

Chapter: 711

Don't look at the way he usually looks good at talking and harmless to humans and animals. In fact, he has a lot of national sentiment, and he especially can't bear these foreigners' dominance on Chinese territory!

It's fine if he didn't meet him before, but now that he meets him, he naturally won't give these foreigners a good look, otherwise the Chinese are really sick!

However, just when Bush and Jordan were about to meet Lin Ziming, Ning Yuning's team came to their senses, hurriedly walked up, stood in front of Lin Ziming, and explained loudly: "Mr. Smith! Please let me know. Stop your bodyguard, this is a misunderstanding!"

Yu Qing said in English, and the two bodyguards in his entourage also stopped Bush and Jordan. However, Bush and Jordan didn't give them any face at all, and directly pushed the bodyguards of the two entourages back. If it weren't for Lin Ziming to support them in time, they would have fallen down!

In addition, Bush and Jordan were particularly arrogant, pointing to Lin Ziming's nose and constantly swearing swearing.

What kind of character is Lin Ziming? How could he bear this kind of anger, his eyes were cold, and he was already angry, ready to make a move, and severely teach these arrogant foreigners!

At this moment, Ning Yuning quickly grabbed her arm, "Chairman, calm down your anger. These two are the bodyguards of the international movie star Smith. They are famous for being arrogant in the circle. You'd better not be familiar with them. , It won't be good when it gets on the news."

Lin Ziming heard Ning Yuning's, he thought for a while, and decided to give Ning Yuning a face.

It's not that he is afraid of this Smith, but that in the airport, there are people everywhere and cameras everywhere. When he teaches these foreigners, it's cool, but the impact cannot be ignored. .

Moreover, this will not be very good for the image of China at that time, and it will also be a loss of reputation for Ning Yuning. He simply weighed it and decided to bear it, and wait for the next time when there are few people, and then teach it well. It's not too late for a few defiant foreigners.

So he nodded and said, "Well, for your face, I won't be familiar with them."

His words fell in the ears of Yu Qing, and it also turned into an overconfidence. You Lin Ziming is very rich, but your physique is there, can you be the opponent of two strong foreigners?

Even if Lin Ziming had just shaken out the bodyguard named Tom, in their opinion, the main reason was that Tom underestimated the enemy and his center of gravity was unstable, so Lin Ziming found the opportunity.

After all, Lin Ziming's physique is here, so he can't go against science, right?

Smith was very angry. His current posture was particularly arrogant. He pointed to Yu Qing's nose and accused: "Ms. Yu Qing, I came to China to film this time because of the friendship between your chairman, if it weren't for your chairman's request. After taking me so long, I don't even bother to come to your land!"

Yu Qing looked ugly when she heard this, but she didn't dare to refute it, after all, Smith's coffee position was there.

She had no choice but to put down her posture and explain, "Dear Mr. Smith, he is the chairman of Ziqiong Media, worth more than 10 billion yuan. I suggest that you still shake hands with him to make peace."

"Chairman of Ziqiong Media?" After Smith heard this, his expression changed a little, but when he looked at Lin Ziming carefully, he saw that Lin Ziming was dressed plainly and had a very ordinary temperament, completely similar to the big people he had met. Not at the same level, he immediately regained his contempt and arrogance again, "Ms. Yu Qing, are you Chinese that can lie like this? If he is the chairman with a net worth of tens of billions, then I am the president!"

Several other foreigners also laughed mercilessly when they heard it.
