

Chapter: 666

How could Lin Ziming be threatened by him? He sneered and gently patted Tao Sanniang to wake up, "Wake up, it's almost there."

Tao Sanniang opened her eyes and saw that she was leaning on Lin Ziming's shoulder, and her saliva was still wet with Lin Ziming's clothes. No matter how thick her face was, she couldn't help blushing and said, "Sorry, I got your clothes wet."

Then take out a paper towel to help wipe it.

Lin Ziming was speechless, and said, "No, wait until the wind blows and it's done."

After a while, the plane landed successfully, and when I got off the plane, I immediately felt a cold wind blowing, which made people tremble. The temperature here was much lower than that in Hwaseong.

Lin Ziming's physique is good, it doesn't mean anything, but Tao Sanniang's physique is so good that she can't hold it anymore. She sneezed, hugged Lin Ziming next to her, and said shiveringly, "It's so cold."

"Hey, what are you holding me for? Wear clothes when you are cold." Lin Ziming said quickly. He was held by Tao Sanniang and felt very helpless.

Tao Sanniang is quite famous, so Lin Ziming has become a thorn in the eyes of many men, especially Du Xinli hates him so much that he can't wait to thwart him immediately.

Tao Sanniang hugged Lin Ziming and immediately felt a lot warmer. Lin Ziming's body was like a stove, especially warm.

So she said naturally: "You are so warm, it won't be cold if you hold you."

With Lin Ziming's black thread, this lady is really getting more and more intolerable, knowing that he has a wife, and still teasing him like this, unscrupulously, I really thought he didn't dare to do anything!

So Lin Ziming embraced Tao Sanniang generously and put her hand on Tao Sanniang's buttocks, "Really, then you continue to hold it."

Sure enough, Tao Sanniang's nerves tightened instantly!

A surprised and panicked expression appeared on her face. She didn't think that Lin Ziming was so courageous. Not only did she hold her arms, but also put her hands on her hips. Feeling the heat of Lin Ziming's big hands, Tao Sanniang immediately pushed Lin Ziming away. His face blushed a lot.

"Didn't you say you want to hug me? Why don't you hug me?" Lin Ziming said with a smile.

He understood that Tao Sanniang was also a strong-mouthed king, so she dared to beep. If it really wanted to come true, Tao Sanniang immediately persuaded her.

Tao Sanniang was shocked when she thought that Lin Ziming was suddenly so courageous. Now that she saw the disdainful expression on Lin Ziming's face, she understood it. Lin Ziming was laughing at her.

When the other men saw this scene, they were all jealous, especially Du Xinli's eyes burst into flames, gritted his teeth, and couldn't help but want to rush over and fight Lin Ziming several times.

In the end, they were all dissuaded by reason. Anyway, they have reached the northern border. When the hunting competition begins tomorrow, Lin Ziming can be beaten to death in a fair manner. Still have to bear it now!

Tao Sanniang glared at Lin Ziming fiercely, opened the suitcase, took a down jacket and put it on.

As for Lin Ziming, he didn't feel cold at all, so he didn't need to add clothes. Out of the airport, there is a special bus to pick up and drop off, everything seems so low-key and simple.

This kind of experience is quite interesting. Almost all the people who come to participate in the hunting competition are rich owners. They usually have special cars and special planes to pick them up. I don't know how long it has been since I have taken a bus.

From the airport, the bus drove for more than two hours before reaching the destination, where the hunting competition was held.

At first glance, it is a dense forest, surrounded by big trees with lush leaves, and occasionally animals can be seen running by. This is completely nature.

Lin Ziming had stayed in the steel city for a long time, and suddenly came to nature, feeling very novel and very comfortable.
