyes flickered, and for the first time he questioned Lin Ziming's two decisions. He planned to wait for the meeting before he asked Lin Ziming personally.

"Since everyone has no objections, then let the meeting adjourn and do as I told you.” Lin Ziming stood up, then put his hands on the conference table, leaned over, his eyes were drawn across everyone’s faces, and said: “I don’t like that someone is violating my decision. Once I find out, I won’t be merciful, you know?”

“Know that!”

“The chairman can rest assured that we will resolutely implement your instructions!”

“There will never be any violation of the law. In fact, I also think that the chairman of the board of directors, your decision is correct.”

“Yes, firmly support the chairman...”

Lin Ziming nodded in satisfaction, and then walked out of the meeting room. After he left, the thirty-odd high-level people in the conference room breathed a sigh of relief and began to gasp. The pressure Lin Ziming had put on them just now was too great.

They couldn’t understand why Lin Ziming was so young but had such a big aura, crushing their group of old fried dough sticks to death.
