A LIFE UPSIDE DOWN

Chapter: 858

Ye Xingchen stared at the neon clothes tightly, and saw the unnaturalness of the neon clothes at a glance, even if the neon clothes only flashed by, he was still caught.

Nishang said coldly: "Ye Xingchen, your hand is too long, I need to report to you if I go to province g to do anything!"

Seeing Nishang's reaction, Ye Xingchen was even more convinced that Nishang went to G province. There must be some ulterior secret. He stepped forward and said with great dignity: "As a law enforcement sage, my position is higher than you. In view of you In the past three months, your whereabouts were abnormal, and you came here to inquire. Not only did you not cooperate, but you were also rude to the deity. Could it be that you are a guilty conscience and have a heart of betrayal?!"

After speaking the last sentence, Ye Xingchen's eyes suddenly widened, and a fierce aura burst out of him, and the wind blew up on the ground, making everyone feel tremendous pressure.

Nishang's eyes became even colder. She had some grudges with Ye Xingchen, but now Ye Xingchen swayed here to make things difficult for her.

"Ye Xingchen, when did you, as the law-enforcement sage of the Eastern Region, have the power to take care of my affairs in the Western Regions! You clearly despise the organization and despise the Saint King!" Nishang also exploded with a lot of momentum, opposing Ye Xingchen." You are so bold!"

Just as her words fell, a voice also came from a distance, "Ye Xingchen, who gave you the power? It's my Western Regions!"

When the voice fell, a woman in her 30s and 40s appeared in the yard, her charm still existed. She was wearing a Taoist robe, exuding shocking aura from her body, and she was also a super master of the upper class of the innate realm.

When Ye Xingchen saw her appear, his face suddenly became gloomy, and his eyes flashed with jealousy. The middle-aged woman in front of him was the Law Enforcement Venerable of the Western Regions, who had the same position as him.

Nishang saw the middle-aged woman Xie, saluted, and shouted the venerable.

Venerable Law Enforcement of the Western Regions nodded, and then she smiled and nodded with Qin Yuehua, showing respect. Obviously she also respected Qin Yuehua very much.

Ye Xingchen saw the appearance of the Western Region Law Enforcement Venerable. He knew that he could not make things difficult for the neon clothes, so he snorted heavily, glanced at the neon clothes threateningly, and then walked away.

After he left, the Western Region Law Enforcement Venerable said to Qin Yuehua: "Jing Xuan Ginseng sees Lord Saint."

Qin Yuehua smiled bitterly and said, "Jingxuan, you don't have to be polite. I am no longer a saint now. Just call me my sister."

The Western Region Law Enforcement Venerable shook his head and said solemnly: "In Jingxuan's heart, you will always be a saint."

The title of saint made Qin Yuehua's eyes float, thinking of the previous scenery, but unfortunately, as she left the Luo Tian organization and began to marry into the Lin family, these have become phantoms.

Next, the Western Region Law Enforcement Venerable chatted for a few words, and then began to seriously say to Nishang: "Nishang, you have to be careful in the future, I think Ye Xingchen will trouble you again."

These words are very meaningful, and the neon clothes are not stupid, so they reacted immediately and nodded to express their understanding.

After Ye Xingchen left, he showed a sneer, "Nishang, originally I was just testing you, and I didn't expect your reaction to be so big, it was obviously a guilty conscience! You have been to G province frequently in the past three months. There must be some untold secret. , You'd better not let me find your handle, otherwise, you can't escape from the palm of my hand, and I will completely conquer you at that time!"

Thinking of that picture, the smile on Ye Xingchen's mouth became stronger, and Jie Jie said: "It's said that neon clothes are a rare extremely yin physique in the world. When I get her, I will definitely increase my cultivation base and impact King Kong. Bad is not impossible!!"

The so-called extremely yin physique, in addition to its own cultivation speed is faster than other women, there is also a magical effect, in a certain way, it can help men increase the speed of cultivation!

Looking around the world, women with extremely yin physiques are rare and rare, and now Ye Xingchen has inquired that neon clothes are extremely yin physiques, and since he knew this information, he has chosen the idea of neon clothes.

He is now the upper realm of the innate realm. Once he and the neon clothes double repair, he can definitely break through the realm and reach the peak in one fell swoop! At that time, he will also be a big figure in the Luo Tian organization!
