

Chapter: 618

This enthusiasm really makes Lin Ziming feel embarrassed and uneasy. This is the first time he has come to Ouyang's house. It's not relative or reason. Ouyang Xuehai and others are so enthusiastic about him, which is really weird. The key is that he can feel that Ouyang Xuehai and others are not pretending, but sincerely passionate about him.

Lin Ziming has been accustomed to being hostile and ridiculed over the years, and being warmly entertained like this is the first time he feels uncomfortable.

After finally entering the room, they converged a bit.

"Ziming, you sit here for a while, I'll call my father over." Ouyang Xuehai said hello with a smile.

Lin Ziming nodded and agreed.

Zhang Guilan and those from the Ouyang family were also temporarily absent and will be back soon.

Finding a chance to talk, Lin Ziming asked the ugly master in a low voice, "Joker, didn't you say that Ouyang Feng wants to see me, is it to be a peacemaker? Now it depends on the situation, it's not like this. What the hell is it? Happening?"

The ugly master rolled his eyes and said, "Master, you have misunderstood, I didn't say that Ouyang asked you to have dinner in order to be a peacemaker."

Lin Ziming was taken aback, and recalled that the clown did not say that. It's just normal people's thinking that they would always guess in this regard. After all, he and Beitian will have grievances now. Ouyang Feng, when meeting him at this time, is not just a peacemaker.

Now Lin Ziming realized immediately that the clown was posing with him! Ouyang's appointment to see him must have another purpose.

Chou Ye deliberately didn't look at him, which was obviously a manifestation of a guilty conscience, but Lin Ziming gritted his teeth with anger.

At this time, there was a sound of footsteps from the stairs. With the sound of speaking, Lin Ziming looked up and saw three people coming down the stairs, all in their 20s and 30s.

They also saw Lin Ziming sitting in the living room, and they all frowned slightly.

"Who are these two hillbillies and why did they come to our house?"

"I don't know, I haven't seen it before, maybe it's here to fix things."

"Really, the inferior man who repaired things was also called home and stepped on the floor of our house."

"Still sitting where I usually sit! How will I sit in the future? No, I have to drive these two hillbillies out." said one of the young people, who was white and unruly, said angrily. Then speeded up and walked over.

Lin Ziming had heard the voice of their conversation a long time ago and couldn't help but frowned. The three young people knew at a glance that they were unemployed, idle and unruly second-generation ancestors, relying on the good background of their family, and they grew up very A bad personality, self-centered, will die when you see anything unpleasant, not educated, and never care about other people's feelings.

Lin Ziming particularly hates dealing with such people. Fortunately, he thought he came to Ouyang's house this time. Just now, when Ouyang Xuehai was so enthusiastic, he wouldn't encounter such a thing. In the end, he did.

However, this is his normal way of opening.

"Hey, you two hillbillies, who let you in, get out of me!" The young man came over and cursed unceremoniously, with a particularly bad attitude.

Lin Ziming is also a person with a face and a face. When someone pointed at his nose like this, he could not be angry, and his face immediately became gloomy. "First of all, we are not a hillbilly. Old man Ouyang Feng invited us over. Secondly, you'd better speak Let me respect it."

The young man laughed disdainfully and said, "Why my grandfather invited you to come here? What a lie? Do you know who my grandfather is? Do you dare to touch my grandfather? I am too lazy to talk nonsense with you, hurry up and get out of my house. , Or don't blame me for being rude to you!"
