

Chapter: 749

Ning Yuning clenched his fists tightly, particularly excited and relieved. Smith didn't know how arrogant he was in front of them these days, and now it can be regarded as a wicked person who has his own wicked person! "Lin Linlin, Mr. Lin, I dare not, please let me go..." Smith cried and begged for mercy.

Lin Ziming looked at him lightly and said, "Kneel down."

There was some anger flashing in Smith's pupils, but he immediately saw the coldness in Lin Ziming's eyes. He didn't dare to fail, so he knelt down, and all his dignity collapsed at this moment. He is a noble white man, but now he kneels down to the Chinese.

Lin Ziming was not satisfied, but looked at the foreigners with Smith and said, "You must kneel and apologize for your insulting remarks against China."

Those foreigners are not as hard as Smith, and now they all kneel down obediently.

This scene is still extremely shocking. Any Chinese person will be very happy and relieved when he sees it. Over the years, foreigners have always been superior to others. I don't know how many Chinese have been bullied by foreigners. Now Lin Ziming can be said to have greatly increased his ambition. what! ! !

Lin Ziming accepted it when he saw it. He saw that Smith and the others had apologized, and he didn't continue to embarrass them. He walked over to Ning Yuning and others with a smile and said, "The matter is solved, let's go."

Seeing Lin Ziming's smile now like a spring breeze, they all felt a bit unreal. Lin Ziming was so domineering and arrogant just now, and now he has returned to his gentle and jade-like appearance, so handsome.

Ning Yuning nodded vigorously, and said, "Well, let's go!"

With that, they walked out of here together.

After they walked for half a minute, Smith and others dared to stand up. He gritted his teeth and said, "You can't tell me anything about tonight, you know!"

What happened just now is a shame to Smith, the black history will be spread, and his reputation will be stinky.

Connor also walked out of the octagonal cage at this moment, his abdominal injury was too serious, it was really like being hit by a cannonball, and now it hurts to walk.

He also said coldly: "Smith is right. If we can't tell what happened just now, it will have a huge impact on our reputation."

Everyone was silent.

After a while, a white man asked, "Connor, even you lost to him. Is Hua Guo Kung Fu really that powerful?”

His face was full of pain. This was a subversion of his three views. He had always thought that their country's modern combat was the most powerful.

As a result, Lin Ziming hit him hard in the face just now.

Others also asked questions one after another, very sad.

Connor shook his head and said with a cold face, “The fart of Hua Guo Kung Fu! Hua Guo Kung Fu is a scam, not very powerful at all...”

After saying this, he realized something, and looked at the door direction carefully, a little bit embarrassed, for fear of being heard by Lin Ziming.

Make sure that the door is closed and Lin Ziming won't show up, only then did he show his arrogant expression again.

It's just that this movement of him was seen by other people, and they didn't believe his words anymore.

“I know what you are.” Connor snorted, not getting angry, and then said:

“The Chinese man just used not Chinese Kungfu at all, but modern fighting.

In fact, he is not an ordinary person, but After the awakening, the supernatural person has such a terrifying power.”

“stranger?”

This word puzzled everyone, obviously they had never heard of this concept.

Connor nodded and said: “Yes, the Chinese man just now is obviously a superpower! Originally, a superb person like him can't attack ordinary people casually, but he still did this just now, which is a violation of the superpower. According to the rules of the Alliance, I will report to my boss and let my boss punish him!”
